Chapter 531: Powerless

A carriage was traveling on the countryside road, and a burst of laughter came from the wooden shed. It seemed that someone was talking and laughing inside.

There were several guards wearing leather armor near the carriage. Although these guards could use Ninjutsu, they were not ninjas. Their ability was more inclined to protect.

The guards were dressed in uniform, and behind the six guards were three people wearing different clothes. Some were wearing full armor, and some were wearing sportswear.

The three people in different clothes were whispering.

"Old Nine, is there no problem? The reward for this mission is too generous, and I always feel that something is wrong."

A horse-faced man looked worried, and his eyes often swept around.

"No problem, these famous names are very afraid of death, and the reward is very good. This is my second escort, and I can eat and play along the way. If I am lucky, I can taste the women of the Naruto world."

A middle-aged man with a pointed mouth and a monkey-like chin smiled.

"Really?"

"Of course."

Hearing the conversation between the two, the last little boy shook his head. Although the little boy looked only twelve or thirteen years old, his demeanor was very mature.

"Don't let your guard down. The difficulty of the task is Lv.14. The park will not give out rewards for no reason."

The little boy was called Zi Mo.. Although he was young, he was a genius.

"I know, you little brat."

The pointed-mouthed monkey-chin man did not seem to care about Zi Mo.. The last time he escorted him, he was also very careful. There was no danger.

"You... forget it."

Zi Mo sighed. Because he was too young, the two teammates of the adventure group did not believe him. The three of them were members of the same adventure group. This time, they came out to earn extra money.

"Zi Mo, don't care about this guy. This time, I specially invited you here to take you to make some money. In the future, don't forget us when you become successful."

"Yes, yes, just now, I was a bit rude. Don't mind it."

Zi Mo was a genius youth, but he also had shortcomings of the corresponding age. He hoped to be recognized by others, and their flattery made him forget the unhappiness just now.

"What is that?"

Zi Mo covered his eyes and looked into the distance. His vision had been specially enhanced.

"What's wrong?"

The captain of the guards in front noticed Zi Mo's abnormality.

"There is a bird in the sky."

"Pfft ---"

The horse-faced man sneered. This genius teammate of his had been making a fuss, and it seemed that he rarely left a large team to act alone.

"Bird?"

The captain of the guards looked into the distance. He also vaguely saw a bird in the distance.

"This bird... is a bit strange."

Just as the captain of the guards finished speaking, a whistling sound came through the air.

Pa! A bullet hit the head of the captain of the guards. Brain matter and blood splashed everywhere. The head of the captain of the guards exploded, and the headless body fell to the ground.

The warm brain fluid splashed on Zi Mo's face. The strong smell of blood made Zi Mo's body twitch, and his pupils shrank to the extreme.

"Enemy attack!"

Zi Mo's shouts were somewhat broken. He subconsciously shrank behind the carriage.

Sou ---

The sound of the air breaking came again.

Another guard was shot in the head like a watermelon was broken.

"There is a sniper in the sky, Zi Mo. Fight back!"

The horse-faced man's face changed dramatically, and he also hid behind the carriage.

"At least one kilometer away. How do we fight back?"

Zi Mo stared at the big bird in the distance. The big white bird looked a little familiar. He could not remember where the big bird came from for a moment.

It was completely white and looked like mud. It could fly.

His mind was in a hurry, and Zi Mo's body trembled slightly.

"I... I seem to have guessed who the enemy is."

"Who? Don't beat around the bush."

The horse-faced man hid behind the carriage with a ferocious expression.

Akatsuki organization member,

Deidara"

"No way."

"You must have seen wrongly. How could the Akatsuki organization appear here? Impossible!"

Zi Mo's two teammates were in disbelief, or perhaps they were unwilling to believe the reality before them.

Pa! Pa! Pa! Pa!

Two more sounds of flesh being shattered by bullets rang out. This time, it wasn't a human who died. Instead, it was the two horses shocked by the smell of blood. If they didn't kill the horses, these two horses would start running.

"Protect me, guard!"

The shouts came from the wooden carriage. It was the name of the Kingdom of River. He had just seen the scene outside the carriage.

"Your Highness, quickly get off the carriage."

A guard pulled out his knife and slashed at the back of the carriage. Wood chips flew everywhere, and the guard intended to destroy the wooden wall behind the carriage to let the famous Kingdom of River get off the carriage from the back.

Pa!

The guard stopped after slashing twice and subconsciously raised his bare arm, letting out a scream.

"Ah!"

Pa! blood splattered everywhere. The scream stopped abruptly. A hole as thick as a thigh was blasted out from the guard's chest. He fell to the ground and lost his breath for a moment.

The surroundings of the carriage turned into an Asura Arena. In a few seconds, someone would be shot in the head.

"What should we do? We are trapped."

The horse-faced man's face was deathly pale. He poked his head out from behind the carriage that had already leaned forward.

With a bang, a bullet flew over, and wood splinters hit the horse-faced man's face.

This time, no one dared to show themselves again. His great name lay in the wooden carriage, and his wife lay beside him, screaming incessantly. It was extremely annoying. Zi Mo and the others hid behind the carriage or under the carriage with the guards.

In the current situation, whoever dared to show himself would die. After a stalemate for more than ten seconds, the bullet whizzed again.

Bang, bang, bang, bang...

A hole exploded from the wooden carriage one by one. The name of the Kingdom of River inside screamed in horror. The cry lasted for a few seconds and disappeared. Blood overflowed from the nearly broken carriage. The name of the Kingdom of River was killed.

The gunshots stopped. Su Xiao half squatted on the big bird made by Deidara. At this time, the two flew hundreds of meters high in the sky.

Su Xiao withdrew from the spider queen's empty clip, took out a full clip and inserted it. After pulling the bolt, he aimed at the carriage again.

Su Xiao was a little surprised. In his opinion, the country of the river led a medium-sized country and killed the other party to get at least 3 of the source of the world.

Now it seemed that the name of the country of the river might be a puppet. The country of fire was used to separate the puppets of the country of sand and had no real power.

"The target is dead."

Although the target was dead, Su Xiao still aimed the gun at the carriage, where there were guards and contractors.

"So simple?"

Deidara was quite surprised and he was very surprised by the gun in Su Xiao's hand.

"Well, I have already killed them. Are these people going to kill them?"

"Let's kill them. The client offered a high price. We have to be clean."

Deidara yawned. He was not ready to make a move.

Su Xiao half squatted on the back of the big bird. As long as the enemy below dared to show up, they would die. Even if the enemy did not show up, he had a way.

Su Xiao had a light sniper on his side, and Zi Mo and the other two behind the carriage were miserable.

The strength of the three of them was not weak, but Su Xiao had the air control and distance advantage. The three could not attack a kilometer away, and the enemy could fly.

If this stalemate continued, Zi Mo and the other two would die. Deidara had controlled the big bird to circle the side of the carriage.

The big bird in the sky circled, Zi Mo, the three people and several guards also circled the carriage to avoid Su Xiao's sniper.

After circling half a circle, Dida was a little impatient and reached his hand into the bag with clay.

"Use a pair of wings, bird, huh."

Dida threw out a few small birds that looked like dragonflies. These birds had two pairs of wings and flew very fast.

Chapter 532: Relentless Bullet

The Two-Winged Bird was about the size of a palm, and its flying speed was extremely fast. It dived in a straight line toward the carriage.

"Not good. Deidara made his move."

Zi Mo swallowed his saliva with difficulty. When he saw Su Xiao in the Akatsuki uniform before, his heart collapsed. How strong must the contractor be to join the Akatsuki and form a team with Deidara?

The Two-Winged Bird rushed to the carriage at high speed. Zi Mo did not care about Su Xiao's sniper and jumped into the distance. Two other contractors did the same action as him. These two contractors were slower.

Boom!

Flames shot into the sky, and the carriage was blown into pieces. The ground was blasted into pits.

Zi Mo threw himself into a ditch in a sorry state. When he turned around, he saw a horrifying scene.

The horse-faced man also jumped into the distance before the carriage was blown up, but because he jumped too late, he was blown high by the explosion's impact.

The horse-faced man in mid-air clenched his teeth. Being blown away was not a good experience.

A worse experience appeared. When the horse-faced man flew in mid-air, Su Xiao made predictions based on the direction and speed of the other party's fall. He pulled the trigger with his finger.

Bang.

The Spider Queen's gun body shook. Su Xiao's body slightly leaned back. Smoke spewed out from the gun barrel. The bullet left the muzzle and flew toward the horse-faced man.

Su Xiao had used several derivative worlds of the Spider Empress. The practice was the best teacher, so he had some experience in sniping.

This gun was very accurate. Although it did not hit the head of the horse-faced man, it accurately hit the neck.

With a bang, blood splashed, the neck of the horse-faced man was broken, and a head flew into the ditch where Zi Mo was.

Three contractors, one was broken by Su Xiao, Deidara killed one, and one was hidden in the ditch.

Guards + Famous Name + Famous Name + Family Member + contractor, a total of 11 people, and the only one who died instantly was Zi Mo, who was trembling in the ditch.

With Su Xiao's long-range sniping and Deidara's clay bomb, these people did not even have a chance to resist. They just took out the automatic rifle and fired a few shots, and Zi Mo released a few spells.

These attacks did not even touch the corner of his clothes, not to mention hurting Su Xiao. One kilometer was equal to 2000 meters. Except for a few professionals and snipers, no one had such a far attack range at this distance.

Bang, bang.

Su Xiao fired two shots at the ditch in the distance, and there was no kill notification.

The soil splashed, Zi Mo's lips trembled in the ditch, and tears flowed out unwillingly.

Zi Mo was very smooth in the reincarnation paradise. In the first derivative world, he met a large adventure group member. The other party saw his wizard talent and recruited him.

There was a level of talent. Although rare talent was not at the top, it was extremely rare, not to mention this talent naturally prepared for wizards.

After the adventurer party leader learned of Zi Mo's talent, he made an exception and promoted him to a seed member. The resources in the group were more inclined toward him, and he was incorporated into a perfect team.

Zi Mo went from rank one to rank two smoothly. The mages and priests in the team were particularly fond of this little handsome. Moreover, he had a great future, and it was only a matter of time before he made a meteoric rise.

Three days ago, Zi Mo received an invitation from the members of the same adventure group to make a profit.

Now that he had not seen the external speed, Zi Mo had welcomed a ferocious enemy.

The merciless bullets fell. Without the protection of the main tank, Zi Mo felt the cruelty and bloodiness of the reincarnation paradise.

The enemy would not show any mercy because of his identity as a seed member, and the reputation of the adventure group also lost its effect.

"What to do, what to do."

Zi Mo took a few deep breaths and wiped the tears on his face. He suddenly thought he could communicate with the enemy with the '- derivative world communication platform'. The name of the adventure group might save his life.

The derivative world communication platform:

Zi Mo, "Friends with Deidara in the sky,

Stop, I surrender.

Zi Mo tentatively released the news on the 'derivative world communication platform'.

Drunkard: "Zimo, what's wrong?"

Poison Lady: "Stupid donkey, Zimo must have been attacked. Isn't Zimo with the Guild Leader?"

Scorpion Ghost Marquis: "Zi Mo, where are you? Tell me the address immediately."

There was a lot of news on the derivative world communication platform. The other two large adventurous groups also found out about this. They were all watching the fun. This kind of thing was very common.

The genius sorcerer of Blood Gate, Zi Mo, had heard that it was a five-element sorcerer.

Seeing the inquiry of his teammates, Zi Mo, in despair, was ecstatic. He would have used the adventure team channel to ask for help if not for the distance.

Zi Mo: "I am in the Land of the River. The specific location is not clear. Only in the Land of the River can I locate my coordinates. The enemy is a sniper with super long-range sniping ability, and members of the Akatsuki organization are now besieging me with Deidara."

This was Zi Mo's last chance to speak in the derivative world communication platform. After Zi Mo spoke this time, the same team members were silent.

The distance was too far, and the Akatsuki organization made them feel fear. The contractor, who could join the Akatsuki organization, was not a weak person.

Gulu: "Bear child, you were very happy when you bombarded me before. I will give you a cool song. As long as Stan is not brainwashed, he will not care about you. Going against the Akatsuki organization is courting death."

In the territory of Fire Country, Gulu, who was hiding in a tree hole, wiped the blood on his face. She was chased by the Blood Gate adventure group very badly. Now that she saw that the seed members of Blood Gate would be killed, of course, she would ridicule them. In this way, she could also provoke the internal relationship of the Blood Gate adventure group. The meaning was: Did you see that? Your regiment commander won't care about you.

Seeing Gulu's words, Zimo was a little desperate. At this time, a sharp pain came from his calf. After the pain, he felt numb.

Bang.

Blood splashed, and the soil splashed high. A small finger-long bullet penetrated Zimo's calf. The calf was broken.

"Is this guy pretending to be dead?"

Deidara looked doubtful at Zi Mo, who was rolling in the ditch. The other party was lying on the ground motionless just now.

"I don't know."

Su Xiao did not look at the derivative world communication platform at all. He was fighting, and he had no time to see that thing.

"Continue to fly to the side."

"No problem."

Deidara controlled the big bird in the sky, and Su Xiao was half squatting and holding a gun.

One of Zimo's legs was broken, sweating in pain. The feeling of despair and helplessness appeared again.

He took out his staff, and regardless of whether he could hit Su Xiao or not, several powerful spells bombarded Su Xiao's direction, and he put two elemental shields on at the same time.

Now the shield was not very useful, and the light of the elements would expose the position, but Zi Mo could not care so much. His nerves were about to collapse.

"Bit*h, come down and fight if you have the guts!"

A roar came. Su Xiao did not respond and calmly pulled the trigger.

Bang.

The enemy below rolled a few times. The magic shield only showed cracks and did not directly break.

Bang, bang, bang.

Su Xiao fired three shots in a row. The enemy's shield was still not broken. Su Xiao did not care. He just continued to pull the trigger.

The bullet's kinetic energy made Zi Mo roll on the ground, and when he took five bullets, the shield on his body broke.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger again, and blood splattered. The contractor below was shot in the head. The mission was in conflict, and they had already fought. He had to eliminate the roots.

Deidara controlled the big bird to lower its height and check if the enemy had died. Su Xiao was looking for the treasure chest or the scarlet card below.

Just as the height of the big bird dropped to more than ten meters, a low shout came.

"The skill of the Chaos Lion!"

Chapter 533: 3 Ninjas

The white hair broke out of the ground and rushed to the sky. Su Xiao and Deidara on the clay bird noticed something was wrong and jumped off the clay bird.

"Don't think about escaping!"

The white hair that broke out of the ground grew rapidly and rolled toward Su Xiao like a wire.

"Explode!"

Deidara made a hand seal, and the clay bird wrapped in white hair suddenly exploded.

Boom!

The fire rose, and the white hair that entangled the clay bird was blown away. Su Xiao and Deidara fell to the ground.

"Who is it!"

Deidara stared at the pit not far away, hiding a ninja of unknown origin.

Su Xiao frowned. Combined with the current timing, he had already guessed who the visitor was. The other party was investigating Xiao. Deidara and Scorpion had been staying nearby for two days. It was normal for the other party to catch their traces.

Whoosh.

A figure emerged from the forest not far away. It was Scorpion hiding in Hiruko.

"This is the target's guard?"

Scorpion stared at the ground not far away. He felt that the person who came was not weak, so he immediately appeared.

"I'm not sure."

Deidara put his hand into the bag with clay on his waist and quickly made two large birds that could carry people.

"Scorpion dragged out the enemy, Byakuya, we are responsible for support."

Deidara jumped on a clay bird, indicating Su Xiao to jump on the other one.

"I will try it out."

Although Deidara's tactics were good, Su Xiao was ready to get close to the enemy and test the strength of the Naruto world.

As the three of them spoke, cracks appeared on the ground in front of them, and a figure broke out of the ground.

"Red Cloud black trench coat, it can't be wrong, you are members of the Akatsuki organization."

The man who broke out of the ground was tall, with a smile on his face, wearing a forehead cover with the word 'oil'. His loose white hair hung down to his waist, and there were two red marks on his face.

The person who came was one of Konoha's three Ninjas, Jiraya.

"This is..."

Scorpion immediately recognized the other party's identity.

"Who is this?"

Deidara had never seen Jiraya before, he had only heard about him.

"Konoha's Three Ninjas, Jiraya."

Hearing the name Jiraya, Deidara's pupils shrank. Although he had never seen Jiraya before, he had heard about his achievements.

"He's not good."

As Tita spoke, he controlled the clay bird to fly up. The enemy was Konoha's Three Ninjas, and he had heard about them when he was young. Even if he was arrogant, he would still be cautious when dealing with Jiraya.

"This guy won't let us leave so easily. Get ready to fight."

Scorpion controlled Hiruko and crawled towards Jiraya.

"Rock village traitor Deidara, Sand village traitor scorpion, and... unknown ninja and a dog."

Su Xiao obviously became an unknown ninja.

Jiraya also looked at the corpses nearby. He arrived at the end of the battle. At that time, Su Xiao and Deidara were lowering their altitude, so he also made a decisive move, intending to capture the two people to obtain the information of the Akatsuki organization.

According to the usual practice, Bobowang went to find a hiding place before the battle began, and it ran out to the distance.

Su Xiao and Bobowang were in the opposite direction. He stepped on the ground and rushed to Jiraya.

Finding that Su Xiao rushed to the enemy, the Scorpion controlled Hiruko to open its mouth, and a large number of thousands of books were spat out from the mouth of Hiruko, and every thousand books were poisoned.

"Earth Release: Earth Flow Wall."

The speed of Jiraya's hand seals was so fast that it dazzled the eyes. Almost instantly, an earth wall rose up.

Pu, pu, pu...

All of the books pierced into the Earth Flow Wall. Deidara, who was flying high in the sky, sneered.

"Explode!"

Boom!

A clay centipede that had crawled to the side of Jiraya exploded, and Jiraya was also swallowed by the flame.

Su Xiao put his left hand in front of him, and the dragon flash appeared in his right hand. He rushed forward with the impact of the explosion.

With the cover of Scorpion and Deidara,

Su Xiao and Jiraya did not encounter much resistance when they got close to each other.

Su Xiao rushed directly into the flame. At this time, the flame had begun to dissipate. A white ball appeared in front of him. It was Jiraya who wrapped his body with his hair to resist the explosion.

This was a branch of the 'messy lion hair technique' of Jiraya. His hair could grow quickly and become as hard as steel.

Jiraya also took back his hair, and Su Xiao, who was holding a long sword, came into view.

"Do you know how to use a ninja sword?"

Jiraya was also calm, although he was surrounded by three people, he looked calm.

"Fire Style - Flame Bullet."

The flame came out of Jiraya's mouth. Unlike the fireball, the flame shot out was a fan shape, and the attack range was wider.

Su Xiao did not care about the fan-shaped flame coming from his face and continued to rush forward.

Just as the flame burned Su Xiao's body, a transparent shield appeared around him, which was an attached skill: protection.

[Protection: Quickly generate an invisible shield to resist the attack. The shield's durability is equivalent to 80 of the user's maximum HP. It can last for 30 seconds.]

The flame burned the shield, the shield blocked the heat, and a large crack appeared on the surface, and it was about to break.

"Earth Release: Pond of the Underworld."

Just as Su Xiao rushed through the burning of the flame, the ground under his feet became soft, and his feet fell into the soft mud.

Su Xiao's situation was a little dangerous, but he was already close to Jiraya.

Mobilizing the mana values in the body, the mana values instantly consumed thousands of points, and the green steel shadow energy wrapped around the dragon flash vibrated at a high frequency, which made the dragon flash look like an energy blade.

"Inch Cut."

Inch Cut was a move developed according to the ring break, which was a branch ability. It changed from a 360-degree attack to only attacking the front, and it was not a sword light attack, but a direct attack of the enemy with the sharp blade in the hand.

Weng ---

The long knife cut down, making a horrible whistling sound, and Jiraya's pupils contracted.

"Shoot randomly."

The white hair of Jiraya became straight, like needles stabbing at Su Xiao.

Su Xiao didn't look at the white hair that was coming at him at all, his biting muscles protruded out, and he slashed at the tap man.

If the sword hit the head of Jiraya, not to mention the three, even the thirty would die.

The corner of Jiraya's eyes jumped. He didn't expect Su Xiao to be so ruthless. Just when he wanted to retreat, thousands of swords flew from behind. If Jiraya dared to retreat, he would be shot into a sieve.

Puff.

Blood splashed. Su Xiao was pierced by more than a dozen white hair. Several white hair almost stabbed his heart.

It was not only Su Xiao who was bleeding but also Jiraya!

Dragon flash-cut down from Jiraya's chest, cutting off a large amount of white hair. This was Su Xiao's strongest sword, and the injury caused by Jiraya could be imagined.

A half-meter long wound appeared on Jiraya's chest, almost cutting through Jiraya's ribs and directly injuring his internal organs.

The energy of Qing Gang Yin invaded Jiraya's body, and Jiraya's eyes widened, and he spat out a big mouthful of blood, and the chakra in his body showed signs of going berserk.

"I was careless."

The corner of Jiraya's mouth was bleeding, and he looked up at Su Xiao. At this time, Su Xiao had been picked up by his white hair, and blood flowed down his white hair.

A blue energy ball appeared in the palm of Jiraya. This was the signature ninjutsu of the 4th Hokage, Rasengan.

Jiraya also controlled his hair and pulled Su Xiao who was powerless in the air, ready to kill Su Xiao with a Rasengan.

At this time, Jiraya also found a smile on Su Xiao's face, which made Jiraya hesitate.

In less than 0.1 seconds, Jiraya removed the Rasengan in his hand and changed it to a hand seal.

Must not be approached by this guy again, absolutely not, otherwise I will die.

Jiraya's judgment was very correct. If he pulled Su Xiao closer, Su Xiao would immediately use the secondary invincible shield and take the opportunity to give Jiraya another stab.

Chapter 534: Shameless Combination

"Great Flame Bullet."

Jiraya puffed up his cheeks and spat out brown oil from his mouth. As soon as the oil left his mouth, a raging fire was ignited.

This move could be said to be extremely vicious. It was not as simple as just being burned once. If the oil touched it, the flames would continue to burn.

Finding that Jiraya gave up using the spiral pill, Su Xiao was disappointed and slashed forward with the dragon flash in his hand.

Ding.

The white hair that was as hard as iron was cut off, Su Xiao fell to the ground, and the oil in the burning sprayed at him.

When Su Xiao was about to be swallowed by the flames, a clay bird with a wingspan of about four meters flew to Su Xiao's feet, carrying Su Xiao, falling and flying to the side.

Hu ---

The oil sprayed on the ground, and the flames spread and continued to burn.

Standing on the back of the clay bird, Su Xiao not only sighed with emotion. This was his teammate, the most critical moment of support.

"Well done."

Scorpion looked at the wound on his chest that was still bleeding. He understood why Peien recruited Su Xiao. Su Xiao's melee ability was stronger than anyone in Xiao.

Jiraya also looked at Su Xiao in the sky, a white hair reached his chest, and the white hair quickly sutured the wound.

"This is no problem."

In the face of the siege of Su Xiao and the other two, other than being hit by Su Xiao, the attacks of others did not hit him.

His thumb was stained with blood, and Jiraya pressed one hand on the ground.

"Psychic Spell."

Bang.

A large ball of white smoke rose, and conversation sounded inside the white smoke.

"It's Jiraya."

"Well, sorry to trouble you."

"It's okay. Although I am clumsy, I will try my best to help you."

The white smoke dispersed, and Jiraya stood on the back of a huge toad. This toad was huge, about the size of a two-story building. It held a U-shaped steel fork in one hand and a giant shield that looked like a pot lid.

Gumaken was not weak. He was an ideal psychic beast. He was brave in battle and listened to commands. More importantly, loyalty.

Some psychic beasts would flee in times of danger and return to the space where the psychic beast was. Gumaken was different. As long as the psychic did not give the order, he would fight until he was on the verge of death and even die in battle. This was extremely rare among the psychic beasts.

"Gumaken, be careful. There are three enemies. One uses bombs, controls puppets, and is good at close combat."

"En, I will help you block the melee and puppet puppets."

"Very good."

Jiraya also looked at Deidara in the sky. He was ready to deal with the flying bombs in the sky. He was annoyed by all kinds of bombs, and the bombs were very threatening.

"Scorpion, you block him. You don't need to hurt the enemy. Just block it."

Su Xiao shouted in the sky.

"Yes."

Scorpion determined what tactic the three of them were going to use. It was a shameless tactic.

"Hold the enemy... use that."

Scorpion took out a scroll. It was a kind of storage scroll.

Bang! White smoke rose. Scorpion summoned a puppet. It was a man in a black robe. The man's skin was slightly dark due to the anti-rotting process. There were fixed marks on the joints of his body.

"This person is..."

The Ninjutsu released by Jiraya stopped. He recognized this puppet.

"3rd generation Wind Shadow!"

Jiraya took a deep breath. He had fought with the 3rd generation Wind Shadow. When he was young, his opponent's iron sand almost killed him.

There was still a small amount of iron sand in his arm that could not be taken out.

With a wave of his hand, the third generation wind shadow flew into the air, and the iron in the nearby soil floated up, gradually forming an iron hammer.

Under Scorpion's control, the iron sand hammer smashed toward Jiraya. When he realized that the attack was coming, Gumaken raised the giant shield in his hand to block it in front of him.

Dang!

A loud sound spread out, smoke and dust rose, and Jiraya behind Gumaken also made a hand seal.

"Shadow Clone Technique."

Bang, two shadow clones appeared in the smoke and dust.

When the smoke dissipated, Jiraya was still standing behind Gumaken. The two shadow clones disappeared, and he came up with a tactic. If the tactic was successful, at least two of the three members of Akatsuki were left.

Jiraya didn't know that the most depressing battle in his life was about to begin.

"Byakuya, C formation."

In the sky, Deidara had a smile on his face. He pointed his gun at Jiraya. The so-called C formation was to confuse the enemy and make the enemy think that the three of them had been working together for a long time.

"The same way of thinking."

Su Xiao took out the spider queen in the storage space. There were still 11 minutes left for the remaining time of 8 times the Red Outer Detection Mirror.

Deidara controlled the clay bird under Su Xiao's feet, and the clay bird flew out into the distance. It stopped after flying for about a kilometer.

Su Xiao half squatted on the back of the clay bird, drank a bottle of secret alchemy medicine to stabilize his injury, and aimed at Jiraya, who was behind the giant toad.

The muzzle was just aimed at Jiraya, and Jiraya immediately sensed it.

"This feeling... super long-range Ninjutsu."

Jiraya's perception was very strong, and before Su Xiao fired, he felt that it was impossible for a single sniper to come.

Su Xiao was not a single person, and he still had two strong teammates.

"Iron Sand Rain."

The dense iron sand shot toward Jiraya, and he also shook his white hair. His white hair rolled up, and all the iron sand was swept away.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger and hit the end of the bullet. There was a pit at the end of the bullet. The bullet shot out and left the muzzle through the acceleration of the rifling.

Sou ---

Because of the distance, the bullet made a slight sound of air breaking in the air, breaking through layers of airwaves in the air.

The bullet flew towards Jiraya's head. At this time, Jiraya had just blocked the rain of iron sand and was recovering.

The bullet flew to within 100 miles of Jiraya, and the back of his head felt a sharp pain. He had felt this pain many times.

Pa!

Blood splashed everywhere. The bullet entered his flesh, and a bloody hole as thick as an arm exploded. Gumaken under Jiraya grunted.

At this time, Jiraya was also turning his head. There was a finger-sized hole in the white hair on the side of his neck. The broken hair fell on the back of Gumaken and was dyed red by the blood of Gumaken.

"The power is amazing."

Jiraya frowned. He felt that today's situation was not good. He had predicted that the enemy's attack would hit Gumaken. Although he had blocked the bullet himself, he still used his hair to block the bullet.

It turned out that the heavy sniper rifle could shoot through the hair of Jiraya.

"Iron Sand Spear."

The scorpion controlled the third generation wind shadow attack. A spear formed from iron sand came. The iron sand spear was three meters long, and this was not to attack Jiraya but to attack Gumaken.

Su Xiao and the other two saw that this psychic beast had a strong defense. It was difficult to hurt Jiraya with it.

Sure enough, the iron sand spear was blocked by Gumaken holding a big shield. Gumaken waved the U-shaped iron fork and smashed the iron sand spear with a clatter.

Gumaken just blocked the scorpion's attack, and Su Xiao immediately fired.

The bullet drilled into Gumaken's head with a bang, creating a bloody hole. Jiraya's white hair that tried to block the bullet was still pierced.

Gumaken's body was too large, and his body was so strong that he could take dozens of shots without a problem. Moreover, Jiraya also used his hair to slow down the bullet's kinetic energy.

A breeze blew across the battlefield. Jiraya knew that this was not going to go on. He had a general understanding of the attack methods of the three enemies. It was time to start a counterattack.

Just as Jiraya was about to counterattack, a whistling sound came from above his head. A clay bird flew over and dropped a few white objects as it passed over his head. The 'bomber' Deidara from the team came.

Chapter 535: Blow Him Up!

A few clay bombs were thrown down, these clay looked like grasshoppers, and they exploded instantly when they landed.

Boom, boom, boom!

The sound was deafening, and the soil near Jiraya splashed.

In the distance, Su Xiao didn't shoot. He would only shoot when Jiraya avoided the attack or released the Ninjutsu to interrupt Jiraya's Ninjutsu.

Gumaken jumped out of the smoke and dust, his body covered in burns.

"Gumaken, are you alright?"

Jiraya was also worried that Gumaken was trying to show off.

"No... nothing."

Gumaken looked dispirited, and a pool of blood quickly formed under his body.

"Although I am very clumsy, I can still fight, Mr. Jiraya."

"You have already helped me a lot. Rest first. I will communicate with your brother."

"Then... okay."

The toad turned into white smoke and disappeared.

"Psychic Spell."

Bang.

The white smoke rose again, and Jiraya summoned the second spirit beast.

"Jiraya?"

A toad with red skin and a pipe in its mouth appeared. Its body shape was similar to Toad's, and its weapon was different. It was a large knife with no gauntlets. The short knife was only five meters long compared to Gamabunta's body.

Gamabunta, Gumaken's brother.

"Gamabunta, jump!"

Jiraiya, who was on his back, also shouted. The reason was that Deidara threw a few more bombs.

"Fire Release..."

Bang!

A bullet flew over, and Jiraya was barely able to dodge it. The Ninjutsu was forcibly interrupted.

Pa! Blood splattered everywhere. The toad spirit beast was too big to dodge the Spider Empress' bullet.

"It hurts! Which bastard attacked this?"

Gamabunta pulled out his large dagger and slashed at the third generation Wind Shadow without a word.

Boom!

The power of the blade was terrifying. Although the blade did not hit the third generation Wind Shadow, it almost hit the body of the Crimson Stream Tiger that was hiding behind the scorpion.

Gamabunta was much stronger than Gumaken. He slashed at the third generation Wind Shadow and Crimson Stream Tiger as soon as he appeared. Scorpion began to dodge, and the third generation Wind Shadow he controlled was a bit more sluggish than before.

"The enemy is very strong, en."

Deidara no longer threw out the bomb. The mouth in his palm continued to chew as if it were preparing for a big move.

Bang, bang, bang, bang...

Su Xiao continuously pulled the trigger, a few bloody holes exploded on the body of Gamabunta, and the attack immediately slowed down.

"Bunta, help me buy time."

Jiraya also knew that he could not hide his strength now. The enemy's tactics were too disgusting.

There were three generations of Wind Shadow and Scorpion holding him back, and bombs were dropped from the sky from time to time. Not only that but there were also long-distance attacks in the distance, often interrupting his Ninjutsu.

Jiraya's fingers were stained with some blood, and he drew a half-circle on both sides of his eyes. He put his hands together, and a strange fluctuation spread out.

Bunta knew what Jiraya was going to do. It no longer took the initiative to attack the scorpion and tried to protect Jiraya.

The cooperation of Su Xiao and the other two gradually became tacit. Scorpion controlled Hiru to spit out a thousand books and the sword in his hand from time to time. It was covered with poison. Deidara was preparing a big move, and Su Xiao was looking for an opportunity to kill Jiraya. If there were no chance, he would kill Bunta.

The sound of an explosion and the collision of Ninjutsu continued.

Not only was Gamabunta's sword technique fierce, but the Ninjutsu he released was also not weak. He suppressed Scorpion, who had not used his full strength.

Scorpion did not use his full strength. It was the same for Deidara. Coincidentally, it was the same for Jiraya. They were testing each other to find the flaws of the other. As for Su Xiao, he was the safest on the field.

And at this moment, Jiraya was ready to risk his life. If this continued, he might die.

One bullet after another shot out, Su Xiao had already emptied three magazines, and the spider queen's barrel was a little hot.

"Jiraya, is it done? I can't hold on anymore."

Gamabunta was covered in bloody holes.

A ferocious wound on his front leg and iron sand could be vaguely seen inside.

"Alright."

Jiraya breathed a sigh of relief. He had already prepared his spell, and the bloody Gamabunta turned into white smoke and disappeared.

"Welcome, my art."

A loud shout was heard, and Deidara threw a clay bomb.

This clay bomb was shaped like a round doll. As soon as it left the hands of Deidara, he made a seal with both hands. With a bang, the size of the doll expanded. Because of the gravity, the speed of the doll bomb gradually increased.

This was Deidara's killing move No. 18, which was mixed with his highest level of chakra.

Scorpion no longer fought with Jiraya, and he used a few low-level puppets to hold him back. He turned around and ran.

This action aroused his vigilance. Just as he wanted to escape, bullets flew over, and he could only dodge.

"Little Jiraya, what's going on?"

An old toad crouching on his shoulder said.

"Child's father, the attack is coming. Protect Little Jiraya."

Toad, who was crouching on the other side of Jiraya, said.

At this time, Jiraya's appearance changed greatly. His nose became bigger, the surface was uneven, and red marks on his eyes.

"Sage mode?"

Through the scope, Su Xiao found that Jiraya changed. The two old frogs squatting on the other side's shoulders had a great background—Toad Immortals of Mount Miaomu, namely Deep Village Immortals and Zhima Immortals.

The normal state of Jiraya was also two different concepts from the immortal mode, but he was about to meet the bombardment of Deidara.

The clay bomb landed on the ground. This move had once flattened a village.

The glaring white light spread, and at this moment, there was no sound at all.

The white light wrapped around Jiraya, and even the scorpion that had already run far away was affected. The crimson amber was blown away, and Bobowang, further away, exclaimed, What a big firework.

"Explosion is art, en!"

Deidara admired his masterpiece while Su Xiao covered one of his eyes. The white light was enhanced by 'light.

Boom!

The shockwave spread out, and the ground was blown away. The nearby forest bell was instantly razed to the ground.

The white light continued to disappear for a few seconds. At this time, he looked at where he was. There was a large pit within a radius of four hundred meters. The pit was slightly sunken, and the soil on the surface had been turned into glass. The sunlight reflected the light.

There was a 'meat sack' at the center of the explosion. The 'meat sack' had been blown up, and it looked like the stomach of some creature.

"Cough, cough, cough."

Jiraya staggered out of the stomach sack, and the shockwave of the explosion hurt his internal organs.

"What kind of explosive power is this? Fortunately, I was able to summon it in time."

As the Zhima Immortal opened his mouth, a bullet whizzed towards it.

The bullet flew past him, breaking a few strands of burnt hair.

"Begin the counterattack."

Jiraya stepped on the ground, and the soil under his feet exploded. His strength could only be described as terrifying.

Sou ---

Jiraya also rushed towards the scorpion. The scorpion wanted to control the third generation of wind shadows but found that the third generation wind shadows could no longer be controlled. Immortal Zhima used his tongue to wrap around the third generation wind shadows.

"Frog Shock."

Hapless Frog, who was crouching on both sides of Jiraya's shoulder, puffed up his cheeks and released a special wavelength

Hiruko was frozen in place, and Jiraya kicked him.

"This is the body."

Just as Jiraya was about to attack the scorpion, he noticed that the two birds in the sky were already approaching.

Ding! Ding! Ding! Ding! Ding! Ding!

More than ten-meter long iron bars were nailed around him.

Zi ---

The sound of the metal wire retracting came, and the boundary line used the iron rod to form an encirclement.

The spider queen had been put away by Su Xiao, and dozens of little white frogs jumped out of his sleeve and fell to Jiraya.

Dida was not idle, and dozens of clay bombs were thrown out by him.

"Explode."

"Explode."

Boom, boom, boom...

The explosions were endless, and the iron bars that Su Xiao had inserted around Jiraya were blown away.

The explosion lasted for dozens of seconds, and when the smoke dissipated, Jiraya was nowhere to be seen.

The apprentice of the 3rd, the master of the 4th, the companion of the 5th, the master of the 6th, and the life teacher of the 7th were beaten away by Su Xiao, Scorpion, Deidara, the combination of sniper and puppet + bombing.

"Tsk, this guy runs fast."

There was a smile on Deidara's face. His clay bomb had been used up.

Scorpion stood up in the distance, and an arm fell to the ground with a clatter.

Su Xiao sat on the back of the clay bird, and blood spilled from the more than a dozen small wounds.

Although they paid a great price, the three of them almost left them here forever.

Chapter 536: New Task

At the border of the Kingdom of River, in a rapid river.

A piece of green emerged from the river. A half-meter-sized frog poked its head out of the river. Its eyes suddenly looked around, and there was a light of wisdom in its eyes.

After confirming that there was no danger in the surroundings, the frog opened its mouth and stretched out a hand from the frog's mouth.

Jiraya also came out of the frog's mouth and stood on the water's surface. Blood seeped out of the clothes on his chest. The previous high-intensity battle had caused the wound on his chest to crack.

"Is this a member of the Akatsuki organization? Don't underestimate them."

Jiraya also investigated the Akatsuki in the world. Today, when he fought with the members of the Akatsuki organization, the result was not optimistic. The lack of intelligence made him at a disadvantage when he first fought.

"It's a pity that we didn't catch the captive, but this information must be sent back to Konoha as soon as possible after getting the precious information."

His hands formed a seal, white smoke rose, and Jiraya summoned a toad.

This toad had a strange appearance. Its body was long and thin, and its head was dark yellow. Other than its upper body, its lower body was a scroll more than one meter long.

"Jiraya."

Gerotora hugged his shoulders. The scroll on his body recorded important information, and there was a key to unlocking the Nine-tailed Seal.

Gerotora was clear that if there were nothing important, Jiraya would not summon it.

"Gerotora, help me convey a message to Tsunade."

Jiraya summarized the information of Su Xiao and the other two and came up with a strategy to deal with the three.

After a long time, Gerotora nodded.

"It's clear. Are you injured so badly because of the three people?"

"Yes, if I'm not wrong, these three are only members of the Akatsuki, not leaders. All members have this kind of strength, and the leader will only be more difficult to deal with.

I already have some information, and the Akatsuki often appear near the Rain Village. I will recuperate first and then return to Konoha to see the leader and directly go to the Rain Village."

Jiraya also had the idea of sneaking into the Rain Village, but he always had a bad feeling in his heart.

"You want to sneak into the Rain Village alone? That place is isolated from the outside world, only knowing that it is raining and internal strife all year round, and there is very little other information."

"Well, I will go later. A Ninja Village is closed to this degree, which is very abnormal. I suspect that that is the headquarters of the Akatsuki organization. This is just a suspicion, and the specific situation needs to be investigated before it can be confirmed."

"Alright, then I'll leave first. I'll help you convey the information."

"Thank you."

Bang, white smoke rose, and Gerotora disappeared.

Jiraya also walked to the river. According to his memory, a village nearby was suitable for him to heal.

...

In the Rain Country, there was an oil lamp in the cave in a sealed cave, and several shadows were standing around the oil lamp.

"This is what happened. The famous assassination of the River Country was successful, and Jiraya was beaten back by us, so it was nothing."

Deidara's shadow yawned. It was midnight, and he was still sleeping before Payne contacted him.

"Jiraya."

Heavenly Path murmured, and his mood did not fluctuate too much.

"Is your position exposed?"

Xiao Nan's shadow looked at Su Xiao. This matter made Su Xiao a little suspicious. He had just joined the combination of Scorpion and Deidara, and he had appeared since.

"Well, it was exposed, and Jiraya probably just happened to pass by. When we killed the target, he didn't attack, and then he appeared in the way of a sneak attack. The position of the sneak attack was in a hurry, and he was not familiar with the information of us."

Scorpion saw the meaning of Xiao Nan and helped Su Xiao to speak a few words of justice. Su Xiao's performance was obvious in the previous battle, and the spy did not do this.

"Jiraya is also investigating us." Su Xiao suddenly spoke.

"Huh?"

Both Heavenly Path and Xiao Nan looked at Su Xiao.

"How did you know?"

"He recognized what we were wearing."

Su Xiao remembered what Jiraya had said before.

What evidence is there?

"..."

Of course, the Heavenly Path would not believe Su Xiao's wrong words.

"Jiraya also whispered something to us when we first met. 'Red clouds and black trench coat. It can't be wrong. This is a member of the Akatsuki organization. Although his voice was very low, I was very close to him at that time, and I could vaguely hear it."

Su Xiao was not making up nonsense, and he indeed murmured this before the war began.

Heavenly Path looked at Scorpion and Deidara, who both shook their heads. Scorpion thought and said, "We are also very far away from Jiraya. Only Byakuya and Jiraya are close to him and hurt him."

Su Xiao had just joined the Akatsuki not long ago, so it was normal for him to be suspected.

"There may be enemy spies among us, but this possibility is not strong."

Su Xiao's words made Xiao Nan slightly surprised. She had a moment of doubt that Su Xiao was a spy of Jiraya, and then this idea was dispelled in her mind.

"What do you mean?"

Heavenly Path looked at Su Xiao and motioned for Su Xiao to continue.

Firstly, Scorpion and Deidara have been waiting there for two days. If Jiraya had already known this information in advance, he would never have chosen the location to ambush me in a hurry after I arrived.

Of course, I may also be a spy of Jiraya. This suspicion can not be ruled out. You can investigate or suspect. After all, I have only joined the Akatsuki for a few days.

Su Xiao no longer spoke. Heavenly Path looked at Xiao Nan. If the members of the Akatsuki revealed this matter, the two people already had a candidate to suspect.

Itachi, that's right, it was Uchiha Itachi. On the first day he joined the organization, Nagato guessed that Itachi might be a spy from Konoha, but Itachi was useful, and both sides had an agreement that Itachi would never dare to cross the line.

From Itachi's death, Nagato went to fight Konoha alone, and it could be seen that Itachi dragged Nagato indirectly to protect Konoha.

Payne thought for a moment, feeling that this matter did not seem to be information revealed by Itachi.

In that case, the three of them met Jiraya on the way to the mission. As for Su Xiao, Nagato had never suspected him from the beginning, and even if he were a simple-minded spy, he would not do such a thing right after joining the Akatsuki organization.

Was it really because of bad luck? Perhaps, after all, there was a chief in the three-person team, and both Scorpion and Deidara would lie down at all times.

"This matter will end here. I will deal with the follow-up. You have other tasks, Xiao Nan."

Su Xiao and the other two looked at Xiao Nan.

"Recently, I received a more dangerous commission. The civil war in the Water Country has subsided. Some people don't want the Water Country to stop the civil war so early, so..."

After listening to the task described by Xiao Nan, a smile appeared on Su Xiao's face.

"This task is good. Can you kill Mizukage?"

Su Xiao did not expect that he would return to the Water Country so soon, and he was responsible for stirring up the civil war in the Water Country.

"If you can kill it, it doesn't matter, you can't delay the task, so it is like this."

The shadow of the divine law disappeared, and Xiao Nan also disappeared.

"It's really busy. Go back to sleep."

Deidara also disappeared, and Su Xiao and Scorpion also disappeared.

In the territory of the Kingdom of River, there was a shelter formed by giant rocks, two people were resting on the rocks, and there was a figure watching the night not far away.

The one keeping watch was Scorpion, but he suggested that Scorpion could no longer be considered a human, and he did not need to sleep or eat.

"When are we leaving?"

Deidara yawned and threw a few firewoods into the fire. The Kingdom of River was very cold at night.

"Tomorrow morning, I lost too much blood."

Su Xiao lazily leaned on a boulder. It seemed that laziness cancer was acting up.

"Sure."

Scorpion's voice came from not far away. Because of the broken Crimson Stream, Scorpion showed his true form to a handsome red-haired teenager.

Su Xiao looked at Deidara and then looked at Scorpion. The appearance of these two people was completely an idol combination.

Chapter 537: Old Haunt

Two days later, in the coastal area of the Water Country, a big white bird passed through the sky.

Su Xiao arrived in the Water Country by Deidara's bird. It took only two days to go from the River Country to the Water Country. This also included the rest along the way.

Su Xiao did not know who entrusted this task to him. The content of the task was very simple, stirring up the civil war of the Water Country.

If he wanted to stir up the civil war of the Water Country, the Mist Village was an inevitable part.

To be exact, the main target of the three people was the Mist Village. Only the internal strife of the Mist Village would continue the civil war.

Su Xiao's suggestion was to assassinate the fifth generation Mizukage directly, while Scorpion opposed it. In his opinion, the risk of assassinating the Water Shadow was too high, and other methods could achieve the same result. Deidara kept his opinion. He was only responsible for the explosion. His biggest wish at the moment was to find Itachi for revenge.

The Akatsuki organization had two or three people in a team because they could prevent the lone party. There was no leader in the team, and they needed to discuss before doing anything.

The second was that they could help each other and increase the mission's success rate.

The third was to supervise each other to prevent spies from leaking the information about Akatsuki. After all, most of the members of the Akatsuki organization were rebellious.

Now, the three people in the team had different opinions. Su Xiao's proposed to assassinate Mei Terumi was not simply to take revenge. This was indeed the fastest way to cause internal strife in Water Country.

The three arrived at the Water Country in the evening. At this time, there were many fishermen on the sea's shore. Although these fishermen looked tired, their faces were full of smiles. It could be seen that their harvest today was good.

On the wooden box at the dock, Su Xiao sat on the wooden box, holding a string of grilled fish in his hand, and from time to time, he tore a piece and handed it to Bobowang or himself to take a bite.

"Scorpion, since you don't agree with my opinion, you make a plan."

Although Scorpion rejected Su Xiao's plan, he was not unhappy. From the beginning, he knew that the people of the Akatsuki organization would not listen to his command, and he did not think of commanding these people.

Scorpion in Hiruko spoke.

"According to the information given by the client, the Mist Village is temporarily divided into two factions. One faction is the main faction, and the other is the radical faction. We can reduce the power of the main faction and make the radical faction big. As for the fifth generation water shadow, it depends on the situation when the time comes."

Su Xiao did not break Scorpion's words. After Scorpion finished speaking, Su Xiao spoke.

"Are you sure this is the information given by the client? Is the leader passing it to you or Xiao Nan?"

Su Xiao took the grilled fish and stopped chewing.

"It's Xiao Nan. What's wrong?"

Scorpion saw Su Xiao's abnormality.

"You should know a little about the grudge between me and the fifth generation water shadow, right?"

"I know a little. She sent people to kill you."

Su Xiao hesitated for a moment and then asked, "I now doubt if Xiao Nan is trustworthy if she is..."

Although Su Xiao knew that Xiao Nan would not do something against the truth, he still said so.

"So far, Xiao Nan is trustworthy."

Deidara also looked at Su Xiao. He knew that Su Xiao had something to say.

"Since Xiao Nan is trustworthy, we should kill the client."

Su Xiao said something amazing. Not only Deidara but Scorpion was also surprised.

"Why?"

"Right now, there is no division between the main and radical factions in the Mist Village. Many of the radical faction leaders died, and I killed them."

"Huh?"

This time, Deidara and Scorpion were on guard.

"First of all, very few people know that I joined the Akatsuki. Although I did not stay in the Mist Village for long, I know the situation very well. I have interacted with Terumi Mei, and after she took the throne, she would never allow any radical factions to exist. This kind of thing is clear to the higher-ups of the Mist. We can confirm it."

"Are you saying that there is a problem with the client?"

Scorpion immediately understood what Su Xiao meant.

"Yes, there is a big problem. The client gave the wrong information. Maybe it is not just to let us start a civil war, but to let Xiao and the Mist Village's dog 'bite the' dog'."

The client made a profit from the middle.

Scorpion and Deidara lowered their heads and pondered. Every time they accepted a commission, they had to consider it thoroughly.

Xiao could help other forces eliminate dissidents, but he could not tolerate being used.

"Of course, this is my guess. According to the information given by the client and the current situation of the Mist Village, my previous proposal was to assassinate the fifth generation Mizukage. That was the fastest way to start a civil war. According to the client's information, the fifth generation Water Shadow is the leader of the main peace faction, right?"

"That's right."

Scorpion confirmed that all three of them thought of a possibility this time. Deidara, who had not said much, opened his mouth and said, "How long is the time limit for the commission? How long do we have left to do this?"

"Three days left."

This was the detailed information that Scorpion got from Xiao Nan.

"Three days, the time is very rushed. The commission is not low. The leader said that this matter is troublesome,"

"It is dozens of times the commission for killing the country of the river. After all, this is a civil war of a country."

Su Xiao and the other two no longer spoke. After a long time, Deidara broke the silence.

"Let's catch a Mist Ninja to understand the information first?"

"Sure."

"Not a bad suggestion."

The three of them agreed. As for the mission, they had to figure out the situation first.

The Akatsuki mostly accepted war missions, and there were many traps.

"Who is going to catch the Mist? At least one superior Ninja. In short, I can't do it."

It was not that Deidara did not have the strength to catch the Mist Ninja, but that the sound of his battle was too loud.

"I'll go."

Scorpion said. The three of them quickly rushed towards the Mist Village. The three of them were very careful along the way if the Mist discovered them.

The current situation was not very clear. If the situation was wrong, the three people's goal was not the Mist Village but to kill the client. This was Xiao.

That night, Su Xiao and Deidara waited in a hotel near the Mist Village while Scorpion went out.

Not long after Scorpion went out, Deidara took off Xiao's uniform and changed into ordinary clothes, as if he was going out too.

"Byakuya, I will go out first."

Su Xiao was a little surprised.

"What is it?"

"Cough, there are some private matters to deal with. Don't tell Scorpion that I have gone out."

While speaking, Deidara got up and walked out of the hotel.

"I didn't expect that you would have a lover in the Water Country."

Deidara stopped and looked at Su Xiao with a gaze that all men understood.

"Don't expose your identity."

"Don't worry, and she only knows that I am a mud puppet."

After that, Deidara went out. This teenager went to find a girl. Su Xiao was curious before, how did Deidara know that there was a village nearby? It seemed that the girls of the Water Country were gentle and could hook up with Deidara.

There was only Su Xiao left in the hotel room. No, there was also Bobowang, two 'single dogs'.

Bobowang looked at Su Xiao, and his gaze was clearly: 'Master, aren't you going to find a girl?'

Su Xiao lit a cigarette and looked out of the window.

"If I find a female ninja, I will die miserably."

Su Xiao sometimes could not help but wonder if he was the legendary Heavenly Cursed Lone Star. People related to him would die, such as his parents in his two years, although one of them was fake.

Life and death had fate. Wealth and honor were heavens. Su Xiao did not think about this. He only needed to live well today. As for the future, everything was up to fate.

He took out a card the size of a bank card. The card was made of metal, and its surface was covered with red lines.

It was a scarlet card, a mage's scarlet card.

"This is more interesting than finding a girl. A chance to become stronger. What do you mean by that look in your eyes? My luck has been very good recently."

Bobowang rolled his eyes.

Chapter 538: So Fast

Su Xiao was looking forward to the scarlet card in his hand. He had paid attention to the skills released by the mage before. Just from the appearance, he could see that the strength of those spells was very high. Most of them flew out a few hundred meters before dissipating.

For opening the scarlet card, Su Xiao always had the mentality of buying lottery tickets. The randomness of this thing was too high. Every contractor's storage space carried a lot of daily necessities. He was already used to these things.

What broccoli, shampoo, corset, etc...

After the baptism of these items, no matter how strange the items in this scarlet card were, Su Xiao could calmly accept it, probably...

Choosing to open, the 'scarlet card' gradually dissolves and turns into a light red liquid. The liquid floats in the air and spins rapidly, forming a bloody vortex in front of Su Xiao. The top of the bloody vortex can reach into a hand. Stretching in, it was foggy inside.

After some groping, Su Xiao touched a square box. The square box had a smooth texture and was about 20 meters long.

Su Xiao felt that the value of this thing was not low. There was a confident smile on his face. He pulled out the blood-red vortex. The hint of the reincarnation paradise appeared.

Seeing the hint of the reincarnation paradise, the smile on Su Xiao's face retreated. He was stunned in place. The corner of his mouth was twitching.

"Oh... Ultraman."

As soon as Su Xiao finished speaking, Bobowang crossed his front paws and made the starting move of the wave of light. This idiot had seen Ultraman.

"Sure enough, you are a brat. What Ultraman is in the storage space?"

Su Xiao threw the disc box away, and Bobowang quickly picked it up as if it were a treasure.

"Woof."

Bobowang had a pleased expression on his face. He meant, 'Master, you are very good.'

"This thing is old. You can use it as an antique collection."

Although there was an 'opening of the red door', Su Xiao did not lose confidence and reached into the blood vortex again.

Su Xiao's hand was just about to reach into the vortex. After hesitating, he took out a cigarette and used fate to save the point.

Spitting out a light golden smoke, Su Xiao no longer had confidence. He used the European state to open the scarlet card. He originally wanted to save this opportunity. After all, Fate Redemption had five days of cool-down.

He reached into the blood vortex and searched. A long stick-shaped object appeared in his hand.

Su Xiao was stunned. Was this staff of the young mage?

Thinking of this, Su Xiao no longer hesitated and pulled his hand out of the blood vortex.

"Staff, your sister..."

Su Xiao threw the long stick-shaped object in his hand to the ground and made a crisp sound.

This was not staff. The sound of the staff hitting the ground was not so crisp, and this was a tent rack.

There was still one last chance. Bobowang came forward, and the gaze seemed to say: 'Master if you really can't do it, I will do it. You accept your fate. Luck is natural, just like the initial charm.'

Su Xiao pushed Bobowang aside, and he did not believe that he could not get a valuable item today.

This was the last chance to draw.

He casually grabbed an item and pulled it out. A dark purple light flashed in the room. In his hand was an iron box the size of a cigarette box. Its surface was silver and seamless.

[Origin: Rank 2 spatial battlefield - Rikyama Star]

[Rarity: Dark purple]

[Type: Single-Use Consumable]

[Effect: This item can fuse a piece of equipment with two materials, thereby increasing the quality of the equipment. After fusing, the equipment category will not change, and the attributes will greatly change.]

[Hint: The highest quality of the equipment that can be added is purple.]

[Hint: The highest quality of the materials that can be added is purple.]

[Note: Using this item requires' mechanical transformation skill: Lv.17 and above]

[Rating: 150]

[Description: This is Rikyama StarTechnology.]

[Price: 39,000 paradise coins.]

The iron box is in the hand of the clue.

Su Xiao understood the function of this thing after studying it.

He could choose a piece of equipment and two precious materials to merge the three. After the fusion, the category of the purple equipment would not change. For example, the equipment before the fusion was a sword, then, after the fusion, it would still be a sword, and there would be no situation of fusing a gun.

The first thing Su Xiao thought of was fusing 'Fate Redemption', but after seeing a sentence in the item introduction, he decisively gave up this idea.

After the fusion, the equipment category will not change, and the attributes will change greatly.

If the Fate Redemption were fused with other attributes, such as increasing strength and other attributes, he would lose a lot.

The risk was too high. Su Xiao decided to merge other equipment, so it was safer.

Now it was not possible to fuse with it. The prerequisite conditions of 'mechanical transformation skill level and above' made it difficult for him.

"mechanical transformation skill... I can only go back to the reincarnation paradise to find a mechanic."

He put it away. This thing might help him get dark purple equipment.

With the disappearance of the blood vortex, overall, the harvest was good. One dark purple item was much better than the situation when he opened the empty purple chest before.

Sitting on the bed and meditating, Su Xiao waited for Scorpion to return.

Ten minutes later, footsteps came. Su Xiao stopped meditating and looked at the door.

Deidara pushed the door open and entered, holding a bowl of oden in his hand.

"So fast?"

"Huh?"

Deidara looked at Su Xiao in confusion.

Su Xiao shook his head, indicating that it was nothing. There was only the sound of Deidara's chewing in the room. Su Xiao felt that Deidara seemed to be a little unhappy and helpless.

"You kid... won't be dumped, right?"

Deidara's hand froze, and the bamboo stick in his hand was broken with a crack.

"It seems that I guessed right."

Su Xiao no longer spoke, but Bobowang was in high spirits, and her small sparkling eyes seemed to say:

"Hey..."

Deidara sighed. His favorite food was tasteless.

"Hey ---"

Deidara sighed again. He seemed to be a little annoyed. Su Xiao looked at Deidara. Did this kid get cuckolded?

That's not right. If Deidara had been cuckolded, the village would have been razed.

"What? Did that woman find a new lover?"

Deidara nodded.

"We are not lovers. That is normal."

"Is that so? Looking at your downcast expression, are you seeing the other party's man?"

"No."

When Deidara said this, the corners of his eyes twitched.

"That is?"

"When I sneaked into her house, she was breastfeeding the child..."

Su Xiao coughed. The plot of this story was too big. He even had a child. He almost put the steering wheel in his hand on his neck. How long had it been since Deidara had seen that woman?

"You did not blow up this place. I am very surprised."

"This is normal. I have not seen her for two years. I have forgotten where she lives. If I did not go to the Water Nation to carry out a mission, maybe I would not meet her again."

Deidara seemed to be in a better mood, especially when he saw the blood on his sleeve.

Chapter 539: A Trap

"Gu, Gu, Gu ---"

The sound of birds came, and the two people in the room looked out the window.

Gu, gu, gu, gu ---

The bird's cry was even more urgent.

"Let's go."

Su Xiao opened the window, jumped out, and ran quickly to the forest not far away. Deidara followed closely behind.

Not long after entering the forest, Su Xiao heard a whisper.

"I won't say anything."

According to the source of the voice, Su Xiao found Scorpion.

Scorpion hid in the Hiruko, and a Mist Ninja was lying beside him.

The body of this Mist Ninja trembled slightly, and he could not do anything except talk in a low voice.

Scorpion did not sneak into the Mist Village. He was waiting around the Mist Village to capture the Mist Ninjas who were on a mission.

This superior Ninja was caught by Scorpion not long after he left the village. He was poisoned, and his whole body was paralyzed.

"What did you ask?"

Su Xiao picked up the superior Ninja lying on the ground and let him sit on a tree.

"Byakuya!"

The superior Ninja looked at Su Xiao in surprise.

"Do you recognize me?"

"I watched over you."

The superior Ninja glanced at Su Xiao faintly, and there was some disdain in his eyes.

"What's your name? Forget it. I'll call you Inutaro, a good name."

Su Xiao squatted in front of Inutaro, and Inutaro sneered.

"Whatever you call me, do whatever you want. Don't think of getting any information from me. I have been professionally trained."

Inutaro was very calm. After all, he was a superior Ninja and did not know how many lives he had experienced.

"You know how to interrogate?"

Su Xiao looked at Deidara and Scorpion. He was not very interested in interrogating this superior. The other side had a strong psychological defense and needed to use violence.

"I know a little. It is unlikely to ask anything."

Scorpion was not proficient in interrogation. He was proficient in making puppets.

"Don't look at me. My interrogation method is to cut off his limbs. It should be useless."

Deidara shrugged, indicating that he had no choice.

"Then I can only do it, although I don't like violent interrogation."

Su Xiao took out a dagger, and Inutaro was a little surprised.

"Just this? Are you looking down on me?"

Su Xiao stabbed the dagger into Inutaro's chest, and Inutaro just frowned.

"Your ability to endure pain is good, to prevent you from screaming later or to block your mouth first."

Su Xiao pulled a piece of rag from Inutaro's body to block his mouth. The green steel shadow energy covered the dagger and slowly invaded Inutaro's body.

"Woo!"

Inutaro's eyes widened in anger, and the whites of his eyes were filled with blood.

"Use the 'heart' to feel it. This pain will not disappear until the chakra is exhausted."

After more than ten seconds, Inutaro was already a pile of mud, his eyes were dull, and his tears and snot flowed out.

"Dead?"

Deidara kicked him, but there was no reaction.

Su Xiao grabbed one of his ears and cut it with a dagger, but he still did not respond.

Su Xiao threw away his ears and opened his closed eyes.

"His nervous system is about to collapse. He probably still can speak."

Su Xiao pulled out the broken cloth from the mouth of Inutaro, and it looked at him in a daze.

"Kill... Kill me."

The voice of Inutaro was dull and numb, and there were pleading and longing.

"Answer a few of my questions."

Inutaro turned his head and still refused to sell the Mist Village.

"You have a backbone."

Su Xiao used a dagger to cut off Inutaro's throat as he spoke, and his movements were neat.

The profit was not big, Su Xiao did not defeat this superior Ninja, and it was just a cheat, although he had some strength.

"I have no choice. Why don't we catch another one? I don't believe that the Mist Ninja's willpower is so firm."

"There is another Genin."

Scorpion flashed away,

Not long after, he returned with a tied up Genin on his iron tail.

"Genin..."

Su Xiao felt that there was not much hope. Genin knew too little information, but it was also good and easy to torture.

"Answer a few questions, and I will let you go."

That Genin nodded his head desperately, and by the side, Deidara pulled away from the rag in his Genin's mouth.

"Hu, hu ---, who are you..."

The Genin, who was lifted in the air, gasped for breath until he saw the body of the Genin.

"Teacher Akai."

The Genin swallowed hard, and his lips began to tremble.

"Is the quality of the Mist Ninjas so bad now?"

Deidara looked at Akai, who was almost scared to peeing and was surprised.

"How are the radical forces of the Mist Village now?"

Su Xiao asked about the information they wanted. As long as this information was confirmed, they would know what to do next.

"I won't..."

Bang.

Tita punched Genin in the abdomen. Su Xiao walked forward with a bloody dagger.

In the dark forest, surrounded by three villains in red clouds and a black windbreaker, this feeling could only be described as terrifying, not to mention a corpse nearby.

"Answer the question, and you have one chance."

The pressure of being surrounded by Su Xiao and the other three slayers was very strong, there was no need to interrogate at all, and the inner defense of Genin collapsed.

"I... I have never heard of any radical faction."

Genin was not lying, so Tita grabbed him by the neck.

"I'm not lying. I don't know what a radical faction is. Didn't you say you would let me go if you answered the question? Wait, wait."

Crack.

Deidara broke Genin's neck, and he believed the enemy's words. It seemed that Genin had just graduated.

"What should we do? Continue to catch?"

"Well, I'll go."

Scorpion controlled Hiruko to go away, and Su Xiao and Deidara waited in the same place.

A few hours later, clothes dragging on the ground came. This was the sound made by Hiruko. On average, scorpion would change into an Akatsuki uniform for half a month, and the consumption was serious.

Seeing the current Hiruko, Su Xiao raised his eyebrows.

"This is, catching a class?"

There was a string of Ninjas hanging on Hiruko, one superior Ninja, and three Genin.

This time, with Scorpion's interrogation, Scorpion's interrogation method was much more bloody.

After the death of three Genin, the Genin who was almost on the verge of collapse gave in, and not all the Genin was as courageous as Akai.

"Village... After the village peace, Mizukage began to annex the radical faction, and the three leaders of the radical faction disappeared mysteriously. There was no objection in the village, and the radical faction collapsed during this period. Now everyone listened to the fifth generation Mizukage, and there was no objection."

The Genin looked at the dagger in Su Xiao's hand as he spoke. Scorpion had tortured him to the point of becoming a human.

One cut to the throat. This time there was no origin of the world. Su Xiao only got 12 mana points.

There was no so-called radical faction. If this news was true, then this mission was a trap.

"Things are getting more and more complicated. This is beyond the scope of the mission. I don't agree to continue this mission."

Deidara was the first to express his opinion.

"Agreed."

"Seconded."

Although Su Xiao had a grudge against her, he did not want to be used as a gun.

"I will contact the leader."

Scorpion formed a seal with both hands and used the Illusion Light Body. Su Xiao and Deidara waited.

Of the three people in the team, Nagato trusted Scorpion the most. Xiao Nan conveyed every mission detail to Scorpion. If there was an accident in the mission, Scorpion contacted Nagato.

Chapter 540: Stan

Scorpion contacted Nagato. Su Xiao waited for more than ten minutes before Scorpion spoke.

"There is no need to continue this task."

The task that the three had been running around for a few days suddenly stopped. Considering the type of entrustment that the organization accepted, although this situation was not much, it had appeared before.

"Reason."

This kind of sudden removal of the mission was very rare, so Deidara had to ask for the reason.

"The leader tried to contact the client, but the client disappeared without leaving any trace. He was responsible for handling this matter."

The two mentioned by the scorpion were Black Zetsu and White Zetsu, and now they were one.

"Then can we move freely now?"

Su Xiao was ready to go to the Mist Village to get out of trouble and greet Mei Terumi.

"No, we are going to the Sand Village."

"Sand Village?"

Su Xiao's heart beat faster, and he immediately stabilized his mood so as not to be seen by the two people.

"Find a safe place; the leader is looking for the three of us."

The mission of the Mist Village suddenly stopped, and Su Xiao smelled a conspiracy.

Although he could not make a big scene in the Mist Village, which disappointed Su Xiao, the upcoming mission made him look forward to it.

He had already participated in two tasks, and his performance in the two tasks was very good, and he found that the task was wrong the second time in advance. With Scorpion's character, he would tell Nagato that Su Xiao found the task was wrong.

Assassinate the Daimyo of the country of the river, going to the country of the water to start a civil war. These two tasks made Su Xiao offend nearly half of the big forces of the Naruto world.

What could he get at the same time? Now Su Xiao had gained the preliminary trust of the Akatsuki organization.

Of course, Scorpion and Deidara would also monitor Su Xiao in the follow-up tasks, but this did not affect his follow-up plan.

The three people left the Mist Village. After all, they killed two of the Mist Village Shinobu, and the Mist Ninjas would soon find out.

Killing two Shinobus made Su Xiao find one thing. In the case of the plot characters helping to fight, the chance of obtaining the treasure chest would shrink greatly. Not only the treasure chest, but the number of the source of the world would also shrink, such as the name of the country of the river that he killed before.

After finding a secret hole, Deidara beats a bear in the hole to suspect Xiong Sheng, and the three people use the illusion light body technique.

It was still the last gathering place, and the Heavenly Payne was waiting.

"The mission of the country of water is hard."

After all, the three of them had made a wasted trip.

"What mission is the Sand Village? Attacking the Sand Village?"

As Deidara spoke, he looked at the phantom of Scorpion. Scorpion came from the Sand Village.

"Have you investigated what I asked you to investigate?"

Heavenly Path did not answer Deidara's words but asked a question instead.

"Yes, the one who guarded the crane is called me Airo, the current fifth-generation Wind Shadow."

"Very good. Your mission is to capture him alive. You must capture him alive."

Although Su Xiao did not speak, the excitement in his heart was indescribable.

It was finally about to begin. He joined the Akatsuki organization to carry out missions worldwide and even offended two big forces, all for the sake of capturing Pillar Strength.

"Looks like it's about to begin, en."

Deidara was eager to try. He had only heard of Pillar Strength and had never fought with Pillar Strength.

"Scorpion, this mission..."

Deidara looked at Scorpion expressionlessly. Scorpion had a deep relationship with the Sand Village. If he had not been sentenced to the Sand Village, Scorpion would have fought for the position of Wind Shadow.

You have to know that Scorpion is the grandson of the Sand Village's Elder Chiyo. Chiyo's position in the Sand Village is only below Wind Shadow. If Chiyo had helped Scorpion take the position, my father would have already died, and I, Airo, hated by others, would have no chance at all.

In addition to Scorpion's strength and his parents dying for the Sand Village, his chances of becoming Wind Shadow were very high.

Unfortunately, Scorpion's parents died when he was young, making him deeply excited. From then on,

Scorpion began to study how to obtain eternal life and transform the puppet into existence with life and consciousness.

The reason why Nagato had Scorpion capture a tail was because Scorpion was familiar with the Sand Village. This was an advantage.

"No problem, I have spies in the Sand Village."

Heavenly Path nodded, and the meeting ended.

...

In the underground cave, the three of them opened their eyes.

"Are you kidding? We have to hurry again."

Deidara made a clay bird, and the three of them rode it and disappeared into the night, crossing the sea to travel to the Wind Kingdom.

Su Xiao is going to catch a bunch of people...

...

Within the country of fire...

In a temporary camp,

Not long after this camp was set up, there were more than a hundred tents in the camp. The pedestrians in the tents were dressed in different clothes. They sat together in groups. Some of them were drinking and chatting while others were playing Landlord. These were all contractors.

A bare-chested strong man was sitting inside the tent in the large tent at the center of the camp. His body was covered in scars, and there was a half-naked woman leaning on his chest. The woman's eyes were watery, and there was a strange smell in the tent. What the two had just done was self-evident.

"Boss."

A man in a black robe rushed into the tent. The man's face was hidden in the hood, and his eyes were like two green ghost flames.

"What is it?"

Suddenly, some people broke into the tent. The strong man in the tent was a little angry, but when he saw the person, he pushed away the woman leaning on him and seemed to push away a doll that had been played with enough.

"Stan, can you change this habit of yours? Do you think this is big security? You are taking public food!"

The spring water in the woman's eyes disappeared. Although she looked beautiful, the aura of a fierce woman came to his face. The strong man Stan pretended to be calm.

The famous leader of the Blood Gate adventure group had a secret he was afraid of his wife.

This can't be blamed on Stan. Anyone who has such a wife will be afraid. His wife is a woman who can tear down Gundam with her bare hands. She is extremely violent.

"Hello, sister-in-law."

The man with the Ghostly Fire Eyes quickly greeted.

"Ghost Eye, if there is nothing important, then..."

Stan's wife, Ying Lan, stared at Ghost Eye. Her gaze was clear that if there were nothing else, this old mother would tear you apart.

Ghost Eye swallowed his saliva and looked at Stan for help.

"Has the sky turned upside down?"

Stan looked at Ying Lan. Ying Lan lowered her head and the aura from before dissipating.

In front of outsiders, Ying Lan gave Stan a lot of faces. Stan said one and one. Only when no one would she be a little fierce to Stan.

The Blood Gate adventure group members were very afraid of this sister-in-law. If someone betrayed the adventure group, it must be Ying Lan who took action to clean up the door.

"What is it?"

Stan put on a coat and habitually touched the scar on his face. This was the scar left by someone before he entered the reincarnation paradise. This scar spread from the bottom of his eyes to the neck.

"The Water Country failed. It disappeared into the sea."

"Failed? Did the Akatsuki discover it?"

Stan stood up. He was a little afraid of someone in the organization, the monster that could single-handedly fight Konoha.

"It's impossible to find it. We set up many layers of insurance. Otherwise, we would not have come into contact with the Akatsuki."

After listening to Ghost Eye's words, Stan nodded.

"It's fine if it fails, but I still plan to go to the Water Country to get some money. There's no value in going there if it's not chaotic."

Stan did not intend to stay in the Fire Country. There were too many contractors here. The three large adventurer groups were disgusted with each other, and no one benefited from it. He was ready to withdraw from the Fire Country. As for Gulu, he had already stopped thinking about it. It was too difficult to find him.

"Have you investigated the contractor who joined the Akatsuki organization?"

"No."

Ghost Eye lowered his head.

"What about Zimo?"

"Also... we haven't found out who did it."

Cold sweat oozed out from the corner of Ghost Eye's forehead, and the pressure fell on his shoulder.

Ghost Eye raised his head in horror, and his body shook. At this moment, Stan's eyes turned golden, shining with golden light.

"Stan, calm down, don't kill your subordinates."

Ying Lan lightly pushed Stan's back.

"Ghost Eye, you go out."

"Yes, yes."

Ghost Eye seemed to flee out of the tent, and the look in his eyes was a little strange.

"Calm down, Stan."

"I am very calm. Ying, you go and get rid of Ghost Eye."

"Why..."

"Kill him."

"Yes."

Ying Lan no longer asked, got up and walked out of the tent, leaving only Stan in the tent.

Ghost Eye, I once said that no matter how many benefits others give you, I will give you three times. What benefits does the God-King give you that can make you betray me silently?

Crack! The space around Stan cracked, and a golden light faintly emerged from the crack.

Stan, the leader of the Blood Gate Adventurer Group, once fought with the second leader of the adventurous group, cut off the arms and legs of the second person, and led the adventurous group by force.

If the God-King led the adventurous group by the heart, then Stan was the complete opposite. He did not care what his subordinates thought, killing whoever he did not hear.
