

R. Paradise 18

Chapter 18

Intensive footsteps came, and a large group of soldiers approached the office.

Because of a large number of people, the soldiers huddled in the door of the office.

“Did you here? This is our new boss, Byakuya-san.”

Hank stood by Su Xiao side and expressed his attitude.

The soldiers around him were a little confused, but after Su Xiao raised his letter of appointment, the soldiers knew what was going on.

“Hi, boss.”

“Byakuya-san, I am Kappa.”

“Boss, we brothers will listen to you now.”

Congratulations incessantly came. Su Xiao just nodded and looked at the two guards of Brandon.

“The two men contacted the pirates privately, intending to disturb the order of the king....”

Before Su Xiao finish his words. The two guards of Brandon took out their weapons and directed him.

“Brothers, don’t listen to him, Brandon is our boss.”

Su Xiao was stunned and strangely looked at the two. These two guys have no brain?

It was not because the two have no brains, but the identity of Su Xiao and the words he said which made the two were somewhat scared.

Su Xiao just said that let the two stay here forever.

“Come, these two guys contacted the pirates. Now they are exposed, they wanted to resist openly.”

Hank was very alert and immediately realized the situation.

“Come on ~, stupid.”

Su Xiao did not move after sitting at the desk, and now he does not need to do anything.

A large group of soldiers swarmed, and at this moment, the two guards of Brandon had been entirely desperate.

“Wait, we just want to...”

Not waiting for the two to explain, the large group of soldiers had taken out their weapons to kill these two.

The sound of weapons colliding, gunshots and the sounds of the bodies being smashed came one after the other.

Thirty seconds later, there were two broken bodies in the office. The soldiers in the room had blood on them.

The smell of blood was thick.

This seemed ridiculous, but it was not.

The rules of the one piece world were nakedly cruel. The strong are the masters, and the weak can only wait to die.

In this office full of blood, the commander of the royal palace swallowed, Su Xiao's cruelty made the commander a bit scared, the idea of wanting to get some benefits had vanished.

“Clean up, go on.”

Shortly after, there were only three people in the office, Su Xiao, Hank, and the commander.

Hank did not go out but stood straight beside Su Xiao.

Su Xiao just looked at Hank and ignored him. He was too strange to the headquarters of the soldier team, so he needed Hank's guidance.

A smart enough and ambitious assistant, he needed it very much.

“Byakuya-san, please ask your subordinates to retreat, I have something to report.”

“No, he is my 'close friend'.”

When he heard Su Xiao's words, Hank smiled.

“Well, that's, tomorrow night's 'action', have you heard about it?”

The action in the commander's word was to burn the Gray terminal.

“Somewhat heard.”

“That's good, I will say it directly. There are three groups of forces that are suitable for this matter. We have all contacted these three forces. Now, you need to contact these three forces. Choose a group among them and perform the 'action' tomorrow night.”

“What?” Su Xiao looked at the commander, and his eyes showed a strange look.

“I decide who to do it?”

“Yes, it's up to you to decide. After all, we just heard about those pirates, and we need to contact them actually before making a decision.”

With a clear answer, Su Xiao's was overjoyed, as he did not choose the wrong one. The current identity played a crucial function.

“I know, I will contact the three powers in a moment.”

The commander smiled at Su Xiao and wanted to leave.

“Right, there is one more thing. Although there are three groups of powers, we can only choose one group to implement tomorrow’s plan. As for the specific information, it is in the file.”

Commander left with Hank’s obsequious words, Su Xiao picked up the documents on the desk.

The detailed plan for the burning of Gray terminals inside the document, it roughly said:

Choose a group of pirates, then provide the pirates with bombs and use bombs to burn the Gray terminal.

There are three groups of pirates to choose from.

The first group was the local power of the Goa Kingdom. The Bursam Pirates was the group of pirates who had fought with the young Monkey D. Luffy and Portgas•D• Ace in the original story.

The second group was the pirates who recently formed, the Krieg Pirates.

Seeing the information of this group of pirates, Su Xiao had some thoughts. This is a group of pirates that he was familiar with.

The Krieg Pirates was a relatively famous pirate group in the East blue. In the original Story, in the arc of the sea restaurant, the Krieg pirate group was destroyed by Mihawk, then fled to the sea restaurant, and fought with the straw hat pirates, and finally, they were defeated.

Although it was now ten years before the plot began, the Krieg Pirates were not weak, and the entire group had about 600 people.

As for the third group of pirates, named the skeletal pirate group, the strength was not good, so it was directly excluded by Su Xiao.

According to the information from original animation, the strength of the Bursam Pirates was ordinary, it could be seen by the fact that they were defeated by the young Monkey D. Luffy, Portgas•D• Ace.

As for the Krieg pirates, Su Xiao had high hopes, so he had to see them first.

“Hank, go to contact with the people in the Krieg Pirates.”

Hank smiled with embarrassment.

“This, boss...”

Hank’s attitude made Su Xiao clear.

“I will leave it to you, I must see them today.”

Apparently, Hank can contact the Krieg Pirates. As for the relationship between the two sides, Su Xiao was not interested to know.

Government officials and pirates conspired with each other. This was a common phenomenon in the one piece world. There were many possible interests between the two.

Hank did not let Su Xiao be disappointed. In just two hours, he made the appointment with the Krieg Pirates.

The location was of course within the kingdom, no one will trust a group of pirates.

In the civilian area, in a dirty alley, several men in large black robes and hooded men stood in the hutting and looked around vigilantly.

“Krieg boss, it is here, the old warehouse in front of us is the appointed place.”

A pirate with a thin body and a sword on his waist stood behind a tall man.

The man was also wearing a large black coat and a hood, but in the gap between the clothes, you can see that the man is wearing gold armor.

“Well, you wait for me here, Gin, come with me.”

Krieg’s voice was low, but as he walked the sound of his armor could be heard.

“Yes, boss.”

Gin was also dressed the same, with weapons in his sleeves.

“Boss, it is said that the new leader of soldier team is ruthless, and we should be cautious.”

Krieg looked at Gin.

“Well? Can’t I deal with the leader of the soldiers’ team? If not for the identity of an aristocrat that can bring a lot of conveniences, I will not work for the Goa Kingdom.”

The arrogance was the common problem of most pirates.

Gin was speechless, as the two walked towards the warehouse.
