Chapter 811: expect

"Boo Boo."

Su Xiao opened her mouth, and Boo Boo Woof's mouth full of sharp white teeth stopped in front of Bethany's neck, and Bethany's little paw jerked as she actually woke up.

Su Xiao grabbed the back of Besni's neck on the ground and picked up Besni who was pretending to be dead.

Bethany's eyelids were trembling, although she had long thought that she would be captured, she never thought that the owner of that stupid dog's breath would be so terrifying, just by the side of the other party, she could already smell the faint odor of blood.

"My terms?"

Su Xiao pondered for a moment.

"From now on, you shut up and if you dare to sing a children's song again, I'll slaughter this cat right away."

As soon as Su Xiao's words fell, the beautiful cat in his hands struggled hard.

"Oooh wow~ Help, Liuli quickly save me, I'm your best friend ah, I don't want to die, that handsome stupid dog, no, handsome dog, help me plead for mercy, I've been carried by you for so long, I don't know how much spit I've eaten from you, I'm wrong, I shouldn't have taken the opportunity to spit into your mouth, help!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

The Bethany in Su Xiao's hand spat out human words and began to release her life and cry.

Boo Boo Woof heard Bethany's words, the whole dog was bad, it had wondered before why its mouth was always sweet when it was holding this cat, it turned out that it was spit.

Bubu Woof began to dry-heave, Su Xiao carried Bethany, and Liuli hovered anxiously in mid-air, not daring to speak.

Su Xiao was pondering, he felt that this was an opportunity, a chance to 'fish'.

"Liuli, you want to save this cat, right?"

Ruri nodded quickly.

"Very well, give me all of Hoshi's information first, and I mean all."

Floating in mid-air, Ruri stopped, she was already starting to sense that things were not going well, and she began to hesitate whether to 'give up' on Bethany for the time being.

Boo Boo Woof was still dry-heaving, his doggy face was embarrassed, if he couldn't be able to speak, he would have roared, "Master, get the hell out of her."

"It seems the cat isn't important to you. "

Su Xiao pinched Bethany, who stopped crying and sniffled.

"Give me an hour."

Although Ruri was clear about Hoshi's information, this was a matter she was going to discuss with Hoshi.

"You only have ten minutes, after ten minutes, she dies or bring Hoshi's information, your choice."

Su Xiao's purpose was Hsi's information? Of course not, this was just a smokescreen.

Xi's information was classified for the Apocalypse Paradise side, Xi was after all the enemy's leading figure, and her combat power was definitely not weak.

However, what Su Xiao wanted wasn't Xi's information, or rather, he couldn't get the other party's real information by blackmailing them, he was just testing to see to what extent the cat in his hand was important to the enemy.

From Ruri's personal emotions alone, it wasn't enough to judge how important this cat was, but the fact that the Apocalypse Paradise party had sent this cat to fight for the [World's Core] meant that this cat's ability was special.

As for how Su Xiao knew that this cat was in charge of contending for the [World's Core], it was something that could be thought of with a little bit of reasoning.

Liuli floated away, her body disappearing into the Black Earth Fortress.

"This...handsome pot, don't kill me, I'm very useful, I can do laundry and cooking, please."

For some reason, the beautiful cat Bethany's desire to survive was extremely strong, almost without any dignity or modesty in her belief in survival.

At this moment, Bethany gave off a feeling that she wanted to live no matter what, no matter what means were used.

"The desire to survive is too strong."

Su Xiao carried the beauty cat Bethany in front of him and locked eyes with Bethany.

"This desire to survive that is so strong that it makes people suspicious, coupled with the fact that you are actually not afraid of death, it's very contradictory ..."

Su Xiao's words sounded contradictory, but in actuality, they were not, knowing that Bethany was involved in the team that was fighting for the [World's Core].

"Boo Boo, when grabbing the World's Core, she was the main force? "

Hearing Su Xiao's question, Bu Bu Wang nodded without thinking.

"Main force, interesting."

The boundary break line in Su Xiao's hand popped out and wrapped around Bethany's neck as he threw Bethany to the ground.

This kind of cat had a strong desire to survive, but in this case, she was the main force when she was involved in the fight for the [World's Core], and the main force basically meant danger.

What did this self-contradictory character indicate? It showed that this cat wasn't actually as 'afraid of death' as she acted, but she feared death, or should I say, she was in fear of the chain reaction triggered by death.

"If I'm not wrong, you and your master should have a soul-binding type of ability, if you die, your master may die or pay a terrible price."

Su Xiao observed Bethany's reaction, and Bethany's hairs stood up all over her body by Su Xiao's look.

"I'll fight you. Woo aim."

Bethany, who was originally shivering, suddenly leapt up and her sharp claws grabbed at Su Xiao's face.

However, Bethany couldn't even beat Boo Boo Woof, against Su Xiao ...

After a few seconds, Bethany lay on the ground twitching, with a half-dead look.

"Who is the owner of this cat? Lurie? Doesn't look like it. "

Su Xiao picked up Bethany on the ground and walked towards the Black Earth Fortress, the captive that Bubu Wang had inadvertently captured had some uses, if utilized properly, he might be able to get some very important information, for the upcoming Contractor Smash, it was important to know about the enemy leader's information.

Now that the war in the Black Earth Fortress has subsided, it means that the time for the Contractor Smash between the two sides is not far away, the Contractor Smash is more dangerous than the war in a way, after all, the Contractors have a variety of abilities.

But before that, Su Xiao needed to deal with three things.

One was the enemy hunter Lan Jue, this guy was too strong, if not dealt with in time, sooner or later it would be a big problem, in this regard Su Xiao already had a solution.

The second was his side's army chief Carlos, Carlos had a higher ability in his blood that was similar to demonic power, if Su Xiao didn't perceive it wrong, this ability was more advanced than demonic power.

Thirdly, the 'transaction' after Liuli's return, Su Xiao actually didn't intend to use the cat in his hand to get information and benefits from the enemy, both sides were not in the same paradise, so they couldn't sign a temporary contract, in this way, the information and benefits from the other side were unreliable, the information was most likely inaccurate, as for the benefits, there was not much hope, the other side might have tampered with the transaction items. may have tampered with the trading items, greed should also be divided into time, now is obviously not suitable for greed.

Therefore, this cat from the enemy is dead, no matter how lovely the other party's appearance is, the enemy is the enemy, how lovely the enemy, after picking up the butcher's knife can take a person's life, because of the enemy's appearance and the hand is soft, that is extremely stupid behavior, no matter how beautiful the enemy's appearance is, the enemy's knife that cuts on Su Xiao's body is just as painful, just as fatal, and just as likely to lead to his death.

Returning to the room on the 4th floor of the fortress, closing the door tightly, Su Xiao silently waited.

Soon, a translucent shadow pierced through the wall and entered Su Xiao's room, it was the anxious looking Liuli.

"The information can be given to you, but you must release her."

Liuli pointed towards Bethany, At this moment, Bethany was lying on the ground, already unconscious.

"Repeat what you just said."

Su Xiao had a cigarette in his mouth, he was sitting in the corner of the room, the shadow enveloped most of his body, the tip of the cigarette was bright and dark.

"The information can be given to you ..."

Zi~.

The boundary break contracted and Bethany's throat was slit, blood spurting out as Ruri flinched in midair.

"Just...let...Bethany go ..."

Ruri muttered.

"Are all of you in Apocalypse Land so naive? Letting go of an enemy you've caught in your hands? In Reincarnation Paradise, this is something unheard of, and I had a feeling before that the way Apocalypse Paradise treats you guys should be on the mild side."

Su Xiao exhaled a mouthful of green smoke and took out a white cloth to wipe off the blood on the boundary break line.

Chapter 812: Extreme with 1 group of crazies

Lurie floated in mid-air dumbfounded, looking at Bethany, who was lying in a pool of blood.

"You ..."

Ruri gritted her teeth and hung her head low.

"You sure are a cold-hearted bastard."

Ruri lifted her head, the sadness sweeping from her face.

The moment Ruri raised her head, Bethany's body on the ground dissolved into points of light and dissipated, and the streak of blood on the ground indicated that Bethany was indeed 'dead'.

"Cats may have nine lives, you bastard."

Liuli rushed to Su Xiao and swung his fist at Su Xiao, Su Xiao did not dodge, he did not even feel the wind pressure.

Liuli's small white hand passed through Su Xiao's head. It didn't cause any damage to Su Xiao.

"As expected of sister, you won't let Bethany go."

"Sister?"

Su Xiao's eyes lit up.

"So it is."

"What so?"

Liuli subconsciously turned away from Su Xiao.

Although Su Xiao was surprised at the disappearance of the cat's body, he quickly accepted the matter.

"Your sister should be the woman called Xi, I had this guess when I saw you before, your hair color and appearance resembles her. "

Su Xiao didn't show the anger or loss that Ruri longed to see, instead he was calmly analyzing.

He first assumed that the owner of this cat was Xi, why would this cat be afraid of death if she had several lives? Or rather, why was she so resistant to death.

The thoughts in Su Xiao's head turned rapidly, the more he used this thing called brain, the more flexible he became, brainless hacking obviously didn't work, that wouldn't go far within the Reincarnation Paradise.

Su Xiao continued to analyze and guess based on the existing information.

That cat is not afraid of death, it is more like death is a very luxurious thing for that cat, she is not willing to waste her life, even if she has nine lives like what Liuli said.

Normally, creatures with nine lives wouldn't show despair in a desperate situation, but just before, that cat had despaired, so it could be seen that she cared about her 'life', or rather, her nine lives had other purposes, such as sharing those nine lives with Hoshi? Giving Hoshi a resurrection-like ability?

"Nine lives? Now that you've already died once, plus the one chance of death that Hoshi would have had, that means Hoshi can die nine more times, this ability of your sister's is not good to deal with."

Su Xiao looked at Liuli, Liuli's face was unchanged, but in actuality, her heart was panicked, a strong melee combatant wasn't too scary, but if it was a strong melee combatant + an overpowering intellect and insight it would be terrifying.

Su Xiao was clear about what level his own IQ was at, he was just a little smarter than the average person, but his long career in combat had given him a strong insight + logical analysis ability.

Logical analysis ability is not equal to IQ, there are several kinds of people who have strong logical analysis ability, police, cunning criminals, etc.

"In that case, Hoshi has at most nine lives left, after all, she has one life of her own, which means she can be resurrected eight times after death? Kill her a ninth time before she dies."

With that cat to get this information, Su Xiao was already satisfied, he never thought that he could use that cat to extort any favors from the enemy, assuming that extorting a piece of equipment, which involves the trading location, whether the enemy is ambushed, etc., the danger is a few times of the reward, or even higher.

"An enemy that can die eight times is not easy to deal with, judging from your reaction, I should have guessed right when I bullshitted for so long, sometimes, not speaking means acquiescence."

Su Xiao got up and walked towards Liuli.

Ruri was speechless, the enemy had actually gotten such important information through some coincidences with her subtle reactions.

"You're useless, 'nightmare' woman...psycho."

Su Xiao looked up at Ruri.

"Huh~"

Ruri froze, she didn't understand what that meant.

Blue smoke rose on Su Xiao's left hand, and the blue smoke instantly wrapped Liuli.

Boom!

A muffled thunderous sound exploded in Liuli's brain, she was blue in front of her eyes and seemed to be in an azure ocean of energy.

"So cozy, I want to stay here all the time."

Liuli's eyes began to darken and a dull smile appeared on her face.

Snap!

Liuli suddenly felt a fiery pain on her face.

Snap!

Liuli's body jerked as her consciousness suddenly returned, and she subconsciously sat up, propping her hands on her knees and gasping for air.

Somewhere in the fortress of the Tribal Army, inside the temporary stronghold of the Apocalypse Paradise Contractors.

"The others shouldn't have seen it."

The corner of Hoshi's mouth seemed to twitch.

"I suppose...no."

A man in heavy armor smiled awkwardly.

"It's too embarrassing, what the hell just happened to this nymph, that kind of demented girl's happy smile has been imprinted in my brain."

A female gunner in camouflage uniform shook her head.

Liuli looked around at the crowd in confusion, these were all familiar faces, her sister's beloved subordinates.

"You guys... why are you looking at me like that, and what just happened to me?"

Liuli felt wrong, she seemed to have done something embarrassing.

"What's wrong? You looked like you were being heckled by dozens of hunks, smiling that 'happy' smile and drooling."

The camouflage-clad gunwoman laughed, and she was visibly relieved to find that Liuli was fine.

"Wh...what!?"

Ruri tried to recall the previous scene, but her memory appeared to be broken, she remembered some of the previous events, only they were trivial, this was something that could only happen if the spirit had received a huge shock.

"What exactly did you do with the enemy? Weren't you controlling the phantom doppelganger state just now."

The camouflage-clad gunwoman peeled back Ruri's eyelids and began to determine Ruri's mental state and whether or not she was being controlled by the enemy.

"I just ..."

Liuli's mind tried desperately to recall, and suddenly, a man with a cigarette in his mouth, wearing a black trench coat with blue smoke rising from his left arm appeared in her memory.

"I ... lost miserably, was utilized, and made my sister lose a chance to be reborn, and important information was also lost to the enemy ..."

Ruri's teeth clenched, she previously thought that the enemy couldn't do anything with her, but now it seemed that it was a trap, the enemy's some kind of ability that could easily take care of her, they just hadn't touched her and acted as if they were being harassed by her to the point that they couldn't do anything about it.

"I'm so stupid, damn it, why is everyone smarter than me."

All that remained in Ruri's mind after she thought about the cause and effect was humiliation.

"What you did was good enough, I had already considered this kind of result, although Bethany's capture surprised me a bit, but the general situation is following my expected steps."

Xi stroked a small milk cat in her arms, which was none other than the reborn Bethany.

"Ruri, it's not that you're too weak, it's that the enemy is too powerful and cunning, I sensed when I saw that guy that it was a murderer who had killed thousands or even tens of thousands of people, it's true, the contractors of the Reincarnation Paradise are all madmen, don't worry, everything we've done before was worthwhile, we weren't fooled by the enemy."

Bethany opened her mouth to comfort.

"But ..."

Ruri looked downcast, a look she hadn't shown even when she was near death.

"Nothing can, that 'Melee 1' doesn't need to be cared about for now, the 'Mage 1' in his same camp is the big problem."

The 'Melee 1' in Xi's mouth was none other than Su Xiao, Xi had a habit of labeling her enemies according to their characteristics and threat level, 'Melee' represented Su Xiao's fighting style, and '1' was Su Xiao's threat level.

"Ranked as number 1? That guy is that strong? I feel like that woman in 'Hill Grand Canyon' is more dangerous, that woman is fighting with her fortune, calling herself the Goddess of Luck, and she also has a mysterious teammate, also in melee combat, I feel like that woman is harder to deal with,"

The camouflage-clad female gunner on the side opened her mouth.

"That lucky woman isn't the most headache-inducing, if I have the chance, I'd rather get rid of 'Mage 1', I underestimated him before. His fire system is likely to restrain me."

Hearing Xi's words, a few people around him were startled.

"Letting Rindo deal with 'Mage 1'?"

The camouflage-clad female gunner gave her suggestion, and from this, it was clear that she had a low status in Xi's core team.

"That's exactly what I intend to do, as for 'Melee 1', someone will help us deal with it, for which I'm paying a lot of high-level recovery potions, if that person can't do it, I'll have to take care of 'Melee 1' myself, which is much more stable. "

Although Xi has been in the 'Hill Grand Canyon', she knows the situation of the three large war zones like the back of her hand, and she has also gotten a lot of information on some of the stronger contractors in the Reincarnation Paradise, With Xi's intelligence, she has long planned her actions afterward.

"At least three out of ten of the opponents this time are lunatics, Reincarnation Paradise's means of cultivating contractors should be very extreme, although our camp is united, we can't take the enemy lightly, if those lunatics are pushed to the edge, they could do anything, including dying with us, if they get to a situation where they're bound to lose, it's not out of the realm of possibility."

Xi's words made a few people nearby serious.

"Would they really be that crazy? Even if they lose the World Battle, at most 10% of their full attributes will be deducted, that's not so ..."

Before the camouflage-clad female gunner could finish her sentence, Xi waved her hand.

"What if, I say what if, the punishment for the mission given to them by Reincarnation Paradise is death?"

"Death? No way, I haven't seen a punishment that would be death except for special circumstances."

"Luckily I'm not in that what's-her-name Reincarnation Paradise, what Hoshi said isn't out of the realm of possibility, after all, those guys give off too much of a crazy vibe."

Chapter 813: not the same

With the way things are going, it's not easy to judge the winner of the battle between the two contractors.

Although the contractors of the Wheeled Paradise were all exceptionally ruthless, in the face of the brutal survival environment of the Wheeled Paradise, the contractors either traveled alone or formed adventuring groups, and were simply unable to form a mega organization.

Moreover, the number of people in most adventure groups was not large, small adventure groups might only have a few or a dozen people, and even for large adventure groups, the number of people rarely exceeded three hundred.

This has to do with the character of the contractors in Reincarnation Paradise, here the strong live and the weak die, although powerful contractors appear one after another, but the number of deaths and injuries is also high, in this kind of survival situation, there is a greater likelihood of conflicts between contractors, and the likelihood of forming a large group is even smaller.

In the reincarnation paradise, forced execution punishment is just a daily routine, as for the deduction of attribute punishment is even more rare, can survive in this kind of environment, even if it is not so strong as to be perverted, the willpower will not be weak, after all, at any time there is the danger of warping, the psychological quality is not good, early in the experience of the first few derivative worlds when eliminated.

However, while cultivating strong people, some contractors with ordinary seniority all died early in battle.

Just like now, 725 contractors from the Reincarnation Paradise side were left alive, while 985 contractors from the Apocalypse Paradise side had survived.

It wasn't that the Reincarnation Paradise's contractors weren't strong, but they were too scattered, and most of those who died were loners, whereas on the Apocalypse Paradise side, all of them were members of a single organization, and it was because of this that the number of survivors was so high.

Of course, it's not that having a large number of people gives you an advantage, if it's a 1V1 situation, with the same attributes and the same abilities, the indentured servants of Apocalypse Paradise are most likely not the opponents of the indentured servants of Reincarnation Paradise, because of Apocalypse Paradise's relatively gentle way of cultivating the indentured servants, at least they won't use the forcible execution penalty so easily.

Of the 725 people who survived in the Reincarnation Paradise party, there were a total of 8 adventuring groups, 7 medium-sized adventuring groups, 1 large adventuring group, and the rest were casuals.

No one in the Reincarnation Paradise party could integrate these indentured servants, not even that fire mage, who at most played a leading role.

The Apocalypse Paradise party was different, they were a group and Xi was their leader.

Looking at it this way, the Reincarnation Paradise party was no match for the Apocalypse Paradise party, but was that really the case? This would have to be found out after the hand-to-hand combat.

However, at least one out of the ten contractors of the Reincarnation Paradise party was not mentally normal. The remaining nine were actually no better, just relatively normal.

This was a group of lunatics + neurotics + lunatic preppers + ruthless 'normal people', and what kind of heartlessness these people would do, not to mention the normal contractors of the Apocalypse Paradise side, even Xi couldn't fully surmise.

One of the three major war zones, Fortress Odle.

Dang, Dang, Dang ...

The sound of hammers striking came from inside the stone house on the fortress, a Reincarnation Paradise contractee was sitting at the eastern edge of the fortress, below him was a cliff of several hundred meters, but this contractee didn't care.

"Potato, is that thing done yet."

"Almost. "

A somewhat impatient voice came from inside the stone house.

"Potato, why don't you just throw that thing at the tribal party base camp, it's bound to kill quite a few."

The indentured servant sitting by the cliff tilted his head, not knowing what he was looking at.

"Are you this guy crazy ... brain eroded by subhuman cells."

The indentured servant named Potato laughed and swung the hammer in his hand harder.

"What crazy, I'm normal."

The indentured servant sitting by the cliff shook his head as he gazed at the cliff below, and suddenly, a thought came to him.

"Potato, what do you think will happen if I jump?"

"Huh?"

Potato stopped moving his hands.

"Should die, probably."

"Death, that's horrible."

As the words fell, the indentured servant leapt down to the fortress, and moments later, a muffled boom came from the bottom of the cliff.

"Did the tribal army call again?"

An indentured servant with a cowboy hat rushed in.

"Nope, Blackblood jumped off a cliff."

"Fuck, that guy's getting out of shape, I told him not to overdevelop his subhuman bloodline, now he's making it look like a Taliban player."

Snap, snap.

A hand rested on the edge of the fortress wall.

"Sure enough it won't die, but ... it hurts."

Black Blood climbed up the fortress, he was a black-haired, red-eyed teenager with a white face and a fresh-meat look, don't be deceived by his appearance, his favorite thing was to straddle his enemies and blow himself up.

"Blackblood, you've come into contact with the contractors of Apocalypse Paradise before, right? How is the strength of those people?"

Potato put down the hammer in his hand, he was a little curious about Apocalypse Paradise.

Blackblood climbed up to the fortress and blocked one side of his nostril with his finger, exerting his breath out, blood and snot sprayed out from the other nostril.

"Nice equipment, not a bad skill level, they just give off a weird vibe. "

Blackblood plopped down on the ground.

"Weird?"

Potato clearly didn't understand Blackblood's words.

"How to describe it, uh~ that's more apt, it's like they're accomplishing a high-risk job, yeah, that's what it feels like."

Blackblood laid down on the ground and fell asleep within a few seconds.

...

Inside a tent in the Grand Canyon of the Shire, the gathering place of the Apocalypse Paradise side of the Contractors.

Brushing and pulling, sharp objects cut through flesh.

Tick, tick, tick, blood dripped down, gradually seeping into the soil, and the smell of blood dispersed inside the tent.

"How many of you are there in total, what is the war mission, and in whose hands is the World's Core now."

A dry and skinny man wearing a slaughter suit stood inside the tent, the slaughter suit on his body was splattered with blood, at the center of the tent, a female contractee was hung upside down, swaying from side to side, the female contractee had a bare | fruity body, at least a few hundred wounds all over her body, and the blood flowed down her fair skin.

"This...technique of yours...is not good, I'm going to...die."

The female indentured servant who was hung upside down opened her mouth as she squinted her dead fish eyes at the dry and thin man who was torturing her.

"If...if I talk, you can let me go?"

There was some despair in the female Contractor's eyes, as if she could no longer endure this torture.

"Yes."

The executioner nodded his head.

"We have a total of ... The mission is ..."

The female indentured servant was weak from massive blood loss and spoke breathlessly.

"What?"

The executioner man put his ear close to the female indentured's mouth.

Bang!

The sound of teeth clashing came as Execution Man managed to dodge the bite from the female indentured servant.

"Hahaha, let me go? Are you coaxing a child, I knew I was dead when I was captured, just wait, my man will come for you, for sure, he will slaughter you one by one, I'll be waiting for you in hell."

After the female indentured servant said that, a chewing sound came out of her mouth, and blood and broken meat dripped out from the corner of her mouth.

The executioner's gaze was cold, however, he didn't have too much to do, this female contractee was a mental ability, hypnosis or telepathy was simply ineffective against her.

"Bah~"

The female contractee spat out her chewed tongue, it wasn't that she didn't want to live, but she was stalling for time, this was the only possibility for her to survive, confessing would only lead to a faster death.

"Looks like Hoshi was right, all of you assholes are mentally unbalanced."

The executioner man slit the female indentured servant's throat with a scalpel, and a large stream of blood spurting out.

Blood ran down the female contractee's face, she didn't struggle, it was pointless, she just stared at the execution man, dead on.

Chapter 814: Bubuwang vs. Caesar

Quartermaster's Quarters, Level 4, Black Earth Fortress.

"Is this really okay?"

Nicholas Caesar's distinctive voice came out, a voice that revealed a few hints of cunning in its lewdness.

"Shut up."

Su Xiao sat in front of the test bench, dozens of test tubes were placed in front of him along with various vessels needed for the test.

"Woof."

Boo Boo Woof squatted beside Su Xiao and called out to Nicholas Caesar.

This time, it was Su Xiao who took the initiative to come to Caesar, and according to normal circumstances, Su Xiao would not have too much frequent contact with Caesar because Caesar was acting too abnormally, as well as that floating goodwill.

However, with Boo Boo Woof in town, Su Xiao had a way to deal with Caesar, and Boo Boo Woof would 'assist' Su Xiao in dealing with Caesar.

Caesar was initially speechless when he learned of the situation, however after some contact, he unexpectedly found the dog to be 'interesting'.

This was Boo Boo Woof's effort to bring Caesar's 'IQ' to the same level as his, and the fact that Su Xiao could sit in front of the test bench already said it all.

After a 'fair' duel, Caesar's relationship with Bu Bu Wang gradually became 'familiar', coupled with Su Xiao's fooling around, Caesar was obviously a bit confused by this one man and one dog, and he was still unclear about Su Xiao's ultimate goal.

"Are you sure you didn't perceive it wrong? What's in Carlos' blood is an energy? I feel like it's more like a living creature. "

Although Caesar let Su Xiao touch his beloved test bench, the important materials on the test bench had been put away by him long ago.

"Not quite sure, but with your level of alchemy, you won't be able to touch this field in a decade or so, bring Carlos' blood."

That's right, Su Xiao had his eyes on Carlos' blood.

After Bubu Wang's 'interfering' intercession, Su Xiao was roughly clear about Carlos's situation, and of course, there was also the fact that the Dark Elf Princess had put too much pressure on Caesar, and had already given Caesar an ultimatum.

Caesar had no choice but to take a shot and tell Su Xiao about Carlos' situation.

If it was someone else, of course Caesar would not reveal this matter, revealing Carlos' physical condition is a matter of losing one's head, however, Su Xiao's level of alchemy is higher than Caesar's, which allows Caesar to see a ray of hope, after all, with Caesar's current level of alchemy, trying to cure Carlos is simply impossible.

Caesar had been toughing it out, the reason why he was taking this risk was because helping Carlos extend his life span would allow Caesar to get the resources he needed to research alchemy.

Now that Carlos is approaching the end of his life, Caesar had planned to run away in advance, who would have thought that when the war broke out, he didn't have a chance to run, and this morning the Dark Elf Princess left a tracking brand on him, so he couldn't even run away if he wanted to.

At this time, Su Xiao brought Boo Boo Woof to Caesar, and after some side conversations, coupled with Boo Boo Woof interfering with Caesar from time to time, the two sides eventually cooperated 'happily'.

After Caesar revealed that Carlos, the head of the legion, was already dying, and could live for 3 months at most, or even less.

There is an energy of unknown origin that is eating away at Carlos' body, an energy that has been inside Carlos since he was a young boy, and as Carlos grows older, this unknown energy is getting stronger and stronger.

Initially, this unknown energy made Carlos physically far superior to his peers, and even gave him stronger senses, which made the younger Carlos mistakenly believe that it was his greatest strength.

However, as Carlos' strength increased, the unknown energy in his body became stronger and stronger, and in the end, it was beyond Carlos' control.

Discovering this situation, Carlos immediately went to the Alchemy Guild this kind of mysterious department organization to ask, the result is that the nature of the energy in Carlos's body is unknown, and in the moment to absorb his life force growth, not only that, once Carlos kills someone, that energy in his body will grow even faster.

After that, Carlos silenced the alchemist who knew about it, the alchemist who was coveting the energy inside him.

After this, Carlos kept his mouth shut about the unknown energy in his body until he accidentally met Nicholas Caesar, who was 35 years old at the time.

In the years that followed, Carlos provided Caesar with resources, and Caesar was responsible for helping Carlos study the energy within his body and figure out how to remove the thing.

However, Caesar's abilities were limited, and at best he helped Carlos suppress it to a small degree.

Carlos knew nothing about alchemy, so Caesar exaggerated his role, bragging that without him, Carlos would have died a violent death long ago.

Carlos wasn't stupid, he knew exactly how much Caesar weighed, relying on Caesar was a desperate move, an alchemist or wizard with strong abilities was too dangerous, the lessons of his youth were still fresh in his mind, Carlos could never forget how crazy that man was after seeing that energy.

If once Carlos was trying to figure out how to control the unknown energies in his body and turn them into his own, now Carlos was trying to do everything he could to remove the unknown energies from his body, after all, they would take his life.

The situation in Carlos's body continued to deteriorate, that unknown energy was divided in Carlos's blood and muscles, it was much harder to eradicate.

Inside Caesar's room.

Su Xiao looked at Caesar, he wanted to figure out what that unknown energy was, first he needed Carlos' blood.

"This... why don't you hypothesize first? Use your brain to conceptualize the experimental process?"

Caesar obviously didn't want to take out Carlos's blood, Carlos didn't have much blood left with him, he didn't dare to squander that blood at will, if he let Carlos know that Caesar was using that blood at will, Caesar's little life was about to go unrewarded.

It's not that Carlos is stingy with his blood, but he is now full of that unknown energy in his blood, or rather, the blood within his body now has no nature of blood, and the blood left in Caesar's here has a lower content of unknown energy, it's still considered to be Carlos's blood, and it's significant.

"Cut the crap, Boo Boo, bite him."

Boo Boo Woof inherited Su Xiao's rash style and took a bite at Caesar's calf.

"Ow~"

Caesar let out a miserable scream and took a quick step back.

"Rip Air Vicious Dog-Bubuttney, we're friends, you actually bit me, you, you, you ..."

Caesar's light green legs appeared a few teeth marks, he was so angry that his fingers shivered, this is the way Bubu Woof pulled down Caesar's IQ, see where it goes well, go up and take a bite! In order to provoke Caesar.

Bubu wang can not care about Caesar's favorability, also do not need to exchange items in the war merit store, Caesar dares to go against it, directly bite up.

In the face of Bubu wang, Caesar is very helpless, in terms of force, he can not beat Bubu wang, as for the face, also can not, he still want to learn alchemy from Su Xiao.

In this awkward situation, Bubu Woof is simply a heavenly gram to Caesar.

"Are you sure you have a solution? If you can really solve this matter, I don't mind taking out some goodies in the supplies, provided you can solve Carlos' trouble, and also, in my name, say that it's through me that you get the cure for Carlos."

Caesar was Caesar, at this critical moment, he didn't forget about his own interests and died asking for money.

"Good stuff? Take it out and take a look."

As soon as Su Xiao's words fell, the prompt for Reincarnation Paradise appeared, and a few seconds afterward, he saw the most pitiful quest ever.

Chapter 815: Close the door and put Booster in it.

[Special Mission: Caesar's Crisis]

Difficulty Level: Lv.23

Description: In the name of Nicholas Caesar, help Carlos remove the unknown energy from his body.

Mission Information: The unknown energy in Carlos' body has formed a low-level symbiosis with Carlos.

Task duration: 3 natural days

Mission Reward: Caesar's thanks

Mission Penalty: Caesar's goodwill zero, Carlos' goodwill -1000 (enemy).

Su Xiao triggered a quest of unknown nature, if the quest was triggered from other plot characters, Su Xiao might be in a good mood, as for from Caesar ...

Su Xiao looked at Caesar, the bastard was baring his mouth full of big yellow teeth and giggling, Caesar's purpose was obvious, pulling Su Xiao into the thief ship.

"Keith, there has to be a limit to empty gloves."

After a period of contact, Su Xiao already had some understanding of Caesar's character.

There were very many traps in this mission, first of all, Su Xiao had to help Carlos heal in Caesar's name, that is to say, even if he succeeded in helping Carlos clear that kind of energy, Carlos most likely wouldn't thank him, but instead, he would credit Caesar with the favor, after all, Su Xiao was the assistant Caesar had found, so this 'in the name of Nicholas Caesar' was very problematic.

Secondly, there was the reward aspect, 'Caesar's thanks' this kind of reward was suspicious, with Caesar's character, his thanks would most likely be something 'strange and weird', such as a broken bowl with a broken corner, a bowl of soup? Or a verbal thank you.

Don't think it's ridiculous, with Caesar's thick skin, there's more than a 70% chance that this kind of thing could happen, and even if Caesar had a clear conscience, that so-called thank you would still be very watery.

"My dear friend, what are you talking about, how could Caesar ..."

Before Caesar could finish his sentence, Su Xiao spoke, "Bubu, bite him! "

The dilettante Boo Boo Woof didn't care what special plot character Caesar was, in Boo Boo Woof's eyes, Caesar was just a green-skinned dwarf, so it went up and bit him.

"Wait, you stupid dog, we are friends, can you bear to bite me ... Ow!"

Caesar screamed miserably, Boo Boo Woof bit on his buttocks, the dog's head swung from side to side, Boo Boo Woof in order to help Su Xiao deal with Caesar, but also threw away his modesty temporarily.

"Stop, stop, stop, show you a good thing."

Hearing Caesar's words, Su Xiao raised his hand, Bu Bu Wang let go of his mouth, this closed door and let the dog go policy, obviously making the stingy Caesar a little helpless.

"That thing is something I got occasionally, or a few years ago."

Caesar walked into the bedroom, the sound of clanking and rummaging came out from the bedroom, after a long time, Caesar walked out from the bedroom, he was holding a black brooch in his hand.

The brooch was somewhat of a name tag, and was small enough that it wouldn't draw attention to itself if worn in the lapel position.

The brooch emitted a dark purple light, the light was very deep, as if it had been strengthened several times within the Reincarnation Paradise.

"Help me with the trouble at hand, and this is yours, although I'm not sure what it does, my instincts tell me that this thing I got from the corpse is good."

Caesar only knew that the thing in his hand was a trinket, and it had no use for Caesar, he couldn't use it at all.

When Su Xiao touched the black brooch, his body hardened for an instant, this was the equipment he had been looking for!

[Proof of Demon Hunting (Set 1/3)]

Origin: any world above Lv.20.

Quality: Dark Purple (Set)

Category: Brooch Style Name Tag (Extremely Rare)

Durability: 37-37

Equipment Requirements: Strength 40, Agility 40

Set Effect 2: Melee Daredevil (Passive), Melee Damage increased by 40%, Maximum Life Value +20%.

Set Effect 3: (Invisible)

Price: 73,000 Paradise Coins.

Su Xiao stayed calm, although he was in an excited mood right now, one of the Demon Hunting Sets he had been searching for so long was right in front of him.

Su Xiao had searched the trading market for an unknown amount of time in order to find this item, yet there were no clues, and it seemed that the remaining two pieces of the Demon Hunting Set did not exist at all, except for the 'Ring of Demon Hunting'.

Just today, Su Xiao finally found one of the parts of the Demon Hunting Set, which was a brooch.

In fact, the three pieces of the Demon Hunting Set's own attributes were not too strong, what was strong was the set attributes that were activated after the extremely three pieces, Strength +15, Agility +10, Physical Strength +10, Melee Damage Increase by 40%, and Maximum Lifespan +20%.

What is the concept of this, for any melee combat, these are the dream bonus.

However, the number of Demon Hunting Sets was too rare, Su Xiao had killed many powerful enemies within the previous Derivation Worlds and completed many hidden quests, but he didn't even get a clue about the Demon Hunting Sets.

Now, a Demon Hunting Suit appeared in front of Su Xiao, and he suspected that it was dropped by other contractors after they died in this world, and was later obtained by Caesar.

The origin of this equipment was not important, what was important was how to get it into his hands.

Robbing it by force? Obviously not, the Black Earth Fortress had over 100,000 troops stationed there, Caesar's relationship with Carlos was extraordinary, robbing it by force was the most foolish method.

Moreover, looking at Caesar's meaning, this is clearly the payment for treating Carlos.

"What does this thing do?"

Su Xiao intentionally said this, if Caesar found out that his heart was longing for it, with Caesar's character, it would be much harder to think of getting this thing.

"Huh~ this thing, uh~ that~"

Caesar was speechless for a moment.

"The workmanship is quite fine, there's no alchemy fluctuation, is this a magical implement?"

Su Xiao sized up the [Proof of Demon Hunting] with a critical gaze.

"Ahem~ That's right, this is a magical implement, my dear friend, as long as you help Caesar with his current troubles, this thing belongs to you."

Caesar didn't actually know what it was, he just felt that it had some value, something that belonged to the category of something that was tasteless to eat and discarded.

"This ..."

Su Xiao received the [Proof of Demon Hunting], unfortunately, he did not gain ownership of the [Proof of Demon Hunting].

"It's not impossible if this is used as payment, but it's ..."

"Deal!"

Caesar shouted sharply, he heard that Su Xiao still wanted him to add benefits.

"..."

Su Xiao stared at Caesar, who had the look of a dead pig.

"My dear friend, the deal is done, let's get started."

Caesar snatched the [Proof of Demon Hunting] from Su Xiao's hands, and Su Xiao did not show the slightest hint of regret.

"After it's done, I'm the first captain."

Su Xiao's meaning was obvious, adding an official position, of course, this was just a smokescreen, the Contractor Smash was about to start, at that time, the official position would not be of much use to Su Xiao, he was not good at leading soldiers into battle or pulling people together.

"Grand Captain ..."

Caesar rubbed his chin with his hand, he appeared to be hesitating, but in actuality, he was secretly happy that he didn't have to pay anything else.

"It's a deal, and when it's done, you'll wear this pin and become a First Captain."

"Deal."

Su Xiao took that special mission, and the special mission reward had become: [Proof of Demon Hunting] + Grand Captain official position.

Boo Boo Woof quietly turned his head and sighed, that little look seemed to say, "Master, you are really good at acting."

Su Xiao's heart was relieved, [Proof of Demon Hunting] could not be lost, using a captain position that Carlos could seal at will as a cover was more than suitable, as for letting Caesar attach other benefits, Su Xiao didn't even think about it, to the extent of Caesar's miserliness, taking out the [Proof of Demon Hunting] was already the limit.

Su Xiao's previous promise is not good, that will make this matter very troublesome, Caesar is not easy to deal with, if he found out that it is not right, he will immediately put away the [Certificate of Demon Hunting], and raise the price, good thing Su Xiao is calm enough and meticulous, did not let Caesar notice the abnormalities.

Things came to a point where it was time to test Su Xiao's 'alchemy level', however, Su Xiao's method of helping Carlos remove the unknown energy from his body wasn't by using alchemy, it was just a cover.

If the operation was obtained, Su Xiao could still get a very large profit, perhaps that profit was not worse than the [Proof of Demon Hunting], which was the profit he initially wanted to get, the [Proof of Demon Hunting] was an unexpected gain.

Success is in the sky, planning is in the people, Su Xiao has tried his best to do what he can do to the best of his ability.

Chapter 816: Unstable agents

Su Xiao sat at the test bench with a beaker in front of him, and from time to time he picked up a test tube and poured various liquids into the beaker.

Gulp~

A stream of bubbles surged up from the liquid inside the beaker, and after adding at least a few dozen materials inside the beaker, light flashed in Su Xiao's hand.

Click!

Cracks surfaced on the beaker, and the black-green liquid within the cup began to turn viscous, like a cup of asphalt.

"Failed?"

Beside him, Caesar's eyes widened and his cheeks trembled, it was no wonder he was like this, the materials Su Xiao used were too expensive.

Su Xiao ignored Caesar, he just concentrated on the beaker in front of him.

Holding the beaker with both hands in vain, his mana value was rapidly depleting, and the mana value transformed by alchemy was the best catalyst.

Gollum ...

The liquid within the beaker began to boil, and the originally asphalt-like viscous liquid began to dilute, its color changing from black-green to light red.

The light in Su Xiao's hand disappeared, creating this unstable potion consumed a total of 900 mana points + many precious materials from him.

Su Xiao's carefully picked up the beaker and poured the light red liquid inside the beaker into a crystal test tube and sealed it with a wooden plug.

"Success? This thing can help Carlos clear the unknown energy?"

Caesar's eyes glowed green, ready to grab the unstable potion in Su Xiao's hand.

[Unstable Potion]

Origin: Personal Alchemy Product

Quality: Dark purple to light gold

Type: Recovery item (semi-finished product), material, side effect potion.

Requirements for use: Physical strength of 70 points or more, if consumed with less than 70 points, it will trigger a mitigating effect, deducting 50 to 120 life points per second, and the effect lasts for 3 hours.

Physical strength of 70 points or more to use the effect: drink to restore 160 ~ 230 points of life value per second, lose 90% of the sense of pain, touch, lose the ability to move, the effect lasts 60 minutes.

Tip: This potion has extreme side effects, after drinking it, strength is permanently -4, physical strength is permanently -3, life value is permanently -300 points, mana value is permanently -160 points.

Tip: After drinking this potion, there is an 8% chance of permanent mental trauma, a 2% chance of paralysis, and a 5% chance of losing one of the senses of taste, smell, and touch.

Score: 260+

Synopsis: Only a warrior would dare to try it, warrior, cheers!

Undoubtedly, this bottle of 'Recovery Potion' created by Su Xiao had a strong effect, restoring 160 to 230 life points per second, if Su Xiao entered a near-death state, his life value would be restored to full in 10 seconds at most. Moreover, after drinking this potion, the recovery effect would last for 1 hour.

The effect was indeed powerful, and the side effects were equally amazing, permanently reducing the strength and stamina attributes, the life value and mana value would also be reduced, what was even more pitiful was the triggered permanent abnormal state, mental trauma, paralysis, loss of taste, etc., which one of these was a very serious consequence.

The value of drinking this potion in battle is very low, at least Su Xiao will not drink this thing, he did not even consider the side effect problem when he deployed this potion, he only pursued the recovery effect.

"Take it."

Su Xiao handed the [Unstable Potion] to Caesar, who hurriedly took it and pulled the cork from the bottle and smelled it.

A pungent fishy-sweet odor rushed into Caesar's nostrils, and Caesar froze in place, having the tendency to roll his eyes.

Obviously, Caesar's stamina was below 70 points, and it was doubtful if this guy had 30 points of stamina.

More than ten seconds later, Caesar, who was smoked to the point of being muddled, recovered.

"This stuff...is poison, right? You want to...poison Carlos!?"

Caesar gulped as he smelled intrigue.

"Brain smoked? If Carlos dies, you could all die in the Black Earth Fortress, and this stuff is a guarantee that Carlos won't die. "

The reason why Su Xiao consumed a large amount of mana to concoct this potion was because he noticed a passage in the quest information, 'The unknown energy in Carlos' body has formed a low-level symbiosis with Carlos'.

"Contact the Carlos Legion Commander, whether to drink this or not he will consider it himself, I'm very busy right now, there are still several potions that need to be blended afterward, here are the materials needed for the blending."

Su Xiao handed Caesar a list.

"Herbs with water attribute + life attribute, with the third refining formation characteristic material seven kinds ..."

Caesar's face became increasingly ugly, these materials were too rare and the price was already exceptionally expensive.

"Sun debris? Fire gold? Small pieces of soul crystals? "

Caesar realized something wasn't right.

"What do you need these three for, it seems like bomb making material ..."

Caesar was not stupid, however, his alchemy level was too low, Su Xiao stopped blending and looked sideways at Caesar.

"The sun wreckage is a highly concentrated flame attribute material, the energy in Carlos's body favors the dark attribute, the fire gold is used for emergencies, once the dark attribute energy in Carlos's body erupts, injecting the right amount of fire gold solution into Carlos's body can slow down the speed of his death, according to the seventeenth formula of the energy pulsation law ... "

Su Xiao said a whole bunch of extremely professional alchemy language to Caesar, Caesar listened in awe, his crappy alchemy could only hear a small part of it.

"Got it? "

Su Xiao finished and continued to mix the potion, Caesar first shook his head, then nodded his head, although he didn't understand, it felt as if what Su Xiao said made sense.

In fact, Su Xiao was talking nonsense, Sun Remnants + Fire Gold + Small Soul Crystals (Soul Crystals Small) + 500 Mana Points = Sun God - Apollo.

Caesar went to contact Carlos with the collection of materials, while Su Xiao continued to mix the alchemy potions, in fact, other than that bottle of [Unstable Potion], all the other potions were just fronts.

Two hours later, Caesar who was carrying a large bag returned, followed by Carlos who was wearing an imperial uniform, Carlos didn't wear armor all day long, he usually wore an imperial uniform during non-war time.

Carlos wearing a straight uniform, chin with a small beard, the body of the light blood, this is definitely a middle-aged handsome uncle, fascinated thousands of girls in the empire no problem, it is no wonder that the dark elf princess looked at him.

Behind Carlos, a woman wearing a long black dress that seemed to blend into the darkness at any time was standing outside the door.

This woman's gaze was full of love except when she looked at Carlos, and the first thing she looked at other people was the throat, heart, and other vital locations.

Sensing this woman's aura, Su Xiao could tell that this was an assassin who often hid in the darkness.

This woman was the Dark Elf Princess, named Anna, Carlos's lover, although the relationship between the two was not recognized by the Dark Elf race due to the fact that after the combination of a Dark Elf and a human, the offspring had mediocre talent, and even lost the ability to be stealthy.

"Caesar, who is he? "

The Dark Elf Princess rushed to Caesar in a few steps, a black dagger slipped out from within her sleeve and held it at Caesar's throat, the dagger's sharp edge even cut through Caesar's skin, ready to slit Caesar's throat at any time.

Caesar was stuttering in fear and was incoherent, God knows what the hell 'Miss Anna Princess' is called, whether it's 'Miss' or 'Princess', it made Anna look like she was in a nightclub The same as going to work.

"Anna."

Carlos' hand was on Anna's shoulder and Anna snorted softly, letting go of Caesar.

Chapter 817: Assassination

s if pardoned, Caesar fought his way up to hug Carlos's leg, his eyes rapidly turning red as teardrops snapped and fell.

"Lord Carlos, I...order~"

Caesar sniffled, truly snotty, and even had the intention of sobbing.

"Caesar, you've worked hard. "

Carlos shook his leg as he spoke, he was afraid that Caesar would rub his snot on his pants leg, he couldn't know better what Caesar was.

Of course Caesar wouldn't let go, not only did he wrap his arms around Carlos's legs, those little short legs coiled up like a koala hugging a tree.

"Lord Carlos, you listen to me, this is the alchemy wizard that I discovered without advice, he previously mastered a potion formula, after my subordinate's guidance, that kind of potion was successfully developed, and my subordinate also discovered ..."

It looked like Caesar was trying his best to help Su Xiao fake his origins, but in actuality it was not the case, Caesar was taking credit.

"Stop, that is to say, his alchemy is above you, you have no opinion to discover that he can save Carlos?"

The Dark Elf Princess Anna said with a single word what Caesar was trying his best to cover up.

"Of course not!"

Caesar's tears stopped.

"Caesar, I won't forget your favor in this case, and as long as I'm alive, you'll always be the quartermaster of the Iron Blood Legion."

Carlos already knew what Caesar wanted and turned to Su Xiao.

"I saw your performance in the battlefield, especially the scene where you killed your way out of the tribal army, Junior Captain White Night."

Carlos and Anna walked into the room as Caesar closed the door and locked it securely, even activating the alchemical defense array on the door.

"You're clear on my situation?"

Carlos sat on Caesar's 'exclusive couch' and looked at Su Xiao with a smile.

"Situation?" Su Xiao froze, then guessed something, "The person Caesar asked me to heal is you, Legionnaire? Not officer Vincent Horn?"

Su Xiao looked a little surprised.

"It is me."

Carlos glanced at Caesar, who rushed to meet the smile.

"You did good."

Carlos was praising Caesar for not casually revealing his condition, before Carlos's inquiry seemed random, if Su Xiao answered understanding, Caesar would die no matter what the outcome of the treatment was.

"Legion Commander, do you think ... I can tell White Night about your specific situation? He needs to concoct a potion based on your specific situation."

Although Caesar was greedy, he wasn't stupid and knew that he had to follow the process, and now the bright side of the situation was that before, Su Xiao didn't quite understand Carlos's situation, to the point that he didn't even know that the person he was going to heal was Carlos.

"Wait." Dark Elf Princess Anna spoke, "Is he trustworthy?"

Anna sized up Su Xiao, who had a high-cooled and suspicious personality.

"Of course he's trustworthy, Ms. Anna, I, Caesar, can vouch for it."

"You vouch for it?"

Anna's slender brow furrowed as if she was thinking about something.

"If we're talking about whether or not it's believable, White Night wouldn't be from the Tribal Alliance."

Carlos leaned back in his chair with his eyes closed, he had seen Su Xiao kill enemies in the battlefield before, that number of kills and the ruthlessness with which they were killed, spies would never be able to do that.

"Even if he's credible, it's unknown if he can help you remove that thing, this kind of thing is not something that a verbal guarantee can ... be given."

Carlos waved his hand.

"Anna, no need for words, White Night, tell me how you are going to help me clear that unknown energy. "

In fact, Carlos no longer cared whether Su Xiao was an enemy spy or not, he could sense Su Xiao's strength, a person with this kind of strength, if it was really an enemy spy, no matter how it turned out today, the other party would die here.

Carlos knew that his days were numbered, and there was little hope of clearing that unknown energy with Caesar, he was now dead horse.

Even if he died here today, the Black Earth Fortress was immediately taken over by his adjutant, something he had already prepared in advance.

Using the remaining three months of his life span to exchange the life of a powerful spy of the enemy + the exposure of an unknown force in the empire, this is a very cost-effective thing.

Besides, what if the other party could really help him clear the energy in his body? He was dying anyway, so why not try it?

Although Carlos still had three months of life left, he vaguely felt that the unknown energy in his body was going to explode, and after that energy exploded, even if he didn't die, he would still be lingering, his strength would decline drastically, and he would even be bedridden, and that would be a worse situation than death, and Carlos had quite a lot of enemies within the empire.

The four people and one dog in the room were silent, Su Xiao actually didn't care about what Carlos, Anna, and Caesar thought, it didn't matter what kind of suspicion these three people had, he only needed to do three things right now, help Carlos to clear the energy in his body, get the [Proof of Demon Hunting] from Caesar, and after that, leave the Black Earth Fortress.

Just a moment ago, Su Xiao received a prompt from Reincarnation Paradise, which was the reason why he hadn't opened his mouth much.

"Legion Commander, if I didn't perceive it wrong, that energy in your body is on the dark attribute side, the benefit is that it makes you stronger, but of course, there will be some side effects such as intermittent seeing of illusions, or suddenly wanting to destroy what you see in front of you."

Su Xiao pointed his finger on Carlos' arm, carefully sensing the situation inside Carlos' body.

"You ..."

Carlos body sat up straight, that energy in his body was dark attribute, and the two points that made him strong he told Caesar, as for the intermittent seeing of visions and bloodlust, he didn't tell anyone, Anna was not clear.

"Am I right, Legionnaire."

Su Xiao had to make sure that the energy in Carlos' body was clear, and after sensing it up close, he realized that what was in Carlos' body wasn't exactly demonic power, but a variant of energy that was very much like demonic power.

"Yes. Sometimes I see pools of burning fire, and sometimes I'm tempted to kill."

Carlos was smiling, the fact that Su Xiao was able to say these two things meant that Su Xiao really had hope of saving him.

Anna also noticed this and looked at Su Xiao with a gentler gaze, Su Xiao had gone from suspicious person to Carlos' only hope, the woman was a bit fickle.

"Fire Pool?"

Su Xiao took out her butchering short sword, "Sorry for the offense, legionnaire."

After saying that, Su Xiao cut a wound at the back of Carlos' hand, Carlos' flesh defense was too strong to break his skin without using the Slaughtering Short Knife.

"Good knife."

Carlos was more interested in surveying the Slaughtering Short Knife, not caring about the blood gushing out from the back of his hand.

Red and black blood appeared on the back of Carlos' hand, this red and black blood gushed out of the wound and seemed to not want to touch the air and began to back up towards Carlos' wound.

"This is ..."

Carlos stared at the back of his hand in shock, just before, this had never happened before.

"It's already this bad."

Su Xiao frowned and turned towards the test bench to start mixing the potion.

"Well? Am I still saved?"

Carlos didn't look too good, after all, his blood was too abnormal.

"If left unchecked, you'll turn into some sort of monster or lose consciousness within a few days, sensing correctly that there's some sort of consciousness in that energy inside of you, though that consciousness has no subjective intent."

Su Xiao hooked his finger to Caesar, signaling Caesar to bring the [Unstable Potion], receiving the [Unstable Potion], he pulled open the bottle.

"Drink it."

A choking, fishy-sweet odor filled the room, and Carlos' eyes twitched, "This stuff won't kill you if you drink it?"

"If it's you, ninety percent sure it won't."

Su Xiao took the test tube, whether Carlos drank it or not was up to his own choice.

Carlos took the test tube, a few mouthfuls of the liquid inside the test tube and drank it down, after ten seconds or so, Carlos really sat upright and motionless, the potion worked.

"What are you going to do after that? Kill me?"

Carlos's voice is a little strange.

"Not really."

Su Xiao pulled out the longsword on Carlos' waist, and drove a sword through Carlos' chest, all of this happened in a flash of lightning, and Caesar and Anna in the room froze in place.

"I...will...kill...you!"

Anna's expression could no longer be described as anger, it was an expression of hatred that wanted to eat Su Xiao alive.

"Anna, calm down."

Carlos had blood spilling from the corner of his mouth, but he was laughing.

"This feels good, it's been a long time since I've been this relaxed."

Before, Carlos was like wearing a heavy 'iron coat' all year round, and after Su Xiao stabbed this sword, the 'iron coat' on Carlos melted like ice and snow.

Chapter 818: Or is Carlos a bully

"It was easy wasn't it, don't worry, I avoided the heart and other vitals, if it goes well you might be able to get more power. "

Su Xiao held the hilt of his sword, a mark on his big arm flashed with blood red light, that was one of Su Xiao's passive skills [Demon's Seal], originally the [Demon's Seal] was on the back of his hand, and then due to it being too conspicuous, it was transferred to his big arm.

Demon's Seal: Lv.7 (Passive Skill)

Skill Effect 1: Adds 28 points of true damage to melee attacks.

Skill Effect 2: You can raise the level of Devil's Seal by sacrificing equipment, and you have made a treaty with a Higher Devil.

Su Xiao seldom sacrificed equipment to [Seal of the Demon], the reason is that this skill consumes resources, some low-quality equipment are not enough to stuff this skill, after all, it is the ability to increase the real damage, without taking out a large amount of resources, it can't be improved too much.

However, Su Xiao's core ability was too resource-consuming, and he didn't have the extra resources to cultivate [Demon's Seal].

Just before, when Su Xiao sensed that the tube of blood contained demonic power, the [Demon Seal] showed a subtle reaction, and because of that, he got involved in this matter and ended up helping Carlos heal.

What was inside Carlos' body was a special kind of demonic power that was extremely pure, even more pure than the demonic power inside most demons.

Su Xiao's [Devil's Seal] had absorbed demonic power once, so he immediately thought of using the [Devil's Seal] to absorb the demonic power in Carlos' body.

After Su Xiao obtained Carlos's blood from Caesar, he immediately purified the demonic power in it, and the result was that the [Seal of Demons] easily absorbed that demonic power, and even though the level of the [Seal of Demons] didn't increase, he felt that the [Seal of Demons] had been enhanced.

Now what Su Xiao wants to do is to absorb the demonic power in Carlos's body, the other party doesn't want this demonic power, but he begs for it, there are a lot of benefits of real damage, such as a few slashes to kill a high defense Contractor.

As for why Su Xiao used Carlos's sword to pierce Carlos, it was because the demonic power in Carlos's body had already formed a symbiosis with him, if all of this demonic power was taken away, Carlos would die, and if he absorbed most of it, the remaining demonic power would go out of balance, and begin to destroy Carlos's body structure.

Demonic power wasn't water, if there was too much of it, just pump some out, there was a lot of trouble involved.

Since Carlos had already formed a symbiosis with the demonic power in his body, Su Xiao couldn't take away all the demonic power in the other party's body, leaving at least about one-tenth of it.

Letting the remaining demonic power stay in Carlos's body obviously wouldn't work, so Su Xiao noticed Carlos's saber, the other party's saber wasn't exactly finely crafted, and the saber's blood qi was very heavy, with a power that wasn't weaker than that of a gold-quality weapon, and from these points, it could be analyzed that Carlos had been using this saber for a long period of time.

Frequently using a weapon, the user will more or less have some kind of connection with that weapon, for example, Su Xiao and Chopping Dragon Flash, even if the Chopping Dragon Flash was accidentally lost, as long as the distance was not too far away, he would be able to perceive the Chopping Dragon Flash.

Su Xiao speculated that Carlos must have some connection with this sword, the breath of both sides began to resemble each other, this this was not something that could be done in a few years, Carlos might have been using this sword for more than ten years.

Su Xiao's idea was that since the demonic power already had a symbiotic relationship with Carlos, then the demonic power would remain partially within this sword, this same way, Carlos would not be completely isolated from the demonic power through the connection with this sword, both symbiotic, and the demonic power would not be able to continue to corrode Carlos, this sword would be the staging and balancing point, the

This is the best way Su Xiao can think of, if it doesn't work, he will ride Bubu Wang within 2 seconds, Bubu Wang will be able to rush out of the fortress in 10 seconds at most, and run away after that, as for whether he can rush out of the encirclement of more than 100,000 troops is unknown, there is no risk, how can there be a benefit?

No one in the room noticed Boo Boo Woof, this thing is always ready to see the opportunity to act, and Su Xiao slipped away.

Caesar stood beside Su Xiao, holding a test tube rack in his hand, Su Xiao from time to time pulled out a test tube from the test tube rack, and poured the potion inside the test tube to Carlos, dozens of tubes of potion went down, and Carlos, the head of the army, was poured straight into his eyes.

This was just a cover, Su Xiao's hand that held the hilt of the sword was the key.

Although [Devil's Seal] was a passive skill, it was Su Xiao's ability, it belonged to him, and he was able to completely control [Devil's Seal], just like he controlled the Devouring Core.

The light of the [Seal of the Demon] on Su Xiao's arm flashed, after fully activating the [Seal of the Demon], his perception of the demonic power in Carlos' body became clearer.

A somewhat hazy consciousness was mixed within the demonic power, this consciousness did not have a clear target, it just mindlessly swam within Carlos' body.

There was no imaginary Daemon King parasitism within Carlos' body, nor was there any ancient consciousness awakening, thus resisting the absorption of the [Seal of Demons].

On the contrary, after sensing the homologous aura within the [Mark of the Demon], that demonic force actually took the initiative to welcome forward, and even began to dislike Carlos.

Discovering this, Su Xiao sighed in relief, things were simpler than expected.

Under the attraction of the [Devil's Seal], the demonic power first entered Carlos's sword, and the entire sword gradually turned black and red due to the erosion of the demonic power.

After making its way to Carlos' sword, that demonic power followed Su Xiao's hand and entered him.

Su Xiao's body has a kind of energy killer like Cyan Steel Shadow Energy, with the degree of Cyan Steel Shadow's dominance, the demonic power just entered Su Xiao's body, it was 'beaten up' by the Cyan Steel Shadow Energy, that is to say, it was devoured and annihilated.

The [Devil's Seal] all only dared to climb on the surface of Su Xiao's body, let alone this foreign devil's power.

After being 'beaten up' by the Green Steel Shadow Energy, the consciousness within the Devil's Power seemed to be somewhat aggrieved and wanted to return to Carlos' body, the outside world was too dangerous, or Carlos was a good bully.

However, would the [Demon Seal] easily let go of this demonic force? Of course it couldn't.

Suction force erupted from the [Demon Seal], and the demonic power was absorbed some without any defense.

[Special demonic power found, Seal of Demons is in activation, devouring demonic power in ...]!

Those demonic forces immediately knew that whether it was inside Su Xiao or the [Seal of Demons], both were dangerous, or it was safe in Carlos' body, it was really the bitter beeping Carlos.

Once the [Demon's Seal] starts absorbing, as long as Su Xiao doesn't control it, it won't stop.

The black demonic power was absorbed into the [Demon's Seal] along with the long sword, and the [Demon's Seal] on Su Xiao's arm gradually turned from the size of a fingernail cap into the size of a walnut, and with the absorption of the demonic power, the [Demon's Seal] was gradually getting bigger and bigger.

The [Devil's Seal] continued to grow stronger, and hints from Reincarnation Paradise began to appear continuously.

[The Devil's Seal has been upgraded to Lv.8.]

[The Devil's Mark has been raised to Lv.9.]

...

The demonic power in Carlos's body was pure, and the level of the [Demon Seal] climbed up as fast as a rocket.

Chapter 819: World Center and Battlefield

After only less than ten minutes, Su Xiao's [Devil's Seal] skill had already been raised to Lv.10, and this raise was still continuing.

Carlos felt the unknown energy in his body rapidly diminishing, these abominations that had been devouring his life force for decades were finally starting to diminish, something that had never happened before.

However, Carlos wasn't enjoying this process, the feeling of being drained of his demonic power could only be described as excruciating, even though his pain sensation had been cut down by 90%, he still felt excruciating pain.

Although the pain was unbearable, Carlos was after all a ruthless man who was able to climb up to the head of the legion, he closed his eyes tightly and didn't say a word.

Noticing Carlos's pain, Anna on the side wanted to caress Carlos's cheek with her hand, but she knew that she couldn't do that now, it would be messing up, stupid women would only do meaningless things at critical moments, she just needed to wait now, no matter how anxious she was, she had to be patient.

"You, feed him water, lots of it, the more the better."

Su Xiao's spirit was highly concentrated, he couldn't care less what kind of official position Anna was in, Carlos was getting dehydrated.

"Okay, will plain water do? All at once or in several doses."

Anna didn't care if Su Xiao was polite to her or not, as long as Su Xiao could save Carlos, do whatever it took.

"Regular water, a few seconds at a time, a moderate amount at a time."

Anna started to feed Carlos water, Carlos just drank a bellyful of potions before, and now he had to drink a lot of water, the feeling could be imagined, Carlos felt like he was about to turn into a water bag, or the kind that breaks a hole.

Time gradually passed, Su Xiao's hand holding the hilt of the sword was rippling with veins, as the level of the [Demon's Seal] got higher and higher, more and more demonic power was needed to upgrade.

After about an hour or so, Su Xiao once again sensed the demonic power in Carlos' body, at this time, there was very little demonic power in Carlos' body.

At this level, Su Xiao knew that he couldn't continue absorbing, if he sucked up all the demonic power. Carlos would die, and then he would have to face a widowed Dark Elf Princess + more than 100,000 Imperial troops.

Su Xiao began to control the suction of the [Seal of Demons], and soon the [Seal of Demons] stopped devouring and converged the absorbed demonic power into his hand.

This more difficult operation, Su Xiao's spirit was more concentrated, after ten minutes, the demonic power in Carlos's body was drained away, part of the demonic power climbed into Su Xiao's hand, his arm was pitch-black, like the Armed Color Hegemony in the pirate world.

Su Xiao took a step back and pulled out the longsword that was stuck in Carlos' chest.

Pfft.

Fresh blood splattered out, Carlos planted himself from his chair, Anna on the side immediately supported Carlos, Anna's nose began to sour when she saw Carlos's healthy red blood.

Ignoring the showy Anna, Su Xiao held Carlos' saber as he began to try and expel the demonic power from his hand with his glaive shadow energy.

The glaucous steel shadow energy spread down Su Xiao's arm, the consciousness within the demonic power was already weak, and it had no choice but to enter the longsword.

The Castle Steel Shadow Energy wrapped the longsword and penetrated into the sword at a slow speed, the demonic power within the sword had no choice but to gradually integrate into the sword.

With the demonic power trapped within the longsword, Su Xiao withdrew the glaucous steel shadow energy, and the [Seal of the Demon] made its appearance once again.

Noticing the suction power of the [Seal of the Demon], the realization of the demonic power within the sword began to despair, and its survival instinct made it begin to try to merge with Carlos's saber to avoid being swallowed by the [Seal of the Demon].

However, this could not stop the absorption of the [Seal of the Demon], and it was good that Su Xiao was not trying to drive this demonic power to extinction.

A black line appeared on the spine of the longsword, and the demonic power fused completely with the sword.

Su Xiao withdrew the suction force of the [Demon Seal], the [Demon Seal] that had become much stronger returned to calm, at this time the [Demon Seal] was black in color, covering Su Xiao's arm at his shoulder, forming a demonic goat's head pattern.

Su Xiao checked the changes in the [Demon's Seal] skill.

Demon's Seal: Lv.19 (Passive Skill)

Skill Effect 1: Add 64 points of true damage to melee attacks.

Skill Effect 2: You can raise the level of Devil's Seal by sacrificing equipment, and you have made a treaty with a Higher Devil.

Lv.10 Additional Abilities

Demonic Gaze (Active): When attacking at long range, you can cover your demonic power onto bullets, bows, arrows, and other weapons for one long range attack, and this attack will add 80% of the final damage value of the true damage (e.g., a bullet hitting an enemy has a final damage of 100 points, and the Demonic Gaze (Active) will add 80 points of true damage).

Tip: Each time you use Demonic Gaze (Active), you need to consume Soul Crystals (Small) x 1. Soul Crystals (Small) can be converted into the Demonic Power needed to cover the weapon.

Tip: Demonic Gaze (Active) has a 72 hour cooldown.

After seeing the ability of [Devil's Seal] Lv.19, Su Xiao was satisfied with this skill, the melee can be attached to real damage, the additional ability of Lv.10 is very suitable for the Spider Queen, although the price of using it is expensive, the power is almost doubled.

Su Xiao closed the skill list and looked at Carlos. The effect of [Unstable Potion] gradually disappeared, and it was unknown for the time being what aftereffects this fierce medicine caused to Carlos.

"It seems that I won't die."

Carlos was lying in Anna's arms, and Anna was holding Carlos's hand tightly, and I don't know if these two have heard of it before, show of love dies fast, that's something more 'deadly' than demonic power.

"Congratulations Lord Carlos."

Caesar rushed forward, and his little life was saved.

"Bring me my sword."

Carlos looked to his sword, which was sticking out of the ground, emitting black smoke.

Caesar rushed forward, however, with all his effort, the sword was stuck in the ground and not moving, Carlos signaled for Anna to come forward.

Anna walked slowly to the long sword, reached out and held the hilt, her face immediately changed.

"No, I can't pull it out. "

Although Anna was not a power type, her strength was not small.

Seeing this, Carlos stood up with some effort and walked over to the sword, his large rough hand gripping the hilt.

Clang.

The longsword was pulled out by Carlos, and the sword let out a clear chant.

"This ..."

Carlos felt the demonic power within the longsword.

"So you sealed that unknown energy here, hard work, Commander White Night."

Su Xiao was not sure how many official ranks he had been promoted to in a row, yet he just sat on the ground without bothering to look at Carlos and Anna.

"Cough cough cough ..."

Su Xiao suddenly let out a violent dry cough and spat out several large mouthfuls of blood out of his mouth.

Seeing this, Carlos and Anna both sprinted forward, and Caesar in the back froze, then thought of something and secretly gave a thumbs up.

"White Night, how is it? Injured by that energy?"

Carlos wanted to help Su Xiao up, and Su Xiao waved her hand.

"It's fine, it's just ... cough cough."

Su Xiao spat out a few more mouthfuls of blood, with a look that she might warp at any time, Carlos and Anna were both clear about how difficult that unknown energy was, seeing this scene, Anna showed a shameful look, she had always suspected that Su Xiao was up to no good before.

Seeing Su Xiao being so 'selfless', Anna's cheeks heated up a bit due to her previous words and actions.

"Drinking it will be better."

Anna took out an exquisite crystal bottle, which was vaguely flickering with golden light, if it was someone else, they might have taken it immediately, but Su Xiao shook her head because it wasn't the right time yet.

"I'll be fine if I rest for a while. "

Hearing Su Xiao say that, Anna forced that crystal bottle into Su Xiao's hand and nodded with a smile at Su Xiao.

In fact, Su Xiao wasn't hurt at all, he was about to leave the Black Earth Fortress, therefore, the personal favor with Carlos was no longer important, and taking advantage of the opportunity to gain some benefits was the way to go.

Anna helped Carlos leave the room, the two did not thank Su Xiao profusely, Su Xiao was after all the assistant Caesar had found, leaving favors behind was also because Su Xiao had been injured "too heavily", the two were a little overjoyed, that's all.

After the two Carlos men left, Caesar walked up.

"My dear friend, are you alright."

Caesar didn't move and grabbed Su Xiao's hand, Su Xiao was holding the crystal bottle gifted by Anna in her hand, Su Xiao looked up at Caesar.

"Payment. "

Seeing Su Xiao's gaze, Caesar's body stiffened, hesitating for a moment to put away the greed in his heart, smiling somewhat awkwardly, he pulled out the [Proof of Demon Hunting] from within his coat pocket and handed it to Su Xiao.

With the [Proof of Demon Hunting] in hand, Su Xiao wiped away the blood at the corner of his mouth, got up and walked towards the outside of the room.

"My...friend, where are you going?"

Caesar looked at Su Xiao's back, he was actually a bit frustrated, although he had been hooking up with Su Xiao, he was actually very lonely and didn't have a single friend.

"To the battlefield."

Su Xiao pushed open the door of the room and her footsteps were lunched.

"Bye."

Su Xiao and Boo Boo Woof walked out of the room, the door closed.

"See...again."

Caesar slumped in his seat, he was the only one left in the room, obviously the crisis had been lifted, but he only felt lonely.

"Goodbye, my friend, Caesar will help you find a way to cover, although it's a big crime to leave the office privately, but Caesar has a way."

Caesar tilted his head back and looked at the ceiling.

"What a difficult opponent, finally leaving, but... why is it so lonely."

...

Outside the Black Earth Fortress, a fierce wind surged up, sand flew, and the hem of Su Xiao's windbreaker was blown hunting.

The situation in the three war zones has stabilized, just an hour ago, Reincarnation Paradise released a war mission to Su Xiao, the mission has no rewards, the content is very simple, bring the [World's Core] to the center of this world, the ancient ruins of the 'Otterlander', if Su Xiao didn't guess wrongly, there will be the battlefield of the Contractors' Great Smash, more than 1,000 Contractors will probably fight there, where he will fight with Apocalypse Paradise, he will fight with Apocalypse Paradise, he will fight with the other contractors. There, more than a thousand contractors would probably fight, where he would split the victory with the contractors of the Apocalypse Paradise.

"Lan Jue, see you at the ancient ruins of Otterland, this time, I will definitely take your life."

Walking in the wind and sand, a smile appeared on Su Xiao's face, and beside him was Boo Boo Woof who was looking around.

Chapter 820: Trip

The sun was blazing like a ball of fire scorching the earth, the air was a little twisted, and the insects that were hiding somewhere were screaming.

Su Xiao walked on a barren grassland, the grassland was not flat, and the tips of the tenacious grass leaves were yellow and dry.

In this kind of hot weather, walking in the grassland was never a good experience, the high temperature made the moisture on the surface of the ground evaporate, the entire grassland was like a steamer, it was stuffy.

Su Xiao's naked upper body, although he was not a muscular man, the muscles on his body gave people a sense of strength.

Sweat beads flowed down from his cheeks, with Su Xiao's physical attributes, although he could ignore the blazing sun in the sky above, the stifling heat of the ground almost penetrated into his pores, allowing him to quickly expel water from his body.

"Bu Bu, don't be lazy, there are still at least 500 kilometers to go."

Su Xiao looked at Boo Boo Woof not far behind him, this thing was lying on the grass, his abdomen undulating.

Boo Boo Woof raised his eyes to Su Xiao, the gaze seemed to say, "Master, Boo Boo can't make it, you go first, take this woof's legacy with you, also, don't spread the word that this woof died of heat."

It is no wonder that Boo Boo Woof has this appearance, the temperature of the grassland is at least around 50 degrees to 60 degrees, if it is an ordinary person here, not more than half an hour will get heat stroke, an hour or so will be completely dehydrated, if you touch the ground now, you will find that the ground is already scalding hot, and I don't know how those barren grasses survived.

The grassland was already sweltering, Su Xiao was covered in hot sweat, not to mention Bubu Wang who was 'wearing' a real leather coat.

"Don't play dead, hurry up."

Su Xiao took out a bottle of water and drenched it on his head, the feeling of dryness and heat receded a bit, and white water vapor floated up.

"This ghost weather, the desert is not this hot."

Su Xiao looked up to the sky, the piercing sun made him squint his eyes.

Only God knew why this grassland was so hot, a few hours ago he was walking in the cool wind and sand, now the scene changed and turned into a steaming furnace.

Looking at Su Xiao who continued to walk forward, Bu Bu Wang sighed and reluctantly got up, his pace breathless.

"Bu Bu, this kind of weather is good for losing weight, why don't you pack me for a while?"

Su Xiao's proposal caused Bu Bu Wang to drag back a few steps, that gaze was clearly, "Master, I'm a proper dog, I'm good at fighting, not a mount."

After fighting with the beauty cat Bethany, Bubu Wang was a bit fanatically confident in his own strength.

"You'll just fight that cat too, phew~ it's hot."

Su Xiao was distracted by the heat, and when she was bored, she could only gossip with Bu Bu Wang.

The rush was stifling and boring, and after roughly a few hours of traveling through the grasslands, the surrounding temperature plummeted.

Whew~

A cold wind blew over, bare shoulders Su Xiao winced, this ghost weather changes too fast, before it was so hot to doubt life, now the temperature suddenly dropped to below minus 20 degrees, fortunately his physical fitness is strong enough.

The closer Su Xiao got to the center of the world, the more abnormal the weather changes were, which showed that the ancient ruins of the 'Autodesk' were not an ordinary location.

Thinking about it, the fact that Reincarnation Paradise had chosen that place as a battlefield meant that it should be suitable for Reincarnation Paradise's contractors to fight.

Regarding the fight for the [World's Core], if Su Xiao's analysis was correct, it was divided into two stages.

The first stage was the initial grab, which was the scouting squad that Bubu Wang was in before, this stage was not about the ownership of the [World's Core], but rather, whichever side was strong enough to get to the [World's Core], whichever side would be able to arrange the [World's Core] in a location that would be favorable for their own side's battles, such as the 'Ortolanic' Ancient Ruins.

And the second stage should be the final attribution of the [World's Core], after sending the [World's Core] to the designated location, it was highly likely that the two sides would engage in a large-scale battle, or else the two paradises wouldn't have teleported to nearly two thousand contractors within this world.

The role of the [World's Core] is very important, this thing should be similar to the proof of holding this world, which side finally gets the [World's Core], this world belongs to which side, that is, the so-called World Scramble.

Su Xiao pulled out the [World's Core] from his bosom, he looked at this transparent crystal the size of a fingernail cap, this thing might represent this world, of course, the above were all his personal guesses.

Putting away the [World's Core], Su Xiao tightened the collar of his trench coat and continued to head in the direction of the ancient ruins of 'Otterlander'.

After the temperature dropped, Boo Boo Woof immediately got energized, the cold climate seemed to have unlocked this thing's IQ, this thing became unusually lively, running around Su Xiao, even more two-dimensional.

Now Su Xiao is like a traveler, although the climate change is varied along the way, he also saw many strange scenery, such as green streams, waterfalls cut off out of thin air, vipers with three heads and three eyes, and he even saw a pair of 'Bi-Winged Butterflies', two butterflies, one only has the left wing, and the other one only has the right wing, and the two can only fly when they are hugged together, so as to escape from the cold climate, so as to escape from the cold climate. The two butterflies, one with only the left wing and the other with only the right wing, hugged together to fly, thus avoiding predators.

Su Xiao released the Bi-Wing Butterfly in his hand, and the two butterflies flew away. Bu Bu Wang tilted his head and looked at the two butterflies with amazement, seemingly wanting to take a bite.

Su Xiao looked at those two butterflies that flew away, a smile appeared on his face, he was laughing at himself for living a wonderful enough life, if he was an assassin like he was before he entered the Reincarnation Paradise, he would never be able to see what was in front of him, and he would not be able to fight with many strong people.

The sky was getting dark, Su Xiao was in no hurry to rush, Reincarnation Paradise gave him a full four days time limit.

Su Xiao picked up a stone on the ground and held it in his hand, his thumb clenched and his arm stretched out flat in front of him.

Bang!

Su Xiao flicked the stone in his hand with his thumb, and the stone broke a few waves of air in the air.

The wail of a wild beast came, and the sound of a heavy object falling to the ground came from within the grass, Su Xiao walked into the grass, and an elk with its neck pierced through was lying within the grass, the wound was as thick as a steel pipe, and blood mixed with bubbles gushed out from the wound.

"This is dinner."

Su Xiao took out his Butchering Short Knife, first stabbing into the heart to resolve the elk, after which he began to skin the meat.

Raw meat had a warm feeling when held in the hand, and many people disliked this feeling, however, any creature that lives is built on the death of other creatures or plants, and human beings are even more of the top of the list.

Su Xiao came to a canyon with a line of sky terrain, built a fire, set up a pot, boiled water, and put the venison cut into small pieces into the pot, after which he added spices, salt, and several kinds of vegetables in order.

During the waiting time of the stew, Su Xiao took out several materials from within the storage space, two pieces of fire-red meteorite fragments, three pieces of high-purity metal ores, and three crystal clear small pieces of crystals, which were, Sun Remnants x 2, Fire Gold x 3, and Soul Crystals (small) x 3.

If there were no surprises, Su Xiao was able to create two Sun God-Apollo with these materials.

Apollo's 1000 meter explosion range, 6000 points of real scorching damage, followed by 2000 points of flame scorching damage, one Apollo down, it was a wash.

Su Xiao is now curious about one thing, that is, how big is the 'Ortolanic' ancient ruins, if the 'Ortolanic' ancient ruins are not too big, then if two Apollo goes down, what is the Queen of the Heavens, the Lord of the Ranges, under the 6,000 points of real scorching damage + 2,000 points of flame damage Under the 6000 points of real burning damage + 2000 points of flame damage, all of them would be burned into a gaseous state in minutes, of course, this requires a specific timing.

Apollo is the god of the sun!
