

R. Paradise 341

Chapter 341: Serious!

The fireball in Su Xiao's hands floated and inflated from time to time before changing to a little orb. After it was compressed, it started throbbing, and that made Kizaru fearful.

The Throbbing spread all over the orb, and Su Xiao's expression changed. He made a mistake.

The shape of the bomb started changing, not fast, but it was happening.

Su Xiao's brows knit together as he was pouring mana like water.

"This isn't good."

A Vein appeared in Su Xiao's forehead. If it weren't for the Shadow Spirit Constitution to aid him in controlling Mana, he probably would've failed to suppress the changes in the fireball.

"What's wrong, did you make a mistake?"

"Yes, I did."

"Do we need to run?"

"Before no, but now, we need to run now!!"

Kizaru directly held Su Xiao and Vegapunk's arms and directly charged out of the shelter in a yellow flash.

Because he was too fast, Su Xiao couldn't see anything but darkness. When he could see again, a dazzling light appeared from behind them.

The fireball expanded into a raging sun, about 300 meters in diameters, completely decimating a large portion of the ground.

The shock wave finally hit them, making Su Xiao lift his arm in front of his face to block the wind.

They were looking at a Sun in all of its glory.

After the explosion resided, they saw a 300 meters wide and 200 meters deep crater.

Kizaru's face was full of cold sweat. Fortunately, he used his full speed previously.

"This power..."

Vegapunk was smiling as if he just saw a treasure.

"Fortunately, the range was just one-third of the actual range!"

Su Xiao wiped the dust from his face as he noted.

"We need to change our location and continue with the bomb."

"Ha?"

Kizaru looked at Su Xiao in surprise.

“What’s wrong, Great Admiral Borsalino?”

“No.”

Kizaru immediately declined. He could not let Su Xiao come close to the Marine base if this bomb was thrown in the base, the consequences that would cause... He couldn’t even imagine!

Su Xiao was eager to see Sun Wrath, and if he made another two mistakes, he wouldn’t be able to see it in the foreseeable future.

“We can go to the spare shelter, that place would also meet the requirement.”

Kizaru was speechless, hearing Vegapunk’s suggestion. If that shelter is blown as well, Sengoku will fly in rage from the money loss.

“Good idea, I’m currently in my best condition.”

Vegapunk led the way, and quickly, Su Xiao reached the shelter quickly with the others.

This shelter was smaller, but it met the required environment.

Su Xiao pulled out the materials for the bomb and started the process again. Kizaru was on his toes. He still remembered the previous explosion.

The dazzling fireball appeared once again in Su Xiao’s hand. He was more proficient than before.

When the fireball started inflating and deflating as if breathing, Kizaru was on high alert as if he was facing one of the Yonko.

Kizaru would still be safe because he had a logia fruit, but if something happens to Vegapunk and Su Xiao, his life would be forfeited.

After half an hour of nerve-wracking, Su Xiao sighed in relief.

“Success.”

A blazing apple-sized sphere rested on Su Xiao’s palm.

The bomb seemed hot and could melt iron, but it felt only warm in his hand.

“Is this the Sun Wrath?”

Vegapunk was almost surprised by the size of the bomb. He didn’t think it would be so small.

“Right, this is the Sun Wrath.”

Su Xiao started tossing the bomb in the air and catching it. Kizaru almost flew toward Su Xiao to make him stop playing.

“Dr. Byakuya, please put the bomb down, this is too dangerous.”

“Doesn’t matter, Sun Wrath is only unstable in the making process. As soon as it’s made, it is very stable and won’t explode unless you activate it.”

Su Xiao pinched the Sun Wrath, and it felt really soft.

“Hey, calm down.”

“Byakuya, please calm down.”

Kizaru and Vegapunk retreated back as they looked at Su Xiao as if he was crazy.

Su Xiao didn't even bother with them. The Sun Wrath was really stable. After inspecting it, Roja looked at its properties.

[Sun Wrath]

Quality: Purple

Type: Consumables

Effect: Consuming 1 Mp for activation (explosion range is two Kilometers, and the range can increase to four kilometers if the option of the Increased range is chosen). The damage caused by the explosion is 6,000 in half a kilometer radius, and 2,000 burn damage over time.

Note: Activating Sun Wrath takes 30 seconds.

Rate: 143

Description: The Dignity of the Sun God Apollo can't be trampled.

...

The power was great, but unfortunately, the detonation time is too long, and it isn't suited for fights.

If someone was fast enough, he could get away from the explosion range in 30 seconds. The 30 seconds is what makes the Sun Wrath so stable.

Su Xiao threw the bomb to Kizaru and walked toward the shelter's exit.

“Byakuya, we need to discuss somethings later.”

Vegapunk said as he looked at Roja, who nodded in acceptance.

Kizaru, who held the bomb, had a dark expression. The power of one-third of this bomb was already so terrifying, and now it was complete, he couldn't imagine how much more powerful it was.

Kizaru brought Sun Wrath with him, he needed to let the world government know about this as soon as possible, but he needs to inform Sengoku first.

Although Sun Wrath was astonishingly powerful, Su Xiao didn't plan on making many of them. He will most likely only make two. He mostly needs them for a large target like a fort or when he knows that he can be out of the explosion range.

Not to mention the cost of making the Sun wrath. Soul crystals were not a common commodity in The Reincarnation Paradise, and it costs at least tens of thousands of Paradise Coins.

Su Xiao may be willing to use Paradise Coins to empower himself, but to use almost everything he had to make a bomb wasn't worth it.

He preferred the Top-Grade Alchemy bomb. Although it was less powerful, it can be detonated instantaneously, and it doesn't cost as much. The Top-Grade Bomb was very practical.

As long as it can kill his enemy, it was enough. Even if Sun Wrath can cause 100,000 Damage, what good was it if it can't hit the target and he can't just use it by making someone eat it, it would be like using a cannon to kill a mosquito.

Sun Wrath had its advantages, mostly in wars. It is simply a devil in wars.

After a while, Su Xiao was lazily sleepily on his chair While Kizaru was holding Sun Wrath and moving fast away from the island.

At this time, a sword rested beside Su Xiao's body, this sword was one of the 50 Ryo Wazamono that reached the base this morning.

Su Xiao inspected the sword, and although he was authorized by the Marine to do anything with it, he would just turn it into nutrition for Dragon Flash before he leaves.

Chapter 342: Kuma!

After falling asleep, Su Xiao woke up after three hours after sensing someone entering his laboratory.

Looking up, he saw Kizaru, who left the island and returned quickly.

“That bomb was tested. We will start collecting the materials, and a special laboratory will be made for you to make that bomb.”

Kizaru's meaning was obvious. He just gave permission to Su Xiao to discard making the top-grade bombs and focus on making the Sun Wrath.

“The Fleet Admiral Sengoku knows that you like to collect famous blades, he sent you these two to add to your collection.”

Kizaru placed two swords on the table as a show of sincerity from the Marine.

Su Xiao complied. They were gifting swords, why would he decline? Furthermore, he won't be making that many Sun Wrath for the Marine, after all, he only had two days and a half in this world.

“In other words, I can rest the next few days? I can go wherever I want?”

Su Xiao sat beside the bombs on the bench and said to Kizaru.

“You can say that, but...”

Kizaru was interrupted by Su Xiao.

“I swallowed poison from the CP department. The Marine should already know about this, which means I won't run away because I don't want to die.”

Kizaru didn't say anything, the Marine won't give Su Xiao the Antidote, but they will give him Medicine that suppresses the poison so he won't die.

Su Xiao obviously didn't swallow the poison, but the Marines didn't need to know about that.

“I help you make the bombs and collect some swords. And furthermore, the swords I collect aren't mine, right?”

I'm making bombs for the world government practically for free with poison in my body that, if spread, would kill me momentarily.”

Su Xiao lit his cigarette, while Kizaru looked at the alchemy bombs in the laboratory, and the explosives spread around that could explode at any second should Su Xiao wish it.

Su Xiao smoked slowly before he said.

“I don't care about these things; I actually went with the world government because I like making a bomb. I'm the only one in the world that can make them as all of my family were killed. I don't want my bombs to die with me.

I wandered the seas for years after killing the king. You guys are suspecting me to have a hidden motive, but, in the end, I'm more valuable than the disposable experiments that the World government has.”

Su Xiao said confidently.

“Mr. Kizaru, can I ask you something?”

“Go ahead.”

Kizaru sat in front of Su Xiao and said.

“Have I don't anything against the world government?”

Kizaru shook his head and said: “No, you killed a king, but there was no concrete evidence.”

“I did kill that king; the Marine can arrest me whenever they want.”

Kizaru's brows wrinkled.

“Dr. Byakuya, you killed a king under the world government, and I can arrest you.”

Su Xiao extended both his hands and said: “Ok, here, you can arrest me.”

Kizaru's brows wrinkled even further.

“Even with evidence, I can't arrest you, Dr. Byakuya. You are currently helping the world government making weapons, and you need to be free to do so.”

“Right.”

Kizaru turned around to leave, but Su Xiao said a few words.

“Shabondi Shotō is a good place for sightseeing, isn't it?”

His meaning was obvious, but he didn't say anything.

Su Xiao just waited in the laboratory.

He looked at the three words he had and checked their properties, and was surprised. Their rate was between 100 and 130.

Su Xiao felt filthy rich right now, and he wondered how much more does the world government has.

Although Su Xiao could now visit other islands, the Marine would certainly send someone with him, and the most likely choice would be Hina.

The decisive battle would start in Enies Lobby, where contractors would rush there with the straw hats. Even though Robin's arrest was faster than the original plot and the straw hats didn't know that Robin was helping them, the Contractors knew this.

When Su Xiao was deep in thoughts, Vegapunk suddenly entered the laboratory.

Vegapunk sat in front of Su Xiao.

“Byakuya, did the Marine force you to join them?”

Su Xiao stared at Vegapunk.

“No, I come here voluntarily.”

Vegapunk scratched his head as he didn't believe him.

“According to your situation, you are forced.”

“I'm not, are you?”

“I'm, a friend of mine and I were studying human genes together, but our laboratory was attacked and occupied by the Marine, my friend ran away while I stayed behind. My friend just ran away, lone, and left me there.”

It explained why Kizaru and Sentoumaru were on the island. They were monitoring Vegapunk.

“Do you want to escape?”

“I don't think so.”

Vegapunk lowered his head.

“I have a suggestion, the Sun Wrath you make, I want to transplant one on Kuma's body as an emergency measure.”

Su Xiao raised his brows at this.

“Not to mention the Marines, Would Kuma agree?”

“He will. His Goal isn't simple. It seems like he is preparing for a big plan, and he didn't hesitate to sacrifice himself.”

After long consideration, Su Xiao nodded. He didn't have anything to lose.

“Ok, I can provide the Sun Wrath.”

Good, we start now, but do we need to go to the shelter?”

“No, I already understood the characteristics of the Sun Wrath, and even if I make a mistake again, the most that can happen is wasting the materials.”

Su Xiao started walking directly, and Vegapunk followed as he understood what Su Xiao meant. As they entered Vegapunk’s laboratory, they saw Kuma sitting on a bench.

“Kuma, this is Byakuya, My colleague.”

Kuma nodded while Su Xiao was wondering how did Kuma reach height reached seven meters, even if he ate a magical food, a normal human wouldn’t reach that height.

“Un.”

“We should start.”

After three hours, Vegapunk successfully transplanted Sun Wrath into Kuma’s body. At the same time, the latter didn’t say anything from the start to the end.

After the surgery, Kuma put a hand on his chest.

“What is this?”

Kuma opened his mouth finally with a steady voice, he asked.

“A powerful bomb.”

Su Xiao somewhat admired Kuma. He was prepared to sacrifice himself for his ideal.

“What is the range?”

“Half a kilometer, if the bomb detonates, everything in half a kilometer would turn to ashes.”

Kuma’s eyes shrunk slightly before returning to normal.

Su Xiao looked at the far away Vegapunk, then said to Kuma in a low voice.

“The bomb you have is unstable. As soon as it explodes, the heat will be too great to take it out, so take it out before that happen and squeezed between your fingers at full power. Otherwise, it will turn you to ash before you can react.”

Kuma’s expression changed slightly before he said

“Thank you, Dr. Byakuya, this is a gift for your advice.”

Kuma gave Su Xiao an item. After looking at it, Su Xiao accepted it and returned to his laboratory.

The Marine didn’t have any reaction to Kuma getting Sun Wrath transplanted in his body.

After helping Vegapunk, Su Xiao didn’t have anything to do other than sitting in his laboratory.

The time moved quickly, and the time for the battle approached.

Su Xiao brought Bob and went to see Hina and said: "I must go see an old friend named Zero in the CP0."

Hina trembled without saying any word.

Chapter 343: The Hero's Grandson!

Su Xiao stated and directly stepped toward the door.

Although Hina was Su Xiao's little secretary, she has no decision-making authority. She could only protect and prevent Su Xiao from escaping.

Leaving the island wasn't something that Hina herself could decide, so she could only ask Su Xiao to wait a bit.

"Mr. Byakuya, can you wait for a bit, I will contact the Ship first."

Rather than contacting the ship, Hina was contacting the Marine Headquarters.

"Then, do it as soon as possible."

Su Xiao stood at the door as if he didn't plan to return to the laboratory.

Hina took out her Den Den Mushi while still vigilantly looking at Hina.

As soon as she dialed, an old man's voice came out of the Den Den Mushi.

"This is Sengoku."

Hina was able to contact Sengoku directly, which her position in the Marines didn't allow it at all.

"Mr. Fleet admiral, this is the current situation..."

Hina reported to Sengoku, and the latter hesitated after hearing Roja's demand.

If it was a normal day, Sengoku wouldn't refuse at all since Ennies lobby is part of the world government, and Su Xiao was part of the CP department.

But the situation is a bit different now. Nico Robin and Franky were captured, and the situation in Enies Lobby is chaotic.

Sengoku tried to send troops to aid Enies Lobby in the next few days, but he was rejected by the CP department. Although the Marines and the CP often cooperate, when it is related to the territory under the CP, the Marines can't do anything.

Unless Enies Lobby was invaded, the CP wouldn't allow Marines to land there in large numbers. A small group is a limit they can tolerate.

The Marine is the military of the world government, and the CP is the latter's intelligence department, although the two belonged to the same leader, they still had their differences.

"No, not Enies Lobby, if you want to relax, you can go to East Blue or Shabondy Archipelago."

Sengoku's response made Hina a little bit embarrassed. She didn't dare to retort or say anything else to the Fleet Admiral.

"Give me the Den Den Mushi!"

Su Xiao knew that Hina didn't have much power and wanted to talk to Sengoku directly.

Hina didn't know what to do. She was stuck between the hammer and anvil. She couldn't offend any of the two.

"Mr. Sengoku, Dr. Byakuya, want to talk to you."

"Give him the Den Den Mushi."

Su Xiao held the Den Den Mushi, and without greeting him or being polite, he directly stated.

"Sengoku, I didn't say anything when you wanted the bombs, but what is this about restricting my freedom? Are the world government's words hold no power? Is it just some farts?"

Su Xiao wasn't polite at all, as he didn't want to be seen as weak by the Marine, or else they won't make it easy for him, he needed to show his fangs.

"Boy, do you know who you're talking to?"

Sengoku said angrily.

"Mr. Sengoku, can I ask you a question?"

Su Xiao's tone softened a little.

"Say it."

"How did I change from being a member of the CP0 to being a member of the Marines? I can say that Spandam talked to me, and Zero, who recruited me, never appeared before me from start to end."

Zero never showed up after recruiting Su Xiao. He didn't even make a call or spoke with him.

"Let me talk to Zero."

Sengoku never spoke.

"Or, is this Zero doesn't exist in the first place? Or is he not even a member of the CP at all, but instead a member of the Marine?"

Sengoku remained silent.

"Everyone in the Marine is really so hardworking, although I don't know who is the leader of the CP department, he should be really angry now."

At this time, Sengoku sighed.

"Sure enough. As Tsuru said, you're really a tough guy. What is your purpose going there? Is it The ancient weapon? Or are you joining the CP?"

"Are you joking Mr. Sengoku? Who wants to join these spies?"

As for the ancient weapon, I have no interest in world conquest or rules for that matter, or else would I form an underworld force or a group of pirates with my ability to make bombs.”

Sengoku nodded at his end of the phone as he could tell that Su Xiao was telling the truth.

“Then what is your purpose for going there?”

“Can’t I go see a girl? You should already know about Kalifa.”

Sengoku was dumbfounded.

“What? Looking for a girl?”

“Yes, you can investigate my relationship with Kalifa if you want. I did everything except for sleeping in the same bed.”

Although Sengoku was dense, he understood everything when he heard about sleeping in the same bed.

Sengoku smiled wryly. It turned out the guy was looking for a woman.

Even though Sengoku’s IQ was by no means low, he couldn’t guess the real reason at all.

Sengoku won’t be able to know about the contractors at all.

After all, normal people would always be after woman, money, or power in one Piece.

While for the contractors’ goal is completing their missions, survive, and get stronger.

After all, Su Xiao never heard about contractors betraying the Reincarnation Paradise and cooperate with the characters from other worlds.

“You already have such a beautiful secretary beside you, and you’re looking for another woman.”

Su Xiao was speechless.

“She isn’t my type.”

“Enough joking, take Hina with you. She can make sure you’re safe!”

“I don’t have a problem with that.”

Sengoku hung up directly. At the moment, he wasn’t smiling. Instead, his expression was serious.

From the side, a chewing sound echoed from time to time.

“Sengoku, what is the purpose of that little guy?”

Garp asked while chewing on his rice crackers, while Aokiji sat on the Sofa.

“Nico Robin, the ancient weapon, or just going to Enies Lobby.”

Sengoku tapped the table with a serious look on his face.

“Will you let him go?”

“Why not?” Sengoku snorted as he didn’t doubt his ability to determine the truth from Su Xiao’s words.

Garp directly knew that his friend had a plan.

“Enies lobby isn’t our responsibility, if he wanted to make a big fuss over there, let him do. As long as he doesn’t die, it doesn’t matter. The CP agents are probably stretching their claws trying to snatch him away, but in the end, Zero’s identity won’t be exposed.

Vegapunk is already recruited by Zero, and now with Byakuya’s addition, the guy behind the CP would reach his limit. We’ll let Zero withdraw, and Aokiji will deal with this.”

The drowsy Aokiji took off his blindfold as he heard his name.

“I’m going? Okay, what happened...”

Sengoku nodded and thought of something.

“Garp, it’s difficult for Zero to retreat, I promised him to leave the CP alive, now it’s time to fulfill that promise.”

Garp didn’t say anything, he just poured all the rice cracker in his mouth and chewed.

“Can it be a head-on confrontation?”

“If it’s you... then yes.”

Garp nodded and left.

Sengoku’s eyes flashed suddenly.

“Nico Robin may escape.”

“Huh?” Aokiji was slightly surprised.

“A group of pirates is heading toward Enies Lobby.”

It seems like this little group of pirates is causing Sengoku quite the Headache.

“They’re not strong.”

“They’re not, but the Captain we sent won’t be able to catch them, and the others aren’t reliable.”

Aokiji gave a bright smile while Sengoku sighed. The debt of favor was indeed the hardest to pay.

“The captain of this pirate’s group is Garp’s Grandson.”

Hearing this, Aokiji wasn’t surprised, as he already knew about this.

“And the guy responsible for receiving Nico Robin is an old captain under Garp.”

Aokiji stopped talking, and cold sweat poured down his back. He was once Garp’s subordinate, and everything about Haki was thought to him by Garp. Garp even brought him to missions and paved the Admiral Road for him, when the world government opposed him becoming an Admiral, it was Garp that stood up to him.

Without Garp, there wouldn't be the current Aokiji.

Aokiji couldn't kill his teacher's only grandson, and it wasn't the justice he believed in.

Hello Everyone and Sorry again for not updating for so long! I've been recovering From Covid-19 and had to rest since it hit me badly.

I'm now good and well rested!

And thanks for everyone who Dm'ed me to ask about it, it means a lot.

Chapter 344: Clearing the Island!

Under the clear blue sky, a small boat sailed across the wide sea at a high-speed compared to a speedboat.

Hina seemed surprised by the speed of the boat, and it was obvious that this was her first time getting into such a fast boat. With the current speed, ten minutes were enough to reach Enies Lobby.

This ship was borrowed by Su Xiao from Vegapunk. It was similar to a speedboat from the real world.

Su Xiao was driving, and Bob sat beside him wearing sunglasses enjoying the breeze.

Su Xiao took an eternal pose to confirm the direction before accelerating even more.

The speedboat left a white trail behind it as it cut through the water like a rocket.

Looking at the dog and the beautiful girl, it seemed like Su Xiao was out on vacation instead of going to a decisive battle.

It didn't take long to reach Enies Lobby. The people there already knew about Su Xiao coming, so they didn't stop him.

The speedboat rushed toward the port at high speed.

Not far away, Mad Milk was covered by bandages while sitting down, and the other man used a binocular to observe the situation in Enies Lobby and to keep a lookout of other contractors.

"Boss, someone is there, he's rushing with a SpeedBoat."

"Huh?" The female contractor on the side didn't believe him, but to stay with Mad Milk, she had to stay silent or leave.

The girl was 17 or 18 years old wearing a white dress.

"Driving a speedboat? Here? In this world? Did he bring it along with him?"

"I didn't see such a speedboat before, and it has the logo of the world government on it."

Hearing this, Mad Milk directly opened his eyes and asked: "Who is on the boat?"

The man zoomed in to take a look before he said: “One man, one woman, and one... Dog?”

“What?”

Mad Milk was taken aback. He knew that some contractors would tame lions, tigers, and even monsters, but a dog?

“No, it’s not a normal dog; it should be a cross between a Dog and a wolf.”

Mad Milk frowned, interbreeding between a wolf and a dog, isn’t that a Husky?

“Boss, something is strange; the woman on the boat is Hina from the Marine!”

Mad Milk became even more vigilant as he took the Binocular to observe the situation himself.

“It seems like he is a contractor, Fuyu Yuki (Winter Snow), go inspect that person’s properties.”

After Mad Milk spoke, Fuyu Yuki smiled purely.

“600 Paradise Coins, please.”

“That’s too much!” The other man exclaimed in shock.

“Mana is worth money!”

Fuyu Yuki smiled innocently.

The other man who seemed like a technical nerd turned into a fish as he opened and closed his mouth without finding any word for a comeback.

“Pay.”

Yuki still had a pure smile on her face.

“You...”

“Why, you still want to find with me? Or will you pay directly?”

Yuki raised her little fist, which made the technical nerd’s neck shrink back. He already saw what this violent woman could do.

“I’m sorry you’re scary.”

The technical nerd directly squatted in a corner and felt depressed.

“Pay.”

Yuki stretched her hand again, making Mad Milk have a headache.

“Your greed for money needs to be corrected, your sister...”

“Don’t ever mention my sister!”

Yuki’s eyes flashed with killing intent. Her name in Reincarnation Paradise wasn’t always Fuyu Yuki (Winter Snow). Her previous name was Fuyu Chi (Winter Blood).

“I really don’t understand your way of thinking. Forget it, give her 600 paradise coins.”

The technical nerd felt bitter inside.

‘Why me!!’

“Don’t worry. I will give it back to you later. You know that I currently don’t have even 100 paradise coins.”

Mad Milk may be strong, but he needed to spend a lot to support himself.

“I understand, you’re the boss anyway.”

The technical nerd directly initiated the trade with Yuki, which directly made Yuki’s attitude return back to normal.

“Then, I will start my work.”

Yuki’s eyes turned ice blue for a second as she stared in Su Xiao’s direction.

Su Xiao suddenly stopped as he felt someone trying to inspect him, but he couldn’t determine their direction.

Seeing Su Xiao stop, Hina also stopped and asked: “What’s the matter?”

“It’s okay.”

Su Xiao continued to rush toward the tower of Justice, which was the highest point in Enies Lobby.

Yuki’s eyes returned to normal before she sighed in relief.

“I was discovered!”

“No way!”

“I’m sure, but he didn’t pinpoint our location.”

Suddenly a blue screen appeared above Yuki’s palm with Su Xiao’s information on it.

“I could only pray this from him. His intelligence is quite high.”

Mad Milk didn’t say anything as he checked Su Xiao’s attributes.

“A Balanced Agility, strength, and intelligence build? His Stamina/vitality isn’t low, but it isn’t high either. He shouldn’t be resistant to injuries. He seems like a lone ranger, and it’s possible that he was the one who injured the cowboy in Water 7. Is he a melee? Impossible, the Vitality of a Melee fighter should be high.”

Mad Milk seemed calm, but he was really eager to fight.

“How long till the battle starts?”

“Less than an hour, as soon as it begins, the location of Pluton’s blueprint will be made public.”

When they were talking, something else happened, something noisy.

“The straw hats are here, along with twelve contractors. It won’t take long for them to reach the tower of justice.”

The technical nerd looked at Mad Milk and asked: “Boss, what shall we do? Do we participate in the battle with the Straw hats?”

“Do you still need to ask? Of course, we need to go. There are many contractors on Enies lobby.”

“We should clear the contractors on the third island, during which, the revolver guy (cowboy) and the lone ranger deal with the others. For the time being, we won’t clash with them.”

Mad Milk removed the scythe from his back.

“Did you locate these contractors?”

“I did.”

Yuki didn’t charge him this time, which made him happy.

“Then, we should start cleaning the field, but pay attention to any sneak attack.”

Mad Milk and the Cowboy were in a tacit understanding. They won’t interfere with the fight between the CP9 and the Straw-hats. But he didn’t know about that lone ranger.

Chapter 345: Highest Point!

Su xiao ignored the shouts from behind him. He knew that the Straw Hats arrived and were going straight toward the tower of Justice, which was the headquarters of the CP9.

Su Xiao looked at the special bullets he had in his inventory along with the Spider Queen and smiled.

Vegapunk was a genius. To only take a day to make special bullets for Spider Queen, he’s reputation is well deserved.

This wasn’t for free, as Su Xiao made a dozen or so bombs for him. These alchemy bombs were made using Vegapunk’s own materials, and they belonged to him as well.

Su Xiao moved faster and faster as he reached the drawbridge moving toward the island of Justice.

Hina followed behind Su Xiao suspiciously. She could tell that something was wrong because just as Su Xiao reached the island, a group of pirates arrived.

“Mr. Byakuya, we will take refuge on this island, for the time being, we can’t move forward anymore.”

Hina stopped in her place as if she was asking for his permission, but she obviously wasn’t.

The main island may seem safe, but if the battle spread, it won’t be spared, and chaos will be all over the island.

“Okay, we will rest here first.”

Su Xiao's cooperation made Hina very satisfied.

They directly rushed toward the courthouse.

Inside the courthouse, bodies were scattered all over the place as the place no longer was under the CP control. Several bodies were filled with gunshot wounds, while a man who seemed like a cowboy stood in the middle observing the situation.

In the Cowboy's opinion, this place wasn't a courthouse of justice. Instead, it was just a courthouse to convict the innocent and do the world government's bidding.

When Su Xiao saw the cowboy, he smiled and said.

"It's still early, but it isn't a bad idea to fight here due to the terrain advantages."

The cowboy thought that Su Xiao would enter the court, but he saw the latter stop suddenly.

Su Xiao stood in the same place with a painful expression on his face.

"Mr. Byakuya, what's wrong with you?"

Hina looked at Su Xiao strangely. She was extremely vigilant as she was ready to use her fruit ability immediately.

Burgh!

Su Xiao vomited blood mixed with something blue.

"The poison capsule... Broke!"

Su Xiao's face turned gray, and his pupil lost its luster.

"Impossible, I already gave you the suppressing antidote."

Hina was shocked, but she was still vigilant.

"I took it this morning, but why did the poison capsule break?"

Su Xiao sat on the ground bleeding from his mouth.

"You ate this morning? It's impossible! Wait, how many did you eat?"

"Two."

Hina's face changed drastically.

"Didn't I say you can only eat one?"

"Should the effect of two... be stronger, what if the poison capsule broke because of my exercises."

Su Xiao's answer made Hina roll her eyes. That suppressing antidote could only be taken one at a time. She didn't know the effect of getting more.

"Hurry up, let's go to the courthouse, there is a doctor there, the sac shouldn't be completely ripped yet."

Hina's heart already turned cold, because if the poison capsule is ripped, then Su Xiao is almost bound to die. Such an important researcher can't die, not while under her watch, or else she won't be able to escape the responsibility.

"I don't think it's too toxic. I still have a chance to be saved."

Hina directly took his hand and put his arm on her shoulder and started walking toward the courthouse.

Hina was effortlessly helping Su Xiao move while the latter had his hand on her shoulder.

This was a great opportunity.

After a few steps, She suddenly felt something wrong. Su Xiao seemed strong, not like someone who was poisoned.

Su Xiao turned violent out of the blue. His hand that rested on Hina's shoulder directly strangely her.

"You..."

Su Xiao tried his best to strangle Hina, while Hina injured his ribs with her elbow.

Su Xiao's arms didn't relax until he felt Hina grow soft in his hands.

She was unconscious due to a lack of oxygen. Su Xiao had to deal with his little tail, or else every action he made would be monitored.

Su Xiao's blood was real, but the poison wasn't, or else he wouldn't be standing right now.

As he looked up, Su Xiao saw someone watching him.

"Want to fight?"

The cowboy said without any hatred or resentment. The two fought fair last time, and he wasn't as good as Su Xiao.

"It's too early. You want to be attacked so others can get your scarlet card?"

"Of course, I don't want that. See you at the tower of justice, and by the way, I should remind you that the contractors in the first island were already dealt with, the contractors on this island are well hidden. I will clear them in a while, while no contractor had reached the island of justice yet."

"Is it now?"

Su Xiao carried Hina on his shoulder without looking back at the cowboy.

On his way, the Marine stopped him, but once he showed his scientific researcher identity, they let him go.

Su Xiao was now a member of the Marine and had no relation to the CP anymore. So he successfully left the second island and arrived at the third without any struggle. The only building on this island was the tower of justice.

As soon as he walked through the main entrance, a large group of black-clothed people and marines surrounded him.

“Who are you?”

“Be careful. He is carrying Captain Hina on his shoulder.”

“Put Captain Hina down and get on the ground.”

Su Xiao was calm.

“I’m Byakuya, a scientific researcher, I come here today to find someone, this is my certificate.”

After seeing the certificate, the people relaxed.

“What’s wrong with Captain Hina?”

“We were attacked by pirates as soon as we reached the island, Captain Hina fought them to protect me, but she lost consciousness right after.”

Su Xiao handed Hina to the Marines. He considered whether he should kill Hina or not, but if he did, the world government wouldn’t let him off.

At that time, he won’t be able to use the blueprint for a bargain as it is a quest item.

Hina won’t be awake for the next four hours, which was enough.

After confirming Su Xiao’s identity, the agents directly led Su Xiao into the tower of Justice. He came here to find Kalifa in name only, and if she knew, she would faint.

Running quickly up the stairs, Su Xiao rushed toward the highest point in the tower of justice.

In less than a minute, Su Xiao found an iron door in front of him.

He didn’t want to damage the door, so he spent some time opening it before reaching the highest point on the entire island.

The roof wasn’t large. It was only a few square meters.

Locking the door, Su Xiao put a blanket under him before laying on the ground.

Bob was intelligent enough to know that he can’t be discovered now.

Su Xiao took out Spider Queen and looked around. The scope was very good that no one could escape his sight.

The gun was ready, and he was waiting for a lucky contractor who will be the first victim.

There were still 36 minutes until the decisive battle starts, and the location of the blueprint of pluton would be announced.

The quest would end in 2 hours and 36 minutes, which means he needed to keep the blueprint for two hours.

Su Xiao knew that after 36 minutes, a large number of contractors would swarm toward his location and fall victim to his sniper.

Chapter 346: Headshot!

After more than thirty minutes, all the surviving contractors were gathered in Enies Lobby.

Su Xiao was still laying on top of the highest building, the tower of Justice, while keeping watch on the Straw Hat pirates' movement.

[Announcement: The Decisive Battle in Enies Lobby will begin soon. It will last for 6 hours. If you perform this quest excellently, the failure penalty would be reduced.]

[At the start of the battle, the Blueprint of Pluton would be revealed by the Reincarnation paradise to all contractors.]

Just after this announcement, Pluton's Blueprint suddenly appeared in Su Xiao's hand, as he inspected it, Su Xiao discovered additional information.

[This item temporarily can't be put into the inventory.]

A special energy wave suddenly exuded from the Blueprint. This energy was picked by the tattoo on every contractor.

All contractors looked at the tower of justice at the same time.

This made almost all contractors sigh in relief. After all, Pluton's blueprint was on Franky's body, who was in the tower of justice, which meant that the original plot didn't change much.

Instantly, the contractors rushed toward the tower of justice, including Mad Milk and the cowboy.

If the plot didn't change, then when the straw hats break into the island and start confronting the CP9, Franky may destroy the Blueprint.

If they fail to get the blueprint, then they would have to pay 28,000 Paradise Coins, if they don't have that sum, their equipment would be converted into Paradise Coins, or else they can write their will.

No one wanted that kind of fate, so all of them rushed toward the Tower of Justice.

All of them knew that the drawbridge was the only way there, so they directly run toward it.

Su Xiao looked at the bridge; it was made of wood and metal and was the only thing connecting the two islands.

Su Xiao looked at both sides of the bridge with a smile as he took out an alarm clock. He directly set it to 19 minutes because he can only use Spider Queen for 20 minutes.

Ordinary scopes can be equipped on the Spider Queen, but unfortunately, he can't use it.

Equipment effect 1: Infrared vision with an x8 scope (Active): After using this skill, the hidden part of the Spider Queen will pop out and automatically calculate the wind and distance factors, and one bullet will be enough to kill the enemy.

Hint: This effect consumes 100 Mana and lasts for 20 minutes.

Reminder: Cooldown of this effect is 5 hours.

...

This is the best effect of the Spider Queen, although it could only last for 20 minutes, Su Xiao could do many things in these 20 minutes.

Contractors started emerging one after the other with an obvious goal, crossing the drawbridge.

The contractors didn't rush alone as they knew that being alone is useless, because dealing with the CP department won't be easy.

After they rush into the tower of Justice, they would wait for their opportunity to strike. Everyone may seem friendly right now, but as soon as a contractor gains the Blueprint, all of the other contractors would turn into his enemies.

For example, if someone knew that Su Xiao had the Blueprint on him, they would try their best to kill him.

Seeing this, Su Xiao directly activated the alarm clock and the Spider Queen's skill at the same time.

The hidden scope popped out directly.

Su Xiao closed his left eye as he observed everything through the scope.

When his line of sight reached the scope, the scenery changed completely. A red X appeared in front of him as various Data appeared in front of him. From wind speed to humidity, everything was in front of him.

Su Xiao looked at the island through the scope and felt like he could see a rat and shoot it even if it was at the end of the island.

Su Xiao didn't shoot immediately, there are still people around and shouting now would expose his position.

The contractors who rushed informed a loose alliance.

“Quickly, if we don't enter the Tower of Justice, Pluton's blueprint will be destroyed.”

A Big guy urged in a hurry.

“Why don't you go first, your vitality should be the highest here.”

The other contractors were also dissatisfied by the big guy's urging, and one of them directly retorted.

“What did you say?”

The big guy glared at the one who spoke.

Seeing this, almost everyone fainted as they thought: Is this guy too accustomed to being a leader that he thinks this is a true alliance? They didn't have any leader.

“I said that.”

The boy who retorted said without fear.

“Don't fight. The most important thing is to reach the tower of Justice as fast as we can.”

A young woman tried to pursue both of them to stop. She was already very dissatisfied, but she was smart and knew that internal fight won't do them any good now.

The big guy looked at the woman with fire in his eyes as he looked at a young woman with a gaze full of lust.

“↗” The young woman cursed inwardly without changing her expression.

“I'm in a good mood today, so I will help you guys.”

The big guy walked out while the others were speechless. They all reached the drawbridge while the big guy was in the front.

On top of the Tower of Justice, Su Xiao suddenly pulled the trigger.

Bang!

A very low gunshot escaped Spider Queen's silencer.

The bullet left the muzzle and disappeared into the air.

The bullet broke through the sound barrier and moved at the big guy's head like Su Xiao aimed for. The firing assistant was far beyond his imagination.

As the bullet hit the big guy's head, the latter didn't react as his smug expression still remained on his face. His last thought was entering the tower of justice first and seize the loot.

He won't enter the Tower of Justice ever. In fact, he will go to heaven, well no, that's not it either, most contractors were cold-blooded killers, so hell will definitively be his new home.

The big guy's head suddenly burst open like a balloon due to the bullet.

Blood and brain pieces scattered all over the young woman's face.

Feeling the warmth on her face, she was taken aback before touched the warm thing and smelt it.

“Enemy...”

The word 'attack' didn't get out of her mouth as the same warm feeling hit her again. Another person next to her was killed with a headshot as well.

Chapter 347: Terrifying sniper

Su Xiao didn't stop after the first two Headshots. He pulled the trigger continuously without stop.

A Contractor was shot in the chest but didn't die directly, but another bullet directly reached his head, dropping him dead instantly, and Su Xiao received the kill notification.

Three contractors were killed, and the remaining five started fleeing and looking for cover.

But they were on the bridge, and unless they jump into the sea, Su Xiao could still see them.

The bridge was about 50 meters high, and the water under it was filled with rocks, leaving little to no chance for surviving a jump.

Bang! Bang!

Su Xiao fired two shots in a row, and another contractor fell to the ground.

Another shot and a contractor's head exploded instantly.

The young guy who spoke to the big one was running fast with the tower of justice as his goal. He was running in fear instead of running for the quest.

While running, he suddenly felt a tingling in his chest, looking down he saw a gaping hole in his chest before falling down.

Looking at his current Hp bar, he was shocked, and only 34% remained from his full health.

“Don't kill...”

Bang! A shot runs through his neck, severing his head directly.

Su Xiao directly turned his sniper toward the left. He noticed a girl and a male contractor in that direction.

The male was Su Xiao's next target, as he runs faster than the girl!

Bang!

Su Xiao fired again toward the male contractor who was running in S shape path, trying to avoid the bullets.

Avoiding the first wasn't the end of it, as Su Xiao shot another one, but this contractor somersaulted to avoid this time, which stunned Su Xiao slightly.

Su Xiao activated the rapid-fire mode, and directly shot four bullets, the recoil was stronger, but it still got the job done as Su Xiao received the Kill notification.

Only one contractor remained, the female.

At this time, the female was already in despair. There isn't anything more terrifying than waiting for death.

Yellow liquid run across her thighs but she didn't care and continued running, she saw a five-meter circle full of flowers and mud and directly jumped in to get out of sight.

She sighed in relief as the shots stopped.

Bang!

Mud splashed her face as a bullet hit the floor behind her, and she immediately rolled her body into a ball in fright.

Bang, Bang!

The Gunshots were getting faster and faster as most of the flowers were hit. A bullet suddenly passed by the woman's ear and scratched her cheek.

They made a mistake by running across the bridge, but she will not make the same mistake again.

The young woman was desperate, she didn't have a way out, and the sniper is most likely waiting for her to get out.

“What to do? What to do...”

She took a deep breath and calmed down. Getting out is like asking to be shot because the nearest cover is 5 meters away.

After thinking for a long time, she decided to surrender in the most common and primitive way.

She looked at her body, searching for something white.

There was nothing white. Even her bra was black. She suddenly thought of something that was white on her now, her little panty.

Su Xiao was locking into the flowerbed with one bullet left, which meant one chance.

As he was aiming attentively, a triangular white cloth peeked out from between the flowers and waved from side to side.

“This is... Surrendering?”

Su Xiao's finger didn't leave the trigger as he was ready to shoot at any moment.

A white arm came out probing for Su Xiao's reaction, while the latter still waited without shooting.

The white hand was holding a few objects, two soul crystals (small), and a paradise coin's card with 6000 coins inside.

“Are these Okay? I just want to live, and I don't want Pluton's blueprint anymore, I won't even dare to think about it.”

The young woman yelled, but Su Xiao didn't respond.

“We have no grievance or enmity. We're only after the Quest, so there is no need to kill everyone else, and I didn't see your look either, so there will be no way for revenge.”

The young woman knew that if this continued, she would die, and it's better to try to spend money to buy her life. It may be a small chance, but it was better than nothing. If the sniper wasn't a psychopath, then he would be reasonable and won't kill her for the scarlet card because she left 6,000 Paradise coins and two soul crystals (small).

The young woman threw them away and ran in the other direction. She hoped that even if the contractor didn't accept the deal, he would be distracted by them, and she would reach cover.

Su Xiao didn't shout. They didn't have any grievance between them, so there was no need to kill needlessly if it didn't endanger the Quest. The other party gave up and bought her life with money for now, but if he encounters her again, money won't work as she will die without any mercy.

One of the eight contractors escaped, leaving four scarlet cards and 6,000 Paradise coins along with two soul crystals (small) on the bridge.

These items were shining with different colors, but Su Xiao didn't pick them up yet as it wasn't time.

The CP agent heard the gunshots from the tower of justice and directly rushed there. The ones who rushed were Lucci and Kalifa.

With a bang, the door was kicked open by Lucci. Su Xiao looked at them before ignoring them and loading another magazine into the sniper.

After seeing Su Xiao, Kalifa's pupil shrank as she remembered all the previous advantages he took and wailed in her heart.

Lucci walked onto the roof and asked in a cold voice: "What are you doing?"

"Killing the enemies."

Replied Su Xiao as he finishing reloading the sniper.

"Killing enemies? First, explain why you are at the top of the Tower of Justice."

Lucci approached slowly, and Su Xiao threw his researcher certificate to him.

"Defend the tower. Someone is here for Nico Robin."

Lucci took the Certificate, and his face changed.

"Can you guarantee that the enemies can't approach the tower of Justice?"

Su Xiao was sniping from the top of the Tower of justice as a member of the Marine, and he even has some connections with the Cp department, his identity was special.

"No."

Su Xiao could only use the sniper for 20 minutes, and 5 already passed.

Lucci pondered for a while before concluding that Su Xiao's help was needed because pirates were attacking, and other unknown people were helping them.

"Kalifa, Monitor his movement."

Kalifa felt distressed. She didn't want to stay here, but this was her task given by Lucci, and she couldn't refuse.

"Yes."

Kalifa was wearing a tight black dress while staying at the gate without any thoughts of coming to the roof.

Lucci quickly left as he had many things to do.

“We’re alone again, Miss Kalifa.”

It’s good to have Kalifa keeping watch, but he should be vigilant as well.

Chapter 348: Bait!

Kalifa Frowned and stepped back.

“Stop this sexual harassment!”

“That could be said about you when we had that party in Water 7!”

Su Xiao looked at Kalifa before turning back quickly.

“What is your goal?”

“...”

Su Xiao didn’t speak. Instead, he observed the situation on the bridge through his scope.

“Hey, I’m talking to you.”

Kalifa looked at Su Xiao in displeasure, while Su Xiao still ignored her.

“You...”

Kalifa stopped mid-sentence when Su Xiao smiled at her gently. Her scalp felt numb, looking at that smile.

“I recently invented a new bomb; do you want to taste it? It tastes like strawberry.”

Kalifa took a few steps back and assumed a fighting stance. She was still afraid of the previous bomb.

“You can decide whether to watch the door or go away, don’t disturb me.”

Su Xiao continued to observe the bridge, another man was hiding in the forest while lying down with a sniper in his hand, but he still didn’t dare show his head at all.

He looked at the Tower of Justice in fear as he saw the previous slaughter.

“A maximum of two-shot is enough to take down even a tank, that sniper rifle is at least purple quality.”

Greed quickly appeared in this sniper’s eyes, but it quickly disappeared. He glanced at the blue quality sniper rifle in his hand and shook his head. If he engages now, he won’t be able to hold on for five minutes.

The sniper chose to hide and wait for an opportunity.

The sniper sighed; he admired Su Xiao’s tactic. He wasn’t hidden at all, and every shot would be deadly.

He didn't know that Su Xiao didn't care about his location because he just wanted the high-ground and didn't fear the enemy's firepower.

On top of the tower, Su Xiao observed for a while, but no contractor arrived.

“Bob, go down and pick the drops up.”

Su Xiao wrapped the gauntlet's thread around Bob so he can pull him back if anything happens.

He was going to drop Bob down, and after the latter picked everything, he would pull him up.

Bob looked down and whimpered and looked at Su Xiao with a look that said, ‘Master, I’m afraid of heights.

Bob made puppy eyes as his final resistance and barked.

“If you do this, I will help you meet a little female dog to be your girlfriend.”

Bob's eyes shined as he raised his head, and the fear of heights directly disappeared. It seems like he didn't want to stay single.

Just when Su Xiao was about to put Bob down, he saw a shadow flickered in the distance.

He quickly picked his sniper and looked through the scope only to find four contractors trying to sneak in.

The four contractors who consisted of two males and two females were peeking from behind the building.

A petite girl timidly said: “Let's go back, this is obviously a trap, look at how these people died.”

The girl hugged her shoulders due to the horrifying sight.

“Yeah, this is indeed scary, the four scarlet cards and soul crystals aren't worth it.”

The other girl also wanted to leave as she looked pleadingly at the Leader of the four.

“We obviously won't be able to reach the Tower of Justice, and we'll fail the quest, which means the Reincarnation Paradise would deduct Paradise coins from us, and all we have is 60,000 Coins.”

The Leader of this little group is a fat middle-aged man who was wearing an iron armor and holding a shield in his hand.

“You guys stay here; I will pick these up and ran away quickly.”

The Middle-aged man smiled wickedly, he was going to rob his enemy, and it was satisfying because this enemy was the one responsible for them failing the quest. He was wearing blue and green defensive equipment, and his Vitality was also very high.

“Ah... Don't go.”

The petite girl had an ominous feeling about this.

“We should grab this opportunity, the people from the God-Emperor guild and the phantom brigade are behind us, we won’t be able to fight them. We will grab these and jump over to escape.”

After saying this, the middle-aged man raised his shield and walked out. His first goal was the soul crystal on the grass.

Scarlet cards depended on luck, but soul crystals could bring a fortune if they were to sell them.

Su Xiao put his finger on the trigger without caring about the shield the middle-aged man raised.

The middle-aged man slowly moved forward and was getting closer to the soul crystals on the ground.

The closer he got, the tighter he held his shield.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger, and Spider Queen directly released a bullet.

Bang!

The middle-aged man was sent flying back half a meter as the bullet collided with his shield.

“How could a bullet have such momentum.”

The middle-aged man felt his head numb, and the first thought he had was to retreat from the bridge.

Unfortunately, it was too late. His greed caused his downfall.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Su Xiao pulled the trigger continuously, and the bullets collided with the shield of the middle-aged man, one after the other driving him several meters back.

When the gunfire stopped, The middle-aged man’s hand cracked.

“Leader!”

The girl yelled from behind the building.

Rocks suddenly splashed beside the girl’s head before she retracted her head. Her cheek was grazed by the bullet.

“Can the leader make it back?”

The petite girl asked with tears in her eyes, but no one answered her. Their Leader might not make it back.

Bang! Bang!

Su Xiao continued firing one bullet after the other until the middle-aged man could no longer hold the shield up due as his hand was fractured multiple times.

His body was exposed to the enemy, and he knew this was his end.

Pop, pop!

Blood splashed as two bullets pierced the middle-aged man's leg and chest.

He crawled on the ground leaving a track full of blood. He wanted to go to safety. Suddenly the girl rushed out to try and drag him away.

“Don't come here! This is a trap. He deliberately left me alive to bait you out. Many snipers use this strategy.”

Even with the warning, the girl didn't listen to him and moved forward nonetheless.

Su Xiao didn't have that kind of plan, and it's just that he no longer had bullets inside Spider Queen.

Quickly loading three bullets, Su Xiao aimed at the girl.

The girl already dragged the man toward the building, but she wasn't fortunate because Su Xiao's bullet directly passed through her shoulder, making her entire arm limp.

The other two rushed forward, and Su Xiao directly pulled the trigger again.

Only the male contractor wasn't injured; he ignored his safety and directly threw the other three into the building.

As soon as Su Xiao reloaded the sniper, he pointed the muzzle toward the last contractor and shot.

Bang! Headshot! Su Xiao frowned, it wasn't a contractor.

The other three were currently hiding in the building.

“That guy actually discarded his safety to save them one by one, that kind of friendship is really rare.”

Su Xiao once again reloaded the sniper.

Inside the building, The middle-aged man gasped for breath. He never thought he would encounter such a terrifying sniper.

“Leader, that guy is dead, it seems like that I need another one. I didn't expect my last bit of control would succeed. I shouldn't have rushed myself.”

Although the girl's arm was limp, she was laughing, as none of her teammates were dead, and they just lost a controlled person.

“let's find somewhere to jump into the sea and escape. We are not qualified to be here. I was too greedy before. I didn't profit from the previous island and wanted to get rich overnight here.”

The three contractors assisted each other and limped away. They learned a valuable lesson today, a lesson with their own blood, they can't be greedy or else they'd die.

Su Xiao waited for a while and found that no one moved. He knew that the contractors left and directly sent Bob down to pick the loot.

When Su Xiao pulled Bob up, the latter's mouth was full, and his cheeks were bulging like a hamster.

As soon as he put the loot down, a shout spread all over the place.

“Robin, we're here to save you!”

Looking closely, Isn't that Monkey. D. Luffy?! Su Xiao directly aimed his sniper and shot.

Bang!

Luffy flew back and disappeared from the edge of the roof before rolling a few times and came to a stop.

The bullet was too fast for Luffy to react. Even Su Xiao wouldn't be able to react to such a fast bullet.

Luffy, of course, wasn't penetrated, after all, he was made of rubber, and the kinetic energy of the bullet would be relieved. But still, a bloodstain still appeared on his shoulder.

Luffy was confused and didn't know where the attack came from. Even the CP9 and Spandam were confused, the latter heard someone shouting, but when he searched for the source of the sound, he found no one.

“Damn it!”

Just as Spandam turned his head, a shout came from outside.

“Who attacked me just now!”

Luffy shouted again.

Bang! Su Xiao shot another bullet.

Spandam turned his head again and looked out of the window, but no one was there again...

Hello Everyone and Sorry again for not updating for so long! I've been recovering From Covid-19 and had to rest since it hit me badly.

I'm now good and well rested!

Chapter 349: Snipers from both sides

Bang! Bang!

Bullets were shot one after the other, making Luffy hid behind a small wall.

Even though Luffy can't be pierced by bullets, he still didn't dare come out as the bullets could injure him.

After a few shots, Su Xiao stopped as he couldn't penetrate the wall with bullets.

Although he didn't hit Luffy, he made him afraid to come out.

At this time, contractors rushed to where Luffy was excited. They were about to participate in a major event in the world of one piece, which would let them rip great benefits.

Boom!

As soon as the first rushed to the roof, he was directly killed with a shot to the head.

The other contractors were instantly horrified and directly laid down.

“There is a sniper on top of the tower of Justice. Use firepower to suppress him.”

A contractor yelled, but no one got up.

Boom!

The contractor who shouted directly received a bullet to the head. The other contractors took out guns and shot at the Tower of Justice randomly without daring to show their heads.

There is no way they would be able to hit Su Xiao with such a random shooting. The bullets didn't even come close to him.

A few minutes later, as the contractors felt safe, a gunshot came from the other direction.

The gunshot was loud, without a silencer, so the other sniper was directly exposed.

Hearing this, the contractors were frightened. There was a sniper in front of them and another one behind them, closing any root of escape.

Bang! Another shot came from the rear, but the target wasn't any of the contractors on the roof. Instead, it was Su Xiao. This instantly made the contractors happy.

A special bullet flew toward Su Xiao, directly hitting the concrete floor beside him.

The bullet was embedded into the floor, and green smoke emerged from it, which directly alerted Su Xiao.

As he was about to retreat, Su Xiao found something wrong. There was a small device at the end of the bullet.

“Big brother, let's kill them together, and we can divide the loot three to seven. Of course, I will be taking the three.”

Su Xiao raised his eyebrow. He already discovered this sniper, but he was far away and didn't take the initiative to attack, So, Su Xiao ignored him.

Su Xiao pointed at the scope and waited for the sniper to take action first.

Bang!! A scream filled the place.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The sniper started shouting continuously at the contractors who were miserably screaming. The parapet (a small wall that prevents accidental fall from the roof of a building) may be able to defend the contractors from Su Xiao, but the other sniper was shouting from behind, and they didn't have any cover.

The contractors started running and trying to escape, but Su Xiao directly pulled the trigger.

Bang! The first contractor fell...

Bang! The second one fell...

Leaving a few corpses behind, the contractors finally reached the door of the roof.

Luffy didn't try to escape, the sniper from behind tried to kill Luffy, but his bullet didn't affect the latter at all.

But suddenly, the sniper from behind stopped shouting, Su Xiao directly took a look and found that he was injured and a man holding a scythe was behind him praying.

Su Xiao didn't hesitate and directly aimed at the priest and shot him in the chest. The priest staggered a few steps back and fell to one knee.

Su Xiao fired another five times, making the priest fall down, but the latter wasn't seriously injured. His robe seemed to be able to block most of the bullet's power, and it was comparable to a heavy armor purple equipment.

With the help from Su Xiao, the sniper climbed to the edge of the cliff and jumped down toward the sea. He nodded at Su Xiao and seemed to say, 'help me...' Su Xiao didn't understand very well as he wasn't experienced in lip reading.

After a few shots from Su Xiao, the priest hid while his eyes looked at Su Xiao's position with hatred.

Su Xiao ignored him and directly shifted his attention back toward Luffy.

Except for Luffy, no one else was on the roof.

The alarm clock still had eight minutes, so it meant that nine minutes remained, and the skill would be turned off. That will be the time he would change from a frightening sniper to an even more frightening melee fighter.

Su Xiao sighed secretly, why didn't anyone rush on top of the building to fight him directly.

At this time, there was movement on the opposite roof.

The roof where Luffy hid suddenly shattered with a tornado-like attack, and along it, a female scream pierced many ears.

Su Xiao narrowed his eyes. This was probably the Tatsumaki attack of Zoro.

Zoro's swordsmanship allowed him to do this kind of attack, while Su Xiao couldn't, both had their path of swordsmanship.

Zoro belonged to the swordsmen of one piece's world. His every move would cause damage. But Su Xiao didn't need fancy moves. He only needed to kill his enemy.

The tornado blew Nami and Chopper up before slamming down on the roof. Chopper landed on his head while Nami rolled a few times before landing smoothly.

Nami was instantly satisfied with her landing posture as it was more ladylike.

Just when Nami was about to yell with her hands on her hips, Su Xiao already aimed his sniper rifle at her.

“Nami, get down!”

Luffy yelled, and out of trust, Nami directly got down.

Wouch!! A bullet lightly grazed her ear and blew her orange hair back.

At this time, Nami directly grabbed Chopper’s leg and threw him directly toward Luffy while running after him.

At this time, Su Xiao pulled the trigger again. But unfortunately, (T/L: I hate this cold-blooded bastard!) Nami already hid beside Luffy.

Su Xiao directly started reloading his Sniper Rifle, and at the time, Zoro jumped to the roof, but as soon as he saw Luffy, Nami, and Chopper hiding, his eyes narrowed and did the same.

Suddenly, a loud bang grabbed Luffy and the rest’s attention. It was Sanji who kicked the roof and flew out.

“Mutton Shot!”

Sanji was in the air as he shouted. Su Xiao’s hands itched as his opponent was practically a living target right now.

A pair of arms directly stretched out to grab Sanji, which shocked the latter.

Chapter 350: The GuoZu Brothers

“Hey, Luffy, what are we going to do?” Zoro was feeling bad about this.

“It’s impossible.” Nami wanted to escape but knew that as soon as she is exposed, she would die.

“It’s really impossible!” Chopper felt bad, as well.

Luffy’s arm made its way to Sanji before wrapping around him and contract back toward him at high speed.

“Make way!!”

Sanji said these words toward Zoro and Luffy.

Looking at Sanji’s trajectory, the three humans and the deer understood what Sanji wanted and directly lifted their feet.

Sanji was greeted by three feet to the face and a hoof.

Lastly, his face was planted on Zoro’s Shoe sole, which made Zoro’s mouth turn upward.

“You bastard...”

Sanji shook his head while a big footprint appeared on his face.

“It suits you.”

Zoro nodded with satisfaction.

“Ha?” Sanji was confused.

“The footprint on your face.”

Sanji wanted to turn violent and vent his anger on Zoro, but he suddenly noticed that the situation looked strange.

“Why are we hiding here.”

Nami didn't reply and directly took off her coat and threw it in the air.

Bang!

A bullet directly passed through it and embedded itself on the roof.

“!!”

Suddenly a long-nosed man wearing a mask fell down from the sky, Usopp arrived.

Usopp was thrown by a giant who wanted to help him reach here quickly.

He put his hand on his chest as he flew straight from the sky.

Usopp looked like a javelin with his long nose and straight body. Usopp would notice him and had the ability to attack him if given a chance.

Su Xiao directly looked at Usopp in mid-air and silently aimed the sniper's muzzle.

Bang!

“Aaaah!!”

The scream of fear turned into a scream of pain as Usopp's leg was shot directly. Fortunately for Usopp, the bullet didn't hit his leg in the center or else, his leg would've fallen off.

Luffy hurriedly stretched his arm at Usopp and directly brought him to their hiding place, and Chopper directly started treating Usopp's wound. The straw hats were gathered now, but they could do nothing but hide.

Bang! Bang!

Su Xiao shot twice, and the bullets directly hit the concrete wall. Nami, who was about to take a peek, directly shrunk back down.

“What can we do now, we can't make it through like this.”

“Look, Robin is there.”

“Robin!!”

Luffy shouted with a smile on his face. Robin didn't dislike them or hate them; instead, she wanted to die for them.

Hearing Luffy's yell, Multiple emotions appeared in Robin's eyes, including fear, and worry mixed with some joy.

“Who is there?”

Spandam looked at the roof of the opposite building suspiciously, and finally, he heard gunfire.

“Byakuya.”

Lucci Said.

“What?”

Spandam’s expression turned ugly as he had been brooding about the affair in water 7.

“Let him come down to see me.”

Lucci didn’t move, he wasn’t on a mission currently, and although Spandam could command him, he had a choice to ignore such a brainless command.

Seeing Lucci ignore him, Spandam directly whispered: “Hey, Lucci, there are so many outsiders here, give me some face.”

Spandam knew that without the CP9, he wouldn’t be able to sit still in his current position. He worked hard to train these people; their fruits were obtained by him from the World government.

Although Spandam always behaves like a retard, he could still judge the situation and knew what should be done and whatnot.

“He is a member of the Marine right now; we can’t order him.”

Hearing the answer, Spandam wasn’t happy.

“From the Marine, then I will find him later.”

Spandam looked at the straw hat pirates.

Su Xiao suppressed all the straw hats, and the only person who could threaten him from far away was injured.

But if they kept hiding, they wouldn’t be able to do anything.

When Su Xiao was aiming at the Straw Hats, three sneaky figures approached the bridge.

“Brother, won’t we be sniped?”

“Shut up, have we ever been afraid of snipers?”

“Hey, brother, that girl in the last world almost wiped us out, and she was a sniper.”

“She doesn’t count; she isn’t a sniper; she is simply a fort.”

“But...”

“Stop it. We should directly rush in, what are you afraid of?”

Needless to say, these three were the three GuoZu brothers. The three rushed arrogantly, now that the CP9 and the Straw hats were about to fight, it was their best chance to get into the Tower of justice.

Behind another building, the Cowboy was looking at the three brothers and trying to use them as a cover to rush into the tower.

In addition to him, Mad Milk was thinking along these lines as well, and he was angry because Su Xiao shot his teammate, the priest, a few times before.

Along with them, there are dozen or so Contractors who were with the Straw hats that waited for an opportunity as well.

“We must first kill the Sniper; he will die if we get close.”

“Yes, I was almost shot in the head before, I must deal with him.”

At this moment, the brothers already rushed into the bridge carelessly. Su Xiao directly took notice and commanded their courage.

Bang!

The bullet flew in the air and rested on the third brother’s chest.

Blood sprung forth as he fell to the ground with a big hole in his chest.

“Third brother, don’t panic, this eldest brother will save you.”

“The second brother is also here.”

The two directly touched the third Brother and started healing him. The three of them were Paladin, so their vitality wasn’t low, and they could heal their own injuries.

The third brother directly stood up and continued running without any change to his expression.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Su Xiao fired three-shot, and this time, he changed his target. The defense of the last target was too strong, and at this time, the eldest brother was shot.

“Brother, hold on.”

The other two directly started healing their eldest, and his health was directly fully restored.

Although their vitality was high, the three of them still covered their heads, to prevent Su Xiao from scoring a headshot.

Bullet rained on the three, and as long as one was injured, the other two would directly start healing him.

Su Xiao wanted to shoot once again but found that there were no bullets anymore, and he needed to reload.

Seeing that Su Xiao didn’t shoot again, the GuoZu brothers stopped before forming a circle and shouting.

“We Are the GuoZu!!”

The three rushed toward the tower afterward and smiling while running. The third brother was even smiling with blood over his mouth.