Chapter 221: The meeting About Su Xiao.

Su Xiao put away the “the blueprint of revising Teigu.”, he finally knew what the quality above the blue quality was.

Seeing the score’s upper limit, which was extremely high, Su Xiao couldn’t calm down in a short time.

The score of [The blueprint of revising Teigu.] was 89. How would the equipment with a rating of more than a hundred be? He was temporarily unable to estimate, and it could only be judged after obtaining the physical object.

The green poison gas gradually spread, Su Xiao quickly stepped out of the metal door. After he traveled for half an hour in the tunnel, he returned to the crossroad.

He hesitated for a while and chose to return in the original road.

It was impossible to catch up with Akame, and he was eroded by poison gas. His current state was not very good. Once someone laid an ambush at the end of the tunnel, it would be troublesome.

If it changes to Su Xiao, he will definitely destroy the exit of the tunnel after leaving the tunnel, just in case that he will not be tracked by the enemies.

Su Xiao returned to the room in the red light district in a short time. He had heard the noisy footsteps before he returned to the ground.

“Quickly, immediately surround here.”

“Man, all routes nearby have been blocked.”

He ignored the noise on the ground and walked out from the tunnel.

Su Xiao suddenly appeared made soldiers in the room shocked, they all raised the weapons in their hands. These people were not the guards of the imperial capital, but an elite force.

“Mr. Byakuya, are you okay?”

A captain greeted him. Su Xiao nodded after seeing the person’s face. It was Esdeath’s troops.

“General Esdeath will arrive immediately, how about the thief of night raid...”

“She ran, there is a crossroad in the tunnel.”

A lot of footsteps came outside the room. Esdeath led a group of soldiers to get into the room.

“How many people did you kill?”

Esdeath had understood a general situation.

“I killed one, and three seriously hurt.”

Su Xiao became cold and expressionless.

“Well? Did other thieves flee? Is Night Raid all out?”

“I don’t know, a total of six people were there.”

Esdeath understood it was an excellent, fighting with six people and making three seriously injured and killing one that is.

“I appreciate your hard work, and I will handle the follow-up things, have you successfully gained the Teigu?”

“Those were taken away by a member of the Night raid called Akame.”

Of course, this kind of bad things should drag the night raid with him. They were impossible to talk with Esdeath. Otherwise, they would be exposed.

Even if they talked, it was evident whether Esdeath would believe the night raid or Su Xiao, this was the advantage of sneaking into the enemy’s camp.

Today, the imperial capital could be described as being chaotic, Su Xiao returned to a mansion arranged by Esdeath.

Here was the reward from the little emperor to Esdeath, the environment was excellent, but Esdeath usually lived in the military camp, rarely came here.

There were many maids in the mansion, and there were two maids greeted Su Xiao when he just walked into the mansion.

Su Xiao first ate a luxurious midnight snack, the tub had been filled, and new clothes had prepared for him.

As a member of the assassination unit, he certainly would not wear the military uniform of the empire. The iron-gray army uniform of the empire was not suitable for his aesthetics.

The third assassination unit had a distinctive uniform, which was a black long trench coat.

After taking a shower, Su Xiao lay in a big bed that could sleep at least five people.

He hesitated in bed for a while, and he did not choose to open Bulat’s treasure chest before Lucky Flame’s cooldown time was over, he would not open any treasure chest with the quality above blue, including blue quality.

He had something to do tomorrow morning, so Su Xiao fell asleep very early.

.....

At two o’clock in the morning, the night raid’s headquarters in the imperial capital’s suburb, in a conference room.

At this time, there were seven people in the conference room, all of whom were the main members of the night raid.

Namely:

The leader of the night raid: Najenda.

Newcomer: Tatsumi.

A user of Murasame: Akame.

A user of Roman Artillery: Mine.

A user of Animal King: Lionelle: Leone.

A user of Dimensional Formation: Shambhala: Lubbock.

Finally, a somewhat cute Sheele.

Sheele was a naïve girl with glasses and a long purple hair, and her Teigu was Cutter of Creation: Extase, Teigu of the scissor class.

This Teigu scissor was at least one meter long and was extremely sharp. From the name could know how sharp the Teigu was.

At this point in time, Sheele was already dead. Under the influence of the contractors, the naïve girl with glasses was not dead.

There were seven people in the conference room, three of whom were seriously injured, and one vital force had already died. The loss of the night raid was hefty.

The atmosphere in the conference room was very dull. The seven people were silently lowered down their heads. Among them, Tatsumi had tears on his face. Bulat had always taken care of Tatsumi. Bulat was an important person who was like his brother in Tatsumi's mind.

“Tatsumi, I understand how you feel, but this is our destiny. We are assassins; the moment of death is always with us.”

Leone with pale face softly comforted Tatsumi.

“Ok, I know.”

Tatsumi pressed his face by one hand and blew his nose.

“I must revenge my brother.”

Tatsumi's fists made cracks, and he hated his incompetence at this time. When the man rushed over with the sword, he was scared by the amazing murderousness. If Bulat did not push him, he would have been a body.

“Huh.”

Najenda spat out a cyan smoke, and she wanted to sum up today's situation.

Najenda tapped the conference table slightly to attract others.

“I'm gonna sum up today's events. According to the information obtained from the revolutionary army's informant, today the man you met named Byakuya, the member of third assassination unit, Esdeath's trusted follower, he was other country's assassination unit that accepted by Esdeath when she went to the extreme north.

Although he has not followed Esdeath for a long time, with his strength and loyal character, he is trusted by Esdeath, and he is almost inseparable from Esdeath like Esdeath's personal guard.

Although it is ridiculous to say that Esdeath has a personal guard, as for Byakuya's strength is not exaggerated to be Esdeath's guard.

Next, tell me about the information you got personally. The first is Leonard.”

Najenda flicked the ash after finishing her words, though the night raid suffered heavy casualties, this woman was very calm.

Leone took a deep breath.

“I have been fighting the man for about five minutes. During the period, I was attacked by hundreds of sword attack on my body. Every attack is straight through the bones. If Animal King: Lionelle's restoration is not strong, I will have died. Ordinary people can't survive over three attacks. Absolutely!

There is also a critical point. If you are seen by the man and tracked by the man, don't flee to the place with fewer people. Never, you will be done after being followed by the man in the wild, no matter how you escape, you can't get rid of him, the feeling of being traced is entirely desperate. ”

Leone still felt shudder and felt some wounds that had not healed on her body.

“There is another point. The man's sword may be poisonous. A kind of poison which is similar to electricity. It is similar to the curse of Akame's Murasame. It can invade the human body.

If Murasame's curse kills people, then the 'Electricity' on the sword is to bring pain to people, the kind of pain that make you want to kill yourself.”

Leone, who was always brave, stopped after finishing her words, her pupils were shaking.

Chapter 222: Countermeasures

“That's it.”

Leone leaned on the seat, looking sideways at Akame, she also fought with Su Xiao before.

“Tell you what I think. The enemy, named Byakuya's sword skill is very strong and stronger than me.”

Akame's words surprised several people present.

“His sword skill is better than you?”

Najenda felt somewhat unbelievable. After thinking about for a while, she took out a notebook and began to write and paint on the notebook.

“Yes, better than me. And as Leone said, after being tracked and you should run in the direction with many people, I probably ran across half of the imperial capital, after traveling through two secret passages, then got rid of that man.

The most important point is that I have a strange feeling when I fight against the man. It seems that he has not used his full power. He seems to want to hide something. The Boss said that he was loyal to Esdeath. I was somewhat doubtful. The guy is not like to be loyal to someone, and he may have another purpose. ”

Akame no longer spoke, looking at Mine.

Mine shrugged.

“I didn’t feel too much because I was in the distance, but one thing I can confirm is that the man’s perception is very strong. I couldn’t get a shot on him. Of course, this is related to my lack of sense of crisis at that time. The power of the Roman Artillery is only moderate.”

After three people’s narrations, Najenda knew more about Su Xiao, put down the pen in her hand, the information about Su Xiao was already listed in the notebook.

Najenda said:

“Through my conclusion, the enemy’s ability has the following points.

1. Stronger than Akame’s sword skills, this is the most difficult to deal with.
2. A kind of ‘electricity poison’ is on the sword, which can invade the human body and cause great pain.
3. Tracking ability is very strong.
4. Strong perception.
5. He has a lot of combat experience and attacks brutally.
6. He has an unknown purpose.

The above is all the information, does anyone want to supplement?”

Najenda looked at the six people; they all shook their heads.

“Damn, as this guy’s strength, he will be the second Esdeath, although he is not as horrible as Esdeath in the war, he is stronger than Esdeath in some perspectives, Esdeath does not have the ability to track the enemy for hundreds of kilometers.”

Najenda was very tired and worried. The revolutionary army was about to win, but this kind of strong person suddenly appeared.

“If you meet this man named Byakuya in the future, you need to retreat immediately. After that, I will think of a strategy to deal with him. Recently I have to go out for a few days. My power now is not strong enough to fight against the assassination unit of the imperial capital. It’s time to ask for help.”

The meeting finished, Najenda left overnight.

“Why do we always encounter such an enemy that so strong that makes us desperate, we’re unfortunate.”

Mine stood up to leave after screaming, and several other people sat silently, Akame looked at Murasame in front.

“I will use it next time I meet him, and it doesn’t matter if it backfires.”

Akame picked up Murasame and left. The next time they meet one of them must die, either Akame or Su Xiao, the resentment had already been made. Both of them would try to kill each other.

.....

The next morning, Su Xiao woke up early in the morning.

He habitually sat on a bed to meditate, and it was a habit.

But Su Xiao felt a little different from the past today. He got into the state of meditation in only less than a minute.

After an hour of meditation ended, Su Xiao found out a hint from the reincarnation paradise waiting for him to read surprisingly.

[You have already mastered (the meditation of the heart), you can check it in the skill list.]

Su Xiao scowled, he surprisingly mastered the skills on his own, it seemed that insisting to meditate every day was the right choice, now he got a return.

Opening the skill list, a brand new skill appeared.

Meditation of the heart: Lv.1 (passive)

Skill effect: slightly increasing in perception, willpower, peace of mind, understanding of nature, and so on.

This ability could only be improved by yourself.

.....

The ability was same as the meditation, the reason why did this skill appear was because Su Xiao had reached the level which was recognized by the reincarnation paradise after he meditates for a long period of time, that is, to reach Lv.1.

Su Xiao actually did not care much about how strong the ability of meditation. He mainly used meditation to clear the excess killings on his body, so he could deal with things calmly and won’t be consumed by madness.

Su Xiao killed a lot of people, but he was not mentally destroyed and was very calm. Every time he entered the derivative world, he acted according to the plan.

He could kill, but he must not be tempted by the killings to become a murderer, he killed people to achieve his purpose, acting according to his personal ideas, instead of killing people to kill.

Although those were not very noble, there were essential differences between the two.

He stretched and perceived whether there were other people within one hundred meters. There were not many active people in the morning. He got up to lock the door and close the window.

He got three pieces of Teigu yesterday, but he had not taken out to check it because of too many people there last night. It was a good opportunity now.

Putting three pieces of Teigu in front, Su Xiao found that these three pieces of Teigu could not only be used but also had a high value.

Water Dragon Possession: Black Marlin

Category: Ring of the Teigu.

Use demand: If it doesn't match but still using forcibly, you will get backfired.

Effect: you can control any liquid after contact.

Price: 2% of the sources of the world.

.....

Double-Bladed Axe: Belvaac

Category: Axe of the Teigu.

Use demand: If it doesn't match but still using forcibly, you will get backfired.

Effect: Extremely powerful attack power, it can track enemies insight after throwing.

Price: 1.6% of the sources of the world.

.....

Military Music Dream: Scream

Category: Flute

Use demand: If it doesn't match but still using forcibly, you will get backfired.

Effect: Playing different songs to control the enemies or companions' moods and body states.

Price: 1.8% of the sources of the world.

.....

He could not use these three Teigu because he wasn't a match for them, and the Teigu would also choose the owner.

Su Xiao would use these Teigu for other ways, and he was collecting the materials for the blueprint of revising Teigu.

He had the soul for the main material, and there were three kinds of the item of Teigu.

He only needed one type of biological Teigu and four pieces of the item of Teigu.

In fact, the sub-material only required five pieces of Teigu. But Su Xiao saw the sensitive word of 'success rate' on the drawing. If he dares to use five pieces of the item of Teigu to synthesize, then this drawing will not fail probably.

Once it failed, that loss could not be described as painful.

He put away three pieces of Teigu and put on a black trench coat to leave the room.

Last night, Esdeath asked him to wait in the conference room in the palace this morning, she had something to discuss with him.

Su Xiao roughly knew what it was, and the three beasts were dead, Esdeath's assassination unit became empty, leaving only Su Xiao, in this case, she, of course, needed some new members.

With Esdeath's position in the imperial capital, the new members for the assassination unit must be Teigu users.

Taking on a carriage to rush to the palace, because this was Esdeath's carriage, he would not be stopped in the palace.

Half an hour later, Su Xiao arrived at the meeting room they agreed on last night.

As a meeting room in the palace, the area was of course not small, the decoration was magnificent and luxurious, about a few hundred square meters.

In this large room, only a small rectangular conference table was in the center, and there were six seats next to the conference table.

Su Xiao casually found the chair to sit down and put the dragon flash on the conference table in front.

After he thought about where to get the Teigu in the future, he thought of a place that might exist. If he could get there, the amount of the Teigu that the drawing needed could be found.

Crack, someone opened the door to enter the meeting room.

Chapter 223: Small cookies.

The door of the conference room was open, a tall man with a shirtless upper body and a mask came into the conference room.

The first feeling that tall men gave people was hard to work with. The mask looked very fierce, and it was like to be worn by the interrogator of the assassination unit.

Su Xiao recognized him. This strong man called Bols. Although he was tall with a bit terrible mask, Bols was a shy and introvert man.

Su Xiao looked at Bols's body, this man with big muscles surprisingly would be shy. It would offend his eyes when Su Xiao thought that the person put his hands in front of his chest with shyness.

The scene was too beautiful to imagine.

Although he was shy, the position that Bols had served was not 'shy' at all.

Burning troop, a terrible department which could be compared with the assassination unit, the responsibility of them was to burn the village or town infected with the plague.

The empire would not send doctors to treat the plague, wherever the plague broke out, they would burn, houses, humans, and livestock would be all burnt to coke.

Bols was in the burning troop, and his Teigu was related to fire, Purgatory's Invitation: Rubicante, a Teigu which was similar to the extinguisher, it could self-destruct at a critical moment.

The way that Bols walked into the conference room was a little embarrassed, and it seemed that he was shy now.

“That... you are Mr. Byakuya, right? Nice to meet you for the first time. I am Bols.”

Bols walked to the front of the conference table.

“Yes, I am.”

Embarrassment.

Bols scratched his mask, looking for a chair to sit down, he looked cautious, Su Xiao's momentum was too sharp, which made Bols a little nervous.

There was dead air in the conference room, Bols's cheeks under the mask sweated, he sat straightly.

Unlike the conference room with dead air, there was a light footstep came from the corridor outside the meeting.

A 20-year-old young man with a blue hair, he was Wave was also a Teigu user, his Teigu named Carnage Incarnate: Grand Chariot, armored Teigu which was similar to Bulat's Teigu Demon Armor: Incursion. Grand Chariot was an upgraded version with better performance.

Wave carried a large bag with fish inside. He was a navy from the fishing village of the empire's border. This time he deliberately brought souvenirs to the imperial capital. The purpose was to build a good relationship with peers.

Wave clothes were somewhat low, but he was a young man with a sense of justice.

“It's coming, and it's closer.”

Wave looked at the door in front of him, and this was the meeting place.

He stood at the door, and Wave couldn't help but feel a little nervous. His future colleagues were inside the room. He thought of the reminder from the elders in the fishing village that the first impression was very important, ‘I can't be looked down, I'm going to show them my power.’

Wave took a deep breath and used his full power to open the room.

“Hi, guys! I am from the Navy of the empire...”

Wave tried to shout, but his voice was getting smaller and smaller after speaking because he saw Bols, who was sitting nervously.

The person's horrible mask made Wave sweat on his forehead.

Wave turned his head stiffly, he saw a pair of cold eyes and trembled.

“Sorry, I went to the wrong place.”

Wave spoke this sentence very quickly, and immediately retreated outside the door, he sat in the corner outside the door.

“It seems that this is the interrogation room, huh, I’m too careless.”

Wave pressed his chest with one hand; the two people in the room were a little scary, especially the cold eyes. How many people did he kill to get that kind of look? ` Wave looked up at the number plate and took out a piece of paper in his pocket. He was suddenly stunned.

“Are... those two people are my colleagues??”

Wave’s young mind was stimulated; the cute personality showed completely.

He quietly opened the door.

“Hi..., sorry for bothering.”

Will walked slowly to the seat and just wanted to pull out the seat.

“and many more.”

Su Xiao spoke, Wave’s hand was stiff.

“That.....”

Wave looked at Su Xiao with stun.

“Your fish.”

Su Xiao pointed to the bag at the door of the room.

“Sorry!”

Wave quickly took the bag of fish back, sat down, put his hands on his thigh, and lowered his head.

Bols, wearing a horrible mask, stared at Wave, who seemed to want initially to talk to Wave, but he was somewhat shy.

Bols’s move scared Wave a lot, Wave’s face was full of sweats.

Su Xiao was more interested in looking at the two.

Wave legs were shaking, he was confident to come to the imperial capital, but now he wanted to go home.

Seeing Wave’s funny appearance, Su Xiao somewhat wanted to laugh, but he was a member of an assassination unit, he must not laugh.

Wave’s strength was actually not weak, but he was somewhat immature to get along with people.

The door was opened again. This time, a beautiful girl with black hair came in. The beautiful girl wore a black student uniform. She had beautiful black hair. Her appearance was beautiful without makeup and had a long sword at her waist.

This long sword was March of the Dead: Yatsufusa, sword Teigu, this sword could record the eight creatures it killed, and summon those creatures in battle, it could summon at most eight creatures, humans and animals both could be summoned.

The creatures that were summoned would not die. Even if the heads are destroyed, they can continue to fight. After they contacted with Yatsufusa, they will become ordinary bodies.

Although this ability was very strong, there were also some weaknesses. After using Yatsufusa to summon creatures, it will temporarily weaken the user's ability and quickly consume physical strength.

The current user of March of the Dead: Yatsufusa was Kurome who was the girl in front.

Kurome and Akame, how similar the names were, yes, the two were sisters, but their fates were very different.

Akame was much more fortunate than Kurome. The army where Kurome at transformed her by drugs. Now Kurome could continue to fight unless her head was smashed or her heart was crushed, but her body function would collapse to some extent. So it was necessary for her to maintain her body by having medicine.

Kurome was very strong. If Yatsufusa's full power is used, she will be no problem to fight with all the members of the night raid directly. But because of physical strength, she couldn't hold it for long.

The biggest feature of Kurome was loving to eat and to protect her food, at this time she was holding a small bag filled with snacks.

Kurome was not shy, and she started eating small cookies after sitting down.

When Wave saw Kurome, he was joyful, and there was finally a normal peer. He immediately got up and walked to Kurome.

“You... hello, my name is Wave...”

Wave hadn't finished his words yet, Kurome immediately held the bag in front of her with both arms.

“I will not share my snack with you.”

Kurome's attitude was firm, and she looked at Wave vigilantly.

Wave stunned, she was also an abnormal girl.

“Excuse me.....”

Wave returned to the seat listlessly.

Kurome's dark eyes glanced around until she saw Su Xiao.

Kurome stood up and came to the seat next to Su Xiao to sit down.

“You have fought against my sister. She is Akame, she looks like me, and her pupils are red.”

Kurome held the bag with cookies and picked up pieces of cookies to eat.

“Oh, we fought.”

Kurome’s pupils flashed.

“So... you killed her?”

Because they weren’t in an assassination unit, Kurome only knew the general matter last night.

“In a few centimeters.”

Su Xiao’s answer made confused.

“I will give it to you, and you tell me what happened last night.”

Kurome handed a cookie after she seemed to have made up her mind.

Chapter 224: Simultaneous targets

“I met the night raid at noon yesterday, we fought, and I stabbed your sister’s heart position with the sword. She didn’t die; that’s it.”

Kurome nodded and continued to eat cookies.

“You are strong, and you surprisingly can fight with my sister.”

Two people walked into the room while Kurome was talking.

Run, a warm man with a blond hair, he was a teacher, got the Teigu upon the opportunity:

Thousand-Mile Flight: Mastema, this was a Tiegū with wings which could fly and shoot feathers.

Another person was Dr. Stylish, a homosexual scientist who liked to pursue fashion, and his Teigu was Glorious Hands of God: Perfector, it could do precise actions by fingers for hundreds of time.

Dr. Stylish was good at doing scientific research, but he was overconfident in the battle. He was blindly confident to fight with all the members of a night raid and eventually died.

There were six seats in the conference room, now six people had gathered.

The six people were Su Xiao, Wave, Kurome, Bols, Dr. Stylish, and Run.

After the death of the three beasts, this was Esdeath’s new assassination unit, new assassination unit was established mainly for dealing with the night raid.

After the sixth arrived, Bols got up and walked out of the conference room. After a while, he surprisingly took a few cups of tea.

Bols showed his character at this time, he first apologized to everyone, as the oldest person, he did not say a word till now.

He put a cup of tea in front of Su Xiao, he nodded and said please take care of me afterward, Su Xiao nodded.

Looking out of the door, he perceived Esdeath’s existence, the female general hiding there for a long time.

Boom!

The door was pushed open rudely, Esdeath with a mask entered the room.

“What are you doing here?”

Esdeath growled, five of the six people stood up. Su Xiao yawned. This is the Esdeath’s test to the newcomers. He was not a newcomer.

“Hey, we are asked to gather here...”

Wave first stepped forward, the boy from the fishing village was rustic.

Boom.

Esdeath lifted her leg and kicked Wave to fly for a few rounds, Bols found the situation weird and also rushed forward.

But Bols’s Teigu was not around, and he was certainly knocked down to the ground.

The rest of the three did not move, Run was more stable, and he vaguely guessed something.

Dr. Stylish and Kurome recognized that it was Esdeath; both of them were in the troops near the imperial capital.

They didn’t fight with Esdeath initially, but it didn’t mean that Esdeath would not take the initiative to do it.

Esdeath did not wear weapons, nor used the Teigu, and the three began to fight closely.

Less than a minute, Run had the same result with Wave, Dr. Stylish’s fighting power was weaker than his usual power; he was quickly knocked down, leaving only one Kurome.

“Don’t you attack?”

Kurome looked at Su Xiao, and this girl was smart.

“You solve it yourself...”

Su Xiao had not been finished his words, Esdeath kicked on him.

Su Xiao grabbed the dragon flash on the conference table by one hand and turned to retreat.

“Ha, laziness is a good habit.”

Esdeath rushed to Su Xiao, and she did not bring weapons or use the ice ability of the Teigu at this time.

Su Xiao raised the dragon flash which was in the sheath, Esdeath suddenly stopped.

“You’re too serious, and I almost have a headache. The flaws in your character are not correct at the time.”

Esdeath rushed forward again. She knew that if Su Xiao pulls out the knife, she can’t get any benefit, and she just was angry because she wanted Su Xiao to be serious, but Su Xiao was too serious and almost wanted to pull out the sword.

Looking around, Esdeath knew the test could be finished, and these new subordinates were not weak without using Teigu.

Esdeath took off the mask and looked at the few people in the conference room with a smile in her eyes.

”You perform well.”

A few people in the room were surprised when they saw Esdeath.

“General Esdeath!”

After hearing this title, Wave, who was lying on the ground, was desperate, and his boss was not normal as well.

“All put on formal clothes, and I will take you to meet the emperor, then have a party.”

Esdeath threw the mask in her hand.

“General, I may not be able to see the emperor temporarily.”

Su Xiao spoke, Esdeath looked at Su Xiao with doubts.

“The last night, I killed the minister’s man.”

Esdeath understood.

“Well, that’s true, but you did nice, you can come to the party.”

“Ok.”

Su Xiao sat in the conference room and saw the six people went far.

Now that he could enter the palace freely, the timing of completing the mainline task was not good now, and the situation had not been chaotic enough.

It is necessary to make the situation chaotic before the action, the contractors of the empire and the night raid unit had not moved. He needed to be careful.

Su Xiao began to plan carefully in his mind. Maybe he needed to leave the palace for a few days, and it was to make the situation chaotic and to prepare the Teigu that the drawing needed. If the plan goes smooth, the two can be done simultaneously.

After Esdeath took the other five people to see the little emperor and held a small party at her house that night, in fact, it was just having a meal, not a party which was letting the new members be familiar with each other. The fish brought by Wave was very delicious.

During this meal, Su Xiao saw how exaggerated that Kurome protected food, if some food she likes and other people dare to eat, she will stare at the person with the watery pupils.

Jaegers was established today with seven members, and the leader as Esdeath. The main target was the night raid.

Jaegers was just established. Esdeath did not immediately assign tasks. Instead, she gave all members a few days off to let the members of Jaegers familiarize the imperial capital, and it could make future actions more convenient.

After dinner, Su Xiao went to the third assassination unit, and the three beasts were dead. He became the chief here. This was unexpected luck.

Of course, the men in the third assassination unit were not obedient to Su Xiao, Su Xiao did not care; he only needed some information.

.....

Around eight o'clock that night, Su Xiao came to a restaurant, he sat down after ordering some food and wine which looked like feeling upset.

His goal was the owner of the grocery store in the opposite, and he was not to kill him but to monitor him.

The long monitoring began, Su Xiao keenly perceived every guest that the owner of the grocery store contacted until the owner met a middle-aged woman before the store closed.

“Mrs. Angel, what do you need?”

“I ran out of the salt at home.”

“I got it, and there is some nice salt in the store...”

The two were chatting, but what Su Xiao focused on was not in the conversation. The unintentional gesture between Mrs. Angel and the owner of the grocery store was what he cared.

Five minutes later, Mrs. Angel left, Su Xiao also left the restaurant.

With Su Xiao's tracing ability, Mrs. Angel, who was very sensitive, could not discover it.

Mrs. Angel was a housewife. After she went home, she cooked for her husband and son. Su Xiao observed this scene on the roof in the opposite to her house.

At about one o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Angel went out of her home and looked hurried.

Su Xiao smiled on the roof, he was lucky, he found the right person after following four targets.

Mrs. Angel walked on the street and looked around from time to time. After confirming that no one was tracking her, Mrs. Angel went out of the imperial capital.

Su Xiao tracked Mrs. Angel in distant. His goal this time was not simple; he needed to deal with it carefully.

Mrs. Angel talked to the man with black clothes in the suburb of the imperial capital. The two men left quickly after saying a few words, the man with black clothes ran into the forest.

Su Xiao gave up on following Mrs. Angel and turned to track the man with black clothes.

In this way, Su Xiao began patient to follow, the man with black clothes talked to other people again. Su Xiao changed the target to follow from one to another one.

It took two days and changed nine goals. Su Xiao arrived at the destination, a huge old castle hidden in the forest in the deep part of the mountain.

It was very likely that the headquarter of the Revolutionary Army!

It seemed that Su Xiao found the headquarter of the Revolutionary Army easily. He was definitely the best one at tracking in Akame Ga Kill world.

Chapter 225: Will

“Chu, chu.”

The forest at night was the beasts' territory. Various carnivores wandered in the woods, the poisonous insects and mouse also came out of the nest.

Su Xiao sat on a trunk, the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army was in a blaze, a large group of guards patrolled near the headquarters.

The revolutionary army had its uniform, and the troop was neat, it didn't look like a loose troop but a troop with abundant combat experience.

After observing for an hour, Su Xiao found that the number of people of the revolutionary army to patrol was more than one hundred. Behind the huge old castle was a large military camp. It looked like a troop had at least more than two thousand people.

This was only a resident troop. If the troops near the headquarters are fully mobilized, there will be at least tens of thousands of people.

Su Xiao did not dare to look down the army with this kind of scale, and the army marched in step and with long weapons was different from the ghouls. Once he was trapped in the troops, he would die in five minutes.

Su Xiao was preparing to sneak into the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army. The goal was to collect the Teigu, destroy them, and leave traces to make them think the imperial troop had come.

The revolutionary army had only two choices when the headquarters was found, and one was to attack the imperial capital, the second was to retreat.

At this time, the revolutionary army had already prepared to fight with the Empire, so it was unlikely for the headquarters to change the location at this time.

If the scale of the revolutionary army is not large now, it will be no problems for the headquarters to move, but now the revolutionary army had a prototype of a national organization with the troops of nearly one million people. If they relocate this time, it will demoralize heavily, so the revolutionary army would only fight with the empire quicker.

Su Xiao wanted this to happen.

Once the two sides started the war, the outer wall of the imperial capital would be the defensive line. Esdeath's army must fight with them. The two had similar strengths, and the war would last from half a month to two or three months.

The imperial capital in the war was the ideal imperial capital. Su Xiao would not forget another general with strong strength in the palace.

Jumping from the tree, Su Xiao's figure disappeared in the dark forest.

Ten minutes later, in the military camp behind the Revolutionary Army headquarters.

Su Xiao concealed his breath and sneaked into the military camp. He wanted to kidnap a small leader in an army to understand the general situation of the revolutionary army headquarters. If he sneaks into it without knowing anything, he will die soon.

The position of the person who was going to be kidnapped should not be too high, but should not be too low.

He could not kidnap the soldiers who were patrolling in the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army, and the Revolutionary Army is not easy to deal with, a soldier who was patrolling suddenly disappeared would be found out soon.

Soldiers who had already rested behind were different, at least no one would find out until tomorrow morning.

After avoiding the patrol unit in the military camp, Su Xiao began to perceive and check around every tent.

He was finding a military officer in a medium position needed skills; they had logos on the military uniform of the Revolutionary Army, fortunately.

Soon Su Xiao selected the target, after injecting an anesthetic drug and got into the tent to kidnap the person, the action was done smoothly which cost at most two minutes.

.....

The hands and the feet of the middle-aged man with pajamas were tied up, and his mouth was blocked, he struggled on the ground, the leaves were on his body.

“You don’t have to struggle. It’s at least one kilometer from the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army. Unless you are a lion, they can’t hear you.”

Because there were trees covered, even if he screamed with full strength, the sound would only go for a few hundred meters away, even his sound was loud the half-mile would be the limit, so Su Xiao took away the rags in the middle-aged officer’s mouth.

“The empires... assassination unit.”

The middle-aged officer’s voice was rusty, and his lips were trembling. He knew how miserable he would be after being kidnapped by the assassination unit, especially if the person wanted to get information from him.

“Don’t be nervous, although I have a bad habit of killing people, and I don’t have the hobby to torture people. Answer me a few questions, and I will let you die soon.”

It was the most stupid behavior to let people alive after you kidnapped the, especially he would sneak into the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army later.

“I, I won’t say anything, wait, when we overthrow the empire, the assassination unit will not have good results.”

The middle-aged officer tried to bite his tongue, but Su Xiao just looked at him with a smile and did not stop him.

He will not die after biting the tongue. The middle-aged officer also knew this, but he feared that he could not hold under assassination unit's torturing, so he abandoned the ability to speak.

Su Xiao did not care whether he could speak if he cannot say, cannot he write? The officer may be brave and good at war, but he was not professional at in the interrogation.

“Huh.”

After a stuffy sound, the middle-aged officer's mouth bleed, the tears, and snot went out together, biting his tongue was more painful than he imagined, he only gave up when he bit out one-third of the tongue.

“Go on, and I appreciate your heroic behavior. If you can successfully bite your tongue, I will just let you die directly. There are thousands of people in your military camp. I will, at most, kidnap another person. I don't believe that everyone in the revolutionary army is so brave.”

The middle-aged officer's sight of darkening, the pain had already made him unable to judge.

“Spark Priesterry, this name is really long, huh? Do you live in a nearby village? You have a daughter, two sons, and the eldest son is in the army as well.”

Su Xiao threw away the information in his hand, which he just found in the tent.

“This photo is your family, right? What will happen if I go to your home?”

Su Xiao put a photo in front of the middle-aged officer. The middle-aged officer was very unstable. He screamed for a few times. The angry flame in his eyes seemed to burn Su Xiao to die.

“I don't know whether you have not heard a sentence. The most important thing for a family is to die neatly. What do you think? Terry.”

Middle-aged officer, Terry's body, became stiff.

“Not, not right.”

Terry's voice was unclear, biting his tongue made him speak unclearly.

“Or we work in this way. I ask questions, you answer. If you don't agree with me, I will kill your eldest son now, and if you lie, I will kill your wife, you tell half of the truth, I will kill your daughter. Hey, your daughter is pretty, then I won't kill her.”

Terry's was desperate.

“I, I said.”

Terry was a farmer before becoming a revolutionary army. He became a small captain with the mind of daring to fight. Under Su Xiao's mental attacks, Terry was frightened.

Su Xiao did not touch Terry from the beginning, and he was not good at torturing the enemy's flesh; he was better at destroying the enemy's will.

“It's the best.”

Su Xiao tore the photo in his hand when he was talking, Terry's sights were full of excitement. This may mean that Su Xiao would not go to hurt his family.

Simple desperation could only make people numb, but if there is a little hope in desperation, it will be different.

“How many people are at the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army? I mean everyone, including people for cooking and doing odds and ends.”

Terry's mouth opened and closed, and he didn't say anything for a long time.

“Wait for me for ten minutes, and I will let you see your eldest son.”

“12,000 people.”

Terry screamed, and there were some water came out of his mouth. At this time, Terry kept apologizing in his mind.

‘for my family, for my family...’

Terry repeated this sentence in his mind to reduce the guilt.

“I don't really believe in you, and I should still bring your eldest son here.”

Su Xiao walked slowly toward the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army.

“Really, it is 12,000 people. Right, right. More than 9,000 people are out. They will return at noon tomorrow. The remaining 2000 are resident troops. There are probably 900 officials. Believe in me, and I don't lie to you.

You bastard, come back, don't go to the military camp! ”

In the end, Terry almost screamed out.

“Oh? Then forget it, let's continue.”

Chapter 226: The special key

“Is there any Teigu user in the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army?”

Terry nodded.

“How many people?”

”Most of Teigu users do their tasks outside, and there are only one Teigu users at the headquarters.”

“Ability.”

“Firing the city, melting the steel, fire sword...”

Terry began to describe the ability of the Teigu, and it would be not difficult to sell out his companions after he spoke.

“One Teigu user and the troop with two thousand men? It seems that I have to be careful.”

Su Xiao generally understood the situation of the Revolutionary Army headquarters.

“Where is the Teigu storehouse of the revolutionary army, how can I enter it?”

Terry’s head lowered, it seemed that he was thinking about something.

“I have a request. If you promise me, I will tell you all the information I know. I also know these things by chances.”

Terry’s eyes shined, something called humanity was going to appear.

“Say it.”

“I need money, a lot of money, you are a member of the assassination unit, you should have a lot of money, or money is just a concept for you.”

“Ok.”

Su Xiao threw a bag of gems to Terry. Terry smiled bitterly.

“I know, I will die, I don’t need these things, I want to give this money to my wife.”

Su Xiao looked curious.

”Don’t you fear that I will kill them?”

“Hahahahaha.”

Terry laughed.

“In this kind of world, what will they happen if I die? My son is just an ordinary soldier. My daughter is so beautiful that many people covet. It will be different with money. Only money can solve the problems.”

Terry’s face distorted. He hated this world and this unfair world.

“Ok.”

Su Xiao simply answered.

“I don’t believe in you.”

Su Xiao was stunned.

“You have no choice, and I don’t have much patience.”

“Ok.”

Terry began to describe the situation he knew. He was a good father, not a good soldier. Loyalty and allegiance could not exist both from ancient times, no giving no gains.

Terry gave up his faith and chose his family. This was humanity, not a shameful thing.

“I am just a little leader, and I don’t know much.”

Dragon flash appeared in his hands, and the moonlight illuminated the blade, the long sword cut through the night sky, bright red blood splashed out.

“Lina.”

Terry fell to the ground, and the blood squirted out from his throat.

It was late at night, and it had a good show in this old-growth forest where no one had been here for a long time.

Su Xiao picked up the bag of gems which was stained by the blood. He only cut one knife from the beginning was to kill Terry.

Terry’s strength was too weak, and he did not drop the treasure chest, killing him only added 2 points of his mana values.

Walking out of the old-growth forest, Su Xiao began to find the flaws of the patrol team.

Half an hour later, a figure appeared from the forest, just as the time that patrol team changed shifts.

Thirty seconds later, the patrol teams around the old castle increased.

Su Xiao was on the roof of the old castle. This old castle was at least forty meters high.

It was impossible to sneak into the main entrance. Su Xiao looked down and quickly found a window which was opened.

Under the night, Su Xiao climbed on the outer wall of the castle like a gecko, after confirming the terrain inside the window he turned his body to get in.

This was a corridor, Su Xiao ran to the direction of the stairs after checking at the floor.

This storehouse was in the basement. If he wants to enter Teigu storehouse, it will not work by opening it forcibly. The sound would alarm the revolutionary army inside the old castle. He had another strategy.

Su Xiao’s current situation was actually very dangerous. Once he was discovered, it would be surrounded by the Revolutionary Army.

Su Xiao, who was in the corridor, suddenly stopped, he jumped up on the wall aside and grabbed the chandelier lamp on the roof.

“How is your wife recently, she’s going to deliver a baby, right?”

“You little guy, there are still two months, don’t be single, I see Tess who is in the logistics department often winks at you, won’t you...”

A burst of laughter came; this was a patrol team with six members.

The patrol team quickly passed through the corridor, and they did not find out a person at their tops for five meters.

Crack.

A slight sound came, a member of the patrol team looked up with doubts, and eventually found nothing.

At this time, Su Xiao ran quickly on the stairs. The chandelier had not been repaired for a long time just made sounds, but fortunately, he responded quickly enough.

On the third floor of the old castle, Su Xiao perceived whether there were guards in the corridor.

The corridor was quiet, and the patrol team just passed through here, the situation of the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army was only intense outside.

Su Xiao walked silently through the corridor, like the elf in the night. "Thirteenth room, fourteenth room, here."

Su Xiao came to a room with a small piece of hemp rope and wire, which was as long as two fingers.

Crack, crack, crack.

The door was opened, Su Xiao sneaked into the room.

"Who is it? It's midnight now."

A lazy girl's sound came; she sounded young.

Su Xiao rushed to the sound source and put himself into a big bed.

"Woo."

The short and low voice came, Su Xiao used a pillow to press on the short figure's head.

The short figure was obviously frightened and struggled in the comforter.

It made sense that the girl who was sleeping was waken up at midnight after being suddenly pressed by people. She could not be described as having good mental quality.

She struggled for a while; the woman under the pillow did not move, Su Xiao took the pillow away, this woman could not die.

He checked her breath, and she was not dead.

The white moonlight shined into the room; the girl who passed out was beautiful and short.

She looked like seventeen or eight years old, but her height was only about one meter forty.

Su Xiao took out an anesthetic to inject her. After carrying this girl, he began to sneak into Revolutionary Army's basement.

On the first floor of the old castle, the guards here were obviously more, and there were a few guards standing at the entrance.

The light of the fire shined the first floor of the old castle, Su Xiao, who was carrying a half-naked girl, escaped several guards.

From the position of the stairs to the left side of the first floor, this was the stairs to the basement.

Su Xiao's index finger pressed on the ground to perceive the situation below.

“One, two, three... twelve guards?”

It could not obviously work by breaking into it, and if he kills one by one knife, his plan will fail when these guards just screamed.

Su Xiao took out a gas mask to put on his face. After perceiving the direction of the wind, he poured a bottle of black medicine on the ground.

Sis.

White smoke appeared, this was also an anesthetic, which was different from the one that was dealt with the prince in the extreme north.

That one was colorless and odorless, but the effect was a little slow, it was not suitable to use now. When some of the twelve guards fell down first, others would immediately find out.

This medicine's effect was faster and was suitable to use now, but it had a pungent smell.

“What is this..?”

Boom, boom, the sound of falling down incessantly came.

Su Xia walked down the stairs after waiting for a minute. Soon, a huge metal door appeared in front of him.

If he wants to destroy this metal door quickly, he could only enter it through the normal way unless he had bombs with super strong power. However, the normal way was somewhat weird, and the key could not open the door.

Chapter 227: Robbing others' treasure house

Standing in front of the metal door, Su Xiao began to check the structure of the door.

The entire metal door was very firm with a lot of gears and traps.

“It seems that the guy didn't lie.”

Su Xiao put down the girl on his shoulder and lifted the girl's thin arm to put into the hole in the metal door.

Crack...

The gears on the metal door began to work, and the metal door gradually rose after a few seconds.

This thing was not just a door, and it was a Shingu.

The so-called Shingu was fake Teigu, it imitated Teigu's crafts, but compared with Teigu, Shingu's ability was much worse.

After Teigu appeared for four hundred years, an emperor wanted to make Teigu again, but he finally made a fake Teigu which was worse than Teigu.

The emperor felt the shame of this, so he hid all the Shingu. After a few hundred years, the empire took out to use these Shingu due to the war.

The door in front was a kind of Shingu, called Mosenia forever strong door, only this Shingu's user could open it.

The girl who was kidnapped by Su Xiao was this Shingu's user. It was difficult to open this door without this girl, only crude way to open it.

He perceived the situation around which was safe, but he was not urged to enter the revolutionary army's Teigu storehouse.

Su Xiao's eyes slightly opened, he lowered his body to look into the basement, some wires which were hard to notice were scattered throughout the basement.

He took out a package of powder, Su Xiao spilled the powder into the basement.

A red mist spread in the basement and gradually fell to the ground, hundreds of red wires appeared.

It would trigger the alarm when he touched these red wires. These wires should be able to be removed. The little leaver that he just caught may not know the presence of such wires, Su Xiao just discovered it.

It was fortunate that he could understand that 'Bosnia forever strong door', he could be not too greedy.

He carefully observed the wires in the basement, Su Xiao found a gap in the wires.

There was a wooden table with several Teigu in the center of the basement.

He lowered his body and climbed through the wires, now he will expose if he is careless.

As time went by, Su Xiao slowly approached the wooden table in the basement, which was a very delicate job.

Ten meters, five meters, three meters.

Su Xiao walked to the front of the wooden table. At this time there were dense wires around his body. If he slightly moves, his body will touch the wires.

Su Xiao could touch the Teigu on the wooden table by raising his hands, but things didn't go so smoothly.

The Teigu was placed on the wooden table was entwined with a lot of wires; it will definitely trigger the alarm if he just picks the Teigu up.

Su Xiao had other methods, and he just went through the room full of infrared, not to mention these metal wires.

Before entering the reincarnation paradise, Su Xiao had the habit of carrying some tools, not to mention that he had the storage space now.

Taking out a plier which was as big as a palm and many other tools, Su Xiao began to remove the alarm system in the room.

The alarm system must be triggered by these wires. He had just tried, as long as he didn't pull these wires too hard, it would be fine.

The source of the alarm system was in the wall, and he could give up on this; that was, he could only make changes on the wires.

He cut every metal wire by hands and fixed the wires together. After five minutes, he got the first Teigu.

Su Xiao did not check the Teigu's function and directly put it away. There were five Teigus on the wooden table; there was also a biological Teigu among them, which made him happy.

As long as there was no mistake, he could collect all the items that the drawing needed today.

Su Xiao's fingers were flexible and stable, Teigus was put into the storage space by him one by one.

Two pieces, three pieces, four pieces.

Su Xiao looked at the last Teigu, which was the biological Teigu, the biological Teigu was put in a medium-sized test tube which was filled with an aqua solution.

Because its size was large, the Teigu was twined with the largest amount of the metal wires. He tried to open this test tube and directly took out the biological Teigu, but the test tube was sealed.

Other Teigu were at most twined with a dozen metal wires, but this test tube, which was a half meter high, was twined with tens of metal wires.

He moved his fingers which were somewhat sore, Su Xiao continued after breathing deeply.

This was the Teigu storehouse of the Revolutionary Army. The guards outside the door may change from time to time. He had entered the basement for an hour.

He could stay for at most two hours, which was planned by Su Xiao previously.

He could take risks, but he couldn't take risks without plans. It was not worth to lose his life for a biological Teigu.

He broke the wires one by one and the time slipped through his fingers.

Half an hour later, there were three metal wires on the test tube.

Crack, he cut off the last wire and fixed it. Su Xiao pressed on the test tube by his hands, the test tube disappeared.

Su Xiao slowly treated from the basement; those dense metal wires in the basement could not stop him.

He breathed a long sigh of relief after reaching the door of the basement, and this made him more tired than having a fight.

Su Xiao pressed his forehead a bit because he had to perceive the surrounding while he was removing the traps in the basement. Doing too many things at the same time made him very tired.

The perception of the surrounding began to be blurred. Su Xiao knew that this was the aftereffect of running out of the energy. He could recover after taking a rest, and he had experienced this situation before.

His perception was somewhat recovered, Su Xiao had pupils constrictions for a while.

Someone came and ran straight to the basement. What's more terrible was that there was only one way to the basement; he even did not have the place to hide in the smooth steel wall.

He turned his head to look at the basement, and he shook his head because if he returns to the basement, he will be caught.

Run out directly! And he needed to run in a hurry.

Dragon flash appeared in his hand, Su Xiao looked up at the top of the stairs; the enemy was approaching.

A royal aunt with a white hair walked out from the corner, and there were several officers of the Revolutionary Army next to her.

Su Xiao rushed to the steps, and he could not waste any second.

“Najenda?”

Su Xiao, who was running, looked at the royal aunt with a white hair, he actually met Najenda, the head of the night raid.

Najenda was stunned after seeing Su Xiao, and her eyes popped out of her head.

“By...Byakuya!”

Najenda bit her teeth tightly, just wanted to scream, Su Xiao had rushed forward.

At this moment, Su Xiao would not talk nonsense with his enemies.

“Come...”

Najenda had not finished her scream, Su Xiao's long sword had already come to cut down, Najenda stepped back subconsciously.

Snigger.

The blood was splashed on Su Xiao's body; the soldiers of the revolutionary army stood in front of Najenda were already killed.

Several soldiers of the revolutionary arm subconsciously rushed forward to protect Najenda, and silver sword light flashed, limbs splashed, several people were suddenly killed, Su Xiao rushed to the front of Najenda, Najenda's speed was very slow and seemed to be a little weak.

dragon flash cut through the air, the sword light was noticeable abnormally in the moonlight.

Snigger.

Najenda was slashed into two sections from the lower abdomen. Su Xiao was standing on the steps and could only cut at Najenda's waist.

Najenda, who was attacked, slammed into the ground.

“Ahhhh!!”

Najenda was not screaming, but deliberately yelling to attract the attention of other soldiers' of the revolutionary army. Under Su Xiao's sword, she had no time to speak.

Su Xiao came to the front of Najenda. Although she must die, he still could not let her continue to yell, and he needed to solve her as soon as possible.

Bang.

A loud sound came from above, a man who was naked broke the ceiling and jumped down from it, the person who was the humanoid creature which was in the testing stage, The Speed of Lightning: Susanoo.

Chapter 228:

The Speed of Lightning: Susanoo was a humanoid creature Teigu, mainly responsible for taking care of the owner and serving as a guard. Najenda got the right of using this Teigu after returning to the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army this time. Susanoo was in the testing stage. Otherwise, he would follow the owner inseparably.

The reason why did Najenda come to the basement was to find the girl who was responsible for managing Teigu. Najenda found that the girl was not in the room when she was in her room, and the bedding in the room was neat. She thought that the girl might do a routine inspection in the basement.

After all, Teigu was stored in the basement, checking it every morning was necessary.

When she arrived at the entrance of the basement, Najenda met Su Xiao.

The fate was so wonderful, Najenda found Su Xiao who sneaked into the headquarters, but she lost her life because of this.

Susanoo blocked in front of Najenda, after seeing Najenda's injuries, Susanoo knew that his owner was going to die.

“Susanoo...the last order, drag...”

The arm that Najenda raised slammed heavily on the ground, Susanoo slammed to the ground as well. After the owner died, the biological Tiegū would lose energy.

[You killed Najenda.]

[Najenda is a key figure in the plot, gaining 3.9% of the sources of the world, and now you have a total of 12.2% of the sources of the world.]

[Your talent 'Psychic' is launched, permanently adding 13 points of mana values, the current mana values are 517 points.]

When the remainder of the reincarnation paradise appeared, Su Xiao had already picked up the treasure chest that Najenda dropped and ran far away.

Although Susanoo was a Teigu, Su Xiao did not look at it at all.

The headquarters of the Revolutionary Army was like a hive that had been stabbed, the screams, sirens, and horns of the army were connected.

Su Xiao quickly ran in the corridor to look for a window, and he finally found a window after running for a dozen meters away.

He suddenly broke through the window and rushed to the forest a few hundred meters away.

“The enemy is there! Everyone chases him at full speed.”

The army which was assembled incompletely swarmed up and surrounded Su Xiao with inverted U shape.

But how could these ordinary soldiers run faster than Su Xiao, although these soldiers were closer to the forest, when Su Xiao ran a dozen meters away from the forest, only a few dozen soldiers were in front of Su Xiao.

Su Xiao rushed straightly through it and ignored the soldiers' reach weapons.

Rushing to the front of dozens of soldiers, Su Xiao opened the attached skill of the blue pendant [Mikasa's mind] asylum.

Asylum (active): Quickly form an invisible shield to escape the attack. The shield's durability was equivalent to 70% of the owner's maximum life value, and it could last for 10 seconds.

A layer of transparent light shell appeared around his body, and he ignored the soldiers' attacks, the dragon flashes in his hand quickly cut.

Puchi, Puchi.

The blood poured out, Su Xiao only attacked not defended. The shield formed by 'the asylum' blocked all the attacks from soldiers' weapons.

Crack, crack...

The crisp sounds were connected, the palms of the soldiers who attacked Su Xiao were numb.

The durability of the shield had dropped by more than half through these attacks, which showed the horror of the military team.

Of course, Su Xiao only attacked, which also had an influence on this.

Where Su Xiao went through were full of screams and sorrows, he cut out a bloody path in the dozens of soldiers, a bloody path to escape.

He cut to kill the last soldier in front of him by one knife, Su Xiao rushed into the forest. The durability of the shield was only two points left.

The hurry footsteps came behind him; thousands of soldiers formed a military team.

If Su Xiao is slower for a few seconds, he will be surrounded by the military team.

“Thief, don't think about escaping.”

A young man with a long sword followed Su Xiao to rush into the forest. The young man held a long red sword; the temperature of the long sword was not low.

Thousands of soldiers also entered the forest, and the sky had already gotten bright.

“This is.....”

A girl with a long hair ate a lollipop walked out of the Revolutionary Army headquarters, and she wore headphones and a uniform with British style.

“Chelsea, track the enemy quickly, the specific situation is still unknown, but I just heard Najenda scream.”

An old soldier of the revolutionary army came quickly, and he was in the top position of the revolutionary army.

“Hey, I only came back less than an hour.”

“Don’t talk nonsense, Najenda may be killed.”

Chelsea’s pretty face became stiff.

“Najenda was killed?”

Chelsea felt somewhat unbelievable.

“I’m not sure, go ahead, your tracking ability is the strongest, you have to catch the enemy, don’t think about catching him, bring his body back directly.”

“I got it.”

Chelsea opened the cosmetic case she brought and took out a few pieces of cosmetics in her fingers.

Boom.

After a white smoke appeared, Chelsea became a cat, yes, it was a cat.

Chelsea was the Teigu user of the Revolutionary Army. The Teigu was Phantasmagoria: Gaea Foundation, she could become anything according to her own wishes.

“Be careful.”

An old soldier of the revolutionary army warned her.

Chelsea, who became a cat, nodded, the cat’s nose twitched and walked into the forest while waving her tail.

In the forest.

Su Xiao quickly walked through the trees. It was dangerous, this time. It was not difficult to sneak into the headquarters of the Revolutionary Army. His perception slacked for a while. Otherwise, this kind of situation would not happen.

He was unfortunate. He was just too tired and drifted off for a little while, but Najenda surprisingly came at this time.

All these things had passed, Su Xiao was now successfully got away from troubles, the army behind could not catch up with him.

One thing made Su Xiao very concerned. A young man was chasing not far behind him. The young man looked ordinary, but the sword in his hand was good.

Su Xiao perceived his distance from the army, his footsteps slowed down to keep the speed that the army could not catch up, but the young man could.

The race started, two hours later, the army behind disappeared completely, and the young man's footsteps slowed down.

Su Xiao suddenly stopped, holding dragon flash and looking behind.

“Huh, huh, you, thief, finally can't run away.”

The young man breathed heavily, and he pointed at Su Xiao with the long red sword in his hand.

“Silly.”

Su Xiao stepped on the ground, the soil splashed, he had already rushed to the front of the young man before the soil landed.

The young man subconsciously put the sword in front of him, Su Xiao's pace of rushing forward suddenly stopped. His figure appeared on the side of the young man after he moved to the side.

The young man's mouth opened wide, and he seemed that was somewhat unable to believe this scene, the sight was like to say is this possible?

Puchi.

Dragon flash went straight into the young man's side rib and got out from the shoulder on the other side.

“It's impossible.....”

The young man slammed into the ground, and there was no treasure chest appeared.

[You killed Jerry Yates]

[Your talent 'psychic' is launched, permanently adding 4 points of mana values, and the current mana values are 521 points.]

As a Teigu user, he did not have the sources of the world. He should be the weak one that has just acquired a Teigu. The strongmen of the revolutionary army were all in night raid...

Although the young man did not drop the treasure chest, the Teigu fell to the ground.

Su Xiao picked it up and checked its attributes, and he nodded with satisfaction.

People in Akame Ga Kill world could directly take the Teigu after killing the Teigu user, but they could not bring those Teigu, if the attributes match, they can use in this world, and the Teigu will become the sources of the world when they are about to going back to the reincarnation paradise.

If you want to get the Tegiu that can take away from Akame Ga Kill world, you need to get it from the treasure chest after killing the Teigu user.

He put the long sword away and continued to move forward, and he was also very tired after he ran for such a long time. It could be described as he was physically and mentally exhausted.

After he kept running for three hours, Su Xiao was completely safe. This army could not be caught up with him in this kind of distance. During this period, he not only covered his footprints along the way but also swam through a river to cover his smell.

According to the map he obtained in the third assassination unit, Su Xiao found a small town.

It was not too far from the capital city. The population in the town was large, but it was not prosperous. The lives of the residents were somewhat hard up.

He found a hotel in the town, Su Xiao took a shower after getting a room. Although he was still tired, the whole person refreshed a lot.

He sat on the bed and took out the Teigu he got this time, six pieces of Teigu.

Five pieces were obtained in the basement of the Revolutionary Army, and he got one by killing the young man who chased him.

Su Xiao took out the “blueprint for revising the Teigu” and took out three pieces of Teigu in the storage space. He was ready to start synthesis.

“What will I get in the end, don’t let me down.”

Chapter 229

Su Xiao took out [the blueprint for revising Teigu and put the drawing on the bed.

The first was the two blanks of the main material.

The first blank was to put a biological Teigu, Su Xiao looked at the test tube placed on the bed.

The test tube was about a half meter high, and it was filled with an aqua solution. A white puppy doll was soaked in the solution.

This was the capital’s Teigu, named Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires, the user was a military girl named Seryu Ubiquitous, a member of Jaeger in the original plot.

This Teigu appeared in the revolutionary army, indicating that Seryu Ubiquitous was dead.

In the original plot, Seryu Ubiquitous confronted with Sheele and other people in the night raid. In the end, Seryu Ubiquitous won, the night raid defeated, Sheele died, and other people fled.

Now, it was Seryu Ubiquitous died. Sheele was still alive, and it must be intervened by contractors.

Su Xiao took out dragon flash to cut open the top of the test tube and pulled out the puppy doll. The puppy which was forty centimeters long was motionless and obviously did not match with Su Xiao’s attribute.

Look at the properties of Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires, the price of this thing was as high as 3% of the sources of the world.

Su Xiao put Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires on the main place of the “blueprint of revising Teigu.”

[Yes/No, put ‘Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires ‘ into the ‘blueprint of revising Teigu’, which could not be taken back after filling in.]

He chose yes, Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires in his hand gradually shrank, finally the main space of “blueprint of revising Teigu” appeared an image of a puppy.

In addition to the biological Teigu, it also needed the spirit of dangerous species. Su Xiao also had. He took out the spirit of the giant wolf Fenrir.

It was also filled into the “blueprint of revising Teigu”, this time there were two cute version images, one was a wolf, and one was a dog.

What will a wolf and a dog equal? Wolf dog? Su Xiao was not clear, but he vaguely had a bad feeling.

Recollection, Su Xiao waited the extent of matching of the two which was judged by [blueprint of revising Teigu], only the degree of matching was more than 60% could continue to synthesize.

[Judging the degree of matching]...

[Drop, The degree of matching of ‘Magical Beast Transformation: Hekatonkheires’ and ‘Fenrir’s spirit’ is 96%, there is no rejection, the success rate is greatly improved.]

This result made Su Xiao surprisingly happy, and now he only needed to fill in the accessory materials.

Su Xiao obtained a total of six Teigu this time, leaving biological Teigu he still had five pieces.

He also obtained three Teigu in the capital city before. He had eight Teigu now.

The position of the accessory material could be filled in at most seven pieces of Teigu, and he could have one left.

Choosing among the eight Teigu, Su Xiao finally left the long red sword, and he had a thought that did not whether it could achieve.

The main position of the blueprint of revising Teigu was filled in, and the accessory position was also filled in. The whole parchment was full of images of various Teigu.

There were forty-eight Teigu in the empire. There were eight Teigu on this parchment. If the existence of this parchment is known by the Empire or the Revolutionary Army, the two sides will surely chase him forever.

“Huh.”

Su Xiao breathed a long sigh of relief. At this time, he was also a little nervous. The Teigu that had been harvested since he got in Akame Ga Kill world was basically all here. These Teigu could be sold as the sources of the world.

[Requirements of Synthesis have been reached, yes / no start to synthesize.]

“Start to synthesize.”

After Su Xiao confirmed, the whole parchment paper shined white light, the eight Teigu gradually dissolved.

Roar!!

A roar came, it was the illusion of the giant wolf Fenrir.

In the sight of this giant wolf was full of unwillingness, it seemed to be clear that its consciousness would dissipate.

But this drawing was the item that reincarnation park certified. Su Xiao had never seen any creatures were able to resist the power of the reincarnation park.

The drawing gradually calms down, the whole parchment began to shrink, eventually forming a metal ball which was as big as a football. The metal ball was wriggling, some kind of life was breeding in this.

Su Xiao tried to touch the metal ball, the hint of the reincarnation park appeared.

[Synthesizing... it will take eight hours and five minutes.]

Su Xiao put his hand on the metal ball, intending to put the metal ball into the storage space.

[It can't be put into the storage space during synthesis, 73% chance of fluctuations of space will lead to synthetic failure.]

Su Xiao's expression changed, it was bad news that it could not be put into the storage space.

He almost could not hold. He was exhausted previously, now he had a severe headache and needed a rest.

If he doesn't take a break, it will be very troublesome when he encounters enemies during this period. He could use at most 50% of his combat power.

It was obviously not a way to hold for eight hours. He took out some wires in the storage space and placed some trap alerts on the room and door.

Taking out three bombs with small power, Su Xiao linked them on the wires. If someone comes in, the bomb will be triggered. Although it couldn't kill the enemy, it was a good alarm.

After finishing all this, he began to have a top-heavy feeling and fell into the bed, after a few seconds he fell into a deep sleep, although it was somewhat risky, he had to do so.

At the same time, a mountain region in a few kilometers away, a beautiful girl with a long hair was sitting on the ground, she was Chelsea who was tracking Su Xiao.

At this time, Chelsea's hair was messy, the headphones on her head had disappeared, her appearance was ragged.

"Is it normal? Does this guy have Persecutory Type? He placed more than 20 traps along the way."

Chelsea opened the gin trap on her shoes with full power, and this thing almost broke her leg.

“I have no strength to chase anymore. There must be a lot of traps along the way. If I keep trashing, I will die before finding the enemy.”

Chelsea looked at surroundings vigilantly, on the way of pursuing Su Xiao, she felt that the whole world was targeting her.

“Persecutory Type, pervert, I hate the assassination unit!”

Chelsea punched the ground and leaned on a large stone.

“I will continue to chase after resting for a while.”

Although she said to take a break, Chelsea’s breath was more and more stable, she was obviously falling asleep.

Chelsea’s tracing ability was not weak, and she could find hereafter Su Xiao covered his traces.

But Chelsea did not know that if she continues to chase, there are various surprises waiting for her.

In order to prevent being tracked by the enemies, Su Xiao put a lot of traps along the way. Some traps were noticed easily. Others were very difficult to detect.

Revolutionary army headquarters would soon see the effect though Su Xiao’s actions. He had been wearing the third assassination unit’s uniform. The revolutionary army would know that he was the men of the empire as long as they are not stupid.

Moreover, the revolutionary army lost Najenda the important cadre, and it was adding fuel to the fire.

In Su Xiao’s original plan, the revolutionary army may not directly confront the empire in the first ten days.

Su Xiao’s judgment was wrong this time. After the soldiers of the Revolutionary Army returned without success, the leader of the revolutionary army was angry and ordered to mass troops to attack the capital city immediately.

The revolutionary army had already prepared. This incident was only a fuse. The revolutionary army was like a gunpowder barrel which would explode through lighting. Su Xiao’s actions were to pour a pot of red charcoal fire on the gunpowder barrel.

A war that would change the world was about to begin.

Chapter 230: Bob

Su Xiao had slept for more than ten hours. He was too tired this time.

Su Xiao felt that a warm thing was closing to his face; it was still breathing.

At first, Su Xiao thought that he was dreaming, even if he had fallen already asleep, he could feel it if he was in danger.

The feeling of wetness appeared, Su Xiao opened his eyes after his cheeks twitched, it was not a dream!

A long face which looked like a dog and a wolf appeared in front of him. A pair of black eyes were staring at Su Xiao, and his sights were full of curiosity.

Su Xiao's scalp was numb, and he turned around to get up directly. He did not notice that a creature was close to him.

He kicked the 'huge beast', which was more than one meter high and three meters long, on the bed to fly. This thing was larger than the tiger's body.

The 'huge beast' was kicked flying as it screamed piteously.

Dragon flash appeared in his hand, Su Xiao looked at the unknown creature in front of him.

This creature's hair was smooth was black and white, the black hair was on the back, and white hair was on the chest. It looked similar to the giant wolf Fenrir and very majestic. It also had some characteristics of dogs.

Howl.

The unknown creature raised its head to scream and looked wronged after being kicked. It wanted to close to Su Xiao but was somewhat hesitated.

Su Xiao relieved, he was completely awake, he knew the matter roughly, this unknown creature was not dangerous.

"Sit down."

Su Xiao tried to make orders. The unknown creature immediately sat on the ground, and a furry tail was shaking. It seemed that it was happy to be commanded by Su Xiao.

"Down."

The unknown creatures immediately did it, and the dark eyes were full of joy; its tongue stretched out and gasped.

"Roll a circle."

The unknown creature rolled on the ground in the direction of Su Xiao's feet.

Su Xiao touched the unknown creature with his fingers, the hint of the reincarnation paradise appeared.

[Teigu: tearing space bad dogs, Bubby, the owner is Su Xiao, whether to check the information.]

Su Xiao scowled. This Teigu was classified into the dog breed. He was more interested in the dog breed than the wolf breed.

The loyalty of dogs couldn't be compared with any other animals. The dog was a human's most loyalist partner.

For a person, raising a dog was only part of life, and for that dog, the owner was the whole world.

Tearing space bad dogs, Bubby (Teigu)

Life value: 100%

Mana value: 260

Strength: 12

Agility: 15

Physical strength: 20

Intelligence: 26

Charm: 10

Skill 1: Rushing with full speed (active): When this skill was turned on, Bobtney's moving speed will increase by 100%, it consumed 10 points of mana values per minute, it could carry heavy things.

Skill 2: The gift of the goddess of the snow (aura): It could generate an aura of a goddess of the snow, and restore the companions' life values of 1 point every second. No consumption, the recovery effect would improve according to the intelligence property.

Skill 3: Guarding owner loyally (active): Consumed 50% of mana values, and restored 50% of the owner's life values in 3 seconds, the cooling time was 48 hours.

.....

Su Xiao was shocked after reviewing Bobtney's information; its physics and intelligence attributes were actually higher than his.

Even if he doesn't look at the property, Bubtney was also an accessory Teigu which could be called as the best quality, and it was the amount and a healer.

If he had Bubtney before, Su Xiao would not be as embarrassed as he was now, he could know how fast the moving speed increased by 100% by calculating Bubtney's agile attribute.

Bubtney's agility attribute was 15 points, 100% was equivalent to a double, that was, the moving speed of 30 points of the agility attribute.

And Bubtney's skill 2 and skill 3 were recovery skills, and skill 2 was recovery for a whole day, the recovery amount of skill 3 was surprisingly high.

Su Xiao was very satisfied with Bubtney's ability, although its property was not low, Bubtney's combat power should not be strong; after all, it had the only skill to support.

But Bubtney's auxiliary ability was very strong, and it combined the abilities of chasing, escaping, and recovering together.

For the biological Teigu, Su Xiao did not want it had a strong fighting power. He had been accustomed to fighting alone. He would not be used to have an assistant suddenly.

Bubtney could stand by while he was in the battle. If the battle did not go smoothly, Su Xiao could ride on Bubtney to escape.

Bubtney's size was not small, and the power attribute was 12 points; it would be absolutely no problem to ride.

Su Xiao asked Bubtney to stand in front of him, he rolled over and rode on Bubtney's back.

Bubtney did not react; its body was very stable, which made Su Xiao very satisfied.

“Rush forward.”

Bubtney immediately did it.

Boom.

Bubtney and Su Xiao both hit on the wall, and a large hole was knocked out on the wall, dust rose.

Su Xiao brushed down the dust on the head.

“This silly dog.”

Su Xiao looked at Bubtney speechlessly, and the dog was stroking on his body.

Unlike the imagination, Bubtney seemed to be a bit stupid, Su Xiao let it rush forward, it actually rushed forward until it hit the wall.

Perhaps even if Su Xiao asks Bubtney to die, Bubtney will do it.

Su Xiao observed the appearance of Bubtney, and it looked more familiar.

“Will it be...”

Su Xiao thought of a kind of a dog, in reality, the black and white color on the head, which was roughly the same as the wolf...

Bubtney began to walk around Su Xiao, and it seemed that he would be happy when it saw Su Xiao.

Su Xiao gave a pat on Bubtney's head, which made Bubtney super happy, its tail wagged faster.

There was a problem in front, Bubtney's body was not small, other people in the capital city would doubt when Su Xiao had a biological Teigu near him.

After a while, Su Xiao found that this was not a problem. The core of Bubtney was a sphere which was as big as a fist.

Trying to put Bubtney away, Bubtney's body gradually shrank, it finally turned into an ice blue sphere and fell to the ground.

Su Xiao picked up the ice blue sphere, which was the initial appearance of Tearing space bad dogs, Bubtney. This thing also had an introduction.

[The core of Bobtney]

Origin: Akame Ga Kill

Quality: purple

Category: Biological Teigu

Effect: After activating, it will become 'Tearing space bad dogs, Bubtney'.

Rating: 130 (Note: Purple items are rated from 71 to 150.)

Introduction: Extremely rare accessory Teigu.

Price: 36,000 points of paradise coins.

.....

Su Xiao was surprised while throwing the core on his hands. This kind of biological Teigu that was easy to carry was rare; at least it didn't appear in the original plot.

Removing the trap alert on the window, Su Xiao jumped out of the window, the hotel owner also knocked to break the door, if he leaves in the main entrance will increase unnecessary trouble.

Leaving the town, Su Xiao summoned Bibtney and rode on Bibtney's back.

Bibtney's hair was very soft was a pure natural mat.

“That way.”

After receiving Su Xiao's order, Bibtney began to run fast, and it looked it could do anything without complaining.

The strong wind rushed through his cheeks, Bibtney's running speed was faster than he expected. After all, it had four legs, and the speed was doubled directly after the skill was opened.

Riding Bibtney was different from riding a horse; the degree of the bump was much smaller.

He had an energetic feeling when he was near Bibtney, and this was the recovery effect of the goddess of the snow.

One thing made Su Xiao very confused. The full name of Bibtney was ‘Tearing space bad dogs, Bibtney’], the bad dog was in large part of it.

He looked at Bibtney's silly appearance, and he couldn't connect Bibtney with the bad dogs.

Soon after, Su Xiao understood the meaning of the bad dog. Although Bibtney showed a little bit silly in front of him, it would tear any creature that dared to close to Su Xiao.
