Chapter 661: The Grievances Between the National Team and Vivian

Five minutes later, in the main hall of the auction hall, Su Xiao stood in front of the three national brothers.

"This is probably what happened. Think about how to choose."

"Do you still need to think about it? F*ck him, the clown."

"Second brother is right. F*ck him."

The second brother and the third brother looked excited.

"So this is the purpose of the clown, but..."

The big brother looked at Su Xiao. He did not believe Su Xiao. Even if the three people were hilarious, it did not mean they were stupid.

"If you are not interested, then forget it. You can continue to guard here. It is better to complete the main mission. I am prepared for failure, but the clown must die."

Su Xiao once had immunity for the failure of the primary mission. If he used it, he would not have all attributes - 3.

After profiting from many green and blue treasure chests, Su Xiao no longer cared about the loss of the primary mission. What he cared about was the hunting mission.

"To tell the truth, Byakuya, I don't trust you."

The national foot boss had a straightforward personality. He did not believe Su Xiao. Su Xiao smiled. If the national foot directly felt him, it could only mean that the national foot was stupid.

"No normal person would believe a person like me. Continue."

"Eh, I thought you would suddenly cut me down."

The national football boss laughed.

"If you continue to talk nonsense, I will cut you."

"Don't, don't, don't. We are all civilized people. We can talk things out. We three brothers can discuss it."

The Old Great General, Old Second, and Old Third pulled to the side. What the three brothers did was discuss with each other. There would not be a specific individual who was independent. The three brothers walked into the distance and began to whisper to each other.

"Yes, Big Brother is right."

The Old Third repeatedly nodded, not knowing what they said.

"I'll listen to big brother. Big brother, you won't harm me."

The second brother seemed to agree with big brother.

"Haha, big brother, that..."

"Hahaha, you fool."

"Big brother, be serious. We are talking about business. Hahaha, no, let me laugh first."

The three brothers did not know what exciting things they discussed and kept laughing.

After a long time, the corners of the mouth kept twitching, and then the boss came to Su Xiao.

"Brother Ruthless, puff..."

The national foot boss could not help but laugh again. Su Xiao was a little speechless.

"Sorry, let's continue to discuss killing the clown."

"Funny."

Vivian's voice came, and when he heard this voice, the national foot boss shook.

"Blue hair..."

Ka, the sound of a gun being loaded could be heard.

"Isn't... isn't this beautiful, gentle, and kind Miss Vivian? Good... long time no see."

The national foot boss seemed to recall something wrong and slowly retreated.

"I've seen it before, and it was just that you guys ran away."

Vivian gritted her teeth, her fair little hand holding an exaggerated sniper rifle.

"Ha, ha, ha, yes, what happened before... that... is there still time to apologize now?"

"It's too late. Go to hell; you three are only good at sneak attacks."

Vivian picked up her sniper rifle and was just about to aim at the national foot when she heard the sound of a blade being unsheathed.

"Tsk."

Vivian put away her sniper rifle and turned her head to the side in a tsundere manner. Her small white teeth made cracking sounds.

"Vivian, why don't I return those things to you? What kind of grudges do we have..."

As soon as the national foot boss finished speaking, he found that Vivian was looking at him with an expressionless face, and her eyes were full of killing intent.

"I understand."

The national foot elder gestured for the second and third brothers to come in, and the three brothers stood in a row.

"Vivian, I admit we used a sneak attack to defeat you. If you are unhappy, we three brothers can fight with you openly."

"It is exactly what I want."

The killing intent in Vivian's eyes retreated, she moved her neck left and right, and the blue braids behind her swayed.

Su Xiao looked at the four people present. He now had an idea: to kill these four unreliable guys.

"Before... we were talking about the clown, right?"

Su Xiao sighed. Sure enough, he needed to be more suitable to cooperate with the contractor. He would not choose this way if not for the crisis this time.

"It seems to be."

The national football boss looked at Vivian.

"Let's kill the clown first and then deal with our business."

The two sides temporarily reconciled, and Su Xiao vaguely felt they were not mortal enemies.

Su Xiao pulled the third brother to the side. This guy was more practical. He needed to understand what happened before the four people. If it was death, he had to terminate the plan.

In the description of the third brother, Su Xiao knew what happened to the four people.

The three lowlifes of the National Football Team had attacked Vivian and captured her alive to blackmail her. The three lowlifes of the National Football Team must have been very proud at that time. It could be seen from Third Brother's cheap smile.

With Vivian's temper, she would not give in at all. It was utterly impossible to get the items in her storage space. The National Football Team had robbed her of the spoils.

The National Football Team rarely killed people, so after getting the spoils of war and beating up Vivian, they were released by this girl.

At that time, Vivian was mad. The trophies that she had worked hard to get were robbed, and she was even teased by the three bitches. Although the three bitches did nothing rude to her, they beat her up. At that time, Jines must have had a breakdown.

After being beaten up, Vivian, who had a bloody nose and a swollen face, remembered the brothers' appearance. From then on, the nightmare of the national foot began, and the artillery Vivian chased them three whole derivative worlds.

At that time, they captured Vivian alive and did not kill her, so she did not kill them but only beat the three people of the national foot brothers to half death.

After Vivian poorly beat the national foot, she gave up tracking the national foot, and after the two derivative worlds, it was unknown whether it was the will of heaven or what, the two sides met again...

In almost the same plot, Vivian and a large group of contractors robbed the treasure and finally succeeded after a vicious killing. Fortunately, the three national foot people nearby attacked her a second time.

In the words of the third brother, Brother Ruthless, you don't know the situation then. It was so exciting.

It could only be said that the three brothers of the national foot were worthy of being called the three lowlives of the country foot. After capturing Vivian for the second time, they kicked around this girl with long braids and put down their bold words. If you don't accept it, chase after us again. Wow!

It was either because she was angry or kicked. At that time, Vivian vomited blood. Unfortunately, Vivian's tracking prop had been used up, and she could only swallow her anger.

"This is what happened. So when she saw us, her first reaction was to shoot us with a gun. Perhaps this is the charm."

The third brother of the national foot curled up the corners of his mouth, and his smile was as cheap as possible.

Su Xiao gently rubbed his forehead. He did not know why, but he suddenly felt a little pity for Vivian...

Bobowang, who was listening on the side, was stunned and looked at the third child of the national foot team clearly: "I have never seen such a shameless person."

Vivian squatted angrily on the side, holding a bag of plums and eating long blue braids spread on the ground.

[Cough ---Let's talk about your grudges later. Let's talk about the matter of dealing with the clown first. Vivian, you proposed the plan, so you told me.]

[I feel like someone beat me up twice. It hurts a little, so you tell me.]

Vivian chewed on her plum. She liked this sweet and sour taste. Eating could calm her down.

[Yes, Vivian's plan is straightforward. Before, she found out the general direction of the clown. We worked together to kill the clown. Even if the matter is not over, it will still improve to a certain extent.]

Chapter 662: Little Team

Hearing this simple and crude plan, the three brothers were somewhat speechless.

"This... Although we are not good at scheming against others, this plan will be okay. Vivian, we are not saying that your IQ is not good. We do not mean that."

The third national brother realized he had said something wrong and looked at her. Vivian proposed this plan.

"Do you have any objections to my plan?"

Vivian stopped chewing, and her eyes showed she had a problem using a sniper rifle to hit you.

"Of course..."

"I have a problem."

The third child said the first half of the national foot, and the second half was by Su Xiao.

"Big sister, I don't have any objections. He said it."

The third brother secretly pointed at Su Xiao and took two steps back. Vivian ignored the third brother and looked at Su Xiao.

"It is impossible to rush over blindly. It is necessary to rush over, but first, we must confirm the enemy division. Two people in the enemy are difficult to deal with—the clown and the regiment commander, followed by the other forces in the regiment. Fenkes, Franklin, Skinner, Mazik, and others are difficult to deal with. Excluding these people, there is also the Nila clan, the humanoid creature that besieged us. The number of Nila is large, and there are inevitably strong individuals among them."

Su Xiao lit a cigarette, and the people present did not speak.

"Once we have a sign of breaking through, the Nila clan will probably rush up. In breaking through, if we meet the clown, we will kill him directly together. If we meet the regiment's captain, you continue to break out of the encirclement. I hold the captain of the regiment. Our purpose is not to kill the Nila clan or the regiment but to kill the clown. The appearance of the Nila clan must be related to the clown. This is beyond doubt."

Su Xiao spat out a mouthful of green smoke. He had planned all kinds of situations that he might encounter later.

"I have a general understanding, and the odds are against us?"

Knowing that the enemy had so much combat power, the national team's leader did not look good.

[You can choose not to participate, but defending the auction is a dead end. If you participate in the plan to break out of the encirclement, you can not consider killing the clown after immediately escaping.]

Su Xiao's words made the eyes of the national foot and Winnie light up, and then several people shook their heads.

[All attributes - 3 is not easy to resist, the strength attribute and the like are still good, but the luck attribute... the consequences of negative 1 points are severe.]

If the strength and physical attributes had negative numbers, the contractor was not far from death, and the body functions would quickly decline.

As for the negative luck attribute, although it won't die immediately, it won't live long in the dangerous Reincarnation Paradise. Therefore, all the characteristics - 3 are more complex than it seems. If he is not careful, he will die. This is the punishment for failing the primary mission.

"I don't want to be unlucky, so the clown must die."

Vivian's tone was firm.

"Yes, negative luck is equivalent to a slow death. The clown must die."

The national team leader also spoke, and the five of them agreed to kill the clown.

"If it's someone else, I can join you."

The girl walked out from behind a nearby pillar. She had been nearby before.

"Sure."

Su Xiao was not worried that there were spies on the team now. In addition to those who violated the rules, the contractor and the others now had a common enemy.

"When are we leaving?"

"Now."

Su Xiao walked to the main entrance of the auction house. Gathering all contractors in the auction house was an excellent choice, but the current situation prevented it.

The auction house needed someone to guard it. The national foot and Vivian would disagree if all contractors left the auction house.

It was the best choice to gather the outstanding contractor to launch a surprise attack. There were too many people, and it was inconvenient to move.

The team had a total of six people, namely Su Xiao(Fierce Knife Man), the three national foot brothers(tease main tank), Vivian (fort), and Sister Mi (killer).

When Su Xiao and others walked out of the auction house, a contractor in the hall noticed the situation here, but they did not speak.

"Hey, you guys, stop."

A gang leader shouted. There was a contractor in the auction house, and the gang leaders who participated in the auction were also there. However, these people fled upstairs to take refuge when the Nila tribe attacked. They only appeared after they found safety.

These gang leaders gathered together, and their expressions were flustered.

Su Xiao stopped and looked at the gang members.

"You can't leave the auction house. What if those monsters appear again? Even if you are the direct subordinate of the Tenth Old Man, you have to consider the overall situation."

These people said they were thinking about the overall situation, but they wanted Su Xiao and others to stay and protect them.

"Are these people useful?"

Sister Mi narrowed her eyes and licked her lips with her red tongue.

"We can kill all of them. We have to hurry up and break out of here."

"Okay, at most twenty seconds."

The girl disappeared from her spot and reappeared in the eyes of the gang heads.

The sharp snake-shaped dagger cut open the throat of a gang head, and blood sprayed out several meters away.

Su Xiao walked out of the auction house, and there was a scream and curse behind him.

"How cruel."

The national foot boss grinned. Although many monsters died at his hands, he rarely killed people.

"Just a bunch of dregs. This woman is from the Hunter Union. Be careful that she kills and drops the blood card later."

When Innie finished speaking, a female fan with a blood-stained dagger appeared in the team.

"It's not good to speak ill of people behind their backs, the little sister of the Mad Scientist and the pervert brigade."

"I knew you could hear me."

"Don't worry. The threat of misfortune is still right in front of us. How can there be internal strife at this time? But compared to me, this one is more dangerous, hehe."

The girl raised her white chin and said to Su Xiao.

"Who knows, both of you are very dangerous. I, a delicate person, can only tremble."

Vivian walked into the team with a heavy sniper rifle.

"Everyone, we are also a team. Do you want to give a name to the team? You should know that this cooperation may only happen once. The chance of appearing again is minimal."

The national foot boss seemed to be very excited. The three brothers mixed into a group of ruthless people with different personalities.

"The artillery assault team."

This was the name proposed by Vivian.

"Super kill team."

Sister Mi shook off the blood on her dagger. This was the name of the team she had thought of.

"Avengers!"

This was the opinion of the three national team members. It was not the same style at all.

"Here they are."

Ha?

The third child looked at Su Xiao in astonishment.

"Brother Ruthless, 'is coming,' this team's name will not be too ordinary."

Su Xiao's eyes twitched. He said the Nila Pan tribe had come.

"Idiot, it's the Nila clan rushing over. Look over there."

Vivian picked up a large sniper rifle, aimed at the dark street in the distance, and fired a few shots. This was a few explosive bombs. The fire lit up the road, and a dark mass of Nila rushed over.

Before Vivian fired, Su Xiao had rushed into the street with a knife.

The densely packed Nila clan rushed out from the street, and the whole horse road was full of the Nila clan.

Su Xiao took the lead and rushed into the Nila clan. The long sword in his hand slashed continuously, broken limbs and blood splashed, and Nila let out an angry roar.

The girl disappeared in the night, her figure flashed between Nila, and there was always a Nila who fell with her hand covering her throat.

Vivian held a sniper rifle in the rear of the team, shells flying, the roar of the gun resounding through the entire street, and the sniper rifle made her feel like she was using a heavy machine gun.

The three people of the national foot rushed behind Su Xiao to prevent Su Xiao from being surrounded by the Nila tribe.

Bobowang mixed in the Nila tribe and activated the divine skill 'You can't see me.' He instantly broke into the enemy. He was responsible for finding the position of the clown, the regiment commander, and others and reported it to Su Xiao.

But Nila was too dense. Bobowang was stepped on several times. His little eyes were full of grievances. If Bobowang could talk, he would shout, I am the same kind of you. Please don't step on my tail. I am about to step on my hair.

On the street, the roar of Nila Pan, the sound of the blade cutting the flesh, the sound of a heavy hammer smashing together.

Nila Pan was like the same black wave. Su Xiao killed the 'wave of light' and forcibly made a bloody road in the large group of Nila Pan.

As for Vivian, who was behind the team at the end, there was no need to worry about her safety. This girl was not only a cannon but also an expert in bombs. All the Nila who wanted to get close to her was blown up.

The team advanced at high speed to the position of Clown and others.

Chapter 663: Heartache

The sound of fighting resounded through the entire block. The merchants and civilians living in this block had retreated after the auction started. It turned out that these people were sage.

Su Xiao kicked off the neck of a Nila Pan, the long sword in his hand slashed, and several Nila Pan was killed on the spot.

"Brother Fierce, there are too many monsters. Continue to break out."

A bloody claw mark appeared on the face of the national foot boss. The three national foot brothers were closest to Su Xiao. Their attack ability was ordinary, and they could only follow Su Xiao.

"Continue to break out of the encirclement."

Facing the overwhelming Nigruela, Su Xiao was a little puzzled.

This number of creatures would not appear out of thin air, even if the transmission ability transported them. The number was too exaggerated.

"Get down."

Su Xiao put the dragon flashback into the sheath and made a cutting posture.

The three people suddenly felt a chill on their backs, and they fell down the moment they heard Su Xiao's shout.

Zheng!

The light blue circular blade spread out, and this sharp blade light flew over the head of the two men, and the big back head of the two men with oil was cut off, becoming Mediterranean.

The Nila tribe surrounded Su Xiao. Using this kind of 360-degree attack move, the lethality could be imagined.

With Su Xiao at the point, Nila Pan, who was more than ten meters away from the front and back, all became still, and dark blue blood marks appeared on their chests.

Pitter-patter, patter...

The bodies cut into two fell to the ground, the pungent smell of blood spread, and the noisy battlefield was dead silent.

"Gulu..."

The second foot of the national foot swallowed his saliva. He suddenly felt a chill on his head. He reached out and touched it. It was unexpectedly smooth.

The female fan stood up with lingering fear in the nearby Nila Pan's corpse. She was almost affected just now.

"You want to kill..."

The camouflage girl just wanted to stand up, but after seeing Su Xiao's position at this time, she ignored the blood and broken limbs on the ground and quickly lay on the floor.

Su Xiao made a cutting posture again, waiting for the surrounding Nila Pan to rush up.

"If you are not afraid of death, come up."

Although his right arm was a little sore, the problem of using the ring break twice in a row was not significant. Before, he could only use the ring break three times a day. If he used too much, it would damage his right arm. But after the various attributes were greatly improved, the number of times he could use the ring break increased from three to five times a day.

Moreover, the level of the master of the sword technique increased, and the power of the ring break increased significantly.

The surrounding Nila tribe seemed to be stimulated by the corpses of their companions, and they did not dare to move forward the first time.

"Woof."

Bobowang's cry came, and when he heard this cry, Su Xiao raised his eyebrows.

"Charge with me."

Su Xiao removed his sword-cutting posture. A large number of tiny white spiders crawled from his sleeve. This was an alchemy bomb in the split state.

Dozens of tiny white spiders quickly crawled around. After they were more than ten meters away from Su Xiao, these alchemy bombs were activated.

Boom, boom...

The fire rushed to the sky, an invisible rush spread, and the people near Nila Pan were blown up.

Taking this opportunity, Su Xiao raised his sword and rushed in that direction. The team hesitated for a moment and chose to follow.

The confused sister Mi got up, and after glaring at Su Xiao's back, she also chose to follow.

Whether it was Su Xiao or the sister, they were a team that was temporarily pieced together, it was impossible to have a tacit understanding, and it was lucky that they were not injured.

When the five people broke through in one direction, the gunshots behind them had already disappeared, and it was not that Vivian had been killed.

At this time, Vivian had already arrived at the top of a nearby clock tower. This clock tower was the iconic building of Youke Xin City, and it was at least a hundred meters high.

As a sniper, Vivian would not let go of this commanding height that could support the entire area. She had set up bomb guards on every floor of the clock tower, a ragdoll bomb.

These ragdoll bombs were not dead. They patrolled around the clock tower. Once any other creatures entered the clock tower, they would immediately activate. This kind of bomb was distributed on every floor of the clock tower.

The night wind blew, and Vivian laid a thick blanket on the top floor of the clock tower. She was lying on the soft blanket, her two legs swaying, and a slender sniper rifle was beside her. This sniper rifle was not the one from before. She had two sniper rifles, one was called Destruction Maniac, and the other was called Goddess Xi Xi.

Vivian, who used Destruction Maniac, was a cannon model, and she, who used Goddess Xi, called this model "heartache Mode." The reason why she called it that was because the bullets of Goddess Xi were very expensive, so expensive that she would feel heartache every time she fired.

Description: Want this goddess to serve you? You need a large number of assets.

Price: 98600 Paradise Coins

26.72mm Hamil Ammunition: Price: 7800 Paradise Coins(Each shot)

A shot was 7800 paradise coins. Would Vivian feel heartache? If it were Su Xiao, he would also feel sorrow. This was not a bullet, but a money shot to kill the opponent.

Vivian pursed her lips, holding a large bullet in her tiny hand. This bullet was covered with lines, the shot was silver, and it was not ordinary at a glance.

"Clown, I'm f * * * * * * * * * *, hu ---A lady can not curse unless she can't resist."

Vivian took a few deep breaths and stuffed the bullet in her hand that was worth 7,800 paradise coins into the gun chamber. She gritted her teeth and pulled the gun chain.

Ka, the bullet was loaded. Once this bullet was packed, there was no possibility of retreating. Moreover, it had to be used within two hours. Otherwise, it would be scrapped.

"My heart hurts."

Vivian pressed her slightly raised chest and put her head in front of the scope. As long as she pulled the trigger, she would take the enemy's life. Otherwise, she would suffer a loss.

Through the scope, Vivian saw Su Xiao and others breaking out. The direction of the break was correct. As long as they rushed out another two hundred meters, Nila Pan could not form the momentum of Su Xiao and others.

"Not bad. You found the direction of the break out so quickly."

Vivian slightly adjusted the angle of the scope. Suddenly, she found a figure not far from the direction of Su Xiao and others breaking out. The figure hid behind the building and only revealed his head.

This figure was waiting for Su Xiao and others to break through to the most critical moment, which was undoubtedly an intelligent choice.

Vivian's slender and white fingers pulled the trigger. She aimed the cross of the star at the head of the figure. Because of the effect of the secret line(fraud), the constitution did not notice that a fatal weapon was already aimed at it.

Bang!

The powerful recoil made Vivian groan, and before the gunshot spread, the bullet had arrived.

Chapter 664: MVP Bobowang

26.72 mm bullets penetrated the human figure's head without any obstruction. The bandages around the head shattered and exploded like a watermelon that a hammer had smashed. Red and white liquid splashed onto the wall on the side.

The human figure fell to the ground. He did not even know who said he was killed. The members of the Phantom Troupe peeled off Lev. The Phantom Troupe numbered twelve. They released the ability user and were instantly killed by Innie.

After peeling off, Lev fell to the ground, and a dark purple treasure chest appeared next to his body.

On the clock tower, the heavy sniper rifle in front of Vivian emitted smoke. The barrel was fiery red, and it could not shoot continuously. The fact was that this weapon only had one shot. Each shot needed three minutes to cool the barrel.

Moving her sore shoulders, Vivian saw the dark purple treasure chest through the scope. She whistled.

"I made a profit."

Putting the sniper rifle aside, Vivian took out a small remote control plane. Remember to consider this thing. This was also a piece of equipment, a blue quality equipment. She controlled the remote control plane to fly to the treasure chest quickly.

...

On the street.

Su Xiao held the head of a Nila Pan in his left hand and used this half-dead Nila Pan as a shield. The blade flashed, and several headless Nila Pan fell before him.

Just when these Nila Pan fell, Su Xiao noticed that the enemies in front of him were sparse, and they were about to break out.

The three brothers of the national team panted and followed behind Su Xiao. It turned out that the main tank was very good at defending, and it was inevitable that it was weak when breaking out.

After killing a few Nila Pans in front of them, the group of Nila Pans behind them roared angrily and rushed out of the encirclement.

The camouflage girl looked at the four people who were gradually running away and was a little speechless.

"Damn, I don't have any sense of existence, but I'm sorry."

Silver light surged out of her body. The few Nila Pans beside the camouflage girl suddenly stopped, and a bloodline shuttled through the air. When the Nila Pans could move, they subconsciously held the bloody throat.

The camouflage girl also broke out of the encirclement and met with Su Xiao and others.

Twenty minutes later.

Su Xiao and others stood or sat in the path in a dark alley in the block.

"A good news, a bad news, which one should I listen to first?"

Su Xiao looked at the four people present, and it was the news from Bobowang.

"Bad news."

The female fan clenched her teeth and pulled a broken claw from her arm. After the team successfully broke through, they encountered three more groups of Nila Pan.

The Nila Pan Clan was not all gathered together, but scattered in the nearby neighborhood, like patrolling the territory.

"The bad news is that the clown is with the regiment commander."

"This is bad,"

The three national brothers were also seriously injured. Fortunately, they could heal each other.

"What about the good news?"

The third brother of the national team was very optimistic.

"The good news is that the regiment has suffered heavy casualties. The person I released before was courageous."

"Who?"

"Cool pika."

Hearing this name, the fans, and the national brothers came to a sudden realization. Although the current cool pika at this time was not strong because of the vows and restrictions, he was powerful when dealing with the people of the Phantom Troupe.

"Cool Pika killed three people in the Phantom Troupe. Little Drip, Kubi, and Franklin were all killed by him, but as a prize, he escaped after the captain of the Phantom Troupe pierced his heart. His life and death are unknown."

"Brother Ruthless, how did you get this information?"

The second brother asked the doubts of a few people.

"I have... a special channel."

Thinking of the information that Bobowang sent back, Su Xiao's mouth twitched. That idiot broke into the top level of the Nila tribe. You can't see me, and this skill was powerful.

It was far from such an exaggerated effect if it was just a skill. Before, Bobowang swallowed the monster's flesh with one eye, and his attributes had improved. No, it should be said that it has increased dramatically.

Bobowang (Follower)

Health Points: 100

Mana Points: 270

Strength: 26(+1)

Agility: 32(4 points)

Stamina: 30(2 points)

Intelligence: 27

Charm: 53(8 points)

When Su Xiao saw Bobowang's charm attribute that reached 53 points, he was a little stunned. Bobowang's charm attribute was almost catching up with Su Xiao's primary attribute.

According to Su Xiao's guess, the skill: You can't see me(passive, self-comprehension skill) determines the strength of the effect depending on the level of charm attribute.

In other words, the higher the charm of Bobowang, the more vital this skill is.

You can't see me. It was neither invisibility nor disguise. Invisibility or camouflage could not penetrate the enemy.

"Special channel..."

Although the female fan frowned, she could not ask about this.

"The situation is very advantageous to us."

Su Xiao changed the topic. Bobowang's ability could not be exposed. This was the trump card at the critical moment.

"Based on the current situation, only five people are left in the enemy's combat power. Clown, regiment commander, regiment member Fenkes, Mazik, Pakunoda. Other than Fenkes, the other two regiment members are not strong."

Although the opponents were reduced, the expressions of National Brothers and sister Mi were not relaxed.

"What about the Nila tribe? These four-eyed monsters are our enemies."

"Don't worry about it. We'll go kill the clown directly."

"No problem?"

"It's not that there are no problems now. In another half an hour, the Nila clan will attack the auction house again. Once the auction house is broken, the main mission will be punished immediately. It will be complicated for us to deal with the clown and regiment commander after the full attributes - 3."

The information Bobowang received from the Nila clan was crucial.

The clown did not decide on the Nila clan. The Nila clan and the clown clan were making use of each other. Now there were more than 2700 Nila clans in Youke Xin city. There were five leaders and one commander level.

Bobowang is keeping an eye on the Nila clan. Bobowang would inform Su Xiao immediately if there were any sign of trouble. This was also why he said he did not need to pay attention to the Nila clan for the time being.

"Not only that, I suspect the clown has no fighting ability."

Su Xiao's words puzzled the national foot and the female fan.

"How could he not have combat power? I have heard of this clown before. It is said that he likes to eat souls."

Sister Mi did not believe the clown had lost his combat power.

"I fought with him before. After cutting off both his legs and one arm, he escaped. With the technology and mysticism level of the Hunter World, it takes a certain amount of luck to recover his limbs. I know that no one in the brigade can help him recover his limbs. I have destroyed his limbs, and Mazik can do nothing."

"Is that so..."

The camouflage girl was silent.

Su Xiao learned from Bobowang that the broken limbs of the clown had not recovered. Although Bobowang only glanced at the clown and others from afar, he could still see if there were any hands and feet.

"If he has no fighting ability, I can consider assassinating him."

Sister Mi looked at Su Xiao with a smile in her eyes. She meant that she did not want to fight with the regiment commander or the regiment members to reduce the risk.

"But I will say the ugly words first. If the clown's hands and feet have recovered, or if there are any other signs, I will withdraw immediately."

"Yes."

Although Su Xiao wanted to deal with the clown himself, the current situation was not allowed. The regiment commander had no one to deal with, and the national brothers needed to delay the surviving members of the regiment.

Chapter 665: Head Commander

After some discussion, the five people finalized the final plan.

Now the clown and the regiment commander were in a hotel half a kilometer away. Su Xiao was responsible for dealing with the regiment commander, and the three national brothers were holding Fenkes, Mazik, and the others back. Sister Mi went alone to assassinate the clown.

The situation had developed, and the case had considerably reversed. Originally, Su Xiao and the others were passive, but now they took the initiative to attack. All of this was because of the advantage of the intelligence party.

The information provided by Bobowang was too important. If this battle was won, then Bobowang was undoubtedly an MVP.

The five people left the alley and quickly rushed to the hotel where the clown and others were.

The street was dead silent, and they could only vaguely hear the hissing sound of Nila Pan in the distance.

"Stop."

Sister Mi flashed into a shop next to the street, and Su Xiao and others entered.

Dozens of seconds later, a large group of Nila Pan ran through the street, seemingly looking for Su Xiao and others.

Among the five people team, Nila Pan's perception was the most acute. As a female assassin who killed people like flies, her perception was even sharper than some mages who specialized in intelligence. Perhaps only the contractor who specialized in perception was more substantial than her perception.

The fan girl pointed to the ground. After the group of Nila Pan ran away, she nodded.

"Okay, there is no other Nila Pan nearby. Directly attack."

The team traveled at high speed under cover of the night and soon arrived at the bottom of the hotel. It was a luxury hotel on the eighth floor.

"How many people are there?"

Su Xiao looked at Sister Mi. Although his perception was not weak, it was still a little worse than hers.

"Five people, three people on the first floor, one on the fourth floor, and one on the top floor. If the perception is not wrong, the top floor is the clown."

"Are you sure?"

The three national brothers were eager to try. In a three-on-three situation, they were fearless even if the enemy was more potent.

"I'm sure."

"Then let's go."

The national foot boss rushed to the front door of the hotel.

With a bang, the national foot boss smashed the hotel's front door. The second and third were running behind, holding a golden energy hammer in their hands, like a demolition team.

Su Xiao and Sister Mi were stunned, the two looked at each other, and the corner of Sister Mi's mouth was twitching.

"These three retards, my God, how did I succeed in attacking them? It is a miracle."

Sister Mi was angry, and sneaking in at this time was the best choice.

"Everyone has their fighting style."

Su Xiao's eyes were slightly unwilling. He was still a little worried about Sister Mi assassinating the clown. However, the situation was forced. Others would not participate in this dangerous action if he did not delay the regiment commander.

Su Xiao decided in his heart to fight the regiment commander quickly. In ten minutes, either he died, or the regiment commander died.

The boundary line shot out from the arm guard, and the front end of the hook was nailed into the outer wall of the fourth floor. As he tightened the boundary line, he flew upwards.

He silently flipped through the window and entered the fourth floor. The fourth floor was the hotel 'Go card room.' There was also a row of gambling tables inside. It could be said that this was a small casino, but the room was pitch black.

Sou!

The sound of wind breaking came head-on, and a small, sharp object flew over.

Su Xiao dodged to the side, and a needle-like weapon was nailed to the wall behind Su Xiao.

"Oh? Very sharp."

With a click, the chandelier in the center of the fourth floor was turned on, and the room was bright. There were two people in total, not one of the fans.

"As you expected, their goal is the red clown, and someone will hold you back."

A man with soft black hair stood at the door with a few pins on his neck.

"The red clown also uses me as bait, but he is the real bait."

A man wearing a white shirt with a cross tattooed on his forehead was sitting at a gambling table. This person was the captain of the regiment, Ku Luoluo.

As for the other person in the room, he was not a regiment member but an assassin from the enemy family, Yilu Mi, who was beating up the enemy.

Yilu Mi was mighty in beating up the enemy, and he was beating the eldest son of the enemy's family and the ability user.

Ku Luoluo had already seen through the plan of the clown, but his goal was roughly the same as the clown's: to kill Su Xiao.

According to the trivial information provided by the clown, Ku Luoluo analyzed that Su Xiao would definitely come to assassinate the clown, so when the Nila clan besieged the auction house, the leader did not show up but waited quietly because he still had a trump card, which was that he hired two groups of killers to beat up the enemy's family, one group to kill the ten older men, and the other group to kill Su Xiao.

Yilu Mi beat up the enemy and did not go to kill the ten older men at all. The one who went to assassinate the ten older men was Ma Ha, who beat up the enemy guests, and Ke Te beat up the enemy guests. As for Yilu Mi beating up the enemy guests, he had stayed in Youke Xin City to wait because the mission the leader entrusted him to kill Su Xiao was not to kill the ten older men.

"You already thought of the current situation?"

Yilu Mi looked at Su Xiao and turned to look at Ku Luoluo.

"I am not a god and can't foresee what is happening. However, the prophecy poem provided me with a lot of information. According to the content of the prophecy poem, I will fall at the feet of the hunter and die. As for the last verse, 'comes from the help of the clown,' I understand it as having two meanings. One is that the clown will join us, or the clown will be a member of the adventurous group. After Hisoka escaped, I denied this point, and after seeing the clown himself, I could judge that he would only help me to a certain extent or use me."

Ku Luoluo said something difficult to understand. Yilu Mi, who had seen the prophecy poem, understood what he meant.

"Got it. Hiring me is to avoid 'dying at the feet of the hunter'?"

"Yes, now 'Hunter' has come to the door, and the prophecy poem is not right. I choose to kill the hunter."

Ku Luoluo stood up and approached Su Xiao with Eaer.

Su Xiao was looking at who was attracted to Eaer, and he did not sense the other person before.

At this time, Eaer did not seem to exist, and the problem should be on the giant needles inserted in the neck of the other party.

Eaer pulled out several big needles on the neck, and the psychic energy surged from his body. This guy closed his mind. This was a difficult move.

When the two gradually surrounded Su Xiao, Ku Luoluo suddenly spoke.

"There is a question. I'd like to know if you can answer me.

Su Xiao did not speak. A few dozen hexagonal energy shields appeared and floated around his body.

"Benjin, Flying Tank, Chama, Vigilante, these four people were all killed by you, right?"

Although the leader knew the answer in his heart, he could not help but confirm it.

"Yes, I killed them."

After getting a clear answer from Su Xiao, a drop of tears fell from the right cheek of the leader.

"Is that so? Got it."

Boom!

The ground under the leader's feet shattered. He held a strange-shaped short dagger and stabbed at Su Xiao. When Su Xiao saw the blade, he had a creepy feeling. He would die if he were stabbed.

Ding.

The dagger stabbed a counterattack shield, and other guards spread out. The long sword in Su Xiao's hand slashed at the captain's throat.

A figure appeared on the side of Su Xiao now. It was Eaer. He used all his strength to kick sideways, and the counterattack shield immediately blocked Su Xiao's waist.

The great force came, and Su Xiao's body flew backward uncontrollably. The counterattack shield gathered together, forming a sphere to protect him.

Bang!

Su Xiao smashed the wall behind him and fell from the fourth floor.

When Su Xiao was in mid-air and had not yet landed, the leader and Eaer had already swooped down, and one pointed at the dagger. The other attacked the counterattack shield with his bare hands and attacked dozens of times instantly.

Sou ---

Su Xiao, who was attacked, fell at high speed and crashed a round pit on the horse road with a bang.

Although he was besieged by two people and would be killed on the spot at any time, Su Xiao was very calm.

Now he had to kill the leader as soon as possible. As long as he killed the leader, I would no longer be hostile to him. If the employer died, the people who beat up the enemy would not continue to carry out the commission, but was the leader easy to kill? The answer was complicated to kill. Moreover, the other side had a powerful helper like Idle.

Chapter 666: Bet for 1 Minute

Su Xiao stood up from the round pit on the horse road. As soon as he got up, two figures appeared not far away.

The street lights were flickering. A stray cat poked its head out to look at the road. Its pupils contracted in the night to capture the faint light.

Perceiving that other creatures were nearby, Eaer looked sideways at the night cat.

"Huyou"

The stray cat bared its fangs, and its tail bristled. It turned around and fled into the depths of the gap between the houses.

"Strange."

Eaer looked at the stray cat that had fled far away.

"What?"

Ku Luoluo looked at Eaer doubtfully.

"It's fine."

Eaer turned to look at Su Xiao. He felt that Su Xiao was not weak and might die if he was distracted during battle.

The counterattack shield floated beside Su Xiao. Usually, the counterattack shield could last for 10 minutes, but under the joint attack of Eaer and Ku Luoluo, it was already a miracle that it could last for 5 minutes.

The counterattack shield needed the energy to maintain. It was not a magical ability. No matter how strong the defense was, if the power were exhausted, it would break.

"This thing seems to be difficult to deal with."

The counterattack shield beside look at and Su Xiao, his and Ku Luoluo's attacks did not leave any trace on this thing, which made him a little surprised.

From the looks of it, this is a defensive ability, but no matter how intense the power is, there will always be a weakness. It may have existed only briefly, or its energy is limited. I attract his attention. You look for an air shield and kill with one blow.

"Okay."

A few large needles appeared between the gaps in his fingers. He was the operating ability. These large needles were the antennas of his power. As long as they were inserted by this thing, no matter how intense the enemy was, they would be at his mercy.

Ku Luoluo and Su Xiao confronted each other face to face. Eaer took a sideways step to circle behind Su Xiao. The best tactic was to attack from the front and back.

Su Xiao looked at Eaer, who was behind him. He knew the ability of the other party. If those big needles stabbed him, he would be dead.

"One minute."

A blue light flashed in Su Xiao's eyes.

Weng ---

A few dozen counterattack shields flashed with blue light, and blue veins appeared. All the counterattack shields became crystal clear as if they were cast by crystal sculptures, shining brightly in the night.

"No."

Eaer subconsciously rushed to Su Xiao, but it was a pity that he was a step late.

The counterattack shield beside Su Xiao spread out and separated him by one meter. This was a situation that would not appear before.

The current counterattack shield could only last for one minute. Su Xiao cut off some connection between him and the counterattack shield.

Su Xiao stepped on the ground, and pitch fragments splashed, and he jumped up and dived into Ku Luoluo from the sky.

Ku Luoluo and Eaer were speechless. He would not quickly leave the ground at the level of the three people. After jumping up, he rushed to the enemy. Only rookies who had just met the battle would do this.

But Su Xiao did this. He was in the air, holding a long sword, and rushed to Ku Luoluo like a nighthawk hunting its prey.

Ku Luoluo and Eaer looked at each other, knowing this might be an opportunity or a trap.

Eaer estimated where Su Xiao landed and flashed out of the current position, while Ku Luoluo acted according to the situation nearby.

The thoughts around Eaer gushed out. His hands were like knives, and the blood vessels in his hands were bulging. His fingertips became as sharp as claws. This was a unique technique for beating the enemy.

If he was injured by Eaer's hand, he was no less injured than by a sharp weapon.

Su Xiao, who was in the middle of the air, fell. The strength of his jump had been exhausted. In the current situation, his body could not connect in the air. The landing place was Eaer and Ku Luoluo. The moment he landed, even if Su Xiao did not die, he was seriously injured.

The counterattack shield floated around Su Xiao, and when he gradually got close to Eaer, there was a sudden sound of air explosion under his feet.

Boom!

Su Xiao suddenly accelerated twice in the air and made an incredible turn.

Boom, boom, boom...

A burst of air appeared in the air. When Su Xiao appeared again, he was already behind Ku Luoluo.

Ku Luoluo's pupils contracted, and his eyes were somewhat inconceivable.

The bright long sword slashed down, and the blade cut through the air with a terrible sound. This sword was aimed at Ku Luoluo's back.

At this moment, Ku Luoluo wanted to create the 'secret manual of the thief.' He had stolen an instantaneous movement ability.

Feeling the blade coming from his back, Ku Luoluo finally did not reveal the secret manual of the Thief because it was already too late.

As the long blade was about to slash down, Ku Luoluo leaned forward.

Not only did Ku Luoluo steal and use other people's psychic abilities, but his close combat ability was also strong. His speed was ranked in the top three in the regiment.

Before the long blade slashed down, Ku Luoluo had already dodged the blade. Even if the long edge were chopped down, it would not be able to hurt him.

Puchi.

Blood splattered, and a bone-deep wound appeared on Ku Luoluo's back.

Ku Luoluo staggered a few steps forward. The green steel shadow energy that had invaded his body caused the veins on his forehead to bulge. One hundred thirty points of actual damage and having consumed nine mana was challenging to deal with.

Although Ku Luoluo did not have mana, the psychic energy in his body was similar to mana. He would also suffer 9 of the actual damage that had been consumed.

More importantly, the psychic ability in Ku Luoluo's body was destroyed, about one-twentieth of it.

Ku Luoluo turned to look at Su Xiao. He immediately understood why he had dodged the enemy's attack range and was still injured.

At this time, a small section of light blue energy blade appeared on the tip of the dragon flash. The dragon flash was one-fifth longer than usual. This small section of energy blade combined the sword light and the green steel shadow energy.

The energy blade dispersed, and Su Xiao stood in the air about one meter above the ground and looked down at the two.

He was standing in the air, and under his feet were a dozen counterattack shields.

Under normal circumstances, Su Xiao shared a gravity with the counterattack shield. He would also be sent flying if the enemy hit the counterattack shield. Because of this, he could not step on the counterattack shield to slow down, which was as absurd as stepping on the right foot with his left foot.

But what if the counterattack shield was independent? A large area of energy shield could not, but small pieces of the counterattack shield could.

Su Xiao cut off the energy supply of the counterattack shield. He and the counterattack shield turned from one body to two bodies so that the two sides would no longer share the same gravity so that they could achieve the second jump of the trampling shield and even the jump.

This pattern was not unlimited. The counterattack shield needed to consume mana values and was at most four meters above the ground. If it was higher, the consumption of mana values was terrifying.

And because the energy supply was cut off, the counterattack shield that could last for ten minutes could only stay for one minute, so Su Xiao said before that he wanted to 'bet one minute,' which was the current situation.

This was the derivative usage of his counterattack shield, so he did not specifically name this move.

Su Xiao had a total of 1683 points of mana values. Each time he used the counterattack shield, he needed to consume 400 points of mana values, which was to use the counterattack shield four times.

However, Su Xiao wanted to leave some mana values to open up Green Steel Shadow, so he could only use the counterattack shield three times at most. Now he had used it once, and there were 51 seconds left in the remaining time of this counterattack shield.

Chapter 667: Shot

Reality proved that Su Xiao's choice was correct. Although the duration of the counterattack shield was significantly reduced, it caught the leader and fan off guard.

Sou ---

A few large needles wrapped in Psychic Energy stabbed over. Su Xiao waved his sword and cut off a few large needles.

Ding, ding, ding, ding...

It was a giant pin with a small size, but the strength was no weaker than ordinary sniper bullets.

"What is going on? It was the same gravity just now, but now it is stepping on the air."

Iger was very puzzled. When he kicked Su Xiao and landed, he noticed that the counterattack shield and Su Xiao shared the same gravity.

Ku Luoluo moved his back, and the knife wound on his back was as ferocious as a monster's big mouth.

Now that the Thief's Secret Manual was in Ku Luoluo's hands, he ignored the injuries on his back. Although he had lost a lot of blood, his stolen ability had no recovery abilities.

The pages flipped and finally stopped on a page. The page had a photo and information about a psychic.

The photo showed a young woman about twenty years old.

Si Lili

Age: 21

Telekinesis Ability.

Ability: Controller's Hope(Instant Movement)

[Original holder: Not dead.]

[This is Ku Luoluo's ability: A Thief's secret book can steal other people's ability to read, but it isn't something you can swipe at will. You need to satisfy four conditions.]

[1: See the other party's ability to read with your own eyes.]

2: Ask the other party about reading abilities and get his answer.

3: Let the other party put his hand on the seal of the book.

4: 1 - 3 conditions must be completed within an hour.

After completing the above steps, Ku Luoluo could successfully steal the other party's reading ability. Still, if he wanted to use this ability, he had to take the Thief's secret book in his hand and flip to the corresponding page number.

Ku Luoluo should have thought about stealing Su Xiao's ability. The ability to steal other people seemed powerful, but there were too many restrictions. It was only possible to satisfy the conditions of stealing in a fierce battle if the opponent was foolish.

With Su Xiao's character, who could do nothing, Ku Luoluo couldn't steal his ability. Moreover, his ability was different from the ability to steal. It was not the same system as Ku Luoluo. It would be strange if he could steal it.

Ku Luoluo held the secret manual of the thief in his right hand and the strange dagger with poison in his left hand.

"Ku Luoluo, I will suppress him later. I will try to subdue him for a moment. When the time comes, attack with all my strength. Don't worry about me. It's okay."

After discovering that Ku Luoluo was injured, Iger knew he could not continue dragging it out. Ku Luoluo was his employer, and the death of his employer meant that the commission was cancelled. He had no reason to fight with Su Xiao, but Ido wanted to fight against a strong enemy like Su Xiao.

"En."

Ku Luoluo slowly retreated. At this time, he had an instant movement and poison dagger, so he could find an opportunity to kill.

Su Xiao, who stood in the air, did not take the initiative to attack. He was waiting for the counterattack shields around him to gather.

Looking around at the several counterattack shields of the surrounding branches, Su Xiao was ready to fight with Ku Luoluo.

Seemingly seeing Su Xiao's premeditated plan, Idle rushed forward.

In the face of Idle, who rushed forward, Su Xiao could only jump down from the counterattack shield. Before, he could hurt Ku Luoluo when he was unprepared. Now that the two were prepared, it was useless even if they jumped in the air for a long time.

Without any nonsense, Su Xiao and Idle were entangled.

Iger's hands were covered with many thoughts, and he used the hardness in his ability to make his hands stronger than metal.

The sword stabbed straight at Su Xiao's face, Su Xiao turned his head to avoid it, and there was a blood mark on his cheek.

The sword of Iger had just arrived, and Su Xiao had already swung it. If Iger continued to attack, it could cut off his arm, but his palm was hard, not the entire arm.

With a swoosh, the long sword cut through the palm of Idle.

The fresh blood from the tip of Iger's finger was low. In the face of the corrosion of the green steel shadow, Iger did not even frown.

There is no need to worry about being chopped off.

Iger shook off the blood on his hand, and if one looked closely, one would find that his palm had only been cut open.

Most of the people who beat up the enemy families fought with bare hands, so the elders would let them deliberately train their hands from a young age.

For top killers, the best weapon was not a gun or cold weapon but a pair of hands because the hands would always be there, and it was not eye-catching.

Cultivating since childhood, coupled with the effect of the ability to be 'hard', at this time, even Su Xiao could not cut off the hands of Iger.

The feeling of slashing the palm of Iger was like cutting a piece of extremely tough rubber.

Realising that Su Xiao could not cut off his hands, Iger's attack was even bold, and there were afterimages between the attacks of his hands.

Su Xiao and Iger fought to the death, and the streets were shattered by the impact caused by the battle between the two.

The counterattack shield floating in the air gradually disappeared, and a minute had arrived. Su Xiao could not say that he won the bet, but he did not lose either. It could be seen from the ferocious wound on Ku Luoluo's back.

Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom

Su Xiao and Iger were fighting fiercely. The sword light and the big head nail flew everywhere. In Su Xiao's knowledge, Iger was not weak, but after fighting, he found his strength stronger than he imagined.

Ding!

Su Xiao put the dragon flash before him, and Iger's palm sword stabbed the blade.

"How much longer?"

Su Xiao murmured and did not know who he was talking to.

"Huh?"

Iger looked at Su Xiao doubtfully, then thought of something, and he grabbed the dragon flash with his two palms.

Su Xiao's first reaction was that this guy did not want his hands. Although the other party's hands could resist the dragon flash, it was another matter to catch the dragon flash with bare hands.

With a tearing sound, Su Xiao dragged the dragon flash with all his strength. The blade cut through the skin and flesh of the palm of Iger and began to cut his bones.

Bang!

A sewer cover flew up beside Su Xiao, and his pupils contracted when he sensed this scene.

Roar.

The beast's roar came, and a few large dogs with muscles all over their body rushed out of the sewer.

There were several big nails in the back of these large dogs' heads, and the body's surface was wrapped with thoughts. Without thinking, he knew that this was a creature controlled by Iger, and he was operating the ability of the mind.

Several significant bloody mouths bit Su Xiao's arms, torso, and calves. In addition, Iger was holding the blade of dragon flash, and Su Xiao could not move for a while.

A figure suddenly appeared behind Su Xiao. It was Ku Luoluo.

Puchi.

The burning pain came. The dagger in Ku Luoluo's hand stabbed into the position of Su Xiao's back. The moment before it was stabbed, Su Xiao slightly dodged. The sword with a wide edge could not pierce his heart.

The three of them formed a straight line. Su Xiao and Iger were faces to face. Behind Su Xiao was Ku Luoluo.

At this moment, Iger suddenly found that Su Xiao had a smile on his face. This smile was unforgettable. No, it should make his back feel cold.

"Retreat!"

Iger lost his usual calm and shouted, but it was too late.

"Life and death are life and death, shoot!"

Chapter 668: Meet Again

As soon as Su Xiao's voice fell, a bullet penetrated the shoulder of Ku Luoluo who was behind him. The kinetic energy of the bullet did not decrease, and after penetrating Ku Luoluo's shoulder, it penetrated Su Xiao's chest.

Even so, this bullet still had a strong kinetic energy. After leaving Su Xiao's body, it directly penetrated through the lower abdomen of Ermi, and finally shot into the road, leaving a deep bottomless hole.

This bullet had no warning, and it was extremely fast, so fast that Su Xiao did not have time to open the shield.

Resisting the pain of his body, Su Xiao bent his knees and touched the 'little brother' of Ermi.

With a bang, Ermi's face was instantly livid. Although he looked feminine, he was a man. His vital parts were hit hard. The hand holding the dragon flash loosened subconsciously and stepped back quickly. It was just that Ermi's retreating steps were twisted and looked very strange.

Behind Su Xiao, Ku Luoluo spat out a large mouthful of blood. He was the first target to shoot, so in the end, most of the bullets poured on him, which made most of his body numb.

The dragon flash turned upside down in Su Xiao's hand, changed from the hand holding the sword to the reverse hand holding the sword. He stabbed the dragon flash to his chest without hesitation, just avoiding the vital organs as much as possible.

With the sharpness of the dragon flash, it directly pierced Su Xiao's chest and stabbed towards Ku Luoluo's throat.

Sensing the incoming blade, Ku Luoluo released the dagger in her hand and immediately used instant movement.

With a hum, an invisible impact spread out from the sleeve of Su Xiao's trench coat. A light golden brand on the sleeve was glowing.

Brandeffect(light gold): Beginner space imprisonment: Can seal the space fluctuations within 50 meters. Space skills below rank 5 in this area are ineffective. The effect lasts for 30 minutes, and the cooldown time is two natural days.

Ku Luoluo's instant movement ability failed. Because of the use of instant movement, he lost the best time to dodge.

Puchi, the dragon flash pierced through the lower jaw of Ku Luoluo, breaking out of the brain, the tip of the blade dyed red.

[You killed Ku Luoluo, Lu Xilu.]

[Ku Luoluo, Lu Xilu, as the leader of the Phantom Troupe, obtained world origin 14.9, currently obtaining world origin 4.6.]

[- Phantom Troupe's Reputation: 4,000, Phantom Troupe's Reputation: -4900(Permanent Blood Feud).]

Ku Luoluo leaned forward. Because he was penetrated by the dragon flash, he did not fall immediately.

Su Xiao pulled out the dragon flash. The pain almost caused him to faint. Behind him, Ku Luoluo fell to the ground with a thud. A treasure chest shining with golden light rolled to Su Xiao's feet.

"Cough, cough, cough..."

Su Xiao coughed out a few mouthfuls of blood. As long as there was a slight deviation in the situation just now, he would immediately die. He was held back by Ermi, and when he was pierced by Ku Luoluo with a dagger, there was no way to survive.

"The 100 thousand paradise coins shot didn't disappoint you, right? But your fighting style is really ruthless, it's simply suicidal."

Winnie's voice came from the headphones. Su Xiao waved his sword to kill the large dogs that were biting him, bent over, and picked up the treasure chest next to his feet.

[You obtained the treasure chest(gold)!]

Su Xiao was shocked. This was the first time he got a gold quality treasure chest. This should be the quality above the light gold.

"I don't have money for the time being. After returning to the reincarnation paradise, it is not bad at all."

Wiping the blood from the corner of his mouth, this was the deal he and Winnie had discussed in the auction house. It was not the head of the sniper team, but the support of the firepower side.

Originally, Su Xiao wanted to let Winnie provide fire support, but the other party showed a small amount of attributes of a light gold sniper rifle, and offered a price, of 100,000 paradise coins for a shot, and guaranteed to support at the critical moment.

Su Xiao did not agree at that time, but he did not refuse. After that, when Ermi found out, Su Xiao took the initiative to contact Winnie and secretly asked if the other party could provide support. After getting an answer, the transaction of 100,000 paradise coins per shot was completed.

"If there is no paradise coins, the treasure chest of the regiment commander is also good, hehe."

In the distance, Winnie who was chewing gum on the clock tower laughed.

"It's just a joke. After returning to the reincarnation paradise, 100,000 paradise coins."

"Don't worry."

After resolving the business with Winnie, Su Xiao looked at Ermi who was not far away.

"It's still 100,000 paradise coins. I will sell you a second shot."

"Hey, what are you talking about? It's like you bought me for my first night. I am underage, pervert. I can't do it now. At least a few minutes later."

After getting the answer from Winnie, Su Xiao looked normal. Although 100 thousand paradise coins was very expensive, the current situation of Ermi was a little strange.

At this time, Ermi stood not far from Su Xiao, his legs were tight, and his shoulders trembled.

"Your employer is dead."

Su Xiao stared at Ermi. If the other party wanted to continue to fight, he was not afraid. At worst, he would die. When facing Ku Luo and Ermi at the same time, he was already prepared to die. Killing one was enough.

"Is that so?"

Ermi gritted his teeth, his black hair fluttering, his hands hanging down naturally, and his psychic ability began to become unclear as if it would 'turn black' at any time.

"Hold on for three minutes, 100,000 Paradise Coins for the second shot."

After leaving this sentence behind, Winnie no longer spoke.

"Idle."

An old voice sounded. An old man walked over from the side of the street.

"The employer is dead. The commission is over. Do not kill anyone outside the mission. Have you forgotten?"

The person who came was Jie Nuo. Behind him was Xi Ba. After the ten old men died, their commission was over. However, because it was late, the two of them temporarily did not leave Youke Xin City.

"Grandpa?"

The fluttering black hair of IteI fell down, and his expression returned to normal.

"Follow us. The employer is killed in front of us, so don't continue to embarrass yourself here."

Old Mister Jie Nuo bluntly reprimanded Ermi. The older generation followed the clan rules, but in the generation of Ermi and Chimera, the clan rules were not important in their hearts.

"We meet again. It seems that we are fated."

Old Mister Jie Nuo smiled at Su Xiao.

"You have so many people in your family, and you have to accept three commissions at the same time."

Su Xiao coughed a few mouthfuls of blood as he spoke. He took out a bottle of No. 1 potion and drank it. His injury was suppressed, but the poison on Ku Luoluo's dagger was very troublesome. Although Green Steel Shadow had tried to devour poison, his body was still numb. It was a rare poison, and the position of the stab was too fatal. It was almost close to his heart.

"Haha, this can only mean that our family is prosperous."

Old Mister Jie Nuo was more interested in look at, Su Xiao. He saw the battle just now. He admired Su Xiao's ruthlessness. He could not be lucky to turn defeat into victory.

"Let's go."

Jie Nuo looked at Ermi and sighed. He did not understand the thinking of young people.

Ermi held down the gunshot wound on his lower abdomen and followed behind his grandfather.

"I hope I can still get the task of killing you. See you later."

Ermi's pace was a little strange, his legs seemed to be a little trembling, it seemed that Su Xiao's Yin-Yang Knee skill had indeed severely injured him.

After beating up the enemy, the grandfather and grandson walked far away, Su Xiao slowly walked to the hotel on the side. Just as he walked to the door of the wine shop, his feet went soft and he almost fell to the ground.

Taking out the phone, Su Xiao hesitated for a moment and did not choose to dial. It was a good choice to find Black Mary at this time. Unfortunately, the neighborhood was full of the Nila tribe. With Black Mary's strength, it was impossible to rush here from the auction house.

There were fighting sounds coming from the first floor of the hotel. The shouts of the three people from the national team could be heard from far away. It should be that the national foot was fighting with the members of the adventurous group.

There was no movement in the upstairs direction. After hesitating for a moment, Su Xiao took out two bottles of No. 1 potion and drank it.

Drinking this thing continuously had a lot of side effects. Although it could suppress the injury, it would lead to the residual cells in the body.

But there was no other way now. With the suppression of the green steel shadow energy, even if there were some residual cells in the body, Su Xiao would not become a big tree, and after returning to the reincarnation paradise, he could clear it.

After drinking two bottles of No. 1 potion, the gunshot wound on Su Xiao's chest quickly stopped bleeding, and the wound that was the size of a fist gradually healed.

This was just temporary suppression of the injury. When the injury broke out again, he could not be suppressed by drinking No. 1 potion.

After recovering his combat effectiveness, Su Xiao quickly ran to the roof.

Soon, Su Xiao arrived at the upper floor of the hotel and pushed open the iron door of the roof. The faint smell of blood came.

"You're here?"

On the edge of the roof, the clown sitting on the wheel chair spoke. He was facing Su Xiao.

The wheelchair turned on its own. At this time, the clown looked a little miserable. There were at least a dozen daggers in his body. The purple suit was full of blood.

The clown held a head in his hand. It was the head of the camouflage girl. The camouflage girl's expression was stunned. It seemed that she saw something incredible before she died. What was strange was that there was no fear in the camouflage girl's expression. It seemed that she did not expect herself to die.

Chapter 669: Boundary

"You are late."

The clown held the head of the fan girl in his hand and coughed a few mouthfuls of blood as he spoke.

"Who knows."

Su Xiao stood in front of the iron door of the rooftop and did not approach the clown.

"The striker you sent could be better, but I solved it with one hand. She looks like a cold-faced female killer, but her soul is sweet."

The clown threw the head of the camouflage girl to Su Xiao. He did not exert any strength, but the flying speed of the head was breakneck.

Su Xiao turned sideways to avoid the head of the camouflage girl. With a bang, the head of the camouflage girl hit the iron door, and the iron door was depressed.

"Let's talk. Don't be so cautious. I am just a disabled person. If you want to take my life, come and take it."

The clown pointed to the dagger on his chest, indicating no fighting ability.

Su Xiao glanced around, not knowing what to do. He felt he would die if he took another step forward.

He threw an apple from the storage space to the clown.

Hiss ---

The apple was cut into dozens of pieces in the air and turned into ashes before it landed on the ground.

The red energy threads appeared between Su Xiao and the clown. These energy threads disappeared instantly when they emerged and were usually invisible.

Su Xiao guessed the camouflage girl might have died on these threads, and the clown developed the devil's blood deeper.

After the night wind blew away the ash of the apple, the clown narrowed his eyes, and the smile on his face did not decrease.

This guy was worthy of being Lao Yin, who could scheme against the leader. He said he was already useless and had no fighting ability. He had already set up a fatal mechanism.

"You can break through Realm of Flame Prison, and my life will be yours."

The clown leaned on the wheelchair and began pulling out the daggers in his chest. Before, he did not pull out the swords left by these fans. He wanted to use these daggers to confuse Su Xiao. Now it was useless.

Pulling out the daggers made the clown grimace in pain. These daggers were full of barbs. The clown seemed to be unprepared for Su Xiao. He appeared very confident in the 'Flame Prison Realm'.

A white quality dagger slipped out of Su Xiao's sleeve, and he threw the blade at the clown with all his strength.

Hiss ---

The dagger was cut into pieces in the air, and the energy threads between Su Xiao and the clown were more dense than imagined.

This thing was similar to the boundary line, but this kind of thread arranged by the clown was an energy body, and there was no need for a fixed object, all floating in the air.

Extremely sharp, secretive, and dense, this was characteristic of the 'flame prison world'.

The black and white double guns were now in Su Xiao's hands. Since the throwing object was ineffective, it was changed to a bullet.

Switching the black and white double guns to continuous shooting mode, Su Xiao stood in place and fired at the clown.

Da...

The two pistols activated the continuous shooting mode simultaneously, which was no less than the shooting speed of the submachine gun, and the thirty bullets soon emptied.

The black and white double guns consumed the mana values to fill the bullets. Each gun capacity was 30 rounds, which required 30 points of mana values to replenish these 30 bullets, consuming 1 energy of mana values for each shot, and the gap between the bullets of the two guns was 10 seconds.

The mana values surged, and after consuming 60 points of mana values, the bullets of the black and white double guns were filled.

Su Xiao still had 1053 points of mana values, and he had fought with Ku Luoluo for a short time before, so he did not consume much mana values.

In other words, Su Xiao could still fill in 1053 bullets, which took less than three minutes to fill up the bullets. With the shooting speed of the black and white guns, it would not take long for 1053 bullets to be fired.

The bullets of the black and white guns were filled up. The bullets of this gun were not physical, but energy bullets. Otherwise, it could not be filled with power values.

Da...

Su Xiao swept in the direction of the clown. There were red energy threads in the air from time to time. These energy threads blocked all the bullets that were shot at the clown.

The second time he emptied the bullets, Su Xiao noticed that the colour of the energy threads near him had faded.

"You don't use the sword strike you are best at? A wise choice."

The clown looked at the dragon flash on Su Xiao's waist. He had expected the scene of this growth weapon breaking before.

Flame Prison Realm is a characteristic of any weapon or equipment below light gold quality, and if you dare to touch this energy thread, you must be damaged. Even light gold weapons have the possibility of being hurt.

"Energy bullets can be filled multiple times. It should be the consumption of mana values. Let's see who has more mana values just in time, but you have to hurry up."

Clown glanced at his remaining mana values, 890 points, 'Flame Prison World' needs to consume mana values to repair after being attacked. When the method values are exhausted, 'Flame Prison World' will disappear.

I don't know what attribute speciality Clown is, there is actually 890 points of mana values, he is confident that the remaining mana values are more than Su Xiao, and in another 10 minutes he can force out of the Hunter world.

What the clown did before was to kill Su Xiao? No, the main purpose of him bringing a large number of the Nila clan was not to kill Su Xiao at all, but to kill contractor of the hunter world. The more he killed, the better.

From the beginning, the clown's goal was not Su Xiao, but to obtain more scarlet cards. Of course, it was best to kill Su Xiao.

There were more than a hundred contractor in the hunter world. They were basically gathered near the auction house. After that, these contractor were besieged by the Nila clan. Only 31 people survived and rushed into the auction house. And there were still casualties after these 31 people.

Contractor who was besieged by Nila would drop the scarlet card. Where did these scarlet cards go? The answer was in the hands of the clown.

The clown obtained 45 scarlet cards through a special method, and the scarlet card of contractor in the second level. This was undoubtedly a huge sum of money.

The purpose of him getting the Nila clan was for these scarlet cards.

After the clown confirmed that he could not recover his broken limbs in the Hunter World and obtained a large number of scarlet cards, he immediately used the props to forcibly return. This was not a high-end operation. After returning with this kind of prop, not only would he be punished with all attributes - 3. In addition to the scarlet cards that were stored in the abilities of the clown, the other benefits were forcibly deducted by the reincarnation paradise. Whether it was attribute points or paradise coins, all were deducted.

It took time to use the forced return prop. After obtaining the scarlet card, the clown immediately used the return prop, but it was still a bit late.

At this time, the clown calmly sat on the wheel chair. He was gambling that his remaining mana values could last for more than 9 minutes and 15 seconds.

Time slowly passed. In addition to waiting for the time when the black and white double guns were reloaded, Su Xiao had been shooting at the energy threads in front of him.

Sou ---

The sound of breaking wind came without warning. Su Xiao, who was holding a black and white gun, quickly jumped up. An invisible thread crossed his feet and cut off a piece of his shoe.

Su Xiao was not wearing ordinary shoes, but a purple quality equipment [tactical boots]. Although this equipment was not inclined to defense, it was too exaggerated to cut off one piece like this.

Su Xiao finally knew how Mimei died. It had to be said that Mimei's strength was not weak. She actually passed through these energy threads and hurt the clown on the back.

After attacking with energy threads, the clown's mana value dropped a lot.' Flame Prison Realm 'was a trap type ability. It was not easy to use it to attack him.

Chapter 670: Helpless Clown

It was good news that the clown attacked with the help of 'Fire Prison Realm', which meant that the other party had already exhausted all his skills.

Su Xiao increased the frequency of his attacks and occasionally threw out an alchemy bomb. The sky platform roared and was bombarded with holes.

Three minutes later, the smile on the clown's face disappeared. He doubted in his heart. Did Su Xiao not need mana values to replenish energy bullets? Why was it the same as mana values?

Soon the clown threw this ridiculous idea to the back of his mind. This kind of thing would not happen in the Reincarnation Paradise. Although there were many supernatural abilities in the Reincarnation Paradise, it did not mean they had no rules or upper limits. There were unlimited ammunition guns. At least the clown had never seen them. The so-called 'Infinite Bullets' either consumed the energy of the equipment or destroyed mana values.

"Is mana above me? What kind of close combat is this?"

A confident clown looked at Su Xiao helplessly at this time.

"Strength and agility attributes are similar to mine, and physical attributes are above mine. Is it still developing intelligence attributes simultaneously? Four attributes developing at the same time? This..."

The clown who developed three attributes at the same time sighed. His main attributes were strength, agility, intelligence, and low physical strength. This could be seen from the previous battle with Su Xiao that his endurance could have been better than Su Xiao's.

Su Xiao ignored the muttering clown and used the black and white double guns in his hand to pour fire at the clown. When the black and white double guns were reloaded, he would take out the spider queen and shoot at the clown a few times.

Five minutes later, Su Xiao still used the black and white double guns to shoot at the clown.

With a bang, several bloody holes exploded in the clown's chest. The clown looked at the bullet holes and just smiled.

Ka...

The bullets of the black and white double guns were exhausted, shooting took five seconds, and it would take five seconds to fill the shots again.

"Wait."

The clown raised his one-armed. Su Xiao held the spider queen before him and shot at the clown.

Bang!

The broken bones and rotten flesh splashed, and half of the clown's body was broken.

This kind of injury could kill people, but the clown did not die. It should be known that his heart had been broken.

Fresh blood seeped out from several wounds on Su Xiao's body. He could not hold on. Before, he was stabbed by the captain with a dagger and was hit by the hand knife of Eaer. Vivian also shot him. If he had not used three bottles of No. 1 potion to suppress his injury, he would not be able to stand up now.

"We talk..."

Su Xiao ignored the clown and aimed the gun at the head of the clown.

The clown had a high IQ, and his words were very provocative. Otherwise, he would not have been able to trick a group of believers into helping him before, and he also deceived the Nila tribe from the Dark Continent.

This was a skill of the clown: language master(passive Lv. 25).

Unfortunately, Su Xiao did not communicate with the clown at all. In his view, it was stupid to talk nonsense with the enemy besides getting information about the enemy.

Pulling the trigger, the bullet was fired.

With a bang, half of the clown's head was broken. Even so, the clown was not dead! The survival power of the devil bloodline was evident.

Ka.

The spider queen had no bullets. Su Xiao put away the spider queen and walked quickly to the clown.

"Do you want to know the secret of the violator? If you win, I can..."

Su Xiao walked to the clown and pulled out the dragon flash on his waist.

The long sword slashed down, and the head that had been broken in half flew up.

"I don't want to know."

Su Xiao swung the blood on the dragon flash, and the clown's blood formed a half circle on the ground.

"Ah la la, just 50 seconds."

The half-head in the air opened its mouth. This was highly unscientific. The clown's tone was somewhat regretful, but there was no fear. The pupil in the only eye gradually dissipated.

Beep beep beep beep...

An old-fashioned phone in Clown's arms rang, and the time on the top was fixed at 49 seconds. With a click, this forcibly returned prop shattered.

[Note: The hunter has successfully cleared up 10,000 offenders. The hunting mission has been completed(5/5).]

[Hunting mission: Clean up the Gentlemen's Alliance(completed).]

[You get the Golden Medal of Honor ×1(Honor Medal Level: Bronze, Silver, Gold, etc.)]

[You get a chance to choose one more time in the derivative world(before entering the derivative world next time, the hunter can choose one of the three derivative worlds to enter)]

[Hint: The hunter has completed the mission of clearing the violator alliance for the first time. Because the violators can not build an adventure group, it is primarily an alliance.]

The Gentlemen's Alliance violated the rules as follows:

1. Many times, ignore the primary mission.
2. Many times, destroy another contractor to complete the primary mission.

3. Use the loopholes in the rules to gain benefits and seriously endanger the stability of the derivative world. It has led to the death of 289 contractors (in the category of innocent death: abnormal competition, battle, and using schemes to lead to death.)

4. Many contacts with Void Creatures and the intention of revealing the mission information, indirectly causing a derivative world to collapse permanently.

5. Ignore the three warnings and recruitment of the reincarnation paradise (Recruitment content: Ignore the past mistakes and turn to typical contractor).

After reading the clown example, Su Xiao could not help but click his tongue in wonder. Sure enough, the other party's team should not be called the gentleman alliance. It should be called the death alliance. The three chances to become standard contractor were given up.

A contractor who could become the violator was competent. The reincarnation paradise might not want this capable contractor to be hunted to death by Su Xiao, so that they would give them three chances.

As the saying goes, after three times, the reincarnation paradise will no longer warn but directly send Su Xiao, the god of death, to tell the other party in the way of 'cordial' your end is coming.

The clown died a little depressed. After many efforts in the derivative world, he finally got the devil's blood. At that time, Su Xiao was just there, so the clown let Su Xiao test the power of the devil's blood.

The clown was originally half a support and half a close combat. Facing Su Xiao, who was a full-time close combat, it was a natural tragedy.

After that, the clown could be said to be in a bad situation. He summoned a second-hand devil. Because of the severe discord between the two, the devil did not help the clown much.

The demon god whose heart was full of justice, the old brother of the Purgatory Count, knew with his ass that the clown must have collapsed at that time.

However, the clown was not an ordinary person. His limbs were broken, and the demon god he summoned was highly unreliable. None of these could stop him. He combined the stupid weakness of the Purgatory Count with his space ability. He created a one-sided random summoning formation and then summoned the Nila clan.

After some persuasion, the leader of the Nila clan cooperated with the clown and used him as a gun.

All of this was not important. The clown lost and lost to Su Xiao twice.

Su Xiao stood on a platform that could collapse at any time. He pulled the clown's body off the wheelchair and sat on it. The continuous high-intensity battles made him tired.

He lit a cigarette, Su Xiao took a deep breath, and a smile appeared. No matter how brilliant the clown was, he still won. The clown became a headless corpse.

With a whoosh, a dark red flame ignited on the clown's body. Su Xiao was shocked. Could the clown still have a backup plan? But the hunting mission had been completed. The clown must be dead.

The flames of purgatory burned the clown's body, and a wisp of black ash was blown up by the night wind and floated into the distance.

After a long sigh of relief, Su Xiao shook his head. The clown was dead and died under his sword.
