

RESTRICTED SUPERSTAR

Chapter Seven Red Envelope Rewards

Back at the rental house, Gao Xiaodong suddenly remembered that when he scored a goal, a line of words flashed through his mind. He was so excited at the time that he ignored it, so he used his thoughts to open the system interface of Road to Superstars, and first found his personal information. Part of it has changed, the position of the pitch has become a striker; physical fitness has become a D-level; football talent has become a strength; football skills are a D-level amateur skill; football equipment has not changed, or none; the level has become a D-level amateur Players, but there is a parenthesis behind: under transformation;

The following is the system task: Play ten official games at the amateur level

Then came the system message Score your first goal in your life, the system rewards you with a red envelope.

There is a reward red envelope for scoring a goal? !

Gao Xiaodong was overjoyed, and hurriedly clicked with his mind to receive the red envelope.

As soon as the red envelope was opened, a pair of white soccer shoes appeared in Gao Xiaodong's hands out of nowhere.

Fuck, it turned out to be double leather feet. Gao Xiaodong was startled by the sudden appearance of the leather feet, and almost threw it out.

At this time, a line of introduction automatically appeared in Gao Xiaodong's mind: D-class super football shoes, with automatic retractable and lacing functions, sweat-absorbing, shock-absorbing, non-slip, waterproof and odor-proof feet.

Auto-scaling feature? ! Automatic lacing! Black technology, if Nima can be produced and sold, it will be developed.

Just when Gao Xiaodong was flirting, the system said coldly: The things in the system can only be used by players, and cannot be sold or borrowed.

Can't even think about it?

Gao Xiaodong resentfully took the sneakers and checked them repeatedly. He didn't know what material the sneakers were made of. It felt good to the touch, like foam, very light, but very strong. The whole sneakers were made of a piece of leather, and there was no trace of any flaws. pins.

system! You are amazing!

Gao Xiaodong took off the pair of football shoes that had been deformed after wearing for a day, whoosh! Throw it in the trash can next to the bed. Carefully put the super football shoes on the feet.

This pair of super football shoes doesn't look big, but Gao Xiaodong's fat feet fit in easily without squeezing them at all.

Seeing the shoelaces being tied automatically like butterflies wearing flowers, Gao Xiaodong was so happy that he almost cried. For a fat man with a big belly, wearing shoes is a technical and physical work. Now he no longer has to be afraid of wearing shoes .

Standing up and walking around for two laps, the sneakers are very comfortable, very light, neither squeezed nor loose, which makes people want to run a lap.

Of course, Gao Xiaodong just thought about it, after playing a game, he was already very tired, if he hadn't been stimulated by the super football shoes, he would have fallen asleep a long time ago.

what!

When walking to the third lap, Gao Xiaodong suddenly thought of an important question and asked, System, these shoes are called D-class super shoes. Are there any C-class, B-class and A-class shoes?

Yes. The system didn't say a word.

How can I get it?

Break all kinds of records, win all kinds of championships, and you will have the opportunity to win.

Heaven and earth, at my level, what record can I break and what championship will I win?

Gao Xiaodong wailed, but the system ignored him.

Gao Xiaodong said helplessly to himself: One can't be too greedy, it's good to have these super football shoes, take a bath, eat, and feel free.

Gao Xiaodong went to the bathroom and took off his clothes with great difficulty, took a hot shower, and just after he came out, the system said coldly: It's time for dinner.

A bottle of nutrient solution suddenly appeared in Gao Xiaodong's hand. Gao Xiaodong didn't swallow it in one gulp this time. I don't know if there will be more such miraculous food in the future. He wants to taste it in small bites.

After taking a sip, the energy rushed to the limbs like a hot current, and the hunger disappeared by half immediately, as if eating a large bowl of rice.

The taste was a bit sweet, but it wasn't delicious, and there was no pleasure in chewing liquid food. Gao Xiaodong finished it quickly, and then the bottle disappeared out of thin air, and the hunger disappeared, and he was full of strength again.

Grandma, you can get rich selling this nutrient solution, but unfortunately, I can only think about it, Gao Xiaodong is extremely short of money now, seeing every black technology that the system produces, he wants to sell it for money.

Lying on the bed after eating and drinking enough, Gao Xiaodong tossed and turned and couldn't fall asleep. He felt that he had to ask his family for money.

Next month's rent should be paid, the bill owed to the Internet cafe, and the money borrowed by Lei should also be paid back. In addition, he also needs a ball. For the black technology of the system, he also has to practice hard and race against time. Practice, but you can't practice without a ball. Also, teammates have shin pads, knee pads and so on. Gao Xiaodong feels that he should also have a set of equipment. Football is such a violent sport. What if you get injured?

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that there were too many ways to spend money, and he would definitely not make it through the end of the month, so Gao Xiaodong finally made up his mind to ask his family for money.

After dialing his mother's phone number, Gao Xiaodong was the first to announce the good news, Mom, I have made great progress in this monthly exam. I scored 30 points more than last time.

Gao Xiaodong lives in Yishan County. His parents are in the wholesale business of aquatic products. His father is not well-educated. He graduated from junior high school and is very shrewd. A wife and loving mother, she dotes on Gao Xiaodong, the only son, as long as he wants anything, his mother will find ways to satisfy him, so Gao Xiaodong will always ask his mother for money.

Gao's mother was very happy, and said: Really? That's great, Dongdong, when are you going home, do you miss your mother?

I think, of course I want to. I can't sleep because I think about it during the day, and I can't eat because I think about it at night. Gao Xiaodong said with a smile.

Slick tongue, when will you go home?

Gao Xiaodong said solemnly: I'm nervous about studying, I won't go back this week, I'll go back at the end of the month, Mom, I've run out of money, can you give me some money?

You took a thousand yuan with you when you left, and you spent it in a few days? How much do you want?

Give me another thousand dollars.

Another thousand yuan, less than half a month, you think our family is a bank. A rough male voice came from the phone, it was Gao Xiaodong's father who snatched Gao's mother's mobile phone.

Dad, isn't the college entrance examination coming soon? You need to eat, dress, buy materials, and pay rent.

Father Gao sneered, Gao Xiaodong, do you know how to buy materials? Do you think I will believe you? You tell your mother that you have improved, and how many points did you say you improved in this exam?

I took the exam... thirty points more than last time.

I don't ask about these, I just ask how much you have improved.

Five places.

What's the ranking? Tell the truth, or I'll call your head teacher, Teacher Chao. Gao Xiaodong knew that his father could do what he said, so he obediently said: No progress, still at the bottom.

Then I still want money, but I don't have any.

Don't, Dad, I'm your own son. You can't just watch me starve to death. Let me tell you, I'm practicing sports now, and I'm preparing to take the high-level sports exam. As long as I pass, it's possible to take the exam.

You fucking want to fool your father. With your weight, what kind of sports can you practice, sumo? Don't talk about one book. If you can get a high-level job, I will be very proud.

Dad, I'm really working hard. I've started to lose weight now, and I only eat two meals a day. Gao Xiaodong made a pitiful look, as if his father could see it.

Father Gao was silent for a while, and said, I can only give you five hundred.

Gao Xiaodong said: Five hundred is just enough for rent, eight hundred.

Father Gao said, Up to six hundred, nothing more.

Gao Xiaodong said: Seven hundred, if I don't give seven hundred, I won't lose weight, I will have to go on a hunger strike.

Father Gao only has this one son, no matter how cruel he said, he still couldn't bear it, and finally gave in and said: Okay, I will give you 700, but you must study hard for me, that is, to take a vocational high school, no matter how much money I spend For you too.

Thank you dad, just wait for my good news.

Forcing his shrewd father to make a concession, Gao Xiaodong lay on the bed and smiled triumphantly.
