Chapter 331: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 35)

She walked in front of Yan Ruo Yao with soft steps and stepped on the blood she spat out. She looked down at her and said, "Then you'll be buried with him!"

"I....." Yan Ruo Yao glared at her, vomiting blood while saying her final words in a hoarse voice.

"I.....even if.....I become a ghost.....I won't let you off."

"If you become a ghost, you'll be even weaker than you as a half human half demon."

After saying this, she turned and flicked her sleeve, not looking back once.

Her heart wasn't filled with any satisfaction or joy, rather it was just blank like something important was missing.

She searched the Dead Soul Sea Pond for ten days, neither finding Mo Bai Ci or Li Jin Feng.

Only when the light blue light around her had completely disappeared did she wander out of this place covered in red lotuses like a living corpse.

She didn't return to the Void Residence, rather she returned to the Full Spirit County's Hot Spring Inn.

The place where she first met him.

Perhaps this way she could still feel that that person would return to the Void Residence.

Perhaps he was still alive.....

Time passed very quickly and half a year passed in the blink of an eye.

The thing she did most every day was sit in the tavern and listen to mister Tanuki talk about matters of the Heaven Falling Continent.

"Half a year ago, the world changed. Good and evil fought a bloody battle in the Unbounded Land of the Dead Soul Sea Pond. It's said that they fought for eighty one days and finally the Void Residence's Destiny Master and our Full Spirit County's Lord Cherry Blossom Spirit joined hands to gain a great victory!"

"And then, and then!" A group of small leopards asked with excited looks in their eyes.

"And then....." Mister Tanuki took a swig of his wine while slowly saying, "Of course they fell in love and chose to live in the mountains, living the life of an immortal."

After hearing this, her lips curled slightly to reveal a faint smile.

If it was like what the storytelling tanuki said, how good that would be.

She didn't keep listening and slowly stood up, preparing to leave.

"Big sister cherry blossom." A familiar voice filled her ears.

Turning around, she saw someone who she hadn't seen in a long time.

Shao Qing and the little mushroom.

"Miss Luo." Shao Qing was carrying the little mushroom as he came forward. There was a faint spring like glow in his eyes as he looked at her and said, "Long time no see."

"Un." She gave a soft response, as she suppressed all the thoughts in her mind.

Sometimes the pain and thoughts hidden deep in her heart would surge forward because she had seen an acquaintance they knew in the past.

"Miss Luo, there was a strange sign with the Stargazing Platform of the Void Residence....." Shao Qing said with a frown, "The little mushroom said that you would probably be here, so I came to test my luck."

"Strange sign?" Her clear eyes lit up and she held her breath as she said, "He....."

"It's unrelated to him." Shao Qing cut her off to say, "The Demon Monarch's seal is probably about to break."

Luo Qing Chen heard this. She bit her lip and looked at him with sparkling eyes as she said, "What did you come find me for?"

"The Star Monarch said.....a hundred years ago....."

"Sorry, in my heart, there is no world." Her cold eyes looked at Shao Qing, treating every word like a gem.

She already used her life to save the world, now she no longer had the strength to do the same.

Perhaps it was selfishness or pettiness, everyone had the right to choose their own lives.

It's like those people who claimed they were righteous sent someone to find her when the enemy had appeared.

Could it be that they weren't selfish?

After a while, Shao Qing revealed a faint smile and said, "You and him are really similar."

"So....." She took a deep breath and pursed her lips as she said, "Did he come back?"

Chapter 332: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 36)

Shao Qing didn't say anything, as he took the Flashy Sword off his back to give to her and said, "I think, he was most unwilling to leave you....."

At that moment, tears fell down.

She took the Flashy Sword and tightly held it. In short she felt that she could feel the faint aura he had left on the sword.

The little mushroom jumped out of Shao Qing's embrace and the colourful mushroom head slowly rubbed against her leg as it said, "Big sister cherry blossom still has little mushroom....."

Shao Qing said with a sigh, "I'll leave little mushroom to you."

"Alright." She gave a slight nod in response.

After she bid farewell to Shao Qing, there were many things in her heart that wouldn't calm down.

Was saving the world considered fulfilling his unfulfilled wish?

If it was, it wouldn't be a hard thing for her to lay down her life to finish this for him.

But was his wish really this?

She had personally sealed the Demon Monarch a hundred years ago, naturally she could feel when he would break the seal.

Thousands of Spirit Spell Masters from the Void Residence gathered in the Word Tide Bay, they were bound to start a great war with the Blood Demon Hall.

When she arrived with the Flashy Sword in hand, the Demon Monarch had already broken the seal. Blood flowed like a river in the Word Tide Bay, like it was a mountain covered in corpses.

"Ha, ha, ha, ha——" A wild laughter rang out. The Demon Monarch stood above the clouds with his red armour, watching over the sea of blood with those eyes that seemed to be an abnormal red colour and said, "This monarch urges you to give up this useless resistance, this world belongs to our Blood Demon Hall."

"Overly arrogant." The Star Monarch led the Spirit Spell Masters of the Void Residence to desperately fight back.

Su Qing Xie was standing by the Demon Monarch. A bit of panic filled his eyes when he saw the cherry blossom coloured figure among the thousands of people.

Not seeing, but still thinking about her.

Seeing her and feeling worried.

Then it was better to not see her!

The powerful red energy slammed down onto the light blue barrier that the Void Residence had created.

Again and again, this large sound reverberated in everyone's ears.

The barrier kept shrinking and it became weaker and weaker after each fierce attack.

"Today.....Even if this old man dies here, I will bring you along with me." The Star Monarch flew out and used all his spiritual energy to form his strongest barrier, as he charged forward to attack the Demon Monarch.

The Demon Monarch revealed an incredibly evil smile, as he turned into dark red smoke, charging out in the direction of the Star Monarch.

“Peng, peng——” A powerful shockwave came from the sky.

The Star Monarch slowly fell down from the sky lying flat, completely covered in blood.

“Star Monarch——” Several Void Residence disciples quickly came forward to support him back into the barrier.

After that, blood red light scattered all around the Demon Monarch. He looked down at everyone below with an evil smile as he said, “Since you’re not willing to fall, then you can say goodbye to this world!”

After saying this, the sky changed and clouds covered the sky, turning everything blood red.

“Hong long——” Large amounts of flames and thunder fell down from the sky.

The entire area became like hell on earth.

Luo Qing Chen hidden away tightly knit her brows. She looked up at the dark sky, looking at the flames and thunder.

In that instant, she remembered the Unbounded Land from back then.

Perhaps there were some things that ended where they started.

Her heart didn’t care about the world and the people, but if he wanted to protect this world, she would do her best to fulfill his wishes.

Instantly, the girl in the cherry blossom coloured robe touched her chest, softly touching the Moon Cherry Blossom Robe the youth made, as a look of determination filled her eyes.

Chapter 333: Cold destiny master’s cherry blossom spirit (Part 37)

After that, she jumped out. The sky was filled with a strong cherry blossom scent as tens of thousands of petals filled the sky.

She raised the Flashy Sword as she jumped into the flames and thunder, becoming the center of attention for everyone in an instant.

“Ah! You’re finally here.” The Demon Monarch roared in an excited voice, as flames almost poured out of his eyes.

Rage, unwillingness, and hatred all mixed together. There was a cold killing intent and a strong blood scent that filled the air.

If it wasn’t for her and Mo Bai Ci a hundred years ago, how could he, the honourable Demon Monarch of the Blood Demon Hall have been sealed in the Unbounded Land for a hundred years.

If it wasn’t for some powerful spiritual energy falling down and adding in the hundred year seal weakening, he wouldn’t have been able to escape the seal at all.

Now he finally had a chance to take revenge for what happened a hundred years ago!

"Father, please allow your son to go out for you!" Su Qing Xie came forward with an expression of deep meaning on his face.

"Big brother Qing Xie, let me go with you." Meng Ling pursed her lips as she looked at him with worry.

Meng Ling was Eastern Mountain's Lord Meng Mo's only daughter, being Su Qing Xie's playmate since he was young and being his future.....wife.

Their engagement was set by the Demon Monarch and Lord Meng Mo when they were born, being the darlings of the Demon World.

"No....."

"Alright——" When Su Qing Xie was going to deny her, the Demon Monarch roared out. His eyes were filled with blood and happiness, "You two can dance together with your swords for father!"

Luo Qing Chen flicked her sleeve and her eyes were incomparably cold, as her lips opened slightly to say, "Come together."

As soon as her voice fell, the Flashy Sword in her hand stabbed out at Su Qing Xie. Although it was powerful, it wasn't a fatal blow.

"Big brother Qing Xie, I'll help you." Meng Ling shook her green bell and flew into the air. The bell gave a crisp sound, sending people into a trance.

"Ding dang——" Luo Qing Chen felt the sound of the bell pass through her defenses and reach her mind.

There seemed to be a fog that appeared in front of her eyes, like all kinds of illusions were surrounding her.

In the illusion, a breeze blew as a white clothed youth stood under a cherry blossom tree with his back to her.

That kind of peace, that kind of beauty.....

"Don't listen." Su Qing Xie saw her eyes glaze over and deliberately attacked in her direction, whispering these two words in her ear.

The sword in his right hand raised and cut a layer of skin off her wrist. Fresh blood slowly poured out and filled her with a bit of pain.

Luo Qing Chen suddenly woke up and a light pink glow appeared on the fingertip of her right hand, flying out to attack Meng Ling's spiritual weapon.

"Ding ling——" The green bell was sent flying and the illusory world disappeared completely.

She slightly knit her brows, as she looked at Su Qing Xie in front of her with a gaze of confusion.

After that, before she could even react, Su Qing Xie had attacked in her direction, which she dodged with a soft step.

“Surrender! You can’t beat father!” In the flames and thunder, she heard Su Qing Xie’s anxious noise. Even his moves became a bit chaotic.

In an instant, she knit her brows. Her heart steeled and she raised her right hand, releasing the golden light of the Exquisite Ring.

“Peng——” She broke Su Qing Xie’s defenses and landed a palm on his chest, only using half her spiritual energy.

It wasn’t light or heavy, but at least it stopped him from participating in the war.

“I don’t mind using the ancient sacrifice spell again.” Her eyes narrowed as memories filled her mind, while cherry blossom petals surrounded her.

Chapter 334: Cold destiny master’s cherry blossom spirit (Part 38)

“You won’t have this chance——” A bit of panic appeared in the bottom of the Demon Monarch’s eyes, since this young girl in front of him was the person who sealed him a hundred years ago.

After saying this, the sky changed colours as the thunder and flames became stronger.

The waves of the Word Tide Bay rose like a flood.

The Demon Monarch flew out with a whip of blood and flames, suddenly attacking in Luo Qing Chen’s direction.

Su Qing Xie’s body trembled, but he found that he couldn’t move at all.

There was a faint pink glow that surrounded him, as cherry blossom petals fell down beside him.

“Damn——” Su Qing Xie tightly knit his brows and his heart was filled with panic.

Suddenly he was filled with a bit of regret, he shouldn’t have stopped them from taking the Starlight Sword when they were at the Dead Soul Sea Pond.

If it wasn’t for the Starlight Sword, the secret realm of the Unbounded World wouldn’t have been opened.

Then his father wouldn’t have broken the seal so quickly.

Thinking of this, he felt that he was being a bit unfilial.

But if it was in exchange for Luo Qing Chen’s life, he would rather have the people of the world call him unfilial.

He still remembered how her eyes shined from the first moment he met her.

It was at that time that some emotions began to slowly spread through his heart.

He didn’t know what it was, but he knew that as long as he could see her again, he would be very happy.

But he never thought that he would actually meet her again at the Dead Soul Sea Pond.

Yan Ruo Yao never told him that a person called Luo Qing Chen was coming, she just said that the Void Residence had sent the number one Spirit Spell Master to find the sacred item, the Starlight Sword.

For this sword, the Blood Demon Hall was certain to keep it, they naturally couldn't let it be stolen.

Who would have known that he would meet her in the Dead Soul Sea Pond.

The first time, at the Hot Spring Inn, he couldn't steal her from Mo Bai Ci's hands.

The second time, at the Dead Soul Sea Pond, facing a Mo Bai Ci with half his strength, he still couldn't take her even using all his spiritual energy.

The third time, at this Word Tide Bay, she no longer had Mo Bai Ci by her side, but she had turned into an enemy.

But in order to stop him from participating, she used spiritual energy to bind him.

"Hong long——" The flames and thunder became even stronger, as they kept slamming down on the only area filled with light.

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips as beads of sweat appeared on her forehead. Her right hand holding the Exquisite Ring couldn't help trembling.

The Demon Monarch was truly very strong, it was no wonder the previous host could only rely on the ancient sacrificial spell to seal him.

This powerful energy shattered the barrier of the Void Residence below them.

Everyone fell on the ground, as they were attacked by the flames and thunder.

Pitiful wails rang out, it was like hell on earth.

"Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit, it's you. Only you can....." The Demon Monarch's body released a black smoke and his palm opened, revealing the Red Lotus Orb.

"So what if it's me or if it isn't me?" She suddenly looked up with ice cold eyes, softly parting her lips to say, "The ending is still the same."

She closed her eyes and that cold youth's figure filled her gaze.

That youth that always protected her.

That youth that had never refused her.

That youth who used his body to take her heavenly disaster for her in the Unbounded Land.....

Finally she could go to him.....

"Swearing to the gods, using my body as a sacrifice....."

"Peng!" When she was chanting the ancient sacrificial spell, a powerful energy sent her flying.

The clouds in the sky scattered, as the one place that was lit up gradually began to expand.

A faint blue light surrounded her, firmly trapping her in place.

Chapter 335: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 39)

There was a youth in a moon white clothed youth that slowly floated down from the sky. He stood in the wind, but he looked indifferent.

Luo Qing Chen saw that white back and felt that her heart was about to jump out.

Nervousness, anticipation, and fear, all kinds of complicated emotions came together.

Just asking for the moment that youth turned so she could see that familiar figure.

"It's you." The Demon Monarch's face changed, as he looked at this youth in disbelief. He gritted his teeth and said, "You're actually still alive."

"The Unbounded Land's time and space mysterious realm, how you came out is how I went in." Mo Bai Ci's cold voice resounded clearly across the Heaven Falling Continent.

It was like a ray of hope pierced through her heart without any warning.

That day when they fell into the bottomless abyss, he had unknowingly fell into the Unbounded Land's time and space mysterious realm.

He thought that he wouldn't last long before his primordial spirit scattered.

But he never thought that the time and space mysterious realm would be filled with spiritual energy. The spiritual energy in that place restricted the Demon Race, while greatly helping the cultivation of cultivators.

After recovering there for half a year, he finally found the way out.

Finally he could leave that mysterious realm and find the Demon Monarch.

But he had already escaped.

The Demon Monarch's eyes were filled with killing intent as he stared at Mo Bai Ci and said, "If you can beat me, the Cherry Blossom Spirit wouldn't have used the ancient sacrificial spell a hundred years ago! Not to mention that I completely understand the time and space mysterious realm, so even if there is the ancient sacrificial spell, this monarch isn't afraid!"

"I won't let her use the spell a second time....." His eyes were incomparably cold, like stars that instantly dimmed, as they contained a faint killing intent, "As for you.....I think that this world can no longer tolerate you."

As his voice fell, a white smoke wrapped around Luo Qing Chen's wrist. The Flashy Sword responded to its master's aura and excitedly sent several beams of light blue glow into the sky, as it flew into Mo Bai Ci's hand.

The moment he caught the Flashy Sword, he was like the king that ruled the world, looking down on the citizens below his feet. His eyes were like the deep skies filled with a dominating look.

Luo Qing Chen had been trapped there for half a minute without moving. Properly speaking, although Mo Bai Ci was strong, she had recovered 90% of her power and it was impossible for her not to be able to break the fetters.

“Bai Ci, he.....” The Star Monarch not far away looked at Mo Bai Ci in shock as he said, “He actually became a god.....”

The Heaven Falling Continent couldn’t compare to other places, there had only been a single god for thousands of years. It was the Stellar God that had chosen Mo Bai Ci as the Destiny Master.

To become a god, one had to pass through an unknown heavenly disaster, accepting all kinds of pain and meet all kinds of unknown encounters before having this chance.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and looked up at the youth in the sky.

He was covered in light blue glow, with layers wrapping around him. It was like he was surrounded by a powerful energy that kept spreading around him.

No wonder he could use just a bit of spiritual energy to trap her in place like this.

No wonder that while it seemed like a battle from afar, the Demon Monarch couldn’t actually stop his attacks.

After several rounds, the flames and thunder had already disappeared from the sky. The sky was clear of all the doom and gloom from before and it shined down on the entire Heaven Falling Continent.

In an instant, Mo Bai Ci’s eyes sparkled as several plumes of azure smoke came from his hands, piercing through the Demon Monarch’s body.

Chapter 336: Cold destiny master’s cherry blossom spirit (Part 40)

“You.....” The Demon Monarch’s body was like a shattered mirror, breaking apart piece by piece.

His eyes were with disbelief, as his dry lips parted to say, “How.....How is this possible?”

“All creation in this world has a set time, only through sacrifice could one never die.”

After saying this, he flicked a sleeve and turned to leave.

There was only a ‘peng——’ sound as the Demon Monarch’s body exploded, turning into ashes.

He slightly raised his right hand and released the fetters around Luo Qing Chen. A white smoke wrapped around her and brought her to his side.

“Sorry.” His right hand took her waist and eyes filled with deep affection looking into her clear was water eyes.

Luo Qing Chen felt her nose get stuffy as her eyes sparkled.

There were many things she wanted to ask, but she didn’t know how to ask.

There were many things she wanted to say, but she didn’t know what to say.

In short, it was good he was back.

In short, it was good he was alive.

Whether he was a god, a demon, a spirit, or a cultivator.....In her heart, he was that Mo Bai Ci with his cold eyes and warm heart.

The sky had blue waves and white clouds, looking bright and clean.

The Demon Monarch was dead, the Blood Demon Hall was a headless snake. Among the highnesses, the one with the strongest power was Su Qing Xie.

The rest of his brothers couldn't hold up, kneeling down the moment the Demon Monarch died and admitting defeat.

The Star Monarch was a kind soul, so he didn't kill them all. He had them hand over the Red Lotus Orb and never take even half a step over the borders.

Otherwise the Void Residence would stomp the Blood Demon Hall and leave only corpses.

This was what the Star Monarch proposed and with Su Qing Xie leading them, everyone accepted this.

This hundred year war between good and even was finally over.

Mo Bai Ci didn't bring her back to the Hall of Wisdom, rather he said goodbye to the Star Monarch.

The Star Monarch didn't keep him, but the most important reason for that was——

He couldn't keep him.....

On the Flashy Sword.

She didn't say a word, but her heart was very happy and a bit angry.

Remembering when they were in the Unbounded Land and he used his body to block the three bolts of heavenly thunders for her, her heart couldn't help trembling.

It was hard to imagine that there was someone like him in this world. He knew everything that would happen and knew how painful it would be, but he faced it with an indifferent look, feeling no fear at all.

Some people said that death wasn't terrifying, but the unpredictable part of death and waiting for it was the most terrifying thing.

"If you have anything to ask, just ask." His voice was very calm, but there was a warm and gentle tone to it.

Right now if she wanted to know anything, he would tell her everything.

After all, the most dangerous time had already passed.

From now on, the Heaven Falling Continent, the sun, the moon, and the stars, he would always be by her side.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

[The host can choose to.....]

There's no need to ask this question in the future! I will always pick yes!

[Oh.] The system answered in a hurt voice.

She came back to her senses and took a deep breath before looking up to ask, "Three questions, can you answer them?"

"Yes."

She raised her hand and grabbed his moon white robes. Her eyes turned red, as tears almost came down.

"Did you already know that Yan Ruo Yao was from the Blood Demon Hall?"

"Yes."

He immediately responded without even considering it.

"When you brought me to the Dead Soul Sea Pond, one reason was to find the Starlight Sword for the Star Monarch and the other was for my heavenly disaster, right?"

"Yes."

His voice was as calm as water, there were no waves at all.

"Mo Bai Ci."

"Un, I'm here." He stopped the sword and turned to look at her, as his eyes filled with a pampering gaze.

He slowly raised his head and brushed back her hair as he said, "There's still another question, have you thought it through?"

Luo Qing Chen tightly bit her lip and tears fell down. She took a deep breath and looked at him as she asked her third question.

"When you gave me the three bags, was it because you know.....you would.....die?"

Suddenly she was pulled into a warm embrace, as he said with a gentle laugh, "Yes."

Chapter 337: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 41)

"Mo Bai Ci!" She bit her lip, almost shouting out these three words.

But the youth hugging her just calmly patted her on the back in a gentle manner and said in a soft voice, "But didn't I not die?"

He indeed didn't know that he would survive, but he knew that as long as he used his mortal body to block the three bolts of lightning from the Red Lotus Orb in the Unbounded Land, she would never encounter a heavenly disaster in her life.

So he thought that doing all of this was worth it.

She didn't know why, but hearing his cold voice with a pampering tone to it, her tears couldn't help falling down.

When people were in front of their most important person, they would reveal their most vulnerable side.

Facing Yan Ruo Yao, her eyes would never turn red.

Facing the Demon Monarch, she would never feel fear.

But when Mo Bai Ci was silently whispering in her ears, she felt like she wanted to cry.

Perhaps this is what one should feel when in front of the person they liked!

Luo Qing Chen brought Mo Bai Ci back to the Full Spirit County, going to the place she lived for a thousand years.

Mister Tanuki was talking about the battle between good and evil a few days ago and there were a few little spirits sitting in front of him, seriously listening to him.

"It's said that, the Demon Monarch that the Void Residence's number one ranked Destiny Master and the Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit sealed a hundred years ago broke his seal and came back for his revenge!" Mister Tanuki was drinking wine while telling this story.

"Mister, what happened next!" A small fox raised his hand to ask, "Did they win?"

"I've heard the Demon Monarch was enraged and covered the Heaven Falling Continent with fire and thunder....."

"That's right! The sky suddenly became like that a few days ago and I was scared to death....." Another fox demon cut off mister Tanuki's story.

"Do you want to listen or not! You're not allowed to cut me off!"

"We do——"

Everyone was very enthusiastic, so mister Tanuki excitedly kept saying, "When the sky was covered in flames and thunder, while the Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit was chanting the ancient sacrificial spell, a white clothed youth fell from the sky. He was like a god, covered in the aura of an immortal."

"Mister Tanuki, then did they beat the Demon Monarch?"

"Nonsense! If they didn't win, would you still be safe and listening to stories right now?"

"Dong——" A big stone was thrown at mister Tanuki.

Looking over, there was a little mushroom demon wearing a flower skirt and a straw hat standing not far away.

"You.....You liar!" The little mushroom angrily put its hand at its waist as it said, "If big sister cherry blossom and big brother white clothes don't come back, this little mushroom will destroy your story board!"

The hot tempered little mushroom stunned everyone listening to the story.

Normally this little mushroom wasn't this overbearing! Who had offended her?

"Little mushroom, why are you calling me a liar!" Mister Tanuki shook his wine as he said, "This is all true!"

"You've never left the Full Spirit County, how could you know about the Word Tide Bay battle! You, you, you.....you are a liar!" The little mushroom angrily stood up on a wood pile, as its round eyes filled with tears and it said, "If they won, why didn't they come to find this little mushroom."

"Che——" Everyone clicked their tongues.

Everyone wanted to hear what it was saying, but they never thought that it was a crazy mushroom that liked speaking nonsense.

The honourable Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit and the Destiny Master, how could they come looking for a little mushroom. It was a lie no matter how they looked at it.

"I think they'll be here for you soon!" Mister Tanuki rubbed the colourful mushroom cap as he spoke with a smile.

It never thought that the entire crowd wouldn't believe it. Rather it was the storyteller who came out to support her.

Chapter 338: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 42)

"This storyteller's words are quite accurate." Luo Qing Chen narrowed her sparkling eyes as she looked forward.

"Of course he's right." Mo Bai Ci's eyes sparkled as he said with a smile, "He's not a normal person."

After saying this, he moved forward and stopped in front of mister Tanuki.

"White.....Big brother white clothes!" The little mushroom became visibly excited. It stepped off and jumped onto his shoulder before looking back.

The instant it saw Luo Qing Chen, the little mushroom broke out in tears and jumped into her embrace.

"Mister storyteller, I have something I want to ask."

"Mister, please ask?"

"Can I be with the person I love forever in this life?"

"As the moon and sun rise, the sky changes, the one she stays with will always be the same."

"Alright, thank you."

Mo Bai Ci looked at the light golden glow on the Tanuki's right hand's finger and a different kind of emotion appeared in his eyes.

He slightly turned and walked over to Luo Qing Chen.

"What did you talk to mister Tanuki about?" She carried the little mushroom in her embrace and saw the joy that he couldn't hide on his face, so she doubtfully asked this.

A cold Destiny Master, other than being warm to her, he actually seemed this happy talking to a Tanuki.

Aiya, what kind of strange thing was this!

"I just asked him a question." Mo Bai Ci revealed a faint smile. That smile was casual, but it looked so good.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help being stunned, she rarely saw him reveal such a deep smile.

It was like undissolvable ink, it made one's heart fill with joy seeing it.

"Something that a Destiny Master like you can't calculate, can the words of a drunk Tanuki be believed in?"

"Yes." He softly took her hand and tightly held it as he walked forward.

The night sky of the Full Spirit County was as beautiful as a lake filled with fireflies. There were all kinds of mushroom lamps surrounded by fireflies, lighting this place up like a dream land.

"Look, look, look, this is the little mushroom's specially prepared cloud swing." The little mushroom looked at the white light by a tree in front of them and said, "When the Full Spirit County has its firefly conference, big brother and big sister have to come."

"Alright." Luo Qing Chen nodded as she watched the little mushroom bounce off.

The stars in the sky shined bright, lighting up this cloud swing.

The tree was large and pieces of red string hung down, like it was a place for making wishes.

"You can make wishes here!" Luo Qing Chen saw the wishes of the little demons on the red paper and her eyes lit up.

-Want to become friends with big brother tree.

-I like the little sister boar next door, but she doesn't seem to like me.

-Can you give me a handsome little fairy?

.....

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help laughing as she saw the wishes. It seemed like whether it was a person, a cultivator, or a demon, there was always something in their hearts and what was hidden was written on the paper.

“Does the Heaven Falling Continent’s number one Destiny Master want to say something?” Luo Qing Chen took a piece of red paper from the box beside her to give to Mo Bai Ci and said, “Do you want to write it down?”

She pursed her lips into a sweet smile as she looked at him.

Mo Bai Ci’s heart skipped a beat. He raised his right hand and softly stroked her face.

After that.....

His left hand took her waist and brought her into his embrace.

She could feel her heart beating like a little deer running fast. Being held by this cold person could feel this warm.

This feeling really wasn’t bad.....

It’s just a bit tight.....

“Don’t move.....” His cold voice rang in her ear, bringing a bit of warmth as he said, “I’ve never been with a woman before, this is my first time and my last time. If I do something wrong, tell me, alright?”

Chapter 339: Cold destiny master’s cherry blossom spirit (Part 43)

Luo Qing Chen heard this and her face unknowingly turned red. That blush kept flowing outwards and it reached her ears.

“There is a thing that you have to promise me.” She pursed her lips. When she said this, the scene of the Unbounded Land kept playing in her mind.

It was a bit painful to experience disaster again.

To experience it twice would be torture.

She really didn’t want to live if she had to experience that pain again.

It was like being in a dark world and not even being able to see your fingers. There were many roads, but each one was a dead end.

“Speak!” He softly stroked her hair as he pulled her in even tighter.

“I know that you are the Destiny Master and you can calculate everything about the future.” She placed her head against his chest and took a deep breath before saying, “But can you not just charge in alone when you calculate any kind of danger.....”

“This.....” Mo Bai Ci said with an awkward smile, “I really can’t.”

“Why?” She suddenly jumped out of his embrace, as her eyes stared at him.

She never thought that even though she spoke so softly, she would be rejected like this!

“Because.....” He grabbed her hand and sat down on the swing. He softly swung back and forth as he said, “I can’t calculate your destiny to begin with.”

Un, this was the only person he couldn’t read the destiny of.

It was her, his love disaster.

“What?” Luo Qing Chen looked up into his star like eyes and said in a surprised voice, “Then.....How did you know about my heavenly disaster.....”

“I made a deal, I used my cultivation in exchange for learning your destiny from the Stellar God.” Mo Bai Ci revealed a faint smile as he revealed a pampering look in his eyes. He looked into her clear eyes and said, “Now everything is in the past.”

“Stellar God?” She knew about this person, but she didn’t dare believe in his existence.

She just felt that this was a god like character that was even more powerful than Mo Bai Ci.”

“Mister Tanuki.”

“What——” Luo Qing Chen’s lashes trembled as her eyes filled with shock.

No, it should be considered stunned!

“He just transformed into mister Tanuki.” Mo Bai Ci stroked her head as he said, “The Stellar God is a paradox existence, he is a very casual person.”

“But haven’t you also become a god?”

He gave a slight nod and said, “If I hadn’t become a god, I wouldn’t be able to see through his transformation at all.”

“Ah, so it’s like this!” Luo Qing Chen suddenly said in an understanding voice, “No wonder you were that happy after talking to him. Can you tell me what you were talking about?”

Something that made it hard for this cold Destiny Master to hide his joy, it must be some incredible thing!

“Un——” He hesitated a bit before saying, “Close your eyes and I’ll tell you.”

“Could it be that he gave you some incredible divine weapon?” Luo Qing Chen obediently closed her eyes, prepared to hear the good news.

But she never thought that ——

The youth cool lips would softly press down on her lips.

It was very soft, very sweet, and a bit cool.

“Mo.....Wu——” She wanted to say something, but the other side kissed deeper. Falling to the passion, she gradually lost her voice.

As they were surrounded by fireflies, there was a light blue glow around the cloud swing, as the red wish papers above their heads floated in the wind.

It was like the picture was frozen in that beautiful moment.

There was a shimmering red piece of paper that slowly rose, as someone wrote something on it with spiritual energy.

The stars are inexhaustible, always staying faithful.

Chapter 340: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 44)

"This is bad, this is bad!" A little fox demon ran over to them and cut them off.

Luo Qing Chen quickly jumped out of Mo Bai Ci's embrace with a flicker in her eyes. She touched her face and it was very hot.

She awkwardly smoothed her hair over her ears and jumped up, looking at the little fox and saying, "What is it?"

"The little mushroom was taken away!"

Going back two hours, the little mushroom went back to the Hot Spring Inn to get some wine and no one really cared.

Until when the firefly night festival started and it didn't come back.

The little fox felt that something was off and went to the Hot Spring Inn to look for it, finding a note in the end.

Luo Qing Chen took the note. There were only a few words written on it that were filled with power: Come to the Snow Mountain if you want to save the mushroom, Luo Qing Chen must come alone.

She was about to give the note to Mo Bai Ci, but he shook his head.

"You divined who took the little mushroom?" Seeing his expression, it was like she could see his heart.

"Un." Mo Bai Ci gave a soft nod before he looked at her with a deep look and said, "Go, there's no danger."

Un, there was no danger indeed for Luo Qing Chen.

But for him, there was an unknown feeling that was in his heart.

But he believed in her unconditionally.

"You....You're not coming with me?" Luo Qing Chen looked up at Mo Bai Ci with an expectant look in her eyes.

"I'll be waiting under the mountain." After saying this, he raised his hand and brought out the Flashy Sword. He gently pulled her in and said, "Although I divined that there won't be any danger, I can't see your fate in the end. Remember to wear the Moon Cherry Blossom Robe, that way I'll be assured."

Luo Qing Chen slightly knit her brows. She stepped on the Flashy Sword and grabbed his clothes, as a feeling filled her heart.

She wanted to stay by his side, always staying by the side of this youth who did things without ever telling her.

Sometimes this kind of obsession made people feel heart.

So shouldn't she stay by his side and stay with him?

Snow Mountain peak.

This was her second time coming to this place. Before she came up, Mo Bai Ci had put a light blue barrier around her.

Therefore she didn't waste that much spiritual energy coming up the mountain.

It was just a bit cold.....

The first time they came here, she had him by her side warming her up with spiritual energy, so she didn't feel cold at all.

This time he wasn't with her, so she felt waves of cold hitting her, crossing her skin and entering her heart.

Above her head were the stars and moon.

The little mushroom was inside an azure barrier, playing with the snow, looking quite happy. In the snow next to it, there was a blue sparkling sword that was stabbed into the ground.

There was a familiar aura in the air, like an aura that had been by her side for a hundred years.

She walked to the little mushroom's side and picked up the sword from the ground. She knit her brows as she muttered, "Starlight Sword."

After that, there was a figure that appeared behind her that suddenly hugged her.

Instantly she jumped back, lifting the Starlight Sword and slashing out.

There was a faint cherry blossom scent that filled the air, as cherry blossom petals fell on the wind.

She took a deep breath as she looked at the dark clothed person in front of her, "Li Jin Feng, it's you?"

"Un." He unbuttoned his black scarf and had a helpless smile as he said, "What a pity, you are too strong. I wanted to hug you one last time, but I couldn't even do that."

He really was unwilling, he truly was unwilling.....

If everything could happen again, he would definitely.....protect this cherry blossom girl to the death.

Not giving anyone the tiniest bit of a chance.....
