Chapter 351: Mister's childhood lover (Part 4)

After going to the office to pick up her uniform and textbooks, Luo Qing Chen went home early.

Although she wasn't that interested in things like book bags, Bei Xiao Shi liked it, so she might as well follow her and buy some.

These book bags were neat and tidy, with her name and class written on it. It was something that every young person had done before.

Only most people would only write everything neatly for the first few days.

After that.....

They forgot everything!

The first class was math that Luo Qing Chen hated the most!

Properly speaking, the previous host's grades weren't bad, but they also weren't good. They were right in the middle.

It was a kind of transparent person that didn't attract the teacher's attention.

As for their seating.....

Luo Qing Chen thought that things would change, but she never thought that she would be put at the same desk as Gu Qing Nuo!

What was the meaning of this, they wanted her to directly abuse this trash man?

Actually, Gu Qing Nuo at least wasn't scum when they were still in high school.

At least during this time, he was wholeheartedly good to the previous host.

But after that, he had changed.....

As for Ye Zhi Jin and Bei Xiao Shi, they were at the same table. It was the same as before, they were right behind her in the same row, there was nothing different.

This kind of formation made it very hard for her to carry out her plans!

System, system, calling the system! Tell me the affection! They were childhood friends, their affection shouldn't be low!

[Yes, it's 50%.]

This high!

Hearing the system's voice, not only did she not feel happy, rather she was very afraid!

Normally speaking, with this kind of situation, there must be some kind of irreversible change that was secretly happening in this world!

“Luo Qing Chen, come up to the board and answer the question!” A strict voice suddenly rang out, cutting off her conversation with the system!

What question?

There was a question that has never changed, why was it that all teachers could see when students were distracted?

What if a student was just thinking about the question?

What was the difference between thinking about the question and being distracted!?

Luo Qing Chen helplessly bit her lip and slowly stood up. Seeing the numbers that filled the chalkboard, she was stunned.....

Sorry, with the previous host's skill, I really can't answer this.

Gu Qing Nuo at the same desk slowly pushed his notes over with the answers already written down.

Her fingers moved slightly and she pushed back the notes.

After that, she slowly walked to the board.

Exchange for math skills!

[Ding, five hundred exchange points have been taken. Successfully exchanged for math skills!]

In an instant, her mind was filled with numbers that eventually turned into a function.

She walked over to the board and softly picked up the white chalk before writing a set of equations on the board, solving the problem bit by bit.

“Un, very good!” The math teacher's voice was a bit awkward, but she still praised Luo Qing Chen.

Luo Qing Chen didn't feel proud since this was a skill given by the system, not something that she had herself.

When she returned to her seat, Bei Xiao Shi tapped her shoulder with her pen and said in a small voice, “Not bad! How did you suddenly improve in your most hated subject?”

“Because I'm going into science in the future!” She pursed her lips, speaking in a normal voice, but the person behind her and to the left clearly heard everything.

Un, she said this just for Ye Zhi Jin to hear.

Everyone knew that Ye Zhi Jin was already far superior to everyone else in terms of math and science.

But with the previous host's memorization skills, Ye Zhi Jin chose to study liberal arts in the end.

Perhaps the previous host didn't understand the reason, but Luo Qing Chen as the host was very clear on the reason why.

He did it for her.

Chapter 352: Mister's childhood lover (Part 5)

The warm wind from the window blew over the youth's clothes. He could clearly feel that the moment she said science, his heart skipped a beat before it began beating faster.

She just leaned in her chair with a smile on her face.

Gu Qing Nuo at the same table placed his eyes on her young face and his eyes were filled with confusion.

It was like this was his first time being rejected by a girl.....

There was something vague in his heart haunting him.

After class was over, class two's Cheng Qian Zi and Qiao Meng Tian were waiting at the door for the two high profiled youths.

But their relationship didn't seem too good.....

"Qiao Meng Tian, are you shameless? I was here first, alright?" Cheng Qian Zi angrily looked at Qiao Meng Tian, like her eyes were about to pop out.

She didn't know why this Qiao Meng Tian kept opposing her!

Today she organized a conference for Qing Nuo, but she had come over and said: I always felt that Ye Zhi Jin was more handsome!

What a joke, there were even half the people who thought the same as her!?

Had the eyes of these people been shot out? Blind!

"Did you build this road?" Qiao Meng Tian wasn't willing to show any weakness as she slightly knit her brows.

She was still a child with good upbringing, she couldn't lose face for Ye Zhi Jin!

"The two at the door, you should go home and do homework after class! Or do you want me to talk to your class two's teacher and tell them that you need supplementary math class tonight?" The math teacher angrily threw their chalk at the door as they roared out.

"Shua——" All the eyes in the classroom fell onto the two girls outside the door.

Their faces turned red in shyness and quickly ran off.

The class was filled with laughter, as everyone looked over at Gu Qing Nuo and Ye Zhi Jin.

There were some rather naughty boys that teased, "There are quite a few handsome guys in our class, there will be waves of little fangirls running here."

"Did I say class was over?" The math teacher raised the chalk brush and threw it at a naughty student.

Very accurate and very strong!

After that, the math teacher wrote tonight's homework on the board: Two pages of problems!

"Ah——" Pitiful cries came from the class.

It had to be said, if one wanted to be good at something like math.

The most effective method was practice, practice, practice!

“Silence!” The math teacher pushed up their glasses and said, “There will be a test next week and students that fail won’t get a weekend next month! Study properly and practice hard, dismissed!”

Bei Xiao Shi patted her shoulder and said, “Qing Chen, there’s club sign ups today, let’s go take a look!”

“Ah——” Luo Qing Chen had a mission, alright? She didn’t have time for clubs!

“Let’s go!” Bei Xiao Shi clasped her hands together, looking at her with a pleading gaze.

She could only helplessly nod as she said, “Alright!”

Ye Zhi Jin’s ears piqued slightly, silently listening to what they said while slowly packing up his bags.

When they got up to walk out, Ye Zhi Jin quickly followed them.

When the two of them walked out the back door, she could clearly feel the hem of Ye Zhi Jin’s clothes touching her arm.

In that instant, she fell into the role that she should play.

A pure high school student, with her white face instantly being covered in a blush.

This feeling made her unconsciously lower her head and touch her slightly warm ears.

So this was what everyone experienced, a muddled heart.

Chapter 353: Mister’s childhood lover (Part 6)

Although school was over, the clubs fair was filled with students.

Perhaps high school to everyone already had a kind of adult feeling to it.

Picking what one loved, being in a place that their parents couldn’t see, doing what they wanted to do.

“Qing Chen, what do you want to register for?” Bei Xiao Shi asked her with an excited look.

Luo Qing Chen looked around and finally her eyes stopped in the direction of the art club.

The drawing skills of the previous host seemed to be quite good.

“Na, na, na, I also feel you are the most attractive when you’re drawing!” Bei Xiao She revealed a sweet smile, showing her support.

Luo Qing Chen gave a soft laugh and when she was about to walk forward, she heard an uproar coming from the entrance.

“Wa, wa, wa, look! It’s seventh class’ Gu Qing Nuo!”

“Damn, it really is! Ah, so handsome!”

“His smile is so dazzling!”

Cheng Qian Zi was always by Gu Qing Nuo's side with her head high up, looking very proud.

"Classmate Gu, which club are you joining!" A girl from the crowd plucked up the courage to ask this.

Gu Qing Nuo's expression changed slightly and he looked over in Luo Qing Chen's direction, with his eyes falling onto the art club's booth in the end.

He walked over and gave the female student working there a warm smile as he said, "I want to join."

"Ah——" The female student's face turned red and she stuttered, "Al.....alright!"

After that, three fourths of the girls here all charged in the direction of the art club's booth.

Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and walked in another direction.

Finally she came to the music club's booth and said with a faint smile, "I want to join this one, are there still spaces?"

"Yes!" The senior smiled and said, "There are still many spaces left!"

"Hello, I also want to join the music club." There was a cold voice that came from behind that made her breathing stop.

Ye Zhi Jin's voice was very soft, but it was also very penetrating, giving a crisp feeling to those that heard it.

"Damn! Ye Zhi Jin!" One of the girls in the crowd noticed Ye Zhi Jin's movements and excitedly jumped out.

"Ah, ah, ah, it really is Ye Zhi Jin! So low key, I wouldn't have noticed him if you hadn't said anything!"

"What kind of day is this, I actually met the two new male gods of our Dream One High School!"

"When did he come in? It can't be that he brushed shoulders with me just now, right!"

.....

Hearing the cries of the fangirls, Luo Qing Chen's lips couldn't help curling.

Young admiration was always an existence that followed the wind.

It was like everyone suddenly had the same goal, which was that they wanted to be wherever the school hunk was.

This kind of worship had nothing to do with love, it was just a sign of being young.

Instantly, the people who had been lined up in front of the art club's booth began charging towards the music club's booth.

Luo Qing Chen felt like there was a hoard of terrifying zombies charging at her at that moment.

Ye Zhi Jin beside her had the same kind of thought.

Ye Zhi Jin turned over to look into her clear eyes and said with a soft voice, "Quickly leave."

Luo Qing Chen felt like everything around them was moving in slow motion and her heart began beating faster.

She was a bit nervous.

Perhaps this nervousness had nothing to do with love, but if a clean and handsome youth suddenly whispered something in your ear, you would feel a sense of tension you've never felt before.

She suddenly felt that there were a few words that weren't real that described her feeling.

Falling in fear!

Chapter 354: Mister's childhood lover (Part 7)

The Dream One High School yard was a paradise for fragrant camphor trees.

The air was always filled with a faint camphor fragrance, during this wonderful summer.

When Ye Zhi Jin walked beside her, it attracted almost everyone's attention.

Most of them were whispering about how Ye Zhi Jin's so called couple Qiao Meng Tian had suddenly turned into another person.

And this person seemed a bit stunned.

"Luo Qing Chen."

"Here!"

Ye Zhi Jin heard this and his lips curled into a beautiful arc, as he softly said, "You're the same as before."

No one knew how much excitement and satisfaction was in his heart at that moment.

He liked to play when he was young and he quite liked to stick to people. He liked playing with the girl next door, he liked calling her name and hearing her response.

The happiest part of each day was walking home together with her after class.

The innocent and young him always thought that this would be his life.

It seemed quite good.

Until—

They suddenly moved and it was incredibly sudden.

Since then, he became quiet and introverted. He didn't like playing or perhaps he didn't have anyone to play with.

When his parents weren't home, he would secretly run to the balcony and loudly shout Luo Qing Chen's name.

But there was no one that responded to him.....

"I thought that you wouldn't recognize me!" She looked up into his youthful eyes and her lips slightly curled, "What are you thinking, looking so lost in thought?"

In the previous host's memories, Ye Zhi Jin had always been a knight!

But a princess would always have a prince for them and the knights would never have a chance.

Since they were young, Ye Zhi Jin had always been with the previous host.

She knew, but she didn't reject how good he was. She silently accepted it while giving her heart to another person.

If one said that the previous host was pitiful, one also had to say that she was at fault.

In the world of love, not understanding rejection is a kind of pain.

If you hurt someone, naturally someone will hurt you.

"No, it's nothing." He shook his head as a flash of joy appeared in his eyes!

"I....."

"Zhi Jin." Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something, but a voice from not far away decisively cut her off.

Qiao Meng Tian ran over and was panting as she said, "Didn't you say you were signing up for a club? Why did you suddenly disappear....."

When she said this, her eyes fell onto Luo Qing Chen and her brows knit slightly as she said, "You are?"

Luo Qing Chen looked over Qiao Meng Tian, she had white skin and looked quite sweet. Although her makeup was light, it could still be seen.

As for Qiao Meng Tian, the previous host didn't have any impressions in her memories.

Since her mind wasn't on Ye Zhi Jin, so naturally she didn't care which girls were by his side.

But now it was different! Aiya, it's a love rival!

"Luo Qing Chen, class seven." She nodded, politely responding.

"Oh." Qiao Meng Tian's expression changed and her eyes relaxed a bit.

She looked at the girl in front of her without turning. Her face was pure, her skin was white as snow, and her eyes were clear as water.

So she.....looks like this.....

After a while, Qiao Meng Tian didn't respond and rather grabbed Ye Zhi Jin's hand as she said, "Let's go home!"

"This is my little sister." Ye Zhi Jin gently avoided her hand as he seriously looked at Luo Qing Chen and said, "There were many things that happened after you moved, I can tell you slowly in the future."

There was a bit of nervousness in his voice, it was so clear that both Luo Qing Chen and Qiao Meng Tian could see it.

Ye Zhi Jin was afraid that the girl in front of him would——

Misunderstand!

Before he didn't care about what others saw and what others said about him and Qiao Meng Tian.

He never explained to strangers because he never cared.

But now, although he didn't know what to do or what to say after meeting her again.

He just didn't want her to misunderstand.

Chapter 355: Mister's childhood lover (Part 8)

"Big brother Zhi Jin, you've never told others about our relationship before." On the way home, Qiao Meng Tian had her head down and looked depressed.

She was indeed his little sister, although it was only his little sister in name.

Ye Zhi Jin quite cared about her, never telling others about her past. He was like a big brother, blocking all the rumours for her.

It was because she was an orphan.....

It was because her mother had entrusted her to Ye Zhi Jin's father before she died.

It was because her mother was his father's first love.

She knew that he just pitied her, there were no other feelings at all.

She also knew that there was a girl called Luo Qing Chen who had already occupied the heart of this boy.

"Meng Tian."

"Don't speak....." Qiao Meng Tian cut him off as her eyes filled with tears. She bit her lip and said, "I know why you wanted to leave home and come to this far away Dream One High School! I heard you talking about it with auntie!"

After saying this, she ran away in pain covering her mouth.

With his grades, he could clearly get into the best high school in the province that was closer to his house.

But he didn't do it.....

There was only one choice for him which was Dream One High School.

The next morning, Bei Xiao Shi angrily came over to question her, asking her why she suddenly disappeared last night.

"Humph, you're too much!"

“Sorry, sorry.” Luo Qing Chen only remembered and quickly apologized, “How about I treat you to lunch later?”

“That’s more like it, I’ll forgive you this time!”

Luo Qing Chen gave an OK hand sign and didn’t even turn back!

It really was falling in fear!

Without knowing why, whenever she faced Ye Zhi Jin who had fifty affection for her, she would always feel quite shy.

If it was zero, she could think of how to confess and break the ice!

But she felt like she was a girl meeting her first love.

She didn’t dare approach and didn’t dare talk to him even though she wanted to.

“Qing Chen.” There was someone who knocked from the back to her left. She was dazed before she awkwardly took the note that Ye Zhi Jin gave her.

(Do you want to go to the library after school? ——Ye Zhi Jin)

Gu Qing Nuo beside her took a glance and his eyes sparkled a bit.

She didn’t notice the gaze from the same table and quickly wrote a single word on the note.

(Alright. ——Luo Qing Chen)

If this man took the initiative, why wouldn’t she agree.

Perhaps he might be filled with joy and her affection would slowly climb up again.

Thinking of this, her lips couldn’t help curling into a faint smile.

“I also want to go to the library after school, can you help save me a seat?” Gu Qing Nuo’s soft voice suddenly came from beside her.

“Ah?” She was a bit surprised as she turned to look at him with disbelief.

“You look like you’ve seen a ghost in summer……” Gu Qing Nuo narrowed his eyes as they filled with intense focus.

Her heart skipped a beat. Perhaps it was those eyes that made the previous host reach a point of no return!

There was one thing that the previous host realized after all those years, Gu Qing Nuo was like a star.

He was good to every girl, he treated every person the same.

And among all the people, only the previous host and Cheng Qian Zi were trapped the deepest.

In that parallel space, it seemed like Cheng Qian Zi won.

But actually——

Who was certain that after a few more years, Gu Qing Nuo wouldn't like someone else?

Although it wasn't known, Luo Qing Chen's heart said——

Yes!

Chapter 356: Mister's childhood lover (Part 9)

"He, he, he." After a while, she awkwardly shook her head and said, "You should have Ye Zhi Jin save a spot for you, I'm afraid of being attacked by your fangirls."

Gu Qing Nuo heard this and a complicated look appeared in his eyes.

She was too afraid of gossip to save a spot for him, but going together with Ye Zhi Jin who was also a topic of discussion was something she didn't mind.

At that moment, it was like something had been hurt.

It was something that people cared about most when they were young, self respect.

"But I'm not familiar with him." Gu Qing Nuo had the same smile as he whispered in her ear.

He didn't understand, every girl that had shared a desk with him before always seemed to be filled with happiness.

But why was it that while she was at the same desk, she treated him like he was transparent?

It was like the one sitting beside her wasn't someone popular, but rather some normal bystander.

"But....." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lip with a look of difficulty and said, "We're not too close either."

Although she didn't know if these kinds of words were abusive, no matter what, she didn't want any unnecessary relationship with Gu Qing Nuo.

After all, he wasn't anything good.

Gu Qing Nuo looked very embarrassed. He scratched his head before saying, "You're very special."

Although he didn't know if this special feeling was intentional or not, he couldn't deny that he didn't hate this kind of feeling.

Even if it was a bit awkward.....

"Student Gu Qing Nuo in the third row, come up and answer this question."

Gu Qing Nuo heard this and casually stood up. Because he was good at english, he fluently answered the question which didn't pose any difficulty at all.

The english teacher pushed up their glasses. Because they couldn't get any face back, they didn't forget to add when he sat down, "Be more serious next time, don't talk with your desk mate!"

After saying this, the eyes of everyone in the class fell onto Luo Qing Chen.

???

What was this situation? How was this related to her?

After school, Bei Xiao Shi went to the Taekwondo club, so she didn't go to the library with Luo Qing Chen.

Qiao Meng Tian also didn't come find Ye Zhi Jin since she went to the painting club.

When they were casually talking, Ye Zhi Jin talked about the three years when she wasn't with him.

His family had taken in a girl and that girl was Qiao Meng Tian.

Because of the debts of love from the previous generation, the repayment was being taken by the descendants.

"Things happened like this." Ye Zhi Jin gave a serious nod, as he completely erased the so called coupling.

"So my position as your childhood friend hasn't been shaken yet!" Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile, as her eyes sparkled with a bright glow.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 60%.]

?!

This affection suddenly increased and it was a bit familiar.....

Ye Zhi Jin heard her words and was clearly stunned, like she had said something incredible.

After a while, he calmed his emotions and gave a nod as he said, "Yes."

She walked beside him, revealing a sweet smile.

This feeling seemed quite good.

But they never thought that when they walked into the library.

There wasn't a single spot left, it had been filled with people.

Everyone's eyes were on the boy by the window. His lips were curled into a faint smile and he felt very happy.

When the familiar figure appeared by the door, his focused eyes fell right onto her.

Chapter 357: Mister's childhood lover (Part 10)

"My god, Ye Zhi Jin!"

"Ah, ah, I only heard Gu Qing Nuo was here, no one said that Ye Zhi Jin would also be here!"

"Ai, ai, ai, this old woman's young heart! The value of this year's freshmen is quite high!"

"That, who is that person behind school hunk Ye! Why does she look so unfamiliar!"

“It should be someone from the same class, just a coincidence.....”

.....

There was an uproar in the library, but Ye Zhi Jin didn’t care at all.

He turned around to look at Luo Qing Chen and said, “Since there’s no space, let’s go!”

Luo Qing Chen looked at Gu Qing Nuo. The instant their gazes met, he didn’t look away, rather he had the same playful look.

The proud look in his eyes seemed to be saying: Even if you’re not willing to save a spot for me, naturally there are many people willing to help me.

“Alright.” She looked away and turned to follow Ye Zhi Jin.

For a while, Ye Zhi Jin’s expression was a bit disappointed.

He thought he could spend a few hours with her in the library, but he never thought it would be shattered like this.

“See you tomorrow.” She waved at him with a sweet smile on her lips.

“Let’s exchange numbers!” Ye Zhi Jin had been thinking for a long time before he finally spoke.

He was wearing white clothes, standing with his back to the light, and his eyes sparkled like the stars, making him look especially good.

“Alright.” She nodded as she thought: She liked this suggestion very much!

This was her first time being in a world where she wasn’t attacking the male god, but the male god was attacking her.

Moreover, this feeling was really quite good!

Three days later, when the high temperature warning ended, Dream One High School had their yearly freshmen military training.

Luo Qing Chen’s expression: She didn’t like this kind of exercise at all.

Bei Xiao Shi was very happy, looking like she was going on an outing.

“Relax, I’ve brought all the snacks. You don’t need to bring anything, I guarantee you won’t be hungry!” Bei Xiao Shi patted her chest, looking very certain.

“Achoo!” Luo Qing Chen felt a shiver as she sneezed.

“What is this situation, is someone insulting you!”

“Achoo!”

“Ze, ze, is someone thinking about you!”

“Ah, achoo!”

“Aiya, Luo Qing Chen, you have a cold!”

“Yes, yes, yes!” She sniffed her nose and said, “I must have turned the air conditioner on too high last night!”

“It caused our precious Qing Chen to be sick the day before the military training! Un, very honourable!” Bei Xiao Shi said with a smile, “Although I didn’t bring medicine, I do have some herbal medicine balm. Put it on your nose and it’ll help.”

“Thank you Xiao Shi!” As expected, it really was a warm feeling having a good friend!

On the bus, the teachers were encouraging the students to sing an old fashioned——

Song!

“Teacher, how about we sing «You At the Same Desk»!” Gu Qing Nuo raised his hand with a smile in his eyes.

“Alright, student Gu Qing Nuo, come and take the lead.” The teacher obviously gave special care to this student that took the lead.

Of course, school hunk Gu’s approval rate was also there!

As expected, there was a cheer that started right after!

“Gu Qing Nuo! Gu Qing Nuo! Gu Qing Nuo!”

“Ke, ke.” Gu Qing Nuo cleared his throat and his eyes fell onto the third row of the bus, as he began singing.

Will you think of the diary you write tomorrow?

Will you remember the you who used to love crying the most tomorrow?

The teachers already no longer think of you who can’t even guess the answer.

I flipped through the photos to remember the you of the same desk.

.....

Gu Qing Nuo’s voice was very clear and warm, like there was a sunny school hunk singing right by your ear.

It wasn’t strange thinking about it. If he wasn’t this outstanding, why would the previous host have been dead set on waiting for ten years?

The on and off love of ten years, how much courage would that take?

Chapter 358: Mister’s childhood lover (Part 11)

“Ding dong——” A text message.

Luo Qing Chen looked and saw it was an attack from the male god!

(Did you bring long sleeve clothes? ——Ye Zhi Jin)

She was a bit surprised before she quickly typed a few words on her phone.

(No! Are you cold ——Luo Qing Chen)

“Ding dong——”

(I did, I'll give them to you later. ——Ye Zhi Jin)

Luo Qing Chen at her phone and was a bit surprised. When she was about to respond, she received another text message.

(I saw you sneezing in the morning, be careful. ——Ye Zhi Jin)

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and a smile hung on her face.

Actually the previous host had been treated like this before, but she never cherished it.

After several encounters, it made her feel like Ye Zhi Jin was a boring person.

In her eyes, when a boring person met someone they liked, all their love became unspeakable waiting.

In that alternate world, he had always been waiting!

He was clearly just as dazzling, but he lost to someone who knew how to speak.

The teachers arranged the rooms after they got off the bus. The rooms were enough for four people and she was put in the same room as Bei Xiao Shi.

As for the other two spots, because of the number of girls in the class, they had been left empty.

But they never thought that a ‘sudden piece of bad news’ would break their peace!

Class two had two extra people!

They were the two class two girls that people didn't like, Cheng Qian Zi and Qiao Meng Tian.

Luo Qing Chen thought that this kind of development really was lazy!

She was putting her stuff away with Bei Xiao Shi while changing into their military uniforms. Looking in the mirror, it really was a scene of youth.

The previous host wasn't a girl who was extremely beautiful, but her eyes were very beautiful. It was like she could see through everyone.

“I've heard that you're the one who sits at the same desk as my Qing Nuo?” Cheng Qian Zi came over, looking at her with sharp eyes as she said, “Stop affecting my Qing Nuo. After the military training, tell the teacher you want to change seats!”

“What does it matter to you if she changes seats or not?” Bei Xiao Shi heard this and was filled with rage.

Normally her Qing Chen was rather shy, but she couldn't be bullied like this!

The desire to protect a shy classmate surged forward.

"What does it matter to you what she and I are talking about!" Cheng Qian Zi was like a young miss, suddenly coming forward to push Bei Xiao Shi.

Bei Xiao Shi pushed back as she wasn't willing to show any weakness. She angrily said, "What, you want to fight?"

"Hey, you wouldn't be wanting to fight, right!" Qiao Meng Tian looked at Luo Qing Chen and snappily said, "Although I don't like a certain person, fighting on the first day of military training, aren't you embarrassed?"

Thinking of the relationship between Ye Zhi Jin and Luo Qing Chen, her heart filled with discomfort.

"Qiao Meng Tian, what do you mean!" Cheng Qian Zi turned to bump Qiao Meng Tian, "This old lady doesn't like who you like!"

"Hey! Is there something wrong with you! What are you blindly showing hatred for? Are you suffering from delusional paranoia?" Qiao Meng Tian wasn't willing to show weakness, so she grabbed Cheng Qian Zi's hair and pulled hard on it.

Instantly, the two began fighting as they were unwilling to back off. It was like all the hatred and anger that only needed a single fuse had suddenly exploded.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned by this, alright?

Of course their final fate was——

Being lectured!

Chapter 359: Mister's childhood lover (Part 12)

Youths often used rebellious methods to justify their existence.

They weren't afraid even if they were hurt. It was like they were fully charged generators, willing to do anything they wanted.

"You really are good, you're actually fighting on the first military training of your first year?" The teacher in charge was very angry, lecturing them in the military barracks.

"Cheng Qian Zi, Qiao Meng Tian." The teacher in charge went through the data on the computer while saying, "This is not the first time you two have fought! When you were in middle school, you started fighting over a basketball and were punished! What, are you planning to continue now?"

"Teacher, she started it!" Cheng Qian Zi came out first, looking like an aggrieved little lamb as tears came out.

"Damn, you really know how to act innocent!" Qiao Meng Tian's eyes popped out before she pointed at Bei Xiao Shi and said, "You can just ask them!"

The so called enemy of the enemy is a friend!

Although Qiao Meng Tian didn't like Luo Qing Chen, at this moment they were standing on the same side in this matter.

Cheng Qian Zi wasn't willing to back down, "It's clearly the three of you ganging up on me and you're not embarrassed?"

"Is there a problem with your head! We were bullying you?" Bei Xiao Shi gave a cold snort, "Weren't you bullying Qing Chen first?"

Ah? How did the topic fall back onto her?

"Humph, isn't it because you want to get close to school hunk Gu that you're bullying me?" Cheng Qian Zi's eyes were filled with hatred as she looked at them while speaking.

"Enough." The teacher in charge slapped the table before saying to them, "All of you go out to the yard and run ten laps! You're not allowed to eat if you're not finished running!"

They walked out with dark look on their faces. There were people watching from the side, including two dazzling youths.

Luo Qing Chen looked at Ye Zhi Jin standing there with a coat with his eyes sparking.

She didn't stop. She just looked at him before following Bei Xiao Shi.

But they never thought that in this youthful school filled with gossip, that youth that had always been silent would be this bold in that moment.

Ye Zhi Jin came out without saying a word and in front of everyone, he put the coat over her and said, "I'll come with you."

"Wa——" Everyone cried out. No one had ever thought that Ye Zhi Jin who had never come in contact with girls before would say something like this.

"What is this situation?"

"I would find it normal if these words came from Gu Qing Nuo, but this is Ye Zhi Jin!"

"I've been with Ye Zhi Jin since middle school and I've never seen him like this. This treasure's young heart——"

.....

He didn't care about what everyone said, he just silently followed behind her.

Gu Qing Nuo's expression changed as he also followed behind them. He didn't forget to wave his hands at the fangirls behind him to say, "Come, let's support our classmate and share difficulties with them!"

Everyone thought that he had done this for Cheng Qian Zi.

But no one thought that when Ye Zhi Jin helped that young girl, there were ripples that appeared in his heart.

It was unknown when he started to care and when he became anxious.

There was someone who had unknowingly entered his heart like a beam of light, looking so dazzling.

Chapter 360: Mister's childhood lover (Part 13)

On the track of the military camp, there were only four girls punished to run, but there was a group of people with them.

This matter angered the teacher in charge and the instructor said that they would give them the harshest training!

After ten laps, Luo Qing Chen almost collapsed from how tired she was.

Looking at the people beside her, their situations weren't that good either!

"You just wait for me!" Cheng Qian Zi angrily stomped her feet before walking over to Gu Qing Nuo and saying, "Qing Nuo, let's go.....Stop looking, let's go!"

Luo Qing Chen saw his restless expression before he turned to leave, suddenly feeling that something was different with this youth.

But she didn't know that this thing would cause great harm.

The teacher in charge as expected gave them the harshest training.

The sun was up in the sky, but she felt her back being covered in cold sweat.

"Baby Qing Chen, your face doesn't look good." Bei Xiao Shi walked beside her while asking in a concerned voice, "If you can't hold on, I'll send you to the nurse's office!"

"I....." She wanted to speak, but her throat was so sore that she couldn't speak. She just waved her hand, showing that she was fine.

It wasn't that she wanted to hold on, but if she raised her hand to report this, she would be the center of attention again.

She had been the center of attention enough, she didn't like that kind of feeling.

Ye Zhi Jin knit his brows not far away, as a worried look flashed in his eyes.

"Next, we'll be doing field survival training!" The instructor's strict voice rang out, "You will all be given a bag and the instructors will send you into the mountains! There are necessities in the bag and whichever team gets back the fastest will be considered the winner. The top three teams will receive extra points!"

"Instructor, there are so many mountains here, are we all going to the same one?"

"No!" The instructor added, "There are a total of nine mountains. There is only class two and class seven doing the training today, so you will all be assigned a mountain."

“Instructor, I.....I have no sense of direction.....” A girl with glasses raised her hand, looking quite shy.

“Ha, ha, ha, ha.” The male students broke out in laughter.

The instructor glared at the girl with glasses before continuing, “It is three right now and if you don’t return by six, you can release the smoke signal in your bags and the instructors will come pick you up, but that means that you will receive a mark of zero on this survival training!”

In the minds of the youths, there was a feeling of not wanting to give up. Plus this first military training exercise was a place to show off.

Everyone hoped that they could excel and shine.

But reality wasn’t like that.

Military training groups were divided by dorms, therefore.....

“This really is angering, you better not drag me down!” Cheng Qian Zi didn’t forget to be snippy in the car ride.

The three others gave a shrug, not saying a thing.

Only Qiao Meng Tian’s expression changed a bit, as her eyes showed determination and fear.

The mountain path was slippery and there were animal calls all around them, so they couldn’t tell where they were.

There was a compass in the bag and Bei Xiao Shi found their direction the fastest.

But at this time, Qiao Meng Tian said, “My stomach hurts a bit, can you come with me to go to the washroom?”

Her eyes fell onto Luo Qing Chen, but she was rejected by Bei Xiao Shi.

“Our baby Qing Chen isn’t feeling well today, I’ll go with you.”

When they walked off, she felt a stick hit her back and she fell down.

She vaguely saw many pairs of shoes, sneakers of all different colours.....

WTF? Were high school girls this determined that they even ambushed people?
