Chapter 581: The Meeting and Medicine

"This is Nagato, the controller of the Tendo."

Konan and Su Xiao briefly introduced Nagato, and some confidential information was not said.

"Oh? This is the real leader?"

"In a sense, this is the case. We can talk about the specific situation later. Do you have a way to save Nagato?"

Just as Konan was talking, Nagato slowly woke up. When he saw Su Xiao in the room, he was stunned and thought of something.

"Byakuya, you are here. Are you disappointed to see me in such a sorry state?"

Nagato breathed a sigh of relief.

"On the contrary, I don't need to know your secret. You need to promise me one thing. After that, I will do my best to treat your injuries."

"What is it?"

"Destroy Konoha."

Nagato was a little surprised, and a smile appeared on his face.

"If I hadn't been injured, I would have gone to Konoha to capture the Kyubi as soon as Itachi died. By the way, I would have destroyed the seemingly peaceful village, which was built on pain of others. I would have let them experience the pain of their loved ones' death, the pain of being lost."

"Then I can't let you die. Leader, are you called Nagato?"

"Cough, cough, cough."

Nagato suddenly coughed and seemed to have a sign of fainting again.

Su Xiao quickly stepped forward and checked Nagato's breath. His breath was very weak, like an older man in his last years.

"Let him lie down flat."

Su Xiao tried to remove Nagato from the control panel, but he was firmly fixed on it.

Konan stepped forward and skillfully removed him from the control panel.

"Nagato, can't lie flat..."

Nagato was covered with black metal thorns, and there were dozens of them. This was the hidden danger left behind by the forbidden technique when the long door was young.

"Is there an operating room here?"

"Yes, but..."

Konan was a little worried. Without thinking, she knew she had to use extreme methods to save him.

"Take him to the operating room, now."

Su Xiao's tone was firm. He was unsure if he could save Nagato, but he did not want to fail the mission. The punishment of all attributes -8 was too terrible.

Konan helped Nagato into the operating room with the best conditions in the Rain Village. Su Xiao took a pen and paper and wrote a pile of materials.

"Find these materials. You must find them."

"It's a bit difficult..."

"I must find it within ten hours. Otherwise, I can't save Nagato's life."

"Got it."

Konan quickly left. Su Xiao took out a bottle of potion with some pain. It was the No. 1 potion.

After diluting the No. 1 potion and putting it into a large glass bottle, Su Xiao took a thin tube to help Nagato with the infusion.

No. 1 potion slowly integrated into Nagato's blood. Nagato's pale face recovered some color, and woke up a moment later.

"It seems that you saved me once."

Nagato had just reached the edge of suffocation.

"I'm not sure if I can save you. I will do my best. Don't forget about Konoha."

"As long as I am alive, I will go to Konoha. For some old people, I must go."

Su Xiao knocked on the metal sticks behind the long door.

"Can these things be taken out?"

"Impossible, this is a signal receiver. It has something to do with my ability."

"Do I have to have so many metal rods simultaneously?"

"No, three is enough, but these metal rods are inserted into my organs and spine, unable to be removed."

"In other words, as long as you leave three pieces of weight on your body, any part of your body will be fine? These things will seriously affect the operation."

"Yes, but I will die rashly if I take out these metal sticks."

"I understand. If Konan can find those materials, I have a 30 chance of saving your life."

Nagato no longer spoke and began to sleep with his eyes closed. He had not rested for a few days. The coma was different from sleep. Nagato did not dare to sleep before. Once he relaxed, he might die.

After Nagato fell asleep, Su Xiao looked at the rotten part of Nagato's chest. Something was surging inside.

"Parasite? No, it's more like some worm that is specially cultivated to destroy human functions."

Su Xiao guessed that the contractor must do this.

Jiraya didn't have this kind of vicious ability.

Konan didn't let Su Xiao wait for ten hours. Four hours later, Konan, who was stained with blood, returned. Her white neck was bandaged.

"Can these things be done?"

She was very weak, and the bandage on her neck was dyed red when she spoke.

Su Xiao looked at the characteristics of the materials and nodded after a long time.

"Yes."

Su Xiao walked into the operating room with the materials, and Konan breathed a sigh of relief.

"If you can still persevere, be my assistant."

"Okay."

Konan also entered the operating room. Before entering the operating room, she left a few pieces of paper at the door to guard.

In the operation room.

Su Xiao took out a few items from the storage space, walked to a wooden table, and placed many test tubes, beakers, and other things on it.

After crushing the plants or materials Konan found and removing them an hour later, there were dozens of solutions in front of Su Xiao.

After mixing all kinds of materials, Su Xiao also took out the phosphorus blood for purification. After hesitating, he took out the solution after diluting the cells in the cylinder.

He poured dozens of solutions into a rough test tube in turn. Su Xiao held the rough test tube with one hand. His mana values were quickly consumed. He stabilized the changes in the solution in the test tube.

"Oh ---"

A string of bubbles rose from the test tube. Su Xiao felt that the weight was not enough. He directly dripped a drop of the cells in the original column.

"The long door is a vortex race, and the reincarnation eye has been transplanted. It can probably withstand this thing. Hopefully."

Su Xiao made the strongest recovery potion he had ever seen, but this thing was extremely dangerous.

[unnamed potion]

[Origin: Shadow Ninja]

[Rarity: Dark purple]

[Type: Recovery(Half-finished product), Material. ]

[Effect: Recovers 130 to 190 HP every second and quickly recovers body injuries. The effect and duration are determined by consumption or injection. ]

[Hint: This potion is a half-finished product. The risk of using it is extremely high. There is a 20 chance of woodification. 15 chance of suffering from the backlash of the vortex bloodline. 17 chance of suffering from the backlash of the cells in the cylinder. 10 chance of death. ]

[Rating: 260]

Description: A crazy alchemist must make this. Please stay away from him as soon as possible. You may become his test subject!

...

Su Xiao held a rough test tube in his hand. The medicine inside was about 700 milliliters. The weight was quite a lot. If Nagato did not have the physique of the Swirling Tribe and the Rinnegan, he would die within ten seconds.

"Put it in an infusion bottle."

Su Xiao handed the test tube to Konan. She did not know what this was, but she could only do it.

Su Xiao took out a syringe and flicked it. The bubble inside surged and was pushed out of the syringe by him.

He aimed at the spine of Nagato's waist, and Nagato frowned.

After a long time, Su Xiao patted Nagato's arm.

"Feel?"

"Yes."

Su Xiao took the scalpel and slid a shallow wound on Nagato's arm.

"What do you feel?"

"Something broke me. Did you inject me with an anesthetic?"

"Of course, but the weight is not enough."

Su Xiao continued to inject anesthetic into Nagato's body. Nagato's eyes narrowed as if there was a sign of sleep.

Konan put the fierce medicine into the infusion bottle and prepared the infusion tube. Su Xiao took the needle, stabbed it into Nagato's vein, and fixed it with tape. The fierce medicine was injected into Nagato's body, and the wound on Nagato's arm instantly recovered.

"Then, let's start. Nagato has already fallen asleep. He won't care if it's rough."

Su Xiao put on the disposable rubber gloves, stretched his fingers, and smiled.

Holding the metal rod on the back of the long door, he directly pulled out one, simple and crude.

Puchi, blood splashed, just splashing on Xiao Nan's face.

Konan's mouth opened and closed, but she could only watch.

Konan's chest was not small, conservatively estimated to be D, but Zetsu was not a woman with big breasts and no brains. She knew that the long door was going to die soon. Instead of waiting for death, it was better to take a gamble.

Chapter 582: Operation

Su Xiao stood in front of the operating table, wearing a one-time rubber glove. Konan stood behind him, and on the operating table was the long door that was unconscious.

What an incredible scene. Before entering the reincarnation paradise, Su Xiao and Zetsu would not think they could experience this kind of thing.

The operation was in the beginning stage, and Konan's tight cheeks could see how nervous she was.

Both Nagato and Konan did not know one thing. That was, Su Xiao, did not know how to operate at all. He just studied human anatomy and knew the human body very well.

If you judge from your medical experience, this operation will fail because 'The doctor is too unreliable.' This doctor is only good at killing people but in terms of saving people...

But it did not matter, with the effect of the bottle of fierce medicine, as long as Su Xiao did not touch Nagato's brain, even if the operation were a bit rough, it would not be a problem.

Su Xiao's plan was very simple. As long as he could ensure that Nagato would not die, the things after that would be simple. It was nothing more than tearing the Nagato into pieces. He took out the bad things, then corrected the body of the main door and let it recover on its own.

As long as he didn't trigger the debuff effect of the fierce medicine, Nagato wouldn't die.

Even if Su Xiao did not undergo surgery, Nagato would die, so it was necessary to take a risk.

Puchi, Puchi...

Su Xiao pulled the metal sticks behind him one by one, and after handing them to Konan, the metal sticks were put aside.

The number of metal sticks was more than imagined. There were 87. He didn't know how Nagato survived. These 87 metal sticks were at least 200 pounds!

After cleaning up the metal stick behind Nagato, Su Xiao used a scalpel to cut open the muscles on Nagato's back, but the wound on him was healing quickly, which caused a lot of difficulty for the operation.

Su Xiao first checked the damage caused by the metal stick to Nagato. He did not care about the organs. He had to pull out the metal stick. With the effect of the fierce medicine, his internal organs could quickly heal themselves, mainly the bones of the back column of Nagato.

His back column was seriously bent and deformed, and a lot of nerves were oppressed, and under the effect of the fierce medicine, the deformed spine bone of Nagato was healing quickly.

This was not a good thing. If the spine were not corrected and left alone, Nagato would be paralyzed even if it did not die, and it was a high-end paralysis.

Su Xiao reached into the wound on the back of Nagato and held Nagato's spine with his bare hands!

Crack! Crack!

Su Xiao was in the bones of the major spine.

Konan's eyebrows and Kakuzu would twitch whenever there was a crisp sound.

Five minutes later, Su Xiao adjusted Nagato's spine to the most appropriate physiological shape. The fierce medicine's recovery effect made Nagato's spine recover quickly. The nerves that were oppressed gradually recovered. Some of the already withered blood vessels recovered their vitality, and his spine returned to a healthy state.

Although this seemed a bit ridiculous, with the help of alchemy + vortex blood, and the cells of the cylinder, this was not a fantasy.

Su Xiao moved his fingers and sewed up the wound on the back of Nagato layer by layer.

This kind of wound that opened to the spine could not only sew the appearance a layer but also the interior.

For every stitch, Su Xiao would wait for a moment. He was waiting for the wound to recover, and then he would remove the line. This process lasted five times.

After the operation lasted for three hours, the metal rod behind Nagato was all taken out. These things that had troubled the long door for more than ten years finally left his body.

At this time, looking at appearance of Nagato, the white hair became dark red, which meant that the vitality of the long door was recovering quickly.

"Great."

Konan, who had always been calm and collected, clenched her fists and showed a smile on her face.

Nagato was Konan's best friend. The two of them were the same age. Nagato had taken care of her. Now Konan was taking care of Nagato. Although the two of them were not in love or related by blood, so many years of restraint were far better than family love. It was normal for Konan to have emotional fluctuations.

"Don't be happy too early. This is just the beginning. The thing in his chest is the real problem."

Su Xiao removed the stitching on the back of Nagato. At this time, only shallow scars could be seen on Nagato's back.

He pulled the long door lying on the operating table to lie flat, and Su Xiao began to clean up the muscle tissues that had already been corrupted on the chest of the long door.

Open the chest, and these rotten muscle tissues must be cleaned up. Otherwise, there was a risk of infection. Su Xiao still had this little common sense.

Konan acted as an assistant. Although Su Xiao was not good at surgery, the master of knife skill level was not a decoration. He was very accurate without a knife. In less than ten minutes, the rotten flesh on the chest of Nagato was all removed by him, revealing bright red muscle tissue. There was a hole in his chest, no bleeding, and it seemed that the blood vessels nearby had been necrotic.

"Can this wound heal?"

The hole in Nagato's chest made Konan frown.

"Don't talk."

Su Xiao was focused on sensing Nagato's body.

"Sorry..."

Konan stopped halfway. It was related to Nagato's life. She would not be careless.

Of course, the hole in Nagato's chest could heal. Now there was no need to think about the hole. The creature in Nagato's chest was troublesome. It was likely that the thing had simple wisdom. It could be seen that the creature knew that it was a parasite and could not easily kill the host.

And Su Xiao felt that the thing in Nagato wanted to struggle, but the thing survived by absorbing Nagato's blood. When Nagato was anesthetized, the thing in his body was also anesthesia.

To anesthetize Nagato, Su Xiao used an anesthetic that could anesthetize a few buffalos. The larger anesthetic would cause Nagato's body to stop. Otherwise, he would inject a few more needles.

The scalpel cut open the chest of the long door, and blood gushed out. A black shell of a beetle appeared.

After completely opening the chest, the appearance of the beetle came into view. The beetle was flat and was the size of a football. Although it was not small, the thickness of the beetle was only three centimeters, and its body was wrapped in a ball.

At this time, the beetle firmly wrapped around Nagato's heart, like a layer of the hard shell that completely covered the heart.

It was unknown what kind of ability this was, but it was so ruthless. If not for the vitality of the long door being strong enough, he would have died in a few minutes.

Su Xiao did not like shell-type insects, especially those who could lay eggs, which was extremely disgusting. All kinds of organs on the long door were attached to the eggs.

After seeing the scene in the chest of the long door, Konan's pupils contracted, and her stomach, which was not weak, was overwhelmed.

Su Xiao's face was calm. Although he also felt disgusted, the life of Nagato was in his hands.

Su Xiao took two hours to take out all the eggs. He also injected mana into Nagato during this time, ensuring no one escaped.

After taking out these eggs, Nagato's various organs recovered their vitality under the effect of the fierce medicine. The most obvious was the lungs, and the work was very smooth.

The beetle in front and behind Su Xiao, left and right of look at, did not know where to use the knife. This thing wrapped Nagato's heart too tightly, and there was no gap.

Su Xiao grabbed the beetle with his hand and tried to break it apart.

Drip drip ---

The machine on the side sounded an alarm, and the heartbeat of the long door slowed down. Su Xiao quickly let go.

Zetsu could not just break this beetle, this thing had already reached a symbiotic relationship with the heart of Nagato, and he had to think of other ways.

Chapter 583: Is This ... Really Okay

"It's hard."

Su Xiao's face was sweating. He had been focused for a few hours.

Konan picked up the towel on the side and helped him wipe his sweat. The sweat would affect the surgery in his eyes.

Konan had become a nurse. This was saving the life of Nagato. She never cared about the dignity of the strong.

"Catch this beetle."

Konan stepped forward and did not know how to do it for a while. This beetle was indeed difficult to do.

"Grab this with your left hand, and grab this with your right hand."

Su Xiao helped Konan to point out the position. She held the beetle with both hands.

"I don't believe that you don't have a nervous system. The body can be born with the heart, but pulling out the nervous system can destroy this symbiotic relationship."

Su Xiao began to study this beetle. He had underestimated the intelligence of this thing before. At this time, the eyes wrapped in the transparent film showed fear.

"This..."

Konan whispered. She also saw that this beetle was an intelligent creature, maybe a psychic beast.

Su Xiao searched for a long time and finally found the neck of the beetle. This little thing looked too casual. It took Su Xiao half an hour to identify the neck. The main thing was that the beetle was wrapped in a ball. He wanted to distinguish which side was the tail and which side was the neck.

It was faster to remove the nerve of the beetle. He did not know if this thing was completely numb. If he fought back before he died, it would be bad.

Su Xiao cut a very shallow wound on the beetle's body and tried to avoid provoking this thing. The light green blood flowed out. He used a piece of disinfectant cotton to touch some of the beetle's blood.

Zi ---

The sound of corrosion came, and the worst situation appeared. This thing was acidic blood.

If this thing were broken down violently, the heart of Nagato would be corroded.

With the effect of fierce medicine, it did not matter if the heart of the long door had a wound, but the whole body was corroded.

Su Xiao stretched out his arms, indicating that Konan did not need to hold the beetle but took off his coat.

The coat was full of blood from the long door. Su Xiao was just in case. If the blood of this beetle splashed out, he could cut off the skin stained with the blood in time.

To avoid being implicated, no one knew whether the beetle's blood was poisonous.

Su Xiao took off the one-time rubber glove. Now life and death were only for a moment. He could instantly pull out the nerve of the beetle. The long door lived, but the long door died. Acid blood was not a joke.

First, he clenched his fist, then let go. Su Xiao repeated this action.

Five minutes later, Su Xiao breathed a sigh of relief.

The scalpel cut forward, and a cold light flashed.

Su Xiao's fingers reached for the wound of the beetle-like lightning. With a swoosh, the a' white line 'was pulled out. These were the nerves that ran through the entire body of the beetle.

Throwing down the nerves, Su Xiao inserted his hand into the physiological salt water on the side. The acid blood on his fingertips was diluted, but the skin was damaged.

The beetle's body slowly opened like a flower. Su Xiao took out the beetle and put it into the metal tray on the side.

The heart of Nagato appeared in front of him. If Su Xiao wanted to kill him, he could now kill Nagato.

Although the reward for killing Nagato was generous, the stupid choice at that time, all attributes - 8, was not a joke. The charm that reached the level of ordinary people with great difficulty would become negative, and the main attributes would be greatly reduced.

Dong, dong, dong, dong ---

The heartbeat of Nagato gradually returned to normal, and the blood transport oxygen to the whole body.

After observing various internal organs of Nagato and confirming that there was no problem, Su Xiao began to deal with the follow-up, stitching up a layer of the wound, and after the wound recovered, he took off the thread all the way to stitch up the wound on the outermost layer.

When the last stitch was pulled out from Nagato's wound, Su Xiao's eyes were already bloodshot.

Nagato was wearing an oxygen mask on his face and was in a coma, but the operation was not over.

Su Xiao picked up four metal sticks and told Konan to grind these four metal sticks into several different shapes.

Konan was very fast. In less than 20 minutes, according to Su Xiao's requirements, the four metal sticks were broken down into dozens of small pieces and polished to several different specifications.

According to Nagato, three pieces of weight were enough, but Su Xiao prepared four, the reason was to prevent some black metal from leaving Nagato's body during the battle.

Nagato was his soon after 'Hit Man,' and he had to rely on this guy to destroy Konoha. He must not let him lose his fighting power.

Su Xiao began to make 'modifications' to the long door with black nails on his arm.

An hour later, two rows of black metal nails were embedded in Nagato's arms. The metal nails extended from the wrist to the shoulder blade, avoiding the joints that needed to be moved.

According to Su Xiao's plan, he originally wanted to put a nose ring on Nagato. This position that did not affect the battle was undoubtedly the choice of 'Good Zetsu,' but under the 'rising resistance of Konan,' the nose ring was changed to twelve black ear studs.

Su Xiao thought that it was a pity. Imagine how happy it was to fight with a black nose ring on Nagato.

Bobowang also felt that it was a pity. He also wanted to see what kind of scene it was.

Konan's cheeks twitched. She suddenly felt that this man and dog were not very reliable. However, she was also curious about the appearance of Nagato wearing a nose ring.

Thinking of this, Konan shook her head. The picture was too beautiful, and she dared not imagine it.

After the operation ended, Konan's body recovered roughly. It was still unknown whether he could survive.

Only Su Xiao, a 'doctor without a license,' dared to do this kind of surgery. If there was no fierce medicine, the blood loss could be fatal.

"Is Nagato... okay?"

Looking at Nagato lying on the operating table, breathing steadily, the smile on Konan's face never faded.

"Nothing? There is a 60 chance of survival. I did what I could, depending on his desire to live."

Su Xiao pulled out the needle on Nagato's arm. Although the effect of the fierce medicine was amazing, once the side effect was triggered, Nagato would die without a doubt.

At this time, Nagato no longer needed this thing. The Vortex Clan's physique was enough to restore Nagato's vitality gradually. It was not worth the risk.

"When will he wake up?"

The smile on Konan's face had faded, and he looked at Nagato with worry.

"I'm not sure. Maybe a few hours, maybe a few days, or even a few months."

Su Xiao was only responsible for the treatment. Whether he could recover was a matter of the long door, and it had nothing to do with him.

After a yawn, Su Xiao walked out of the operation and waved to Konan behind him.

"I'm going to sleep. If there is an emergency, come to the next door and call me."

Su Xiao walked into a ward next door and fell asleep. The operation was more tiring than he imagined.

...

Konoha Village, near the former headquarters of the Uchiha, is in prison.

...

The sound of dripping water could be heard. The prison was dark and damp, and the aura that Zetsu was looking at was everywhere. Even if it were a bright and beautiful Konoha, the prison environment was not much better than the Mist Village.

In the innermost cell, a little girl was curled up in the corner. If one listened carefully, they would hear the little girl's broken thoughts.

"This group of blue pools, keep chasing. Since the God Emperor adventure group has left, I will hide in Konoha's prison. If you have the ability, come and attack Konoha. I don't believe that contractor will dare to attack Konoha."

After a while, the little girl suddenly thought of something.

"But looking at the time, it seems that Nagato will attack Konoha soon. Fortunately, there is still enough time, and we can return in ten days."

The little girl took out a black ring. The ring looked simple, but it was just a ring.

A dark purple color flashed on the black ring. At first glance, it was not an everyday item. This was one of the Demon Hunter Rings, a dream set for all melee players.

"For you, I was chased by three adventurous groups. I don't know where to get the other two sets."

Gulu in the cell sighed. Perhaps because she was in a bad mood, she opened a candy and threw it into her mouth.

Chapter 584: Before the War

Two days later, in a ward in the Rain Village.

A red-haired man was lying on the bed. A ring of black earrings was on the edges of the man's ears. He had a unique temperament.

Konan slowly opened his eyes. The glaring light reflected in his eyes, which made him subconsciously close his eyes.

"I... am not dead?"

Nagato raised his arm with difficulty. The two rows of black metal nails on his arm appeared before his eyes. He seemed to have thought of something, and his eyes widened.

He was lying flat! He had not experienced this feeling of lying flat on the bed for more than ten years. He had been standing and sleeping like a horse for the past ten years.

It seems that the operation has succeeded. The creature in the chest has disappeared, the organs have regained vitality, and the spine... has returned to normal. The signal receiver is in a perfect position. The melee fighters have long considered this.

Although Nagato's facial expression did not fluctuate much, think about it, the feeling of a patient who was almost paralyzed for more than ten years suddenly recovering and being able to walk freely.

Right now, Nagato was in that kind of mood, but his experience when he was young made him destined not to be in ecstasy.

The door of the ward was pushed open. Konan held a glass bottle containing the nutrient solution mixed with Su Xiao. She would give Nagato liquid five times a day.

"Nagato, you are awake."

Konan quickly walked to the hospital bed. Although there was a smile on his face, there was not much emotional fluctuation.

Konan's personality was similar to Nagato's, and she didn't have the expression of laughing.

"En, help me up."

Nagato gritted his teeth and sat up. No matter how successful the operation was, it was necessary to recuperate. It was very difficult for Nagato to get up now.

"You have just been in surgery for two days. Don't..."

Nagato waved his hand, and Konan could only help Nagato up.

He tried to walk forward, but after two steps, his feet became soft, and he spat out a large mouthful of blood.

This shocked Konan, who helped Nagato back to the bed. She quickly walked out of the room to Su Xiao's room.

And Su Xiao was doing a 'big thing,' and in front of him was a broken tablet computer.

The puzzle game progress 'Death.'

If not for Obito, Su Xiao might have killed Sasuke, and this was the progress of him racking his brains to clear the game!

Su Xiao was not very proficient in electronic equipment. The difficulty of opening the tablet computer was not too great, but it was extremely difficult to put it back, and there was no clue.

Bobowang glanced at Su Xiao, and his gaze seemed to say: Master if you can put it back, I will perform an upside-down gnawing bone for you.

Su Xiao was not interested in Bobowang's upside-down bone, and he could not put the tablet computer back.

"contractor in the reincarnation paradise may have a way, ah ---"

Putting the "corpse" of the tablet into the storage space, Su Xiao's repair plan announced failure. He was not omnipotent. Some things were good, some were not, and no one would be perfect.

Bang.

The door was pushed open roughly, and Konan rushed into the room. The other party's loss of composure made Su Xiao frown.

"Nagato is awake?"

"Yes, and he vomited blood."

"Vomiting blood?"

Su Xiao stood up and walked with Konan to the ward of Nagato.

Su Xiao stood in front of Nagato's hospital bed a few minutes later. Knowing the cause and effect, he was a little speechless.

"It is normal to vomit blood. I was very surprised that you did not immediately die."

Konan's face was not very good. Su Xiao's words were indeed not good.

"That big operation can not be recovered after two days of recovery. It is good to be able to get up in two days. First, the basic function of the body will be restored. When the body function is stable, the recovery will be faster and faster in the next few days."

Su Xiao pointed to the chest of Nagato and felt the situation in his body.

"It is not a big problem, but if you want to recover, you can only slowly recuperate."

"Sorry for the trouble."

"Don't forget your promise."

"Well, after I recover, I will attack Konoha as soon as possible. Will you go with me?"

"Of course."

If it went according to the actual situation, Su Xiao wanted to join the plan to attack Konoha, but now this was part of the deal, and Nagato would not refuse Zetsu.

After Su Xiao saved Nagato, the unhappiness between the two sides was improved because of the tailed-beast incident, proving that his choice was correct.

Joining the Obito faction might get a temporary benefit, but the main mission had to be completed by Nagato, and Nagato was more honest. Obito was too good at pretending.

Just leaving Nagato's room, Su Xiao was idle, and he remembered that he still had the contribution points of the Akatsuki organization that had not been used.

[Akatsuki organization contribution points: 1720 points. ]

It was much worse than his expectations, and the [secret space pattern] that needed 3,000 points seemed hopeless.

The final battle was about to begin. After destroying Konoha, Su Xiao would leave the Naruto world as soon as possible, and it would be useless even if he had more contribution points.

After thinking for a moment, Su Xiao found Xiao Nan outside the room.

"Konan, I want something in the organization as a reward for working for the organization."

"What do you want?"

"Spatial runes."

"Sure."

Konan was very straightforward and did not hesitate at all.

Not long after, Konan brought a scroll. The scroll was only the length of a finger, and its surface was flowing with a light golden light.

Su Xiao's 1720 contribution points disappeared. He only spent 1720 points to buy the space secret pattern. This was the benefit of saving Nagato.

It was impossible to get the 'space secret pattern' without contribution points. If other members of the Akatsuki organization knew about it, they would inevitably have objections.

[Space Rune]

...

It was a scroll-type item that could be used immediately, and Su Xiao hesitated to imprint it.

First, excluding the body parts, the green steel shadow energy might devour this thing.

There was only equipment left, which equipment was imprinted on. Su Xiao could not choose for a while.

It was impossible for the dragon flash, and there was a chance of failure. If the dragon flash were damaged, it would lose blood.

Su Xiao now wore equipment:

...

Su Xiao suddenly found that he was already very rich unknowingly. The attributes of this equipment were good.

After weighing the pros and cons for a long time, he decided to brand [Space Rune] on his Mist trench coat(dark purple).

The reason was very simple. The Mist in the Mist trench coat(passive), anti-penetration(passive), self-healing(passive). All three abilities were good and could be worn for a long time. Moreover, even if this trench coat were damaged, it would not hurt his muscles and bones.

Opening the Space Rune Scroll, a light golden mark floated in the air.

[Yes/ No branded the 'Space Rune' into the 'Mist trench coat.' ]

The choice was that the faint golden mark in the air drifted away and finally outlined a golden line at the sleeve of the Mist trench coat.

The secret space pattern was not something that everyday items could carry. If the item's strength were insufficient, the imprint would break instantly.

Su Xiao put on the Mist trench coat, and the disappearance of the secret space pattern was temporarily impossible to experiment with.

What happened after could only heal Nagato's body. Su Xiao occasionally wandered around the Rain Village. Most of the time, he was practicing the sword and developing moves.

...

Five days later, in Nagato's ward.

"I am preparing to go to Konoha in two days, and I will start to arrange it today, preparing for the attack in two days."

Nagato sat on the hospital bed. Although his body was thin, he was not as skinny as before, and his face was no different from ordinary people's.

"I have been waiting for you to say this for a long time."

Su Xiao held the hilt of the dragon flash. Although he had a good harvest in the Naruto world, this was not a place to stay for long.

The early and later stages of the Naruto world were two different worlds. In the later stages, there were many super shadows, and the strength was on the off list.

Chapter 585: Prepare

Rain Village, in the hospital.

"This is a map of Konoha."

Konan spread a map on the table. Su Xiao and Nagato looked at the map.

Attacking Konoha was not a simple matter. They needed to be fully prepared. Even if Nagato was strong, there was a possible failure in recklessly attacking Konoha.

"There are three main attacking locations: the hospital, the logistics department, and the assembly point of the rangers near Konoha. If we destroy these three places, we will be able to defeat Konoha..."

Konan began to narrate her plan.

"This plan..."

Although Nagato was looking at the map, he did not know what to think.

"What's wrong, Nagato?"

Konan felt that her plan was quite perfect.

"It's okay. Just follow your plan. If there is an accident, we can change accordingly."

Nagato already had a plan in his heart. It was not his goal to destroy Konoha. He wanted to wipe it out completely.

"Our purpose this time is to attack not only Konoha but also more important tasks."

"Nine-tails?"

Su Xiao guessed what Nagato was going to say.

"Yes, the eight-tails have been captured, so the nine-tails are captured in this operation. Byakuya, restrain a little when catching the nine-tails."

Nagato meant that Su Xiao should not swallow the Biju half to death.

"Looking at the situation, capturing Jinchuriki is not a simple matter, especially the Kyubi."

The three continued to discuss, and the action plan was gradually perfected.

However, before executing the plan, there were still many preparations, such as entrusting some high-difficulty tasks to Konoha.

The expenses of the large-scale Ninja Village were not small. It was obvious that they could not rely solely on their fame. Others could not completely control their lifeline. All the big villages would accept the commission of other forces. The larger the scale of the village, the higher the cost. Although the cost was high, the credit of these villages was good. Among them, Konoha and Rock Ninja were the leaders.

After accepting the commission, the village would send out the Ninjas to execute it. Konan submitted the commission through special channels to Konoha,

The difficulty of the commission is not low, and the price is generous.

These channels have been cultivated for a long time and have worked with Konoha several times, so they are not worried that Konoha would be suspicious.

Weakening the enemy was equivalent to strengthening their side. Su Xiao and others wanted to start a war with Konoha, and any method that could increase the win rate would be used.

Although this was the case, Nagato and Konan did not use the Ninjas of the Rain Village.

Not only that, Konan would try to avoid appearing in Konoha during the war, and even if they did, all the witnesses would be killed.

Konan handled the matters of the Rain Village. Although Rain Village was separated from Zetsu, her information was inevitably leaked.

If Konan were exposed, then the remnants of Konoha would come looking for him.

...

Before the war began, Su Xiao, Konan, and Nagato left the Rain Country at night, and the Rain Country rarely stopped raining.

The Rain Country was located in the gap between the borders of the Fire Country and the Sand Country, not too far from Konoha, and it would take more than ten hours to arrive.

Su Xiao rode on Bobowang's back while Nagato and Konan ran on foot. Nagato's body had recovered. This level of travel was nothing.

Su Xiao lowered his head, and the light in his hand flashed as if he was rubbing something. Seeing this scene, Konan subconsciously moved away from Su Xiao, as if Su Xiao was holding something dangerous in his hand.

"So that's how it is."

Su Xiao seemed to be studying something, not nodding or shaking his head.

He held a piece of blue clay in his hand. This was the explosive clay technology that he exchanged with Deidara. He paid the special alchemy bomb formula to get this thing from Deidara.

Of course, obtaining this technology did not mean he had the same ability as Deidara. The explosive clay was just a prototype, and its power was not too great. Later on, processing was the key. This was also the powerful part of Deidara, the art that Deidara spoke of.

The initial explosion of clay was not used for fighting but as the raw materials for fireworks. After the transformation of Deidara, it had the current power.

Su Xiao observed the blue clay in his hand. This thing was similar to the nature of the explosive clay. The explosive clay was mixed with chakra. This blue clay was mixed with the energy of the green steel shadow.

Although the power of the special-class alchemy bomb was good and convenient to carry, it could only be made in the reincarnation paradise without materials, and the cost was not low.

Su Xiao had always wanted to improve the alchemy bomb. At the very least, he could make the alchemy bomb any time, not store it in stock.

He had studied the production of clay for more than half a month. Today, he finally took out the finished product, which was barely satisfactory.

It turned out that the special-class alchemy bomb and the soil could not be used for each other. Although the two were similar in appearance and the effect was similar, the material and the manufacturing technology were very different.

And the blue clay created by Su Xiao could not even change its shape, let alone explode.

Sometimes persistence was necessary, but it was stupid to persist in the absence of hope.

"Sure enough, the detonation of clay and alchemy bombs are completely different. This is also expected."

Su Xiao threw down the blue clay. As Bobowang ran, the blue clay disappeared.

The experiment failed. His mood was inevitably a little low. Chakra was different from steel shadow. Whether it was nature or function, failure was also expected.

"If I can master chakra, there is still hope, chakra..."

Su Xiao suddenly thought of a possibility, a possibility that he might be able to improve the special-class alchemy bomb.

Alchemy bombs were made from several materials and mana values. What would happen if the mana value was replaced with steel shadow energy?

As soon as this idea appeared, he was eager to experiment.

Unfortunately, this idea could not be experimented with before returning to the reincarnation paradise. Although it could not experiment, he could speculate in his mind whether this method was feasible.

Thinking about it made them no longer bored, and the three unknowingly arrived in Konoha.

After arriving in the forest near Konoha, the three did not immediately attack Konoha. They first had to help Nagato find a hiding place and build a long door to control the six Payne's consoles.

Konan did this matter, and a large piece of paper flew out with a wave of her hand. These papers gathered together and finally formed the shape of a tree.

After being molded, the branches and green leaves of the trees formed by paper appeared, and as long as one did not observe closely, they would not be able to find that this was a fake tree.

There was a large forest around Konoha, and there were countless types of trees, so this oddly-shaped fake tree with a diameter of nearly ten meters was not eye-catching compared to the other trees.

Konan walked into the fake tree and began to set up Nagato to control the six pieces of Payne. The main body of this thing was made of wood, and the base was black metal, the same material as the metal nails on the long door.

Three hours later, the control panel was successfully built, and with this thing, the long door could remotely control six pieces of Payne.

Although the six pieces of Payne were strong, there were many prerequisites to controlling six pieces of Payne, ninjutsu developed by Nagato based on the Rinnegan.

Chapter 586: Direct Attack

Konoha Village.

This was a peaceful and prosperous village. The streets were neat, and occasionally children were running through the streets.

The breeze blew a few patches of green. Konoha only had summer, and other seasons were not obvious.

On the streets of Konoha, occasional groups of ninjas gathered together. These ninjas were responsible for protecting the stability of the village, but Konoha had been peaceful for too long, so their daily lives were to chat and play cards.

"Sarutobi, wait for me."

An orange-haired little girl ran across the street, holding a bunch of meatballs in her hand.

The whole Konoha gave people the feeling of peace; under this peace, the darkness was about to envelop. A group of people would turn this place into a living hell in a few minutes!

At the edge of the Konoha Village, in front of a temporary stronghold.

A few ninjas in dark green vests were either standing or sitting in front of the stronghold, discussing something with each other and occasionally laughing.

"It's still the same as before, safe and sound. The peaceful era is really good."

A superior Ninja sighed with emotion. He had participated in the third Ninja World War, so he understood the cruelty of the war.

Sou, sou ---

Two scouting Ninjas appeared.

"Investigation complete. No suspicious people were found. It's the same as before."

A middle Ninja reported to the superior Ninja of the team.

"Well, it's about time. Let's go back. The weather is good today. It's good weather for fishing."

"Captain, the new wine house recently opened is very good."

"Is that so? Let's get together tonight?"

The superior Ninja looked around at the people around him.

"No problem."

"Of course, I have to go."

"That... Captain, I..."

A middle-aged ninja laughed and scratched his head.

"How long have you been married, and you start to fear your wife? You are living in hell."

""

"I'm not afraid. This is... that..."

The surrounding people burst into laughter, and the middle Ninja's face turned red.

Wind-breaking could be heard as they chatted and laughed for a few days, and the fallen leaves were rolled up.

Clang!

The light blue blade light cut through, and the leaves in the air were cut off. The middle Ninja, afraid of his wife, was suddenly stunned, and a red line appeared on his neck.

The head fell to the ground, and a figure appeared in the middle of a few Ninjas. This figure was extremely fast as if it had suddenly appeared.

"Good morning, everyone."

The blade light flashed, almost forming a net of blades.

Puchi, Puchi, blood splashed, two heads flew up, the expression on the head stunned.

"Enemy attack!"

A Konoha Ninja shouted and subconsciously jumped back, making hand seals. This was just an ordinary Konoha Ninja, and from this, one could see how excellent the quality of Konoha Ninjas was.

Unfortunately, he was close to a Shinigami who could kill a shadow level at close range.

Su Xiao rushed forward and closed the distance with the ninja, who retreated, and the dragon flash in his hand slashed forward.

The bright sword light made the ninja's pupils shrink. He saw the last scene was a long sword stained with blood.

Puchi.

Another head flew up, and six ninjas were present, but only two survived.

This was not the end. Su Xiao stepped onto the ground. The 50 points agility attribute made him just a shadow in the eyes of the enemy.

Puff, blood splashed out, a middle Ninja who had not reacted was beheaded.

"Fire Style - Hao Fireball Technique."

The raging fire spewed out from the mouth of the last superior, and the flames formed a big fireball that rushed to Su Xiao.

Su Xiao formed a 50 points strength energy shield in front of him. With the burning of the fire, the energy shield appeared to be cracked.

Holding the big fireball and moving forward, Su Xiao rushed to the superior Ninja in a few steps.

"Resisted it? How is that possible!"

Su Xiao, who was already close at hand, stunned the superior Ninja as if he could not believe that Su Xiao had ignored his Ninjutsu.

The energy shield was removed, Su Xiao held the sword with one hand, the long sword was raised to store power, and the sword slashed toward Konoha's superior Ninja.

Konoha's superior Ninja made a hand seal, ready to use the Body Substitution.

The long sword cut down, and there was a shadow in the air.

With a bang, the two arms fell to the ground, and before Konoha's Jonin could complete the seal, his arm was cut off.

Konoha's Jonin staggered back a few steps, blood spurting from the wound. The pain of the broken arm made his head full of cold sweat. This was because Su Xiao did not open the steel shadow. Otherwise, he would know what was worse than death.

"A thief of the Akatsuki organization!"

Konoha's Jonin sat on the ground with a bang. He was very sullen. His arms were cut off before he could use his skills. If he could not make a seal, he could not use Ninjutsu. He was dead.

Su Xiao ignored the words of Konoha's Jonin and walked forward slowly as if the enemy could not stop him from killing.

This Zetsu made Konoha's Jonin collapse. Konoha had been peaceful for too long, and some Konoha Ninjas no longer had the courage and courage they used to have.

One, two, and three times, how domineering Konoha was, sitting in the most fertile land, located in the center of the four major countries but not losing an inch of territory.

But now, Konoha's Ninjas began to pursue fetters, companions, and so on, and each generation was inferior to the next. If they could not 'commit,' they would become weaker and weaker in the future.

"Wait..."

The long sword was cut open, and the throat of Konoha's Jonin was cut open.

Su Xiao did not need to get any information from the other side. He did not have the habit of talking nonsense with the enemy. Most villains died from talking too much. He did not want to experience that stupid death.

Killing these six Konoha Ninjas did not get the world's source, making Su Xiao think that attacking Konoha might be the same as catching a tail. It was all a plot event. After the event ended, the reward was distributed.

Six bodies were scattered around Su Xiao in less than a minute, and the blood dyed the nearby grass red.

Six Payne and Konan appeared from the dense forest.

The patrolling Ninjas of Konoha were cleaned up, and it was time to attack Konoha.

"Get ready to start. Next, split into two groups, lure the enemy and scout groups, and determine the personnel first."

Nagato controlled the voice, and after thinking for a moment, he continued: "Lure the enemy into Asura, Animal Path, Hungry Ghost Investigation Group to Tendo, Human Path, and Hell Path. Byakuya, you also look for the Kyubi."

As he spoke, his eyes widened, and a barrier appeared.

"Sure enough, there is a spherical barrier under and above Konoha's village, and according to the original plan, the Animal Path is thrown in from the sky, making the enemy unable to judge the number of people on our side, causing chaos. Later, we will wait for the Animal Path to communicate and try to avoid touching the barrier."

After the plan was set up, Asura hugged his leg.

Asura looked rough, and a petite female ninja made his animal life.

"From now on, let the world feel the pain."

As soon as he finished speaking, Asura threw Animal life out, and this throw used all his strength. Animal life was like a cannonball flying toward Konoha,

The beast that was flying in the air quickly formed a hand seal. Just as she finished forming the hand seal, she seemed to have crashed into a soft barrier.

The beast's path rushed into the barrier. This barrier only had the effect of perception and no actual defense.

Silently landing on a roof, the beast path pressed his hand against the ground.

Bang.

White smoke rose, and the other five Payne were summoned into the barrier.

At this time, they had already noticed that someone had invaded, but their intelligence was wrong. They only thought that an enemy had invaded.

Six Payne had gathered together, and Tendo looked around. There was no threat nearby, and the plan was very successful.

"Scatter."

With a swoosh, the six Payne turned into six black shadows and rushed in different directions.

Ten seconds later.

Boom, boom, boom...

A dense explosion was heard. Flames and black smoke surged out of the village, and large buildings collapsed. Screams spread from everywhere. It was the Asura Path that was creating chaos.

"Roar!"

Three giant centipedes roared towards the sky, collapsing houses one after another. A large number of civilians were dead and injured. This was the masterpiece of the Animal Path.

The other Payne also moved, and Konoha was in chaos in less than a minute. Zetsu could not hear screaming and crying.

Chapter 587: 3 Headed Dog

In the forest outside Konoha.

The explosion in the distance was not in Zetsu's ears. Su Xiao stood in the forest with a smile on his face.

Nagato began to attack Konoha, which meant that his task had been completed 70. The difficulty of main task was not to destroy Konoha but how to let Nagato destroy Konoha in advance.

According to the original plot, Nagato would plan to destroy Konoha after a month. By then, Su Xiao's task period had arrived.

At this point, Naruto had yet to go to Mount Myoboku to learn Senjutsu. If Danzo did not make a move, Nagato might be able to break through Konoha.

Konoha was the strongest village on the surface, but it was not the case. After the death of the 4th Hokage, Konoha began to go down the county road. The return of the 3rd was a clear sign, and the Hokage had no successor.

Right now, Konoha only had Tsunade and Danzo. Although Kai was powerful, he was not in Konoha at this time. Three days ago, Kaili Village was on a mission. Su Xiao confirmed this point and attacked Konoha at this time. The kick before made him remember it deeply.

Su Xiao stood up and patted the grass on his body.

"Bobo, you hide here."

"Woof."

Bobowang had some doubts. If Su Xiao entered Konoha, he could not use the Ice and Snow Goddess Halo and healing ability at this distance.

"The battle will end soon. As long as Konoha is destroyed, victory and defeat are not the keys."

Yes, as long as the gate flattened Konoha, Su Xiao's task would be announced to be completed, and then he could leave the Naruto world at any time.

Su Xiao walked to Konoha with his sword, directly passing through the enchantment, and Konoha was in a mess. No one would come to find trouble with him.

Six pieces of Payne destroyed and investigated in the Konoha Village. Su Xiao was not going to help. He was going to search in the Konoha Village, which was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

"Where should I go? There should be a treasure house in Konoha."

Su Xiao slowly walked into Konoha. A bomb launched by Shura flew near him, and the bomb exploded. The wind blew his clothes, and the fire reflected on his cheek.

A child panicked through the street because he only cared about his back. The little boy hit Su Xiao.

"Child, where is the office building of the Hokage?"

Su Xiao squatted down.

He tried his best to show a gentle smile but did not want his aura to be so terrifying. Moreover, his charm attribute was 'amazing.'

The child who was stopped was scared silly, especially when he saw the long blood-stained knife.

The child's pants gradually became wet, and finally, he cried out.

"Child, don't cry."

Su Xiao patted the child's head, not to mention under his' comfort, 'the child immediately stopped crying.

It was not that the child did not cry, but was completely scared and silly.

"Over... over there."

The child trembled and pointed in a direction. Su Xiao walked to the office building of the Hokage. If he wanted to hide something, there was no place safer than the office building of the Hokage.

Just as Su Xiao was on the way to the office building of the Hokage, a figure rushed to him.

The footsteps stopped, and Su Xiao looked at the white-haired ninja wearing a mask.

"I didn't kill you last time, and now you appear in front of me again."

As soon as Su Xiao's voice fell, a force of impact came, and there was a faint sound of the voice of Tendo.

"Shinra Tensei!"

Boom!

The impact spread and Su Xiao created an energy shield on his side. A second later, he flew out of thin air.

Adjusting his center of gravity in the air, Su Xiao landed, and he was involved in the battle of the gods.

"Huh?"

Tendo looked at Su Xiao. Su Xiao pointed to the three enemies on the field. He nodded and walked away.

The two did not communicate with each other through words. Su Xiao meant he would deal with these people, and Tiandao went to find the Kyubi.

"Byakuya."

A slightly cold voice came. Su Xiao turned his head to look at the enemies on the field. Three enemies had fought with him. They were Kakashi, Akimichi Choji, and Akimichi Choza.

One of Kakashi's eyes was closed. Su Xiao dug out the Sharingan, and the bodily injury had been healed under the treatment of Tsunade.

"Choza, you father and son go first."

Kakashi had fought with Su Xiao and knew how strong Su Xiao's melee ability was. Akimichi and his son were both melee attacks unsuitable for fighting with Su Xiao.

"But, Kakashi..."

Akimichi Choza looked embarrassed. He knew that this was the best choice at the moment.

"Choza, the village is being attacked. Tell the Hokage about the attackers. This is the most important thing."

"Understood."

Akimichi and his son slowly retreated. Although leaving Kakashi alone to face the enemy was dangerous, there was no other way. Moreover, the support had arrived.

A female ninja came from the ruins. She had short hair and two red marks on her face. There was a one-eyed Ninja behind her.

This female ninja did not say a word and just looked at Su Xiao silently. She was the mother of Onitsuka.

"Tsume, don't be impulsive."

Kakashi moved to the side of Inuzuka Tsume. He could feel that the other party was like a volcano that would erupt anytime.

"I am very calm."

Her voice was slightly hoarse, and her teeth were grinding as he spoke.

The Akimichi father and son left quickly. Su Xiao did not stop them. The Animal Path had already intercepted them in front.

"This time, no one opened seven doors to save you."

Su Xiao moved his shoulders, first looked at Kakashi, then turned to look at Inuzuka.

He knew Inuzuka was Onitsuka's mother, and the other party appeared here for revenge.

"My son died in your hands, which means his cultivation is insufficient."

Inuzuka spoke, and her words were shocking.

However, even if his cultivation is not enough, he is still my son, my flesh and blood. If I don't help him take revenge, I don't deserve the surname Inuzuka.

Inuzuka made a seal, and the chakra in the body of the Ninja Dog beside him also became active.

"Inuzuka mixed human beast - Three-head Dog."

Bang, white eyes rose.

When the white eyes faded away, Inuzuka had already disappeared. Her body grew larger, and a head appeared on both sides of its neck.

This black Ninja Dog was like a three-headed dog from hell. At this time, it was Inuzuka controlling it. To be exact, the three-headed dog was transformed into Inuzuka and Ninja Dog.

"Kakashi, I will hold him back. You look for an opportunity."

The three-headed dog spoke in human language. To cover up which one was the head of Inuzuka, the three heads spoke simultaneously.

"Wait!"

Kakashi was shocked. If Inuzuka rushed up like this, her three heads would be instantly cut off.

"It's fine. Even if she is very strong in close combat, she won't be strong enough to kill me in an instant. The Dog Tomb Family is also an expert in close combat."

Inuzuka was a little impatient.

"The enemy's sword skill..."

Clang!

The sword light slashed at Kakashi, and Su Xiao would not let Kakashi reveal his information to Inuzuka.

After cutting out a sword light, Su Xiao cut out three more sword lights to suppress Kakashi and Inuzuka. He could take this opportunity to get close to the two people.

"Thunder Shield - Thunder Chain."

Kakashi produced a thunder chain in his hand and waved it forward. The thunder chain broke the sword light. Su Xiao had experienced this thing before, so he was not surprised.

The thunder chain whipped at Su Xiao. Su Xiao, who was rushing forward, immediately jumped up. As soon as he jumped up, the three-headed dog jumped at the same time, and three bloody mouths bit at him.

In the air, Su Xiao clenched the handle of the dragon flash, and his momentum suddenly became sharp.

"Ring Break!"

Clang!

The circular saber light spread out in all directions, cutting off all three heads of the three-headed dog.

With a bang, the three-headed dog turned into smoke and disappeared. This was a shadow clone.

Chapter 588: Witness

"Shadowing?"

Su Xiao, who was in the air, landed and stopped rushing to Kakashi. In his perception, the three-headed dog was physical, but a strange feeling appeared when the blade cut down.

"Roar!"

The roar came from the foot, and a dog head broke out of the ground and bit Su Xiao's calf.

"Earth - Rising Core."

Not far away, Kakashi hit the ground with one hand, and the stone pillar rose from under Su Xiao's feet.

This stone pillar was very strong, and it appeared very suddenly. Su Xiao's centre of gravity was inevitably unstable, and his body leaned sideways.

With a click, the blood plate of the three-headed dog bit Su Xiao's calf. Several of its teeth cracked, and the three-headed dog did not bite his calf but on the hard energy shield.

Dragon flash turned in his hand and changed from the hand holding the sword to the backhand holding the sword.

Zi, zi, zi ---

The sharp sound of thunder came. When Su Xiao was fighting with the three-headed dog, Kakashi had already rushed forward, and the thunder and lightning in his hand rushed to Su Xiao's chest.

Su Xiao did not pay attention to Kakashi but created a layer of energy shield with 150 points of strength in front of him and stabbed the ground under his feet with a backhand.

Half of the blade went into the ground, and there was a groan. The sword stabbed the three-headed dog on the ground.

Su Xiao held the hilt with both hands and turned. The green steel shadow energy climbed on the surface of the dragon flash. There were two screams from the ground. It was the dog's claws and her endured dog.

More than ten energy thorns came out of the blade's tip, and the underground sound disappeared.

Pulling out the bloody long sword, Su Xiao looked at Kakashi in front of him.

At this time, Kakashi was about one meter away from him, his palm was on the energy shield in front of him, and Su Xiao slashed at Kakashi the moment he removed the energy shield.

As a good friend of Kai, Kakashi's physical skills were not weak, and his body leaned back to avoid the knife.

The long knife passed through the tip of Kakashi's nose, and the green steel shadow energy burned his cheek faintly.

Avoiding this thrilling knife, Kakashi's face was not good. He took the initiative to get close to Su Xiao to save Inuzuka, but he failed. It was also difficult to distance himself from Su Xiao now.

Kakashi was not ruthless enough. If he was ruthless enough, he could completely ignore Inuzuka.

Inuzuka was determined to take revenge. He thought that he could get close to Su Xiao.

But after the actual battle, Inuzuka found that it was not the case. The enemy's speed was extremely fast, and the blade was exquisite. Once they fought, it was impossible to retreat.

Inuzuka paid the price for his recklessness and died on the soil under Su Xiao's feet. Kakashi also paid the price for his recklessness and was close to Su Xiao.

Su Xiao held the long sword in his hand and slashed continuously, leaving a silver line in the air.

Kakashi retreated one after another and unexpectedly avoided Su Xiao's four blades. At this time, he was holding Kunai in his hand, and his face was full of cold sweat.

Ding, ding, ding...

Dragon flash collided with Kunai. At the same time as sparks flew, Kunai burst out a clear groove. Kakashi blocked Su Xiao more than ten times in a row, surprising Su Xiao.

"Cut."

Su Xiao's slashing speed suddenly accelerated, reaching a level that made people dizzy, and the pressure on Kakashi suddenly increased.

Every time Su Xiao slashed, a sword light would fly out. Kakashi's green vest was broken in a few seconds, and there were knife wounds on his chest.

After fighting with Kakashi a few more times, Su Xiao noticed something was wrong. Kakashi seemed to be in a sorry state after being close, but he would not be killed for a moment, which was very different from the last battle.

Su Xiao carefully observed the changes in Kakashi. He suddenly found that the blood vessels on Kakashi's face were bulging, and the chakra flow in his body was extremely fast. It seemed to remove the restriction of his body.

"This is... Eight Inner Hidden Armor?"

Su Xiao finally knew why Kakashi could fight with him for so long. The reason was that Kakashi had opened the second door of the eight doors, which was also the limit of Kakashi.

Due to the relationship between Kakashi and Kai, Su Xiao was not surprised that Kakashi could open the door.

Although the second door was opened, Kakashi's close combat ability was still not on the same level as Su Xiao.

Su Xiao moved sideways, the long sword was raised above his head, and after quickly accumulating power, he slashed down.

This slash was strong and heavy, and the speed was extremely fast. Kakashi subconsciously used the Kunai to block.

With a sound, the Kunai broke, and the long sword directly cut Kakashi.

The knife cut Kakashi's cheek, and the knife wound spread down his chest to his lower abdomen.

From Su Xiao's perspective, he could vaguely see Kakashi's beating heart.

Kakashi's black mask was cut open, and before the wound on his cheek gushed out blood, Su Xiao saw Kakashi's appearance.

The lower half of Kakashi's face was no different from that of ordinary people, without big lips or buckteeth.

The green steel shadow energy invaded Kakashi's body. Kakashi was in so much pain that his face was covered with cold sweat. His body began to stiffen.

Su Xiao certainly would not miss this kind of opportunity. He slashed at Kakashi.

At this time, a strong sense of crisis appeared.

Boom!

The Kunai in Kakashi's hand exploded, and the flames produced by the explosion wrapped Su Xiao. The powerful impact rushed to him. Although he formed an energy shield in front of him at the moment of the explosion, it was still a little late.

When the fire retreated, fresh blood seeped out of Su Xiao's arm, and a piece of Kunai entered his arm.

Looking at Kakashi, at this time, one of his arms was blown off, and one side of his cheek was full of burn.

If Su Xiao had opened the shield a second later, he would have been seriously injured if he had not been blown to death.

Just now, it was not the Kunai Explosion in Kakashi's hand, but Kakashi had wrapped a talisman on the Kunai in advance. After being seriously injured by Su Xiao's sword, he knew that this was a situation of certain death, so he decisively activated the talisman.

This talisman was not an everyday item, it was a special talisman issued by the second-generation Hokage, and its power was five times that of ordinary talismans. In the Ninja World, only the upper-class Ninjas of Konoha could obtain it.

"Wow ---It turned out to be like this."

Kakashi spat out a large mouthful of blood.

"Let's go to hell together."

Kakashi looked at Su Xiao, who was not far away, and a smile appeared on his face full of blood.

Su Xiao's pupils contracted, and a sense of crisis came from below.

"Thunder Shield..."

Kakashi pressed his only arm on the ground, and a burst of lightning was directed into the ground. This was a type of developed non-seal ninjutsu. The consumption of chakra was very large. If he still had Sharingan, he couldn't use this ninjutsu in combat.

"Kakashi Sensei!"

A hoarse shout came from the distance. Hearing this familiar voice, Kakashi, who was ready to die with the enemy, paused. Because this shout was too familiar, it was his subordinate Naruto.

Clang!

The blade flashed, Kakashi's movements froze, and the lightning in his hand dissipated.

Su Xiao looked at the ground under his feet. He had already perceived Kakashi's attack. Ninjutsu was not as fast as his blade light. He won.

Kakashi fell to the ground with a thud. His head was directly cut off, and he died in an instant.

There was no hint of obtaining the source of the world, and a light golden treasure chest fell to the ground.

Su Xiao stepped forward to pick up the treasure chest. After putting away the treasure chest, he pulled out the Kunai fragment in his arm.

The scene of Kakashi being beheaded fell into Naruto's eyes. Naruto stood wide open as if he could not believe the scene in front of him.

"Kakashi... Sensei?"

Chapter 589: Tailed

Su Xiao turned his head to look at Naruto in the distance. At this time, Naruto's blue pupils became light red, and the scar on his cheeks like an animal beard was more obvious.

"Could it be..."

Su Xiao frowned. This guy was stimulated and was ready to explode.

"Kakashi Sensei... is dead?"

Naruto stared at Kakashi's body with his blood-red pupils. A pale red chakra appeared on the surface of his body, and it wrapped him like water, forming a layer of tailed-beast clothes.

At this time, Naruto had already exploded a tail, and his consciousness began to become chaotic. The Kyuubi's chakra was extremely violent, and the more tails it exploded, the more blurred Naruto's consciousness was. If there were nine tails behind Naruto, then he would be controlled by Kyubi.

Su Xiao was not interested in fighting Naruto, he could deal with Naruto, who was in the four tails, but it was very troublesome.

Boom ---

A dark red chakra spread around Naruto, the buildings were blown away, and the strong wind spread.

Su Xiao blocked in front of him with one hand. He had absorbed the chakra of two-tailed beasts, so his perception of tailed beasts was relatively sharp.

At this time, he could no longer feel Naruto's aura, and the violent chakra of Kyuubi completely covered Naruto.

A dark red energy ball with a diameter of six or seven meters appeared, and Naruto, in the middle, was completely wrapped by dark red chakra, turning into a fox-like creature.

Naruto looked like an energy creature, and this chakra burned his skin.

"Roar!!"

Naruto roared towards the sky, and his facial features could no longer be seen, only two white eyes and a big mouth.

Four tails swayed behind Naruto, and Naruto directly exploded from one tail to four tails!

Su Xiao became alert and clenched the dragon flash in his hand.

Whoosh, whoosh ---

A few figures came out of the vicinity. It was the assassination of Konoha.

"This is?"

One of the Anbu members looked at Naruto, and Naruto's aura was too strong.

This is the tail beast Jinchuriki,

Could it be that Jinchuriki attacked the village?

"No, I remember this chakra. It is the Kyubi!"

"Go and inform the Hokage sama that... our village's Jinchuriki is out of control!"

One of the members of the assassination unit flashed away, and the remaining members of the assassination unit stared at Naruto, and their eyes also looked at Su Xiao.

Naruto squatted on the ground blankly, and the white eye hole looked around.

He first swept past several people in the assassination unit, and just as he was about to kill these people, he saw Su Xiao from the corner of his eye.

Naruto suddenly had an impulse in his heart: to kill this guy.

Naruto landed on the ground on all fours, like a beast, staring at Su Xiao fiercely.

Sensing this scene, Su Xiao's body bent down, and the muscles of his whole body were slightly tight.

"Coming."

With a whoosh, the tail beast -- Naruto disappeared in place, and the ground shattered.

Su Xiao felt that his hair stood on end, and Naruto, in the four-tailed state, was stronger than he had imagined.

The tail beast -- Naruto, suddenly appeared in front of Su Xiao, and a dark red claw grabbed Su Xiao's head. At this time, if he paid attention to Naruto, he would find that the dark red chakra tail had become five!

Su Xiao formed an energy shield in front of him, and the tail beast -- Naruto's claws hit the energy shield.

With a click, the energy shield was smashed into a hole the size of a bowl, and the claws grabbed at Su Xiao's face.

Bowing to avoid this claw, who knew that Naruto's claws extended a section, and the position of the attack changed from the face to the chest.

Puchi.

Blood splashed, and four claw marks appeared on Su Xiao's chest. The wound was extremely deep.

There was a sense of numbness in his chest. Although he was seriously injured, Su Xiao would not wait for death. He slashed at Naruto's claws.

The long sword slashed down, and Naruto seemed to feel threatened. The claw quickly retracted, and the energy shield separated Su Xiao from Naruto.

Su Xiao immediately removed the energy shield, and Naruto's other claw came over. This time, the target was the neck.

He blocked the dragon flash in front of him, and the dark red claw hit the body of the dragon flash. A huge force came.

At the same time, Su Xiao tilted the dragon flash to the side, using the power of Naruto to make the attack deviate.

With a hiss, Naruto's claws rubbed the dragon's flash blade and crossed. This powerful and heavy claw was pushed to the side of the ground.

Rumble!

The soil splashed, and the smoke and dust surged.

In the smoke and dust, Su Xiao took a step forward, and the long sword slashed at the chest of Naruto.

Although the animalised tail enhanced Naruto's strength, now Naruto was just a mindless beast, and he could only crush it with his strength.

Dragon flash broke the air, and the blade slashed at Naruto's neck.

At this time, Su Xiao had no time to capture Jinchuriki, Naruto in the five-tailed state was too dangerous, and he could lose his life if he were careless.

Ding!

The long sword slashed at Naruto's neck, a layer of exoskeleton blocked the blade, and another Chakra tail appeared behind Naruto, six tails.

The current situation was different from Naruto's battle against Orochimaru. At that time, Naruto had a series of tails, and now it directly exploded from one to four, and from four tails to six tails was less than one minute.

Even if it were Tendo, Naruto in the six-tailed state would be suppressed. Su Xiao experienced one thing, and that was the nine tails, and the other tails were two different concepts.

Su Xiao seriously suspected that even if the other eight tailed-beasts were added together, they might not be the opponent of the complete Kyubi.

It should be known that the Kyubi in Naruto's body was only half, and the 4th Hokage sealed the other half.

"Roar!!"

Naruto heard a roar, and a sword was pressed against his neck.

Su Xiao changed from holding the sword with one hand to holding the sword with both hands and went down with all his strength.

Clang.

The long sword was slashed, the exoskeleton was broken, and the tail of Naruto was cut in the throat.

This cut was deep, and the green steel shadow energy destroyed the Bijū Chakra at Naruto's neck. Su Xiao had seen Naruto's throat.

The chakra on Naruto's body surged, and the wound healed quickly. The wound on Naruto's neck was completely healed in less than two seconds.

Su Xiao saw the corner of his eyes jumping. The latter crushed him in terms of strength, speed, and recovery. If he did not rely on his sword skills and combat experience, he would not even be able to last one round.

"Shinra Tensei."

The impact came, Su Xiao was pushed far away by the impact, and the latter was also rolling a few times.

"Have you found the Nine-tailed? Very good."

Tendo looked at the Tail Beast Naruto expressionlessly. He still didn't know how powerful this thing was.

"Then let's start capturing it."

"Wait a minute."

Su Xiao said, and Tendo was a little confused.

"First deal with the reinforcements of the Kyubi, and then deal with the Kyubi. Now they are afraid of being injured by the Kyubi and did not take action, but after the Kyubi is defeated, they will take action."

Su Xiao raised his chin, and Tendo looked sideways. It was the 5th Hokage and Sakura.

"Byakuya, help me stall the Kyubi for two minutes."

Tendo stood in the same place, and the Animal Path at the edge of the village gave up on the enemy in front of him and began to retreat out of Konoha.

After rushing out of the boundary around Konoha, he pressed one hand on the ground.

Bang ---

White smoke rose, and the other four Peien were summoned nearby by Animal Path. Now only Su Xiao and Tendo were in Konoha.

Animal Path quickly made a hand seal and hit the ground with one hand.

"Psychic Spell."

Another white smoke rose, and a huge monster bird with a sharp beak emerged.

This monster bird spread its wings and flew straight to Su Xiao.

Chapter 590: Razed to the Ground

The five Peien gathered together, and Konan, who had received the order to retreat, also arrived nearby.

"Why did you suddenly leave Konoha? This is the critical stage of the attack."

Konan had a bad feeling in her heart.

"I want to use that."

Animal Path said this was Nagato speaking.

"Eh?"

Konan was stunned. She suddenly thought of something and said urgently, "No, although your body has recovered a bit, using that spell will shorten your lifespan."

"It doesn't matter. The Kyubi is in Konoha, and now it's the chance to capture it. There isn't much time left, and it won't last long."

After the Human Path spoke, the five Peien fell forward at the same time, and Nagato was focused on controlling the one Peien.

"The strength of the six people has been..."

Konan's face was even uglier.

...

In Konoha.

Boom, boom, boom!

The loud noise was not in Zetsu's ears. The tail beast -- Naruto, was attacking Su Xiao crazily. Even if he was given a Ten Thousand Nature Heavenly Guide, he did not care. He looked like he wanted to kill Su Xiao.

The light blue blade flashed across the battlefield, and a house was removed from the roof.

Su Xiao's naked upper body had a few claw marks, and Xiao's uniform had long been torn apart.

It was no problem to fight Naruto in the six-tailed state for a short period, but he would not be able to hold on for a long time.

There were still 735 mana points left, he had to use it sparingly, and the attacks that could be dodged as much as possible did not use the energy shield, only in critical moments.

Su Xiao's side was in full swing, the light blade and the mini-tailed beast cannons were flying everywhere, but Tendo entered the mode of acting...

Tendo was confronting Tsunade. Behind Tsunade stood several members of the Anbu, and a female Anbu said something to Tsunade.

"Retreated?"

Tsunade was surprised and somewhat unwilling.

Tsunade sama,

Let them retreat for now. We will use this time to consolidate the defence of the village.

Tsunade didn't say anything, although it was a bit humiliating.

"One last question for you."

Tendo said, looking at the battle on Su Xiao's side out of the corner of his eyes. He noticed that Su Xiao would not be defeated for the time being. He continued, "Is the chakra under your feet to deal with my ability?"

There was chakra under the feet of Tsunade and the others at this time.

Tsunade did not speak but looked at Su Xiao and the tail beast in the battle.

"It seems you have understood my ability, but it is meaningless before overwhelming power. Your big countries have confirmed this. You think that you are the protagonist and the ruler of this world. You can control the change of the world at will. You think that as the protagonist, you are far away from death."

Tendo's eyes gradually widened. He was not talking nonsense but preparing a spell that Tsunade and others did not notice.

"However, you are too superficial and stupid to be immersed in peace. If you kill someone, you will be killed. Hate will connect the two closely."

Tsunade seemed unable to listen and retorted, "You keep talking nonsense..."

Tendo ignored Tsunade and continued, "Any war will be accompanied by the death of both sides, causing wounds and pain to each other. No matter how justified the cause is, war is ugly, just like what I am doing now."

"That's enough." Tsunade interrupted.

"We are also bearing the pain. Don't find excuses to make things difficult for us."

Tsunade clenched her fists and prepared to attack.

Tendo looked at Tsunade with his Reincarnation Eyes and stopped.

"Ridiculous."

Tendo was not saying that Tsunade's words were ridiculous but that the enemy did not notice that he was preparing an eye technique.

"Byakuya, it's time to leave."

Tendo shouted, and his body began to float high in the sky.

"Wait, Peien!"

Tsunade felt bad, but Tendo did not pay attention to Tsunade.

Boom!

Tail beast -- Naruto slammed his claw on the ground, his head leaned back, and a mini tailed-beast shot at Su Xiao.

Su Xiao stretched out his palm, and an energy shield with 300 points of strength appeared in front of him.

Bang, the mini-tailed beast cannon hit the energy shield. The energy shield glowed blue, and the surface had no crack.

Su Xiao wiped the blood on his chin. Naruto in the six-tailed state was too strong. He could hold on for so long and even had luck.

In the six-tailed state, Naruto might not even recognize his father, but he firmly remembered that he had to kill Su Xiao. There were many people near the battlefield. Naruto stared at Su Xiao, and he was ready to fight to the death.

Su Xiao moved the energy shield in front of him to the side, and the long sword in his hand stabbed at Naruto's claws.

Although the body strength of Naruto was very high, it could only pierce the external bones, and the dragon flash could pierce the body of Naruto.

The long sword penetrated Naruto's claws, and the green steel shadow energy invaded the body of Naruto.

"Roar!!"

The Tail Beast - Naruto cried out in pain. The energy in his body showed signs of going berserk.

With a shua sound, another Chakra tail appeared from behind Naruto. Su Xiao was a little depressed. Whenever the green steel shadow energy invaded Naruto's body, the Kyubi would take advantage of it.

Naruto in the seven-tail state was more dangerous. Su Xiao had delayed enough time. He clenched the hilt with both hands, and the muscles of his arms slightly bulged. A layer of blood energy appeared on the surface of his body. He activated the additional ability of [Lord Ox-Head]

[Equipment effect: Lord Ox-Head'(Active). Strength +15 points for 10 seconds after activating this skill. ]

Su Xiao's usual strength attribute was 53 points. With this 15 points bonus, his strength attribute directly reached 68 points.

A surging power emerged in his body. Su Xiao held the sword with both hands and stepped on the ground. He swung Naruto, who had his claws pierced.

With a whoosh, Naruto was swung up more than ten meters high. This was not the end. Su Xiao held the sword and continuously slashed at Naruto. Rays of sword light flew out and roared Naruto, who was in the air.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Su Xiao jumped onto the back of a strange bird. This was the psychic beast of Animal Path.

The strange bird spread its wings and flew high into the sky. At this time, the sky also floated above Konoha.

Tsunade looked at the sky, Su Xiao's retreat made her feel bad, and Naruto, who had already exploded, was also big trouble.

"Let the world experience the pain."

Tendo took a deep breath.

"Shinra Tensei!"

The terrifying repulsive force spread down from the sky, and Su Xiao, who was higher up, was not affected.

Su Xiao had a cigarette in his mouth. He had prepared for so long before, nothing more than for the current situation.

High up in the sky, Su Xiao saw a yellow dot in the centre of Konoha. It was not a yellow dot, but the ground revealed after the building was pushed away by the repulsive force.

The area of the yellow dot quickly expanded, and a large number of broken buildings rushed to the edge of Konoha. There were villagers and Ninjas of Konoha inside.

"How can it be so early? This is f*cking unscientific."

There seemed to be a little girl's voice, and the owner of the voice was buried in the ruins of the building, only revealing a white arm.

Five seconds later, the Konoha Village disappeared, and the originally full of buildings was razed to the ground.

This was not a metaphor but the real situation of Konoha.
