

R. Paradise 111

Chapter 111

The clashing sound came from inside the passage as Su Xiao and Takatsuki Sen fought.

“I’m gonna kill you and smash your head.”

Takatsuki Sen’s personality changed greatly in the kakuja state.

Takatsuki Sen’s appearance was similar to the store manager’s kakuja shell, but Takatsuki Sen’s kakaja shell was obviously bigger.

Compared with the store manager, Takatsuki Sen had less combat experience, but she was stronger and faster.

Su Xiao sided to evade the claws formed by the kagune, and dragon flash swayed in front of him, blocking the big mouth which was preparing to bit him. Before the big bloody mouth closed, Su Xiao slashed.

Crash.

Takatsuki Sen bit on dragon flash, and the blade was on Takatuki Sen’s upper jaw.

Holding the handle with both hands, Su Xiao made efforts with his waist, his whole body was like a strong bow full of power, the power was transmitted from his waist into his arms, and the long sword cut up.

Puchi!

Takatsuki Sen’s upper jaw was wounded; dragon flash was blocked by the bones formed the by kagune.

This sword was taking out her life, the upper jaw was open, and the pain of the burning energy from Qing Gang Yin made Takatsuki Sen’s red eyes began to turn up.

“Hmm.”

After a mourn, Takatsuki Sen’s two claws waved wildly, Su Xiao immediately jumped after taking out of his sword.

“Ha, ha.”

Blood rushed along Takatuki Sen’s mouth, this attack really scared her a lot.

If dragon flash was sharper, Takatsuki Sen’s shell head might have been cut open.

Although it was the shell of kakuja, not Takatuki Sen’s real head, under this kind of injury, Takatsuki Sen could only let Su Xiao rub on the ground afterward.

“It hurts, you bastard, you’re definitely not a pure human, like the guy from Hakubitei’s experimental product? CCG was crazy.”

Hakubitei? Su Xiao had not heard this title before, perhaps that was the organization that CCG cultivated their combat power from.

Su Xiao rushed forward with cold expression after splashing the blood on the dragon flash.

As he stepped forward, Su Xiao changed his strategy.

As an SSS-class ghoul, Takatsuki Sen had high Vitality. He may not be her opponent in endurance. He must find a way to kill her directly.

Now the battle hit a dead end, as both sides could not understand each other thoughts in a short time, with the last experience, Takatsuki Sen used her two claws to attack Su Xiao as to avoid the pain from the Qing Gang Yin.

Although the posture was not elegant, it could keep her having the upper hand. This girl was very thoughtful.

After rushing to Takatsuki Sen, Su Xiao still gave a routine attack using his sword. He always attacked the throat or the heart, he did not consider other places of the body.

Since he attacked, it was necessary to kill the opponent quickly.

Takatsuki Sen's kagune on her arms met the attack which were two kagune like huge swords.

Ding.

The crisp sound from the gold and iron clashed, Takatsuki Sen's kagune raised, intending to push Su Xiao.

After two exchanges, they knew each other a bit more. Su Xiao's strength was a bit weaker than Takatsuki Sen, but the gap was not big.

Su Xiao stepped back two steps, as he took his second step, he stepped on a withered bone.

The withered bone had been in existence for a long time. After Su Xiao stepped on it, it broke. His body focus was unstable, and he intended to retreat for one step to stabilize his body focus.

Takatsuki Sen was ecstatic in her mind, this opportunity did not appear often, she was very lucky today.

She controlled the huge kagune shell and rushed to Su Xiao. The two kagune like big swords, the white paw formed by a kagune and the big mouth attacked Su Xiao at the same time.

Su Xiao kept the posture of retreating, it seemed that his body was unstable, but he did it on purpose.

How could he make this kind of low-level mistake? He was good with swords, combat strategy, combat skills, and murdering his enemies.

Su Xiao vaguely smiled, his body bowed and stepped with one leg on the ground, pushing his whole body forward.

Takatsuki Sen's two big kagune swords and claws did not cause any injuries to Su Xiao, and he surprisingly rushed into her arms.

Su Xiao backhanded the handle of dragon flash.

The other hand tucked the end of the dragon flash, the slender blade stabbed into Takatuki Sen's mouth. He directly pointed at Takatuki Sen's throat and organs in her body.

Puchi!

Dragon flash attacked smoothly, and it penetrated deeply into Takatuki Sen's mouth. The tip of the sword even reached her chest, Takatsuki Sen's original body which was under the kagune shell was extremely freaked out.

If this attack stabs her, it will pierce her head.

Takatsuki Sen's kagune shell was 4 meters high, while Takatsuki Sen was short, only 1.5 meter.

Takatsuki Sen's original body could still move under the kagune shell.

If you are stabbed from the top of the head by a sword, you will move down, and Takatsuki Sen did it as well, she immediately moved her body down.

Puchi!

The sharp tip of the Sword stopped in front of Takatuki Sen's nose, her pupil was trembling because she was almost dead.

After attacking, Su Xiao stepped on Takatuki Sen's shoulder with the kakuja shell.

In Su Xiao's view, this attack should be effective, even Takatuki Sen was not dead, she may injure.

But who could think of that Takatsuki Sen escaped this attack because she was short, her short body saved her life?

The dull red one eye on the kakuja shell suddenly became bright and bigger, Su Xiao murmured that something bad was going to happen.

Sure enough, a white paw slap to his chest.

Boom.

Su Xiao has slapped far away, and there were several blood marks on his chest. However, he was not weak. With the power of the blow, dragon flash cut through Takatuki Sen's entire chest of kakuja shell, forming a wound which was nearly one meter.

“Cough cough.”

Blood rushed out from his throat, Su Xiao's mouth had some blood. A rust taste filled his mouth.

Su Xiao pressed his chest by one hand, as he felt pain. His ribs were supposed to crack, the injury was not heavy, he still could continue to fight.

Su Xiao's injury was not too heavy, but Takatsuki Sen's was.

Takatsuki Sen was an ukaku ghou, although she was kakuja, she didn't have good resilience.

The kakuja shell was almost smashed, her blood flew out like water.

“Crack, crack.”

Takatsuki Sen's kakuja shell began to break and gradually dispersed like a dead standing tree.

Less than a few seconds, Takatsuki Sen became a short girl with 1,5 meters height from original 4 meters height.

Takatsuki Sen's bandages were scattered, revealing a white cheek and long light green hair.

The long hair is scattered on Takatuki Sen's back. Her hair was not soft and somewhat lifted, the layers were distinct, it looked beautiful.

“The mistake was a bait, right? I am stupid. How can you make such mistakes, for being stupid, I should pay the price.”

A breeze blew through the nearby passage, Takatsuki Sen immediately noticed some abnormalities.

Touching the bandage on her face, she found that her appearance had been shown in front of her enemy, Takatsuki Sen immediately wanted to cover her face.

But she ignored one thing. Should she cover the nipples on her chest first or was her face more important? If her face is not seen, she will feel less embarrassed?

She realized that her appearance had been seen by Su Xiao, Takatsuki Sen no longer made meaningless moves but pulled the bandage on the chest to make sure her body was covered.

“What a weird clothes.”

Su Xiao spits out bloody saliva.

The current situation was that she was hurt heavily, so Takatsuki Sen could no longer use kakuja shell.

The Rc cells in the ghouls' bodies were not infinite. After the Rc cells were too low, they could not even use kagune. Of course, Rc cells could recover after a rest. Eating human flesh or swallowing other ghouls could speed up the recovery.

Without kakuja shell, Takatsuki Sen was almost like losing weapons.

Su Xiao rushed to the front of Takatsuki Sen and slammed down the long sword.

Takatsuki Sen's eyes were full of helplessness. Her strength was not weaker than Su Xiao, but the mistakes she made was too severe, it put her at risk of losing her life.

The ukaku on the back shoulder appeared, Takatsuki Sen intended to defend by the ordinary kagune.

The attack that kakuja shell could not completely defend against, could ordinary kagune defend? The answer was no.

Just as Su Xiao prepared to cut down to win this fight, the ground beside him had a sharp object broke through the ground.

The sharp object hit Su Xiao's shoulder, not in a fatal position, and the speed was not too fast, it seemed that it didn't want to kill Su Xiao, just want to force him back.

As for this helpless situation, Su Xiao gave up stabbing Takatsuki Sen and jumped sideways. After landing, he looked at the sharp item that broke out.

“This is, IXA?”

That was Arima Kisho's Quinque.

Chapter 112

Clop, clop, clop

Slow footsteps came, Arima Kisho walked out of the passage.

Wiping off the blood at the corner of his mouth, Su Xiao looked at Arima Kisho.

“Arima Kisho, do you know what you are doing?”

Just a few seconds ago, Arima Kisho attacked him surprisingly with Quinque, which was clearly to protect Takatsuki Sen.

“If you come a bit later, I would've been killed by this guy.”

Takatsuki Sen went near Arima Kisho, a ghoul was standing side by side with a ghoul Investigator.

“Byakuya, I didn't want to talk to you about this before we get out, but it seems like I need to say this now.”

Arima Kisho stood beside Takatsuki Sen, he was not even vigilant. It seemed that the two were familiar.

“What, are you going to attack me with Takatsuki Sen?”

Su Xiao clenched dragon flash tightly, ready to flee.

In the current state of Takatsuki Sen, he had 90% of possibility to win, but with Arima Kisho, he could only withdraw strategically.

“Don't be so vigilant, I don't want to fight with you, it's meaningless.”

Arima Kisho took up his Quinque and asked Takatsuki Sen to stop her actions.

“Shit, this bastard wants to cut off my head several times, and I should leave it?”

Takatsuki Sen was obviously unwilling, staring at Su Xiao with hatred.

“We cooperated 13 years ago, but it does not mean that we will continue to cooperate now, Kaneki Ken is dead.”

Arima Kisho's words made Takatsuki Sen shocked.

“Got it.”

Takatsuki Sen was angry, she turned her head and no longer looked at Su Xiao and Arima Kisho.

“Are going to work with this guy? He killed a lot of my subordinates.”

“I also killed a lot of members in Aogiri tree.”

Arima Kisho looked at Takatsuki Sen indifferently, Takatsuki Sen just turned white.

Su Xiao looked at the two people with astonishment. Their personalities were somewhat different from the original animation. Are they faking this?

“Hui.”

Arima Kisho was relieved as he lifted his eyes.

“Don’t be so vigilant, get closer.”

“If you have something to say, this distance is very good.”

Su Xiao would not be close to Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen, they were obviously cooperating.

It could be known between their conversations that the two started to cooperate 13 years ago.

CCG’s strongest Investigator cooperated with one-eyed Owl, Su Xiao thought that there must be a huge secret is hidden and it seems there are also huge benefits coming his way.

Exploring the deep secrets in the derivative world, the benefits will be abundant. Otherwise, Su Xiao would complete the task immediately.

“Byakuya, what kind of organization do you think CCG is?”

Arima Kisho looked serious, and there was a slice of hatred in his eyes.

”Killing ghouls? Protecting humans?”

Su Xiao did not know CCG’s purpose, just answered carelessly.

“Ha, protecting humans? Will CCG protect humans? This is the most ridiculous thing I have ever heard. The Investigators will protect humans, but CCG will never.”

Takatsuki Sen combed her hair which became messy because of the battle, she seemed to be very disdainful toward the CCG.

“No, CCG is not protecting humans at all. They are raising humans and ‘controlling humans....”

After Arima Kisho figured out his thoughts, he started to tell CCG’s secrets to Su Xiao.

The Ghoul Countermeasure Bureau (of Counter Ghoul referred to CCG)

General Speaker: Washuu Tsuneyoshi

Director: Washuu Matsuri

CCG handled the ghouls’ related events around the world. All matters related to ghouls were handled by CCG, and they had great rights.

On the bright side, CCG was protecting ordinary people and killing ghouls. But was this reality?

Su Xiao had a doubt a long time ago, that was, why did CCG not use the powerful thermos weapon to deal with ghouls? Will it be considering civilians’ safeties? In Su Xiao’s opinion, this was not the case at all.

Some powerful power machine guns could shoot through ghouls’ Kagune. It was like the battle at the entrance of 24th district previously. It only needed to set up a few powerful machine guns and keep shooting madly. In such a narrow terrain, even a few thousand ghouls could be killed in half an hour.

Even if the power of the heavy machine gun was not enough, the power of AWM would be enough.

More than a dozen well-trained snipers, as long as they maintained a good distance, they could shoot Takatsuki Sen into a pile of rotten meat within five minutes in the situation of using AWM.

In the original plot, Kamishiro Rize was almost dead because of being hit by the steel that fell from the sky. It could be seen that ghouls' Kagune were far less hard than they imagined.

Even if the above weapons are not useful, humans also have the king of weapons, tanks!

Under the steel beasts' attacks, ghouls had no chance to fight back.

Could humans not be able to completely kill ghouls? Don't be kidding, humans were the strongest creatures on the planet, a fact that had been proven over millions of years.

But why do humans still live under ghouls' threat today? Taking the dangerous areas of Tokyo, people lived there often encountered ghouls' attacks.

The culprit that made this happen was CCG.

“Byakuya, there is no human on the top position of CCG. They are ghouls, the ghouls of Washuu's family.

In other words, there is a ghoulish organization called V that leads CCG, and of course, ghouls will never completely eliminate ghouls.”

The information that Arima Kisho told made Su Xiao suddenly understand.

It turned out that that CCG never used the powerful thermo weapon to kill ghouls because of this. It was hard for him to apply for several high-explosive grenades to CCG General Administration. It checked for several days. In the end, the General Administration only gave him one, and the power was low. Even an S level ghoulish could not be killed.

If Su Xiao has not seen the power of high-explosive grenades, he may believe that the effectiveness of hot weapons was not good to deal with ghouls.

The CCG high positions were all ghouls, and ghouls will not completely eliminate ghouls.

If it comes to this, it is not only the top position of CCG but also national institutions and even the military's top positions are all ghouls, it is terrible.

Ghouls' usual appearances and humans were too similar, and Washuu family also controlled the CCG, this kind of right department. Under cover of Washuu family, it was not difficult for ghouls to get into those institutions.

CCG had always instilled an idea in the Investigators, that was hot weapons were not suitable for dealing with ghouls. This kind of indoctrination was a kind of brainwashing, which began in the 'ghoulish Investigator school', which was accompanied by Investigators. The lie became the truth over time, so Quinque CCG invented to let humans use to deal with ghouls.

In this way, new problems have emerged. Since CCG's top positions were all ghouls, why would they let the Investigators who were human kill them and kill their companions?

This was actually a very simple question. The high-level human rights under ghouls' control, ghouls, were natural enemies of a human.

Therefore, CCG which was V organization thought of a way to use humans to eliminate some ghouls, so as to control the number of ghouls and let humans not go extinct.

This also gave a human a glimmer hope, so that human will not be desperate, leading to the organization such as the Rebels emerge.

Humans were the main food of ghouls. If humans are extinct, then ghouls will go extinct after.

Although ghouls could survive by eating their companions, the extinction of human will lead to the collapse of the whole society. At that time, there will have ghouls left on the earth, ghouls will kill each other, the civilization will be cut off by that and even return to the primitive society.

CCG neither wanted to let this situation happen nor wanted to let the ghouls extinct because they were ghouls, so the Investigators who used the Quinque to fight emerged.

The Investigator was like a diligent 'street sweeper' that controlled the number of ghouls.

Su Xiao cleared the 14th district before. This kind of behavior was very helpful to human. If CCG is fighting for human, then why did not they let Su Xiao clean up the other areas, but instead transfer him to the 24th district where no human lived to kill ghouls? Even if he kills all the ghouls in the 24th district, can humans live underground? Obviously not.

Ghouls in the 24th district may know CCG's secrets, So CCG was killing them.

The confrontation between the Aogiri tree and CCG was not a war between ghouls and human, but an internal war between ghouls.

Aogiri tree gathered large numbers of ghouls and occupied a certain area. In the perspective of CCG executives, this was to challenge the authority.

If CCG hasn't spread that hot weapon was not suitable for dealing with ghouls, and this thought is deeply reminded in people's mind, CCG executives would've sent a plane with cannons to bomb Aogiri tree long ago.

Chapter 113

"Let's say that CCG you're loyal to is not a human organization. Aogiri tree fights for freedom and breaks the distorted rules of this world."

Takatsuki Sen's eyes were full of anger. It seemed that she had a deep hatred towards CCG. She stared at Su Xiao and intended to see the expression of the belief was being broken and doubting life on Su Xiao's face.

Takatsuki Sen was destined to be disappointed, Su Xiao accepted this fact calmly.

"I was wondering that CCG executives always issued some silly orders, which caused lots of casualties when Investigators killed ghouls."

Su Xiao has already understood the general situation of CCG. In general, CCG was not fighting for a human. It was an organization controlled by ghouls. The highest position of human in CCG was a special Investigator, it will be impossible for them to go further.

Of course, there had always some clever Investigators who discovered these secrets, in which they were all killed by some powerful ghouls.

The process for CCG controlling the number of human and ghouls as follows.

The Investigators were responsible for controlling the number of ghouls and using Quinque to kill ghouls in small amounts.

The ghouls that were hidden in humans unconsciously controlled the number of humans, they only need to eat as normal.

Under the interference of CCG, the two had reached balance, ghouls had enough food to eat, and humans will not go extinct.

After Aogiri tree came out to mess up the situation, the balance was destroyed, so CCG's executive ordered to clean up the Aogiri tree.

The lie of using the hot weapon against ghouls was ineffective had been ingrained, because of this, CCG only could send Investigators to deal with Aogiri tree.

“I have a question. Do any other forces except CCG asks Investigators to fight with you?”

Su Xiao was asking Takatsuki Sen.

“Of course, those Investigators are the easiest to deal with. I am not afraid of Investigators. What really threatens us is those people who are well trained and use hot weapons.”

Takatsuki Sen opened the bandage at the lower abdomen. On her flat and white belly, it could be seen several coin-sized scars. The scars were very light and could only be discovered by careful observation.

“This is the most dangerous one. I was surrounded by several human snipers. If I did not get supports from Noroi, I would already be dead.”

Takatsuki Sen pressed her lower abdomen.

CCG had formed the current power and balance under the management of several generations by Washuu family.

Ghouls lived in the dark side, people live under the sunlight, but humans were actually raised by the CCG high position.

Washuu family was ghouls family, they were also members of V organization which was told by Arima Kisho. This organization was extremely powerful.

“Remember the ‘fukuro’ you had fought before, that is my father, he is just a street sweeper of V organization, that is, the killer who excludes dissidents.”

When Takatsuki Sen mentioned that her father was Yoshimura Kuzen, her tone was not really good, as if she had some resentment against him.

“I understand basically now, we talk a lot, but is there any connection with your cooperation?”

Su Xiao looked at the two, even if CCG is not for human, Arima Kisho was a human, there was no possibility to cooperate with Takatsuki Sen unless...

“Of course it matters, because I am not human.”

Arima Kisho left the language astonishingly, the most powerful Investigator of CCG surprisingly admitted that he was not a human.

“What do you mean?”

“My gene was half a human and half a ghoul.”

“One-eyed?”

Su Xiao had never seen Arima Kisho using kagune, his eyes were also with normal colors.

“Not one-eyed, I am a semi-human. There are two situations when ghouls combine with humans.

The common one is semi-human, which is the situation I am in now. As for the one-eyed you said, it is called a semi-ghoul, which is very rare. At present, only Takatsuki Sen is one as far as I know.”

Su Xiao looked at Takatsuki Sen.

“I didn't know that you are a rare creature.”

Takatsuki Sen's expression became serious, her sight clearly began to turn bad.

“The so-called semi-human, although semi-human has strong physical quality, they also have great defects, their lives are very short.

As for me. When I was twenty years old, my hair color began to turn white. If I don't have any accidents, I could survive for three to four years. ”

Now Su Xiao finally understood where did Arima Kisho physical quality that was beyond ordinary people come from.

“In this way, your right eye is...”

“Glaucoma, my eyesight is blurry, it becomes better after wearing glasses, compared with the right eye, physical exhaustion is more serious.”

There were basically no vulnerabilities in Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen's words, but Su Xiao still had one thing not understand. If this matter is not clear, he will immediately find ways to retreat.

“Arima. Since you are a ghoul, how do you pass the Rc cells detection door? Even if you are a semi-human, the Rc cells concentration in your body should not be low.”

Not only Arima Kisho, if the members in Washuu family are all ghouls, how can they pass the Rc cells detection door?

Takatsuki Sen said:

“There is a ‘defect’ in that poor door. The ghouls in V organization will not be detected. Not only Arima, but I also will not be detected.”

Su Xiao suddenly remembered that Takatsuki Sen, a literary girl ghoul, had visited CCG branch to interview Shinohara Yukinori and Juzo Suzuya in the original plot.

In this way, Washuu family may have done something on the Rc cell detection door. After all, this thing was invented by CCG.

“I had cooperated with Takatsuki Sen for 13 years ago, and now, I am going to do one thing. But this thing can’t be done only by me and Takatsuki Sen. So I want to invite you to join us now.”

There was a clue in the original work for the cooperation between Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen. The two had fought against each other. Although the battle was fierce, there was no sign for them wanting to kill each other.

After Takatsuki Sen swallowed her father and successfully escape, she said a word, ‘that guy is really cruel.’

The meaning of this sentence was obvious, the two were acting.

However, when Arima Kisho was acting, he cut off Takatsuki Sen’s arm of kakuja shell, and Takatsuki Sen was so angry that she smashed Arima Kisho’s the S+ Quinque ‘IXA’.

Many phenomena had shown that the two had long cooperated, one was the strongest Investigator hidden in CCG, and the other is the ‘king’ of ghouls.

“I can’t find a loophole for the time being from what you said, but why did you cooperate 13 years ago?”

The words of Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen were only from their perspectives. Although those words were clear with no loopholes and reasonable, from the point of the two had cooperated 13 years ago was still hard to be convinced.

“Because, I was the king before Takatuki Sen, I was the ‘king’ of ghouls in the previous generation.”

Arima Kisho revealed big news again.

“I have the strength of ‘king’, but I am not a ghoul, Takatsuki Sen is a ghoul, but she does not have the strength of ‘king’, neither of us is complete enough, so we cooperate to find and cultivate the next generation of 'king', A complete king of ghouls."

Things got interesting now.

"Complete king? Interesting, if I'm right, the king you cultivated is dead."

"Yes, he was killed by you."

"You bastard."

Takatsuki Sen stared at Su Xiao, she was very angry.

"Why do we ask him to cooperate, he obviously destroyed our plan."

"Because he is strong enough and he's not a member of V, nor a member of the clown, nor even a ghoul."

Arima Kisho looked directly at Su Xiao.

"I have told you all the things, are you ready to cooperate with us now?"

Su Xiao pondered for a while. He had just listened to too many secrets. Now if he doesn't cooperate with the two. These guys will definitely kill him.

Takatsuki Sen was in a bad situation now, but Arima Kisho will be very difficult to deal with. This guy was very strong in any kind of distance, and he had Quinque 'IXA' in defense.

"I am very interested, tell me what you are going to do."

Chapter 114

Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen looked at each other, Takatsuki Sen was a bit unhappy, but she still nodded.

"We planned to train a new generation of 'king' before. Now this plan has failed, so we must be more extreme. There can only be one kind of creature in the world. The two should not coexist.

Or ghouls should not appear in the world. Now V organization had controlled too much power, I had ways to let V organization lose everything. As long as V organization disappeared, the world will change."

Arima Kisho's words made Su Xiao very surprised. He couldn't help but look at Takatsuki Sen on the side. Takatsuki Sen just stood next to us, do you sure these words will not irritate her? Su Xiao murmured in his mind. Moreover, Arima Kisho was not a pure human, he was a semi-human which combined with a ghoul and a human.

"Let V's ghouls lose everything? Takatsuki Sen, will you agree? your father is a member of V. If ghouls in V organization are different from ordinary ghouls, then you will be affected, right?"

Su Xiao suddenly felt that the thing Arima Kisho said would not be very reliable.

“It doesn’t matter, as long as it will let those people pay the price, everything is fine.”

The V organization made Takatsuki Sen lose her mother, and he grew up alone in the 24th district. However, Noro could only take care of Takatsuki Sen ‘s daily life but giving her parent’s love.

Takatsuki Sen’s expression was not like lying.

The plan the two prepared for thirteen years had come to an end, and there was not much time for Arima Kisho, they could only do it in person.

“In fact, we cultivate the ‘king’, just want the new ‘king’ to be strong enough to let him destroy the ‘thing’. As long as the ‘thing’ exists, the world will continue to distort. As for whether human or ghouls will win afterward is none of our business.”

Things became completely clear now.

Although Arima Kisho was a member of V, he was cooperating with Takatsuki Sen and intended to cultivate the next ‘king’.

Now the ‘king’ the two expected died in advance, which made the two very disappointed. The king they chose may not have the value to cultivate.

But Su Xiao’s appearance let the two see another possibility.

Why do they want to cultivate the king, they could just cooperate with the guy in front of them and directly execute the final plan.

For this reason, Arima Kisho tempted Su Xiao when they were a central city.

Arima Kisho wondered whether Su Xiao will be loyal to CCG, and from Su Xiao’s words and behaviors, Arima Kisho knew that Su Xiao was not loyal to CCG, so the scene that Arima Kisho found him for cooperation appeared now.

Now Su Xiao wanted to understand the specific plans of the two, he needed to make a statement.

But he was worried about it. How dangerous was the thing that even Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen couldn’t do with each other?

At this time, reincarnation paradise’s hint released Su Xiao’s concerns.

[You triggered hidden tasks: source, yes/no accept]

Hidden task: source.

Difficulty level: Lv.6.

Mission Instruction: Source, derivative world’s core item.

Mission Information: According to the plot characters, get Arima Kisho’s guidance to find the source and get it.

Mission period: 6 natural days.

Mission reward: 2 points attribute point, soul crystal (small) × 3.

Mission punishment: full attribute -3.

.....

Su Xiao had decided to complete this task when he saw [soul crystal (small) × 3] in the mission reward.

The more dangerous the mission, the higher the income, if he withdraws from danger, he will never be strong.

If he wants to stand out among many contractors, he must have the courage and perseverance. Otherwise, he will be given up by reincarnation paradise and eventually die.

After Su Xiao chose to accept the task, reincarnation paradise's reminder appeared again.

[You have accepted hidden tasks: source.]

[You and the plot characters: Arima Kisho, Takatsuki Sen grouped 'plot temporarily adventure group'.]

[You can retreat from the plot temporarily adventure group at any time, no penalty.]

[The current members of the plot temporarily adventure group: contractor 13013 (hunter), Arima Kisho, Takatsuki Sen]

Su Xiao frowned, this 'plot temporarily adventure group' was cool, he wanted no teammates to avoid hurting him, this kind of function will not appear in the reincarnation paradise, what was the situation could retreat at any time, it was too convenient to betray the team.

Actually, this was a kind of help from reincarnation paradise. If Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen did anything to betray Su Xiao, the two would automatically withdraw from the 'plot temporary adventurous group.' Su Xiao could be alert in advance.

After a dozen seconds, he found out that this function seemed to be prepared for him...

"I temporarily agree to cooperate with you and talk about your plans. I don't even know what to do specifically. How can I cooperate with you?"

Arima Kisho nodded.

"Things are like this. At the bottom of the well in the central city that was blown up, it was a very dangerous area.

Somewhere in that area, there is something hidden called 'source'. I don't know that specifically, but one thing is certain. Destroying that thing will have a devastating effect on V."

After listening to Arima Kisho's description, Su Xiao was stunned.

It turned out that the convenient withdrawal function was prepared for him~.

Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen wanted to destroy the source, and Su Xiao's mission was to get the source.

The three were teammates before they found the 'source', but they may not after that.

"That's it. Let's not talk about the upper part of the well was blown up. If we go deep into the well, we will meet those primitive ghouls. Needless to say how hard to get rid of those primitive ghouls?"

And what can I get for me to help you to destroy the so-called 'source'?"

The acting had to play a full set. If Su Xiao promises the two without any purpose, it will make them suspicious.

"After we finish it, I will give you a Quinke which is called fukuro for reward."

Arima Kisho surprisingly took out his strongest Quinke, he did pay the price.

"Well? SSS level Quinke 'fukuro'?"

"Yes."

Su Xiao pretended to hesitate.

"If you have that Quinke, you will definitely be stronger."

Takatsuki Sen also joined in persuasion.

Normally, Su Xiao destroyed their plan, the two should cooperate together to deal with him.

But now, even if they kill Su Xiao, it will not help, not to mention that they may not be able to kill him, and it was rare to see Su Xiao with powerful strength and uncomplicated background.

"I agree, but before we execute your plan, I have to go back to the ground, I have something to do."

Su Xiao will go back to the ground and spend all the contribution value of CCG and complete the main line task as soon as possible.

When executing 'hidden tasks: source', Su Xiao will stand on the opposite side of CCG, it will be better for him to complete the main task first.

"Of course we have to go back to the ground. We have to cooperate with other people. It is probably with just us."

Su Xiao did not speak, Arima Kisho looked at Takatsuki Sen.

"Why are you looking at me?"

"You were 'caught' by Byakuya and me."

"what?"

Takatsuki Sen was astonished, and Su Xiao didn't understand as well.

"I intend to....."

Arima Kisho began to describe his ideas to the two.

Five minutes later, Takatsuki Sen sighed.

“Well, I was caught, but I have to declare in advance that doesn’t inject Rc cell inhibitor to me, and both of you need to send me under escort in person.”

Takatsuki Sen’s words made Su Xiao a little worried. Takatsuki Sen seemed to trust Arima Kisho, which was not good for his mission.

But now the first thing was to return to the ground. It was imaginable that the news that he and Arima Kisho caught Takatsuki Sen will shock CCG.

Chapter 115

Su Xiao pressed Takatsuki Sen and passed through many Investigators at the entrance.

“Who is this woman, she looks a bit familiar.”

“When it comes to this, I feel a bit familiar as well.”

“Isn’t this Takatsuki Sen? She is a very famous novelist, how could she appear in the 24th district, and was also personally escorted by Arima Kisho and Byakuya, Maybe..”

Numerous Investigators were discussing, now was not the time to announce the identity of Takatsuki Sen.

If these Investigators know the identity of Takatsuki Sen, they will surely rush forward and find ways to smash Takatsuki Sen.

Aogiri tree had deep resentment with CCG, hundreds of Investigators in the present, more or less have a hatred with Takatsuki Sen.

Takatsuki Sen, who was very calm before, couldn’t help but felt nervous now. She was like a tiger walking in a wolf group. She pressed her voice to a very low level and said:

“Arima Kisho, is your plan reliable?”

Su Xiao was shocked.

“Less nonsense, do you want to die? If these people know your identity, Arima Kisho and I can’t stop them.”

The three walked faster and quickly passed through the crowd, returned to the ground, and came to a barren land, the three became relieved.

Arima Kisho took out the phone to contact CCG headquarter.

“Director, the mission was completed, the primitive ghouls were expelled back to the underground, but the well was destroyed. At that time, the situation was ‘critical,’ I could only blow it up...”

The ‘details’ of mission that Arima Kisho was telling to Washuu Matsuri, most of them were real.

“Yes, no problem. One more thing, Byakuya and I met the fukuro of Yoshimura in the underground, she was caught by us.”

The voice on the phone was obviously higher. Su Xiao heard something vaguely. You're responsible for this and so on.

“Understand, just in case, I will let Byakuya escort her.”

Washuu Matsuri on the phone seemed somewhat hesitant, he talked about something to Arima Kisho, and Arima Kisho turned his head and looked at Su Xiao.

“That guy is not obedient, okay?”

No, we are not together now. If I just use his power it will be fine, the guy has not shown any purpose. He has been cooperating with me in the deep area of the 24th district. He is still available for the time being.”

Needless to say, Su Xiao must be ‘that guy’ that Arima Kisho said. After he was extorted by Su Xiao, Washuu Matsuri apparently had some precaution to Su Xiao.

“Director, I got it, I am going to do it now, we will be able to take fukuro to the cochlea in one day.”

Arima Kisho hung up the phone and said:

“It progresses smoothly. CCG means to cage Takatsuki Sen in ‘cochlea’, that is, the ghouls’ shelter, which is as same as we expected.”

‘cochlea’, also known as a ghouls shelter, was a prison in the 23rd district, which had many dangerous ghouls.

Those ghouls were strong, but they were not members of the V organization. The V organization may think that killing those ghouls was a pity, so they caged them in the ghouls’ prison.

The ghouls were caged ‘cochlea’ were completely in hell. CCG will use them to do cruel experiments. The reason why gecko is so cruel was that he was once tortured by an Investigator in ‘cochlea’. Under the accumulated torture, gecko’s personality was born.

“The cruel place.”

Takatsuki Sen snorted and seemed to have some understanding of ‘cochlea’.

“Let’s go back to the temporary branch first, I have something to deal with.”

The three found a car, Su Xiao got on the driver’s seat, after the Arima Kisho and other got on the car, started the engine and went full throttle.

The tires flew in the mud as the car rushed out in a fierce posture.

Three minutes later, Su Xiao and others arrived in front of the temporary branch.

Entering the temporary branch, Su Xiao went straight to the logistics department, the thin old man with a small round sunglasses was still sitting behind the window lazily.

“Well? Byakuya-san came again. What a big customer. You come to purchase goods this time?”

Su Xiao nodded, and the redemption list appeared.

He now had contribution value of 21,370 points, enough to redeem the two items he liked.

After redeeming the two items, the CCG contribution value was not that meaningful to him. Perhaps he could no longer get the CCG contribution value soon, he should consume it as soon as possible.

[Crushing Elf (Boutique)]

Redemption conditions: 13,000 points of CCG contribution value, prospective Investigator position.

[C type battlefield syringe]

Redemption conditions: 8000 points of CCG contribution value, prospective Investigator position.

....

The sum of the two was 21,000 points of CCG contribution value, and his contribution value was just enough, so he decisively redeemed.

[You get ‘Crushing Elf (Boutique)’, ‘C-type battlefield syringe’.]

[Crushing Elf (Boutique)]

Price: 3,800 paradise coins.

.....

There was a pair of dark red and silver covered the pistol in Su Xiao's hand. The body of the gun was about 30 centimeters. The whole gun gave a heavy sense. The barrel was engraved with a small line of words. 'Justice can't tell by itself.'

This green-grade firearm which could be called best quality, so that Su Xiao will be able to long-range attack.

His sword was sharp, but he still had to have long-range attacks. After all, he was fighting alone in the reincarnation paradise. The main purpose of the [Crushing Elf] was the attached skill to this gun: gaze shooting.

It will attack enemies, and it had six shots. This made Su Xiao, who was not good at firearms, could use it well.

Looking at the various attributes of [Crushing Elf], Su Xiao sighed, if it is the weapon with the genre of a sword, it would've been better.

Taking out [Crushing Elf], Su Xiao looked at the [C-type battlefield syringe] in his hand.

This thing was a one-time recovery medicine, it was also the first green medicine he saw.

That restored 30% of Hp, making this syringe more precious.

[C type battlefield syringe] The outer was silvery white, the volume was not large, and it was convenient to use. It was a life-saving medicine.

With this item, Su Xiao could save his life in desperation.

He took out [C-type battlefield syringe] with care, Su Xiao became somewhat relaxed in his mind, he completed the first goal, using the identity of an Investigator's to get some benefits.

Now he could return to the reincarnation paradise as soon as he completed the mission.

Su Xiao had already thought of a way to complete the main task, so he put the main task aside first.

Now he only needed to complete the hidden task and the hunting task, and his time in his world will end.

Chapter 116

Su Xiao returned to his bedroom in the temporary branch, he and Arima Kisho agreed to leave after ten hours.

Going deep into the 24th district for more than a dozen hours, and also getting injured in the battle made him a little exhausted.

What's more, after they arrived at the ghouls' shelter, there will be chaos, he was to escort Takatsuki Sen to go to the ghouls' shelter.

So in these ten hours, he had to restore, at least he had to sleep.

After taking a hot bath, Su Xiao was lying in bed without any burden, and he suddenly thought that the blue treasure box that Kaneki Ken dropped had not yet opened.

Things appeared one after another, he didn't have time to open the treasure chest that Kaneki Ken dropped.

For Kaneki Ken's treasure chest, Su Xiao was not very optimistic.

Although the treasure chest was blue quality, Kaneki Ken's strength was not strong, and he was not the kind of the protagonist with the son of the world.

More importantly, his unlucky hand will play a vital role.

Taking out Kaneki Ken's treasure case, the palm-sized treasure chest shined with indigo light, which was similarly carved by sapphire.

[Yes / No open treasure chest (blue)]

Choosing to open it, the flash he was expecting did not appear.

[You opened the treasure chest (blue)]

[You get 3000 paradise coins]

[You get 300 paradise coins.]

[You get 1000 paradise coins.]

[You get the fate coin.]

.....

[Fate Coin]

Quality: blue

Type: Consumable.

Using effect: After using it, it will be random judge, giving one of 30 effects such as 'bad luck', 'strong luck', 'dead', and 'life recovery'.

Tip: The probability of gaining effect is 50%.

The probability of deducting effect is 49%.

Tip: Gaining effect lasts for 30 minutes.

Rating: 32 (Note: Blue items score from 30 to 70, the higher the score, the more precious the item.)

Introduction: Destiny can't be pondered, good luck or bad luck? Or is it.....

Price: 1 paradise coin.

.....

Opening the treasure chest that Kaneki Ken dropped, and he totally got 4,300 paradise coins, which was not bad from this point.

As for the [Fate Coin], Su Xiao was somewhat confused about this thing.

From a literal point of view, using this thing can get random effects, but the gaining and deducting effect added to 99%, and 1% of the effect is unknown.

Su Xiao subconsciously contradicted this thing. He intended to sell this thing to the ‘destined person.’ After all, it was a blue item and should be able to sell a good price.

After opening the treasure chest of Kaneki Ken, Su Xiao fell asleep deeply, he had a vague feeling that he does not know when he could rest next time.

He didn’t know how long it had been.

“Don, don, don...”

The sound of knocking on the door came. Su Xiao who was sleeping immediately sat up and held on the handle of dragon flash.

“Who is that?”

“It’s me.”

The voice of Arima Kisho came outside the door, Su Xiao put away dragon flash, and got out of bed to open the door.

“Has it been ten hours already? Ha.”

After a nap, Su Xiao dressed his clothes neatly and washed his face. When conditions permitted, he will clean himself.

“It has been twelve hours, Takatsuki Sen was injured severely by you, so I delayed the time.”

One more thing, someone wants to sneak into her room. ”

Su Xiao was shocked, is anyone aware of their plans? He suddenly thought of another possibility.

“Mado Akira?”

“Right.”

Unsurprisingly, Mado Akira did something, but Arima Kisho was there, there is no possibility for Mado Akira to stay near Takatsuki Sen.

“It’s time to go.”

Su Xiao and others drove straightly to the ghouls’ shelter in the 23rd district. Takatsuki Sen was arranged to sit in the back seat and was put on the handcuffs made by Quinque steel.

After half an hour, the three arrived at the ghouls’ shelter.

The Ghouls shelter as a ghouls’ prison had many investigators, and surrounding were walls which were more than ten meters.

Although the outside of the ghouls’ shelter was not very tall, they dug out in the underground deeply, the entire building was almost built on the ground to prevent ghouls from escaping.

The vehicle drove to the main entrance of the ghouls' shelter and was immediately stopped by the guard.

“Please show your ID.”

Although the guards recognized Arima Kisho, they were meticulously checking the documents.

After confirming the documents and the approval documents, the guards released and the vehicles slowly entered the ghouls' shelter.

“This damn place, I will destroy this place sooner or later.”

Takatsuki Sen clenched her fists and breathed heavily.

When the three people got off the car, Su Xiao and Arima Kisho took Takatuki Sen and walk to the building where the ‘the ghouls’ shelter’ is.

“Arima Kisho special, I haven't seen you for a long time.”

An old investigator with a white beard, full of pale yellow hair appeared.

“Haisaki fukame special, long time no see.”

Haisaki fukame was the director of the ghouls' shelter and managed all things here. The old investigator had strong strength, but he was appointed to the director of the ghouls' shelter because he became old and his body functions declined greatly.

The special investigator who could live to the old age were rare and even had been sent to manage the ghouls' shelter. It could be seen that the relationship between Haisaki fukame and the CCG executives was not simple.

Haisaki fukame stared at Su Xiao for one time lightly, did not speak, just led the way.

This guy seemed to have real power, and he was somewhat snobbery, he did not care about Su Xiao's position of associate special investigator.

Su Xiao chuckled and took Takatsuki Sen into the ghouls' shelter after Haisaki fukame.

If you want to enter the ghouls' shelter, you have to take an elevator which took time to go down.

None of the four people in the elevator spoke.

The elevator door opened, several people walked out of the elevator, the inside of the ghouls' shelter was cylindrical. The center was the elevator that those people took and control room and other departments. The surrounding walls were the cells that caged ghouls which were divided into many layers. There was a road in front of the cell in each layer, the road with metal guardrails on the edges, each floor had stairs for up and down, and there were many steel bridges across the middle, which almost linked the whole ghouls' shelter.

The whole ghouls' shelter, most of the buildings were made of metal, giving a sense of coldness.

“Haisaki fukame, have the Quinque that the headquarters helped me to make completed?”

Su Xiao suddenly spoke, Washuu Matsuri promised him before. After he assisted Arima Kisho , he could see Quinque.

CCG's Quinque was made by Dr. Chikei stayed in ghouls' shelter for several years. There were a lot of 'experimental materials' here.

When Haisaki fukame heard Su Xiao's question, he suddenly stopped, and his eyes became gloomy.

“Not yet, at least a half month.”

“What?”

Su Xiao's eyes became closer. This guy may be making things difficult for him. This person was the subordinate of Washuu Matsuri. After a half month, he would already have returned to the reincarnation paradise.

“As far as I can tell, it seems that it took at most 27 hours for Quinque to be made. Is there any accidents, Haisaki fukame?”

Arima Kisho spoke because he knew that if he does not speak at this time, the situation will be very bad.

Arima Kisho's attitude made Haisaki fukame stunned, he secretly thought about the relationship between the two. He could not offend Arima Kisho. Although their positions were same, the person, after all, is the member of that organization.

“There were some accidents in the production, it was being repaired in the culture media, I was worried the quality of the Quinque will be damaged.

If you don't care if it is damaged, you can go to the lab after you cage the one-eyed fukuro. The lab is on the seventh floor. ”

Haisaki fukame's words suddenly changed from the original one, he was supposed to take after a half month became he could take at any time.

Perhaps Washuu Matsuri asked him something, this guy was deliberately making things difficult for Su Xiao, Arima Kisho's helping let the old guy change his attitude because he did not want to offend Arima Kisho.

“The most important thing to hold the one-eyed fukuro first.”

Haisaki fukame also emphasized one sentence, he looked at Takatsuki Sen greedily. The Quinque he used now was still S+, and he had the opportunity to get the SSS-level kakuhou on her body.

After all, kakuja had multiple kakuhous, it should be nothing if he took out one.

Soon a few people came to the dangerous detention area. As soon as Su Xiao just walked in, dragon flash appeared in his hands.

Puchi!

The long sword cut into his heart, Haisaki fukame looked at the tip of the knife that cut through his chest which was dyed to red.

“What, what happened.”

Haisaki fukame fell to the ground, the blood leaked under him. Under this sudden attack, the special investigator did not even have a chance to fight back. Moreover, he was too old, he was so old that killed by Totoro in mere seconds in the original story.

“Crack.”

The shackles of Takatuki Sen were untied, the action began.

Chapter 117

After killing Haisaki fukame, Su Xiao immediately completed the main task (2), reincarnation paradise's hints appeared.

[You have completed the main task (2): the superior investigator, getting 1 point of attribute point, 1500 paradise coin.]

[The main task (3) is activated.]

Mainline task (3): The final battle.

Difficulty level: Lv.4

Mission Introduction: Fighting with the ghouls camp, and eliminating more than half of the contractors in the ghouls camp.

Mission information: Eliminating the weak one, the strong one survives, reincarnation paradise will not cultivate contractors with no potential.

Mission period: 5 natural days.

Mission reward: return qualification.

Mission punishment: Being executed forcibly.

.....

The main task (3) could be described as very cruel. He had to destroy half of the contractors in the enemy within five days. Otherwise, he would be executed.

This was a kind of mechanism to rule out the weaker. The main task (1) was to let the contractor be familiar with the derivative world, the main task (2) checked the contractor's combat ability and gave rewards. The main task (3) was the choice to leave the strong and kill the weak, only the strong ones can survive.

The hints from reincarnation paradise were not finished yet. Su Xiao killed Haisaki fukame which was exposed under the director of the invigilation, CCG General Administration will soon know about it.

[Warning: Since the hunter killed the member of CCG's high position, you have been expelled from the CCG, and the CCG contribution value is cleared.]

[Warning: CCG will send investigators or ghouls to kill you, you should be cautious and deal with it.]

The remainder ended, Su Xiao was expelled from CCG, and he was not surprised. Su Xiao looked at Arima Kisho.

“The two you’re looking for are here?”

Arima Kisho shook his head.

“I’m not sure, one of them should be here, the other’s situation is special, I don’t know whether we can find him or not.”

After Takatsuki Sen became free, the kakuja shell appeared.

“I will stop the investigators, you deal with others.”

Takatsuki Sen stood in the same place, waiting for the investigators came.

“Byakuya, find a ghoul called Donato Porupora, ghouls generally called him a priest.”

Su Xiao nodded and checked the cells which were caged ghouls in different directions with Arima Kisho. At this time, alarms in the surrounding rang. The staffs in the monitoring room were messing up together. Their director was killed by an investigator.

Donato Porupora, a Russian ghoul, once ran a Catholic orphanage, SS-class, most people called him a priest.

In CCG’s data, the priest was an SS-class ghoul. In fact, the priest’s true strength was at the SSS level, even if he fought with the store manager, he still have fifty percent of winning.

The priest ate children in a Catholic orphanage. He did not gather ghouls or attacked CCG, so he was judged as SS-class.

The priest was the adoptive father of Amon Kotaro, and he was ‘defeated’ after revealing his identity and was caged in the ghouls’ shelter.

Find the priest and rescue him, Arima Kisho had an agreement with the priest, so he didn’t worry that the priest will not cooperate.

Su Xiao began to look for every room through the observation window on the cell’s door.

After ghouls in the cells saw Su Xiao, they were all turned their head with numb, their pupils were dull. It seemed that they were often tortured.

These ghouls were at least S-class, but they became an experimental product in the ghouls’ shelter.

When he found the fifth cell, Su Xiao saw an old man in the cell who had a white beard and deep wrinkles, he looked like a Russian.

“Donato Porupora?”

The old man who sat on a bed in the cell opened his eyes and looked up at Su Xiao.

“Who are you?”

“Answer me, are you Donato Porupora?”

The old man in the cell smiled, and the wrinkles on his face became deeper.

“It’s me, you came to save me, or kill me?”

Confirming that it was the priest in the cell, Su Xiao asked Arima Kisho who was not far away, and he just rushed forward and looked at the priest through the observation window of the cell’s door.

“Right.”

Su Xiao put a piece of a plastic bomb on the door and stepped back for a certain distance. This was what Arima Kisho provided.

“Boom.”

The door was blown out of a large hole, the metal fragments were splashed around, bringing the sound of the roaring wind.

The priest walked out of the cell with a smile as if he was a kind, old man.

Su Xiao did not think in this way, this guy may be shrewd, though he was smiling, he may calculate in his mind.

“Since you come to save me, it shows that you have already believed in the information I provided and verified it.”

The priest looked casually, he wore sleeves, and his hands were tied together. Arima Kisho looked at this situation, using Narukami to cut off the priest’s sleeves.

“I had verified, I almost died when I went deep there that time.”

The first goal was to rescue. As long as the second one was rescued, Su Xiao and others would retreat.

“I was injected with Rc cell inhibitor, so I can only count on you, Arima Kisho, you have not introduced your friend to me, he is our partner, right?”

The priest looked at Su Xiao and seemed to be guessing his past history.

“Byakuya, Associate Special Investigator previously, his strength is very reliable.”

The priest smiled and nodded to Su Xiao, he did not look down him because of Su Xiao’s rank.

“Let’s find the next cooperator.”

Arima Kisho took the priest to continue to check cells, but Su Xiao was standing in the same place.

“I have something to deal with. If I don’t come back after ten minutes, don’t wait for me.”

After that, Su Xiao quickly ran to the upper level.

Su Xiao was going to get back what he should get, the unknown grade Quinque.

“Come back soon, it will be safe for half an hour, but the General Administration will send people soon.”

Arima Kisho shouted at Su Xiao’s back and continued to look for the collaborator.

Su Xiao was now in the tenth floor underground. Haisaki Fukame had said that the Quinque was in the laboratory on the seventh floor of the underground before.

Three minutes later, Su Xiao arrived at the seventh floor of the underground. There was no cell here. There were a lot of experimenters with white coats.

These experimenters stood behind a glass door looked at Su Xiao with some fear. It seemed that they had received the notice about Su Xiao from CCG.

Su Xiao put his hand on the glass door which was very strong, even stronger than the bulletproof glass.

“Won’t he rush in here.”

“How is it possible? It is the glass that was combined various materials such as Quinque steel, it is even stronger than Quinque steel.”

“What is he going to do?”

Dozens of the experimental staff was discussing. A watermelon-haired experimenter whose black hair covered his eyes quietly retreated behind everyone. He was Jigyo Kootsu, the maker of Su Xiao’s Quinque.

After perceiving the strength of the glass door, Su Xiao clenched the handle of the dragon flash with one hand, and the other hand reached the back of the dragon flash, using the tip of the knife to cut a circle of light mark on the glass door by his all strength.

After cutting a circular mark, Su Xiao took a breath deeply and rushed forward to hit the glass door.

“Crash.”

A hole as big as a person was knocked out, those experimenters were stunned.

“Mr. Byakuya, please calm down, this is your Quinque.”

Jigyo Kootsu was very smart, holding a long box in his arms and going forward.

Su Xiao took the box and looked at it without any problems. He did not pay attention to these experimental staffs and quickly walked to the tenth floor.

The new Quinque Su Xiao got, he only took a look at it. This was a long sword. The green quality was made by the store manager’s Kakuho. The specific information he did not check carefully, he will check after leaving the ghouls’ shelter.

Although this sword was better than dragon flash, he will not change it immediately. The length, weight, focus, sharpness and so on of the sword needed time to adapt to.

A sword can’t be used when you got it, you needed to adapt to it for a short period of time.

Otherwise, it will be very likely to have mistakes in the battle.

Su Xiao and Arima Kisho agreed to return within ten minutes. He actually only spent seven minutes.

After returning to the tenth floor, he found that there was only Takatsuki Sen fighting with investigators, he did not know where did Arima Kisho and the priest go.

Chapter 118

After Takatsuki Sen became kakuja, her character was extremely cruel. The battle was a one-sided massacre.

“Where did they go?”

Su Xiao came near Takatsuki Sen, the surrounding was filled with blood and human limbs.

Takatsuki Sen turned to look at Su Xiao, the sight in the one-eye was a little crazy.

“Roar!”

Takatsuki Sen surprisingly screamed at Su Xiao, it seemed that she will rush to him at any time. This literary beauty may become high after killing people.

“Are you sure that you want to do this?”

Su Xiao, who was holding dragon flash, looking at Takatsuki Sen with a vague smile.

“You!!”

Although Takatsuki Sen was crazy, she was still rational, the two experiences of almost being killed by Su Xiao made her fear.

“Beep, beep.”

The phone in his arms rang, and Su Xiao picked up the phone.

“I found the person. Now, just withdraw from the ghouls’ shelter, Takatsuki Sen knows the gathering point.”

Hanging up the phone, Su Xiao looked at Takatsuki Sen.

During speaking, Su Xiao jumped on Takatsuki Sen’s back, Takatsuki Sen’s body became huge after transforming into kakuja.

This was planned before. After completing the things, Takatsuki Sen broke out the gate at the top of the ghouls’ shelter. They could take the opportunity to retreat.

Now, they did not know where were Arima Kisho and others, but there should have a way to leave.

“Don’t put your sword on my back, I hate this sword.”

Su Xiao did not make a sound, but squatted on her back, holding an outer kagune by one hand.

“Fine, don’t blame me if you fall down.”

Takatsuki Sen arched her legs and tried to jump up with all her strength, as if she was a bullet that was fired, and went straight to the roof of the ghouls’ shelter.

The height inside the ghouls' shelter was not too short, Takatsuki Sen surprisingly jumped up, and her claws were inserted in the metal gate of the room's roof.

With Takatsuki Sen's power, the giant gate with half meter thick was spread out, Su Xiao directly saw the blue sky and white clouds.

Su Xiao stepped on Takatsuki Sen's back, and the other one stepped on the head of Takatsuki Sen. He jumped out of the gate in two steps and left the ghouls' shelter.

His actions caused Takatsuki Sen to be mad.

Takatsuki Sen was also helpless, she was pulling the gate, if she does not keep pulling the door, it will close.

“Beep, beep....”

After few rings, Takatsuki Sen obviously felt that the closing force of the gate disappeared. She got out of the gate and went to the roof of the ghouls' shelter.

After arriving at the roof, Takatsuki Sen saw Su Xiao stood in front of a jagged hole, which was formed by dozens of attacks by a sword.

In the hole with more than one meter wide, there were several hydraulic rods that had been cut off, which was the power system of the roof gate.

Takatsuki Sen looked at Su Xiao with some shock. It was beyond the range of human to cut such a large hole in the roof of pure metal.

Su Xiao's sword skills had been honed to an extraordinary level. The so-called extraordinary was to reach the level that ordinary people could never reach.

And he had a feeling recently that he became more and more perceptive to the sword in his hand, he could judge what can be cut off and what cannot be cut off by one glance.

Sometimes the wind blew on the blade of dragon flash could be vaguely felt by Su Xiao, that should be letting the sword became the extension of one's arm that Koshiro said.

Putting dragon flash away, Su Xiao talked to Takatsuki Sen:

“Where is the gathering point.”

“In my new stronghold.”

“A new stronghold for Aogiri tree?”

“Yes!”

When it came to that, Takatsuki Sen was angry, the last stronghold of Aogiri tree was buried by Su Xiao.

Once the two sides were enemies, they are now allies, the things that happened in the world were so wonderful.

Only children would say right or wrong, adults only see the pros and cons.

Stupid people cared about kind and evil, smart people will make rules, inside of the rules is good, and outside of the rules is evil.

Obviously, Su Xiao and Takatsuki Sen were guys who ignored the rules.

Because the rules were set by the rulers to rule others, most of the rules will have benefits for the ruler.

The two on the roof did not discuss the history of the Aogiri tree stronghold anymore, because the two may have a fight if they keep talking about that.

After breaking through the defensive network of the Investigators, Su Xiao and Takatsuki Sen left.

.....

In the CCG headquarter command room, Washuu Matsuri looked at the large display seriously, which was the back of Su Xiao and Takatsuki Sen.

Washuu Matsuri squeaked his fist, his pupil began to turn into a blood red.

“Arima Kisho, Byakuya, Eto Yoshimura, Donato Porupora, you’re bastards...”

Washuu Matsuri’s blue veils on his forehead exposed, their alliance made him feel threatened.

Needless to talk about the strength of Arima Kisho which was the highest combat power of CCG in bright side. Su Xiao as a pure man who could defeat the store manager in a one Vs. one, his strength was unquestionable strong.

Takatsuki Sen was an SSS-class ghoul, she was even the daughter of the store manager, which made Washuu Matsuri care.

As for Donato Porupora, Washuu Matsuri was more worried about it. He did not know what the priest planning was, they got one CCG’s weakness. Although CCG caged him, they did not dare to kill him.

If the priest is killed, the information that the priest has mastered will be published, the human will set up organizations like the Rebel, then ghouls will be done.

Compared with humans, ghouls were closer to the beast, had a sharp sense of smell, were impulsive and were very poor in scientific research.

Humans were different. A human could invent various weapons to eliminate ghouls. Now human were only deceived by ghouls, and they did not have a sense of resistance.

Excluding the problem of infighting, humans were very strong.

.....

Tokyo, 13th district, Shibuya, a rotten building.

On the tenth floor of the rotten building, in a room that could shelter from the wind and rain, five people gathered, and a large group of figures with red robes guarded outside of the room.

These figures with robes were the common ghouls of Aogiri tree. These ghouls looked into the room from time to time. After seeing the two in the room, these ghouls were somewhat scared.

“What the hell is going on, these people are so strong.”

A girl with short white hair hid in the doorway and secretly looked at five people in the room.

“Sister, don’t mess around, knowing too much is not a good thing.”

A girl with short black hair pulled her sister away. The sisters’ hair was black and white. In addition to the hair color, the appearance was almost the same. They were the twins Kurona Yasuhisa and Nashiro Yasuhisa.

“So, all of you here are allies from now on. Do you have any requirements?”

The voice of Arima Kisho came from the room.

In the room, Su Xiao tapped the table lightly and looked at a few people around the round table.

In addition to himself, the five people who were allied are Arima Kisho, Takatsuki Sen, the priest, and Arata Kirishima!

Arata Kirishima was the father of Ayato Kirishima and Toka Kirishima. The information in the original plot was that Arata Kirishima may have died, but he didn’t.

After being caught, Kirishima was imprisoned in the ghouls’ shelter. The materials used by Quinque’s ‘Shi’ were stripped from Arata Kirishima’s body, and Quinque’s ‘Shi’ was also named after him.

Arata Kirishima’s physique was special. Those crazy scientists had not completely stripped Kirishima’s Shi kakuhou. Instead, they cut the kakuhou in Arata Kirishima body and injected a high concentration of Rc cells to make his kakuhou grow up again.

In this way, the materials of Quinque’s ‘Shi’ will be infinite and could be produced.

Arata Kirishima was a positive man with blue hair and handsome, this could be seen from the appearance of Ayato and Toka.

The warm man gave people the feeling of sinking in the spring breeze, he treated people kind, but his strength was not to be underestimated. He must have strong power by being selected by CCG to spend big money to do experiments on him.

“Arima Kisho as my savior. I will do everything, I have no request.”

Arata Kirishima took the lead in making a statement, and his face was filled with a gentle smile.

“I don’t have any requirements. My thoughts are same with Arima Kisho, my goal is to defeat the V organization as well.”

Takatsuki Sen also expressed her position.

“Oh, I haven’t eaten fresh human flesh for a long time, I’m rude. I don’t have any requirements. After all, you saved me out. Returning back is the thing that Catholics must do.”

The priest wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. There was a plate in front of him, and there was some blood in the plate.

God saved the lost lamb, Donato Porupora, the priest, was the role of the shepherd, but the shepherd was somewhat greedy, and he often ate the lambs.

Everyone looked at Su Xiao.

“Oh, there’s a group of ‘good people’ without any purposes, Arima Kisho, I’m suddenly not interested in the SSS Quinque ‘fukuro’ we talked before.”

Su Xiao spoke, Arima Kisho and Takatsuki Sen frowned heavily.

“What is your request?”

“I have some ‘enemies’, these people were members of Aogiri tree, but their way was a little special...”

After listening to Su Xiao’s request, everyone turned to look at Takatsuki Sen.

“Those guys?” Takatsuki Sen hesitated for a few seconds and replied quickly.

“No problem.”

Chapter 119

In a dim corridor, those people walked quickly after an old man.

“Cheer up, Shen Dun, clean up the blood on your body.”

Cold fish looked at the shield warrior in the team. This shield warrior was carefully cultivated by him. Unlike other people in the adventure group, Shen Dun had a potential of defense and had the value to cultivate.

In the derivative world, cold fish saved Shen Dun’s life, so this shield warrior was very loyal to cold fish who also very cherished the shield warrior.

“This time Takatsuki Sen rarely gathered us, we may have a large scale of the fight with CCG, thinking about the timing, Takatsuki Sen may expose her father’s position, CCG is about to besiege the store manager, we have to seize this opportunity.

Their contractor is too powerful, we must rely on ghouls’ power to fight with him. ”

After the cold fish spoke, the contractors behind him flattered him incessantly, it seemed that cold fish became a great leader. As for the thing that cold fish exploited them, they all temporarily forgot.

“Boss, something wrong with Anger recently. He didn’t participate in this gathering. I am afraid...”

Shen Dun leaned over and whispered to cold fish.

Cold fish squinted his eyes, the cold air surged in his body and winked at Shen Dun.

There were a subordinate in the team. It was not a good time to talk about anger this time. If Anger hears this, they may have some conflictions.

“Anger had mentioned that he recently received camp missions, he probably was executing camp missions, it’s lucky, he does not even know where the hidden exchange place of Aogiri tree is, it is benefits that cannot be ignored, we can only wish Anger’s mission be completed smoothly.”

The pleasantry that Cold fish said was very humble, at least these words will not cause any conflictions if Anger hears them.

While cold fish was talking, he brought many contractors to a broken room.

The room was leaking winds, and the ground was full of glass pieces.

“That...”

Xi lolo at the end of the team raised her a small white hand, it seemed that she wanted to say something, this girl seemed to be bullied severely, she even needed to raise her hand for talking.

“Well? What?”

Cold fish turned his head, CCG had no actions recently, so Xi lolo’s main task (2) had been completed.

“Mr. cold fish, I find something weird, here is quiet, and without the members of Aogiri tree.”

Xi lolo’s words made Cold fish feel a little strange.

Chilling winds blew in from the window, the new stronghold of Aogiri tree was abnormally quiet.

“Takatsuki Sen may have secret things to discuss with us. She said something before..., who is there?”

Cold fish’s eyes opened with anger suddenly, he looked at the hole in the wall of the room. Inside of the hole was dark, Cold fish was a sorcerer, so his perception was not weak.

“One. Two, three... someone is missing. It seems that even if your call, they will not completely obey.”

Su Xiao walked out from the dark hole, holding dragon flash, the moonlight shone on him, and dragon flash also reflected a cold light.

“Why.. why are you here?”

When the moment he saw Su Xiao, Cold fish’s back was in a cold sweat, he thought of a very terrible situation.

“This has nothing to do with me. There is a guy who was executing Totoro’s orders. It is far from the stronghold. I’ve called these people for you, we discussed beforehand. Although I don’t know where these people are come from, they’re still my ” Subordinates’, I won’t fight with them.”

Takatsuki Sen also walked out from the darkness, standing on Su Xiao’s opposite side.

Takatsuki Sen did not wear the strange bandages, CCG already knew her appearance, she had no need to hide her identity.

Another figure walked out from the darkness, Arima Kisho.

Arima Kisho looked at contractors silently. He promised to do it before, Narukami was in his hands.

“The Father teaches us not to kill, but under special circumstances, the Father will forgive me as a priest, haha.”

The priest also walked out from the darkness.

“Mr. Byakuya, these people don’t look like rascals, there is also a little girl, it will be too much if you kill her.”

Although Arata Kirishima was there, he would not do anything. His appearance was just making a statement. As for him, Su Xiao directly ignored it.

This is the main task (3), even if he didn’t kill the enemy contractors, the enemy contractors will kill him, killing them first will be the best.

“This is impossible, it is impossible.”

Cold fish who was clam faux pas, he walked back two steps with trembling lips.

“If I don’t resist, I will not die, right? Oh my...”

The eyes of Xi lolo was full of tears, and she just sat down on the ground suddenly. She was a worker, and her combat power was very weak. In the hands of these monsters, there was no difference between resistance and no resistance.

The contractors surrounded by Su Xiao and others were desperate in their minds. Apart from Su Xiao, the others were powerful plot characters. In their eyes, they were the existence of the big boss who guards the final stage.

As for Su Xiao, he was the monster that fought with the big boss alone.

They were surrounded by four big bosses and a ‘contractor’ who was extremely strong. This feeling could only be described as wonderful.

It was like a B-class ghoul was surrounded by more than a dozen special Investigators.

“Takatsuki Sen, I.”

Cold fish’s face distorted, and greet Takatsuki Sen graciously as if he greeted his grandparents.

“I suddenly want to kill people.”

Under the incessant ‘greetings’ of cold fish, Takatsuki Sen’s face turned serious, and ghoul’s red eyes appeared.

At this time, Cold fish did not care whether Takatsuki Sen attacked. It was undoubtedly an amazing thing to express his anger in his heart. The combination of Su Xiao, Arata Kirishima, and the priest let them have already hard to flee.

What's more, a large group of ghouls with red robes surrounded not far away, which were the common ghouls of Aogiri tree.

As for this kind of situation to contractors in ghouls' camp were in a desperate situation, they could not change the situation even if they were lucky.

“Don't let anyone go, do it.”

After Su Xiao commanded, all the people were rushing to the contractors of the ghouls' camp.

“Frost Nova!”

Cold fish raised his scepter and used his strongest skill.

“Boom.”

An ice blue aura spread instantly went through Su Xiao and others.

Crack.

Su Xiao's body was filled with a layer of ice, a chill feeling spread on his body.

[You are attacked by Frost Nova, because 'Frozen Nova' is a mana skill, your passive ability 'Devil Physique' is launched, immunizing this mana attack for 40% of the damage,]

[You are slowed by the 'Frost Nova,' and the effect of slowdown lasts for 5 seconds.]

It must be said that this skill of Cold fish was very strong, had not only strong power in a wide range but also had a slowdown effect.

Su Xiao's Vitality was 10 points, and under the immunizing injury of 'Devil Physique', the hurting he received was low.

He used strength by his whole body suddenly, the ice on his body scattered, the blue-white arc covered dragon flash's surface, Su Xiao quickly rushed to Cold fish.

Cold fish must be a sorcerer with ice attribute. He wanted to try what's the difference will 'the Shadow of the Law' have when he fought with the sorcerer.

Looking at Su Xiao, who was rushing to him, Cold fish bit his teeth tightly, the scepter gathered a group of energy. When he waved the scepter, a fist-sized energy ball flew to Su Xiao.

Su Xiao who was rushing sided to avoid the attack.

“Ice tentacles.”

The scepter on Cold fish's hand pointed to Su Xiao. At this time, Cold fish had no idea of fleeing. He only wanted to kill Su Xiao and became his scapegoat.

A cold chill came underfoot, Su Xiao suddenly stopped.

”Crack, crack.”

Several ice tentacles were born from the ground and wrapped around Su Xiao's legs like a vine.

Su Xiao held the dragon flash backhand and used the handle to hit on the ice tentacles hard.

With a crack, the ice tentacles broke. Su Xiao's strength was 15 points, the ice tentacles could not bear his attacks.

“Cold heart arrow.”

In front of Cold fish, a crystal ice arrow was formed. This guy was like mana bombs, using one skill after another.

The speed of the ice arrow flew to him quickly. If Su Xiao does not get away from it, this arrow will hit on him.

“Is this a sorcerer? No wonder they have such high position, interesting.”

Su Xiao's pupils were getting smaller, and the super dynamic visual captured the flying trace of the ice arrow. He smashed the ice arrow that flew to him using the sword, the ice crystals splashed which looked particularly beautiful.

Chapter 120

“The ice heart arrow is smashed? What is this nerve reflex?”

Cold fish looked at Su Xiao unbelievably, but he did not stop using skills.

“Extremely cold...”

Cold fish just prepared to use the next skill but found that Su Xiao had already rushed to him within five meters.

This action made cold fish shocked hard if the enemy stays near him, he will die because of the person's sword skills.

“Pulse of Spirit.”

Boom, a shock wave that was invisible spread around, other nearby contractors had stepped back, and some were tragically killed by the priest and others. This was a repelling skill.

Su Xiao also bore this repelling skill. He immediately inserted the dragon flash into the ground and stabilized his body.

[You are attacked by the repelling effect of 'Pulse of Spirit,' your intelligence attribute is judged.]

[Just passed, you only bear 10% of this skill's repelling effect.]

A shock wave blew up Su Xiao's short hair, which was the extent of strong winds blew the ground, he could even continue to go forward.

This was why intelligence attribute was one of the three main attributes of the 'the Shadow of the Law,' it could immune sorcerer's spiritual control skills.

The ice tentacles was a physical control skill and will not have intelligence judgment. This time was a spiritual control skill and required intelligence judgment.

After using the repelling skill, Cold fish immediately prepared the next skill. Although he had not much mana left, he still had to fight for a while.

At this time, a long sword had appeared in front of Cold fish, which was a sharp sword wrapped in an electric arc. The blade was about three centimeters wide, and the blue light was dazzling.

Cold fish subconsciously put the scepter in front of him. He now had only one idea. How did the enemy rush over here? What about his repelling skills? Slowdown skills?

“Ding.”

The long knife cut on the scepter, the scepter was a mana genre weapon. It was impossible to bear dragon flash’s attack, not to mention that Su Xiao’s sword specialization was in level 3.

The scepter was broken, and the two arms of Cold fish were cut at the same time.

Dragon flash touched the body of Cold fish and pulled out the wound. The energy of ‘Qing Gang Yin’ ran through the wound into his body.

A light blue arc instantly plunged into Cold fish and rushed into his brain.

At this moment, Cold fish looked sluggish, and his black pupils turned faintly blue.

“Uhhhhh!!!!”

The extreme poor scream came out from Cold fish’s mouth. The way of ‘Qing Gang Yin’ burned energy in the sorcerer’s body was very special. For the enemy other than the sorcerer, the energy of Qing Gang Yin was the part which was contacted will be burned.

But after entering the sorcerer’s body, the energy of Qing Gang Yin was alive, it will go straight to the brain, suddenly burst after arriving at the brain, and burn the energy.

Qing Gang Yin was developed for hunting sorcerers, and now it had finally revealed its power.

What was the feeling of the brain bore the pain of Qing Gang Yin? Cold fish now realized.

The buzzing in the ear, the world was shacking, the expression was sluggish, and the drowning water flew out from the corner of the mouth. This was what Cold fish looked like now.

Cold fish still in the same place with the sluggish expression, a shining sword light magnified in his pupils, and eventually, the endless darkness swallowed him.

Killing Cold fish, Su Xiao kicked the scarlet card on the ground and caught it in hand. This was what Cold fish dropped.

After fighting with the sorcerer, Su Xiao basically understood the approximate ability of ‘the shadow of the Law.’

It had to say that the sorcerers were like a fort, if they had partners’ covering them, the sorcerer could cause amazing damage to the enemy.

He hadn’t learned much skills of the Shadow of the Law. The current situation was that it was a little difficult to get close to the sorcerer, but as soon as he approached the sorcerer, the battle was basically over.

As long as he continued to enhance his intelligence attributes, the sorcerer will not be much of a threat to him.

Intelligence attributes could reduce spiritual control, strength attributes could help him to get away from physical control, and agility attributes ensured that he quickly approached the enemy.

As for the sorcerer's 'short legs,' after the control skills are without effects, sooner or later they will fall in Su Xiao's hands.

Devil physique immunized 40% of mana damage, giving him time to get closer to the sorcerer.

In the case of fighting alone, the sorcerer must have the same ability or else he will not be his opponent. He could kill them without even paying any price.

It was good to be able to reach this level, nothing can be done at a glance, it also needed personal efforts.

There were no useless skills, it depended on how users used, when a skill reached the extreme, it will become legendary in a certain field.

When Cold fish died, the contractors on the ground fell into despair. Under the siege of the priest and others, the contractors had long given up. Some people even raised their hands and gave up to resisting, including Xi lolo.

The little girl was using a pair of watery eyes, looking at Su Xiao poorly which looked like an abandoned animal.

Thirty seconds later, the contractors who resisted on the field died, although these people died, they were somewhat courageous.

They all knew that it was useless to surrender in the derivative world.

The remaining five people in the ghouls' camp survived, Xi lolo and four contractors who surrendered.

The four men held their heads and squatted on the ground, they must have watched too many films.

Su Xiao walked to the five people.

“Wait!”

Xi lolo shouted which attracted the attention of people at the place.

The priest who was full of blood on his mouth, Takatsuki Sen who was throwing a skull, Arima Kisho who was wiping the blood on his eyes, and Su Xiao who was holding dragon flash.

Xi lolo swallowed her saliva, the pale pink hair was a little messy. She murmured in her mind, the action will decide her life.

Su Xiao looked at Xi lolo, he recognized her, they only traded with each other, they do not have a friendship.

Is the person going to fight back before dying? Su Xiao secretly speculated.

He only saw Xi lolo jumping on the ground, her legs bent, and a golden card suddenly appeared in her hand.

“It comes.” Su Xiao's body was tight to prepare for this 'unknown' attack.

“Bump.”

Xi lolo surprisingly directly jumped to squat, her forehead was close to the ground, her hands raised over her head, raising up the golden card.

“Boss, let me go, I also can warm bed, I’m absolutely 100% original as my age.”

Su Xiao’s mouth twitched, he almost laughed. He thought that the person would fight back like her life.

The priest and others were also stunned, how much was she scared of death?.

“Ha, this little girl is interesting.” Gao Xiaoquan laughed.

Su Xiao walked slowly to Xi lolo and looked at the card in her hand, it wrote 5000.

“What is this?”

Hearing Su Xiao’s voice, Xi lolo raised up her head a little.

“The park coin recharge card, I just made it, I think it will be worthier.”

Su Xiao took the card, and the hint appeared.

[You get a ‘Paradise coin Recharge Card,’ with the value of 5,000 paradise coins and 5,000 paradise coins will be acquired after using.]

Xi lolo was accidentally tactful, she was a smart person, it will be useless to have a lot of park coins when people die.

And Xi lolo was only a worker, she was essentially different from contractors, their high moral principle had already forgotten.

For the workers, the paradise coins were earned. After they had paradise coins, they will find ways to earn more park coins.

For Su Xiao, the paradise coins were earned by risking his life. Compared with the workers, his break was much shorter after he entered into the derivative world, he had no time to do business.

“Boss, can you spare my life?”

Xi lolo looked up tentatively, and her eyes were pleading him.

Workers lived difficulty, they were losers who did not pass the first derivative world.

It was difficult for workers to become stronger, the attribute points were difficult to obtain, and they may not use skills correctly because of the lack of combat experiences. Many problems hindered workers from becoming stronger.

“These 5000 paradise coins are enough for you to buy your life, what about you, do you want to do the same or do you want me to send you in your way?”

Su Xiao looked at the four contractors who were captured.
