Chapter 571: My Stupid Brother

"Who will win? Of course, it's Itachi."

White Zetsu answered without thinking. This guy's IQ was at the bottom among the few of them.

"Heh ---That's not certain."

Black Zetsu's voice was different from White Zetsu's. It was low and hoarse.

"Byakuya, who do you think is better?"

At this time, Obito did not disguise his voice, and both Black and White Zetsu knew his identity. Before disguising his identity, to a large extent, it was to guard against Itachi.

The identity of Itachi was known to both Nagato and Obito. On the night of the clan's extermination, Obito acted together with Itachi. In Akatsuki, Nagato also used corresponding means to form a team with Hoshigaki that Zetsu would not betray.

Although Itachi directed the action of the Itachi team, the person Nagato truly trusted was Hoshigaki. To be exact, in the Akatsuki organization, other than Konan, Nagato trusted Hoshigaki the most.

"Who are you looking at?"

Su Xiao held the tablet in his hand and looked sideways at Obito.

"Uchiha... Sasuke."

"Oh? His strength is below that of Itachi..."

"Why don't we make a bet? If Uchiha Sasuke wins, Itachi's eyes will belong to me."

Obito no longer spoke. He had already set his eyes on Itachi, which was related to a grand plan.

"It seems that Byakuya thinks highly of Sasuke, and I think more of Itachi."

Sasuke and Itachi fought in the underground stronghold, and Zetsu could see the situation inside through his avatar.

"How is the situation inside?"

Obito opened his mouth. It was very dangerous to enter the stronghold now. It was not because he feared being affected by the battle between the two brothers but because he feared that Itachi would drag him down with him before he died.

"The two brothers are competing in illusion techniques. Itachi's condition is a bit wrong. It's a draw..."

Zetsu was a bit speechless. Itachi and Sasuke's illusion techniques were a draw. What kind of nonsense was this?

"The outcome should be decided soon."

As soon as Obito finished speaking, there was a roar in the distance. The roof of the underground stronghold was broken, and smoke and dust rose, and Itachi flew out from the smoke and dust.

Itachi, in the air, quickly made a series of hand seals, and without any movement, the flames shot out from his mouth to form a large fireball.

The flames burned the big hole in the roof, and a moment later, Sasuke appeared on the circular roof.

At the moment, Sasuke was topless, with a huge fleshy wing on his back shoulder, and his face was full of black lines. This was Orochimaru's curse seal.

"Finally out."

Su Xiao grabbed a handful of fried rice flowers from Bobowang, and Bobowang, who had been waiting for a long time, concentrated on watching the play.

The two brothers in the battle began to shoot fireballs at each other, and the fire spread high.

One of the eyes of the Meerkat was closed. When the eye opened, blood flowed out of the eye sockets. The black flame appeared. It was Amaterasu.

The black flame of Amaterasu attached to the fireball that Sasuke spat out and began to burn flames.

After a moment, the fireball of Sasuke burned away, and the right eye of Itachi widened. With the sight as the focus, the flames of Amaterasu began to chase Sasuke.

Seeing this, Su Xiao lost interest and continued playing the puzzle game.

With the current method of fighting, even if Sasuke did not kill him in less than half an hour, he would exhaust himself to death.

The black flames lit up most of the battlefield and did not affect Su Xiao, so he did not pay attention to it.

"Itachi won."

When Zetsu saw Sasuke being burned by the flames of Amaterasu, he had already determined the outcome of the two people in his heart.

Su Xiao did not look up. Now Itachi was not fighting with Sasuke but forcing someone out.

"Oh? Orochimaru's substitute stream? Sasuke even learned this move. Did he swallow Orochimaru?"

"No, Orochimaru is hiding in his body."

Obito saw the situation on the field.

"So that's how it is. The outcome between the two people is uncertain. Maybe the final winner is Orochimaru."

Zetsu turned into a commentator. Bobowang ate the fried rice flower and drank a mouthful of coke from time to time. There was also Zetsu explaining on the side. It could only be described as pleasant.

Su Xiao concentrated on holding the tablet computer. Just as he was about to open a door, a drop of rain fell on the screen. There was a mistake in the operation. The beasts almost caught up with the characters in the game.

The drizzle fell. Su Xiao was a little puzzled. A few minutes ago, it was still clear.

When he looked up at the sky, he knew what was happening.

The sky was covered in dark clouds, and blue lightning flashed within the dark clouds.

This is.....

This time, it was Black Zetsu who acted as the commentator.

"Our place... won't be affected, right?"

White Zetsu was a little worried.

"It's fine."

Black Zetsu looked at Su Xiao and Obito. As long as these two guys were here, the battle would not affect here. Even if it affected them, it would not be a problem.

A unicorn made of lightning was looming in the dark clouds. Su Xiao stared at the thunder unicorn. If this thing hit him, the energy shield with 400 points of strength would be able to defend.

Boom!

The thunder qilin rushed down, and the battlefield was white.

With a hiss, the tablet in Su Xiao's hand flashed an arc, and black smoke emerged.

After the lightning dissipated, Itachi, fighting with Sasuke, was lying on the ground. Sasuke staggered a few steps and almost fell. The chakra in his body was almost exhausted, and he could no longer use any Ninjutsu.

Su Xiao held the tablet computer in his hand, and black smoke was still coming from it. The fried rice flower in Bobowang's mouth fell, and he subconsciously took a few steps back.

"I passed the puzzle game of 796!"

Su Xiao was not distressed about the tablet computer. Although this thing was high-tech, the price was only 150 paradise coins. He had already played half of the decryption game in heartache for a long time.

"Bastard, I will kill you."

Su Xiao stood up, and the nearby Obito was shocked.

"Byakuya, you are..."

Obito didn't know what had happened.

Calm down, Byakuya, don't forget the cells in the Pillar. This battle is also a part of our deal.

White Zetsu also opened his mouth to persuade him. He saw that Su Xiao was going to kill Sasuke.

Su Xiao lit a cigarette and took a deep breath.

"Forget it. Who let me watch the battle here."

The gloomy sky quickly cleared up, and Su Xiao was in a better mood. He looked at the battlefield. Itachi slowly stood up on the ground, his arms were covered with burns, and his eyes looked at the location of Su Xiao and others, intentionally or unintentionally.

"These people..."

Itachi sighed. He was like a candle in the wind and could not deal with those people. Those three people were either extremely strong in swordsmanship or in survival. They were not easy to deal with.

Looking at Sasuke, Itachi felt that there was not much chakra in Sasuke's body, and a cold and cold chakra gradually appeared in his body.

"Ah!!"

Sasuke knelt on one knee, and the curse seal on his neck felt intense pain.

The seal was raised, and Sasuke knew the situation was not good. Orochimaru came out and was about to devour him.

Eight giant white snakes rushed out of the seal. Sasuke almost fainted, and his saliva flowed out.

Seeing this scene, Su Xiao stood up in the distance.

Itachi's eyes were closed. When the eyes opened, pale red energy appeared around him.

The pale red energy quickly formed a huge phantom, enveloping Itachi. This was the unique ability of Mangekyo Sharingan, Susanoo.

Itachi's Susanoo could not be underestimated, its left hand had an 8-foot mirror defense, and its right hand had 10 fist sword seal.

These were the two 'god weapons' of the Naruto world. The two had one thing in common: they aimed at the soul.

At this time, Orochimaru's Octahead Technique belonged to the soul form, so one could imagine the consequences of facing these two god weapons.

Chapter 572: Death of a Snake

Seven of the eight-headed spell's eight snakeheads were cut off in less than ten seconds, leaving only one snake head.

Only the white snakehead was left, its mouth wide open, and a figure crawled out of the snake's mouth. It was a naked Orochimaru.

Orochimaru was lying in the snake's mouth, covered in saliva, and as soon as he appeared, he let out a sinister laugh. His mouth was also wide open, and he spat out a sword.

"This guy likes to spit things out of his mouth as always. How disgusting."

White Zetsu frowned as if he was disgusted by Orochimaru.

"The thing that should appear has finally appeared."

Itachi, wrapped in Susanoo, had a smile on his face. He didn't talk nonsense with Orochimaru and directly stabbed Orochimaru with his sword.

Puchi.

Blood splattered everywhere. Orochimaru was stabbed in the chest by the Ten Punches Sword, but he didn't care.

"This level of the attack wants... what!"

The smile on Orochimaru's face froze. As the Ten Punches Sword retracted into the hilt, his soul was gradually sucked into the Ten Punches Sword.

Twenty seconds after Orochimaru appeared, Guan Rong was sealed by the Ten Punches Sword.

If someone paid attention to the scene when the seal was sealed, they would find that Orochimaru was not sealed. Before the seal was sealed, the Alabaster Devil snake split into a small white snake. The small white snake was hidden in the gravel, which was Orochimaru, who had escaped the disaster.

Orochimaru was extremely weak at this time, and even Jonin could easily kill him.

After the Itachi seal, Orochimaru began to vomit blood. Although Sasuke did not have many chakras left, his body was very different. The Orochimaru in his body was stripped away, and the curse seal was stripped away. It could be said that the current Sasuke had nothing to do with Orochimaru. He had trained Sasuke for three years, and Sasuke obtained all the benefits.

After Itachi spat out a few mouthfuls of blood, the Susanoo was somewhat unable to maintain itself, leaving only a skeleton.

Itachi with Susanoo slowly approached the second pillar. The second pillar did not panic. He rushed forward with his sword.

However, the second pillar was not Su Xiao. He could not fight against Itachi with just a sword. He jumped up and stabbed Susanoo. As expected, he did not even break the defense of Susanoo and was directly bounced out.

A grasshopper sword was inserted into the ground. Sasuke rolled on the ground a few times and finally hit a broken wall.

When Sasuke stood up, Itachi had already walked to him. He stretched out three fingers full of blood and gestured to dig his eyes.

Pillar Two's legs trembled at this moment, and his eyes widened. He was afraid.

Itachi narrowed his eyes, and a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. His life force was getting weaker and weaker, almost reaching the edge of death.

Itachi opened his mouth as if he had said something, but Sasuke did not hear it.

Itachi's two fingers pointed at Sasuke's forehead, and the pair of Ten Thousand Flower Blood Wheel Eyes spun around, consuming a lot of chakras.

The Susanoo suddenly dissipated. The body of Itachi leaned forward, and its forehead hit the broken wall near Sasuke. With a muffled bang, the body of Itachi slowly slid to the ground.

Sasuke stood in the same place in a daze. He seemed to have heard what Itachi had said before he died, but he did not seem to have heard it.

"Forgive me, Sasuke. This is the last time."

This was what Itachi had said before he died. Sasuke did not dare to believe that Itachi would say such words, so he suspected that he had heard wrong.

"The battle between the two brothers is over. It's time for us to go on stage."

Su Xiao jumped down from the tree and walked to the battlefield.

At this moment, Sasuke had also reached his limit. He vaguely saw someone walking towards him. Before seeing the person's appearance clearly, he fell to the ground in the darkness in front of him. He vaguely heard the conversation between the two people.

"I will deal with Itachi's corpse. Sasuke will take it with me."

"Sure, I'll take that snake with me."

"Oh? It looks like Orochimaru is going to fall in your hands."

"I want to get some information from him. It's very difficult to kill him. Even if I kill this snake, Orochimaru won't die so easily."

"That makes sense..."

Before Sasuke was completely unconscious, he vaguely felt he was being carried up.

He carried Sasuke on his shoulder and pressed one hand on the back of Itachi's corpse.

"If everything goes well, Sasuke will be our new member."

After we meet at the appointed location, I will tell this kid the truth. Don't you want to see his expression together?

"Not interested."

The space near Obito rotated, and he disappeared in place.

Su Xiao held a glass test tube dozens of centimeters long with a white snake.

"Orochimaru, let's talk."

Su Xiao looked at the white snake in the test tube. This white snake had the soul of Orochimaru in its body.

The white snake thought for a moment; its head became bigger and spoke the human language.

"Yes, but don't think you can threaten me."

It was Orochimaru's voice.

The battle between Itachi and Sasuke ended. Under the water of Weasel, Sasuke won as expected.

Orochimaru was in Su Xiao's hands and was an unexpected harvest. Even if he killed this white snake, Orochimaru, he would not die, but if the white snake were killed, it would take some time for Orochimaru to revive.

Taking Bobowang away from the battlefield, Su Xiao found a laboratory according to Orochimaru's guidance.

In the laboratory, Su Xiao sat on a wooden chair and put the test tube on the experimental table. Bobowang's novel 'Rare Creature' in the test tube.

"What do you want?"

Orochimaru's voice was low, and his eyes were a little discouraged. No matter how stupid he was, he knew Itachi had laid down this trap. Moreover, Orochimaru was not stupid.

Whether it was using the blood eye to kill him or him abducting Sasuke and nurturing him, this was a trap laid down by Itachi.

At first, Itachi entrusted Sasuke to the 3rd generation, but Orochimaru killed the 3rd generation, and the 3rd generation just died. Itachi immediately appeared in Konoha, which was a warning to Danzo. He was not dead yet, and if he dared to touch his brother, he would not have a good ending.

This was a delaying tactic for Itachi. He knew that Danzo was greedy for the power of the Uchiha clan. He could suppress Danzo for a while, but he could not suppress Danzo forever.

Moreover, Sasuke did not have a good teacher in Konoha. Originally, the agreement between Itachi and the 3rd generation was that after Sasuke reached a certain age and the 3rd generation had surrendered, he would be accepted as a disciple by the 3rd generation.

The 3rd's generation temperament and teaching ability were trustworthy, and the 3rd generation was the best example. But after the 3rd generation died, only Kakashi could teach Sasuke.

How strong was Kakashi? He knew that maybe he could raise Sasuke as a superior Ninja, and he couldn't be a Shadow Rank Zetsu.

Therefore, Itachi took out an emergency plan in advance, Orochimaru.

As one of the 3 Ninjas, Orochimaru was a top teacher, and even Itachi could not compare to his teaching ability.

How could he guarantee that Orochimaru would wholeheartedly teach Sasuke and not make strange modifications to him? The identity of the new container was completely sufficient.

If Orochimaru raised Sasuke as a new container, the meaning would be different. Who would be stingy with their own body in the future? Therefore, Sasuke received countless precious resources.

Thinking of this, Orochimaru spat out his snake tongue, his angry snake eyes almost spitting fire.

"Damn, Itachi! You used me!"

After a long time, Orochimaru calmed down. His will was not so easily shaken.

In the Naruto world, some believed in ninjutsu, some believed in taijutsu, some in Senjutsu and Orochimaru, and the others were powerful. He believed in science!

"Itachi died, died after completing all his goals. There was no chance, even if you wanted to find him for revenge. If you lost, you lost."

Su Xiao was clear about the IQ of Itachi, so he did not participate in the plan. He only had simple contact with Itachi and only appeared in the final battle to avoid being used.

"Yes, defeat is defeat. There is no excuse. By the way, Byakuya, what are you looking for me for?"

The topic came, and Su Xiao looked at Orochimaru.

"I want information about the cells of the Pillar, how to get rid of the wood element in the cells of the Pillar cells."

"The cells of the Pillar? Hehe, it turns out that you have your eyes on this. It is nothing to tell you. It is very simple to get rid of the wood element..."

Su Xiao waved his hand.

"It is not the cells after the death of the cylinder, but the cells in the original cylinder in your information."

"What, you got that thing? That is just a concept."

"Yes, I got it."

The laboratory fell into silence.

"It is difficult to remove the wood element in the cells of the primitive column, but it is not impossible. You have to promise me one condition."

"What condition? Help you resurrect?"

"No, on the contrary, it is said that I am dead. The plan of the Akatsuki should be about to begin. How many tailed beasts did you catch?"

Su Xiao hesitated momentarily and wrote a number 7 on the experimental platform.

"So much? Then I should 'die.' No one will pay attention to me if I die. I want to be the final winner. This is the best way, Itachi. I won't lose this game again."

After Orochimaru gave an address, the white snake exploded, and flesh and blood filled the test tube.

Kabuto had inherited a lot of things from Orochimaru and became his best vessel. Training Kabuto was the wisest choice for Orochimaru.

Chapter 573: No.1 Potion

Three days later, in an underground laboratory in the forest around the Muye Village.

Su Xiao had stayed in this laboratory for about two days. There were a lot of test tubes, beakers, and information on the test table in front of him.

Orochimaru provided the location of this laboratory. In return, Su Xiao declared that Orochimaru was dead.

To be exact, Orochimaru was dead in a sense, but he could be resurrected. This great scientist had a resurrection function. Unless he killed all the holders of the curse, Orochimaru would not die.

In the laboratory.

"The cells in the column have this ability..."

Su Xiao shook the test tube in his hand. A light green solution gradually changed color from light green to light yellow.

He raised his eyebrows. If the solution in the test tube turned yellow, the wood element of the cells in the tube was completely removed.

Just when Su Xiao thought he would succeed, the solution that had become light yellow gradually returned to light green. A few small saplings grew crazily in the solution and broke the test tube with a click.

Failed.

Su Xiao took the diary to the side and recorded a line of words.

Throwing down the pen in his hand, Su Xiao leaned on the chair.

What is the reason? What is the wood style? What is the specific structure? Is it just a combination of water attribute chakra and earth attribute chakra? It is impossible for Zetsu.

Many ninjas mastered water and earth attribute changes, but there had never been a wood-style user among these people.

After some research, Su Xiao had some understanding of wood style. Using wood style was nothing more than a few processes. The nature of the earth and water chakra changed to Su Xiao directly ignored the nature change. There was no need to study this aspect. As for changing the chakra into a 'life source,' he directly ignored it. It was too difficult. There was nothing to study without more than a decade.

Su Xiao felt the problem came from the cells' powerful 'life source.' If he wanted to remove the wood element in the cells, he also had to remove the 'life source.'

But if there was no 'life source,' the cells in the column were useless, except for being corrosive. There were no other advantages.

After thinking about it, Su Xiao concluded that he was unsuitable for scientific research. It was better to practice swordsmanship, honestly. That was where his talent was.

"Since it can't be completely analyzed, it will be simplified!"

Su Xiao chose to take out the wood element in the cells of the column cells as much as possible, diluting the column cells and finally adding it into the alchemy potion, getting stronger potions from it.

As long as the wood element in the alchemy potion was not too much, after drinking the new potion, the green steel shadow energy in Su Xiao's body could destroy the wood element, and it would not have any effect.

In this way, the new version of the alchemy potion became Su Xiao's exclusive recovery potion, others could not use it, and if he rashly used it, not to mention recovering his injuries, it was lucky that he did not die.

Thinking of this, a smile appeared on Su Xiao's face. He took out some powder from the Philosopher's Stone. This was his last inventory. He could only make one bottle of the materials needed to replace the special potion.

There was only one chance. If he failed this time, Su Xiao could only wait until he returned to the reincarnation paradise to have a chance to experiment.

The red light on the Philosopher's Stone flashed. Su Xiao took an empty test tube and consumed 300 mana values to catalyze the materials. The light in his hand flashed.

A moment later, Su Xiao took a bottle of pale green solution and added it to the special-level potion that was about to be finished.

Oh ---

A string of bubbles appeared in the semi-finished alchemy secret medicine. Su Xiao tried to stabilize the structure inside and added a few more materials.

To stabilize the structure of the medicine, Su Xiao consumed 100 more mana values.

Ten minutes later, Su Xiao's forehead was covered with sweat.

Holding a bottle of emerald green medicine in his hand, he succeeded.

[unnamed]

[Origin: Shadow Ninja]

[Quality: Purple]

[Type: Recovery]

[Effect: After drinking it, it can quickly recover 85 HP and continuously recover HP within the next 30 seconds. 2 HP per second, recovers to a certain degree of internal injuries.]

[Note: The potion contains untreated cells. After drinking it, there is a certain risk of modification.]

[Rating 109]

Introduction: The product of alchemy, a semi-finished product, is waiting to be improved.

...

Success. Su Xiao clenched his fist. He was inevitably excited. This potion combined his knowledge of pharmaceuticals, Orochimaru's research results, and the first-generation cells. It was not surprising that it had such a strong effect.

Because this potion was made by Su Xiao alone, he had the right to name this potion.

After hesitating for a moment, Su Xiao named the potion [1 Potion], which was simple and easy to understand and represented that [1 Potion] would continue to be improved in the future.

Putting away [1 Potion], Su Xiao was not worried about the material of [1 Potion].

He had consulted the reincarnation paradise, the cells in the original column could not be copied, but the diluted solution he made with the cells of the column could be copied with paradise coins, but the cost was slightly higher.

[1 Potion] could not be sold to the outside, not because it could not be sold, but because no one dared to try this unstable experimental potion, only Su Xiao dared. This was the item he made, the composition and nature of it were clear to him, and it was his exclusive recovery potion.

He stretched, and a few crisp sounds came. He had been studying without sleep for two days. It was time to rest.

He found a relatively clean room in the laboratory. After arranging the air guards, Su Xiao began to sleep deeply.

...

At the same time, in the Root Organization's headquarters in the underground of Konoha.

An older man was sitting on a stone chair. There were two scars on the older man's lower jaw. His head was wrapped in bandages, which covered his right eye.

"Feng, how was your search?"

The older man's voice was low as if he had merged with the darkness.

With a whoosh, a figure appeared not far from the older man and knelt on one knee.

"Danzo san, we have found him. He has entered an underground laboratory and has not appeared for two days."

"Two days? To be able to find a laboratory near Konoha means that he has connections with Orochimaru."

Danzo, who was in the darkness, was expressionless as if he was thinking about something.

"I heard that Itachi is dead?"

"Yes."

"Died in the hands of Uchiha Madara?"

"Yes."

From this question and answer, one could see the root style. There was no extra nonsense. Whatever Danzo asked, his subordinates would answer.

"Uchiha Sasuke can kill Uchiha Itachi, this is ridiculous."

Danzo gave a rare sneer.

"The two brothers have already decided life and death, so Eternal Mangekyo Sharingan will soon appear."

Danzo no longer spoke, and the wind already understood what Danzo meant.

"Do we do it now? Danzo san?"

"No, the time is not up yet. Let's see the customer first. After that person appeared, I felt a special aura appear."

Danzo looked at his right arm. His right arm was full of column cells, so he understood the purer column cells. This was the reason why Danzo could find Su Xiao.

Chapter 574: The Chase of Muye

In the laboratory, Su Xiao, who was sleeping soundly, suddenly opened his eyes. After sitting up, he took out a watch to check the time.

"I have slept for six hours. How did this village cadre find my whereabouts, the reason for the big snake pill?"

Shaking his head, Su Xiao pushed Bobowang aside.

"Get up, and the enemy has arrived."

"Puppet ---"

Bobowang's claws moved, his eyes did not open, and he continued to sleep.

Su Xiao took out something from the storage space, opened Bobowang's mouth, and stuffed it.

Three seconds later.

"Ow!!"

After a scream, Bobowang was refreshed, and he was not sleepy at all. His tongue stretched out for a long time, and he rolled his eyes.

A small piece of chili fell out of Bobowang's mouth. It was a piece of devil pepper, and Bobowang was about to cry from the spiciness.

Bobowang looked at Su Xiao, and his big eyes with tears seemed to say: Master, how can you do this to the sleeping Bobo? It's so spicy.

"The enemy is here. Still sleeping."

Bobowang retracted his tongue and listened to the nearby voice.

"Woof."

Bobowang called, meaning that the enemy was approaching from the left.

"It's not good."

Su Xiao walked out of the laboratory. Bobowang followed behind and disappeared as he walked...

Bobowang was not invisible but activated the divine skill 'You can't see me 'to disguise. In short, Su Xiao really couldn't see this idiot.

Su Xiao walked out of the underground laboratory. He did not know why Orochimaru always liked to build the laboratory underground.

An older man stood not far from the laboratory's entrance, holding a wooden cane.

"Members of Akatsuki."

Danzo always looked like his eyes were closed, and his face was expressionless, giving people a gloomy feeling.

"What's the matter?"

Su Xiao looked at Danzo and looked around. There were at least a dozen members hiding around him.

Through the original work, Su Xiao had a preliminary understanding of Danzo. Although this guy's last words were very provocative, the essence of a politician could not be changed.

Danzo was like a double-edged sword, if used well, he could kill the enemy, and if he did not care, he would suffer a backlash, and he was keen on power.

The only ones who could suppress Danzo were the 2nd and 3rd. During the 3rd's reign, outside of the 3rd, Danzo was doing some shady things.

But with the death of the 3rd, the leader, the poisonous snake in the darkness, exposed its true nature. If Su Xiao were the leader of Konoha, on the day of the 3rd's death, no matter what price he had to pay, Danzo would be buried with him. Otherwise, there would be endless troubles in the future.

As Danzo's childhood playmate and rival, Danzo could do things for the 3rd, only occasionally doing some small things.

Others couldn't be the Hokage, who would be killed and replaced by the Hokage.

Although he failed all the way to become a village cadre, it had to be said that his brother Danzo was still very stable.

If he could not become the 4th Hokage, he would find a way to become the 5th; if the 5th could not, he would find a way to become the 6th, a poisonous snake hidden in the ground. This description was very suitable for Danzo.

"The members of the Akatsuki appeared near Konoha, and I can see this as a threat."

Danzo's tone was neither fast nor slow, and there was a hint of killing intent in his narrowed eyes.

"Whatever you think."

Su Xiao pulled out the dragon flash on his waist. Today's matter could not be settled. He had a feeling that Danzo was staring at him. The specific reason was unknown.

The dragon flashed out of the sheath, and the bright light reflected on Danzo's single eye.

"Hand over the first cells and research results of your body, and we will spare your life. This is something belonging to Konoha."

Hearing Danzo's words, Su Xiao was stunned and turned to understand what was happening. He looked at Danzo's right arm.

The other side had transplanted the cells of the column in his body. He had used the cells of the original column to experiment before and was perceived by this snake. With the activity of the cells in the column, this was not impossible.

This was something Su Xiao never expected.

It was not a big problem. Only a dozen people were dispatched at the root. With Danzo, Su Xiao was not a match, but it was difficult for these people to keep Su Xiao.

Under the suppression of the 5th Hokage, Danzo did not dare to make too big a move, only bringing out a dozen people.

Su Xiao stepped on the ground and rushed to Danzo.

Danzo's pupils shrank. He had heard a little about Su Xiao's melee ability.

Two figures stood before Danzo, the root of the mountain wind, and Shino.

Just as both of them were ready to fight Su Xiao, Su Xiao, who was rushing forward, suddenly stopped and raised his left arm.

Zi ---

The metal wire retracting sounded, and an invisible silk thread was tied to the tree trunk in the distance, pulling Su Xiao to retreat quickly.

"Master Danzo."

Yamanaka looked at Danzo, indicating whether he should pursue him or not.

Danzo hesitated for a moment, then loosened his wooden cane and removed his right arm from his clothes.

"Hold him back and help me buy time. You must get the cells of the Pillar."

"Yes."

Yamanaka and Shino took root and chased after Su Xiao, and those roots are hidden in the forest also chased after him.

Danzo's right arm was wrapped in bandages. Not only that, there were three shackles on his arm, which were used to suppress the activity of the first-generation cells. The cells of the first generation of Hashirama helped Danzo transplant were not perfect. If he had used this arm for a long time, Danzo would have been eroded by the cells of the pillar.

Because of this, he found that Su Xiao appeared nearby with the cells of the pillar. After confirming Su Xiao's location, Danzo immediately came to him.

I have studied Hashirama, but unfortunately, geniuses like Orochimaru are rare, and his subordinates did not find anything.

Just as Danzo released the second seal, hurried footsteps were heard.

"Elder Danzo, why did you send out a unit without permission?"

Danzo's movements had long stopped. His right arm could not be exposed. Otherwise, it would expose many things unless he could silence them.

The person who came was not someone he could silence. If he dared to silence the 5th Hokage, he could only defect.

"Protecting Konoha's safety is Root's responsibility. What can the 5th Hokage do?"

"Protect Konoha..."

Tsunade chuckled and didn't say anything.

This organization was the organization that Tsunade wanted to eradicate the most. When Konoha was attacked, they were never seen. They came out to stir up trouble.

"Where is the enemy? Which Ninja Village is he from?"

Tsunade's question made Danzo's face change slightly. He thought there might be a traitor in the root, but this idea was fleeting.

"Akatsuki member, Byakuya."

Danzo did not hide Su Xiao's identity. Tsunade could grab Su Xiao. His goal was the Pillar Cells and research materials.

"Akatsuki member Byakuya!"

The veins on Tsunade's forehead were bulging, her amber eyes were wide open, and pale yellow Chakra gushed out from them.

"He, he, where!"

Tsunade said this word by word. Her extremely angry look surprised Danzo, but at the same time, he was a little dissatisfied. In his opinion, the Hokage should not show his emotions.

The organization had just killed Jiraya, and they couldn't find his bones, leaving only a string of secret signals.

The bones of Jiraya were not cold, and the organization's members appeared near Konoha. It was normal for Tsunade to be so angry.

"5th, I have sent people to chase..."

Before Danzo finished, Tsunade looked at him with angry eyes, which made Danzo a little angry.

"30 degrees."

After leaving this sentence, Danzo turned and walked toward Konoha. As soon as he turned his head, Danzo's eyes were extremely gloomy.

As soon as Danzo left, Tsunade's angry expression disappeared. Shizune ran out of the forest with small steps, followed by several Konoha Ninjas.

"Tsunade sama, I have gathered the special Ninja team that has not finished their mission. We can only find Kurenai's team for the time being. The other superior teams arrive in five minutes, and the Anbu has already gone after them."

Chapter 575: Indirect Killing Teammates

"Yes."

Tsunade looked at the forest in the distance. She was hesitating whether to fight in person or not, but she was still a shadow of Konoha. Without proper arrangements, she could not be too far away from the village. This might be the enemy's plan to lure her away.

"Kurenai."

Kurenai walked quickly to Tsunade. After Tsunade spoke a few words, Kurenai chased her into the forest. Tsunade didn't move. She was a shadow and couldn't be controlled by her feelings. She wanted to protect a village.

...

In the forest.

Su Xiao jumped between the trees, and more than a dozen root members chased after him.

After learning the location of this laboratory from Orochimaru, Su Xiao thought of the current situation, so he had already chosen the path to retreat. This was just to be prepared, and he didn't want to use it.

After Su Xiao jumped between the trees for a while, he jumped to the ground. Bobowang jumped out of a bush and caught Su Xiao just in time.

In this way, Su Xiao retreated faster, but the root members chasing behind were not slow.

Su Xiao rode on Bobowang's back and made Bobowang slow down. He looked back and saw that after those Root members appeared from the forest, he activated the alchemy bomb buried in advance.

Boom!

Flames surged, and several alchemy bombs exploded at the same time.

These root members were not weak. Just a few alchemy bombs could not stop them.

Just a second after the alchemy bombs exploded, screams came, the trees in the explosion range were riddled with holes, and one could vaguely see iron beads embedded in the trunk.

Root left two wounded, but this Zetsu was not the last time they lost members. Su Xiao laid many traps in front of them.

The Root members were caught in a dilemma. It was stupid to chase them like this, but they couldn't disobey Danzo's orders.

The crisp sound of metal colliding after the mechanism was triggered came one after another.

Twenty minutes later, Yamanaka and Shino took root and stopped. The reason was that only four people were left in the Root Team, and the others could not chase after them due to injuries.

"Yamanaka, this..."

"Retreat. The enemy is already prepared. There is no point in continuing to chase. I will apologize to Danzo san when I go back."

The members of the Root stopped chasing, and the Anbu of Konoha took over the task of Root, following Su Xiao far behind.

After tracking Su Xiao for half an hour, the Anbu also gave up. Su Xiao was too difficult to chase and had not seen anyone yet. Along the way, they triggered at least dozens of traps. These traps were extremely ruthless, and most of the traps were poisoned.

This poison made the Anbu extremely headache, so Root stopped chasing. This was the poison sent by Scorpion.

Four hours later, Su Xiao rode on Bobowang, and Bobowang ran leisurely on the grassland. The pursuers had been solved, and the trap set in advance played a crucial role.

Just as Su Xiao was ready to continue on his way and leave the range of Konoha, Bobowang's ears pricked up.

"Woof."

"There are still people chasing?"

"Woof."

"Konoha's people are like ghosts."

After Su Xiao confirmed the number and position of the pursuers to Bobowang, he rushed in that direction.

The enemies who could chase him for four hours must have a special method. If these people were not dealt with, Konoha's hunting force would always be there.

Half a kilometer away from Su Xiao, behind a hill.

"Hinamori, the enemy is still running?"

Kurenai knew her team's strength, so she didn't remove it with Su Xiao. The miserable condition of Kakashi was still vivid in her mind. The other side was still lying in Konoha Hospital.

"I will investigate."

Hinata Hyuga's brain hurt a little. It was a big burden to keep rolling her eyes for a few hours, so she had to close them occasionally.

"Byakugan, open."

Veins surged on Hinata's cheeks, and her vision turned white and black. Now, her perspective was 360 °, and the situation within a kilometer was completely exposed.

"Not good. The enemy is approaching us!"

Kurenai's heart twitched. How could the enemy find the location of her team?

Thinking about this, Su Xiao stepped on a piece of land and used Soru to rush to Kurenai's team.

Sou ---

Su Xiao's figure appeared not far from Hinata and the others.

Looking at the others, he finally locked his eyes on Hinamori.

"White eyes, no wonder you can chase so far."

Su Xiao pulled out the dragon flash on his waist, and the green steel shadow opened and rushed to the four people on the team without saying anything.

The four people in the team were the enemies who were chasing him. If he did not kill these people, he would be killed by Konoha.

In the battle, Su Xiao never slept with the enemy; usually, he would kill them first.

"Magic -- Tree Binding Kill."

Kurenai's red eyes stared at Su Xiao. This black-haired woman was an illusion-type Ninja.

Su Xiao's forward steps stopped, and he stood in place.

"Chiwan."

With a bang, Inuzuka's ninja Akamaru turned into another Inuzuka.

"Inuzuka."

Two Inuzuka rotating at high speed simultaneously rushed to Su Xiao.

"Wait."

Sunset Red shouted. She felt something was wrong, and the reaction after using the illusion was weak.

It was too late to stop at this time. Inuzuka had already rushed to Su Xiao with his teeth. With Inuzuka's current speed, Su Xiao and Zetsu would not feel good if they hit Su Xiao.

Su Xiao, stunned in place, flashed in his eyes, and a layer of energy shield appeared in front of him.

Bang!

The energy shield with 200 points of mana value was enough to block. After blocking the impact of Inuzuka, Su Xiao immediately moved the energy shield to the side.

The bright sword light flashed. This sword was so fast that it made people horrified. Onitsuka only felt that his eyes were blurred.

Puchi.

A head flew up, and the Ninja Dog Chiwan, who had become an Inuzuka, was beheaded.

"Chiwan!!"

Inuzuka, in the air, opened his eyes wide and could not believe the scene in front of him.

Many facts proved that there was no good end in getting close to Su Xiao, let alone with the strength of Inuzuka.

After killing Chiwan with one slash, Su Xiao swung his second sword at Inuzuka.

Buzz.

Many black insects rushed to Su Xiao, and Su Xiao threw out an alchemy bomb.

Boom!

The parasite was blown up, and this was the retreat of Aburame, but it was too late.

Su Xiao stabbed forward with his sword, and at this time, he didn't have time to fall to the ground.

"Human-Beast Hybrid Transformation - 3 alpha wolf."

Just as he was about to make a seal, he suddenly thought that his Ninja Dog Chiwan was dead, and he couldn't use more than 95 Ninjutsu. This was the weakness of the Dog Tomb Family.

At this time, Su Xiao's sword arrived.

Puchi.

The sharp tip of the sword penetrated the human body without any resistance. The long sword pierced through the lower abdomen of Inuzuka. Inuzuka just landed at this time.

"Eight Trigrams Air Wall Palm."

Hinamori took the starting move of the sun flow, and a stream of chakra separated from her palm and smashed into Su Xiao's chest.

The energy shield appeared in Su Xiao's chest, and with a bang, he was smashed out, a large amount of blood splashed, and a few drops of blood splashed on his face.

"How could this be..."

Hinata's mouth was slightly open, and her lips were trembling. Just a second ago, she indirectly killed Onitsuka.

A terrible wound appeared in Onitsuka's chest and abdomen, and some broken energy thorns could be vaguely seen in the wound.

Just as Su Xiao stabbed the dragon flash into the body of Onitsuka, he used the shadow thorn. The moment the shadow thorn spread in the body of Onitsuka, Sunshine sent him flying. Those shadow thorns were forcibly dragged out of the body of Onitsuka, causing extremely terrible injuries. More than two-thirds of the internal organs of Onitsuka were hollowed out.

Su Xiao removed the shadow thorn on the dragon flash and threw away the blood on the long sword.

Chapter 576: Reinforce

[You killed Inuzuka.]

[Inuzuka is an important storyline character. Obtained 4.6 of World Origin. Obtained 36.2 of World Origin.]

[You obtained a treasure chest(purple).]

...

Blood slid down from the tip of the blade. It turned out that the original twelve cockroaches could also be killed as long as the strength was strong enough. In the derivative world, even the protagonist could be killed.

"How can this be?"

Hinata looked at her hands. Her palm just killed Onitsuka.

"Hinata!"

Kurenai shouted and woke up Hinami.

"You didn't kill Ivory. He died in the hands of the enemy."

At this time, the weakness of the 12 cockroaches was revealed. They had never experienced the death of their teammates in battle.

Weng ---

The parasite danced in the air, protecting Kurenai and the other two.

"Aburame," help me buy more than ten seconds."

Kurenai formed a seal with both hands, preparing to use an extremely powerful illusion technique.

"Ten seconds... Maybe not."

Shino Aburame's voice was low, and as soon as his voice fell, the whistling wind came.

Clang!

A large number of sword lights flashed, and the parasites flying around were cut into pieces.

Su Xiao took out a bug that wanted to drill into his flesh from his neck and rushed to Kurenai because Kurenai was the biggest threat to him.

It was fine if Kurenai's illusion did not control him, but Su Xiao's death would come once he was controlled.

"Teacher Kurenai."

Hinata stood in front of Kurenai and put on a fighting posture.

"Soft Fist Technique, Eight Trigrams Palm."

The pattern of gossip formed by Chakra vaguely appeared at the foot of Hinata. Su Xiao ignored the gossip that suddenly appeared. He was best at dealing with physical skills.

"Back to the sky."

Hinata rotated at high speed, and the surrounding Chakra flowed quickly, finally forming a semi-circular energy shield.

Under the high speed of the reversal, the surrounding wind surged.

Su Xiao rushed straight to the sky and stabbed back into the sky.

Chi Chi ---

Sparks flew. Su Xiao changed from holding a knife with one hand to holding a knife with both hands. His arm muscles slightly bulged, and the green steel shadow energy surged in the blade.

Chi Chi.

The energy cloak of Huitian was dyed, and an arm flew out, and Huitian stopped.

Hinata staggered back a few steps. Huitian was broken. One of her arms flew without wings, and the knife cut across her chest and abdomen. Hinata was not strong, and her defense was not perfect. There was some gap between her and Ningci.

Although Su Xiao knew that Hinata was the heroine of the original work, what could he do? The two sides were enemies who fought with each other. If the other party was merciful because the heroine was the heroine, it was extremely stupid and stupid behavior.

Su Xiao rushed forward with the knife and cut Hinata's throat.

The blade was cut down, and the black hair on one side of Hinata's neck was cut off. The blade' kissed Hinata's white neck, but for some reason, Su Xiao's body stopped abruptly, and the long sword also stopped.

"The sixty-four palms of the Eight Trigrams, Zetsu."

Hinata's hand was wrapped with chakra, and she used her palm to touch the blade.

Was it Hinata who blocked Su Xiao's sword? Of course not.

"Shadow Imitation, success."

Two black shadows connected to Su Xiao's feet, and a ninja squatted in the distance with both hands.

"That was close."

Nara Kagoshima breathed a sigh of relief, but the great power from the shadow changed his face.

"Ino!"

Nara Shikamaru shouted.

"Understood."

The golden-haired beauty, Yamanaka Ino, clasped her hands together.

"Heart Turn Technique."

Ino's body fell to the side, and her consciousness entered Su Xiao.

"Ding!"

The slightly fat Choji Akimichi jumped out, and the situation suddenly changed.

"Ah!"

Yamanaka Ino screamed in pain, and her Mind Transferring Technique was interrupted.

"Ino, what's going on?"

Shikamaru's face changed. The moves of pigs, deer, and butterflies were intertwined. If there were a problem with the first ring, the person who attacked would be in danger.

There is a kind of blue energy in his body.

That energy drove me out.

Hirono was in a very bad state. His eyes were bloodshot, and he seemed to be in a coma anytime. It was obvious that his mind was damaged.

"Doubling Technique."

Akizuki's body quickly expanded, becoming a giant momentarily, and stepped on Su Xiao.

Boom!

Smoke and dust rose, the ground was broken, and Shikamaru breathed a sigh of relief. Although the Heart Turn Spell failed, it did not delay the final attack.

The smoke and dust gradually dispersed, and a layer of light blue energy shield appeared above Su Xiao's head. This was an energy shield with 200 points of mana value. Although there were fine cracks on the surface of the energy shield, there were no signs of breaking.

"Pig-deer butterfly combination."

Su Xiao could not move. The shadow was restraining his movements. His muscles bulged. Not far away, the hand made by Shikamaru began to tremble.

Shua.

The shadow retracted, and Su Xiao broke the shadow simulation.

Finding this scene, Akizuki stepped down even harder, kaba, kaba, the cracks of the energy shield were denser.

Su Xiao jumped to the side and withdrew the energy shield simultaneously.

Rumble.

Akizuki stepped on the ground with one foot, and the huge foot sank deep into the ground.

Su Xiao, ready to use the sword, felt dizzy. It was an illusion!

Kurenai used her strongest illusion. At this time, Su Xiao's eyes were full of flying petals, and the enemies around him had disappeared.

"Now."

Kurenai just shouted, and the expression on her face suddenly became dull. A sharp thread had already crossed her neck.

The focus in Su Xiao's eyes recovered, and Kurenai's head fell to the ground.

[You killed Kurenai.]

[Kurenai is an important character in the plot. She obtained 3.7 of the source of the world, and now she obtained 39.9 of the source of the world.]

...

After deciding on another enemy of Zetsu, Su Xiao pondered for a moment and slashed out at Choza.

Zheng.

A sword light with a diameter of three meters flew out, the sword light was extremely fast, and it flew in front of Choza instantly.

Akimichi put his arms in front of him, and with a poof, blood splashed. The muscles of his arms were cut open, revealing the pale bones.

"Everyone, back off, doesn't get close to him. Use long-range ninjutsu to attack."

Although his team suffered heavy casualties, Shikamaru's brain was very clear, and he knew that if he fought the enemy in close combat, he would die.

Shua.

A shadow rushed toward Su Xiao, the speed of this shadow was fast and urgent, and the timing was tricky.

"Turn your heart."

Su Xiao's figure stopped again. This time he was completely controlled.

A second before he was controlled, Su Xiao created several energy shields to wrap himself firmly.

A six- or seven-meter-long iron rod smashed at Su Xiao, and layers of airwaves spread with a bang.

"Dingzhi, continue. Inoichi can't hold on for long. The enemy can restrain the heart to change."

Nara Shikaku stood beside Nara Shikamaru, and the older generation of pigs and butterflies came together.

Choji Akimichi did not speak. He just swung the giant iron bar at Su Xiao.

Boom, boom, boom!

Zheng!

Saber light flew out from the smoke and landed on the face of the already huge Choza, and the saber light blinded one of his eyes.

The Nara father and son were both stunned, and Shikamaru looked at his father.

"The Shadow Imitation shouldn't have failed."

Nara Shikaku looked at Inoichi, who was sitting on the ground with bloodshot eyes. Using his spirit to resist the green steel shadow energy was courting death. Without ten days and half a month of rest, Inoichi could not recover.

Chapter 577: Contractor Situation

Nara Shikaku couldn't figure out a thing for a long time. Even if the Heart Turn was ineffective, the Shadow Imitation was still there. How did the enemy attack?

Choji Akimichi, that had one eye cut off, stopped attacking.

"Dad!"

Akimichi gasped for breath. He witnessed his father being blinded by one eye.

The smoke and dust dispersed, and Su Xiao's figure appeared.

The shadow imitation indeed bound him. The blue steel shadow on his leg released energy, and the shadow was mixed with chakra. As long as the chakra inside was destroyed, the shadow would dissipate.

Su Xiao continued to release the blue steel shadow energy. He immediately broke away from the shadow simulation and jumped back a few steps.

The enemy increased from the original four to seven. Although he killed two people, there was new reinforcement now.

Su Xiao thought quickly. This place was not far from Konoha. The Kurenai team must have left a mark when tracking them. With the hatred and importance of Tsunade to the Akatsuki organization, they would send a lot of Ninjas. They estimated they would send more than five teams of superior Ninja.

Taking into account the follow-up support of the Anbu, in less than half an hour, the enemy Su Xiao had to face must be several times more than now.

If that were the case, with the combination of the Boar–Deer–Butterfly, coupled with the IQ of the Nara father and son, and the ability to command the battlefield, he would probably die here, although Konoha would pay a terrible price for it.

It was a coveted reward to almost kill Hinata, but Hinata, the plot's main character, second only to the male and the male two. Unless they attacked Konoha, killing them might not be a big deal.

Su Xiao had used his full strength. Not only did he cut off one of Hinata's arms, but a large amount of green steel shadow energy also invaded the other's body.

He used all his abilities, but he still did not kill the other party. It seemed that he was only a step away, but he was still a lot worse.

Hinata's injuries were very serious, and the possibility of using the white eyes to chase after him was not high.

Sou, sou ---

The sound of wind breaking came from the distance, and the support arrived again. Su Xiao could deal with these people present, but the support of Konoha would not stop. He would eventually lose, not to mention that this was the territory of Konoha. The other side's reinforcements would only be endless.

Thinking of this, Su Xiao sheathed Dragon Slash and stretched his hands to both sides.

"This is?"

Su Xiao's action made Shikaku a little surprised. A moment later, he understood what was going on. Numerous white spiders crawled out from Su Xiao's cuff. These were all alchemy bombs.

"Consider yourselves lucky."

Su Xiao left this sentence and rode on Bobowang.

"Don't think about escaping."

"Stop him."

"Wait, don't chase!"

Nara shouted, but before he shouted, the dense parasites had rushed to Su Xiao.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A loud explosion came, and the impact made Konoha's soldiers bend over and close their eyes. Because there were too many white spiders, and not at the same time, the explosion continued.

When the explosion faded, the surrounding forest was in a mess, and many trees were blown to pieces. Konoha's people fell to the ground.

"Shikaku, what should we do?"

Choza asked Shikaku habitually.

Shikaku looked at the two bodies, thought for a moment, and shook his head.

"No need to chase. It isn't very meaningful. Even the Anbu can't track the enemy. We don't have much hope of catching up unless Hinamori can still hold on..."

Shikaku's opinion was very pertinent, which was to use the white eyes to monitor and keep following Su Xiao, and then Konoha's reinforcements would be more and more, which would form suppression the number of people.

"I... can still do it."

Hinata staggered a few steps as she spoke.

Shikaku shook his head and picked up the broken arm on the ground.

"Aburame, take her back to Konoha as soon as possible. With the medical ninjutsu of Hokage, it is not a problem to connect the broken arm. The cut is very neat."

After the death of two people, Konoha stopped chasing,

This was not the first time in Konoha that Danzo had caused trouble.

...

In the forest outside Konoha, Bobowang was running at high speed.

"Bobo, the enemy is coming?"

"Woof."

Su Xiao nodded, and as expected, Konoha's pursuers had stopped chasing.

This battle made him cut his body and realize he was short of mana.

The battle lasted for a short time, but his mana was only 300 points. Although the energy shield was extremely strong, it was convenient to use but consumed too much mana.

It was a good thing that Konoha's people didn't catch up. He was not ready to start a war with Konoha, and the time was not yet right.

Even if he started a war, he was not ready to be the main force. It was good to let Nagato take the lead. The main mission was marked to assist Nagato in destroying Konoha.

As of now, Su Xiao had stayed in the Naruto world for about a month. Most of the things he had to do had been achieved, and there were additional rewards during the time.

After half the time, Su Xiao guessed that the other contractor's stay should not be too long. He needed to delay for some time. It was better to wait for all the other contractors to return to the reincarnation paradise and implement the plan to destroy Konoha.

If there were a large number of contractors, there would be people muddling the fish when Nagato destroyed Konoha, which was a headache.

The ideal time was to attack Konoha fifteen days before the mission's deadline, and the traces of those large adventure groups could be found on the derivative world communication platform.

According to Su Xiao's observation, the God Emperor adventure group had left the Naruto world. Otherwise, the God Emperor would participate in the team chasing Su Xiao. After all, the God Emperor had already joined Danzo.

Now that there was no contractor, there were no people from the God Emperor adventure group around Konoha.

The Sky Adventurer Group was destroyed, and the God Emperor Adventurer Group left the Naruto world, leaving only the Blood Gate Adventurer Group.

Su Xiao had killed the people of Blood Gate before, so he had to stay away from this adventure group. If the two sides met up at close range, war was inevitable.

Su Xiao could fight one on one with Lycorisradiata. He couldn't fight against Zetsu, a large adventurer group like Blood Gate. Not to mention the suppression of numbers, there was not only a second-level contractor in the Blood Gate adventurer group but also a higher-level contractor. The suppression of attributes alone gave Su Xiao a headache, not to mention that he would face a siege.

Not to mention fighting a team of the Blood Gate alone, it was unknown whether Su Xiao could fight one on one with Stan, and the leader of a large adventure team was not easy to provoke.

If he were not an opponent in the front, Su Xiao would avoid it and wait for the Blood Gate adventure group to leave the Naruto world.

The Blood Gate adventure group would leave the Naruto world soon. It was said that there was an internal problem. This was a lot of information that the contractor knew.

Now there was no point in staying in the territory of the Fire Country, and he had to face the pursuit of Konoha. Su Xiao rushed to the border of Konoha. He was ready to go to see Obito. If Obito could go together to destroy Konoha, it would be great. However, this possibility was not strong.

Obito would not appear in the open for the time being, but as the number of people in Akatsuki became less and less, Obito couldn't hide in the dark.

Chapter 578: Looking at You Quietly

At the border of the country of fire, near a secret stronghold of the Akatsuki organization.

Su Xiao stood in front of a rock wall and printed the 'Air Ring' on his hand into the groove of the rock wall.

Rumble.

The rock wall rose, and a passage leading to the inside of the mountain appeared. Walking into the passage, the rock wall behind slowly fell, and the passage became dim.

There was a faint sound of conversation coming from the secret stronghold. Su Xiao walked to the source of the sound.

"Liar... It must be a lie. These are lies, skunk, to protect me? Nonsense, I was almost killed by him several times."

The roar of pillars came from the stronghold. It should be the truth of Itachi with Obito and Sasuke.

"If Itachi were serious, you would have died long ago."

Obito's voice was heard, and his tone was calm.

"Impossible. he didn't hesitate to use his Mangekyo Sharingan to kill me. His purpose is my eyes, not to protect me. I will kill you if you dare to talk nonsense like this again."

Uchiha Sasuke's voice was somewhat weak, his words did not believe that Itachi would protect him, but from the trembling tone, he was shaking.

"Itachi has already calculated everything that happened during the battle, wrapping your ability, your chakra. How will you deal with him when he attacks you? His goal is to force you into the Zetsu realm, and the purpose of this is... you have already guessed it."

Hearing Obito's words, Sasuke's mouth was slightly open, and he recalled the scene of Orochimaru being sealed in his mind. At that time, the sense of relaxation in his body could not be faked.

Obito continued to tell the truth to Sasuke, and Sasuke's voice became smaller and smaller.

Su Xiao pushed open the door and entered the room. Obito, wearing a mask, looked at Su Xiao with his head sideways while Sasuke lowered his head. His eyes were dull as if he doubted life.

"The smell of blood, there are enemies nearby?"

"No, I went to the vicinity of Konoha before."

Su Xiao did not continue. Obito nodded.

Sasuke looked up at Su Xiao, his dim pupils were full of confusion, and there was no longer the strong hatred he used to have.

"Byakuya, you came just in time, Sasuke. This partner captured tailed beasts together when he was alive."

Sasuke's pupils recovered some color.

"You..."

Sasuke's words reached his mouth, but he did not know what to say.

Su Xiao waved his hand: "I don't know much about Itachi."

He lit a cigarette, and the smell of the cigarette gradually filled the cave.

"Hey, I only have one question."

Sasuke clenched his fists.

"Itachi and I... Who is stronger?"

As soon as Sasuke asked this question, Su Xiao and Obito looked at each other and thought simultaneously, which was where this kid got his confidence.

"Forgive me for being blunt. This is the most stupid question I have heard recently."

Su Xiao spat out a mouthful of green smoke, and his momentum gradually changed. There seemed to be blood and qi pervading the dragon flash on his waist. This kind of aura that made living beings retreat made Sasuke nervous.

"Between you and Itachi, who is stronger? Do you have the confidence to kill me?"

Sasuke hesitated momentarily and remembered the first time he met Su Xiao. At that time, the sword's tip was against his throat and would take his life anytime.

"Maybe... not."

"Oh? In other words, you think I am stronger than Itachi?"

Sasuke nodded. After the previous battle, in his senses, Itachi was not too strong.

"With the level of your three Sharingan and lightning Ninjutsu, I can kill you in 20 minutes. As for Itachi... I don't want to fight with him. There is an 80 chance that I will die."

Sasuke shook his head, seemingly not believing it.

"Let's not talk about other things. Just the level of illusion, I have seen Itachi use illusion to control Jinchuriki. As for your level of illusion, hehe ---"

Considering that Sasuke was not clear about Jinchuriki's fighting style, Obito opened his mouth.

"Jinchuriki is immune to most illusions. You can imagine it like this. Jinchuriki has a Biju seal in his body, so two kinds of Chakra exist in the same body as the two consciousnesses. Biju can release Chakra to disturb Jinchuriki's Chakra structure, and the illusion can break by itself."

In this way, Sasuke understood the difficulty of using illusion to control Jinchuriki, which was almost impossible.

Itachi... can you use illusion to control that kind of guy? The two kinds of chakra interfere with each other,

How could an illusion be effective?

Under Obito 'dupe' Uchiha Sasuke was even more suspicious of life. Su Xiao and Bobowang sat on the side and watched Obito.

"You fought Orochimaru before. When Orochimaru faced Itachi, he was defeated in one move. After that, Orochimaru betrayed the Akatsuki organization and began to be obsessed with the power of Sharingan. This was all Itachi's plan, and let Orochimaru wholeheartedly train you."

Obito gave Uchiha Sasuke 'a deadly blow'.

Uchiha Sasuke no longer spoke, and a special Chakra gushed out from his brain.

"This is..."

Obito's Sharingan rotated and finally turned into a kaleidoscope form.

Sasuke suddenly raised his head, the pair of three Sharingan rotated, finally forming the shape of a six-pointed star and the Mangekyo Sharingan of Sasuke appeared.

"Open the kaleidoscope. Is it the first time to see it?"

Su Xiao looked at Sasuke, the second pillar had just opened the kaleidoscope, and his body went soft and fell. It should be because his mood fluctuated too much, and he fainted.

"This guy was unconscious for a few days. He fought with Itachi three days ago, right?"

"I have been in a coma."

Obito thought for a moment and looked at Su Xiao.

"Thank you for assisting me before, but I have never known your purpose."

"My purpose? Absorbing the Biju Chakra, this is the purpose of me joining Akatsuki."

Su Xiao was so straightforward. Obito was stunned.

"Did you notice the tailed beasts I caught before? They were all half-dead."

"Oh? Aren't you afraid that the leader will kill you?"

"Of course, I am afraid. The leader is too strong, and I am not his opponent. Greed will never retreat because of fear. Only with enough courage can you become stronger."

Su Xiao vaguely felt that Obito seemed to want to talk about something important.

"I transplanted the previous Sharingan."

Obito pointed to his Sharingan. This was his original eye, not a transplant.

"The ability is not bad, and this Sharingan is a space system."

"Very good. By the way, there is one more thing. The leader will not let you participate in the plan to capture the eight and nine tails. You should know the reason."

"I thought of it long ago."

The tailed beasts that Su Xiao captured were all half-dead. Nagato had a limit to his patience, which was two.

"What are you going to do after that? Leave Akatsuki? After all, your purpose has been completed."

"I haven't thought about it for the time being: the Mist Village, the Sand Village, the Rock Village, and Konoha. I have offended all four of them. Other than the Akatsuki organization, other forces won't take in a villain like me. I am just a killer who has no place to rest. Xiao can stay here. I will stay here."

After listening to Su Xiao's words, a smile appeared on the corner of the mouth under the mask.

If the former Su Xiao was not credible, then the current Su Xiao was very credible because he had offended too many forces. This was a desperate rebellious style, but Obito didn't know there was a place called the reincarnation paradise.

"Why don't you help me do something?"

Help you do things?

Su Xiao grinned.

"You are also a member of Akatsuki, the same level as me. Why should I help you do things?"

"Why? If I tell you, my name is Madara Uchiha, how about it?"

Su Xiao sneered in his heart, thinking that Obito was bragging.

"Uchiha... Madara."

Su Xiao stood up. He was considering whether to temporarily join Obito's strength, although the risk was not small.

If it were for before, he would return to Zetsu immediately, but now he had the power to protect himself, which was not impossible to consider.

Obito has been using Nagato to complete the Moon Eye plan, and Madara has been using Obito, while Black Zetsu has been using Madara. These people are using each other, and their relationship is complicated.

Now that things have come to this, Nagato could no longer let Su Xiao go after the Biju. Nagato's purpose was to use the power of the Biju to rule the world, thus stopping the war. Su Xiao had been absorbing the Chakra of the Biju, which made Nagato very dissatisfied.

Obito was different. His requirements were much more relaxed. It didn't matter how he absorbed it, as long as the Biju was still alive.

"If you are Uchiha Madara, I can understand it as... you are the real leader of Akatsuki?"

"No, the leader of Akatsuki is not Payne or me. He is a dead man named Yahiko. This is my agreement with Payne."

Su Xiao put out the cigarette between his fingers and looked at Obito: "Anyone can call themselves Madara Uchiha. I will think about it and give you an answer."

"Of course."

Chapter 579: Nagato Wants To Cool

In the quiet underground stronghold, Su Xiao sat on the wooden box at the corner, half of his body hidden in the darkness.

He was considering whether to join the Obito camp or not, weighing the gains and losses after joining.

Joining the Obito camp was an opportunity to participate in the catch of the tails, but if he did this, although Nagato would not say anything, he would inevitably have a bad feeling, which would affect the final main mission.

Su Xiao chose the latter if it were between capturing the tails and completing the main mission.

However, capturing the eight tails was a good opportunity for Zetsu to improve the level of the blue steel shadow. Su Xiao did not intend to use the soul crystal to improve the ability of the blue steel shadow. It was a waste of resources.

The value of the soul crystal was unquestionable. It required 90 soul crystals to upgrade the sword master to Lv.30. This was a huge number.

What he got had to be lost. On the one hand, it was the opportunity to catch the eight tails, and on the other hand, it was the opportunity to participate in the final main mission.

However, according to the current situation, Obito would send Sasuke to catch the eight tails, and finally, Sasuke failed to catch them.

"Capture failed?" Su Xiao suddenly thought of something. Perhaps if he did not join the Obito faction, there would be a chance to catch the tails.

Perhaps, he did not need to help the Akatsuki organization catch the tails at all but went alone to find the eight tails for fighting.

Before Su Xiao entered a thinking error, why did he have to catch the eight under the command of the Akatsuki organization? With the energy shield, Su Xiao could try to deal with the eight tails alone.

As for how to explain, he just happened to pass by ---

Like Su Xiao was thinking, Sasuke walked into the secret stronghold, followed by Suigetsu and others.

After Karin saw Su Xiao, her first reaction was to take two steps back and hold her shoulders.

After Sasuke and the others left, Obito slowly walked over.

"Have you considered it?"

"I have already considered it. Although you call yourself Madara Uchiha, it takes time to verify it. Whether you want to join or not, you need to observe."

Su Xiao did not reply to Zetsu and did not agree. He just said to observe.

"Oh?"

Obito was dissatisfied with this answer.

"What evidence do you want?"

"It's not a matter of evidence. I know nothing about your purpose."

Su Xiao probably meant that I must observe even if you are Uchiha Madara. Who knows if you are credible.

"Is that so? What a pity. I originally wanted to give you the operation to capture the eight tails. Now, I can only let Sasuke go and think about it carefully. Now that Payne is in a bad situation, he was seriously injured when fighting with a group of mysterious forces."

Hearing Obito's words, Su Xiao felt a chill in his heart.

"Heavily injured?"

"..."

Obito was silent and did not reveal any information.

After taking the soil away, Su Xiao's face gradually became serious. If the six groups of Payne were injured, it did not matter. It was a corpse. If Nagato were seriously injured, it would not be good. Who would help him fight Konoha?

Thinking of this, Su Xiao stood up and walked into the stronghold.

In a conference room in the stronghold, the eagle team that Sasuke had just formed was talking about something. Su Xiao pushed the door and entered.

"Sasuke, there is something to talk to your subordinates."

Su Xiao looked at Karin. Karin's body froze. Although she was afraid, she did not dare to resist.

"Wait."

Sasuke stared at Su Xiao and looked at Karin. Her body was shaking.

"Don't worry, I won't hurt her, but Karin herself will agree, right, Karin?."

"Is... is it wrong?"

Sasuke frowned. He felt that Karin was very afraid of this man.

"No... It's okay, Sasuke."

Karin spoke. At this time, her expression was calmer. If Su Xiao wanted to hurt her or covet her beauty, he would have done it before. Zetsu would not wait until now.

Sasuke no longer spoke and winked at Suigetsu.

"What are you going to do? I'm going to join in the fun."

Suigetsu grinned, revealing a mouthful of sharp teeth like sharks.

Seeing this tooth, Su Xiao thought of a person.

"I have something to tell you. Come with me."

Su Xiao took Karin into the next room, and Suigetsu followed with some doubts.

In the room, Su Xiao and Karin sat opposite each other.

Suigetsu stood aside.

"It's just a small amount of your blood. Don't be nervous."

Su Xiao pulled up Karin's cuff. She hesitated for a moment and finally did not resist.

Taking out the needle and the test tube, Su Xiao extracted Karin's blood and perceived the blood in the test tube. This blood was full of vitality.

"Just now, you said you have something to tell me? What is it?"

Suigetsu did not stop Su Xiao from extracting Karin's blood. Karin herself did not have any feelings of resistance. Of course, she would not make a move.

"Do you remember the name of Ghost Lamp Waning Moon?"

As soon as Su Xiao finished speaking, Suigetsu stood up with a cry, and the bullet from the chair under her flew far away and fell to the ground with a bang.

"He is. Where!"

Suigetsu's mouth was full of sharp teeth as if he wanted to swallow the Ghost Lamp Waning Moon alive.

"He's dead."

"Huh?"

Suigetsu thought that he had heard wrong.

"He's dead. Before he died, he left a message for me to tell you that he's already dead. You don't have to think about taking revenge on him."

"What kind of joke is this!"

Suigetsu roared and began to pant heavily.

"Dead? Impossible. That bastard Zetsu won't die so easily. But he is..."

Su Xiao waved his hand.

"I was imprisoned in the prison of the Mist Village with him. He couldn't even make water. I saw him being taken away by several superior Ninjas with my own eyes. After a few minutes, his breath weakened quickly and finally disappeared. There is no doubt that he has been executed."

Su Xiao patted Karin on the shoulder. Karin was a little sleepy.

"This tube of blood helped me a lot. I can help you with something."

This blood tube was not ordinary; it was rich with a lot of vitality. This was what Su Xiao specially told Karin to release vitality when extracting her blood.

The vitality in Karin's body was extremely abundant, which was also why she could recover from her injuries. Not only would ordinary people lose their vitality to reduce their lifespan, but Karin could recover on her own after losing her vitality. This was the power of the vortex race.

"Help me do something?"

Karin was a little confused.

"Yes, what I can do."

Su Xiao put away the tube of blood. He had to do something. Although the risk was not small, this tube of blood was prepared.

"Although you say so, I can't think of what to do for a while."

"Is that so?"

Su Xiao got up and walked out. He and Karin belonged to a fair deal. Since the other party did not ask, then forget it.

Su Xiao left the underground stronghold. Not long after he left, Obito appeared at the exit of the underground stronghold and looked in the direction of Su Xiao.

"Sure enough, your goal is not as simple as capturing tailed beasts. Is it related to the long door?"

Obito took out an exquisite cylindrical glass bottle from his bosom, inside a Sharingan.

Obito was hesitating whether to transplant this eye, this way, his dojutsu would recover, and he could use the same type of dojutsu as Susanoo.

Not only that, the power of the combination of left and right eyes of Obito was extremely strong, one defense, one attack.

Chapter 580: Nagato is Really Cold!

Rain Village.

The rain continued to fall, and occasional pedestrians passed through Rain Village streets. The entire village looked bleak.

At the center of the village was a tall building made of metal in a slightly dark room.

"Cough, cough, cough."

A violent cough came from the darkness. The cough awakened a blue-haired beauty sleeping on the cold metal wall, and her face was full of fatigue.

"Nagato, are you alright?"

"Cough, cough, cough, cough..."

Nagato stood on the simple control panel controlling Payne and coughed, unable to speak.

"Nagato, don't control the Tendo yet. Your body..."

"It's fine..."

Fresh blood dripped from the corner of Nagato's mouth. There was a terrifying wound on his chest. The wound was round about twenty centimeters or so. The flesh on the wound's surface had rotted, and there seemed to be living things surging inside.

A Tier 4 contractor left this behind to Nagato before he died, almost taking Nagato's life.

Even if Nagato was still alive, his body was getting weaker daily. His already dark red hair was starting to turn pale. Out of the six, he could only control three simultaneously.

"Really... no problem?"

Konan's eyes were full of worry. She had looked for many medical Ninjas, but unfortunately, these medical Ninjas were helpless. Only one person could save Nagato, and that was the fifth Hokage.

But even if Tsunade was willing to save him, whether Nagato would accept it was still a problem.

"Konan, how is the situation of the organization recently?"

The reason why Nagato didn't show up was that the current Nagato was in a coma. If Tendo suddenly fell in front of the members of the Akatsuki organization, things would be bad. The organization respected the strong.

"It's okay."

Konan sighed. Just as she was thinking about something, Nagato narrowed his eyes.

"A member has entered the Rain Village. Yes, Byakuya."

"Byakuya?"

Konan frowned. She did not have a good impression of Su Xiao.

Su Xiao's image in Konan's heart was that he had an unknown view of good and evil, was full of blood and would kill people if he did not agree.

"What did he come back for? Could it be that he wants to join the plan of catching the eight tails? His goal is indeed the tailed-beasts, and the tail-beasts he captured are all very abnormal."

"The matter of the eight tails has been entrusted to Madara. We don't need to interfere."

"Nagato, this..."

"You don't need to say anything. See Byakuya. Although his goal is the tailed beasts, he is trustworthy. At least he is much more trustworthy than Itachi and Deidara."

"Yes."

Konan walked to the room.

...

Su Xiao walked on the street of Mist Village. He wore a raincoat. After looking around, he entered a restaurant.

This was the largest restaurant in the Rain Village. Although the Rain Village was separated from Zetsu, tens of thousands of people lived here. With the financial support of the Akatsuki organization, the Rain Village was not poor. At least everyone had no problem with food and clothing, and there was no need to worry about war.

The Rain Village was a paradise in the Naruto world. Living here did not need to worry about starving, nor did they need to worry about war. They had the protection of 'God.' Although they could not freely enter and exit, no one wanted to leave.

Not poor and not rich. It seemed to be heavily guarded, but it was very stable. Even compared to the residents of the Fire Country, the happiness of the residents here was also very high. Except for the rain every day, everything was still fine.

Su Xiao sat in the restaurant. The residents of the Rain Country, regardless of gender, age or age, had the habit of drinking or eating spicy food. It rained all year round, and the humidity was too heavy. If not appropriate to drink or eat spicy food, rheumatism was unavoidable.

Su Xiao took a breath. The food was too spicy, but the taste was excellent.

On the side, Bobowang rolled his eyes because of the spiciness, but he could not resist the temptation of delicious food. He ate three big bowls with tears in his eyes.

The door of the restaurant was pushed open. Xiao Nan walked into the restaurant straight to Su Xiao, sitting opposite him.

Konan's clothes were wet from the rain.

The rain dripped down the blue hair.

Su Xiao just looked at Konan and continued enjoying the delicious food. Although it was spicy, the delicious food could not be resisted. The spicy fish in the Rain Country was famous, and its reputation was on top of the ramen.

"Is there something important coming back this time?"

Konan spoke. Su Xiao still kept eating, which made her frown.

Su Xiao once thought that Konan was a 'Support.' Not until she almost exploded to death did everyone know this sister was not 'Support.'

"Is the leader injured?"

Su Xiao's words made Konan's heart tighten.

"Light injuries have been recovered."

"Suddenly falling to the ground, the unconscious is also a light injury?"

Su Xiao picked up the ice water beside his hand and drank a big mouthful. Bobowang moved to the side, meaning to leave some for Ben Wang.

Konan looked at the ice in the cup doubtfully. How could there be ice in the Rain Village?

"Chief... injured, why did you come back this time?" Xiao Nan weighed this sentence in his heart, and from Su Xiao's many performances, it could be seen that although he had ideas about tailed beasts, it was still credible in general.

Su Xiao offended too many forces. This was also the reason why he did something to tailed beasts. The long door still did not turn against him. This kind of 'loyalty' subordinates was hard to find.

Compared to Itachi, Deidara and others, Nagato trusted Su Xiao more. Su Xiao did not hesitate to do the task. He killed whoever the target was.

"Have you seen the medical ninja?"

"I have seen it. The situation is not good, but it is not too bad."

Konan sighed. After thinking for a moment, she took out a sealed glass tube with a yellow bug inside.

"Have you seen this kind of bug?"

Su Xiao put down his chopsticks, wiped his hands, and took the glass tube.

"This should be the egg of a parasitic creature, not an insect. In the absence of a host, the life of this thing is extremely short. According to preliminary judgment, this parasitic creature is magnetic and not a male or female. If it were a male or female, the leader would have been killed by this thing. Therefore, this egg will not hatch and only absorb the host's vitality. After one to two weeks, the egg will die on its own."

Alchemy Pharmaceuticals contained a large number of biology, and it had a level 20 Alchemy Pharmaceuticals, which allowed Su Xiao to judge the characteristics of most creatures.

"This..."

Konan's heart began to beat faster. Su Xiao's characteristics were the same as the characteristics of this' worm. '

"You... Do you have a way to solve it?"

Konan seemed to have made up her mind. It was impossible not to make up her mind. In the current state of Nagato, she could hold on for half a month.

"I am not sure. It depends on the physique of the leader. If the physique is not strong enough, he will die. If I am informed of the parasitism's first moment, taking out the parent body is not too difficult."

Putting down the glass tube in his hand, Su Xiao felt something was wrong. Nagato could not die. Otherwise, the main mission would face the possibility of failure. It was not reliable to expect Obito and others to attack Konoha. Moreover, the main mission was to go to Konoha with Nagato. Nagato's death might even cause the mission to fail directly.

"Come with me."

Konan got up. Su Xiao did not say anything and just followed Konan.

Five minutes later, Konan stood in front of the room where Nagato was. Tendo stood motionless at the door, and Nagato was unconscious again.

"Leader, what is this?"

Su Xiao went up and down look at. It was necessary to play dumb.

"Come in. You can't tell anyone what you see later. This is the trust between Nagato and me, although we have no choice."

Konan did not say anything beautiful. She just pushed open the room.

A faint smell came, and Su Xiao saw the long door in the room that had been unconscious at a glance.

The long door stood on the device that controlled Payne. The wound on his chest was seriously rotten, and a mysterious creature was squirming inside.
