Chapter 2771: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 43)

Fang Rou knitted her brows. She took out a jade pendant and a letter from her sleeve, "I hope that you will agree to this favour after reading this letter."

Feng Chen Yin knitted his brows that were ice cold. There was a chill that came from him that froze everyone standing around him.

He couldn't be more familiar with this jade pendant, it belonged to his big sister Gu Dai Xiang.

Three years ago in Magnet State, after the life and death battle, he never went to see Gu Dai Xiang again.

Or it could be said that he no longer cared about where she was, whether she was alive or not, or even if she would survive.

Because he regretted bringing Luo Qing Chen to Magnet State more than anyone. If he wasn't for her, she wouldn't have died.

He, he.....

He vowed to protect her and the end? And then?

"Put the thing down. If I go, I'll go, if I don't, I won't." Feng Chen Yin narrowed his eyes, "Sect master Fang, please leave."

Fang Rou's heart was pressed down by a large stone. He really didn't want her to stay an extra second.

The letter wrote: Loving someone meant you wanted to be with them. Even if you woke at sunrise and slept at sundown, you would be happy.

If you hated someone, even if you didn't say it on the surface, you didn't want to stay with them for a single second.

In the past, she thought that if there was no Luo Qing Chen or Gu Dai Xiang, she would be the closest person to Feng Chen Yin.

After all, he had once rescued her when she was in danger and he had traveled with her.

She would never forget this. When he was with her, although his tone was calm, he had walked with her alone.

"I know." Without knowing how long passed, Fang Rou slowly looked up and said with tearful eyes, "Young master Feng, I know that we won't meet again after this. Fang Rou is really sorry about what happened in the past.....In the place of that girl, I apologize to you now....."

She wanted a complete farewell because she didn't know when they would meet again.

"No need." Feng Chen Yin looked over. Seeing this tearful Fang Rou, his eyes didn't have a single ripple in them as he said with cold and resolute eyes, "We don't need it."

Could it be that an apology could be exchanged for her life?

What's the point if you couldn't apologize?

There was no need for meaningless words. They would always be the people he hated, that would never change.

This really was Fang Rou's last time seeing Feng Chen Yin. Even if she stood at the entrance of the hall and suffered, she didn't receive a single word from Feng Chen Yin, or even.....any care.

He was as cold as a mountain of ice. Even if she died in front of him, his expression wouldn't change.

After Fang Rou left, Feng Chen Yin slowly came forward to pick up the neatly folded letter.

The writing on the letter belonged to Gu Dai Xiang. It had really been a long time since he had seen her writing.

There were four elegant letters on top: Big sister's final words.

Feng Chen Yin didn't feel any ripples in his heart from this person that he desperately tried to save before.

Her life and death wasn't important to him at all right now.

What a joke.....He strangely felt that it was all laughable.

Perhaps it was because he had a most important person in his heart that there was no place for others.

Perhaps he couldn't forgive Gu Dai Xiang for what she did three years ago even in death, causing him to lose his most important person.

The contents of the letter were very short, it was just a few words, but they confirmed.....her death.

It should have been a few days ago. There was only Fang Rou by her side when she died.

Chapter 2772: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 44)

Shen Yin, when you read this, big sister will already be gone.

Actually, I know that you don't care if I was alive or dead, but I've always been worried about you.

After I learned that you were in the Medicine King Valley, I was much more relieved.

It should be because of the red snow falling in Magnet State entering my skin that I was able to hold on for three years.

But I aged ten times faster than normal people, you wouldn't believe it if you were to see me now. I've already become an old woman.

In these three years, I didn't see him again, but there wasn't a moment where I didn't miss him.

I wronged you and her, but if time could go back, I would still make the same decision.

I love him, as humbly as possible without asking for anything in return. Even if I go to the eighteenth layer of hell and am never reborn, it doesn't matter.

As long as he can live, I can endure everything. .com

I know that you miss her, but it's already been all these years and I hope that you can let go.

Because I know better than anyone how painful it is clinging onto impossible things.

Miss Fang Rou has been taking good care of me over the years. I know how she feels about you and if you can't give her a response, just promise her to go to the palace.

If you can let it go, then treat her well.....

You are luckier than big sister, you've met good people.

I've been tired these days and I can't remember many things. I should be dying, so you don't need to come and see me.

I've wronged you in this life. If there is a next life, I will repay you, dad.....and that immortal medicine man.

July 11th, Gu Dai Xiang's final words.

Feng Chen Yin burned the letter and the faint green smoke made his eyes a bit distracted.

"You think that you are the most obsessed person in the world, but that isn't the case." He gave a cold laugh and then headed to the alchemy pavilion with a flick of his sleeve.

"Hero Long Yin." The two guards at the door quickly greeted him when they saw him approach, "Everything is progressing normally."

"Un." He nodded and then headed in.

Everyone thought that he revived the Medicine King Valley because he wanted to be where that immortal medicine man once lived, so he could remember some things.

Actually, he was refining medicine men.

When the red snow fell, he left and then returned.

Letting the white snow float away, he kneeled down and picked up the red snow bit by bit.

The strange thing was that after the red snow was packed up, it didn't melt. It would gradually take the form of grains after a long time.

But the red snow couldn't touch flames as it would burn away if it touched flames.

He studied countless medical techniques, becoming an even more powerful medicine god than Shen Qing Feng.

Building an alchemy pavilion and using red snow to refine medicine men.

Many people came to the Medicine King Valley asking for help over the years and he asked them if they were willing to become medicine men when they had no other choices.

The success rate wasn't high, but those people didn't have any hopes of living and agreed to Feng Chen Yin's suggestion.

He used the red snow to refine medicine men over these three years.

He didn't know what the results would be, he just knew that the condensed red snow was her soul.

Then he would forcefully keep her soul, no matter what method it was. He wanted to meet her, even if she was a fool, a ghost, or a monster, it didn't matter.

Everyone's obsession was manifested in different ways. Feng Chen Yin's obsession became diseased. Under that indifferent appearance, there was the heart of a devil.

Chapter 2773: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 45)

In the palace, surrounded by the vermilion tiles.

There was a strong scent of medicine in the air, as well as the sounds of discussion.

Where was she? Why did she feel that her body had no strength and there was a slight pain in her heart?

"How is the princess?" The empress in luxurious clothes on the side anxiously asked, "This one feels that her face has been getting better lately."

Princess Feng Qian was the only daughter of the empress, with an appearance that could even bring shame to the moon.

It was a pity that the heavens gave her this beautiful face, but didn't give her a healthy body.

She was born with a bad heart, as if a piece of it was missing. The older she got, the worse her body became.

Until three years ago when she fell into a coma because of heart pain. The princess who was beloved by all didn't wake up again.

Actually, although the current emperor was sick, he wasn't that sick. The reason why the prime minister declared this to the court was first to reorganize the court, and second to bring the expert from the Medicine King Valley to see his daughter.

"Reporting to the empress. The princess' pulse has been strangely normal these past few days, as if she was a healthy person." The doctor replied, "This minister believes that the princess should wake up in the next few days."

"Really?" The empress revealed a look of joy before bending down to hold Feng Qian's hand, "Qian Qian, are you about to wake up? Mother is here, don't be afraid....."

Luo Qing Chen could clearly hear that people around her were talking, but she couldn't open her eyes no matter how hard she tried.

The night grew deeper and she fell deep asleep as the sounds of the system rang in her ears.

[Special mission: Host, please accept it.]

Damn! She really didn't return to the Chaos Space! Just what was happening!

[Only a few minutes has passed for the host, but three years have already passed in this world.]

What do I need to do?

[Although the empress is a very powerful person, the emperor is someone with many lovers.]

Many lovers? Why don't you say that he has a different girl every day and night.....

[The next body the host will use will wake up soon. The special mission is to protect the empress.]

At the same time, Feng Chen Yin received a letter from a person who had come seeking aid at the Medicine King Valley before and had now become the chief doctor of the court.

The letter referred to a single herb called Phoenix Bamboo.

The emperor had already promised that if hero Long Yin of the Medicine King Valley could awaken the princess, he would offer the Phoenix Bamboo.

The Phoenix Bamboo atop the snowy peaks, turning to medicine in ten years. There were still three years before the ten years and he needed the Phoenix Bamboo to continue his research on medicine men.

There was suddenly a strange feeling. It was as if there was a strange force that kept pushing him towards the court that had nothing to do with the Jianghu.

Fang Rou, Gu Dai Xiang, the imperial doctor.

Should he really go?

Actually, he knew that he had to go because he didn't want to wait ten years.

But the plan couldn't keep up with the changes. Luo Qing Chen woke up before Feng Chen Yin came to the palace.

Now she had a new name.

Feng Qian.

"Qian Qian, you're finally awake....." In less than ten seconds of opening her eyes, Luo Qing Chen felt herself entering a warm embrace. .com

A warmth that came from a mother.....

"Is the princess feeling better?" The imperial doctor on the side asked, "Does your heart still feel uncomfortable?"

Heart?

She suddenly knew why she became this princess. One didn't have a heart and one had a bad heart.

Chapter 2774: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 46) innread.com

The system told her that the immortal medicine man's fate wasn't to save people and she could be reborn.

But the previous host couldn't be reborn because of this.

After she took over for the previous host, the rebirth method changed.

"I'm alright." Luo Qing Chen looked up slightly, "It's nothing."

After all, without the memories of this body, Luo Qing Chen felt it was better she spoke less to avoid being seen through.

It was a good thing that the empress didn't talk to her much since she had just woken up and gave her time to rest.

But during this time, there were people that came to interrupt her.

The next morning, when the sun just came up, the maid serving her quickly came to report, "Your highness, her highness Yue and her highness Wan are here to see you."

Normally speaking, the ones that came to see her at this time weren't people that cared for her, but rather her enemies.

If the emperor was a person with many lovers, the empress' position in the palace should be frequently threatened.

The two princesses, no matter what, wouldn't be the kind ones.

People who died once weren't afraid of death, not to mention that she was no longer the medicine man.

There was nothing fatal that could take her life.

"Let them in." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug as a hint of arrogance appeared in her eyes.

Not long after, two gorgeously dressed people came in.

The room that was filled with the scent of herbs was filled with the scent of makeup and perfume. Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh as she calmly looked forward.

"It really is little sister Qian!" Feng Yue casually stepped up and said first, "You've been laying there for three years that I almost forgot what you looked like."

[Feng Yue and Feng Wan are twins, they are the daughters of concubine Rong.]

Who is concubine Rong?

[The most favoured concubine in the palace.]

So it'll be fine if I overthrow concubine Rong.

[.....]

The system was very speechless, but it had to admit that there was nothing wrong with what Luo Qing Chen said.

"Oh? Is that so?" Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh, "I don't really care if you remember me or not, alright?"

"....." Feng Yue and Feng Wan never thought that Luo Qing Chen would directly insult them.

Although she used to be a princess, because her body wasn't good and she had a weak personality, she would often be bullied by those beneath her.

For example, Feng Yue and Feng Wan.....

"It can't be the princess' brain was damaged too, right!" Feng Yue narrowed her eyes and said, "Young master Yan Shu won't like you like this."

God damn, who was Yan Shu?

It's hard to do anything without memories!

[Ah? The host doesn't have any memories?]

Have them your head!

[Since it was a special mission, the system forgot, hei, hei.....]

Hei.....?!

She quickly accepted the memories of the one called Feng Qian over the next few seconds. Yan Shu was the number one talented person in the capital, a popular person by the emperor. He was handsome and very unrestrained.

Feng Qian liked him very much since she first saw him, but Yan Shu was someone who never stained his body even when walking among tens of thousands of flowers.

It just so happened that Yan Shu was Feng Yue and Feng Wan's cousin, so Feng Qian never dared to go against them.

"Oh! It's fine if he doesn't like me." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and calmly said, "I don't like him anyway!"

"You....." Feng Yue and Feng Wan were so angry that their faces turned red.

They wanted to show off, but they never thought that they would be insulted like this.

Chapter 2775: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 47)

“Is there anything else?” Luo Qing Chen gave a yawn and said, “You can leave if you have nothing else!”

Were the special missions that bad?! She’ll take care of it in two and a half hours, then she could go and look for Feng Chen Yin.

Three years, where was Feng Chen Yin now?

[The host wants to solve it that quickly?]

Or what, stay here for New Years with them? I still have many things to do!

At the same time, in the Medicine King Valley.

“Is young master planning on going to the capital?” A black clothed woman bowed her head as she asked this.

She was Yan Ying, the younger sister of Yan Shu, the number one genius of the capital.

She had become seriously ill a year ago and even the imperial doctors couldn’t save her. Yan Shu had no choice but to bring her to the Medicine King Valley, but Feng Chen Yin saved her life with a few silver needles.

Since then, Yan Ying decided to stay in the Medicine King Valley, staying by Feng Chen Yin’s side.

She knew that he was desperately trying to revive a person, but she didn’t want that person to revive.....

Was this considered selfish? It should be.....

“Un.” Feng Chen Yin calmly said, “You can come with me and then you don’t need to come back.”

His voice was very cold, not having a single trace of warmth.

He didn’t know what Yan Ying was thinking and he didn’t want to know. The Medicine King Valley didn’t need girls and she might misunderstand something when she awakened.

“Young master.....are you chasing me away?” Yan Ying was surprised before biting her lip, “Can I go with you to the capital and come back with you?”

“No.”

Feng Chen Yin’s voice was decisive, not giving Yan Ying the slightest bit of hope.

She knew in his heart that there wasn’t a single girl in the world that could replace the medicine man in his heart.

No one could do it.....

But could that medicine man be revived? This was a heavy defying act and the chances of success were so low.

“I understand.....” She pursed her lips and revealed a slightly difficult smile, “I’ll go prepare.”

Seven days after Feng Chen Yin arrived in the capital, Luo Qing Chen still hadn't recovered yet. She would sometimes feel heart palpitations and she didn't know why.

The imperial doctors were helpless and they could only wait for Feng Chen Yin.

But in the eyes of the empress, it was already good news from the heavens that she could wake up. She would serve her delicious food each day, so Luo Qing Chen's life was quite good.

Of course, there were many annoying 'little flies' that would come causing trouble for her.

But they came with high spirits and left disappointed.

She felt that it was very enjoyable insulting people without caring about the environment and it was terrifying truly insulting people.

It was another lazy afternoon.

Luo Qing Chen ate an apple as she asked her maid Ya Ya what had happened in the Jianghu over the past three years.

Ya Ya had a cousin who worked at the Divine Marquis Manor, so he would tell her a few things about the Jianghu each day.

She found it interesting, so she remembered it.

It happened that the princess who just woke up liked hearing about it, so she told her these things one by one.

"So he went to the Medicine King Valley!" Luo Qing Chen gave a bitter laugh as a sparkle appeared in her eyes.

"Is the princess talking about hero Long Yin?" Ya Ya pursed her lips and said, "I've heard that he's already in the palace and he's here to check on the princess."

"He's in the palace?" Luo Qing Chen said in a surprised voice, "When did this happen?"

"It seems like two hours ago!" Ya Ya thought about it and said, "He should be checking the emperor right now."

Chapter 2776: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 48)

"Wa! So handsome!"

"He truly is handsome! I feel that even young master Yan Shu isn't even a tenth of him!"

"I heard that he is the number one swordsman in Jianghu. I thought that he would have a fierce looking face, but I never thought that he would be so good looking."

"What use is there in being good looking! I heard that he likes someone! It seems to be some medicine man."

The emperor on the throne cleared his throat, "Hero Long Yin, can you identify my illness?"

"The emperor has too many considerations and it's easy to feel anxious." Feng Chen Yin said, "I brought several medicines. If you drink them once a day, you will be cured in a month."

The ministers on the side realized that things were wrong. The emperor looked at them with narrowed eyes as he guessed that they understood his goal.

"Many thanks, hero Long Yin." The emperor continued, "This one has a princess who hasn't woken up for three years because of her illness and only woke up a few days ago, but her condition isn't good. I hope that hero Long Yin can help me take a look."

"Alright." Feng Chen Yin gave a calm nod and left the room.

There were many girls standing outside the hall, including Feng Yue and Feng Wan.

"Cousin Ying." Feng Yue waved her hand at Yan Ying, "Quickly come over."

Yan Ying was surprised as she never expected to see her two cousins.

She quickly came over and asked, "What a coincidence. You've become so beautiful in the year that I haven't seen you."

"Hee, hee, cousin, thank you for your praise." Feng Yue said with a smile, "Cousin Yin, is that super handsome hero going to check on the princess?"

"Yes." Yan Ying gave a nod, "I heard that the princess was in a coma for three years and just woke up."

"Can you tell him not to go....." Feng Wan said, "That princess is so ugly that I'm afraid it will dirty the hero's eyes. Cousin Ying, you're so close to the hero, don't let him go."

"Eh....." Yan Ying slightly knitted her brows. Her impression of the princess became very bad.

But she couldn't stop Feng Chen Yin, so she shook her head with a sigh, "We can't stop what the young master does, but I will remind the young master if you say so....."

"We'll go with you." Feng Yue winked and said, "I also asked cousin Yan Shu to come. If he goes, maybe the princess won't even meet hero Long Yin!"

"But.....why don't you want the princess to see the young master?" Yan Ying asked in a confused voice, "The young master is only treating her illness, nothing else."

"Humph." Feng Yue gave a cold snort, "The two of us have been angered half to death by her over the past few days, what if the hero is interested in her?"

"But didn't you say that she's very ugly?"

"The uglier a person is, the more of a monster they are!" Feng Yue gritted her teeth, "Cousin, you have to believe us, she said that she loved Yan Shu to death before! But after getting sick, she said that she didn't love him at all! What a disgusting person!"

"Isn't this too much?" Yan Ying pursed her lips, "I'll go talk to the young master. If you can, don't get too close to the young master. After all, there's the imperial decree, so he still has to go."

“Un, un, un, cousin, go and tell him.” Feng Yue revealed a sly look, “It’s best if he uses a thread to take her pulse and not touch her.”

“Right, right! We can’t let her make skin contact with that handsome hero, we can’t let her get that advantage!”

Yan Yin shook her head with a bitter smile when she heard this, “He is a very cold person and won’t have feelings for anyone, so you don’t need to worry. Not to mention the type of girl that you described, he would hate her even more.”

Chapter 2777: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 49)

Luo Qing Chen changed into a honey pink silver flowered dress with a light veil and a touch of makeup, so her face didn’t look that pale.

Ya Ya had already prepared the cakes and the tea, so she was waiting with her for Feng Chen Yin’s arrival.

Although she didn’t know why the princess was waiting for this person, it was her first time seeing her dress up like this.

Then it must be.....a very important person.

“The princess is so beautiful today, like she walked out of a picture.” Ya Ya said with a smile, “She doesn’t seem like a sick person at all.”

“Do you want a reward for talking like this?” Luo Qing Chen revealed a smile as she didn’t forget to tease her little maid.

“No, no.” Ya Ya said with a sincere look, “The princess really is beautiful!”

“Cheap mouth.” She gave a chuckle before looking at the light snowflakes outside, “Let’s go out and wait.”

She didn’t know what it would be like when they met again, she didn’t know if he would be the same as before.

Dressed in white like snow and with a picturesque face.

But what Luo Qing Chen never expected was that it wasn’t Feng Chen Yin who arrived half a quarter of an hour later.

It was a Yan Shu who she had only heard in name and had never seen before.

Wearing a green robe, with a sapphire fan, and a spring like smile as he came forward.

“Princess.....It seems that young master Yan Shu is here.” Ya Ya looked quite awkward. Actually, she had already tried to stop Yan Shu, but in Yan Shu’s eyes, it was impossible that the princess name Feng Qian wouldn’t want to see him.

Because he knew that the princess liked him and he knew it clearly.

"Un." Luo Qing Chen gave a soft reply before looking up to say, "Young master Yan Shu, please sit."

"I heard that the princess was awake. Yan Shu should have come to see you sooner." Yan Shu said with a faint smile, "It was just that I've been too busy lately and could only come late."

Luo Qing Chen took a sip of the tea before calmly saying, "It doesn't matter."

Yan Shu was surprised, never thinking that Luo Qing Chen would be this calm.

After all, she would be very excited when she saw him three years ago. Feng Qian was beautiful, but since she had her heart set on him early on, he didn't really care that much.

His personality was like this. The easier it was to get something, the less he needed to cherish it.

But suddenly becoming cold like this, he wasn't used to it.

He had come to see her today because of the request of his two cousins, but he didn't know why they had him come.

"How is the princess feeling?" Yan Shu asked in a concerned voice, "It's been cold these days, so you should keep warm and rest, that will be good for the heart."

As expected, scumbags like to say things that made people feel warm.

But these words could only fool a little girl like Feng Qian and couldn't fool an old monster like her.

"Thank you." It was the same polite and calm words that didn't have a single trace of emotions.

The atmosphere in this hall became a bit awkward and it made the smile on Yan Shu's face turn stiff.

But Luo Qing Chen was very happy since it was fun to abuse scum like this.

"That....." The smile on Yan Shu's lips twitched, "I've studied some medicine over the years. If the princess doesn't mind, I can help you take a look."

"Oh." Luo Qing Chen gave a very indifferent reply before saying, "I don't want to."

Yan Shu's smile froze on his face again. This time.....he completely felt what was called frustration.

Chapter 2778: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 50)

As soon as her voice fell, Feng Yue and Feng Wan's voice came from outside the door.

They kept chattering one after the other like little sparrows, with voices so loud that even Luo Qing Chen could hear everything.

"Hero, your martial arts is so good and your medical skills are also good, why not enter the palace as an official!"

"Yes, yes! Although the Jianghu is very free and beautiful, the palace is safe and everyone can be together without any disputes."

Feng Chen Yin's deep eyes were ice cold from the beginning. He impatiently knitted his brows and Yan Ying immediately understood.

"Shh....." She gestured to them, "Stop talking....."

Although she only followed Feng Chen Yin for a year, she was very clear on his character.

Feng Yue and Feng Wan wanted to express themselves too much, so it would annoy him more than anything.

"Cousin, what is it!" Feng Yue pouted her lips and said, "We are saying this for hero Long Yin."

"You die quicker the more you speak in the Jianghu." He coldly narrowed his eyes and said, "Do you understand?"

The temperature dropped and there was a feeling of the air freezing.

With the falling snow, the hearts of the two sister Feng Yue and Feng Wan completely froze.

They looked at each other and decided not to speak for a while. They were waiting to see the joke of the princess once they entered the pavilion.

"This one is hero Long Yin!" Ya Ya came out with an umbrella before giving a polite bow, "The princess invites you in. The others are not allowed to enter."

"....." Yan Ying knitted her brows, "I am young master's personal maid. I wonder if you can accommodate me and let me go in together."

"This servant doesn't dare go against the princess' orders." Ya Ya looked at Yan Ying and said, "There are rules in the palace."

Feng Yue heard this and pursed her lips in a dissatisfied manner, "This is done on purpose by Feng Qian! It must be because she knows that young master Feng is.....is handsome, so she deliberately wants to use this opportunity to meet him alone." .com

"Right, right, right!" Feng Wan replied, "This person really has a dark and sinister heart!"

"Not everyone is as dark as you." Luo Qing Chen put on fur coat and walked out with a white umbrella, "Since you want to get checked up with me, you can just go to the imperial doctor's courtyard."

Standing beside her was the number one talent in the capital. His green robes were covered in snow and there was a look of embarrassment under his suave expression.

As for him and her.....

With the snow flying, the two of them met gazes, looking at each other.

He narrowed his starry eyes and focused on the woman in front of him.

Those beautiful clothes, the noble status, the calm look, as if.....it was a familiar feeling that went through time and space.

"Yo! It seems like the princess has an appointment today!" Feng Yue looked at her with a triumphant smile, "The princess looks so good today, she doesn't seem sick at all."

"Does it matter to you?" Luo Qing Chen coldly narrowed her eyes and softly said, "Could it be that concubine Rong hasn't taught you to bow when meeting the princess?"

When she said this, her eyes were still on Feng Chen Yin and they didn't move the slightest bit.

He still didn't change. The face was white as snow, the calm eyes that people couldn't see through.

She didn't know if it was because the snow was too heavy or if the wind blew into her eyes.

She just felt.....her eyes unknowingly turning a bit red.....

Chapter 2779: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 51)

"You....." Feng Yue's face turned red as she felt like she had been shamed in front of her male god.

But when she wanted to speak, she found that her words were stuck in her mouth and she couldn't say a word.

"Aiya! Stop being noisy." Yan Shu quickly came out to smooth things over, "I just came to see the princess, nothing else."

"Cousin." Feng Yue angrily said, "Why are you speaking up for her!"

Yan Shu didn't pay attention to Feng Qian before, so why was he standing by her side speaking for her?

"I....." Yan Shu knitted his brows, "I just wanted to tell the truth. Not to mention, you shouldn't act that audacious when speaking to the princess."

People were like this. Once someone that was once warm to you suddenly became cold, you would want their attention very much.

Yan Shu was like this right now. He didn't know why Luo Qing Chen was cold to him, but this kind of feeling made him feel very uncomfortable.

Let alone, he was a conceited person and many people liked him. He had never met anyone that didn't like him.

"Have you said enough?" Luo Qing Chen listened to them saying what they wanted and a cold glow appeared in her eyes, "My temper's not good, so don't provoke me."

Without knowing when, when Feng Yue and Feng Wan heard Luo Qing Chen say this, they strangely broke out in goosebumps.

Although Luo Qing Chen's voice wasn't heavy or soft, it made them feel strangely ice cold.

"If the princess doesn't need a check up, the young master doesn't need to stay." Yan Ying didn't know why she was so bold. Maybe it was because of the bad first impression of the princess she heard from her cousins, or maybe it was because Feng Chen Yin was too focused when looking at her.

Her heart strangely didn't feel good. Although it was inappropriate for her to say these words, she still said them.

"Young master?" Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh, "I never thought that hero Long Yin would be living such a happy life over the years!"

It's only been three years and Feng Chen Yin had little girls by his side?

Wasn't it rumoured that he missed her very much? It wouldn't be a lie, right..... .com

"It's too windy and snowy out here, I'll take the princess' pulse inside!" He felt a very strange feeling. It was as if his heart that had been calm for a long time strangely shook when he looked into her eyes.

"I don't want to." Luo Qing Chen looked up slightly at him with an arrogant look, "Young master Feng, let's go enjoy the scenery. The plum flowers in the imperial gardens are beautiful."

His eyes trembled and that heart that had been calm for so long couldn't help shaking.

It was a suffocating feeling and the scene from before appeared in front of him. She took his hand with a proud look on her face.

He didn't have a way of handling her back then.

And now, he couldn't bear to refuse the request of this princess in front of him.....

"Alright." He gave a nod. Although his voice was calm, it wasn't as cold as before.

Feng Chen Yin's agreement stunned the people around. After all, they had been used to seeing him being ice cold along the way, treating each word as gold.

But now he suddenly used this slightly accommodating tone that made them feel was unbelievable.

"Young master....." Yan Ying was completely stunned. That was because in her long year, she had never seen Feng Chen Yin like this.

Those probing eyes were on a woman.

There were many people that came because of the three words Feng Chen Yin over the past year, but they could never enter his eyes.

But now.....someone actually.....

Chapter 2780: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 52)

"I heard that young master Feng had stopped wandering the Jianghu and has settled in the Medicine King Valley to enjoy his old age over the past few years?" Luo Qing Chen walked side by side with him, with a smile that was hard to hide on her lips.

There was still that familiar aura around him, as if standing by him gave her a very safe feeling.

"Un." He gave a slight nod as a faint gentleness appeared in his eyes.

For the first time in three years, he felt a feeling of joy in his heart.

This feeling of joy suddenly came from the bottom of his heart and it couldn't be stopped.

"Just one un?"

Feng Chen Yin looked over with a look of exploration in his eyes, "As I get older, I want to stay in a place that can make my heart feel calm."

"The Medicine King Valley is the place where the young master feels calm." Yan Ying following behind them interjected, "It's because it's where the person the young master values most is."

As expected, this princess was like her two cousins had described her. She was a person that liked to play around very much.

Throwing herself onto any good looking person, she really was shameless!

"Ke, ke....." Feng Yue who was also following behind them couldn't help saying, "There are some people that like playing around."

After saying this, she didn't forget to look at Yan Shu following her.

Thinking of the past, Feng Qian liked Yan Shu so much!

Even if her body wasn't good, she would secretly go looking for him.

But now.....

As soon as she woke up, she thought of someone else.

"The most important person for young master Feng?" Luo Qing Chen's lips curled slightly, "Is she still important to you?"

There was a soft spot in his heart that couldn't be touched. Yan Ying knew that, so she deliberately brought it up.

Because Feng Chen Yin didn't allow anyone to bring her up. Or even.....say her name.

But Feng Chen Yin was only surprised and looked at her for a while before saying, "She is the most important person in this life."

The people behind him who didn't understand all revealed confused looks, but there was a look of success in Yan Qing's eyes.

She was never willing to mention Luo Qing Chen because she knew that no one in this world could replace her position in Feng Chen Yin's heart.

But if she could use her name to drive away all the girls that gathered, she didn't mind bringing her in.

But she never thought that Feng Chen Yin wouldn't just not show a cold appearance, he would even answer the princess.

"That really is great....." As the plum blossoms fell, there was a touch of sadness between them.

Then she felt her heart palpitate and her right hand suddenly held her chest.

Feng Chen Yin quickly held her hand and knitted his brows as he said, "What is it?"

"Young master....."

"She, she, she....."

Yan Ying and Feng Yue spoke at the same time. They both wanted to say something, but those words were blown away by Luo Qing Chen's words in the snow.

"Do you miss her?" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips as tears welled in her eyes.

It wasn't that she was sad, but the joy of reuniting after so long made her heart tremble unconsciously.

Feng Chen Yin knitted his brows and looked into her eyes with more focus. After a long while, he only said, "I should send the princess back and take the princess' pulse."

The snow was too big and seeing her pale cheeks, his heart strangely felt uncomfortable.

It should clearly be the first time they were meeting, so why was there a strange feeling?

Silently and never stopping.

Luo Qing Chen bit her lips and looked at him, "She misses you very much."
