Chapter 391: Mister's childhood lover (Part 44)

"Why do I feel that you're very unwilling?" Ye Zhi Jin looked into her eyes and said with a soft voice, "Did something happen?"

Without knowing why, he felt a bit unsettled, but he didn't know what was causing this feeling.

"It's nothing!" She gave a shrug and said, "What could there be?"

She was unwilling, but what could she do?

The system told her that although the seven minute space reversal was a success, the price to pay was seven years time.

Which meant that in an hour, she would disappear from this world for seven years.

Seven years of time, it wasn't long, but it wasn't short.

"But I feel that something is wrong with you." Ye Zhi Jin knit his brows and there was a bit of panic in his eyes. The unsettled feeling in his heart became stronger and stronger.

She lowered her head and brushed the tip of her pen across the white paper. After a while, she slowly said in a choked up voice, "Do you believe in time travel in this world?"

"Time.....travel?" Ye Zhi Jin eyes dimmed a bit. Seeing that her face was covered by her hair, his lips parted to say, "Qing Chen.....You.....What do you want to say?"

After a while, she shook her head with a faint smile and said, "It's nothing! I've been watching too much television lately and I'm feeling rather emotional!"

The teacher was holding a test and she was writing down the words that she wanted to say the most, but couldn't.

——Living one's life, it is better to forget.

There are some things that are a blessing being only met once. Crossing memories, forgetting memories is a matter that takes time and memories belong to time.

Ye Zhi Jin, I am very blessed to meet you again, meeting this good you. Meeting the silent you who has never lost his temper with me.

If there is a day when memories and time runs backwards, I hope that time will let you meet a better person.

Perhaps we will no longer be young, but I hope that you will remember the young me.

——My favourite mister childhood friend.

When she finished, a tear fell onto the pen and slowly dripped down, falling onto the paper and scattering.

She lowered her head, afraid that her classmates would see her crying.

When one was young, whether one was aggrieved or feeling sad, they didn't want others to know.

They felt that eyes were too stinging and it was embarrassing letting others know.

The rain continued, as the trickling slowly entered her ears.

She didn't want Ye Zhi Jin to send her home, but today he seemed very persistent.

She looked at her watch and saw that there was still some time.

Standing at her door, Ye Zhi Jin never said goodbye and she also couldn't say that word.

"I believe that there is a place." He held the umbrella as he turned to her with sparkling eyes and said this.

"Ah?" Her voice was a bit hoarse, as she looked up at him with eyes filled with tears.

"I believe in time travel." He slowly took out a handkerchief and helped her wipe her wet hair, as he said with a smile, "But I like this world better."

Because this world has you.....

"Un, I also like this world." She suddenly turned around and her tears couldn't help falling down. After a while, she bit her lip and said, "It's getting late, you should go."

"Qing Chen." Ye Zhi Jin suddenly came forward and wanted to grab her hand, but it slowly fell down.

After a while, his cold and beautiful voice rang through the air, "Good night.....See you tomorrow."

Chapter 392: Mister's childhood lover (Part 45)

"Good night." She took a deep breath and quickly walked upstairs, finally stopping around the corner.

She didn't say see you tomorrow because she knew that.....she wouldn't see tomorrow.

The second hand on her watch ticked and in conjunction with the rain, it drenched her love and expectations.

She bit her fingers, stopping herself from crying.

Because she knew that the youth that had protected her in their youths hadn't left yet.

Ye Zhi Jin held the umbrella as he stood downstairs. His brows slightly knit as a faint desolate look appeared in his eyes.

He just felt that his heart was empty, like something important was about to leave him and never come back.

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.....

In this unknown journey of love, vows were flavours that couldn't be missed and made youth even more unforgettable.

But this journey suddenly ended and all the vows disappeared without a trace.

Her lashes trembled as she slowly opened her eyes, letting the tears fall as time passed her by.

When she opened them again, seven years had passed.

She was still around the corner, but the walls had marks left behind from the passing of the years.

[Host, you can choose to finish the mission because your mission completion rate is already 100% and end this world. Just a bit of experience will be taken because of the time reversal.] The system's voice slowly rang out, even though it knew that its host was unwilling to leave.

Since you've read my thoughts, there's no need to say anything.

She slowly walked forward and under the light of the sun, she slightly raised her hand. The sun passed through her fingers and shined down on her white face.

The seven years didn't leave a single mark on her face since for her, it was just the blink of an eye.

She went through her bag, there was still the last day's homework and an identification card.

Today she should be a girl who was twenty three.

And he.....

System, can you tell me what happened to him after?

[The male lead Ye Zhi Jin went overseas seven years ago and opened a company four years ago when he came back. Right now he is the president of the largest chain of five star hotels in the country.]

The hotel industry really didn't seem like his style.

[He's returning to S City today to participate in Dream One High School's hundredth anniversary.]

I know. System, I want something.

[Host, please speak.]

Money.

[How much does the host want?]

A hundred thousand.

[It requires 1000 exchange points. System notification: The host doesn't have much exchange points left.]

Alright, exchange.

She wanted money to buy things and stay in a hotel. She also wanted to call her parents to see if they're safe.

[The two of them have already left the country for many years, the host doesn't need to.....]

Although I've only been with them for around a year, family relationships can never be severed. Since they're still alive, it isn't hard to tell them that I'm still alright.

After buying the newest cell phone, two sets of clothes, and a large pair of sunglasses, she called to book a single suite at the Crown Hotel.

When she entered the room, she fixed her hair and headed off to Dream One High School.

Without knowing why, there was a bit of nervousness in her heart. It was the feeling of being moved from lovers reuniting and the urge to meet once again after all these years.

She didn't know if after seven years, that youth would be still the same as before.

Or perhaps there was another woman standing by his side, walking along with him, spending the rest of their lives together.

Chapter 393: Mister's childhood lover (Part 46)

Since it was the hundred year anniversary, there were many people at Dream One High School. It was like there were people who had been famous in school all over the place.

There were top scorers, school flowers, and school hunks.

Luo Qing Chen pushed up the sunglasses that covered her face and she put her hands into her red coat, as she walked into the school.

There was a faint camphor scent in the air. Closing her eyes, she felt like she had returned to her first year of high school.

They wore their red and blue uniforms, not looking back as they pursued their youths.

When she was immersed in her memories, the voice behind her broke all her peace.

"Director Ye, welcome, welcome."

"Principal Lin."

"I'm old, it's about time for me to retire! It'll be your young people's world from now on!"

She didn't hear a single word of his polite talk, she just heard the cool as water voice saying principal Lin.

She found that she was as nervous as before. She could only face her back to where he was standing, she didn't even have the courage to turn around for a peek.

"You still have the same spirit as before." Ye Zhi Jin was still as beautiful as before.

It was a beautiful voice that no one could hate.....

Only there was more of a business flavour in his voice.

It was not as clear and pure as before.

“Do you still remember back in school when you and....”

“And who?” A sweet voice rang out that made her turn around.

That girl intimately held his hand and her lips had a sweet smile as she looked at principal Lin and said, “Principal, quickly tell me about Zhi Jin’s high school stories. It can’t be that he was dating back then, right!”

“Stop playing!” Ye Zhi Jin knit his brows and there was a chill in his voice. He couldn’t help looking around like he had sensed something, wanting to look for that familiar figure.

Luo Qing Chen hid behind a camphor tree and her heart couldn’t help beating faster.

She tilted her head and looked at Ye Zhi Jin not far away, as a faint mist covered her eyes.

The uniform had disappeared and now he was wearing a mature suit. His face was still as imposing as before, so handsome that it seemed to glow.

The surrounding people saw Ye Zhi Jin and all came over.

There were past teachers and past classmates.

“Not bad, Ye Zhi Jin, long time no see.” It was another familiar voice. Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and saw that person’s face through the leaves.

Bei Xiao Shi.....

Ye Zhi Jin was a bit surprised when he saw her, like seeing her was like seeing another person.

After a while, the depth of his eyes gradually dimmed.

“Long time no see.” He gave a polite nod and spoke in a cool voice.

Bei Xiao Shi’s expression changed and she looked at Ye Zhi Jin with a bit of pity, “You should let things of the past go! We are all clear that she will not come back.....”

“Sorry, I have to leave.” He didn’t hesitate to turn and leave.

Bei Xiao Shi stood in place, taking a deep breath as her eyes turned red.

She used the words that she didn’t believe to convince that youth, it was indeed a bit forced.

Seven years, people say that seven years is a cycle. If you pray hard enough and only think of that person, you will definitely meet again.

She closed her eyes and that girl’s name flashed in her mind.

The name of her best friend in this life.

Luo Qing Chen, if you’re still alive, you have to come back!

Whether it is me or Ye Zhi Jin, we can't hold on any longer.

You have already disappeared for an entire seven years.....

Chapter 394: Mister's childhood lover (Part 47)

System, I still want something.

[Host, please speak.]

A graduate certificate from a famous high school, it has to be real.

[Alright, it's very easy! It just takes 100 exchange points.]

Un.

[Ding, 100 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for a graduate certificate from a famous school. The host's records have been stored in the system of the school.]

Luo Qing Chen dug in her pocket and felt that she had made a great decision!

Since there was time travel in this world, then she could start from the beginning. As long as she worked hard, what did it matter!

The past Ye Zhi Jin and the current Luo Qing Chen.

The past him and the future me.

If he really loves another girl, she should let go and let him be happy. After all, after seven years, she couldn't force him to wait for her forever.

If he didn't, couldn't she give herself another chance to make the ending of this time travel a bit more beautiful?

One couldn't be selfish or weak as a person.

When falling, one still had to have courage.

The Crown Hotel was not a place that everyone could apply to. If she didn't have a degree from one of the best foreign schools, she wouldn't have smoothly become an intern.

"Your age is a bit high, but your appearance is quite childish." The person from HR looked at her resume and identification card for a long time before deciding to accept her.

In the end, she was put in the design department because her major was in design!

God, this broken system, can't you give me literature? She didn't know how to design!

On her first day at the company, she had meetings for half a day.

Luo Qing Chen thought: Could this be the law of business, big companies deal in people and small companies do the work?

There were three people that became interns with her, one had come in through the back door and one had passed through many layers to get here.

And she had entered by virtue of her education.

The head of the design department, big sister Ai Wei was a very serious person. She looked beautiful and young, looking to be around twenty five to twenty six, but she impressed the vice director very much, so her position in the Crown Group was quite high!

In order to make up for its mistake, the system had given her the 'design' skill.

But this kind of thing that required thought couldn't be learned in a single night. Even though she knew how to use the design software, that didn't mean that she could easily handle her tasks!

Not to mention, she didn't come to the Crown Group just to learn, alright?

"Alright, we'll end today's meeting here." Ai Wei cleared her throat and said, "Next my assistant Mo Mo will give you your assignments and tell you some things to remember in this company."

It had to be said, the Crown Group really treated their employees well. Even the employee residences were hotel rooms.

This saved Luo Qing Chen quite a bit of money.

Another thing that was different was that the workers all had quite pretty faces.

Even the security guards had handsome faces.

Of course, that included Su Liang who had become an intern with her.

Su Liang was a very clean looking man, even having a kind of grace whenever he did things.

The first time Lin Xing Xing set her eyes on him, she rather liked him.

Oh, right, forgot to introduce myself.

Lin Xing Xing was the girl who entered through the back door. She had blatantly walked in like this because of Ai Wei's assistant Mo Mo, who was her big sister.

Un, nepotism was a bit complicated, but it wasn't hard to understand.

Chapter 395: Mister's childhood lover (Part 48)

"Hello colleague Su Liang, I am Lin Xing Xing."

"Un, I know."

"Eh, I became an intern with you."

"Un, I know."

"That, I feel that you look quite good."

“Un, I know.”

.....

Finally Luo Qing Chen couldn't keep listening anymore.

She put down her design and said to the two of them, “Can you end your awkward conversation?”

“Qing Chen!” Lin Xing Xing sat down in her seat with a frustrated look and said, “Are male gods really that difficult to get?”

This question, she really asked the right person!

Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and seriously said, “Crying, causing trouble, and being annoying, can you ask other people these useless things?”

“Go away!” Lin Xing Xing shook her head and put her head down looking depressed.

Who would have thought that Ai Wei would quickly walk over.

“Quick, quick, quick, tidy up, vice director Ji is coming over!”

Instantly, everyone focused themselves and clicked out of the Baidu pages that they were on.

Luo Qing Chen, Lin Xing Xing, and Su Liang were stunned, they didn't know what was going on at all.

At this time, Mo Mo walked over to the three of them and said, “No matter what happens next, don't make a sound and don't draw attention, understand? No matter what vice director Ji asks you, just say you don't know!”

Luo Qing Chen and Lin Xing Xing looked at each other, looking confused.

An old worker behind the patted her shoulder and said, “Do you want to know why?”

“Un, un.” Luo Qing Chen nodded with sparkling eyes, “Please tell us.”

“Vice director Ji is second place on the dream boyfriend rankings of all the female Crown Group employees. Not only is he handsome, he is also very humorous, and he is very faithful to the things he loves.....”

“Wait.” Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and awkwardly cut her off, “We don't have much time, can you get to the main point? Since he's this good, why is everyone nervous?”

“I said it!” She said, “He is very faithful to the things he loves, he's too faithful!”

When her voice fell, the glass doors of the office slowly opened.

A man wearing a dark blue suit came in. Luo Qing Chen looked up and looked over at Ji Chen.

His eyes were sparkling like dark obsidian, shining with a radiant glow. There was a bright as the sun smile that hung on his handsome face.

Un, he really was handsome!

"I didn't know vice director Ji was here, I've been rude!" Ai Wei came over first and gave a half bow with a smile.

"No need to be stiff." He walked over with his hands in his pocket and he looked around before saying, "I've heard that your design department has recruited some new interns, I wanted to see if there were any moldable material with talent with math!"

Math? Talent? Moldable material?

In that instant, she suddenly thought of what that older employee had said.

(He is very faithful to the things he loves, he's too faithful.)

This wouldn't be.....math, right!

"But vice director Ji....." Ai Wei swallowed a mouthful of saliva before saying with a smile, "They are all interns who had just graduated not long ago and they all studied design, not math....."

"I say, Ai Wei, don't be so nervous." Ji Chen had a warm as the sun smile as he said, "Relax, a wrinkled face isn't that beautiful!"

Chapter 396: Mister's childhood lover (Part 49)

"But vice director Ji....." Ai Wei clearly lost to the incredibly handsome face, so she just said with a sigh in the end, "Vice director Ji has looked for many people in the company over the years and not a single one has been your match, why don't you give up!"

"The revolution hasn't been complete, of course I can't give up." He reached out and waved at Luo Qing Chen's group as he said, "You must be the new interns!"

"Yes." Su Liang nodded, acknowledging this.

After all, he was the only man from the three interns and he couldn't let girls come out first.

"I have several math questions here, I want everyone to have fun at work, so you'll get a reward of five hundred for each question you answer!" Ji Chen said to the assistant behind him, "Xiao Dong, bring out the blackboard."

Luo Qing Chen leaned back and asked the older employee with a confused look, "I don't understand, it isn't anything to do these questions and you can get a reward, why is it bad!"

"It is because there is a reward that people work hard to solve the questions. But vice director Ji is a math genius and only director Ye has solved his problems in this world, others can't do it even if they shatter their heads."

Hearing the two words director Ye, Luo Qing Chen could feel her heart skipping a beat.

It was like a big drumstick slamming down on her heart again and again.

But based on the well thought out analysis of the older employee, she understood why Ai Wei was that scared of Ji Chen.

It was because those workers spent quite a bit of their working time for that five hundred dollars, which not only lowered their performance, it might even lead to them being fired.

"That means that there should be people from the design department who have been fired or resigned because of vice director Ji?" Luo Qing Chen kept asking behind her as her expression changed slightly.

"I know that there have been three!"

"Got it!" Luo Qing Chen nodded to show she understood, she completely understood this matter!

"What, no one wants to give it a try?" Seeing that no one came out, Li Chen's deep eyes had a look of disappointment.

It was all Ye Zhi Jin's fault, he seemed to be busy with something lately and hadn't had time to study math with him.

So he came all this way to the design department, but there was no one willing to play with him.

Those girls looked at him with shining eyes, but they were afraid when they saw his math.

Was it really that hard to find someone who liked math? If she didn't understand, he could teach her!

Moreover, it wasn't limited to men and women!

"Vice director Ji, the new employees haven't been here for long, so there are many things they don't know yet....." Ai Wei respectfully explained, "Isn't it better to wait a while before learning from vice director Ji?"

"No!" Ji Chen was a bit annoyed, as he pretended to be angry and said, "I've been to a total of seven floors today and haven't found a single person. If you don't take this topic seriously, how do you know you don't know it! I don't care, Ai Wei, the design department has to take out someone to do the problems today, it doesn't matter if it's wrong."

Ji Chen looked very persistent. As a handsome and chic vice director and being rejected by the people under him, it made him feel a bit uncomfortable!

"I——"

"That, vice director Ji, I'll answer them!" Luo Qing Chen cut in first when Su Liang was about to raise his hand, standing up as she spoke to Ji Chen.

Ji Chen would never forget the moment Luo Qing Chen came forward. There was a warm breeze that came from outside the window that blew over her short, curly hair, as a faint jasmine scent filled the air.

Chapter 397: Mister's childhood lover (Part 50)

"Ke, ke, what is your name?"

"Does vice director Ji really care about my name?" Luo Qing Chen came forward and spread her hands, "It's not too late to tell you after I solve the problem."

Actually she came out because as one of the interns, it wasn't right to let the man always come out to take responsibility.

As for the other reason.

She felt that this was a chance to meet Ye Zhi Jin.

When there wasn't a coincidence, she would make one!

"Xiao Dong, give her the chalk." Ji Chen's eyes sparkled as they filled with excitement.

Luo Qing Chen took the chalk and looked at the blackboard.

There were a total of three questions and each question was very much related to the previous question.

If it wasn't someone very skilled in math, they wouldn't be able to answer it at all.

Even if you answered the first question, you might not be able to answer the second question because you were missing one line.

But these questions to Luo Qing Chen were no different from seeing one plus one!

She took the chalk and wrote out all the answers without pausing.

It took less than five seconds.

Five seconds later, everyone was quiet.

This quiet almost made her feel that she used the space time freeze.

"This....." Ai Wei awkwardly looked at Luo Qing Chen and said, "You didn't write something random, right!"

Ji Chen's math skills were something that every old employee in the company recognized, the questions he gave weren't that simple.

But Luo Qing Chen had solved them like they were first grade math questions.

She revealed a faint smile as she looked at Ji Chen beside her, "Whether it is randomly written, I think vice director Ji knows better than everyone."

Ji Chen looked like he had been struck by lightning, being frozen in place.

His eyes were filled with disbelief, like he was feeling the same shock when he met Ye Zhi Jin back at Cambridge!

No, he was even more shocked compared to then!

Ye Zhi Jin had written out his process back then, extrapolating the answer.

But the girl in front of him had just directly written out the answers.

Moreover, even the decimals were right.

“That.....Ha, ha.....Ha, ha, ha.” Ji Chen couldn’t take his excitement as he looked at Luo Qing Chen and said, “What is this miss called?”

Luo Qing Chen thought about it before saying with a smile, “You can call me Xiao Qing.”

“Xiao Qing?”

[TL Note: It’s a different character with the same sound, but a different meaning.]

“.....”

“Oh.....No, no, good name, good name.” Ji Chen revealed a deep smile as he looked at her, “One’s appearance is closely related to one’s math skills.”

“Ke, ke.” Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and looked at him with an awkward smile, “Qing from peerless appearance.”

“Oh, Xiao Qing!” He was a bit panicked as he looked at her before he reached out his hand out with a look of praise, “Hello, I am called Ji Chen.”

“Hello.....” Luo Qing Chen awkwardly replied, “This, I already know.....”

He turned and said to Ai Wei, “This intern of yours, can you give her to me?”

Ai Wei looked at Luo Qing Chen before looking back at Ji Chen and saying, “But, if someone like her who majored in design goes to your department, would there be anything for her to do?”

“An assistant!” Ji Chen said without even thinking about it.

“Peng——” Xiao Dong behind him carrying the blackboard dropped it in fear and quickly said with Ji Chen, “Vice director, you can’t just abandon me!”

“Aiya, look how worried you are.” Ji Chen said with a faint smile, “I can have two assistants! Relax, Ye Zhi Jin has money, it’s fine even if I had ten assistants.”

Chapter 398: Mister’s childhood lover (Part 51)

It had to be said, when Ji Chen said those three words.

Luo Qing Chen’s eyes almost turned red at that moment.

Some feelings had been unsaid, so it kept growing in her heart.

Since then, Luo Qing Chen officially became Ji Chen’s assistant.

Of course, she had asked around about a few things.

For example, the girl that seemed to really like Ye Zhi Jin back at Dream One High School.

Her father seemed to be a professor at Cambridge and used to be Ye Zhi Jin’s teacher.

“So, they are.....dating?” Luo Qing Chen sat on the sofa in Ji Chen’s office, sipping at coffee as she deliberately asked in a casual voice.

“Ye Zhi Jin?” Ji Chen was silent for a bit before muttering, “He should like men, right!”

“Pu——” Luo Qing Chen spat out the coffee in her mouth.

WTF? What was this!

“You.....You don’t need to be shocked, right!” Ji Chen quickly gave several napkins to her, “I’m not too clear on what happened to him before, but he should have been hurt in the past! I always feel that he’s been indifferent towards girls!”

“Is it the same with Su Lan?” Luo Qing Chen looked up with a hopeful gaze.

Su Lan, that was the name of the Cambridge professor’s daughter.

She hoped that she could hear the answer she wanted to hear from Ji Chen.

“Why do you care so much about director Ye!” Ji Chen said in a tone of realization, “It can’t be that.....”

“No, I’m not.” Luo Qing Chen fell back in fear, moving away from Ji Chen as she said in a panic, “I don’t know him.....”

“I never said you knew him!” Ji Chen said in a surprised voice, “I just thought that you were his fan! But there’s nothing wrong with that, over 80% of the girls in the company are his fans and some even came to work for the Crown Group just for him!”

?!

The ‘some’ in that sentence wouldn’t be talking about her, right!

“Ah, is that so?” Luo Qing Chen said with a faint smile, “That is quite incredible!”

“If you want to see him, I can bring you there!” Ji Chen looked at Luo Qing Chen and said, “I also want him to see what is called a real math genius!”

“Ke, ke.” She looked at the clock on the wall before saying, “If there is a chance! Vice director Ji, I’m leaving, see you tomorrow!”

“Oh, be careful on your way back!” Ji Chen said, “Do you want me to send you to the dorms?”

“No need, no need.” After saying this, she immediately stood up and walked out the door.

When she walked out of the office, she let out a sigh of relief.

So when you’re in love with a person, you can be this nervous.

You wanted to approach, but didn’t dare. You wanted to talk to them, but didn’t dare.

Only by missing it do you understand. If you had been braver in the past, perhaps there would have been a different ending.

Basketball court.

Ji Chen was dribbling the ball as he said to Ye Zhi Jin beside him, "I got a new assistant lately, she's simply a math genius!"

"I've heard you say this countless times over the years." Ye Zhi Jin stole the ball and turned to shoot a beautiful three pointer!

Then he continued saying, "But every time you only say this for a few days before saying you made a mistake, saying that they only had a bit of skills!"

"Ze, ze, ze." Ji Chen casually sat down as he watched Ye Zhi Jin toss three pointers one after another, while explaining, "It's different this time, don't you know? She didn't need to write down any part of the process at all, she just directly wrote the answer."

"Peng!" The basketball rolled around the rim twice before bouncing out.

Chapter 399: Mister's childhood lover (Part 52)

In that instant, his heart that had been as calm as water for seven years had its first ripples.

That ripple that only he knew about.....

The memories of the past flashed in front of his eyes like a movie. He could never forget the instant she turned after writing the answer on the board.

That smile, it was like it was glowing in his eyes.

"Ai, what is wrong with the three point god today? Not on form!" Ji Chen stole the basketball from him, as he waved it a bit before handsomely jumping up.

However, the ball didn't go in.

"It's nothing, I hope you won't come find me in a few days to say you made a mistake." Ye Zhi Jin looked at his watch before picking up his coat, "I'm heading back."

"This early!" Ji Chen knit his brows as he said in a confused voice, "What, you have a date?"

"Ethan said that he wants to talk about the company's anniversary banquet." Ye Zhi Jin said in a soft voice, "Are you coming?"

"No." Ji Chen desperately shook his head, "Thinking about it, you have to have a date for that!"

"Something that even you don't have a need for, don't push it onto others." Ye Zhi Jin's lips curled into a faint smile.

There was nothing to say about Ji Chen's character, although he was a second generation mogul, he didn't have the attitude of one. They had met in America and he had half the stocks of the Crown Group.

Normally he didn't have anything to do, but when it came to large business deals, he had the most accurate calculations and came up with the most benefits for the company.

It had to be said, he was indeed a math genius.

Only when it came to girls, he didn't seem that enthusiastic.

"I do! I am someone with a little assistant right now!" Ji Chen proudly said, "Don't you try to steal from me! There should be a first come first serve rule!"

"Relax, I'm not as bored as you." He revealed a faint smile and waved his hand before walking out the doors of the basketball court.

Ji Chen gave a shrug, not forgetting to say with a smile, "Cool man."

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen saw Su Lan in Ji Chen's office as soon as she arrived.

Her face didn't look good and Ji Chen was too lazy to care, so he just sat in front of his computer playing with a Rubik's Cube.

When Luo Qing Chen came in, he revealed a smile like his savior was here.

"Xiao Qing, you're finally here. Did you eat breakfast? I'll take you to get some!" Ji Chen immediately jumped off the couch and headed in Luo Qing Chen's direction.

"Breakfast, but I already ate....."

"You can still eat. Food helps get the brain turning and increases your learning ability." After saying this, he picked up his coat and quickly walked forward.

"Ji Chen, I asked you something, when will you....." Su Lan suddenly turned and when she saw Luo Qing Chen, her expression froze.

She was wearing a yellow goose feather coat with her hairs slightly curled to look like they had been blown. She had white skin, clear eyes, and looked to be around seventeen-eighteen, looking very pure and moving.

What surprised her was that this girl's face was very much like the face of the girl with the pink coat in Ye Zhi Jin's bag that she saw before.

At that moment, she knew that Ye Zhi Jin had one person in his heart. Even if he never mentioned it, she knew that that person was very important to him.

"You....." Su Lan's mouth opened as she said, "No.....Impossible."

"Eh, eh, eh." Ji Chen saw Su Lan staring at Luo Qing Chen, so he quickly said, "I don't know where Ye Zhi Jin is, he just said last night that he went to find Ethan to talk about the banquet matter....."

"Ding ling." A cell phone chimed that cut Ji Chen's words.

The caller ID: Ye Zhi Jin.

Chapter 400: Mister's childhood lover (Part 53)

“Hey, Ye Zhi Jin, your Su.....”

“There’s a large scale math exchange seminar at the Falling Star Building. Last time you said that you said you didn’t get seats, so I had someone get two tickets, do you want to go?” Ye Zhi Jin cut him off and got to the main point.

“Yes, yes, yes, can I get an extra one?” Ji Chen looked at Luo Qing Chen on the side before saying, “I want to bring my little assistant with me.”

Luo Qing Chen heard this and her breathing stopped, as her heartbeat slowly began to increase.

“No.” Ye Zhi Jin softly said, “I’m not going, I still have other things later. You can go with your assistant, I’ll be at the Other Shore Cafe waiting for you.”

Without knowing it, when he heard the words little assistant, his brows slightly knit. He couldn’t help thinking about what Ji Chen said yesterday.

——Don’t you know? She didn’t need to write down any part of the process at all, she just directly wrote the answer.”

“Woah, I knew you were the best to me.” Ji Chen said with a happy smile, “Relax, Su Lan is looking for you, so I’ll bring her over. That way you won’t be alone even if you don’t have me with you.”

“No.....”

Ye Zhi Jin couldn’t say anything before Ji Chen hung up.

Inside Ji Chen’s luxurious limo, the car was silent.

Only when Su Lan slowly spoke did it break the silence.

“You look quite young, did you just graduate?” Su Lan looked at Luo Qing Chen, asking with a questioning tone.

Luo Qing Chen looked out the window and casually said, “I’ve graduated.....quite a few years ago.”

She was thinking of that year’s summer when the air was filled with faint camphor scent.

She stood at the crossroads, watching time passed.

So many years all at once.

“Then.....did you study in this city before?” There was a trace of panic in Su Lan’s eyes as she kept asking.

“Un, yes.” She softly replied.

“Then.....”

“Su Lan.” She wanted to keep asking, but Ji Chen had cut her off as he said with a smile, “Why are you asking all these questions today? It’s not like your normal young miss attitude at all!”

"Is.....Is that so?" She lowered her head and said nothing else.

She just felt the sweat in her palms, as her heart couldn't help feeling panic and her fingers trembled slightly.

Her selfish wish was that that girl would never appear in this life.

Su Lan had liked Ye Zhi Jin for an entire seven years.

This was the most persistent thing that a spoiled girl like had done before.

But she knew that she couldn't walk into his heart.

She wasn't afraid of hearing rejection from him, she was just afraid of seeing him stand in front of the high rise window at night, looking so lonely.

She had deliberately gone to the Dream One High School anniversary party. When that girl called Bei Xiao Shi told him to forget, she could clearly see the panic, fear, and unwillingness in his eyes.....

Half an hour later, at the entrance of the Falling Star Building.

Ji Chen looked at his watch while moving forward and saying, "Zhi Jin is waiting for us at the Other Cliff Cafe, let's go, let's go. I already can't wait to show off at the conference."

Luo Qing Chen was in a bit of daze, as she felt like her feet weighed a thousand pounds.

It was only the blink of an eye for her, but it was an entire seven years for that young man.

It was hard to imagine what he felt when his most important person had just vanished into thin air.

It should be despair.....

There was a wind chime at the door of the cafe and when a breeze blew, it created a chiming sound.

She took a deep breath and followed Ji Chen in.
