

REINCARNATION PARADISE

Chapter 3

Personal information is as below:

Contractor N. 13013 (To protect the hunter's identity, this is a fake contractor's identity, and no one can know the real one)

Name: Su Xiao (hunter)

Level: LV.1 (Level one, nothing will be added when upgrading levels, every ten levels there is rank up. The Hunters authority will increase as his rank increases. When that happens, the world difficulty and task difficulty will increase.)

Health (Hp): 100% (This cannot be calculated completely. The value changes by the severity of the injury.)

Mana: 60. (Intelligence*10. The speed of Mana recovery is 3 points per hour.)

Strength: 6. (Related to attack power.)

Agility: 7. (Related to movement and attack speed.)

Vitality: 5. (Related to defense and abnormal status resistance and health.)

Intelligence: 6. (Related to magic attacks and perception.)

Charm: 3. (Related to socialization and summoning.)

Luck: 1. (Related to obtaining objects and success rate of making items, this is hard to upgrade, please cherish the opportunity to upgrade it.)

Remark: the standard of an adult male is 5 points, and the fortune is one point.

Psychic talent: killing an enemy, you will devour his spirit and permanently increase Mana by 1 to 15 points.

This talent can only get 100 Mana points at most per world.

“Personal information is useful for the hunter to estimate his personal ability conveniently, it doesn’t reflect the hunter’s fighting power. Those abilities will influence the hunter’s body, but fights are not only determined by attributes, please remember this.”

.....

Su Xiao checked this information discreetly for few times, remembering his personal information in mind.

His was LV.1, needless to say, that the function of level equals to his power in “the reincarnation paradise”.

The world difficulty of ‘one piece’ which he entered is LV.6, but his level is only LV.1, which means it will be very dangerous for him to stay in this world.

In the normal situation, ‘the reincarnation paradise’ will not send a contractor to a world with a difficulty level above 5 from his current level. He was sent here because of his trial.

What are the benefits of this hunter rank anyways? Su Xiao didn’t know any advantages to have it, he could only see the danger it brought him.

Entering the LV.6 world and accepting LV.3 task as a LV.1, this ‘game’ seemed a bit hard.

And depending on the introduction of ‘the reincarnation paradise’, he needed to help ‘it’ in cleaning some abnormal contractors in other worlds in the future.

It means the relationships between Su Xiao and most of the contractors are that of hostility, they can hardly finish tasks together because most of them will not agree with doing that.

Once they found out his identity, they will just attack him.

Who can make sure that they weren't on Su Xiao's list?

Who can say that 'the reincarnation paradise' won't give mission for his elimination, he couldn't trust it after all?

But he also got some good news, his abilities were better than ordinary people. It's the results of his hard work.

Although this kind of abilities is not that munificent in 'the one piece world', it gave him a higher starting point.

Su Xiao's ability is not only presented by those attributes, but he also had another talent – he knows how to fight and he dares to fight.

Although he didn't have that kind of intelligence for knowing everything, he had a mindset that he is not afraid of getting hurts or dead. It's not that his unafraid at all, it's just he has more courage than other people.

In this point, Su Xiao's could only do what the 'the reincarnation paradise' told him to do. The source of this content n/o/v/(el)bi((n))

Sometimes, a brave heart is far more important than a strong body.

"So, let me see how dangerous this world is."

Su Xiao ran for few steps acutely.

His put his feet on the part of the window, then jumped and stretched his arm to grab the wall of the house. He put some strength on his arms and pulled himself up to see outside

When Su Xiao tried to check the situation outside, he heard a sound.

"pong."

It was a gunshot, a few dull gunshots, Su Xiao judged the situation immediately.

He grabbed the wall tightly again, Su Xiao moved his head to check the situation outside.

“pong, pong, pong....”

The gunshot sounds burst out, through Su Xiao’s observation, this was a fight between two sides in the “Gray terminal”.

They both have a dozen or more people, fighting with guns in the distances.

Su Xiao found out that they both were thin and wore old clothes. They are supposed to be the homeless in ‘ The Gray terminal’.

“Toby, this is our place, what do you mean by this? We’re all poor guys living by collecting garbage, are you going to kill all of us?”

The gunshot started ceasing for a while, they started arguing loudly.

“Your place? I have ten more guns now, here is my place now, when I earn enough money, I will bring people out, then I will be a pirate.”

“Rogeir put down your arms, I will give you a chance to leave...”

Toby hadn’t finished his words and was interrupted by a gunshot, Su Xiao moved his head back to the garbage mountain.

Su Xiao who stayed in the old house can see the guy who was speaking, that is a muscular guy with a beard, he stood behind a pile of garbage with a smile, they didn’t seem to want to succumb to each other.

This muscular guy with a beard named Toby looked different from those pale homeless, and he is tall and muscular.

Su Xiao sighed in his heart, he finally realized how dangerous a LV.6 world was.

If he goes out suddenly, he will definitely be beaten like a dog. And this is just in the beginning. The situation will be more dangerous in the future.

When Su Xiao was waiting for those people to leave, a person suddenly jumped into the house that Su Xiao stayed in.

“hoo, I finally found a safe ....”

The person hadn't finished his words, he saw Su Xiao who climbed on the wall.

“that...”

The person just started speaking, Su Xiao had already loosened his hand which held on the wall and jumped to the ground.

After arriving in the ground, Su Xiao lowered his body and put his feet into the ground, few leaves flew because of the wind Su Xiao created, he closed to the person like an acute cheetah.

The person just wanted to explain something, but it was too late.

Su Xiao punches into the person's stomach, and he can obviously feel the person's soft stomach which sunk because of his attack.

The person bowed in front of the body and wanted to scream, but Su Xiao's hand covered the person's mouth and nose.

He didn't finish there. Su Xiao covered the person's mouth by one hand and attacked his chest aggressively.

“oh..” a unique sound was heard as he slammed on the person's chest.

Su Xiao can feel the person's soft body, the latter's face full of panic and can only speak little sound.

Su Xiao felt a very soft feeling when his finger attacked the person's heart.

“woman?”

He did this is because he cannot judge whether the person is an enemy or not, so it was better to attack.

“don’t, don’t hurt me.”

A tiny and small sound came, Su Xiao checked the person for a while.

Dust covered her face, but her cheeks were white, and the linen clothes were extremely wide, he can found out the person’s body is thin and young.

“Who are you?”

Su Xiao could roughly guess the purpose of her coming here. It was to avoid danger.

“My name is Mia, I don’t have any purpose, please don’t attack me.” Mia’s sound was tiny.

She felt dizzy after her heart was attacked. In a short time, she could not move freely.

“Don’t make any sound, or I will kill you.”

Su Xiao will kill people if they endanger his life. He still didn’t execute his revenge.

“quloo”

Mia who was only fifteen or sixteen years old swallowed.

“Okay, I just want to avoid danger. I will not make any sound.”

Mia suddenly felt that staying here will not be any safer than staying outside.

The gunshot outside gradually stopped, the fight is supposed to finish soon.

Su Xiao was waiting. Once the fight end, he will go out immediately. Although it was dangerous, it’s also an opportunity to get weapons.

But after he went out, he did not find anything. Don’t mention a good weapon, there was not even a wooden stick.
