Chapter 2731: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (3)

Everyone wanted an immortal medicine man. They could use her blood to save their lives when they were sick, they could use her blood to detoxify poisons they were inflicted with, and people with money and power could use her blood to live forever.

From the court to the Jianghu, everyone wanted the previous host. They wanted to use the previous host's life to gain the greatest benefits.

Only Shen Qing Feng knew that the immortal medicine man wasn't this.

She had her own destiny, her own secret.

Although Medicine King Valley had a high position in the Jianghu and was very strong, when all the forces came at once, even the powerful Medicine King Valley couldn't resist this attack.

Not long after, everyone in the Medicine King Valley was wiped out. Shen Qing Feng used his final breath to take the previous host to a hidden room before dying.

The previous host stayed in the hidden room alone for three days before returning to the Medicine King Valley with the same path.

The current Medicine King Valley was simply like heaven and hell compared to the past Medicine King Valley.

Covered in corpses and blood, full of ruins, a shocking scene.

The previous fell to her knees and raised her head into the sky as she started crying out loud.

The medicine man had no heart, but had feelings and thoughts.

The people in the pool of blood had all died fighting for her.

Even if not a single one of them wanted her to live, when they all died because of her, she couldn't help feeling unsettled.

It wasn't sympathy, it was more doubt, confusion, and disgust.....

Shen Qing Feng had saved her, but he had also died because of her identity.

The immortal medicine man.....did it save people or hurt people.

She didn't know and didn't want to know.

The previous host's story didn't end there. When she left the Medicine King Valley, she met the son of the Sword Trial Mountain Villa's master, Qi Tian Ge.

He was known as the youngest martial arts prodigy in the Jianghu and he had already made a reputation for himself.

Qi Tian Ge reached his hand out to the previous host and looked at her with his deep eyes, "In Jianghu, only I can protect you."

At that moment, the hand outstretched to the previous host was like a life saving straw and it was impossible to let go once she grabbed them.

The Sword Trial Mountain Villa was a sacred ground for martial arts. Other than the master Qi Gui Yang being famous around the world, each master was respected in the Jianghu.

So even if everyone knew that Qi Tian Ge brought the previous host to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa, no one dared to charge in.

Different from the Medicine King Valley, going against the Sword Trial Mountain Villa was like going against all of Jianghu.

No one dared to do this, other than.....Feng Chen Yin.

When he arrived at the Sword Trial Mountain Villa, it was seven days after the Medicine King Valley had been destroyed.

The previous host didn't recognize Feng Chen Yin at the time, but she knew this person was a famous person in the Jianghu.

His name was Long Yin.

He was ranked first in the Sword Trial Mountain Villa's martial arts rankings and was a very powerful person.

The reason he was placed first was because three years ago, he had killed the Emei Sword Immortal Gu Liu Shang who had been first on the rankings.

So his reputation exploded.

His reason for coming to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa was very simple. He wanted the previous host to save Gu Dai Xiang's life.

Qi Tian Ge naturally wouldn't hand over the previous host. Even if Feng Chen Yin was strong, he couldn't withstand the siege of many experts charging into the Sword Trial Mountain Villa alone.

In the end, he escaped with heavy injuries.....

Since then, the previous host always followed Qi Tian Ge. Her life didn't change, but she slept longer and longer each day.

Chapter 2732: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (4)

There was a consistent wound on her hand. She thought that it was a wound that she received back in the Medicine King Valley, but it never healed which confused her.

Qi Tian Ge treated her very well and everyone in the Sword Trial Mountain Villa was polite to her. There were even a few little girls who discussed that the previous host was the young master's favourite.

The ones who said it had no intentions, but the ones who heard it cared very much.

The previous host took it to heart. Perhaps she really had been too lonely over the years.

People around her left her one by one and those that protected her were all dead.

Her parents, her sisters, and Shen Qing Feng from the Medicine King Valley.

This time when Qi Tian Ge stood in front of her like a king, her heart had been shaken like that.

It was as if she had finally found a safe place, his arms were that strong.

The person she admired! She thought that he could protect her! She was so in love that she even wanted to marry him!

But he was actually just a wolf in sheep's clothing.

He would light some incense for the previous host each night so that she wouldn't wake up.

Then he would come to her bed and cut her unhealed wound, draining her blood drop by drop.

One bowl a day for three months straight.

Actually, the previous host almost couldn't even open her eyes later on.

Her body was as pale as snow, almost looking transparent. There wasn't a trace of warmth that came from her.

The wound on her hand had gone from being small to being able to see the bone through it.

Her blood flow slowed because it was almost exhausted.

Until the moment that the previous host died, she didn't know that Qi Tian Ge had killed her.

Like everyone else, it was for her blood.

There were two ultimate skills in the Jianghu. One was called the Soul Release Sutra and the other was called Restoring Mountains and Rivers. It was rumoured that as long as one could obtain one of these, they would be become the number one martial artist in the world.

Feng Chen Yin received the Restoring Mountains and Rivers after killing Gu Liu Shang, receiving a great increase in his strength and became the number one ranker on the Sword Trial Mountain Villa's list.

Qi Tian Ge naturally refused to accept this. He killed many people and finally obtained the Soul Release Sutra by chance.

But there was a price for learning the world's best skills.

The Soul Release Sutra could greatly increase a person's power, but it had a price of eating away at the lifespan of the learner.

Qi Tian Ge naturally quickly noticed this since he was just a young man, but his hair had already started turning gray after two months.

The Soul Release Sutra clearly stated that the only way to purify the poison was to use the blood of a medicine man.

Not a little, but all of it.

And it had to be an immortal medicine man.....

Qi Tian Ge waited for her for a long time. It wasn't to save her, but to use her blood to save him.

This story almost ended there and that was the life of the previous host.

It wasn't that no one loved her, but rather all that loved her were dead.

The one she loved the most had killed her in the end.

As for why the story was so long, it was to carry out the mission more smoothly. The system didn't just give her the memories of the previous host, but also the memories of the tragedy between Feng Chen Yin and the supporting female host, Gu Dai Xiang.

Although the memories were scattered, Luo Qing Chen could understand the basic plot.

Not in all stories did the supporting female lead fall in love with the male lead. The supporting female lead of this story fell in love with the supporting male lead, Qi Tian Ge.

Feng Chen Yin, Gu Dai Xiang, Gu Liu Shang.

These three seemingly irrelevant identities actually had the same blood flowing through them.

Feng Chen Yin and Gu Dai Xiang were both Gu Liu Shang's children. The truth of the story was different from the rumours in the Jianghu.

No, it should be completely different.

Chapter 2733: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (5)

Feng Chen Yin took his mother's name. In the struggles of the Jianghu, Gu Liu Shang had no choice but to separate from his wife.

He took Gu Dai Xiang and Feng Xue took Feng Chen Yin. But how could the people of the Jianghu let Gu Liu Shang who possessed the secrets of the ultimate skill off?

In order to let Feng Chen Yin survive, Feng Xue gave him a new name so that he could live in peace.

Only she didn't expect that she wouldn't live that long. It was probably because running around during the Jianghu struggle had exhausted her to a point that her body couldn't take it anymore.

So not long after she settled down with Feng Chen Yin, she passed away.

Later Feng Chen Yin entered the Luo Family.

At the same time, in order to let Gu Dai Xiang run away, Gu Liu Shang had to separate from her.

But after separating, when they met again, they had already changed.

Although Gu Dai Xiang had escaped the pursuit of these people, she never met Gu Liu Shang.

Like this, the Gu Family had scattered.

Gu Liu Shang cultivated the ultimate Restoring Mountains and Rivers while looking for Gu Dai Xiang.

But even after the Restoring Mountains and Rivers was complete, he never found Gu Dai Xiang.

Actually, Gu Dai Xiang had been picked up by the most famous brothel in the capital, Sweet Water Lane and had become the top liner there for many years.

Gu Dai Xiang naturally knew her identity, but there was no news about Gu Liu Shang, so she didn't dare reveal herself.

She stayed in the Sweet Water Lane under the pseudonym Gu Xiang Xiang for ten years.

The descendants of royals and nobles, they all had a special appreciation for her. There were even several times that princes of the dynasty wanted to buy her, but she always sold her art and not her body.

A song of "Stunning Bright Clothes" made all the princes fall in love with her, but no one could enter her eyes or her heart.

Until.....Qi Tian Ge appeared.

Everything started to change.

Tang Ming Yu, the sixth prince most loved by the emperor had always been arrogant and willful, spending most of his time in brothels.

He had heard of Gu Dai Xiang, but because of his noble status, he looked down on girls from the brothel.

Therefore, even if Gu Dai Xiang had been the headliner for many years by selling her art and not her body, she didn't get Tang Ming Yu's attention.

Until one day when he saw her playing the zither in the courtyard alone. The moment that she silently cried attracted his attention.

Tears like peach flowers and a nation collapsing beauty.

The next day, he sent his servants to Sweet Water Lane to buy Gu Dai Xiang. He thought that the brothel woman would not only be grateful, she would do all that she could to stay by this noble prince.

But he never thought that she would reject him.

Tang Ming Yu who was headstrong by nature felt deeply insulted by this brothel woman and he decided to make Gu Dai Xiang pay a price.

The price of her innocence!

He didn't want one person to take Gu Dai Xiang's innocence, he wanted a group of people.

Under the mist, it was already too late for Gu Dai Xiang when she realized she had been tricked.

She thought that her life would end like this, she would never see her father and her long lost little brother again.

But at this time, Qi Tian Ge appeared. He had appeared at just the right time.

A bright moon, a handsome face, the hero saving the beauty.

The sixth prince was naturally very angry, but Qi Tian Ge was the young master of the Sword Trial Mountain Villa, so he couldn't say anything.

After all, the Sword Trial Mountain Villa was the most prestigious place in the Jianghu and the court couldn't ignore the Jianghu.

Although he was headstrong, he wasn't a fool. He knew what he should and shouldn't do.

Chapter 2735: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (7)

Gu Dai Xiang didn't know that Qi Tian Ge wasn't just hiding one or two things from her.

In the next few months, he not only sent people to spread news about her, he spread false information.

After working hard, he finally let Gu Liu Shang find his precious daughter.

It was a pity that Gu Liu Shang said that he no longer had the Refining Mountains and Rivers.

This book had many incomplete parts and after running around, it was broken. Finally, the last few remaining pages were lost in a duel.

"Impossible!" Qi Tian Ge wouldn't believe a single word of this far fetched reason.

"What I said is true. Where have you hidden Dai Xiang?"

"Alright, I believe you. But since you have already learned the Refining Mountains and Rivers, you can write it out. I will bring you back to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa and I'll give you one month. If you can't write it, don't blame me for forgetting the morals of the Jianghu."

Gu Liu Shang naturally didn't tell Qi Tian Ge the truth, it was no wonder he didn't believe him.

But to find where his daughter was, he still followed Qi Tian Ge to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa.

By chance, he met Feng Chen Yin who had also been looking for Gu Dai Xiang.

When the father and son saw each other, they recognized each other with one glance.

It was the bloodiest fight in the hundred years of the Sword Trial Mountain Villa. Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin, this father and son fought the entire Sword Trial Mountain Villa.

In the end, Gu Dai Xiang charged out and stood between them.

One side was her family and the other was the one she loved the most.

No matter which side it was, she didn't want to see them hurt.

In the end, Gu Dai Xiang told Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin that she was willingly staying in the Sword Trial Mountain Villa to work for Qi Tian Ge and didn't blame anyone.

She also requested Qi Tian Ge let her father and brother go.

After thinking about it, Qi Tian Ge agreed to Gu Dai Xiang's request. It wasn't because he loved Gu Dai Xiang, but because Gu Dai Xiang was about to find the location of the Soul Release Sutra for him.

Her beauty played an important role in this and there was just a bit missing.

He had already lost the Refining Mountains and Rivers, he couldn't lose the Soul Release Sutra.

Although Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin were worried about Gu Dai Xiang, they could also see that if she insisted, no one could stop her.

Adding in the fact that she was wearing fine brocaded clothes, she shouldn't be suffering.

In the end, they listened to Gu Dai Xiang and left the Sword Trial Mountain Villa.

But in reality, even if they stayed and fought, they weren't confident in winning.

A few days later, Gu Dai Xiang brought the Soul Release Sutra back to Qi Tian Ge, using her life to exchange for it.

It was snowing when she returned to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa. She stood there covered in blood, drop after drop falling onto the ground.

She saw Qi Tian Ge running towards her with her blurred vision. She wanted to fall into his embrace, but she found that the moment that he came close, he took the Soul Release Sutra in her hands almost instantly.

Then she could no longer hold back the darkness and fell down.

She wasn't injured, but poisoned. The Soul Release Sutra was in the hands of the Love Poison Young Master.

Although Gu Dai Xiang used her beauty to charm him, he found out in the end.

She did all she could to bring the Soul Release Sutra back to Qi Tian Ge, but she was also inflicted with the Seven Insect Seven Flower Poison that couldn't be cured in this world. Unless.....with the blood of the immortal medicine man.

After Qi Tian Ge received the Soul Release Sutra, Gu Dai Xiang no longer had any use to him.

Chapter 2736: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (8)

But he still found many doctors for her, but not a single one of them could cure the Seven Insect Seven Flower Poison. At most they could use expensive medicines to control the poison in her body.

“Young master, why don’t you abandon her? Why do you still let her stay in the manor?” Sui Yu, who had always followed him as a confidant, asked him about her.

She liked Qi Tian Ge, so she never liked Gu Dai Xiang to begin with.

Only she didn’t know why she was so lucky to charm the Love Poison Young Master, finding the Soul Release Sutra that everyone in Jianghu wanted.

But it was a good thing that she paid a price and would die soon.

Only she didn’t understand why Qi Tian Ge who was always obsessed with martial arts and chose to use any methods he could to improve his martial arts would keep a person without any use by his side.

Qi Tian Ge coldly narrowed his eyes and coldly said, “What does it matter to you?”

He also didn’t know why he kept Gu Dai Xiang by her side. He clearly knew that Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin were already on their way to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa.

But seeing her pale face, his heart would feel a bit uncomfortable.

It was a very strange feeling, but he couldn’t say what it was.

Seven days later, Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin arrived at the Sword Trial Mountain Villa. They bathed the entire villa in blood, killing many, many people.

The villa master, the madame and Qi Tian Ge were all injured. Gu Liu Shang had many wounds on him from facing a hundred enemies alone.

Both sides no longer had any energy to fight. Qi Tian Ge agreed to let them take Gu Dai Xiang and gave them some medicine that could control the poison.

“Take one portion a day, she can still live for half a year.” He threw the medicine on the ground before turning to leave under the protection of the experts.

When he turned to leave, he still looked at Feng Chen Yin. He didn’t know Feng Chen Yin, but he thought that Feng Chen Yin had always been someone that had admired Gu Dai Xiang.

Even though Gu Liu Shang and Feng Chen Yin were unwilling and still wanted to fight, when they saw Gu Dai Xiang who was so weak that she could be blown over by a breeze, they decided to take her away.

After all, her life was the most important thing. If Qi Tian Ge wanted to threaten them with Gu Dai Xiang, they couldn’t do anything.

Gu Dai Xiang was half conscious during the trip and would occasionally open her eyes to call for Qi Tian Ge.

In order to stop the villains of Jianghu from seizing this chance to chase after them, they found a place under a cliff to recover.

After leaving the Sword Trial Mountain Villa, Gu Dai Xiang’s condition quickly deteriorated. Although they gave her the medicine that Qi Tian Ge gave her, her body became worse with each passing day.

With no other choice, Gu Liu Shang decided to use all his true energy to extend Gu Dai Xiang’s life.

He owed his daughter too much and now that he had finally found her, he couldn't just watch her die.

Before renewing Gu Dai Xiang's true energy, he taught Feng Chen Yin all his skills and the entirety of the Refining Mountains and Rivers.

Feng Chen Yin didn't know that Gu Liu Shang had the conviction to die until he gave Gu Dai Xiang his true energy. He left a few simple words behind.

"Dad can't hold on, you have to save your big sister. Ke, ke.....I can only temporarily suppress the poison in her body, her life will not last more than a year. You have to go to Medicine King Valley.....find the immortal medicine man. Her blood can cure your big sister's poison. I heard that this medicine man is about to appear soon....."

Gu Liu Shang left this world for his two children.

He had been famous for many years and was known by all.

Although there were many people who wanted to kill him, there were many who respected him.

After Gu Dai Xiang received Gu Liu Shang's true energy, she became much better.

Her heart was filled with guilt, hatred, anger, sadness, but she never felt regret.

Feng Chen Yin didn't know why Gu Dai Xiang was so insistent. Even though that man was selfish and evil, doing anything to achieve his goals, why was his big sister so obsessed that she didn't feel any regret?

Could it be that it was because she couldn't forget the hero saving the beauty act from before?

"Yin'er, when you meet a person that you love, you will know that these obsessions come from your heart and you can't control them." Gu Dai Xiang looked down with a few bitter tears in her eyes.

Her heart's bitterness, no one could understand.

Although she didn't regret it, if she could start her life again, she would hope that she never met Qi Tian Ge. Even if she stayed in the Sweet Water Lane for the rest of the life, it was fine.

"Big sister, I will never fall in love with anyone." Feng Chen Yin looked at her with deep eyes, "I also don't need anyone to love me."

He was not a heartless swordsman, but because of everything Gu Dai Xiang experienced, he felt that 'love' was too painful.

The more you were tied down, the easier it was to be controlled.

He didn't need love and he didn't want to harm anyone.

In the following days, he kept asking about the immortal medicine man of Medicine King Valley.

Although there were many medicine men in the Medicine King Valley, no immortal medicine man had appeared in over a hundred years. If they didn't appear again, he wouldn't be able to save his big sister.

But the heavens gave him a chance in the end.

The immortal medicine man appeared and they seemed to be in the Medicine King Valley. However, when he arrived, that place had already become a river of blood.

The immortal medicine man had disappeared. When he asked about her, he found that she had been taken by the Sword Trial Mountain Villa's Qi Tian Ge.

It was Qi Tian Ge again, it was him again!

Luo Qing Chen was absorbed in the memories of this bloody Jianghu struggle for a long time. Finally she felt the aura of the entire Jianghu in these fragmented memories.

This kind of pure Jianghu world, it was her first time.

Even the air that she breathed felt a bit different.

[Host, you've been accepting the memories for a long time.]

It's so complicated that I had to digest it. Three months before the previous host died, it should be when the Medicine King Valley was destroyed.

[Yes.]

So.....

Luo Qing Chen looked around herself and found that it was dark and gloomy.

There was a man lying in front of her. The light was dim, so she couldn't see it clearly.

She just knew that he was in an azure robe with an emerald ring on his hand, giving people a noble feeling.

Could it be that he's Shen Qing Feng?

[Yes.]

So I'm in the Medicine King Valley's secret room?

[Yes.]

Luo Qing Chen felt a bit speechless. This timing was a bit tricky. If she had been a bit earlier and Medicine King Valley wasn't slaughtered, she could find a better way to get to a safer position.

Wait.....

So if I walk out of this secret room now, I'll meet.....

[The host is correct! Yes, it's the supporting male lead, Qi Tian Ge!]

Why don't you just send me to heaven now? It's such a difficult beginning?

[The male lead's current affection for the host is 10%.]

How grateful should I be to hear these words! How long has it been since you haven't given me any affection since the beginning!

Chapter 2738: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 10)

But after going through all that, it made her feel uncomfortable that there was affection.

She had heard the system say that although the male lead she was after was from this world, her original feelings were different from this world.

Although she wasn't completely certain, she believed that there would be an answer.

Luo Qing Chen calculated the time and planned on staying in the secret room an extra day before going out.

After all, she didn't want to meet Qi Tian Ge.

This was a very long story and she needed to digest it before finding her family's male lead!

To be honest, it wasn't an easy thing to stay in the secret room for an extra day.

It was a good thing that she spent half the time burying Shen Qing Feng. Although it was simple, she also had a place to rest.

No matter what, Shen Qing Feng died because of the previous host, so finding him a place to rest was what she should do.

"Rest in peace!"

The fourth day, she took out the Phoenix Dance Sword and walked towards the exit of the secret room.

When she came out, there was a wave of blood smell that hit her in the face.

The ground was covered in corpses and the blood created a river. Even the sun that had just risen had hints of red to it.

Seeing it with her own eyes was different from experiencing it in her memories. She felt her breath stop and there was something trembling deep inside of her even though she didn't have a heart.

She shouldn't meet Qi Tian Ge now, but the Jianghu was very big, so where should she look for Feng Chen Yin?

[Notification: The previous host has two things that they want the host to do.]

What is it? Why do all the previous hosts have so many things to do!

[The host's mission will become harder after every special world.]

Speak!

[One: The previous host wants to find the murderer who killed her family. Two: The previous host wants to rebuild the Medicine King Valley.]

It really was a bunch of things that were easier said than done.

Luo Qing Chen waved her hand. Although she had no choice but to do it or something would go wrong.

The system only likes doing these inhumane things and taking away her experience points without saying anything.

After considering it again and again, Luo Qing Chen still decided to find Feng Chen Yin first.

After all, if he went to the Sword Trial Mountain Villa, he would most likely die.

[The host should know that the male lead wants your blood and you're about to send it to him!]

What does it matter to you!

[The host should also know that you're the treasure that everyone in the Jianghu is currently searching for!]

I'm not the previous host. If they want to kill me, bring their lives.

Many people had died in this world to protect her. Some to kill her and some to protect her.

The immortal medicine man sounded very aloof, but it was very ironic.

Coming out of the Medicine King Valley, the path was filled with corpses.

It turned out that many people died without even reaching the Medicine King Valley. She really didn't know what they did it for.

Especially those that wanted to live forever, this wave of death really seemed meaningless to her.

"Stop." When she was thinking about this, there was a voice that called out from behind her.

Luo Qing Chen slightly narrowed her brows. She narrowed her cold eyes and slowly turned around.

"You are.....the immortal medicine man?" That person was very excited as he said while laughing, "I finally found you.....Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha.....Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha....."

"It's very easy to find me." Luo Qing Chen's cold voice slowly rang out with a trace of disdain, "But whether you have the ability to take me away or not is another issue."

Chapter 2739: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 11)

"A small medicine man daring to act audacious in front of me, Hu San Dao?" That man knitted his brows and said in a fierce voice, "I'm ranked thirteenth in the World Sword Trial Rankings, even your master Shen Qing Feng couldn't defeat me, let alone you?"

"He, he." Luo Qing Chen was too lazy to waste words with him and slowly raised the Phoenix Dance Sword with her right hand, "Come!"

In an instant, Hu San Dao raised his large blade and chopped at her.

He had a lot of strength and decent internal energy, but he really wasn't as strong as thirteenth on the World Sword Trial Rankings like he said.

In less than ten moves, Luo Qing Chen knocked him to the ground and the Phoenix Dance Sword in her hand was pressed on his throat.

She felt the leaves on her right fall down, but there wasn't any wind around her at all.

"Female hero, female hero....." Hu San Dao saw that the situation wasn't right and laid there on the ground begging, "I.....I am in trouble! My.....My wife is sick....."

"People who want my life all have their troubles, but don't you think that yours is a bit too laughable?"

Being poisoned, living forever, and saving people's lives were all troubles.....

But these people's troubles were solved by taking her life.

"I beg you, I just want a bowl of your blood so I can save my wife." Hu San Dao kneeled on the ground and desperately kowtowed, "I'm begging for your mercy! I'm willing to serve you in the next life to repay your grace."

Serving her in the next life, this was her first time hearing something so ridiculous.

"You've changed your face quite quickly." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and said with a cold smile, "Your strength is good and your internal energy isn't bad, but you're definitely not ranked thirteenth."

"Yes, yes, yes.....I'm actually seventy third." Hu San Dao could only speak the truth after being defeated, "But what I said was true, it really was to save my wife's life....."

"Life and death are fated." Luo Qing Chen's voice didn't fluctuate at all as she coldly said, "I won't give you a single drop of blood, but for the sake of your wife, I won't kill you today."

The Jianghu was big and many people in the world needed help. If everyone wanted to serve her in the next life for a bowl of blood, she would die from a lack of blood in a month before anyone came to kill her.

The previous host had died because of this, but she wouldn't repeat the same mistakes!

As soon as her voice fell, Luo Qing Chen turned to leave without saying a single word.

Hu San Dao rushed forward to grab her thigh, but he was slapped back by the Phoenix Dance Sword.

Hu San Dao was stunned. Although he didn't know what her martial arts were, at least this immortal medicine man in front of her had much better martial arts than him.

He didn't dare act rashly. He could only watch as the most precious immortal medicine man in this world disappeared in front of him.

After Luo Qing Chen left, he sent off fireworks. He gritted his teeth and said, "Hard and soft methods don't work! But if someone else gets ahead, that would be bad!"

But this medicine man was too soft hearted, just a few words were enough to fool her.

He was Hu San Dao, how could he have a wife?

Luo Qing Chen walked along the small path. First, there were many corpses here, so it was hard to walk and second.....there was someone following her.

She wanted them.....to reveal themselves!

There was a teahouse halfway up the mountain. There were only corpses scattered around and there wasn't a single person there.

Luo Qing Chen slowly came forward and boiled a pot of water before finding a place to sit down. She put the Phoenix Dance Sword on the table before saying, "You've followed me all this way, you should show yourself now."

Chapter 2740: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 12)

She didn't know who they were, but she knew that the other side's martial arts were very good.

Not to mention abilities, she was weaker than them in terms of internal energy.

It can't be that she still met Qi Tian Ge on this narrow road, right!

But it didn't matter. Even if the soldiers came, she wasn't afraid of them.

"Miss, you have good ears." A slightly cold voice rang out as a youth in black brocaded robes fell from the sky.

It was a gentle breeze and the yellow leaves fell to the ground with his qinggong.

Luo Qing Chen slowly looked up and what entered her eyes were a pair of ice cold eyes that were a rare black colour with a hint of dark light in them. Even if he was just standing there, it was as if he was the king of the Jianghu with an incredible aura.

Feng Chen Yin.

This sudden meeting had really caught her a bit off guard.

"So it was hero Long Yin." Luo Qing Chen suppressed all the emotions in her heart and said with a faint smile, "I've long heard your name."

"I don't dare be a hero." Feng Chen Yin looked up. His eyes were dark as ink, without a single trace of light.

Those clear eyes and that faint smile, it was as if he had seen it somewhere before.

The memories of the past seemed a bit frozen as the sky filled with snow.

She was.....

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as she carefully looked at his appearance in the snow.

He really did look good, even better than she remembered.

If he hadn't been born in the Jianghu, he would give off the feeling of a beautiful young man.

But wearing the black robe and with the Falling Maple Sword in hand, he had another goal.

She knew the reason he looked for her, but he could see some different emotions from the changes in his eyes.

“I’ve been a medicine man for a long time, I’ve almost forgotten my name.” Luo Qing Chen looked into his dark flowing eyes and said, “I am Luo Qing Chen. I think that hero Long Yin should be very tired looking for me for a long time, so how about sitting down for a cup of tea first!”

Actually, it was probably because she knew Feng Chen Yin’s memories. Whether it was now or before, he had lived a very lonely life.

He was born in a martial arts family, but because of the Jianghu, his family had perished.

His mother died and his father and big sister disappeared.

After growing up, he had finally found his family through hardships, but his father had died to save them and his big sister was obsessed with a man who wasn’t worth it.

When it came to the word ‘love’, he had a different view from others!

“Alright.” He walked in front of her and then put the Falling Maple Sword on the table.

Although the teahouse was empty, there was still some tea left. They brewed a pot of jasmine tea and never said a word.

Feng Chen Yin had thought through countless scenarios of meeting this immortal medicine man, but he found that after truly meeting her and seeing her eyes as clear as water, he couldn’t say a thing.

There was only silence, silence, and more silence.

“Hero Long Yin, is the tea good?” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a faint smile, “I think it’s not bad!”

Actually, Feng Chen Yin wasn’t easy to attack. This young man’s heart had already been sealed and even if she died for him now, it probably wouldn’t even make him frown.

Then she would use a bit of time to enter his heart.

“Un.” He gave a nod. He looked into her eyes and hesitated to speak.

“I know why you’ve come looking for me.” Luo Qing Chen gave a bit of a proud snort before looking at him with narrowed eyes, “It’s no different from the others.”
