Chapter 61: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 33)

When she got on the train, she immediately wanted to take out her phone to send a text to Su Liang Chen, telling him that she was on her way.

But the moment she took out her phone, she was stunned again.

No! Battery!

What to do, what to do? Would he be angry and leave, never talking to her again!

It was all her fault, why was she angry when nothing was wrong. He was clearly thinking about her good. After all, it was eighteen years of hard work, she couldn't screw it up for a moment of willfulness.

System, do you have anything like the Anywhere Door?

[Yes.]

Damn, you really have it! Can I exchange for it?

[It requires ten thousand points. The host does not have enough points and cannot redeem it.]

Ten thousand?! Why don't you go to heaven? In this life, no, the next life, no, the next, next life, it would be unknown if I could ever get ten thousand, alright?

Luo Qing Chen saw that the system was too lazy to talk to respond. The train shook and she was sent flying.

She didn't know how long passed, she just knew that it was already dark when she got off the train.

Looking around, she didn't see any familiar figures. She sniffed her nose and suddenly felt a bit sad.

She reached into her bag to get her key, but she found that there were too many things in her bag and she couldn't grab her key.

Suddenly, she felt pain in her finger and she pulled out immediately. She found that she had been poked by something sharp in her bag and she began to bleed.

She was feeling even more sadness in her heart. Every family was happily spending their New Year's together while she was alone.

Her parents weren't here and the person waiting for her was gone.

She became angry and threw her bag onto the ground. She squatted down and placed her head between her knees, as she began crying while trembling ever so slightly.

Aiya, so frustrating, so angry!

After a while, a bright hand rubbed her head and a clear as water voice softly spoke, "What are you squatting for? Quickly get up....."

This warm hand, this familiar voice, she knew who it was, but her head went it deeper and her crying became stronger!

It was like a child who had fallen and injured themselves. If an adult didn't care about them, they would obediently stand up and pat their wound.

However, if an adult did care about them, it would make seeds of frustration sprout in their hearts.

Luo Qing Chen in this moment had this kind of feeling.

"Sorry, sorry, don't cry!" When Su Liang Chen saw that she was crying even harder, he began to flail around even more. It was all his fault, he would have apologized earlier and shouldn't have come this late.

It was all his fault.....

"Qing Chen, I won't bully you in the future....." His voice was very soft and a bit stuffed up. Compared to the clear voice which made each word sound like a pearl, it was a completely different person.

"Puchi——" Hearing his frustrated voice, Luo Qing Chen couldn't help bursting into laughter.

She slightly looked up with crystal like tears still dripping down her face, but there was a faint smile on her lips.

"If you say this, it isn't like Su Liang Chen at all." She rubbed her nose before speaking with pouty lips.

He raised his hand and softly wiped the tear from her face. He said in a gentle and loving voice, "However you want me to be, I will be that way."

These words that seemed like a lover's talk and also didn't seem like it, when they came from his lips, it filled her body with a numbing sensation.

"Really good." She opened her arms and softly hugged him.

"Wait." He took a step back and put his hands into his pocket. He took out a beautifully wrapped box with a pink bow and gave it to her, "Happy New Years!"

Chapter 62: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 34)

Luo Qing Chen was stunned. Her face instantly turned red, even reaching the very tip of her ear!

This was not shyness, but rather embarrassment!

The other side had carefully prepared a New Year's gift for her, but her hands were completely empty!

What to do, it was so embarrassing?! What could she say!

System, create a gift for me!

[Yes, it requires.....]

No need, your gifts are quite expensive thinking about it. Moreover, you are a sick system that likes sitting there raising prices. You specialize in extorting a cute and innocent young girl like me!

[.....] The system really wanted to break itself. It wanted to say that it would only take fifty points to exchange for the same grade gift as Su Liang Chen. But before it could even finish, it had been insulted! Human things were very cheap, how could it require a very high price to exchange for it! Is the host a fool?

Of course, Luo Qing Chen couldn't hear a single thing the system was saying.

The system was very proud, it didn't plan on telling her this!

"What, you don't want it!?" Su Liang Chen saw her expression changing and her face looking a bit weird. He slightly pulled his hand back and said, "I'll take it back if you don't....."

"I do, I do, I do." Luo Qing Chen quickly took the box and said while desperately nodding, "Don't take it back, I want it....."

"Open it and take a look." He awkwardly smiled as he said, "This is my first time giving a girl a gift, I don't know if you like it or not."

"I do!" She looked up and looked at him with smiling eyes as she said, "I'll like anything you give me."

After saying this, she carefully untied the ribbon, afraid that she would ruin the beautifully wrapped box.

After that, she opened the box and the delicate swan necklace appeared in front of her. The necklace was dazzling and beautiful, so beautiful that it couldn't be beat.

"So beautiful, thank you." She held the necklace as her heart almost jumped out of her chest.

Su Liang Chen took the necklace from her hands and his slender hands gently put it around her neck, helping her put it on. The delicate swan fell onto her white neck, looking like it was perfect for her.

It was unique and perfect.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned, not daring to move for a bit. She looked at the young man in front of her with an awkward look as she said, "But, I forgot to prepare a New Year's gift for you."

She really didn't do it on purpose. She wanted to buy a New Year's gift, but she was just too angry on that day, so she purposefully didn't buy one.

Actually, she never thought that she would receive a New Year's gift from him.

It was even such a beautiful necklace. He must have spent quite a bit of time to pick this.....

So regretful! Why did she have to be so willful! It was New Years and she didn't even prepare a gift for her male god!

"You did!" He picked her up from the ground with a faint smile as he spoke.

Instantly, Luo Qing Chen felt her legs go numb and she fell back into his warm embrace.

The fragrance of his body entered her nose and her slender arms tightly held her, as if she would fall down at any moment. He slightly knit his brows and a look of panic appeared in his eyes. Why was this girl so careless, if he hadn't been beside her, what would she have done.....

After a while, she was able to stand firmly. Thinking of what he had whispered in his ears, she looked up and asked, "What did I give? I didn't give anything, what did I give you?"

She didn't remember giving him any gift? Could it be that she had secretly gone to his house to give him a gift while sleepwalking?

Only then did his clear voice slowly sound beside her ear.

"You——"

"Ah, what?"

"You gave me a Luo Qing Chen. I like it very much, thank you."

Chapter 63: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 35)

Throughout the whole winter break, she thought about what Su Liang Chen said every night.

"You gave me a Luo Qing Chen. I like it very much, thank you."

This phrase was completely invincible, lingering in her mind without leaving.

After the winter break was over, they welcomed the most important sprint in the lives of third year high school students.

There was only one hundred and fifty days before the entrance exams.

Luo Qing Chen's grades were considered stable. Her practice tests all passed Q University's line by twenty marks and Su Liang Chen had tested her level, so it was no problem for her to get into Q University.

But thinking about the countdown decreasing day by day, her heart was still filled with nervousness.

This was a race against time. Or it could be said the entrance exam was like an army of ten thousand going across a single wooden, they would fall down and crack if they weren't careful.

There was only fifty days left before the entrance exams.

Today she was in charge of cleaning up and she had to write the necessary material for tomorrow on the blackboard.

She stood on her chair with a thought filled look in her eyes. She was struggling to solve the question for tomorrow on the blackboard.

A little ball with mass m is fixed at the bottom of a tube. A line is used to connect this little ball to a little block with $M=km$The little ball's spin velocity does not change, so what is the acceleration of the little block's downward descent?

"It's a bit hard....." Luo Qing Chen was writing the question on the board while muttering to herself.

"Try it with Newton's Second Law?" There was suddenly a voice that rang through the empty classroom.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised and fell off the chair.

Moving as fast as lightning, Tang Yu instantly caught her, stopping her from coming into contact with the ground

"Tang Yu?" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes. She picked up a book on the podium to slap his hand on her waist.

She didn't use much force, but it was enough to make Tang Yu let go.

After that, she quickly moved half a meter away. She had a cold look and spoke with a cold snort, "What business does classmate Tang have with me?"

She didn't hate Tang Yu, but she definitely wouldn't like this kind of person. Thinking about it, her coming to this world was intricately related to Tang Yu.

If it wasn't for his words, the original host wouldn't have committed suicide by jumping off the roof. Then again, after she came to this world, Tang Yu had given her quite a bit of trouble.

Although Qian Fei Fei was the initiator, it still couldn't affect the bad image of Tang Yu in her mind!

"I....." He hesitated in speaking. Seeing her not want to approach him at all, he didn't know why his heart felt especially uncomfortable.

A long time ago, he was the focal point of her eyes. It was like wherever he went, her eyes would follow.

But now, if he approached her even a bit, her face was covered in disgust and indifference.....

Why, why was it like this? If he did something wrong in the past, couldn't they just start over?

"Ke, ke." Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat before saying with a taunting smile, "Perhaps I should be asking, what business does classmate Qian Fei Fei have?"

He wouldn't be here without a reason. Other than because of Qian Fei Fei, she couldn't think a second reason Tang Yu would come looking for her.

"It's not related to her." Tang Yu's brows knit and his emotions swayed.

Without knowing why, he didn't want to mention Qian Fei Fei. He liked her that much in the past, but now it didn't seem the thing.

Compared to Qian Fei Fei, he seemed more interested in the young girl in front of him.

Chapter 64: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 36)

"It'll be the entrance exams soon, which schools are you taking the test for?" Tang Yu saw that the atmosphere was a bit awkward, so he revealed a smile and narrowed his eyes as he asked Luo Qing Chen.

“Does it matter to you?” Luo Qing Chen did not hesitate to shut him down.

Is this person sick! He doesn't care about what school Qian Fei Fei is going to, why is he caring about what school she's going to?

It really was like what the system said: Since ancient times, deep emotions can't gain something, only by ignoring will one gain the heart.

“Don't be nervous, I.....I was just casually asking.....” Tang Yu's expression became a bit dark and there was an indescribable discomfort in his heart.

His grades weren't that bad, he was placed in the year's top thirty. If he had the chance to go to the same university as her, there might be a chance.....

After all, Su Liang Chen was going to A University and she couldn't do the same.

They were destined to go to different universities and he understood the concept of first come, first serve.

“Humph!” Luo Qing Chen said with a snort, “What? You're not asking which school your Qian Fei Fei is going?”

“She's going to A University.” Tang Yu gave a shrug and spoke with a helpless smile.

Other than Qian Fei Fei's decent english marks, she couldn't compare to him in her other subjects. She actually wanted to go to A University, he also felt it was a bit incredible.

But since she was chasing after her love, he as the year round spare tire had no qualifications to say anything.

And he really didn't want to keep being the spare tire.....

“Ha, ha!” Luo Qing Chen's lips curled as she said while laughing, “Based on her grades?”

She wants to go to A University with her grades!?! Are you sure it wasn't a joke!

Perhaps Qian Fei Fei will say: If there is a will, there is a way!

But the problem was, was there anyone at Royal High School that wanted to go to A University more than her, Luo Qing Chen!

Her boyfriend was at A University, alright? Alright? Alright?

But! But people had to know their limits, A University's grade line was not something normal people could reach.

She couldn't even do it with her Memory Bread, was there a need to mention Qian Fei Fei?

“I also advised her against it, but she wants to go, so there's no other choice!” Tang Yu's lips curled into a meaningful smile as he said, “Perhaps the male god that she liked all these years will appreciate her effort!”

“He, he.” Luo Qing Chen said while coldly laughing, “You're making this treasure die of laughter!”

“So where are you going? Are you also going to A University to be near Su Liang Chen?” Tang Yu looked up at her with a pair of deeply affectionate and eager eyes as he spoke.

“What does it.....”

“Is it related to you where she is going?” When Luo Qing Chen wanted to shut him down, a clear as water voice came from the back door of the classroom.

Su Liang Chen was wearing a white uniform and carrying his bag over one shoulder as he slowly walked towards her. The sunlight sprinkled over his white face and it was so beautiful that it seemed to be glowing.

His eyes were cold and when he walked past Tang Yu, he didn’t even spare him a glance. It was like there was no one standing there, it was nothing but thin air.

“Su Liang Chen?” Tang Yu slightly knit his brows and looked at Su Liang Chen standing beside her. Without knowing why, there was an indescribable feeling in his heart.

He saw him pick up the chalk and write the answers for all the main questions on the chalkboard. His speed was as smooth as writing ancient calligraphy. After two minutes and eighteen seconds, he put down the chalk in his hand and finished answering all the questions.

Luo Qing Chen was frozen on the spot. When he wrote the answers, he went from one question to another, not pausing at all in between.

It was like all the questions on the blackboard were all the same.

“What are you in a daze for?” Su Liang Chen put his hands in his pocket and looking at Luo Qing Chen standing in a daze, his voice became even more loving, “Let’s go home.”

Chapter 65: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 37)

At the gate of the school, Su Liang Chen showed that his mood was pretty good as he went home with a faint smile on his lips.

This was because he had used his top of the school identity to ruthlessly beat down Tang Yu.

“School hunk Su’s mood seems pretty good!” Luo Qing Chen stood beside him, giving a soft laugh.

She seemed to know why his mood was so good.

“Un, I’ve sent my love rival packing.” He raised his right hand to rub her head as he said with a faint smile, “I am a bit possessive, does Qing Chen not like it?”

He was a bit worried that his strong possessiveness would make her feel pressured. But he didn’t know why, his heart was that small, hoping that her eyes would always remain on him.

“Of course not!” Luo Qing Chen honestly nodded before looking at him and saying, “I like you, more than anything in this world.”

After a while, he revealed a faint smile and pinched her face as he said, “Silly!”

The setting sunlight stretched their shadows out very long. In a little alley, he softly held her hand.

He knew that in this life, he never wanted to let go of this delicate little hand because the warmth from this hand warmed his ice cold heart.

This kind of him with her was truly blessed.

Time passed very quickly and when they were holding hands again, it was after their entrance exam.

In a cafe beside the amusement park, Luo Qing Chen was inside wearing a pair of blue overalls and she had just ordered a strawberry parfait. She looked at the serious youth helping her count her marks, or perhaps it was better to call him the youth who attracted everyone's gaze.

"Un, there is no problem going to Q University, you should be thirty points over the requirement." Su Liang Chen put down his pen and his mark sheet, looking at her with a smile as he spoke.

Luo Qing Chen said with a shrug, "I know! I have already counted, but you wanted to count it again."

Actually, she wasn't as happy as one imagined being able to get into Q University because she would soon be divided from him!

She was in despair! Why couldn't Q University be beside A University! System, system, when will Q University relocate and move to a new campus?

[The host is asking for too much! After all, that is impossible!] The system emotionlessly cut off her thoughts!

System why do you have to use such forceful words when reprimanding me, can't you just directly say it!

[No!] The system felt a taste of pride! Although it knew that it could be killed by a certain someone!

Goodbye! Goodbye! Goodbye!

The system has become more and more arrogant with her. When she insulted it in the past, it would at most pretend to be dead and ignore her. But now.....He, he!

However, although she felt that sometimes the system wasn't that cute, it did bring her a bit of good news on Qian Fei Fei and Tang Yu.

Who were the supporting male lead and female lead of this world.

It said that in order to get into A University, Qian Fei Fei used advanced technology to successfully sneak her cell phone past the metal detector and into the test room. Of course, she couldn't escape the sharp eyes of the invigilator in the end.

In the end, she lost the right to participate in the entrance exam and went to a youth detention center for three months. She also lost the right to take the entrance exam for the rest of her life.

Luo Qing Chen's heart couldn't help trembling. The entrance exam punished cheating so seriously, they even locked people up in prison!

But she didn't have any sympathy for Qian Fei Fei. Everyone had to be responsible for their actions, kindness and evil would be returned in turn.

Her side task could be considered finished, but her main task remained at ninety affection without moving at all!

Aiya, her heart is so tired!

Chapter 66: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (Part 38)

As for Tang Yu, his entrance exam results weren't good at all and he didn't reach Q University's grade line at all. When he was planning, he even asked Luo Qing Chen what her second choices were. He thought that if Luo Qing Chen also failed, he could stick with her.

This thought made Luo Qing Chen unable to stop herself from laughing in her heart! He was simply brain damaged!

There was a three month long holiday after the entrance exams. Other than the occasional date with Su Liang Chen, Luo Qing Chen spent the rest of her time sitting at home letting the air conditioner blow over her, watching TV while eating snacks.

So on the first day of school, she became a fat circle.

When she walked out of her door, she couldn't help feeling that she might lose the title of the school flower!

Why would some people never get fat even after eating and she would gain three pounds just from drinking a sip of water!

Why were the heavens so unfair!? She was very dissatisfied with this!

But it was a good thing appearance decided everything. She wore pink and white pleated skirt and there were still many passionate gazes that fell on her when she entered Q University!

She had even sent a text to Su Liang Chen in the morning, asking if he wanted to walk her to school. After all, A University and Q University had different class times.

But she never thought that her school hunk Su would actually reject her! His reason was that he was taking his little brother on a picnic!

She instantly sent an angry message: Goodbye!

Why were men all like this now! They didn't know how to cherish something after obtaining it! The super invincible was going too far!

She held her admission notice as she looked around herself. Q University was very beautiful, the tree lined path had pear blossoms on both sides and the flowers would fall with the warm wind.

Of course, other than the trees, there were also many clubs recruiting people. It made people dazzled and overwhelmed.

There were many new students coming in for admissions. Q University was incredibly big, she couldn't find the admissions office after wandering all over the place.

Standing at a crossroad, she looked left and right. Finally she decided to go left because there were more people to the left!

Books always said that it's never wrong to go in the direction with more people!

"Luo Qing Chen." When she took two steps to the left, there was a clear as water voice that rang out from behind her.

With a warm breeze, it blew up her pleated skirt and a pear flowers fell out of the trees to land in her long hair.

She suddenly turned around and saw Su Liang Chen standing not far away.

He watched as she slowly walked over and raised his left hand to take the pear flowers out of her hair. He pointed to the right side and said with a gentle smile, "The admissions office is over there."

"You.....Didn't you go on a picnic with your little brother today?" There was a hard to hide smile on her lips as she asked this rhetorical question.

Su Liang Chen had a playful smile, not looking like an indifferent male god at all. He softly took her hand and said, "I tricked you....."

"Ah!" Luo Qing Chen looked at him with a stunned expression.

After all, she never thought that Su Liang Chen could actually trick people!?

"Come, let's go check in." He had a faint smile and was in a very good mood.

Luo Qing Chen followed behind him, peeking at the admission notice in his hands. She asked in a confused voice, "Isn't A University's admission the day after tomorrow? Why did you bring your admission notice?"

"Who said I was going to A University?" Su Liang Chen had a faint smile. It was like he was saying something normal, as he spoke in a voice with no fluctuations at all.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't stay calm in this moment. She stopped moving and found she didn't have the strength to take another step forward.

"You.....You's going to Q University?" Although she didn't dare believe it, she also wasn't a fool.

Chapter 67: Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king (End)

Time, place, person, admission letter.....

After eliminating everything else that was impossible, the only impossibility left.....was the truth.

“That’s right.” He turned around and his left hand grabbed her hand. Seeing her slightly looking down, he said in a pampering voice, “I don’t want to throw my girlfriend to the other side of the city, I want to be by her side forever.”

“Su Liang Chen.” She gave a sniff and slightly looking up, there were tears in the corner of her eyes.

“Not allowed to cry.” His slender hands took out a handkerchief from his bag and he wiped her eyes before saying, “To me, it’s all the same wherever I go.”

As long as he was beside her, that was enough.

She gave a gentle nod before throwing herself into his chest with eyes filled with tears and saying, “I like Su Liang Chen the most.”

He was a bit stunned, but his lips curled into a faint smile as he tightly held her and said, “I love you, Luo Qing Chen.”

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

In that moment, she felt those gentle and loving six words made her much more happy than the system’s 100%.

[Does the host wish to remain? Yes/No.]

Yes.

There was no hesitation, this was the inevitable choice.

Their university life passed much quicker than she imagined. Whenever Luo Qing Chen was sick, he would immediately come to her side. Each time Luo Qing Chen skipped class, he would immediately go with her or bring her back to class (depending on his mood!). Every time Luo Qing Chen tried to cram before a test, he could easily guess all the questions and let her pass smoothly.

In her four years of university, as long as Su Liang Chen was by her, she was especially happy.

Time passed very quickly and four years went by in the blink of an eye. They were hailed as the most attractive couple of Q University and no one could shake their feelings in all four years.

Everyone said that one changed boyfriends and girlfriends quickly in university, but they used real facts to prove that there was a love that would always remain in this world.

On graduation day, she was taking pictures in an empty place with a graduation cap on.

A classmate saw Su Liang Chen standing under a pear flower tree with a smile and said, “Your boyfriend is waiting for you!”

She pursed her lips into a smile and took off the graduation cap as she came forward before saying with a smile, “I graduated.”

The graduation ceremony for each department was different. Su Liang Chen’s department held their graduation ceremony a few days ago.

He said at that time that when she graduated, he would give her a pleasant surprise. She didn't expect anything and thought he meant he would give her flowers, but she never thought that.....

"Un." Su Liang Chen nodded. He then took out a box from his pocket and went on one knee while saying, "Classmate Su, are you prepared to become Mrs. Su?"

This ring, he wanted to give it to her four years ago, but they were still students, so he waited four years.

She knew how much hardship he had to endure.

Instantly, Luo Qing Chen's face turned red. Her hands covered her face as she peeked out through her fingers and shyly said, "I'm prepared."

"Marry me." His deep eyes lit up and there was a faint smile on his lips.

She reached out her left hand and said with a nod, "Yes."

The diamond ring was slowly set on her ring finger, marking the happiness of her life.

"Woah!" When Luo Qing Chen's voice fell, there was a large group of brothers that appeared behind Su Liang Chen. They were holding pink balloons as they surrounded them. They congratulated them with their most sincere smiles.

A month later, they held a wedding ceremony in the romantic Maldives. They exchanged rings and gave each other their vows. They would hold and love each other, growing old together.

They lived to the age of seventy. During one of their cruises, a storm hit their ship and they died together.

But they had died with smiles on their faces, lying in their bed together as their cabin filled with water. They were deeply looking into each other's eyes, reflecting the scenes from their lives together.

A sweet and happy life.

Chapter 68: Su Liang Chen's side story

Thank you for your faint smile, it made me panic in my youth. ——Su Liang Chen.

My first time seeing her was an afternoon after school. She came to the cafe I was working in and took a seat by the window.

The sun outside the window sprinkled onto her white face and the rainbow bracelet jingling on her wrist, it was truly beautiful.

But when she gave me that note, my heart didn't like it. She said she liked me and was this direct.

I didn't like direct girls, so my first impression of her wasn't good.

She said she wanted a cup of Blue Mountain Coffee. I don't know why, but I made a very bitter cup of black coffee for her.

I swear that I've never done this before, this was the first time.

After she drank her coffee, her face didn't look too good.

I saw that her face was as pale as paper, but her eyes were clear as water. My lips raised into a faint smile and I didn't know why my heart skipped a beat, like a soft spot was touched.

It should be at that time that I've found the beauty of this world. Other than her, everything else was boring.

Her shyness when she looked at me, her concentration when she played the piano, her screaming into the rain, and that kiss that made people unable to stop.

Everything sent waves through my heart as calm as dead water.

No, it was a storm.

I had been the focal point wherever I went since I was young, but when we rode my bicycle through the little alley near the school, I found that she was also something that people weren't willing to look away from.

Ha, ha, I was the same. There were times when even I secretly wanted to take a few peeks.

Over time, I found that care and attention became a habit.

A terrifying habit.

She got off the bus every day at around 7:20 and then went to the breakfast shop to the right to buy some breakfast. She loved to eat seaweed wrapped rice each day and she seemed to hate bread the most.....

I remember one time when she got off the bus at 7:30 and everything in the breakfast shop had been sold, only leaving bread.

She angrily grabbed the boss and said that she would never eat at their store again.

I don't know why she hated bread, but since I notice that fact, I didn't like eating bread that much either.

Her character straightforward. There were times when she was overbearing and times when she was shy.

I remember when she came to our classroom to stop me. Actually I saw her, I also saw the rainbow bracelet she was wearing. Without knowing why, I was actually filled with incomparable joy in that moment. As for what classmate Fang Tian Tian was saying, I didn't hear a single word.

Then she said that she could stop flowers for me. I didn't know what kind of expression I had in that moment, but there was only joy in my heart.

I felt that this girl in front of me was different from others, she was very interesting. It made people unable to stop thinking about approaching her.

Later I told her to study properly, I didn't want to lose a girlfriend when going to university. I didn't know if she understood or not, but I agreed to her so called deal.

To talk about the day that I was most moved, it was when she appeared in the science classroom. My heart was about to jump out in that moment. There were all kinds of feelings in my heart, joy, being moved, happiness.....

She walked towards me like a dazzling light, shining down on my unguarded heart.

Bright and warm.

I knew in that moment that the luckiest thing in my life was meeting her.

Our story didn't have any large waves, but the peaceful years made me feel incomparably cherished.

We would fight and give each other the silent treatment, but it would always be better in less than twenty hours.

That was our first agreement, our final thought.

Day and night, year after year, even if you didn't need it, I would always be there!

The first moment of spring, the first blossoms of spring, the winds of spring, none of it could compare to you.

Chapter 69: Little theater side story

The bronze mirror lit up with a bright light.

A young man was standing in front of the mirror. He was wearing a white dress shirt and a black tie, looking handsome from every angle.

[System: The curtain on the forty chapter messy play has finally fallen. For people like us who couldn't swallow this, we can finally take a break. Next will be the most interesting ten question and answer session. We ask everyone to give a round of mechanical applause to welcome the «Indifferent School Hunk» world's main lead, Su Liang Chen.]

The system very excitedly clapped by itself!

["Hello, classmate Su Liang Chen."]

"Hello."

[Are you very happy seeing the the system! (>^ω^<)]

"You've been with her for a long time, your personality has changed. Of course if you want to change from a system to a cat, I don't mind helping you."

[TL Note: The system made a cat face above.]

[Sorry, the system has been attacked by an unknown program and a mistake has occurred.] The system immediately changed and restored its mechanical tone.

"Un."

["Question one: What feeling did you have when meeting her in the 90° Cafe for the first time?]

"She was very beautiful and the rainbow bracelet was also beautiful. Only, she was too straightforward with her confession. If you had to give it a score, it would be a negative score!"

[Ke, ke, she knows the score you gave her!]

"Oh, is that so? A negative score for a second and full scores for the rest of our life."

The system shook its non-existent hands in discomfort, being fed dog food again after being caught off guard!

["Second question: Why did you change the original «My future is not a dream» to «Exclusive taste»?"]

"I liked it."

The system thinks the male god really is a male god, so straight forward!

["Third question: Is she your first love?"]

"Yes. She is the first person that I loved and the only person that I loved."

["Fourth question: In your heart, what kind of personality does she have?"]

"No sense of direction, no sense of direction at all. I remember the time when we went to France after our wedding, she was standing right beside the toilet when she ran over to me and asked where the toilet was."

The system was very shocked, there was such a weak.....A cute girl who was directional challenged in this world!

["Fifth question: Who is the person you hate the most in this world?"]

"Do you still need to ask? Of course it's Tang Yu! That's why on the day before the entrance exam, I had someone play the drums all night underneath his house to make it impossible for him to put in any effort for Q University."

The system felt that a certain person was becoming more and more scary, playing more and more tricks!

["Sixth question: When was the moment she made your heart skip the most?"]

"That afternoon, the teacher said that someone was transferring to the science class, my mind was filled with her. That hope boiled every drop of blood in my body, telling me that that person was her. Her at that time was truly very, very beautiful."

["Seventh question: Why did you bring her to Aurora City?"]

"Because I wanted to bring her to the most beautiful night on a Sunday night."

["Eight question: What feeling did you have for Fang Tian Tian? After all, wasn't she the female lead?"]

"She wasn't the cannon fodder? You think I knew that your so called cannon fodder had changed places with her?"

[Sorry, the system has made a mistake and made a mistake calculating the factors of this world. This system will compensate the host later.] The system changed again. It asked itself, why did it make such a dumb mistake!?

["Ninth question: Why did you test for Q University without telling her?"]

"I wanted to see her pleasantly surprised expression and then she would hug me and grab my shirt."

The system swallowed a mouthful of air, signalling that it didn't like eating this dog food.

["Tenth question: If you could say the most moving words of love, what would you say?"]

"Good morning, good night."

His lips had a faint smile as his clear as water voice said the world's sweetest four words.

There was no going back, they had been together until their hairs were white.

[I now solemnly announce that the interview of the «Indifferent School Hunk» world's male lead, Su Liang Chen is over. Giving a single mechanical clap.]

After that, a single clap rang out!

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 2/100]

Chapter 70: Abstinent Beast God's pampered little princess (Part 1)

[Host, welcome back.]

"Hello!" Luo Qing Chen's mood was pretty good. Although they weren't born together in the previous world, they died together in the end.

Although she was unwilling, there was no need to experience the feeling of separating which was truly good!

After that, the image on the bronze mirror gradually cleared.

[The following is a summary of the previous mission. Host, please properly look over it.]

Name: Luo Qing Chen

World: «Cannon fodder counterattacking the indifferent campus king»

Experience: 300/10000

Exchange points: 900 (Originally 1200. Piano skills -100, Memory Bread -200.)

Mission completion rate: 100%

Reward: One dense fragrant incense

"I forgot to ask last time, what is this thing?"

[A powerful aphrodisiac.]

“God damn, what are you giving me this for?”

[The host can choose to refuse it!]

“I want it! You want to take away my reward, no conscience!” Aiya! So angry! The reward for the mission is so bad, her mood was very bad!

The bronze mirror changed again.

[System notification: Because of a mistake in the previous world, the identity was announced wrong. The female lead was not Fang Tian Tian, but rather Luo Qing Chen. The system has already fixed this and to make up for the host’s losses, the system will give 1/10000 storage space. In any world, the host can put an item into the space. (The volume can’t be too big and it won’t take live items!)]

“Damn, I knew it! That Fang Tian Tian looked like a cannon fodder and this treasure clearly looked like the female lead! System, you really should fix yourself, you can even get this wrong!” Luo Qing Chen was stunned. A good female lead was called cannon fodder by the system, she didn’t believe it if it said it didn’t do it on purpose!

[The system has given the compensation, does the host accept it: Yes/No.]

“Yes! I’ll definitely take it!” She understood a portable space, it was definitely a golden ring!

But she could only place one thing in it, she had to properly think over it.

[System notification: The host’s portable space is already full.]

“Why? Why is it full when I haven’t even put anything in?” Luo Qing Chen revealed a look of confusion.

[The host has placed the dense fragrant incense inside!]

“WTF? Broken system, you’re bullying this treasure again!”

[The host will start the third mission in three minutes. The mission’s status is as follows.]

Experience: 300/10000

Strength: 90/100

Charm: 70/100

[PS: Other than experience, all the basic values are only for this mission and are not related to other missions.]

“Damn, this mission’s strength is so high! Then would I suddenly become a powerful warrior!”

After that, the bronze mirror changed again.

Mission content: [Return to a day before the death of the female lead and obtain the love of the male lead, Ling Xiu.]

[System notification: Because this task is special, the host will receive two things before going into the world. 1: A heart. 2: Exquisite Ring.]

“Hea.....Heart?” Luo Qing Chen was scared by the system, “What do you mean by heart? Could it be that when the previous host died, she didn’t even have a heart?”

[Yes.] After a while, the system’s voice slowly came from the pure void, having a slightly dark meaning to it.

[The host has accepted the previous host’s memories! Memories are currently being imported now! Host, please secure yourself!]

“Aiya! Even ignoring questions now! System, you’ve become so lazy!”
