Chapter 231: Sad news

Su Xiao's travel with Bibtney became easier, and he did not need to walk any further.

Although Bibtney was a Teigu, if it wants to maintain energy, it will need to eat food normally. This was the commonality of biological Teigu.

Bibtney only needed to eat once in three days, but Bibtney had a large appetite.

Su Xiao looked at the buffalo that was eaten for the most. Looking at the situation, this buffalo could barely satisfy Bibtney's meal once.

Bibtney licked the blood on its mouth, although it was the first time to eat. But it seemed to be very interested in eating and eating happily.

“Let's go.”

When it heard Su Xiao's voice, Bibtney rushed over quickly and did not miss the remaining flesh.

Su Xiao noticed that Bibtney's dark eyes were staring at the pile of meat and seemed to want to continue eating.

It seemed to be no problem with its loyalty.

Su Xiao rode on Bibtney, indicating Bibtney to continue to hurry.

Three hours later, in front of a small village.

Terry lived in this village. Su Xiao had promised to hand over the gems to Terry's wife and daughter.

Su Xiao would do it if he promised, but now it seemed that there was no chance.

The village where Terry's family lived was burned black, and there were cyan smokes appeared in the village. All the buildings in this village had been burned down, a kind of charred smell passed far away.

“Bibtney, get in.”

Bibtney carefully stepped into the charred village, the wolf's light shined in his eyes, Bibtney was not stupid when he was in danger.

Bibtney head suddenly lowered down, and the sensitive nose seemed to smell something.

After a while, Bibtney ran to the front of a charred building and woofed for twice.

“What?”

Su Xiao looked at Bibtney with doubts. He didn't know what did Bibtney mean.

Bibtney walked into a pile of coke, the sharp claws got out from the front paws and began to dig in the coke.

Su Xiao jumped down from Bibtney's back, and he looked at Bibtney with confusion.

Bubtney surprisingly pulled out a dark figure from the pile of coke after a minute.

This was a man who was burned with a large scale. His limbs were carbonized, and he looked alive.

Bubtney put the man in front of Su Xiao and gnashed at his sharp teeth. It seemed that if the man had slightly moved, it would bite on the person's throat.

Bubtney inherited the dog's loyalty and the fierceness and acuity of the wolf. In this environment, he could find survivors, showing how acute Bubtney's sense of smell is.

"Cough, cough, cough..."

A severe cough came and the man who was burned by a large area awaked.

"Kill...me, please kill me."

The pain of being burned for the whole body made the man want to die.

"What happened here, I will kill you after you answer the question."

"Burn...the burning troop, killing...kill me."

Su Xiao understood. It turned out that the burning troop came here. No wonder there was such a tragedy here.

"Where is Terry's home?"

"The first one in the entrance of the village, quickly... it's painful."

Su Xiao got the answer that he wanted and gestured Bubtney to solve person.

Bubtney understood very well, it immediately understood Su Xiao's meaning, aiming at the man's throat to bite.

"Let's go."

Riding on Bubtney's back, Su Xiao asked to go to the direction of the village entrance.

When they came to the entrance to the village, the scene here was even worse than before. The house was burned to leave only a frame, and the people inside could not survive.

"It seems that all of his family completely die."

Su Xiao took out the bag of gems and threw the gems into the coke not far away.

A gem bag was slammed to break with a crack, a variety of crystal gems were noticeable in the dark coke.

"Let's go, this direction."

Su Xiao pointed to the direction of the capital city, Bubtney ran wildly.

He had left the capital city for three days and had five days to rest. He had to return quickly.

Su Xiao began to travel with Bubtney in long distances. He had to say that Bubtney had a strong endurance; it ran for seven hours incessantly without breathing heavily.

In another perspective, Bubtney was more suitable to travel for long distances than the car, and it was not only comfortable to sit, but also could ignore the rough terrain.

Su Xiao could not help but thought that if he had Bubtney previously, Leone and Akame could not escape successfully.

Su Xiao had tested, Bubtney's sense of smell was several times stronger than the average dogs, he could ride Bubtney to pursue his enemies in the future.

Imagine that the enemies were running in front, he was riding on Bubtney's back to chase, this kind of killing saved time and energy, and it was very convenient.

After traveling for about ten hours, Su Xiao returned to the suburbs of the capital city.

He put Bubtney away when he got here and put Bubtney's core into the storage space.

He suddenly had an extra piece of Teigu would be very hard to explain, or he could not explain at all.

Don't talk about the appearance and function of forty-eight Teigu that recorded by the empire, Bubtney was not among those at all.

If Esdeath sees Bubtney, she will definitely recognize it, because Bubtney looked too similar to the giant wolf Fenrir.

The capital city was still the original appearance. Su Xiao appeared near the palace first and then appeared in the third assassination unit, Esdeath's military camp and other places which were in order to fool the public's opinions.

Walking on the street, Su Xiao vaguely felt that the atmosphere of the capital city was somewhat different. At this moment, a girl with black hair came with a group of soldiers in the distance.

“Byakuya? Where did you go in these few days?”

The person came was Kurome, Yatsufusa was on her waist, she was followed by the army looked like to be ready to fight at any time.

“I went to the suburbs to find the base of the night raid, the two members of the night raid fled in the suburbs of the capital city before.”

Kurome did not suspect with anything.

“Something happened, Dr. stylish and Run were killed.”

Su Xiao was shocked.

“When did this happen?”

“Last night, both of them were killed in their homes. The nearby residents did not hear the sound of fighting and found the card on the scene.”

Kurome took out a tarot card, Su Xiao's eyes slightly closed after seeing this kind of the tarot card.

He took over the tarot card from Kurome's hands, Su Xiao seriously looked like the appearance of the tarot card.

On the back of the tarot card was a large piece of the mysterious pattern, the front was blank with the vague traces of being burned.

"The murderer left it?"

"Yes, they left dozens of cards on the scene, the appearances are the same."

"I will take one."

"Ok, do you want to find the murderer together?"

Su Xiao nodded and moved with Kurome so that others could no longer doubt where did he go in the past few days.

Su Xiao and Kurome brought a large group of soldiers in the capital city to investigate.

Although Kurome was not enthusiastic about the companions of Jaegers, Kurome had an extremely strong-boned relationship with her companions.

In order not to lose her companion, Kurome had used her Yatsufusa to kill her companion who was about dying. The purpose was to see her companions in the future.

When Jaegers were just set up, the two people were killed, which obviously irritated Esdeath, so she sent troops to do a detailed investigation in the capital city. Any suspects could not be let off even if they caught wrong people.

Su Xiao also joined the search camp, but he was waiting for something.

Chapter 232

The investigation in the capital city ended after three days, although they did not find the prisoner after searching through the whole city.

At night, the night winds blew, the capital city tonight was extra quiet.

Su Xiao took out the tarot card, and he was a bit familiar with this tarot card.

"The contractors? They can quietly kill Dr. stylish and Run, interesting."

Su Xiao came to the suburb of the capital city, and no one was there. He summoned Bibtney.

After Bibtney appeared, it was affectionate to Su Xiao, Su Xiao put the tarot card in front of Bibtney's nose.

"Track the smell on the card."

Bibtney sniffed on the tarot card for a while and began to find the smell in the air.

Bibtney began to run, and the goal was the direction of the capital city.

Su Xiao was stunned, the person dared to stay in the capital city after killing people? Su Xiao was speechless after half an hour, Bibtney took him to Kurome's house. Kurome also touched this tarot card.

Su Xiao looked upset.

”Looking for other smells.”

Bubtney’s ears dropped, it seemed that it could understand that Su Xiao was not very happy.

This time, Bubtney looked for more than two hours near the capital city. When Su Xiao was preparing for thinking in the long-term perspective, Bubtney suddenly woofed.

“You found it?”

Su Xiao was very surprised. The thing had happened for a few days, Bubtney surprisingly could capture the person’s smell.

Bubtney barked cheerfully and lowered its body to ask Su Xiao to ride on its back.

Riding on Bubtney, the creature combined perfectly with the wolf and the dog began to show its powerful side.

Bubtney ran while sometimes stopped in the forest, tracking the smell a few days ago was a bit difficult to it.

After they wandered for seven or eight times in the suburbs, Bubtney arrived at a forest which was a bit far from the capital city.

“Woof, woof.”

Bubtney barked for a few times in the front and did not want to move forward anymore.

“What happened?”

Bubtney anxiously turned around in the same place, but no longer moved forward.

Su Xiao began to check the surrounding situation. Under the moonlight, he found an abnormality. Some undetectable cyan lights reflected in the forest. It was a reflection of the metal wires.

Su Xiao suddenly thought of something, and a smile appeared on his face, he seemed to find a very nice place.

“Bubtney, let’s go back.”

Su Xiao did not move forward, but let Bubtney return in the same way.

After returning to the capital city, Su Xiao put Bubtney away and walked into a house.

.....

At noon of the next day, in the meeting room of Esdeath, the four members of Jaegers and Esdeath gathered here.

“Byakuya, talk about what you found.”

Esdeath took the lead to speak.

“I found the headquarters of the night raid on the suburb of the capital city last night. To be exact, I found the defensive enchantment that was placed by a member of the night raid. I didn’t choose to attack them. If I’m right, more than 90% of members in night raid are there.

The conference room was in silence.

“We should ask for justice for our dead companions.”

Wave hammered at the conference table, and the righteous boy had bloodshot eyes, it seemed that he had been investigating the reasons for two companions’ death recently.

“If the intelligence is correct, the night raid now has a total of seven people. According to the information obtained from fighting with the night raid before, even if we only have five people, we will win in the combat power. I decide that all the members of Jaegers mobilize.”

Esdeath ordered, she did not mention the word of revenge in her speech.

In Esdeath’s view, death only represented weakness, and it was not worth to revenge. The night raid was just the target to kill.

“Boss, do you want to go with the army together to attack.”

Wave spoke...

“No, we will strike today. The number of troops is less than one thousand will not have an effect; more than one thousand will be too easy to expose.

We as the troop that attacks first need to drag the night raid, after that, we will let the army mobilize to surround the night raid again, and finally shrunk to surround them. ”

Esdeath’s strategy was good. Let Jaegers drag the night raid first and then let the army to suppress.

Through Su Xiao pointing the directions, Jaegers quickly arrived outside the forest. The members were:

The leader Esdeath, Su Xiao, Kurome, Wave, Bols.

“Is this the headquarters of the night raid? It surprisingly hides here. No wonder that they have not been discovered before.”

Esdeath held a map in her hand, and the map was the terrain of the forest.

The terrain here was very good, complex terrain such as valleys and rivers surrounded.

“Kurome, you are responsible for surrounding the rear.”

Considering Kurome’s Yatsufusa ability, Esdeath asked her to block the enemies’ road.

“Bols, Wave, you two move together.”

Considering that Bols’s melee ability was not strong, Esdeath had arranged Bols and Wave together.

“Byakuya, be ready to sneak in, drag the user of Murasame Akame after the war begins.”

“Action!”

Jaegers began to move, and several people rushed in different directions into the forest. Tens of thousands of troops were ready to act within a kilometer. They would surround the forest after the battle began.

Jaegers rushed into the forest and immediately touched the alarm of Dimensional Formation: Shambhala.

At this time in the headquarters of a night raid, the user of Dimensional Formation: Shambhala, Lubbock immediately perceived it.

“Unknown enemy breaks in.”

Lubbock shouted, the other members of the night raid quickly gathered around Lubbock.

“How many enemies are there?”

Najenda was not there; Akame was the agent leader.

“A total of five people, they get into the nearby forest in four different directions, the speed is very fast, what should we do?”

Leone and others looked worried, their stronghold was exposed.

“Do the same strategy. Let’s first test the strength of the enemies. If the situation is not good, we will prepare for retreating. Then we will gather at the temporary stronghold.”

The members of the night raid now had six people, not the seven people that Esdeath expected.

The six were: Akame, Tatsumi, Mine, Leone, Lubbock, Sheele.

There was actually one person left, but that person was not the main member of the night raid.

The night raid chose to fight, and this must be a killing fight.

In the nearby forest, Su Xiao stood in the same place. He did not rush to the headquarters of the night raid because he saw an acquaintance in front of him.

“It seems that it’s the destiny, we will meet again in such a short time.”

The person played with the tarot card by one hand, a man in a suit stood in front of Su Xiao. He was Carl, a member of Phantom Troupe, ranking 11th.

“Who knows?”

Dragon flash appeared in his hands, the contractors who were in a different camp would only have one situation after they met, that is, killing each other, the key to complete the main task was only one, the competition was fierce.

“Since we can't be teammates, let's fight once to see how lucky today is.”

The tarot card in Carl's hands floated in front.

“Water class, wind class, fire class, three classes? Good luck, it seems that you will die today.”

Carl looked around at the hundreds of tarot cards in front, and a vague smile appeared on his face.

As a member of Phantom Troupe, Carl was certainly not weak. He was a sorcerer who has mastered more than 700 spell skills.

That's right, and there were more than 700 kinds.

Chapter 233: Carl

A large piece of tarot cards circled around Carl.

“What, like a melee, don't you take the lead?”

Carl didn't mean to attack first but instead stood there leisurely.

Su Xiao kicked a branch flying, and the branch burned a few meters away from Carl. After a few seconds, the branch became a few pieces of coke and fell to the ground, several small pieces of coke oozed some water stains.

Fire, wind and water, Su Xiao vaguely perceived that the three elements near Carl were extremely dense, his perception of the elements was somewhat blurred because of the demon physique.

He must not be close to him, or he would be attacked by chaotic elements, the person was surrounded by chaotic elements.

At this time, he was not fighting with Carl, but fighting three elements near Carl.

Carl, this kind of state, would soon finish; this was the defensive way of the person's preparation state.

“Your perception is very sharp, and you surprisingly didn't even rush over.”

Carl had some disappointments in his eyes. The hands with black leather gloves turned, two huge guns appeared in Carl's hands.

The double guns in Carl's hands did not make by metal, but a kind of tree close to the metal texture.

These two guns were Carl's staff.

“I wanted to be invited to fight in the arena once. It seems that fighting for life is more enjoyable. Me, Carl, the eleventh of the Phantom Troupe.”

The magazines of Carl's two guns popped out, the tarot cards that floated in the air quickly shrank and split into two pieces that automatically entered the magazines.

After the tarot cards all entered the two magazines, the violent elements around Carl disappeared.

Su Xiao stepped on the ground, dragon flash in his hands waved out and rushed to Carl.

“Don't think about being close.”

Carl pointed the gun at the ground and pulled the trigger.

“The bomb of the wind, the impact bomb.”

A cyan bullet got out from the gun, and the cyan bullet became large when it contacted with the wind after getting out of the gun. When it reached the ground, it became a cyan wind ball.

Boom.

The impact bomb exploded on the ground, the impact spread around. The withered leaves and the soil were all blown up, near the tens of meters of the ground exposed the surface to form a circular vacant area.

The strong wind blew, Su Xiao’s footsteps were unstable in a moment, but it’s just a moment.

” The bomb of the fire, big fireballs.”

Carl pointed at Su Xiao to give a shot, a fireball which was as big as a ball from the muzzle, the fireball quickly expanded, and it grew to three meters in diameter when it near Su Xiao.

Su Xiao suddenly stopped and moved aside to escape from the fireball.

“Nice.”

Carl was somewhat talkative during the battle. Su Xiao’s momentum of rushing forward continued, he would be the front of Carl in five meters.

Unlike the ordinary sorcerer, Carl did not seem that did not care about being close to Su Xiao.

Carl raised his gun, he surprisingly aimed at his temple this time.

“The bomb of water, clear wave protection.”

With a boom, a transparent bullet came from the muzzle and turned into a transparent water shield on Carl’s body.

Carl used spell too fast, the ordinary sorcerer could only use one spell at a time, but Carl had two guns, he could use two spells each time without intervals.

Su Xiao had already rushed to Carl, the long knife in his hand made a crisp sound, he cut at Carl’s throat directly.

Carl took out the gun and aimed at Su Xiao, he believed in the water shield’s defense very much.

Puchi.

A trace of blood poured out, Su Xiao cut through the water, a small piece of skull flew.

“The bomb of the fire, fire dragon, the bomb of the water, water rush thorn, the bomb of the wind, wind blade with high impact...”

The severe pain of Qing Gang Ying made Carl feel severe pain and fired six shots incessantly. Several skills attacked to Su Xiao.

The calm expression on Carl’s face had vanished; he was stunned; it seemed that he did not really believe that Su Xiao’s sword broke his shield in one attack.

“The bomb of the fire, heat protection, the bomb of the wind, light spirit, the bomb of the water, the cure of clear flow...”

Carl fired several shots to himself, layers of shield appeared on his body.

Boom!

Several skills exploded on Su Xiao’s body, the burning of the flame, the eroding of the water, and the cutting of the wind.

The nearby ground was eroded by elements. Various colors appeared, all the nearby plants suffered.

After touching by the fire and the water, a lot of vapor appeared. Carl pointed the two guns at the steam clock, and he looked serious. Carl was ready to fight for his life, Su Xiao’s sword was sharp beyond his expectations.

“You suffer from a total of six skills, 15 points of physical strength, and you will see at least serious injury.”

Carl’s tone was firm, and this was his conclusion in numerous experience.

The steam dissipated, Su Xiao, walked out of the steam, the long trench coat on his body damaged.

If it is other people, they may not be able to hold under Carl’s continuous shooting. It was a very powerful ability to continue using six spells. Only three or four sorcerers simultaneously used spells could achieve this effect.

Su Xiao’s demon physique immunized 40% of spell damage, so six spells became no longer unbearable.

And since the beginning of the war, Carl had only used control skills once, it was not Carl did not have control skills, but it was because of his fighting style.

Carl was a spell chain gun that could release more than a dozen spells in just a few seconds.

There was no such step-like shaking or singing before using spells, and Carl only pulled the trigger.

“Last time Phantom Troupe only had a vacancy on the 13th. It seems that I looked down on you. Come on, let’s fight. No one can compete with you for the keys to the main task if you win. You can also take this number of eleven.”

Carl turned his back of a hand to Su Xiao, black number of eleven was particularly conspicuous.

Su Xiao frowned, what did he mean?

“Are you confused? Haha, this is the rules of Phantom Troupe. The strong ones are alive, and the weak ones are dead. Even if I die, no one will take revenge for me. If I die, I can only show that I am not strong enough. You can use my ranking to join the group.”

Su Xiao was stunned, this Phantom Troupe was really weird.

“Weird organization.”

“Haha, this is not strange. Tell you the truth, except for the man with a revolver of 7th in the Phantom Troupe, and I have never seen anyone else. I only know their names.”

Su Xiao was speechless.

“Today, I become a bit talkative, because of meeting a strong enemy, come and fight, the battle is the most exciting thing, only the battle can make people forget the troubles.”

Carl looked at had experienced many vicissitudes of life. It seemed that he had experienced some unforgettable things. He clenched his guns, and the momentum changed.

“I agree.”

Su Xiao took the sword and rushed forward.

Boom, boom, boom...

The double guns in Carl's hand were like two gun chains at this time; a lot of spells were shot incessantly.

A spell stream was formed in front of Su Xiao, water ball, rocket, wind blade and so on came forward.

Qing Gang Yin spread on dragon flash. Carl suffered severe pain when he was only cut by one knife previously, and there was no some abnormal situation. This showed that Carl was very different from the traditional Sorcerer.

Crack.

A sword smashed the water ball which was flying forward, Su Xiao went into the spell stream in front of him.

He cut out to break the spell if he could not escape the attacks.

Qing Gang Yin energy which wrapped on dragon flash had a different effect when it met the spells. As long as Su Xiao cut on the spell, the spell skill would be stimulated in advance.

This skill was developed by Su Xiao, and he called this exploding spell.

Boom, bomb...

The sound of explosions and the cutting sound from the wind blades came incessantly.

Su Xiao also didn't want to fight these spells forcibly. But there were too many spells. He didn't feel like he was fighting with a sorcerer, but a sorcerer group of an adventurous group.

Huh.

The spells all disappeared, Su Xiao rushed to Carl's front.

“Don't you get damage with spells?”

Carl looked at Su Xiao with surprise, although Su Xiao was hurt

severely he held the wild bombs from the spells.

After he successfully closed to Carl, it was the time Su Xiao to attack.

Chapter 234: The number for sale

The blue-and-white arc surged wildly on dragon flash's surface, Su Xiao stabilized his body and concentrated his power to cut on Carl's several shields.

Ding.

The dragon flash was blocked, nearly ten layers of the shield on Carl dissipated for a half, but Carl's gun was aimed at Su Xiao's head.

“Go to die.”

“The bomb of water, the bomb of the wind, the melting elements, the bomb of ice.”

Boom.

An extremely sharp thorn was shot out from the muzzle, which was a skill combined extreme penetrable ice class and wind class.

Even if the sniper rifle's bullets are not more penetrable than this ice bomb, he will die if he is shot on the head.

Su Xiao opened his legs and made a split pose. The ice bomb flew over his head.

This kind of operation was obviously out of Carl's expectation, but Carl shot the second bullet.

“The bomb of water. Absolute waters.”

Boom.

In Carl's muzzle, a blue light burst, the world became a water world within ten meters in a moment.

Carl used five cards at once.

Carl seemed to be unaffected by this spell; at least he could walk easily in the water.

Su Xiao was different. His whole body was soaked in water. The resistance of the water made his speed slower. More importantly, he couldn't breathe.

“Hack, hack.”

Su Xiao opened his mouth, and a lot of water entered.

Carl saw this scene with a chuckle.

“Hack, hack.”

Water also went into Carl's mouth, which made his face look funny. He was only able to move freely in the water world, and he could not ignore the rules here.

Su Xiao couldn't breathe, Carl couldn't either.

Su Xiao retreated quickly.

Flop.

He was away from the water world. The skill that Carl used was to form a huge water polo about ten meters.

After Su Xiao got out of the water polo, the water polo broke suddenly and turned into a large piece of water went around.

“God, god, I’m almost killed.”

Carl’s two guns circled for a few times in his hand and looked at Su Xiao with a smile.

“I win.”

There were a few wires on Su Xiao’s left hand could be seen.

Zzzz.

The sound of the wires was pulled tightly came, Carl’s face changed dramatically, he looked down at the wires wrapped around his calf, the wires were deeply immersed into flesh.

“Wire? When... the bomb of water. Roiyaru.”

Carl immediately fired at himself.

Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom, boom.

Six shot sounded one after another, the shield on Carl’s body was instantly broken. Su Xiao took away broken elf from the storage space.

Carl’s shoulder was injured seriously, and his left arm softly hung down.

“Damn.”

Carl was difficulty breathing. Before the gun in his left hand landed, he kicked the gun to Su Xiao.

“Self-destruct bombs. Firepower fully open.”

Boom.

The gun in the airburst, the magic of the fire, water, and wind classes rushed in all directions, Su Xiao was just in the range.

A large number of spells swallowed Su Xiao, at the most dangerous moment he opened the attached skill of [Mikasa’s mind] asylum.

Various spells exploded together, and shields shattered suddenly, smoke and dust appeared, even Carl was covered.

“I don’t believe you can resist the power of more than thirty spell skills, even if the aftermath you can’t resist.”

Carl’s leg was tied by wires, and the entire leg was bloody and unable to move. After the explosion, he checked the tips from the reincarnation park immediately, but no killing tips appeared.

A long bright sword broke out from the dust.

Puchi.

A sword cut through his throat, from the bottom to the hindbrain, some blood came out from Carl's mouth.

“This... is impossible.”

The vital part was attacked fatally, and the life value had lost its meaning.

The smoke and dust dissipated, Su Xiao's clothes were damaged seriously, there were several burns on his skin, his chest was cut out of several wounds by wind blade.

“Why haven't you die? Only people who have high physical strengths can...”

Carl's eyes lost the luster, and the sorcerer gun chain was killed.

“Because I brought a dog.”

Behind a big tree in the distance, Bubby was looking out, and the tail was shaking happily.

Bubby's recovery aura, 1 point per second seemingly was less, and it could restore 60 points of life value in one minute. According to the contractor's use, the life value was probably between the physical strength multiplied by ten to twenty, depending on the individual physique.

And Bubby also secretly healed Su Xiao once, the recovery amount of 50% of life value was very impressive.

There was no clue when Bubby treated Su Xiao. Only the light flashed on Bubby's body when it used spells. People couldn't see any clues on Su Xiao. Only he knew that his life value had recovered.

Undoubtedly, Carl was the strongest wizard Su Xiao had ever encountered. His spells could be described as overwhelming and had a lot of powerful spells.

A really powerful sorcerer would not find a way to control the enemies; it was the behavior that a rookie sorcerer would do.

A powerful sorcerer would use several spells to attack wildly, and powerful spells were not easy to escape.

Carl used at least dozens of spells from the beginning to the end of the battle, and the person had never run out his mana value.

It was not that Carl had a lot of mana values; he generated those spells in advance.

Carl's that kind of tarot card needed to be recharged by mana value in free time. After charging, it would become a non-attribute tarot card. Before the battle, the tarot card would randomly choose three attributes, and the tarot card without attributes would automatically convert so Carl could use more than seven hundred spell skills.

[You killed the 10025 contractors]

[Your talent 'Psychic' is launched, permanently adding 15 points of mana value, has 536 points of mana value.]

.....

A scarlet card fell to the ground, which meant Carl had died completely.

There was also a black number near the scarlet card.

[You get scarlet card]

[You get the invitation number of Phantom Troupe.]

Invitation number of Phantom Troupe

Origin: Reincarnation paradise

Type: Invitation

Effect: After use, you can directly become a member of Phantom Troupe, ranking 11.

The message from members of Phantom Troupe: Sell it or join us, you can choose by yourself.

Price: 5% of the sources of the world.

.....

Su Xiao was very surprised, this thing could still be sold, he decisively chose to sell, he got 5% of the sources of the world, this was a big harvest, he didn't have the idea to join Phantom Troupe.

.....

In other derivative worlds, in a desert, a man with a cowboy hat and a cigar walked in the desert. The man's face was covered with beard, a holster of a revolver was attached to his waist. There was a revolver shined with purple light inside.

“Oh... Carl, the 11th is dead, the number is sold, interesting, did those people in god-king do it? It is somewhat impossible.”

The man dangled cigar, shaking his head and continuing to walk in the desert, there were no companions in Phantom Troupe, it was internment of monsters and madmen, or Phantom Troupe was not an adventurous group at all.

.....

In another derivative world.

In a city with advanced technology, a man with muscles full of his body squeezed the enemy's head with one hand, the red and white liquid splashed. The bullet hit on the muscle man's body even splashed sparkles.

The muscle man was fighting. But his movement suddenly stopped.

“Is the fronting man on the 11th dead? Haha haha, even sold the number, it's the first time I met, interesting, it's so interesting, I have to let this guy join Phantom Troupe if I have chances.”

The man laughed wildly, and the sound waves spread, the nearby glasses were shattered.

.....

In another derivative world.

In an underground space, a woman with sexy clothes, long red hairs, a devil figure, and an angel face smiled.

“Six, the number of Phantom Troupe was sold.”

A little girl with a tablet in her hand nodded.

“Well, although this situation appears for the first time, Phantom Troupe does not rule that the number cannot be sold, the team skills can generate a number automatically, just need some time.”

The little girl was followed by a massive beast, and she was a rare summoner.

“No, I am only interested in the person who sells the number, the guy can kill 11th, the strength of the guy will not be weak, the taste of blood must be delicious, ah ... I can't stand it.”

The beauty with long red hair revealed four fangs.

“Don't be coquettish, it's disgusting, find the two contractors have escaped quickly, the contractors of the two adventurous groups have more than a dozen, it is a pity not to kill them all.”

Chapter 235: Sisters

Su Xiao threw Carl's body into a river, just in case that his body would not be eaten by wild animals. This powerful enemy should not be treated like that.

Jaegers had already started a battle with the night raid. According to their combat power, the six people of the night raid were probably not the opponents of the four people of Jaegers. Esdeath and Kurome in Jaegers were very powerful.

In Su Xiao's perception, the battle between the two sides was at a deadlock.

Kurome and Akame, those sisters had already fought together.

Bols fought with Leone.

Wave fought with Sheele.

The opponent of Lubbock, Mine, and Tatsumi was Esdeath.

In the original book, Esdeath and Tatsumi met, and one of them fell in love unilaterally, but now they didn't know each other.

Lubbock used intelligence to fight. After cooperating with Mine and Tatsumi, he barely dragged Esdeath, but the situation was still dangerous.

Su Xiao lit a cigarette and rested on a tree trunk. Bubby's aura made his injury gradually recover.

He was thinking about which battlefield should he go.

“Bubu, notice around.”

Su Xiao was going to do an experiment. He took out a long red sword from the storage space. This was a Teigu.

Burning City Melting Iron · Fire blade

Type: Teigu of sword

Use demand: Unable to match will be forcibly backfired.

Effect: A long sword is attached with a flame, which can cause enemy injuries that can't be healed.

Price: 1.8% of the sources of the world.

.....

There was no level in the Teigu, which made Su Xiao very curious about whether this sword could be swallowed by the Supreme Edge and strengthened the dragon flash.

If it is feasible, his plan should be changed.

Using the skills of the Supreme Edge Blade, a group of black iron light appeared on Su Xiao's hand, and the iron black light mixed swirly.

Bring the black iron light to the 'Burning City Melting Iron, fire blade, the black iron light seemed to be alive and wrapped the 'Burning City Melting Iron, fire blade' inside.

Crack, crack, crack.

The 'Burning City Melting Iron, fire blade' which was wrapped in the black iron light made rubbing sound, the Burning City Melting Iron, fire blade was being crushed.

After a few tens of seconds, light red crystal fragments floated from the glory and gradually flew away to the dragon flash.

The dragon flash absorbed those crystal fragments, the surface shined a cold light.

It succeeds, although the Teigu had no grade, it could meet the Supreme Edge's demand.

[Supreme Edge Effect 2 trigger, please choose to reserve additional ability.]

[Rc cell rhythm (passive) / fire blade (passive).]

[Warning: Fire blade will change the overall structure of the dragon flash, which will probably have an impact on enhancements in the future. Please choose carefully.]

Su Xiao immediately gave up the 'fire blade (passive)', the structure of a sword could not be easily changed, if it develops in a good direction is fine, otherwise the dragon flash will be destroyed.

Su Xiao checked dragon flash's properties.

.....

The various attributes of the dragon flash had been improved, which inspired Su Xiao's spirit.

The injury had been almost restored, and he did not need to choose where to fight. He arrived near the headquarters of the night raid.

Boom.

A loud noise came from behind the headquarters. Su Xiao sat on a big tree to watch the battle below.

Kurome fought against Akame.

Kurome had already opened up Yatsufusa's ability. Akame was besieged by the 'dead men' summoned by Yatsufusa was struggling to support.

"Sister, why did you betray us?"

Kurome stood between the two dead men, although it seemed that Kurome had the upper hand, this was not the truth at all.

Nowadays, Kurome needed to maintain by having drugs in daily life. This time, she had taken a high dose of the drug, when the effect of the drug finished, Kurome's fighting power would drop sharply.

"Empire's way is wrong. We used to kill innocent people before, not to maintain justice."

Akame's situation was not good, her strongest ability was the curse of Murasame, but now the ability of curse was basically ineffective, those 'dead men' would not die again.

Su Xiao leisurely watched the scene in the distance. He consumed a lot of energy for the battle previously. He took out a bag of popcorn and ate it.

This kind of sisters who had strong strength could not be seen often, and the two were still fighting for life.

Su Xiao was now going to help Kurome to kill Akame, but he was interested Yatsufusa. He couldn't fight with Kurome in the current position. Once he was discovered, the plan would be completely collapsed.

It was not worth a blue treasure chest to adventure, and it was better to watch the show.

The two sisters fight and kill each other below, Su Xiao became the audience, after he finished the popcorn and took out the tablet to play puzzle games.

It was as same as Su Xiao predicted, after Yatsufusa's ability was fully opened, Kurome's physical strength quickly declined, and soon she exhausted her energy.

Kurome's choice was to increase the number of drugs, taking more than ten times drugs than usual.

“Ahhhh!!”

The darkness of the black scorpion was violent, and the capacity of the eight rooms was opened to the maximum.

“Kurome, is this... really worth it?”

Akame's sight revealed deep regret.

“Ha ha ha, it's not about the worth, as long as I have companions around.”

Kurome bitterly smiled for a few times, even if she can win Akame today, she can't live for more than a month.

“Let me help you out.”

Akame rushed forward to fight with Kurome and several 'dead men.'

Su Xiao sat on the tree and lit a cigarette. He couldn't keep looking at the two sisters' battle. Kurome's acting was too bad.

Kurome did not want to kill her at all. Su Xiao could be sure that the girl did not have the awareness to kill her sister.

But Akame was different, and she had made up her mind to kill Kurome.

Akame was not cruel, but her sister was already living hell, she becomes a monster that could only rely on drugs to maintain movements, and endured the strong pain that people could not endure every day.

“Wow!”

Kurome suddenly spits out black blood, three of the five dead men summoned by Yatsufusa dissipated.

Kurome looked at the remaining two dead men, and those were her former companions, she hesitated for a while and removed Yatsufusa's ability.

“Sister, let's end this.”

Kurome clenched Yatsufusa with both hands.

“Ok, sister.”

Hearing the word of a sister, Kurome lowered her head, and she felt warm in her mind.

“Have not I felt that I am holding a sword? The body lost consciousness.”

Kurome’s nervous system showed signs of collapse, and she didn’t have much time.

“Sister.”

Kurome screamed and rushed to the Akame with Yatsufusa.

“Sister.”

Akame whispered, holding Murasame to meet Kurome.

The fighting of sword skills which made people hard to see it clearly began, but at the most critical moments, Kurome’s legs were numb, and her lower body lost consciousness.

Puchi.

Murasame cut through Kurome’s chest.

”It won’t hurt soon.”

The tears appeared in Akame’s corner of her eyes, gently hugging Kurome.

“Ok, my sister.”

The curse began to spread on Kurome’s body, the two sisters hugged each other, and the picture was very touching.

At this time, the footsteps came from the forest not far away.

“Kurome, I will let your sister go with you soon.”

A male voice suddenly appeared, Kurome, who was almost dead, turned her head barely.

“Byakuya...”

Kurome did not know why but felt panic. Su Xiao was her companion, but Su Xiao suddenly appeared, Kurome was not happy at all.

“Sister, run...”

Kurome whispered in Akame’s ear, Yatsufusa in her hand, fell to the ground.

Chapter 236: Injured

Kurome died, she died her sister’s arm. For this girl who had been transformed by drugs to non-human, this was the fate and incidence.

Akame gently put Kurome on the ground and placed Yatsufusa aside into the sheath next to Kurome.

“I have sworn to kill you for Bulat if you meet for the second time.”

Akame did not directly rush to fight but looked at Su Xiao calmly.

“Is it?”

Su Xiao flipped the cigarette butt in his hand. There was a shadow in the forest not far away. It seemed that it wanted to run out to smell what does cigarette butt, which was flipped by Su Xiao. Could it eat, and was it delicious?

Su Xiao stared at the forest, the shadows in the forest quickly retreated back into the grass.

“You are definitely not loyal to the assassination unit of the empire, what is your purpose?”

Akame stared at Su Xiao with a firm tone.

“Who knows, but... you can't fight with me with your current physical state.”

Su Xiao did not belong to any party, and he only acted according to his own wishes.

A cold wind blew through the forest, and the leaves were rustling in the cold wind.

“Yes, so I have to abandon the body.”

Akame slowly lifted Murasame and aimed it to her palm.

Puchi.

Some blood splashed, Akame used Murasame to scratch through her palm.

Murasame was the sword that could kill people by one attack. After being hurt by Murasame, the curse would invade people's body, so people would soon die.

Akame was different. She was the user of Murasame and used Murasame to kill many people. Now, this was Akame's fatal blow.

“Ahhhh!!”

Akame fell on one knee and raised her head to shout, and the voice seemed to come from inside her, it sounded empty and combined with many voices.

A purple mist spread around Akame, and the curse was eroding her body.

Obviously, Akame was using the fatal blow. Su Xiao had never had a habit of looking at his enemy to brew to use the fatal blow. Now it was a good opportunity, and he rushed forward.

He rushed to the front of Akame in few steps and cut to Akame's head with a long knife in his hand.

Ding.

Murasame stopped dragon flash's attack, some sparkles appeared.

At this time, Akame's appearance changed greatly. The waist-length hair had already grown to the calf. The red pupils became redder, and the eyeground turned black.

There were a lot of blood-red lines on Akame's skin, and the lines even on her right cheek.

Akame looked at Su Xiao while raising her sword.

“I have killed a lot of people, anger, hatred, unwillingness, desperation...
Murasame records all these.

Now I carried them to turn them into power, and I will knock you down even if I burn myself up.”

Akame was a righteous killer before, but now Akame looked creepy.

Su Xiao did not speak; he now highly concentrated, Akame gave him a very dangerous feeling.

Huh.

The long black hair fluttered in the wind after a strong wind came, Su Xiao found that Akame had already been in front of him, Murasame was stabbing his face, it could hurt him at most ten centimeters.

Death had already come in front, Su Xiao had felt this close to death many times.

He put dragon flash in front of him, Su Xiao immediately turned his head.

Zzzz.

Dragon flash and Murasame rubbed, a large piece of sparkles emerged.

So fast! Akame’s speed was so fast that he almost couldn’t react. If he has no abundant fighting experiences, he may die under this attack.

Akame not only suddenly had fast speed, but her power also became larger.

Ding, ding.

After they fought head to head twice, Su Xiao felt that the arm which held the knife was numb.

Moreover, fighting with Akame was far more dangerous than fighting with others. If he is injured by the curse, he will be eroded by the curse. Su Xiao was not sure whether he could attack curse.

Su Xiao and Akame fought head to head by their sword skills. He changed his previous strategy. This time he focused on defense.

Dragon flash waved incessantly in front without gaps, although Akame’s strength and speed became better, her sword skills did not.

Su Xiao was now like to jump on the blade, and once he was careless, he would die.

Akame’s attacks were getting faster and faster, but Su Xiao’s defense was still impenetrable.

The high intelligence and the perception of heart eyes made him barely able to capture the position that Murasame attacked. He also had nice knife skills, Akame couldn’t kill him for a while.

Su Xiao’s physical strength was enough. Although it was dangerous to fight with Carl before, it didn’t cost for a long time.

The crisp sound from the sword collision came.

Su Xiao’s sword stopped Akame’s head to head attack and sided the blade to deflect the position that Murasame cut.

Shhh.

When Murasame cut into the ground, Akame began to be anxious, and her state could not last for long.

Su Xiao also knew that Akame could not persist for a long time. He deliberately delayed the time. As soon as Akame's state disappeared, she would be at the mercy of Su Xiao.

Akame stamped on the floor, and a deep footprint appeared on the ground which showed Akame's power now.

Su Xiao turned his left hand, and a blue and black object appeared in his hand. He threw the blue and black object to Akame.

Akame remembered the impact bombs previously, she subconsciously closed her eyes and covered her ears by hands, the pose of rushing forward stopped.

Su Xiao rushed for a few steps to the front of Akame and kicked at Akame's lower abdomen.

Boom.

Akame was kicked out of the distance, and she got up after rolling for a few times on the ground.

The blue and black object landed and did not explode. There was a line of words 'Oreo cookies' on the black object.

People needed to use wisdom when they were fighting. Otherwise, they had no different from the beasts.

Akame ran through the bag of 'Oreo cookies' and rushed to Su Xiao, but Su Xiao had another bag appeared again.

Akame, who was running, was somewhat hesitant, she thought about two possibilities, which were one true and one false.

Su Xiao threw the object out, Akame retreated for two steps.

Boom.

The object which had the words of 'Clear shampoo' landed.

Akame almost spat out the blood. Although she had never seen these things, she knew that these things were not dangerous.

For the third time, Akame rushed to Su Xiao, Su Xiao's hand had something appeared again!

This time, Akame wanted to continue to rush, but Su Xiao threw the object to her front.

Akame suddenly stopped, the object with the word 'Snickers' landed.

She was deceived three times in succession, Akame felt that her intelligence was insulted that she had never been, this time she rushed to Su Xiao without hesitations.

Su Xiao's hand had one more thing appeared, and he threw it to Akame again. Akame covered her eyes and was rushing forward.

Boom!

A strong light appeared in front of the eyes, Akame's eyes were burning, and the ears were buzzing, this was the real impact bomb.

Su Xiao rushed to the front of Akame in a few steps, and his long knife slammed down directly.

Puchi.

Dragon flash-cut into Akame's shoulder deeply, Su Xiao's left hand which was free pressed on the back of the sword.

Puchi.

The second injury occurred, Akame's clavicle was cut.

"I will bring you into death before I die."

Akame did not care about the dragon flash in her body and cut to Su Xiao under the pain caused by dragon flash.

Su Xiao did not have the thoughts of dying with Akame and immediately took out the sword and retreated.

What was strange was that Akame did not catch up, but stood in the same place; it seemed that she injured seriously.

Suddenly, something made Su Xiao's flesh creep, an extremely dangerous feeling appeared, but Akame was in front of him, what happened was this dangerous feeling.

Su Xiao didn't think about it. He more believed in intuition and jumped aside.

A shadow came from the sky, the long sword cut down from the top to Su Xiao.

Su Xiao lifted the sword with his own.

Ding.

Dragon flash was pressed by the huge power that fell on it, Su Xiao's palm was numb, dragon flash was a little tilted, Murasame slide to the side.

What stood in front of Su Xiao wasn't Akame's body before. It was the shadow formed by the person's murderousness. This was Akame's ultimate ability. Murasame slide next to dragon flash's blade, the target was Su Xiao's left arm.

"Ruin."

Akame roared.

Su Xiao immediately raised his left arm.

Puchi.

A subtle wound appeared on the back of the left hand, which could be described as scratching the skin.

But Su Xiao was indeed cut by Murasame. He felt that the curse poured into the arm from the wound to forearm.

"Just give you an arm."

Su Xiao looked at Akame, the person's state was quickly released.

Chapter 237: Ruin

Lifting the left arm, the curse gradually eroded from forearm to the whole arm, what was strange was that the speed of the curse was not fast.

According to the original information, the speed of the Murasame's curse to kill people was very fast, and it could kill people in at most three seconds.

Dragon flash cut through a chain to the left arm, and the blade stopped after touching the skin.

It wasn't Su Xiao didn't have the mind of cutting his left arm, but he found a strange thing.

After the curse entered his arm through the wound on the back of his hand, the situation in his body became wrong. The energy of Qing Gang Yin became extremely aggressive, and it seemed that its territory was occupied.

A huge amount of Qing Gang Yin's energy flocked to the curse on the arm, and the two could be described as incompatible; they began to annihilate each other when they touched.

If it is another energy, it may not be the curse's opponent, this was after all a kind of ability could make people die immediately, but the energy of the Qing Gang Yin was different. What was the energy of Qing Gang Yin good at? It was to annihilate other energy.

The two kinds of energy began to kill each other in Su Xiao's arm, and no one was in the upper hand.

The curse was very strong energy, the energy level was very high, and Qing Gang Yin was incessant. As long as Su Xiao had mana values, the energy of Qing Gang Yin would not be exhausted.

Su Xiao had a total of 536 points of mana values. After fighting for such a long time, there were probably more than 300 points left.

After the curse invaded his body, the speed of his mana value decreased significantly, and he lost 5 points per second, which was astonishing. This was because Qing Gang Yin transformed mana values into the special energy.

Su Xiao put dragon flash under his arm. Once the energy of Qing Gang Yin was defeated, he would decisively cut his arm.

His left arm was full of curse's lines which looked like black tadpoles, above his forearm had arcs surging.

Akame witnessed this scene, and she felt unbelievable.

It has been almost half a minute later, but Su Xiao was not in a state of dying, but instead put the sword under his arm, he looked like that he would cut at his arm at any time.

"Oops, it's that kind of 'electric poison.'"

Akame partially squatted in the ground, Murasame was in front of her, she clasped Murasame's handles with both hands, if she does not do that, she may fall down at any time.

It was not easy to bear the various emotions of the ghosts. Now Akame felt a lot of pain from her body, and she seemed that she vaguely heard ghosts' mourning.

“Ahhhh!”

Akame spat out a large amount of blood, and she almost fell to the ground after her sight became dark.

“Ha, it's ridiculous that you want to kill me by using the power that does not belong to you.”

Su Xiao took dragon flash from the armpit, holding the dragon flash and approached Akame slowly.

His current situation was not good as well, and he felt severe pains from his left arm.

Although he could immediately relieve this kind of severe pain by cutting his left arm, after he did this, he would have endless problems. A small part of the curse may take the opportunity to enter his body. Although he would not die, his combat power in Akame Ga Kill world would be greatly reduced. Only return to the reincarnation paradise he would recover.

But using the energy of Qing Gang Yin to annihilate was completely different. The energy of Qing Gang Yin would completely destroy all the curse in his arm.

He had more than 200 points mana values left, and the curse had already retreated to the position of his palm.

“You are the monster.”

Akame bit her silver teeth tightly, she wanted to get up to fight with Su Xiao, but the weak body made her unable to fight again.

“You hold the demonian sword to call other people monsters, is it right? Miss Akame.”

Su Xiao went to Akame casually, and his eyes were full of killings, Akame raised Murasame to try to resist.

Puchi.

Dragon flash cut through Akame's chest, this time was the right chest, the attack went straight to the heart.

Su Xiao held the sword to raise Akame up by one hand, just in case that she could not be able to continue to resist.

Akame's whole person was raised in the air, and she no longer had the strength to hold Murasame.

Ding, the demonian sword fell, the wind blew through Akame's long hair, the bright red blood dropped.

“One day, someone will beat you, representing the will of the people, and the justice in mind.”

Akame's expression was very calm. After she used the unique skill, even if Su Xiao doesn't kill her, she will die within a few years, she would be affected by the ghosts in these years.

“Justice? The glory word, strength is justice; only the winner has the right to define what is justice.

I win today, and if I want, I can make the night raid into a complete killer organization, making them into a group of hyenas to kill people for the money.”

Akame, who was about dying, had nothing to say.

“Ruin...”

Akame's head hung down to end her life as a killer.

The god was always unfair; Akame was trained to become a killer forcibly when she was a kid.

But the god was fair as well. Akame had the power to control her destiny after becoming a killer. She used weapons to fight for faiths.

Su Xiao also fought for faiths, but he fought for his personal beliefs.

.....

“Cough, cough...”

Su Xiao repeatedly spat out a lot amount of blood, but Akame's body on the ground, he put Murasame and Yatsufusa away.

He was going to hide the bodies of Akame and Kurome so that even if someone finds where us the Teigu, the person will not doubt him.

The traces of the battle between him and Carl were there, and no one would doubt him if he said that he was fighting with strong the enemy.

Su Xiao raised his left hand, the trace of the curse on his hand retreated. Qing Gang Yin completely cleared the curse and consumed a total of 276 points of mana values.

Su Xiao vaguely had a feeling that if he is attacked by this kind of poison again, he will be much easier to resist than this time.

It was like a cold, cutting his arm was equivalent to antibiotics. Although it worked quickly, the resistance would drop.

Therefore, Su Xiao resisted the curse directly, and there were full of dangers in the derivative world in the future. Maybe he would encounter enemies with different abilities. The way of resisting curse directly could bring many benefits.

Su Xiao played with the purple treasure chest in his hand. It could be described as a big harvest, probably...

Before he opened the box, he was generally worried.

Su Xiao was very interested in opening the box, but his luck was very...

The task completion of 'terrify the sky and waves' was an unexpected surprise. This was a big task, and the reward must be amazing.

Su Xiao looked at the bodies of Akame and Kurome. He was going to bury the two bodies, so the chances of being discovered were very small. As for fking them by chances this kind of evil thought, he had never had.

Digging out a big hole, Su Xiao buried Akame and Kurome together, after he put the soil on it, some shouts came incessantly from the surrounding forests.

“Has the big army finally arrived?”

Su Xiao threw the shovel into the forest and indicated Bebtney who was hiding in the distance came.

Bubteny rushed over happily when it came near Su Xiao, and it became the core, Su Xiao put Bibtney's core away. He walked in the direction where Esdeath was at.

Chapter 238: The great army on to the border.

Su Xiao was ready to meet Esdeath because he would be suspected by people if he kept being a bystander.

But he just walked for a few steps, and a red signal bomb exploded in the air.

“The signal for retreating?”

Su Xiao was confused. Now the night raid was about to lose. Why would they retreat? The signal bomb was carried by Esdeath herself.

“Is it..?”

Su Xiao thought of a possibility if that was the case, he had to withdraw quickly.

He walked quickly in the forest, Su Xiao retreated in the direction which they agreed before.

As he rushed out of the forest, he saw Esdeath and Wave were out of the forest.

“Where is Kurome?”

Esdeath looked at Su Xiao.

“I don’t know, and I met a strong enemy, the enemy’s Teigu can use the power of three elements, I just solved him.”

Esdeath nodded. She also saw the huge water polo in the forest before.

“What happened to Mr. Bols and Kurome?”

Wave just finished his words, and there was a huge stunning noise in the distance. A mushroom cloud made by the explosion appeared in the forest.

“Is it the self-destruct of Purgatory’s Invitation: Rubicante?”

It seemed that Esdeath knew what happened.

“Self-destruct? So that Mr. Bols...”

“Bols can’t come back.”

Esdeath’s tone was indifferent. Wave clenched his fists.

“Damn.”

The three stood outside the forest, Su Xiao did not ask why did they retreat, the incessant shouting sound for killing in the forest had already represented everything.

After waiting for five minutes, Kurome still did not appear in the gathering place.

“Kurome will not come.”

Esdeath held a damaged spool which was wrapped with a large number of extremely thin wires.

Those were not wired actually, but the hair of super dangerous species.

Esdeath held Dimensional Formation: Shambhala which was damaged, Dimensional Formation: Shambhala was the Teigu which had been worn all the time, now it was damaged into this kind of situation, the situation of the owner Lubbock could be imagined.

It was lucky that Lubbock, Tatsumi, and Mine were not all killed after fighting with Esdeath for such a long time.

“General, is this Teigu broken?”

Su Xiao was more interested in checking the Teigu in Esdeath’s hands.

“Well, this Teigu and the user this year match highly, it has played 100% of its power and eventually broke. Are you interested?”

Su Xiao nodded.

Esdeath threw Dimensional Formation: Shambhala to Su Xiao, he did not expect Esdeath was so generous.

“Thank you...general.”

Su Xiao sighed in his mind, being trusted after sneaking into the enemy camp was not good.

“It’s okay, you and I had been through several dangers. I appreciate your hard works these days.”

Su Xiao did not speak. He was kind of able to understand Reiner ‘s feelings in the attack on titan world. He and Esdeath must have a day to appeal to arms, and that day would come soon.

“General Esdeath.”

An officer with an empire military uniform rushed out of the forest. The officer was stained with a large amount of blood. The large knife on his hand had ground meat on it. There was also a crack on the blade. It seemed that he had just experienced a killing battle.

“How long can you resist?”

Esdeath’s question was straightforward.

“Up to an hour, we only dispatched the troops with 40,000 people this time. The number of enemies is at least several hundred thousand. This is still a conservative estimate.”

The officer’s face was hopeless.

“The troops in the forest started to be surrounded, and I got out by killing them.”

The officer did not continue to say.

“Does the revolutionary army finally fight with us completely?”

Esdeath smiled and seemed that the casualties of the 40,000 soldiers did not exist.

“General Esdeath, these troops...”

“Let’s withdraw, and we must establish defensive lines on the wall of the capital city as soon as possible. Otherwise, we will not be able to stop the revolutionary army.”

Including the officer, four people retreated.

More than 40,000 people came and only four people left.

This was not the most ridiculous. The most ridiculous thing was that the revolutionary army suddenly attacked this time, but the empire had no news.

If it is not Su Xiao and others are just on the way that the revolutionary army must pass through, the revolutionary army will directly hit the capital city. At that time, after the capital city was surrounded by layers, people would discover the enemies.

By reducing the military strength of the border defense, a large number of officials were subverted by the revolutionary army, which accelerated the speed of the empire destroyed.

Now the revolutionary army only needed to have a decisive battle to defeat the empire completely, and a new country would emerge.

The residents in the new country may have safe and peaceful lives, but before this, hundreds of thousands of people would die in war, or more.

Su Xiao was in a good mood on the way to retreat. The revolutionary army finally came; it was faster than he expected; he finally did not need to pretend to be an assassin.

Su Xiao and others returned to the capital city at full speed. Esdeath went straight to the military camp. She needed to mobilize the army with millions of people to launch a war with the revolutionary army.

Esdeath was on the way very excited. It seemed that having a war was a good thing.

Su Xiao stayed in the capital city to wait. He was a member of Jaegers. He did not need to be dispatched at the beginning of a large-scale war. He would be busy in the middle and late stages of the war and was mainly responsible for assassinating the leader of the enemy.

Several hundreds of thousands of troops stationed in the suburb of the capital city were quickly mobilized. A large number of soldiers rushed to the walls around the capital city, and the entire capital city became a 'metal bucket' in less than half an hour.

Residents could see several soldiers at any time; this kind of huge form made the residents in the capital city panic.

The situation in the capital city was not very optimistic, even if they could barely hang on for a while, it would not mean much.

The food in the capital city was not a lot. In the case of being surrounded by the revolutionary army completely, the famine would break forth within half a month. Not only did the army need food, but the civilians in the capital city would also eat a lot of food.

Now it was the authority to resist desperately, the revolutionary army which had a lot amount of members around the capital city would let the thought of breaking out of the encirclement failed.

Su Xiao also knew that he needed to hurry up. If the revolutionary army breaks into the city, he, as an assassin, will not have any benefits.

The first thing was to complete the main task. According to the past situation, the returning task would appear after completing the main task.

It was obviously not a good time to sneak into the palace. It was better to do it after a day. After the war was completely started, the situation of the capital city would be completely chaotic.

Su Xiao walked on the streets of the capital city and looked around casually. He was looking for a suitable place to hide.

The Lucky Flame's cooldown time finished, the final battle was just around the corner. This was the most appropriate way to open the treasure chests and increase combat power.

He quickly found a ruined home, no one lived in this house for a long time, and the wall also peeled off slightly.

After using the tool to unlock for a long time, Su Xiao did not open the door of the house.

It was not how hard the lock was, but the door lock was rusty.

He put the wrench on the door forcibly, and the door lock was directly broken, Su Xiao fixed the door firmly after entering the house to prevent people from entering.

He came to the living room, the living room was neat, the doors and windows were closed, so there was not much dust.

Su Xiao sat on an old sofa and took out all the treasure chests. There were two blue treasure chests and one purple treasure chest.

The two blue treasure chests were dropped by Bulat and Najenda, and the purple treasure chest was dropped by Akame.

In fact, there was Carl's scarlet card, but the time of opening the scarlet card is long. The time that lucky fame was not enough.

Su Xiao took a deep breath, the happy time of opening boxes came.

Chapter 239: The chief's last struggle

The footsteps outside the room were very noisy, and the capital city had a tendency of rebellions.

Bang.

A light blue flame appeared, and a cigarette was ignited.

A feeling which was unable to speak appeared, something called fortune was close to Su Xiao.

The effect of Lucky Flame lasted only fifteen seconds, Su Xiao had to hurry up.

The first to pick up Bulat's treasure chest, Bulat had been seriously injured when he fought with him, he thought that the content of this treasure chest would not be good.

[You opened the treasure chest (blue) and got the following items]

[Get 2000 Paradise coins]

[Get 1000 Paradise coins]

[Get 1500 Paradise coins]

Sure enough, this treasure chest opened a lot of paradise coins, which was a good harvest.

Su Xiao immediately picked up the treasure chest of Najenda, and he had a lot of expectations in this treasure chest.

[You opened the treasure chest (blue) and got the following items]

[Get 1000 Paradise coins]

[Get 3000 Paradise coins]

[Get 200 Paradise coins]

.....

“Cough, cough, cough!”

Su Xiao burst into coughs, he was shocked, two consecutive blue treasure chests opened both only paradise coins.

“I don’t believe it.”

Su Xiao’s masticatory muscles rose, he grabbed the purple treasure chest that was fallen from Akame.

[You opened the treasure chest (purple) and got the following items]

[Get 4300 Paradise coins]

[Get soul crystal (small) × 3]

[Get the favor of the son of fate]

.....

[The favor of the son of fate]

Quality: purple

Type: Expendable

Effect: It can upgrade the level of white or green grade equipment or items after using. The upper limit is one level; the ability of the items or equipment will be strengthened. (This item needs to be used after returning to the reincarnation paradise)

Rating: 101 (Note: Purple items score 71 to 150.)

Introduction: Destiny is evasive and amazing.

.....

The soul crystal (small) × 3 was a good harvest, and [the favor of the son of fate] was unexpected luck.

Su Xiao looked at the lucky flame. [The favor of the son of fate] was simply customized for the lucky flame. This expendable could upgrade the lucky flame to blue equipment.

Although the first two treasure chests were very unlucky, the last one was very good.

As for opening the Teigu Su Xiao never thought about it, that thing was notably difficult to obtain in the reincarnation paradise.

He once saw a blue quality Teigu on the market, priced at 70,000 paradise coins.

The Teigu was equivalent to the devil fruits of the one-piece world, and even the blue-quality Teigu was hard to obtain.

The effect of Lucky Flame disappeared, Su Xiao finished to open boxes. In general, the harvest was not bad.

Although the treasure chests were opened, Su Xiao had other things to do.

Taking out Murasame and Yatsufusa, Su Xiao was ready to swallow the two knives by the supreme edge blade.

The ability of the two knives was good, but unfortunately, they were not suitable for dragon flash.

First, to talk about the ability of Murasame's curse. This ability was very strong, but it had a very troublesome situation.

The energy of the curse and Qing Gang Yin would mutually repel each other. This had been confirmed. If the dragon flash gets the ability of curse, after Su Xiao opens the Qing Gang Yin, the two energies will fight on the knife.

He didn't have to fight at the time, and the two abilities would annihilate each other on the knife; the power that could be used during the battle would be little.

At that time, the situation would be Su Xiao used a large number of mana values after opening Qing Gang Yin, the mana values would be cost by the war of two energies.

Not to think about the ability of Yatsufusa, the ability to summon the dead men would definitely change the internal structure of dragon flash.

The dragon flash was good at its sharpness, and Su Xiao was a melee, not a summoner, summoning the dead men was basically cannon fodder.

Although the Supreme edge blade could swallow the knives Teigu, it had limits as well. If you want to get the ability of the Teigu, the internal structure of dragon flash will change, and most of the Teigu is like this.

This situation would not occur when it swallowed the equipment that was certified by the reincarnation paradise.

Only the Teigu was like this, and there was no free benefit without earning in the world.

The main purpose of swallowing these two knives was to increase the edge blade value. When the dragon flash was promoted to purple equipment, the ability must not be worse than Yatsufusa or Murasame.

Using the skills of the Supreme edge blade, an iron-black light appeared on Su Xiao's hands, the black iron light turned into a swirling shape to wrap the two knives together, and the intense rubbing sounded.

Crack, crack, crack.

Two precious Teigu were stirred into scrap metal, and a black and red crystal floated from the black iron light.

The crystal entered into dragon flash's blade, the edge of the dragon flash flashed a dark blue light. This knife was not far from upgrading.

Su Xiao could not wait to see the properties of dragon flash.

Dragon flash +5 (front edge blade value 86%) +30%

Origin: the shadow of the law

Quality: blue

Durability: 63/70 (up 1 point)

Combat power: 33 to 69 (up 2 to 4 points)

Equipment Requirements: The Inheritor of the shadow of the law

Rating: 66 (up 5 points)

Supreme edge blade effect 1: Sharpness +4

Supreme edge blade effect 2: Rc cell rhythm (passive): physical strength +3. (Strengthen 1 point)

+5 additional effects: improving penetration

Introduction: Lost, meet, fight, rebirth, grow.

Price: Unable to trade.

.....

The edge blade value of the dragon flash was increased by 30%. If he buys a blue weapon with 30% edge blade value, he will cost around 20,000 to 40,000 paradise coins.

Both the abilities of Murasame and Yatsufusa had to choose. The ability of Yatsufusa would expectedly change dragon flash's internal structure, so he decisively gave up.

The option of Murasame was more exaggerated, the option was red, and there were six warnings below.

It roughly meant that if you choose the ability of Murasame, the dragon flash will basically be another sword, a Murasame called dragon flash.

The feeling of Murasame was ghostlike, dragon flash which seemed to be able to cut off anything and shined lights.

From the word "Dragon" of dragon flash, you could see the style of this sword. If you want to cut the dragon in the sky, but becoming ghostlike, then how can you call dragon flash?

Abandoning the two abilities Su Xiao did not feel pity, there were more abilities would be suitable to dragon flash in the future.

Even if he wants to replace the ability of the supreme edge blade 2, Su Xiao will choose it when it swallowed the equipment. Although it was costly, there was no risk. The equipment he obtained had not been certified by the reincarnation paradise. The edge blade value increase was very pleasant.

Whether the equipment was certified by the reincarnation paradise was very important. The equipment that had not been certified by the reincarnation paradise could not accompany Su Xiao to travel in the derivative worlds.

Su Xiao probably finished the things he needed to do, only one scarlet card left, and he instinctively conflicted to this thing.

The shadow of opening the scarlet card last time was too terrible. First, the bra was opened, followed by the shampoo, and finally the wrench. Su Xiao almost wanted to cut people at that time.

The scarlet card was very difficult to sell, only the black merchants of the Black Chamber of Commerce the reincarnation paradise would buy this thing, the price was also very low.

Instead of selling it to those people, Su Xiao would use it now.

Su Xiao thought that his luck was okay, although he was not 'European', he could not get along with 'Chief', probably...

[Yes/No use scarlet cards.]

“Yes.”

Su Xiao's voice was low.

The 'scarlet card' gradually melted and turned into a group of pale red liquid floating in the air.

The pale red liquid suddenly began to spin at a rapid speed, forming a bloody vortex in front of Su Xiao.

One end of the vortex could be put in one hand, and he put his hand into it.

Chapter 240

The spacious feeling appeared, inside of the bloody vortex was the items what Carl wore, or in his storage space, he could extract three times.

It was said to extract was actually putting his hand into the bloody vortex.

With the last lesson, Su Xiao did not grab the smooth items, the bra, the shampoo, the wrench, which one was not smooth?

Suddenly he touched something, and the object was coarse but slightly flexible.

The confident smile appeared on the corner of Su Xiao's mouth, he quickly pulled his hand out of the bloody vortex, and then the whole person was stunned.

Broccoli

Su Xiao's hand holding green broccoli is indeed rough and slightly flexible.

His mouth twitched, and his face turned green, and the whole person seemed to be poisoned by the broccoli.

He silently took out the core of Bubby to summon Bubby, Su Xiao threw the broccoli to Bubby.

“Bubby, destroy it.”

Bubby ate it with sounds, a small piece of broccoli fell to the ground, Bubby pretended to look down to eat, but his dark eyes were full of disgust, this thing was not delicious.

But Su Xiao's order, Bubby would not defy.

Eating the broccoli, Bubby seemed to be interested in the bloody vortex floating in front of him, looking at Su Xiao with the sight of the request.

“It's yours, play it.”

Su Xiao was sitting on the sofa powerlessly, and he did not pay attention to the bloody vortex.

Bubby was Su Xiao's biological Teigu. After Su Xiao used the scarlet card, Bubby could also pick up things in it.

Soon, Bubby pulled out a sock from the bloody vortex, and Bubby was a little angry to tear the sock.

It discovered that he could pick out things from the bloody vortex, and Bubby once again put its head into it.

Su Xiao leaned on the sofa and smoked, and he did not pay attention, even the bloody vortex disappeared.

He inadvertently glanced at Bubby and stunned, Bubby seemed to have something flashing in its mouth.

“Bubby, come over.”

Bubby ran to Su Xiao, Su Xiao took out the things in Bubby's mouth.

“This is.....”

Su Xiao held a ring with purple light in his hand.

[Mystery Silver Ring]

Introduction: My lover, Soria, I have been in the country for five years. I have never been home in the past five years. I miss you, and you must take care of my three-year-old son — this warm message, or a ‘sad’ story.

Price: 29000 paradise coins

.....

Su Xiao was shocked after seeing the property of [Mystery Silver Ring].

“Bubu, I will give you an extra meal at night.”

Su Xiao gave a pat on Bubby’s head, and he was in a good mood.

He did not open the equipment from the treasure chest, but he got the surprise from the scarlet card.

Taking off the evil spirits roar (green) he wore. Although he had ten fingers, he could only equip one ring at the same time.

Su Xiao put [Mystery Silver Ring] on, the value of this thing was undoubted.

He was most afraid of being caught attacked by people after he had been controlled. Although his ability to immune control was not weak, if he makes mistakes and is controlled, he will die.

The appearance of [Mystery Silver Ring] gave Su Xiao the opportunity to make mistakes. In the most dangerous moment, he could use the ‘mystery silver burning (active)’ to release all the control effects. This ring was a life-saving weapon.

As for the evil spirits roar(green) ring, Su Xiao was ready to sell it after returning to the reincarnation paradise. This was also a huge income.

Although he only opened one expendable item in three treasure chests, he opened a lot of paradise coins which was 14,000 points. After all, the two consecutive treasure chests both opened all paradise coins.

Su Xiao took out the broken Dimensional Formation: Shambhala.

The Teigu Dimensional Formation: Shambhala had two parts. One part was the control part on the hand, and then another part was the spool. Now there was only the spool left, and it was damaged. This Teigu had been able to use.

Although the wires of the Dimensional Formation: Shambhala was super-dangerous species’ body hair, the internal structure was roughly the same as the high-strength nichrome wire.

The sharpness, toughness, and strength were excellent, Su Xiao wanted these wires.

There was a metal wire which was tens meter long on the spool at the end of Dimensional Formation: Shambhala was the most special one. This wire was called a broken line, which was extremely sharp and not easily damaged.

The broken line was the super-dangerous species body hair used to protect its vital part. Su Xiao tried to use the dragon flash, and he still could not completely cut off this broken line with great efforts.

The value of this Teigu was actually this broken line. It was appropriate to use this thing to arrange traps.

Su Xiao took out a small spool from the storage space. The spool was small and flat. He carefully wrapped the broken line on the spool and fixed the spool under the wrist of his left arm. His sleeve could hide the spool.

The broken line was very difficult to detect, and it could shield the perception. Su Xiao was almost deceived.

This thing could cope with an emergency situation. Although Su Xiao uses this spool to control the broken line was not as flexible as using Teigu Dimensional Formation: Shambhala. It was no problem to arrange a simple trap during the battle. Carl was killed after being tied by the wires. He had learned to arrange wires.

Su Xiao got up and walked to the bedroom. He was ready to sleep before he sneaked into the palace.

Su Xiao left the living room, Bubby sat in the living room to become a loyal guard.

Su Xiao just left for five seconds, Bubby's head sided, the property of silly dog revealed undoubtedly, looking at Bubby's sight, this guy was staring at the sofa in the living room.

Bubby had a strong interest in the sofa.

.....

At nine o'clock in the evening, Su Xiao's pupils opened in the darkness.

Having Bubby as a guard, he slept very well, Bubby was a partner that Su Xiao trusted.

When Su Xiao walked out of the bedroom, he found that the living room was messy. The big sofa with five seats in the living room disappeared without a trace. In general, he did not see a complete thing in the living room.

Bubby was lying in a pile of cotton in the living room and looked enjoy.

“You did it?”

Su Xiao looked at Bubby with a smile, Bubby's body trembled, his tail tightened and head lowered.

“Let's go, and I will give you an extra meal tonight.”

Su Xiao put Bubby away, he left the house and went to a famous restaurant in the capital city.

In a private room, Su Xiao ordered at least dozens of food and closed the door after the food arrived. The broken line sealed the doors and windows.

Su Xiao let Bubby out and took a few dishes to the front, indicating that the rest of the food belonged to Bubby.

This made Bubby joyful, and it ate abnormally happily. It had eaten the food which was cooked for the first time since birth.

After dinner, Su Xiao put Bubby away, the identity of Bubby in Akame Ga Kill world could not be exposed. In other derivative worlds, there was no such problem.

Looked at the time, ten o'clock in the evening.

Su Xiao walked on the streets of the capital city. He came to the palace in a short time. Now inside the palace was very chaotic. After half an hour, he successfully sneaked into the palace.
