Chapter 741: Tokiomi's heart is bitter

"Berserker, Saber, Assassin."

As the crowd fell silent, the conquering king spoke.

"There's little point in continuing the confrontation like this, even though there will be a battle between us, it's hard to be hasty if we mix it up now."

The Conquering King meant to call it a night.

"Agreed."

Saber agrees with the Conquering King, with her surrogate Royal Master present, it is unlikely that the Royal Master present will survive in the event of a melee.

"No comment."

Assassin ranked Hassan Saber (Hundred Appearances) also agreed with the Conqueror King, his assassination had failed and his breath was locked by the other Ingenious Spirits, retreating at this point would be the best option.

All three Ying Spirits looked towards Su Xiao, the reason being that Su Xiao's aura was the most dangerous.

"It ends here?"

Su Xiao hesitated for a moment, and Zhan Long Shan slowly returned to its sheath, he just put away his sword, but did not make a statement.

"In that case, then we ..."

Before the Conquering King could finish his words, Hassan Sabah's (Momochi's) figure gradually faded away, this was not the Spiritualization ability of the Yingling, but Momochi's A+ level ability: Breath Obliteration.

Breath Blocking (A+): completely hides one's breath. However, the level of Breath Blanking will be drastically reduced when switching to an attacking state.

When Momomo suddenly used Breath Blocking, the Conqueror King and Saber's expressions became serious, and Saber took her surrogate Royal Master and quickly retreated, quickly disappearing inside the abandoned factory.

The Conqueror King was more direct, blue electricity flashed, an ancient chariot materialized, this was the Conqueror King's treasure tool, Divine Might Wheel + Flying Hoof Thunder Bull.

The Conqueror King grabbed his Royal Master with one hand, both of them sat on the chariot, the Conqueror King threw the reins, and the Thunder Bull in front of the chariot lifted its hooves and ran forward.

Rumble.

The sound of the chariot was amazing, two rut marks appeared on the road where it passed, and electric light flashed on the rut marks.

Momochi's sudden concealment of his breath undoubtedly caused the Conqueror King and Saber to be dissatisfied, their royal masters were present, what was the meaning of suddenly concealing his breath, assassinating their royal masters?

Su Xiao was the only one left on the field, would he let all three of them leave? Of course not.

The Apostle's Eye floated in mid-air, as a light gold quality detection type equipment, the Apostle's Eye had already locked Hassan Saber (Hundred Appearances) in place, even if he used Breath Concealment.

Equipment Effect 3: Aerial Guard (Active): The Apostle's Eye floats in mid-air or high in the sky, detecting within a half-kilometer radius, and the Apostle's Eye will issue an early warning if any suspicious creature enters this range.

Tip: Air Guard (Active) consumes 120 mana per use, and the effect lasts for 12 hours.

Tip: Air Guard (active) can detect eighty-two types of stealthy abilities such as Stealth, Perception Shielding, Subterranean Sneaking, and Magic Shielding.

Tip: Air Guard (active) has a cooldown of 24 hours.

Breath Shade This ability seems powerful enough to be A+, but in reality it is not, if Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) is using 'Breath Shade' in advance, it will be a bit difficult for Apostolic Eyes to capture the opponent's traces.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) is in the Apostle's Eye detection period used breath blocking, can escape the Apostle's Eye detection is strange.

Su Xiao connected his spiritual power to the Apostle's Eye, a red shadow appeared three hundred meters away, Su Xiao seemed to have mastered the penetrating eye, in reality this was not the case, this was the enemy's location information that the Apostle's Eye passed back.

For Su Xiao, who had opened his 'Perspective', Bai Maung, the assassin who had become invisible, was going to be in bad luck.

Hassan Sabah (Momochi), who was completely black and wearing a white skull mask, traveled through the night, and the night was his home turf, both in life and after he became a Spirit.

Under normal circumstances, Hassan Sabah (Momochi Maung) should have gone to meet up with his royal master, Yanfeng Eri.

Yimine Eri is the son of Yimine Rizo, who is also known as the old priest.

The old priest had helped Su Xiao, and given Su Xiao's relationship with the old priest, he shouldn't have chosen to deal with Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) first; after all, it was the old priest's son's spirit, and belonged to the old priest's camp.

Is this really the case? No. The old priest's son, Eri Yanfeng, has a character flaw, and according to the original information, Eri Yanfeng is not even in the same camp as his father, the old priest.

Not only that, in the original story, when the old priest was shot, when Eri Yanfeng saw the old priest's body, he didn't have any expression on his face, what's even more ridiculous is that at that time, Eri Yanfeng even regretted a bit, regretted that why the old priest didn't die by his hand, the reason is that the old priest didn't understand him.

Ridiculous? Whether it was ridiculous or not is unknown, but from the character of Eri Yanfeng, it was clear that he and the old priest were only on the same camp on the surface, but not in reality, it was just that the old priest unilaterally regarded Eri Yanfeng as one of his own people, and the most trustworthy of his own people.

Nowadays, the old priest does not know the true nature of his son. In the old priest's heart, Eri Yanfeng's character is upright, and his abilities are excellent, so he is the most ideal successor.

If the old priest could win the Holy Grail, he might not share it with his ally, Tokimune Enosaka, but he would definitely share it with his son, Eri Yanfeng.

The Old Priest's camp is apparently composed of the Old Priest himself (the supervisor of the Holy Grail War), Eri Yanfeng (Assassin's camp), and Tokiomi Enosaka (Archer's camp).

Eri Yanfeng's follower is Hassan Sabah (Momochi). Tokiomi Enosaka's follower is the King of Heroes.

In this way, the old priest's camp is the strongest camp in this Holy Grail War, to the extent that the old priest has already appeared to have an idea that this time the Holy Grail is a sure thing for them, but unfortunately, the old priest's camp is actually two groups.

One group is the Old Priest and Tokiomi Enosaka, there is no Yingling, these two people are not really sincere cooperation, but before the duel, the two people will not stab each other in the back.

As for the second group, it's Yanfeng Eri and the Hero King, the two of them are not yet the relationship between the Royal Master and the slave, but the Hero King feels that Yanfeng Eri is more interesting than Farosaka Tokiomi, and from time to time, he compels Yanfeng Eri to kill Farosaka Tokiomi in his words, some time ago, Yanfeng Eri has already worshipped under the door of Farosaka Tokiomi, and the two of them have become a mentor and disciple relationship. This is the meaning of the old priest, with a master-disciple relationship, the alliance will be more stable.

Far-saka Tokiomi is also a bitter, every day by the 'berserker' Mamoru Yanyu miss not to mention, his disciple Yanfeng Qi Li also appeared to get killed his idea.

The threat from these two people is actually okay, in tonight, Tokiomi used a spell to order the Hero King to retreat, so the Hero King's heart to get Tokiomi killed is even stronger, which really fulfills Mamoru Yanyu's words, it's all Tokiomi's fault.

Su Xiao didn't know whether Far-saka Tokiomi was at fault or not, but he knew that the lying king, Far-saka Tokiomi, was determined to be the king.

With Mamoru Yany night + Yan Feng Qi Li + Hero King in his thoughts, he didn't know how long Tokiomi could survive, in any case, there shouldn't be much time left.

I don't know who will get it first, Su Xiao is more optimistic about Mamoru Yany night, because this big brother is persistent enough, the only three words he will say after berserking is 'Tokiomi, Sakura'.

The corner of Su Xiao's mouth curled up as he tracked the hundred appearances, the Holy Grail War is getting more and more interesting, the Spirits aren't fighting too fiercely, but the Imperial Masters' tearing and beeping war is about to begin.

Chapter 742: Equipment Combination

After tracking for ten minutes, Su Xiao realized that the red silhouette ahead suddenly stopped.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) was standing on the roof of a building, he looked in Su Xiao's direction, although he didn't see Su Xiao, he felt that someone was chasing him.

Black smoke emerged, and dozens of Hundred Looks with the same clothes and masks and different heights and sizes appeared.

This was Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) ability: Delusional Illusion, eighty personalities existed in one body at the same time, when he released these personalities, these personalities were able to obtain independent bodies with independent minds, and could carry out separate tasks.

This ability seems powerful, being able to change from one person to eighty, but the total amount of Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) Yingling energy remains the same, which means that the more individuals he splits off, the weaker these Hundred Appearances become.

At this time, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) split into 20 personalities, and as soon as these 20 people appeared, they immediately rushed in all directions.

"Not a bad strategy, but unfortunately, the number of people is too small, and it slows down too much."

Su Xiao leapt towards a signal tower a dozen meters away, he quickly climbed up the tower and stood at the top of the dozens of meters high tower.

Twenty Hundred Appearances fled in different directions, and in the detection of the Apostle's Eye, these were all entities.

Su Xiao stood high above, the night wind blew his short hair, a sniper rifle nearly two meters long appeared in his hand, it was the Spider Queen.

Habitually exiting the magazine to check, there were ten 17.36mm caliber bullets in the magazine.

Su Xiao inserted the magazine and pulled the bolt to load the gun, while pressing a metal button on the side of the gun.

Drop ~

The Spider Queen switched from single-shot mode to continuous fire mode, single-shot mode is where you need to pull the bolt to load the gun every time you fire a shot, although the rate of fire is slow, it is more stable and accurate.

Continuous fire mode, on the other hand, is to just keep pulling the trigger until the magazine is empty.

Adjusting the Spider Queen's 'Optical Infrared Detector Scope' to eight times, Su Xiao brought her head to the scope, with the assistance of the Apostle's Eye, the twenty Hundred Appearances were a red silhouette, even if there was a building between them and Su Xiao to cover them up, Su Xiao could still see their position.

This effect made Su Xiao quite surprised, Spider Queen + Apostle's Eye had this effect, with the cooperation of these two pieces of equipment, the enemy had nowhere to run.

Su Xiao took a deep breath, his heart rate slowed down, and the wobbling of the crosshair within the scope decreased, eventually becoming completely fixed.

From taking out the Spider Queen to being ready to shoot, Su Xiao took less than three seconds in total.

The cross of the scope was aimed at a Momochi, who was fleeing towards the southwest of Touki City at a fast pace, and Su Xiao was blocking a building + two concrete walls between Su Xiao and the Momochi.

Su Xiao pulled the trigger, a thrust came from his shoulder and the bullet disengaged from the gun.

With a 17.36mm caliber bullet, even if it detached from the casing, the bullet's size was exaggerated, belonging to the giant of bullets.

Moreover, the Spider Queen's bullet was special ammunition, although it was expensive, the bullet flew extremely fast and had a strong penetration ability.

This bullet was rotating in the air at high speed, because the speed was really too fast, the bullet head was starting to glow red, the first target the bullet hit was the outer wall of a building.

The bullet penetrated the outer wall of the building as if it had no pause, and instantly flew out from the other side of the building.

Not only that, the bullet pierced through two concrete walls one after another, shooting straight into the throat of a Bai Maung.

That Bai Maung sensed something coming at him rapidly, and just before his body reacted, the sensation of a blow came from the position of his throat.

Bang!

The sound of a gunshot pierced through the night sky, and before the gunshot was heard, the bullet had already penetrated the throat of a Momochi.

With a popping sound, the head and half of the upper body of that Bai Maung shattered apart, Hassan Sabah (Bai Maung) was not a thick-skinned Spirit, his strength was C grade and durability was D grade.

Moreover, in order to get rid of Su Xiao, Hassan Sabah (Hundred appearances) has already split into 19 personalities, so his strength is C, and his durability is D. Durability is also divided by twenty, so the degree of hot chicken of Hundred appearances after splitting can be imagined.

Because of this, the Spider Queen shot the upper body of a Hundred Appearances, of course, this is also because of the Spider Queen's equipment effect 3 bonus.

Equipment Effect 3: Crusher (Passive), Increases the chance of crushing enemies by 30%.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) made the wrong choice, splitting into twenty people in front of Su Xiao, who had mastered Gun Mastery LV.30.

Moreover, Su Xiao also found the high ground, under the 'Increase Attack Power of Gun Proficiency LV.30 by 42%' bonus of Gun Proficiency LV.30, Su Xiao used the Spider Queen to snipe those Hundred Appearances fleeing in all directions, no different from hitting a target, as long as they hit a fatal location such as the chest, head, neck, and so on, a single shot would shatter one of them.

Bang, bang, bang...

Su Xiao continuously pulled the trigger, after the Spider Empress switched to continuous fire mode, the firepower was guaranteed, as for the accuracy, the Marksmanship Proficiency LV.30 could make up for that.

One Hundred looks were shattered, their broken flesh and blood splattered on the walls, the glass windows, the iron doors, and the stinking gutter.

Ka~

Su Xiao emptied a magazine, a total of nine Persona Doppelgangers were shattered, one Persona Doppelganger had his legs broken, a total of 6 seconds, with the perspective effect created by the Apostle's Eyes + Optical Infrared Detection Goggles, even if there was a building to cover them up, Su Xiao was still able to shoot without a single bullet.

Retreating the empty magazines and inserting the new magazines, Su Xiao was able to shoot accurately to a target of about 1.5 kilometers using the Spider Queen, with his current shooting speed, after the second magazine was empty, the remaining ten Hundred Appearances would escape his range, so he had to make sure that not a single shot was empty.

Although Hassan Sabah (Hundred Looks) was able to split his personality and have it gain a physical body, he must have an original body in place.

First of all, before splitting, all of Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) personalities were concentrated in one body, and after splitting 19 personalities, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) still had 61 personalities left, so where were the 61 personalities? The answer is that they are within the body of Hassan Sabah (The Hundred Appearances).

The body of Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) is mixed in the ten people who are now fleeing, as long as we can kill the body of Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances), the remaining personalities are not enough to worry about.

Bang.

The sound of gunfire continued, every time before the sound of gunfire spread, there was a personality doppelganger that was pulverized, one shot at a time, Su Xiao sniped with exceptional pleasure.

Su Xiao's side is sniping cool, but Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearance) has a large psychological shadow area, UU Look Book www.uukanshu.com because of the split personality doppelganger led to a decline in strength, he has been unable to fight Su Xiao head on.

To be exact, even if he doesn't use his personality doppelganger, he is not Su Xiao's opponent, Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) comprehensive ability is too watery, in a head-on confrontation, Su Xiao hangs the other party, not only Su Xiao can hang Hundred Appearances, the Hero King, Conquest King, and others can do it.

With a shot to the head of a personality doppelganger, the fleeing Hundred Appearances below still had five people left.

At this moment, the five Hundred Appearances appeared to gather, it seemed that Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) also knew that fleeing like this was not a solution, the enemy's attack range was too far.

Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) split personality disappeared, and his attributes were restored. Although the split personality would reduce his strength, after the split personality died, the spirit energy would still return to his body.

After the restoration of his attributes, Hassan Sabah's agility reached A, which was the only attribute he could take out.

Noticing Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) movements, Su Xiao put away the Spider Queen, leapt down from the signal tower, and quickly chased after Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances).

Chapter 743: Bad News

A black figure sped through the streets, and a few seconds later, another figure swept by.

The running Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) was puzzled, puzzled as to how the enemy was able to track him down and chase him out so far. He had clearly used breath masking.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) who was being chased for a few blocks was helpless, he had seen Su Xiao's melee ability, at this time, if he was caught up, he would surely die, compared to a melee battle with Su Xiao, Hundred Appearances would rather go to assassinate the Hero King.

As a Spirit, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) actually didn't even have the ability to fight Su Xiao head on, although it was a bit shameful, but it couldn't be helped.

Su Xiao was a Berserker Rank, and although he was an impostor, it meant that his physical quality was comparable to a Berserker Rank.

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) is an assassin rank, specializing in stealth and assassination, and now that he has been locked by Su Xiao with the Apostle's Eye, it is only natural that he is in such a sorry state.

While running, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) separated into a personality doppelganger, which was very similar to Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances)'s main body.

After the appearance of the personality doppelganger, the two fled separately on the left and the right, and although he was able to mislead Su Xiao, Hassan Sabah's (Hundred Appearances) speed dropped significantly.

Su Xiao, who was in pursuit, immediately realized the situation ahead, the red silhouettes changed from one to two, and their speed suddenly decreased.

This situation is not once or twice, although the speed of Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) is not slow, but in the face of Su Xiao's A+ agility attribute, he can escape so far, completely relying on the personality doppelgänger to send to death.

Su Xiao quickly chased after a Hundred Appearances, and with a distance of about a dozen meters, a light blue blade slashed out.

Clang.

The knife blade chopped towards the spine of that Bai Maung, if this was a personality doppelganger, it would have stopped to block Su Xiao, thus delaying the time.

Unexpectedly, the speed of that Momochi suddenly accelerated, and leapt up to avoid the blade, this is the body, as long as the personality doppelganger is disarmed, the body will appear to suddenly accelerate in speed.

Whoosh~

Su Xiao's figure disappeared, his speed was originally not this fast, but using shave was different.

In just an instant, Su Xiao had already rushed behind Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances).

"Again, this amazing speed ..."

Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances)'s expression under his skeleton mask was somewhat helpless, and at this moment, he couldn't even sense where his enemy was.

Pfft.

Blood splattered, Hundred Appearances only felt a numbness in his thighs, his body began to lean forward, and with a thud, he fell to the ground.

A broken leg rolled out a long way on the road, it was indeed a bit laborious for Chopping Dragon Flash to slice through the body of a third-ranked top-level Maintainer, but if he chopped through an enemy of the same rank, it was just chopping up melons and chopping up vegetables.

"Why don't you run away?"

Su Xiao stopped not far from Momochi, and chopped out a blade as he spoke, poof, Momochi's only remaining leg was chopped off, and he could only lie on the ground.

"You ..."

Bai Maung supported the ground with one hand, intending to get up, without saying anything, Su Xiao chopped off Bai Maung's arm that was supporting the ground.

Bai Maung let out a muffled grunt, the arm supporting the ground was chopped off, the skeleton mask on his face hit the ground, cracks surfaced on the white skeleton mask.

"Kill if you want to kill, this kind of meaningless torture ..."

Pfft.

Momochi's other arm was chopped off by Su Xiao, Momochi was an assassin in his life, so his pain tolerance was very strong.

One is chopping people's arms and legs as if chopping melons and vegetables, one is chopped off arms and legs without changing color, this scene is very cruel, but there is a kind of violent beauty, this is the real battle, showing no mercy to each other.

Behind the glass window on the second floor of a luxurious residential building across the street, a little girl witnessed this scene.

The little girl had a double ponytail and was peeking at the scene through a gap in the curtains, because she was about to go to bed, she was wearing little pants with a tank top, the ferocious scene on the street obviously scared the little girl, tears were already in her eyes, and both of her slim little legs were trembling more than a little.

The little girl's mother quietly came into the room, this is a beautiful young woman, she also saw the scene on the street on the first floor, so she rushed upstairs to look for her daughter, to prevent her daughter from accidents.

The beautiful young woman held her mouth and eyes from behind the little girl, the little girl collapsed in fear, her young body began to struggle, tears gushing out uncontrollably.

"Oo~"

The beautiful young woman hurriedly whispered in her daughter's ear, "Rin, don't make a sound, ever."

The beautiful young woman's voice was trembling, she was also afraid, afraid of the murderer dozens of meters away who would chop off people's hands and feet at the drop of a hat, but for the sake of her daughter, she could only be strong, and upon hearing her mother's voice, the little girl who had her eyes covered no longer struggled.

The Bai Maung who has become a human stick is lying on the road, Su Xiao is not intentionally torturing the other party, he is going to devour the other party's Yingling energy, before devouring it, and he needs the other party to lose the ability to resist before he can do so.

Picking up Momochi with one hand, the blue smoke gradually wrapped Momochi.

"So...it's because of this, Devouring ..."

Before Momochi Maung could finish his last words, the blue smoke from the Devouring Core had already completely wrapped him in, and after ten seconds or so, a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[You have killed Hassan Sabah (Momom 貌)]

[Hassan Sabah (Momochi Maung) is one of the seven Spirits participating in this Holy Grail War, and has gained 7.3% of the Source of the World, and now has gained a total of 77.5% of the Source of the World.]]

[Your talent 'Spirit Eater' activates, permanently increasing your mana by 26 points, and your current mana is 2,274 points.]]

[You have gained the Spirit Box - Dark Purple (Spirit Box: You can randomly draw any one of this Spirit's skills or treasures).]]

Under the decomposition of the Devouring Core, Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances) disappeared and was transformed into Ying Spirit Energy, and the golden Ying Spirit Energy didn't enter Su Xiao's palm, using his arm as a channel to enter the Devouring Core near his heart.

The precisely constructed Devouring Nucleus operated and began to purify, cleanse, and ultimately transform this Spirit Energy into a colorless energy.

When the first strand of colorless energy drifted out from within the Devouring Core, the Green Steel Shadow energy within Su Xiao's body instantly swarmed up and absorbed that colorless energy.

After a few minutes, Su Xiao's eyes opened and the Yingling energy had been completely transformed and absorbed.

[Castle Steel Shadow has been upgraded to LV.29.]

Devouring Momochi didn't raise the Cyan Steel Shadow's ability to LV.30, but it was getting close, devouring a Yingling would raise the Cyan Steel Shadow's skill by roughly 1.5 levels.

The various values of the Aoi Steel Shadow ability have increased slightly, and the amount of mana consumed has increased a bit, though the amount of enemy mana burned has also increased, and the amount of true damage dealt has increased as well.

Just as Su Xiao was about to close the skill list, he suddenly realized that the Green Shadow King's Awakening had increased from 2% to 3%.

Although the increase was not large, it was a good sign, after all, he had no clue regarding the Green Shadow King's awakening.

Su Xiao guessed that a great move ability like the Green Shadow King, once awakened it would stand on its own and become an independent skill rather than one of the subsidiary abilities of the Green Steel Shadow, and the reason why it was now in the Green Steel Shadow's branch of skills was most likely due to the fact that the Green Steel Shadow ability was a prerequisite for mastering the Green Shadow King.

Picking up that dark purple quality Spirit Box from the ground, how this thing looks like a small drawer, just beautifully crafted.

After Su Xiao resolved Hassan Sabah (Hundred Appearances), there were four surviving Spirits left, of course, this did not include Su Xiao himself.

The Berserker ranked Spirit Lancelot had been hacked to death by Su Xiao long ago, which meant that there were already three Spirits' souls in the Holy Grail.

When there were around five Yingling souls within the Holy Grail, the Holy Grail would initially appear in the world, and at that time, it would be Su Xiao's chance to complete the main quest, and he only needed to touch the Holy Grail, and he didn't need to get that at all.

Finding heroes is not an easy task, there are not many such opportunities today, what makes Su Xiao's headache is that among the remaining four Ying Spirits, two of the Ying Spirits' Royal Masters are old yin bleeps, such as Eimiya Kirusu and Ensaka Tokiomi, which are people who are unlikely to show up in the open.

Mentioning Ensaka Tokihen, Su Xiao suddenly remembered, where did that Mamoru Yanyuu guy go? Did she go to whack Tokiomi? It shouldn't be, Tokiomi had been hiding in the shadows, with Mamoru Yanyu's IQ nowadays, and it was unlikely that he would find the other party.

When Su Xiao was puzzled, the cell phone he was carrying rang, there was only one person who knew this number, so he directly picked up the phone.

"Father, I'm a little busy right now ..."

"What I can...hold on to...time, not much, come...teach ..."

There was a snap and dead silence on the other end of the phone.

"Father? Father?"

No one answered, Su Xiao lowered his eyes, the priest was most likely in trouble, the other party had gifted him a weapon, and that weapon had saved Su Xiao's life at a critical moment.

The priest's last words were 'come...teach ...', this was most likely asking Su Xiao to go to the church.

Chapter 744: Honor of the Spirit

A blue sports car sped through the streets of Touki City, though it was late at night, the car was grossly overspeeding.

Su Xiao was sitting in the driver's seat of the sports car, with Mamoru Sakura in the passenger seat, and as for Boo Boo Woof, he was in charge of searching for Mamoru Yanyu.

Su Xiao pressed the gas pedal to the bottom, the speedometer directly burst, can be said to be speeding.

Zee~

The sports car drifted through the corner, Su Xiao was calm, but the passenger seat Mamoru Sakura's body was pressed against the car door, and her small face was white.

The tires rubbed against the asphalt, and a burning smell filled the road.

With a creak, the sports car stopped sharply, parked in front of the door of the church in the city center, Su Xiao picked up the co-pilot Mamoru Sakura and got out of the car, at this time Mamoru Sakura was already "God traveled to the heavens".

Su Xiao carried Mamoru Sakura in his left hand, and held Chopper Flash in his right hand, and slowly walked towards the church.

The church's door was half open, the night wind blew, a few newspapers flew up, the night of Touki City showed some depression.

At this time, the church looked like it had been blown by a tornado, the original neat pews were scattered messily all over the church, and the ground was full of wood shavings.

From the magic power in the air of the church that has not yet dissipated, it can be seen that the battle happened here not long ago, it seems that the fight was incentivized, but in fact those destructions were somewhat deliberate, as if someone wanted to cover up the situation at the scene.

Su Xiao walked into the church inside, the thick smell of blood rushed straight to the nostrils, looking in the direction of the smell of blood, there is a half of the body lying on the ground, which is two legs + half of the abdomen, from the attire, this should be the old priest's lower itself.

On the carpet there is a bloodstain one person wide, the bloodstain also scattered this intestines, the old priest may be not dead after being cut off at the waist, dragging half of the body to crawl out a long way.

Looking along the bloodstain, Su Xiao found the upper half of the old priest's body in the inner room of the church.

The old priest was lying on his back on the ground, his eyes were closed tightly, in his hand he was grasping a glass bottle which contained some white powder, there was also white powder at the corner of the old priest's mouth, he should have eaten this.

Just when Su Xiao thought that the old priest was dead, the old god's eyes slowly opened, much like a swindle.

"You...came."

The old priest's voice was weak, his pupils were dark, Su Xiao squatted down and pressed his hand on the old priest's chest, there was no heartbeat.

"Who are you?"

Su Xiao's tone was unkind, it was obvious that the old priest was already dead, with the waist decapitation coupled with that kind of bleeding, the probability of survival was close to zero .

"It's me, there's no need to doubt, I used this, it allowed me to hold on until you came, I have something I want to say to you."

The old priest raised his hand and handed Su Xiao that glass bottle in his hand.

[Deadly Apprentice Bone Powder

Score: 213

Introduction: A powerful 'life-renewal' prop, provided that you can return to Reincarnation Paradise within half an hour, otherwise you will only be greeted with death!

Redemption Price: 360 points of Holy Church Merits

For a solo traveler like him, this item did not mean much, but adventuring groups liked to buy this item, if an adventuring group had a member who was on the verge of death while performing the final mission, they could use this item to keep the member's consciousness from dissipating for a while, and as long as they got the qualification to return in half an hour, it would be equivalent to getting a life back.

"The bone powder is about to expire, you came just in time, White Night."

The old priest had learned the name White Night through Su Xiao when he signed the 'self-compulsory certificate'.

"Father, who did this?"

Although Su Xiao had already thought of a few suspicious objects, he still needed the old priest to confirm it himself.

"It's nothing, just a 'demon'."

The old priest inclined his head, no other emotions could be seen in his eyes other than sadness, and there is nothing sadder than a dead heart.

"White Night, you're a Yingling, right, although you give me the feeling of a modern man."

"I am."

"I told you, how could a magician kill Hughes and blow up Willow Cave Temple."

White lines appeared on the old priest's skin, and his body began to appear pulverized.

"All the other spirits have appeared, so then you're Berserker? Unbelievable, I can't believe I've been working with Berserker for so long."

The old priest raised his arm.

"Pull back my sleeve, I have a gift for you."

Su Xiao pulled open the old priest's sleeve, and the old priest's stout arm was revealed, this arm originally had many token spells on it, which were the unused token spells from the previous Holy Grail wars, which were collected by the Church of the Holy Church and existed in the old priest's this.

But now, the old priest's arm was empty, those token spells were taken away.

"Kenneth did this? No, he has already lost his Ying Ling and should have withdrawn from the Holy Grail War. "

Su Xiao was a little puzzled as to who killed the old priest and took away the token spell on the old priest's arm. Could it be the old priest's son, Eri Yanfeng? It shouldn't be, the Holy Grail War had just started not long ago, the other party shouldn't have yet awakened that kind of character that takes pleasure in seeing other people's misfortune.

However, Eri Yanfeng was not without suspicion, when Su Xiao fought with Momochi earlier, Eri Yanfeng could have used the Order Spell to force Momochi to summon him away, thus breaking away from Su Xiao's pursuit.

What was Yan Feng Qi Li doing at that time? Had he been so busy that he didn't even have the time to use a command spell to summon away the Spirit? Or maybe he didn't care about the death of his follower Momomou at all, to the point of wishing for Momomou's death so that the others wouldn't care about him and he would successfully hide in the shadows.

"Was it all taken away? ..."

The old priest sighed.

"Pity, would have liked to give a few to your royal master, thus increasing your advantage, the token spells aren't as simple as controlling the spirits, when used correctly, they are weapons as well."

The old priest looked towards Mamoru Sakura, he mistook Mamoru Sakura to be Su Xiao's imperial lord, he had seen this little girl before, she was originally the daughter of the Tonosaka family, and was later over-sent to the Mamoru family, with the ability of that old bug in the Mamoru family, it wouldn't be hard for this little girl to become an imperial lord.

"Doesn't matter, besides this thing can't control my actions, Father, need revenge."

"No, it doesn't matter anymore, what Holy Grail War, it was the wrong thing to do in the first place, it came from the greed of the magicians, the magicians summoned those heroes and made them fight each other, it's just ridiculous, insulting those deceased heroes with their humanity and letting them have no rest, sooner or later, they'll get their retribution."

What the old priest said actually made sense, the magician summoned out the heroic spirits and made them fight each other like tools, letting those already deceased heroic spirits experience the taste of unwillingness and defeat.

"White Night, promise me, don't let those greedy magicians have their way, let them get what they deserve, you were right before, I shouldn't have pursued the Holy Grail."

The old priest was laughing, a hideous and terrifying laugh.

"Yes, Father."

As soon as Su Xiao's words fell, the old priest's body began to pulverize, and 30 minutes had come and gone.

"Finally, I'm actually starting to not understand you, my ..."

The upper half of the old priest's body floated away in the air, and his last words were most likely not to Su Xiao, but to someone.

The old priest's body had just dissipated when a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise suddenly appeared.

[Hint: The Hunter has triggered the hidden quest: the glory of the Yingling, yes/no acceptance.]

Su Xiao's brows furrowed, the death of the old priest actually triggered the hidden quest, hesitating for a moment, he chose to accept the hidden quest.

[In check ...]

[The hidden quest conflicts with the main quest.]]

[The hidden quest rank is higher than the main quest in the rank settlement.]

[Checking the current mainline quest completion, the hunter has killed three spirits, personal mainline quest contribution exceeds 90%, mainline quest judged complete.]]

[Reminder: Mainline mission - Cup of Heaven has been completed.]

[You have gained 6 attribute points.]

[You gain 5,000 Paradise Points.]

[Hint: Checked that the hidden quest is not completed.]

[Hidden Quest: The Glory of the Spirits]

Difficulty Level: Lv.20

Quest Description: Destroy all the Imperial Masters holding a token spell, or kill all the Imperial Masters until the number of token spells reaches zero, current number of Imperial Masters alive: 6, number of remaining token spells 41.

Mission Information: Dust to dust, earth to earth, wherever you come from, wherever you go.

Mission duration: 45 hours

Mission Reward: +1 to any skill level that can be specified (ignoring the cap).

Quest Punishment: One hour of detention in the Black Abyss Cage.

Quest Temporary Skill: Mass Detection (Active), when used, it can randomly detect the location of a royal master, the effect lasts for 10 minutes, this function can be used twice.

Chapter 745: Kariya and Tokiomi

Seeing this hidden quest, Su Xiao's heartbeat not only accelerated, the hidden quest reward of '+1 to any skill level that can be specified (ignoring the cap)' was not used to enhance the Aoi Steel Shadow or the Blade Master, but was used to enhance those abilities that were already at full level.

For example, the four abilities of Absolute Demon Physique, Supreme Blade, Spirit Shadow Physique, and Devouring Core, these abilities were LV.MAX when they were first mastered, and there was no possibility of upgrading them with Paradise Coins or Soul Crystals.

The rewards of the hidden quest gave these skills the possibility to break through the upper limit, so it was no wonder Su Xiao was moved.

Any one of these four skills with an ability that broke through the upper limit would cause Su Xiao's strength to increase significantly.

It was still too early to think about this, the difficulty of the hidden quest was not low, and the time was tight, only 45 hours.

Moreover, the punishment for this mission was very strange, the Black Abyss Cage detention for one hour, I don't know what it means.

According to normal circumstances, the reward for such a generous mission, the punishment is usually forced execution, that is, death, and 'Black Abyss Cage Detention for one hour' can actually be the same as the horror of death.

He didn't want to try what 'Black Abyss Cage Detention for One Hour' felt like, so he had to act quickly.

Su Xiao took out an incendiary bomb from the storage space, although the old priest's treasure trove was tempting, it was a Derivative World camp store certified by Reincarnation Paradise, without the old priest personally opening it, trying to enter there was simply impossible, the main reason why the old priest didn't take out those things before his death was because they belonged to the Holy Church, taking them privately to Su Xiao would make Su Xiao in constant trouble.

Su Xiao had just walked out of the church when a rumble sounded, flames gushed out from the church's doors and windows, and the entire church began to blaze.

"Farewell, Father."

Su Xiao got into the sports car on the street, and he was just about to start the engine when a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[Alert: Your Royal Master, Mamoru Yanyu, has been killed in battle, if you do not find a new Royal Master, you will be forced to return to Reincarnation Paradise after two natural days,]

"Hmm? Mamoru Yanyu is dead?"

Su Xiao contacted Boo Boo Woof, and the text message that Boo Boo Woof sent back was that Mamoru Yanyu died at the hands of the Hero King.

"Sure enough, that guy went looking for Tokiomi."

Starting the engine, Su Xiao drove the sports car and winded through the streets, now that the main quest had been completed, he didn't even need to look for a magician to act as the Royal Master.

His stay in the Holy Grail World still had 45 hours left, and the mandatory return time was 2 natural days, or 48 hours, so it no longer mattered whether there was a substitute or not.

Ten minutes later, Su Xiao drove to the southwest of Touki City, and as soon as he got out of the car, Boo Boo Woof ran out from the alley between the homes.

Boo Boo Woof raised his head and ran towards a residential area with Su Xiao.

When Su Xiao arrived at his destination, he found that it was a small manor, and a large hole had been knocked out of the manor's fence.

Entering the manor through the broken hole in the fence, at a great distance, Su Xiao found Mamoru Yanyu's head.

Mamoru Yanyu's head had been chopped off and casually thrown next to a fountain pool, while Mamoru Yanyu's headless body was lying on its back within the pool.

Su Xiao grabbed Mamoru Yanyu's headless body, the weight in his hand was a bit wrong.

With a clattering sound, Su Xiao yanked Mamoru Yanyu's headless body out of the pool, while Mamoru Yanyu's hand was holding the other body's throat.

The corpse that Mamoru Yanyu was strangling had a miserable death, with round eyes and a wide-open mouth.

It was no wonder that this corpse had such an expression, at this time Mamoru Yanyu's other hand was clutching that corpse's crotch, with Mamoru Yanyu's strength, that corpse should have experienced the sensation of broken eggs before it died.

This corpse is not someone else, Mamoru Yanyu crushed the other party's egg, such a big grudge, the deceased is of course Far-saka Tokiomi.

Su Xiao examined some of the body of Farisaka Tokiomi, and found that the fatal wound of the other party was not in the throat and lower body, but was stabbed behind the back, and his heart was pierced.

The information of the hidden quest had long since changed, the current number of imperial masters surviving: 4, the number of remaining token spells 36.

As long as Su Xiao resolved these four imperial masters or made them consume all the token spells, the hidden mission would be completed.

Of course, it was difficult to find these 4 Imperial Masters within 45 hours, although there was a temporary skill: Mass Detection (twice), but it took some planning.

Without these two chances to detect the location of the Imperial Masters, Su Xiao's attempt to find the remaining 4 Imperial Masters within 45 hours was like looking for a needle in a haystack, the LV.20 difficulty was not for show.

These 4 Imperial Masters were: Ebisuya Kirius, Eri Yanfeng, Weber Velvet, and Ryunosuke Amagi.

The first two were not so easy to find, while the latter two were not so difficult, Su Xiao was prepared to find the latter two first, and after that, utilize the two tracking opportunities to track down Ebisu Kiritsugu and Eri Yanfeng.

"Bubu, is there any unusual smell in Touki City? For example, a very strong smell of blood, or a somewhat peculiar smell of the sea?"

Bubuwoong inclined his head in contemplation.

"Woof."

"It smells like the sea? A very specific kind?"

"Woof."

"Track that flavor."

Su Xiao rode on Bubu Woof's back, and Bubu Woof was just about to move forward but suddenly stopped as it looked towards Mamoru Sakura.

"Are you guys...going to leave me behind."

Mamoru Sakura's chest rose and fell violently, and her two small hands clenched.

"No, sending you somewhere."

Su Xiao picked up Mamoru Sakura and placed her in front of him as Boo Boo Woof drew her legs.

"Where to?"

Mamoru Sakura's body shrank into a ball, and Su Xiao didn't say anything.

Boo Boo Woof traveled through the city, and after ten minutes, it stopped in front of a residential house, Su Xiao walked towards it, and Mamoru Sakura followed Su Xiao step by step.

Su Xiao had been here before, and sensed a special aura within the mansion, it should be a young magician, even if it wasn't a magician, there were many magic circuits within the other person's body, there were very few people like that within the city of Touki, there were very few people like that.

Knock, knock, knock...

Gentle footsteps first appeared behind the door of the room, after which a female voice came out.

"Who?"

Hearing that voice, Mamoru Sakura's pupils tightened and tears gushed out uncontrollably.

"There are letters and items for you."

"Letters, at this late hour ..."

"The sender of the letter is ... Let's see ... it's Tokiomi Ensaka."

"Like this."

The door of the room embedded a crack, from within the doorway a beautiful young woman could be seen, when the beautiful young woman opened the door, Su Xiao threw down the cardboard box in her hand, and the four eyes faced each other.

"Ah!"

High decibel screams spread, the beautiful young woman inside the door subconsciously closed the door, a strong hand grabbed the edge of the door, easily pulling the door, the beautiful young woman inside the door staggered a few steps and was ripped out of the room.

"Rin! Escape! "

The beautiful young woman recklessly pounced forward, hugging Su Xiao to death and letting out a hoarse shout which scared a little girl in the room silly.

It was not known where this beautiful young woman got the courage to actually dare to 'close combat' with Su Xiao, this might be a mother's responsibility.

Just as the beautiful young woman was about to open her mouth and bite Su Xiao's shoulder, her afterglow suddenly saw a person, which made her movements stop.

Under the dim streetlight on the street, there was a little purple girl standing.

"Sakura ..."

The beautiful young woman hung on Su Xiao, staring blankly at Mamoru Sakura, who was not far away.

Mamoru Sakura was breathing very hard, her mouth opened and closed, failing to make any sound.

Su Xiao pulled the beautiful young woman off his body, although the other party was wearing pajamas, soft and mature body to him big benefits, but the other party's two daughters are present, he cannot perform an adult science education movie.

The name of the beautiful young woman is called Ensaka Aoi, 'Ensaka' is the last name she changed after she got married, so her identity is self-evident, the wife of Ensaka Tokimune, Mamoru Yanyu's own childhood friend, Mamoru Sakura's mother.

"Your daughter, take care of yourself, I'm busy."

As soon as Su Xiao's words fell, Ensaka Aoi quickly ran towards Mamoru Sakura and firmly embraced Mamoru Sakura in her arms, at the time when Ensaka Tokimune passed Sakura over, she actually wanted to oppose it, but that was her husband's decision, and in the Ensaka family, Ensaka Tokimune's decision was everyone's decision.

Su Xiao rolled over and rode on Bu Bu Wang's back, and Bu Bu Wang carried Su Xiao into the distance.

Chapter 746: Pleasure seeker

"This gentleman ..."

Far-saka Aoi wanted to say something, but just an hour ago, she had witnessed Su Xiao chopping off another person's limbs, with a ferocity of means that she had never seen in her life, and now, Su Xiao had sent her daughter to the door, which made her not know what emotions to express for a moment.

Mamoru Sakura looked at Su Xiao's far away back, for some reason, she suddenly recalled the scene where Su Xiao picked her up from the bug pool.

"Thanks."

Mamoru Sakura's voice was so small, so small that Even Ensaka Aoi, who held her in her arms, did not hear it.

In fact, even if Su Xiao heard it, he wouldn't care, the reason why he sent Mamoru Sakura to the Ensaka family was simply because Mamoru Sakura was obedient enough to follow him without crying or fussing, eating when given food, never picking at her food, and starving when not given food.

Su Xiao kill the enemy when indeed ruthless and merciless, but he is not a murderous demon, not the enemy, if the killing of people for no reason does not make any sense, that will even lose their minds, become a killing machine.

Su Xiao is not a killing machine, on the contrary, his will is very firm, will not be killed to compel the mind, he kills people will not use the crown reason, since the choice of hostile, then life and death, the enemy is strong enough, can also kill him, so simple.

"Bubu, in which area is the smell of the sea most obvious?"

"Woof."

Boo Boo Woof led Su Xiao to the area where the smell of the sea was most obvious.

The man covered his forehead with one hand, his face filled with a smile so pleasurable that it was morbid; he seemed to have gone through some sort of attribute, and the evil beast in his heart was completely awakened.

Golden points of light flickered in the dimly lit study, and the Hero King, dressed in casual clothes, appeared, his broken arm not recovered.

"What, still reveling in the pleasure?"

The King of Heroes let out a light laugh, he was now no longer a follower of Tokiomi Ensaka, but a follower of this young man, even though this guy had first committed patricide. After that, he killed his teacher, but the King of Heroes felt that this guy was more interesting than Ensaka Tokiomi.

"I actually have this kind of hobby, hahaha, it's so evil, it's almost animal, such a me, I'm actually the seed of Yanfeng Rizheng (old priest)? Hahaha."

The young man, that is, Yanfeng Eri, threw back his head and laughed, and as he laughed, there was a faint pink light flickering in his eyes.

"Eri, that woman's power is still there, are you sure about leaving that kind of energy in your body?"

The King of Heroes was laughing as well, he didn't really fancy the Holy Grail too much, and he just didn't want to be bored.

"Why get rid of that energy? It's what made me see myself, I've never done anything according to my own will before, and the first thing I did according to my self-will was actually kill my father? Maybe I was born a brute with no evil in me."

The pink glow in Eri Yanfeng's eyes faded, and if Su Xiao had been there, she would have recognized the energy; it was Butterfly's Nen ability.

It seems that Butterfly was very dishonest, while chasing and killing the other contractors before, she was also ready to make some extra money when she left the Holy Grail, she left a seed in Eri Yanfeng's body, as long as this seed activated, she would be able to control Eri Yanfeng.

Butterfly never thought that she would die under Su Xiao's sword before she could activate the energy seed inside of Eri Yanfeng, with Butterfly's death, the seed inside of Eri Yanfeng ruptured, it was a charm ability.

The rupture of this seed led to the awakening of the evil beast in Eri Yanfeng's heart, he no longer lived by the will of others but did as he wished, so he went to the old priest and had a long talk with him.

The expression on the old priest's face at that time could only be described as shocked, as he suddenly realized that he didn't know this biological son, who was already 27 years old, at all.

As a result, the old priest died, and before the old priest was pulverized, he said this: 'Finally, I'm actually starting to not understand you, my ...'

What the old priest didn't say out loud was, my biological son.

Eri Yanfeng, who had completed his patricide 'achievement', was pleasurable, so he looked to his next target, Tokiomi Ensaka.

With the help of the King of Heroes, Eri Yanfeng stabbed Farisaka Tokiomi in the back, successfully completing the patricide 'achievement', and having a 'double achievement', Eri Yanfeng was very pleasurable.

And at that moment, Mamoru Yanyu arrived tracking the scent of the Hero King, this one is not going to look for Farisaka Tokiomi, but is tracking the scent of the Hero King, the Hero King was initially prepared to take care of him in passing, but after meeting with Yanfeng Eri, the Hero King changed his mind.

When Mamoru Yanyu saw Tokiomi's corpse, he directly pounced on him, and the result was what Su Xiao saw, Mamoru Yanyu was decapitated, and his body was thrown inside the fountain pool, creating the illusion that Mamoru Yanyu and Ensaka Tokiomi died together.

"Do what you want, but ..."

The King of Heroes spoke.

"Find out where Berserker is, he must die by my hand."

"Can."

Eri Yanfeng got up.

"Eri, you have pleased the king, but don't be the next Tokiomi."

The Hero King's eyes narrowed, and Eri Yanfeng took a step.

"King of Heroes, I still have a lot of confusion, but like you said, it's impossible for someone like me to stop."

Eri Yanfeng pulled up his sleeve, his arm was densely filled with the Order spell. It was taken from the old priest.

"Hahaha, Eri, you're such a ... guy."

The King of Heroes laughed and shook his head, although Yanfeng Eri wasn't as groveling as Ensaka Tokiomi, he was more optimistic about the other party because this guy was a lot more interesting than Ensaka Tokiomi, and wasn't full of thoughts about the Holy Grail.

"Without anything else, I'm going to look for Berserker's trail."

"Don't take it lightly, with your abilities, once he finds you, that's when you die."

The Hero King had one of his arms cut off by Su Xiao, so he was going to fight Su Xiao again.

Tick, tick.

Sewage fell low beside Su Xiao's feet, and he was inside the stench of the sewers of Touki City.

"Bubu, are you sure this is it?"

Su Xiao's brows tightened, although he didn't care about the dirty sewage around him, the smell within the sewers was a bit too pungent.

Boo Boo Woof snorted, it was smoked and rolled its eyes, Boo Boo who had a keen sense of smell was like being in a 'stinky purgatory', the Su Xiao took out his gas mask, the stench in the sewer was beyond the limit of what ordinary humans could tolerate, this was by no means a normal phenomenon.

One person and one dog put on the gas mask and headed deeper into the sewer.

As he gradually went deeper into the sewers of Touki City, Su Xiao discovered that the walls of the sewers were stained with the body fluids of some kind of creatures, and the body fluids had a faint fluctuation of Yingling energy, and there was a strong smell of the sea, which Su Xiao could smell even with the gas mask on.

"It can't be wrong. Those two oddballs should be nearby."

Su Xiao was looking for the Caster camp's Imperial Master, this guy's name was Ryunosuke Yuusei, a teenager who liked to experience what death was like when he killed other people, and because of this, and he unintentionally summoned the Caster rank's Ying Spirit.

Even though Ryunosuke Amagi is the Imperial Master, he doesn't know anything about the Holy Grail War and basically didn't participate in it.

Su Xiao traced the trail of bodily fluids left behind by the unknown creatures, and he quickly found a dead end within the sewers, which was scattered with several fragmented corpses, a scene of broken bodies.

"Has it left already?"

Su Xiao took off his gas mask and looked around the corpses, since Ryunosuke Yu Sheng came here and shredded the corpses here, it wasn't hard to find something with the other party's scent, after searching for a while, he saw a purple jacket stained with a large amount of blood in the corner, from the location of the jacket where it was splattered with blood, it must not have been left behind by those few dead on the ground.

Slaughter short knife appeared in his hand, Su Xiao cut off a piece of fabric from that purple jacket, turned around and returned the same way.

Ryunosuke Amagi was not very vigilant, and as for his follower, Giles de Lys, he was not very reliable either.

Su Xiao jumped out of the sewer exit and brought the piece of purple fabric up to Boo Boo Woof's nose in front of its disgusted expression.

Boo Boo Woof forced the feeling of vomiting and sniffed.

"Trace the odor on the clothes."

"Vom~"

Boo Boo Woof dry-heaved and tears welled up in her eyes, and seeing this scene, the corner of Su Xiao's mouth twitched.

Boo Boo Woof with tears in his eyes began to track the odor on that piece of fabric, it also knew that time was running out, it was not the time to dislike the stench, and the one person and one dog began to circle within Touki City.

After searching for two hours, Boo Boo Woof brought Su Xiao to a somewhat remote area of Winterwood City, stopping in front of a small wooden house on the street, which should be a small warehouse.

Brush pull~

There was a sound coming out from inside the cabin, and it sounded like he was cutting meat.

Su Xiao closed his eyes to perceive the situation around him, there was no Yingling in the vicinity, and there was only a weak Yingling energy inside the cabin that energy was so weak that it could be ignored.

Su Xiao violently pushed open the door of the cabin, in the cabin, a teenager with a scalpel in his hand was 'dissecting' a little girl, the little girl's hands and feet were tied to an iron bed, and she was already dead.

The teenager was startled by the sound of the door breaking, but he quickly calmed down, the scalpel flipped in his hand, cold light flashing.

"Ahhhh, caught in the act."

The teenager was none other than Ryunosuke Amagi.

"Now that you've found me out, you'll be my next toy, though I prefer to dissect small children."

Yu Sheng Ryunosuke revealed an evil smile, looking Su Xiao up and down, that gaze seemed to be searching for where it was suitable to move the knife, and he didn't know where this bastard got his confidence.

A white snake quickly crawled towards Amio Ryunosuke, it was a snake molded by alchemy bomb.

The white color popped up from the ground, the triangular snake head rushed into the mouth of Yu Sheng Ryunosuke, it is not true that Yu Sheng Ryunosuke is an imperial lord, but he is just an ordinary person, to kill this guy, Su Xiao didn't even bother to use a sword.

"Woo!"

Yu Sheng Ryunosuke planted himself on the ground with a face full of pain, he clutched his throat with both hands, his body was twitching like a landed fish, the white snake molded by the alchemy bomb completely burrowed into his mouth, it was a very painful experience.

Su Xiao turned around and left, an unguarded Imperial Master like Amagi Ryunosuke was the best to deal with, not to mention that his follower wasn't nearby, even if he was, Su Xiao would be able to take care of the other party.

Now that time was short, the truly tricky enemy was still behind, he did not have the time to delay on a stray fish like Yu Sheng Ryunosuke.

Boom!

The small wooden hut on the street was blown to pieces, wood shavings flew, flames shot to the sky, and a scalpel was blown away, ending up slanted on the ground.

Yusei Ryunosuke was pulverized, Su Xiao did not receive any reward, as a Yingling Imperial Master, Yusei Ryunosuke was too weak.

Su Xiao scanned the situation of the hidden quest, current number of imperial masters surviving: 3, number of token spells remaining: 33.

Su Xiao could have used Rainborn Ryunosuke to lure out the Ying Spirit, Giles de Les, but the mission was running out of time and he had to find out the hiding spots of the other Imperial Masters as soon as possible.

Taking out the tablet from within the storage space, don't underestimate Su Xiao's tablet used for playing games, this thing belongs to a high-tech product, using it to hack into the Holy Grail world's network can be called a fool's errand of difficulty.

Su Xiao flipped through the information on the tablet, the second imperial lord he was looking for was named Weber Velvet, the imperial lord of the Conquering King.

According to the original information, Weber Velvet used magic to hypnotize an old couple and boarded in that old couple's home as that old couple's grandson.

According to the information in Su Xiao's memory, that old couple was living in the remote countryside, aged around 70 to 80 years old, and their residence must not be far from Touki City, or else it would have an impact on participating in the Holy Grail War.

This made the clues even more obvious, and the trouble was that the Conquering King and his Royal Master, Weber Velvet, hardly moved an inch.

"Found it, a small village near Touki City?"

For Su Xiao, who knew the original story, it was a bit difficult to defeat all the spirits, but it wasn't too hard to find the location of some of the royal masters by using the clues, of course, old cunty beeps like Eboshi Kiritsugu were not included.

As long as they found Weber Velvet, then the two remaining Imperial Masters could be tracked down with temporary skills, and the probability of being able to complete the hidden quest would be drastically increased.

Chapter 747: Conference

The breeze ruffled the willows, a few sparrows chirped in the branches, and the early morning sunlight awakened a rural village near the city of Winterwood.

A few high school girls wearing Japanese school uniforms walked on the concrete road by the field, they were talking and laughing, mainly talking about trivial or interesting things in their lives, a few female students let out light laughter from time to time, showing their youthfulness.

"Ha~ I'm sleepy."

A teenager wearing a suit snorted as he walked on the road, the teenager's black hair was shoulder length, his eyes were red and had slightly dark circles, he should have not slept all night last night.

The black-haired teenager's name was Webber Velvet, a magician and the royal master of the conquering king.

Several female students walked past Weber, Weber not only looked sideways, although he was a magician, but he was only a 19 year old young man, not to mention that because of his long time studying magic, he seldom came into contact with strange females.

"Kid, peeking is not what a man does, if you like it, then boldly say it."

Conquering King's big hand slapped on Weber's shoulder, Weber's small plastic physique, how could he withstand such a vigorous slap, his face jerked, and his brain, which was already a bit muddled, immediately came to its senses.

"It's going to fall apart."

Weber opened his mouth breathlessly, just at this moment, the conquering king suddenly shouted, "A few people over there, this kid ..."

"Hey hey hey."

Weber hurriedly pulled the Conquering King, he had already guessed what the other party wanted to shout.

The Conquering King was pulled back and a smile appeared on his face

"What's the matter, kid, you don't even dare to reveal your inner thoughts, this can't be a royal lord recognized by this king."

"This has nothing to do with showing your heart, right? It's an act of powerlessness, and don't tap my shoulder, it hurts. "

Weber rubbed his shoulder and walked up to a two-story residential house between talking to the conquering king.

"I wonder if there's any breakfast, I'm starving."

Weber was just about to push open the door, when the Conquering King suddenly grabbed his hand and leapt back.

"Do what?"

Weber was taken aback.

"I've got a bad feeling, and that feeling is ..."

The conquering king sensed his surroundings for a moment, and his eyes suddenly stomped wide.

"Kid, prepare for battle, if the perception is correct, it's Berserker who's coming for us."

"Berserker?!"

Weber retreated a few steps in a row, the residential house that he had been living in for a few days seemed to be transformed into a flooding beast at the moment.

"It can't be a wrong perception, can it, Berserker is the same Spirit that used the sword last night?"

"Yes, that's him."

"There's no mistake!"

Weber's heartbeat accelerated, last night's scene was still fresh in his mind, suddenly, Weber remembered something, which made his pupils clench to the extreme.

"Those two old men are still inside ..."

Weber wanted to rush into the residential house, although those two old men inside the residential house were not related to him by blood, but within the last few days, those two old men had been taking care of him.

"Don't be impulsive, there's no point in rushing in now, if Berserker wanted to make a move, that old couple would have already ..."

"Damn it."

Weber stomped on the ground under his feet, his eyes were resentful.

Snap, snap ...

A small white frog jumped down from the roof of the residential house, forming an encircling position to surround Weber and the Conquering King.

"This is an envoy? No, there's no magic power fluctuation."

Weber didn't recognize what kind of species the small white frogs were, and the Conquering King likewise didn't recognize them, but he sensed danger.

"If I were you guys, I wouldn't choose to act rashly."

A male voice came from the roof of a residential house, and Webb and his Conquering King colleague looked up.

"Berserker."

Magic surged from the Conquering King, his attire changed from civilian clothes to battle clothes, and he drew the broad-bladed longsword at his waist.

"Give up, Conquering King, the fact that you didn't spot me before means you've already lost."

Su Xiao gripped the Chopper Flash and gazed at the Conquering King.

"Kid, sorry."

The Conquering King looked sideways at Weber, which made Weber a little confused.

"Sorry for what?"

"Nothing ..."

The conquering king stepped in front of Webb, it was his negligence that had created this situation.

The distance between Weber and Su Xiao was too close, and at this distance, if Su Xiao fought with the Conquering King, the first one to die would definitely be Weber.

Even if Weber survived, the alchemy bombs around him and the Boo Boo Woof hidden in the shadows would be able to take his life.

The Conquering King thought of this, which was why he showed his apologies to Weber.

"Conquering King, I'm curious, how long can you last without the Royal Master's magic supply, 20 bells? Or 1 hour?"

Su Xiao stood up, and the Dragon Slashing Flash slowly came out of his body.

With a click, the tiles under Su Xiao's feet shattered by inches.

The conquering king in front of the private residence raised his longsword, he was ready to use the 'King's Army Power', once Weber was dead, the magic supply would be cut off, and at that time, it would be almost impossible to use the King's Army Power again.

"You didn't strike before, which means you have another purpose."

The Conquering King's character seemed a bit ditzy, and the timing was not.

"Of course, I've already wasted three hours here, and fighting you is going to continue to waste time, so ..."

"So you're here to negotiate?"

"Right."

Hearing of Su Xiao's reply, the Conquering King secretly sighed in relief. If they fought now, his Royal Lord would definitely die, and at that time, even if he could defeat Su Xiao, it would be meaningless, besides, he could not guarantee that he could definitely defeat Su Xiao.

Su Xiao's side was in a similar situation, even if he was able to kill Weber and cause the Conquering King to dissipate due to insufficient supply of magic power, he would not be able to gain any profit.

The Conquering King's King's Army Power Su Xiao had an understanding of it through the anime, and with that kind of human warfare, it was simply impossible to kill the Conquering King in a short period of time.

Su Xiao was not afraid of the sea of men tactic, the natural ability awakened him that the sea of men tactic would only allow him to recover a large amount of mana value and life value, and he wouldn't fall down until he was exhausted.

Su Xiao did not have the idea of fighting with the Conquering King, wanting to kill through the King's army is not something that can be done in a moment, there is not much time left in the hidden quest, besides there are still two old beeps that have not been dealt with.

For this kind of battle that had no benefits after striking out, Su Xiao chose not to fight for the best.

"I only have one request, and that is to use all three of your party's token spells."

Su Xiao's words caused the Conquering King to freeze.

"This will allow my Master to leave in peace? Just by simply using up all three token spells?"

The Conquering King was clearly a bit disbelieving, after all, it was Su Xiao who had the advantage now.

Su Xiao didn't bother answering the Conquering King's words, but instead looked towards Weber Velvet.

"Conquering King's Royal Master, as a Royal Master, you will only hide behind the Yingling when negotiating?"

Weber Velvet hesitated for a moment and chose to stand alongside the Conquering King.

"Since it's a negotiation, you have to show your chips as well ..."

Before Weber could finish his sentence, the Conquering King slapped him on the back, and 'Princess' Weber was staggered by the slap.

"What are you doing!"

'Crown Princess' Weber grimaced in pain.

"Chips? The chips are your little life. "

Su Xiao's aura was outwardly released, and the berserk aura from killing an unknown number of people surged towards Webber Velvet.

"If I tried to kill you now, you wouldn't live for more than a minute."

Su Xiao stared at Weber with a murderous aura, Weber's cheeks gradually seeped out cold sweat, the bright sun shone on him, but he only felt the coldness that pierced his bones, his instincts were warning him to run away, escape from here.

"Berserker, terrorizing my royal master in front of my king, do you think my king is air."

The conquering king tapped Weber's shoulder, Weber's body trembled and his shaking calves stopped.

"I don't want to talk more nonsense, if you agree to my conditions, I will leave immediately, if not, then let's fight."

Su Xiao stepped on the ground under his feet, the green steel shadow energy spread out on the roof of the room, snapping sound, broken tiles splashed, domineering and abnormal.

Chapter 748: castle

The tiles fell to the ground, Weber swallowed, although the man on the roof was his enemy, but Weber not only produced a thought that he also wanted to become such a person, a word of domineering and unusual, say one thing.

Leaving aside Weber's thoughts for the moment, the Conquering King on the side was tempted to agree with Su Xiao's proposal, the two sides appeared to be in a confrontation, but in reality that was not the case, his Royal Master's life was in danger at any time, Su Xiao's perverted speed, he had seen it once before, under that kind of speed, even if he summoned the King's Army Power, he would not be able to save his Royal Master's life.

"Kid, do you believe in me, do you believe in me Conqueror King Iskandar. "

The Conquering King stared at Weber, who caressed the token on the back of his hand, the only means he had to manipulate the Conquering King.

"I...believe you."

"Hahaha."

The Conquering King threw back his head and laughed with great bravado.

"Berserker, we can consume the three token spells, but what guarantee do you use that you won't suddenly rise up and kill someone after our side consumes the three token spells."

The Conquering King was well thought out, if Su Xiao struck after Weber used up the three token spells, then they could be said to be bloodless.

"You have no choice, like I said before, you have already lost, Conquering King."

Su Xiao sheathed the Dragon Slash and made a proper statement.

"Boy, use the token, like he said, we have no choice."

"But ..."

Weber was a little hesitant.

"Cut the crap, I'll give you 20 seconds to think about it, if you don't agree, I'll chop you up."

Su Xiao suddenly opened her mouth, and 'Princess' Weber was shocked and trembled.

"Okay...okay."

Weber raised his arm.

"I am under the power of a command spell, Alexander the Great Iskandar, and you are not allowed to tap me on the shoulder again."

"I am commanded by the power of the spell, Alexander the Great Iskandar, that you win the battle for the Holy Grail."

"I am under the power of a command spell, Alexander the Great Iskandar, and you will ..."

Weber used the first two order incantations quite smoothly, but by the third he was stuck, and he couldn't think of what to say.

"You are to ... survive this Holy Grail War! "

With the three token spells consumed, Weber's shoulders slumped as if he had used up all his strength.

"That's all it takes, isn't it, damn it, why this strange request."

Weber raised his head to look at Su Xiao, by now the roof was empty.

"He's gone?"

"Well, the moment you looked down. "

"That's good."

Weber smiled, and could finally send this slayer away.

"But ... boy."

The conquering king tilted his head.

"What?"

"What about this roof?"

"Huh?"

Weber stared dumbfounded at the wretched roof as a broken tile slid off of it.

Su Xiao leaped between the houses, now there were still two imperial masters left to be resolved, the location of these two imperial masters no longer needed to be specifically searched for, using the tracking function would suffice.

After a few minutes of leaping on the roof of the house, Su Xiao stopped, and not a moment later, Boo Boo Woof met up with him.

"Activate mass detection."

[Massive Detection (Active) is on.]

[Random Detection of Token Holding Imperial Masters in ...]

[Remaining spellholders: 2, randomly selected ...]

[Successful detection. Successfully detected the location of Eimiya Kesshi, and sent the real-time coordinates to the Hunter's Reincarnation Brand, with 9 minutes and 59 seconds of tracking time remaining].

The light before Su Xiao's eyes flashed, and a semi-transparent fluorescent screen appeared in front of his eyes, the content on the screen was a map of 100,000 square kilometers in a circle with Su Xiao as the round point, and Touki City was just a small piece of it.

Su Xiao zoomed in on the map, and the location of the red dot became clearer.

"It's actually here, how unexpected."

Previously, Su Xiao thought that Eimiya Kesshi had moved away from Touki City and was hiding in one of the other cities near Touki City.

Now it seemed that this was not the case, not only had Eimiya Kesshi not moved away from Touki City, he had instead stayed within the castle of the Einzberens family.

The reason why the Einzbern family, one of the three major magic families, and the castle the family resides in is an iconic landmark in Touki City is that there is another castle in the world that resembles this one by more than 95%, and it also belongs to the Einzbern family.

There are two Einzberens' castles in total, the original site is in Germany, and this one in Winterwood City is a forgery of the German one.

The castle of the Einzbern family is full of traps, so it is dangerous to get close to the castle, not to mention breaking into it.

Based on the map's direction, Su Xiao rode on Bubu Wang and rushed to the castle where Eimiya Kiritsugu was staying.

In the southwestern corner of Touki City, a European-style castle stood, this castle did not cover a large area, but the layout was reasonable, and the few cherry blossom trees in the courtyard gave a little bit of life to this majestic castle.

The breeze is gentle, the several cherry trees in the courtyard of the castle are blown rustling, pink petals fluttering with the wind.

A few maids dressed as nuns were sweeping the petals in the courtyard, their skin was fair and tender and could be broken, every one of them was an impeccable beauty.

To be exact, these maids weren't considered human, they were androids made by the Einzbern family, usually responsible for taking care of the household chores and taking care of the Einzberens, but once there was an invasion by a foreign enemy, they would pick up weapons and become warriors with not-so-weak strength.

"Eliza, once the courtyard is cleaned up, you have to prepare lunch in advance, today's lunch must be sumptuous."

"Uh-huh."

"Are the ingredients fresh."

"Very fresh, it arrived two hours ago."

"What about security?"

"No problem, I tasted it myself."

"That's good."

The several maids divided their labor amongst themselves, they were completely loyal to the Einzberns, as long as the Einzberns gave their orders, even if they were told to go to their deaths, they wouldn't hesitate for a moment.

While the several maids were talking, a mechanical eye the size of a dragon's eye landed above the castle, Maid Eliza looked sideways in the direction of the castle, observing for a long time without noticing anything unusual.

Castle one kilometer away from the forest, a sky-high ancient tree, this ancient tree is dozens of meters high, also do not know how many years of growth.

Under the ancient tree, a brown bear with seven bleeding holes was lying on the ground, its body twitching from time to time.

This brown bear was not an ordinary creature, but a creature that had been transformed by alchemy, if this brown bear was killed, an early warning would immediately be received in the castle one kilometer away.

On the ancient tree in the sky, Su Xiao set the Spider Queen on the fork of the tree, and he was checking the status of the magazine and the gun.

It is not a wise choice to sneak into the castle head on, not to mention the fact that the castle is full of organs, alone those android maids plus Saber are not easy to break through.

Su Xiao chose to solve Eimiya Kiritsugu by sniping, although Eimiya Kiritsugu was a magician, the Spider Queen was able to beat the Yingling to death, let alone sniping the Imperial Lord, as long as a single shot was hit, Eimiya Kiritsugu would explode like a tomato being stomped on.

It sounds easy, it's not.

First of all, Su Xiao had to determine where in the castle Eibisu Kiritsugu was, and this was detected by the Apostle's Eye above the castle.

That wasn't the point, the point was that Saber was also inside the castle, with Saber's A-rank intuitive ability, as soon as the Apostle's Eye started to detect the castle, Saber would immediately notice it and respond accordingly.

Considering Saber's serious incompatibility with Eibisu's aptitude, the two of them shouldn't be too close to each other during non-combat periods, which means that the time it takes for Saber to sense the hostility from Su Xiao and rush to Eibisu's side will take roughly 2 to 7 seconds.

So Su Xiao would have to lock on to his opponent with his sights the moment the Apostle's Eye detected Eibisu, and he'd have roughly 3 to 7 shots to do so.

Chapter 749: closely intertwined

Su Xiao began to adjust his state, first he closed his eyes and took deep breaths to make sure that there was enough oxygen within his blood, if he missed the passage of the present, he would have to kill his way into the castle of the Einzberns' house and fight Saber head on.

There were stronger enemies waiting for Su Xiao, it was unwise to engage Saber head on right now.

Su Xiao brought his head to the Spider Queen's scope, he had already adjusted his status.

Above the castle, the Apostle's Eye, which was made entirely of rare metals, floated up, the main material of the Apostle's Eye was Ramiel Alloy, the strength of Ramiel Alloy was not excellent, even lower than refined steel, but it had a very strong adaptability, like a chameleon among metals, it could blend in with the scent of most objects, because of this, the difficulty of unearthing and mining Ramiel Metal was extremely high, which also caused this metal to be extremely expensive. Price.

Buzz~

The Apostle's Eye emitted a pulse, and almost instantly, the pulse swept through the entire castle.

Su Xiao's spiritual power had already linked with the Apostle's Eye, and after the Apostle's Eye released the pulse, the Einzbern Family Castle in his line of sight turned translucent, with dozens of red silhouettes within the castle.

Drops. Drip, drip...

The red light on the Apostle's Eye flashed, and was quickly locating which red silhouette was Eimiya Kiritsugu.

Just as the Apostle's Eye released fluctuations, on the first floor of the castle, Saber, who was chatting with Acting Imperial Lord Alice Fell, tensed her body and her pupils slowly contracted.

Boom!

Magic power surged wildly in Saber's body, a battle dress + battle skirt materialized, and the invisible longsword 'Sword of Oath of Victory' appeared in her hand, her blonde hair fluttering in a valiant manner.

"Saber?"

The beautiful young woman Alice Fell who was drinking black tea was stunned, her long silver hair was blown up due to Saber's magical power outward.

Without saying a word, Saber directly picked up Alice Fell, the marble floor under her feet appeared fine cracks, Saber's figure flashed, and with a thud, she rushed towards the third floor of the castle, which was the location where her Royal Master, Ebisuemiya Kiritsugu, was located.

At the moment, Ebisu Kiritsugu was talking about something with his female assistant, Ebisu Kiritsugu may be an Imperial Master, but his combat instincts are not weak.

"Nope."

Having experienced the modern battlefield, Eimiya Kiritsugu immediately sensed that a sniper had aimed at him, and he immediately lunged in the direction of the load-bearing wall to the side, which was thicker than normal walls, with concrete that had been shock-treated to be more than a dozen times stronger than normal walls, and was highly bullet-proof.

After Eimiya Kiritsugu lunged at the load-bearing wall, that feeling of being locked in place not only didn't go away, but instead became more intense.

Ebisu's female assistant wasn't an idle person, being able to become Ebisu's assistant in the Holy Grail War showed her strength, so she immediately grabbed the suitcase on the table, and inside the suitcase was a sniper rifle that had been disassembled into three pieces.

"I am commanded by the power of the Order Spell ..."

It was too late for Eimiya Kiritsugu to use the Order Spell to force Saber to be summoned, the enemy didn't even give him that chance.

With a snap and a splash of concrete debris, a bucket-thick ragged hole burst through the load-bearing wall in front of Ebisu Kiritsugu, and a bullet of exaggerated size shot straight at Ebisu Kiritsugu's head.

"Inherent Time Control - Triple Speed."

Eimiya Kiritsugu directly used his strongest ability, Inherent Time Control, a magic that the Eimiya family had been exploring for generations, regarding the manipulation of time.

Eimiya Kiritsugu's blood flowed faster, and the hemoglobin in his body burned at high speed.

The 17.36mm caliber sniper rifle bullet flew in front of Eimiya Kiritsugu, it was a sure shot, but Eimiya Kiritsugu sidestepped with all his might, his speed was so fast that it appeared as a residual shadow, this was not the speed of his physical body, but the power of time.

Poof.

Blood splattered, the 17.36mm caliber bullet pierced through the ground behind Ebisuya Kesshi, shot out from the other side of the castle's outer wall, and eventually hit into the rocks at the back of the castle, leaving a smoking bullet hole.

Tick tock, tick tock, blood dripped down from Ebisu Kiritsugu's cheek, although he had used Inherent Time Control - Triple Speed, he was only a Spirit Royal Master, and didn't have as strong a physical quality as a Spirit.

Eimiya Kiritsugu's cheeks at the position below his ears had disappeared, revealing white teeth, and the small half of his lips had been knocked away.

Eimiya Kiritsugu wasn't hit head-on by the Spider Queen's bullet, he was only grazed by the bullet, and even so, he was equally injured, and if the bullet had hit him directly in the head, he would already be a headless corpse.

The effect of Inherent Temporal Control - Triple Speed disappeared, and before Ebisu could catch his breath, the concrete wall in front of him exploded again, and a bullet pierced through the concrete wall and came towards him.

At this moment, Ebisu's brain was groggy, this was caused by the shock of the first bullet he had endured, he wanted to use the Order Spell, but unfortunately, it took time to use the Order Spell, the magic of the Order Spell wasn't his own magic, the Order Spell was like a 'gun', in order to fire it, you needed to pull the trigger first, and right now, let's not talk about pulling the trigger, he didn't even have the ability to use the 'gun'. Now, not to mention pulling the trigger, he couldn't even touch the 'gun', he could only use his own magic power to save his life first.

"Inherent Time Control - Quadruple Speed."

Eimiya Kesshi couldn't care less about overdrafting his body, it was unknown if he could survive the sniping of an unknown enemy, let alone overdrafting his body.

Eimiya Kesshi's personal time flow accelerated as the second one headed straight for his calf, which he immediately raised with the intention of dodging the second bullet.

That 17.36mm caliber bullet flew in front of and behind Eimiya Ketchitsu, the end of the bullet opened its metal tail, the speed of the bullet decreased abruptly, which made Eimiya Ketchitsu puzzled and at the same time, he also began to sweat.

When!

The bullet suddenly exploded, an ear-piercing sound wave spread out, and when Ebisu's body came into contact with it, the water molecules in his body became the best sound-conducting tool.

There was a buzzing in Ebisu's ears, his mind was spinning, and everything in his vision was in heavy shadow.

At this point, Ebisu was still maintaining his Inherent Time Control - Quadruple Speed, and in his vision, a third breach appeared in the load-bearing wall in front of him, and a bullet with a textured surface was shot like his face.

Ebisu tried to dodge the bullet with his Inherent Temporal Control - Quadruple Speed, but his whole body was as heavy as lead, that was the effect of the second Special Ammunition - Shock Bullet.

Bang! The door to the room where Eimiya Kiritsugu was in was shattered, splinters of wood flew, and Saber, who was carrying Einzberon on her shoulder, felt a warm liquid splash on her face, followed by the strong smell of blood.

With a plop, a body with the upper half of its body shattered fell to the ground, splattering spattered blood and pieces of organs for several meters around the body.

Warm crushed flesh slipped from the beautiful young woman Alice Fell's cheek and fell to the drop with a snapping sound.

Whoosh~

With a snap, the lower half of Ebisu's body is shattered, such is the effect of the destruction caused by the Spider Queen, which is both bloody and has a violent aesthetic.

The female assistant stared blankly at the rotting flesh in the room, the sniper rifle that had been assembled slipping from her hands, tears running down her cheeks.

The room choked with the smell of blood was dead silent, and the mouth of the beautiful young woman, Alice Fell, was wide open, her eyes wide to the extreme.

"Ah!!!"

Alice Fields let out a scream as she couldn't believe the scene in front of her.

Saber's head was lowered, the magic power from the Imperial Master was cut off, and even though there was an Acting Imperial Master, Alicefair, she wasn't one of the seven Imperial Masters, and with the death of the rightful Imperial Master, Ebony Kiritsugu, Saber wouldn't be able to hold on for long before she dissipated.

"It's over just like that?"

Saber gripped the Oath of Victory Sword in her hand tightly as she looked sideways out the window in a certain direction from which the bullets had been fired.

Just then, her intuition gave an early warning, a scene appeared in her head, and 0.5 seconds later, a bullet pierced through the glass window, shattering Alice Fields beside her voice.

The sworn sword of victory in Saber's hand chopped forward, and a bullet flying at high speed was split apart, and the bullet that was split in half didn't enter the ground and disappeared.

Boom!

The bullet collided with the long sword and produced a gas explosion Saber feet plowed the ground and withdrew far, palms a little numb.

"Shameless!"

Saber's emerald green eyes were filled with helplessness, the enemy's meaning was already obvious, if she chose to pursue, and Alice Fell would die.

"Saber, don't mind me, go find out where the enemy is, go!"

Alice Fell whose eyes were full of tears had broken down emotionally.

Saber was silent and blocked in front of Alice Fell.

"Go get revenge for Chessie ..."

"I'm sorry, I can't do that, I can't watch you die, you're my Master's Lady."

Hearing Saber's words, Alice Fell fell to her knees and cried in pain, sniping his enemies was a common tactic used by Eimiya Kesshi, and on this day, he died at the hands of a stronger sniper.

Chapter 750: Su Xiao's friend

A kilometer away inside the forest, Su Xiao observed the situation inside the castle through the scope.

A few dozen seconds later, a mechanical eye flew near him, an Apostle's Eye that had completed its scouting mission.

"Unexpectedly calm."

Su Xiao put away the Apostle's Eye and checked the hidden mission information, current number of imperial masters surviving: 1, number of token spells remaining: 27.

The number of Token Curses held by Yanfeng Eri is a bit shocking, there are 27. Thinking about it, in the original story, Yanfeng Eri was able to use the Token Curses as a supply of magical power during battle, if the number of Token Curses was low, he wouldn't dare to squander it like that.

You Killed Ebiyu.

[Ebiyu Kiritsugu is a special plot character who has gained 3.1% of the World's Source, and has now gained a total of 80.6% of the World's Source.]]

Su Xiao was able to successfully snipe Ebiyu Kesshi, firstly because he grasped the opponent's position, and all of his previous actions were based on knowing the enemy's position.

Without the Temporary Detection ability, he would not have thought through his head that Eimiya Kesshi would be hiding inside the castle of the Einzbern family.

There were many android guards and magic traps within the castle, even if it was Su Xiao, he would need to plan carefully if he wanted to infiltrate it.

But why did Su Xiao need to sneak in? All he needed to do was kill a magician, and with the combination of Apostle's Eyes (Light Gold) + Spider Queen (Dark Purple) + Firearms Proficiency (Lv.30), Kesshi Emiya died.

Ebiyu Kesshi didn't die unjustly, Su Xiao consumed precious dwell time observing the terrain near the castle in order to be able to finish him off quickly, eliminating 1 hour and 15 minutes of his time.

After that he set up sniper positions and cleared the surrounding alchemy creatures used for guarding, clearing these alchemy creatures is not an easy task, you can't just kill them, the risk of being detected is too high if you do that and you also have to make sure that they lose their power of action, which consumes a total of 3 hours.

After all of this, Su Xiao also has to make sure that Kirihiro Miyagi is still inside the castle, to confirm this, he spends 1 hour and 23 minutes.

After that it was ambush and waiting time, and all of this was for those 4 shots, the insurance was to kill Emiya Kiritsugu within the 4 shots, or else he might engage Saber head on, Su Xiao didn't want to experience the sensation of being cleaved by an EX ranked Holy Sword, so he didn't give Saber a chance to make a move.

Su Xiao gave Saber a choice, if he chose to pursue him, Alice Fell would die, and if he didn't, he could save Alice Fell's life, it was obvious that Saber, who had an honorable character, chose the latter.

Su Xiao stood up from the ancient tree, pulled the bolt of the Spider Queen's gun and withdrew the bullets in the chamber.

Leaping down from the tree, Boo Boo Woof, who had already been waiting nearby for a long time, went up, and the one person and one dog quickly disappeared within the forest.

Half an hour later, Su Xiao returned within the city of Winterwood, he could be certain that the last imperial lord, Yanfeng Eri, must be in Winterwood.

Mass Detection was activated, at the same time as Detection was activated, the Mass Detection (active skill) within Su Xiao's skill list disappeared, this skill was very powerful, but it could only be used twice.

Through the information returned by Mass Detection, the last Imperial Master, Yanfeng Eri, was indeed in Touki City, and her location was still slowly changing.

"Eh? Surprisingly smooth."

A smile appeared on Su Xiao's face, Yanfeng Eri was not far away from him, no more than two kilometers at most.

Was this a coincidence? A sudden burst of luck for Su Xiao? Not really, not only was Su Xiao looking for Yanfeng Qi Li, Yanfeng Qi Li was also looking for Su Xiao, and because of this, both parties were so close.

As Su Xiao traveled through the high-rise buildings of the city, he dashed straight across a road and stepped over the roof of a high-speed sedan.

Bang!

There was a car accident on the road Su Xiao was pathing through, and an ear-piercing honking sound rang out.

The distance of two kilometers was actually not too close, but Su Xiao was rushing at full speed, which made two kilometers not too far.

After running wildly through a few blocks, Su Xiao stopped at a crowded pedestrian street, the pedestrian street was located near the center of Winterwood City, it was around 12 o'clock at this time, and the pedestrian street's flow of people could be imagined.

The Slaughtering Short Knife appeared in Su Xiao's hand, and he hid this short knife inside his sleeve.

Mixing in the crowd, Su Xiao took out a disposable camouflage mask from the storage space, this thing was similar to a mask, it could simulate other people's appearance or randomly simulate the appearance, and it belonged to a high-tech product.

After putting on the camouflage mask, Su Xiao's appearance changed, after hesitating for a moment, he took out another duffel bag, carrying the bag on one shoulder, and he took out a pair of sunglasses from inside the bag.

Adjusting the disposable camouflage mask, carrying the bag on his back and putting on the sunglasses, Su Xiao's appearance was very much like a tourist from abroad.

This kind of thing would be a complete breeze for Su Xiao, he had mastered these abilities when he was an ordinary person, and after becoming a hunter-killer, he was able to do even better.

Gradually converging his breath, Su Xiao's ferocious aura completely disappeared, and when a smile appeared on his face, he looked like a college student who hadn't graduated yet and hadn't fully stepped into society.

Everything Su Xiao did, made the nearby Boo Boo Woof look blankly.

"Step aside, your fur color is too obvious."

Boo Boo Woof was very unconvinced and directly unleashed the 'Divine Skill' You Can't See Me.

You Can't See Me (Passive, self-realized skill): Bubu Tween can hide in depending on any terrain, existing hidden types 864 (186 types have been upgraded).

Boo Boo Woof disappeared into the crowd, it wasn't stealthy, but blended into the environment, it could be a corgi, a shaggy dog, or simply a fat-sized orange cat in the eyes of others, in any case, it wasn't its original appearance, and it wouldn't attract anyone's attention.

Su Xiao looked around, and as expected, Boo Boo Woof 'disappeared', to be exact, he could no longer perceive Boo Boo Woof's breath.

The reason why Su Xiao was in disguise was because Yan Feng Qi Li was on this pedestrian street, and due to the fact that there were too many people on the pedestrian street, Su Xiao was unable to pinpoint Yan Feng Qi Li's location for a while.

According to Su Xiao's guess, after Toki died, Yanfeng Eri had probably become the Hero King's Royal Master.

If his guess was true, venturing to perceive the other party now would only startle the snakes and cause Yanfeng Eri to use a token spell to forcefully summon the Hero King.

Su Xiao couldn't guarantee that he would win a steady victory in a battle with the Hero King, so he chose the safer method, which was assassination, an ability that he used to be very good at, he just hadn't used it for a long time after he went into the Reincarnation Paradise.

In fact, as an assassin, there was no need to have a biting temperament, those handsome and stylish, pushy killers in the movies. Simply do not exist in real life.

The killers that Su Xiao had seen were generally average looking, polite and courteous in their speech, with an easygoing attitude, and were superficially good to get along with.

He had befriended a killer, and that guy's weekday job was a 'polymer metal material positioning fusionist', commonly known as a welder.

That guy not only did not have the so-called killing spirit, instead, he was humorous and witty in his speech, in that guy's words, his last job was a 'Geographic Exploration and Phase Excavation', commonly known as an excavator driver, even more hilarious is that that guy also did a graduation certificate from Lan Xiang Institute of Technology, and even more over the top is that it was fake, at that time, Su Xiao's expression could only be described with The expression of Su Xiao at that time can only be described as shocked, the other party is simply a killer in the Hatchlings.

This is a guy who used to drive an excavator and then changed his job to be a welder, and the lives in his hands are at least 20 or more, and the dead are either rich or rich.
