Chapter 271: Tomorrow Morning, This Money Is Yours

Qin Han handed the car keys to Lin Yi when he saw him.

It was only then that the person standing at the door realized that what he heard and saw wasn't an illusion!

The famous Emperor of Zhong Hai, Qin Han, had indeed borrowed this man's car!

"I wanted to give it to you, but you didn't want it, so now I have to drive it back."

PFFF!

The man and woman at the door widened their eyes, their jaws dropping in shock!

Lin Yi was going to give away a car worth more than 60 million dollars?!

And he was going to give it to Qin Han? How rich were you?!

"It's not good to want your stuff. What's yours is mine, and what's mine is yours. I'll come get it from you when I want to drive it." Qin Han said.

"Alright, I'll leave first." Lin Yi took the car keys. "Old Liu is a nice guy. Invite him when you have time, and I'll treat you guys to a meal."

"We're all on the same side, you're too polite." Qin Han said. "Drive the Lykan and leave. I'll send the Shari to Jiuzhou Pavilion after this."

In reality, Qin Han could also use this method to send Lin Yi's Lykan back.

But they hadn't seen each other for a long time, so he used this reason to invite him out for a drink.

"Okay."

Hiss...

Everyone present was shocked once again when they heard the words 'Jiuzhou Pavilion'!

Anyone with common sense would have heard of the name 'Jiuzhou Pavilion'!

The number one luxury estate in Zhong Hai, where any random unit would have a price of at least one billion. It was so extravagant that it made one vomit blood!

Since this guy was already so rich and was good friends with Qin Han, what the hell was with the Shari!

After chatting with Qin Han for a while, Lin Yi and Wang Ran got into the car.

Wang Ran was nervous as she got into the car. She had never seen such a nice car before.

"Why are you covering your mouth?"

“I’m... I’m afraid I’ll vomit.”

Lin Yi didn’t say anything as he drove towards the Peninsula Hotel.

Wang Ran covered her mouth shyly and didn’t dare to say anything.

Teacher Lin was so scary when he was angry.

“T-teacher lin, what kind of place is this...” Wang Ran said in a daze.

“You can’t even recognize Chinese characters?”

Wang Ran’s heart skipped a beat when she saw the words ‘Peninsula Hotel’.

Lin... Teacher Lin wouldn’t do something like that to her, right...?

“Nice to meet you, Chairman Lin.”

“Nice to meet you, Chairman Lin.”

The people in the hotel greeted Lin Yi when he entered.

The reason for this was because Tianlong wasn’t here.

If Tianlong was here, he wouldn’t have let his men expose Lin Yi’s identity.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t be acting so pretentious.

Lin Yi nodded and led Wang Ran up the elevator to his exclusive presidential suite.

“Lin, Teacher, why are they...”

“This hotel is mine,” Lin Yi replied faintly.

Wang Ran, who was already in a daze, was even more confused now.

What was Teacher Lin doing? How could he be so rich? !

“Urgh...”

When they reached the room, Wang Ran couldn’t hold back the burning sensation in her stomach anymore. She rushed to the bathroom and threw up while hugging the toilet bowl.

Ten minutes later, Wang Ran walked out of the bathroom timidly.

“T-Teacher Lin, I’m sorry...”

“Why are you apologizing?”

“I did something I shouldn’t have done.” Wang Ran stood at the bathroom door, clutching at the corner of her clothes. She was too nervous to approach Lin Yi.

“It’s just a nightclub. You’re all adults, so it’s not against the law. I’m a teacher, but I don’t have the right to restrict your freedom,” Lin Yi said.

“Oh right, there’s something I need to tell you. Your teacher from the School of Economics has already informed us that your national scholarship has been canceled. You should be mentally prepared.”

“My... My scholarship has been canceled? !”

“Yeah.” Lin Yi nodded. “This is what the dean from the School of Economics said, and the school committee has already approved it. The announcement will be sent out in the next few days.”

“Wah-wah-wah-wah...”

Wang ran couldn’t hold back her tears as they fell.

“Why are you crying? Don’t you know what you’ve done? Canceling your scholarship is only natural.”

“I, I need this money...”

“You’ve earned 40,000 dollar from Qin Han. Isn’t that enough?”

“My mother had a heart attack. The doctor said that she needed to have an operation as soon as possible. My father’s insurance compensation has already been spent. If I don’t find a way to earn money, my mother will...”

Wang Ran cried like a pear blossom in the rain. She no longer fit the image of a school belle.

“What’s with the compensation?”

“My father was absent from work over the past, but something happened in the mine half a year ago. My father passed away, and the company compensated us 30,000 dollars. At that time, my mother’s heart disease was serious, but it was delayed for half a year. Now, it can’t be delayed any longer...”

“So you went to work at Metropolis?”

“Yes, they were the ones who looked for me.” Wang Ran wiped her tears and said,

“The manager of Metropolis said that I was good-looking and that he would give me 10,000 dollars a month to sell wine there, so I went.”

“Don’t cry. You’re making me upset.”

Wang Ran was so frightened that she immediately held back her tears.

“How much does the surgery cost?”

Wang Ran did not say anything. She held back her tears and stood in place.

“I’m asking you a question.”

“I can’t take Teacher Lin’s money,” Wang Ran said. “My grandma and I have already thought about it. If we sell the house during this period of time, it will be enough to treat my mother’s illness.”

“Where will you live if we sell the house?” Lin Yi asked.

“We’ll just rent a house.” Wang Ran wiped her tears. “I’m about to be a senior. I’ll be able to earn my salary as an intern. It’ll be enough to support my family.”

“How much can your house sell for?” Lin Yi asked.

“If we don’t do the surgery soon, will your mother be able to hold on until your house is sold?”

Wang Ran stopped talking. She had thought about what Lin Yi said before, but there was nothing she could do. This was her only way out.

What smoothed out the edges of a person’s life was never enjoyment, but suffering.

“The manager of Metropolis said that as long as I was willing to drink with you, I could earn more.”

“Who gave you the courage to say something like that after four glasses of wine?” Lin Yi said.

“Do you think everyone is like Qin Han, giving you ten thousand dollars for a glass of wine?”

“Then I’ll go sleep with someone else!” Wang Ran said. “I won’t ask for anything else, as long as I can make money.”

Huh?

Lin Yi could hardly believe his ears.

Sure enough, women could be fearless if they were brave.

“Okay, that’s a way out.”

Lin Yi took out his phone and dialed Tianlong’s number.

“Boss Lin, you wanted to see me...”

Tianlong’s voice was very loud, so it was obvious that there was someone beside him.

“Ask the manager on duty to send me 500,000 in cash, I’m in room 2618.”

“Got it, Boss Lin, I’ll make the arrangements right away.”

Ten minutes later, there was a knock on the door. Lin Yi raised his head. “Open the door.”

“Got it, got it...”

Wang Ran opened the door and saw a woman standing outside. Lin Yi had some impression of her. She was the assistant manager of the hotel, and she could be considered the second-in-command.

“Boss Lin, I’ve got the money.”

Lin Yi nodded. “Alright, that’s all for now.”

The door closed and Lin Yi took the suitcase over. There were stacks of cash inside, and it made Wang Ran’s heart skip a beat.

“Take it off. Tomorrow morning, this money is yours.”

Chapter 272: Dead Face Dog

“Lin, Teacher Lin, I respect you a lot...”

Wang Ran's tears fell again. "Don't... don't insult me."

"Insult you?" Lin Yi said.

"How did I insult you? Other people can sleep with you for money, but I'm insulting you for doing the same? What kind of logic is this?"

"But you're my teacher, I really respect you!"

"What's the use of respecting me? Can your mother's illness be cured?" Lin Yi asked.

"Do you think I'm a good person just because I'm pretty and am a school teacher?"

"If it wasn't for me, you would've been dragged to a hotel by someone else today. Do you really think that sleeping with someone will bring you a lot of money?" Lin Yi questioned.

"If you really got to that point, you wouldn't even know how you died."

"That won't do either." Wang Ran gritted her teeth. "Even if Teacher Lin is a bad person, I still respect you."

Lin Yi sighed. No wonder those fat nouveau riche liked to keep female college students around. Purity was one of the factors, but gullibility was the most important trait.

"Then you can continue to respect me." Lin Yi propped his head on one hand. "Now that the money is here, it's up to you whether you take it or not."

No one spoke in the suite, and only Wang Ran's nervous panting could be heard.

Wang Ran pulled the corner of her dress up slowly, revealing the clothes underneath.

"Teacher Lin, I know you're a good person. You look down on me after what I've done," Wang Ran said hesitantly.

"But I'm really just selling alcohol to others. I've never done anything overboard. At least, I'm still clean now. If you don't mind, I'll stay here with you tonight, but I can't take the money. It's too big of a favor, I can't return it."

"If you're going to sleep with me, what do you want in return?"

"I'm not worth that much money."

"F*ck!"

Lin Yi cursed as he ran out of the room. "I'm so impressed. I Can't help it if I meet such a stubborn person."

Lin Yi checked into another room and went straight to sleep.

1

The next morning, he had class for the first time.

Lin Yi woke up early and had a simple bite to prepare for class.

As for Wang Ran's matter, Lin Yi didn't bother about it anymore. She had the money, and even though the medical fees in Zhong Hai were high, it was more than enough.

Lin Yi saw Wang Ran holding the money box as he walked out of the hotel. She was standing next to his car, looking around like a thief.

"Why aren't you leaving yet?" Lin Yi asked

"I'm here to return the money," Wang Ran said in a low voice. "Teacher, I didn't touch a single cent of the money here. Check it."

"There's 500,000 here. How am I supposed to check it? Won't it be dark by the time I'm done?" Lin Yi asked.

Wang Ran looked embarrassed. "I know how to count money, and I can do it quickly. I can help you check it."

"Take the money. Don't bother me anymore."

"Teacher Lin, don't be angry with me," Wang Ran said with tears in her eyes.

"I really had no other choice. That's why I went to Metropolis. I really can't take this money. I respect you, but it's not because of your money."

"Is it because of my good looks?"

Wang Ran stopped talking. It was true that she liked Lin Yi because of his good looks!

This was coupled with Lin Yi beating up the foreign students, which improved the lives of the students in the university.

Wang Ran stopped talking, silently agreeing to Lin Yi's request.

Damn you!

"I have a company, and you're studying economics. You can work for me as an intern during your senior year. This money is your advance salary."

"Really?" Wang Ran stared at Lin Yi, her eyes still wet with tears, giving her a different kind of beauty.

"Fake."

Lin Yi rolled his eyes at ran and got into the car, preparing to go to class.

"Lin, Reacher Lin."

"Is there anything else? Do you want me to send you back?"

"No." Wang Ran's face was a little red as she nervously took out a check.

"Teacher Lin, how do I bank this in? Can I use it to pay at the hospital?"

Lin Yi was speechless.

"Get in the car, I'll get you the money."

“Thank you, Teacher Lin.” Wang Ran said

Lin Yi gave Sugar a call after getting in the car. Judging from the current schedule, he definitely wouldn't be able to attend the first class, so he asked her to help him skip his class.

Lin Yi took Wang Ran to the bank and helped her cash the check for forty thousand dollars into cash.

He didn't go back to school, however, but instead sent her back home.

“Teacher Lin, I'll leave on my own. I won't trouble you.”

“It's fine. If you want to leave, you can just take the bus after I send you back.”

“Uh...”

Wang Ran looked embarrassed. “Teacher Lin, you already know everything.”

“I'm just guessing, what the Hell would I know?”

Forty minutes later, Lin Yi arrived at Shu Guang District.

On the way, Lin Yi called Tianlong and told him to contact the hospital to pick up Wang Ran's mother later.

They arrived at Shu Guang District again, and the car drove very smoothly.

The other cars automatically maintained a distance of five meters from them, and no one dared to get close to them.

“Teacher Lin, my house is a bit shabby. Don't mind it.” Wang Ran said.

“My old house isn't even as good as yours. You were pretty quick when you took off your clothes. I've never seen you this embarrassed before.”

“Teacher Lin, don't say that. I drank last night and I wasn't thinking clearly.”

“Then should I pour some more wine for you?” Lin Yi asked.

“Teacher Lin, don't tease me. I take back what I said,” Wang ran said embarrassedly.

Lin Yi glanced upstairs. “Go up and take a look first. The hospital has already contacted you. You can take care of the rest yourself.”

“Okay, thank you, Teacher Lin.”

The two unconsciously quickened their steps. Wang Ran opened the door, and before they could say anything, they saw a few people already inside the room.

Lin Yi glanced at the people in the room and found that their expressions were all quite interesting.

They didn't look like they were here to visit a patient, which was strange.

However, if they were here, they must be Wang Ran's relatives.

Lin Yi didn't pay too much attention to the others. He looked into the room and saw a middle-aged woman lying on the bed. She didn't look too good, and she looked quite similar to Wang Ran.

She must be her mother.

Apart from that, there was an old lady with a walking stick in the living room. Her hair was full of silver hair. This had to be Wang Ran's grandmother.

Lin Yi looked around briefly before his eyes scanned Wang Ran's house.

It wasn't big, and didn't even measure forty square meters. It was indeed a little small.

"Yo, Ran is back. Is this your boyfriend? Looking at his outfit, he looks pretty good."

The person who spoke was a middle-aged woman. Her hair was all curly, and she had the domineering aura of a woman from the marketplace.

"He's my teacher, Aunty, don't misunderstand."

Wang Ran then introduced the people in front of her to Lin Yi.

The woman who spoke was Wang Ran's aunt, Wang Fang.

The middle-aged man in the lead was Wang Dahai, and the other middle-aged man was Wang Dashan, Wang Ran's uncle and third uncle respectively.

"Auntie, why didn't you tell us that you were here? I didn't prepare anything," Wang Ran said politely.

"We're not outsiders, so there's no need to be so polite," Wang Fang said.

"Little Ran, I heard that you found a job and you earn quite a lot."

"I did find a job, and I earned a little money," Wang Ran answered truthfully.

"How much is a little money?" Wang Fang's eyes lit up.

"About 8,000 dollars."

Wang Ran's monthly salary was 10,000 yuan, but she received a few complaints, and she broke a lot of things. After deducting the money, it amounted to about 8,000 yuan.

"That's great. I won't beat around the bush with you," Wang Fang said.

"Didn't you borrow 5,000 dollars from me before? Now that you have money, can you return the money to me?"

Chapter 273: You Are the Man Who Treats Me Best Other Than My Father

Wang Ran was stunned for a moment, and she seemed to be in a daze.

She originally thought that they were here to visit her ill mother, but she didn't expect that they were here to ask for money.

"It's not just your aunt's 5,000 dollars, but also my 4,000 dollars," Wang Dahai said with a smile.

"4,000 dollars?"

Wang ran said, "When my mother was hospitalized, I only borrowed 3,000 dollars. Why is it 4,000 dollars now?"

"You're still young. How would you know about adult matters? You did only borrow 3,000 dollars back then. But think about it. When she was hospitalized, we treated the doctors in the hospital to a meal. I spent more than 1,000 dollars on that. However, I thought about it, and since you are my niece. I'll wipe the change for you. Just give me 4,000 dollars."

"Uncle, I was there during the meal. I saw the bill too. It only cost 500 dollars. Why are you asking for 1,000 dollars?" Wang Ran said with red eyes.

Wang Dahai was stunned. He didn't expect Wang Ran to have seen the final bill. He didn't know how to explain.

"It's not what you think. Although the meal only cost 500 dollars, I gave them a red packet of 500 dollars. Don't you want to repay me this money?"

"You guys are too much!"

Wang Ran was so angry that her body was trembling and tears were rolling down her cheeks. She didn't expect them to say such cold words.

"Niece, don't cry. I don't know how to speak to you like this." The person who spoke was Wang Ran's second uncle, Wang Dashan.

"Second uncle, is there something else? I didn't borrow money from you back then, right?"

"Indeed, you didn't borrow any money. But when you were first staying at the hospital, didn't your second aunt and I accompany you for a few days?" Wang Dashan said.

"I spent more than 500 dollars on breakfast, lunch, and dinner. But I'm your second uncle, and due to the circumstances, I won't ask you for the total cost. You just have to give me 500 dollars. I also have a lot of money, and since it's only 500 dollars, just give it to second uncle first."

Wang Ran's salary was only around 8,000 dollars, but the money she owed all of them amounted to 9,000 dollars. If she paid the others back first, her aunt wouldn't be able to get her money back.

And now, her sister-in-law's condition was worsening. If she didn't get it back now, she wouldn't be able to get it back in the future.

"You guys!"

"Enough!"

Lin Yi said, "Don't you have money? Hurry up and pay them back. What are you waiting for?"

"Right, right, right, pay back the money first," Dahai said.

“My 4,000 isn’t as much as your aunt’s, and I am always nice to you. When your mother was in the hospital, I ran all over to help you contact the hospital, and I was so tired that I got blisters on my feet. It wouldn’t be nice if you didn’t give the money to your uncle first.”

“What are you talking about?” Wang Fang interjected.

“I gave 5,000 dollars to Little Ran in one go. Unlike you, who still split the money, if you want to return any money, you have to return it to me first.”

The three siblings all had the same idea.

Wang Ran only had 8,000 dollars. If she returned it to others first, she wouldn’t have enough to pay them back.

Wang Ran felt wronged. She wiped her tears and said,

“Aunt, Uncle, Second Uncle, although I owe you money, I will definitely pay you back. Now that my mother is seriously ill, and she is still waiting to go to the hospital. Do you have to talk about money at this time?”

“We didn’t want to. Indeed, the family is in urgent need of money. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have come to ask for it, don’t you see?” Wang Fang said.

“You are afraid that if my mother is hospitalized, I won’t be able to afford to pay back this money, right?”

“That’s not the case at all, but if you think so, we can’t do anything about it. Since you have money now, just give it to us now. We will be even in the future,” Wang Dahai said.

“But let me be clear. You have to pay me back first, or I’ll go to the hospital and ask you for money!”

“Don’t rush me. I’ll just give you the money.”

Wang Ran wiped her tears and opened the suitcase in her hand.

“This...”

Looking at the stacks of hundred-dollar bills, Wang Fang and the others were dumbfounded.

They had never seen so much cash in their lives.

“Little, Little ran, where did you get so much money?!”

“This is my affair, it’s none of your business!”

Wang Ran took out a stack of 10,000 dollars and pulled out five bills. “This is 9,500 dollars. Take it and split it. From now on, we are no longer related. Please leave my house!”

After getting the money, Wang Fang and the rest were not in the mood to split the money.

Their eyeballs were all fixed on the box of money.

“Little Ran, look at this mess. We are not in a hurry. If your mother needs money urgently for her medical treatment, just take the money and spend it first.”

Although she said that, Wang Fang did not move. It seemed that she was just saying this for the sake of her image.

“I don’t need your money. Hurry up and leave my house.”

The three of them felt embarrassed and took the money before leaving.

However, up until moment they left, their eyes were still glued to the money in the box. They were reluctant to leave.

After they left, the house quieted down. Wang Ran’s grandmother walked over with her walking stick.

“Ran Ran, where did this money come from? You’re still young. You can’t do bad things.”

“Grandmother, Teacher Lin lent me this money. In the future, when I go to his company to work, I’ll slowly repay the money to Teacher Lin.”

“I see.”

“Ran Ran.”

Wang Ran’s mother called out softly.

“Mom, lie down and don’t get up,” Wang Ran said.

“Quick, thank Teacher Lin.”

“I’ve already said thank you to Teacher Lin.”

“You’re welcome.” Lin Yi walked over and smiled. “This money is clean and she’ll return it to me in the future. Take the money and treat your illness without feeling burdened.”

“Thank you, thank you, Teacher Lin.” Wang Ran’s mother cried.

Although she had to return the money in the future, she wasn’t related to Lin Yi, yet he was willing to give her so much money. This was a huge favor.

Not long after, an ambulance arrived and sent Wang Ran’s mother to the hospital.

With the help of the money, everything went smoothly, and the surgery was scheduled for the next day.

Lin Yi didn’t leave the hospital at all since a female university student like Wang Ran wouldn’t be able to handle all the processes herself.

The classes he had that day were all rescheduled for the next day.

Lin Yi was the only one who had the privilege to do this in the university.

It couldn’t be helped, he was too awesome.

At six o’clock that night, Wang Ran heaved a sigh of relief when the final results came out. The situation wasn’t very optimistic.

All that was left was to pray that the surgery would be successful the next day.

“President Lin.”

In the intensive care unit, Wang Tianlong and a few other hotel executives walked in with fruits in their hands.

“What are you guys doing here?”

Wang Tianlong chuckled. “We’re here to check on the patient and see if there’s anything we can do to help.”

Lin Yi didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

Tianlong’s bootlicking skills were really something. He had to learn from him.

“Thank you, Brother Wang,” Wang Ran said.

“You’re welcome.” Tianlong smiled. “We’re all on the same side.”

Lin Yi pursed his lips. This was not the woman of the main house, so Wang Tianlong needed to get close to her.

“Alright, put the things down and leave. The patient is asleep, so don’t disturb her.”

“Alright, alright, alright. We’ll leave first then.”

After Tianlong and the others left, Lin Yi and Wang Ran went out as well.

The sky was filled with stars, and the noisy hospital quieted down as night fell.

“Teacher Lin, thank you for helping me so much.” Wang Ran said. “You’ve been helping me all day and haven’t eaten anything. Let me treat you to a meal.”

“I’m only a little hungry.” Lin Yi pointed at the stall outside. “Just buy me a pancake.”

Going out to eat took up too much time, and one bite was enough. There were full-time nurses looking after her mother, but Wang Ran couldn’t stay away for too long.

“Yeah, yeah. Teacher Lin, wait for me, I’ll get it right away.” Ran said

Wang Ran ran to the stall as if she did not have a care in the world anymore. She bought two fruit pancakes and a mineral water.

The two of them sat on the steps as Wang Ran nibbled on the food. Lin Yi, on the other hand, wolfed down half of it.

Wang Ran’s heart was beating a little fast. Other than the teachers in his office, she should be the first female student to have dinner with Teacher Lin.

“Teacher Lin, other than my dad, you’re the man to treat me so well,” Wang Ran said in a low voice.

“Huh? So what? Do you want to change your mind?”

Chapter 274: The Legendary Five Insurance and Two Gold

“No, no, no...”

Wang Ran was so flustered that she dropped half a piece of sausage on the ground before she could finish it.

“You scared me. If you really had such thoughts, I’d give you a red packet for the new year,” Lin Yi said.

“But you’re the campus belle of the university. There should be a lot of people chasing after you.”

Wang Ran was a little embarrassed. “No one’s chasing me because my family is poor.”

“That’s normal,” Lin Yi said. “In today’s society, women measure men’s conditions, and vice versa.”

“But Teacher Lin doesn’t dislike me.”

“Because I’m handsome and rich, why would I dislike you?”

“That’s why I have to thank you, Teacher Lin,” Wang Ran said. “But don’t worry, Teacher Lin, I’ll definitely work hard in the future. I won’t slack off.”

“As long as you say so.”

Lin Yi finished his last bite of the fruit pancake and drank a mouthful of mineral water. He dusted his butt and prepared to leave.

“I’m leaving first. You stay here.” Lin Yi said. “I’ll help you apply for leave from school. Let me know when your mother finishes her surgery tomorrow.”

“Got it. Thank you, Teacher Lin.” Wang Ran bowed deeply to Lin Yi.

“Let’s go since we’re done.” Wang Ran got up quickly.

“Alright, head back. I’m tired of hearing you thank me every day.” Lin Yi said.

“Okay.”

Lin Yi waved his hand and was about to leave when Wang Ran stopped him from behind.

“Teacher Lin, I... I want to ask you something.” Wang Ran said.

“What is it?” Lin Yi asked.

“When I was working in Metropolis, I met a lot of customers. They liked their sisters to call them ‘daddy’...”

“So what?”

“Teacher Lin, if you like it, I can call you that too, as long as it makes you happy.”

Lin Yi, “...”

Did every woman have the same desire to be conquered?

“I don’t have a daughter as small as you.”

Lin Yi drove off after finishing his sentence.

“I, I’m already 20 years old. I’m not small anymore.”

Wang Ran quickly realized that Lin Yi wasn’t talking about her age.

A B-cup should still be alright!

..

Lin Yi didn’t go home after leaving the hospital. He drove to Huaqing Lake instead.

He had already gotten the imperial set, so he couldn’t waste it.

He took a comfortable bath before the head technician arrived. She massaged his feet and applied a facial mask at the same time.

Ring, Ring, Ring...

His phone rang at that moment. Lin Yi glanced at it and realized that it was Lu Ying Calling.

“Mr. Lin, are you asleep?” Lu Ying asked on the other end of the phone.

“Don’t ask if I’m asleep or not. Just tell me what’s going on.”

“The thing is, Brother Sun and I are at the airport in Washington right now. We’ll be able to rush back to Zhong Hai tomorrow morning. We’d like to report our schedule to you.”

“There is no rush. You two will be jet-lagged when you get home. You’ve worked hard these past few days.”

“Mr. Lin, you’ve worked hard too. Compared to you, we’re nothing.”

“I really haven’t worked hard. I’m wearing a face mask and getting my feet massaged now.”

Lu Ying, “...”

“Actually, it’s not easy to have to sit around with a face mask while getting your feet massaged either. It’s a hard job.”

Lu Ying could only comfort herself with this.

“How about this, I’ll send someone to pick you up after you get off the plane. Rest well at home for a day, and I’ll take you to a nice place tonight to relax. We’ll talk about it in detail then.”

“Got it, Mr. Lin.”

Lin Yi was anxious about the photolithography project as well, but he couldn’t be too harsh on them since the preparation of sharpening a knife would never delay the act of cutting firewood.

Flying all over the world during this period of time was indeed hard work.

The next morning, Lin Yi drove to school.

The mission progress had reached (17/20) . The lesson he had to make up for yesterday and the lesson he was supposed to attend today meant that he had two classes today.

After that, the mission progress would reach (19/20).

He still had one class tomorrow, and if everything went according to plan, he would be able to complete the ultimate task of being a teacher tomorrow. He was a little excited just thinking about it.

Apart from the class, Lin Yi played a few games with Sugar, successfully bringing her up to diamond rank.

That afternoon, Lin Yi received a wechat WeChat from Wang Ran, informing that the surgery was a success, and expressing her thanks again.

After a simple reply, Lin Yi put his phone back into his pocket.

He had a lot of things to do these few days, so he'd go over to take a look after he was done.

Lin Yi picked up Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu later.

It was obvious that both of them had put in a lot of effort, especially Lu Ying. Her dress was knee-length, and she was wearing a straw hat while a pair of black sunglasses hung on her chest. No one would be able to tell that she was a female doctor in science and engineering.

Sun Fuyu, on the other hand, had a new breakthrough in his style as well. He had changed into a new plaid shirt.

"You two became a lot more avant-garde now that you've left the country."

Sun Fuyu chuckled. "We both bought our clothes at the duty-free shop at the airport. These come from big brands."

"Do big brands make plaid shirts?" Lin Yi asked.

Lin Yi realized that plaid shirts weren't just the standard for engineers and scientists in their country. They seemed to have the same taste in other countries as well.

"President Lin, don't look at me. Look at Little Ying's outfit. It's pretty good, isn't it?" Sun Fuyu said.

"It's pretty good, but it's useless. She'll have to take it off later." Lin Yi said.

"Ugh..."

Lu Ying's face turned red. What was Mr. Lin saying?

"President Lin, am I imposing myself?" Sun Fuyu asked tentatively. "Should I leave now?"

"Don't go, just watch from the side." Lin Yi said

"I'm already married. I don't need a daughter-in-law. What's the point of watching you two?"

"It's more exciting that way."

Su Fuyu gulped. Don't say it's exciting for you, it's exciting for me just listening to this.

Lin Yi drove them all the way to Huaqing Lake.

Sun Fuyu looked up. "President Lin, if I remember correctly, this is the biggest bathing house in Zhong Hai, right?"

"Looks like you're a man of character!"

Sun Fuyu chuckled. "I heard about it from others. The price isn't cheap, and I can't afford it."

"F*ck!" Lin Yi cursed. "What's this? I'll give you another 20,000 a month as a special bathing fund. As the director of the Longxin Research Institute, you can't even afford to relax. Isn't that a slap in my face?"

Lu Ying, "..."

Bathing Fund?!

Was this the so-called five insurance and two gold?

Lin Yi turned back to look at Lu Ying. "Do you usually get massages? If you do, I'll give you a raise too."

"I usually wash at home, I don't come to places like this."

Although she was a science and engineering girl dealing with men every day, she was still a girl, so she was still sensitive to these matters.

"That'll be a bit difficult. I'll find time to give you a bathtub so that you can think of me every time you take a bath."

"President Lin, isn't it more reasonable to think of you on a lonely and unbearable night?" Sun Fuyu said sullenly.

"Don't you take a bath before you do anything?"

Chapter 275: Boss, Can We Keep a Low Profile

"That's true."

Sun Fuyu finally understood. "I may have lived for a lot longer than President Lin, but I still don't know as much about life as you do."

Lu Ying, "???"

What were they talking about?

Why did it sound so weird?

"Don't be like that. I'm actually a pretty simple person. I just wanted to bring you guys here to relax after seeing you guys work so hard. I've never been to a place like this before, so please don't misunderstand."

"Hey, Boss Lin, you're here."

Lin Yi had just parked his car when he saw the lobby manager walking over enthusiastically.

"How's number 18's technique? Shall I invite her over again today?"

F*ck!

You ruined my innocent appearance.

As the old saying goes, a man's mouth is a liar's ghost. Lu Ying didn't know what this meant in the past.

Now she understood.

You're too good at lying!

"There's no need for number 18 today," Lin Yi said with a straight face.

The lobby manager glanced at the beautiful Lu Ying. "Boss Lin, I knew it. People with your status are all psychopaths and don't like our girls. I didn't expect you to bring one with you."

Lu Ying, "???"

I'm just showing off my legs, and it's just my calves. How could this be misunderstood?

Could it be because I'm wearing black silk?

"Alright, cut the crap. Get someone to prepare a private room."

"Got it, Boss Lin."

Lin Yi and the others were welcomed into the space. They soaked for a while before entering the room in their bathrobes.

"President Lin, do you come here often?" Sun Fuyu asked curiously.

"I really don't come here often, but I have a friend named Qin Han who insisted on bringing me here. I didn't know how to refuse, so I had no choice but to force myself to come." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Hehehe, I understand everything." Sun Fuyu laughed.

"I finally understand why the institute is so tight on funding," Lu Ying said.

"You don't understand. This is called inspiration. If I didn't come here day and night to relax, I wouldn't have been able to write the chip 2.0 source code in one night." Lin Yi said.

Lin Yi and Sun Fuyu were familiar with the place. They lay down comfortably and enjoyed the services offered.

Lu Ying didn't have the habit of being touched by strangers, so she rejected Lin Yi's offer.

It was relaxing to lie on the bed alone.

"Come on, let's talk about how the recent plans have gone," Lin Yi said.

"Come on, Little Ying, you just so happen to be free."

Lin Yi rolled his eyes at Sun Fuyu. "What do you mean she's free? She's trying to relax too."

"It's mainly because I don't want to move."

"Old Hooligan," Lin Yi retorted.

Lu Ying pursed her lips and cursed in her heart. "You really become like this when you get old."

"I'm going out for a while to get some information."

Lu Ying put on her slippers and carried the folder she brought over to Lin Yi.

"We went out for ten days this time and dug up a total of 32 experts in the chip and photolithography field. Their personal information is contained in the file. I'll send you a copy of the details later."

Lin Yi took the documents and read them carefully without saying anything.

Half an hour later, Lin Yi pulled out five documents.

"What's going on with these five people? Although they used to work for tech giants, they started their own businesses years ago. I'm guessing they don't have much on their minds these days.

"And the consulting fees you gave us are on average 963,200 USD a year. Isn't that a bit too much?"

"It's like this. Although they have been in the business for many years, the company they run and the connections they have accumulated over the years can all be used to make the lithography machine, which will be very convenient for us," Lu Ying said.

"If you want to develop the lithography machine, you can't do it alone. It's no exaggeration to say that the lithography machine is the most advanced technology in the world. In terms of technological complexity, even nuclear weapons and aircraft carriers can not be compared to it."

"A complete lithography machine has a total of more than 5,000 parts, and the manufacturers of these parts are all the best in their respective fields. What we want to use is not their technology, but their connections."

"I understand what you mean." Lin Yi said.

Many big factories in the country would often hire retired leaders from relevant departments and give them important positions.

However, could these leaders, who were good at drinking tea and fishing, manage a company well?

The answer was naturally no, and the boss knew it.

However, what they wanted was the connections of these people.

If they could help get a green light at an important juncture, the cost saved or the benefits created would probably be unimaginable to ordinary people.

Hence, what Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu did was completely reasonable.

"Go on," Lin Yi said.

"According to my and Sun Bro's calculations, with these 32 skilled people, we should be able to support the lithography project temporarily. As for the rest of the staff, we can look for them slowly."

Lin Yi nodded as he listened.

Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu were both thoughtful people. Since she said it was possible, it shouldn't be a problem.

"Since we've already found the people, when can we start work on the photolithography machine?"

"Although we can start work on the photolithography machine now, we suggest that we wait a little longer. Now is not the time." Lu Ying combed her hair and continued,

"There's a key person. Brother Sun and I have been trying to find him for two days, but he didn't even give us a chance to meet him."

"Did you try everything?"

"Yes, we did." Lu Ying nodded, a little depressed. "Sun Bro and I tried everything we could think of, but he just didn't give us the chance. We couldn't do anything."

"He's just a dirty middle-aged man. It's fine if we don't talk about him." Lin Yi looked at Lu Ying. "But I feel like you're slacking off."

"I'm not!"

Lu Ying said seriously, "Brother Sun always says that it's easy to get things when it's done between men and women, and I'm always the first one to handle these tasks. I'm definitely not slacking off."

"Is your seduction not working?"

Lu Ying, "..."

Where are my high heels!

"Calm down, the atmosphere here is too depressing. I'm just joking." Lin Yi said with a laugh as he cut the mango with his fork.

"Who is this guy? Is he that awesome? He's quite arrogant."

"He's the vice president of Microsoft, a world-class computer vision, graphics, and human-computer interaction expert, Shen Tianzhuo."

Lu Ying paused. "Although you're also very good, I don't think he's inferior to you."

"If you compare him like that, I'll understand how awesome he is. He's actually on par with me. He's a freaking genius."

Lu Ying, "..."

Can we keep a low profile...

She knew her own situation. In other areas, she was considered a master, and she was undoubtedly capable in the eyes of ordinary people.

However, she was definitely not qualified in front of the big shots in the industry.

Even so, when it came to the computer chip field, Lin Yi had never really been impressed by anyone.

Because in this area, he had the support of the master's wisdom, and his mind was filled with all the memories of the founder of chip technology.

Despite this, Lu Ying still said that this person wasn't as bad as he was. Thus, one could only imagine how awesome this person was.

Moreover, right now there wasn't much that Lin Yi could help with.

He knew the chip technology, but the making of a photolithography machine was a whole other field. There wasn't much overlap, and even if he tried to do it himself, he wouldn't be of much use.

Lin Yi rubbed his chin as he cursed in his heart.

"Looks like I have to think of a way to take down this Tianzhuo guy."

"This is the first time I've gone after a man. This feeling really makes me uncomfortable!"

Chapter 276: Do We Still Need to Prepare with Them?

"Are you sure you want this guy?" Lin Yi asked seriously.

"Yes!"

Sun Fuyu sat up and said,

"I think this guy will be the key to developing our photolithography machine. If possible, we must get him."

Lin Yi rubbed his chin. "That's a bit difficult. I won't be able to use my good looks."

"Ah..."

Lu Ying sighed. "Mr. Lin, we're talking about serious business here. Be Serious!"

"I'm wearing clothes now. What's not serious about it?"

Lu Ying, "..."

"Forget it."

"Let's set the matter surrounding Shen Tianzhuo aside for now. I'll go to America when I have time to see if I can take this guy down," Lin Yi said.

"Is there anything else besides this?"

"Longxin has three projects going on right now. One is the chip, and the other is a brand-new phone ecosystem. All That's left is the photolithography machine," Lu Ying said.

"But without the photolithography machine, the development of the chip will be very slow. That's why Brother Sun and I have done some research on it. We'll deprioritize the chip project first and use the research institute to develop the phone system. As for the photolithography machine, we want another lab to support it."

“Another lab?”

“Yes.” Lu Ying nodded, “There’s nothing to hide about the mobile phone system, and many companies are also pursuing it. Thus, it’s best to develop that in Longxin, but the photolithography machine is different. It’s a military-grade secret project, and we want to keep it as hidden as possible. That’s why we want to apply for a new lab. However, that’s just our idea. As for how to do it, we’ll need you to consider the big picture and see if it’s feasible.”

“No problem!” Lin Yi said without thinking.

“Now, you can start preparing the equipment. I’ll find a place for you within a week to avoid wasting time.”

“Thank you, President Lin.”

“Stop calling me President Lin. It sounds weird,” Lin Yi said. “Just call me boss.”

“Boss?”

“Yeah, that sounds more exciting.”

Lu Ying’s head was full of question marks. It was a normal title!

What was there to be excited about?

Sun Fuyu chuckled. “You sound so young and inexperienced.”

“Is there anything else you want to report?”

“Not for now.”

“If there’s nothing else, you can go first. We’ll add on another session here.”

Lu Ying, “...”

Lu Ying wasn’t too keen on the massage, after all. She changed her clothes and left as soon as she finished her report.

Sun Fuyu didn’t stay long either. He stayed for another half an hour before saying goodbye and leaving as well.

Lin Yi stayed the whole time, and even took a nap. He drove to work at eight the next morning.

His class was the second period of the morning, so Lin Yi wasn’t in a hurry. He drove slowly and tidied up the things in front of him again.

Judging from Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu’s attitude, that person called Shen Tianzhuo was definitely a talent. If he wanted to develop a photolithography machine, he might not be able to do it without him.

There shouldn’t be any room for relaxation on his trip to America. He had to wrap up this matter while he was there.

As for whether he could take down the other party, Lin Yi wasn’t certain. He could only try his best.

Lin Yi pulled up the system interface at the thought of this. The mission was at (19/20), and there was still one class left. He'd finish the mission after that.

It wouldn't be too late to go to America after the mission was completed.

Ring, Ring, Ring...

Lin Yi's phone rang at this moment. It was He Yuanyuan calling.

"Boss, something's happened. Come to the company quickly."

"Okay!"

With He Yuanyuan's talkative personality, she wouldn't speak like that if it wasn't an important matter.

Lin Yi didn't waste any time. He replied briefly and turned the car around, heading towards Lingyun Group.

He drove to Qi Xianzhao's office and found him and He Yuanyuan sitting opposite each other.

"President Lin, you're here."

Lin Yi nodded. "What happened? You asked me to come here in a hurry."

He Yuanyuan brought the paper on the desk over to Lin Yi.

"A court summons."

"Ah? A summons for me?" Lin Yi was surprised:

"Is it because I'm too handsome that the public is angry with me? I'm done for now. I'll be sentenced to death."

"It's written in black and white, there's no mistake." He Yuanyuan looked at Lin Yi. "Boss, what did you do recently? Did you get caught peeping?"

"Peeping? All I ever do is make love."

"Don't quibble. A few days ago, Huaqing Lake sent me a receipt saying that you spent 376,000 dollars on two imperial sets."

"376,000 on imperial crabs? They must have been really big," Qi Xianzhao said.

"Brother Qi, you should leave us alone for a while. You might not understand."

"Oh."

"Alright, stop wasting time."

Lin Yi took the court order and looked at the contents. "What the hell? Are you suing Lingyun Foundation for fraud?"

"Yeah, they said that our aid plan wasn't publicized and violated the foundation management regulations, so they're suing us," He Yuanyuan said.

"I checked just now. The person suing us is the famous Tianhong Foundation, and the subpoena is from the Zhonghai No.2 Court," Qi Xianzhao said:

"This Tianhong Foundation isn't a laughing matter. They belong to the Tianhang Group of Zhonghai, and the owner is the Zhao family of Zhonghai, one of the top families in China."

"Secondly, the Zhonghai No.2 Court is their main battlefield. They've never lost a case there."

"It's about the same as Tencent's Nanshan Pizza Hut," Lin Yi said.

"That's exactly what I mean," Qi Xianzhao said:

"And the trial starts tomorrow. It's obviously not logical. There must be something fishy going on, and they don't want to give us time to prepare."

Lin Yi nodded. He knew what Qi Xianzhao meant.

Still, why was the Tianhong Foundation so familiar with the so-called Zhao family?

Lin Yi thought about it and finally understood.

The charity banquet he attended a few days ago was organized by the Zhao family's Tianhong Foundation.

Moreover, he met that idiot called Zhao Zhengyang who wanted to pursue Ji Qingyan. In the end, he cheated him of 50,000 dollars.

Thinking of this, Lin Yi suddenly realized that it was probably that idiot who investigated him and played such a trick.

This revenge move was so advanced, and he didn't expect the little rascal to take revenge on him.

It was indeed not bad.

"The court date is tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, right? I'll go over," Lin Yi said.

"And then?" He Yuanyuan asked.

"What do you mean by 'and then'?"

"You're going to court, what should we prepare?"

"Prepare? What a bunch of newbies. Do we need to prepare anything to deal with them?" Lin Yi said.

"But then again, it's okay to prepare."

"That's what I mean. This is a big deal. How can we go unprepared?"

Lin Yi nodded. "Put on the miniskirt and black silk tomorrow and come with me."

"Ah? Why should I wear black silk and a miniskirt to such a professional place?"

"You're going to be a cheerleader. What else should you wear?"

Chapter 277: Lin Yi, You're the Best!

He Yuanyuan made an 'OK' gesture.

"No problem, I bought a few new ones yesterday."

Qi Xianzhao, "???"

If the CEO and CFO of the company were both like this, the company was bound to be in trouble sooner or later!

"Oh right, there's something I need to tell you," Lin Yi said. "Weren't you bragging before about your intelligence? Help me investigate someone."

"Who?"

"The senior vice president of Microsoft, Shen Tianzhuo. The faster, the better."

"This is amazing. He's a big fish!" He Yuanyuan exclaimed. "How deep do you want me to investigate?"

"To the extent where we know when his wife's period happens."

"Okay." He Yuanyuan patted her chest. "Leave it to me."

Qi Xianzhao, "???"

Was there nothing sacred in this world anymore? How could you investigate such a thing?

"Alright, you guys deal with the other matters surrounding the company first." Lin Yi said. "I'll head down there and take a look around."

"Boss Lin, are you going to inspect it?"

"I'm not going to inspect it. I'm not a big shot, I'm just looking around."

The foundation was on the right track. As the boss, he had to go and check things out no matter what.

"I'll go with you."

"No need, if you guys are with me, how can I pretend... pretend to be low-key?"

"Boss, you just want to pretend to be cool, right?"

"Haha..." Lin Yi laughed coldly as he walked away with his hands behind his back. "Your salary for next month is gone."

"Huh?" He Yuanyuan paused. "Normally bosses would deduct their bonuses. Why are you deducting our salaries?"

Qi Xianzhao patted He Yuanyuan on the shoulder and comforted her:

"Because we're earning a dead wage, and we don't get any bonuses."

"F*ck!"

He Yuanyuan picked up the phone. "I'm going to tell my senior that he's bought the imperial set!"

After walking around the company, Lin Yi returned to his car.

He looked at the time and realized that it was already past 10:00, so he quickly called Sugar.

“Did you help me with my second Taekwondo Class?”

“You didn’t tell me to,” Sugar said. “I let Miss Chen take it. What’s the matter?”

“It’s fine,” Lin Yi said.

“I have something to do in the morning. Postpone my morning basketball class until the afternoon.”

“What’s in it for me?” Sugar said with a smile on his face.

“I’ll give you a box of Mrs Oral Liquid. It’s the best at your age.”

“Get lost!”

“Do you want to continue ranking up?”

“I was wrong.”

“Good.”

Lin Yi was depressed after hanging up the phone.

It was impossible for him to complete the mission today since his class had been taken.

Why did he always make a mistake every time he was trying to complete the ultimate mission?

Another day.

After hanging up on Suger, Lin Yi didn’t waste any time.

He picked up his phone and dialed Ji Qingyan’s number again.

“The number you dialed is in the middle of a call, please try again later...”

“She’s pretty busy,” Lin Yi muttered. He didn’t pay much attention to it and waited for a minute before dialing Ji Qingyan’s number again.

“The number you dialed is in the middle of a call, please try again later...”

‘Huh? The line is still busy?’

Lin Yi had a feeling that something fishy was going on.

Something wasn’t right!

Lin Yi threw his phone aside and didn’t call Ji Qingyan again.

If things had gone as he had expected, she would definitely call him back.

With that thought in mind, Lin Yi drove toward the hospital.

He didn't need to go to class anymore, and he had nothing to do, so he went to check on Wang Ran's mother.

Ring, Ring, Ring...

A few minutes after he started driving, Ji Qingyan called.

"What are you busy with? I was looking for you."

Lin Yi said without waiting for Ji Qingyan to speak.

"What do you want?"

Ji Qingyan's tone was a little serious, and not as playful as usual.

"Didn't you always say that you're in poor health? I asked a friend about it, and he said that there's an old Chinese doctor with very good technique. I'd like to take you for a massage to relieve your poor health. People like you who sit for a long time tend to have lumbar muscle strain, and you might even have a herniated disc."

"You're so concerned about me. I just casually mentioned it before."

After she heard, Ji Qingyan's mood improved slightly.

"You just casually mentioned it, but it's a big deal for me."

"Hehe, thank you for your concern," Ji Qingyan said cheerfully.

"But forget about the Chinese massage. I read on the internet that there are many liars operating in these fields. I don't want strangers to touch my body."

"I thought you'd say that. I even prepared a second-choice massage for you."

"What second-choice massage?"

"That old Chinese doctor has a daughter, and she inherited his teachings. She is handling the physiotherapy business at Huaqing Lake," Lin Yi said.

"That big sister is a nice person. I bought you an imperial set meal while I was at it. You should go visit her when you're free. It's important to make money, but you have to take care of your health."

Ji Qingyan was touched when she heard that Lin Yi bought her a membership card, and she silently condemned He Yuanyuan.

How dare she speak ill of Lin Yi behind his back! This was too much!

It was obviously a card for her!

What a venomous person!

"I won't go for the massage. I told you just now, I don't like strangers touching my body."

"Ah, that's not good." Lin Yi sighed deeply.

At the same time, he regretted his actions. If he had known earlier, he would have video-chatted with her so she could see his pained expression.

"I know you feel sorry for me, but there are other ways to resolve this." Ji Qingyan said happily.

"Didn't you always brag to me that you know how to give massages? Why don't you just give me a massage? I'm still feeling a little uncomfortable these days."

Lin Yi, "???"

What the F * ck?

"I don't think that's a good idea." Lin Yi pretended to be troubled. "Didn't you say that you don't like strangers touching your body?"

"Hehe..." Ji Qingyan laughed on the other end of the phone. "I'll give you a special privilege. You're not a stranger here."

"Ahem, it's my pleasure."

"Alright, I still have work to do. I won't talk to you any longer."

"Don't hang up yet," Lin Yi said.

"What's wrong? Is there anything else?" Ji Qingyan said.

"You can't do the massage today. My parents are coming tonight. I have to accompany them."

"That's not what I want to talk about," Lin Yi said seriously.

"I think you've been working too hard recently. I want you to relax."

"Relax?" Ji Qingyan was stunned. "Didn't we agree that you would give me a massage? That's a good way to relax."

"Are you kidding? I've been thinking about it. I've had nothing to do recently and I want to take you to America. I heard that there's the world's largest Disneyland there. I've always wanted to take you there, but I've been too embarrassed to ask."

"Really? I actually really want to go."

From the tone of her voice, it was obvious that Ji Qingyan's excitement level had peaked.

Disney's appeal was still very big.

"Of course it's true. Why would I lie to you?"

"I can make the work arrangements, but aren't you a lecturer? Can you leave so easily?" Ji Qingyan asked worriedly.

"How about we not go to America? There's a Disneyland in Zhong Hai, just take me there."

"Uh..."

I can't do anything if we go to Disney in Zhonghai!

“We stay in Zhonghai every day. It’s not relaxing to go to the Disneyland in Zhonghai,” Lin Yi replied.

“No matter what, this is the first time I’m taking you out. We have to go all out. As for the school, you don’t have to worry. I can arrange everything.”

“Really? It won’t take up too much of your time?”

“Of course not. My time is very lazzes-faire. I’ll just follow your schedule.”

“Then I’ll arrange my work in advance and book the plane tickets!”

“Yeah, I’ll follow your arrangements.”

“Hehe, you’re so nice. I’ll give you a reward.” Ji Qingyan said.

“Mwah!”

Chapter 278: My Company Only Has Two Buildings

Lin Yi rubbed his chin after settling the plan to go to America.

“I’m such a smart boy.”

Lin Yi put his phone in his pocket, bought some fruit, and drove to the hospital.

He had just reached the entrance of the high-security ward when he heard the chattering inside before he opened the door.

The voices sounded a little familiar.

He pushed the door open and saw a few people standing inside. Apart from Wang Ran and her mother, Lin Yi only knew three people.

Inside were Wang Ran’s first aunt, first uncle, and second uncle. He didn’t know who the other young couple was.

“Teacher Lin, you’re here.”

Wang Ran’s furrowed brows relaxed when she saw Lin Yi enter. She welcomed Lin Yi in with joy.

Even Wang Ran’s mother, who was lying on the bed, nodded at Lin Yi with a smile as a form of greeting.

“There’s a lot of people here. I should have come earlier.”

“Yo, Teacher Lin is here. Come in, come in.”

Unlike the first time, Wang Ran’s aunt welcomed Lin Yi in with a warm smile.

“Come, son, let me introduce you.” Wang Fang pulled the young man over and said.

“This is my Wang Ran’s teacher, Lin Yi. Your aunt’s surgery fees was paid for by Teacher Lin.”

After the introductions, Wang Fang introduced her son to Lin Yi. "Teacher Lin, this is my son and Wang Ran's cousin, Chen Yongxin."

"Come, come, Teacher Lin, let me introduce you as well."

Wang Ran's uncle, Dahai, pulled the young girl over.

"Teacher, this is my daughter, Wang Tong. She just graduated from university and is in the civil service. She hasn't been in a relationship in all these years."

Wang Tong's face showed a hint of shyness. "Dad, What are you talking about?"

"Ah, what's there to be embarrassed about? It's just a simple introduction, nothing special."

Wang Tong looked at Lin Yi shyly, feeling like her heart was about to jump out of her throat.

Wang Ran's teacher was way too handsome!

Dahai laughed as he looked at Lin Yi. "Teacher Lin, what do you think of my daughter?"

"Is there something wrong with her?"

"Teacher Lin, what are you talking about?" Dahai was a little angry, but he didn't show it.

"Didn't you say that you have never been in a relationship? You haven't pursued her for so many years, so there must be something wrong."

"Uh..."

Dahai smiled awkwardly. "No, no, Teacher Lin, please don't misunderstand. It's definitely not what you think. My daughter is very healthy."

"Since she's healthy but no one has pursued her yet, then it's a matter of her looks," Lin Yi commented.

"Save some money for the future. You've raised her for so many years. If she ends up alone and broke, it'll be a huge loss."

"You!"

Wang Tong was about to flare up when she was stopped by Wang Dahai.

This Lin Yi was able to take out 500,000 dollars in one go. His family background must be pretty good. They couldn't fall out with him just yet. They still had to get some benefits out of him.

"Son, say hello to Teacher Lin."

Chen Yongxin nodded indifferently and extended his hand.

"Call me if there's anything you can't solve in Zhonghai. I have a good big brother who is the boss of this area. He can help you with anything."

"Yo, are you serious? Is your big brother that powerful?"

Lin Yi held Chen Yongxin's hand tightly, his expression excited.

“Why would I lie to you about something like that?”

Even though his conditions weren't as good as Lin Yi's, Chen Yongxin had always put on airs.

He was well-off, but he and Lin Yi were on two different paths, and his connections might not be any worse than Lin Yi's.

“That's great.” Lin Yi said as he gripped Chen Yongxin's hand tightly.

“There's something else that's giving me a headache.” Lin Yi said.

“Sure, go ahead.” Chen Yongxin said with a smile:

“I can help you with most things. Even if I can't do it, I can look for my good big brother and help you settle it.”

“It's like this. A few days ago, I borrowed 500,000 dollars from a loan shark and gave it to Wang Ran. In just a few days, the interest has increased by 100,000 dollars. Can you think of a way to help me plug the hole for 600,000 dollars?”

Chen Yongxin's expression froze.

“You want me to help you pay back the money?”

“Yeah,” Lin Yi said. “Didn't you say that you're capable and that you know a good big brother? It's just a few hundred thousand dollars. It's nothing to you.”

“Are you kidding me?!”

“You're the one who started it.”

“Alright, alright, let's cut it out.” Wang Fang stepped out to smooth things over. They'd be wasting their time if they started arguing.

Lin Yi ignored the others and looked at Wang Ran. “How's Auntie's condition? There shouldn't be any problems, right?”

“Yeah, yeah. The doctor said the surgery was a success, but she'll have to stay in the hospital for observation for a week. She won't be able to do any heavy work after she's discharged.”

“That's how heart disease is. You can't get angry or tired. You have to slowly recuperate.”

“The doctor said the same thing. I'll pay attention to it after I'm discharged.”

“Was the money I gave to you enough?”

“Yes, yes. There's still more than 200,000 dollars left,” Wang Ran said. “After she's discharged, I'll return the rest of the money to you.”

“Aiyo, Little Ran, what are you talking about?”

Wang Fang interrupted, “After she's discharged, you'll have to pay for the medicine, and you're still in school. You don't even have a source of income, so you should at least keep some for safety.”

“By the time my mom recovers, there will be no need for so much money. I can work part-time, and when I finish my internship in my senior year, I’ll be able to go to Teacher Lin’s company. In doing so, I’ll be able to support my family.”

“He... He has a company? !”

Wang Fang and the others were surprised. Lin Yi was just a university teacher, so how could he have a company?

Could it be a family business?

If that was the case, then he was definitely a rich second generation?

“Teacher Lin, may I ask the name of your company?” Wang Fang asked.

“That’s a very presumptuous question.”

Wang Fang was a little embarrassed. “You’re Wang Ran’s teacher, and I thought you were an outsider, so I asked.”

“Haha, doesn’t a small company need a name too?” Chen Yongxin put his hands in his pockets, his expression calm.

He hadn’t swallowed his anger from being toyed with by Lin Yi just now.

“Although you’re well-off, my social connections aren’t bad either. You’re thinking too much.”

“That’s right,” Wang Tong said. “You’re too self-satisfied.”

“Tell me the name. I might even know it,” Chen Yongxin said.

“And my good big brother works in engineering. I might be able to introduce you to a few projects when I go back and talk to him.”

“It’s the Lingyun Group on Century Avenue. It’s that big and only consists of two buildings. It’s a little hard to manage.”

Chapter 279: Decide Who to Lend the Money to Pfft!

Chen Yongxin and Wang Tong nearly vomited blood when they heard Lin Yi’s words.

“Your company is the Lingyun Group in Century Avenue?!”

“Yeah, that Lingyun Group.” Lin Yi sighed and said.

“To be honest, because the company is too small, we only do small projects worth a few billion. They are so busy every day but they end up not even making much money. It’s making my hair turn white.”

Lin Yi’s words shocked everyone in the room.

A project worth a few billion was still considered small?

In your eyes, what kind of big project was considered big?

“Yongxin, this Lingyun group seems to be quite big. Why haven’t I heard of it before?” Wang Fang asked.

Because of their age, Wang Fang and the others didn’t know much about Lingyun Group.

“You might have never heard of Lingyun Group, but I’m sure you’ve heard of the Twin Towers.”

“I know about that. When it was built, it was even shown on television. It’s said to be the tallest building in China.”

“Yes, that’s the Twin Towers, a new landmark in Zhonghai city. The two buildings cost more than 14 billion dollars.”

“What’s the relationship between the Twin Towers and Lingyun Group?”

“I heard from my good brother that the Twin Towers were bought by a mysterious rich man not long after they were built. In the end, it was turned into the headquarters of Lingyun Group!”

Hiss...

Hearing Chen Yongxin’s explanation, everyone present sucked in a breath of cold air.

The cost of the Twin Towers was more than 14 billion dollars. If it was sold off, wouldn’t the price tag be even higher?

Moreover, when it came to a building like this, there shouldn’t be any loans one could take to fund it, right?

At that moment, everyone in the room turned their attention to Lin Yi.

It was as if he wasn’t just a person anymore, and he was now a golden man covered in cash.

Furthermore, he even seemed to be shining.

With his current wealth, he didn’t even need to take care of them himself. Even if the little bit of money that leaked out from his fingers would be enough for them to spend for the rest of their lives.

“I really didn’t expect you to know so much about my company. That’s really good.” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Can you get your good big brother to set me up with a few projects worth more than five billion? It’s no problem even if it’s worth ten billion. Our company can handle it. Thank you in advance.”

“Teacher, Teacher Lin, you’re such a joker. No matter how good my good big brother is, he can’t bag such a big project.” Chen Yongxin said awkwardly.

“Uh... so you were just bragging.”

This time, Chen Yongxin didn’t refute or get angry. His eyes were filled with flattery.

Wang Tong was the same. She had still been angry because Lin Yi humiliated her.

Now, she wasn't angry at all. If it wasn't for the fact that there were so many people here, she would have said it out loud.

Humiliate me as much as you want.

"Teacher Lin, my third aunt just finished her surgery and she still needs to rest. Why don't we talk outside?" Chen Yongxin asked tentatively.

"That's fine too. All of us can go out. Don't disturb the patient's rest."

The group of people walked out and stood in the corridor.

Chen Yongxin hurriedly took out a cigarette and a lighter from his pocket.

1

"Teacher Lin, have a cigarette."

"No, I've long given up."

Chen Yongxin smiled awkwardly. "Teacher Lin, Little Ran is really honored to have such a good teacher like you. It's also our honor to be able to meet a friend like you."

"Then why do I feel that this is a burden for me?"

"Teacher Lin, isn't it hurtful for you to say that?" Wang Fang said with a smile. She was not angry at all.

"Teacher Lin, don't worry. We will definitely supervise Little Ran in the future. If she doesn't listen, you can tell us," Wang Ran's third uncle, Lin Dashan, said.

"Little Ran will be yours in the future. Our big family will depend on you to take care of her."

"Aiya, speaking of taking care of her, I really have something I want to ask Little Ran for help with," Lin Dahai sighed.

"You want me to help? With what?" Wang Ran asked curiously.

"Let's not talk about it just now. Your cousin got into the civil service," Lin Dahai said.

"She came in second in the written examination. She will have an interview in a few days, but if I don't give the interviewer a gift, she will definitely not pass the interview. Can you think of a way to help Uncle?"

"How can I help? I don't have any money either."

"This..."

Wang Dahai's expression was a little hesitant. "After your mother's surgery, there will still be more than 200,000 dollars left, right? Can you give your second uncle a bit of emergency funding?"

Wang Ran was stunned for a moment. She didn't expect them to try to make a play for the money.

"Second Brother, what are you talking about!" Wang Fang said.

“Our family’s Yongxin just bought a house. We are still short of 200,000 dollars for the renovation. Don’t get any funny ideas.”

“What do you mean by me getting funny ideas?” Lin Dahai was unwilling to listen. “That is money to save my family. If she doesn’t pass the interview, it will delay Tongtong’s whole life!”

“My father is right. As long as I give the interviewer some gifts, I will definitely pass the interview!” Wang Tong said.

“Is your family’s life so important that mine can be ignored?” Wang Fang theorized.

“The woman has already said that she will get married when the renovation is complete. If she doesn’t get married because of this 200,000 dollars, will you be able to compensate us?”

“If you don’t have money, don’t get married. This is the first time I’ve heard of borrowing money to get married.” Wang Dahai’s voice rose, unwilling to be outdone.

“Uncle, watch your attitude,” Chen Yongxin said.

“What attitude!” Wang Tong said, “There’s nothing wrong with what my dad said!”

“Alright, alright, stop arguing. This is a hospital!”

Wang Ran couldn’t stand it anymore. They were arguing over money. Why were all the relatives like this?

Wang Ran lost her temper, and the Wang family stopped arguing.

It wasn’t because of her reputation, but because of Lin Yi’s presence.

“Don’t even think about the money.” Wang Ran said.

“I’ve thought about it from the start. I’ll give the remaining money to Teacher Lin, so this money is no longer mine. It’s useless no matter how much you argue.”

“This...”

They’d all watched Wang Ran grow up, and they knew her personality very well.

She looked weak and weak, but her stubbornness was something that ten oxen couldn’t budge.

Lin Yi understood this very well.

The Wang family’s eyes fell on Lin Yi, full of hope.

He was so rich, so 200,000 shouldn’t be a big deal to him.

“Cough, cough, cough...”

Lin Yi coughed lightly. “Although my company is quite big, it’s still a fixed asset. I don’t have much cash, but I’m not going to take back the 200,000 dollars. After all, you guys are in trouble, and I have to help you guys out.”

The Wang family’s eyes lit up. Some people were just different!

200,000 dollars was like two dollars in his eyes.

"I have a finite amount of money, so what if we split it equally? It won't be enough to cover everybody, so you can only choose one person to satisfy," Lin Yi said.

"But this is your family's business, so I won't be involved. You can decide who you want me to lend the money to. Just tell me the result afterwards."

Lin Yi patted Wang Ran's shoulder as he spoke. "Let's go. Let's head inside and let them discuss things here."

"Okay."

The two entered the room and left the Wang family outside. However, each of them had ulterior motives.

The remaining 200,000 dollars could only be taken by one person, so they had to fight for it!

The hostility in the Wang family's eyes grew at the thought of this.

It was like a volcano about to erupt!

"Our family will take this money. As for the money needed the gift, you guys will be able to think of a solution," Chen Yongxin said.

Chapter 280: So-Called Respectability

"What do you mean your family wants it?"

Wang Dahai was not willing to listen anymore. "Your family is in trouble, but our's is too. We have to be reasonable."

"It's just a lousy job. Even if you pass the exam, you'll still only get a salary of a little over 3,000 dollars in the future. How many years of starving will you need to endure to be able to earn back the money you took? It's a waste of money. You might as well give it to me for my wedding!"

"No!"

Wang Tong pointed at Chen Yongxin's nose and said, "Don't think that I'm afraid of you just because you mingle about in society. Don't think that you can keep this money all to yourself!"

"Show some respect. Who are you pointing at?!"

"I'm pointing at you. What about it?!"

Slap!

Chen Yongxin slapped Wang Tong's face. "Let me tell you. When I'm in a good mood, I'll call you my cousin. If I'm in a bad mood f*cking mood, you're nothing but bullsh*t. Why are you still f*cking arguing with me? Get lost!"

"How dare you f*cking hit my daughter!"

Wang Dahai gritted his teeth and rushed forward to fight with Chen Yongxin. However, Chen Yongxin did not move. Instead, he said coldly,

“Uncle, on account of the fact that you’re an elder, I’m not willing to argue with you. You’d better have some self-awareness!”

“You b*stard, you hit my daughter, and you even told me to have self-awareness. Aren’t you being shameless?!”

“Second Brother, what are you talking about? Look to your conscience and tell me how I usually treat you. Now, I’m finally fighting with you over this. If you don’t give up, you’re really too greedy for money and have no conscience at all!”

1

Seeing that her son was being bullied, Wang Fang also rushed up and tried to pull Wang Dahai away.

“Get away from me, don’t touch my father!”

Wang Tong, who had been beaten to the ground, also stood up. The two families were fighting in the corridor!

“Uncle, you’d better show some respect. I just don’t want to fight with you. Don’t mistake it as me being afraid of you!”

“You b*stard, how dare you say such things to me? Try touching me!”

“F*ck! Do you really think I’m a good-tempered person?”

Chen Yongxin didn’t stand on ceremony anymore and kicked Wang Dahai’s body.

The latter was old, so how could he be a match for Chen Yongxin? He was kicked hard and flew several meters away.

“Dad!”

Wang Tong rushed over and helped Wang Dahai up.

“Don’t help me, I’m fine!”

Wang Dahai rolled up his arms and sleeves. Although he was kicked by Chen Yongxin, he did not back down. He rushed up again and pounced on Chen Yongxin!

This time, Chen Yongxin did not show any mercy. He greeted him with punches and kicks like an enemy!

“Little b*stard, don’t hit me in the face!”

“Don’t f*cking pull my wig!”

“I want to lie down...”

Wang Dahai bared his fangs and brandished his claws as he cursed.

“Hit me? I’ll hit your mother!”

Wang Tong cursed and rushed towards Wang Fang.

“You’re f*cking courting death, how dare you hit my mother?!”

Chen Yongxin cursed angrily and broke free from Wang Dahai’s grip, heading straight for Wang Tong!

The latter did not have time to react and was kicked by Chen Yongxin in the body.

Ah!

Wang Tong screamed in pain. She was kicked so badly that she was not conscious anymore. She lay on the ground and could not get up no matter how hard she tried.

“I’ll f*cking beat you to death!”

Wang Dahai rushed at Chen Yongxin like he had gone mad, but at this moment, he was stopped by a shout!

“What are you doing?”

Two nurses rushed over. This was the first time they had seen a fight at the entrance of the intensive care unit.

Under the nurse’s command, the two families were finally separated. However, the expression on Chen Yongxin’s face was still angry. He pointed at Wang Dahai’s nose and scolded.

“Get the f*ck out of here. How dare you ruin my business? I’ll get someone to f*cking kill you!”

Wang Dahai’s face was bruised and swollen. He was so angry that his body was trembling.

He knew that he could still hold on for a while if the two were to fight each other one-on-one. However, if Chen Yongxin, this hooligan, called someone over, he would be the one at a disadvantage.

“Get the f*ck out of Here!”

“Let me tell you, from now on, our two families will be cut off from each other!”

“Don’t you know what’s going on in your own family? Do you really think we care about having a poor relative like you? From now on, I only have eyes for Little Ran. You guys are nothing!”

“You’re just a bunch of ingrates. You’re greedy for money!”

After cursing, Wang Dahai supported his daughter and left the hospital.

“What are you still doing here? Do you want to get involved too?” Chen Yongxin looked at Wang Dashan and said.

“No, no, no. Our family doesn’t have any big issues, and we don’t need money. I won’t get involved.” Wang Dashan smiled and said, “You guys go ahead. Second Uncle has something to do and will leave first.”

Chen Yongxin didn’t say anything. He tidied up his clothes and said to Wang Fang, “Mom, let’s go in. Let’s talk about the money. It’s all ours now.”

Wang Fang nodded while trembling. "I'm telling you, when we go in, you have to be polite not only to Mr. Lin, but to Wang Ran as well."

"What's the point of being polite to her? The money's all with Lin Yi."

"Kid, you are not experienced enough to recognize this." Wang Fang said.

"Although they are teacher and student, Wang Ran is beautiful. I think Lin Yi wants to keep her as his mistress. Otherwise, he wouldn't have offered so much money to help her."

Wang Fang looked around and purposely lowered her voice.

"Once Wang Ran becomes a mistress, she will definitely be able to get a lot of money from Lin Yi in the future. Won't she become our cash cow then?"

Chen Yongxin's eyes lit up. "That's true. I'll have to be more polite to her then."

"Yeah, you have to be more polite."

After a brief discussion, the two tidied up their clothes to make themselves look more presentable before walking toward the ward.

Inside the ward, Wang Ran was feeding her mother soup with a small bowl.

"Teacher Lin, they seem to be fighting outside."

"Don't tell me you want me to mediate the fight? I don't even have the strength to truss a chicken. I won't be able to persuade them at all."

Wang Ran snickered. The six foreign students were easily defeated without breaking a sweat.

However, he actually said that they didn't have the strength to truss a chicken. Teacher Lin was too good at deceiving people.

At this moment, Wang Fang and Chen Yongxin walked in. Although they had smiles on their faces, their clothes and faces were stained.

"Wang Ran, you should go rest. Aunty will feed your mother," Wang Fang said with a smile.

"I'm almost done. I'll do it."

"That's fine too."

Wang Ran continued feeding her mother soup. Lin Yi didn't say anything, and the atmosphere in the ward was a little awkward.

Wang Fang looked at Lin Yi from time to time, looking a little anxious.

I've already chased my second bro away. Why aren't you talking about the money?!

"Aunty's in pretty good shape, I won't be staying here any longer," Lin Yi said.

"Teacher Lin, I'll send you."

Wang Ran put down the soup and prepared to send Lin Yi off.

“No need, I’ll go by myself.”

“Teacher Lin...”

Wang Fang called out to Lin Yi from behind.

“What’s up?”

“About that...”

Wang Fang wanted to say something, but stopped herself.

“Didn’t you just say that you wanted to lend us 200,000 dollars...”
