Chapter 111: Prison Guard

Unlike Lily Gomes, Tyler entered the Isle of Blood officially. He entered via port. Even though it is called a port, there is not even a single boat.

Tyler left the boat. Suddenly he heard crunchy sounds. He turned around just to see the piranhas that appeared out of nowhere eating the Boat. Tyler didn't care about the boat. He looked around he couldn't find a single soul.

There is only one office at the port. It is a small wooden cabin that has a temperature control Array installed in it. Tyler walked in and saw a man sleeping. He didn't even wake up even after Tyler entered.

"No wonder she was able to infiltrate this place easily." Tyler said inwardly.

Tyler placed the document on the table. The man suddenly opened his eyes. Without even checking it he threw it to the side and gave him a token. Then he went back to sleep.

Tyler took the token. Instructions and information appeared in his mind. Tyler then just walked to the locker and took a set of prison guard suits and wore them.

After that he walked towards the rocky area. He saw a small camp and guards were patrolling.

"Wow. They are diligent." Tyler mumbled.

"Because Few days ago someone infiltrated. So we have to tighten the security. The infiltrator's accomplice might come to resume." A guard who was near Tyler said.

"Hello Newbie. You just have to wear this bracelet. You can use this to enter anywhere. But be careful if you got killed by the prisoners or warden, nobody would avenge you." The Guard explained.

"Also ... There are only three areas on this island. The prison area, the mine area which also connected to the prison and finally the Experiment Area. The experiment Area is closed now due to an old explosion many years ago...." The Guard explained the basics and all.

"What happened to the infiltrator?" Tyler asked with a curious expression.

"She was captured by Warden. Well I don't know about the Warden that much, but from what I heard Warden has some problem in his head." The Guard gossiped.

Tyler doesn't even know how to continue this conversation; he just nodded like a good newbie. These Guards basically have nothing to do for a whole year. Their only duty is to stay on this Island for an Year and get vacation for a month.

"Where is the accommodation?" Tyler asked.

"The whole Island is the accommodation." The Guard said.

Tyler thanked him. He understood that there was no accommodation. The Guards gave a hint that he can sleep in an old prison area or sleep anywhere in the Island. He went to the camp. There is an officer who is incharge of assigning the duty. Tyler already gathered some information about the Guards here. He already has a plan to achieve his goal Swiftly.

"I want to work inside the Prison Area or the mining area, if possible." Tyler said. The officer looked at the newbie like he was looking at a fool.

"Oh... Also on the way here, I found some Lydia on the ground. You can keep it." Tyler gave the Officer some money.

The officer looked at Tyler and said, "You really have the nerve to bribe me. Do you really think you can corrupt me with a little money?"

Tyler was taken back. And he nodded as he understood and placed another bag, "I also found this bag of money on the way back."

The officer and Tyler looked at each other.

"Nevermind. I will find the owner myself and return it to them." Tyler said and raised his hand to take back the bag. The officer quickly grabbed it and kept it.

"No need. I will take care of that matter. You are in charge of Delivering food to the Mining Area." The officer said.

Tyler left. The officer didn't even care what motive Tyler had. If something was amiss, No one can escape the warden.

Tyler then registered his fingerprint in an Array. With this he can enter and exit almost every in the Island. Isle of Blood is not terrifying as before, After the Experiment Area is closed.

Tyler arrived before a cactus. An array appeared, Tyler pressed his Thumb print. The cactus opened a large hole. He doesn't understand why the Guard said 'take care of your fingers' when he was leaving.

"When She says it's her first time." Tyler mumbled and jumped into the hole.

He then arrived at the place where monitoring happens. It seems like they can only monitor the Island above, not the prison area. So he sighed in relief.

Tyler then showed his token. They pointed out the way to the kitchen. There is an old man who is incharge of cooking. The prison food is just called Kali. It is a ball shaped food in brown colour.

Ragi flour and water are mixed and heated in a big pot on a burner. As water evaporates a fine paste is formed, consistency of which is ensured by regular stirring with a stick. (Ragi finger Millet)

Then it was rolled into a ball and served on a plate.

Tyler's Duty is to distribute it to all prisoners in the mining area.

They filled them all in a storage bag and gave it to Tyler. This storage bag is not made from sea shell storage which Piqued Tyler's interest. He has to return it later. So he decided to copy it later. They also gave him another storage bag. It contains Food for the warden.

The Mining Area is a huge cylindrical shaped dome. There were many cells. Tyler placed a plate on each cell and collected the old plate.

All the prisoners are bound by cuffs. They have only one work to do and that is Mining.

Tyler checked each and every cell.

Lily Gomes is meditating in the cell. Her hands are bound by Prison cuffs. She is still injured and appears extremely weak.

When she saw the food, she ignored it. But then she noticed the person who delivered the food didn't leave. Her eyes behind the mask brightened up.

A few minutes later

"He just 'one punched' you?" Tyler asked. He is a little confused as to why Lily Gomes even tried to break into this dangerous place.

"I came to find someone." Lily Gomes as if she sensed Tyler's confusion she explained.

"Did you find him?" Tyler asked.

"Yeah." She replied while looking down.

"Who is - " Before Tyler could ask anything he heard giant footsteps. Tyler turned around a Giant man who was more than 7 feet tall walking around the prison.

Tyler immediately bowed. The Giant is the warden. The warden glanced at him. Sensing the token with him, the warden ignored him. He just walked past him.

"That is the person I was looking for." Lily Gomes said .

Tyler was taken back. He looked at her in surprise.

"White. Help me with something. I want you to mention my name to him and see if he has any reaction." she said.

Tyler nodded. He somewhat understood that the Giant and his boss had some backstory. He decided not to pry.

After distributing all the food. Tyler walked into a prison cell where Warden sleeps. There is a giant plate on the floor. Tyler stored it in the Storage bag and placed another plate the same size with food.

Unlike the Prisoners, The warden's food is a little fancy. It is a giant sashimi with rice and soy sauce.

The Sleeping Warden opened his eyes and walked towards the food. He sat down and began to devour it

"Hello Warden. I am new here." The warden who was eating raised his head and looked at him. Then he continued to eat.

"Before this I was an assistant in the investigation Department under Lily Gomes, now I just got transferred here." Tyler continued.

When he said 'Lily Gomes' the Warden flinched and stopped eating. He was trying to remember something but he couldn't. He gave up and decided to focus on food.

Tyler got the answer on what he wants. He then silently retreated before saying, "Enjoy your food, warden."

"Looks like there was some reaction." Lily Gomes said.

"Why are you looking for him?" Tyler asked.

"I want to kill him." Lily Gomes replied.

Next day

The man who was sleeping in the port opened his eyes, "Huh... Why are there a lot of visitors recently?"

The man quickly went to the shore. Because he doesn't dare to neglect the Young Master's Ship.

Young Master Zhou Qingchen walked out.

The piranhas tried to eat the ship but when the Man whistled, the Piranhas swam back.

"I want to interrogate the prisoner you caught a few days ago." Young Master Zhou Qingchen went straight to the point.

The man nodded and immediately sent a message through a voice transmission array.

Soon the man came back with a solemn expression.

"Young Master looks like something happened in the prison." The man said with frustration.

"What happened?"

"Another person has infiltrated the prison." The man said.

Chapter 112: Lily Gomes' Reason

The man came back with a solemn expression.

"Young Master looks like something happened in the prison." The man said with frustration.

"What happened?"

"Another person has infiltrated the prison." The man said.

<< The previous night >>

"What is he doing?" Lily Gomes asked while sitting behind the bars.

"He is sleeping." Tyler said while standing outside.

"Let me out, I will kill him now." Lily Gomes said.

"Lower your voice." Tyler immediately said. Tyler doesn't understand why Lily Gomes is not cool as before. He is not even sure what personality is active now. She is like a helpless girl.

"Yub, I lost my cool. Sorry." Lily Gomes said.

Tyler touched his face. How did she know what I was thinking?

"Yub, Your face is still readable." Lily Gomes said.

Tyler shook his head and said, "Why don't I poison him. I have some strong poisons with me. "

"Why do you have those?" Lily Gomes said.

"Huh... Just to be safe. For self defence, Last time I almost got beaten up to death by that senior disciple Yan from Fire Valley." Tyler said.

Lily Gomes sighed.

The door of Warden's cell, where he takes rest, opened. Tyler and Lily Gomes walked while wearing the Phantom Mask. Her Cuffs were already removed by Tyler.

"Are you sure there is no problem?" She asked.

"Yeah... According to the other guards, I am now sleeping in the rocky mountains outside." Tyler said.

Lily Gomes nodded. They both arrived near the sleeping Giant warden. He is letting out big snores that are enough to blast normal people eardrums.

"From what I heard. He won't wake up at night, until someone wakes him up." Tyler said.

Lily Gomes looked at him then stretched her hand towards Tyler.

Tyler was confused and placed his hand above her. Lily Gomes slapped his hand and said, "The Poison."

"Oh... " Tyler gave the poison needle. To be more safe he gave her 10 needles.

"You even used a sturdy needle. What kind of poison is this?" She asked.

"I don't know. But enough to Kill Master Level Warrior." Tyler simply said.

Lily Gomes almost dropped the needle to the ground.

"Come on. He can defeat you with one slap. So we need at least ten needles of poison just to kill him." He explained.

Lily Gomes gave him the needles, "You do it."

Tyler took it. He is a little suspicious why she is hesitating.

"Oh no." Lily Gomes suddenly said.

"What happened?" Tyler asked.

"Don't you see that this cell suddenly became silent?"

"Oh no! " This time, Tyler sighed. Both of them looked at each other and turned around at the same time.

The Giant Warden is standing there.

The Giant Warden swung his hand towards them.

Mode Phantom

Before he could even escape, the Hand stopped. The Giant warden is looking at Lily Gomes. Lily Gomes already removed her mask. The Giant was confused, sad and had a hint of relief in its eyes.

The Giant looked at both of them and then walked towards its bed. He lifted the Bed and placed it to the side. There was a small door with a passage underneath.

The Giant then opened the door and looked at both. The Giant raised his hand. Tyler, who was confused by the sudden turn of events, tried to pull Lily Gomes away. But she didn't move and The Giant Hand patted her head.

"B-Big Brother." Lily Gomes cried.

"Brother?" Tyler was taken back.

The Giant then noticed Tyler. It snatched the Needles from Tyler's hand and ate it.

"No wait." Lily Gomes tried to stop him. But he ate it.

"No... turning... back. Live well..." He smiled at her. Even though the smile was a little ugly, it came from the bottom of his heart.

Lily Gomes dragged Tyler into the passage. She took a last look at her brother and disappeared. The Giant Warden placed his bed above the door and slept. This is going to be his last sleep.

The experiment Area of Crimson Blood Sect was active a few years ago. They usually kidnap travellers and conduct experiments on them.

Many years ago, a Young Boy and his Little sister were captured by the Crimson Blood Sect. The young man begged the researchers to let his sister go in exchange for full cooperation in any experiments.

The sister was released from one of the islands. She decided to join the Crimson Blood Sect and save her brother. She became Detective Lily Gomes. She gathered information about those researchers and gave information to their enemies and eliminated them one by one. But still she was too late. Her brother mutated into something. He destroyed the Lab.

Lily Gomes already found out her brother became a helpless puppet that stays in the dungeon of Isle of Blood. Her only goal was to kill her brother and free from his misery. She doesn't even care about revenge or anything. Today she got what she wanted. A Sense of relief and loss appeared at the same time.

She is narrating the whole story. Both Tyler and Lily Gomes are on the shore. Lily Gomes took a bottle that contained a boat. She then broke the bottle. The boat size expanded into a Regular size.

"You go. I still have to go back." Tyler said.

Lily Gomes nodded and said, "Thank you." before leaving.

The next day

Tyler 'woke up' above the rocky mountain.

"I heard that another masked man appeared and killed The Warden and saved his partner."

"The prisoners saw a masked man yesterday night."

"It is phantom blackwood who is making waves right now."

Tyler ignored the gossips of guards and went straight to the Guard in-charge.

"What happened Chief?" He asked.

"Ahh.. White. " The chief guard looked at Tyler with suspicion.

"The warden is dead. Someone assassinated him in his sleep yesterday and also escaped with the intruder." He said.

Tyler was 'shocked' by this news.

"Where were you yesterday?" He asked.

"I was sleeping in the rocky mountains." Tyler said.

"Hmmm... You just came yesterday and this happened." The Chief Guard murmured.

"Are you suspecting me? Can I even scratch that Giant Man in my sleep." He asked.

The Chief Guard nodded. It is difficult for a weak person like him to kill the Warden in sleep.

"Nah... I am just saying. Anyways, why are you here?" He asked.

"I am resigning. I don't like this Job." Tyler said.

The chief guard looked at Tyler without saying anything.

"You can't resign. You have to work for at least eleven months. Or pay up penalty to resign." He said.

A containing Lydia was placed before The chief guard. The chief guard was speechless again.

Tyler walked to the port.

"What happened?"

"Another person has infiltrated the prison." The man said.

Tyler walked past the Young Master Zhou Qingchen.

"It's you." Young Master Zhou Qingchen said.

"Hello. Young Master. I am happy that you remember me." Tyler said.

"Hahaha. Why are you here?"

"I work here. Nope, it should be, I worked here. Now I have resigned." Tyler said.

The man in charge of port looked at Tyler. He couldn't remember who he was.

"You came here to find about the Masked woman, right? But she escaped before you could even collect the information." Young Master Zhou Qingchen said.

Tyler's eye twitched but this reason seems to be flawless so he decided to go with it.

"As expected, Young Master, nothing escapes your eyes." Tyler praised him in 'astonishment'.

Young Master Zhou Qingchen's mood felt a little better.

"You are also here for the same reason, young master?" He asked.

"Yeah. But I am too late. " He shook his head in disappointment.

Tyler then left bidding farewell to Zhou Qingchen.

"Keep an eye on him. See if he got any information." Zhou Qingchen said to one of the Lackey.

Lackey nodded and disappeared.

Two hours later in the middle of the sea.

Tyler was playing with a giant needle. He is coating poison on it.

He suddenly asked, "Where?"

"On your left." Mana replied.

Tyler stabbed the needle in the thin air. It stabbed the Lackey who was beside him. Lackey was shocked. He has absolute confidence in his concealment technique. He didn't expect a Novice Warrior would notice him. What he didn't know is that the one who noticed his presence is Mana.

"Uh oh.. "

"What happened?" Mana asked.

"This guy. I saw him with the Young Master. New problem." Tyler mumbled. He then stored the body in a sea shell storage. He will dispose of it thoroughly later.

"Well it doesn't matter, I am leaving anyway."

Tyler arrived at the Sect. He was taken back because there is a bounty poster on every wall.

It is a hand-drawn picture of him wearing a Phantom Mask.

Phantom Blackwood - 30 million Lydia.

Tyler's eyes widened. He didn't know why but he felt a little excitement seeing this.

He removed a bounty poster and kept it.

Chapter 113: Departing

From time to time, there would be the Life Force of heaven and earth and unique materials of the plane that condensed into different creatures. These Creatures are rare in the south but in the north one can see a lot of creatures that have turned into humanoid form.

The world is cylindrical with pointed edges. 'The edge of the world' or also called 'The beginning of the world' is in the south pole. One can see a beautiful sight, if they visit there.

Most of the records point out that this world was indeed created by Ancient Gods. The secret of Ancient Gods and many things are in the North. That's why everyone is travelling to the North, to the other edge of the World. The place where One Piec- The place where Eternity is....

Lily Gomes is explaining everything to Tyler. .

"What is your real name anyways?" Lily Gomes asked.

"Oh ... It's Tyler... Tyler White." Tyler said.

"Looks like Phantom Blackwood got a bounty." Lily Gomes placed the Bounty poster on the table.

"I don't understand why you didn't get any bounty." Tyler asked in confusion.

"Well... I was easily defeated by 'you know'. So you are the only one who killed the Warden." She said,

"Well it doesn't matter, I am gonna travel south and glance at the Edge. Then I am gonna start my adventure to the north." Tyler explained his plan.

"Well I am worried about Young Master Zhou Qingchen retaliation for killing his Lackey," Tyler said.

"You don't have to worry. He doesn't care about useless people." She said,

"That's good. Also one more thing, Can you take care of Silvia after I leave." Tyler requested.

Sound of something shattering resonated. Tyler looked around and saw Silvia dropping a cup of Tea. She is showing a look of disbelief. Tears began to form as she ran away.

"Oh I forgot to tell you. Silvia came to visit you." Lily Gomes informed him.

"Thank you so much. Very helpful."

Tyler ran after Silvia and caught up with her. He walked beside her

"You see. The Sea is a Very Dangerous Place. "

"I won't listen to you. I hate you." Silvia ran away. Tyler's mouth twitched. He definitely can't bring her with him.

Later that day, Tyler visited all his restaurants. The White Auction Hall is also doing well lately. So he doesn't need to worry about anything.

Then he returned home just to find someone still sulking.

"Alright I will take you with me." Tyler compromised.

"You are the best, Uncle Horny." Silvia turned cheerful. What Tyler didn't say is that he would leave her here after returning from the south. It is dangerous for a non practitioner to travel north.

The sun had already set long ago, and the night soon enveloped. Tyler woke up in the middle of the night, he walked outside and looked at the sky.

"Uncle Horny can't sleep?" Mana popped out and asked.

Tyler gave her a look.

He recently got a habit of gazing at the stars. The sky with 3 moons and the countless stars are absolutely beautiful.

Tyler energy surged.

1 star Elite Mage Level.

"Did I just make a breakthrough?" Tyler was baffled.

"Your mind was calm. Which is more important for mages. That's why your Mage level broke through." Mana explained.

He is still a 5 star Novice Warrior. But a 1 star Elite Mage. Even Tyler didn't expect the sudden breakthrough.

The following month Tyler attended the Array Classes, went to work and copied many Materials and sold them via his managers.

Tyler ordered a Custom made ship. It will take a month to arrive. Meanwhile, He is preparing to become a travelling merchant. He is stocking up with unique things from these Islands and decided to sell them while travelling.

Merchants, Adventures and Pirates. If one caught a sight of another ship in the sea, the possibilities of them being one of these three is higher.

Tyler really doesn't need to stock up. All he needed was to check what was on demand and copy them multiple times. He made a lot of money by following this strategy.

A month has passed, and Silvia is packing up her things happily. Tyler bought some soul bound slaves to work for him. It's Very common buying trained slaves to sail the ship.

Tyler gave the contract to Mana. She would monitor them, she has experience of handling the workers in the ship.

Mana used the mask and transformed into a human form and took the task. Silvia was looking at her wary like her place had been stolen. Mana is still in small girl form and that made Silvia a little panic.

The newly acquired merchant ship gleamed under the sunlight, its pristine white hull standing out against the deep blue of the sea. The ship's sleek design featured a pointed bow, cutting effortlessly through the waves, and an elegant stern that tapered gracefully. Embellished with gold trimmings and intricate carvings of mythical sea creatures along its sides, the ship exuded an air of both sophistication and strength. The deck was spacious and meticulously maintained, providing ample room for the crew to manoeuvre and for goods to be securely stored.

Inside, the cabins were a marvel of efficient design and luxury, tailored to meet the needs of a prosperous merchant's crew. The main cargo hold, located in the belly of the ship, was vast and well-organised, with sturdy wooden partitions to keep the various goods separated and secure during the voyage. Above, the crew's quarters were divided into neat, compact rooms, each equipped with comfortable bunks, personal storage chests, and portholes that offered views of the expansive ocean. The captain's cabin, situated at the rear of the ship, was a testament to opulence, furnished with polished mahogany, a plush bed, and an intricately designed desk for charting courses and managing the ship's logs.

The ship's upper deck boasted several key features, including a state-of-the-art navigation room filled with the latest instruments, and a galley where the ship's cook prepared hearty meals for the crew. The dining area was a communal space, fostering camaraderie among the sailors with its long wooden tables and benches. The ship's rigging and sails were crafted from the finest materials, ensuring maximum speed and manoeuvrability. Every inch of the vessel reflected the merchant's investment, designed to ensure that both crew and cargo could travel safely and efficiently across the seas.

"Nice ship, let's go." Lily Gomes said. She already packed her things.

"Huh? What are you doing here?" Tyler asked.

"You asked me to watch over your little girl, right? Since she is going with you. I am also coming with you." She said,

Tyler just stared at Lily Gomes.

"Alright. Now I really don't have any purpose in life. So I just decided to visit the south with you. I can be a good navigator. You can trust me." she said.

Tyler didn't refuse her. Lily Gomes is strong and her detective skills are top notch. So he is happy to get her onboard.

"I don't see any of your employees onboard." Lily Gomes said while observing.

"Yeah. Because they don't wanna travel. They are happy with where they are." Tyler replied.

"Who is this cute little girl? Do you have a thing for little girls?" Lily looked at Mana and asked.

Tyler's mouth twitched and said, "she is my accountant."

Mana giggled.

The ship began to sail. Omar, who was crying on the shore, waved his hands at the departing ship. Everything happened so soon. His crush, his boss, just left with the new assistant. It was a little blow for him.

Yan Xi, who is also watching the ship from far away, sighed. He is glad that Tyler left. He can't touch the restaurants because Omar is watching them. But at least he can make it difficult for his fiancée. She had become closer to her enemy recently.

Yan Xi went to the medical hall to meet his fiancée Mathilda. The maid who almost got killed by him last time came out with an aggrieved expression.

"Senior Sister Mathilda went missing."

Yan Xi's face changed when he heard the news. He suddenly thought of Tyler's ship.

"That scandalous couple." He gritted his teeth in anger. He wanted to kill the maid but he couldn't because Mathilda's Master was present.

Meanwhile Tyler is showing around the ship to Lily Gomes. He even assigned her a room.

"Thank You Captain." Lily Gomes saluted jokingly.

"Captain?"

"Yes, you are the captain." Lily Gomes smiled.

Tyler smiled and left. He really likes the term 'Captain'. He arrived at his room. Inside his room there is a secret room behind the bookshelf. It is inspired by Lily Gomes' office. But the only thing is that there is no Spatial array. It's just a secret room.

Tyler looked at the girl who is cuffed in a chain sitting in the bed.

"Hello senior sister Mathilda." Tyler smiled gently.

He kidnapped Mathilda.

Chapter 114: Mana is not a person

It happened a few days ago. When Tyler received a visitor. Mathilda visited Tyler, she didn't bring any maids with her.

"It's rare for you to pay a visit." Tyler said. A few days ago he invited her to join his crew as Potion/pill master. She refused it politely. Tyler was kind of expecting her to change her mind.

"There is something I wanted to ask. There is an interesting thing I found out." She said,

Tyler poured a cup of Tea for her.

She took the Tea and sipped it gracefully.

She placed two pills on the table.

"Remember these pills?" She asked.

"Isn't this Blood purify pill you gifted me a few days ago? It is really the best pill for the warriors." Tyler complimented her.

"Well, about that. I only made ten of these and gave it to all my friends including you. I gave you only one. The thing is I got these two from your little sister black. She is a cute and kind girl, who gave it to me when I saw her yesterday." She said, Tyler was making a 'confused' face. He was about to say something but Mathilda stopped him.

"Don't interrupt me. Let me tell you. There is one thing I love the most other than girls is Alchemy. So I can recognize each and every pill I make. I am pretty sure this is the pill I made for you. But for some reason there is an extremely identical pill just beside it. Even the little texture, the medicine dose, everything is the same." Mathilda said.

"Does anyone know that you visited me?" He asked.

"Don't worry. Since this matter holds a big secret, I sneaked out. Even my precious maids don't know I visited you." She said and then she continued, "It looks like you have some sort of power, or a technique or a treasure that can copy-"

Mathilda suddenly stopped talking.

"Nice.... Ever heard of a phrase something like 'If you don't seek death, you won't die' or something like 'Curiosity killed the cat'?" When Tyler said that Mathilda, who was petrified, fell down.

"She is difficult to possess. Quick knock her down." Mathilda said. It's actually Mana who is possessing Mathilda.

Tyler took a small pill and forced it down on her mouth. She fell unconscious.

Back to the present day

Tyler looked at the girl who is cuffed in a chain sitting in the bed.

"Hello senior sister Mathilda." Tyler smiled gently.

"Hello Junior brother, can you remove these restraints from me?" She asked.

"You know that I can't do that, Senior Sister." Tyler shook his head helplessly.

"Didn't know that you have these kinds of hobbies." She teased.

"Aren't you afraid that I might unalive you?" Tyler asked.

"You could have done it already. Since I am still alive it means you don't have the heart to kill me. Maybe you fell for me. Well I don't mind. But I want a triplesome play with another girl. Then she paused a little and said "... And I want to get sandwiched."

"Ok. Stop...." Tyler was confused whether she got infected by Mana after getting possessed.

"No sandwich? At Least Tell me what are you going to do with me?" She asked.

"You might already be dead. If this situation happened before we got acquainted. But since we are friends, I can't kill you. I can't let you go either. I will think of a solution that can end without any tragedies." Tyler sighed. He has no idea how to handle the situation.

"I will make sure that you get food on time." Tyler left after saying those words.

"Hmm... A Comfy bed, Food on time. Nice... An introvert's Dream." Mathilda murmured.

Silvia and Mana are looking at each other. More like staring at each other. Silvia felt like she had found her rival. Mana felt it was amusing to tease her.

"I am the big sister." Silvia said.

"Mana is the Big Sister. Mana is older." Mana replied.

"I was the one who found Tyler naked on the beach. I was his first." Silvia didn't back down.

"Girl, Mana Played with Tyler- " Tyler who was passing by quickly closed her mouth.

He almost fell down when he heard Silvia saying that she was his first.

"Alright. Go to bed." Tyler asked Silvia to leave. Silvia made a face to Mana and left.

"She is still a kid, watch your words while speaking to her." Tyler warned Mana.

"She is not as innocent as you think." Mana whispered.

Tyler knocked her head.

"There is a small flaw." Tyler recalled what happened with Mathilda.

There is definitely a flaw. Let's say Tyler copies a bag of tomatoes into 10 copies using his copper pot. The chef finds out that there is one green tomato on each of the backs. They might even be more confused that all these green tomatoes look the same and weigh the same.

Not everyone is observant as Mathilda. But this is definitely a problem for Tyler who is surrounded by people like Lily Gomes and Mathilda. Mathilda already guessed his secret. So he has to be even more careful while copying things. The copper pot is supposed to be secret but 3 people already know about it.

"Mana is not a person. Mana is a Ghost. Also You are right, that Lily Gomes is dangerous." Mana said.

"Why do you say that?" Tyler asked in doubt.

"My room is near Lily Gomes' room. After Mana entered the room, Lily knocked on my door and asked how Mana entered swiftly without even opening the door." She said,

"What the -"

"Yub... Mana Just phased through the door. She was nearby but was turned around so Mana thought it was not a big deal. She didn't hear any door sound." Mana explained.

Tyler sighed. "At Least let's tell them that you are my Ghost Spirit."

Tyler doesn't want to lie to them. A lie cannot solve a problem. A Lie will multiply like how his copper pot multiplies things. To hide one lie, a thousand lies are needed.

Later that day Tyler introduced Mana to Lily Gomes and Silvia. Lily Gomes just nodded and she had a little suspicion. Silvia was a little dejected and envied how Mana always stays inside Tyler.

The Ship travelled South. The smell of the salt sea is a new experience for Tyler. It's been a week since the Journey began.

They saw many ships that were travelling from the south. And many are travelling towards it. Some ships resupplied goods in the middle of the sea. Tyler profited a lot from it.

"There is an Island after a few miles. " Lily Gomes informed Tyler. The Navigator room is full of sketches of maps and Islands.

"Then Let's stop there and take a break." Tyler said.

"Aye Aye captain." Lily Gomes saluted jokingly and went to inform the slaves.

"Your Prisoner is feeling bored. She is asking to get released." Mana phased through the wall and said. She made a chips eating motion and looked at her hand in surprise.

Then phased through the wall that she came in and opened the door and walked in. The chips didn't phase through with her.

Tyler stared at her.

"Get your own chips." Mana who got uncomfortable by his stare hid her chips.

"No... Why can your dress phase through?" Tyler asked.

"Because this dress is a Manifestation of Energy." Mana replied.

"Do you want to see Mana Naked?" Her eyes lit up.

"No sto-" Before he could finish his sentence Mana's dress disappeared revealing everything.

Mana then grew up into a young girl form and winked at him. When Tyler moved closer Mana disappeared the Chips fell into his hand.

"Not today Pervert. Not today." Her voice resonated. She then appeared again and ate all the chips swiftly and left again.

Lily Gomes came back.

"Mana was here huh." She simply said.

Mana appeared again and asked, "How did you find out?"

"There are no traces of chips or crumbs on his fingers nor mouth. And from what I know, you are a big foodie. Also you are the only one who can disappear fastly." Lily Gomes simply explained.

"This woman is scary." Mana murmured and disappeared.

"Should I control my mouth?" Lily Gomes asked awkwardly.

"No... It's good this way." He said.

"We Reached near the Island... Captain." She informed him.

Tyler's eyes lit up and walked towards the deck. He saw an island with a beautiful sun setting on its back. The scene looks absolutely beautiful.

"Huh.. but there is a problem." She said,

"What is it? " Tyler asked.

"The Island is not in the same position. We reached the Island faster." She pointed out.

Tyler and Lily Gomes looked at each other. They both sighed. Looks like this Island has some problems.

"Should we proceed?" Lily asked.

"Yeah. I trust your strength." Tyler said and continued inwardly, 'And also the thousands of attack and defend charms in his storage pouch.'

Meanwhile Inside the Island,

"Boss, some Merchant ship is coming." A pirate said.

"Hahaha.... Today we are gonna loot boys." The Pirate captain with hook attached to his left hand laughed.

Hundreds of his members cheered.

Hooker Hogan - Bounty - 15 million Lydia

Chapter 115: Hooker Hogan

"Situ, take care of the ship. If anyone tries to barge in. Use the cannons." Tyler gave instructions to the head slave Situ.

Situ, the man who looks like he is 25 years old, nodded. These slaves are bound by soul contracts so the possibilities of them betraying them is zero.

Situ has hope in his heart. Because when the day Tyler bought them he said ' I Promise you all that I will give you your freedom in the middle of my journey. '

After Docking the ship. Tyler along with Silvia, Mana and Lily walked into the Island.

"Is this Uninhabited Island?" Tyler looked around.

"I saw small cigarette buds on the shore, Some broken pieces of glass, probably from the broken rum bottle. There is definitely people here." Lily Gomes casually said, "Probably Pirates Hideout."

"So what are we gonna do here?" Silvia asked.

"Just look around and explore a little." Tyler replied.

"I wonder why The Island is not in the same position." Lily Gomes said.

"Is this floating island or something?" Tyler murmured.

"An uninhabited Floating Island?" Lily Gomes teased him.

"Alright my bad. But I have a feeling that we will get answers easily on this lonely Island somehow." Tyler looked around. It's just a forest, a sandy beach and a small mountain.

"Let me repeat this. We are not alone." Lily Gomes said.

"Boss, It's just 2 people and 2 kids." A pirate said while spying on them with a telescope.

"Déjà vu..." Tyler murmured and looked at the tree which looked like a butt.

"Boss, he knows we are here. He is looking right at us." The Pirate said.

"Gyatt. Definitely déjà vu." Tyler said.

"Our position has been compromised. Attack." Hooker Hogan ordered the people hiding to attack them.

"Oh look, it's the pirates. Let me go and bully them." Lily Gomes eyes lit up. She quickly disappeared.

Lily Gomes appeared between them. All the pirates dropped their sword.

"We surrender." They shouted.

"Huh?" Lily Gomes was confused. The expected bloody battle didn't happen.

"Why? Are you guys surrendering without a fight?" Lily is extremely upset.

"Because your Master Level Warrior Aura." Tyler who walked slowly behind said.

"Oh sh!t. I should have suppressed my Aura and appeared weak." She stomped the ground in frustration. The ground cracked, making her foot imprint. The Pirates backed off a little in fright.

"How about this? Let's start from the beginning. I will act as a weak girl and you guys will try to Bully me." Lily Gomes smiled and said.

The Pirates knelt down and cried, "Please don't kill us. We have kids at home."

"We just came here to rest on this island."

"Even though we are pirates, we only attack the weak, not the strong."

The Pirates cried one by one.

"We just came here to find a rare monster that kills people just by looking." The Pirates spilled all the beans without even giving Tyler and Others to open their mouths.

"Pirates are Cowards." Mana said.

"These Pirates are Cowards." Lily Gomes corrected her. Pirates are naturally people who seek wealth even in dangerous situations.

"These guys are disgraceful." A dignified voice resonated. A man walked out of the woods.

"Oh no it's the ugly monster. We made eye contact. Am gonna Die. It's so ugly." Lilly Gomes covered her eyes.

The man who walked out paused. He touched his face with his hook.

"That's our captain." One of the pirates said.

"Oh my bad." Lily Gomes responded.

Captain Hooker looked at his crewmates and said "You cowards. Where are your braveness? Just because this Bitc-"

Lily: "What?"

"This beautiful young lady is so powerful that she could lose dignity. Remember 'Men are Brave.' Even If we can't kill her. At Least try to capture the weak ones as hostages." Captain Hooker's Hook was launched from his hand. A rope is attached to his hand. The hook hooked Mana's shoulder and pulled her towards him.

"Captain, you are awesome."

"I knew the captain was amazing."

"Captain Hooker ... Captain Hooker."

"Now we have a hostage. Don't try to do anything foolish." Captain Hooker said. He was taken back when he saw others' reactions.

Silvia is looking at the beautiful flower on the ground. Lily Gomes is cleaning her ears using pinky.

As for Tyler, "How does he have a long rope inside his hand? Creepy."

Only then Captain Hooker noticed that the Hook doesn't even have a single blood. It definitely pierced this little girl's shoulder but she didn't even cry.

"Haha... You idiots. Let's have a one on one fight."

"Our captain is amazing."

His followers are all jumping out of joy without any situational awareness.

Captain Hooker gulped as he looked down, "Mana is getting bored."

Mana's head turned 180°. Captain Hooker almost sh!tting his pants. He dropped her down. But Mana didn't feel like doing anything, she just disappeared.

Mana appeared next to Tyler. The whole crew froze in shock. They slowly turned their head towards their captain. The captain's face is already in despair.

"Braveness is not just charging forward blindly. That's called being a fool. Braveness is the determination to move forward despite being extremely afraid.... You guys move forward, I will be back." Captain Hooker shouted while running away.

He ran so fast that he couldn't even feel the ground. So just closed his eyes and ran swiftly.

When he opened his eyes, he sighed in relief.

"I am sorry my crewmates. I will take care of your wives and daughters." He pledged.

"Motorfuker. You dare to have these thoughts." He heard his crewmate's voice.

"What is this? They have already become ghosts and now they are haunting me? Don't worry. I will definitely avenge you. Revenge is not getting blood for blood, it's living well. I will live well with your wives and daughters." He shouted while looking at the sky.

"So your Aim is just their Wives and Daughters?" Tyler asked.

"Of Course. I mean even their mothers too." He was smacked to the ground by Lily Gomes.

Captain Hooker looked up in confusion. He doesn't understand why He is still in the same place.

When he tried to run, Tyler lifted him up by grabbing his collar easily. He was running in the mid air while closing his eyes. That's why he was unable to feel the ground.

"Hooker Hogan - Bounty - 15 million Lydia. How did you even get that Bounty?" Tyler asked in confusion. He took the bounty poster from Hooker Hogan's pocket.

"Also you guys really should understand what your name means." Tyler sighed.

Hooker Hogan was Tied on a tree that looked like a pole.

"Any Ideas, why this Island moved?" Lily Gomes asked.

"I Don't know. But a huge earthquake happened. But surprisingly there was no Tsunami or anything. We even lost our ship and got stuck on this Island." He cried.

"A lost Giant Sea Monster?" Lily tilted her head in confusion.

"But aren't these sea monsters usually seen in the North?" Tyler is also confused.

"If it is really a Giant Sea Monster that moved this Island, then the South is not safe. Hope we don't meet them." Lily Gomes said.

She turned around to Captain Hooker. His hook was tied to a pole-like tree. Her eyes lit up with an idea.

"Now.. Be a good Hooker and dance." Lily Gomes said.

"I am not that kind of hooker." Captain 'Hooker Hogan' cried.

"Do it" Lily released a pressure.

Captain Hooker danced on the pole. Tyler, who is looking at the treasures that the Pirates stored, came back with a bored expression.

"These guys are too poor." He simply said.

The Pirates mouth twitched.

Meanwhile Captain Hooker removed his dress one by one.

Lily Gomes, Silvia and Mana all of them suddenly felt dark. Tyler used his hand to cover all of them.

"Let me watch. I am an adult." Lily Gomes said.

"No." Tyler said strongly.

"You. Put your clothes back or else, I will shove your ass on that pole." Tyler threatened.

Captain Hooker happily wore his dress.

Lily Gomes didn't look disappointed, instead she said, "Alright. We will see Tyler's Hooker dance later."

Silvia, Mana's eyes lit up.

Bang bang bang

Tyler gave three of them a light knuckle sandwich.

"Alright, we are leaving." Tyler waved his hand towards the pirates. According to these Pirates there is nothing special on this island.

"Please don't inform any bounty hunters that we are here." Captain Hooker requested.

"You can trust my character." Tyler said with a righteous voice.

A few hours later,

"Yeah If you sail that way. You find him with his crew. He lost his ship and was stuck on the island." Tyler told everything to the bounty hunters he met on the sea.

"Thank You so much. Please take this 1 million Lydia." The bounty hunters happily gave him money.

"Are you sure? I might be lying." Tyler asked.

"I believe you , sir. " The bounty hunters said. After all Tyler is a merchant with a luxurious ship. One million is nothing for him.

"Please don't tell this information to anyone." They requested.

"Don't worry, you can trust my character." Tyler said with a righteous voice.

The bounty hunters left happily in their boat.

"That's the twenty seventh million you got from selling his information." Lily Gomes was dumbfounded.

Tyler just turned around and smiled.

"My Character is a Merchant."
