

R. Paradise 39

Chapter 39

After all the members of Aogiri tree retreated, the battle stopped.

Su Xiao put away [dragon flash], and picked up his shirt and put it on his shoulder.

Just fighting Takatuki Sen, he lost a total of 12% of his life value, because his lower abdomen was still bleeding, and his Hp was still slowly decreasing.

Su Xiao also paid attention to Takatuki Sen's bloodline. His previous two attacks probably caused Takatuki Sen to lose more than 10% of her Hp.

It must be said that the vitality of ghouls was indeed amazing. Takatuki Sen was in the form of kakuja, and her Vitality was at least 15 points.

If we compare the attributes, Takatuki Sen must be stronger than Su Xiao, but if talking about combat strength, these two will be somewhat hard to compare.

In Su Xiao's view, Takatuki Sen's combat experience was quite rich, but her combat skills were terrible, she was basically relying on brutal force.

This was also the reason why he can beat the S-class ghouls without difficulty. In the battle, ghouls were rushing without thinking, and they defeat their enemy with brutal force.

Otherwise, CCG's search officers would not be able to fight ghouls at all.

CCG's search officers were just ordinary people with a good physical body. They were fighting with ghouls by fighting skills and wisdom. Of course, there were exceptions among them.

The appearance of Amon Kotaro means that this place had been surrounded by CCG people. It was undoubtedly a good opportunity to join CCG.

Su Xiao went slowly to Amon Koutaro after putting away [dragon flash].

“Stop.”

Amon Koutaro shouted, and at the same time, he pressed the button on the handle of the suitcase, the suitcase showed a huge change, and some kind of object inside was rapidly expanding.

As the suitcase landed, Amon Koutaro had a strange weapon in his hand.

A metal stick, in the upper half, wrapped in a circle was a kagune, this was the Quinque of Amon Koutaro.

This strangely shaped Quinque made Su Xiao surprised, can he really fight with this weapon?

“What kind of person are you? Ghouls or human?”

Amon Koutaro held the Quinque tightly with both hands, watching Su Xiao with vigilance, the scene of Su Xiao chasing the one-eyed king Takatuki Sen stimulated this first-class investigator.

“Have you ever seen a ghoul fight with a sword?”

Su Xiao pressed his hand on the handle of the waist and continued to walk to Amon Kotaro.

Amon Kotaro just wanted to talk, Su Xiao had already spoken in advance.

“Don’t be nervous, if I want to kill you, you would already be dead.”

A white light flashed, and [dragon flash] came out, and Su Xiao placed it directly on the neck of Amon Kotaro.

“Rumble” Amon Kotaro swallowed. The speed at which Su Xiao took out his sword was too fast.

“So, don’t be nervous.”

Putting away [dragon flash], Su Xiao patted on the shoulder of Amon Koutaro.

Amon Koutaro was frustrated. If this person was a ghoul, his head would have already rolled.

“Hey.”

“what.” Amon Koutaro looked at Su Xiao in confusion.

“Do you need people in the CCG? The lying ghoul on the other side is a meeting gift to join CCG.”

At this time, Amon Kotaro was aware of the headless body of gecko.

“This is.., S-class Jason?”

Amon Koutaro held Quinque and walked to the front of gecko in a few steps. Gecko was named Jason in the CCG file.

“You have not answered my question yet.”

Su Xiao took out some medical bandages from the item box, wiped the blood of his wound, and wrapped the wounds indiscriminately.

Amon Koutaro was hesitant, but he knew that this was an opportunity. Su Xiao could kill the one-eyed king, he was strong without a doubt.

There were no more than two people who can do this in CCG.

“Joining CCG requires a rigorous assessment, but your situation is a bit special. We just need to confirm that you are not ghouls. Joining CCG should be fine.”

Getting a clear answer, Su Xiao smiled.

The thing he was most afraid of was that joining CCG was too troublesome, and his time of solving the main task won’t be sufficient.

“Da da da.....”

A rush of footsteps came, an old man carrying a suitcase run into the room.

The old man was not only full of white hair. He had one big, and the other one was small, his movements were somewhat neurotic, giving people a kind of a sick feeling.

“Where? It must be here, owl.”

The person coming was the boss of Amon Kotaro, the superior investigator Kureo Mado.

Kureo Mado was originally an investigator with a sense of justice. He was modest, but because his wife died by ghouls as he witnessed her face being eaten by ghouls.

Kureo Mado changed his temper, he was extremely hateful, and he was obsessed with making Quinque.

But even so, Kureo Mado was nice to his coworkers, and it could be seen from teaching Amon Koutaro seriously.

“Mr. Kureo, you are here.”

Amon Koutaro greeted him and talked about something with Kureo Mado with a small voice.

After a while, Kureo Mado’s originally big and small eyes suddenly rounded up and stared at Su Xiao with awe.

Kureo Mado took a few steps toward Su Xiao. His movement was very agile. Afterward, he acted like an animal and sniffed something around Su Xiao.

“Humans, it can’t be wrong, the smell of those animals, I will not forget it even if I die.”

After confirming that Su Xiao was a human being, Kureo Mado became very enthusiastic.

“Hello, I am Kureo Mado, did you really fighting with the one-eyed owl?”

Inside Kureo Mado’s eyes, there seemed to be a burning flame. He was full of expectations.

Seeing these eyes, Su Xiao sighed. This sight was familiar. He used to have these kinds of eyes. Hatred, endless hatred.

“Oh, yes I did fight with her. The terrain was somewhat unfavorable, and the guys escaped, it’s unfortunate.”

“Ha haha.” a sick and nervous laughter came.

“You want to join CCG? Follow me, I will be your guarantor.”

At this time, Kureo Mado did not care about the origin or the identity of Su Xiao, as long as he could kill the one-eyed king, he could give everything, including his life.

“Mr. Kureo, calm down.”

Amon Koutaro put his hand on Kureo Mado’s shoulders, and Kureo Mado took a breath and nodded.

“What is your name?” Amon Koutaro said, and he smiled at Su Xiao.

“Byakuya.”

“What is your origin?”

“...”

Su Xiao’s silence made Amon Kotaro a bit helpless.

“How about this, Mr. Byakuya, you were also injured before the battle, and it is fighting with ghouls. We have our medical car below. As for joining CCG, we will go to the 20th district to discuss in detail.”

Su Xiao squatted and finally nodded as he followed Amon Koutaro to go downstairs.

Kureo Mado had discovered Gecko’s body. He picked it up and went downstairs with the two.

At this time, under the building, more than a dozen cars have been paradise, the sirens were everywhere, and the red and blue lights were flashing.

The CCG may have received reports from citizens. There were two ghoul investigators here. So the police officers present were only responsible for evacuating nearby civilians. In the presence of ghouls, these police officers had no fighting ability.

Behind a medical car, Su Xiao sat on a simple bed, a beautiful little nurse concentrated on dealing with his wound.

“That,” the voice of the little nurse screamed, Su Xiao stared.

“The wound is too deep, we need to use the anesthetic, otherwise...”

“No, the anesthetic will affect my reflex speed, and it can be sutured directly.”

The little nurse snorted and finally nodded.

Although the little nurse was beautiful and had a timid voice, she was easy to be thrown down, but her way to deal with the wound was violent. It could be seen from Su Xiao’s face that was twitching from time to time.
