Chapter 2781: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 53)

The snowflakes fell as she looked up a bit. Seeing his cold face, her eyes trembled.

Feng Chen Yin's long and slender fingers trembled as her clear as water eyes were reflected in his deep eyes.

Some people can pass ten thousand years with one look. As they deeply looked at each other, all that would come to mind is what happened to the other person.

"Just what are you saying....." Yan Ying was unhappy seeing this beautiful scene and immediately wanted to step forward to disrupt it.

But no one expected.....

The wind suddenly became stronger and there were ice mountains that appeared around them.

This was the ultimate technique that hadn't appeared in the Jianghu for a long time, since that red snow in Magnet State.

The Refining Mountains and Rivers had been sealed by Feng Chen Yin and he never used it again.

Because he loved one person, to commemorate one person.

"Young master."

When they were sealed by the ice, he raised his right hand as if he wanted to see her eyes clearly.

No matter how unbelievable it seemed, he wanted to follow his feelings, follow his heart.

"Qing....."

"Master."

Before the word 'Chen' was said, she couldn't wait as she threw herself into his embrace, tightly holding his clothes, "Master, master, master, master, master.....Feng Chen Yin....."

"Un, I'm here." His voice was very soft, but there was a slight tremble to it.

Slowly lifting her up and then tightly hugging her. It was as if there were many things to say and many things to ask.

But there was only one thing he wanted to do at this moment, which was to hug her tightly.

Not asking who, not asking why, not asking where.

The Refining Mountains and Rivers' ice slowly melted and he stood there in his white robe hugging this young girl.

His eyes were blurred, but there was a faint smile on his lips.

Was this a blessing from the heavens?

He had come to the palace to get medicine to refine medicine men, but he never thought that he would accidentally bump into her.

The funny thing was that even without any evidence, he didn't have the slightest doubt.

This was a strange feeling. He thought.....that no one in the world would understand.

"Si!" When the people saw them holding each other, they all took a cold breath.

The number one swordsman in the Jianghu and the princess of the court.

It was unbelievable that two people who had never met would be hugging like this.

"Young master....."

"My god....."

"Just what is happening, is there a mistake....."

.....

Luo Qing Chen didn't care what they said and time seemed to go back to three years ago.

They were still in the manor in the Magnet State and he had also tightly hugged her like this with all his strength, not caring about a thing.

But in the end, he couldn't protect her and couldn't keep her.

Now the heavens had given him another chance. In the sea of people, meeting her again. One look, one action, one laugh, one glance for ten thousand years.

He had thought of countless scenarios of meeting her again in the human world, in heaven, or in hell.

She was a medicine man, an immortal, or a ghost.....

He also dreamed countless times that she would never be back. The red dust left by the snow wouldn't represent anything.

She wouldn't come back and would forever leave him alone.

But he still had something that he still had never said to her.

"Luo Qing Chen....."

This was Feng Chen Yin's first time calling her by her full name and with a slightly serious tone.

"Ah?" She was surprised as she looked up, "Master, what is....."

Before her voice fell, he leaned in and said with a kiss, "I love you."

Chapter 2782: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 54)

This was a phrase that he had never said, but that didn't mean he didn't love her.

There were some people that kept their love in their hearts for a long time that festered, began to become ill, began to become crazy.

Feng Chen Yin was that kind of person. He seemed calm on the surface, but there was a terrifying obsession deep down.

He never cared about people before, but he was more terrifying than anyone once he did.

There was no one that was forever indifferent in this world, but certain people wouldn't let others see through their heart.

The kiss in the imperial garden spread through the palace in less than a day. The emperor was overjoyed that Feng Chen Yin, the number one swordsman in the Jianghu who was not only skilled in swordsmanship, but also medicine was interested in his princess.

This was a great thing for the entire court.

This meant that if possible, Feng Chen Yin could leave the Jianghu and work for the court.

The sisters Feng Yue and Feng Wan spread a lot of bad rumours and they were caught by the emperor.

The emperor without a word locked them up and told them to meditate on their faults.

This was meditation on the surface, but it was in fact to weaken concubine Rong's faction.

If one person attained enlightenment, even chickens and dogs would ascend. If one person was punished, the whole family suffered.

Concubine Rong had caught the emperor's eyes, but because of her two outspoken daughters, the emperor's impression of her dropped.

Her life.....was basically over.....

As for Feng Chen Yin, he didn't return to the Medicine King Valley and accepted the emperor's suggestion to stay with the princess to take care of her illness.

He gave Feng Chen Yin a treasured sword and gave him the highest status in the palace.

Even if people showed disdain about his sudden appearance, they didn't dare say anything now.

After all, no one could match him in martial arts, medical skills, or looks, so how could they say anything about him?

It was another lazy afternoon and Luo Qing Chen was sitting on the couch secretly eating chilled grapes.

She had just eaten one when Feng Chen Yin appeared beside her, scaring her half to death.

"Master, why don't you make a sound when walking!" Luo Qing Chen patted her heart, "My heart isn't good, it was almost stopped by you."

"When did I not make a sound when walking?" Feng Chen Yin put the grapes to the side, "Eating cold things when you have a bad heart, it can't be that you want to anger me to death, right?"

Even if three years pass, even if she had a new identity, she didn't change at all.

Other than being prideful, there was nothing else other than worry.

"Wa! Master won't let me eat grapes." Feng Chen Yin raised his right hand and lightly flicked her forehead, "You can't eat chilled grapes."

Luo Qing Chen muttered in a soft voice, "But chilled tastes good....."

"What did you say?"

Luo Qing Chen's eyes trembled as she thought for a bit before saying, "I said.....Master, let's go out of the palace and play!"

"Play what?" Feng Chen Yin knitted his brows, "Do you know that your heart isn't good?"

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips, "How could I not know, I'm not Feng Qian."

What did her poor body have to do with her, it's not like it was her fault!

"It must be because Qing Chen is too playful." Feng Chen Yin patted her head, "So your body isn't good."

"Nonsense!" Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, "I'm not playful, but my heart feels uncomfortable. It's the same feeling as when I was the medicine man."

Chapter 2783: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 55)

She also didn't know why she felt like this, but it was similar.

"It's because you and Feng Qian were tied to the same destiny." Feng Chen Yin narrowed his eyes, "Do you remember what sect master Shen said? Your destiny isn't to save people."

He was very fortunate that her role wasn't just to save people. He really wanted to thank Shen Qing Feng for creating her, so he could meet her, so he could have her.

"I didn't understand what sect master Shen meant before, but now I understand." Luo Qing Chen waved her hand for Feng Chen Yin to sit down.

His lips curled. After he sat down, she leaned on his shoulder and continued, "Although I don't fully understand what this means, I'm sure that as long as I stay by master's side, it will be fine. Nothing else is important."

"You." Feng Chen Yin hugged her and said, "Relax, as long as you take the medicine on time, the palpitations will disappear."

"That powerful?" Luo Qing Chen blinked, "I never thought that master would do nothing else in three years and his medical skills would be this good."

"Do you know why?" He moved his hand through her hair with a gentle look in his eyes.

"Why?" Luo Qing Chen looked over with eyes of doubt as she asked this.

Although Feng Chen Yin's martial arts was the best in the world, his medical skills shouldn't be that good.

Just what had he experienced in three years that he would become like this?

"It's because....." He paused as if he was recalling everything that had happened.

Finding the method to refine medicine men, returning to the Medicine King Valley, using this almost impossible method to bring her back.

He desperately did all he could to bring her back.

But now, she was already back.

There was no need to tell her about those days that were like a swamp of death.

"Nothing, it's good as long as your illness can be cured." Feng Chen Yin took the medicine on the side that he just brought over, "It's not hot anymore."

"Just because it's not hot doesn't mean it tastes good." Luo Qing Chen pouted her lips looking at this medicine that was like black paint, revealing a disgusted look.

Feng Chen Yin raised a brow and said, "It shouldn't be that bad."

Feng Chen Yin didn't lie to her. The medicine really did taste very good, it had a slight sweet honey flavour.

But she felt very sleepy after drinking it and fell asleep leaning on Feng Chen Yin.

While she was sleeping, he carefully picked her up and gently placed her on the bed. He covered her up with a quilt and then gently placed a kiss on her.

"Hero Long Yin." Ya Ya softly called him and he quickly turned around to make a gesture for her to be quiet.

He was afraid that people would wake her up and that she wouldn't sleep well.

He left the bed and walked down the stairs before saying in a soft voice, "What is it?"

"Miss Yan Ying is waiting outside for you. It seems like it's for something very important....."

After all, Yan Ying and Feng Chen Yin entered the palace together, so by all reasoning, it should be reported.

"Un." He softly replied, "I understand."

It seemed like it had been many days since she last saw him. He hadn't changed, still in the same white clothes and still looking so good.

But those dark eyes had become as bright as stars.

"Young master....." Yan Ying took a deep breath. She summoned all her courage and moved forward to try and hug him. .com

But Feng Chen Yin moved to the side and Yan Ying touched thin air.

“What are you doing?” He narrowed his eyes. His eyes were so cold that people didn’t dare directly look into them.

Chapter 2784: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 56)

“I.....” Yan Ying stood there in a daze. There was a bit of panic in her eyes, but there was more of a sad look.

“I don’t understand.” She took a deep breath and said the words that puzzled her the most.

She didn’t understand, she really didn’t understand.

If Feng Chen Yin was still doting on the dead immortal medicine man, she could still understand.

But now he was with that princess that he had only met briefly, so why was he pampering her like this?

This was completely different from the Feng Chen Yin she knew.

“This isn’t related to you.” His voice was very ice cold. He was unwilling to say one more word, let alone explain anything to her.

“Young master, you must be under some kind of witchcraft. I.....I will definitely find out the truth, I won’t let that princess get.....” .com

Yan Ying felt a tight feeling around her neck as she found it hard to breathe.

Feng Chen Yin had appeared by her with extreme speed and had grabbed her neck with killing intent in his eyes.

“Young.....Young.....” Yan Ying said with great difficulty as her face turned red.

“Everyone who wanted to hurt her in this world is dead.” Feng Chen Yin narrowed his cold eyes and said word for word, “If you really want to die, I can help you.”

“I.....No.....” Yan Ying was already speechless. Feng Chen Yin was very strong, she felt like he would really kill her right away.

It went black and white in front of her, as well as the killing intent in his eyes.

Feng Chen Yin gave a cold snort and released his right hand.

Yan Ying couldn’t stand up and fell to the ground.

She felt like she had been standing on the gates of hell and if she took a step forward, she would meet the king of hell.

Without knowing why, at the moment of life and death, nothing was important other than her life.

“No one can hurt her, no one.”

This was the last thing Feng Chen Yin said to Yan Ying. From that day forth, he never saw Yan Ying.

Actually, although his focus in the last three years had been to revive her by researching medicine men, he had still done other things.

The people who had destroyed the Luo Family in the past were related to the elders of the Sword Trial Mountain Villa to a certain extent.

He had held the Falling Maple Sword and killed everyone who was involved.

He had met Qi Tian He who was dying at that time. His hair was white, his eyes were wrinkled, and he had no vitality.

He wanted to charge at Feng Chen Yin when he saw him, but he couldn't even stand firm.

The two hated each other from the bottom of their hearts. If Qi Tian Ge had the immortal medicine man, then he would have been able to fully cultivate the Soul Release Sutra and become the strongest person in the world.

And Feng Chen Yin.....

If it wasn't for Qi Tian Ge's aggressiveness, he wouldn't have lost Luo Qing Chen, the person he loved most in his life.

In the end, Feng Chen Yin didn't kill Qi Tian Ge.

Because he felt that for him, living was more painful than death.

A thousand times, ten thousand times.....

This was what he deserved.

In the spring of march, under Feng Chen Yin's care, Luo Qing Chen felt that her body was already much better.

She could sleep soundly at night without the heart palpitations. She often boasted that he was a divine doctor and she wasn't scared of any illness in the past.

Every time, Feng Chen Yin would say, "If you get sick once, you won't have snacks for a month. You can give it a try."

Leaving the Jianghu and living in the palace made Luo Qing Chen feel that Feng Chen Yin had become a completely different person.

He had gone from cold and indifferent to domineering and focused. Moreover, there were little palace maids that kept peeking which really made one feel displeased.

Chapter 2785: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (Part 57)

Although the maids peeked, they didn't dare overstep.

After all, Feng Chen Yin was considered the princess' husband and he was deeply favoured by the emperor, so he was a person that couldn't be approached.

As for the other famous person Yan Shu beside the emperor, the one that had been the most cultured at the banquets. He couldn't compare to Feng Chen Yin in martial arts and his learnings couldn't surpass him either.

So it didn't take long before he lost his "favoured" position in the emperor's heart.

Adding in the fact that concubine Rong and his two cousins also affected his position and the emperor was someone who liked the new instead of the old.

This was true for concubines and even more so for talented people.

It didn't take long for Yan Shu to disappear from the palace.

As for Luo Qing Chen and Feng Chen Yin.

The emperor held a large wedding for them, inviting not just ministers, but also many people from the Jianghu.

Among them was Fang Rou.

After the goodbye last time, Fang Rou thought that it would be the last time they would meet and they would never see each other again in this life.

But she never thought that Feng Chen Yin wouldn't leave after entering the palace and he would get.....married to the princess.

She would never believe this was the truth and even if she didn't want to see his wedding, she still decided to accept their wedding invitation.

At the wedding ceremony, Luo Qing Chen saw Fang Rou. She looked at her and Feng Chen Yin drinking their wine with a puzzled look, but she couldn't find a single clue.

She just knew that Feng Chen Yin's eyes were filled with pampering and the danger was real.

At the main table, while Luo Qing Chen was toasting the emperor, Fang Rou toasted Feng Chen Yin, "I never thought that hero Long Ying.....would marry the princess....."

In her eyes, his love was obsessive for that immortal medicine man, for his entire life.

But she never thought that in less than six months, he would marry the princess of the court.

Feng Chen Yin didn't reply and just slowly put down his cup of wine as he headed in Luo Qing Chen's direction.

Although he knew that she was good at drinking, he didn't want to see her drink that much.

"Master....." She whispered in a soft voice, wanting to snatch it back, but he held her waist.

Then he muttered in her ears, "It should be husband in the future." .com

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a smile before turning away with a red face.

Fang Rou saw how gentle Feng Chen Yin was and couldn't help being stunned.

She had never seen this kind of Feng Chen Yin.

Perhaps he wasn't as obsessed as she had thought, or perhaps he had already fallen in love with someone else.

But it wasn't her.

But she didn't have a chance.

Feng Chen Yin had Ya Ya send Luo Qing Chen back to the room, waiting for him to come after he sent off the guests.

Before leaving, Luo Qing Chen asked, "What did Fang Rou say to you?"

"It should be that she was surprised by my change of heart." Feng Chen Yin revealed a smile. He gently raised his right hand to push back the scattered hairs as his eyes revealed a gentle look.

"Un." Luo Qing Chen looked up and bit her red lips, "Then why didn't you tell her?"

"He, he." He laughed at himself, "If I didn't find you and wanted to live in peace with you, I would have wanted to kill her and destroy Mount Emei. With this relationship, why should I tell her?"

In Feng Chen Yin's eyes, Fang Rou was already an enemy more than a stranger.

The aggressiveness in the valley back then and then the cooperation between Mount Emei and the Sword Trial Mountain Villa in Magnet State, he remembered all of this and would never forget it.

Chapter 2786: Asking about love in Jianghu: A medicine man without a heart (End)

Luo Qing Chen never thought that Feng Chen Yin's impression of Fang Rou was like this. It had to be said that she was very happy from his words.

After the wedding ceremony was over, Feng Chen Yin personally sent off one of the guests.

Fang Rou looked at him for a long time before raising her head high up and looked at him with a flick of her green skirt, "It turns out that the love of the number one swordsman is only like this."

As soon as her voice fell, she turned to leave the hall.

Feng Chen Yin just slightly narrowed his eyes, never saying a word to her. .com

He knew why she came, but it was fine for him to know the happiness that belonged to him.

The thoughts of others, the way others looked at him, he didn't care.

In the bridal chambers with red silk hanging high and lit by candles.

He kissed her on her forehead with a smile, "Little disciple, you have to grow up."

In the first year of emperor Feng.

The old emperor died and the new emperor took the throne.

Luo Qing Chen and Feng Chen Yin had already been married for seven years.

Due to the great shift in the court, they discussed it and decided not to participate. They would give up their status and honour and return to the Medicine King Valley.

The new emperor was overjoyed and awarded them with twenty thousand taels of gold, one thousand rolls of silk and satin before sending them off to the Medicine King Valley.

Why was the new emperor so happy?

Because he was afraid of Feng Chen Yin's abilities. During the reign of the previous emperor, Feng Chen Yin had provided most of the policies adopted by the previous emperor.

Each policy created twice the gain with half the effort. This kind of capable and talented person could shake his throne.

In the new emperor's eyes, Feng Chen Yin was a bomb filled with poppies.

Mysterious and dangerous.

Luo Qing Chen and Feng Chen Yin also knew this, so to prevent the new emperor from plotting on dealing with them, they simply decided to leave first.

Anyway, they were from the Jianghu in the first place.

They had lived the peaceful life in the palace, so they should come out to wander the Jianghu now.

From the capital to the Medicine King Valley, many things had happened.

Villains who bullied women, black shops that ate human flesh, and villages where plagues were rampant.

Everywhere they went, they left behind their own marks.

They didn't keep anyone in the Medicine King Valley and many of the medicine men that Feng Chen Yin had refined back then could already open their eyes, enjoying a new life.

Although they would live less than ten years, although it was very short, this was a new life for them.

Time passed year by year and they often left the valley to wander the Jianghu.

Luo Qing Chen liked helping out people when encountering injustices the most.

Perhaps she wasn't a person with that kind of personality, but at least in this Jianghu, she wanted to be that kind of person.

Feng Chen Yin liked standing by her side, watching her sword dance as she played, watching her naughty smile.

Luo Qing Chen would never know that while she enjoyed the Jianghu, he only enjoyed her.

The people in the Jianghu respected them very much, but this kind of respect wouldn't last a lifetime.

Things would always happen in the Jianghu and there were disputes that couldn't be avoided.

For example, ten years later, there was another immortal medicine man that was born and another struggle appeared in the Jianghu.

"Big sister Qing, big brother Feng, just give me to them." A woman in a light white dress with a face that could collapse nations knelt in front of them with tears glistening in her eyes.

Luo Qing Chen helped her up and said, "I will protect you, don't be afraid."

"No." Feng Chen Yin narrowed his eyes and revealed a smile, "It should be me protecting you two."

She held the Phoenix Dance Sword and he held the Falling Maple Sword, standing at the gates of the Medicine King Valley, waiting for the bloody slaughter.

No matter what, in life or death, he would protect her.

This life, forever.

Chapter 2787: Side story: The winds of longing blow away the red snow (1)

This is an answer that comes from the depths of the soul. Telling myself again and again, I love you. —— Feng Chen Yin.

What was 'love' in this world, it taught people life and death.

Actually, from the very beginning, I didn't know what love was. I just knew that big sister didn't just leave the Sweet Water Lane that was good for her, but went to that ruthless man's side for the love she believed in.

I had long heard the name Qi Tian Ge. Before I learned the ultimate skill Refining Mountains and Rivers from my father, I had a fight with him.

At that time, I was a bit better.

I could feel his obsession for martial arts and his obsession with the ultimate skills, but he was still an upright person back then.

Perhaps he was still an upright person when he saved Gu Dai Xiang.

I didn't know why, but he changed later.

Of course, I still didn't know Gu Dai Xiang was my sister and I also didn't know that my father was someone with incredible skills in the Jianghu.

Until Gu Dai Xiang was poisoned with the Seven Insect Seven Flower Poison to get the Soul Release Sutra for him, did I learn that I had a sister and a father.

It should be because my big sister's obsessive love made her so humble that I was so indifferent to this word.

Until I saw that little girl. In the snow, her clear eyes made my heart palpitate.

I couldn't help looking a few more times.....

Starting from her appearance and finally.....

Finally what? I didn't know.

It should be because she made a deal with me with that faint smile on her face, or because she used that coquettish voice to call me master.

At that moment, I actually felt I was a bit despicable. I thought of myself as a magnanimous person, but I actually felt despicable.

Because she was very correct. My purpose for finding her was no different from the others.

I just needed her blood.

The strange thing was that many people wanted her blood and there were many that didn't want her life, but only wanted her blood like me.

But the stranger thing was that she only wanted to make a deal with me.

Why did she trust me? Could it be that she wasn't afraid that I would be using her?

That's what I thought at that time. I was doubtful and confused, but I told myself that I would definitely protect her or I would be letting down this little girl's trust in me.

Until.

She said that if someone killed me, she would collect my corpse and have them protect me.

This was probably the first time there was a strange palpitation in my heart.

This feeling was very strange. If I didn't meet her, I might have never felt this feeling before.

It was unwilling and unhappy, but I suppressed it. I calmly told her that this was good as well.

Perhaps from that moment, the so-called 'love' had already sprouted in my heart and quickly grew in some unknown corner.

Until I could no longer pretend that I couldn't see it, until the depths of my heart had already admitted it.

In the inn by the Medicine King Valley, I started teaching her how to act in the Jianghu. After all, she had been under the protection of Shen Qing Feng for many years, so there were some things that she didn't know.

But I found that although she seemed innocent, her heart was very cautious.

I suddenly found that a medicine man can sometimes glow.

Seeing her smile like that, I felt like I wanted to say with her forever and never leave her.

But this shining moment couldn't compare to when she held the sword in one hand and took down the Red Sleeves Divine Nun in a single move.

Although her internal energy came from Shen Qing Feng, who taught her her techniques?

This speed was not something that even Shen Qing Feng could match.

Chapter 2788: Side story: The winds of longing blow away the red snow (2)

In the snow, her smile made me frozen in place for a long time.

I even forgot to avoid the falling snow, but it was a good thing that no one noticed me.

I wanted to show up after the Mount Emei people left, or it was fine if she killed them all.

This so-called righteous sect was already very hard to look at for me.

They call themselves righteous and do these lowly things, it really gives a fake feeling.

My meeting with Fang Rou in the past was just a chance encounter. I felt that her chivalry was good, just like a female hero of the Jianghu.

But when I saw her again, she became a person that only listened to her master and couldn't differentiate between right and wrong.

Comparing it, I liked this about that little girl. At least she knew how to love and hate, at least she was honest enough.

This battle was considered quite intense. She and I defeated countless experts of the Jianghu, among them were the elders of the Sword Trial Mountain Villa who were experts among experts.

I saw the faces of these people and my heart suddenly became clear.

Although I needed her blood to save my big sister, we were different.

Under the cliff, she leaned against me as she slept. I looked at the wound on the back of her hand for a long time and felt a bit worried.

Medicine men feared fire, I wouldn't be the only one who knew this.

There were countless books in the Sword Trial Mountain Villa and Qi Tian Ge was someone who would find out everything about her.

I was worried and afraid at the same time that I couldn't protect her.

Actually, at that moment, there was a terrifying thought that went through my mind.

What if I didn't save my big sister? What if I didn't go to Magnet State?

Everyone in Jianghu should know that I would be bringing the immortal medicine man to save my big sister, so I understood better than anyone how dangerous it was in Magnet State.

I thought of everything. How to escape, how to save the two of them, how to die together.....

But I never thought that I would be betrayed by my big sister. She actually betrayed me for a man who didn't care about her life.

I thought that having tea with her was a time of blessing. Although I didn't say those three words to her at that time, I knew that she understood.

But big sister.....she didn't care about her life.

She was so selfish that as long as Qi Tian Ge could live, she didn't care how many innocent people died.

I was filled with regret at that moment. I felt that I was foolish, I couldn't see my own position in her heart, or.....I couldn't see through my own heart.

That red snow tore my heart apart from beginning to end.

For the next three years, I didn't have a single day of good sleep.

I didn't know the meaning of life and the only obsession in my life was using that red dust to create medicine men.

I was waiting, waiting for a miracle. Waiting for a miracle that would make her appear again.

It should be that miracle that kept me alive the whole time.

No one understood how I felt when we met again. The excitement of reuniting was just as exciting as the pain of separation.

Thank the heavens, thank you for meeting me again, thank you for being by my side.....

The one that rarely talked to you about love wanted to write it all down, living a long life.

Little apprentice, I am not an expressive person.

But I always stuck to one thing and will always be moved by you. Even if there was no red snow, even if there was no traveling eighty thousand miles, even if you never returned.

I still liked you and it will never change in this life.

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 42/100]

Chapter 2789: Childhood friend: Endless fairy tales (Part 1)

Back in the Chaos Space, she felt a bit of an unspeakable sadness in her heart.

It should be because the time she spent with Feng Chen Yin was a bit short. Although she was very happy, she was still unwilling.

After many years, there was another immortal medicine man that appeared that created another round of grievances in the Jianghu.

Medicine King Valley was surrounded again. She and Feng Chen Yin were unwilling to hand over the immortal medicine man and did all they could to protect her, blocking attacks from both the light and dark factions.

Everyone had their own destiny and no one could do anything with her blood without her agreement.

Whether they were saving people or harming people.

But there were many people with wrong views in the world. They would always think: I just want a bit of your blood to save my relatives, why are you not willing to give it to me? Why are you so selfish?

But they would never reflect. When they used that 'despicable' tone and thought that they were righteous while asking things from a stranger, it was already very selfish.

In that battle, they killed many people.

Whether it was the righteous faction or the evil faction, they would kill them as long as they came for the medicine men of Medicine King Valley.

Blood stained the earth and in the end, they could only hug each other. The immortal medicine man was also with them.

No one dared to come forward, but Feng Chen Yin used all his internal energy to protect them.

He said that he would protect them and no one could harm them unless he died.

When Feng Chen Yin was dying, the young girl who had become the immortal medicine man wanted to use her blood to save him.

But Luo Qing Chen shook her head, "It's no use. Your blood can save many people, but it can't save him.

"How does big sister Qing know? I.....I am very powerful.....I....."

Luo Qing Chen shook her head before spitting out a mouthful of blood.

"I know why he is doing this and know what the reason is." Luo Qing Chen leaned against his chest and closed her eyes, "Master, thank you for being with me, even in death."

Actually, she knew that it was her time that was running out. Although Feng Chen Yin didn't tell her, she knew in her heart.

The previous host's heart was very weak and Feng Chen Yin only used medicine to control it, but it didn't fix the root cause.

He wanted to die with her, so he chose to kill all those martial artists that chased them.

He did all this because he didn't want her to know that he wanted to die with her.

He truly was a foolish master.....

Chapter 2790: Childhood friend: Endless fairy tales (Part 2)

The memories of the previous host and the memories of others came at her in layers. She didn't know if the previous host's love was too deep or if she simply loved the wrong person.

She had a cheerful personality and a rich life. Even if the memories that she accepted were in the early stages, her lips couldn't help curling.

A girl who was very comfortable and as bright as the sun.

It was a pity that she didn't come from a good home.

The previous host grew up in America since junior high and her family had a good background. They had been in business since her grandfather's generation and their business was quite large.

Whether it was in the country or abroad, they were famous in the business circle. The more a family was like this, the more they exercised the independence of their successors.

So the previous host didn't live richly when she was in America. She received the same living expenses as her classmates and while they could ask their parents to buy them the things they liked, the previous host had to carefully calculate her living expenses.

But the previous host didn't blame her parents or her grandfather who loved her very much because she was the only successor of the family.

Including her uncle and his children, they didn't live rich lives in America either.

Why? It was because they were the principled, organized, and recorded Luo Family. They would live poorly until they were twenty and then after twenty, they would become a rich person that had "money to the sky".

Twenty years old was when the successor inherited the family fortune and the previous host's father had also been that age when he inherited it.

Grandfather always said that there was a benefit to this. It would allow one to know the importance of money and that money wasn't that easy to earn.

Of course, living alone in America with just enough living expenses each month would inevitably mean encountering accidents.

For example, being hit by a car on a rainy day.

In the night, in the blink of an eye, a youth suddenly appeared and charged forward to hug her.

The previous host's brain had stopped and her feet were like boulders, unable to move at all.

'Young man! I still have a chance to run! If you do this, how can I run?'

That was the previous host's honest thoughts and in the end, she and Su Chen were hit together.

It was a good thing that it was a rainy day and the car was driving slowly, or the previous host might have died.

In this story, Su Chen was the supporting male lead.

But he was very handsome with a clean face and long lashes. Even when he was getting stitched up at the hospital, his expression didn't change at all.

"You are Chinese?"

"Un."

"I heard the nurse call you Su Chen?"

"Un."

“Why did you save me?”

“.....”

Silence, it was a long silence.

He looked at her and then his eyes moved, as he froze there, unable to speak.

The previous host's face turned red as she reprimanded him, “What are you looking at? You.....If you didn't show up, I wouldn't need to get stitched up, alright?”

After all, the previous host's body was good. She carefully thought about it after the accident.

The skidding car suddenly appeared and she could have used her 'flying steps' to avoid the car.

Of course, that was just her fantasies.....

She could have been hit spread eagle by the car and then the driver would have run away, leaving her to bleed to death in the rainy night.

Su Chen just softly said 'sorry' to her before going to pay the hospital bills.

The previous host felt that he was a person with a story as she watched him leave, but she never thought that his story would be related to a stranger like her.
