Chapter 2481: God! Mary Sue world (23)

“What is happening! She just suddenly fell down!”

“She was fine this morning and at such a young age.....”

“Mom.....mom, I’m scared.....”

Most of the people in first class were awakened by this and the people in the front of economy also came over.

“Turn the light up as much as possible.” Luo Qing Chen bent over for a simple inspection and then knitted her brows under the large sunglasses, “Acute myocardial infarction.”

The stewardess heard this and immediately said, “I.....I’ll go get the medicine.”

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen gave a nod. She laid the girl flat and covered her heart with a blanket before looking at her to say, “Can you hear me?”

She knitted her brows and revealed a strong look of pain.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and said, “The situation isn’t good, I’m going to do some emergency treatment. How long before the flight reaches its destination?”

The stewardess said in a panic, “Around two hours.....”

“It won’t be in time.” Luo Qing Chen cut her off and said, “I’ve injected her with some medicine, but it’ll only last around an hour.”

“Then what do we do.....this is already near the South Pole.....we’ve never made an emergency landing in this area before!” The stewardess was clearly very flustered.

“She needs immediate surgery for her acute myocardial infarction.” Although Luo Qing Chen’s expression was very serious, her voice was very calm as she said, “If you can’t send her to a hospital within an hour, there’s no need to call 911 when you land.”

“Wh.....Why?”

“You can just send her to the funeral home.”

Although Luo Qing Chen’s words were direct, in this emergency, it was very necessary to put things as simple as possible.

At the same time, the young man who had been sitting in front looked at Luo Qing Chen in her trench coat and sunglasses and his eyes became more gentle.

“Alright! I’ll immediately contact the terminal.” The stewardess said, “Miss, can you give me your name?”

Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows. After hesitating a bit, she slowly took off her sunglasses and said, "Luo Qing Chen."

"Si!" There was a collective gasp of shock.

All the people on the plane turned their eyes to Luo Qing Chen.

Even Gong Yu Bai who had been silent this entire time.

He looked at Luo Qing Chen immediately with eyes filled with disbelief.

She seemed to have noticed this passionate gaze and when Luo Qing Chen turned around, she met his gaze.

Strange fragments filled Gong Yu Bai's mind at that time.

It was like fragments of a dream.....

The end of the world, zombies all around, as a dual awakener Power User, he went on a journey to save the world.

It was because of this dream that he had since he was young that when the film "Apocalypse 2150" needed a male lead, he decided to star in it.

The reason was that he wanted to find a figure.....

Of course, no one in this world dared to compete with him.

As for why, normal people didn't need to know!

"This.....Isn't this Luo Qing Chen?"

"The female lead of "World Shaking Jin Su Sheng", ah, ah, ah! She even learned medicine! So powerful!"

"She's so pretty in real life! And so low key!"

"I was looking forward to "Youth", but after they changed the female lead, I even cancelled Weibo!"

"Right, right, right! What kind of thing is that.....I feel that baby Qing and Jin Xuan are quite a match! What a pity!"

.....

She naturally knew that people would recognize her after she took off the sunglasses.

But she never thought that there would be so many 'gossipers' here.

Chapter 2482: God! Mary Sue world (24)

Ten minutes later, there was an announcement in the cabin.

"To all passengers, because a passenger on the plane has had a heart attack and needs immediate surgery, we will be making a temporary stop in Chile. Our company expresses our deepest apologies for the inconvenience this brings."

In the end, the flight didn't keep going and decided to make an emergency landing in Santiago.

As soon as she got off, Luo Qing Chen felt one thing.

It was cold!

After getting off the plane, some passengers still decided to continue to the South Pole. Luo Qing Chen looked at Gong Yu Bai, it seemed like he hadn't decided to keep going.

Luo Qing Chen thought about it and started heading in his direction.

But before she could take a single step, the stewardess called out to her.

"Miss Luo, can you come with us to the hospital?" The stewardess said in a very polite voice, "The hospital called us and told us that they wanted to know the patient's values when she first had the heart attack."

"I remember that I wrote it on her wrist." Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she was clearly a bit hesitant.

It was the professional thing to record the time of the heart attack and the values of the patient when the heart attack first came on.

Her medical skills weren't considered high, but they weren't low either.

Before this girl was taken to the hospital, she had already written the values on her wrist for the next doctor to treat her.

There shouldn't be.....a problem.

"Yes!" The stewardess awkwardly said, "The doctors here can't read Chinese.....They also said on the phone that eastern and western values aren't the same, so there could be errors."

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she turned in Gong Yu Bai's direction.

But Gong Yu Bai, who had been standing not far away, had already disappeared.

God! What is this? Where did he go?

Luo Qing Chen felt a bit anxious. She had followed Gong Yu Bai to show off, but before she could do anything, she had already lost him.

There was the stewardess beside her who kept on talking.

"Miss Luo, if you can, please come with us to the hospital....."

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes before suddenly opening them, "I got it! Let's go now!"

After arriving at the hospital, Luo Qing Chen learned that there really was a difference in domestic and foreign medical care.

The usage and dosage of medicines were different, even some of the commonly used medicines were different.

Luo Qing Chen explained the girl's situation to the doctor in fluent English and ten minutes later, she was pushed into the operating room.

"It really has been hard on you today!" The stewardess said with a bow, "Our airline has already reserved a room for the passengers that will stay in Santiago today, I'll take you there now!"

Luo Qing Chen gave a yawn and looked at the surgery lamp, "No need! I'm not planning on going to the South Pole anymore."

"Eh...." The stewardess gave a nod and then handed a business card to Luo Qing Chen, "Our airline will provide a return ticket. You can call me anytime you need it."

Luo Qing Chen took the card and looked at it before saying, "Thank you."

The main reason was that she didn't know where Gong Yu Bai was now. If he returned, what would she go to the South Pole for!

Was it that hard to see penguins?

Luo Qing Chen stayed at the hospital for a bit as she went onto Weibo.

As expected, what she did on the plane had instantly reached the top trending charts.

x

Chapter 2483: God! Mary Sue world (25)

#Popular actress Luo Qing Chen saved a girl having a heart attack on a plane#

Seeing this title, her lips couldn't help curling slightly. The entertainment industry was like this, as long as you showed a positive side in front of a lot of people, they would have a good evaluation of you.

The previous host didn't have the Mary Sue aura, so every time that she was exposed, it would all be bad news.

There was no chance to redeem herself and what she didn't know was that all roads lead to Rome, so all these chances were created by her.

Of course, the opportunities were given to those who were prepared.

She was prepared and accepted the challenge of the Mary Sue halo.

But people had been set up before. The entertainment industry had its own rules and one had to follow 'them' to live.

Luo Qing Chen logged onto Weibo and gave a simple statement.

Luo Qing Chen V: Be assured! Everything is fine.

In less than ten seconds, her phone started shaking wildly.

It seemed like many fans were worried about her current situation, so they all paid attention to her post.

As soon as she posted, there were several pages of replies.

Candy Coloured Princess: Is my Qing alright? Why do I feel nervous when I saw that the plane made an emergency landing!

Nine Blessing Fairy: Wa! I never thought that my Qing would be so good at medicine! Isn't this using a silver needle to bring back the dead in ancient times?

Stream of Light: Yo! It must be someone stealing my Qing's role that my Qing's attention was scattered. ټ(O▽O")

Wood Wood Wood: Right, don't be sad baby Qing! It's cold there, so take care of yourself! Love!

.....

Seeing these comments, Luo Qing Chen's lips couldn't help curling. If it was said at the beginning that she just wanted to show off.

Seeing the comments that her fans left, she really felt that reporting her safety to everyone was the most important thing.

After all, she had been cut off from them, but they were truly worried about her.

Although some of them might not be real fans, most of them were cute little fairies.

She liked this feeling. It wasn't because she was vain, but because this was her armour!

After sending out several messages, the surgery light dimmed.

When the doctor came out, the young girl was also pushed out. He said that the surgery was successful in broken English and Luo Qing Chen nodded to show she understood.

The young girl was only half awake at this time. She looked at Luo Qing Chen and her lips moved.

Although Luo Qing Chen couldn't read lips, she could understand the look in her eyes.

She was thanking her.

"Rest well, the doctor has already contacted your parents." Luo Qing Chen said with a chuckle, "Remember to be polite in the future. Your male god might not like girls who don't know how to be polite."

She heard this and gave a serious nod.

Watching her be pushed off to the observation ward, Luo Qing Chen left the hospital.

It was already dark and the cold wind hit her face.

Looking at her phone, it was already 4:30 in the morning!

Since they were close to the South Pole and it was already winter, the temperature in Santiago was quite low.

Even if she was wearing a thick coat, she was still shivering from the cold.

A foreign country wasn't like her own country, there were less people and since it was early morning, there were few people around. Only the faint light from the hospital shined on her face.

She couldn't help laughing at herself as she said, "Why does it feel like my eagerness to help others feels like a Mary Sue thing! This world really is terrifying."

[The host really is kind.]

When the system's voice rang out, she suddenly didn't feel as alone.

Chapter 2484: God! Mary Sue world (26)

She replied with a chuckle, "This is the least you can do as a person. There aren't many kind people in the world, at least you can make them not feel lonely."

Then with a 'xiu' sound, there was a long Lincoln that appeared in front of her.

System, could it be that kind people suffer?

[.....]

System, why aren't you saying anything? You're pretending to be dead when you're in danger?

In the end, four burly men came out and the system still didn't give her a single response.

"Hello! Miss Luo, the young master has sent us to pick you up."

"Young master?" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, "Who is your young master?"

"Young master Gong Yu Bai."

After leaving the hospital, it took around half an hour's drive to arrive at a villa in wine country.

Gong Yu Bai was in a white bathroom with a 82 Lafite in hand, standing in front of the window with slightly knitted brows.

Luo Qing Chen, Luo Qing Chen, Luo Qing Chen.....

This name was so familiar. In his dream, there was a girl with the name Luo Qing Chen who kept appearing.

Every time he wanted to see her face, he would strangely wake up from the dream.

In order to answer the questions in his heart, he went to film "Apocalypse 2150".

He didn't know why he had this strange dream, but he couldn't forget the scene of their first meeting on the plane.

When he gave her the pen, he felt strangely nervous.

He had never.....felt this way before.

The South Pole plan was cancelled and he went to face this twenty year old dream.

"Di, di."

The Lincoln arrived at the manor and she felt a bit strange when four large men bowed to her at the same time.

"The young master is waiting upstairs for the miss Luo, please go that way."

"Un, thank you."

Along the way, Luo Qing Chen was deep in thought!

Un! Serious thought!

Whether it was dropping the pen on the plane, saving the girl from a heart attack, or when they got off the plane.....

She never got an affection notification from the system.

Then there was the problem!

Since Gong Yu Bai didn't have any affection for her, why would he invite her to his villa?

Wait!

Villa! This was Santiago! Gong, Gong, Gong.....Why did Gong Yu Bai have a villa here!

Even if his net worth had increased because of "Apocalypse 2150", he couldn't be this rich because of a single film!

She could accept a domestic villa, but she couldn't accept him having a villa where the plane landed, alright?

Luo Qing Chen suddenly looked up. The large man had just opened the door to the third floor master bedroom and she saw Gong Yu Bai's back facing her.

"Young master, miss Luo is here."

"Un, you can leave!"

“Yes.”

The door to the master bedroom was closed.

Gong Yu Bai turned around with a calm look and a sparkle in his deep eyes as he looked at Luo Qing Chen, “I’ve long heard your name.”

“Same, same.” Luo Qing Chen immediately replied, “God Yu’s fame in the entertainment industry is a peak that no one can match.”

Business talk, she knew it too!

If you praise me, I’ll praise you.

Luo Qing Chen thought that Gong Yu Bai would reply with praise, but he said something that instantly stunned her.

“I’m not talking about the entertainment industry. I don’t pay attention to it, it was only on the plane that I found out that you were a star.” Gong Yu Bai narrowed his deep eyes as he looked at her, “I’m talking about.....my dream.”

Chapter 2485: God! Mary Sue world (27)

“Your dream?” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, “What dream? Shouldn’t this kind of dream be fake? God Yu, don’t tell me that you brought me to your villa at this time of night to interpret your dream, right!”

Actually she was very happy since she thought that her strategy had worked.

At least right now Gong Yu Bai was giving her a chance to meet him alone.

“Pretty much.” Gong Yu Bai took a half glass of wine on the side to give to her, “If you can clear up this confusion, I can guarantee your smooth sailing in the entertainment industry.”

“It seems like god Yu isn’t simply a popular idol.” After Luo Qing Chen took the wine, she finished it in one gulp before saying with a smile, “Please.”

Actually, she didn’t like this kind of transaction feeling, but since Gong Yu Bai didn’t have any affection for her right now, she couldn’t say anything.

This person really was a bit difficult!

Gong Yu Bai was surprised as he saw that her face wasn’t red at all after drinking the wine. He narrowed his eyes and revealed a slight look of admiration in his eyes.

He filled her glass in a gentlemanly manner before saying, “I wonder if miss Luo has seen the movie that I made.”

Luo Qing Chen took a sip of the wine with those moving lips. She took the sip before giving a nod to say, "I do."

"I always dream that I'm in an apocalyptic world and have awakened dual powers. There is a person named Luo Qing Chen in this world....."

"Pu, ke, ke.....Ke, ke, ke....."

Before Gong Yu Bai could finish, Luo Qing Chen almost choked on her wine!

What was this? After the task was finished, was there still a link between that world and this world?

Was the system teasing her?

Of course, the system wouldn't say a word at this time and pretend to be dead.

But it was clear that Luo Qing Chen couldn't act the fool. After all, her actions had shown that she clearly knew about this.

"As expected.....It's you!" Gong Yu Bai narrowed his eyes as he moved towards her step by step.

They weren't far apart to begin with and even if Gong Yu Bai took small steps, he was in front of her in just five steps.

"So what?" Luo Qing Chen was about to die from her nervousness, but she pretended to be calm on the surface. She calmly looked up and said, "So what if it's not me?"

"So you've also had the same dream?" Gong Yu Bai's question was very direct. Or it couldn't be considered direct, this was the only connection that he could think of.

"You awakened ice and water powers, right?" Luo Qing Chen put her hands in her pocket as she revealed a faint smile.

Gong Yu Bai was surprised. He slightly knitted his beautiful brows as his magnetic and cool voice rang in her ears, "Yes."

"You could also erase other people's memories?"

"Yes."

"The Luo Qing Chen in your dream had fire and space abilities, right?"

"Yes."

His expression was different with each 'yes', it was an expression of constant eagerness and excitement.

"Ke, ke." Luo Qing Chen took a sip of her wine before clearing her throat, "One last question."

"Ask....." His eyes were deep and couldn't be considered gentle, it was a kind of extreme focus.

There was a feeling of wanting to see through her heart.....

"Did you like the girl named Luo Qing Chen in your dream very much?"

Although she hadn't acted flirty in a while, she felt that her ability to act flirty shouldn't have decreased.

At least she was very satisfied with this trap!

x

Chapter 2486: God! Mary Sue world (28)

Gong Yu Bai's eyes became more and more focused as it came closer.

Only stopping a few centimeters away, he narrowed them as he said, "Yes!"

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 10%.]

Yes! She had finally taken the first step.

How much Gong Yu Bai's heart was throbbing at this moment, perhaps only he knew.

For over twenty years, he would have this dream every once in a while.

He could feel that he was madly in love with the girl named Luo Qing Chen in his dream, but when he woke up, he couldn't remember her appearance at all.

This feeling had always been in him. At the age of eighteen, he wrote the novel "Apocalypse 2150".

After writing it, he found the most famous director to make the film for him.

Whenever he had these thoughts, he would watch the movie and suppress the throbbing of his heart.

But today, he couldn't suppress it.....

Luo Qing Chen looked into his beautiful eyes and raised her right hand to tap between his brows, "Because I was the hero who saved you in my previous life, so you keep having this kind of dream. It should be you missing me!"

[The host really knows how to flirt!]

God damn! Could it be that you want me to tell him that we met in the past world and that his name was Qian Si Nai? We fought the zombies together and created a better world?

[.....]

Gong Yu Bai suddenly raised his left hand and grabbed her wrist, pushing her down against the sofa.

Luo Qing Chen felt a bit nervous.

"The hero who saved me?" Gong Yu Bai's brows raised slightly as he looked at her with a sparkle in those beautiful eyes, "But why do I remember saving you in my dreams!"

"Nonsense!" Luo Qing Chen blinked before seriously looking at him, "We saved each other!"

"Then why are you the hero who saved me?" He revealed a smile. Although his eyes were still as bottomless as before, there was a gentle look in them.

“You.....” Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, “I came to interpret your dreams and you’re still questioning me!”

“It’s not questioning.” Gong Yu Bai narrowed his eyes and slowly let go, “It’s thinking about how to repay this great hero!”

Luo Qing Chen fixed her clothes before standing up, “Didn’t god Yu say that you would make my career in the entertainment industry smooth?”

“Un humph?” Gong Yu Bai calmly looked at her and said, “Do you want to make a film or a drama series?”

“It’s all fine!” Luo Qing Chen thought about it and said, “But I have quite a few scripts on hand and I haven’t had time to read them.”

She had promised sister Mi that she would respond when she had time, but she never thought that all these things would happen and she wouldn’t have any time.

“Just let go of the scripts you have!” Gong Yu Bai picked up a tablet from the table that he handed to Luo Qing Chen, “There are three major directors that want to film this year, two movies and one drama series, you can take a look.”

Luo Qing Chen reached out to take the tablet, but Gong Yu Bai’s right hand moved back slightly.

“Yo! What is it! Is god Yu reluctant to give me the script!” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a faint smile.

Gong Yu Bai gave a soft snort and helplessly said, “I won’t act. Not to mention that we’re not the same gender.”

“Then.....why are you taking it back.”

“I want to make this deal a bit more passionate.”

“What do you mean?”

“Can you make that dream.....come more frequently!”

Chapter 2487: God! Mary Sue world (29)

Luo Qing Chen froze as a sparkle appeared in her clear eyes.

She slowly raised her right hand and tapped Gong Yu Bai on the forehead, catching him off guard.

The other person was stunned as he looked at her in a daze.

“I say, mister Gong, have you read too many fantasy novels! You’re even asking me if I can make your dream come true?” Luo Qing Chen took the tablet from his hand, “God Yu is god Yu, the projects of the foreign major directors and they’re all female lead parts.”

The two films were foreign directors worth over a hundred million and the male lead had already been decided.

One was a western actor emperor and one was a Korean actor emperor who were the male gods of their nations.

“If I play the female lead of these two films, I will be ‘visited’ by many little fans.” Luo Qing Chen pretended to shiver before revealing a smile, “When the time comes, they will use another language to attack me and I can’t even refute them!”

“.....” Gong Yu Bai calmly looked at her with a provocative look in her eyes, “You even spoke your own language on the plane!”

Luo Qing Chen was surprised before rolling her eyes at Gong Yu Bai. She pointed at the third page on the tablet, “I plan on taking this drama series.”

She didn’t know why Gong Yu Bai liked to confront her, it’s fine if he wasn’t gentle, but it was even black bellied!

Then again, his identity was just too mysterious. This villa definitely wasn’t a temporary villa, it definitely belonged to the Gong Family.

Why would you say this? Because there was a large picture of Gong Yu Bai on the east wall of the living room on the first floor.

She never thought that such a cold person would be this narcissistic.

Not to mention that this was Santiago, the capital of Chile! This was over a hundred thousand miles from China and Gong Yu Bai had villas in this place, so his identity definitely wasn’t simple.

“Un humph?” Gong Yu Bai gave a snort before looking at her with cold eyes, “So lacking in ambition?”

He thought that she would at least choose the foreign blockbuster, he never thought that she would choose this drama series.

It had to be known that drama series weren’t only long, but they definitely didn’t make as much money as films.

But in terms of exposure, some drama series were better than films.

But.....Gong Yu Bai felt that Luo Qing Chen should choose the blockbuster. He had a bit of expectation and he hoped that she chose the films.

The American sci-fi blockbuster “Steel Robot” and the South Korean blockbuster “Negative 120 Degrees”.

He had seen both of these scripts and knew that they were blockbusters. There was also basically no romance between the male and female leads.

Let alone those heart pounding kissing scenes!

“This isn’t called a lack of ambition.” Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile, “This is called foresight.”

The drama that Gong Yu Bai gave her wasn’t on the list that sister Mi gave her. That was because the director Li Yuan who was the number one director in China didn’t have any intentions of her playing the female lead.

The previous host had a deep impression of this director.

He had only made a total of three films and one drama in his career, but no matter what it was, it was very popular!

Whether it was a new star or a lesser known actress, they all wanted to act in his films.

It was a pity that this person had a unique vision. Not a single person he supported wasn’t famous and those that he didn’t want didn’t get a chance.

Not to mention.....that the male lead of this film had already been decided.

x

Chapter 2488: God! Mary Sue world (30)

“Shouldn’t it be considered having foresight to enter Hollywood?” Gong Yu Bai took a sip of the wine and leaned against the window, narrowing his eyes to look at her.

His eyes were deep and there was an inexplicable emotion in those beautiful eyes.

“Although that is true, compared to the male lead of the other two projects, I like the male lead of this drama more.” Luo Qing Chen pointed at the handsome youth on the tablet, “Ye Shi Liang! This year’s most popular newcomer. It seems that director Li Yuan really has some good eyes.”

“Most popular?” Gong Yu Bai looked at her with an inquisitive look.

Luo Qing Chen seemed to have caught his message and quickly said, “I’ll circle the key point there! Newcomer, newcomer!”

Why was this person not only black bellied, but also a bit jealous!

Please, bro! You care about it this much at 10% affection, wouldn’t you be a psycho at 100%?

No, no, no! She shook her head and thought: She should think about the good things, how could she think about the bad things.

Gong Yu Bai looked at Ye Shi Liang on the tablet and knitted his brows. This youth had become popular because he acted in a youth drama and Li Yuan liked his acting in his previous role very much. When he was about to make this youth drama, he immediately thought of him.

“You have to think this through.” Gong Yu Bai looked at her with a slightly dark look, “This is a youth drama, there will be kissing scenes and even bed scenes in the later stages. Are you sure that you’re fine with this?”

“No problem!” Luo Qing Chen looked up at him with a very calm look, “Relax, I’m a professional actress, I won’t lose face for you.”

“Lose.....” Gong Yu Bai knitted his brows and was a bit hesitant to speak.

Why did he feel a bit reluctant? Why didn’t he want her to choose this youth drama?

Even if he knew that there was a large gap between this youth film and other youth films. One was the director and the other was the author of the book.

He didn’t like many things, but this novel was one of them.

“If you’re sure there is no problem, I will have my assistant arrange a meeting with the director when I go back tomorrow.” Gong Yu Bai put his hands in his pocket and calmly looked at her, “The male lead has already been confirmed, so do you want a meeting with your ‘favourite male lead’?”

Without knowing why, Luo Qing Chen felt that there was a mocking tone in Gong Yu Bai’s voice.

This feeling was very profound!

“No need, Ye Shi Liang and I can be considered acquaintances.” Luo Qing Chen folded her arms at her chest and looked at Gong Yu Bai with a faint smile, “As long as god Yu helps me get the female lead role, it’s fine. As for what kissing scenes or bed scenes, you don’t need to worry, I’m very dedicated!”

There was a ‘ding’ sound as the wine glass was put on the table.

It wasn’t hard or soft, but one could feel the faint anxiety in the other side’s heart.

“Un.” A few seconds later, he calmly replied, “You can go and ask the butler to arrange a room for you. You can go back with me tomorrow.”

He didn’t know why he was anxious, this feeling was very strange and he couldn’t explain it. All he knew was that he didn’t like this feeling, but he couldn’t show it.

After suppressing it for long, it was easy for him to get depressed.....

“You’re going back tomorrow?” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and blinked as she said, “You’re not going to the South Pole anymore?”

“How did you know I was going to the South Pole?” There was a sparkle that lit up in those deep eyes.

Chapter 2490: God! Mary Sue world (32)

“You.....You, you, you.....” Luo Qing Chen gave two coughs as she felt a bit of pain from the wrist he was holding.

But she didn't care about the pain right now! The room was so dark that she couldn't see Gong Yu Bai in front of her.

His magnetic voice rang out in her ear, "I had the same dream last night, I could see the girl clearly."

Dream? Could it be what she said about the end of the world.

Luo Qing Chen's eyes trembled as she said, "You're talking about.....your superpower world?"

"Un." He softly replied. His deep eyes looked at her in the darkness and asked, "Is it you? Is the person in the dream you?"

She could feel Gong Yu Bai's slightly trembling right hand that she realized how important this dream that had been with him for twenty years was to him.

The outsiders who called him 'god Yu' should have never seen him like this!

"If it isn't me, would you give me the chance to play the female lead?" Luo Qing Chen broke the cold atmosphere with a chuckle.

She could feel the other side coming a bit closer. The faint mint smell from his body suddenly surrounded her.

Luo Qing Chen felt like her heart was in her throat and after a deep breath, she forgot to breathe.

Then she closed her eyes and felt that the 'storm' was about to come.

But then with two 'da, da' sounds, the lights came on.

"What are you closing your eyes for?" Gong Yu Bai's cool voice entered her ears along with a bit of a chuckle.

"I.....I'm lacking vitamin A, so my eyes aren't too good in dark places." Luo Qing Chen quickly covered her burning ears and sat down on a sofa beside her.

"Even if you weren't lacking in vitamin A, there wasn't anything to see just now." Gong Yu Bai poured a glass of water and sat down across from her as he asked, "Director James told me yesterday that if you starred in "Steel Robot", he would give you an eight figure salary."

"Eight.....Eight figures?" Luo Qing Chen couldn't come back to her senses. An eight figure salary would be enough even for a first class actress.

Moreover, it was a foreign blockbuster.

"Un humph? Are you moved?" Gong Yu Bai narrowed his eyes to look at her, "Before you meet director Li, there's still a chance to choose."

When he sent her off last night, he strangely felt a bit restless.

He sent an email to James in the middle of the night and it was an urgent message.

James quickly replied, saying that not only could he increase the salary, he could even raise the importance of the female lead role.

Although Luo Qing Chen's baby face was indeed suited for a youth series, he was still very unwilling.

This unwilling feeling that made his heart resist!

He never thought that someone like him be this troubled about a girl.

"But didn't you agree to let me star in "You Are More Shocking Than Time"?" Luo Qing Chen put her cheek on her right hand, "I am very dedicated! Moreover, I also talked to big brother Shi Liang on WeChat yesterday to say that I was looking forward to working together!"

Un! She had indeed sent a message to Ye Shi Liang yesterday, but it was only to greet him. There was no nonsense about working together!

"Ye Shi Liang?" Gong Yu Bai gave a cold snort, "You move quite fast!"
