Chapter 2431: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 98)

Since the first fight with the ninth grade zombie, he told her that he would definitely protect her.

There were some people that would just treat it as a first meeting, but when they met again, it became an indescribable longing.

Liking a person was very simple at times, just a single glance would do.

He insisted on this love and even if no one understood, he understood.

“Since you want to fight grandfather, then grandfather will show you what is true power!” As soon as his voice fell, Qian Suan Zi’s golden cane slammed the ground.

The dark clouds that covered the moon scattered and the full moon was reflected in the star chart, making it release a dark blue glow.

“Si, si, si!” There were dangerous sounds that came from around them.

There seemed to be a group of people approaching them.

No, they couldn’t be called people, but rather zombies.

“You are the only Power Users left in the city.” Qian Suan Zi gave a dangerous laugh, “Do you still remember the Power User map at the control center? It was the other way around!”

When Qian Suan Zi’s voice fell, Luo Qing Chen and Qian Si Nai understood.

It turned out that the control center’s positioning was the other way around. So Luo Qing Mian had been actually at the Qian Manor, but his position was put at Fragrant Mountain.

Qian Suan Zi had spent that much time delaying them just to prepare the zombies in A City.

He had already thought of plan B, not believing that they would hand over Luo Qing Mian that easily.

“I am not from this world, I have more powers than you can imagine.” Luo Qing Chen raised her Phoenix Dance Sword to point at Qian Suan Zi, “I don’t believe that I can’t kill these zombies!”

In the end of the world, after so many battles, she was already an A Rank Power User.

But she knew in her heart that she was more powerful than an A Rank Power User.

It was just that they were facing endless waves of zombies and had to fight endlessly.

Hua Cai Jin stood in front of her and looked at Qian Suan Zi with a calm smile, “How ridiculous! A great saint who claimed to save the city was actually killing the entire city. Since it’s like this, why pretend to be aloof?”

“What do you know?” Qian Suan Zi pointed at Hua Cai Jin and said, “If they weren’t strong enough, how could they face the powerful aliens in two hundred years!”

“The people from two hundred years in the future have their own destiny! You are just a murderer!” Hua Cai Jin took the dagger from his side, “Since there is only death in battle, then there is no compromise.”

His eyes were bloodshot and everything around him told him that there were no more living people in this city.

“Calm down.” Qian Si Nai slightly knitted his brows and softly said, “Those instruments can only check the position of Power Users, it can’t see normal people. The senses of the zombies aren’t as high as you think, so the high level Power Users won’t be affected.”

He used another way to calm Hua Cai Jin down so he wouldn’t think random thoughts.

“My grandfather wants the power core inside Qing Mian to open the door to the world of two hundred years later.” Qian Si Nai continued, “As long as we protect Qing Mian, he won’t be able to do anything.”

“Qian Si Nai.” Luo Qing Chen said his name in a slightly trembling voice.

It was because he was able to be this calm commander during this crisis that instantly calmed down her slightly flustered heart.

Chapter 2432: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 99)

But the battle wasn’t as easy as they imagined.

The zombies attacked in waves and even if they kept improving their abilities with the zombies’ power cores, they were still exhausted in the end.

“The old ginger is spicy.” Qian Suan Zi narrowed his eyes and looked at Luo Qing Chen’s group with a twisted expression, “Grandfather is grandfather, even if you are strong, you can’t resist endless waves of zombies.”

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes as her face turned a bit pale. The Phoenix Dance Sword in her hand was dripping with dark blood and her eyes had a dead look.

Why was it so hard protecting one person?

Seeing Qian Si Nai’s strong back standing in front of her, she felt depressed at that moment.

He had given up everything for her, standing against his closest relatives.

But what could she do? If Qian Suan Zi didn’t have to kill her little brother, she wouldn’t have gone this far.

“Big sister.....” there was a pair of clean white hands that pulled on her sleeve, “Give me.....to him!”

“I won’t!” Luo Qing Chen immediately leaned down to hug Luo Qing Mian. Qian Si Nai and Hua Cai Jin went to the left and right to protect them.

She stubbornly rejected her kind brother’s ‘unreasonable’ request. Why, why should she sacrifice him!?

She definitely wouldn't do it!

"Big sister.....I have always....." He gave two coughs before saying in a weak voice, "I have always been your burden, but in the end of the world.....I could suddenly see! I thought that.....I could protect you....."

He raised his hand as he spoke, gently wiping the tears from her face, "But in the end.....I was just your burden!"

"I won't listen." Luo Qing Chen desperately shook her head, "I won't die, you won't die."

This was her absolute promise. Even if she destroyed this world, she wouldn't let the bad guys win!"

"Brother, just hold on." Qian Si Nai tightly knitted his brows. He waved his right hand before leaning down to grab Luo Qing Chen's shoulders, "Listen to me, I know a way to return everything to how it was before!"

He looked at Luo Qing Mian and said, "I believe.....that he has already seen it."

"No!" Luo Qing Mian used all his strength to roar out. He tightly grabbed Luo Qing Chen's sleeve and said, "Big sister, believe me! Giving me up is the best choice, the only choice....."

"You.....Just what are you guys saying....." Her voice was trembling as she could see the same look in their eyes.

A look of 'sacrifice'!

"Qing Mian, your big sister needs you!"

"She needs you more....." Luo Qing Mian seriously looked at Qian Si Nai, "I'll be assured in handing my big sister to you!"

"Un humph!" Hua Cai Jin couldn't stop the zombies as one of the zombies caught his shoulder!

His face turned pale, but he endured the pain and kept fighting. He didn't even ask for help.

It was just because of Qian Si Nai's 'brother, just hold on'!

Friendship became more clear when facing life and death. Luo Qing Chen could deeply tell that this feeling of 'sacrifice' wasn't just a feeling.

"Do you remember when you asked me what my other power was?" Qian Si Nai looked at the sky before looking intently at her, "I'll tell you now."

Chapter 2433: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 100)

"Xiao Nai!" Qian Suan Zi angrily roared out, as if he could tell what Qian Si Nai wanted to do. His piercing eyes suddenly became even more terrifying.

Every member of the Qian Family had a special ability. They could only the space and time path, as well as closing the space and time path.

In this chaotic time, he was an extra person.

When Qian Suan Zi opened the space and time path before, he came to two hundred years ago. This already went against the heavenly way and the original space had already collapsed, so some people couldn't go back.

Then let's have him end everything!

"Qian Si Nai, stop messing around, we still have a chance....." Luo Qing Chen couldn't concentrate on anything as this scene gave her a kind of feeling.

That she was about to lose something.....

Whether it was Qian Si Nai or Luo Qing Mian, she felt that she would lose something.

"Fool, we don't have a chance." He gently raised his hand to pat her head, "I think that Qing Mian should have seen the future. We don't need you to make a choice."

Qian Si Nai knew that once he and Hua Cai Jin couldn't resist the attacks of the zombies anymore, Luo Qing Mian's energy core would be taken by his grandfather.

Then, no one would be able to change how this world developed.

Maybe it will become as powerful as Qian Suan Zi said, maybe it would only become a ruthless world in the end.

But no matter what, many people will die and it was better for him to face it alone.

"Big sister....." Luo Qing Mian used all his strength to pull at her sleeve as he said in a weak voice, "Give me to him, you will all live! If you don't hand me over, we will all die....."

He didn't want to die, he always wanted to stay by his big sister's side. The end of the world wasn't cruel to him, but rather lucky.

Because it allowed him to see everything in the world, seeing the big sister he loved the most.

His big sister never would have known how happy he was when he used his powers to save her.....

Finally, he wasn't a burden that would make his big sister worry.

Finally, he could be like a hero, firmly standing in front of her.

But for this good fortune, he never thought that the price for becoming strong would be.....death.

"I'm like your big sister, I will protect you." Qian Si Nai moved the big hand on Luo Qing Chen's head to Luo Qing Mian's head, gently patting him as well.

"Big brother.....listen to me....."

"There's no time." Qian Si Nai looked at the full moon that had already turned red before turning back to say, "No matter what, you will appear in that time. Protect your big sister, got it?"

"Qian Si Nai!" Luo Qing Chen seemed to have sensed the parting of life and death.

Her hands suddenly grabbed his wrist as she said, "Just take it as me begging you, Qian Si Nai. Let's fight to the end together, alright!"

Why should there be parting of life and death, what was different from dying together?

She didn't understand and definitely couldn't accept it.

But then Qian Si Nai's gentle and wide palm covered her eyes. There was a faint blue light that flashed in front of her that was a bit cold.

Luo Qing Chen didn't know what Qian Si Nai was doing. She just knew that the sounds around her became fainter until they completely disappeared.

There was no blood, no killing, no sound, and no death.....

Chapter 2434: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 101)

Qian Si Nai stood in the center of the star chart and ice started to scatter around him, making a 'zi zi' sound.

The full red moon shined down on Qian Si Nai. His eyes were cold as ink as his final gaze was of that girl whose eyes were closed and had a face as cold as frost.

The end seemed to be coming.

The time and space path relying on the movement of the stars could be opened with the powers of the Qian Family. If you wanted to return to the beginning, other than having the key energy core, it required the blood of the Qian Family.

In other words, their life.

When Qian Suan Zi opened the space and time path, he used the life of his younger brother, who was Qian Si Nai's great uncle.

Qian Si Nai didn't know about this until the day he saw the records of the Qian Family. Blood could open the space and time path relying on the movement of the stars.

But whether it was the future or the past, he didn't know anything.

He thought that it was just the Qian Family's legend. He didn't know that he was a person who came from another time.

Thinking about it now, everything seemed predestined.

The obsessions in his grandfather's heart were already deeply ingrained. He hated the ignorant humans and wanted to change this dirty world.

He thought that it was those stupid humans who harmed the Qian Family, harmed the son and daughter in law he always protected.

Obsessions formed from his heart demon and grief.

But for Qian Si Nai, as long as Luo Qing Chen lived, then everything was worth it.

“Be good. You have to be a gentle girl so that people won’t fall madly in love with you. If there is another life, please don’t remember me……” His cool voice rang by her ears, as all the memories about him disappeared from her mind bit by bit.

She didn’t have time to react as all the scenes had disappeared.

Memory was like cotton, it died with just a bit of frost.

Before forgetting him, she couldn’t help laughing at herself. It turned out that his other ability was making people forget their memories.

It really……was a bit ruthless……

“Big brother, you can’t do this.” Luo Qing Mian saw that the sky became much darker and the zombies attacking them had all stopped.

Although Hua Cai Jin was seriously injured, he still used all his strength to get Qian Si Nai off the star chart.

But no matter what, he still stood there in the middle without moving. His eyes had always been looking at Luo Qing Chen.

This was a look of farewell. How he wanted to hug her, but he had to leave.

Where was he going? Death? If it was death, then he and she would never meet again!

He was suddenly a bit shaken. He should have hugged her a bit more because he probably wouldn’t be able to hug her again in this life!

He felt that without experiencing a heart warming day, their time was very short. There was only fighting and killing.

If this life could restart, he would have resolutely held her hand in the beginning.

In that warm time, everything would have been good.

A pity, a pity, a pity……

There wasn’t a chance……

Qian Suan Zi’s legs turned soft as he fell down. He naturally knew what Qian Si Nai wanted to do and those piercing eyes turned old.

He was old and so was his heart.

He never thought that Qian Si Nai would have someone and that person that he had would be this close to the ‘key’.

Looking at the dim sky brightening bit by bit, he suddenly felt a bit of regret.

If, if he promised not to kill Luo Qing Mian and take out his energy core, would everything be different!

But no one could answer this question for him.....

Chapter 2435: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 102)

There was no regret in the end, there was no regret as years went by. Before love ended, it was hard to break.

It was now January 4th, 2151. The sky was clear and it was the first day of class after the break.

During the new year, the entire city was filled with festivities, but there were few people in the city, or rather few people in the country.

But without knowing why, there were many high rise buildings and many houses that were empty.

Some people even started to wonder why they had bought a four bedroom house even though they lived alone.

There were bosses that had only two employees who rented out an entire floor.....

And in some schools, there were classes that should have had thirty students that only had eight or nine students.....

The school realized it was a mistake and reshuffled the classes.....

“Qing Qing, Mian Mian, come down for breakfast.” With her mother’s voice ringing in her ears, Luo Qing Chen standing in front of the mirror took a deep breath before curling her lips.

Luo Qing Mian came down and there was a gentle glow in his clean eyes.

Four mornings ago, he was suddenly able to see. His mother was grateful and his family was happy for him.

After going to the hospital for an examination, the doctor said that it was a miracle! God had opened his eyes and allowed this kind hearted young man to see again.

Suddenly going from a blind man to someone who could see, Luo Qing Mian was more excited than anyone.

To celebrate her little brother regaining his sight, she had ordered a cake to celebrate.

“You two can go to school after you finish off the rest of the cake!” Mother Luo’s gentle voice rang out before she took out two cups of milk from the microwave, “Also, drink this! Mom is going to the orphanage today, so you can take care of your dinner yourself.”

After breakfast, the siblings went to the bus stop to take the bus. The morning air was strangely refreshing and Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes as she stood at the bus stop. She was listening to “Next Year” on her headphones as she took a deep breath.

The lyrics rang in her ears, being filled with endless warmth and a strange sadness.

-Watching the stream under the stars, the intersection where we’ll meet next year.

-I still remember silently holding your left hand, making an appointment to go again next year.

-What is the future, the days still have to continue.

-Waiting under the shade of the tree, breaking up without seeing each other, how many people are saddened by the thought of red beans.

-I was standing at the place we agreed on, waiting for you to become my bride.

-The two people who played each other, when will the next year come.

.....

"Big sister, I want to transfer to your school." Luo Qing Mian suddenly spoke, cutting through her thoughts as she listened to the song.

"Why? You don't want to learn music now that you can see?" Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, "Or do you want to hook up with some young miss at our school!"

"Of course not!" Luo Qing Mian honestly shook his head, "I can be with big sister that way! I can protect you like this since I've heard that there are many bad girls at your school!"

"Nonsense!" She gently patted Luo Qing Mian's head. There was a sparkle in her clear eyes as she said with a smile, "Rumours are just rumours, our school only has gentle and cute young misses."

Looking at her little brother, her eyes fell onto that gentle white face that looked so good.

It was so good that one would never tire of it.....

"So I can't go?" Luo Qing Mian's voice was a bit dejected. He had mustered up his courage to tell his big sister this.

Chapter 2436: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 103)

Luo Qing Chen saw his sinking eyes and said with a faint smile, "Who says you can't! Come with your own abilities, big sister is waiting."

"Really?"

Those beautiful eyes were best when they were lit up.

"Really."

She gave a nod as her eyes had a smile the entire time.

On Monday morning, the students would arrive at school early. There weren't many people in Class A, only around twenty people, but there were at least forty desks.

But they were mainly empty.....

"Come, come, come, students, help stack the tables in five rows and put them by the back blackboard." The teacher came to the podium and waved his ruler as he announced the tasks.

Luo Qing Chen packed her things and slowly stood up as her eyes fell onto a table by the window.

The table was very clean and under the sunlight, it seemed like a brand new table.

She looked at it and stepped forward, planning to move the table when an elegant face with fair skin, deep eyes, long lashes, and short silver hair appeared in front of her.

No matter how she looked at him, he was like a young man that came out a comic.

“Woah.” There were excited voices that came from around as whispers slowly entered her ears.

“Young master Jin is helping Qing Chen? Why do I feel that this seems right!”

“Wa! Young master Jin always gives off an elegant and gentle feel, so envious! People with good grades are different, they can easily capture the hearts of male gods!”

“Could it be that you want to become a poor person just to get good grades?”

“What’s the matter! Money can be earned, but grades can’t be earned with hard work!”

“Eh! This seems to make sense.....”

.....

“This classmate, let me! Girls shouldn’t move heavy things.” Hua Cai Jin lowered his head slightly to look at Luo Qing Chen with a gentle look.

She didn’t look up and held two corners of the desk until her fingers turned white. Then she looked up with a faint smile and said, “Let’s do it together!”

Hua Cai Jin was surprised before revealing a faint smile, “Alright.”

“Wa, wa, wa, this old man’s young girl’s heart!”

“Could it be.....there’s a story?”

“Ha, ha! It must be the story of a desk and a chair!”

“Envious, envious! Jealous, jealous! Together, together!”

.....

Everyone kept jeering, but Luo Qing Chen didn’t care at all.

Her face was calm and her pure face had a faint smile the entire time which made everyone in the class like her.

Because of her good looks, because of her good grades, because her smile was very beautiful.

Even if she wasn’t rich, even if she didn’t have power, they still liked her.

The third class in the afternoon was English.

The sky was foggy and it was like there would be a thunderstorm.

Her mom seemed to have reminded them to bring umbrellas, but she had forgotten about it when she left.

“Qing Chen, Qing Chen.....” A low voice rang out before the classmate on the right patted her arm and handed her a folded white note, “The school hunk is giving this to you!”

Luo Qing Chen was surprised at first before giving a nod, “Thank you.”

When she opened the note, she saw that the writing was powerful and beautiful.

It was as if as long as you saw this writing, you would think of Hua Cai Jin. It fit him that much.

(You seemed to have forgotten your umbrella, do you want to walk home together tonight? ——Hua Cai Jin)

Chapter 2437: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 104)

Luo Qing Chen picked up the pen and after thinking about it for a long time, she wrote a reply.

(Alright. ——Luo Qing Chen)

“Can you help me pass it over?” She patted the hand of the curly haired girl beside her.

That person turned over and patted her chest before saying with a happy smile, “I would be happy to!”

In their long youth, this was what youth looked like.

No deliberate injuries, no paranoid jealousy, no inhumane methods.....

Perhaps some people will hurt themselves because they loved the male god, but they would keep this secret in the bottom of their hearts for the rest of their lives.

After waiting for a long time, there would be a relieved smile.

But many people were happy to be ‘gossipers’ for them.

“Ding ling.” The bell rang and everyone seemed unwilling to leave.

Luo Qing Chen awkwardly touched her ears before walking out the door with an awkward smile on her face.

Hua Cai Jin followed behind her, not forgetting to give everyone a ‘shh’ gesture and then saying with a faint smile, “Thank you everyone, but it’s not what you think it is.”

“Male god, good luck!”

“Will the school hunk treat us to dinner after getting the beauty?”

“I want to eat spicy crayfish!”

“Only knowing how to eat, eat, eat. You’re already one sixty and you’re still eating.”

“.....”

.....

Hua Cai Jin gave everyone an OK gesture before following Luo Qing Chen.

With a boom from the sky, the heavy rain fell onto the black umbrella Hua Cai Jin was holding. He put the umbrella mostly over her, so he was half soaked.

“Your poem recitation really was good today.” Hua Cai Jin looked up at the thick clouds and said, “I didn’t know you read so well before.”

Luo Qing Chen followed his gaze. She felt that when she closed her eyes in a dark place like this, she could hear a cool voice ringing in her ears.

Refreshing and intoxicating.

“Un.” She softly replied before looking back and walking forward.

Hua Cai Jin followed behind her, slightly narrowing his eyes as an unknown emotion filled them.

No one could see through it and no one could understand it.

He safely sent her home and saw Luo Qing Mian anxiously waiting for her at the door.

“Big sister, why didn’t you pick up!” Luo Qing Mian anxiously came forward and wrapped a towel around her head before looking at Hua Cai Jin behind her.

His clean eyes were clearly surprised before he asked, “This is.....”

“That, I didn’t look at my phone just now.” Luo Qing Chen’s lips curled as she said, “This is my classmate Hua Cai Jin and this is my little brother Luo Qing Mian.”

“Hello.”

“Hello.” Luo Qing Mian politely replied, “Thank you for sending my big sister home.”

“It’s something I should do.” Hua Cai Jin gave a slight nod. There was a shimmer in his deep eyes which looked so deep in this dark night.

“Then I’ll leave first. Rest early.” Hua Cai Jin nodded as he said goodbye. No matter what he did, it was full of elegance like a gentleman.

“Be careful on the way home.” Luo Qing Chen waved her hand.

Luo Qing Mian stopped Hua Cai Jin by saying something meaningful.

“So it turned out that I wasn’t alone.”

Hua Cai Jin revealed a touch of surprise in his eyes.

Luo Qing Mian gave a shrug before saying with a faint smile, “Ha, ha! I was just thinking that there will be another person who will treat big sister nicely in the future!”

"Everyone treats your big sister well." Hua Cai Jin turned with a smile as he waved with his back to them, "Who told her to be this good!"

Chapter 2438: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 105)

When they got home, their mother had already finished dinner.

It was four meals and one soup, which was quite a bit.

Because other than the two of them, there was an extra child.

"When mom went to the orphanage today, she saw this very pitiful child. He kept hanging onto my clothes without letting go....." Mother Luo gave a sigh before patting the child who was crawling on the stool, "I thought that we must be connected in a past life, so I brought him back."

Luo Qing Chen looked at this little boy with a faint sparkle in her eyes.

Although he was still very young, his facial features were very fine and his eyes were as deep as ink.

"His eyes.....seem similar to Mian Mian's." Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle and said, "Mom really is loving."

Luo Qing Mian just silently sat there without saying a thing.

Mother Luo saw this and looked at him to say, "Mian Mian, are you unhappy? Actually, our family's situation isn't that good and it's sudden for mom to do something like this, but....."

"Mom, I didn't mean that." Luo Qing Mian put down his diningware and shook his head, "I just suddenly remembered something. Big sister is right, he is very cute and his eyes are similar to mine."

Some people could forget some things, but he couldn't.

Experience was experience and those unforgettable memories would be imprinted deeply in their mind, no matter what happened.

"But....."

"You shouldn't worry about finances." Luo Qing Mian pursed his lips and said, "My classmates and I have received invitations for music tours. Although it doesn't pay a lot, it should be enough to support you, big sister, and this little brother."

"Really! Will it affect your studies?"

"Relax mom! It's only a part time job on weekends, it won't affect my studies."

"Good, good! You're all grown up now, mom is relieved."

.....

The happy home cooked meal made people's hearts warm. Even if it was stormy outside, their home was very warm.

It was like when they were tired when they were young, they would just tuck into a blanket.

After eating dinner, mother Luo took the little baby to the supermarket to buy some baby supplies.

Luo Qing Chen had also wanted to go, but Luo Qing Mian could tell that she had a slight cold, so he didn't let her.

But he still carefully poured a cup of cold medicine for her before saying with a smile, "I will go to the supermarket with mom like a knight!"

"Puchi." She couldn't help laughing, "You make it sound like something dangerous will happen!"

"That isn't certain!" Luo Qing Mian blinked and said, "The greenhouse effect is serious, what if the world ends....."

When he said this, he met Luo Qing Chen's eyes.

As they looked at each other, Luo Qing Mian was the one who was stunned first.

He looked at his big sister's eyes. Those clear eyes had a faint sparkle, but not a single ripple.

"What is it?" Luo Qing Chen saw that he didn't speak for a long time and said with a faint smile, "Did you think of something?"

"No.....Nothing." Luo Qing Mian gave a shrug before saying with a smile, "Mom is waiting for me. Remember to drink the medicine."

"Un! Go ahead."

She waved her hand and her eyes fixed onto a certain place. After a while, she laughed at herself as she muttered, "The end of the world.....Actually, it would be quite good."

When the door shut close, her nose stuffed up and she couldn't control her emotions anymore even using all her strength as the tears came out.

Chapter 2439: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 106)

Some people thought that everything was perfect and the script was written flawlessly.

They naively believed that they could do everything to let people live a happy life without any worries.

To live without memories of him.....

How laughable, how ridiculous it was.....

If it was another person, they really might be able to follow the script that he wrote.

But she couldn't.....

Because she was Luo Qing Chen.....

That Luo Qing Chen who had gone through thirty eight worlds, had the system, the storage space, and absolute abilities!

How could she forget, how could she forget.....

Without knowing how long passed, she slowly wiped her tears before heading to the bathroom with the towel.

The tower flowed and there were loud sounds that no one could understand, but there were also unclear crying sounds.

He said that as long as she became gentle, understanding, and well behaved, no one would dislike her.

She knew why he said this because he felt more pained than her to part.

She did it, she became a girl like a spring breeze. She didn't have the aura of a queen or those indifferent eyes.

She would smile at anyone she saw, whether she liked that person or not.

Because she couldn't get rid of the words that youth Qian Si Nai had said.

-Be good. You have to be a gentle girl so that people won't fall madly in love with you.

"What a liar." She closed her eyes and felt the warm water on her cheeks before pursing her lips to say, "No matter what I become, you won't come back."

After washing up, she sat in front of the desk and opened the package she had ordered two days ago.

Beautiful letter paper and a glass pen.

She took a deep breath before raising the pen to write all that she wanted to say.

The words were long, but no one could understand them.

We returned, returned to the day when the end of the world came, but this time the end of the world didn't come.

Life had greatly changed as the entire world population fell to a tenth of what it was before.

Because those that died in a parallel time didn't appear in this world.

It was as if they had suddenly disappeared and everyone's memories of them also disappeared.

This' them' included the most hateful Bai Lian Xin and also included the most loved you.

So I know that you won't come back.

You forcefully let me alone in this world, but I refuse.

But there is some good news, Mian Mian can see. He is very happy, but I feel that there is some indescribable feeling in his eyes.

I can't understand them and don't want to guess at it.

Hua Cai Jin is also here and he's suddenly good to me. It makes me feel that nothing has changed, but it's just you who is gone.....

But I don't want to stay if you're not here.

Although I'm unwilling, I.....I can't think of why I'm still here.

I'm not qualified to wait.....

"Di, da, di, da, di, da." The sad tears fell onto the paper drop by drop.

The ink that hadn't dried yet started to smudge.

She still wanted to write something else, but she felt that the hand that was holding the pen couldn't stop trembling.

"Big sister, I'm back! I bought your favourite lemon Yakult."

When Luo Qing Mian opened the door, she nervously wiped the tears from her face and hid the letter in the drawer.

Other than her, no one in this world should know Qian Si Nai.

If Luo Qing Mian saw this, he would be worried that she was going crazy.

There was no need to worry if there were no problems.

Chapter 2440: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 107)

"Big sister, what's wrong? Your eyes are red." Luo Qing Mian knitted his brows as a trace of worry appeared in his eyes.

She gave a sniff before shaking her head, "It might be the cold getting worse. I should go to bed early!"

"Alright!" Luo Qing Mian came forward to gently touch her forehead, "There isn't a fever. Big sister, rest up early!"

"Un, good night!"

She didn't sleep all night as she tossed and turned. The full red moon kept filling her mind.

No matter what, it would go away.

Her cold became worse the next day and her throat became more sore.

Luo Qing Mian knitted his brows as he looked at her, "Big sister, did you really rest up? Why does it feel like you're worse than yesterday?"

He touched her forehead gently and said, "It seems like you have a low fever."

"Ke, ke." Luo Qing Chen gave two coughs, "It shouldn't be that serious....."

"I feel that you shouldn't go to school today and rest up at home!" Luo Qing Mian looked at her with a worried look, "Rest up today, I have to go do the school transfer stuff anyway."

"This quickly?" Luo Qing Chen was surprised, "You already finished the transfer process?"

"Yes! Your little brother is very excellent." Luo Qing Mian revealed a faint smile, "Not to mention that the school was recruiting students. Although it's a rich school, the threshold seemed to have been greatly reduced."

"Un." Luo Qing Chen was a bit surprised before suddenly understanding something, "Yes! There's much less people now....."

"Big sister, you should just rest up!" Luo Qing Mian ordered, "I will help you take the day off."

"There's no need, I'll do it myself." Luo Qing Chen shook her head, "Go and come home early. It might rain, so remember to take an umbrella."

"Alright!"

At noon, Luo Qing Chen changed into a set of red Christmas clothes and put on a big elk hat to go eat.

It was still drizzling outside, so she took a black umbrella and got into a taxi.

"Master, I'll have to trouble you to go to Nanling."

The driver was clearly surprised before tapping the fee machine, "Nanling is very far, it should take around an hour."

"Un, I know." Luo Qing Chen nodded before not saying anything else.

She looked out the window and felt that this weather was filled with a bit of sadness.

When she got out, she walked for around thirty minutes before finally arriving in front of a villa.

When she closed her eyes, she could still remember the scenes of their final fight here like a movie playing.

Deeply imprinted in her mind.....

"Are you okay?" Luo Qing Chen looked up as her eyes turned red. She bit her lip and said, "Are you really.....not coming back?"

There was a cool breeze that blew past that raised her long curly hair. The ribbon in her hair danced in the wind and when she closed her eyes, it was like a painted picture, incomparably beautiful.

"Ka." The mysterious large doors slowly opened.

Luo Qing Chen's heart trembled, as her lashes shook and even her fingers couldn't help shaking.

Three seconds later, she started walking in.

The empty villa without a single sound, as if no one had ever been here before.

She took a deep breath and walked to the backyard. When she saw the large star chart, but no full red moon in the sky, she couldn't help feeling a bit disappointed.

She remembered when he was standing here with her figure reflected in his deep eyes that were filled with unwillingness.

But now that everything was peaceful, why didn't he come back.....
