Chapter 2651: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (2)

After sorting out her memories, Luo Qing Chen felt that this story was very interesting.

It wasn't considered sad, it was just very difficult.

To some extent, it could be said that the previous host was killed by the male lead Lu Jue Feng.

The matters went to mister L, the richest man in the country looking for his granddaughter.

Luo Bai Wan didn't become the world's richest man as a rich second generation.

He reached his position through his own virtues, building his business empire step by step.

The previous host was the bloodline that was left behind in his youth when he hadn't gone into business yet.

Of course, he had left behind a son and the previous host was his son's daughter.

In short, she was his granddaughter.

After nearly half a century, mister Luo Bai Wan who was the richest man in the world began looking for his long lost granddaughter.

After all, after having status, wealth, and power, family became the most important.

He had a wife, a son, and a granddaughter.

But they had been sacrificed for his business.

The duels of the rich people's world were black and white. He couldn't protect them, so they were torn away by kidnappers.

The kidnappers were caught in the end, but so what? They had only followed orders and the real culprits were still out there.

Now at the age of sixty, there was no one to inherit his large fortune and he couldn't have any more children.

The only hope was to find his son from his youth and that son's children.

This matter was like looking for a needle in a haystack for normal people. After all, not to mention a granddaughter, even his son would be hard to find.

But he wasn't the same.

At first he didn't know if his son was still alive and if he had a granddaughter.

But after many investigations, it had basically been confirmed that he had a granddaughter.

But his son had died in a car crash fifteen years ago.

His wife had also been killed at the same time. They had used their lives to protect the three year old girl and allowed her to miraculously survive.

This girl was later taken in by an orphanage and given to another family.

When the orphanage was investigated, it was found that it had long closed.

No one knew which family the previous host had been sent to and no one knew if this family treated her well.

Actually.....it wasn't good.

It was a normal family. The parents thought that they wouldn't have children, so they adopted the previous host so they would have someone to take care of them when they were old.

This thinking was terrifying at first. Taking in a three year old so she could take care of them when they were older, there wasn't much love in the important places.

Not to mention that two years after they adopted her, the couple who thought that they would never have a child became pregnant.

After having their own flesh and blood, the previous host's existence became dispensable.

After all, one's flesh and blood surpassed the heavens, not to mention that they were from a family that wasn't well off.

Adopting the previous host was just to secure their old age.

But they no longer needed her with their own child.

A month after their child had been born, the couple wanted to send the previous host back to the orphanage.

They even wondered if they could get some child support from the orphanage.

After all, the previous host had lived for free in their house for two years, so getting a bit of money wasn't too much.

But they never thought that the orphanage had been demolished in just two short years.

They couldn't contact the dean no matter who they called. After a few days, this unreachable number became a void number.

That was when the previous host started living a nightmarish life.

Chapter 2652: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (3)

The couple was very angry because of this. Their living conditions weren't good to begin with and now they had to raise this girl for nothing, so that filled them with resentment.

Wedding Reception Games For Bride a...

Wedding Reception Games For Bride and Groom

This resentment needed to be vented, so the previous host became their target.

From the age of five, she had to do all kinds of work. From washing clothes to cooking food to moving various things, not a single one was missed.

That included taking care of her little sister, Fang Xin Xin.

Her life couldn't be more bitter.

For the previous host, the only time she was alive was when she went to school each day.

She cherished it.....

Why would the stingy couple send the previous host to school?

The reason was very simple, they were vain!

Their neighbours, friends, and relatives all knew that they adopted a child.

They had boasted about being loving and caring.

If they knew about it earlier, poor people like them wouldn't have boasted and this was the only time.

But if everyone knew that they wouldn't even let the previous host go to school.....

The gossip would naturally surface.

So they reluctantly paid the tuition fee for the previous host.

It was a good thing that for the nine years of compulsory education, the fees weren't that high, but that didn't mean that there weren't any. Because the previous host used their money, they squeezed even more out of the previous host.

The previous host in her teens could only sleep a few hours each day.

But this wasn't the worst part.

Fang Xin Xin had been spoiled since she was young and always treated the previous host as her servant.

She still played with her when she was young, but she hated her when she grew up, hated her from the bottom of her heart.

She disliked her rough hands, her ugly clothes, and her disheveled appearance.

But she kept her dislike in her heart and didn't show it on the surface.

She always thought that she was a princess and had to act perfectly in front of her classmates.

If she bullied an adopted girl, people would have a bad image of her.

When they were at school, she would ask the previous host to do things in a gentle manner, but when they were at home, she would go back to pointing her finger at the previous host like a shrewd mother in law.

The funny thing was that in this environment, the previous host was actually a pure idiot.

She thought that her adoptive parents treated her badly because she didn't do well and that Fang Xin Xin only yelled at her at home because she was afraid that their parents would see her treating her nicely?

So in her heart, Fang Xin Xin at school was the real Fang Xin Xin.

The previous host really was a cute fool.

It was because she knew everything and would help people that her classmates liked her.

Although her hands were rough, she did have a good face.

Ye Qing was among them. He was the school hunk and someone everyone looked up to.

Fang Xin Xin also liked Ye Qing, so she was even more disgusted when Ye Qing frequently went looking for the previous host.

In her heart, the previous host had stolen her Ye Qing. If it wasn't for the previous host, Ye Qing would definitely love her.

So Fang Xin Xin planned on chasing the previous host out of the house and she used her falling as an excuse.

"Qing Chen, help me hold this ladder, I want to get something."

"Come down, I'll get it for you."

"No need! It's hard enough for you! I'll do it myself!"

"Alright then."

This was the conversation between her and Fang Xin Xin. The ladder had been tampered with and when Fang Xin Xing fell, the previous host tried to catch her, but she was still injured.

But the previous host was more injured and was kicked out of the Fang House.

No medical bills and no tuition.

Chapter 2653: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (4)

The previous host was kicked out of the Fang House like this. She was also forced to leave school because she couldn't pay the tuition and fees.

At the age of sixteen, she only had herself in this world. No one held a lamp for her to light up the darkness in front of her.

But the problem was that while her life was miserable, someone still wanted to kill her.

The four young masters and the subordinates by Mister L's side all looked for Luo Bai Wan's granddaughter.

There would be people pretending to be his granddaughter, but they were all seen through.

But those people who pretended to be the previous host didn't know that what awaited the previous host wasn't wealth, but rather a well planned murder.

In this situation, for Mister L and to get rid of all enemies of the Luo Group, this person that could become Luo Bai Wan's weakness couldn't appear.

She had to die and she couldn't be found.

Lu Jue Feng knew that other than the four young masters looking for Luo Bai Wan's granddaughter, there were many other forces looking for her.

She couldn't be found by others and this girl couldn't appear in the Luo Family.

The death of a useless person wasn't terrifying, what was terrifying was this useless person changing the entire situation of the business world.

Therefore, Lu Jue Feng sent his subordinate Yan Tong to cause an accident after finding Luo Qing Chen.

To achieve great things, there must be sacrifices.

The pitiful previous host was hit by Yan Tong's Maserati while walking through the streets and died on the spot!

After the previous host died, the many unrealized things in her heart reached the bronze mirror and the host Luo Qing Chen appeared.

[Reminder to the host: The previous host was sweet and foolish, so you will receive an extra reward if you remain sweet and foolish most of the time.]

Can you tell me what the extra reward is?

[Buddha: No.]

Scram!

[The previous host had three things that she couldn't accomplish: One, the previous host liked to paint, so she hoped to become a painter. Second, she always treated Fang Xin Xin well, but she never thought that she would be treated like this. She felt that the Fang Family should receive their punishment. Third, she wanted to express her feelings to Ye Qing.]

?!

Express her feelings? But I remember that on the bronze mirror, Jiu.....the male lead's name was Lu Jue Feng!

Almost, she almost blurted out the name of a person from another world here.

No one knew how she felt and she wouldn't tell anyone.

After being in the special world for that long, she should grow up and use her actions to prove it. She would find his soul fragments and redeem her dream.

[Indeed! The further you go, the more difficult it is. The host has to decide for yourself.]

Luo Qing Chen then fell into deep thought. To express your feeling for the supporting male lead and then having to gain affection from the male lead step by step.

In this situation, why does she feel like someone who changed their mind easily.....

What if her wishes aren't fulfilled?

[The special plane will change, but the change is unknown.]

Really enough!

It was currently eleven at night and there was no one on the street.

She had come out of the hospital covered in gauze and her wounds still ached.

She vaguely remembered that the previous host died at midnight, which meant that the supporting female lead called Yan Tong should be driving her Maserati over soon.

Actually, she was a bit curious. Why was the supporting female lead called Yan Tong and not Fang Xin Xin?

Could it be.....

Chapter 2654: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (5)

At the same time, at the Royal Empire Hotel.

Lu Jue Feng was standing in front of a full length window on the thirty third floor with a faint glow in his deep and bottomless eyes.

There was a picture of a girl on the glass who was pretty and lively. Although she didn't have a nation collapsing face, her eyes should be considered rare in this world.

Killing a person wasn't as easy as one imagined, more so when it was an innocent person.

His hands were stained with the blood of many people, but very few innocent people.

This should be the first in his life and also the last.

Lu Jue Feng looked at the watch on his left hand and narrowed his eyes. He swayed the red wine in his hand before drinking it all.

Luo Qing Chen on the street was lost in thought. She was in a very dangerous situation and many people wanted her life.

Then again, she had no money. Although she could exchange for money with the system, she didn't have much exchange points left and she had to save them.

Since Lu Jue Feng had already found her, people who would be able to identify her would come one after the other.

So the best way was to find someone who wouldn't hurt her and would take her to Luo Bai Wan.

[The host really is smart!]

Since you know I'm smart, tell me if there are people like this and how many there are.

[Most of the people who want to find the host want the host dead, other than the Luo Family's butler.]

Butler?

[Chen Nan.]

She was unfamiliar with this name, but there was his image and his basic information that appeared in her mind.

This should be a notification from the system.

Don't think that butlers only managed the house, the Luo Group's butler had a much higher status than most business tycoons.

Chen Nan wasn't just a genius in math, but also a famous psychologist.

If he wasn't this kind of person, how could Luo Bai Wan rely on this person.

Everyone living in the Luo Manor wasn't a normal person, they all had their abilities and their own goals.

According to the information, Chen Nan and Lu Jue Feng knew each other long ago, but it was unknown how long ago that was.

[I feel that the host should take note of the time.....]

With the system's voice, Luo Qing Chen couldn't stop her hairs from standing on end.

She narrowed her eyes to look at the time on the bus stop not far away. It was 11:58.

"Did I make a mistake!" She muttered, "I was just analyzing the memories and now I have to meet a god of death?"

Although she said this, her expression was very calm.

There were no people around. The Fang Family didn't live well and in this remote place, there were only dilapidated houses.

No one would appear in this place after nine, not to mention at eleven.

Time ticked past and the area around her was dark. Other than the faint glow from the bus stop, there were no lights in this place.

In less than ten seconds, there was a light that appeared not far away and it came closer and closer from around the corner.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes and she revealed a faint taunting smile, "You want to take my life and send me to the king of hell?"

Yan Tong was sitting in her Maserati listening to heavy metal music. With her deep eyes, her flaming lips, and her leather jacket, she looked just like a female spy.

When Luo Qing Chen looked at the Maserati, she also looked at Luo Qing Chen.

Then her red lips curled and she stepped on the accelerator to charge at her.

Chapter 2655: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (6)

“Humph, laughable.”

In an instant, Luo Qing Chen took two steps back towards the bus stop sign.

The Maserati not far away didn't slow down and still charged over at a fast speed.

For Yan Tong, this was an absolutely easy task.

But she never thought that the girl not far away would jump at the moment before she hit her and the bus stop sign, jumping over the entire car.

She suddenly felt goosebumps all over her. What did she see just now, how could this person be this skilled?

Shouldn't there be a scream of terror and then a violent crash?

Why? Why did she only hear the violent crash and not the scream of terror?

And she was running away from such a skilled person.

It had to be known that many people wanted to be Lu Jue Feng's subordinate, but she was the only one who achieved this dream.

It wasn't for anything other than her being the best.

But how did she fail this easy task?

“Damn.” Yan Tong roared before her face became fierce.

She looked at the rearview mirror with piercing eyes. Luo Qing Chen was standing not far away in a white dress shirt, a thin coat, and her hands in her black pants, leaning against a lamppost.

Yan Yong suddenly backed up and tried to run her over.

Although it had already been exposed, as long as she died, everything would be buried in the dirt.

Luo Qing Chen saw the Maserati backing quickly and she went to the stone wall to the right.

Actually the best method was to go left, but since it was an old building, it wouldn't be good if someone got injured.

Since she had to be a sweet fool, then kindness should be the most important thing.

She didn't want to involve too many people in this matter.

Yan Tong had gone crazy and she had been angry when she had backed up, so the car slammed right into the stone wall and she was stuck inside.

“Fuck!” She angrily cursed. She took the pistol out of the glove department and planned on going out to take care of Luo Qing Chen in this deserted place. But the Maserati had already deformed and she couldn’t open the door at all.

It was at this time that Luo Qing Chen slowly came out of the alley on the side. She calmly looked at Yan Tong with a faint sparkle in her eyes.

Yan Tong had never failed before, so she raised the pistol to the window, “I urge you not to move or my bullets won’t have eyes.”

“If you could roll down the window, would you need to put it up to the glass?” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes to look at her desperately pushing the up and down button before revealing a taunting smile.

“What a joke, you think that bullets can’t pass through this window? Middle schoolers don’t have this common sense and are fools.” Yan Tong’s eyes opened wide. That dark shadow did look a bit terrifying under this faint light.

“Humph.” Luo Qing Chen took her hands out of her pockets to give a shrug, “You can give it a try. You can see if there’s a higher chance of the bullet rebounding or the bullet shattering the window.”

“You.....”

“This is my first time seeing bulletproof glass becoming a stumbling block for a killer killing a target.”

As soon as her voice fell, with a light smile in her eyes, she didn’t hesitate to turn and walk away without looking back once.

Chapter 2656: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (7)

She could hear the shaking sound behind her, but she wasn’t nervous at all.

After all these words, she could tell with one look if it was bulletproof glass or not.

Even if Yan Tong was angry, she couldn’t shoot because it would be very likely that she would be the one dying if she shot.

System, I have something to discuss.

[Host, please speak.]

I need money, but the money I exchange for can’t only be used in this world.

She couldn’t find Chen Nan like this, there was a 99% chance that Chen Nan wouldn’t see her like this.

After all, whether it was in the business or entertainment circle, anyone who didn’t have parents and knew that Luo Bai Wan was searching for his granddaughter would want to pretend to be her.

To become the granddaughter of the richest man in the world was everyone’s dream.

[Then the host needs to deduce double the points. The host's bank card will enter the storage space and can be used in every world that has ATMs.]

Big brother system, do you think I can use a hundred dollar bills in the ancient world without ATMs?

[Ding, 1000 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for a bank card with 1 million yuan. (The remaining money can be used continuously.)]

Touching her pocket, Luo Qing Chen muttered, "Ok!"

Since she could keep it, why would she use it all.

That night, Luo Qing Chen went to a twenty four hour business to buy another phone and installed a new card, as well as downloading many useful apps.

Then she went to the Royal Empire Hotel to book a high end suite.

If she wanted to see Chen Nan, she had to at least buy some clothes first.

But she was still covered in injuries. Although she had come to this world, she should rest up first.

After all, there were many people who wanted her life. Including the male lead that she wanted to attack, Lu Jue Feng.

At the same time, Lu Jue Feng in the hotel received a call from the hospital.

He knitted his brows. What he was waiting for was a call from the police station and not a call from the hospital.

Could it be.....that something happened?

The elevators of the Royal Empire Hotel had one up and one down. When Luo Qing Chen entered the right elevator, Lu Jue Feng came out of the left one.

The two knitted their brows at the same time. Luo Qing Chen didn't press the button and Lu Jue Feng stopped, looking at the right elevator for a long time.

After around thirty seconds, the elevator display showed that it was going up.

Lu Jue Feng narrowed his eyes as an indescribable feeling filled his heart. His heart that was like calm water had strange ripples for the first time.

It was already two when he arrived at the hospital. Yan Tong had been injured, her right hand was broken and her third vertebra was dislocated.

Yan Tong tried to stand up as soon as she saw him, "Young master, I....."

"Rest first." Lu Jue Feng didn't say much else. He then called Yan Ze who was also one of the four young masters, "Come to the hospital."

"Young master Feng, was your iron body finally crushed and you're in the hospital?" The other side's tone had a bit of teasing and playfulness.

Lu Jue Feng gave a soft snort, "Yan Tong is injured."

"What? Tong Tong is injured?"

"Un, are you coming?"

"Coming, coming, coming! Ten minutes.....No! I'll be there in eight minutes!"

Lu Jue Feng hung up and put his hands in his windbreaker as he sat down on the sofa on the side.

As mister L's most profitable four young masters, the most powerful among them should be Mo Ling, him, Tan Xiao, and Yan Ze.

Although Yan Tong was his subordinate, all four young masters treated her well. But Yan Ze's feeling towards her wasn't just this.

Chapter 2657: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (8)

Eight minutes later.

No it should be precisely seven minutes and forty seconds. Yan Ze came very quickly and Lu Jue Feng was certain that he came here by speeding.

"Did something happen? Why is Yan Tong injured? Why would she suddenly get injured?" Yan Ze immediately started asking questions as soon as he arrived.

Lu Jue Feng knitted his brows and felt his head act.

"Don't bother the young master. I was just injured on a mission." Yan Tong limped out of the emergency room.

Her face was a bit pale and most of her makeup was gone, even her red lips were a bit faded.

But her eyes were still very sharp.

"Tell me, what happened tonight?" Lu Jue Feng slowly stood up. His carved features were very handsome and there was a hint of coldness in those beautiful eyes. Just a few more looks would be enough to fall into them.

Yan Tong was rarely stared at this intently by him and felt a bit nervous at this moment.

"I'm sorry, young master....." Yan Tong lowered her head and didn't dare look at Lu Jue Feng's eyes. She bit her lip and said, "Other than some accidents, the prey escaped."

"Escape?" Lu Jue Feng slightly knitted his brows as he fell into deep thought.

"Yes....." Yan Tong said with trembling eyes, "But it was too dark and I couldn't see who saved her."

Lu Jue Feng narrowed his cold eyes when he heard this and no longer spoke.

In the current business circle, whether it was the bright or dark side, no one dared to not give Lu Jue Feng face.

Who had the ability to save someone from Yan Tong and Yan Tong wouldn't be able to recognize this person.

"Aiya, Tong Tong is already injured, so young master Feng shouldn't make it hard on her." Yan Ze put his hands at his hips, "Whoever it is, I'll take care of them."

"No need."

"Young master....." Hearing these two words from Lu Jue Feng, Yan Tong was visibly nervous.

How much effort she had used to reach his side and become his subordinate.

She absolutely could not leave a bad impression in Lu Jue Feng's heart because of this one failure.

"Aiya, Tong Tong! Since young master Feng has already said it, you should just rest up!" Yan Ze comforted her from the side, "I'll take care of this for you."

"No need."

"Aiya, young master Feng!"

"I'll handle it myself."

Although it was four simple words, when Lu Jue Feng said this, Yan Tong and Yan Ze both looked at him with surprised looks.

It had to be known that in the years Lu Jue Feng followed Luo Bai Wan, he rarely did anything in person.

There was only one time in all these years.

"You're really personally taking action!" Yan Ze took a cold breath, "Ze, ze, poor girl! But why do you insist on killing her?"

It should be said that these four young masters were trained by mister L. If he wanted to find his relative, they should do their best to help him.

"Some things won't disappoint if there aren't any expectations." Lu Jue Feng's expression changed slightly, "I'm not certain that this little girl is mister L's granddaughter. Even taking ten thousand steps back, if she was faced with the temptation of this large sum of money, what do you think she would do?"

"Si!" Yan Ze silently took a cold breath, "Young master Feng, your thoughts really are dark."

"Not to mention that once a person has a weakness, he's easy to threaten." Lu Jue Feng narrowed his eyes, "Once we fall from the height we're at, we won't leave any bones at all. Mister L is old, so he should live a safe life and he can't put himself in danger for this person that can't possibly be his granddaughter."

"Then what if this little girl really is mister L's granddaughter?"

"Then death is a relief for her because there's no one who can protect her at all times."

Chapter 2658: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (9)

It had to be said that Yan Ze didn't think the same as Lu Jue Feng, but he couldn't say anything to refute him.

Among the four young masters, although Lu Jue Feng wasn't the best, he was the one that mister L liked the most.

His reason for killing mister L's granddaughter seemed absurd, but it was understandable.

Mister L's life was the most important and as for his real or fake granddaughter.

Her life was unrelated to him.

But he wasn't willing to let mister L's heart be affected by this, since his old heart wasn't good.

So there were some things that had to be taken care of before things developed.

At the same time, the Royal Empire Hotel.

The first moment that Luo Qing Chen entered the room, there was a faint scent of red wine in the air.

With her understanding of red wine, this should be a 72 Lafite.

Alright! Actually she didn't have much understanding, but she recognized it from drinking it all those years.

Luo Qing Chen took two steps back and looked at the four numbers on the door: 3033.

She looked down and saw that her card was also 3033.

This was indeed her room, but why did she smell red wine!

Could it be that the hotel was specially using this 72 Lafite to lure her to this room?

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. She inserted the card into the slot at the door and the lights lit up.

There were a few magazines and papers on the table and a man's bathrobe on the sofa.

She couldn't help muttering, "Is there a mistake? It's a five star hotel and they can still give the wrong room card."

As soon as her voice fell, she wanted to turn around to go to the front desk. She inadvertently used her 5.2 eyesight to see the picture on the window.

Wait.....Wait, wait.....

Wasn't the person in the picture her?

She walked over to the full length window in two steps. The photo on the glass really was her and it wasn't a good looking picture with a gray top, worn out jeans, and hair that didn't have a style. Only the eyes looked that good.

There was a bit of sadness to them.....

Could it be that the owner of this room was.....Lu Jue Feng?

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and quickly took back the card, turning on the light of her phone.

After all, this was a newly bought phone that was at full charge.

There shouldn't be anyone in this room since they would have rushed out if there were.

There were very few things in this room and the door to the study was locked. She closed her eyes and instantly moved over.

Her intuition told her that there was something incredible inside and she was right.

The study was brighter than the outside and the lights could be turned on without a room card. There was some 'information' on the table and it should be considered incredible information.

But it was normal when one thought about it. Although Lu Jue Feng seemed aloof, when one talked about his identity, he was just the killer by Luo Bai Wan's side.

The people in these pieces of paper should be the targets that he already killed.

There was a safe on the side. Luo Qing Chen went over the memories the system gave her and there were some memories about Lu Jue Feng that the previous host didn't have.

The password should be 1111.

As for what it meant, she didn't know.

It should be something done casually since many people liked the combination 1111.

But Luo Qing Chen didn't expect that the only thing inside of the safe was a pistol.

Chapter 2659: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (10)

Although it wasn't a good thing to flip through other people's belongings, Lu Jue Feng wasn't considered 'another person'.

After all, he wanted to kill her.

Knowing the enemy meant you could win all battles. Other than that, she needed to dispel the thought of killing her if she wanted to attack the male lead.

After spending some time reading the information on the table, she found that most of them were about her.

As expected, someone who paid attention to someone else either loved them or wanted to kill them!

"Di, di."

When she was concentrating on reading, there was the sound of a key card being inserted into the door. "Damn." Luo Qing Chen muttered. She immediately turned off the light in the study and hid in a corner.

When Lu Jue Feng opened the door, he felt that the atmosphere around him was different.

Someone had come into his room. It should be more accurate to say that this person was still in the room.

He narrowed his eyes and a sharp killing intent flashed in his deep eyes. He cautiously moved forward and didn't insert the card into the slot.

The darker a place, the easier it was for an expert to subdue the other side.

Luo Qing Chen and Lu Jue Feng were thinking the same thing, so there wasn't a single bit of light in this room.

The two slowly approached each other not out of mutual attraction, but mutual wariness.

"Xiu, xiu." There was the sound of a room card that flew through the room. Luo Qing Chen perfectly moved to the side and her right hand caught the room card that Lu Jue Feng threw at her.

At that moment, both sides knew where the other side was.

Lu Jue Feng jumped forward and attacked Luo Qing Chen without a word. She narrowed her cold eyes and completely avoided Lu Jue Feng's attack.

'Not bad.' Luo Qing Chen couldn't help praising in her heart.

In this world without powers or immortal cultivation, Lu Jue Feng's smooth movements really opened her eyes.

The words 'kung fu' really were embodied by him.

A killer was a killer. The few moves were just to subdue the other side and they didn't show any mercy.

But it seemed right thinking about it. Why would he show mercy?

A killer had many enemies and if the enemy came, showing mercy would be not respecting one's own life.

While Luo Qing Chen was having this inner drama, Lu Jue Feng tightly knitted his brows.

On the dark and light side, he had seen many people, but he never thought that there would be such a skilled person.

And when they fought, why did he feel that the other side.....was a girl?

The two sides kept thinking about what the other was thinking. It was a bit worrying and a bit exciting.

Meeting a match really was one of the most exciting things.

"Interesting." Lu Jue Feng's cold as water voice entered her ears.

His fingers moved slightly and he unbuttoned his suit one by one.

With the sounds of the button being popped in this dangerous environment, there was also an air of ambiguity.

Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile and went over the sofa to head to Lu Jue Feng's side.

He naturally knew the other side was coming over, so he quickly counterattacked.

But then there was a pistol that was firmly placed at his temple.

Lu Jue Feng deeply knitted his brows. He put his hands in his pocket and leaned against the wall before saying with a lazy smile, "Not bad! Speak, who are you and what do you want?"

Chapter 2660: Silly and sweet: The lost granddaughter of the rich man (11)

It had to be said that Lu Jue Feng's voice really was nice. It was low with a touch of smoothness that immersed her as soon as he spoke.

Then adding in the faint scent of mint that came from him, it ruined the killing intent in the air.

"Ke, ke....." Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and said, "Mister Lu, I advise you not to move around. I can't use the M745 pistol well and if it accidentally goes off, you really can't blame me."

A sweet voice rang out that made Lu Jue Feng's heart tremble.

In that powerful match just now, his opponent was not just a girl, but even one with such a young voice.

But this girl knew so much about guns that she recognized the model with one look.

This ability was only available to spies, but there were no spies that were as good as her both on the light and dark sides.

Just how was she? Just who was she?

"Say your name." Lu Jue Feng's expression changed slightly as his cold voice slowly rang out, "I don't know going around in circles."

"Ze, ze." Luo Qing Chen couldn't help smiling as she teased, "Mister Lu, I'm pointing the pistol at your head, it's not you pointing the pistol at my head. Whether I like going around in circles or not, do you care?"

"You....."

Luo Qing Chen felt a kind of happiness blooming in her heart.

Humph! Who told Lu Jue Feng to try and kill her! It was good to punish him!

"But I know that you don't want to kill me." When she was filled with happiness, Lu Jue Feng's words were like a bucket of cold water pouring on her.

He was right, how could she want to kill him?

But he wanted to kill her, so she was serious!

“Narcissist.” Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug before saying with a smile, “I’m not killing you because you’re still useful to me! (Wait until you fall in love with me!)”

“Oh? Can I ask what use that is?” Without knowing why, there was a strange sense of relief in his heart when he talked to her. It was as if he could let go of things in his heart even if there was a gun pointed to his head.

“Un.....” Luo Qing Chen was silent for a few seconds before tilting her head to say, “I’m not telling you.”

“Then what can you tell me? Your name?”

“I’m not telling you.”

“Identity?”

“I’m not telling you.”

“Then what is your purpose in coming to find me?” Lu Jue Feng revealed a lazy smile as he met her eyes in the darkness, “Could it be because.....”

“Because what?” Luo Qing Chen heard his tone and felt that something was wrong!

The original tense atmosphere was gone and holding the gun to his head gave her an awkward feeling.

“You have a crush on me.”

“All nonsense!” Luo Qing Chen touched her ear with her left hand, “A ‘demon’ that doesn’t even blink when killing people wants people to have a crush on them, in your dreams!”

“Really?”

“Of course!” Luo Qing Chen looked out the door before saying with a smile, “We will meet again.”

As soon as her voice fell, she turned to leave the room. She felt that her face was a bit hot.

With a ‘peng’ sound, the door closed.

But before she closed the door, she accurately tossed the M745 pistol at his feet.

There was a faint glow that appeared in Lu Jue Feng’s deep eyes.

He leaned down and picked up the room card before inserting it in the slot.

The room lit up. Other than the traces of the fight, nothing had changed.

No.....

He looked over at the window.

That picture.....was gone.....
