Chapter 66: A Whole New World

"Pu... Cough, cough..."

Somebody was calling him as if from a distance, "Wake up Mr. Pervert."

After spewing out he didn't know how much water, Tyler finally woke up from unconsciousness.

Opening his eyes, Tyler gasped at the sky.

A boundless ocean stretched out to the horizon, illuminated by a crimson sun that covered half of the sky. Scattered clouds dangled from the sky like long, uncombed hair.

Hiss...

"Where the hell am I? What's that thing in the sky?"

Tyler was appalled. The unbelievably large sun right now was surreal to him.

He turned his head and saw a malnourished girl speaking to him.

"Mr. Pervert"

"Pervert ? Me?" Tyler was baffled. He felt a slight breeze all over his body. He looked down only to find out that he is in his zeroth year birthday suit.

Panicked, He quickly grabbed the copper pot and covered his last bit of dignity.

"Uncle pervert. Can you feed me? I heard that perverts love little girls like me. I will do anything. Can you please feed me?" The Little girl asked.

Tyler's thoughts went on to something else. He recalled how he got saved by the Mysterious Boy and also how he got separated from others. The mysterious Boy sent some information to everyone's mind when departing except for him.

After he was thrown into an enormous liquid in space which melted everything in his body. Including his clothes, spatial rings except the copper pot. Tyler checked the back of his hand and sighed in relief. The dragon tattoo is still there. So Zuzia is safe.

He tried to use Spiritual Energy out of reflex. But then he smiled bitterly. He forgot that he got crippled.

"Uncle Pervert? Are you dead?" Looking at motionless Tyler the little girl asked.

"Why am I a pervert?" Tyler asked.

"Because You were sleeping naked on the beach. So you are Uncle Pervert." The Little girl said.

"Can you please not call me by that name." Tyler said.

The little girl nodded and said, "Ok. Mr. Pervert."

Tyler's mouth twitched, "I meant the Pervert part."

The Little girl thought seriously and said, "Alright"

"Good Girl."

"Uncle Horny!"

"..."

The Little girl reminds him of Mana. Tyler felt depressed thinking about her. She is the only one who knows about his copper pot. The only one who stayed with him for a long time.

"Feng Feiyan. I will definitely Kill You." Tyler mumbled. If it is not for the curse and many other plot armour Tyler would have died. Even Tyler felt that.

The mysterious Luck, the Mysterious Boy and Feng Grotto Heaven. Tyler is too weak to understand these things. But he is not gonna stop. He will definitely find a way to become stronger and solve these unanswered questions.

"I wonder where everyone goes. I hope they are alright." Tyler sighed.

He got up. The little girl took a step back in fear. But her stomach grumbled, she walked towards him while gathering courage.

"You can do anything to me. Please feed me Uncle Horny. I am hungry." She said,

Tyler's eyes softened. Why did this Little girl have to go through this? He lifted her up. She felt like Air. The girl closed her eyes like something was about to happen. But Tyler just carried her and looked around.

He is on a vast beach. The sand was shaded in white colour like a salt mine. The blue ocean looks beautiful. Tyler was mesmerised.

"This is one of the worlds in the upper realm?" Tyler mumbled.

He looked behind, there was a vast forest stretched out. He couldn't see any people other than this Little girl. He carried the little girl on his hip. He held her like a kola and carried the copper pot in another hand.

"Where is the nearby settlement?" Tyler asked.

The girl blinked in confusion.

"Where are the other people living?" Tyler asked again.

The little girl pointed in one direction and said, "You have to walk a long way."

Tyler nodded and went the opposite direction. What a joke? He doesn't want other people to see him naked carrying a little girl and a copper pot.

The Girl noticed he was walking towards another direction. She panicked a little. Is he going to do something bad to her in a place where there are no people? The Girl thoughts ran wildly.

Tyler walked towards a coconut tree. He punched the tree. Even though his Cultivation is crippled. His body is tempered by Elemental body Cultivation. He is still stronger than Qi level Cultivators in terms of strength. But without Spiritual energy he would be easily defeated.

Coconuts fell to the ground. He looked for a rock and placed a coconut on it. He took another giant rock and Hammered the coconut. The coconut slipped and fell to the side.

The little girl giggled. She took a knife and gave it to him.

Tyler was scared. Why is the little girl carrying a knife? He doesn't know that she wanted to catch a fish. She tried to steal a fishing rod. But almost got stabbed by the vendor.

She took the knife and ran away. She was hoping to catch some fish with the knife. She decided to come faraway so that the shop owner won't chase her away. She found a Naked man on the beach. She thought it was those legendary rich perverts who love little girls and give them food. She only heard of those stories from the grandma who took care of her. She always warned that some perverts like little girls will give food and kidnap them.

As long as there is food she doesn't mind getting kidnapped because she couldn't resist the hunger. The girl looked at Uncle Horny who was using Knife to open the coconut. Her eyes turned to the coconut.

Both of them drank coconut water and ate the coconut meat or whatever it is called.

"Wait for me here." Tyler said as he entered the forest. The Little girl ate the coconut and waited for him obediently.

Soon Tyler walked out which made the little girl giggle again. Because Tyler is covering his lower parts with leaves which are tied by vines.

"Don't laugh or else you have to wear these too." Tyler said jokingly.

The little one stopped laughing and ate the coconut.

Tyler then sat on the rock and tried to use Lake View Art. He couldn't even sense the Qi.

"My spiritual root got broken." He sighed. He tried to communicate with Zuzia too. But he felt that she was in deep sleep. Even if she awakens, he is not sure if she can appear. Because she needs Tyler's Qi to exist in his body.

Tyler shook his head and took the copper pot. 'As long as this thing is here. I don't have to panic.' He thought.

Tyler then made a tent using sticks and leaves. He also asked the girl about the nearby village.

According to her it is a big big Village. She is an orphan. She lived with her granny. But her granny died a week ago. No one is there for her. She begged and stole food from others. But she was also caught red handed and got scolded. They didn't make it difficult for the little girl. But the fishing pole seller threw a knife at her out of anger. Luckily she was not stabbed and also took the knife and ran away.

Tyler patted her head with sympathy. Life is too hard but people have to live. He looked at the ocean. Maybe he should try to catch some fish.

Tyler then entered the forest again with his copper pot. This time he decided to copy the vines and make a net, to catch the fishes.

10 mins gone. 30 mins gone. The little girl is still sitting near the coconut tree and waiting for Tyler.

But it's been a long time, Tyler is nowhere to be seen. The little girl panicked. Does Uncle Horny leave?

She then ran towards the forest.

"Uncle Horny." The little girl shouted. She didn't get any reply. She panicked and went deeper.

Finally she sighed in relief when she saw the familiar silhouette. She moved towards him. She saw him panicking like a mad man.

"Why is it not working?"

"Uncle Horny?" The Girl called cautiously. She looked over his shoulder and saw Uncle Horny placing the vines inside the ugly Pot and taking it out. Then he repeated it again.

"What will I do? The copper pot is not working." Tyler mumbled in despair.

Tears began to appear in his eyes. Huh? Why am I crying? There is no way I would get emotional damage because of this.

A small warmth embraced him. It is the little girl. She wrapped his head and patted his head with her tiny arm.

"My Grandma always says it is ok to cry. Crying is also part of emotion. And we shouldn't hold back."

Tyler cried out loud.

Chapter 67: Silvia

In the forest near the beach, a grown up man wearing just some leaves as clothes is crying. While a little girl is consoling him.

Soon after Tyler wanted to dig a hole and bury his head like an ostrich. He is so embarrassed. It was really a big hit to Tyler that the copper pot didn't work.

So he calmed himself and analysed the situation.

First - The copper pot is not working because he doesn't have spiritual energy.

But it worked when he was just a mortal. The copper pot is a miracle treasure that goes against universe law. It doesn't need any fuel. So he struck out the first possibility.

Second - The Copper pot only works in Zi World. It doesn't work because he is in a new world.

Third - The copper pot lost its power. It is just a normal copper pot now.

Tyler felt his tears would burst again. He held back to save his image before this little girl.

"Why were you crying at the copper pot?" The girl asked curiously.

Tyler almost busted into tears again.

"Don't ask." Tyler simply said and kept the copper pot. Just like always he tied it in his waist.

"Let's catch some fish before it gets dark." Tyler then made a tent with coconut leaves and sticks he got from the forest. Then he made some nets.

It is afternoon when he is done with all his preparation. He went to the sea and swam a little towards a small Rocky place near the shore. The waves are milder here. He looked at the school of fishes.

He doesn't know how to catch the fish. But still he threw the net which is made of vines and tied up with stones at the end. He was able to capture some fishes.

But the fishes easily broke the vine and swam away. Tyler got mad and divided. One fish caught off-guard and was caught easily by his bare hands.

Tyler then used his strength to crush it. But that fish simply knocked him off and swam away.

Tyler was dumbfounded. That small fish has the strength of the qi refining realm?

He looked at the school of fishes. He might get killed by them if he tried to confront them. He slowly swam back. He saw a crab walking on the shore.

It was one foot size crab. Tyler looked around and lifted a heavy boulder and sneakily walked towards the crab. The crab noticed him and began to walk sideways faster.

Under the shade of the coconut tree, the little girl saw a crab running sideways and a horny uncle with only leaves and a copper pot on his hip was chasing after the crab while carrying a giant stone.

It was an amusing scene.

Evening the sun began to set. At the shore, Tyler and the drooling little girl are waiting for the fish to cook.

Tyler used the coconut coir to light up a fire. He then used his copper pot to boil the sea water. But the heat didn't even transfer. It gave him hope that the copper pot might recover in future.

Then he used coconut shells to boil the sea water. After many tries he was able to get a little salt.

He Split the fish in half lengthwise and draped each piece over a piece of hardwood. Place the wood and fish in a fire which is made by using Coconut Coir.

In the end, Tyler failed to catch the crab. So he went to fish again. This time he quickly stabbed one of the fish and brought it.

He sprinkled some salt on the cooked fish. The little girl and Tyler took a bite. Tyler left the taste average. But looking at the little girl's smile and satisfaction on her face he smiled. He is feeling so proud.

They felt full after taking a few bites. It makes sense because the fish is full of spiritual energy.

Tyler looked at the sky in awe and confusion. There are Three moons in the sky. The sky filled with stars and three radiant moons-one red, one white, and one purple. Tyler felt familiar.

"Mana's world." Tyler said. Yes it is the same moon he saw in the vision when he contracted Mana. Tyler is now pretty sure that he is in Mana's native world.

"Seriously, The world is so small. Or In my case the universe is so small." Tyler smiled. He went back to the tent. He saw the Little girl sleeping. Without disturbing her he laid next to her. He didn't sleep. He was keeping a watch. Even a crab can be dangerous here.

"I can live a century without sleeping." Tyler said.

Next day Tyler was woken up by the little girl.

Tyler looked at the big well in the middle of the forest. It looked like a well, it is a giant naturally formed pit. And there is water in it. He lost interest quickly.

"I forgot to ask. What is your name?" Tyler asked.

"My name is Silvia." Silvia said.

"Silvia, we are now going to your Village. I hope they won't try to attack me thinking I'm a pervert." Tyler said.

"But aren't you one, uncle Horny?" She asked.

Tyler suddenly stopped and turned around and the little girl stepped back in panic. But she still stopped. She wanted to pay him back for the food. So she doesn't care whatever he intends to do to her.

Her dress was instantly removed and Tyler then took some leaves and dressed her up. While dressing her up he saw a tattoo on her back. He ignored it and dressed her up. The little girl pouted. He hid her clothes and said.

"Act like Crying," Tyler said. The Little girl didn't understand but followed his words without asking any questions.

Tyler also acted like he was sad.

"Oh my beautiful sister. Why did you fall in the well?" Tyler cried out loud. Even Silvia was surprised. Why is he crying like that?

A man suddenly appeared. Tyler was able to guess his strength, which is around the 2nd stage of Qi Refining Realm. But for some reason the energy emitting from him doesn't feel like spiritual energy.

"@#£~" The man said. Tyler couldn't understand a thing.

He looked at the man in confusion. Tyler looked back at Silvia.

"Can you understand him?" Tyler asked.

Silvia nodded in confusion.

"Then translate what I say. We are forest tribe people. We only were leaves. My sister is a 16 year old beauty. She accidentally fell into this well. Can you help me?" Tyler said.

The Little girl was confused and said the same thing.

"Girl, I told you to translate, not repeat what I say." Tyler said.

But for some reason, the man understood Silvia's words. Tyler was baffled.

This man cannot understand what I am saying. But can he understand the little girl who is saying the exact same thing? Also Tyler couldn't understand a single word that came from the man's mouth.

Tyler decided to think about it later. He told the little girl to repeat again.

"Yes... Can you save her? She is white and beautiful like my little sister here. Also she was wearing a few mango leaves- " Tyler and Silvia didn't even finish speaking. But the man took off his clothes and divided into the giant pit that looked like well.

Tyler happily took the clothes and escaped with Silvia.

Tyler changed into the clothes. Silvia wore her old clothes. She still couldn't understand what just happened. Did Uncle Horny just steal something from someone? And he didn't even get beaten up.

Her eyes shined while looking at Tyler. She tried stealing and almost got stabbed. This is the first time she saw someone stealing so smoothly.

"Don't even think about trying this." Tyler warned her.

After travelling for quite a while. Tyler and Silvia hid in the top of tree. Tyler looked down and saw a giant Python. It is larger than the size of a tree trunk.

He couldn't even guess its strength.

"Let's leave, once that leaves." Tyler said. Silvia nodded.

Tyler then took the knife he picked up in the forest. He wrote something on the tree.

"Read this." Tyler said.

Silvia read the whole sentences.

"As expected." Tyler mumbled.

Silvia tilted her head in confusion.

"I wrote three different languages from my world. But she was able to read them perfectly. This little girl has some sort of ability. She can understand every language and also everyone is able to understand her when she speaks in another language. She probably didn't even notice it." Tyler said inwardly. He thought of the weird Tree tattoo on her back. Tyler felt that this little girl is full of mystery.

Little soon fell asleep on Tyler's lap.

"Don't worry. I won't sleep tonight. Just sleep well." Tyler said.

Next day Tyler was woken up by Silvia again. She looked extremely panicked.

"Good mor-" Before he could even say anything, Silvia closed his mouth with her tiny hands. She then made a 'shush' gesture and pointed at Tyler's back.

Tyler turned around. The Giant Python is sleeping on the same tree.

Chapter 68: Tiger Village

Tyler lifted her without any emotion and walked extremely slow without making any sound. He slowly climbed down the tree and walked away.

While walking slowly, Tyler saw a monkey. It is also walking extremely slowly like Tyler. It gave Tyler a look and made a Gangsta sign. Tyler was dumbfounded, but made Gangsta style back at the monkey. The monkey nodded in satisfaction and pointed him to a direction.

Tyler nodded back as thanks and walked towards the direction the monkey pointed.

"ahh.. Thank goodness we escaped." Tyler said.

The little girl nodded seriously.

Tyler then picked her up and ran. He doesn't want to stay in the forest anymore. Tyler began to see many animals as he travelled. Those animals are extremely strong. So it is not improper to call them a beast. Beasts, monsters are creatures that can Cultivate spiritual energy.

After running for a certain distance, he held her hand and walked carefully. They picked up some wild fruits to satiate the hunger. Time to time Tyler would try to put some fruits inside the copper pot and take them out. The Little girl noticed it but didn't ask anything. She felt that it is better not to ask him unwanted questions.

Tyler saw many birds while reaching near the village. Some were pigeons and some he had never even heard of before. They stood on the tree and looked at Tyler and the little girl curiously. Tyler threw a piece of fruit in the ground. One bird flew down and looked at the fruit for some seconds before it ate.

"Uncle Horny, we have arrived." Silvia said.

"Call me Tyler." Tyler said as he held her hand and walked out of the forest.

The village doesn't have any walls which made Tyler wonder how the heck they are protecting their village. He had many rows of houses and lands.

Tyler entered the village and looked at an old man, "Hello."

"@##&f+ @#ff c$¥€"

Tyler blinked in confusion, then looked at Silvia.

"Hello, are you new here?" Silvia whispered.

Tyler thought for a second and gave Silvia a piggyback ride.

"From now on repeat whatever I say to them and whisper whatever they say to me." Tyler said. He doesn't want others to know about this little girl's ability.

Having extraordinary abilities and weak strength will always bring danger.

"Hello Old man. I am new here. I don't understand your language. So this girl will translate it to you." Tyler said and the girl repeated.

"Oh I didn't know that this little girl knows other languages." The old man said and the girl whispered it back to Tyler.

"Alright Old man , I am actually her distant relative. I will be taking care of her."

"Oh... I didn't know that women had distant relatives. I heard that the Tiger Gang are trying to occupy the land around the west side. Be careful because that Little girl's house is also there." The old man warned him and also said , "Welcome to the Tiger Village."

Tyler smiled and walked inside. He wanted to learn language first. Or else he could only piggy back this girl forever.

He reached the little girl's house on the west side of the village. There are many people who are looking sad. Because their houses are about to get occupied by the Tiger Gang.

Tiger Gang is an infamous gang in the village. Even the village leader dared not to offend them. They have 1 star Elite level Warrior as their leader.

"What's an Elite warrior?" Tyler asked. The little girl shook her head in confusion. She doesn't know what that means but her grandma used to warn her by repeating these lines.

Tyler thought that the cultivation system might be different here. He can't even feel a single spiritual energy in the air. But there is totally a different energy in this world which he can feel slightly. Without studying the language, he might not be able to learn anything.

So his biggest priority is now to find a way to learn the language.

Tyler passed the crowd and entered the house that Silvia led to. He looked at the house. It is a small but neat house. There is a picture of an old lady hanging in the corner.

Tyler was surprised, because it is the first time he is seeing a picture. He only knows that back in his world they have to use profound image stones to capture the images. But here they stored it like a portrait.

Tyler then took the notebook and quill. He asked the little girl to write the alphabets of their language and asked her to teach him.

The little girl nodded seriously. And began to teach the letters. Tyler also tried to write them. The little girl's handwriting was so good that even Tyler felt a little ashamed. Even though he doesn't understand the language, the letters seem more beautiful when Silvia wrote.

Just like that the day passed. Next day morning someone knocked on the door. Tyler opened the door. He saw a man wearing a dress that screams 'I am gangster' looking at Tyler curiously.

"-&##@ ? "

Again Tyler can't understand what he is saying.

Tyler made a gesture to him to wait and called Silvia. Silvia is still sleeping.

But the man was still shouting something and was about to barge in.

"Wait bro." Tyler stopped the man, his hand touching his shoulder.

Tyler felt the surrounding become so noisy. He saw that people in the street were pointing at him and whispering something in shock.

The man looked at his shoulder that got touched and his eyes turned into fury.

He punched Tyler in the face.

" @#££_ ¢$€€¥ " He said some words and kicked Tyler in his stomach.

He then raised his leg to stomp Tyler's Head.

Tyler suddenly got up and punched the man's jaw. The man got hit but it was not severe. But the anger in his eyes grew. Then Tyler hit the man's jaw with the copper pot. The man spun and fell down. Two of his teeth got knocked. Tyler's Leg stomped the Man's head.

A huge silence appeared. Everyone looked at Tyler in shock.

Tyler didn't care about these people and dragged the knocked out man inside and closed the door.

Tyler poured some water on his face to wake him up.

The man woke up and saw Tyler and a little girl standing before him. He tried to pounce on them but he was tied up and couldn't get up.

"@#££ &_@+ " He said.

Tyler looked at the little girl. Silvia whispered, "Do you know who I am?"

"Well Based on your attitude, I assume that you are a member of Tiger Gang," Tyler said. Silvia repeated it back.

The man who got tied was baffled. So the other guy doesn't know the language. Is he a foreigner? The man thought.

Silvia hid behind Tyler in panic. What just happened? Why did this uncle Horny capture a Tiger Gang member?

Tyler scratched his head and asked, "Why did you come here?"

"I am here for that girl. Who are you? Let me leave and also stay away from that Girl. My Gang Leader has eyes on her. He ordered me to bring her." The man said as Silvia repeated. She panicked as she hid behind Tyler.

Tyler patted her head and told her not to worry. He then took his copper pot again. The man suddenly had a bad feeling.

The copper pot knocked him off again.

He then searched his pocket and found a small sack. He saw some coins with numbers and papers.

Tyler was confused. Where are the spirit stones? Or atleast Gold and silver?

"What type of currency is used here?" Tyler asked the little girl.

The girl pointed at the coins and papers and said, "Lydia"

"These things are currencies?" Tyler was dumbfounded. He is not sure whether paper money is a good idea or a bad idea. He also noticed these papers have numbers on it. 10, 20, 50 and 100. The coins also have numbers on it, 1, 2, 5,10.

"They are called Lydia ? Huh?" Tyler kept the money and threw the wallet. He felt little regret because he threw some paper from his clothes yesterday thinking that they were useless.

He needs to learn the language faster and learn the basics.

"We have to go. Their friends might come later. Pack up your things." Tyler said.

The little girl nodded. She just took a small picture of her grandma.

Tyler and Silvia left the house.

Few hours later the door of the house burst open. Few people who are no less stronger than the tied up man entered.

"Who dares to attack a member of our Tiger Gang?" one of the man shouted.

"Untie me First." The man said.

"Oh sorry." He helped him.

"Where is that girl?" He asked.

"She escaped with some foreign man."

The man who is helping him untie stopped and tied his wrist even tighter.

"Wh- what are you doing?"

"You failed Boss's mission. Like hell I will help you." He replied.

Meanwhile Tyler and the little girl are eating meat buns.

Chapter 69: Aurora

Everyone in the Tiger Village fears the Tiger Gang. Not because of the 40 members. They fear them because of their Boss who is at Elite Warrior level.

"What are these Warrior levels?" Tyler asked as the Little girl beside him repeated.

He is talking to the same old man who he met when he entered the village.

"There are two types of Immortal practitioners. Warrior and Enchanters." The Old man said.

Immortal Practitioners are nothing but another name for Cultivators. Tyler understood that.

"Warriors use Aura. They train their body to the peak. They also use martial arts to fight." The old man explained.

"Don't block the way."

A man, holding a saber that was as tall as an adult, nudged Tyler and the old man to a side of the street when he passed by.

"That person is also a warrior." The old man said.

Tyler, Silvia and the Old Man stepped away from the street. He happened to be approaching a booth that was selling shrimp dumplings. The owner of the booth was an old man and a great fishing master. He asked, "Hello Friend, would you like some shrimp dumplings?"

Tyler asked with a smile, "How much does it cost?"

The boss replied, "It's only 5 Lydia per piece."

Han Fei paid 50 Lydia and had the shrimp dumplings in front of the booth while the boss stared at him with a smile. Silvia and the Oldman also picked one and ate it.

"It's delicious." Tyler said. The boss nodded in satisfaction and went back to work.

"Enchanters can use spells and make arrays and all. They use Prana to practise immortality. They are usually weak at close combat." The Old Man continued explaining while eating.

cough cough The old man coughed and Silvia gave him a glass of water.

"Thank you sweetheart." The old man patted her head.

"Actually, there are more sub professions too. My old mind couldn't remember all of them." The old man said.

The Old man then took a small token and gave it to Tyler, "Go to this school and find a Teacher called Avrora. Show her this token, she will teach you all the basics."

The Old man walked away, "Also be careful the Tiger Gang will soon receive the news and will start searching you soon."

The Old man disappeared into the crowd.

Tyler picked up the little girl and walked towards the school. As he walked he saw some people wearing red bandanas that had tiger cravings on them looking for someone.

One of the men looked at the paper in his hand and looked at the Little girl. He was about to turn around to call his companion.

But a hand blocked his mouth and dragged him away. Tyler used the copper pot to knock him unconscious. He placed him on the street side and picked up the girl then left. He also made sure to cover half of her face with the bandana.

This time he made sure to evade the Tiger Gang. Soon he reached the school.

It is a small school with few childrens. Tyler tried to walk in but the watchman didn't let him in.

Tyler showed the Token. The watchman led him to Teacher Avrora with respect.

Tyler saw a woman who looked 25+. She is wearing glasses and has a strict face. She is a stunningly attractive woman with sexy hip-length, black hair that has bangs hanging on the right side , green eyes, a mole under her left eye, red round glasses, one earring on her left ear, and a voluptuous figure.

Looking at the token she smiled bitterly.

"Since My father sent you. I will help you." Aurora said and told them to follow her.

'So that old man is this beauty's father' Tyler thought.

They reached a small office. Aurora closed the door and sat on her seat.

The Tiger Gang is famous for bullying the villagers and exhorting their money in the name of protection fees. The head of the Tiger Gang's name is Abel. He is a Two Star Elite Warrior.

"Can't even capture a little girl." He slapped the man who is a 5 star Novice Warrior.

"Sorry Boss. But someone intervened. And one of our men got caught off-guard." The man who got slapped said.

"Is that guy an Elite Warrior?" Abel asked.

His underlings shook their heads.

"Then is he some genius at Novice Warrior?" He asked again. They all shook their heads in hurry.

"Can't even handle a mortal?" He excluded the aura which made everyone tremble. His power is equal to the fourth level of Foundation Building Realm. The Novice Warrior is in the room shaking in fear.

Suddenly an eagle flew towards him and threw a Letter.

Abel took the letter and read it. His hand shivered in fear. But quickly controlled it.

"Why are you guys standing here? Are you waiting for lunch? Go and Find that girl. " He shouted at his subordinates.

'If I don't deliver her, they will kill me.' Abel thought.

"Where the heck are you hiding? I will definitely find you as long as you are in this village." He gnashed his teeth and mumbled.

Avrora agreed to teach him the language.

A week passed, Tyler stayed inside the Avrora's house and slowly learning. She said that her husband won't come here for the long time. Outside the whole gang is searching for Silvia.

Avrora also heard about it. She laughed mockingly. It seems like she has deep hatred for the Tiger Gang leader.

Tyler was able to understand some simple conversation and was able to speak with a weird accent.

Tyler gulped loudly whenever Avrora sat near him to teach. He could smell her scent which made his concentration break.

Avrora noticed it and teased him a little like showing cleavage 'accidentally'. Tyler almost couldn't resist.

Silvia is the only reason that they stopped at teasing level. When Tyler stares at Avrora, Silvia would say 'Horny Uncle' and leave with a pout. Tyler was a guy who never goes after other people's wives. He only did that once. But what happened with Lan Couples was an accident.

So he didn't let his instructive thoughts win.

That's what he thought.

But the next day Tyler woke up with naked Avrora.

"I really have to control this habit." Tyler said to himself. He tried to wake her up.

But Avrora was so tired she refused to wake up.

"Hey what does @#£& @#£& means? You were shouting it in the middle of our intense session?" He asked in a broken accent.

"It means the wrong hole, Idiot." Avrora gave him a look and went back to sleep.

Tyler then took a bath and dressed up. Silvia suddenly appeared before him.

"Hello silvia." Tyler extended his hand to pat her head. But Silvia caught it.

She sniffed it.

"You smell like Big sister. Uncle Pervert." She said as she left while pouting.

Tyler scratched his head in embarrassment. He sniffed his hand but couldn't find any smell other than the soap he used.

Tyler shook his head. He had a one time relationship with many girls and he knows that every girl has a dog nose. They were able to sniff every single detail of their man. He didn't expect even a little girl to also have that ability.

Another week passed, Tyler was a quick learner. He was able to write, read and converse the language better now. At night he would have some practical sessions with Teacher Avrora.

"It's been two weeks and still you couldn't find a little girl?" Abel yelled at them.

Everyone was silent because they didn't know what to say.

"Go and search every single house in the village and also make sure our people patrol the outer area of the village to check every carriages and carts." He ordered them.

"Where the heck are you?" He looked at Silvia's picture and said,

Silvia is eating with Tyler and Abel. Tyler heard a knocking sound. He and Silvia quickly hid while carrying the plate and glass of juice.

Tyler understands that Avrora hates her husband. And her husband almost never visited her house. So he was curious who had arrived.

Avrora opened the door, it was Tiger Gang people.

"What do you want?" She asked with a hint of arrogance in her tone.

"Sister - In - Law. Sorry to disturb you. Boss ordered us to search every house in the village to find a little girl." One of the gang members said.

"Hmmm... You have the guts to search for your leader's wife's place." Avrora said.

"We don't dare. We don't dare." The man panicked.

"Then why are you still standing here?" She asked angrily.

"We will leave." The sub-ordinate said and left with others.

Tyler, who is watching everything, placed the plate on the table and drank the glass of juice. Then he spewed the juice.

"Dyamnn.... She is Tiger Gang leader Abel's wife?"

Chapter 70: Way to Recover

Looking at the dumbfounded Tyler, Avrora laughed.

"A fall into the pit, a gain in your wit! I'm teaching you a lesson. Next time when you try to rail a woman, make sure to check her background." Avrora said

"I am pretty sure I checked the background." He glanced at her ass.

Avrora laughed as she took a cigarette and smoked.

"Want one?"

"I don't smoke."

"What about this?" She pointed to crotch.

10,000 words skipped.

Avrora was the beautiful flower in the village when she was young. She had a lot of suitors. But suddenly, Abel appeared on this island. He formed a Gang and used his power to subdue everyone. He saw her and forced himself on her. Avrora was really helpless. She had no other choice. She became his wife. At first he used to visit every night, but as time passed he lost interest in her and visited her barely.

She also saw him forcing many other girls in this village and also nearby villages. She never liked him. All she wanted was to see him die. When she heard that someone fought against the Gang she was delighted. When she found out that it was Tyler she didn't even hesitate to do those things with him.

"I thought you were a warrior or a mage. But it seems like you are neither." Avrora sighed while leaning against Tyler.

"Due to some incidents, I lost my powers. I have to find a way to fix them." Tyler said.

"Then you only have to survive till the next Docking. After that you can go to the sect and try your luck to recover." Avrora said, which made Tyler's eyes lit up.

"What is this Docking about? A ship?" Tyler asked in confusion.

Avrora, frozen, turned towards Tyler and said, "You are not from this world."

Tyler stiffened.

"You really are not from this world. Are you an ascender? But Ascenders are usually at Master or Grandmaster level. You are not even a Novice Mage or Novice Warrior." Avrora tilted her head in confusion.

Tyler told her how Cultivation cc selected him. He didn't mention the rich part or his fight against Immortal.

Hearing this Avrora was surprised.

"Wow... The Lower Realm has many mysterious things."

"Well, even though it is late. Welcome to Oceandria." She began to explain about the world.

Oceandria is the name of this world. Because the whole world is covered with the Boundless Ocean. Another name for this world is Boundless World.

The world is so vast. Many adventures, Pirates, Merchants travel in the ocean more than half of their lifespan.

The Ocean is very dangerous and even Immortals are afraid of venturing deep alone. Everyone in the world is to reach infinity.

"Infinity?" Tyler asked.

"Infinity is at the End of the world. According to the Myth, Those who can touch Infinity can become God." She said seriously.

Tyler was baffled. What kind of world he was thrown in. When he heard the word 'God' he couldn't help recalling the Mysterious person who helped him in the void. He had a powerful presence. Even Immortal Feng Feiyan or that princess seems like an Ant before that mysterious person.

"Then what is docking?" Tyler asked.

Avrora smiled mischievously and said, "You will find out yourself. The undocking will happen in a few days."

After breakfast, Tyler continued with the class.

Suddenly someone knocked on the door.

"I think the things you requested have arrived." She said,

Tyler and Avrora hatched a plan for how to evade the Tiger Gang for a few days.

"I want something that can make him angry." Tyler said.

Avrora thought for a second and she went to her room and came back with something.

"This is something he bought for me." She gave it to him.

Tyler laughed, "But it is not used."

"Oh then let's use it." She laughed evilly.

"Oh I also want a bag of millets," Tyler said.

Avrora nodded. Tyler already told his plan. She also gave him a map of the whole island. Tyler noted the other villages and other places where he can avoid the Tiger Gang.

"Boss, I think they are not in the village." Lackey said.

Abel Kicked him and sent him flying. He also understood that he was just totally pissed off.

"Tell me if there is any house you didn't search?" Abel asked.

"Except for your house. We searched all the houses." One of the subordinates said.

Abel looked at him with a murderous gaze. The sub-ordinate panicked.

"Go and search there too." Abel said.

Avrora entered her room and saw Tyler was making something.

" They are gonna search this house ." Avrora said in panic.

"Should I leave now?" Tyler asked.

"Nope. I noticed some Tiger Gang members are watching over this place." She said,

"We don't have time." Tyler took the map and said, " Go to this place with a few people and set up that thing I mentioned before. Don't forget to leave a gift that can make him angry."

"I can do this. What about you?"

"I will buy sometime. I will take Silvia and run." Tyler just took the millets in a small bag.

Avrora suddenly kissed him. He kissed her. They might not be able to meet again. So this is probably a Goodbye Kiss.

"I had fun for the last few days. Thank you." She said,

"I hope you can start a good life after his death." Tyler said and left. Tyler has his own goals and Avrora has her own life. Both just met for a few periods of time and shared their happiness.

Tyler took Silvia and walked out of the main door. The guy who was watching was baffled. Because a Middle-aged man and a small girl with a fake moustache are walking out.

He looked at the girl with a fake moustache and looked at the picture in his hand.

He walked towards them.

"Stop right there. Hand over that girl."

"What the- How can you see through her disguise?" Tyler asked.

The Gang member is dumbfounded. What disguise? The word 'disguise' lost its respect. He looked at the fake moustache and tried to remove it.

Bang

He was smashed by the copper pot.

"Haha... I gotcha." Tyler laughed. His plan was to make the opponent lower his guard and catch him off guard.

Then he took his wallet and ran. Tyler needs money to survive. He doesn't mind robbing his enemies.

Avrora also called some of her people and went to the spot Tyler pointed with the materials. She is pretty sure that she might not be able to survive if she stayed in her house. On the way, she met her father. He smiled at her and they both took the materials and went to the place.

..... ◆ ● ◆

"Boss we found him." One of the subordinates said.

"Was he staying in my house?" Abel asked calmly.

They nodded.

"I should have killed that b!tch after I enjoyed her that day." Abel shook his head with regret.

"Should we chase Madam Avrora?" The sub-ordinate asked.

"I will take care of her later. Capture that little girl first. Remember I want her alive." Abel ordered.

"Wait. I will also join." Abel decided to chase them. The undocking is gonna happen soon. He has to find that Girl before the next Docking.

Tyler and Silvia ate steam buns as they walked into the forest. Tyler liked the forest more than the village. After he left, few people began to walk in the same direction.

Tyler took the millets and threw on the ground and went even deeper. With the map in his hand he was able to avoid other dangerous creatures easily

But the Tiger Gang is the Gang that lived in the village so they were able to easily guess and predict where Tyler is heading to.

Abel looked at the map and pointed at the place, "You take 10 people and go this side. I will take the second path. We can ambush him inside here."

They split their team and walked in different paths.

Tyler and Silvia are sitting on top of the rock. He was looking at the sky. Suddenly the birds in the first and Second passage flew in the sky.

"Let's take the passage connected via the third passage." Tyler said and Silvia followed him.

"Why are there so many birds?" One of the gang members asked.

"I saw a pile of millet by the lakeside and some small birds feeding on them earlier. When we arrived, the birds took to the air." Another one replied.

"Something does not seem quite right. Millet? How could there be millet there? " The man asked.

They also saw another flock of birds flying in the second passage.

"Oh no! We have been exposed. After them! Hurry!" Abel's eyes widened.

"Yes!"

Abel and his gang moved through the forest swiftly. The opponent is smart but so what? Can a mortal go against Immortal Practitioner?
