

R. Paradise 731

Chapter 731: A shocking knife

It was unknown why Brother Umbrellaless was so angry, but Su Xiao knew one thing, and that was that Little Fatty would not be able to leave for the time being.

Brother Umbrellaless, whose eyes were filled with blood, rushed to Little Fatty's body, a large metal iron fist raised high.

Snort~

Steam spewed out from the end of the mechanical gloves, the steam generated kinetic energy, and this fist was like a pile driver whacking at Little Fatty.

Bang.

The air waves spread out, the mechanical gloves on Brother Umbrellaless' hands were reddish in color, they should have been overloaded.

At this moment, Umbrella-less Brother's breathing was rough, and if one looked closely, one would realize that he was wearing an old-fashioned pocket watch on his neck, and the corner of the pocket watch was already broken.

From the look of this pocket watch, this should be a piece of equipment, but equipment shouldn't break so easily.

Brother Umbrellaless' pocket watch was indeed a piece of equipment, with a somewhat special grade and strong abilities, but it was very easy to break.

Inside the cover of the pocket watch was a photo, and from the broken corner of the pocket watch, a woman's smiling mouth could be seen, a very happy smile.

This woman was the wife of Brother Umbrellaless, and significantly, Brother Umbrellaless' wife had passed away.

Significant pocket watch was broken, no umbrella brother of course will stare, he ignored the little fat man's counterattack, waving both fists to the little fat man pounding, both fists as pounding garlic, exceptionally fierce, although fierce, but this is only 'Wang Bak Fist'.

Little fat man for a time was whacked a little blinded, the heart secretly said this guy crazy, compared to the umbrellaless brother's "wind and fire wheel king eight fists", little fat man is more scrupulous not far away Su Xiao.

After drinking Potion No. 1, Su Xiao's body's various aches and pains were significantly relieved, he stood up and slowly approached Little Fatty.

One step, two steps, as Su Xiao moved forward, he gradually turned from a slow march into a fast run.

Whoosh~

Su Xiao stopped sharply behind Little Fatty, the Chopping Dragon Flash in his hand was raised high and aimed at Little Fatty's back.

After feeling the whimpering wind behind him, Little Fatty stepped on the ground with one foot and did a 180° turn, although he had never fought with Su Xiao, Little Fatty knew that Su Xiao was not to be messed with, he would rather take a few punches from Brother Umbrellaless than to take a slash from Su Xiao.

Just as Little Fatty's body was about to turn sideways, the red-eyed Umbrella-less Brother immediately pounced forward, and his two mechanical gloves grabbed the golden-quality shield.

Little Fatty's face darkened, and he was in a very awkward situation.

Bang.

A muffled sound came from Little Fatty's shield, a shockwave appeared on the surface of the shield, and Umbrella-less Brother's two mechanical gloves were shaken away, staggering back a few steps.

It took less than a second for Little Fatty to repel Umbrella-less Brother, but this short moment was already enough for Su Xiao to chop out a blade.

The blade of the Dragon Slashing Flash chopped at Little Fatty's spine, who was only wearing a dark purple quality leather armor due to special reasons.

Su Xiao had spent a huge amount of Paradise Coins to create the Dragon Slash, if he couldn't even cut through a layer of dark purple quality leather armor, then Su Xiao wouldn't need to continue to wander in Reincarnation Paradise, or go back to his hometown to sell sweet potatoes.

The blade chopped on the leather armor, and with a tearing sound, the leather armor was chopped open, and the blade chopped on the skin behind Little Fatty.

At this moment, Little Fatty clearly felt the coldness and stinging pain of the blade touching his skin, but he did not panic, his flesh defense was extremely amazing.

The long blade first cut through Little Fatty's skin, followed by his muscles, and finally his bones.

Plop!

Blood soared wildly, and Little Fatty's pupils instantly tightened.

"How is this possible!"

The little fatty's eyes were full of disbelief, he had previously noticed the knife in Su Xiao's hand, it was just a light golden quality weapon, in his opinion, this knife could at most break through his epidermal defense.

This was not the case, Su Xiao chopped into the little fatty's spine, the long knife did not enter the spine by at least ten centimeters, and only stopped when it reached the other party's spine.

Not only was Little Fatty incredulous, Su Xiao was also a bit surprised, he did not expect the Dragon Slash to be so sharp, before when he dealt with the Orphan of Grievance - Hughes, it was very laborious to cut the other party's bones, but now why was it so easy to cut open the body of a third-ranked Main Titan?

In fact, Su Xiao had underestimated the strength of Xiu Si's bones, not to mention Xiu Si's 'High Strength Bones LV.26', Xiu Si had three skills that strengthened the bones of his body, and those bones were Xiu Si's weapons, and to be able to cut through those bones was already a very amazing thing.

The strengthened focus of Chopping Dragon Flash is not to chop the enemy's weapon, but to break the enemy's outer defense and body defense, the best is to break the body defense, sharpness +32 is not just for show.

The long knife cut through the back of the little fat man, a half meter long, ten centimeter deep horrible wound appeared.

Little Fatty's eyes widened to the extreme, seeing the 12% life value that suddenly disappeared, the ease on his face disappeared, and he was vaguely a bit desperate.

"This is a defense breaking skill?"

Little Fatty retreated a few steps back with his face towards Su Xiao, he didn't know that there was follow up damage from this Knife Chopping Strike.

Green Steel Shadow energy erupted in Little Fatty's body, blood overflowed at the corner of his mouth, because he was often injured, the sharp pain didn't make him lose his temper, he just habitually checked the battle record of the Reincarnation Seal.

[Eroded by unknown energy, your mana value has been devoured for 140 points.]

[You have taken 140 true damage + 18 points of true damage (10% of expended mana) + 28 points of true damage (Demon's Seal) + 125 points of decimation damage + 217 points of blade damage.]

[The natural ability 'Earthchild' has been triggered, you are immune to 25% of this damage.]

[Warning! The true damage valence is higher than the natural ability 'Son of Earth', immunity from true damage has failed.]

[Warning! The sharpness of the enemy's weapon has exceeded 30 points, the effect of your natural ability 'Son of the Earth' has been halved, and you are only immune to 12.5% of the damage from the sharp edge.]]

Seeing this shocking attack value, Little Fatty panicked, he was puzzled, what kind of quality weapon was that, light gold quality? Don't be fucking kidding, golden quality longsword he had resisted with his body, it was by no means this perverted.

This was the Zhan Long Flash built by Su Xiao, without too many fancy abilities, only sharp, sharp to the extreme, the only additional ability was still a passive ability.

Fresh blood gushed out from the wound on Little Fatty's back, the intense pain generated by the Green Steel Shadow energy distracted him and made it somewhat impossible for him to concentrate.

Little Fatty swore to the lamp, he never wanted to take a second cut, never wanted to, that knife must have been enchanted with a fraud type ability, if such a perverted weapon was of light gold quality, he live chopped Erdie, wrapped Erdie stuffed dumplings!

"Cunningly weak ... No, you don't count as weak."

Little fat man took a deep breath, he took out a scroll, the scroll was broken in his hand, it was a light golden scroll, the effect was that it could make one of his abilities not to be suppressed by the second order world for three seconds, this was his contingency.

At the same time that the scroll shattered, the space around Little Fatty appeared to change, he entered an interdimensional dimension.

Iron-black light surged through Little Fatty's body as he was about to open his big move.

[Body of Iron LV.40 (Active Skill)]

Skill Effect: When opened, physical strength +15, flesh defense +300%, life value recovery speed +20 points per second, effect lasts for 30 minutes.

Tip: After learning this skill, you may not equip metal-type personal protective gear, or you will risk metal assimilation.

Usage condition: Consume 300 mana + 10% life value.

Lv.10 Additional Abilities

Steel: 20% of the body is metallized.

Lv.20 Additional Ability

Secondary Fine Steel: 30% body area metallized, flesh defense +50%.

Lv.30 Additional Ability

Indestructible Body: 50% area of body metallized, increased knockback resistance.

Lv.40 Additional Abilities

Authority Defiance: when taking real damage, reduce real damage by 30 points.

Body of Steel was Little Fatty's big move, and because of this, he never equipped metal-based defense, that would not only affect his speed, but also make him take unknown risks when using Body of Steel. Once the metal assimilated, Little Fatty would be dead.

Moreover, after mastering the Body of Steel, Little Fatty didn't need metal armor at all, leather armor that was easy to move around was the best choice.

Chapter 732: Your abilities are so shameless

Iron black light gradually wrapped Little Fatty, his mana value was rapidly decreasing, the 10% life value consumed by the Body of Steel was fine, but those 300 mana points were not a small number for Little Fatty, for which he had spent a high price on equipment that increased his mana limit.

Little Fatty's arm gradually turned iron black, and he immediately put away the shield he was holding to avoid metal assimilation.

"Since you guys are bent on dying, I'll fulfill you."

Little Fatty's expression was a bit grim, that light golden scroll was not provided by the Blood Gate Adventure Group, but was acquired by chance by himself, it was not a 'public' thing, so it was inevitably heartbreaking to use it.

Using the Body of Steel required a small buffer time, Little Fatty was in an interdimensional space, once the Body of Steel was activated, he would be able to ignore Su Xiao and Brother Umbrellaless' attacks.

Just as Little Fatty's face showed ferocity and he was about to open a big move to get Su Xiao and Umbrella-less Brother killed, his expression suddenly froze due to a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise.

[Insufficient mana, skill has been interrupted.]

This time, the prompt from Reincarnation Paradise made Lower Fatty feel extraordinarily piercing.

"How can that be! I intentionally set aside 300 mana points just to prevent ..."

Little Fatty was suddenly stunned as he recalled a previous prompt.

[Eroded by unknown energy, your mana value has been devoured for 140 points].

Little Fatty had a total of 475 mana points, and for a Tan whose physical strength attribute was predominant, this number of mana points was already considered a lot.

Previously, when Little Fatty fought Brother Umbrellaless, Little Fatty activated the skill on his shield once, consuming 50 points of mana, and he still had 425 points of mana left, and after that, he did not consume any more mana.

However, after taking a slash from Su Xiao, Little Fatty's mana value slipped to 285 points, thus he was unable to activate Body of Steel.

Space appeared to fluctuate, Little Fatty was rejected out of the interdimensional space, his face was like ashes, there was nothing more depressing than not being able to turn on a big move, knowing that Little Fatty didn't know how many resources he spent in order to build this kind of ability.

The body of steel is very strong is not false, can not be used if there is no use, no, there is also some use, at least check the skill list is very gorgeous, that after all, it is LV.40 high level ability.

Little Fatty didn't want to look at the skill list right now, anger welled up in his heart after he saw that one LV.20 or LV.30 skill that was gray and unusable.

"Scared me, I thought I was going to use a big move."

Brother Umbrellaless, who had already calmed down, spoke out to taunt, as the main tank, his control ability was not strong, but his mouth was good.

Little Fatty stood in place speechlessly, the wound on his back had already closed and quit scarring, this was the recovery ability derived from high physical strength, of course, there was also the effect of passive skills.

Little Fatty not only had a strong physical defense, his recovery ability was not weak, in the third rank he had a nickname, called Iron Egger, although it was not very good, but this represented that Little Fatty was as durable as an iron ball.

Iron Ball's mood was very bad, this was not the point, the point was that he felt that he was in danger of dying here.

This thought had just appeared in his head when Little Fatty shook his head.

"Sun Z~"

Brother Umbrellaless bellowed, his face filled with a cheap grin.

"This is a set up I have left over from playing."

Little Fatty cast a contemptuous gaze at Brother Umbrellaless, but he was always on guard against Su Xiao.

Su Xiao stood not far from Little Fatty, the shield in Little Fatty's hand he was unable to cut through, he was waiting for Umbrella-less Brother to stall the other party, and after giving a wink to Umbrella-less Brother, the corners of Umbrella-less Brother's mouth twitched.

"Or should I go first?"

Brother Umbrellaless smiled brightly.

"You're Tan, do I go first?"

Su Xiao glared at Brother Umbrellaless, who rubbed his face that had swollen into a pig's head.

"I've been beaten to this beep, won't your conscience hurt if you let me go first?"

"Cut the crap and hurry up."

Su Xiao kicked a stone under his foot, which hit Brother Umbrellaless's mechanical boxing gloves.

"Got it, got it, true 'sweet' teammate."

Brother Umbrellaless hesitated for a moment, and yelled 'I RNMMP' at Little Fatty before rushing forward.

Although Little Fatty did not really want to pay attention to Umbrella-less Brother, but this was also an enemy, it was not proper to completely ignore it, in Little Fatty's mind, Su Xiao was a sharp blade that could cut his throat at any time, while Umbrella-less Brother was a piece of dog skin plaster that could not be beaten, could not be shaken off, and was disgusting to the extreme.

The more disgusting Little Fatty was, the happier Brother Umbrellaless was.

"Where is that arrogance just now? Playing the beep again."

Umbrella-less Brother pounded at Little Fatty, whose defense was not focused on him, keeping an eye on Su Xiao at all times.

Su Xiao slowly stepped in a circle around the battle group, and as long as Little Fatty had a break, he would instantly rush up and give the other party a slash.

Because he was always on guard against Su Xiao, Little Fatty's defense against Brother Umbrella's Iron Fist was inevitably negligent, and he was hit several times by Brother Umbrella, but as for fighting back, Little Fatty didn't even think about it.

At this time, Little Fatty showed how powerless the members of the Adventure Group were when they were alone, and his single ability made him not even have the chance to retreat.

Fortunately, Little Fatty has contacted Desolate Incineration, Desolate Incineration is coming at full speed, after Die's death, Little Fatty vaguely realized that the situation is not good, so he decisively contacted Desolate Incineration.

The umbrella-less brother who had already gotten high jumped up, if it was in the past, he was looking for death, but Little Fatty didn't pay attention to him at all.

Discovering that Little Fatty was so contemptuous of himself, Brother Umbrellaless laughed.

"Chance!"

Brother Umbrellaless shouted as his body descended, which was sending a signal to Su Xiao.

Twenty times heavier.

White patterns emerged on Brother Umbrellaless' mechanical gloves, and the speed of his punches was obviously slowed down, but they were powerful.

Little Fatty immediately sensed that something was wrong and blocked his shield to his side.

Boom!

The huge mechanical gloves that had increased in weight by twenty times smashed onto the shield, the little fat man's bite muscles bulged, and dirt splattered under his feet.

Plop!

Little Fatty only felt a coldness in his back, and another extremely deep chop mark came out.

"Ah!!!"

Brother Umbrellaless roared, his mechanical fist pressed down.

After Su Xiao chopped out a slash, he followed the force of the Chopping Dragon Flash and raised the longsword up again on the other side of his body.

The long knife tore through the air, and poof, another knife chopped at Little Fatty's back, and X-shaped chop marks appeared on Little Fatty's back.

After receiving two knives in a row, Little Fatty spat out blood with a wow sound, he immediately wanted to activate the Knockback skill, but the Reincarnation Paradise prompted him that he did not have enough mana.

At this time the little fat man would like to roar a I said you immortal board board, knife see bone he recognized, as the main tank he has been accustomed to take a beating, UU look at the book www.uukanshu.com but devouring mana value in the end what is the situation, his mana value is not much, received Su Xiao three knives after he only left 5 points of mana value.

Sweeping his remaining life and mana values, fear finally appeared in Little Fatty's eyes.

Brother Umbrellaless blocked his two mechanical gloves in front of his body, and he was ready for the enemy's Knockback or Charge skills.

After waiting for two seconds, Brother Umbrellaless was surprised to find that nothing happened, Little Fatty just blocked his shield in front of his body, while Su Xiao swung his sword wildly, slashing with sparks flying.

"Why don't you use skills?"

Umbrella-less Brother was puzzled, but this did not affect him from rushing forward to beat Little Fatty severely.

Su Xiao and Umbrella-less Brother were one after the other, after a few minutes, Little Fatty was already covered in blood, he was helpless, right now, not to mention his own mastered abilities, he couldn't even use the low-consumption skills that came with his equipment.

"Just wait, your death is not far away."

Little Fatty wasn't making empty threats, Desolate Incineration was going to arrive.

Chapter 733: Fight Back

It had to be said that Little Fatty's survivability was very strong, after resisting Su Xiao's six slashes, he still did not show any signs of collapsing, not only that, he even had the ability to dodge or raise his shield to block.

Su Xiao chopped at Little Fatty with his sword, Little Fatty immediately blocked with his golden quality shield, he slightly tilted his shield to protect himself from the force, this was an experienced main tank.

Su Xiao and Little Fatty fought head on, while Umbrella-less Brother upgraded from 'Bullshit Cream' to 'Shit Stirrer', his actions 'disgusted' Little Fatty enough.

Umbrella-less Brother didn't really do anything, he just looked for an opportunity to 'grab' the shield in Little Fatty's hand, Little Fatty hadn't used any skills or equipment attached abilities for a few minutes already, which made Umbrella-less Brother even more unscrupulous.

Su Xiao chopped a few slashes at the shield and kicked a straight kick at the front of the shield.

Bang.

Little Fatty took a step back with the shield, his heart began to struggle, he was hesitating whether to activate the emergency means of escape, if he used that, even if he was able to leave the Holy Grail World, Stan might still flay him alive.

While Little Fatty was struggling inside, Brother Umbrellaless had already pounced forward without defense, his two mechanical gloves opened up and grabbed at Little Fatty's shield.

"You ..."

Little Fatty glared angrily and was greeted by Umbrella-less Brother's unscrupulous laughter.

Ka Zee~.

Mechanical Gloves grabbed that shield, this kind of good opportunity Su Xiao certainly would not miss.

Green Steel Shadow energy rushed over the Chopping Dragon Flash as he held the blade with both hands and slashed with all his might.

"Hmph~"

The long blade chopped down, Little Fatty grunted miserably, the blade chopped on his right arm, which was the hand he used to hold the shield.

Chopping Dragon Flash didn't enter Little Fatty's big arm, penetrated the muscle, directly chopped on the bone, even chopped the bone in half, compared to Chopping Dragon Flash's 32 points of sharpness, the Little Fatty who didn't open the big move, his body strength obviously couldn't withstand this kind of chopping, the weapon with high sharpness chopping the flesh shouldn't be too good.

With a click, Chopping Dragon Flash stops, the little fat man has no blood on his face, just when he thinks that the knife has stopped, Su Xiao's left leg is raised high, and a foot is stepped on the back of the Chopping Dragon Flash's knife.

Brushing and pulling, an arm holding a shield landed on the ground, and the arm of the third-ranked Main Titan Little Fatty was chopped off!

Facing this desperate situation, Little Fatty did not panic, he had already forgotten how many times his arms and legs had been chopped off.

The shield on the ground disappeared, it was remotely collected inside the storage space by Little Fatty, I don't know how Little Fatty did it.

While putting away the shield, a bottle of potion appeared in Little Fatty's hand, he threw the potion directly into his mouth. Along with the potion bottle, he chewed and swallowed it.

Flesh buds surged to at Little Fatty's severed arm, he actually had a potion to restore the severed limb, the main titan of a large adventuring group was simply rich.

Just as Little Fatty waited for his arm to regenerate, his face suddenly changed, looking sideways at the severed arm, an energy shackle had climbed over the wound of the severed arm.

Supreme Blade Effect 2: Wan Ren Zong (Passive), Sharpness +10, if the chopping attack causes a severed limb effect on the enemy, the enemy will not be able to recover the severed limb through surgery, potions, skills, bloodline abilities, and all other abilities below the fourth rank. (This ability evolved from 'Sharpening Iron Like Clay (Passive)').

It was the ability of Chopping Dragon Flash, and it was obvious that Little Fatty's bottle of potion didn't reach the recovery power of the fourth rank, so this arm couldn't be restored.

Realizing this, Little Fatty used his left hand to hold his shield to confront the two of them with Su Xiao and contacted Desolate Burn once again.

"Boss Arakaki, how long will it take to get here, I...can't hold on for long."

Outside Winterwood City, Arakaki, who was riding a magma beast to catch up, froze.

"Five minutes."

At this time, Arakaki's face was not very good, he had already guessed what was going on, although Butterfly usually flattered him, but the other party's ambition, he had long seen that Arakaki knew the hearts and minds of people, and was not as silent or obedient as it seemed.

"Desolate burning boss ... sorry."

Receiving this message from Little Fatty, Desolate Incineration was a little angry, but the corners of his mouth curved up uncontrollably, and he seemed to be smiling.

"This is your choice?"

Desolate Burn closed the team message as he sped up his rush.

On the other side, the little fat man who had one arm chopped off let out a miserable laugh.

"Of course I've thought about it, compared to dying here, Stan's anger is nothing, do more than spamming the attribute deduction to withdraw from the group, Laozi is the main Tan, usually suffer and take the benefits, the Blood Gate does not leave the master, there is a place for the master to stay."

Little fat man looked at the rushing Su Xiao, he made a decision.

Clang.

A light blue blade awn chopped towards Little Fatty, after the Blade Master was upgraded to LV.30, the size, sharpness, and flying speed of the blade awn were all significantly increased, and now the ordinary chopping blade awn was three meters long.

The knife awn chopped at Little Fatty's throat, but Little Fatty didn't dodge or even put away his shield.

The knife blade flew by, and the little fatty was unharmed, the space beside him was extremely unstable, and a number of spatial ripples spread out.

When this kind of vision appeared, Su Xiao and Brother Umbrellaless immediately retreated, within the Reincarnation Paradise, something that was not understood basically meant danger.

"Don't think that it was you who defeated me, I was defeated by greed, your name is White Night right, let's meet in the third rank world, provided that you can reach the third rank before I ascend to the fourth rank."

There is no resentment type of emotion in the eyes of the little fat man, fighting is a routine for him, on the contrary, he recognizes Su Xiao's strength, although his strength is suppressed, but compared to the ordinary second rank contracted person it is a cut above, the enemy didn't choose to fight with him hard, but reasonably used his ability to weaken him, thus achieving victory.

For example, Brother Umbrellaless, Brother Umbrellaless' strength was much worse than Little Fatty, but Brother Umbrellaless didn't care about that, instead, he utilized his own resistance to punching to pester him.

"Chopping attack devours the enemy's mana value, troublesome ability."

Little Fatty laughed nervously and looked at the severed arm.

"I'll remember you, White Night of Chopping."

Seeing Little Fatty's expression, Su Xiao's brows furrowed as a pulse spread from him from his sleeve as he activated the branding effect of the Arashikage Wind Clothes, interrupting spatial-type abilities.

The light golden pulse swept through, the spatial fluctuations around Little Fatty stopped for a moment, but only for a moment.

Little Fatty's body gradually became transparent, a sign of returning to Reincarnation Paradise.

"That bitchy kid over there."

Little Fatty raised his chin to Brother Umbrellaless, who was slightly puzzled.

"A qualified master titan doesn't use his mouth to pull hate ..."

The voice faded away and Little Fatty disappeared, at the same time Little Fatty disappeared, the body of Arakaki Burn near Touki City began to be transparent, the three of them were using props to enter this spin-off world, once someone chose to return to Reincarnation Paradise, it was a mandatory return for the whole group.

Arakaki's face did not have any emotions, he was acting according to Stan's orders, as for success or not he actually did not care, the thing Arakaki craved was very special, special to the extent that once it was exposed, Stan would immediately kill him.

...

After the Third Order Main Titan Little Fatty disappeared, Su Xiao and Brother Umbrellaless glanced at each other.

"We... won?"

A smile had just blossomed on Brother Umbrellaless' face when the injury on his face caused him to suck in a breath of cool air, he didn't feel any pain during the battle, but after the battle was over, it hurt like hell.

"No, there is still one more person."

As soon as Su Xiao's words fell, a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[Announcement: High-ranked Contractors within the Derivative World have all returned, due to unknown factors causing the difficulty to increase, rewarding all Contractors of this Derivative World with 5% of the World Source].

Receiving this prompt, Su Xiao was a little surprised, he still thought that he would have to hide in the east for the stay afterward, and he was not even prepared to continue completing the mainline quests, if he completed the mainline quests under the eyes of Desolate Incineration, he would be looking for death, but now it seems that the mainline quests can be continued.

Butterfly and Little Fatty are not considered to be frontal combatants, but it is these two people who nearly killed Su Xiao and Brother Umbrellaless, the third rank and the second rank is a difference of one rank.

If Su Xiao could not defeat Die, Brother Umbrellaless might have turned into a corpse.

As the threat disappeared, Brother Umbrellaless smiled even more happily.

"White Night, why am I a little dizzy?"

Brother Umbrellaless shook his head, the Su Xiao in his eyes had already appeared in heavy shadows.

Ka ka ka ka ~

Tree shoots were born in Brother Umbrella's abdomen, the conduit that had been inserted into his abdomen had already broken during the battle, and now as soon as Brother Umbrella relaxed his spirit, the pillar cells immediately burst out.

Seeing this scene, Su Xiao quickly rushed to Brother Umbrella's body, Brother Umbrella's abdomen suddenly cooled, followed by a drilling sharp pain.

Pfft, the Chopping Dragon Flash penetrated through Brother Umbrella's abdomen, using the time he was stuffed with a medicine bottle in his mouth.

Su Xiao raised his hand and pushed Umbrella-less Brother's chin, the potion bottle in Umbrella-less Brother's mouth shattered, and his eyes began to turn white.

"Unloading doesn't have to be so fast, at least ... give a drink of water."

Brother Umbrella's voice was a bit slurred, he slowly collapsed, the Green Steel Shadow energy was raging in his body, bringing him harm while suppressing the Jumo cells in his body, as for the bottle of potion, named Potion No. 1, after drinking it, it can rapidly restore 85% of the life value and continuously restore the life value for 30 seconds afterwards, 2 points per second, and restore a certain degree of internal organ injuries.

Su Xiao squatted down and surveyed the collapsed Umbrella-less Brother.

"It looks like another surgery is needed, try isolating the Pillar Cells this time? Forget it, it's too weak, it could warp at any time, after all, I've fought side by side, I won't let you die so suffocatingly."

Su Xiao picks up Brother Umbrella and walks towards the distance, Brother Umbrella is breathing weakly, but will not die anon in a short time.

Villains also have a bottom line, Su Xiao's bottom line is that he will not swing his sword and decapitate his teammates who were fighting side by side in the last second, stabbing in the back has never been his style of action, of course, stabbing the enemy in the back does not count.

Chapter 734: 3 views of the ruined brother without an umbrella

Inside a dark room, which was about a dozen square meters in size and windowless, the only source of light was the cue light of the medical equipment in the room.

These medical devices were randomly arranged in rows, coupled with a single bed in the center of the room, making the already small room appear crowded, from the tangled wires can be seen, the people who use these devices do not love them.

Drip, drip, drip...

The ECG shape on the heart monitor fluctuated steadily, which meant that the umbrella-less brother wearing an oxygen mask was still alive.

Brother Umbrellaless' eyes were tightly closed, it was unknown how many times he had been operated on, and there were multiple suture marks at his abdominal location, which meant that Brother Umbrellaless' vitality was stronger, along with his natural ability being a survival-type talent, or else he would have long been dead.

It was worth mentioning that Brother Umbrellaless's natural ability was interesting, and it was as follows.

[Desperate Survival]

Category: rare talent (unawakened)

Rank: None (No rank for any talent before awakening)

Talent Effect (Passive): -0.5 Luck, +5 points per second vitality recovery rate if vitality is below 50%, +10 points per second vitality recovery rate if vitality is below 40%, +30 points per second vitality recovery rate if vitality is below 20%.

Tip: Talent ability effects do not conflict with any equipment or skill bonuses.

Tip: If the Talent Ability recovery effect is triggered, the recovery effect will last until the Life Value is above 80% and then stop.

...

If Su Xiao had seen Brother Umbrellaless' talent ability, he would have laughed out loud, there was actually a talent that reduced luck, although the reduced value was not large, this kind of talent was extremely rare.

From this talent ability, one could guess what happened to Brother Umbrellaless, his luck was not good, he often faced dangerous situations, and in desperate situations, Brother Umbrellaless survived with a small strong version of life force.

If Umbrella-less Brother's life value was below 20%, his life value recovery speed per second could only be described as perverted, besides, Umbrella-less Brother also had equipment that increased his life value recovery speed.

When the enemy thinks that the next hit will finish Brother Umbrella, Brother Umbrella has already recovered a lot of life.

Moreover, Umbrella-less Brother's natural ability has not yet been awakened, and after this ability is awakened, it will definitely have a very strong effect.

Drip~

The prompting lights of all the medical equipment in the room went out, losing the oxygen delivered by the medical oxygen concentrator, Brother Umbrella's tightly closed eyelids twitched.

"Eh?"

Brother Umbrellaless woke up leisurely, and the place where he entered his eyes was pitch black, after the initial confusion, Brother Umbrellaless sat up with a huff.

"I'm... blind?"

The darkness in front of his eyes, although Brother Umbrellaless had escaped death, he was in the Derivation World, and if he lost his eyesight, it basically meant that he would not be able to leave this Derivation World alive.

"Heaven's will? ai~"

Brother Umbrellaless' body leaned back and lay on the bed, noticing the binding sensation on his face, he removed his oxygen mask.

With a click, the door to the room was pushed open and a ray of light filtered through, and seeing the light, Brother Umbrellaless sat up again.

"I'm not blind!"

Brother Umbrellaless' face revealed ecstasy.

"Blind for what? The power's out."

Su Xiao walked into the room with a flashlight and came to Umbrella-less Brother's hospital bed.

"Thanks a lot."

Brother Umbrellaless breathed a long sigh of relief, although he had been stabbed by Su Xiao earlier, the fact that he was still alive now meant everything.

Drip, drip, drip ...

The medical equipment in the room lit up, the blackout only lasted for a short time, Su Xiao turned on the lights in the room, the room was brightly lit, Brother Umbrella subconsciously inclined his head and squinted his eyes, blocking his hand in front of his eyes.

After adapting to the bright light, Brother Umbrellaless held a purple equipment, it was a purple quality ring, for Brother Umbrellaless, this was already a huge amount of money.

"This is my thanks."

Brother Umbrellaless was a person who knew how to repay his kindness, counting this time, Su Xiao had already saved him twice.

Su Xiao leaned against the door and lit a cigarette.

"The information you provided on the Derivative World Contact Platform before was important, as for saving you this time, let's call it even."

Brother Umbrellaless' mouth opened and closed, and finally nodded.

"What a shocker, I've only heard of high-ranked contractors entering low-ranked worlds to kill people before, but I never thought I could experience it firsthand."

Brother Umbrellaless let out a sigh of emotion and turned to check his own situation, the experience of his last surgery was still fresh in his mind, and he was obviously a little scared about Su Xiao's surgery.

After seeing the few suture marks on his abdomen, the corners of Brother Umbrellaless' mouth twitched.

"You've 'disassembled' me and then reassembled me?"

"No, this is the work of a doctor."

The one who operated on Brother Umbrellaless was not Su Xiao, but a middle-aged doctor he had kidnapped, and that doctor received a large amount of hush money and left satisfied, leaving Su Xiao a phone number before he left, emphasizing many times to contact him if he needed anything.

"Is that so, then the pillar cells in my body ..."

Brother Umbrellaless did not want to turn into a tree, before he was only initially treeing, that feeling was already worse than death.

"There is no danger within three days, as for after three days ... can only depend on how lucky you are."

"Heh ~ three days later I will definitely become a 'vegetable'."

Brother Umbrellaless let out a bitter smile, for this point he was very confident.

"Oh? Why so sure."

"It's a summary of my experience with many spin-off worlds, hey, tough life."

Just as Brother Umbrellaless was despondent, a small head poked into the room through the doorway.

"It's time to eat."

With a timid greeting Mamoru Sakura shrank back and ran in the direction of the dining room, her steps seemingly clumsy because of the large pair of ill-fitting slippers she wore.

"I'm ... okay with this?"

Brother Umbrellaless made a move to get up.

"No problem."

A few minutes later, Su Xiao, Brother Umbrellas, Boo Boo Woof, and Mamoru Sakura were sitting around the dining room table, and as for Mamoru Yanyu, he was sitting in the 'special seat', which was the pillar in the living room that he was chained to.

All of them didn't say anything, they just chewed their food silently.

"Tastes good, is this a takeout order?"

Brother Umbrella spoke vaguely, in his opinion, Su Xiao must not be able to cook, Mamoru Sakura couldn't be either, too young, as for Bubu Woof, Brother Umbrella couldn't brainstorm a 'Erha' cooking.

Mamoru Sakura grasped half of a large grilled shrimp in her small hands and secretly pointed at Su Xiao.

"Huh~"

Brother Umbrellaless stopped chewing his food and looked sideways at Su Xiao with some stiffness.

"Did you make this?!"

"Why, is there a problem with the flavor?"

"No, nothing."

Brother Umbrellaless was as if he had seen a ghost, He never thought that Su Xiao could actually cook, and the food he made tasted pretty good.

Boo Boo Woof and Mamoru Sakura lowered their heads and ate fiercely, Mamoru Sakura, because of her young age, and her mental state has just recovered, so she doesn't care about etiquette and the like at all, she uses chopsticks to clip the food that is away from the food that she enters, and when it is far away, she grabs it with her small hands, and eats it with abnormal joy, this is not rudeness, after that kind of frightening encounter, to be able to have this kind of behavior, it shows that this little girl's mentality is tenacious.

After the meal was over, Su Xiao took out her tablet and started to play a deciphering game, while Boo Boo Woof took out her cell phone and started to play a handheld game, even though it was very vegetable.

Mamoru Sakura had obviously eaten too much and was leaning back in her chair without moving.

Brother Umbrellaless looked at Su Xiao who was indulging in a game that he couldn't get out of, his three views were destroyed, according to his conception, according to his conception, on Su Xiao's ferocious aura, shouldn't he usually be sitting in a dark place, thinking about the strategy of the action afterward or taking out his knife and wiping it repeatedly? What the hell is playing games.

The fact is not so, Su Xiao is only ferocious in battle, he usually will not show the kind of ferocity in battle, if usually also so ferocious, that is not domineering or handsome, but mental abnormality

Chapter 735: nice surprise

"White Night, the time I have left is but, I must complete the main quest as soon as possible."

"En."

Su Xiao didn't look up and continued to play the game.

"If our mainline quests conflict ..."

Brother Umbrellaless didn't continue, he had fought together with Su Xiao, so he very, extremely didn't want to fight with Su Xiao, it was too dangerous and he would die.

"If there is a chance that your quest will be completed within three days, then our quests do not conflict."

"That's good."

Brother Umbrellaless got up and headed for the door, opening the room before his steps stopped.

"Go."

After saying that, Brother Umbrellaless walked out of the private residence, casually bringing the door of the room with him as his figure quickly disappeared into the night.

Both Su Xiao and Brother Umbrellaless were clear that the two were able to work together, but there was no possibility of forming a long term team, because both of them were solo travelers, and the direction of their development was not suitable for forming a long term team.

After Brother Umbrellaless left, Su Xiao put away his tablet, the screen was gray and black, the game characters had died, this puzzle game was getting harder and harder, with his nerve reflexes speed he was feeling the pressure.

Bubu Wang, on the other hand, continued to be addicted to the game, Su Xiao inclined his head to look at it, Bubu Wang was sulking, from that 0-10-0 record with his teammates' desperate rage, he could see how much of a dish Bubu was.

"Bu Bu, with all due respect, you're a dish."

Click, Boo Boo Woof's claws clenched and cracks surfaced on his cell phone screen.

"Boo, Boo, dish?"

Mamoru Sakura didn't understand the meaning of 'dish', but her repetition of the phrase caused a 'blast' to Boo Boo Woof.

Boo Boo Woof tilted his head on one side, and it clearly meant that this woof was angry, the kind that couldn't be coaxed.

Ignoring Bu Bu Wang, Su Xiao took out a golden treasure chest and a scarlet card from the storage space.

The golden treasure chest was dropped by the Orphan of Grievance - Xiu Si, as the big boss of the hidden area, the gold content of the treasure chest could be said to be explosive.

As for the scarlet card, it was dropped by the third-ranked Contractor Butterfly, and its gold content was also not low.

Su Xiao got up and walked towards the bedroom, and Boo Boo Woof, who was still sulking a moment ago, immediately got up and followed behind Su Xiao.

While entering the bedroom, Su Xiao activated the alert device near this residential building, and at the same time released the Apostle's Eye.

Now that the external risks of the Holy Grail World had been lifted, Su Xiao only needed to feel at ease to complete the mainline quest, and Brother Umbrellaless would leave within three days, meaning that after three days the Holy Grail World would be left with only Su Xiao, and the possibility of variables would be drastically reduced.

However, before carrying out the mainline mission, Su Xiao had to continue to enhance his battle power, the stronger he was, the easier it would be to complete the mainline mission.

Su Xiao sat on the bed in his bedroom and took out Destiny Redemption to add the Euromancer status to his body, the Euromancer status could increase the Lucky Attribute by 4 points, and the effect lasted for 3 minutes, thus, Su Xiao's Lucky Attribute reached 6 points.

The feeling of a small amount of increase in Lucky Attribute was not obvious, but the feeling of increasing from 2 points to 6 points was very obvious, as if the entire world was favoring Su Xiao.

[Yes/No to open the treasure chest (gold color).]

Choosing to open it, the treasure chest that was golden in color with mysterious patterns outlined on its surface slowly opened.

As the treasure chest opened, a golden light appeared from within the treasure chest, this golden light was too blinding, Su Xiao immediately inclined his head.

The bedroom was a golden color, it seemed that everything was rendered into gold by this golden light.

Flashed!

Su Xiao's heartbeat accelerated, golden treasure chest + glitter = rich harvest = strength increase = cool.

[You have obtained the Yupis Magnifying Glass (Blue).]

[You obtain Spiteful Ashes (Gold).]

[You gain the Biotic Ladder Potion (Pale Gold).]

[You gain Slaughter (gold color).]

...

Four items appeared in Su Xiao's hand, and because there were too many items, a magnifying glass with a test tube fell on the bed.

[Yupis Magnifying Glass]

Tip: The strength of the Orphan's ability is determined by the summoner's Intelligence Attribute; the higher the Intelligence Attribute, the closer the Orphan is to full strength.

Tip: The duration of the Orphan's existence is determined by the summoner's Intelligence attribute (3-20 minutes).

Effect 2 (Material): Grievance Biology Higher Material, can be used to cast spells, construct spell formations, block magical interference, etc.

Score: 328 points (gold props/materials score 310 to 400 points)

Introduction: Good and evil are perfectly embodied in Hughes, and this ash is the only proof she has left.

Price: 132,000 Paradise Points

...

[Grievance Spirit Ashes] contained in a glass bottle, this is a good thing, it can summon the Orphan of Grievance-Shus at the critical moment, Su Xiao has appreciated the strength of the Hughes, although he can't be sure how strong the Hughes that he summoned is, but with his 60 points of Intelligence Attribute, it shouldn't be weak, put away the [Grievance Spirit Ashes], this thing may be able to save him one at the critical moment.

Su Xiao opened a total of four items from within Hughes' treasure chest, if he had already viewed two, he continued to view the remaining two.

[Biological Ladder Potion]

Origin: Fate/Zero - Willow Cave Temple

Quality: Pale gold color

Type: Strengthening Potion

Effect: After injecting this potion, permanent Strength +2, Agility +2, Physical Strength +2, Nerve Reflex Speed +5%.

Tip: This potion can strengthen more than 50 points of attributes.

Score: 310+ (light gold-colored potion scores 260 to 310 points)

Introduction: an item with a very low output rate and no side effects, honestly, what exactly is your relationship with Lady Luck, do you ...

The effect of this bottle of Strengthening Potion made Su Xiao raise his eyebrows, this thing was very good, it could actually increase the physical attributes by more than 50 points, it should be known that most of the Strengthening Potion that he had obtained before were strengthening the attributes of less than 50 points, 50 points was a watershed.

Although Strength, Sensitivity and Body +2 didn't seem like much, it was quite a lot, the sum of the three was equivalent to 6 attribute points, Su Xiao's gain from each Derivative World was roughly between 15 to 25 attribute points.

Moreover, what Su Xiao valued the most was the +5% in Nerve Reflexes Speed, as intentionally accumulated, his Nerve Reflexes Speed had already reached a level of +16%, and with the addition of this 5%, it was about to break through 20%.

Su Xiao didn't bother checking the last piece of equipment for the time being, which was a weapon, he had a lot of time now, it was better to use this bottle of Strengthening Potion first to rely on it.

The [Biological Ladder Potion] was a metal injection gun with an azure blue medicinal liquid inside.

The injection gun was stabbed into his arm, and as Su Xiao hooked his finger, the strengthening potion entered his body.

Chapter 736: massacre

Su Xiao quietly waited for the changes in his body, in the past, the use of strengthening potions was accompanied by severe pain, after the baptism of the awakening of his talent, now he would only faintly smile at the severe pain of strengthening, and he definitely did not smoke.

Five minutes later, Su Xiao suddenly smiled, the Bubu Wang on the side was startled, his gaze seemed to say, "Master, what's wrong with you, suddenly smiling is so scary, don't scare me."

"Hahaha."

Su Xiao laughed uncharacteristically, and Bu Bu Wang was scared to the point of exploding.

"I'm ... hyperactive, it should be the reason for the strengthening potion."

This time, using the Strengthening Potion didn't produce any pain, Su Xiao only felt that his body was slightly heated and he was hyperactive.

Hyperactivity wasn't too serious a mental change, as long as one concentrated, Su Xiao's willpower was enough to resist this feeling of hyperactivity.

Half an hour later, Su Xiao's complexion regained its calmness, the feeling of exuberance disappeared, and the effects of the strengthening potion manifested, he clearly felt his body become stronger.

Both hands clenched his fists, click click click ~ terrifying strength surged within his body, counting the equipment bonus, his strength attribute had reached 65 points.

65 points of strength attribute could do a lot of things, if he punched out with his full strength, he could punch a big hole in steel, of course, this was the destructive power without the skill and weapon bonus.

Fist was not a weapon Su Xiao was good at, if he used a sword to chop, steel was as fragile as tofu in front of him, this was the power of attribute + skill + weapon.

Not only did the strength increase, the increase in agility and physical strength attributes were also shown, and more obviously, the increase in nerve reflex speed.

Faster nerve reflexes speed would allow Su Xiao to capture the enemy's movement trajectory, attack trajectory, etc., the importance of which was self-evident.

The three items had all been put away or used, and Su Xiao picked up the last item, which was a weapon, a short blade that was about 50 centimeters long and flashed with cold light.

This short knife blade was straight, no hand guard, the handle was wrapped with some kind of animal skin, into black color, it was easy to grip, the whole knife had a perfect center of gravity, the weight wasn't light, but with Su Xiao's strength attribute, this item was shown to be very lightweight.

[Slaughter]

Origin: Fate/Zero - Church of the Holy Church

Quality: Gold

Category: Short Sword, Side Weapon (Length 52.8cm, Width 3.1cm)

Material: Meteorite alloy, high-strength titanium, moonlight essence, secret silver.

Durability: 92/92

Attack Power: 115~193

Equipment Requirements: 30 points of Strength, 47 points of Agility, 18 points of Willpower, Blade Basic Skill LV.30.

Equipment Effect 1: Throat Breaker (Passive), when slitting any creature's throat, it will inflict an additional damage value.

Tip: The extra damage value is 50% to 60% of the base damage, the extra damage ignores body defense and resistance.

Equipment Effect 2: Sobbing Blood (Passive), if you successfully slit the throat and trigger equipment effect 1, it will judge the enemy's physical strength attribute, if the enemy fails to pass the judgment, it can trigger the Sobbing Blood effect, the enemy will lose a lot of blood, the bleeding damage per second is 4% of the enemy's maximum life value, the bleeding effect lasts for 10 seconds, and this damage has priority.

Tip: If the enemy's life value is below 30%, the duration of the bleeding effect is -50% (5 seconds), and the bleeding effect is doubled (8% of maximum life value per second).

Equip Effect 3: Moon Glow (Passive), Sharpness +14, Armor Break +10, Penetration +9.

Equipment Effect 4: Rapid Switching (Active), Butchery was built for the third Generation Leader, who used it as a sidearm due to its ominous nature, weapon switching speed +70%.

Tip: Haste Switching (Active) has no consumption.

Tip: Rapid Switching (Active) has no cooldown.

Score: 390 (Gold equipment scores 310 to 400 points)

Profile: Ominous, mad, jealous, and furious, be sure to assess your own willpower before using Slaughter, if your willpower is too low, the first person to have their throat slit will be you.

Price: 175,000 Paradise Points.

...

Slaughter flipped in Su Xiao's hand and danced out a flower of knives, he directly ignored the warning of this knife profile, what was the exact value of his willpower he himself was not sure, but it was definitely higher than 18 points, the equipment requirement of Will of Fire was 15 points of willpower, when he wore the Will of Fire, it did not show the slightest exclusion, which meant that his willpower attribute was at least 20 points or more.

The Slaughtering Short Knife was sharp, although the sharpness was not up to the level of the Chopping Dragon Flash, the Chopping Dragon Flash was, after all, built by Su Xiao at great expense.

However, the sharpness of this short blade was not to be underestimated, +14 sharpness, +10 armor break and +9 penetration, the combination of these three made the sharpness of this blade climb substantially.

"Cutting throats."

Su Xiao threw the short knife in his hand, although he had always used long knives, his use of short knives was not weak, his Knife Master was sufficiently LV.30, if he could not even use a short knife flexibly, then this skill would be too wasteful.

Su Xiao was prepared to keep this knife, the reason was that the Dragon Slashing Flash was slightly powerless in close combat, he had previously obtained a golden quality dagger, but unfortunately, that dagger did not belong to the knife class, and daggers were used in a very different way to knife type weapons.

This short dagger was not a primary weapon, it was a secondary weapon, and the secondary weapon had a characteristic that it could not fully gain the bonus of the basic skill, it could probably gain around 90% to 95%.

The attributes of this knife were amazing, but for other people, not being able to fully obtain the basic skill bonus would make them very unhappy, but Su Xiao didn't care about that.

Sub-weapons have the benefits of sub-weapons, most sub-weapons have attributes that make them easy to carry or increase the switching speed of the weapon, for example, if he was fighting with the Dragon Flash and this short knife was placed in the storage space, if this short knife wasn't a sub-weapon, there would be a short delay between the two switching to each other, and with the switching speed bonus, this delay could be ignored.

Normally, when fighting with an enemy using the Chopper Flash, and after being plastered by an enemy, this blade becomes a murderous weapon.

A cut on the throat, even if the enemy is a Tan, will be tortured by the extra damage + bleeding effect will be skeptical of life.

The embarrassment of being close to the enemy was not something Su Xiao experienced once or twice, just before, the third-rank Contractor Butterfly was close to him, and due to the length of the Chopper Flash, Su Xiao could only hold the knife in his backhand and could not use the Chopping Strike, and was only able to cut the enemy.

With [Slaughter], Su Xiao was able to get close to him again with ease, switching the short blade, whether it was chopping, slashing, or stabbing, and this short blade was a golden quality weapon, with attributes not weaker than the [Bian's Dagger] that he had once obtained, or even stronger.

The [Bian's Dagger]'s attribute was Toxin + Penetration, while the [Slaughter]'s attribute was Imminent Death + Sharpness, both of them had their own strengths, however, the [Slaughter]'s rating was 10 points higher than the [Bian's Dagger]'s, and its attack power was also a bit higher.

Put the [Slaughter] away, the gain after the golden treasure box flash is really amazing, so amazing that Su Xiao is a little bit shocked, such a large gain, to what extent will his luck be overdrawn? It won't be choked to death by drinking a mouthful of cold water, right?

Su Xiao took a long sigh of relief, thinking about this is not very meaningful, the benefits he has got his hands on, what happens after that can only listen to God's destiny.

Su Xiao looked at the scarlet card on the side, with his current level of overdrawn luck, it was unlikely that he would be able to draw something good.

"Bu Bu. You come."

Tossing over the scarlet card, Bu Bu Wang got up to hold it.

Click~

A crunching sound came from underneath Su Xiao, and the bed under his butt collapsed...

Boo Boo Woof was startled, squatting on the ground it did not move and backed away.

"Is this the start of bad luck."

Su Xiao sat on the bed with four splits, he didn't want to go and sit on the intact stool nearby, sitting on that wouldn't necessarily lead to any moths.

Chapter 737: you devil

The scarlet card gradually dissolved into a mass of blood-red liquid, which floated in midair and slowly rotated.

This mass of blood-red liquid rotated faster and faster, and after ten seconds or so, a blood-colored vortex appeared.

The Butterfly's Scarlet Card had a total of three extraction opportunities after use, which could result in the extraction of items within the Butterfly's storage space, or the extraction of the Butterfly's equipment or skills.

Both items and equipment Su Xiao had drawn, as for skills ...

He seriously doubted that there was no way to draw the skills of the deceased within the Scarlet Card, at least he couldn't.

Boo Boo Woof poked his head in front of the blood-colored vortex, you can see that this bastard is a little nervous, this is after all the scarlet card of a third-ranked Contractor.

"It's time to show the skill, Boo Boo."

"Woof!"

Boo Boo Woof held his head high, at this moment it was not one dog fighting, but two! If Su Xiao knew what Boo Boo Woof was thinking at this moment, he would take out that oversized slipper in a moment.

Under Su Xiao's expectant gaze, Bu Bu Wang gulped and dug his head into the blood-colored vortex and began to sense the items inside with his nose.

Su Xiao silently waited, but a few minutes had passed, Bu Bu Wang still did not take out the item, instead, he drilled half of his body into the blood-colored vortex, the two hind legs that were leaking on the outside stomped around, and his fluffy tail swayed from side to side.

Suddenly, Boo Boo Woof's tail stopped wagging, it shrank backward, and its entire body broke away from the blood-colored vortex.

Su Xiao fixed his eyes towards Bu Bu Wang's mouth to see that it was the item that Bu Bu Wang had chosen for a few minutes, only to see that Bu Bu Wang was holding a small statue in its mouth, and from Su Xiao's angle, he could see the bottom bracket of that small statue.

"It's a prop?"

Su Xiao took out that 'mini-statue' from Bu Bu Woof's mouth, the item felt soft to the touch, and when the full picture of the 'mini-statue' appeared in his eyes, his hand froze.

[You have obtained the Lupin 7 Hand Figure Model (Collector's Edition)]

The scene was extremely awkward, Su Xiao surveyed the large-headed hand puppet in his hand, he always felt that it was somewhat familiar.

"This is a character from ... a certain hand game?"

Su Xiao suddenly remembered, isn't this the character of that hand game that Bu Bu Wang played before, in order to play this hand game, Bu Bu Wang also purchased a piece of equipment that can link to the real world's network, just can't transmit information to the outside world with many restrictions.

Although Su Xiao was psychologically prepared before opening the scarlet card, but opening such a novelty item made him a bit back in his head for a while.

Su Xiao could only accept the fact that he had opened an adult product shock stick, let alone a game hand puppet, besides, looking at Boo Boo Woof's appearance, it seemed to like this thing, which was also considered a bit valuable.

"Continue."

Su Xiao put the hand puppet aside, and Bu Bu Wang continued to extract items within the blood-colored vortex, with two more chances.

With the lesson learned from the first time, Bu Bu Wang's extraction speed was significantly faster.

[You have obtained the Christmas Limited Edition Lipstick Set (5-piece set).]

This time it was lipsticks, Su Xiao shook his head, this was not an equipment, it was just an ordinary item.

[You obtain Alice's invitation.]

The blood-colored vortex disappeared, and Su Xiao held a plain black envelope in his hand, the mouth of which was sealed with fire paint.

[Alice's invitation.]

Origin: Unknown

Quality: Unknown

Type: Invitation

Effect: Unknown

Rating: Unknown

Synopsis: An invitation to ...

Price: ????

...

Su Xiao observed the invitation in his hand, although he wasn't sure what it did, his intuition told him that the value of this item might not be bottomless.

Su Xiao tried to open the invitation, but the envelope was like a long death, it could not be opened at all.

Realizing this, Su Xiao hesitated for a moment and began to try to tear the envelope with brute force.

Grabbing the envelope with both hands and exerting force, the veins on the corners of Su Xiao's forehead and arms gradually protruded, showing how much force he had used.

Ka ka ka ka ~

The invitation was torn and appeared wrinkled, the tearing sound was oozing but there was no damage, half a minute later, Su Xiao's face reddened, he had no choice but to give up.

"Ha, ha, ha~"

Su Xiao breathed heavily, reddened face back to normal, this thing is surprisingly sturdy, he who can demolish Gouda with his bare hands, actually took this thing no way, this makes him more sure that this thing is not simple.

"It seems that brute force won't work."

Just when Su Xiao was stu

Chapter 738: gathering of the spirits

The scene went from 'friendly' negotiations to tit-for-tat.

"Is it wrong for me to say that knights equal stupidity? Knightly virtues seem noble and honorable, but in reality they are contradictory, how to be compassionate while killing the enemy valiantly, how to be humble while speaking honestly and openly, these characters are just tools used by people in high positions of power to bind the strong, some of these characters are indeed good, but where did the word knight come from? Sealed by some wise king?"

Su Xiao was grinning, if he could provoke Saber, then the possibility of a meeting between the two would be greater.

"For example, a knight protects the princess, and while protecting the princess, the princess is likely to spring into love with the knight, but don't forget that the princess ends up marrying another prince, not a knight."

"You may be right, but that's no reason for you to kill for fun."

Saber wasn't stupid, she was clear that Su Xiao was trying to provoke her, so she wasn't opening her mouth.

Killing people for fun? Did he ever say that? Su Xiao thought about it, he seemed to have said that just now when he was babbling, and sure enough, Saber wouldn't be easily provoked.

"That's what you call cooperation, if that's the case, then there's no possibility of us working together."

Eimiya Chieji picked up the phone, he had already heard that Su Xiao had no desire to cooperate.

"Once there was, as for now ... you've been thinking about it for too long, Eimiya Ketchup."

Su Xiao hung up the phone, according to his plan, this phone should have rung a day ago, he had already left time for Ebisuya Keshi to think about it, unfortunately, the other party had considered it for too long, and there was no longer any possibility of cooperation between the two sides.

Inside the bedroom, Su Xiao crushed the phone in his hand.

"Then ... let's continue the Holy Grail War, I don't know how many of the Heroic Spirits have survived."

Su Xiao was ready to continue participating in the Holy Grail War, if he wanted to complete the main quest, which was to touch the Holy Grail, he first had to make the Holy Grail descend before he could do so.

The Holy Grail War had reached this point, there were still two conditions that needed to be met for the Holy Grail to descend.

The first is the container, the container is already there, that is, the beautiful young woman Alice Fell, wife of Eimiya Kesshi, she is an artificial human, the Einzbergen family in order to the Holy Grail descending prepared container.

The Einzbergen family's face is bright and square, but in reality, it is an old bleeping family. First, they used Alice Fell to get Einzbergen's wife to Einzbergen's family to become their son-in-law, and then let Einzbergen's family participate in the Holy Grail War instead of Einzbergen's family. In this way, Alice Fell is the container, and also used to get the person to participate in the Holy Grail War in the Einzbergen's family's place, so that it can be said to be a two-for-one deal.

As harsh as it may sound, the Kauinzbergen family did just that, beautifully describing their trust in Eboshi Kiritsugu.

As for the second condition of the Holy Grail's descent, it was to 'fill it up' with the souls of the Spirits, meaning that the more Spirits died, the further in the Holy Grail would be from descending.

What Su Xiao had to do was to find the other Heroic Spirits and exterminate them, or if he had enough time, he could wait for those Heroic Spirits to kill each other.

The Devouring Energy would devour the energy of the British Spirits, so Su Xiao would not watch the show, but would participate in it, the Castle Steel Shadow's ability was about to be upgraded to LV.30, and when that happened, his strength would increase, and maybe the King of the Castle Shadows could be awakened? Of course, this is not very likely.

That night Su Xiao didn't act, instead he slept comfortably and recuperated, he had experienced multiple high intensity battles before, he hadn't closed his eyes for two days and two nights, and he was able to persevere until now not only by virtue of his body being strong, but also because his willpower was strong enough.

The next day at noon.

The sunlight shines from the curtain gap into the bedroom, Su Xiao is leaning on the bed, holding a tablet computer in his hand, he is not playing a game, but checking the recent news in Winterwood City.

"No riots, no mass destruction, only a large number of missing children, interesting."

From this information, it can be seen that the other spirits should not have fought within the past two days, the movement of the spirits fighting each other is not small, even if there is the cover of the Holy Church, there will still be traces left behind, the news will appear in the category of an accidental fire at such and such a place.

As for the case of a large number of missing children, according to the original information, Su Xiao guessed that it was the Caster camp, the Caster camp's Royal Master and the Spirits are very strange, their purpose is not the Holy Grail, but to go around killing people and looking for Joan of Arc, Joan of Arc has the possibility of becoming a Spirit, however, she didn't show up at this Holy Grail War.

Although there were no clues, Su Xiao didn't believe that those Imperial Lords and Spirits would remain peaceful, he now just had to wait.

For the whole day, Su Xiao didn't go out, but played poker with Bubu Wang and Mamoru Sakura inside the private residence, it's unlikely for the Ying Spirits to fight in the daytime, which would cause a huge commotion, and they usually fight at night.

Around the seventh point that night, Su Xiao was in the middle of his daily maintenance of the Zanpakuto Flash, when a wave of magic power appeared nearby, and it was getting closer and closer.

Whoosh~

A chariot sped through the air, Su Xiao rushed to the window in a few steps and looked at the distant chariot, it was a carriage, the treasure tool of a Yingling to be exact.

"Conquering King, Rider (cavalry) camp?"

Sheathing her Chopper Flash, Su Xiao opened the window and jumped out of the room.

"Boo Boo, don't sleep, start working."

The ears of Boo Boo Woof on the sofa twitched, it jumped down from the sofa, picked up Mamoru Sakura who was full of bewilderment and rushed out the window, Mamoru Yanyu who was full of black smoke similarly followed.

Su Xiao hurriedly traveled in the night, following the chariot in the sky above from afar, with his agility attribute, he had no problem keeping up with that chariot on foot.

At the edge of Touki City, inside an abandoned factory.

Boom.

Mud and rocks splashed as a figure covered in pitch black flew out of the factory area, crashed through the fence, and rolled to a stop a few times on the nearby road.

This is Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances), the Assassin (Assassin) of the seven Spirits, his gender is unknown and his abilities are somewhat special.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances)'s combat ability is not considered top notch, and he suffers from a mental disorder of multiple personalities, which instead of becoming his weakness, becomes his ability.

Due to his multiple personalities, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) can separate different personalities and allow that personality to get a physical body, which is no longer as simple as splitting, it's splitting.

Hassan Sabah (Baek Maung) can split a total of 80 personalities, each of which has a separate consciousness and body, and can act independently. This ability has a weakness: if he chooses to split, the total amount of his magic power will remain unchanged, which means that the more he splits, the weaker he will become as an individual.

If fighting against other spirits, choosing to split is not a wise decision, such as now.

The one who fought with Hassan Sabah (Momochi) was Saber. The reason was simple: Hassan Sabah (Momochi) came to assassinate Saber's acting Royal Master Alice Fell, Eimiya Kesshi's wife, and Saber's intuition sensed that something was wrong, and prevented Hassan Sabah (Momochi) from nearly succeeding.

Wearing battle armor and holding a transparent holy sword, Saber emerges from a hole in the wall, and she certainly won't be soft on the spirits who assassinated her royal master.

"Shameless person, how dare you try to assassinate my Master by despicable means ..."

Before Saber could finish her sentence, the roar of a chariot came from high above in the distance.

"Slow down~ I'm going to throw up."

The chariot landed, a cry with a crying voice came from the chariot, it was the Conqueror King's Royal Master Weber Velvet, this kid had a fair face and a weak voice, and when he stood towards the tall Conqueror King's side, how could he be seen as a 'royal consort', even though he was a male, there was a saying, of course it was a boy to be so cute.

"Never mind the little things, it's been a lively day."

The Conquering King-Iskandar was clad in a red cloak, with a full head of red hair, even his beard was burgundy, he gave off a feeling of brashness and atmosphere, of course, this one had douchebag potential.

The Conquering King's strength is very strong, seven Yingling strength ranking words, he can rank in the first few, his power does not lie in individual strength, but in the group battle, the raging tide of people.

"Saber, Assassin, your relentless fighting was wonderful."

Conqueror King-Iskandar gave a thumbs up, by now Saber (Artoria) and Assassin (Hundred Faces) had frozen, they weren't sure what the hell this guy was going to do, engage in a fight? Not really like that.

"But ... I'm by no means the only one of the spirits attracted by this battle, those cowards who are still hiding their heads and tails will inevitably be humiliated by my Conqueror King Iskandar when they fight with you."

Su Xiao, who was observing the situation from a short distance away, did not care, he was prepared to wait for the situation to develop, there were too many Ying Spirits gathered nowadays, rather than having a melee, it would be better to say that the Ying Spirits had officially declared war on each other.

Su Xiao did not care, but there were other spirits who cared about the Conquering King's provocation, such as a very arrogant spirit.

A golden point of light appeared, and a Yingling with a full body of golden armor appeared, he stood on the street lamp next to the highway, looking down at the crowd below, that gaze seemed to be looking at a group of ants, although there were multiple Yinglings below, he was calm and relaxed.

It was the Hero King Gilgamesh, he looked down at the spirits present and said in an arrogant tone, "The rats who call themselves kings behind my back."

"That's a heartbreaking statement, this king Iskandar is the world famous and unique conquering king ..."

"Ridiculous."

'Golden Flash' Gilgamesh interrupted the Conquering King.

"I am the only Ingenue in heaven and on earth who can be called King, all others are just abusive ..."

"Tokiomii!!!"

A roar of anger came from Mamoru Yanyu, who was covered in black smoke, stood beside the highway and looked up at the King of Heroes, who somehow perceived that the King of Heroes was the Ying Spirit of Tokiomii Ensaka.

"Eh?"

The King of Heroes frowned slightly and looked at Mamoru Yanyu.

"You crazy dog, who gave you permission to look at me!"

A circle of golden spatial ripples appeared behind the Hero King, several treasure tools poked out from within the golden spatial ripples, revealing the tip position, these treasure tools were not of a high level, the Hero King would not use his full strength right out of the gate, although he was arrogant, he was not brainless.

"Roar!"

Responding to the Hero King was a roar.

"Delight me with your death, mad dog."

Whoosh~

Several treasures shot out, extremely fast, stabbing straight at Mamoru Yanyu, with Mamoru Yanyu's strength, he would be crippled without dying in the face of such an attack.

Clang.

The light blue blade cut through the night sky, those few low-grade treasures were directly cut off, turned into light particles and dissipated.

"See what's wrong with you, charge? The golden one."

Su Xiao stood on the fence not far away, the night wind blew by, and the hem of his black trench coat was blown hunting.

"Which bastard are you again."

The Hero King's chin was slightly raised, his treasure tool was destroyed, even though it was just an ordinary treasure tool, it still made him very upset.

"You just ... said the word bastard, didn't you?"

The smile on Su Xiao's face disappeared, and a sharp and ferocious aura spread out.

"This is not good."

The Conquering King blocked in front of his Royal Master Weber, whose legs were trembling from the aura, while not far away, Saber rushed in front of Alice Fell with a healthy step to protect Alice Fell.

"Said it's you, mongrel."

Although the Hero King felt Su Xiao's appalling aura, his expression did not change much.

"Me? According to the current situation, I'm a famous 'Heroic Spirit', and I was a human 'in life', while your aura ... has the flavor of a pseudo-god and the characteristics of a human being, Demi-God, who exactly is the bastard?"

Su Xiao generally did not take the initiative to cause trouble, but he was never false in the face of others naming provocations.

"It is useless to talk more."

The golden spatial ripples behind the Hero King increased. It was densely packed with at least dozens of them.

"Just what I was thinking, your treasures are good, especially the blade type treasures."

Su Xiao slowly pulled out the Chopping Dragon Flash at his waist, if he fought from a distance, he was not the Hero King's opponent, but if he could get close, with the other party's attributes of Tendon Strength B, Durability B, Agility B, if he didn't chop the other party into disbelief, he would immediately look for a block of tofu to crash into and die.

As for the other party's Heaven and Earth Behavioral Sword, with Su Xiao's speed of the blade, coupled with the Hero King's arrogant character, it was highly possible that he would not be able to take it out without being chopped to death by Su Xiao.

Chapter 739: Anticipate

The battle on the field was imminent, not counting Su Xiao's pseudo spirit, there were a total of four spirits on the field, namely the four spirits of Hundred Faces, Saber, Conqueror King, and King of Heroes, of which three of the spirits' royal masters were hidden in the dark, and only the Conqueror King's royal master, Webber Velvet, was present, as for the beautiful young woman Alice Fell, she was only the acting royal master.

Su Xiao leapt down from the fence, just as he landed a roar sounded under his feet, debris splashed, Su Xiao transformed into a black shadow rushing straight towards the King of Heroes.

"Eh? This kind of speed ..."

Although the hero king with full body golden armor was arrogant, he was not stupid, after noticing Su Xiao's speed, he immediately judged that he could not fight Su Xiao in close combat.

The Hero King stood on the street lamp and looked down on him, arrogantly he liked to stand high, if he didn't really can't find any other high point in the vicinity, he wouldn't have chosen the street lamp which had a very small landing point.

The golden space ripples behind the Hero King fluctuated, and those treasure tools slowly poked out from the space ripples.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh~

A handful of treasures shot out from within the golden spatial ripples, a total of dozens of them, the flying speed of these treasures was incredibly fast, and the force was also very strong, piercing through the layers of air waves in the air, stabbing straight at the charging Su Xiao.

Su Xiao's pace was unceasing, while charging forward at a fast pace, he contracted his perceptual range, making his perception even sharper.

A treasure tool pierced into Su Xiao's perception range, in Su Xiao's perception, this treasure tool looked like it pierced a water balloon, that was his perception circle, somewhat similar to the circle of Nian ability.

The moment the treasure tool entered Su Xiao's perception range, his pupils tightened slightly, and his nerve reflex speed was perfectly reflected at this moment.

Chopping Dragon Flash cut through the air, this blade appeared to chop in the air, but in reality it was not, this was utilizing perception to prejudge.

Ding.

A halberd treasure was cut off at the waist, broken into two halberd deviated from the original flight trajectory, flying diagonally to the side, rotating in the whistling sound of the wind, did not fly out of the far into light particles disappeared.

Noticing this scene, Su Xiao's eyes flickered, these treasures are not solid, that is to say, it is unlikely that one would want to use the Supreme Blade to devour knife-type treasures to enhance the Chopping Dragon Flash.

Thinking about it, if the Holy Grail will manifest all of the Hero King's treasures, the energy required is horrifying, it is not something that a Holy Grail can withstand, the Hero King's King's treasure carries the crystallization of an era's wisdom, craftsmanship, and occultism.

Unable to use the Supreme Blade to devour the treasures within the King's Treasure, Su Xiao was inevitably a little disappointed, but now was not the time to think about this, other treasures had already attacked.

Ding, ding, ding ...

In front of Su Xiao's body, there were many chopping marks, sparks flew, and the swords crunched, the dozens of incoming treasure tools were all chopped away by him, and a large part of the treasure tools that were broken into two pieces were inserted into the nearby ground, and for a time, soil flew horizontally, and smoke and dust rose up in all directions.

At this time, Su Xiao is still about twenty meters away from the Hero King, for the Hero King, this is barely considered a safe distance, but unfortunately, he misjudged, this distance is not safe, he is about to come back at a price.

Su Xiao's speed suddenly accelerated, the shaving skill in the skill list entered the cooling phase.

[Six Styles - Shave: Lv.20 (Active Skill)]

Skill Effect: Move 2 to 50 meters forward at super high speed, during which the movement speed reaches the maximum that the body can withstand.

Tip: Each use of Shave will consume 50 stamina points, with a ten minute cooldown.

Tip: You can correct your orientation or stop during the movement.

...

The shaving that Su Xiao mastered was very special, extremely fast, but with quite a lot of limitations, his physical strength attribute was a full 62 points, what was the concept of 'moving at the maximum speed that his body can withstand'? It was to utilize his strength + agility + shaving ability to produce the fastest speed, the limit of this speed was the speed that his body could withstand.

At this moment, Su Xiao disappeared, disappeared in the perception of all the Ying Spirits, it was no longer as simple as disappearing from sight.

"What!"

The composure on the Hero King's face disappeared.

In just an instant, Su Xiao had already leapt up at some point and was at the same height as the Hero King standing on the street lamp, and had already arrived in front of him.

When hostile with a hero like the Hero King who had a character flaw (arrogance) but was extremely strong, either you don't make a move, or you make a move to kill the opponent before they get serious.

Blue Steel Shadow energy rushed on the Dragon Flash, Su Xiao's speed was too fast, with the Hero King's Agility B dregs attribute, if Su Xiao had already made a move, he would be damned if he would be able to react to it.

Although the Hero King's melee attribute is hot chicken, but his treasure is strong, this guy is simply 'the landlord's stupid son', extremely landlord, the general bow knight is shooting arrows, he shoots treasure.

Golden spots of light appeared in the Hero King's pupils, a look of pain appeared on his face, in this moment, he briefly saw the future, it was obvious that he had put away his arrogance and got serious.

Golden light flashed in the Hero King's eyes, 0.2 seconds into the future, his head was decapitated, his face was filled with consternation.

Clang~

The long blade chopped through, a few short blonde hairs were chopped off, although the Hero King couldn't dodge the chopping attack of the blade that had already come out, he predicted it in advance before Su Xiao came out with the blade and dodged it, he didn't know what kind of treasure tool he was using.

Look at the expression of the Hero King, just now using that kind of treasure should not be easy, he is after all the Holy Grail summoned out, even if it is strong there is a limit.

After dodging this thrilling slash, King of Heroes immediately leapt back, a golden space ripple appeared beside his hand, and a golden sword hilt protruded out from within the space ripple.

The Hero King grabbed that golden sword hilt, as long as he took out this sword, solving the enemy in front of him would not be a problem.

This is the sword of heaven and earth deviation, EX grade treasure, normally the hero king would not use it, but today's situation is different from the past, the enemy simply does not follow the common sense, instantly rushed to his body, directly with him life and death duel, even the most basic test is not there.

This was Su Xiao's advantage, he knew the Hero King's ability, but the Hero King knew nothing about him.

The Sword of Heaven and Earth Deviation was also known as the Sword of Slicing the World, an EX grade boundary-pairing treasure, extremely powerful and terrifying.

"Miscellaneous ..."

When the Hero King retreated, Su Xiao would of course follow closely.

Clang!

The long knife chopped through and blood splashed.

Psst.

A broken arm flew up, the hand of this broken arm held the Heaven and Earth Deviation Sword that had yet to parse the rules of this world, although the Heaven and Earth Deviation Sword was strong, it needed to parse the laws of this world first.

The Hero King in mid-air was full of disbelief, but at the same time as the broken arm gradually fell, several treasures shot towards Su Xiao, he had just chopped out a sword, his old power had already gone, besides, he was in mid-air.

Bang.

A few treasures stabbed Su Xiao, a muffled sound spread, Su Xiao slammed into the ground at high speed.

With a boom, the ground was smashed out of a large crater, dozens of counter shields wrapped Su Xiao inside, the counter shields flashed with light blue energy meridians, not pierced by the Hero King's treasure tools.

Su Xiao had just stood up when a chain suddenly shot out from the void near him, these chains had spikes at the front end and stabbed straight towards Su Xiao.

Ding~

The sharp cones at the front end of the chains were bounced off by the counterattack shield, but these chains were able to move freely, and a few chains wrapped Su Xiao within moments, because there was a counterattack shield blocking the way around, these chains didn't wrap around Su Xiao, they just wrapped around the counterattack shield.

This iron chain was one of the Hero King's treasures, the Lock of Heaven, and it was also the Hero King's most trusted treasure.

Click Click Click ...

The Lock of Heaven contracted and tightly wrapped the Counter Shield that was spliced together into an oval shape.

Su Xiao inside the counterattack shield didn't look too good, he couldn't figure it out, couldn't figure out how the Hero King dodged his first slash.

That knife was aimed directly at the Hero King's head, with the Hero King's melee ability, it was impossible to avoid that knife, and the Hero King's evasive action at that time, it was not like an evasive action after catching that knife with his eyesight or perception, it was more like he had already preempted that knife in advance.

Thinking of this, Su Xiao said in his heart, it is hard to believe that Golden Flash can use 'that' treasure tool, an EX treasure tool that is at the same level as the Sword of Heaven and Earth's Deviation.

Su Xiao felt that it was unlikely, not to mention the effects of that thing, that thing would be too exaggerated if it appeared in a second-order derived world, and even if it did appear, that thing would be restricted, and would never achieve the effects that he knew of.

After a few days of observation Su Xiao found that the Holy Grail world is not a pirate kind of open world, so this place has little to do with the higher-order Type Moon world, and Reincarnation Paradise is supposed to split the Holy Grail world from the Type Moon world, or else the difficulty of the Holy Grail world will climb dramatically, or even directly become an open world.

Therefore, Su Xiao no longer considered the treasure tool that wouldn't even appear in its complete form in the Second Order World, regarding the Golden Flash, the most troublesome thing was still the 'Sword of Heaven and Earth Behaving Differently', 'Heaven's Lock', and 'King's Treasure ' These three abilities, of which the Sword of Heaven and Earth Deviation seems to be terrifying, but in reality, it is not yet up to the level of second heaven and second earth, what the sword of heaven and earth, bullshit! This Holy Grail War summoned the Holy Grail can not open up the sky and the earth, let alone it summoned the treasure held by the spirit, even if the heaven and earth deviation of the sword once had that kind of ability, but now the heaven and earth deviation of the sword is definitely not that strong.

In the original, the sludge inside the Holy Grail gushed out and only burned down Touki City. Moreover, if Reincarnation Paradise judges this place as a second-order world, then this place is a second-order world, and all the systems of power dare not act out under the restraints of Reincarnation Paradise.

Chapter 740: Confrontation

The Locks of Heaven firmly entwined the Counterattack Shield, and Su Xiao within the Counterattack Shield looked towards the Hero King dozens of meters away, having nearly killed his opponent in seconds just now, but unfortunately it didn't work out.

Although the Hero King was arrogant, after experiencing this, he would never let Su Xiao get close to him easily again.

Tick, tick.

Blood dripped down at the Hero King's broken arm, and a few drops of blood were stained on his face, the warmth disgusted him, and as for the feeling of intense pain in his body, he directly ignored it.

"You, who injured this king."

This time, the Hero King no longer shouted with his mouth full of bastards and mongrels, but changed to a title like 'you', Su Xiao's strength was there, just a dozen or so seconds ago, Su Xiao nearly chopped off the Hero King's head, if he shouted bastards at this time, then being chopped off by the 'bastards' with one of his arms What is he? What is he, a dog mongrel?

Strength is the hard truth, the strong will be respected wherever they are.

The hero king put away the attitude of the enemy, back covered with large golden space ripples, the only remaining left hand holding the heaven and earth deviation of the sword, he is going to move real, if not now out of the full force, then he and brain dead no doubt.

The Hero King has not yet been 'infected' by the sludge of the Holy Grail, so he is not brain-dead, on the contrary, the Hero King is very smart, a person who can govern a country, how can he be stupid?

Su Xiao looked at the Hero King from afar, there was no doubt that this was his biggest enemy in this Derivation World, the Hero King was strong when he got serious.

Although the Heaven's Lock didn't manage to entangle Su Xiao, if he lifted his counter shield, he would definitely be firmly entangled by the Heaven's Lock, and he would be shot into a sieve by the treasure tool at that time.

Su Xiao wasn't sure if he could break free from the Heavenly Lock, but he could cut through it. The Heavenly Lock was the product of the "God of Law", which meant that the higher the divinity, the more impossible it was to break free from the chain.

Normal chopping may not be able to break several Heaven's Locks at the same time, but Su Xiao had mastered the Blade Master for so long that he would of course develop his own moves, and although most of them were not very practical, there were some excellent moves, such as the Ring Break.

In addition to Ring Break, Su Xiao had been developing a move that was in the development stage, but was close to taking shape.

This move wasn't a skill that was upgraded by spending Paradise Coins, but rather Su Xiao had developed it on his own.

Standing within the Counter Shield, Su Xiao sheathed Zhan Long Shan, he held the hilt of the blade in his right hand and the sheath in his left hand, and the Inter Zhan Long Shan was placed across in front of him.

"Fate is determined by heaven, whether I can use this move or not, I can only follow my fate."

Su Xiao breathed a long sigh of relief, he converted 300 mana points into Qing Steel Shadow Energy, these Qing Steel Shadow Energy wrapped the sheathed Zhan Long Shan.

The long sword slowly came out of its sheath, the speed of the sheath was extremely slow, and Su Xiao's breath became sharper and sharper.

Brush Pull.

Fine chopping marks appeared on the ground next to Su Xiao's feet, he had such an effect before he even made the knife, if this knife chopped out, the power could be imagined.

Su Xiao's body was slightly low attached, making a forward charge, and his legs' muscles were tensed.

"This is not good."

Noticing that sharp sensation of Su Xiao, the Conquering King grabbed the Royal Master Weber behind him and rushed to the distance in a few steps, and Saber also gave a wink to Alice Fell, signaling the beautiful young woman to back off with her.

"This kind of aura ..."

The King of Heroes who had already gotten serious was staring at Su Xiao, this time the golden space ripples behind him were filled with high grade treasures, and the Heaven and Earth Perverse Sword in his hand pointed forward.

Just as the two were about to exchange blows again, the Hero King's face suddenly changed.

"An order from a small person like you, deluding me into retreating?"

I don't know what happened, the Hero King was furious, no, it was violent anger, he didn't appear angry when he had one of his arms chopped off by Su Xiao, because that wasn't something that made him angry, but now he was furious.

"Tokiomimi, you don't have small guts."

The Sword of Heaven and Earth Behaving in the Hero King's hand disappeared, and those golden spatial ripples behind him dispersed.

"This is the end of the day."

As he spoke, the Hero King's body gradually faded away, and eventually disappeared into particles of light, it was Farisaka Tokiomimi who used the Order Spell to make him retreat, even though he was chopped off one of his arms, it wasn't really a big problem, Farisaka Tokiomimi was an excellent magician, and recovering a severed limb of this magnitude would be no problem at all.

The Hero King still didn't know that there was a surprise waiting for him, Farisaka Tokiomimi's level of magic was indeed not low, but was it really that easy to recover an arm that had been severed by the Dragon Chopping Flash?

After the Hero King left, the Heaven's Lock wrapped around the Counter Shield disappeared, Su Xiao withdrew the Counter Shield, the Hero King had already left, there was no longer any need for him to use that move, besides it was still unknown if that move could be used, he was only 70% sure.

As for why he chose to use a move that hadn't been developed yet to deal with the Hero King, it was because of the fast speed of that move, even if the enemy was dozens of meters away, Su Xiao could instantly chop the opponent, and that kind of power was powerful, far beyond the power of the Ring Breaker, that was his strongest attack move, there was no one.

As soon as the Hero King left, the atmosphere of swords on the field eased a bit, despite that, the other Yingling still looked at Su Xiao with vigilance.

Su Xiao's previous sword had impressed the crowd, if it was used to assassinate a Royal Lord, there was no possibility for any Royal Lord to survive under Su Xiao's sword.

There were still three Spirits left on the field, the Conqueror King and Saber stood in front of their respective Royal Masters or proxy Royal Masters, these two Spirits belonged to the very upright Spirits, as long as they still had a breath of life left, they would never allow Su Xiao to hurt their Royal Masters.

Su Xiao's gaze swept over the people present, the Conquering King and Saber were not easy to deal with, one of them was good at group combat, and the other one wielded a Holy Sword + A-ranked Intuition.

Half a kilometer away from the high point, Eimiya Kesshi was observing the situation on the field through the scope, his face did not look good, having the King of Heroes as a 'monster' had already given him a headache, and now there was another guy who had nearly killed the King of Heroes instantly, the Ying Spirits of the Holy Grail War this time around were so strong as to leave him speechless.

In fact, Eimiya Keshi was overly concerned, Su Xiao's strength was in melee combat, if he pulled away, he was no match for the Hero King, this point was clear to Su Xiao, he would not be blindly confident.

Because of this, Su Xiao used his full strength as soon as they met, intending to use his speed + melee advantage to solve the Hero King, but unfortunately it didn't work out, the Hero King is not a soft target.

"Everyone present is prepared to join forces against me?"

Su Xiao looked towards Saber and the Conquering King both, now that the Hero King had left, the remaining three Spirits, the best to deal with was Hassan Saber (Hundred Faces), so Su Xiao targeted him.

"This one is?"

The Conquering King didn't guess Su Xiao's rank.

"Berserker (Berserker)."

Saber solved the Conqueror King's confusion.

"Berserker?"

The Conqueror King froze at his words, in his opinion, Berserker would never be so rational, even if he hadn't been attached to the Berserker state, the guy who appeared before with a body full of black smoke was more like Berserker.

"The black one from before?"

"That's Berserker's Royal Master, if I'm not mistaken, Berserker's Royal Master's appearance is due to Berserker."

"What?"

The Conqueror King's gaze changed, he would never turn Imperial Lord Weber into that ghostly appearance, no matter what the reason.

"You guys ..."

The Conquering King was obviously not very happy, and the Conquering King's Royal Master's Weber hid behind the Conquering King, looking at Su Xiao with a scornful gaze.

"Judging before knowing the whole story, this is the Conquering King - Iskandar?"

Su Xiao's words caused the Conquering King to cough lightly.

"That was something that happened for a reason? But to turn the Royal Lord into that ghostly state, hey, forget it, maybe there is something difficult about it, but I can't agree with what you did."

The Conquering King agreed with Su Xiao's words, and he shouldn't judge before understanding the full extent of the matter.

"There is a reason for what happened? Maybe, I don't explain anything with others when I do things, you can also think that I forcibly turned him into a monster."

Su Xiao appeared to be chatting with the Conquering King, in actuality, he had been sensing Hassan Sabah's movements, this guy was an assassin in his life, and was good at hiding, if he didn't solve it this time, this guy didn't know where he would hide, it was very headache-inducing.

Hassan Sabah also found that the situation is not right, has been trying to retreat he did not move, the reason is very simple, he is being watched.

What was even stranger was that 'Berserker' Mamoru Yanyu disappeared when Su Xiao was fighting the Hero King, he didn't know where to go.
