Chapter 771: Cold War battlefield

"Lord Marquis, don't you still have three hundred thousand soldiers under your rule, and without sufficient soldiers, I ..."

"Needless to say, eighty thousand at most, that's all. MiscellaneousChiBug"

It's not that Marquis Mark didn't want to send soldiers, but he couldn't, out of his three hundred thousand soldiers, two hundred thousand had already gone to support the Hill Grand Canyon, which was Duke Edward Hewlett's sphere of influence.

As a matter of common sense, Marquis Mark shouldn't have sent soldiers to Hill Grand Canyon, the Black Earth Plain was almost pierced through, he still had the leisure to support others?

Marquis Mark was forced to do this, the status of the Duke and the Marquis were not on the same level, the Duke's order, Marquis Mark did not dare to refute, besides, it involved a lot of interests and his handle.

Just at this time, a knight in silver armor, riding a fast horse rushed, silver armor knight does not wait for the horse to stop steadily from the horse rolled over and leaped down, landing smoothly.

"Mark 'Earl' lord, his majesty has ordered, the black earth plains war front is urgent, because the earl has not participated in military politics for many years, during the black earth plains war, all matters are handed over to Carlos 'legionary' management, his highness has already sent three hundred thousand troops to To reinforce the Black Earth Plains war front, Earl please return to Holy Dragon City quickly, this is His Highness's personal order."

The silver-armored knight pulled out a short dagger encrusted with jewels from his pocket, and seeing this short dagger, everyone around him fell to their knees with a crash.

"What did you just... call me?"

Marquis Mark gulped.

"Lord Earl Mark."

Hearing those words, Marquis Mark, no, it should be Earl Mark who directly fell off his horse.

"Also, Earl-sama, His Highness has personally sent someone to investigate the matter regarding the renovation of the Black Iron Fortress 14 years ago ..."

What the silver-armored knight said, Earl Mark could no longer hear, his ears buzzed, for hereditary marquises, normally there would be no demotion, unless it involved a head-killing crime, such as embezzling the cost of refurbishing the Black Earth Fortress.

The stench filled the air, and the 'Marquis Lord', who was majestic before, could not even stand up straight at the moment, limply paralyzed on the ground, and the officials who had slipped up before, retreated a few steps back.

Count Mark east window, was demoted a level, and may even head is not guaranteed, but the status of the blood lion Carlos straight line climb, from the deputy army chief directly to the correct, if calculated according to the empire's official position, the position of the Iron Blood Legion commander, higher than the count, the legion commander, after all, hold the power of the army.

"When will the three hundred thousand soldiers arrive?"

Carlos took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

"A day at the most, it's drawn from the 'Grand Canyon of the Shire'."

"Very well. "

Carlos pulled the adjutant beside him and explained a few things to the adjutant.

"Lord Legionnaire, will this be too hasty, the reinforcements are arriving soon, why don't we ..."

The adjutant's relationship with Carlos was obviously unusual, and he knew how to judge the situation, and immediately changed his tone to legion chief, without the slightest sense of dissonance.

"There's no need to wait for reinforcements first, it would be a good thing if the horde's mongrels were stationed at the fortress instead, and also the most fearful of them destroying it from within the fortress, don't forget that their purpose is to invade us."

Carlos sighed, although attacking the fortress would cause a shocking number of deaths and injuries, one of his orders would result in hundreds of thousands of living beings dying in battle, but the battle had developed to the present, it was no longer a matter of the rate of deaths and injuries, as the saying goes, mercy doesn't control the soldiers, Carlos was ruthless enough, or else he wouldn't have been able to climb to this kind of position.

"Subordinate understands."

The adjutant immediately notified each of his subordinates, who in turn conveyed the order, and the army continued to approach the Black Earth Fortress.

As the army moved forward, Su Xiao, who had extremely strong eyesight, plus a higher location, could see the situation of the Black Earth Fortress.

At this time, the Black Earth Fortress is stationed in front of the tribal party's army, different from what was imagined, the tribal party did not use the fortress to build a defense, but set up an army at a highway in front of the fortress.

Tribal army, most of them are orcs, orcs are actually just a general term, including minotaurs, dog-headed people, lion-headed people and other subhuman races, these races in addition to the head is a beast characteristics, most of the body is similar to humans, but the body is taller than the human body, the average height of 2 meters 5 or so.

Of course, the tribal side of the army not only have orcs, there are goblins and dwarves, goblins all green skin, how to look like kobolds, as for the dwarves, their height in 1 meter 3 or so, although the body is short, but these like to stay bearded dwarves, extraordinarily solid body, the hand is not carrying a short-handled war hammer or carrying a wide-bladed axe, as for the trolls, for the time being, I have not seen.

In the tribal side, most of the orcs are cannon fodder, except for the minotaurs, and the dwarves are the artisans of the tribal side, their talent in forging far exceeds most of the races, of course, the dwarves' combat power is also very strong, belonging to the backbone of the tribal side, and their combat power is only below the trolls.

As for the goblins, these guys are good at alchemy, have a better magic talent and affinity, don't look at their five short bodies, but they are experts in war, the tribal side of the magic type of war weapons, are from their hands.

The last troll is the finale of the race, although most of the trolls IQ is not good, but the naturally strong body plus a certain degree of magic-free skin, so they become infantry killers, but the trolls are sparse, not until the critical moment will not go to war.

In terms of troop strength, the tribal side is about twice as many as the imperial side, but most of them are cannon fodder orcs, and in a real fight, it's not certain who will win or lose.

The human side has weapons made by the Elves, while the Horde side has weapons made by the Dwarves, each with their own strengths in terms of weapons.

Buzz~

The Imperial side's war horn blew, which basically meant that the war was about to begin.

Boom!

A low muffled sound pierced out from the back of the Horde camp, inside the Black Earth Fortress, black stone chips flew up dozens of meters high, if it wasn't close enough, one wouldn't have been able to hear the explosion, which should have been a bomb made by the Goblins.

Seeing this scene, all the soldiers of the imperial side were already furious, the thing that army chief Carlos feared the most happened, the tribal side was blowing up the Black Earth Fortress from the inside.

Once the fortress was blown out with large gaps, even if the Imperial side managed to retake the place, they would still have to face endless uproar from the Horde side.

It seems that the tribal side is also clear, the imperial side will be unremitting efforts to recapture the fortress, so as an aggressor they simply do not defend this place, direct destruction of the fortress, when the tribal army rushed out of the empire's territory, into a whole, wanton destruction, then there is the imperial side to suffer.

Knock, knock, knock...

The deafening sound of war drums came from the rear of the imperial army, a giant race with a height of about ten meters was holding a drum hammer, striking a huge drum with a surface full of runes.

Hearing this drum sound, Su Xiao's heartbeat began to speed up and the flow of blood elevated.

[You obtain the gain effect of 'Iron Blood Legion War Drum Song', movement speed +5%, strength +1, stamina +1, pain sense -20%].

This was a mega gain skill, and as the drums sounded, the soldiers of the Imperial side began to step forward neatly.

Wow. Wow. ...

With the rhythm of the beating of the war drums, more than 100,000 people's steps reached unanimity, making a wave-like sound.

The drums became more and more urgent, and the soldiers' footsteps came more and more, slowly turning from a stampede to a trot, and finally running wildly.

"Warriors, kill the Confucian and weak Imperial Army."

Su Xiao heard a roar from the front, but he was in the midst of the Imperial Army's crowd and did not see where there was a tribal army.

As a plains battle, there were no tactics at all, only battle formations.

The spearmen at the front of the imperial army quickly charged, they aimed the spears in their hands at the enemy, the rows of spears and halberds formed a horizontal line, this was the result of I don't know how many years of training it took to get there.

The two armies quickly intersected like two rapids colliding head on, just when the spearmen at the front were still three meters away from the tribal army, they suddenly stopped.

Buzz ~ buzz ~

The frequency of the war horn changed, and those spearmen neatly sidestepped, and a shield soldier with a tower shield rushed out from the back.

Bang!

A large row of shield soldiers holding nearly two-meter tall tower shields blocked in front of the spearmen, the tower shields met the enemy, and a spear and halberd poked out from the gap of the tower shields.

The two armies collided together, and those cannon fodder orcs in front of the tribal army were pierced through by the spears and halberds like skewered sugar gourds, and blood instantly dyed the ground where the two armies met red.

The sound of flesh being pierced was continuous, the screams were endless, if there were those who were not strong-willed, they would be scared out of their wits just by hearing this sound.

From the initial exchange, it was clear that the Imperial Army had the advantage, but, the Horde side's troop strength was simply too much.

Clanking when the sound of weapons collision into a piece, broken meat splattered, blood overflowed, shouting and killing sound rushed to the sky, this is the battlefield, the battlefield that is purgatory, no human nature, no use of sympathy, the only idea is to kill all the enemy.

Both sides of the army killed two minutes later, the Imperial Army front row of heavy shield soldiers were broken, both sides of the soldiers into the interspersed shape gradually gathered together, the chaotic white-water battle began.

Su Xiao, who is in the front and center of the imperial army, still didn't see the enemy, the soldiers of both sides are too many, and they can't hit him for a while, but it will be very soon.

Whoosh~

The whistling sound of breaking wind came from the top of his head, Su Xiao subconsciously lie down, you can't pretend to be a beeper on the battlefield, that will really die.

Boom!

A green glass bottle the size of a water tank landed a hundred meters away from Su Xiao, the glass bottle exploded just after it hit the ground, and the green flames spread rapidly to the surroundings.

Whew~

Where the green fire passes, the imperial soldiers instantly turned into ashes, the ground are glassy, the sour smell spreads out, the green fire probably spreads a few dozen meters after drifting away, the ground presents an oval glass surface, the diameter of fifty meters or so, the glassy ground can vaguely be seen melted into iron armor and weapons.

Su Xiao immediately stood up, a dog-headed man with a hand stained with a broken meat scimitar shouted and rushed towards him, he finally saw the enemy.

Chopping Dragon Flash crossed in front of his body, Su Xiao stepped forward, the blade light flashed, the scimitar in the hand of the dog-headed man was chopped off, and at the same time was chopped into two there was also that dog-headed man, directly killed in seconds.

[You killed the Tribal Army's low level infantry: Dog Head Man.]

You gain 10 points of Paradise Coins.

[Your talent 'Spirit Eater' activates, permanently increasing your mana by 6 points.]

Judging from the situation at hand, in less than ten minutes, the Spirit Eater would be able to devour 200 mana points, to the point where he would recover even more life and mana from killing his enemies.

Talent Effect (Passive): after killing a target, it will permanently take 1 to 30 mana points and restore the same value of mana and life value (if killing an enemy permanently increases 30 mana points, it will restore 30 mana and life value).

Tip: Each Derivation World can capture a maximum of 200 Mana, if it reaches the limit, the Spirit Eater will be fully activated and the recovery effect will be increased by 50% after killing an enemy (if it has already successfully captured 200 Mana, it will still recover an appropriate amount of Mana and Life after killing an enemy based on the enemy's strength, and will increase the recovery effect by 50%).

Su Xiao had just decapitated a dog-headed man, and he immediately felt a dozen unkind gazes looking at him.

"There is an enemy general here, kill him!"

A dozen cannon fodder orcs rushed towards Su Xiao, while the human soldiers beside Su Xiao subconsciously moved away from Su Xiao without any sense of propriety, which was actually the way to survive on the battlefield.

Su Xiao kicked away the orc corpses under his feet, he who had never participated in a large-scale cold weapon war found that this place was dangerous but great, the strong smell of blood and the shouts of killing in the sky were stimulating his nerves, and a smile appeared on his face.

Chapter 772: chaos at close quarters

In the tide of people who were fighting together chaotically, a dozen orcs lunged at Su Xiao, they wore simple wooden armor, which was made from a high-density wood, although the hardness of this wood was good, it was also crude, the only object on the orcs that could be up to the mark was the steel weapons in their hands. MiscellaneousChiBugs

Although there are dwarves to help the tribal side of the forging of weapons, defenses, etc., but the number of orcs is too much, to every orc are configured with armor is simply impossible, even if the dwarves do not sleepless forging cannot be done, at most, is to give these orcs with a handful of weapons.

Su Xiao probed the attributes of an orc, the strength and agility attributes of these orcs were between 30 to 40 points, slightly higher than the attributes of the imperial soldiers, but they did not have a military formation type of skill.

Su Xiao took the initiative to meet a dozen orcs, a faint smell of body odor came to his face, and he did not know how long these guys had not bathed, but on the battlefield where the smell of blood was pungent, this body odor was very faint.

The first to fight with Su Xiao was a lion-headed man, this lion-headed man did not have sideburns, and his chest was bulging, so he should be a female.

Su Xiao did not turn on Green Steel Shadow, before his natural ability Spirit Eater was fully activated, he could not squander his mana.

The female Lionhead stared at Su Xiao with eyes full of hatred, a hatred that could not be dissolved after a thousand years of inter-racial war.

"For Bebea."

The female lionhead hoarsely roared, her mind recalled a young female lion head, that was her daughter, who also participated in the war, and was captured due to the defeat, and her ultimate whereabouts were unknown, generally speaking, female orcs with poise would not be killed after being captured, but would be used as slaves to be tempered taught and trafficked, and sold to those aristocrats with a special aesthetic.

The blood-stained heavy sword chopped towards Su Xiao, Su Xiao made a wrong step and dodged sideways, with the force of the heavy sword's forward chop, the female lion-headed man stood in line with Su Xiao and leaned her body forward.

Su Xiao's left hand wrapped in a metal arm protector probed out, grabbed the female lionhead's throat, and exerted force in her hand.

Ka-ching.

"Woo~"

Blood gushed out of the female lionhead's mouth, and the heavy sword in her hand flew out of her hand as her throat was crushed.

Su Xiao swung the female lion-head up and slammed her towards several orcs, and the female lion-head's eyes quickly lost their luster.

Bang!

The female lion head's body smashed several orcs to the ground, some of them had their arms smashed, some even had their necks smashed, Su Xiao's strength attribute was a full 73 points, and what he threw out with all his might was stronger than a cannonball.

At the same time that several orcs were smashed down, Su Xiao had already rushed forward, those orcs only felt a coldness in their necks, after which the viewpoints began to rotate heaven and earth.

Several heads of orcs with surprised faces flew up, and those headless corpses sprayed blood like a fountain.

"Don't, don't come over!"

An orc whose spine had been smashed off was writhing on the ground, Su Xiao walked up and stabbed his long knife into the other's throat, the orc twitched a few times and then lost his voice.

Near Su Xiao, an orc whose arm was smashed off was lying on the ground, it was pretending to be dead, as long as Su Xiao's back was turned to it, it would storm up from the ground.

Su Xiao looked at the beastman lying on the ground and casually chopped out a blade.

Pfft.

The blade awn plowed a trace several meters long on the ground, and that orc was evenly chopped into two pieces.

After Su Xiao resolved the dozen or so nearby orcs, he glanced at the prompts of the Reincarnation Paradise, the mana value increased by a total of 80 points, and he gained 156 points of Paradise Coins.

Su Xiao looked around, the neighborhood was filled with human soldiers or orcs who were fighting into a ball.

Bang!

A muffled sound came from not far away, Su Xiao fixed his eyes and saw that a Dwarf riding a boar was charging within the human soldiers.

This Dwarf was holding a short-handled war hammer, with black armor all over his body, underneath him rode an extremely strong boar, the boar's head and torso were also covered with armor, this was the elite troop of the Dwarf race, the Mountain Cavalry, even though they rode a boar instead of a horse.

Don't underestimate the boar, in the natural world, the ferocity of the boar and the horse are not on the same level, not to mention the horse, even the tiger is not willing to mess with the boar.

Moreover, the boar under this dwarf had bloodshot eyes, at first glance, it was a common breed.

"Hey, over there."

The dwarf looked at Su Xiao from afar, and as he spoke, the war hammer in his hand lifted upwards, and with a bang, smashed the helmet and head of a human soldier.

Su Xiao shook off the blood on his hand, and the bearded dwarf slapped the boar underneath him, and the boar, which was like a small tank, buried its head and rushed in, knocking the human soldiers in its path over.

Su Xiao swung his sword and cut down an orc that jumped forward, not fearing the intimidation of the dwarven cavalry, he straightly met the other side.

The Dwarf waved his war hammer in his hand, and the short-handled war hammer flew from side to side in his hand, and all the soldiers who were hit by the hammer had their armor dented and spat out blood on the ground, and looked like they would not live for long.

The distance between Su Xiao and the dwarf quickly drew closer, where both sides were, either blood splattered, or a head flew up.

The distance between Su Xiao and the dwarf was getting closer and closer, to about three meters, he could even hear the powerful gasping sound of the boar under the dwarf.

"Drink!"

The dwarf's body was straightened to the point of being straight, and the war hammer in his hand was raised high, with a stance of hammering Su Xiao flat.

Su Xiao's palms stretched forward, his forward steps stopped abruptly, and a layer of energy shield appeared in front of him.

Boom!

The boar ruthlessly crashed into the energy shield, the strong impact directly broke the boar's snout, and the dwarf behind the boar let out a cry of surprise, his body uncontrollably slammed towards the energy shield.

With a bang, the dwarf wearing a metal helmet slammed his head forward into the energy shield, and his neck, which wasn't long at all, was even shorter, and there was a buzzing sound in his head, and the impact was so hard that cracks appeared in the 100-point-strength energy shield.

Su Xiao immediately withdrew the energy shield, the hands of the Chopper Dragon flash forward stab.

Brush pull~

The straight long blade stabbed into the dwarf's mouth and broke his brain.

At the same time, Su Xiao stomped on the boar's head and stomped it hard towards the ground.

With a click, the boar's skull shattered and its brain matter sprayed out several meters away.

"Ah!!!"

The dwarf who was pierced through the head let out a vague roar, he actually did not die right away, blood gurgled out of his mouth, and with his last breath, and he smashed the war hammer in his hand at Su Xiao.

Su Xiao's hand holding the knife turned sideways, the dwarf's movement was a beat, the hand of the war hammer flew off, the war hammer rotated dozens of times in the air and then smashed on an orc's head, the orc just wanted to cut a handsome male elf tribe, was smashed by the war hammer from nowhere, the elf tribe stabbed the orc to death, the elf tribe that escaped from death could never imagine that it was a dwarf that saved him.

This is the battlefield, crazy, bloody, chaotic, one moment is still killing the enemy, the next moment may be unknown where the weapon hurt.

Not only that, in such a chaotic battlefield, the friendly troops on their side are not necessarily reliable, if the friendly troops kill red-eye, it is likely to cause accidental injuries.

Su Xiao stepped on the dwarf's shoulder and pulled the Dragon Slashing Flash out of the opponent's mouth, an orc rushed to Su Xiao's back, the long knife in his hand was turned around, he held the knife in his backhand and dodged a long-handled great axe while slitting the throat of the orc behind him with a single slash.

[You kill the Horde Army: Mountain Cavalry-Dwarf-Baroyin.]

[You gain 160 Paradise Points.]

[Your talent 'Spirit Eater' activates, permanently increasing your mana by 12 points.]

...

This dwarf wasn't too strong, he wasn't part of the ringleaders, and he was a member of the elite dwarven unit.

Chapter 773: squadron leader

Only less than 10 minutes had passed since the start of the war, but Su Xiao had already killed dozens of enemies. The #miscellaneous Zhi Bugs# Spirit Eaters had already devoured most of them.

As the war continued, there were more and more orcs beside Su Xiao, and the human soldiers were rapidly decreasing, he didn't know how the battle was going, and his only thought was to survive the war.

With Su Xiao's physical attribute, as long as he didn't encounter a tricky and strong enemy, he would have no problem killing the enemy on the battlefield for a day, fighting with a strong enemy was different from killing the enemy on the battlefield, when fighting with a strong enemy, he needed to explode his full strength in a short period of time, that kind of physical consumption was not something that could be compared to hacking and slashing the orcs on the battlefield.

The blade was strewn across, any orc that was close to Su Xiao within a few meters was going to die, as for the enemies that were farther away, he didn't pay attention to them, he had summoned the mirror image of a strong man in the trial field, and the other party had told him how to survive in the battlefield, don't mess with the enemies that are far away, and the primary goal is to kill all the enemies that are nearby, and you can also load the bodies at critical moments.

Woo~.

The sound of a rapid breaking wind came from above, the beasts beside Su Xiao all stopped their hands and looked at the top of their heads.

"Bargakakkou, imara (Orcish: Elven rain of arrows, run)."

The nearby orcs were so scared that even their old home dialect exploded out of their mouths, so it could be seen how dense all the arrow rain in the air was.

Su Xiao looked at the rapidly falling rain of arrows, he didn't even see where the arrows looked like, and he could only see a black pressurized large swath of arrows, like a layer of dark clouds covering down.

A 50 point strength energy shield was formed above Su Xiao's head.

Ding Ding Ding ...

The rain of arrows landed, and the durability of the energy shield rapidly decreased.

When the rain of arrows stopped, Su Xiao withdrew his energy shield, and his neighborhood was filled with orcs, dwarves, and even human soldiers who had been shot into hedgehogs.

Whoosh~

Another sound of breaking wind came, a black ball with a diameter of about one meter flew from the back of the horde, the black ball fell in a parabola and landed a few hundred away from Su Xiao.

Boom!

The explosion was deafening, large pieces of metal flew, and those soldiers who were lucky enough to survive the rain of arrows were beaten into sieves.

Su Xiao waved the Dragon Slashing Flash, the metal fragments that attacked him were chopped away one by one, as he looked around, there were no other living creatures within a 300 meter radius except for him, the human tide was emptied by the rain of arrows + goblin shells.

Although a small piece was emptied, but this was a battlefield of hundreds of thousands of creatures scale, only after less than a minute, Su Xiao's vicinity was again full of orcs, human soldiers or elves.

A bunch of flames were ignited on the battlefield, black smoke reflected the battlefield like an inferno, and the corpses emitted an unpleasant charred odor after being burned.

After Su Xiao twisted the throat of an orc and swung his sword to kill another orc, his Spirit Eater talent devoured 200 mana points, and the effect of life and mana recovered from killing enemies increased by 50%.

Being in the chaotic battlefield, Su Xiao did not even have a moment to catch his breath, but fortunately, the Dragon Slash was sharp enough to slice through the enemy's body as easily as cutting through paper, which greatly reduced his stamina consumption.

At some point, there were no more human soldiers or elves beside Su Xiao, but orcs or dwarves as far as the eye could see.

The Dragon Slashing Flash left light golden chopping marks in the air, and one Orc or Dwarf was killed, in less than a few minutes, the ground near Su Xiao was already covered with corpses.

The battlefield could make people crazy, those orcs or dwarves did not care about the killing Su Xiao, and they rushed forward one after another.

Su Xiao was not afraid in the slightest, with the recovery effect of the Spirit Eater after killing the enemy, his mana was worth to the renewal.

Counterattack shields emerged around Su Xiao, just as the counterattack shields were formed, their appearance began to change, the original hexagonal counterattack shields turned into a handleless energy blade.

Su Xiao held these dozens of energy blades in his hands, and the boundary break line wrapped around the energy blades, at the same time disengaging the connection between these energy blades and him, so that these energy blades were able to detach themselves from Su Xiao's range of one meter, but they were only able to exist for one minute.

Su Xiao threw out the energy knife blades in his hand, these energy knife blades formed a fan shaped knife net under the entanglement of the boundary breaking thread, wherever they passed, the orcs were cut off.

After the fan-shaped blade net flew out more than ten meters away, Su Xiao pulled the boundary breaking thread, and the fan-shaped blade net contracted and returned to his hand.

As dozens of weapons on Su Xiao's left and right sides and behind him slashed or stabbed, he let go of the energy blade in his hand and at the same time lifted the Boundary Break Line on it.

The energy blades floated in mid-air, neatly arranged around Su Xiao and then rotated at high speed, like a cutting saw blade.

Pfft, pfft, pfft...

Broken limbs splashed and blood gushed wildly, as the energy blade spread around, the enemies near him were cut down.

In just these short ten seconds or so, Su Xiao had killed at least hundreds of enemies, and even so, the enemies around him were still endless.

Su Xiao sheathed his Dragon Slash and silently waited for the enemies around him to come closer, when a new wave of enemies rushed towards him, the Dragon Slash was sheathed.

Clang!

The light blue circular shaped blade aura spread rapidly around, this was the ring break, the new batch of gathered enemies were instantly cleared, Su Xiao then had time to catch his breath.

At the rear of the Imperial Army, Legion Commander Carlos stood at a high point, observing the entire battlefield.

"Who is that?"

Carlos pointed at Su Xiao, who was a kilometer away, and at this moment, Su Xiao was surrounded by piles of enemy corpses.

"Reporting to the Legion Commander, my subordinates don't know, that might be a new recruit."

"New recruits?"

Carlos was quite surprised.

"So brave, if he survives until morning, promote him to squad leader."

"Aye."

The adjutant silently memorized Su Xiao's appearance.

"It seems that the tribe has grown a long memory, no need for the troll tribe to take the lead, pass the order to the elf tribe, the arrow rain continues, let the soldiers on the left and right flanks encircle forward ..."

Carlos began to set up the battle formation, the war was only just beginning now.

Swinging his sword, killing the enemy, Su Xiao had already forgotten how many enemies he had decapitated, a conservative estimate was a few hundred.

An hour after the war started, Su Xiao finally saw human soldiers nearby, which showed that his side had some advantage.

The blade chopped out, an orc's head fell, and the headless corpse's movement of raising the blade stopped, the human soldier who was paralyzed on the ground in front of the corpse breathed a sigh of relief.

This soldier was in his late teens or so, his face was still a bit tender, he looked in Su Xiao's direction and froze when he saw the large body.

The young soldier nodded the hilt of his sword to his chest and nodded his head at Su Xiao, which meant he owed Su Xiao his life.

Right at this moment, two curved swords and a war hammer came at the young soldier, the sound of chopping meat and whacking sounds connected together, three seconds later, the young soldier turned into a pile of rotten meat.

This scene fell into Su Xiao's eyes, he did not have any emotional fluctuations, he had already witnessed this situation more than once.

The battlefield was a grinding wheel of flesh and blood, mixing both sides of the battle and stirring them together, and in the end, the one who survived was the winner.

Su Xiao had thought that this was a somewhat exaggerated description, but now it seemed that this description was far from the cruelty of the battlefield.

If one word was used to describe this place, it would be a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood.

Although Su Xiao had already killed hundreds of enemies, he was not affected by the killing intent, on the contrary, the more he killed the enemies, the stronger his beliefs became, which was a firm will that was gradually honed in iron and blood.

Chapter 774: It's soft. It's soft.

After the war lasted for 5 hours, Su Xiao's entire body was covered in blood, which was the blood of the enemy. "Miscellaneous Zhi Insects

"Looks like it will last at least until night, starving to death."

At this moment, Su Xiao's gaze was so sharp that it was intimidating, due to the many times he had used the Ring Break and Energy Blade Network, the number of enemies he had killed definitely ranked in the top few on the battlefield.

Su Xiao scanned the war channel, there were a total of 428 contractors in the Black Earth Plains region, and right now, there were still 396 survivors, not everyone was suitable for the battlefield, besides, if they were unlucky, they would still encounter strong enemies on the battlefield.

As more and more enemies were killed, Su Xiao became more familiar with the battlefield, and gradually learned how to save physical strength on the battlefield.

At this moment, he was standing on a pile of corpses, on one side was the corpse of a human officer, this pile of corpses was killed by this human officer, he eventually died of exhaustion.

Looking around the battlefield, Su Xiao realized that the imperial side had gained a great advantage, the reason was the overwhelming rain of arrows.

The strategy of the imperial side was very simple, the arrow rain cleared the field, so that the human or elf soldiers had the opportunity to form a military formation, after the arrow rain stopped, the military formation charged, after the military formation died out, the arrow rain continued to clear the field, and so on and so forth.

The tribal side is not soft, the imperial side has a rain of arrows, they have the old-fashioned large shells made by goblins and green phosphorus fire flasks, as for the cavalry, it is the dwarven mountain cavalry as the main force, it is those dwarves who ride boars.

The charging ability of the mountain cavalry, even if the matter of human heavy cavalry cannot be blocked, Su Xiao before the neighborhood full of orcs is because the mountain cavalry made a small charge, and ultimately blocked by the rain of arrows, leading to the rout.

"Roar!"

A roar came from the battlefield, a humanoid creature around five meters tall came out from the tribal camp, and they were trolls, the ace army of the tribal side.

These trolls were encased in steel armor, it was impossible to see exactly what they looked like, and the parts of their skin that were exposed were grayish-white.

A troll with a wolf's tooth rod ran furiously, trampling several unlucky orcs along the way.

Bang, bang,

That troll was like pounding garlic, thumping hard into the ground with the wolfsbane in its hand, and a human soldier wearing armor was smashed into a metal-skinned pancake of meat and flesh, the

The troll had just appeared, the battle situation was somewhat one-sided, and Su Xiao noticed that dozens of contractors were charging towards a troll, it should be a small adventure group.

Su Xiao used his Apostle's Eye to check the attributes of the troll, he was hesitant to find one as an opponent, the reward for killing this thing should be good.

Charisma: 3

Skill 1: War Bloodline (Passive LV.30), Life Value +8000, Strength +5, Abnormal Status Resistance +20%.

Skill 2: Secondary Magic Resistance Skin (Passive LV.26), 60% reduction in magic damage.

Skill 3: Vakole Metal Fusion Armor (Passive Lv.21), Defense +20, Action Speed -10.

Skill 4: Troll Roar (Active LV.19), the troll roars with all its might, generating a shockwave with a diameter of 50 meters, dealing 300 points of base damage + 110 points of concussive damage and a stamina determination, if it fails the determination, it will be stunned for 2 to 3 seconds.

...

With the troll's attributes, placed in the second rank world it was between a small boss to a big boss, if it was a 1V1, Su Xiao wasn't vain about this thing, but now that he was in the battlefield, even if he could decimate this troll, he would consume a lot of stamina and it wasn't worth it.

It was better not to provoke this thing, the war would last for an unknown amount of time.

Su Xiao killed a few orcs nearby, after the awakening of the Spirit Eater talent, he was as courageous as if he had Unrivaled on the battlefield.

As the breeze blew by, Su Xiao suddenly smelled a faint fragrance mixed with the smell of blood, which was so good that he was even a little bit mesmerized by it.

Silver hair lightly flicked, a young girl with a delicate figure stood not far from Su Xiao.

At the first sight of the other party, Su Xiao immediately judged that this was a Contractor, but there was a strange feeling.

Beside the silver-haired young girl were several orcs, and those orcs ignored her and pounced on the nearby human soldiers.

Seeing this scene, Su Xiao judged that this was an indentured servant of Apocalypse Paradise.

"You're the contractee of that Reincarnation Paradise or whatever? It looks pretty strong."

The silver-haired girl caressed the hair on her ears and looked at Su Xiao with a smile.

"Hee?"

Su Xiao's mouth, Xi, was the leader of the Apocalypse Paradise Contractors' side, and as he spoke, Su Xiao chopped off the head of a nearby orc.

"Of course not, although we are very similar and related by blood."

Receiving the silver-haired girl's reply, Su Xiao refrained from speaking and crossed the Chopper Flash in front of his body.

Boom!

Terrifying sonic booms came from in front of Su Xiao, that silver-haired girl had appeared in front of Su Xiao at an unknown time, her slender fist raised and slammed into Su Xiao.

Ka-ba, ka-ba.

Space shattered, this fist actually shattered space?

Su Xiao was a bit stunned, but he subconsciously formed a 500 point strength energy shield in front of him.

With a snap, the energy shield was shattered.

Bang.

The slender fist pierced through Su Xiao's chest, and Su Xiao's heart was shattered!

Blood gushed out of Su Xiao's mouth, but he always felt that something wasn't right, his waist was a little numb, and it seemed that he was penetrated by something?

An icy cold touch came from the back of his heart, Su Xiao's pupils tightened, his heart was obviously pierced through right, why would this feeling appear?

Noticing this situation, Su Xiao immediately lowered his body, bowed his left arm and smashed his elbow behind him.

Bang.

"Oh!"

A miserable scream came from him, and with the sense of touch, Su Xiao realized that his elbow hit a mass of soft flesh, very soft and soft.

"Pff~"

The silver-haired girl in front of Su Xiao spat out blood from her mouth and covered the plumpness on the side of her chest with her hand, stomping her feet in anger.

At this moment, one of the maiden's arms was still pierced through Su Xiao's chest, and Su Xiao grabbed at the maiden, but her grip was empty.

The silver-haired maiden retreated a few steps and stared vigilantly at Su Xiao.

Su Xiao looked down at the hole in his chest, the light distorted, the hole in his chest cavity disappeared, instead, a bullet hole appeared in his back waist, and there was a very shallow stab wound in the back of his heart location.

Seeing this scene, everything before could be explained, the sonic boom of the silver-haired girl's charge, the punch that shattered space and so on, it was all an illusion, a paper tiger.

No, if it was an illusion, the Mind Blade would have triggered long ago and immunized against these illusions.

If it wasn't an illusion, it was the silver-haired girl using some kind of ability to deceive his vision and senses, and the Mind Blade was only immune to nerve-type control effects.

The silver-haired girl simply did not have the ability to shatter space with a single punch, otherwise she would not have used a firearm to sneak attack Su Xiao, and after realizing that the firearm was not very effective, she took the risk of stabbing him in the back with a dagger.

The muscles in Su Xiao's waist tightened, and a silver-colored slug was embraced out by the muscles.

Seeing this scene, the silver-haired girl glanced at the black pistol in her hand, this pistol of hers was sufficiently dark purple in quality if calculated using the quality of the Reincarnation Paradise.

After obtaining the gain effect of the 'Iron Blood Legion War Drum Song', Su Xiao's physical strength attribute reached 70 points, taking a shot was nothing, it was just a drizzle.

Ding~

The Boundary Breaker Line on Su Xiao's left arm popped out, and the Boundary Breaker Line utilized the surrounding pile of corpses to form a boundary, enveloping Su Xiao and the silver-haired girl.

Qing Gang Shadow energy climbed onto the Chopping Dragon Flash, a 500-point strength Counter Shield was formed, protecting Su Xiao, his aura was outwardly released, knowing that he had just killed hundreds of Orcs or Dwarves, and at the moment, his aura was causing people to break out in a sweat.

"So what ... do you believe me when I say I was joking just now?"

The silver-haired girl laughed a little awkwardly, she now clearly recognized that she seemed to have messed with the wrong person.

"Farewell."

The silver-haired girl wanted to escape, but would Su Xiao let the other party pretend to beep and run? Of course not, although you can't rub the other party on the ground on the battlefield, you have to make the other party stay here forever.

Su Xiao carefully sensed her surroundings while tightening the boundary break line.

Zi~

As the boundary break line contracted, Su Xiao slowed down her breathing and sensed everything that the boundary break line touched as it contracted.

The surroundings turned silent, dust particles floated in mid-air, and the shouts of the battlefield were ignored by Su Xiao.

Suddenly, the boundary break line touched an object, Su Xiao instantly rushed forward and chopped the object that the boundary break line touched with a few slashes.

Splat, the shattered body fell to the ground, it was the corpse of an orc.

Ding~

Some kind of metal artifact hit the boundary break line, the dirt infested with blood splattered under Su Xiao's feet, he rushed to the direction where the sound came from, electricity rushed on the Chopping Dragon Flash, he slashed down with all his might, and drops of blood appeared out of thin air.

With a whirring sound, like a mirror breaking, the 'illusion' around him shattered, and Su Xiao saw a silver-haired girl fleeing into the distance.

At this moment, the silver-haired girl no longer had any other thoughts, she was emboldened by just receiving a knife, which chopped at her back, and only the tip of the knife grazed through.

The silver-haired girl rushed into the orcs, wanting to retreat with the cover of the orcs.

Plop, plop...

The characteristic sound of chopping flesh came, and the young girl couldn't help but groan as she looked back.

The blood beads fell in mid-air, and before the blood hit the ground, a figure had already rushed through them.

The silver-haired maiden's slender fingers suddenly pointed high into the sky, and with a solemn expression, she shouted, "I am the only one in heaven and on earth."

Seeing this scene, Su Xiao's footsteps lurched.

"Hey, caught in a trap."

The silver-haired girl took the opportunity to drill inside the orc army, and the light blue blade cuts came, and a few orcs lay down, quite dryly holding up their corpses.

Chapter 775: Smaller

Boom!

A thunderous explosion spreads across the battlefield, smoke with sparks spreads within the crowd, earth debris splashes, and a frail figure passes through the smoke. MiscellaneousChiInsects

"What kind of hatred is this."

The silver-haired girl's teeth clenched, she now regretted that she shouldn't have messed with someone before.

Clang!

A large light blue blade awn with a diameter of about five meters flew in, and wherever the blade awn passed, the Orcs and Dwarves fell like cut wheat.

The silver-haired girl hurriedly flung herself to the ground, and the sharp blade awn flew over her head, chopping off a few silver-colored hairs.

"Illusory body."

Light and shadow twisted near the silver-haired maiden as she split into three phantom doppelgangers, totaling four counting the silver-haired maiden's main body.

Bang, bang, bang ...

Dense energy bullets swept in, and these bullets were so dense that they almost formed a chain of bullets.

The bullets passed through the three phantom doppelgangers without any obstruction, and the silver-haired girl cried out as she continued to flee deeper into the tribal side.

Whoosh~

The ear piercing sound of breaking wind came, the young girl's head full of silver hair was brought up by the strong wind, those amber eyes tightened, a picture appeared in her mind, it was the combined effect of her ability + equipment.

The scene in the young girl's head was: a knife chopped into her neck, the first thing to be chopped off was her head full of silver hair, after that the blade broke through her skin, muscles, and bones, until it chopped off her head completely.

The silver-haired girl winced, and right at that moment, Su Xiao, who was holding the Chopping Dragon Flash, had already appeared beside the silver-haired girl, and he used Shave to quickly close the distance.

The boundary breaking line popped out and wrapped towards the silver-haired girl, while Su Xiao tightened the boundary breaking line, the long blade in his right hand chopped down.

"Rhapsodist."

The silver-haired girl's slender fingers pointed to the sky, still in the same position as before, this time Su Xiao didn't care and directly swung the blade down.

Brush~

The Dragon Slashing Flash cut through the air, and the blade was stained with drops of blood.

A red mark appeared on the silver-haired girl's white neck, but her body had turned translucent.

"So close."

The silver-haired girl gasped with a palpitating heart, if she had activated her ability zero seconds later, her head would have been decapitated.

"Sure enough, you're a pervert, a pervert who likes to chop people's heads off."

At this moment, the silver-haired girl was very close to Su Xiao, no more than two meters at most, she first lightly touched the Chopping Dragon Flash with her hand, the surface of the Chopping Dragon Flash was wrapped in a layer of silver crystals, and it was unable to decapitate the enemy.

The boundary breaking line wrapped around the silver-haired girl, but the silver-haired girl's body became translucent, it could not attack at all, the boundary breaking line could only pass through the silver-haired girl's body.

The silver-haired girl's ability is similar to the Naruto world's Uchiha Bando, Bando's spatial ability, the silver-haired girl is shuttling between illusion and reality.

At the same time that the boundary breaking line detached from the silver-haired girl's body, she pounced on Su Xiao.

"Rhapsodist-Mystic Mori."

The silver-haired girl's eyes locked with Su Xiao's, a gentle light was released from those amber-colored eyes, the silver-haired girl hugged Su Xiao as tenderly as if she was hugging a lover, by this time she had already regained her entity, it wasn't that the young girl didn't want to run away, but the duration of the 'Berserker-Misty Mori' was very short, and she couldn't escape ruffled for much distance.

"Get lost between the virtual and the real bar ..."

The young girl wore a smug look on her face as she successfully countered the kill.

Was that the truth?

Bang!

"Oh!"

Su Xiao nailed the silver-haired girl in the small of her back with a knee strike, and the silver-haired girl spat out a mouthful of acid as her body arched and flew backwards.

In the silver-haired girl's expectation, Su Xiao should have been engrossed in the illusory world and be in a state of mental paralysis, however, with the Mind Blade in place, Su Xiao was not affected by mental-type skills at all.

When the silver-haired girl was thrown backward, Su Xiao quickly stepped forward, his hand wrapped around the metal armguard grabbed the girl's throat in a smooth manner, Su Xiao considered taking out Slaughter to slit her throat, but it took time to take out the knife from within the storage space, and by the time Slaughter appeared in his hand, the silver-haired girl had already flown out of the attack range.

Su Xiao's hand exerted force, the silver-haired girl's neck diffused a crystal layer, with a click, the crystal was pinched, tears welled up in the young girl's eyes, the cold touch of her skin in contact with the metal told her that she was about to die.

"I...don't ..."

To this life and death situation, the silver-haired girl couldn't care less about the loss, reaching out to grab at a crystal pendant on her neck.

Bang!

A bullet that flew from nowhere hit Su Xiao's arm, which shattered just as it touched his arm, and a kind of grayish-purple dust filled the air.

Ka ka ka ka ~

The gray-purple dust quickly formed a layer of coral wrapping Su Xiao inside, he was fixed in place, the silver-haired girl was choked by his neck and her feet left the ground.

[Alert: You are wrapped in unknown energy, physical strength attribute determination in progress ...]

[Due to the high priority of the opponent's skill, the judgment fails, and you will suffer the effects of this control].

[Due to the Hunter's higher resistance in each item, this control effect will be weakened by 80%.]

Click, click.

The coral layer on the surface of Su Xiao's body quickly disintegrated, the silver haired girl who had just escaped was terrified by this scene, she knew clearly from whom this bullet came from, it was her teammate, she was more than clear about the other party's controlling ability, when she was hit by this bullet, she had to be immobilized for at least 2 to 5 seconds.

Discovering that her teammates came to her aid, the silver-haired girl loosened her grip on the crystal pendant, this thing is too precious, and must not be used until it is absolutely necessary.

Splat!

The coral layer on Su Xiao's arm shattered, and his hand gradually regained its strength.

"Rhapsodist-Carve Emperor."

The silver-haired girl finally had the chance to open her life-preserving move, and everything within three meters near her began to slow down, and the coral layer that had popped and shattered from Su Xiao's body floated in mid-air.

After using this move, the silver-haired girl's figure actually quickly became smaller, with the appearance of declining towards infancy, this was the side effect of 'Rhapsodist - Carve Carve Emperor', age degradation, and this kind of degradation was irreversible, and could only be recovered by returning to Apocalypse Paradise, this was the price of slowing down time, although the range was only three meters.

Quasi instantly, the silver-haired girl turned into a 7.8 age loli, good thing her physical quality will not decline, because her body becomes smaller, her neck also becomes thin, can barely break free from Su Xiao's left hand.

Time flow resumed, the coral layer on Su Xiao's body shattered inch by inch, his left hand clenched, but grabbed an empty one.

Su Xiao froze, turned to think that this might be the enemy's escape-type skill, his eyes looked around, but for a moment he did not find the figure of the young girl.

A somewhat familiar white dress appeared in the line of sight, within the dress was a small loli, because of the disproportionate size of the body type and the size of the dress, the hem of the dress was already dragging on the ground.

"Getting smaller?"

The enemy's ability was a bit peculiar, but Su Xiao didn't care about that, what space type, time type, bloodline type of enemy, what kind of enemy he hadn't seen before, so the fact that the enemy had gotten smaller was something he immediately accepted.

Su Xiao's hand slapped on the spine of the Chopping Dragon Flash, and the silver crystal wrapped around the Chopping Dragon Flash shattered open.

The improved version of the shaving has entered the cooling phase, Su Xiao can only catch up on foot, although on foot, but his speed is very fast, compared to the silver-haired girl running wildly with two short legs a lot faster.

One kilometer away within the tribal army, two men and one woman are mixing in the orcs, the woman's eyes are closed tightly, her hands are on the shoulders of the two men, she is the team's perception type of specialists, able to transmit the perceived scenarios to her teammates' brains.

One of those two men was holding a sniper rifle in his hand, the other was unarmed, with a spell formation tattooed on the palm of each hand.

Chapter 776: Very skinny. Very skinny.

"This dead girl, where did she get such a monster, save her. "Miscellaneous"."

The female indentured servant was filled with anxiety.

"I can't do anything, the distance is too far, and there are too many people on the battlefield, the Void Bomb forms one in five minutes, why don't we rush over there right away?"

The male contractee holding a sniper rifle was anxious, he had been in love with the silver-haired girl for a long time, but he just didn't dare to say it out loud, one is that it's dangerous inside the Apocalypse Paradise, it's not suitable to talk about love here, and two is afraid that after he said it out loud the silver-haired girl didn't have any feelings for him, then it would be embarrassing in the future.

"It's okay, there I am."

The male Contractor with a spell tattooed on his palm spoke in a calm and steady tone, he put his hands together and the earth element between his hands was so dense that it was visible to the naked eye.

...

On the battlefield, Su Xiao broke the neck of a dwarf with a kick, and with a series of slashes from the long knife in his hand, several orcs fell down covering their blood-spewing throats.

The silver-haired girl was about thirty meters away from Su Xiao, if it was a normal chase, Su Xiao would be able to catch up with the opponent in a few seconds.

Unfortunately, now in the battlefield, surrounded by orcs and dwarves, and after the silver-haired girl's size became smaller, she used the advantage of her size to weave in and out of the crowd, as a soft girl, she wouldn't care about crotch humiliation, unusually slippery.

If it was just like this, Su Xiao could also catch up with the other party, well to his death, there was an earth type enemy harassing him from a long distance, the ground under his feet would either suddenly bulge up a piece, or turn into a swamp, or even sinkholes would appear out of thin air.

One after another, Su Xiao was surprised to find that not only did he not catch up with the silver-haired girl, but instead he was getting farther and farther away from the other party... no, it should be the silver-haired lolita now...

What's even more annoying is that this silver-haired lolita found no danger, running also from time to time to turn back to provoke Su Xiao, sometimes patting the small butt, sometimes swaying shoulders, will be tart | wave | cheap to play to the extreme, simply PiPiShrimp body.

Su Xiao smashed the head of an orc beside him with a punch, and he sheathed his Dragon Flash.

Ring Break.

Clang!

The light blue circular blade spread, and the surrounding orcs and dwarves were cleared out.

Su Xiao immediately put away the Dragon Slashing Flash, and the Spider Queen appeared in his hand, he half crouched on the ground, pulled the bolt, raised the gun, and took aim, and his movements flowed in a single motion.

The silver-haired loli glanced backward as she ran, and she just happened to see the black hole of the gun barrel.

"And... and a sniper rifle? I was wrong, I shouldn't have provoked it just now, don't chase after me, I've become so small, even if I chase after you, you can't do anything to me."

The silver-haired loli stopped in place, reached out and pulled off the crystal pendant on her neck, her face full of flesh pain.

This wasn't an equipment, it was a disposable prop, and if converted with the quality of Reincarnation Paradise, this was a golden quality disposable prop.

The power of disposable props must be stronger than equipment of the same grade, this is an unquestionable matter, after all, equipment can be reused.

The silver-haired loli's little face wrinkled into a ball of bitterness.

"It's over, this time when I go back, my sister will have to peel my skin, damn it, this pervert, loli control, single dog."

After the silver-haired loli quality trifecta, she pinched and burst the crystal pendant in her hand.

"Shatter it, Sea Emperor."

With a snapping sound, the crystal pendant exploded, and a layer of golden light wrapped the silver-haired loli as she faced Su Xiao directly.

A 17.36mm caliber bullet flew in, piercing through the body of one orc, and most of the body of the orc that was pierced by the bullet burst into pieces.

The silver-haired loli's small hand pushed forward, and along with this palm strike, the golden light on her body receded.

Boom!

A violent golden wave spread out from the silver-haired loli's palm and pushed forward at high speed, the golden wave was ten meters wide and five meters high, like a monstrous wave.

The 17.36mm caliber bullet just touched the golden wave, the bullet instantly crumbled and turned into a large amount of metal debris.

Of course, Su Xiao noticed this golden wave, the speed of this golden wave was extremely fast, and its power was amazing, those orcs or dwarves that touched the golden wave instantly exploded into blood mist, and the ground was plowed flat.

A layer of 500 point strength energy shield appeared in front of Su Xiao, at the same time there was a layer of eggshell shaped golden shield wrapping him.

Bang!

Su Xiao was slapped out, and the 500-point strength energy shield instantly shattered!

Being in mid-air, the golden shield disappeared, and blood gushed out of Su Xiao's mouth, he endured the dull feeling within his chest, raised his gun in mid-air and took aim, pulled the trigger, and the bullet was discharged.

Bang.

After the gunshot, Su Xiao landed on the ground, just landed on the ground, he spat out a large mouthful of blood again, the power of the golden quality disposable props is very scary, if it is not the distance is far away + 500 points of strength of the energy shield buffer + 70 points of physical strength attribute + secondary invincibility shield, Su Xiao is likely to be killed by this blow in seconds, this is the power of the golden quality disposable props.

The golden wave pushed out a few hundred meters and then dissipated, not an inch of grass grew where it passed.

Su Xiao looked towards where the silver haired loli was, a pile of broken flesh appeared there, the shot he fired in mid-air hit his target, but there were others who arrived and saved the silver haired loli.

If it was before mastering Gun Mastery: LV.30, this shot would never have hit.

...

One kilometer away, at the edge of the battlefield behind the tribal army, there was no fighting here, as far as the eye could see, there were orcs or dwarves pouring towards the battlefield, the imperial army hadn't killed here yet.

The three Apocalypse Paradise indentured servants formed a zigzag pattern to separate the charging orcs nearby, creating a small open space.

The silver-haired loli was lying in the clearing, blood spreading out underneath her.

"Cough cough~"

The silver-haired loli let out a dry cough, and as she did, drops of blood were coughed up.

"I survived?"

The silver-haired loli woke up and subconsciously wanted to stand up, and just as she made her move, the sharp pain made her nearly faint again.

"Ruri, don't move."

A female indentured servant with long flowing hair, around twenty years old or so, spoke.

"Both my legs were broken?"

The silver haired loli, also known as Ruri sighed, she had lost badly this time, if not for her ability favoring escape + the location being a chaotic battlefield + help from her teammates + golden disposable props, she wouldn't have been able to escape at all.

"Well, both legs are broken ..."

The male sniper in the glazed squad turned his head sideways, his hand holding the rifle was bruised and his teeth were clacking.

If only two legs were broken, the male sniper wouldn't have this expression.

Ruri's body was shattered all the way from the navel down, and now only the upper half of his body remained.

"Go find Queen Hsi, she must have a solution."

The most composed middle-aged earth-type contractee in the group spoke.

"Yes, Queen Xi will definitely save Liuli."

"Going to find my sister?"

Ruri gulped, her already miserable little face turning even whiter.

"Why don't I hold back and use the recovery products to hold up first? I feel like I'm in pretty good shape right now, I don't feel anything other than pain, and also, was the place where I boo booted broken? That pervert."

"Cut the crap, so miserable and still poor."

The female indentured servant lifted Lurie up carefully and rushed off like the other war zones, Hoshi wasn't in the Black Earth War Zone.

...

Battlefield.

Su Xiao somewhat mechanically wielded the Chopping Dragon Flash in his hand to slash and kill his enemies, he hadn't encountered any other Apocalypse Paradise contractors since that silver-haired girl had fled.

With the help of the openings of cutting down all the nearby enemies, Su Xiao looked at the time, the war had already lasted for 8 hours, and he didn't know when it would end.

Although the surroundings were full of enemies, Su Xiao's life value and mana value had already been restored to full, and the dullness in his chest had disappeared, this was the power of the Spirit Eater's talent, the more enemies he killed, the better his status became.

Chapter 777: Very soon, very soon.

The sun was like blood, and the battlefield was filled with shouts and killings. Miscellaneous Zhi Insects

Although the war had already lasted for 8 hours, those human or orc soldiers were still alive and well, it wasn't that they were physically fit, but these human or orc soldiers had died one batch after another, the ones who were physically weak had died long ago, and the ones who were still fighting in blood were all the soldiers who had replenished the battlefield from the back of the camps of both sides.

Su Xiao was still wielding his sword to kill the enemies, this kind of large-scale war, it was easy for people to lose their minds and thus go crazy.

Beheading a five short gnome, this thing was rarely seen on the battlefield, Su Xiao looked around, no one nearby noticed him.

With a plopping sound, Su Xiao 'fell to the ground', he wasn't out of stamina, but he wanted to pretend to be a corpse to regain his stamina, even though he fell to the ground, he was still holding his sword, once he was exposed, he was immediately able to finish off the incoming enemies.

Just as he fell to the ground, Su Xiao realized that there was something wrong in the pile of corpses beside him.

A dwarf and two human soldiers were lying on the pile of corpses, the three of them were not far away, all of them were severely overdrawn and were recovering their strength.

The dwarf had the body of an orc pressed against him, which was a good cover, as for the two human soldiers, one had intestines all over his abdomen, and the other was half submerged in plasma.

"Hey, should we get him."

A tall, thin soldier kicked the one-eyed soldier nearby.

"Don't say anything, maybe we can muddle through until the war is over."

The one-eyed soldier's face was covered in dirt and blood and mud, and that one-eye dribbled around.

"I always feel like that shorty is going to whack me, better get him, there are three of us now."

Obviously, the tall and thin soldier noticed that Su Xiao, who was a few meters away, was also playing dead.

"Don't count me, I need to rest for a while."

There was an orc corpse lying on each side beside Su Xiao, and he was in a good position.

"Imperial coward, who did you just call shorty."

The dwarf three meters away opened his mouth, but he didn't get up for the simple reason that his stamina was severely overdrawn.

"What, not convinced? Have the balls to get up and hammer me."

The tall and thin soldier sneered.

"I'll fight you."

The dwarf within the pile of corpses tried to stand up, this was a dwarf, with a fiery temper and straight character.

"Have the guts to stand up."

One-eyed soldier also sneered, the dwarf just wanted to get up, but found that three pairs of eyes are staring at him, hesitate for a moment, the dwarf to the pile of corpses squeezed, out of sight is out of mind, compared to venting anger, or life is important.

The war continues, time passes, the sky gradually darkened, the fire between the battlefields illuminated.

About an hour or so later, the sun in the sky fell below the horizon, and the night battle began.

Su Xiao stood up, and realized that when he got up, the two human soldiers also got up, as for the dwarf, he long ago didn't know where to crawl, he wasn't stupid, how could he wait for death here.

Su Xiao's physical strength recovered a lot, the arm that was still a little sore before recovered, this is the aftermath of using the ring break many times.

Although the battlefield is cruel, but the imperial side did not appear to desert, this is not how excellent the quality of the soldiers of the imperial side, but the rear of the battlefield is full of 5,000 supervisors with heavy crossbows, fleeing from the battlefield, shoot to kill, moreover, most of the soldiers have family members, they fled, which means that they will never be able to step foot in any of the empire's cities.

At this time, Su Xiao near the soldiers have not killed together, because of the imperial soldiers with the tacit understanding, coupled with proper command, the advantage of the imperial side is not small, has been the tribal side to beat out a distance.

"Soldiers, why don't you go to the front line to kill the enemy."

A dozen or so Supervision soldiers wearing leather armor and heavy crossbows in their hands came from the rear, while they supervised the battle, they would also clean up the tribal army that were loading corpses.

"Tired of killing, rest for a while."

Su Xiao turned around and walked towards the front line of the battlefield, this scene those supervisory soldiers were not surprised, besides, they were clear when they sensed Su Xiao's aura, this was never an aura that a deserter could have.

"Soldier, have you eaten."

An older Supervisory Unit soldier opened his mouth.

"I had a meal in the morning."

Su Xiao was indeed a little hungry at this point, after all, he had already been killing for a day.

"Just in time, we brought some dry food, you two, join us."

That older Dude Sergeant waved his hand, signaling the other two soldiers to join him as well.

On this battlefield where the smell of blood was mixed with various strange odors, a dozen people began to enjoy their dinner, which was not sumptuous, it was a kind of pie baked with a mixture of flour+meat+vegetables, which was different from a pie, it was air-dried, and could not be bitten by bad teeth at all.

This is the exclusive dry food in wartime, the benefits are easy to save, ready to eat, easy to carry, nutritionally balanced, can let the soldiers to maintain physical strength, there are many disadvantages, it is very difficult to eat, imagine, will be mixed with flour, meat, vegetables, salt, water, stirred together and baked, and finally air-dried, can be tasty to hell.

After Su Xiao ate five marching big cakes, a feeling of fullness appeared in his abdomen, he got up and walked towards the front line.

"Let's go."

"Uh-huh."

The Supervisors just nodded, the battlefield was not a good place to cross paths, some of the veterans didn't even want to know the names of the new recruits, it was a bad thing to develop friendships with the new recruits, the new recruits didn't always die at some point, and over time the veterans of the battlefield chose not to spend time with them, after all, no one wanted to repeat the experience of having a friend die in battle.

The battlefield was not dark at night, the fires from the explosions illuminated the battlefield, and from time to time a green 'meteor' whistled through the sky, it was actually a green phosphorus fire flask from the tribal side.

After a few minutes, human soldiers appeared in front of Su Xiao, and he quickly blended into them.

Swinging his sword, killing the enemy, looking for the next enemy, if the enemy was dense to a certain level, he would use the energy blade, if it was too dense and reached the level of crowded people, Su Xiao would use the ring break to clear the field.

Su Xiao noticed a sense of fatigue in the eyes of some of the soldiers nearby, it wasn't physical fatigue, it was inner fatigue.

Su Xiao did not have this tiredness as he tried to memorize the characteristics of every enemy who died under his blade, while reminding himself that he killed all these people, and to carry it all with a firm consciousness.

Killing was a vice that Su Xiao might have been unable to quit, but he would not allow himself to get used to this feeling that characterized a murderous ghost.

I don't know how long he had killed, Su Xiao's hands were sore from hacking, the nearby enemies had gradually become less, those surviving orc soldiers looked at him with a gaze that began to be different, there was hatred in that gaze, there was unwillingness, and more than anything else, there was fear.

"Brother...brother, the one under your feet is already dead, don't step on it."

A human soldier looked at Su Xiao and couldn't help but gulp, he seemed to see an aura of blue and red intersecting.

"Hmm."

Su Xiao kicked away the orc corpses under his feet, when he looked up he realized that fish-belly white appeared in the sky, it was dawn, he had been fighting all night.

Moving his somewhat sore arms, Su Xiao looked towards the Black Earth Fortress half a kilometer away, this battle was almost over, the next battle was to capture that fortress, as long as he captured the fortress, he would be able to move freely in this world.

At around 8:00 am, the Imperial Army rounded up the last small group of Horde Army on the battlefield, this war that lasted for a day and a night was declared over.

The Imperial Army's performance was not as exaggerated as imagined, more than 200,000 tribal troops died on the battlefield around 80,000, the rest were routed inside the Black Earth Fortress, the plains terrain coupled with the enemy having a fortress at the back, total annihilation was simply impossible.

Su Xiao sat on a pile of corpses and smoked, the shouts and killings that rushed to the sky beside his ears finally disappeared and turned into the screams of the wounded on both sides.

The rear medical team, supervisory team, and logistics team quickly entered the battlefield, the medical team was responsible for saving their own wounded, the supervisory team was responsible for killing the enemy wounded or captives, as for the logistics team, they were responsible for disposing of the corpses and directing the captured orcs to dig pits.

Empire and tribal sides in this battle in the deaths and injuries add up to more than 100,000 people, this scale of corpses are not dealt with will be a big deal, pollution of the environment is a small matter, the outbreak of plague on the bad, the plague with the war with, is because of the corpses are not handled properly, in this technologically backward world, the outbreak of plague deaths are far more than the war.

The bodies of their own side as the collection of rags piled up on the wagon, and then identify, collect the body on the financial, can identify the identity of the body of the financial sent to the hands of the family of those soldiers, cannot identify the army, and ultimately the body of the unified burial, the treatment of the officer is also some, can be sent back to their hometowns.

As for the enemy corpses, the first is stripped naked, all the valuable things left behind, as bare pig-like corpses were piled up and burned.

"Hoo ~"

Su Xiao exhaled a mouthful of green smoke, holding a tablet in his hand, he was playing a game that came out more than when, it was a parkour game, it should have been downloaded by Boo Boo Woof, the others couldn't touch Su Xiao's tablet.

[Announcement: the enemy has successfully obtained the World's Core, make sure to recapture it within 20 natural days, after 20 natural days the World's Core will be fully activated].

Receiving this bolt from the blue, Su Xiao immediately checked on Boo Boo Woof's condition, and Boo Boo Woof's vital signs were normal.

Su Xiao breathed a sigh of relief and turned to think about the countermeasures afterward, the situation now was obvious, the World's Core must be recaptured within 20 days.

Just then, a message from Bubu Woof popped up.

"Master, hold on, this woof has successfully penetrated the enemy's interior, and will soon steal back the shiny stone."

Su Xiao had just seen this message when a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[Announcement: your party has successfully obtained the World's Core, please hold it for at least 20 natural days, after 20 natural days the World's Core will be fully activated].

The cigarette in Su Xiao's mouth slipped, this is too damn fast, he immediately edited the message to Boo Boo Woof.

"Boo Boo, great job, keep it up ..."

Before Su Xiao finished editing his message, the prompt from Reincarnation Paradise appeared again.

[Announcement: The enemy has successfully obtained the World's Core, please recapture it within 20 natural days ...]

Su Xiao was completely confused, the speed of getting the World's Core was fast, the speed of losing it was even faster, what exactly happened over there? Or what did the bastard Bubu Wang do that made people cry and laugh, the most important thing, would that bastard gnaw the World's Core in a fit of excitement.

Su Xiao sighed, he had to solve the matter at hand as soon as possible, or else Bu Bu Wang would not necessarily do something thunderous, if he was not there, that bastard was as unrestrained as a wild dog running wild, two to suffocate people.

Chapter 778: Arch-enemy

Holy Dragon City. Magazine Insect

As the capital of the Dragon Empire, Holy Dragon City's population was not the largest, but it was located in the center of the empire, coupled with the four seasons like spring, the degree of prosperity was not something that could be compared to other cities, and it was almost the economic hub of the entire empire, with countless large and small merchant groups coming and going every day to drive the economy of this place.

Under the prosperous appearance of the Holy Dragon City, there are also disgusting darkness, such as the large and small nobles rampant, the forces under the various nobles fighting in secret.

The Dragon Empire has existed for 3700 years, even if the royal family has governed the empire well during this period, coupled with the threat of war to extend the empire's lifespan considerably, but it has existed for too long, just like an ancient tree, it seems to be flourishing, but in reality, the roots underneath the soil are already a large part of the ulcer, and it is not known when it will fall with a thud.

The fact that the old king has been in power for 60 years, not to mention the conflicts among the nobles, is a cause for concern.

The last prince was nearly 50 years old, an age when he should have succeeded to the throne, but two years ago, the last prince was abolished by the old king, and the old king set up a new prince, who was 30 years old, the youngest of all the old king's heirs and the most mediocre in qualifications, and some people even rumored that he was not the old king's heir at all.

Some clever nobles have guessed what the old king wants to do, it is obvious that he doesn't want to step down from the throne, but the old king is already 83 years old, just like a dying lion, not willing to give up the territory, even if there is a magic potion to support, the old king can't live up to a hundred years old.

The front line is in a tight spot, and there is also pandemonium within the royal family. Fortunately, there are five dukes and seven princes to support them, otherwise the situation in the empire would have long been in chaos.

Even so, want to cut down the empire this 'ancient tree' is not a matter of night and day, in addition to the tribal alliance situation is not much better than the empire, alone the serious division of power this point is enough to be fatal, in addition to the tribal alliance of the various races in the contradiction between the constant.

The bell tower of Holy Dragon City rang out, and the neat stone road was bustling with pedestrians and passing traders.

Underneath the Holy Dragon City, there are hundreds of well-connected underground passages here, linking to the four surrounding cities, this is the escape route for the royal family or great nobles at critical moments, and it is never possible for civilians to enter here.

The original dead silence of the underground passage came from the sound of footsteps, a dozen men and women shuttling in the underground passage, their speed was extremely fast, bringing up a wave of dust at the same time, the figure had already disappeared.

This dozen men and women just ran through a corner, the rear came from the messy footsteps.

"Where did they run?"

"This way."

"We must recapture the World's Core, it would be bad if they escaped to the ground."

Those fleeing in front were the contractors of the Apocalypse Paradise, and as for those chasing in the rear, it went without saying that they must be the contractors of the Reincarnation Paradise.

At this moment, Boo Boo Woof mixed in with the Reincarnation Paradise's contractees, its nose shrugged, and it quickly sniffed out a special odor that smelled like a wrongdoer.

On Boo Boo Woof's dog face, a few scratches could be vaguely seen, Boo Boo Woof's originally handsome dog face was as if it had been scratched by a cat.

That's right, Boo Boo Woof was scratched by a cat, although the other party was a beautiful cat that was so beautiful that it seduced people's hearts, and it was a female, but Boo Boo Woof wasn't interested in that guy, all it wanted to do now was to find the other party, and to let that abominable Meow Star know why the flowers were so red!

"Brother Dog, don't be angry, it was our mistake before."

A teenage indentured servant opened his mouth to persuade, Boo Boo Woof ignored the other party and just focused on tracking the cat's scent.

"I thought it had defected before. I didn't realize there was a hand like that, bull beep."

An indentured servant let out a sigh of relief, as if he had seen something that ruined his view of the world.

"Woof."

Boo Boo Woof barked at a passageway and rushed straight into that passageway, in Boo Boo Woof's words, 'He has smelled the enemy's scent.'

Inside the passageway dozens of meters away from Boo Boo Woof's squad, a cat ran quickly through the underground passageway, and it was followed by a dozen or so Apocalypse Paradise contractors.

This meow looked somewhat like a ragdoll cat, with eyes like basket jewels and a long "clear brow".

"That dead dog."

The meow mouthed, her fur exploding all over her body in an obvious fit of rage, the reason being that the glossy fur on her head was already covered in drool, as if it had been held in her mouth by some creature, and yes, it was Boo Boo Woof who had done it.

"Bethany, don't be angry, we're lucky to have recaptured the World's Core, that dog was simply divine."

The contractors of Apocalypse Paradise were all a bit distraught, after they found the World's Core, they realized that it couldn't be put into storage space and all other spatial appliances, they could only carry it though.

This was originally nothing, but just as they were about to run away, the World's Core was lost, and they didn't even know how!

Fortunately, the beautiful cat Bethany found some abnormalities, and retrieved the World's Core from Boo Boo Woof's mouth, and as a price, she was flung and flung by Boo Boo Woof in his mouth, flung and flung in a dizzying manner.

The 'battle for supremacy' between a cat and a dog begins, and now the cats have the upper hand, with Boo Boo Woof in hot pursuit.

"I don't believe to swallow the world's core into my stomach, that dead dog can still ... aim! "

A black and white black shadow rushed out from the corner and ran away after biting Bethany's head, not stopping for a moment from the beginning to the end.

"Quickly save Ben aim!"

Bethany's voice was far away in the passageway, and the indentured servants of Apocalypse Paradise froze in their tracks, all of them thinking, 'It seems like something just whooshed past.'

A few seconds later, Boo Boo Woof's divine technique 'You Can't See Me' failed.

"Chase!"

A tall and thin man hissed angrily, his voice was so high that it broke the sound, the contractors of Apocalypse Paradise scattered and chased wildly, it was true that Boo Boo Woof's fighting ability was not excellent, but its running speed could only be described as fast as lightning.

In front, the meow Bethany who was held by Boo Boo Woof's head was on the verge of crying, she scratched Boo Boo Woof's face with her claws, Boo Boo Woof was in pain, her head was thrown from side to side, after a few seconds, Bethany's furry little paws were limp and sagging, the

"Help~"

Bethany didn't dare to tickle Boo Boo Woof anymore, she was only scouting, and she was much less physically fit than Boo Boo Woof.

Boo Boo Woof got the better of the cat and swung Bethany from side to side a few more times.

"Oooh~ I was wrong, vomit~"

Tears welled up in Bethany's large azure eyes as she wanted to vomit, but the dried fingernail-sized core of the world was in her belly, and she didn't dare to vomit.

Boo Boo Woof reclaimed the World's Core and abducted a beautiful cat in the process.

"Silly dog, have a fair duel, dare you!"

Hearing these words from Bethany, Boo Boo Woof, who had already run far away, stopped in its tracks, and it flung Bethany towards the wall.

Bang!

Bethany grunted miserably as she was hit, just as she landed on the ground she tried to escape, but a pair of large claws had already pounced forward.

"Oooh aim!"

"Meowth connects claws."

"Woof!"

After a cacophony of noise, Boo Boo Woof, who had a few extra claw marks on her face, continued to run away with Bethany in her mouth, who was obviously much more honest this time, tears sliding down the fur on her cheeks as she cried from being pummeled by Boo Boo Woof.

"Oooh~ Master, come save Ben Aim, Ben Aim can't beat this stupid dog, help!!!"

Boo Boo Woof was like a cockerel that fought and won, it took a brisk pace and went far away, it wasn't going to go to those agility type contractors in the same camp, those people couldn't be trusted, and the World's Core it would only be given to one person.

Chapter 779: awkward

Black earth plains, battlefield front. Miscellaneous $ Zhi $ Bug

The black smoke produced by the burning of the corpses is like a column of demons that rushes straight into the sky.

Although the battlefield has been initially processed, the number of corpses has not been reduced too much, there are too many corpses, and it takes a long time to categorize them alone.

In front of an iron pot, Su Xiao held a soup spoon and stirred inside, inside was a gurgling and bubbling seafood soup, this was a convenient food made by Xia, it had already been processed and only needed to be boiled for a while.

The unique fresh flavor of seafood wafted out, the human soldiers near Su Xiao had sideways glances and kept gulping, no one dared to come forward to ask for it or snatch it.

Su Xiao sheng a big bowl, the seafood soup is thick and smooth in the mouth, the taste is exceptionally fresh, and I don't know what ingredients Xadu used, Su Xiao only recognizes the shrimp tail meat, clams in it. Soybean sprouts and several other ingredients.

A large bowl of seafood into the belly, Su Xiao exhaled a mouthful of hot air, killed a day and night, finally eat mouth hot food.

Su Xiao served another big bowl, the first few mouthfuls of this thing only felt fresh and delicious, after that there is a strange fragrance in the mouth that does not dissipate, a bowl after a bowl simply can not stop.

[You are consuming 'Secret Seafood Soup', restoring 1 point of stamina value per second.]

Seeing this prompt, Su Xiao was quite surprised, not realizing that this was actually a restorative food, and it was restoring physical strength.

After a few large bowls of seafood soup went into his stomach, Su Xiao saw sweat on his head, and his fatigue actually receded a bit.

"What is this fragrance?"

A stout man walked up to Su Xiao, the man wore a blood-colored armor and sat cross-legged opposite Su Xiao without any constraints, behind the man, there were several soldiers with sharp eyes.

The man took off his helmet and picked up a spoon inside the pot to serve soup inside the helmet, very bold.

"Legion Commander, subordinate first ..."

The soldiers behind the man rushed forward.

"It's fine, you think I'll be poisoned to death?"

The man waved his hand, lifted his helmet, and took a few large sips, that tightly frowning brow stretching.

"This delicacy...you made it?"

A smile surfaced on the man's face as he looked towards Su Xiao.

"No, a friend configured the ingredients."

"Oh."

The man took a couple more big sips.

"I saw what you did on the battlefield earlier, by the way, my name is Carlos, your legionnaire."

"Well, hello Legion Commander, my name is White Night, Private Third Class."

Su Xiao nodded, seeing this kind of performance from him, Carlos raised an eyebrow, usually soldiers groveled when they saw him, Carlos actually didn't care about other people's attitudes or races, he only looked at the ability, without the ability, even a high status was still trash.

"When did you join the army?"

"A few days ago."

"Reason?"

"I can kill, and the army was just the right place to utilize my talents, so here it is."

Hearing Su Xiao's reply, Carlos laughed out loud.

"I thought you'd say fight for the empire."

Carlos casually tossed the helmet in his hand to the soldier behind him, who immediately unhooked the water pouch on his waist to clean the helmet, dry it, and respectfully handed it to Carlos.

Carlos took the helmet and put it on, standing up.

"You will be the squad leader from now on, as for the soldiers under your jurisdiction, find them yourself, there are a lot of dispersed troops on the battlefield, 200 at most, no corner cutting, as for the identity credentials, let's talk about it after the war is over."

With those words, Carlos walked off in the direction of the more forward lines, he was just passing by and was attracted by the scent.

It had to be said that Carlos had a unique charisma and was powerful, Su Xiao had a feeling that he was no match for this man.

[Hint: The Hunter has obtained an official position in the Dragon Empire, current position: squad leader].

[Dragon Teng Empire military positions: third class, second class, first class, squad leader, lieutenant, captain, etc., a total of thirty-six official positions.]

[Tip: Because the hunter has obtained an official position in the Dragon Empire, the battle merit statistics are in progress ...]

[Battle merit will be calculated based on the number of enemy kills, breaching enemy fortifications, killing enemy officers, and other values].

[If you kill an enemy officer, the hunter can choose between Battle Merit / Reincarnation Paradise Merit].

[Battle merit can be exchanged for items at the Quartermaster's office.]

...

Su Xiao didn't kill any enemy officers on the battlefield, as for the 1,436 points of battle merit, they were all obtained from him killing ordinary soldiers.

If Su Xiao was not wrong, killing an ordinary soldier gained roughly 1 point of battle merit, which meant that he had killed more than a thousand people in this battle.

This might seem a bit exaggerated, but Su Xiao did not know how many times he had used Ring Breaks before, hacking people until his hands went limp, and had killed for a full day and night, and when he killed an ordinary soldier, he was usually able to solve it within 1 to 2 slashes, so this number was not exaggerated.

Moreover, this was in the case of Su Xiao conserving his physical strength, if he killed with all his might, the number of enemies killed must be even more than now.

Washing the cooking utensils used in cooking and putting them back into the storage space, Su Xiao walked towards the back of the Iron Blood Legion.

The Iron Blood Legion had already set up camp behind the battle line, countless tents came into view, snoring sounds came out from within the tents, soldiers were not made of iron, the surviving soldiers had already entered the dreamland, and none of them had dismounted their armor and were always ready to meet the war that followed.

Su Xiao walked between the tents, after asking a few soldiers, he learned the location of the quartermaster, and soon came to the front of the quartermaster's tent, he was just about to walk into the tent, a teenager walked from within the tent, and the two just happened to look at each other.

"You you you you ..."

The teenager was as if he was electrocuted, he knew Su Xiao, and the reason was that the teenager had bought a piece of equipment from Su Xiao, the Minotaur Lord Armor.

At the moment, the teenager's body was wrapped in bandages, his small face was waxen, and it looked like he had not recovered from a serious injury.

"Don't block the door."

A female voice came from inside the quartermaster tent, the teenager was pushed from behind, staggered a few steps, a blonde imperial sister with long wavy hair came out, the blonde imperial sister was wearing a tight-fitting leather jacket, outlining the curves of the body shape, the chest opened up a lot.

The blonde imperial sister wore black gloves on her hands, which were very fleshy, like feline meat claws.

"Huh~" The blonde imperial sister also saw Su Xiao not far away, and froze, both sides just stared at each other in silence, the scene was extremely awkward.

"I...almost, died."

The Bull Head Lord arm armor appeared in the hands of that teenager, who clearly dared to be angry.

"This thing is not bad, right?"

The corner of Su Xiao's mouth curled up in an unscrupulous smile, returning it now was obviously impossible.

"Still...not bad."

The teenager was a little speechless, it was indeed true, after he used the Bull Head Lord Armor, he shattered the enemy in front of him with a single punch, the feeling of surging power within his body mesmerized him.

"Not bad my ass, how did you get hurt like that, forget?"

The blonde royal sister slapped the teenager on the back of his head, and the teenager let out a wide smile and stopped speaking.

"I'm his sister."

The reason the blonde otome looked calm was because of the world she was in right now, where there was no possibility of hostility between the two sides.

"I'm a little curious as to how a person obtained an officer position, even if rumor has it that you're ridiculously strong. "

The blonde imperial sister seemed to be interested in Su Xiao.

"Who knows, maybe I got lucky."

"Then congratulations, we won't return what we bought, not to mention the side effects, that arm armor is good, but what's your business?"

The blonde royalty didn't want to continue this standoff, now that it was a war against the outside world, it was too unwise to implode, and in fact, it couldn't be imploded.

"You guys are in the way."

Su Xiao pointed to the large tent behind the pair of siblings.

"Ahem~ It seems so. "

The blonde imperial sister was a little embarrassed, pulling her brother away, although she acted calm, but after personally sensing Su Xiao's blood-filled odor, her heart wasn't calm, how many living beings did she kill before she killed her aura, so thick that it was creepy.

Chapter 780: Eye-catching items

After the two siblings left, Su Xiao walked into the military training tent, which was full of miscellaneous items, almost nowhere to land, the degree of clutter was beyond imagination. Miscellaneous.

"3 ounces of Grid Copper, 5 ounces of Gray Snapping Turtle Shell Powder, hmmm, yes, that's it. "

Muttering came from the inner side of the big tent, Su Xiao walked through the clutter on the ground, and in front of him was a test bench, behind which stood a Goblin.

"Someone's here again? It's really lively lately."

This goblin's skin was a light green color, and he was about a meter tall. The ears were pointed and slender, and the nose was pointed.

"No need to be surprised, I'm not a gnome."

The quartermaster didn't raise his head, he was used to other people's special gazes, however Su Xiao wasn't surprised when he saw the other party.

"I have one-third human blood, one-third goblin blood, and one-third dwarf blood, God knows how I was born, and I've never seen those damn parents, maybe they're a threesome, in any case, I'm the Quartermaster personally recognized by Legion Chief Carlos."

Mixed blood people in the empire is actually not rare, but mixed to this extent is really not much, exactly, the empire territory is not completely no dwarves or goblins, just rare, of course, these main peace faction goblins or dwarves inevitably be discriminated against or hostile, as for the orcs and trolls are not allowed to appear in the territory of the empire at all, once appeared, kill without amnesty.

"Here's the list."

The Half-Blood Quartermaster took out a list and stopped paying attention to Su Xiao, continuing to hook up some kind of reagent.

Su Xiao picked up the list, and a hint from Reincarnation Paradise appeared.

[You have activated the War Merit Redemption System, in this world, you may not intimidate, threaten, or any other undesirable means against Quartermaster Nicholas Caesar, if you are hostile to Quartermaster Nicholas Caesar, you will be expelled by the Scarlet Legion.]

...

The list of items had a large row of densely packed equipment, props, etc., and under a few pieces of gold quality equipment, there was a large amount of light gold equipment, which was stimulating the contractors to bravely kill the enemy on the battlefield, thus gaining a large amount of battle merit, and a first class soldier would be able to activate the Battle Merit Store.

Not to mention the several golden items with amazing attributes, the battle merit required for these items was astronomical, no one could even get this much battle merit in the early stages.

The Reincarnation Paradise Merit and Soul Crystals at the top were both limited in supply and not too expensive, Su Xiao could be sure that it wouldn't be long before the Reincarnation Paradise Merit and Soul Crystals would be snapped up.

The preciousness of the Soul Crystals needed no introduction, as for the Reincarnation Paradise Merit, this thing was closely related to the rewards after winning the war.

There is a high possibility that after the war is won, attribute points or other rewards will be exchanged for Reincarnation Paradise Merit Honors based on a certain percentage, this world can't obtain the Source of the World, and then Su Xiao's speculation is closer to the truth.

Other rewards are okay, attribute points are too precious, that is the root of everything, without a strong physical quality even equipment cannot be used, besides, physical quality is the cornerstone of all abilities, especially Su Xiao four attributes at the same time to develop, need a few times more attribute points than the other contracted persons.

Thinking about it this way, the speed at which the Reincarnation Paradise Merit is exchanged away will be even more amazing, this thing is limited to 200 points, and now it has already been exchanged away for 4 points, and looking at this meaning, it is clear that it is because of the discount given by the World of War.

While Su Xiao was thinking, footsteps came from behind him, and a man wearing a mage's robe walked into the tent.

Seeing Su Xiao, the mage robe man froze, turned to walk forward and lightly touched the exchange list with his hand, ten seconds later, the Reincarnation Paradise Merit was exchanged away for another 5 points.

As the war continued, the number of war merits would increase, and by then, it was likely that there were war merits that could not be exchanged for Reincarnation Paradise merits.

There were several adventure groups in the Black Earth Warzone, and more importantly, this thing called war merit belonged to the Reincarnation Paradise's mechanism of being able to transfer it to each other.

The good thing about it was that it allowed the various adventure corps to pool their resources, and the bad thing about it was that it was easy for the contractors of the same camp to create conflicts, but under the constraints of the Reincarnation Paradise, this kind of conflict wouldn't break out easily unless both sides had lived long enough.

Su Xiao looked at the [Sacred Oak Tree Branch], this thing made him very red in the eyes, this thing was enough to increase the maximum life value and mana value by 15%, and moreover, it could also increase the life value recovery speed by 20 points per minute.

Whether to temporarily deposit or convert into Reincarnation Paradise merits, this is a very entangled problem, Su Xiao can confirm that there must be an adventuring group that has begun to deposit war merits now, this thing is also equally eye-catching to others.
