Chapter 701: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 2)

The situation on the frontlines were urgent and the male lead spent most of his devising strategies to combat the Japanese invaders.

In his eyes, the only thing he needed to do was protect his home and country.

In his life, there was no love. But in an urgent mission, the previous host spent money to receive the identity of an officer to approach him, going to the battlefield with him.

The previous host was a hot blooded youth. After studying for so many years abroad, her first wish was to defeat the Japanese and defend her home!

However the battlefield was dangerous. A grenade exploded by her and her head buzzed, as she couldn't hear a thing.

When she opened her eyes, the male lead was beside her.

He knew her identity, but he didn't know why she was here.

The previous host made a serious confession, telling him bit by bit of how she loved him for over a year now.

The male lead was silent. Since they were still in a dangerous area, he handed the AK47 in his hand to the previous host and said, "Guard yourself."

Zuo Mu Ran never would have thought that this gun he gave the previous host would end his life.

He was very powerful, taking her out of danger even with all those enemies.

Safely returning to An Ning City.

When the previous host wanted to confess this matter to her elders, she was kidnapped.

In the middle of the night, she was taken to the Zuo Manor.

When she saw him, she was excited. If she hadn't guessed wrong, the flowers had bloomed with this youth she had loved for so long.

She never thought that the male lead would coldly say, "Watch her, don't let her take a single step from this room."

The previous host didn't understand, until the maid accidentally revealed it the next day. Only then did she know that Zuo Mu Ran had blown up the Luo Manor with grenades.

The Luo Manor was in ruins when she rushed over, with bodies scattered all over from the blast. She couldn't even tell who was who.....

Her vision turned black and she lost consciousness.

When she opened her eyes again, she was back at the Zuo Manor. The male lead had brought her back, telling her that he had killed her family.

The previous host asked why and he said it was for a personal grudge.

Actually, the previous host didn't know that the Luo Family were traitors. Only Luo Gong loved his daughter, sending her out of the country to study from a young age to keep her away from everything.

The male lead's big brother had been plotted against by Luo Gong on a mission. He who had never failed a mission was actually killed in a Japanese manor.

The male lead began investigating afterwards, suspecting the Luo Family of being traitors. After investigating around, he had finally found evidence.

But the destruction of the Luo Family came from above and he was just a junior officer.

The Luo Manor was blown up so no one could find her corpse, at least he could save her life.

However, the previous host didn't know this.

The hatred in her heart covered her love and she kept asking him why, but he never responded.

She was a hot blooded girl, how would she feel if she knew that her family were traitors?

Only when the previous host pointed the gun at him did he feel a bit of regret.

He wasn't afraid of death, he just didn't know who would protect her after he died.

When he was about to tell everything, the girl who loved him for three years pulled the trigger.

It was very accurate, a single shot through the heart.

At that moment, the previous host panicked because in the depths of her heart, she wasn't willing to pull the trigger.

But the revenge for destroying her family had to be taken.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 702: : Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 3)

The adjutant who had rushed over saw the male lead's corpse and couldn't control their emotion as they told the previous host everything.

The previous host only then knew that she had killed the person who had desperately tried to protect her.

It was all the male lead's fault for thinking of her too much that such a tragic ending came.

In the end, the previous host hugged the male lead's corpse as she raised the pistol he gave her and pointed it at her own head.

After finishing the previous host's memories, Luo Qing Chen had been completely sucked in by the story.

The male and female supporting leads really were reduced to supporting leads. The female support lead was a gunner under the male lead and the male supporting lead was the previous host's fiancée.

There were quite a few meetings, but compared to the story of the previous host and the male lead, they really were too small.....

Now that time had returned to three years ago, although the frontline was still tense, it hadn't reached the point where An Ning City had fallen.

She was wearing a blue shirt and a black dress, just returning from abroad.

Her location: The frontline battlefield command center.

"My god." Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and muttered, "System, you really are ruthless."

[This can't be completely blamed on the system!] The system silently indicated that it was being wrong.

Stop wasting words! Give me a gun and exchange for shooting skills.

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for shooting skills.]

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for a revolver and fifty bullets.]

Luo Qing Chen took the gun the system gave her from her military uniform and squatted down beside a large stone.

She was currently at the back of the entire brigade and the Japanese should be suppressed by Zuo Mu Ran.

At this time, the male lead shouldn't know the previous host yet! Ai, this affection.....

[0%.]

I know, I know, I know! Trash system, you don't need to remind me!

Luo Qing Chen knit her brows and tried to comb her memories for what she did, but she couldn't remember.

"Peng." There was a large sound beside her.

Damn! It was a grenade!

She narrowed her eyes and looked at the people not far away, as she muttered with a skip of her heart, "It's the Japanese!"

Her hiding spot was a dead end and unless the grenade was thrown over here, they wouldn't find her.

The Japanese spoke their language and she couldn't understand it, so she could only ask for help from the system she just insulted.

Quickly! Stop being prideful!

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for Japanese language skill.] The system was very angry, but right now was not the time to quarrel with the host!

Without having time to think, she immediately picked up the receiver beside her and said, "There are enemy troops at rear lighthouse 741, please come back!"

The adjutant's voice came from the receiver, "Japanese? You're not reciting your number when reporting in!"

"Recite what!" Luo Qing Chen anxiously pursed her lips and said, "Come quick, otherwise we'll all die!"

In this urgent time, shouldn't you focus on the topic? Recite what number!

The adjutant clearly felt that she was a Japanese soldier, so they didn't care. After all, it was very likely the Japanese had taken their brother's receivers and were releasing false information!

But Zuo Mu Ran took the receiver and his cold voice slowly came out, "How many people are there?"

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and said, "It should be around a hundred and fifty people."

"Stay and wait for orders." When he was prepared to put down the receiver, he added, "Stay safe."

Chapter 703: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 4)

Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and moved two steps back towards a certain hole behind her.

The air was filled with a strong gunpowder scent, filling every single cell in her body.

Fifteen minutes later, there was a loud explosion that was close to her. She bit her lip and thought, they should be here already.

After thinking about it, she slowly headed towards the center of the fight. After all, if there wasn't the male lead, it would end before it even began.....

Not long after, she could see two sides fighting.

Because Zuo Mu Ran received information from her, the dunes were very well defended.

She was relieved. When she was planning to crawl over the dunes.

An accident happened.....

Two gunshots came from very close. She knit her brows and immediately turned, looking for a place to shield herself.

Zuo Mu Ran not far away narrowed his eyes when he saw this, he could vaguely see her figure through the smoke.

He knit his brows, but he was stopped by his adjutant Xu Zheng Liang, "Commander, the Japanese have already found her location, you can't just go out."

Jin Wen Dan on the side echoed, "Zheng Liang is right, it's too dangerous!"

Zuo Mu Ran knit his brows as a strange unsettled feeling filled his heart.

He couldn't tell why he had this feeling.

"Peng, peng, peng, peng." A wave of gunshots kept sounding in her ears.

The bullets came from both sides as the danger slowly approached.

She had two paths right now. One was to escape with teleportation and two was to show off with her super shooting skills.

She knew that Zuo Mu Ran could see her, then.....

She had to show off, that was her style!

Luo Qing Chen ears twitched. Holding the revolver in her left hand, she pointed it at the sounds of gunfire and quickly fired two shots.

"Peng, peng." The two closest to her directly fell to the ground.

She revealed a very faint smile.

Zuo Mu Ran and the others on the dune were stunned. Jin Wen Dan muttered in disbelief, "How could that be possible.....She.....Did she just turn around?"

"She shouldn't have....." Xu Zheng Liang slowly put down his binoculars, "Her shooting is quite accurate."

A look of praise appeared in Zuo Mu Ran's cold eyes, but his brows were still tightly knit.

Because there were still over ten people slowly moving towards her.

He narrowed his eyes and said, "Prepare for collective cover."

Since there was a bit of distance between their hill and Luo Qing Chen, they might not hit with their fire, but they could provide cover fire with it.

She pursed her lips into a faint smile and muttered, "Thank you, sir commander!"

"Kill her for me (Japanese)!" The Japanese commander yelled in Japanese, shouting from not far away.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes, as she prepared her forty eight bullets.

"Peng, peng, peng, peng, peng....." The rain of bullets filled her ears.

Each shot hit the heart of an enemy, without a single deviation.

Zuo Mu Ran's army was covering for her, as all kinds of smoke blocked the sights of enemies, allowing her to quickly take care of them.

"God....." Xu Zheng Liang called out in shock as he held the binoculars. His face was covered in disbelief as he said to Zuo Mu Ran, "Commander, her shots are just too accurate!"

Jin Wen Dan on the side heard this and said in an unwilling to submit voice, "With such strong cover, anyone could do the same with a bit of skills."

“No.....” Zuo Mu Ran’s cold eyes had a strange glow to them as he said, “Only she can do this.”

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 704: Loving one’s country: They are enemies! (Part 5)

Jin Wen Dan was a bit unwilling to submit since she was also one of the best shooters in the army.

Now in front of Zuo Mu Ran who she admired, hearing him have such high praise of this unknown person.

She felt very uncomfortable.

She pursed her lips and said, “If I had the cover of the commander, I could do the same.”

“As a gunner, can you not see it?” Zuo Mu Ran checked the situation while looking over his gun, “Every single one of her shots is hitting the heart of an enemy.”

As soon as his voice fell, he went over the dune and headed in Luo Qing Chen’s direction.

“Commander!” Xu Zheng Liang called out, “I’ll go save her, commander should stay here.”

After being with Zuo Mu Ran for so many years, naturally he knew what he was thinking.

He admired that brother and admired him very much.

“No need, take care of the remaining Japanese. They had the advantage in numbers earlier, but now.....” His eyes darkened as he looked at a figure in the smoke, “They shouldn’t have it anymore.”

Seeing Zuo Mu Ran walking further away, Jin Wen Dan slapped the entrenchment as she said, “Who is that person!”

“I’ve checked the intercom and number 8878 should be Wang Shou.” Xu Zheng Liang slightly knit his brows as he said, “But that person’s voice wasn’t Wang Shou’s.”

After all, she was wearing a black and white dress, not a military uniform.....

Luo Qing Chen was a bit nervous at this moment. Normally speaking, the Japanese started with a wave of bullets.

If that wave didn’t work, next was the possibility of grenades.

After showing off, her life came first.

When Luo Qing Chen was planning to exchange for a teleport, a figure quickly broke through the rain of bullets and landed by her side with a perfect flip!

When Luo Qing Chen raised her gun, a cold hand grabbed her.

She narrowed her eyes and looked at this person. Her memories kept churning as her heart beat faster.

This was the most honest feeling in the previous host’s heart.

“You.....” Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, “Zuo Mu Ran?”

His eyes had a faint chill as he narrowed them while looking at Luo Qing Chen.

She was wearing a blue shirt and white dress, with her hair done with an ornament. She looked quite harmless, one would never thought that she had such accurate marksmanship.

“I’ll cover you, you run towards our cover.” His voice was very cold, like every word was giving a command.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned before crossing her arms to say, “I’ll cover you.”

Tension, killing, gunpowder, battlefield.....

In this situation, she could speak so calmly with the commander.

Even if Zuo Mu Ran was calm, his fingers couldn’t help trembling.

“Throw grenades! (Japanese)” The Japanese commander knew that he had underestimated the enemies. A person who looked like a student had appeared on the battlefield, so he thought he could take care of them with a few bullets.

But he never thought that in a few minutes, they would lose several dozen people and that person could escape without any harm.

“This is bad.” Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and looked at the hill not far away behind her, as her heart skipped a beat.

This battlefield was filled with many cliffs and valleys. An Ning City had a rocky terrain, so it was easy to defend.

“The students who study abroad really are different. They can shoot well and they understand Japanese.” He seemed to have guessed her identity, as a faint sparkle appeared in his eyes.

These words seemed like sarcasm, but they were actually praise.

Because what this girl did had already proved that she was a passionate person who loved her country.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping Chapter 705: Loving one’s country: They are enemies! (Part 6)

Luo Qing Chen’s heart stopped. If Zuo Mu Ran didn’t appear now, she could have teleported back to her room.

Was he really here to save her?

“There’s no time.....” There was a slight tremble to her voice since a grenade wasn’t a joke.

Without cover, they would lose their lives!

The Japanese invaders threw the grenade over the ridge and they had no other choice.

In an instant, Zuo Mu Ran took her hand, firing back as he turned to run for cover behind them.

Xu Zheng Liang saw this and immediately said, “Cover the commander, attack the Japanese with everything!”

“Yes.” The soldiers in front of him gave strong responses.

Luo Qing Chen only had a single bullet left, which she didn't dare use. She could only let Zuo Mu Ran protect her, blocking her while running forward.

When Zuo Mu Ran came to the cliff, there was a sound as the rock crumbled under them.

The Japanese main force kept chasing him, including the Japanese commander who had attacked An Ning City this time.

"You can no longer run." The commander said to Zuo Mu Ran in broken Chinese, "As long as you die, An Ning City will be ours. The lowly Qing people will always be trash, you will forever be the slave of our Imperial Japanese Empire!"

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as she looked at this person. There were only five of them including the commander, Zuo Mu Ran had killed the rest on the way.

This commander was very determined, it seemed like Zuo Mu Ran really was a bit problem for the Japanese.

Luo Qing Chen looked at Zuo Mu Ran beside her. His expression didn't contain any emotion as he raised the gun in his hand, while his other hand was pushing her behind him, as his cool voice sounded in her ear, "I don't have any more bullets, jump when I say jump. There is a river under the cliff, you can only make a gamble."

He knew that he would be injured even if he jumped, but it was likely he couldn't jump at all.

After all, even if he was fast, he couldn't be faster than bullets.

There was no shelter around them, so he could only use himself as shelter to let Luo Qing Chen behind him escape.

"What?" Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath before saying, "No bullets....."

"Kill them for me! (Japanese)"

"Jump." Zuo Mu Ran pushed her and her mind went blank.

In an instant, she turned and moved in front of Zuo Mu Ran. Her right hand came up and she fired her last bullet.

It flew right towards the Japanese commander.....

"Peng." Hitting him in the forehead.

At the same time, two bullets had also hit her.

One grazed her arm and one went through her abdomen.

She closed her eyes and thought: Space and time freeze.

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for space and time freeze (One time use).]

Her face was a bit pale, but her heart was filled with excitement. If it wasn't for killing the commander, she could have used the space and time freeze ahead of time and avoided being hurt.

[The host is so brave, doesn't it hurt?] The system looked at the host with a gaze of admiration.

Have you heard of these words before?

[What?]

Those that offend my China must all be punished.

If this commander didn't die, something would have happened to Zuo Mu Ran and An Ning City would have fallen. The Luo Family are traitors, so they would definitely open the gates.

The situation was far worse than she imagined.

With the space and time freeze, she didn't bleed and she didn't feel pain. She was just a bit weak since the bullet had penetrated her.

She forcefully pushed Zuo Mu Ran off the cliff before jumping off herself.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping
Chapter 706: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 7)

Three seconds later, the space and time freeze ended!

During the fall, the severe pain came over her.

She felt like she was about to faint, so she called to her system again.

Give me a Spirit Cleaning Pill.

[Ding, 500 exchange points have been taken. Successfully exchanged for one Spirit Cleaning Pill.]

She had used this thing on Chu Nan Xian before, it was something that could strengthen one's will.

Zuo Mu Ran was stunned as a confused look appeared on his face, but he hugged her when they fell into the water.

Bloody water spread across the river.

"This is bad." Although her will had been cleared, she could still feel her heart beating fast.

This was a response to the massive blood loss.

Zuo Mu Ran narrowed his cold eyes as he quickly carried her out of the river, heading towards a cave.

"First stop the bleeding." He took off his coat as a faint tremor appeared in his cold voice.

Luo Qing Chen could hear it.....

But she didn't understand, wasn't Zuo Mu Ran the male lead?

She helped him kill the Japanese commander and took two bullets for him.....where was the affection?

Zuo Mu Ran moved very quickly. When he used fire to close her wounds, she felt a heartrending pain that made her suffocate.

She reached out to grab his collar as she said with a face that was as white as snow, "Shouldn't big brother.....thank me?"

He was stunned, as a different feeling appeared in his heart.

Fast breathing, restless heartbeat, and a blank mind.....

Seeing her clear as water eyes and her face without any blood, his fingers trembled.

[Ding, affection has increased by one. Mission completion rate is now 1%.]

System, are you certain you're not broken?

[The system really isn't broken.]

What kind of male lead was this!

After being this handsome and this amazing, it's only 1%!

Why didn't he go to heaven!

She let go of his collar and said, "There's no need to say it, I don't want it!"

"Miss." Zuo Mu Ran looked down, helping her treat her wound as he said, "I'm not good at talking. Thank you for killing Hitoda, thank you.....for saving....."

He didn't know how to express his feelings right now. Why was it that a person who was shot in the abdomen could endure the pain and ask him for a thank you with a face as pale as snow.....

It was just a single.....thank you.

She had blocked a bullet for him, how could it be easily solved with a thank you.

"No need, no need!" She cut off Zuo Mu Ran, "There's no need!"

1%, it was better not to give it to her! Such an insulting affection!

"Sorry." Zuo Mu Ran looked at her with a gentle look as he said, "I won't let you die."

The blood had been stopped, but if the wound became infected, it could easily become fatal.

He and Luo Qing Chen were both clear on this.

Moreover, the effects of the Spirit Cleansing Pill would keep weakening, so she had to find a way to get rid of Zuo Mu Ran.

"Based on the situation, it'll be very hard!" Luo Qing Chen looked at Zuo Mu Ran with a frustrated look, "The death of the Japanese commander will incite the Japanese army. Adding in the fact that you've fallen off the cliff, they will take advantage of this chance and attack An Ning City."

He trembled as he looked at her without turning.

Because she had voiced out all the concerns in his heart.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 707: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 8)

"You don't need to consider this." Zuo Mu Ran saw her clothes stained with blood and he couldn't help turning away, "Relax."

"Use me to exchange for An Ning City." Luo Qing Chen's eyes sparkled like stars as she looked at him, "So in the eyes of the sir commander, I'm this important."

To be honest, Luo Qing Chen's words were just pure teasing, but she never thought that she could get any affection.

But facts proved that her thoughts were right!

Zuo Mu Ran knit his brows and wanted to say something, but he couldn't speak.

He lived to defend his country. Now that An Ning City would be in danger because of his disappearance.

The probability of losing would be greatly increased.

But he couldn't throw away the person in front of him, as a strong voice shouted deep down within him.

He couldn't do it.....

Seeing that he didn't say anything, Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle. She said in a very collected voice, "You can't climb up with me, even if there was an easy path to take, I can't walk up."

She thought: The current her should be a hero who was sacrificing themselves for their country!

But her real inner OS was saying: Quickly leave! This treasure lost so much blood, I want to use teleport to go home!

After a while, his cool voice slowly sounded, "I have made this decision countless times before."

For the lives of the people, to protect his city, he had to abandon countless brothers' lives.

Whenever he made these decisions before, although it had been difficult, when it came to saving more people, he always paid the price even if it meant he died.

He was a soldier, this was a kind of faith and responsibility.

"But." He continued, "This time.....I can't do it."

He couldn't throw away this girl he was meeting for the first time, he just couldn't do it.

Was it because of her amazing marksmanship that caught his eyes, or was it the fact that she took the life of the enemy commander.

Or perhaps.....It was because she took two bullets for him.

No matter what, this was the first time he was feeling this kind of feeling that others had described, stuck.

“The problem is, I will die if you stay here.” Luo Qing Chen looked and her eyes trembled as she said, “Quickly head back, I will be here waiting for you.”

Zuo Mu Ran’s heart was moved when he heard that she would die.

Because he knew in his heart that staying here wouldn’t help her wound at all.

She didn’t know how long passed, she just knew that he kept looking at her with a deep gaze.

After a while, his ice cold eyes gradually dimmed as his cool voice slowly said, “You will wait here for me.....right?”

She never would know just how much of a panic he was in that moment.

He had to admit, he was very afraid.

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile as she looked at him and said, “If I’m not alive anymore, how will sir commander repay me for my life saving grac?”

“You will definitely live.” He spoke right after her as he softly said, “Moreover, my life is yours.”

His words were incomparably serious, as a faint sparkle appeared in his eyes.

Luo Qing Chen suddenly didn’t feel that frustrated as she said with a soft snort, “I don’t want your life!”

“What miss wants, as long as I, Zuo Mu Ran can do it.....” There was a faint sparkled in his eyes as he looked at her and said, “I will use all my power.”

“Un.....” Luo Qing Chen held her wound as she nodded with a serious look, “Use your body as a promise!”

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 708: Loving one’s country: They are enemies! (Part 9)

On the sharp cliff, his mind was filled with what that pale faced girl had said to him.

Using your body as a promise was a hot brand that was placed on his heart.

The spikes under his foot pierced his skin, but he didn’t stop at all.

He must be quick, he had to be quick.....

At the same time, Luo Qing Chen was complaining to the system in the cave!

System, I don’t understand! I did such a great thing, why is it still at 1% affection! Is his heart made of stone? Is he a tree?

[The host only has the memories of the previous host and doesn’t know that the male lead doesn’t actually like the previous host.]

! What does that mean, are you kidding me?

[The system is not kidding! The male lead did all those things to protect the previous host because the previous host had a similar personality to his little sister.]

God! A dead tree that won't bloom, ai.....This wound hurts so much! I want to go home!

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for teleportation.]

When she returned to the Luo Manor, it was her third brother who found her. Everyone rushed without caring for the reason, finding the best doctor in the city to treat her wound.

"Young miss Luo doesn't have a bullet in her. Although the method for stopping the bleeding was painful, it was the best method to use as first aid." The doctor said to Luo Gong, "If mister Luo is still worried, you can take miss Luo to the hospital for a more in depth check up."

"No need." She waved her hand as she laid in bed, "Relax, dad, it's fine."

The effects of the Spirit Cleansing Pill had already disappeared and the pain from her wound encroached on her mind bit by bit.

It was unknown how long she had been unconscious in bed, she finally had a bit of strength when she opened her eyes.

"Young miss, you're awake!" Xiao Yun quickly gave her some hot water, "Have a drink first."

"I'll do it myself." She took the water and asked, "How long have I been asleep?"

"It's been around three days." Xian Yun said with an excited look, "I'll go tell the old master!"

"Wait." Luo Qing Chen stopped her before saying with a faint smile, "Why don't you introduce yourself first?"

She was the most trusted maid of the previous host. In a gun fight later on, she had died protecting the previous host.

To be frank, she had been shot by Jin Wen Dan!

A well behaved girl had such a tragic ending.

"I don't have a name....." She pursed her lips and said, "The old master said that I was the seventh servant to enter the Luo Manor this year, so I'm called Xiao Qi. My mother used to call me dog before."

"....." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug before saying with a faint smile, "Un, how about I call you Xiao Yun Yun in the future?"

Cute, innocent, and easily knocked down.....

Since it was happening again, she would also need to protect this person who had died for her in another world.

But right now, what she needed to do first was the side mission.

In all the previous worlds before, the previous hosts and their families were all lawful people.

But now that they were traitors, she was very desperate, alright?

System, was the Luo Family always traitors or did something change to turn them into traitors?

[A change midway.]

Tell me about it.

[Four years ago, the Japanese mister Kouichi captured the previous host's grandmother, who is Luo Gong's mother and the previous host's second brother's twins.]

Four years ago? Wait, wasn't the grandmother dead in the previous host's memories? Wasn't the younger twin accidentally killed?

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 709: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 10)

[No, they are still alive. Luo Gong is a dutiful person, his twin grandsons aren't enough to move him, but his mother can make him do anything.]

Where are they being locked?

[The place where the male lead's big brother died, the Japanese mister Kouichi's manor.]

Luo Qing Chen learned from the system that mister Kouichi was a very powerful and intelligent person from Japan.

Thinking about it, if he wasn't smart, how could Luo Gong be controlled by him?

Right, she also learned another thing from the system. Mister Kouichi loved gambling, never losing since he was born.

Every person could gamble with him, they could gamble anything they wanted! But mister Kouichi only accepted the lives of the challenger, wanting nothing else.

[The system can tell the host another thing!]

Speak!

[The Luo Family and Zuo Family are working together this afternoon. Luo Gong will pretend to tell Zuo Mu Ran's big brother Zuo Qi Yue about capturing mister Kouichi. As long as he enters Kouichi's manor with an access pass, he can enter the manor.]

You mean that the Zuo Family doesn't know that the Luo Family are traitors and Zuo Qi Yue dies like this.....

[Yes.]

According to the memories of the previous host, Zuo Mu Ran started doubting the Luo Family after Zuo Qi Yue's death, it seemed like it was that time now.

Zuo Qi Yue couldn't be allowed into Kouichi's manor. The Japanese manors were all rented, but if one stepped inside, there would only be death.

Zuo Qi Yue back then had his head removed and his body was left at the doors of the Zuo Manor.

"I'm going out, don't tell the old master." Luo Qing Chen changed into a pink coat, a hat that was the most popular right now, and a large pair of sunglasses, heading towards the Zuo Manor.

Xiao Yun Yun called out behind her, but she pretended not to hear.

After all, she didn't have much time!

The Zuo Manor was heavily guarded, so it wasn't easy to get in. But she had the token of the Luo Family's young miss, most of the guards recognized this token.

"I'm looking for Zuo Qi Yue, I have to trouble you to pass this message." Luo Qing Chen handed her token to one of the guards and said, "It's about the secrets of the Japanese invaders, please hurry."

The guard took the token and said, "Alright, please wait a moment young miss Luo."

Her face didn't look good, as a faint pain kept coming from her wound. After all, she had been shot, lying in bed for three days couldn't heal her.

She shook her head and did her best to stay awake.

The guard came back after a while and said to her with a respectful bow, "Young miss Luo, please come in."

At the same time, Zuo Mu Ran who had returned from personally leading soldiers to the cliff narrowed his eyes. Seeing the person in pink clothes, his heart couldn't help skipping a beat.

Her back, why did it seem so familiar?

"Impossible....." His dead as water eyes suddenly had a sparkle in them.

But that disbelief had been rejected by him.....

He immediately took care of the Japanese invaders as soon as he came back to An Ning City. Although their guns were near the city, when they saw Zuo Mu Ran, they immediately decided to retreat.

An Ning City was hard to attack and with Zuo Mu Ran there, their chances of winning were too low.

Not to mention that their commander had been killed.....

After the Japanese retreated, he rushed to the cliff as soon as possible with soldiers and medics.

But there wasn't her figure and there weren't any footsteps in the mud around them.

It was like she had just disappeared into thin air!

Chapter 710: Loving one's country: They are enemies! (Part 11)

Zuo Mu Ran quickly came forward with big steps and asked the guard at the door, "Who was that person just now?"

"Reporting to the commander, it was the Luo Manor's young miss." The guard said with a salute.

“The Luo Manor has a young miss?” Zuo Mu Ran knit his brows. Although he didn’t understand the Luo Manor, he knew that their finances were equal to the Zuo Manor.

“This subordinate doesn’t know.” The guard continued, “But sir Qi Yue had the brothers take her in after seeing the token.”

“Got it.” Zuo Mu Ran knit his brows and quickly walked in.

At the same time, in Zuo Qi Yue’s office.

Zuo Qi Yue was wearing a black tuxedo, with fair skin, and a handsome face. He gave off a quiet and learned feel.

“Hello! I don’t know why sir Luo had to come find me, is there a change in the plan !” Zuo Qi Yue looked at the clock on the wall before asking this.

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen closed the door and turned to look at Zuo Qi Yue, “I know that you’re planning to go to Kouichi’s rented manor, but the plan has changed. My father wants me to go instead.”

“You.” Zuo Qi Yue immediately rejected her, “No, it’s too dangerous.”

If it wasn’t for the Luo Manor’s prestige in An Ning City and the contacts from fighting the Japanese over the years, even he wouldn’t dare go to Kouichi’s manor.

“My father naturally wouldn’t send me to death.” She said, “Only I can do this thing. If you’re not assured, you can pick me up at the Second Song Restaurant outside the manor.”

“Meeting you outside the manor?” Zuo Qi Yue knit his brows in confusion, “What use is that? If something happens to you, I can’t save you.”

God! What a stubborn person.

“Aiya, in short!” Luo Qing Chen spread her hands as she looked at him and said, “Just treat it as I don’t want you to send yourself to your death!”

“Send myself to death?”

“Eh, wrong words!” Luo Qing Chen paused before saying, “Danger! Just treat it as I don’t want you to be in danger!”

Actually she was very angry right now! She was serious about saving his life, how could this person be so stubborn!

“Young miss Luo.....” Zuo Qi Yue’s face was covered in a faint blush, as he felt quite strange.

“What are you in a daze for!” Luo Qing Chen shook her hand and said, “Give me the token.”

After all, without the token, she couldn’t see Kouichi.

“This.....”

“This is my father’s wish, I hope that mister Zuo won’t insist too much.” There was a faint look of anger in Luo Qing Chen’s eyes, “After all, you are just helping the Luo Family.”

“Can you really kill Kouichi?” Zuo Qi Yue hesitated for a few seconds before taking out the token for her.

Luo Qing Chen took the token with a chuckle, “I’m not certain, but I can guarantee I won’t die.”

“Kou, kou, kou.” There was a knock from the door before a familiar voice came.

It had a bit of coldness to it.

“Big brother, are you there?”

“Commander Zuo, let me introduce you.” Zuo Qi Yue looked at the clock, “But it seems like there isn’t time.”

“Then don’t introduce me!” Luo Qing Chen put her hand in her pocket and clenched her fist in an uneasy manner.

She definitely couldn’t reveal anything, otherwise this person who had said that he would repay his life debt would definitely follow her!

Zuo Qi Yue came forward and slowly opened the door as he said to Zuo Mu Ran, “Let me introduce you to an honoured guest.”

A faint look of indifference flashed in his bottomless dark eyes. When the door opened, his eyes fell right onto her.
