

R. Paradise 761

Chapter 761: life on earth

The Equipment Strengthening Machine operated at high speed with an amazing sound.

Su Xiao stood in front of the Equipment Strengthening Machine and waited, and the two minutes became unbearably long.

Click!

A crunching sound came out from within the Equipment Strengthening Machine.

"It's bursting, after all, Impact Reinforcement +10."

Hearing the crunching sound, the contractors behind Su Xiao shook their heads and sighed some, and there were quite a few who gloated.

"Brother, don't be discouraged, this is just normal."

A bearded old man spoke out to comfort, although he was comforting, the smile at the corner of his mouth was irritating, but looking at the equipment debris in his hand, he should have just strengthened and exploded an equipment.

Snort~

The tray of the Equipment Strengthening Machine popped out, and the Boundary Disconnect was intact on the tray, with the fragments of the Illusionary Demon Stone on one side.

[Boundary Breaker (Dark Purple) +9 failed, due to the protection of the Illusion Magic Stone (Dark Purple), the equipment is unbroken, and the reinforcement level is retained].

Boundary disconnection line impact +10 failed, Su Xiao silently lit a cigarette, he is not a general who is always victorious, after one derivative world after another, although his mood is frustrated, but he did not show it.

Although the Illusory Magic Stone was precious, its purpose was to protect the equipment under reinforcement, which meant that it would always break one day.

Moreover, the Illusion Magic Stone had a limit, it was only a dark purple prop, if it was a high level reinforcement of +12 or more, once it failed, even the Illusion Magic Stone couldn't guarantee that the equipment would be intact.

"Call it quits, even though there will be a qualitative change with a reinforcement of +10, the risk is too high."

That bearded old man once again spoke out to persuade, Su Xiao handed over a cigarette, the bearded man smiled and took the cigarette, but did not light it, taking the cigarette was polite, not lighting it was prudent.

"I'm a person whose luck comes and goes, and who either rushes to the top in Reincarnation Paradise or waits to die where he is."

Su Xiao chose to continue strengthening, naked strengthening!

So what if the boundary break line shattered? There was always one 'gamble' after another in life, win and soar, lose and use it as an accumulation of lessons.

This is not recklessness, but fearlessness, even if Su Xiao dies in battle within the Derivative World one day, he can accept it, let alone forcefully exploding a piece of equipment.

Rumble.

The Equipment Strengthening Machine was once again functioning, a smile appeared on Su Xiao's face, strengthening equipment without the protection of the Illusionary Magic Stone was a completely different feeling from before.

Success or failure was only a hair's breadth away, once successful, the joy and excitement could not be expressed in words.

Thumb ~

White steam exploded as the tray of the equipment strengthening machine poked out.

[Boundary Disconnect (Dark Purple) +10 Success.]

The Boundary Breaking Line on the tray probe emitted a greenish-colored glow, giving off a sharp, tough feeling just by looking at it.

"Being entangled in this thing, even a second-rank BOSS can only howl dryly, right?"

Those contractors around them surrounded and came forward, they were eager to take a look at the attributes of the Boundary Breaking Thread, but unfortunately, only Su Xiao had the right to do so.

Su Xiao picked up the Boundary Breaker under the envious gazes of those Contractors and checked the attributes of the Boundary Breaker alone.

[Boundary Disconnect +10]

Origin: Chopper - Red Hitomi

Quality: Dark purple

Category: Equipment Accessory (can be loaded onto hand equipment such as wrist guards, arm guards, gloves, etc.)

Durability: 230 to 230 (40 points increase)

Length: 200 meters

Strength: 34 (up 20 points)

Sharpness: 12 (up 5 points)

+5 additional effect: +1 sharpness

+8 additional effect: Stealth +10

+10 additional effect: Durability +50

Rating: 260+

Description:As long as your strength is enough, you can use it to fish for dragon eye whales within the river of emptiness, don't worry, it won't break, the first one to be ripped off must be your arm.

Price: 52,000 Paradise Coins

Su Xiao wrapped the boundary breaking line around his left hand, held the line wheel in his right hand, and gradually exerted force with both arms.

Ka ka ka ka ~

an arduous sound of force was heard, the corner of the mouth of the Contractor on the side twitched when he heard this sound, this was the sound that would only be made by an extremely terrifying force pulling on an item.

The power in Su Xiao's hand gradually increased, from the third layer of force to fifty percent force, the boundary break line did not react at all, he simply used his full strength.

The muscles of Su Xiao's arms slightly bulged, he had already used his full strength, the boundary break line did not react other than tensing to straight, he gradually withdrew his strength.

In the Holy Grail World, the Orphan of Grievance-Shus had broken the Boundary Disconnect, if the Boundary Disconnect's current strength, even if the Orphan of Grievance-Shus was given a power increase status, the other party could only howl dryly, it was impossible for them to break free from the Boundary Disconnect.

Although the sharpness of the Boundary Breaking Line was not low, it could not be compared to the Chopping Dragon Flash, and its strength lay in its sturdiness.

With 280 points of durability + 34 points of strength, not to mention the Orphan of Grudges, even if some third-ranked BOSS-level creatures were entangled, they could only admit defeat.

Moreover, the additional effect of Strengthening +8 was Concealment +10, making the Boundary Breaker even more undetectable, making it an excellent choice for setting up traps.

After strengthening the Boundary Disconnect, Su Xiao still had 8000 Paradise Coins left, and he walked towards the outside of the Equipment Strengthening Hall.

Removing the arm guard from his left arm, Su Xiao fixed the wire wheel with the Boundary Breaking Line wrapped around it below the wrist of the arm guard, this set of wire wheel was something that he had spent nearly 10,000 Paradise Coins to create, and it was strengthened +10 along with the Boundary Breaking Line.

Although the strength of this wire wheel was far less than the Boundary Breaking Thread, when the Boundary Breaking Thread wrapped around the enemy, Su Xiao would hold the Boundary Breaking Thread with all his might, so the wire wheel was basically unstressed, and with the metal armguard protecting his hand, the Boundary Breaking Thread wouldn't accidentally injure his hand, and it was because of this that he usually chose the metal armguard.

Fixing the ultra-small hook lock at the tip of the boundary breaking line, Su Xiao's left arm is stretched out flat.

Ding ~

The boundary breaking line popped out, the wire wheel under Su Xiao's wrist rotated at a high speed, and when the boundary breaking line popped out tens of meters long, his wrist moved, the direction of the wire wheel's rotation changed, and the boundary breaking line was wrapped back onto the wire wheel.

"Not bad."

Although Su Xiao only had 8,000 Paradise Coins left, the spent Paradise Coins were converted into combat power.

Su Xiao walked on the edge of the trading market, ready to return to his exclusive room, but his steps slowed down as he made his way to a stall.

The stall owner behind the stall had his head lowered, his gaze was a bit dull, and his waist was bulging, so he should be carrying a gun with him.

"This thing ..."

"Ah!"

Su Xiao just opened his mouth, the stall owner with a dull gaze was startled, his hands subconsciously blocked in front of him, and the dull look in his eyes receded, turning into a hysteria of an impending mental collapse.

From this panicked reaction and extremely unstable mental state, Su Xiao was able to determine that this guy had experienced no more than two Derivation Worlds, and was even a newcomer who had just experienced a Derivation World and survived.

"What's wrong?"

The stall owner realized that he was out of sorts, he had just remembered the nightmare he experienced within the Derivation Worlds, those monsters that were originally within the monitors appeared alive in front of him, wanting to tear him apart.

In the First Order, 70% of the newcomers couldn't survive the first Derivation World, they hadn't yet transitioned between the peaceful real life and the cruel Reincarnation Paradise, and completing this transition would only increase the newcomers' survival rate a bit.

"This thing is good."

Su Xiao picked up an item on the stall.

"No bargaining, I traded my life for this!"

Before Su Xiao could haggle, the stall owner had already vetoed it in one breath, this was a common problem of most newcomers, treating everything they acquired as a treasure.

However this time, this stall owner was right, he did have a nice item on his stall.

Chapter 762: chewing gums

Su Xiao was holding a plastic bottle about ten centimeters high, like a medicine bottle, which was actually a piece of recovery food.

[Yida Gum]

Origin: Reincarnation Paradise

Quality: White

Type: Recovery

Flavor: Refreshing Strawberry (15 pieces)

Effect: Chew in mouth, restores 15 mana points per minute, expires after 5 minutes of chewing, up to one tablet per time.

Score: 10+

Description: Hey, you're Yida. No, it's your Yida.

Price: 400 Paradise Points

Su Xiao often wandered around in the trading market and rarely saw medicines or foodstuffs that restored mana value, and even if he did, those things were strangely expensive.

This bottle of chewing gum that can restore mana value is now only priced at 3,000 Paradise coins, perhaps this stall owner has already thought that the price is set high, after all, this chewing gum is only sold to the Reincarnation Paradise for 400 Paradise coins, 3,000 has already doubled a few times, I also don't know where this contractee got this thing, it may be the first time through the Derivation World, the Reincarnation Paradise to give the rewards.

"Although the amount of recovery is small, and the mana value is not very useful, but this chewing gum ..."

The stall owner was just about to brag about his merchandise when he received a prompt.

[The recovery food you sold: Yida Gum, has been successfully sold for 3000 Paradise Points].

Receiving this prompt, the stall owner was stunned.

"Is this thing worth a lot of money?"

The stall owner stared at Su Xiao dead on, as if he wanted to see any change in Su Xiao's expression.

Su Xiao did not say anything and got up to walk towards the exclusive room.

"Wait, this thing I ..."

The stall owner's outstretched hand stilled, he suddenly remembered that this was the Reincarnation Paradise, not a food market, and after a successful transaction, even if he regretted it, it would be too late.

"Don't use grade to judge the value of the item."

Su Xiao left these words and walked away, that stall owner began to suffer, and after seeing the huge amount of money in the Reincarnation Seal, his heart was much smoother.

Su Xiao returned to his exclusive room, took out his Dragon Slashing Flash and entered an empty room, and began his daily sword practice, as his rank increased, the size of the exclusive room increased.

After practicing the sword for a few hours, Su Xiao, who was covered in hot sweat, took a shower and lay down on the bed to sleep, he wanted to raise his spirit and go to the arena tomorrow morning to practice his comprehensive ability.

The Green Steel Shadow had been boosted greatly, and the Boundary Breaker had also been boosted.

The next morning, inside the resting barn of the arena, a semi-transparent fluorescent screen floated in mid-air, and as Su Xiao maneuvered, the semi-transparent fluorescent screen floated in front of him.

[Athlete: Su Xiao.]

[Status: Good.]

[Ranking: 105th (Second Order).]

[Winning streak: 186.]

[Top 10 Rewards: Not earned.]

...

There are many more options at the bottom, such as matching opponents, watching battles, and checking out the Second Order Arena Leaderboards.

Su Xiao chose to match opponents, at his rank, it wasn't easy to match opponents.

[Matching opponents for Hunters and Killers ...]

[Hunter-Killer's current ranking: 105th (Second Order)].

[Matching in progress ...]

Su Xiao activated the camouflage function, a crimson metal mask covered the lower half of his face, and his trench coat was also slightly changed, even if an acquaintance saw the current Su Xiao, they wouldn't necessarily recognize him.

Su Xiao waited for ten minutes, the screen still showed matching in progress, just as he was planning to play a game to pass the time, and the prompt appeared.

[Matching successful, the hunter will be teleported to the ring in 5 seconds, please prepare the hunter].

After five seconds had passed, the sense of teleportation appeared and

Light and shadow flashed before Su Xiao's eyes, and when his sight returned, he was already on a 60 x 60 meter square arena stage, with a transparent energy cover around the arena stage, and further out was a stepped circle of audience seats.

For this kind of second-ranked competition of 200 or less, the audience seats for each game were packed to the rafters.

"After waiting for such a long time, I can finally see an arena within 200 places."

"No way, one party's ability seems to be off-tank."

"Tan playing competitively is inked to death and unappreciated."

Su Xiao's opponent caused dissatisfaction in the audience, this was a man wearing a tight-fitting biochemical suit, the biochemical suit made him appear muscular and angular, and behind his back was a black iron tank more than half a person high.

The man with the tin can seemed to be used to the audience's reaction, and with his strength of being able to fight his way into the top 200 of the Second Stage Arena, he didn't care about the opinions of others at all.

"Hey, the one with the sword, fighting me might cause you to have uncomfortable reactions such as annoyance and depression, forgive me."

The tin can man slapped the tin can behind him, and the light green poisonous gas gradually spread.

Su Xiao didn't bother to look at his opponent, but instead looked towards the back row of the audience, where there was a familiar face.

"Xia, you actually didn't go to guard that crappy restaurant today, and you have time to come watch the competition with me, rare."

A black long straight girl sat beside Xia, although she looked high and cold, she was actually youthful and lively, and was holding a bucket of popcorn in her hand.

"What do you mean by crappy restaurant, my restaurant does good business."

"Yeah, three customers a day, business is too good."

"Three guests ... are also guests."

"You this dead brain, with your cooking skills, as long as you change the place, business must be hot, could it be that your sign is the stubborn donkey constellation?"

"Never heard of such a strange constellation."

Natsu smiled, the young girl beside her was one of her few friends.

"The rodeo is about to begin, Natsu, which side do you favor?"

The long black teenage girl glanced at Su Xiao and then at the barrel man, "I favor the barrel man, look at those muscles, definitely durable."

"Who knows, but his opponent gives me a familiar feeling ..."

Xia looked at Su Xiao on the arena stage.

"Miss Xia, don't dream of spring, these are the top 200 big men of the second rank, it's impossible for us small fish and shrimp to cross paths with them."

"That's right."

Xia shook her head, although in her impression Su Xiao was very strong, but not so strong that he could hit the top 200 of the second rank of the arena.

[Athletics begin!]

Four large letters appeared on the arena stage, Xia's fists clenched as she watched a battle of this level for the first time.

As the arena began, Su Xiao drew the Chopping Dragon Flash at her waist, and the Green Steel Shadow energy wrapped around the Chopping Dragon Flash, which transformed into a blade of thunder and lightning.

Iron Barrel Man's arms stretched out, and his poisonous gas quickly spread around, "Tribulation-Earth."

"Holy shit, farting poisonous gas!"

"It's still looking at you sister! Refund Paradise Coins!"

The audience cursed angrily, but they had spent Paradise Coins, and now half of the arena was a green haze.

Poisonous gas surged from in front of Su Xiao, and Su Xiao took a deep breath.

Shave!

Whoosh~

Su Xiao's figure suddenly disappeared in place, only to see that the green poisonous gas was suddenly cut through a straight channel, and the wind pressure generated by his high-speed charge blew some of the poisonous gas away, showing how terrifying his speed was.

When Su Xiao reappeared, he was already in front of that iron barrel man, his long sword raised sideways.

The long knife broke the wind, and the whimpering sound pierced the ears.

The Iron Barrel Man's eyes widened, the enemy's speed made a difference to him, good thing he was a Physical Strength Specialty Contractor, he had no problem taking a few cuts.

Really no problem? Perhaps.

The blade of Chopper Flash sliced on the biochemical suit, and this biochemical suit that Iron Barrel Man had high hopes for instantly broke defense.

Pfft!

Blood splattered several meters high, Iron Barrel Man's mouth was wide open, although he didn't have time to check the damage value of this knife, the sharp pain in his chest told him that his muscle groups and ribs had been completely chopped open, and now his fragile organs had been exposed to the enemy's knife.

Chapter 763: Shock

The sharp pain made the barrel man's scalp start to go numb, and just as he tried to jump back with all his might, his brain's commands were successfully given, but his body did not respond, as if he was under general anesthesia.

[You have been subjected to an unknown energy, you will be immobilized for 2.3 seconds.]

At this moment, Iron Barrel Man's mood could be described by more than just a crouch, this kind of strong control ability didn't even have a chance to be judged, and would it be too hasty?

"Body... can't move, crikey!"

The reason why Iron Barrel Man shouted "Crouch" was because a large crisscrossing network of knives chopped towards him, filling his vision, one knife was already enough for him to suffer, as for this network of knives, Iron Barrel Man could only lol, he didn't even bother to use his ability to save his life.

When Iron Barrel Man's consciousness recovered, he was already in the resting cabin, with a dumbfounded look on his face.

In the audience, Xia's red lips slightly opened, she hadn't yet seen the fight scene, only to see a piece of horrible knife net flashing past, the party on the arena stage had already turned into a diffuse point of light and disappeared.

"This ..."

The long black straight girl's gaze straightened.

"Natsu, I seem to be in love, powerful, fierce, male god ah this is."

Xia, who was on the side, let out a bitter laugh.

"Wake up silly girl, no, you'd better go back and wash up."

"Che, just kidding, according to this young lady's judgment, this must be a high-cooled man, if I encounter it within the derivative world, I can only shiver and go."

The long black girl and Xia left the arena, the cost of watching a competition within the 200th place of the second rank was not low, for the two workers, watching one was already luxurious.

Of course, if there is an invitation from the people involved in the competition, they can watch the battle for free, the quota is limited to 5, but Su Xiao does not know this, his only purpose of coming to the arena is to fight.

Inside the resting barn, Su Xiao looked at his ranking, which had improved from 105th to 101st, progressing slowly.

Continuing to wait for matching opponents, with nothing to do, Su Xiao took out his tablet.

Two days later, in the trading market, Su Xiao sat behind a stall, which at this time had Intermediate Alchemy Bombs on it.

Su Xiao's mana was 2410 points, and the production cost of each Intermediate Alchemy Bomb was 30 points of mana + 100 points of Paradise Coins, which meant that he could create a total of 80 Intermediate Alchemy Bombs if he consumed all of his mana.

Due to the lack of Paradise Coins, Su Xiao could only make some for sale first, with 300 Paradise Coins per piece, with the popularity of the Intermediate Alchemy Bombs, they would soon be sold out.

Su Xiao had already set up his stall for about an hour, and at this time, the second batch of Alchemy Bombs he had made was on the stall, with 5 left.

Not long after, a Contractor who made his way to the stall bought the Alchemy Bombs, and Su Xiao's deposit was restored to a five-digit number, 23,860 Paradise Coins.

Su Xiao snorted, in the past two days he was either in the arena or practicing his sword in his exclusive room, occasionally going to Xia's restaurant.

His competitive ranking hit 56th place, with a winning streak of 256 matches, it wasn't that his strength stopped there, but matching opponents was too slow.

There was a strange thing in the past two days, Natsu seemed to be stimulated in some way and actually started to ask him about combat, he had a good relationship with Natsu and of course he wouldn't begrudge him some combat tips.

With his mana depleted, Su Xiao was unable to go and play competitively, having nothing to do, he sat behind the stall and observed the passing contractors.

"Bu Bu, have you noticed, the atmosphere of Reincarnation Paradise is a bit off these two days."

"Woof."

Boo Boo Woof dog face was bewildered.

"Never mind, asking you is the same as not asking."

Su Xiao had an ominous premonition, not only was the atmosphere not right, but the prices of goods in the past two days had also slightly increased, with a look of a mountain rain.

While Su Xiao was thinking about the changes within the Reincarnation Paradise, the prompt to return to the real world appeared.

[The Hunter has reached the limit of time to stay within the Reincarnation Paradise.]

...

[Teleportation begins. Location: Real World.]

[Warning: Due to special reasons, this real world stay is extended for 7 to 15 days.]

"Sure enough, something is about to happen. "

After a swinging 'smothering hammer', Su Xiao fainted.

Jingle Bells~

The alarm clock sounded beside his ears, Su Xiao sat up with a huff, the stabbing pain came from the back of his head, he subconsciously reached out to cover the back of his head.

"This is too much."

Su Xiao shook his head, the sharp pain at the back of his head disappeared, although the feeling of being teleported in the past was equally unpleasant, this time, the intensity was at least more than ten times that of the past.

What was even more abnormal was that Su Xiao had already converted part of his stay in the real world into a Reincarnation Paradise stay, even so, he would still stay in the real world for a minimum of 7 days and a maximum of 15 days.

This time, he could be sure that something was about to happen.

Turning off the alarm clock on the table that was ringing non-stop, pulling open the curtains on the second floor Su Xiao realized that it was morning in the real world, looking at the alarm clock, 6:00 left go.

Su Xiao went downstairs and pulled open the roll-up door of the jewelry store, basically there will be no guest jewelry store opening.

"Yo, Su Xiao?"

After a startled cry, a middle-aged fat man with a beer belly walked up, this was the owner of the next door wreath and birthday store, 'Feng Shui Big Wet' Fatty Ma.

"When did you come back, you're on the news, haha, do you need to go to my old home to hide? It's not the first time anyway. "

Although Fatty Ma is a feng shui cheater, but this guy is very righteous, a certain time across the street antique store 'earth rat' old man was beaten by a group of gangsters, Fatty Ma without saying a word, carrying an open machete went to find that gang of gangsters to take revenge, the result is that he was hospitalized for three months, belongs to the brave, but righteousness.

When Su Xiao carried the fruit to see this goods, Fatty Ma shivered and said two words: "Revenge."

Su Xiao has a good relationship with the two oddball stores next door, and has little dealings with the antique store's dirt rat, and during his revenge, some weapons were provided free of charge by Fatty Ma's brother, the owner of the flower, bird, fish and insect store.

When Su Xiao's assassination went wrong and he was hunted down by the police, Fatty Ma recognized him and provided him with the address of his hometown in a poor countryside, so that Su Xiao could take refuge there for a while.

That hospitalization, Fatty Ma was broken three ribs, severe concussion, leg bone fracture, Su Xiao went to find the gang of gangsters, those gangsters are under the dead hand, ready to waste Fatty Ma, therefore, those gangsters from then on the earth evaporated, actually has sunk the body east of the city within the ring city river.

"Only a few days back."

Su Xiao had indeed only reopened for a few days.

"Have you had breakfast yet?"

"Not yet."

"Then go to the usual place... No, you're a fugitive now."

Fatty Ma made a thoughtful gesture, he still had some of the leftover noodles from last night, and the good face of him would never invite Su Xiao to eat leftover noodles.

"It's already fine, it was a misunderstanding."

Su Xiao was now a law-abiding citizen, the police wouldn't come to trouble him, unless the scavenger's people were brain-dead.

"Misunderstanding? A wanted man ... can still be misunderstood?"

Fatty Ma obviously did not believe it.

"Experts also say that breathing air is harmful to health, don't worry, I am now a law-abiding citizen. "

Su Xiao's words stunned Fatty Ma.

"You? A law-abiding citizen? Honestly talk to a brother, you haven't killed anyone in a few days, has it been a month? I see hanging."

"Ahem."

Su Xiao coughed lightly, like four days. This could not be said to Fatty Ma.

"Really lifted the wanted?"

"Is there a need to lie to you?"

"Okay then, usual place, get in the car."

Fatty Ma walked towards his 5-handed broken Jetta, this goods is not no money, but often smashed car, after all, 'feng shui big wet'.

In the car, Fatty Ma's qi sinks into the dantian, fat right hand veins rippling, don't get me wrong, he's just giving this 5 hand broken Jetta gear.

Click, click.

Hard gear friction sound came, Jetta slowly start.

"Gotta change the oil, it's been a while, by the way, you're okay with keeping a dog to watch the house? or Erha, doesn't it tear up the house?"

Fatty Ma looked at the jewelry store from the rearview mirror, Boo Boo Woof was lying on the sofa in front of the jewelry store, Fatty Ma couldn't figure out how an assassin like Su Xiao would keep an Erha.

"It should be...no problem...right."

The car started slowly, Fatty Ma was carrying a belly as big as a pregnant woman, the gap between the steering wheel and his big belly was very small.

"Su Xiao, I don't know if you've heard, there was a huge murder case in our city, it's said that five died, the deaths were so tragic, it's said that one of them was also an official of this city."

"Never heard of it."

Su Xiao was not interested in this kind of thing, he had seen too many dead people.

"There are gossip rumors that the murderer seems to be a professional killer with a scorpion tattooed on his arm, I don't know if it's true or not."

"Killer, scorpion on the arm ..."

Su Xiao's brow furrowed and asked, "From where did you hear the news?"

"My brother's, are you interested?"

"A little ..."

Su Xiao recognized an assassin with a scorpion tattooed on his arm, he had a lifelong friendship with the other party, and that person had helped him kill someone.

If it was the other party who made the move, it shouldn't have made such a big commotion.

Chapter 764: venomous spider

In the noisy breakfast restaurant, Su Xiao was chewing half a doughnut in her mouth, and across the table was Fatty Ma with a man with a dry, thin body and dark skin.

The man looked like he had just fled from Africa, and after hastily chewing the food in his mouth, he swallowed it with a grunt, choking and rolling his eyes.

This is Fatty Ma's brother, nicknamed Blackie, the specific name is never revealed, only Fatty Ma is clear.

Black skin is the jewelry store next door to the flower, bird, fish and insect store owner, this guy in addition to firearms and other hot weapons, other weapons can get, such as bows, crossbows, control knives, electric batons, etc., with the words of this goods is, how to make money without breaking the law?

Black skin is a smart man, although he does illegal business, but he does not do the business of losing his head.

"Su Xiao, came back without saying a word."

Although Black Skin was small and thin, he spoke with a strong middle voice.

"It hasn't been long since I came back."

Su Xiao shouted for the waiter to pay the bill, the three didn't leave right away, but instead all lit a cigarette and chatted idly.

"Say, what's the matter of looking for me in such a hurry."

Hei Pi took an ashtray from the neighboring table, which was a young young couple.

"What do you know about that murder case in the city."

"Do not know much, only know that five dead, which there is a big man, and, the crime is a professional killer, it just so happens that my brother gave the victim's family to do the law, those dead people's wounds are very strange, just like ... how to describe it."

Black skin pushed the fat horse beside him, although the fat horse is black skin's own brother, but these two brothers are to black skin as the backbone.

"Eh ~" Fatty Ma considered for a moment, "Those dead people's wounds are round, the size of a fist, like being dug off a large piece of flesh alive, ughhhh mama, old disgusting."

Fatty Ma shook his head, the mention of those kinds of wounds still made his stomach a little queasy.

"Round? Like having a chunk of meat dug out ..."

Su Xiao took out his cell phone and rummaged through the photos on it as he handed it to Fatty Ma.

"Holy shit!"

When Fatty Ma saw the pictures on his phone, he subconsciously backed away, his stomach lurching.

"Like this?"

"Not much to check, take it away, it's too damn disgusting, I just finished breakfast and you're showing me this."

Unlike Fatty Ma, whose face was full of fat and trembling, Hei Pi was obviously much calmer, although his stomach was equally uncomfortable.

"I say, you don't have a special fetish, do you, why do you have this kind of photo in your cell phone?"

Hei Pi took a sharp drag on his cigarette to suppress the discomfort in his stomach.

"It was required for my old job, I used to work 'part time', you know."

Su Xiao stirred the small half bowl of porridge in the bowl with her chopsticks and seemed to be thinking about something.

"Blackie, Fatty, you guys go back first, I have something to take care of."

This kind of matter Su Xiao of course would not involve Fatty Ma and Blackie, these two were his friends.

"Call me if you need a handy guy, those with rattles are no problem, I know some Maoists, they specialize in selling those with rattles."

The 'ones with rattles' that Blackie said in his mouth were firearms.

"Well, I might go out for two days lately, please take care of Woofie in the store, you don't need to prepare his meals for him, he'll order his own takeout."

"No problem."

Blackie agreed cheerfully, although he couldn't understand how a woofstar man could order food.

The reason why Su Xiao had left Boo Boo Woof at the jewelry store was because bringing a 'Erha' feature was too obvious.

"Do you need...me to help?"

Fatty Ma was a little reluctant to leave, and Hei Pi gave him a kick on his fat ass.

"Hurry up and go, don't push Su Xiao's back."

"Hey, I'm not ... this."

Hei Pi dragged Fatty Ma out of the breakfast restaurant, although Fatty Ma was kind, but in Hei Pi's opinion, this is adding to the chaos, Hei Pi understands the killer's style of action, that is the world of blood and flesh, the word you die, not they can participate in it.

After the two Ma brothers left, Su Xiao dialed a number and hung up a few seconds later, that number was already empty.

"The wound caused by the 'scorpion's mouth', looks like it was you right, Haidong."

A smiling face appeared in Su Xiao's mind, wearing canvas gloves and a welder's cap, often saying a phrase: 'Su Xiao, see if your son understands, you be his godfather.'

"Haidong, with your methods, how could you do such an unclean job? Or was it dirty water thrown by someone else?"

Su Xiao leaned back in his chair, thinking for a moment and then got up to leave, the young couple at the neighboring table looked at him with strange gazes, as if they were looking at an older middle-aged young man, however, they didn't know that there were some things that were too far away from them, so far away that they wouldn't be able to believe them easily.

Walking on the streets of the traffic, Su Xiao was a bit at a loss as to where to go, he hadn't come into contact with the 'gray world' belonging to killers or outlaws for quite some time, and his previous information channels had basically disappeared.

As for contacting other killers, except for this relationship between him and Haidong, all other killers would keep their heads above water and would not provide even the most basic information, as the saying goes, more is better than less, people in the gray world are walking on a tightrope, so they are more careful.

After hesitating for a long time, Su Xiao dialed a number.

"Hello."

A female voice came out from the cell phone.

"This is Su Xiao."

After a few seconds of silence in the cell phone, it was a fierce storm of angry curses.

"Bastard, animal, scum, gun!!!"

Beep beep beep, the cell phone was hung up, Su Xiao smiled, this woman's certain boyfriend died in his hands, and it was not strange to have this kind of reaction.

However, Su Xiao believed that this woman would not mind this kind of thing, this woman's character is watery, I don't know how many boyfriends she has, as for this woman's origin, her name is Maggie Calamy, she is proficient in twelve languages, she is an intelligence peddler, she has three hobbies, men, money, and collecting intelligence.

After a few minutes, the cell phone rang, did not show the number.

"Say, what...thing."

Maggie Calamy's voice trembled a little.

"Don't fucking have sex and talk to me on the phone at the same time, or I'll kill you."

Su Xiao's tone began to be unkind.

"Got it, you're the one with too much to do."

In a mansion in a certain country, Maggie Calamy stood up from her bed, where a handsome blonde was lying, and he was first a bit bewildered, followed by anger.

"Are you kidding me?"

"Get out."

"What?"

"Get out!"

Maggie Calamy pulled a lady's pistol out from under her pillow and put it to the blonde hottie's head.

"OK, OK."

The handsome blonde raised his hands in the air and hurriedly got up and dressed after Maggie Calamy moved to fire her gun.

"Bullshit."

The handsome blonde murmured, walking up towards the outside of the room with a face full of displeasure.

Bang!

The sound of a gunshot rang out, and the blonde blue-eyed handsome man's body trembled, staggering a few steps forward.

Bang, bang, bang...

After a few shots, the blonde blue-eyed handsome man fell into a pool of blood, his body twitching from time to time.

"HELP..."

Bang.

A shot to the head, the blonde blue-eyed handsome man stood up his body, in Su Xiao's words, the woman Maggie Karami was like a poisonous spider.

"Where were we?"

Maggie Karami threw down the gun in her hand, nothing seemed to have happened.

"Buying a piece of information."

"Looks like business, say."

Maggie Calamy's Chinese was not only fluent, it was not raw.

"Sea Scorpion's recent situation."

"Sea Scorpion ... that psycho who likes to stab people with strange weapons?"

"That's my friend, if you dare to repeat what you just said on one side, I'll chop you up and throw you in the sea to feed the fish."

On the other side of the phone, the corner of Su Xiao's mouth curled up.

The smile on Maggie Karami's face disappeared.

"I'm sorry, but as for the information on the Sea Scorpion ... two million dollars."

"Ayo k up mi?"

Su Xiao burst out in broken English, and Maggie Karami was amused.

"No kidding you, he gets into the most trouble."

Chapter 765: Goodbye, my friend.

"Trouble?"

"Yeah, trouble, that's why he's been on a killing spree lately, too specific to be too clear."

"Tell me about it."

"Money."

"Account number."

"CH..."

Su Xiao hung up the phone and wired money to an account through his cell phone, he glanced at the balance in passing and accidentally realized that his savings were not much anymore, although it was enough for an ordinary person to spend for a lifetime, at the rate he was spending, this money would not last for long, the good thing was that he didn't have to worry about money for a short period of time, even if he was short of money, he had a way to get it.

The phone dialed again, and Maggie Calamy began to introduce the Sea Scorpion, which was Haidong's nickname.

"Sea Scorpion's son died?!"

Su Xiao's biting muscles protruded.

"Yes, the current Sea Scorpion is the crazy ... crazy person, as long as it is related to the death of his son, he will not leave a single person behind."

Maggie Karami exhaled, she was clear that just now, one of her feet had already stepped into the coffin, and fortunately she reacted quickly.

"Where is he now?"

"Your country, **City."

"And?"

"Then the exact address is unclear."

The sound of embarrassed laughter came from Maggie Calamy.

"Two million dollars and you give me this kind of information? Or dollars."

"One hour."

Maggie Karami hung up. It didn't take an hour, Maggie Calamy only kept Su Xiao on hold for 40 minutes or so before she called.

"The Sea Scorpion appeared in your downtown area, near Bright Road, six hours ago, and that's all the information."

"That'll do."

Su Xiao had already guessed Sea Scorpion's purpose, Bright Road was the street where he had opened his jewelry store, and Sea Scorpion knew that Su Xiao had opened a jewelry store there and was obviously going to look for him, but unfortunately, at that time, Su Xiao was still inside Reincarnation Paradise.

Stopping a cab, Su Xiao turned back to the jewelry store, Fatty Ma in front of the store was a little surprised when he saw him.

"Things are done? So efficient?"

"It's not done for now."

Su Xiao checked in front of the jewelry store, and not a moment later, he found an old-fashioned cell phone in the gap next to the roll-up door, which had the biggest advantage of having a long standby time.

Opening the cell phone and looking through the phone book, there were three calls stored on it.

Professional welder: 159 *****.

Professional excavator: 135*****.

Professional fake license maker: 155*****.

Instead of dialing these numbers, Su Xiao walked into the jewelry store, took out a pen and paper, and wrote out a number on it.

Ten minutes later, Su Xiao realized a phone number and dialed the number.

Doo ~ doo ~

The call went unanswered for a long time, and just as Su Xiao was about to hang up and use other methods to trace the number, the call was picked up.

"Dig...digger, which...home ... cough cough."

Su Xiao immediately picked up, "Success is in the hands of the people, and planning is in the hands of the sky."

"Africa, two shots, chest, small abdomen."

The opposite side of the phone said a place name.

"Libya, calf, one cut."

There was silence on the phone for a moment.

"I'm probably, going to fail."

Kaito's voice was weak, and from time to time he would cough loudly and dryly.

"Address, I'll come to you."

"No, it's too dangerous."

"Never mind."

Su Xiao was no longer the Slayer she once was.

"Hahaha, it is really your style, tube how many people he damn, slaughtered, but this time ... forget it, my only hope to live is gone, there is no point in living."

From this tone of voice can be heard, Haidong has been heart dead, his only spiritual pillar is dead, he has no other ideas except revenge.

"How much longer can I hold on. "

"At most a few minutes put, hit by three shots, lungs were pierced, heart also has a certain degree of broken, cannot be saved."

"Oh."

Su Xiao rested her elbow on the table, covering her eyes with one hand.

"My friend, don't be sad about me, we are murderous executioners, and heaven forbid, there will be this day."

"Hmm."

Su Xiao's breath became more and more furious: "The person you want to kill, died."

"Only by a little bit."

"Who!"

"..."

The phone lapsed into silence for a moment.

"I'm not contacting you to ask you to kill someone for me, I just wanted to talk to you, you've changed, and it's a good change now, hang up."

Inside an abandoned factory building, a black-haired man covered in blood hung up the phone and slammed it with all his might, picking up the card and breaking it.

"Different from before, no longer the avenger or killer with no desire to live and young eyes full of death, congratulations on being able to live in style, I envy you asshole, as a friend, I wish you to keep that mentality."

The rise and fall of the man's chest grew fainter and fainter as with the last of his strength he pulled out a lighter, lit it around and threw it on a pile of gasoline stained rags at his feet, the flames quickly engulfing the place.

Inside the jewelry store, Su Xiao's breathing gradually calmed down, his best friend, dead.

"Boo Boo."

Seeing that Su Xiao's mood was not right, Boo Boo Woof rushed forward.

"Track the odor on the phone."

"Woof."

Boo Boo Woof brought his head close to the phone and sniffed it carefully for a few minutes.

"Woof!"

Bu Bu Wang ran towards the outside of the jewelry store, Su Xiao immediately followed, at this time Fatty Ma stood at the door.

"Let's borrow the car."

"No problem, don't drive that broken car, I have a big guy in my garage."

Fatty Ma threw in a set of keys.

"Thanks a lot."

Su Xiao and Bubu Wang walked toward the street corner.

"Someone's going to be out of luck."

Hei Pi came to the entrance of the jewelry store at some point.

"I've known Su Xiao for a while, I've never seen him have this kind of expression, I wonder who is so unlucky."

...

In this city, Xiangrui Garden Community.

Xiangrui Garden Community is different from ordinary neighborhoods, there are no high-rise buildings here, Xiangrui Community consists of a single villa, located at the edge of the city, the air is extraordinarily fresh.

In the center of the community, in a villa, several young people are sitting around in the living room playing cards, and one of the young people wearing earrings is a bit annoyed.

"F*ck, when is this damn day going to end, what does that crazy dog want."

The young man wearing earrings slammed down the poker in his hand, he had been hiding here for almost a week.

"Brother Xu, where on earth did you mess with that madman, I overheard your family's old man say, that's a professional killer? It's pretty awesome, isn't it?"

A young man with white skin and a feminine look also threw down the poker in his hand, he picked up the wine cup on the coffee table and took a small sip.

"Don't mention it, I just go out to walk the dog, Pit Bulls you all know, can't walk in the city, I'll go to the West Ring Road that neighborhood to walk, who knows a child suddenly ran out, the dog this thing who runs after who, Pit Bulls that power I can hold? Two mouths, the child died."

Studs youth named Zhang Xutian, his father's assets in the city can be ranked in the top three, although Zhang Xutian is a rich second-generation, every day to spend the day, but not up to the degree of bullying men and women, he has two hobbies, women and potent dogs.

Zhang Xutian took his beloved dog for a walk a week ago, just a day ago, Haidong brought his son to the city, he was heard that Su Xiao was wanted, and then the wanted was lifted, he brought his son is to find Su Xiao, nothing too important, just an old friend who hasn't seen him in a long time, and wants to get together.

As for whether he can find Su Xiao, Haidong is not sure, telephone contact is impossible. The two men changed their numbers no less often than they changed their clothes.

Haidong's son is very understanding, already 7 years old, to the age of elementary school, Haidong's idea is that Su Xiao is fierce and famous in this city, and has stopped working as a killer, even if he has an accident one day, Su Xiao can help him take care of his son.

On the day of the accident, Xudong took a commission, not to kill, but to hospitalize the target for more than a year, the killer took a commission, not only to kill so simple.

The client who proposed the commission is not small, Xudong can't refuse, he left his son alone in the rented room, this kind of thing is not once or twice, it is the daily routine of this father and son, he can't possibly drag his family when he executes the commission, and Xudong doesn't want to let his son lift to the assassin's anything.

When Haidong returned to the city after completing his commission and was ready to take his son to Su Xiao, what he saw was his son's cold corpse, his tender neck full of bloody bite marks.

This may be retribution, no matter how righteous Haidong is to his friends, he is after all making money by killing people.

Chapter 766: Awareness X Awakening

If an ordinary person encounters this kind of thing, he will definitely take conventional means to seek justice, but Haidong is different, he is an assassin, he knows clearly that with the other party's financial power and social status, normal means can't seek justice for his son, he doesn't care about the other party's compensation, or let the other party go to jail.

Haidong's revenge began, he used only one day to completely find out the matter of the dragon start selling, but the opponent's reaction is faster, more strange thing, this kind of murder, the police actually did not pay too much attention to this has been very unusual!

Zhang Xutian is the father is the city's real estate tycoon, named Zhang Da, do real estate this line, the three religions and nine streams of people will be in contact with, because of this, he learned of the identity of Haidong through special channels, immediately clear, this matter is not through the loss of money or the legal route can be resolved.

As the saying goes, if you don't do it, the little one is dead, the old one also get dead on a clean slate, since the other party is a killer, it's even better, it's very likely that no one will be held accountable for the death of the other party, Zhang Da through the introduction of a friend, contacted a number of 'killers'.

After meeting Zhang Da realized that these 'killers' are just a group of mud legs, some even did not touch the gun, only with a boldness to kill.

Discovering this, Zhang Da did not give up, the other party is a professional killer is not false, but he has money, money can make the devil mill, he cannot find professional killers, find some more amateurs is no problem at all, besides, they are the side of the defense, waiting for the other party to retaliate on it.

Zhang Da is also ruthless enough, enough to hire more than 80 amateur killers, these people although the technique is not good, but they have the courage, and Zhang Da also got some crude handguns, these amateur killers have a gun, the combat power obviously improved.

Both sides in four days after the fight, the result is that Haidong killed nearly 40 amateur killers, hit by three stray bullets.

Overall, this matter no longer needs to be evaluated by right or wrong, both sides are not good people, since they are not good people, then use the most primitive method to solve the problem, the result is that Haidong lost.

A villa estate at the edge of the city, this is Zhang Da's home, so luxurious that it is unbelievable.

At this moment, a party was going on inside the villa, and the protagonist of the party was a middle-aged man with a small, solid figure.

The middle-aged man's dress is very well-dressed, but the words and actions of the behavior of the light through the bandit, he is Zhang Da, with the demolition of the family, and then into the real estate industry.

"To all of you, a great favor is not appreciated."

Zhang Da raised a glass of wine, he didn't let these amateur assassins leave immediately, he was afraid that Haidong was still alive.

The other people on the table somewhat coped with raising a glass of wine, they were all a little distracted, after all, they had just escaped from death, in today they had seen the difference between amateur killers and professional killers, if it was not for a few shots in the chaotic shot in the blindfold, they were all going to die, the other side of the gods, kill them as if they were killing chickens and slaughtering dogs.

At this time Zhang Da heart also has no bottom, this time a full dead more than forty people, although these people are not fugitives is a loner, and the body has been dealt with, but before that burst of gunfire is not good to put off the past, fortunately, this is not in the city, or even put off the room.

In fact, Zhang Da overthinks, the police now have no time to pay attention to them, there are more troublesome things in the city, and all the police are busy and anxious.

"Boss Zhang is polite, I don't know the subsequent remuneration ..."

These amateur killers don't have the heart to drink, they just want to get paid and leave now.

Crunch~

The sound of sharp brakes came from outside the manor, Zhang Da's heart chilled, subconsciously thinking that the police had arrived.

A man in a black suit pushed open the front door of the villa, and Zhang Da was relieved to see the attire of the visitor.

"This one is?"

Zhang Da got up and greeted the man in the suit, the two of them had just gotten close when Zhang Da suddenly felt his face burning hot.

Slap! After a loud slap, a pin drop could be heard in the room.

When did Zhang Da receive this kind of insult, his face was bruised and his whole body trembled, although he was angry, he subconsciously felt that things were not right.

"Whoever you mess with, where you got the guts to be a real estate developer, I was already busy, and now there's an even more terrifying guy."

"You ..."

Zhang Da's words retracted at the edge of his mouth as he saw a soldier in a black combat uniform rushing close to the room, these soldiers had advanced weapons that could only be seen in movies.

"Captain, all relevant personnel have been controlled, please instruct."

An officer with the rank of second lieutenant gave a standard military salute to the man in the suit.

"Very well."

The man in the suit sighed, all of these people in the villa were bargaining chips, and there would be room to maneuver when negotiating with someone later.

"Sir, I'm with ...."

Zhang Da was just about to pull the strings, when the man in the suit raised his hand and gave another big slap.

"Don't tell me who you know, honestly wait here."

Just at this time, the cell phone inside Zhang Da's coat pocket rang, the man in the suit took out his cell phone, connected, and hung up the phone point after a few words.

Zhang Da's eyes showed the color of anticipation, just his backup means.

"It's enough for you to die on your own, less to involve others."

The cell phone slipped out of the suit man's hand and was crushed by his foot, the ground was slightly dented a bit, the officer on the side couldn't help but give a sideways glance, he didn't know much about it, he only knew that the department where the suit man was from had a lot of power.

That's right, the man in the suit was an indentured servant, he was a member of the Scavengers, and the main thing that the Scavengers did was to suppress or pacify the indentured servants in the real world.

Most of the dishonest contractors were below the third rank, and when they reached the third rank and above, most contractors would not cause trouble in the real world except for special circumstances.

If it's a contractee above the third order, there's nothing the scavenger can actually do about it, the higher ranked contractees don't care about the scavenger's treatment and don't want to be bound by others.

Even so, the state apparatus is not a pose, there are very few high level contractors serving in the state apparatus, they are all very cautious, they will not easily make a move in the real world, they are the last resort to deal with the situation, if they make a move, the real world will be in chaos, and at that time, Reincarnation Paradise will show its hideous side, the real world is very special to Reincarnation Paradise.

Around the villa, a man in a suit was standing by, Su Xiao had helped them to solve the second-order contractors, and on this day, Su Xiao was not on their side.

In the days and years of waiting, the night fell, the street lights around the villa were lit up, and a man and a dog stood under the street lights.

"Is this it."

Su Xiao threw down the information in his hand, on it was Zhang Da and Zhang Xutian's information and photos, in the previous ten hours or so, he had already understood the entirety of the matter.

Right or wrong was something that children cared about, not to mention that there was no right or wrong in this matter, in the end of the development, it was just a matter of whose fists were harder than who's fists.

Haidong's fists were not hard enough, but his friend Su Xiao had a pair of 'titanium fists'.

Night dark and windy killing night, tonight Zhang Da and Zhang Xutian's father and son will both die, either they die or Su Xiao dies, there is no choice.

After approaching the vicinity of the villa, Su Xiao found Scavenger's men, these men's black suits were too iconic.

"Friends over there, waiting for you for a long time."

A man in a suit greeted him, he was the one who slapped Zhang Da twice, Su Xiao didn't conceal his breath, it was normal to be discovered by him.

"Scavengers appeared, can I assume which side of Zhang Da you are on?"

"Of course, no, we are on your side, after all, we were born and died in a place, we have learned about Haidong's matter, I don't want to say comforting bullshit, I can only say that that might be fate."

The man in the suit handed over two photos.

"Your friend is buried, just east of the city, it's got a nice view."

Su Xiao knotted the photos, Qingdao's attitude surprised him, in fact, Qingdao was forced to do so, and the situation in Lin City was more difficult to clean up than here.

The man in the suit tentatively asked, "The Zhang family father and son must die? "

"Yes, they die, or I die. "

The man in the suit let out a bitter laugh at that response.

"A killer friend, is it worth it, these people won't live, and they'll get what they deserve."

"A friend is a friend, nothing worth it or not."

Haidong had helped Su Xiao kill people, and today it was Su Xiao who helped him destroy his enemies.

"It's okay, the Zhang family's father and son are not good birds, making a bunch of trouble, as for those amateur killers, forget about it, do whatever you want, only one thing, you can't make a big commotion, such as using fully automatic firearms or explosives, otherwise it won't end well for both of us."

Su Xiao walked past the man in the suit and walked straight towards the villa, at this time, the scavenger personnel in the villa had all withdrawn.

Su Xiao pushed the door and walked into the villa, a group of differently dressed amateur killers were standing by with table and chair legs or clothesline polls, their weapons had already been taken away, and now they interpreted what was meant by shrimp soldiers.

Zhang family father and son's face was deathly gray, but when they saw that there was only Su Xiao, the two fathers and sons sighed in relief at the same time, and they had already guessed the general picture of what happened.

"Get him killed, I'll give you ten times the reward!"

Those amateur killers didn't move, they weren't sure what was going on.

"What are you waiting for, either he dies or we die today."

Zhang Da carried a baseball bat, he was a fighter when he was young and had some fighting ability.

Su Xiao walked straight towards the people in the room, picking up a table knife on the dining table in his hand, seeing him acting like this, those amateur killers started to show a fierce light in their eyes.

After 10 seconds, there was no other living person in the living room except Su Xiao.

Ten days later, in the east of the city, the blazing sun was in the sky and the breeze was pleasant.

In front of a large and a small grave, sat a man.

"Dongzi, I've come to see you again, I've brought roasted chicken."

Su Xiao lit a cigarette and placed it in front of Haidong's tombstone.

"Maybe you are right, the life of a killer is not a life at all, com that's just surviving, fortunately I found an interesting place where I can find fun, if once I fought for revenge, then I realized that my interest is to fight, it's fun to fight with others, if I can stand at the highest point, I might be able to see a different view and no longer be driven by a certain being."

Su Xiao now seems to be powerful, in reality, he is driven by the reincarnation paradise, as for the destruction of the reincarnation paradise a kind of idea, he has not had, driven or coerced, and the reincarnation paradise is helping him to become stronger, only the means of becoming stronger extreme.

If you want to be free in the true sense of the word, the only way to be free is to stand on top of the fixed point, with the strength of the stronger, the wider the scenery, the more things you can do, rather than mediocrity in life, Su Xiao is more willing to enjoy the scenery in the stronger, as for the spirit of the support, the people who have a strong enough mind, do not need to rely on that kind of thing.

In a strong physical body, a stronger heart will be warmed up, a strong heart that is unchanged by Tarzan, Su Xiao just happens to have both, that's why he was able to survive in the cruel Reincarnation Paradise until now.

Thinking about this point, Su Xiao found that the whole world was different, the gloom in his heart gradually dispersed, his kind of dead aura changed, becoming more pure, sharp, fierce, with aggression, this is actually the most necessary thing for a person practicing swords, he didn't notice this before, but now, he noticed it.

"Haidong, many thanks, you made me realize certain things."

[Alert: A new spin-off world is about to open, the hunter will return to Reincarnation Paradise, please make sure there are no witnesses around you].

[Hint: The new spin-off world is a mega world, there will be more than ten adventuring groups entering it, involving confrontations with alien forces, large battlefields, etc.]

[The Paradise Merit System will open soon.]

[World Scramble Battle will open soon.]

[Transmission in progress. ... Transmission location: Reincarnation Paradise.]

Chapter 767: internal power struggle

[Teleportation complete, have teleported the hunter to the exclusive room.]

Su Xiao felt that something was missing after seeing the prompt from Reincarnation Paradise.

"This is gone? When exactly is the time to enter the Derivative World."

Su Xiao's inquiry was answered, but the reply was not very clear.

[Long-distance spatial teleportation in preparation ... Hunters just need to wait].

One word, wait.

Su Xiao and Boo Boo Woof left the exclusive room, and just as they went out, Su Xiao found that the scene in front of him was not right, the sky above the Reincarnation Paradise was dark and gloomy, and there were blood-colored lines flickering vaguely in the gray.

There was a faint fishy-sweet smell in the air, and the entire Reincarnation Paradise gave people a somewhat depressing, bloody, mountainous and rainy feeling.

The passing contractors were in a hurry, and one contractor was sitting against the side of the street, holding a bottle of spirits in his hand and pouring it into his mouth with a big gulp.

"Hmm~"

The sound of delicate gasping came from within a side alley, Su Xiao looked sideways, a pair of men and women were in the middle of an 'alleyway battle', not caring about the gazes of others, as if it was the last madness.

Su Xiao found one thing, those low rank contractors with not so strong breath were calm, while those who were drinking and indulging lust were all high rank contractors, this could be that the more you know, the clearer you know what kind of horror you have to face.

"Everyone guild base gathering, you guys, don't freeze."

An angry roar came from the distance, and several contractors with extremely strong breaths and calm steps ran quickly in the direction of the source of the sound.

Judging from the aura of these contractors, it was conservatively estimated that they were of the third rank or above, and might even be fifth or sixth rank contractors.

Why would a high-ranked Contractor react this way? This could only mean one thing that the World Scramble was terrifying, so terrifying that these battle-hardened high-ranked contractors couldn't handle it with ease.

Su Xiao walked towards the trading market, and just as he arrived at the trading market, he was shocked by the scene in front of him.

On the various stalls, blue, purple equipment was all over the place, and occasionally one could see dark purple or light gold equipment, if one looked carefully, gold equipment was not absent, it was just rare.

The fact that this situation would occur should be that the various large adventuring groups or merchants were selling off equipment that they couldn't use for the time being, turning them into Paradise Coins and thus enhancing their strength.

Su Xiao strolled around a few times within the trading market, and he was surprised to find that the equipment was at least 20% lower than the usual price, and what was even more shocking was that there were almost no recovery medicines or food items in the entire trading market.

He made his way to a stall that had a blue quality recovery item for 17,000 Paradise Coins, if it was in the past, this price could only be described as ridiculous.

However, more than ten seconds after this blue recovery item was displayed, it was directly bought by a high-level Contractor who was on the pathway, without bargaining at all.

The Skill Enhancement Hall and Equipment Enhancement Hall were overcrowded, while the Arena was as haunted as a ghost.

Noticing this situation, Su Xiao found a secluded cafe and began to manufacture the [No. 1 Potion], which was when the benefits of being able to manufacture recovery items manifested.

The cost of the Number One Potion was 5,000 Paradise Coins + 300 mana points, Su Xiao still had 23,860 Paradise Coins left, he decisively chose to create 4 bottles.

The number one potion that he had previously created still had leftovers, and with these 4 bottles, there were a total of 8 bottles of number one potions.

[No.1 Potion (Improved Version)]

Place of Origin: Reincarnation Paradise

Quality: Purple

Type: Recovery

Effect: After drinking it, it can rapidly restore 87% of life value, and continue to restore life value for the next 30 seconds, 3 points per second, and restore a certain degree of internal organ injuries.

Score: 140

Description: A product of alchemy, improved many times, with drastically reduced side effects.

...

Su Xiao's recovery items were sufficient, even if the world battle he was about to face was brutal, it was still enough to use, and he had a total of recovery items:

[No.1 Potion (Purple)] x 8

[Holy Water - Medium Bottle (99% Concentration) (Pale Gold)] × 1, Effect: Recover 80% of Life Value and 80% of Mana, and heal wounds quickly.

[Yida Gum] × 15 pieces, Effect: Put it in your mouth and chew it to recover 15 mana points per minute, expires after 5 minutes of chewing.

[Delicious Roasted Turkey]×1,Effect: Recovers 90% of life value, 30% of mana, and removes abnormal status for one hour after consumption.

These were all high level goods that Su Xiao hadn't bothered to use before, perhaps in the next world, these things could save him more than one life.

Rumble!

A loud bang came from above, Su Xiao looked up and found that a film of blood-colored light appeared above the Reincarnation Paradise.

[Announcement: Preparation for long-distance spatial teleportation is complete, please get ready for all ranks of contractors].

[Announcement: The opponent of this World Battle is 'Apocalypse Paradise'].

[Announcement: The Tree of Void is notarized in ...]

[Announcement: Completing the notarization, during the World Contest, neither Reincarnation Paradise nor Apocalypse Paradise may fund the ruling shuttlers in any sense]]

[Announcement: According to Initial Law #1548762, the Tree of Void is absolutely neutral.]

The numerous mysteries in Su Xiao's heart were solved a bit after these hints appeared, he had been wondering about the purpose and meaning of the existence of the Reincarnation Paradise before, a game for gods and demons? It seems not, something at that level of gods and devils might not be as capable as the Reincarnation Paradise.

Now it seems that although Reincarnation Paradise is already omnipotent to Su Xiao, it is not without rivals, there are other existences similar to Reincarnation Paradise, but listening to the name of the Apocalypse Paradise, Su Xiao felt that this might be a place that originated from the same source as the Reincarnation Paradise, and the war between the two sides was notarized by other existences, and didn't have that kind of vestigial sense of tearing each other apart, which means that this is part of the internal struggle for "Resources" behavior, it was just that the resources that both sides were fighting for were somewhat amazing, a world.

From the ultimate purpose of the world scramble war period can be seen, the more worlds the Wheeled Paradise has, the more opportunities the contractors within the Wheeled Paradise will have to become stronger, the stronger the contractors, the more worlds they will be able to capture, thus forming a virtuous cycle, the Wheeled Paradise will become even more vast.

As the saying goes, an army is only as good as its strength. The mystery of the Reincarnation Paradise cultivating contractors to become stronger is considered to be a small part of the solution.

However, Su Xiao still had a lot of unanswered questions, such as what the Void was, and what the Tree of Void existed, but with his current power, he couldn't touch these.

However, Su Xiao vaguely felt that the void should be an extremely vast place, perhaps the shadow of the extinction of the law is from there.

With his current strength not to mention entering the void to fight, he didn't even seem to have the qualifications to enter the void.

[Hint: The Hunters will be participating in the Second Order World Battle].

[Hint: You have obtained Generalized Language Lv.40 (Temporary Skill), forgotten after the World Scramble Battle, this is a skill granted by both parties' certifications].

[Hint: Preparation for long-distance space teleportation is complete, first stop, Starry Sky Transit Station.]

Su Xiao took a deep breath, literally, he was ready to be hit in the back of the head by a train, the Boo Boo Woof on the side whimpered a few times.

The spatial force wrapped Su Xiao, just as his whole body's muscles tightened, he unexpectedly realized that this time, the spatial force was actually extraordinarily calm.

Su Xiao's eyes went black, and for the first time, the back of his head Jun was not destroyed when he was teleported over a long distance.

His consciousness was hazy, and Su Xiao felt that he was rapidly traveling through a certain passageway.

After an unknown amount of time, Su Xiao's consciousness recovered, and as his eyes looked around, he was surprised to find that he was actually floating in a starry river.

Su Xiao stood up, under his feet was the feeling of being on solid ground, it seemed that he was not floating, he was standing on an invisible barrier.

At the same time he got up, Su Xiao saw at least thousands of contractors around him, these people were all bewildered, it seemed to be the first time they experienced this kind of situation, although it was said that they were bewildered, but these second-rank contractors were not stupid, they knew that this time, the opponents were not each other, but that what was the Apocalypse Paradise's contractors.

These contractors were not all the contractors who participated in the world war, they were only a small part of the second rank contractors, the contractors who participated in the war this time, were more than imagined, they were just no longer in the same world, the contractors who were in the same world as Su Xiao were these more than a thousand contractors of the same rank.

[Tip: Long distance space teleportation is being prepared, estimated time taken is 30 minutes, second stop location: Planet Vis, this is the final destination].

Chapter 768: extreme quality

"Look over there."

An indentured servant shouted, following the direction of his finger, Su Xiao saw that there were more than a thousand people not far from the Star River, an invisible barrier separated the two sides, these people's hair color and pupil color were a bit special, some were green and purple pupils, some were white and red pupils, they were supposed to be indentured servants of the Apocalypse Paradise.

"Reincarnation Paradise's stupid balls, look this way."

The crowd of contractors on Su Xiao's side were a bit stunned, not to mention the contractors on their side, even some of the people on the enemy's side were dumbfounded.

"Should we ... curse back?"

"Isn't this putting fart, of course we should curse back?"

A strong man with a big waist took off his shirt and cleared his throat.

"Opposite, I say you immortal board."

This roar was extremely loud, it was this burly man's original skill, a fusion of the self-created version of 'Lion's Roar Kung Fu' + Taunting Skill, which was similar to Lion's Roar Kung Fu + One Yang Finger's 'You come over ah'.

"Eh well, this voice, shook my brain."

A physically weaker mage shook his head, the burly man was his teammate and was the closest to him, after he recovered a bit, a dark purple staff appeared in his hand, he raised the staff up high, a middle finger made up of fire elements appeared in the sky above him, it was at least a few meters long, and there was also a line of big words above the middle finger: 'Red Inferno Middle Finger, Stab You in the Old Wood.'

Master Fa was just different, not to mention the control of the fire element, this brainwave alone was extraordinary.

Reincarnation Paradise's side's taunts were very powerful, but unfortunately, those contractors on the opposite side were obviously not from Earth, although there was a common language, they couldn't understand most of the dialects with insulting meanings, like the phrase "stab you in the old wood", translated in the other side's language, it was: "Stabbing the old family tree with some kind of object." the old family tree.'

But Fa's oversized middle finger worked, and the thing was clearly universal.

Those people on the other side also used elements or energy to make a middle finger, and not only that, those people also used their hands to make the middle finger gesture.

Su Xiao's side was also not willing to show weakness, almost all the contractors, wrapped in Su Xiao, put up their middle fingers.

Both sides provoked each other in this way, and the pressure from before actually dissipated a lot.

The scolding war began, although both sides' strength far exceeded that of ordinary people, and after that, both sides were still killing each other, there was no room for reconciliation.

Su Xiao and Bubu Wang stood in a line and gave their middle fingers to those people from Apocalypse Paradise, causing the nearby contractors to look at them sideways.

After the cursing war lasted for ten minutes, the sound was much lower, not that both sides were tired, but they ran out of words. Thinking about this kind of Su Xiao, killing people he was good at, as for sparring, he wasn't very good at it.

But the river and mountain generation has talents, Su Xiao's side of the 'lion roar gong' strong man, and a small eye brother on the cursing extraordinarily joyful, ten minutes past, the two of them cursing words never repeated.

These two big spammers obviously caused the opposite side of the attention of those people, that side also has people who are good at this way, and began and lion roar strong man + eyes little brother spray.

The scene was fiery and unusual, and the quality was extremely low.

Although the scene is chaotic, Su Xiao noticed that among the personnel on his side, many contractors are gathered together, these should be an individual adventure group organization.

After twenty minutes of 'friendly' exchanges between the two sides, that Lion Roaring Kung Fu Strong Man retreated from the 'battle line', leaving only Eyes Little Brother alone, seeing this situation, Eyes Little Brother also retreated into the crowd.

"Retreat."

A broken cry came from the enemy side, along with this broken cry, a stunningly beautiful woman with a full head of long silver hair and amber-colored pupils slowly walked to the front of the crowd.

As she stepped out of the crowd, everyone on the enemy side actually took a step back.

Seeing this scene, Su Xiao's eyes narrowed, this was not good, no one on his side had this kind of intimidating power, that is to say, all the people on the enemy side were probably members of the same organization.

"Good luck, meeting a group of rabble."

The silver-haired beauty swept her eyes over the crowd on the Reincarnation Paradise side and smiled.

"Unexpected arrogance, I hope you still maintain that attitude when the war starts."

The fire-type mage from the already party stepped out of the crowd, pointing his staff in his hand at the silver-haired beauty.

"You? But qualifications. "

The silver-haired beauty laughed and shook her head, returning to the crowd within the Apocalypse Paradise party.

"If you want to fight our Queen of the Hee, at least send out an Order, your kind ... meh."

The people from the Apocalypse Paradise party spoke out to taunt, that Fire Master didn't care, perhaps it was the difference in power systems, those people from Apocalypse Paradise didn't recognize his dark purple suit, with these three suits, his strength could be ranked in the top few in the second rank.

[Announcement: Preparation for long-distance spatial teleportation completed, about to arrive at destination].

Su Xiao's eyes went black, and the familiar feeling of teleportation appeared here again.

Light flickered, sunlight pierced into his pupils, and when Su Xiao's consciousness awoke, he found that in front of his eyes was a soldier wearing half metal lock armor, a metal helmet, holding various weapons, and with a straight body, and dried blood and broken flesh could still be seen on the armor of these soldiers.

The wind was blowing, and on a plain with no grass, countless soldiers formed a dozen or so rectangular marching formations, neatly arranged, conservatively estimating that the number of people was at least 100,000 or more.

Whoosh~

A magic bullet flew high into the air and exploded with a loud bang.

"Kill, kill, kill!"

The roar of an army of this scale could only be described as heart-shattering, this solemn aura, even Su Xiao had a sense of blood boiling.

[Entering the world; Doyal Ancient Continent (World Scramble Region)]

World Difficulty: Lv.10 ~ Lv.29 (World of War)

Source of the World; The Source of the World cannot be obtained in this world.

World Description; Sword and magic, differences and hatred between races and beliefs, the never-ending war between the Empire and the Horde Alliance, only to fight for a more fertile territory.

Dragon Empire (your side's camp): an ancient empire that has existed for 3700 years, there are multiple races under its rule, led by humans, with multiple elves (wood elves, moon elves, etc.) and giants dependent on it, and the empire is based on a system of empires.

The capital of the Dragon Empire is located in Gothia (Holy Dragon City).

Horde Alliance (enemy camp): an alliance older than the Dragon Empire, due to the number of races, the power of the serious division, the region is barren of resources, the Horde Alliance consists of four major races: orcs (bullheads, dogheads, etc.), trolls, goblins, dwarves, the parliamentary system.

The capital of the tribal alliance: Kay Mountain (Chimney Mountain).

The war between the empire and the tribe has lasted for 70 years, this is not the first war, if counted, this is the thirty-sixth large-scale war, the cause of this war is the conflict between the elf race and the dwarf race, the conflict is seriously aggravated after the war that touched the whole piece of the 'DuoYaGu continent' broke out, from the view of the previous wars, the war is still a tribal This war is still intentionally provoked by the Horde, judging from the previous wars.

The war left both sides bruised and battered, but the resources of the 'Duo Ya Gu Continent' were not enough to feed the seven huge races (three on the imperial side and four on the tribal side), and when someone is fed, someone will suffer, and there is no justice in the war, but only for the clansmen to be able to live happily ever after.

There are three large-scale war sites, namely: the Great Canyon of the Shire (holding), the Fortress of Odle (holding), and the Plains of the Black Earth (captured 15 natural years ago).

The Hunters are in the war zone: the Black Earth Plains.

Affiliated forces: Dragon Empire, Iron Blood Legion.

Position: third class soldier.

War mission; World's Core.

Hunting Missions: none (no violators on this world).

WARNING: Do not mention anything about Reincarnation Paradise with the creatures of this world; if the warning does not work, they will be notarized and executed!

Tip: Merit system is open, killing enemy generals will earn you 1 to 3 merits, killing enemy contractors will earn you 3 to 5 merits, if the war is won, rewards will be given according to the merit value.

Chapter 769: important task

There was a lot of information in the world profile this time, and Su Xiao only understood it roughly at one time.

Overall, this world was similar to the Survival Trial world, belonging to that kind of unknown galaxy.

Unlike the Survival Trial, this world was many times more dangerous, not to mention the threat of enemy contractors, let's just say the battlefield he was currently in.

Su Xiao experienced this kind of cold weapon large battlefield for the first time, now everywhere he looked were soldiers, these soldiers were physically strong and full of blood, at a glance, they were often hovering on the edge of life and death, he desperately wanted to know the degree of force in this world, so he immediately used his Apostle's Eye to detect the soldiers beside him.

The information was as follows

Name: Ivan Redden

Category: Human

Position: Ironborn Legion Private Third Class, Spearman

HP: 100%

Mana: 220/220

Power: 30

Agility: 31

Physical Strength: 29

Intelligence: 22

Charisma: 5

Skill 1: Trained (Passive Lv.10), boosts 180 life points.

Skill 2: Teamwork (Passive LV.16), +1 Strength, Agility, Stamina when the number of soldiers reaches 100, +2 Strength, Agility, Stamina when the number of soldiers reaches 1,000, +3 Strength, Agility, Stamina when the number of soldiers reaches 10,000,.

Skill 3: V-Shaped Military Formation (Passive LV.20), Form a V-Shaped Military Formation from 1,200 soldiers, +10% Attack Power and +50% Aura of individual soldiers.

Skill 4: Concave Military Formation (Passive LV.20), form a concave military formation from 3000 soldiers, individual soldier defense +6, aura +60%.

After seeing the strength of this third class soldier, Su Xiao had a sense of sweating, this kind of strength of soldiers, which were countless in wars, were conservatively estimated to be in the tens of thousands.

In fact, Su Xiao guessed wrongly, the number of soldiers with this kind of strength was more than 100,000, moreover, there were even stronger soldiers than this, and not counting the enemy.

If soldiers of this strength formed a battle formation, the lethality that erupted would increase exponentially.

Being strong on one's own side is sometimes not a good thing, bearing in mind that the war has been going on for 70 years, which means that the enemy's strength is not below that.

Moreover, looking at the current momentum, Su Xiao was in the middle of these soldiers, which meant that the war was about to break out, which made him a little speechless, the intensity of this world was too high-powered.

Taking advantage of the fact that the war hadn't started yet, Su Xiao checked the war missions.

[War Mission: The World's Core (First Ring, Total 2 Rings)]

Difficulty Level: Lv.29

Quest Description: Find the location of the World's Core and obtain it.

Mission Information: The Hunter's region does not need to search for the World's Core for the time being, the World's Core has been searched for by the Agility Class Contractor Squad, the Hunter needs to recapture the Black Earth Fortress first, and after successfully capturing it and stabilizing the situation, and the Hunter will activate the War Spinoff Quest.

Task duration: 30 natural days

Mission Reward: The victory of the world war is visible.

Mission Penalty: Forced execution.

...

Su Xiao had just finished checking the quest information when a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[The war channel has been opened, hunter hunter no adventure group detected, remaining number of speeches (10/10), number of speeches can be transferred.]

A semi-transparent fluorescent screen appeared before Su Xiao's eyes, there were thousands of contractors within the war channel, and these thousands of people were divided into three colors, blue, yellow, and green, which also corresponded to the three war zones.

Green represented 'Hill Canyon', yellow represented 'Fortress Odle', and blue represented 'Black Earth Plains'.

Inside the war channel:

Nasha (leader of Fantasy Adventure Group): "Fantasy Adventure Group is located at 'Black Earth Plains'."

Commander Ge (Symbiosis Alliance Leader): "Symbiosis Alliance is sitting at location 'Fortress Odle', the team is in good condition and is looking at the scenery from the fortress."

Sage (Sanctuary Guild Leader): "Sanctuary Guild's location 'Hill Grand Canyon', nothing but rocks, no special conditions."

Gu Xiaosheng (Blood Wolf Adventure Group Leader): "Location 'Fortress Odle', a few seconds of silence for the 'Black Earth Plains'."

...

Various adventure groups began to spontaneously report their respective locations within the war band, after Su Xiao's wanted, there were a total of 12 large and small adventure groups, judging by the number of people, there were 10 medium-sized adventure groups and 2 large-sized adventure groups.

A full twelve adventure groups entered a world, not counting the large number of casualties, seeing that the scale of the war world had a large majority.

Moreover, the main force of the current war was not yet the contractors, but those indigenous forces, their numbers were too huge, the contractors of both sides would only officially go to war after the current war had temporarily calmed down, but the contractors of both sides might also meet in the current war.

Before the various adventuring groups could complete their bargaining in the war channel, there were already scattered people who began to rage, after all, in this kind of world, the hope of survival was too low, too low.

Su Xiao was the opposite, he actually had a sense of excitement, whether the other contractors were afraid of the sea of people tactics he was not sure, at least he was not afraid.

With the natural ability Spirit Eater's recovery effect of mana and life value after killing the enemy, Su Xiao only needed to not be killed by a strong enemy or run out of stamina. Facing the raging tide of people, he could definitely survive until the end.

Moreover, the large-scale war was just the opening, the tougher opponent was behind, and that was the contractors of the Apocalypse Paradise.

It was impossible for Su Xiao to be on the frontline all the time, if that was the case, there was no point in Reincarnation Paradise sending him to this world at all.

But before that, he had to deal with the war at hand, and unsurprisingly, there would soon be hundreds of thousands of soldiers fighting together.

From the weapons of the soldiers beside him, he could tell that this was the Cold War era, of course, magic or other supernatural abilities could not be ruled out.

Knock, knock, knock...

The ground began to tremble slightly, Su Xiao looked back, dozens of tall creatures came, these creatures were more than 8 meters tall, their features and physique were similar to humans, only much rougher, this should be the Giant race.

"Soldiers."

A neutral voice spread across the battlefield, Su Xiao could only hear that the voice was from the rear, the exact location was unknown.

"I am Marquis Mark, the Imperial Iron Blood Legion Commander."

The voice pauses for a moment, it seems to be waiting for the sound to spread across the battlefield, and I don't know why this Marquis's voice is so big, it should be using some kind of magic amplification device.

"Tell me, are you willing to fall into the slavery of the tribe, fall into the slavery of those dog-headed people, minotaurs, and let your family suffer bullying.

Just half a week and a month ago, we lost the Black Earth Plains Fortress, the humiliation then, do you still remember.

Today, today, I, Marquis Mark, will lead you to retake it, it belongs to us, it was built with our sweat and blood, it must not become the enemy's defense line, I have sworn to His Highness the King, if I can't retake the Black Earth Fortress, I will not step into Holy Dragon City from now on.

Soldiers, join me in killing all those filthy alliances that are covered in stench and haven't bathed in years and decades! Use their blood to wash away the shame of losing the Black Earth Fortress!"

After listening to this pre-war mobilization that came from nowhere, Su Xiao didn't feel anything at all, he even kind of wanted to smoke a cigarette, he didn't even know what the official position of a Marquis was in this world, and even if he did, he wouldn't have much of a reaction.

Su Xiao is no reaction, but those soldiers near him reacted not small.

These soldiers were gasping for air, and their hands holding their weapons were starting to tremble, from this point it could be seen that Marquis Mark should be a big shot in the empire.

The military formation consisting of more than 100,000 people and three races began to march forward, the destination, needless to say, must be that fortress that was breached half a month ago.

Su Xiao marched along with the army, more than 100,000 people marched, the ground all began to shake, and smoke and dust billowed in the rear of the army, Marquis Mark, a great noble who seldom participated in the war personally, ate dust.

Bubu wang is not near Su Xiao, after contacting Bubu wang, Su Xiao knows a shocking news, Bubu wang is actually organized into the agility class contractors squad, that is to say, go to look for the core of the world, which makes Su Xiao fall down.

Chapter 770: Blood Lions of the Border Region

Nowadays, the area where Su Xiao was located was the frontline of the war, while Bubu Wang was within the Sacred Dragon City, which was the capital of the Dragon Teng Empire.

After contacting him, Su Xiao knew that the squad searching for the World's Core consisted of a total of fifty people, all of whom were Agility-type Contractors and belonged to the Servant.

The task of the serving squad was to find the World's Core and bring that to the designated location, as for the subsequent guarding work, it was up to Su Xiao or the various adventuring groups.

However, before that, first of all, we have to make sure that the situation on the front line of the war between the Empire and the Horde is stable, once the front line is breached, then there is no need to look for the World's Core, most of the Contractors will die under the Horde's armies, and even if they don't die by any chance, they will still be forcibly executed due to the failure of the mission.

Su Xiao marched with the imperial army, those soldiers near him were silent, the cruelty of the cold weapon war could be imagined, but these soldiers had no fear, there was only numbness on their faces, it was a kind of numbness that looked down on life and death.

Become an imperial soldier, there is a folk saying that soldiers are noble lords, tiger beasts, and dogs.

The noble lord is after the soldiers get the military pay, drinking and whoring, living a very dashing life, just like the noble lord, the

The Tiger Beast is the name given to the tiger by the commoners. The commoners are afraid of the soldiers as if they are afraid of the tiger, that's why the soldiers are described as Tiger Beasts.

As for dogs, when war breaks out, a soldier's life is not worth as much as a dog. Live today without tomorrow.

Because they were marching on the plains, more than 100,000 people marched to form several squares, vast, and wherever they passed, wild beasts fled in fear and the ground trembled lightly.

Half an hour after the army marched, Su Xiao vaguely saw a black 'mountain range' appearing in front of him, the mountain range cut across the plains, separating the empire from the tribes, exceptionally spectacular.

When he got closer, Su Xiao realized that this was not a mountain range, this was a war defense line, similar to the Great Wall in the real world.

Seeing this war defense line, Su Xiao cursed in his heart, and the war channel of Reincarnation Paradise exploded.

Su Xiao was puzzled, the imperial side had this kind of geographical advantage, and how did the tribal side break through this defense line? And occupied this place.

In front of them was the Black Earth Fortress. The entire fortress separated the Black Earth Plain into two sections, and if you looked at it from a high altitude, the Black Earth Fortress was like a winding black river dividing the Black Earth Plain.

The Black Earth Fortress is 176 kilometers long, the whole body is made of obsidian, the whole fortress is enchanted with 6782 magic brands, the degree of solidity exceeds that of metal, even if it is the 'Storm Knight' siege hammer made by Dwarves, it can't break through the Black Earth Fortress, the Black Earth Fortress separates the empire from the tribes' territories, inside the fortress is the empire's territory, and outside of the fortress is the tribe's Territory.

The highest position of the black earth fortress has 60 meters high, the average height of about 40 meters, standing in the fortress below to see, this is a wall of heaven, has been standing here for 3600 years, renovation no less than 30 times, an average of one hundred years to renovate once.

"Can this thing ... really be attacked?"

A Contractor who was closer to Su Xiao looked up at the Black Earth Fortress, with millions of grass mud horses popping through his heart.

Leaving aside the contractors' reactions for now, Marquis Mark at the rear of the army was also looking up at the Black Earth Fortress, he hadn't been here for almost 20 years.

"Lord Marquis, this is the statistics of the number of soldiers with the storage of military food and weapons, the weapons promised by the Moon Elf Clan have been delivered late, and now there are many soldiers whose weapons' blades are severely chipped, and there isn't much food, and in terms of water sources ..."

The Iron Blood Legion's vice legionary knelt on one knee in front of Marquis Mark, who was riding on his horse.

"Understood."

Marquis Mark was a little impatient, this was a middle-aged man with a full head of white curly hair, a moustache at his chin, and a somewhat blonde body, he was wearing a black jacket, with gold filigree mixed and woven into the collar and cuffs of the jacket, the

"But ..."

The deputy army chief Carlos looked at Marquis Mark in surprise, Carlos was a middle-aged man with a sturdy figure, he wore blood-colored armor, and the bloody aura on his body was not even weaker than Su Xiao's.

"Carlos, you only need to tell me if you can retake the Black Earth Fortress before sunset."

Marquis Mark rode on his horse, looking at Vice Legion Chief Carlos with a somewhat complicated gaze, he didn't like this person, he usually gave the other person the errands with less oil and water, such as the hard work of guarding the border, although he didn't like the other person very much, but he needed this person right now.

"Wh...What."

Carlos was stunned, and he suspected he had heard wrong.

"The Marquis asked you if you could retake the Black Earth Fortress before nightfall,"

The imperial official beside Marquis Mark spoke up, although his official position was lower than Carlos, he looked at Carlos with some contempt, the reason being that Carlos was the son of a noble and a whore.

"Lord Marquis, this seems ... unlikely."

Carlos lowered his head, he now wanted to drag down the dead fat man riding on his horse three meters away, ruthlessly stomping on the face of this waste of money who relied on the hereditary system to inherit the Marquis' position, letting the other party take a closer look at what degree of war fortification the Black Earth Fortress was.

Do not say a day, even if you give Carlos a week, he does not dare to say that he can recapture the black earth fortress, the horde captured this place, nearly 120,000 dead orcs + dwarves + goblins + trolls, sleepless fierce battle for half a month, in the end, the corpses are piled up to the black earth fortress and black earth fortress, the horde side is stepping on the corpses attacked up.

"If the battle goes very well, we can recapture the Black Earth Fortress in about ten days."

Carlos actually somewhat exaggerated, even if it goes well, half a month can recapture the fortress is good, This is still based on the empire will continue to send additional troops to the black earth plains, with the same pile of corpses method to recapture the fortress.

"Ten days, too long."

Marquis Mark was disgruntled.

"I'll give you a week, take away won't be here to carry my head, now I've become the laughing stock of Holy Dragon City, if you can't do it I'll find someone who can do it instead. "

"Obey."

Carlos head full of steel teeth biting clicking, his heart is clear, no matter what, he can't be replaced, never, this has nothing to do with status or selfish desires, once he loses the position of Iron Blood Legion's vice legionnaire, then the Black Earth Fortress will be finished, he has already guarded here for twenty years, at that time, he was just a small captain, he will dedicate his whole life to this place, no one understands the Black Earth Fortress better than he does, the great achievements are countless, people People call him the Blood Lion of the Border.

"Lord Marquis, I have a request."

After Carlos uttered these words, he took a deep breath, and this deputy army chief, who didn't know how many enemies he had killed, actually hesitated a little.

"Speak."

Marquis Mark had already guessed what Carlos was going to say, it was nothing more than a request for an increase in rank.

"The war in the Black Earth Plains requires more troops."

"Oh?" Marquis Mark was a bit surprised, this was different from what he had imagined, he stroked the beard on his chin and spoke, "How much is needed."

"At least two hundred thousand."

Carlos' fists clenched, he was ready to take back the fortress with human lives.

"Impossible, the rest of the Empire's defenses need troops as well, fifty thousand at the most."

Hearing Marquis Mark's words, Carlos raised his head with a huff, his body armor clashing, and Marquis Mark's heart chilled by his aura.

"Carlos, what do you want to do?"

Marquis Mark roared with colorful anger, and several hundred of his personal soldiers beside him drew the long swords on their waists and surrounded Carlos.
