Chapter 2441: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 108)

"I'm quite good." Luo Qing Chen gave a sniff as tears fell drop by drop. She looked at the star chart in front of her and said, "I was good like you said and was a gentle girl, but it's different from what you said....."

She took a deep breath and her voice was a bit hoarse as she continued, "I received quite a few love letters....."

"Xiu, xiu, xiu." There was a strong wind around her and her elk hat was blown off.

With a boom, there was a flash of lightning in the sky that lit up the entire star chart.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised as her beautiful eyes filled with a sparkle. She wanted to say something, but she was too stunned to say anything.

There was the sound of wind whistling in her ear, blowing up her red plaid skirt and her curly hair.

Then her phone rang.

It was a familiar ringtone that slowly entered her ears, it was her favourite song recently.

"A story between two people won't come too late, the people of the past are already different. I don't know where to go next, it seems I'll be hurt next year....."

Luo Qing Chen took out her phone and when she saw the name, her heart sank.

Mian Mian.

"Hello." Luo Qing Chen picked up the call, "What is it?"

"Big sister! Why aren't you at home?" Luo Qing Mian's voice was filled with a bit of anxiety as he said, "You're running around even when you're sick."

Luo Qing Chen quickly replied, "Un, I'm coming back. I went downstairs for some food."

"I made some porridge for you....." Luo Qing Mian gave a sigh, "Where are you? I'll come pick you up."

"No need." Luo Qing Chen looked up to look at the sky without any lightning and looked down at the dim star chart before calmly saying, "I'll be back soon."

When she left the Qian Manor, she turned back every three steps.

Although she told herself not to look back, he wouldn't appear.

The thoughts in her heart kept telling her to look back again and again!

Maybe, maybe there was a miracle.....

But in the end, other than that strange gust of wind, there was nothing else.

On the taxi back, she kept thinking about what to do in the future.

Should she find a way to end her life to return to the Chaos Space for another journey or should she keep waiting.

But he worked so hard for the peace of this world and to give her another chance to live.

If she took her own life, wouldn't that be letting him down.....

She put on her headphones and closed her eyes.

The question kept lingering in her mind until the driver told her 'we're here' three times that she finally came back to her senses.

"Miss, we're here, alright? Stop hindering other people doing business. If you're deaf, go to the doctor." The driver was very rude.

"I'm sorry....." Luo Qing Chen quickly apologized, "I caused trouble for you....."

"Pay and get out!" The driver's tone was very rough and the pair of rough hands didn't forget to reach back for the money that she hadn't paid yet.

"Ninety five, but I'll charge you a hundred." The driver impatiently said, "Get out quickly, it really is annoying."

Other than the initial apology, Luo Qing Chen ignored him and got out of the car.

The rain had already stopped and there was a beautiful rainbow in the sky.

She looked up and muttered, "Do you think that I'm more gentle than when we first met?"

Chapter 2442: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 109)

At the same time, in the same taxi.

A man in a black trench coat, a black mask, and a black hat was standing thirty meters in front of the taxi that Luo Qing Chen had just gotten out of.

He didn't sit in the front, but rather sat in the back.

The driver had a wicked smile as he looked at the money he earned and the timer had already started.

"Yo! Where are you going?" The driver looked at the man sitting in the back with a look of disdain before rolling his eyes, "It can't be that you're a robber dressed like that, right!"

"Nanling." His cool voice slowly rang out, giving people a feeling that no one could approach him.

The driver gave a whistle as he turned the wheel and not forgetting to say, "A lot of people are going to that place today, it really is strange."

When he got on the highway, the rain kept getting stronger and he couldn't even clearly see what was in front of him.

"Damn! The rain really is heavy!"

He kept complaining along the way as his mouth never stopped talking.

The man sitting in the back never said a single thing other than the original 'Nanling'.

When the taxi arrived at Nanshan Road, he slightly moved his right index finger and a faint white light appeared there.

Fifteen minutes later, when the driver circled around Nanshan Road again, he scratched his head and said, "Yi? What's going on here? Damn! Didn't I just pass by here?"

The youth never said anything as the amount of the fee counter reached one hundred and twenty yuan.

The driver stepped on the accelerator and drove even faster.

After another thirty minutes, the sign 'Nanshan Road' appeared in front of him again.

This time, there was a look of horror in his eyes.

With a 'si' sound, the brakes were pressed. The driver parked under the sign and said in a trembling voice, "I.....I seemed to have met a curse.....How, how many times do you think we've passed by here?"

"Three times." The youth's voice was ice cold, not having a single bit of warmth.

The driver screamed out before looking in the rear view mirror in a panic. The youth just sat there without any changes.

"You.....Who are.....you?" The driver said in a panic as he tried to open the door, but he couldn't open it no matter how he tried with the key.

There was a 'kacha' sound as the surrounding temperature dropped and the rain outside turned to hail.

There was a thick layer of ice that condensed on the windows of the taxi. This was a scene that seemed like the end of the world.

"How.....How is this possible....." The driver called out in shock. He covered his head with both hands as he looked at the youth with wide eyes.

"Peng, peng." Two large pieces of hail hit the windshield and the glass cracked.

"Are you afraid now?" The youth gave a cold laugh. There was a faint glow in his eyes that no one dared to look at directly.

The driver's hands and feet kept trembling. He had driven around three times to end in the same position.

Even if he was an idiot, he knew that he had kicked a wall.

Powers existed in novels and when he encountered it, his heart was filled with fear.

Looking at the composed black clothed youth, he knew that the 'wall he hit' must be related to him.

"You, you, you.....Who are you! Just what.....Just what do you want! Did I.....I offend you?"

"Un." The youth gave a cold snort before saying in a soft voice, "You offended her."

Chapter 2443: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 110)

The driver wasn't able to react as he was completely confused.

He could only put his hands together and kept begging for mercy, "Big brother.....Older brother.....Young master.....No matter how I've offended you, please let me go! I.....I am just a person diligently earning money for my family.....I am a good person!"

The youth ignored him and closed his eyes as he released a chill from his body. There was the scene of the end of the world that appeared in front of his eyes.

It was a train running on the rails, there was a man and a woman on this train together.

It was the second day after the red rain and there were many people with colds and fevers on the train.

When the train was halfway there, there was a person that suddenly stood up like a madman and there were "ka, ka" sounds that came from their limbs.

They moved very quickly and bit anyone they saw, quickly spreading the infection.

Once they were bitten, they became violent with thin skin, bulging eyeballs, and sharp teeth.....

The man and his wife kept fleeing to safer carriages and he used his strong body to let others use him as a shield along the way.

Until all the shields were used up and he pushed his wife out.

In the end, his wife turned into a zombie and he survived.

"Good person?" The youth narrowed his beautiful eyes that had a cold glow in them. He said with a cold laugh, "You killed your own wife for your own life, human nature really is dirty in this world."

He then said, "But since you were fierce to that girl, I can't keep your life."

"What wife.....what girl....." The driver looked at the youth in front of him in a panic before desperately shaking his head, "I don't know what you are saying, I really don't know what you are saying....."

"Then do you feel at ease taking that hundred yuan?" The youth gave a cold laugh and quickly took out the hundred yuan that he had taken from Luo Qing Chen.

Then he carefully put it into his own pocket.

"You.....You're talking about that girl! She.....There was something wrong with her....." The driver seemed to understand something and wanted to explain, but he was shocked by that youth's ice cold eyes and didn't dare say a single word.

"The people who say that she's not good and say bad things about her....." The youth paused as he raised his cold eyes, "Are all dead."

The driver seemed to be on the verge of collapse. He desperately tried to open the door as he cried, "Just let me go.....Consider.....Consider it my bad luck, I'll give you this hundred yuan, alright! Or I'll give it all, I'll give it all to you, alright?"

"I don't want your money!" The youth narrowed his cold eyes and said with a cold smile, "I want your life."

As soon as his voice fell, the hail falling from the sky became bigger as they slammed onto the taxi.

Then the sound of the glass shattered as the sharp icicles pierced through the windshield, stabbing into the driver's heart.

His eyes opened wide with fear and he wanted to beg, but he couldn't make a single sound.

He didn't know who he had offended, let alone that he would die. He even thought that since he made a thousand yuan today, he could go to the nightclub in the west and find that slender woman from bed last night.

It was a pity that he didn't have a chance.....

Before he died, the carriage full of zombies appeared, as well as the woman he pushed out in front of the zombies.

The youth coldly looked at him and lowered his hat before disappearing from the taxi.

Chapter 2444: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 111)

At the same time, at the Luo Family.

Luo Qing Mian bought Luo Qing Chen a thermometer while pouring hot water to make cold medicine for her. He had been busy since she came back.

He had been in and out of her room five times. Luo Qing Chen was dizzy seeing him go back and forth until she called out to stop him, "I really would get sick from you walking around even if I wasn't sick before."

"Big sister is so old, how could you go out in the rain?" Luo Qing Mian brought over a cup of cold medicine and while walking over, he didn't forget to say, "You know how worried I was!"

"I went to Nanling."

"Dong!" As soon as his voice fell, the cup of cold medicine in Luo Qing Mian's hand fell to the ground.

The cold medicine splashed all over the light blue carpet.

"What is it?" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as a faint mist appeared in them.

"No, nothing." Luo Qing Mian quickly picked up the broken glass and said with a chuckle, "Big sister, Nanling is such a far place that I was scared and my hand slipped....."

"Is it really like this?" Luo Qing Chen lowered her head, even her voice became softer.

She pursed her lips and said, "Why didn't you ask me why I went to Nanling?"

"Ah!" Luo Qing Mian looked away with a bit of panic as he didn't dare look into her eyes. He turned and said, "Isn't it too late for me to ask? Big sister, what did you go to Nanling for....."

"Why?" Luo Qing Chen cut him off and looked up as she said in a choked up voice, "Why do you also remember Qian Si Nai?"

Luo Qing Mian felt his back tremble like he had suddenly been frozen, unable to move at all.

Why.....Why did his big sister remember Qian Si Nai!

He always thought that he was the only person in the world with memories of the end of the world. Didn't Qian Si Nai erase his big sister's memories in the star chart?

Let alone after all these days, he knew that the people who had died in the end of the world didn't seem to exist in this world.

Whether it was your closest relatives or your lovers, they wouldn't remember the people who died in the end of the world.

So that was why there were fewer people in schools, why there were so many buildings without owners, and why the world's population was less than a tenth of what it was before.

He knew why it all happened and knew the cause and effect.

He didn't even find it strange because he knew that it was all done by Qian Si Nai.

Including his return to this world and his ability to see again.

He always thought that these memories were a gift from god, to let this hero 'Qian Si Nai' at least have one person remember him.

But he never thought that his big sister would also remember.....

"Let's not talk about why." Seeing that Luo Qing Mian didn't say anything, she continued, "The protective way that you look at me already explains everything. You remember everything that happened in the end of the world and you remember him!"

"Big sister....." Luo Qing Mian turned around with bright eyes filled with shock. His eyes trembled slightly before he slowly said, "Why does big sister remember, I thought....."

He thought that no one would remember what happened after the end of the world, but he also never thought that his big sister was like him, remembering everything.

"How could I possibly forget!" Luo Qing Chen pit her lips as she wept bitter tears, "He is Qian Si Nai....."

Chapter 2445: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 112)

Yes! He was Qian Si Nai. He was the Qian Si Nai who stood in the center of the star chart, who didn't fear death.

He was the.....person at the top of her heart.

Ten minutes later, he made another cup of cold medicine and sat down beside her, "I also don't know why I remember him. It's like a dream, a dream of the end of the world."

"But you never told me." Luo Qing Chen took a sip of the cold medicine and felt the warmth entering her body.

It was good, it was good that Luo Qing Mian was by her side.

At least she won't feel as lonely when she missed someone.

"When you woke up late that day, I had many questions when I saw mom." Luo Qing Mian explained, "She was surprised about my eyes, so I knew that she didn't remember the end of the world!"

Perhaps it couldn't be considered remembering, the people of this world never experienced the end of the world.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and finished off the cold medicine in her hand. She took a tissue from the side and wiped her eyes, "So you can't tell me either....."

"I....." Luo Qing Mian gave a sigh, "I just feel that.....since he gave so much, worked so hard to let big sister not have memories of him and live a happy life, how could I go against it?"

"Just working hard works?" Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and closed her eyes, "I am working so hard to wait for him, is it working? Does he know?"

Luo Qing Mian wanted to say something, but he found that his words were stuck and he couldn't say what was in his heart.

Because he knew that there was no use in comforting her.

For his big sister, silent companionship was the most important!

After all, at least one person in this world had the memories of that person like her.

The next morning.

When the first rays of sunlight hit her face, she narrowed her eyes and found that the sky was clearing.

Going out at seven in the morning, there was a strong scent of mud in the air.

Luo Qing Mian followed behind her until the bus stop when he finally said, "Big sister, there's a pleasant surprise today."

"What?" Luo Qing Chen looked over and asked, "Did you win the lottery?"

"Puchi!" Luo Qing Mian heard this and couldn't help laughing.

Seeing that his big sister was still able to joke with him, he was much more assured.

If he hadn't seen Luo Qing Chen during the end of the world, perhaps he might not have been so worried.

It was because she had been cold and proud in the end of the world, never flinching even when facing danger.

She was different from before, but it made him look up to her even more, making her that kind of dazzling.

When they came to school, the classmates all looked at her with eyes of deep meaning and teasing smiles.

Luo Qing Chen awkwardly looked away and sat down in her seat.

The female classmate who passed her the note the other day sat down beside her and asked with a smile, "Ke, ke.....how was it walking in the rain with the school hunk! Wa! Speak, speak, was it romantic?"

"He's quite good, but we are only friends." Luo Qing Chen had a smile on her lips the entire time, but her eyes were indifferent, giving people the feeling of being kept away.

"Even if you're friends now, that doesn't mean that you'll be friends in the future!" The female classmate gave her a passionate wink, "Not to mention that we're all envious of you!"

"I know! You guys are all really good!" Luo Qing Chen blinked and said, "Only we will only ever be friends."

Chapter 2446: Welcome to the end of the world (Part 113)

The things that she didn't want to waste energy explaining, she suddenly wanted to explain.

Because other than her, there was someone else in this world that had memories of that youth.

Since he existed, then even if he wasn't in this world anymore, she would take the time to explain the things that never existed.

"Why?" The female classmate looked at her with a confused look and asked, "Do you like someone else?"

Although she wasn't that close to Luo Qing Chen, she gave her the feeling of a low key and well behaved girl.

Not someone who would be reserved and proud.

Then there must be another reason that she didn't accept the handsome school hunk.

The first reason that she thought of was that Luo Qing Chen liked someone else.

This was asked just to gossip, but she never thought that she would answer her question that directly.

"Yes!" She gave a slight nod as a slightly dazed expression appeared in her eyes.

There was no embarrassment and no hesitation.

Coincidentally, Hua Cai Jin walked into the class.

There were only a few people in class and although Luo Qing Chen spoke very softly, Hua Cai Jin had heard it.

As their eyes met, she saw the complicated look in his eyes.

She had seen that look in Luo Qing Mian's eyes before.

She suddenly thought of that day when he helped her carry the table, the complicated look in his eyes that had scenes that weren't from this world.

It was as if he had seen another world.

"Shh, shh, shh." Everyone had a tacit understanding and returned to their seats.

The gloom in Hua Cai Jin's eyes slowly disappeared and he walked over to her seat with a small bag.

"I saw that you didn't come yesterday, so I thought that you should be sick." Hua Cai Jin put the cold medicine on the table and said, "Three packs a day and you'll get rid of your cold."

"Wa!" There were voices of envy that rang out followed by the gossip of people.

"So warm!"

"I would agree if I were Luo Qing Chen! Our school hunk has never been this good to any girls in all these years."

"Right, right! I really am envious! I even have the envy of the girls from the next class over....."

"Ying, ying, ying!"

"Crying your sister, what is the use of crying? Will men like you because you cry? Will the school hunk give you another glance?"

"No.....No....."

"Then why are you crying!"

.....

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help curling her lips from the warm gossip around her.

She nodded and said, "Thank you....."

Hua Cai Jin saw that she was a bit embarrassed, so he explained in another method, "I just wanted to take care of you. You don't need to guess the reason because....."

"Of course I don't need to guess." Luo Qing Chen slowly looked up with clear eyes that had a sparkle at him, "I know who you are taking care of me for."

"Qing Chen, you....." Hua Cai Jin was shocked when he heard this. He wanted to say something, but Luo Qing Chen cut him off.

“But I want him to do this kind of thing himself.” Luo Qing Chen revealed a sad smile, “Thank you for remembering him, remembering that desperate world where you fought with us!”

Chapter 2447: Welcome to the end of the world (114)

Hua Cai Jin was frozen in place, only reacting after a very long time.

He never thought that Luo Qing Chen would have memories of the end of the world. Furthermore, he never would have thought that she would remember Qian Si Nai.

He thought that he was the only person in the world who remembered Qian Si Nai, remembering the other world where they had been in the dark end of the world.

So he did his best to take care of Luo Qing Chen since he had promised the brother that he had fought alongside with that he would protect the one he loved the most.

He used his life to create a peaceful world for her, so he would protect her for him.

“So you remembered.....” After a while, Hua Cai Jin spoke in a slow voice. He gave a sigh before his eyes filled with sadness.

“Of course, I never forgot.” She pursed her lips and tried her best to control her emotions, but her eyes turned red in front of Hua Cai Jin’s emotional eyes.

“Qing Chen.....”

“But taking care of me, let him do it himself.”

When she said this, her voice cracked a bit. They didn’t know how hard she tried to calm her emotions and not infect others with sadness.

There were times that the memories rolling in her mind touched her nerves and she couldn’t control them.....

Everyone looked at the two of them with confused looks.

They didn’t know what the two of them were talking about, but they could feel the pressure coming from them.

It was a kind of pressure that had joy and sadness, like it was the end of times.

“Come, come, come, come, come, everyone sit down and prepare for class!” The teacher came into the room with a stack of review materials in their hands, “We will be holding a thorough exam today.....”

“Ah!” Before the teacher could finish, the classmates all let out a sad wail.

After the New Year, what everyone hated the most was exams when they still hadn’t gotten over the festivities yet.

“But before that, I have some good news for everyone.” The teacher said with a wide smile, “We have two new transfer students today and they both indicated that they wanted to join our class. It seems like our class’ learning environment must be very good!”

“Teacher! Are they male or female?” One of the lively people raised their hand to ask, “Our class has too many handsome guys, how about two beauties?”

“There are beauties! Our class already has so many girls, there are many that are still single.....Can we get some handsome guys?”

“Ai, I say, Chun Hua! Don’t just go handsome guy, handsome guy all day? It’s like you can get one if there were more handsome guys!”

“Ze, ze, ze! Da Chong, how about we compete? You’re talking like you’re destined to be with a beauty in this life!”

“Ha, ha, ha, ha!” Burst of laughter followed this bickering.

There were some that chanted, “Get together! Get together! Get together!”

“Pa, pa, pa.” The sound of the ruler hitting the desk rang out before the teacher cleared their throat to say, “It seems like you think that the mock test is too easy and want to make it more difficult, right?”

“Teacher, it definitely isn’t my fault! It’s all Chun Hua!”

“You.....Teacher! Everyone saw it, it was Da Chong who wanted a beauty first!”

“Alright, alright, stop arguing.” The teacher helplessly shook their head, “It’s two boys who are transferring to our class today!”

“Yay! Yay! Yay! Long live teacher!”

The girls followed Chun Hua to applaud as Da Chong couldn’t help rolling his eyes, “Teacher only said that they are two boys, who said that they were handsome? Look at you starstruck girls!”

Chapter 2450: Welcome to the end of the world (117)

The words of the surrounding classmates fell onto her ears and her trembling eyes turned to Hua Cai Jin.

At the same time, he also turned his eyes to Luo Qing Chen.

Those bottomless eyes suddenly became a bit flustered. The always calm him leaned out a bit to first see who this new classmate transferring into their class was.

“I.....Why do I suddenly feel a bit afraid!” Chun Hua’s face lost that silly smile. This aura gave her a completely different feeling from Luo Qing Mian just now.

It was like the footsteps came from hell and with each step, the temperature in the classroom dropped by another degree.

“Si.” The teacher couldn’t help shivering, but she still turned to the youth who was slowly walking towards the class.

She was completely stunned, as there was a strong attracted feeling that filled her.

“The teacher is stunned, so he shouldn’t be ugly!”

“I don’t feel he should be ugly, he should look a bit dangerous, like a punk.”

“No, you are wrong.” Da Chong opened the back door and looked to the southeast. What entered his eyes was a near perfect face.

He kept leaning back to see more clearly, but he never thought that he would lose his balance and fall to the ground.

“Aiyo!” There was a cry of pain as Da Chong rubbed his butt, but he didn’t forget to look at the youth not far away.

Chun Hua looked at him with a speechless look before saying in a voice filled with reproach, “What is a man like you getting excited for? It can’t be that you’re excited to see someone uglier than you, right!”

“Ugly?” Da Chong gave a cold laugh, “To be honest, I’ve never seen such a handsome person in my life.”

“Really?” The classmates beside him all asked him this.

Chun Hua didn’t forget to ask, “Don’t listen to his nonsense. I feel that it’s not a handsome guy, that’s why he’s saying this.”

Luo Qing Chen heard the discussion of her classmates around her and took a deep breath. She pursed her lips to look at Luo Qing Mian, “Mian Mian.....I have a very strange feeling, can you understand? This is a wave of excitement that is filling my heart, as if.....”

“Big sister, you don’t need to say anything.” Luo Qing Mian’s fingers trembled and nervously gave a gulp before saying, “I have the same feeling as you.”

He also felt very strange, this feeling was like a burst of excitement in his heart.

Very strange, very strange.....

“Tell me.....why.....why are we feeling like this?”

Hua Cai Jin finally saw the face of the person who was coming under the reflection of the light.

He immediately stood up and looked at Luo Qing Chen, “Qing Chen!”

At the same time, her phone vibrated and there was a familiar ringtone.

“A story between two people won’t come too late, the people of the past are already different. I don’t know where to go next, it seems I’ll be hurt next year.....”

She suddenly trembled as her slender fair fingers reached into her pocket. In front of all her classmates, she slowly took out her cell phone.

She took a deep breath as her left hand tightly held Luo Qing Mian's clothes and her right hand brought the phone in front of her.

What entered her eyes were the most familiar three words.

Qian Si Nai.
