Chapter 641: Raw Torn

As Pica and the others talked, Melody, beside them, closed her eyes. She seemed to be listening to something.

Melody was a girl, but her appearance was not worthy of praise. She was like a human mouse. If the Master Mouse in the survival trial saw her, Master Mouse would be interested.

Melody was originally a beautiful girl. She only became what she is now after listening to the flute part of the Dark Song. However, she also learned to listen to the sound of others' hearts and judge the mood, mental state, and even good and evil.

At this time, the expression Melody was not good. She heard a horrible sound of heart, which represented evil.

"Everyone, be careful. I don't know when it started, but there are more heartbeats."

Although Melody was ugly, her voice was sweet. After hearing her warning, the others became alert.

Just as they were looking around, a ground bulged. Yin beast earthworms emerged from the ground. Seeing the strange appearance of the Yin beast earthworm, Pica and the others were shocked. Melody was even anxious. It seemed very uncomfortable.

"I am the Yin beast earthworm. Which side are you from?"

The earthworm looked around. He didn't want to come, but the order from the top was to let it test the strength of the regiment. The 10th old man and Su Xiao were in a relationship of extortion and blackmail. It was customary to have such an order.

"We are the bodyguards hired by the Nora family."

Dazzle spoke. The appearance of the earthworm was not to be trifled with, so he immediately showed his identity.

"Is that so? Although you are also psychic, it is better not to make a move."

As soon as the earthworm's voice fell, the sick dog emerged from the dark. His hands were in his pockets, and his steps were gentle. It could be said that he was slow, and he did not have the appearance of a sick dog in front of Su Xiao.

"They are not ordinary bandits. They have already regarded killing as a part of their life."

"To be exact, these are killing experts."

The dark beast porcupine also came out of the dark. The faces of Pica and others were not good. The other side was so close that they did not find it.

"We should deal with the experts."

The Yin Beast Bat also appeared, and he flew over.

"So, you just have to watch."

The Yin Beast Hedgehog looked at Pica and then looked away.

Because of the auction, the Yin beasts dispatched five people to test the regiment's strength. This was already a very cautious approach for the ten old men forces.

"To deal with these guys, they gathered us together. I hate the smell of a sick dog."

The Yin beast bat flapped its wings as if it had some grievances with the sick dog.

"Battie, I don't want internal strife with you."

The sick dog had his hands in his shirt pocket. He did not want to deal with the Phantom Troupe. His injuries had not yet healed, and there were more than a dozen knife wounds.

"Heh, a sick dog who was scared to death. How dare you say that."

The bat snorted. Its disdain for the sick dog was obvious.

"That guy... is a monster. I hope you have the same attitude in front of him. I sincerely hope."

The Sick Dog was heading toward the mountain valley toward Gold Nest.

"Don't have internal strife. First, find out the strength of the opponent. If the situation is bad, retreat."

The five Yin Beasts moved closer to Gold Nest in the mountain valley, ignoring Pica and the others.

It had to be said that the strength of Pica and the others were different, and they were no match for the Yin Beast. Pica himself was able to fight the regiment because of the power of the 'X Excalibur'.

If he didn't have the power of 'X Excalibur', he was no match for the regiment members. He had mastered the ability for too short a time, and the knowledge needed to be cultivated and developed to become stronger.

The five Yin Beasts fought against the Beast within the mountain valley, sending rocks flying everywhere. The result was obvious. The Beast was suppressing the five Yin Beasts. If not for the earthworm and bats flying underground, they wouldn't have been a match for the Beast.

Bang.

With a kick, the earthworm's face was crooked. His soft, animal-like body was barely able to withstand this kick.

"Everyone, be careful. This guy is simply a human tank. Sick dog, find a way to bite him."

The earthworm burrowed into the ground, but the sick dog could not speak. Although the terrifying fist had not hit him, blood had already soaked his clothes. Because the battle was more intense, all the sutured wounds had collapsed.

Standing in the middle of the five Yin beasts, although he was besieged, he was laughing. This rough-looking man, who was like a beast, was already excited.

Sou ---

The sound of wind breaking could be heard. The bat in the air swooped down at high speed. The two wings were taut and became as thin as a cicada's wing. He intended to use the high-speed dive and sharp wings to cut off the head of Gold Nest.

Ding!

The sound of metal hitting metal was heard. Gold Nest stood where he was, and the wings of the Yin Beast Bat cut his neck.

Drops of blood slid down his skin. He was surprised that the enemy had injured him. Meanwhile, the bat, still diving in mid-air, was shocked. He had once used this move to cut a psychic into two, but now it only cut through the enemy's skin.

Just as the bat was about to fly up with its slightly numb wings, a large hand reached out and firmly grabbed the bat's wings.

The bat only felt a violent force, and his other wing was also caught.

Standing behind the bat, the bat grabbed one of the wings with one hand.

"This feeling is somewhat similar to tearing a butterfly, hahaha."

Gold Nest exerted strength in his hands. With a tearing sound, one bat's fleshy wings were torn off, and the other only had half of it connected to his body. The back of his back was a bloody mess, and one could even see his pale ribs.

"Ah!! Save me!"

The tears, snot, and saliva of a thirty-year-old bat came out. Being torn apart was the cruelest way to die.

Rip, rip, pull...

As if addicted to tearing, Gold Nest grabbed the back of the bat's neck and removed his other wing.

After the bat felt a heart-wrenching pain, it didn't know anything because its head was pulled off.

Gold Nest looked at the numerous bloody holes on his left fist. This was because he had injured the Yin Beast Hedgehog with a punch. Now, his arm was numb, and the thorns were poisonous.

Flicking the bat's head, Gold Nest was looking for a feel.

"Hedgehog, get out of the way!"

As soon as the sickly dog finished speaking, Gold Nest clenched his fist, and the bat's head shattered with a crack. He threw it forward with all his strength, and more than a dozen broken skulls flew out.

With a bang, the Yin Beast Hedgehog was stunned on the spot, and more than a dozen bloody holes appeared in his chest as if a shotgun had hit him at close range.

Plop! The hedgehog fell to the ground with a dull expression. Blood dyed the rock beneath him red. From tearing apart the bat to killing the hedgehog, it only took less than five seconds. They didn't give the other three Yin beasts any time to rescue him. They were afraid of the beast and didn't dare to approach it. That's right, and it was a human-shaped beast.

On the hillside in the distance, Pica's eyes were wide open. In the battle, he was bare-chested. The spider tattoo on his waist was very conspicuous.

Just as Pica was in a volatile mood, the roar of the car engine came.

A black car quickly stopped near them. After drifting, the door opened, and an arm holding a sheathed saber poked out of the door.

"Rose, I'll kill you the next time you park."

"I'm sorry, Mr. White Night... Mr. White Night."

Black Mary shrank back, wearing a black female suit, silk stockings, and high heels. After dressing up a little, Black Mary could only be described as tempting to commit crimes.

Pica and the others looked at the person who came. It was a man holding a sheathed saber.

"Pica, I... let's retreat first."

Melody whispered next to Pica's ear. At this time, Melody's pupils contracted, and her legs trembled. As a psychic, she was hiding behind Pica.

"What's wrong?"

Pica had never seen such a fearful appearance of Melody.

"I have never heard such a terrifying sound of the heart. Killing and sharpness. It is normal if you are crazy, but this person is very determined and will be killed. We..."

"Melody."

Pica patted on the shoulder of Melody, indicating for her to calm down.

Su Xiao looked at the people around him in the direction of the Phantom Troupe. As for the contractor watching the play near the valley, he was still deciding whether to ignore it for the time being.

"Woof."

Bobowang, who was in the car, called out. It smelled a familiar smell.

"Oh? The three idiots are also here? Don't worry about them for now. The dark beasts are about to die. It is coming. Three combat personnel of the brigade came. I need these dark beasts to help me stall one person."

Su Xiao moved his shoulders. His mana value had recovered a little. If he saved it, it was enough to finish the battle.

This was an excellent opportunity. He could leave the brigade with two to three people if the situation went well. If not for smooth, it meant that he was dead.

Chapter 642: 3 Gunshots

There were a total of five members in the regiment. They were Xin and Hachama, an enhanced psychic ability. They were good at using knives and gathering sword masters. The unit mainly consisted of combat members.

Knight, operating psychic ability, and good at analyzing information. After inserting an antenna into the enemy's body, they could control the enemy's movements. The brigade assistants could maintain themselves or their teammates at critical times. They could control the combat power behind them. Their explosive power was no weaker than Flying Tank, Xin, and the others.

Little Drip, materialized psychic ability, the brigade assistant.

Maqi, a variation ability user, can turn psychic energy into thin silk threads for attack or treatment. Blood vessels, bones, nerves, and muscles are perfectly sewn together.

Gold Nest has the ability of a strengthening system, the ability to fight hand-to-hand, the body is as strong as steel, and the prominent combat members of the regiment.

These five people have two semi-main combat members and two auxiliary members, but these two additional members also have combat power. The identity of the two extra members is just compared in the regiment.

Su Xiao quickly recalled the information of the five people in his mind, and he began to think of the corresponding strategy.

First of all, the combat members of his side have three Yin beasts, and these three people can delay one main combat member of the brigade in a short time.

If Su Xiao could kill a main combat member of the regiment, then the battle after that could still be fought. If he faced the siege of several main combat members of the unit, then Su Xiao would be defeated.

"Bobo."

Hearing Su Xiao's shout, Bobowang, lying lazily in the back seat of the car, got up and left the car.

"Hurry up and go, every day except for eating and sleeping."

Looking at Bobowang's unhurried pace, Su Xiao wanted to kick him.

Bobowang wagged his tail and ran over. His big watery eyes seemed to ask again: "Master, am I going to go on stage too? Don't worry, the woman with glasses who looks the strongest will be handed over to Bobowang (Little Drip, the weakest person in the group)."

"You don't need to go on stage, be on guard behind me."

Su Xiao took out the Spider Queen sniper rifle. If he entered directly, the other people in the adventurous group would attack after sensing his breath. It was the way to kill one person from afar.

Realizing that Su Xiao was going to shoot, Bobowang immediately understood his meaning. The lazy look disappeared. It sat with its back to Su Xiao, and its eyes scanned the surroundings vigilantly.

Taking out the Spider Queen from the storage space, this weapon just appeared, and it attracted the eyes of Pica and others.

"This weapon... is a bit exaggerated."

First reaction of Pica when he saw this weapon was that it was a small machine gun, but after seeing the streamlined rifle, he saw that it was a sniper gun.

With the current weight and recoil of Spider Queen, Su Xiao could half-squat and shoot. He could only put Spider Queen on the ground if he wanted to shoot.

Taking out the gun rack attached to Spider Queen, after stabilizing the gun, Su Xiao lay on the edge of the valley.

The location was good, and the terrain was slightly higher than the location of the adventurous group members.

Grabbing a stone, Su Xiao crushed the stone into powder. The powder fell from between his fingers. He was testing the wind speed.

Because it was the valley's terrain and it was nighttime, the wind was not strong, but it had rained a few days ago. There was water in the valley, and the air humidity was slightly high. Su Xiao was about 700 meters away from the adventurous group members. The air humidity could be calculated more accurately.

Adjusting the scope eight times and then switching the spider queen to continuous shooting mode, leaving the chamber. After confirming that the ten bullets inside were loaded, he inserted the large clip.

Su Xiao took a deep breath and put his head in front of the scope. The killing intent in his heart was restrained. The perception of the people of the adventurous group was strong. At this time, if the killing intent were exposed, he would feel it.

Through the scope, Su Xiao observed the five people of the adventurous group.

Gold Nest was fighting with three Yin beasts, earthworms, a sick dog, and others covered in blood. Although he was also injured, this strong man was laughing wildly. It would not be long before all the Yin beasts would be killed.

Of course, the target of the sniper could not choose Gold Nest. Su Xiao wanted to kill a member of the adventurous group. His defense was one of the best in the adventurous group. It was the most stupid way to choose the other party.

Turning the muzzle, the four people of the adventurous group in the valley were shooting at the gram, and the target to kill had to choose between the commander and the swordsman.

If it was under normal circumstances, at that time, it was choosing a polite person who could both support and have muscular combat strength. Still, Su Xiao was not allowed to select a polite person but aimed the cross-shaped star at the letter elder.

The regiment's relationship between the letter elder and the cave elder was perfect. Both were in the strengthening department, and their personalities were straightforward. Although the cave elder liked to fight alone, their combat effectiveness soared after he cooperated with the letter elder.

Su Xiao slowly exhaled and let his breathing gradually stabilize.

His fingers slowly pulled the trigger. A few hundred meters away, Xin, playing cards with Little Drip, Maqi, and others, suddenly turned his head. Not only Xin but also the cave elder in the battle found something. Unfortunately, the two found it too late.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger.

Bang!

A loud noise echoed in the valley. The rocks near Su Xiao were cracked, and an invisible airwave spread.

The power of the shot was so exaggerated that the power of the bullet could be imagined.

17.36 mm bullets flew at high speed, stirring up layers of airwaves. Because the kinetic energy was too vital, the bullet even gave people the feeling that it would pierce through space.

When the commander heard the gunshot, all the hair on his body stood on end. It was as if a god of death with a sickle appeared behind his back. The eyes of the god of death were blue.

The commander's reaction could only be described as fast as lightning. He saw that his legs, sitting cross-legged, were tilted, changing from sitting cross-legged to kneeling on the ground.

The blade light appeared, and 17.36 mm flew in front of the commander of the letter. The blade collided with the bullet.

Dang!

A crisp sound rang out. The long blade in Xin's hand buzzed, and the edge split open a large gap. His arm that held the blade was severely dislocated.

At this time, Knight also reacted, but he could only be anxious. Other than his body blocking in front of Xin Long, he had no other choice.

Small Drip held her lower abdomen in pain. The broken blade on Xin's long blade hit her lower abdomen, creating a bloody hole. It could be seen that the power of the long blade and the bullet colliding with each other was terrifying.

"Quick..."

Knight roared a word, and another gunshot came from the distant hillside. Mary, Little Drip, Knight, Gold Nest, and the commander knew they had fallen this time.

Bang!

The gunshot shook the valley. Spider Queen's recoil was too strong. After the shooting, the muzzle of the gun was seriously raised. Su Xiao used all his strength to press the muzzle of the weapon. The slate under him cracked.

Aiming, shooting, and all the movements were done in one go.

Bang!

Another gunshot rang out, and the sound of the gunshot pushed Xin into the abyss.

Everything around him seemed to slow down, and Gold Nest's face twisted. He ignored the attack of the Yin Beast and rushed toward Xin.

Knight inserted an antenna into his body, and a psychic thread appeared in Maqi's hand.

With a bang, the second bullet entered the rock behind the commander, and a vast pit exploded. The commander dodged the second bullet.

The third bullet followed closely, and this bullet predicted the moving position of the commander.

Chapter 643: Spike

The bullets flew over, and Xin bent his legs. Even if it reached him, he would not give up.

"Xin!"

Gold Nest let out a roar. Xin turned his head and forced a smile at him. The two of them were close friends.

With a bang, 17.36 mm bullets penetrated Xin Long's left chest. This was no longer a problem of a bloody hole. Xin Long's left chest was smashed into pieces, and an arm flew far away.

Blood and flesh splattered on Knight's face. On the side, Maqi waved his hand, and a large number of perception threads blocked in front of him. Unfortunately, it was too late.

The priest staggered back a few steps. He looked down at the half of his chest that had disappeared. His ragged heart twitched twice, but he did not die immediately.

"The enemy... is... the east... mountain..."

The priest fell to the ground with a thud. The moment the priest fell, Knight, Maqi, and the other two decided. The three of them almost jumped to the nearby slope simultaneously. Before the priest's death, he shouted out the enemy's position, which gave them a chance to dodge.

Bang, bang.

Another two gunshots were heard. A bullet was shot into the rock, and the rock exploded into a giant pit. The other bullet 'kiss' was on Knight's left arm, brushing past his left arm, and a large piece of flesh was blown away.

The moving target almost hit, and the enemy's speed was breakneck, which showed Su Xiao's current marksmanship.

He had instantly planned the three consecutive shots at the Secretary-General, so he chose to kill the Secretary-General first. The other party was stronger after cooperating with Gold Nest for a time. The second was that Su Xiao also used a knife. He was clear that the instinctive reaction of the person who used the knife to meet the sniper was to use the weapon in his hand to hit the bullet.

Including the distance that Xin Long flew away and the reaction of Knight and the others, Su Xiao guessed it.

Most people in the adventurous group had a weakness: their defense was weak. Spider Queen had blown the strengthened Xin Long half of his body. The others could imagine that, except for Gold Nest, everyone could resist Spider Queen.

Xin Long's physical fitness was already good compared to the one who tasted Spider Queen. It should be known that the violator was smashed by a shot, leaving only his head and two calves intact.

Su Xiao estimated that Spider Queen could kill him in one shot without using the energy shield. The attack power of 60 to 134 was not just for show. The attack power was similar to the calculation method of the attributes. It was an increase in the way, not a combination.

What's more, there was the Equipment effect 3: Crush (passive), increasing the chance of crushing the enemy by 30.

Even if the regiment captain, Kuluo, were shot in the face, he would also be killed.

However, there were a few situations that Spider Empress could use. Spider Empress needed an open terrain, which was in a case where the enemy was unprepared. Spider Empress bullets completely blocked Su Xiao's energy shield.

[You killed Xin Long]

[Because of the second kill of the members of the Phantom Troupe, Reputation Points of the Phantom Troupe -300, Reputation Points of the current adventurous group: -200(Enemies).]

...

A dark purple treasure chest appeared near Commander Xin's corpse. There was a better time to pick up the treasure chest. He had to kill the members of the brigade present first.

The power of the spider queen was somewhat unexpected. Su Xiao originally planned to kill the captain within five shots. There was some luck in killing the captain with three shots, but this had much to do with his sniper base. Firearms Proficiency: LV. 30 strengthened the 'eye of the eagle' twice, and the eye of the eagle was closely related to his sniper ability.

Su Xiao turned the gun's muzzle and aimed it at the pit gold in the valley.

At this time, Gold Nest was full of anger, facing the direction of Su Xiao. It seemed that he wanted to swallow him alive.

He saw Gold Nest insert one hand into the ground, and several small pieces of gravel were deducted from the big stone under his feet. His body was like steel iron, and he wanted to smash Su Xiao more than 700 meters away with the rock.

He threw the stone with all his strength, and the stone whistled to Su Xiao. After he threw it with all his force, the stone was no different from the power of the sniper rifle.

Su Xiao felt the stone flying quickly. He did not avoid it at all. The two sides were more than 700 meters apart. Even if the strength was complete, there was a significant error in the accuracy. Even if the accuracy was enough, the energy shield could easily block this thing.

Pa!

The stone broke into the body of the mountain below Su Xiao, leaving a hole with smoke.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger. Bullets and stones were not the same concepts. Gold Nest, who was in the scope, immediately staggered a few steps. A slender bullet was stuck in the muscles of his lower abdomen. The shot that killed Xin Long could only hurt him.

Was the defense gap between the two too big? No, at this time, Gold Nest concentrated all the thoughts of his body on the landing point of the bullet, which was equivalent to focusing all the defense of his body on one end.

And they killed Xin Long and had no time to react. It was ultimately out of instinct that he could cut a knife and jump back. The three bullets came one after another, and the whole process was only two and three seconds.

Su Xiao moved his somewhat sore shoulder. The frequency of these six shots was too fast. Four bullets left in the clip, but he had already put away Spider Queen.

Knight and the others hid behind the rock. As for hunting Gold Nest, after the experiment just now, it was a complete waste of bullets. Moreover, the Yin beast could not hold on any longer. If it were delayed any longer, it would get rid of him.

Su Xiao stood up and picked up the dragon flash on the side. Someone suddenly spoke just as he was about to jump down the valley.

"Sir, I don't know..."

The person who came had yet to finish speaking when he closed his mouth. Su Xiao turned his head and looked at the other person.

"I am not interested in the matters of your Norah family. The auction will start tomorrow morning and will be held at the antique auction house on Mack Street."

Dazzle of the Norah family opened his mouth and nodded at the end.

"Yes, thank you."

Su Xiao jumped into the mountain valley. Several bodyguards of the Norah family breathed a sigh of relief. It could have been a better experience to stay with Su Xiao, especially when facing enemies.

"Who is this guy? How many people did he kill to appear?"

As soon as a bodyguard finished speaking, he found that Pica was walking towards the mountain valley.

"Wait, Pica, what are you doing?"

The captain of the guards, Dazzle. He looked at Pica's back as he walked away and had a bad feeling.

"Is there even a need to ask? Of course, it's to catch them."

Pica said without turning his head. At this time, his pupils were red. Although his tone was calm, it was not quiet in his heart. No, it should be filled with anger.

A bodyguard said in a frightened tone, "It's impossible. You saw it, too, right? The guy below has amazing strength. He is simply a monster. Let the monster deal with the monster. We can watch it. If you go, you are simply courting death."

The bodyguard was scared out of his wits when he saw Gold Nest tearing the bat apart under his blanket.

"So what?"

Pica stopped in his tracks. After turning his head, everyone saw his red eyes. The bodyguards were quite knowledgeable. They immediately recognized Pica's red eyes. At the same time, they remembered the fire and red eyes of the tribe that had stirred up the spiders a few years ago.

Melody's expression was not very good. She felt that Pica was full of anger and hatred. He had completely lost his mind. In this state of mind, he would die if he got involved in the battle between the "monsters."

Melody picked up the flute, and the gentle sound of the flute came, and the footsteps of Pica suddenly stopped.

Su Xiao, walking into the valley, also heard the flute sound.

[Hint: You are affected by the effect of the 'Spring of the Plain' flute, in the judgment of the will and intelligence attribute... If the decision fails, it will force back the fighting spirit, hostility, and other emotions.]

[Will passed!]

[Intelligence passed!]

[You have received a buff from 'Spring of the Plain'. Strength +2, Agility - 2, HP recovery speed(every minute) +5, abnormal status resistance +15, effect lasts for 10 minutes.]

Su Xiao stopped and looked at the top of the valley. Melody just put down the flute and bowed to Su Xiao from afar.

"Sir, please don't hurt Pica. This is my thanks."

Melody's mouth opened and closed, and Su Xiao judged this sentence from the mouth shape of the other party.

"The bastard over there, come down and die!"

A roar resounded through the valley. It was Gold Nest.

Chapter 644: Strongest Combination

Gold Nest stood among the three Yin beasts. He ignored the Yin beasts covered in blood but stared straight at Su Xiao.

Crack, crack...

Gold Nest clenched his teeth and looked like he wanted to swallow Su Xiao alive. It was usual for him to have this kind of reaction after Su Xiao killed the commander, Xin.

Su Xiao strolled. Dragon flash came out of the sheath and put away the divine afterglow. He was ready to fight with Gold Nest.

The three people hiding behind the valley poked their heads out. After judging the situation on the battlefield, the three rushed to the battlefield.

"The three of you, stall them. Five minutes is enough."

Su Xiao looked at the three Yin beasts nearby. The Yin beast earthworm snorted and seemed to be ready to run away.

"If you dare to escape, you better look forward to me dying here. Otherwise, I will chop you into minced meat and feed you to the dogs."

Su Xiao looked at the Yin beast earthworm calmly. The heart of the Yin beast earthworm shivered. It was not a metaphor or intimidation to chop it into minced meat to feed the dog. He felt that if he dared to escape, the situation would appear.

The sick dog was much more obedient than the earthworm and porcupine. Since Su Xiao appeared, he had been in fear. After all, Su Xiao had used the boundary line to strangle him, making him slowly suffocate. After that, he slowly cut his throat when negotiating with the ten old men.

The porcupine and earthworm hesitated momentarily and finally chose to walk to Knight and the others. Two of the three people of Knight were auxiliary combat personnel. It was also dangerous but not as terrible as the pit gold.

The pit gold ignored the retreating dark beast but stepped on the ground and rushed to Su Xiao like a cannonball.

Su Xiao's body leaned low, his right hand clenched the handle of dragon flash, and the long sword pointed to the ground.

The moment when Gold Nest rushed to Su Xiao, he suddenly stopped and jumped back.

Although Gold Nest was angry, he did not lose his mind. Just after he was five meters away from Su Xiao, his perception began to alert him. The more he rushed forward, the more dangerous it was. If he ran straight, he would die.

Gold Nest's perception was correct. If he moved forward again, Su Xiao would meet him with a ring to deal with him, a psychic who fought with physical strength. Su Xiao could defeat him.

In the same strength, the one who used the weapon had more advantages, in attack range, with Su Xiao's LV. 23 sword master Gold Nest dared to rush forward rashly. Su Xiao could cut the opponent into a pile of minced meat in minutes.

Aware of Gold Nest's beast-like intuition, Su Xiao suddenly disappeared from the place.

"So fast!"

His eyes widened, and he instantly concentrated all the energy in his body on his right arm. At the moment, the hardness of his right arm was long-range, primarily metal.

The sword light appeared in the night, and Gold Nest raised his arm to block.

Ding!

The sound of metal hitting metal came, and he used his body to resist the blade of dragon flash. Although he defended Su Xiao's attack directly, the defense of other parts of Gold Nest's body was feeble. Even ordinary bullets could break this body without the support of psychic ability.

"So that's how it is."

Gold Nest grinned. His smile looked cruel. He spread the Psychic Energy from his right arm to his left arm. The defense of his two arms increased sharply. He wanted to take the risk.

"Ha!"

Gold Nest's arm pressed down, and a terrible force came from the dragon flash. Su Xiao took the sword and turned sideways. If he competed in strength, he must be no match for him.

Boom!

The fist smashed on the ground, the gravel flew, and the stone hit Su Xiao's face with a dull pain.

Dust and dust surged, and the fists of Gold Nest smashed at Su Xiao's position. Like the same heavy pile driver, the valley shook.

Bang!

The touch of the fist made Gold Nest slightly surprised. His fist hit something challenging. At this moment, a sharp tip of the sword broke through the dust.

Puff, blood splashed, and the long sword pierced through the chest of Gold Nest.

"Shadow Sting."

The green steel shadow energy wrapped the sword light and formed an energy thorn on the tip of the dragon flash.

The moment the energy thorn was formed, Gold Nest retreated at full speed, and the shadow thorn was formed. Because he was fleeing, the dragon flashed and left the other side's body.

With a swoosh.

More than a dozen energy thorns appeared, and cold sweat slid down his cheeks. If he had not reacted fast enough, he would have become a hedgehog.

Gold Nest moved his slightly numb arm, and the poison of the Yin Beast Hedgehog had already broken down and thanked him.

The smoke and dust dispersed, and Su Xiao, who had a few hexagonal energy shields floating around him, appeared. The counterattack shield blocked Gold Nest's fist, and Su Xiao could stab through his chest.

Blood gushed out from the corner of Gold Nest's mouth. The pain caused by the invasion of the green steel shadow energy made his face bulge. Gold Nest was not Su Xiao's opponent in a one-on-one fight. The dark beast could hold back Knight and the others for a while, but it was only a matter before the three dark beasts fled.

"Gold Nest, catch."

Knight shouted. At this time, the earthworm was fighting with Knight, but this guy was a typical example of not working hard. When there was danger, he quickly retreated and could not hold Knight.

Knight threw a small antenna, and Gold Nest caught it, his face not looking good.

"Use that. Don't hesitate. The hostility of the Guild Master..."

"Got it. You're so long-winded."

Gold Nest, who held the small antenna, seemed to be very unhappy, but he had no other choice due to the situation.

There were several pairs of groups in the regiment. The cooperation between Gold Nest and the Guild Master was the most implicit, but the two were not the most influential group. The most influential group was Gold Nest + Knight.

Gold Nest opened his mouth and inserted the small antenna into his mouth.

"It's done."

Gold Nest's voice was a bit vague, and he looked depressed.

"Then I'll start."

Knight, fighting with the earthworm, took out a mobile phone. He was a control type, a tool he used to manipulate. As long as it was inserted by Knight's antenna, no matter how intense the enemy was, he could control it.

"Automatic manipulation, activate."

A female voice came from Knight's mobile phone. At the same time, Gold Nest stood still in its original place. The golden spiritual energy went out of the surface of his body and gushed toward the surroundings. This golden spiritual energy was extremely rich, so thick that it was impossible to see Gold Nest himself.

"The enemy is confirmed..."

The phone spoke again, and Knight immediately pressed the phone. His psychic energy suddenly disappeared a lot.

"The enemy has chosen, the choice is complete, the enemy has four, choose one person first, and begin to carry out the punishment."

The golden psychic energy on the surface of the body of Gold Nest contracted, his hair stood up, the muscles of his whole body were highly exaggerated, and his eyes became dull, but his strength doubled. Su Xiao even had a feeling that his hair stood on end.

Gold Nest stared at the ground under his feet, and with a bang, he disappeared after leaving a big pit on the floor.

When he reappeared, he was already beside the yin beast earthworm.

"How is this possible!"

The earthworm looked frightened. At this time, the first reaction he saw was to run.

Gold Nest punched out, and the fist was already leaving afterimages.

Bang!

The earthworm disappeared in an instant. It was not the earthworm that escaped, but the fist of Gold Nest shattered. This was the real blow that was smashed into pieces.

The nearby Knight stood in place with the remote control in his hand. Although Gold Nest was decisive when he entered the automatic operation state, this cooperation had a lot of limitations.

First of all, Knight needed to consume almost all of his thoughts, and after activating the automatic operation, he could not move, and the risk was extremely high.

Secondly, the body's restrictions were opened entirely after entering the automatic operation state. Strength, speed, and psychic ability were all fully displayed. When attacking, there was no need to go through a brain reaction. It was based entirely on an instinct to fight, and the automatic operation could only last for nine minutes. After that, Gold Nest would lie in bed for a week. This was still because his body was strong. If it were other members who would die directly, Knight would not be able to use the psychic ability for a month.

The restrictions were massive, but the effect was powerful. The thoughts consumed by Knight did not disappear out of thin air but were added to Gold Nest's body, forming a layer of a protective coating similar to 'hard', which was the golden psychic energy around Gold Nest's body.

And Gold Nest's strength, speed, and defense increased exponentially.

Su Xiao looked at Gold Nest, who had transformed into 'Super Saiyan'. His face was not good. This kind of move had never appeared in the original work. Maybe Gold Nest died early.

With Gold Nest's temper, he usually would not let Knight use this move unless it was a critical moment. Today, Xin's death angered Gold Nest, and with Su Xiao's restraint on him, Gold Nest had no choice.

After killing the Yin beast earthworm, Gold Nest turned his head and looked at Su Xiao with a dull gaze.

Gold Nest disappeared in the same place and faded from Su Xiao's sight. His dynamic vision could not capture Gold Nest. When Gold Nest appeared again, he was already in front of him.

It was still the same action as before, the arm bow was bent, and the straight fist was waved.

Dong!

Gold Nest's fist, wrapped in golden energy, hit the counterattack shield. A circular air wave spread out, and the stone slabs around the ground were blown away.

Su Xiao Jinjin punched away with a whoosh and spat blood in the air. Although the counterattack shield defended this fist, the powerful impact force was enough to hurt him.

Bang, Su Xiao, who was wrapped in the counterattack shield, crashed into the body of the mountain, and a deep hole appeared on the hill.

Chapter 645: Head-to-Head

When Su Xiao crashed into the body of the mountain, the loud sound faded away, and the group of people looked at the circular hole that led to the mountain's depths.

Crack, a few pieces of gravel fell from the top of the hole, and the cave entrance was dead silent.

"Did you get rid of it?"

Maqi stared at the hole.

"I'm not sure, but there's a high chance of getting rid of him."

Knight lowered his eyes, feeling a little sleepy. He had used up too much of his thoughts and even a little overdraft.

"Let Wojin continue."

"No, he just used two straight punches with all his strength. Even if it's Wojin, his body has a limit. If he wants to continue fighting, he has to rest for a while. Moreover, I can't control his specific movements."

Receiving Knight's reply, Maqi turned his head to avoid the sidekick of the sick dog.

The sick dog and porcupine looked at the hole with fear, hoping that Su Xiao would not die. If Su Xiao died, they would not live for long.

Not only were the people present staring at the hole, but the contractor, who was watching the battle nearby, was also staring at the hole. These contractors had some doubts about life. If this was not the Hunter World, they seriously suspected that Su Xiao was a contractor above level two.

"Big brother seems to be cold. Should we go and join in the fun?"

"Calm down, the third brother. Let's wait and see. The 'Super Saiyan' below is too fierce."

"Third brother, big brother is right."

The three brothers held a beer bottle in each hand, and the third even carried a chicken leg.

These three brothers generally did not take advantage of the situation. Their hobbies were in the derivative world, which was coquettish and unrestrained. Cheap and happy were the most important.

Wojin, who was covered in golden thoughts, stood in place. If you looked carefully, you would find slight wounds on his body, and some of his muscles were slightly broken.

Da, da, da...

Footsteps came from the hole, and then there was a violent dry cough.

Su Xiao held his mouth with his left hand; at the same time, blood was coming out of his fingers. He almost killed with a punch.

At this time, the dozens of counterattack shields floating around him were dim. If he were attacked too vigorously, the duration of the counterattack shield would be reduced.

A bottle of No. 1 potion appeared in his hand. Su Xiao drank it in big mouthfuls. The green steel shadow energy surged in his body. The cells in the column of the potion were eaten up. His injuries recovered quickly.

The surroundings were dark—the faint moonlight reflected in front of him. Su Xiao strolled to the hole.

When Su Xiao walked out of the cave, the hearts of the group of people tightened.

"He is not dead. This guy is very durable. Is it because of the floating energy shield?"

Maqi tightened the perception thread in his hand as he spoke. The sick dog, tightly wrapped by the perception thread, was torn into several pieces. After solving the ill dog, Maqi did not go to support Wojin. Instead, he went to support the tiny drops. The small drops had been injured before, so it was challenging to deal with Haozhu at this time.

Porcupine's heart collapsed. He wanted to escape, but the tiny drops held him back with bulging eyes, and could not get away for a while.

In the center of the valley, Wojin, standing for more than ten seconds, looked at Su Xiao sideways. He only had one thought now, and that was to kill the second enemy, which was Su Xiao.

With a bang, Wojin disappeared. This abnormal speed made Su Xiao a little speechless.

Su Xiao, who was holding a long sword, looked around. If another straight punch hit him, he might be unable to withstand it. Now his whole body was faintly aching, and his bones would fall apart at any time.

The rapid sound of wind breaking came, and Wojin was still in the same position in front of Su Xiao. His arm was bent, clenched his fist, and punched straight.

At the same time when this fist was swung, Gold Qi burst out from Wojin's fist. This was Wojin's super destructive fist, an upgraded version.

An ordinary straight punch almost killed Su Xiao. If this punch had hit him, could he still live?

Su Xiao's brain turned quickly, and the fist was infinitely magnified in his sight, filling his view.

Dodging was never Su Xiao's fighting style. It could be seen from the fact that he chose the long sword as a weapon because he liked to fight head-on.

The counterattack shield that formed a circle to protect Su Xiao quickly spread around. Although the counterattack shield could resist the attack of Wojin, it made it the enemy easier to send Su Xiao flying.

The moment he withdrew the counterattack shield, Wojin's fist arrived.

Su Xiao's pupils slightly contracted. He was trying to capture Wojin's movements. At this moment, some of the surroundings seemed to slow down.

The fist was getting closer and closer, Su Xiao's nerve reflex speed was reflected here, and Wojin's head which was fast to leave the shadow, was captured by him.

Su Xiao's right arm muscles slightly bulged, and all the mana values in his body turned into green steel shadow energy. All of them were added to the dragon flash, like a light blue energy blade.

Although it was an ordinary saber strike, this saber strike was even faster than the fist of Evil King.

Clang!

Boom!

The huge saber light flew out and slashed at the nearby mountain peak. The mountain peak was cut in half.

Su Xiao brushed past Wojin, who was full of golden thoughts. Wojin only had one arm left at this time, and the arm that punched had flown hundreds of meters away.

With a swoosh, the dragon flash pierced into a rock more than ten meters away. It was still holding half an arm on the dragon flash's hilt, and the arm's broken part was incomplete.

Su Xiao's hand holding the sword was broken. This result was thought of when he was fighting against Wojin's fist. In the past, this was a terrible situation. However, with that woman, it was okay to break an arm. He deliberately chose this way. This was the choice to win the battle with the highest win rate.

After brushing past Wojin, Su Xiao suddenly turned and rushed.

Wojin also immediately turned around, but the deep cut on his chest made his movements stop for a moment.

At this gap, Su Xiao had jumped up, bent his knees, and smashed on the shoulders of Benjin.

His legs were tight, and at the same time, he caught Wojin's head. Su Xiao's left hand, wrapped in a red metal arm, grabbed Wojin's face, his two fingers were like hooks, and his two fingers were inserted into Wojin's eyes.

The stiff feeling came, Wojin's physical fitness was called monster level, and even his fragile eyeballs were much more robust than ordinary people's.

Su Xiao used all his strength, and with a puff, his two fingers were inserted into the eye sockets of Wojin. This was not the end. He bent his two fingers and dragged them out.

Su Xiao pulled out Wojin's two eyeballs. His legs clamped tightly on Wojin's head and leaned sideways, trying to break Wojin's neck.

Great strength suddenly came from the side, and the world turned around. Su Xiao flew out as a plane forced to land, sliding far away on the rocky ground.

After stopping, Su Xiao's eyes were red, and all the bones in his body seemed to fall apart. He took out a bottle of No. 1 potion and stood up after drinking it expressionlessly.

Looking around the valley, Su Xiao was looking around to see if there was a contractor to fish in the water. Now whoever would find a way to kill the person. The pain in his whole body aroused his fierceness.

The battle between him and Wojin was witnessed by the contractor all the way. This kind of desperate fighting style was probably the first time these people to see it.

Su Xiao looked at the left half of his right arm. Not only that, but the right side of his chest also caved in quickly. After the ribs broke, it stabbed into the lung lobe on one side of his side. Every breath was a dull pain.

Walking to the front of the dragon flash, Su Xiao pulled out the dragon flash with one arm. He was also good at the left-hand sword.

Chapter 646: Victory

Su Xiao took a deep breath. The pain from his chest made his eyes black. He immediately took out a syringe and injected it into his neck.

[Adrenaline]

Origin: Reincarnation Paradise

Quality: Purple

[Type: Ability medicine.]

[Effect: There will be less than 70 pain after using it. Attack and movement speed will be increased by 20. An additional excitement effect can remove exhaustion. The effect lasts for 10 minutes.]

[Rating: 127.]

[Description: Natural stimulant. Please do not underestimate it. When exhausted, it is the last hope.]

...

The pain in various parts of his body gradually subsided, and the red sight in front of him returned to normal.

"Very good."

Lightly shaking off the blood on the dragon flash, Su Xiao slowly walked to the back of Benjin.

At this time, Benjin stood in the same place. After entering the automatic operation state, he used his vision to capture the enemy. He did not need the instructions given by the brain to do anything.

Although ignoring the brain made Benjin's mobility significantly improve, the drawbacks were not minor. Not using the brain was equivalent to losing perception.

The eyes were dug out, and Benjin could not find the second kill target, and the automatic operation state was forced to stop.

Su Xiao stood behind Benjin and cut down without hesitation.

Puff, blood splashed. The sword did not cut off the head of the driver but cut his neck in half.

The driver suddenly moved. A fist the size of a sandbag was raised and smashed into Su Xiao behind him, but several hexagonal energy shields immediately blocked Su Xiao.

Boom!

The gravel under Su Xiao's feet flew, and the strength of the fist was not as muscular as before, and he was not sent soaring.

Resisting the punch of Benjin, Su Xiao kicked the back of Benjin's waist. Benjin staggered forward a few steps. Su Xiao rushed forward and cut off his head.

[You killed Benjin(Automatically operated state)]

[The ability to check Benjin has greatly increased. The reward has increased.]

[Benjin is a member of the Phantom Troupe. The source of the world is 10.2. The source of the world is 39.7.]

[Because of the three kills of the brigade members, Phantom Troupe's Reputation - 700, Phantom Troupe's Reputation: is -900(hatred).]

...

At the same time when Benjin died, Vigilante A, who was bleeding from his seven orifices, fell to the ground and lost his breath in a few seconds. This was the most significant risk of automatic operation. If Benjin died in battle, Vigilante A's Psychic Energy would all dissipate.

Psychic Energy was life energy, and the result of the dissipation of life energy was evident. It was death!

Benjin's headless body fell to the ground, and a light gold treasure chest fell to the ground. Yes, it was pale gold.

This light golden light made the surrounding contractor chaotic. At this moment, the most contractor had the idea of rushing into the battlefield.

Su Xiao picked up the light gold treasure chest and put it into the storage space. He picked up Benjin's head. He threw the head to the edge of the valley. Those contractors with red eyes seemed to be poured on their heads by a basin of cold water.

"If you have the ability, come and rob. I can't kill you all, but the first few will die."

Su Xiao's shout echoed in the valley. Those contractors who wanted to take advantage of the situation were waiting for someone to take the lead.

"This guy is not fast. Who has the long-range ability?"

A contractor roared, but no one showed up. Who knew the one who dared to attack Su Xiao first did not have a good end?

The sound of fast running came, Bobowang rushing into the mountain valley at full speed. A moment later, Bobowang rushed to Su Xiao's side.

"Woof."

Bobowang called out, which meant: "Master, get in the car. Bobo is here to save you."

Su Xiao turned over and rode on Bobowang's back, and Bobowang ran to the edge of the valley.

"Byakuya, come and save me!"

The porcupine shouted at the top of his lungs. Facing the siege of Maqi and the little Drip, he had the risk of death at any time.

"Hold them for two minutes, I will save your life."

Bobowang had already carried Su Xiao to the edge of the valley. When the porcupine heard this sentence, he looked even more. He seemed to be unable to hold on for two minutes.

Maqi and little Drip looked at each other. They had two choices, either to retreat or to chase Su Xiao.

"Retreat."

Maqi retreated, and little Drip also had the intention to retreat.

Just as Porcupine breathed a sigh of relief, he suddenly thought that Su Xiao had asked him to stall the two people before. If the two escaped, would he settle accounts after the end?

The more the porcupine thought about it, the more panicked he was. Su Xiao's terrifying combat power had already cast a shadow on him. After hesitating for a moment, he rushed to the Small Drip. Small Drip was injured. It was an excellent soft persimmon.

Noticing this scene, Maqi's face changes greatly. They had lost today. If they did not leave now, they would die here. The other party said he would stall them for two minutes, which meant that the other party had healing ability.

"Maqi, go quickly."

Small Drip looked calm. She was injured. With the enemy's speed, she could not escape.

""... "

"Maqi, we can't all die. We have to report the situation here to the regiment commander. For the regiment, your ability is more important."

Little Drip clasped her hands tightly to the eye-shaped fish that looked like a vacuum cleaner, beating the porcupine into retreat.

Little Drip smiled. She was not afraid of death because she knew she would be killed by someone stronger.

Although Little Drip was a dull glasses girl, don't be deceived by her kind appearance. She was a member of the adventurous group, and at least hundreds of souls died in her hands. Among them were doctors, businessmen, children, thieves, and gang members.

...

Above the valley, Bobowang stopped beside the car he took when he came, and Black Mary was sitting in the main driver's seat.

Su Xiao put the dragon flash into the storage space, reached out, and grabbed the half arm he was biting in his mouth, which was his arm.

Unlike the arm's reconstruction and the broken limbs' recovery, Su Xiao was more inclined to recover the broken limbs.

Crawling into the passenger seat, Black Mary, who was in a daze, was scared. At this time, Su Xiao was covered in blood, and one arm was broken.

"Mr. Byakuya, are you okay?"

Black Mary swallowed her saliva.

"Do I look like I'm fine? Hurry up and use your ability."

"Alright, I'll use it now."

Black Mary took a few deep breaths and put on a strange appearance.

"Restore!"

Su Xiao: "... "

Bobowang: "..."

"Restore, heal, holy light..."

"You have to focus on the dark rose."

"Oh, oh, yes, concentrate. Mr. Byakuya, I was wrong. I suddenly have this magical ability. I am just an ordinary woman..."

Su Xiao and Bobowang stared at Black Mary. Black Mary's body shook, and General Ma concentrated on her.

Black Mary floated in front of Su Xiao, and the milky white psychic energy wrapped Su Xiao.

With the rotation of the dark rose, the broken arm floated to the front. The muscles, bones, nerves, blood vessels, and so on quickly regenerate. A moment later, Su Xiao's right arm recovered.

Not only did the injury on his arm recover, but the three broken ribs also began to recover.

A moment later, Su Xiao was a little tired and leaned on the passenger seat. All the injuries were recovered, and the pain disappeared. His body was so relaxed that he wanted to sleep.

The dark rose in the air stopped turning, and the petals on the upper side withered. A total of twelve petals fell, and there were only eight petals left on the dark rose, which made Su Xiao quite surprised.

But he quickly guessed what was going on. The stronger the healing, the greater the consumption of the individual. He was seriously injured and had broken limbs. In addition to his strength, consuming twelve petals at a time was normal.

The dark rose returned to the arm of Black Mary. Black Mary's head suddenly pressed against the steering wheel. She slept in seconds, and her saliva flowed out. She was too tired.

Just as Su Xiao was about to leave the car, a dark purple light appeared from the back seat. Su Xiao looked sideways. Bobowang was holding a dark purple treasure chest. This must be a long treasure chest.

"I still think that those contractors stole this thing."

Su Xiao took the treasure chest.

"Wait for me in the car."

Leaving this sentence, Su Xiao, who had recovered entirely, walked to the mountain valley. Although his injury was completely healed, he was exhausted, and only a few points were left in mana. This was just recovered.

Chapter 647: Problem

In Su Xiao's current state, although he had combat power, his combat power was significantly reduced because of the exhaustion of mana.

The energy shield could not be used, and the equipment's attached ability could not be used, but this did not mean that Su Xiao had utterly lost his combat power. Most of his abilities were passive skills.

Walking down the valley, the battle in the mountain valley had stopped.

"Has he escaped?"

Su Xiao entered the mountain valley, the yin beast porcupine was lying on its back on the ground, and its throat was cut open by Maqi's perception thread.

"Save... save me."

The porcupine's pupils trembled, and the will to survive made him climb up.

"Which direction does the enemy escape to? This thing can save your life."

Su Xiao squatted in front of the porcupine, holding a bottle of intermediate alchemy potion.

"West... west."

"Lying, you are useless."

Su Xiao got up and no longer paid attention to the porcupine. The other party needed to learn in which direction Small Drip and Maqi fled. They just lied to survive. This degree of the lie was easy to be exposed.

"Don't give up on me, I... I can still be saved. We are companions."

"Companions?"

Walking out of the valley, Su Xiao stopped and looked at the porcupine.

"Yes, companions, you are also a subordinate of the Ten Old Man, so..."

"Who told you that I am a subordinate of the Ten Old Man?"

Su Xiao walked out of the mountain valley. The porcupine was seriously injured and dying by Maqi. At this time, killing the porcupine would not get too many rewards.

The quality of the treasure chest dropped by cooperating with the plot characters to kill the plot characters would fall, and even if they did not drop treasure chests, the number of sources in the world would be very small.

With the current injury of the porcupine, killing the other party could only get a small amount of the source of the world, but it would also leave a weakness.

It was one thing not to save someone, but to kill the other person was another. Besides, other people did not know that Su Xiao had a potion to save the porcupine's life.

Looking at Su Xiao, who was walking away, the porcupine fell to the ground weakly.

"So it is like this, I understand."

The porcupine seemed to think of something, and the dying him smiled.

"Tenth old man, you will all come down to accompany me. You will definitely."

The luster of the porcupine's pupils gradually dimmed.

...

Su Xiao returned to the car he had taken when he came back. He intended to follow something other than Maqi and Little Drip. His condition was too bad. It would not be good if there were members of the adventurous group to assist Maqi and Little Drip.

The two were only auxiliary members of the adventurous group, and their combat power was ranked in the last few in the adventurous group.

The adventurous group had a total of thirteen people. One of them was a traitor, and two young men, if the combat power was calculated, it could be calculated according to the twelve people.

Four auxiliary people and eight combat personnel were among the twelve people.

Four of the eight combat personnel had been killed by Su Xiao, which meant that the remaining combat power of the adventurous group was only: Luolu (leader), Fenkes, Franklin, and Bololenov.

Among these four people, Luolu was the most difficult to deal with, followed by Fenkes, Franklin, and finally, Bololenov.

The situation became more precise and transparent, and only eight people were left in the regiment. As for Hisoka, Su Xiao never thought the other party was a regiment member.

Hisoka was not weak, and his character was fickle. He liked to cultivate strong enemies before killing them. He often called the weak enemies 'little apples'.

This kind of behavior that cultivated enemies and waiting for the enemy to be strong before killing them was foolish and arrogant behavior in Su Xiao's eyes.

Su Xiao would never make enemies for no reason. Once confirmed that it was an enemy relationship, regardless of whether the other party was as beautiful as a fairy or had the potential to grow, he would cut them first.

Thinking of this, Su Xiao shook his head. He had the advantage of the intelligence party when fighting with the regiment. When the regiment members were alone, he destroyed nearly half of the combat power of the regiment. With the intelligence of the regiment commander, this kind of thing would not appear again.

The current situation was to let the auction start again and close up safely on the 10th of September so that the main mission could be completed.

Su Xiao opened the door of the passenger seat.

"Drive."

...

A steady breath came. Su Xiao turned his head and looked. Black Mary was sleeping on the steering wheel. At this time, he remembered that the other party helped him treat his illness.

Su Xiao left the car and walked to the driver's seat. After putting Black Mary in the passenger seat, he sat in the driver's seat and started the car.

Just before the car drove out of the valley, Su Xiao looked at the bodyguards of the 'Cyranos family'. As expected, the cool poker card had disappeared. It should be to chase Maqi and Little Drip.

The car slowly drove out of the valley and went on the road to Youke Xin City. Su Xiao lit a cigarette and opened the window of the main driver.

One hand holding the steering wheel, the other holding the cigarette was placed on the car window. The strong wind blew the smoke away, and the cigarette butt was burning red.

"My whole body is sore, but it feels good to fight."

Su Xiao had long been used to this kind of life where he often fought, or in other words, this kind of life was more suitable for him. He would lose the joy of living if he did not have enough passion. It was just a walking corpse. It was undoubtedly fascinating to fight for life often. In return, he gained powerful strength and began to have extraordinary power.

Half an hour later, Su Xiao drove to the vicinity of Youke Xin City. At this time, the mobile phone in Black Mary's arms suddenly rang.

Finding the mobile phone in the soft touch, Su Xiao picked up the phone.

"I am Byakuya."

The person on the phone was stunned and immediately said,

"Something happened."

It was Bick. At this time, his voice was shallow.

"Has your old nest been destroyed?"

"Hey, that's not it, but... the Yin beasts suffered heavy casualties."

Su Xiao frowned. The other party might discuss something different from the valley's five dead Yin beasts.

"How many people died?"

"Three people."

"Xiao is dead?"

Xiao is still alive. You said before to let Xiao stay with us. Now, this is the right choice.

Su Xiao calculated the remaining number of dark beasts. He killed leech. After that, all five dark beasts in the mountain valley died in battle. Now three people died. In other words, Xiao was the only one left in the dark beasts.

The ability of the dark beast Xiao was exceptional. It was called 'Magical Skin'. It could wrap the enemy and shrink them so they could be easily captured. The captured enemies could not break free of the 'Magical Skin'.

The Magical Skin could not only wrap the enemy, but it could also wrap the object. Now all the items were surrounded by the dark beast owl and turned into a small cloth bag.

If the regiment caught Xiao, the items would also fall into the hands of the regiment. With the current situation, the auction might end without a hitch.

"As long as Xiao is still in our hands, there is no problem."

Su Xiao was just about to hang up the phone when Bick asked anxiously,

"How is the situation on your side?"

"I beat back the regiment."

"That's great..."

Before Bick could sigh with relief, Su Xiao's words stunned the other person.

"The yin beast is dead."

"Dead? How many died?"

"Five."

The phone fell silent. At this time, Bick's eyes were dull. Yin beasts were the psychic who was loyal to them. The death of five Yin beasts in the valley was terrible news for the ten old men.

"The people of the adventurous group will not let this go. The forces that can be gathered are gathered. Hiring killers or hiring mercenaries is not a simple money problem between the adventurous group and us."

Su Xiao hung up the phone after he finished speaking. It was not a problem of money that things had developed to this point.

Chapter 648: Demon God

If the original, adventurous group just wanted to rob the auction house, the two had entered a state of life and death after the death of four members.

Driving to Youke Xin City, before entering Youke Xin, Su Xiao saw the checkpoint set up at the edge of the town, which was the work of the ten old men.

Several gang members with guns stood in front of the car.

"Get off..."

Just as an ordinary gang member shouted angrily, a small leader beside him kicked him in the butt.

"Let them pass, quick."

The small gang leader nodded and bowed as the car drove by.

The ordinary gang member kicked was a little depressed, but he did not dare to say anything.

"Next time, look at the license plate before you stop the car. If you want to die, I don't want to die."

...

The car slowly entered Youke Xin City. Su Xiao did not go to find the ten old men but found a hotel in a remote city area.

He opened two rooms, threw Black Mary on the bed of a room, and left. Su Xiao took a bath in another room and sat on the bed.

He took out the apostle's eye and set it in an automatic alert state.

[Equipment Effect 3: Air Guard(Active): The apostle's eye floats in the air or the sky, examining the area within half a kilometer. The apostle's vision will warn if any suspicious creature enters this area.]

[Note: The air guard(active) consumes 120 points of mana each time. The effect lasts for 12 hours.]

[Note: The air guard(active) can detect invisibility, perception shielding, underground stealth, magic energy shielding, and other eighty-two hidden abilities.

Hint: The air guard(active) cooldown time is 24 hours.

...

Su Xiao lay on the bed. Although his injury was completely recovered, his mana values were almost exhausted, and his physical consumption was also massive. Although he had injected [adrenaline] to remove the exhaustion state, the fatigue of his body had to be recovered by sleep.

After a moment, Su Xiao fell asleep. Dragon flash was placed on the bedside. He was ready to enter the battle state at any time.

When Su Xiao recovered his strength through sleep, outside of Youke Xin City, in a hidden mountain cave, the cave area was huge, and the traces of chiseling were evident. It should have been newly chiseled in the past few days.

"We believe in the holy fire, and we are the people of God..."

A man wearing a white robe, with only one arm left, sat in a wheelchair. The man spoke with a red light hole on his body and a dark red flame burned in his hand.

At this time, hundreds of people were kneeling in the cave. Most of these people were civilians, merchants, craftsmen, and others.

The hundred or so people had fanatical expressions on their faces. When they looked at the one-armed man, their eyes were filled with reverence. The other party was the messenger of God. They had all personally witnessed a miracle. It was not their ability to read but a true miracle.

The atmosphere in the cave was both passionate and crazy. With the one-armed man's impassioned speech, the flames on his body surged, and a vast shadow formed behind the man.

The appearance of the shadow caused the believers in the cave to cry out in alarm, and everyone lowered their heads.

The fiery red shadow looked at the believers below. The shadow wore a crown that was like a bull's horn. Lava was its body, and lava was its blood.

This 'god' was the ninth Demon Envoy. He was once a big shot in the Black Abyss of the Void. His name was Alfred Lancelot, Wyklov. Because of this extremely long name, most people called him the Purgatory Count.

At this time, the Purgatory Count yawned, his eyes somewhat helpless. He communicated with the one-armed man through his mind.

"Clown, I don't need believers."

The Purgatory Count snorted. The word 'believer' reminded the Purgatory Count of some bad memories. For example, the believer stole their weapon after a rebellion. In the end, it was hung up by another Black Abyss Lord and picked up. He even threw it under the barbecue rack and used its heat to roast meat...

"Brother Count, don't care about these details."

The red clown chuckled. He already understood the general situation of this Demon God. He chose to summon the other party precisely because of this. The other party's mind needed to be more flexible.

"Don't call me brother Count. I'm many levels higher than you. It's amazing to have a backer. I..."

"Okay, brother Count."

"You..."

The Purgatory Count spat out a mouthful of hot smoke. Although the red clown summoned it, it could not force the other party to sign an unequal treaty. The red clown had a high enough contract to scare the Purgatory Count. Although this contract was precarious, it would disappear at any time.

"Count brother, how about that matter?"

The red clown always had a smile, whether cut off by Su Xiao or facing a desperate situation.

"Nothing much. They are the inheritors of a bunch of lunatics. I advise you to stay away from them."

"Lunatics?"

"A bunch of lunatics not of our race must be exterminated. To those fellows, other than humans of the same race or a few allies, they are all enemies. However, those fellows look down on mages of any race."

"Oh? They are solid?"

"Not very strong. They are powerful. They created the glory of the human race in the void. The strange thing is that they never called themselves kings and did not interfere with the internal affairs of the human race. Later, they were attacked by a group of mages and foreign races. In the end, they were destroyed. After that, the human race began to decline, no longer active in the void."

The Purgatory Count seemed to think of a terrifying enemy. He had light blue eyes and a long saber in his hand. He stepped on his head and said, "Next time, if you dare to behave atrociously in our territory, I will chop off your head. No one believes in God. We only believe in ourselves."

"So, you are afraid?"

"I will be afraid? Bullshit! Who am I? I only occasionally..."

The heat waves in the cave surged, and the bottom of the dead volcano began to become active.

"Since you are not afraid, let's begin. The teleportation array is almost complete. I have tested it before, and it can summon creatures from that place. Although the creatures summoned are not very obedient, it is related to the individual being too strong. We choose the weaker ones this time, but there are many creatures."

The red clown looked at a large magic circle in the cave. Although he only had one hand left, it did not affect his revenge on someone.

...

The following day, at six o'clock, two hundred kilometers away from Youke Xin.

This was an old and worn church. Initially, there was a small town here. The natural disaster caused this small town to be abandoned. Over time, all the buildings collapsed, leaving only this church that was still intact.

At this time, a few people were in the Abandoned Church Hall. They were all members of the adventurous group except the captain of the adventurous group. They were seven people: Fenkes, Franklin, Parker Big, Mazo, Tuff, Kubi, and Hisoka.

Other than Caesar, everyone's faces could have been better. Maqi was even more tired, and there was a faint smell of blood on his body.

"In other words, other than the captain, the rest of the members who have not arrived are all dead?"

Fenkes said. His prestige in the adventurous group was very high. After the captain was kidnapped in the original work, most of the things were decided by him, which showed his status in the adventurous group.

Chapter 649: Imminent Battle

"Yes, they are all dead. Ben Jin, Xin Chang, and Vigilante were all killed by this person."

Maqi took out a piece of information. It was Su Xiao's information, but this information only had Su Xiao's photos and recent experiences.

"He also killed Flying Tank. He was the one who found us in the auction. After he fought Flying Tank, he died."

Franklin clenched his fists. He only found the headless body of Flying Tank.

"Where's Little Drip? How did she die?"

"I'm not sure. We were suddenly kidnapped by a chain when we were escaping. Whether we were alive or dead is still unknown,"

Maqi said.

"Unknown?"

Fenkes sat up with a whoosh. He was not angry at Maqi, but he had too much anger in his heart and had no place to vent it. Since the regiment's establishment, there had never been such a significant loss.

"Fenkes, calm down."

The big-breasted lady, Patrick, said. The open collar revealed a large expanse of white skin.

Although Pakunoda was not the strongest in the regiment, her ability was irreplaceable and was more important than the combat members in the regiment.

"I am very calm. How long will it take for the regiment commander to come back?"

"Soon."

"The regiment commander is back."

Hisoka, who was leaning against the wall, said. As soon as he finished speaking, the regiment commander, Luoluo, entered the church.

Although Luoluo was the leader of a bandit group, his appearance wasn't as rough as he had imagined. Instead, it was a handsome young man.

"Guild Leader."

"Guild Leader, this matter..."

The members of the regiment came forward. From this, it could be seen how important Luoluo was in the regiment.

"I already know what happened."

Luoluo found a huge rock and sat down. The other members of the regiment listened quietly.

"We don't need to care about those items anymore. From now on, our goal is to kill this person. But before that, everyone, take a look at this first. This is a prophecy poem that I just stole."

Luoluo took out a piece of paper. On it were a few prophecy poems.

The threat of the Bloody Moon was no longer fatal.

Flaming Sun had passed away.

The companion with the broken blade fell on the red rock.

Frost Moon(11 months, represents Gold Nest), do not answer the phone(call means Vigilante).

The chained man took you away in the critical month.

Lying in front of the ruthless hunter, dying.

The envoy of purgatory arrived.

Darkness would cover this place.

The crazy clown stood in the dark and confronted the hunter.

Even if you have the help of the clown, where will you go?

...

The prophecy poem ended here. The adventurous group members were a little confused after reading the prophecy poem. They could understand the first few sentences, but the latter needed clarification.

If there was someone representing the clown in the regiment, it should be Hisoka. Everyone looked at him. The meaning of the prophecy poem was that Hisoka would become the savior of the regiment.

Hisoka was a little confused. His goal was to fight with the regiment commander, and because of this, he joined the regiment.

"From the meaning of the prophecy poem, the hunter must represent White Night of the ten old men forces. As for the broken limbs, it probably refers to the casualties of the regiment's members."

"Leader, why don't you help all of us predict?"

Maqi's suggestion was unanimously approved, but to make a prophecy, one needed to provide detailed personal information. A few people in the regiment could no longer remember such information as birthdays.

A diary appeared in Luoluo's hand. His ability to read was particularly in Element: The secret manual of a thief. After satisfying certain conditions, one could steal other people's ability to read. Those who had their ability stolen could no longer use their power. For those who pursued strength, it was no exaggeration to say that their ability to steal was inferior to death.

Ten minutes later, the few people who could provide personal information from Luoluo's group made a prophecy.

"It is not too optimistic. I will have a choice shortly. If I choose the wrong one, I will die."

Fenkes grinned. He could accept any outcome, including death.

"Mine is not good either. It is dead, for sure. That hunter will kill it."

Kubi, whose face was covered by his hair, sighed.

Most of the adventurous group members talked about the result of the prophecy poem. Only one person remained silent. That was Hisoka, who was holding the prophecy poem. He could not help but make a stupid prediction, and the result could have been better.

"What's wrong?"

Fenkes narrowed his eyes. He had long since looked down on Hisoka, and his intuition told him that this person could not be trusted.

"It's fine."

Hisoka's expression was regular, but his gaze was intentionally or unintentionally looking around.

"Hand it over."

Fenkes gestured for Hisoka to hand over the prophecy poem.

"It will scare you guys. Even I was shocked."

Hisoka handed the prophecy poem to Fenkes. Fenkes' expression changed drastically after reading it.

"Captain, look at this..."

Fenkes handed the prophecy poem to the captain of the regiment. He looked from head to toe as if it was the first day he met Hisoka.

Hisoka's prophecy poem probably meant that he was a clown and had two choices: to save the regiment or save himself. The last verse was that he kept the regiment and sacrificed himself.

Is that the case? Will Hisoka be so loyal? Of course, he can't be so dedicated to the transformed Sanzi. Hisoka's ability to read 'light, light illusion' has changed this prophecy poem.

[The light illusion: It can turn Qi into various skins. Adding imagination into one's own Qi can reproduce all the texture, but it can only imitate things as thin as paper.]

Hisoka covered a layer of light illusion on the paper of the prophecy poem. Everyone saw the prophet made up by Hisoka on the spot.

The actual prophecy poem colluded with Pica and was later discovered by the adventurous group. It was chased and finally expelled from the adventurous group.

"Everyone, have you considered that this savior is a fake?"

A female voice suddenly sounded. The group of travelers looked into the depths of the church. In the shadows sat a blue-haired girl. The girl was swinging her braids.

"You are here."

Captain Luoluo seemed to have known this person for a long time.

"Already here. It has been set up. We can start now."

Hearing the blue-haired girl's words, Captain Luoluo held the hand of Hisoka's prophecy poem and began to chant energy.

Seeing this scene, Hisoka's pupils contracted. He stomped on the ground and smashed the walls of the church.

At the same time, the 'light illusion' ability on the paper was dispelled, revealing the actual content.

The violent psychic energy caused the paper to shatter in just an instant, but Captain Luoluo could see the document's contents.

"Kill Hisoka."

As soon as Luoluo gave the order, everyone in the regiment swarmed toward Hisoka.

Bang!

The sound of a sniper rifle shot out. A moment later, an intense battle unfolded. Under the clever interference of the blue-haired girl, Hisoka, who had previously been mixed in the regiment, became a street rat.

...

.....

In front of a snack stand, a man and a dog were tasting the unique snacks of the Hunter World. A beautiful girl stood on the side.

"Rose, do you have any news from the Ten Old Man?"

"I've already contacted you a few times. I want to invite you over as a guest."

"A guest? Don't bother about those guys who are afraid of death. What about the auction?"

"The scene will start again at nine o'clock tonight."

"Is that so?"

Su Xiao chewed the food in his mouth. He might have to fight with the regiment tonight if he did not guess wrong. As long as the regiment was destroyed, the auction could be smoothly opened to 9 months and 10 days, which meant that tonight was the final battle.

"Luoluo... an enemy that is not easy to deal with."

Su Xiao grabbed the secret pastry on the side. Who knew that Bobowang also wanted to eat the pastry and bite it in his hand.

"Relax, this is salty pastry. Eat it and eat your hair."

Bobowang did not waver and looked like he was going to eat something in a dungeon.

"Dumbass, don't bite my hand. Believe it or not, I will let you have a taste of the Yin Beast's corpse."

Bobowang let go and said with a soft gaze, as if saying, "Master, you are too disloyal. Why are your eyes still popping when you are playing?"

Chapter 650: Killer

After the meal, Su Xiao leaned on the table on the street and looked at the bustling crowd in front of him. On the side was Bobowang, whose mouth was still stained with cream.

It turned out that it was not feasible to talk reason with this idiot, or the slippers were more effective.

Just as Su Xiao was considering where to hang out, the phone in Black Mary's arms sounded.

"Hello, hello, no, let me ask."

Black Mary was rejected several times.

"Mr. Byakuya, it's the ten old man, Brent. He wants to invite us over."

Black Mary covered the phone with her hand and possessed her body. From Su Xiao's angle, he could see large patches of white skin on her collar.

"What's the matter?"

"The ten old men hired a group of killers at a high price. They want you to meet these killers. I feel that they want you to shock the scene and refuse?"

"Promise them."

"Yes."

Black Mary said a few words and hung up the phone.

"A little earlier than expected..."

"What?"

Black Mary looked at Su Xiao doubtfully.

"Nothing."

The two drove to the new venue of the auction, which was just a short distance from the original auction house, three blocks away.

The new auction house was full of flowers of various colors, and some flowers were tied up in a circle and placed at the door, and several gangsters with panic on the side.

When the two drove to the time, Su Xiao was stunned when he saw those 'lines of lines', and the first thought in his mind was, who died?

"Who died?"

"Huh?"

Black Mary was a little confused. She turned around and said, "Is it the smell of blood? As expected of Mr. Byakuya. I will let them patrol the surroundings immediately."

Black Mary pretended to get off the car.

"Wait."

Su Xiao called out to Black Mary and coughed a little awkwardly. Those 'wreaths' should be a celebration in the Hunter World, similar to the opening ceremony of the shop.

The shop opened and sent wreaths. Su Xiao felt awkward no matter what he thought about it.

"Your etiquette is exceptional."

Su Xiao got out of the car, leaving Black Mary with a surprised face.

From these wreaths, it could be seen that the new auction was not going smoothly. The auction even needed to celebrate to attract guests. In the past auctions, there was no need to do this at all. The guests would come to the door themselves.

Black Mary saw Su Xiao's doubts and began to narrate what happened this morning.

After the auction was leveled once, most of the guests were resistant to the Youke Xin auction, and no one was willing to risk their lives to participate in it.

When the auction started in the morning, this place was utterly deserted. Not to mention the guests watching the show, the merchants and residents who opened shops within a few hundred meters all ran away, looking as if the auction house was a god of plague.

This angered the ten old men, but even if they were gangsters, they could not force the guests to come to the auction with their guns against their heads.

For the sake of their face, the ten old men could only devise this plan. They would set up an initially unnecessary opening ceremony and gather the guild members to support them. This order frightened the ten old men's directly subordinate guilds. These people wanted to avoid coming to the auction.

At eight o'clock in the morning, the ten old men found that there was still no one attending the auction. Even the members of their sects were pushing it. The ten old men were angry and ordered that whoever dared not come would be expelled from the guild.

It was ten o'clock in the morning, which was now.

There was the last thing so there was the current situation. The front door of the auction house was full of wreaths. Next to the wreath were some nervous gangsters with bulging pockets on their waists.

After listening to the description of the Black Mary, Su Xiao roughly understood the situation.

"That is to say, and there are no other forces in the auction house except Mr. Cheng of the gang?"

"Well, no one dares to come. After all, before..."

Black Mary had some lingering fears. She was also present at the last auction.

"It's best if no one participates, but the ten old men have been in the underworld for many years. Someone will come to the auction at night."

Su Xiao did not care whether someone participated in the auction, as long as the scene could be smoothly opened.

Entering the auction house, the building occupied a large area, which was more significant than the venue of the last auction.

The auction house was full of gangsters, and there was no outsider. Su Xiao was on the first floor of the elevator, and the elevator stopped on the sixth floor.

"The killers hired have arrived, only waiting for you to arrive."

Black Mary led the way in front.

...

At this time, in a guest room on the sixth floor, a short bald fat man wearing tiny round sunglasses was smoking a cigar. He was looking at the killers in look at's room with a scrutinizing gaze.

The bald fat man was called Jianji. This was not his original name. It was a nickname given to him by others after being in the gang. Over time, he was called this way.

Jiannan was the direct leader of the ten old men's forces. It was usual for him to receive these killers, and he was also willing to do these things with no risk but could show his face.

Although his character was not very good, he was an intelligent person. All ten old men died in the original work, but he was still living freely. Of course, this had something to do with his poor strength. No one would deliberately kill him.

""1.2. 3.4... Everyone is here. "

Jianji played with his fingers, recalling the number of killers hired. A subordinate behind him bowed and answered, "Not all of them are here for the time being."

"Aren't there eight people on the assassination team?"

"It seems that the Nosra family will bring someone over."

When he heard about the Nosra family, Jianji was a little unhappy. A feeling of jealousy spread in his heart.

"Tsk, that guy who only uses divination to scare people."

Although he said so, Jianji was very envious. He also hoped to have a daughter like that.

As soon as he finished speaking, the door was pushed open.

Nora and Pica walked into the room. Nora was the patriarch of the family and was also the father of the divination girl.

The two of them did not speak after entering the room. They just stood aside.

"This time, everyone is here. The mission is to get rid of the Phantom Troupe. Today, the auction will start again. They might also appear. Once they find them, kill them."

Jianji looked at the few killers present. These killers were dressed differently. For the gangsters, these were experts.

This time, the committee member was not an assassin but a protection. The adventurous group took the initiative in the auction house to come to the door. However, all the people present were killers after all. They directly asked them to protect the auction smoothly. It was inevitable that they would not give these killers face.

"As a team, everyone has the same goal. In this case, how about determining the code name of each contact?"

A killer said. This killer looked ordinary and belonged to the type that would not be noticed by him, who was mixed in the crowd.

"Why don't you call me by color? I am blue."

A killer in a vest said.

"I am red."

"Black."

When the killers all said their colors, the two who had been standing there all the time spoke.

"It's like child's play."

An old man with white hair and a white mustache spoke. The old man had his hands behind his back, and a long strip of cloth hung on his chest. On it was written the word 'live in service'.
