

Radom Noew 421

Chapter 421: I'll Feed You a Banana

The next morning, Liang Ruoxu got up before Lin Yi.

Liang Ruoxu didn't have the habit of eating breakfast though, so she didn't eat anything.

"What a waste of good-looking legs for you to wear pants every day."

"What, you want me to show you my thighs?"

"How should I put it? We're both cultured people. We can just call this mutual appreciation," Lin Yi said seriously.

"This face is the most perfect thing on my body. Do you see me wearing a mask?"

Liang Ruoxu, "..."

"Don't be silly. Last night, I contacted a few experts. Other than that, there's another expert from Yanjing who has personally come over. This mainly concerns the clinical trial for the ibuprofen substitute. You should go to the meeting with me," Liang Ruoxu said.

"Originally, I didn't want to trouble you, but you're the main researcher, so you have to go. You have no choice to come with me."

"Is the Zhonghai Drug Administration qualified to do this? This should be managed by the central government."

"Of course not, but I've made a special request for its approval. This is such a big matter, so the policy must give a green light and try to pass the clinical trial as soon as possible."

"Is there a need for all that? The experimental data will show whether the drug works or not. It's not like we can make it work just by talking about it."

"I know it's useless, but it's just a formality. This is all part of the process." Liang Ruoxu looked at Lin Yi.

"Don't complain, just take it as a favor for me."

"Okay."

"I'll be going then. Let's contact each other through the phone."

"Okay."

The two drove to work after they finished their business.

Lin Yi was looking forward to a new day.

It was the seventh day after unlocking the doctor profession, and the new profession would be unlocked at 12:00 pm tonight.

Although he would not preemptively unlock it, he was still interested to see what it was.

Lin Yi parked his car at the hospital.

He didn't need to go to the emergency department, so he went to the 8th inpatient department.

In the department, other than the new young doctors, there were two deputy directors, Liu Yongsheng and Fan Shufang.

However, as soon as he entered, Lin Yi felt an ominous aura enveloping the entire office.

"Lin Bro, you're here." Qiao Xin said, "Have you eaten? I brought two bananas.

"I also bought a pancake fruit on the way."

Lin Yi sat down in front of Qiao Xin and whispered, "What's wrong with these people? Did I kill their entire family? Why are they all looking at me like that?"

Qiao Xin looked at the others quietly, "Lin Bro, do you remember a few days ago when you saw a middle-aged man in the emergency center, the one whose mother didn't want to buy medicine and whom you gave a new prescription?"

"I remember. What about it?"

"Didn't you say that he should request Director Li in the future? All the patients now request Director Li's services. Other than Director Cao, Director Liu, and Director Fan, no one else is ever requested. They all want to be checked by Director Li. I think they're treating you like an enemy over this."

"Oh, I see." Lin Yi said. "Then it's their problem. Don't they know the reason for this? How can they try to blame others?"

"But this has affected their interests, so they naturally don't like you."

"What are you afraid of?" Lin Yi said. "Come, let me feed you a banana."

"Lin Bro, there are so many people here. This is too much." Qiao Xin said with a red face.

"You're one of Director Li's subordinates, why do you care so much? Come and eat this banana."

Qiao Xin was a little embarrassed, but Lin Yi was the one feeding her. This was a rare opportunity, and others wouldn't ever enjoy such good treatment.

"Is it good?"

"It's good."

"Eat it all if it's good."

"Okay."

Lin Yi stretched after feeding Qiao Xin the banana. "You stay here and watch, I'm going out to get some fresh air."

"Lin Bro, the atmosphere is a little weird here. I'll go with you too."

"Then let's go together."

The two went to the clinic to look for Li Chuhan after leaving the department.

Rather than staying in the office, they might as well go help Li Chuhan. At least in that way they could still learn something.

Just as the two left, Cao Jiawang and Zhou Ziqiang stormed back to the office.

“Director Cao, you’re back so early?” Liu Yongsheng asked.

“I only have 20 or so patients today. I’ll be done in a while.”

“That’s much better than us,” Liu Yongsheng said. “Director Fan and I only have 10 or so patients. We’ll be done in less than an hour.”

“When I left the outpatient clinic, I saw that Director Li’s waiting list already reaches seven days.”

“Exactly. After I prescribed some medicine for a patient today, I saw that they didn’t have any intention of buying it. It seems that they want to check with Director Li again before buying it.”

After saying that, Liu Yongsheng looked at the other rookies in the department. “You guys go check on the wards first and see how the patients are doing.”

“Got it, Dr. Liu.”

A few of the rookies went out one after another, but Zhou Ziqiang remained.

Liu Yongsheng and Fan Shufang knew about his relationship with Cao Jiawang, so they were on the same side.

“Director Cao, this morning, the boss of Tianze Pharmacy called me and asked why there haven’t been any patients coming to buy medicine over the past few days. I didn’t even know how to answer him.”

“When he calls again, just tell him the truth and tell him everything that happened,” Cao Jiawang said.

“We’re doctors, we shouldn’t worry about this. Let him handle it.”

“What should we do now? The patients have all gone to Li Chuhan. We don’t have any patients to treat. Soon, the whole hospital will know about this and the three of us will become the hospital laughing stock.”

“It’s all Lin Yi’s fault. If it wasn’t for him, we wouldn’t be in this situation,” Zhou Ziqiang scolded.

“You two, come with me. We’re going to the director now,” Cao Jiawang said.

“Lin Yi is a piece of rat sh*t. As long as he’s still in the cardiology department, he’ll end up making a fool of us in the future!”

“Right, let’s go find Director Zhao and have him handle this!”

Zhao Jianwei was the vice director in charge of administration, so he was in charge of all the personnel transfers. It was only right for them to seek him out to handle this.

“Let’s go, we’ll go now!”

The reason why the three of them were so excited wasn't just because they couldn't get the commissions for the medicine.

More importantly, many of the hospital's evaluation criteria were based on performance, which was also known as the market economy.

If a patient did not go to you for treatment, it meant that your skills were not good enough. If this were to happen, the hospital would take a lot of benefits away from you.

By then, your path of promotion in the hospital would be severely limited.

This was what the three of them were really worried about.

Dang dang dang.

Cao Jiawang walked to the front and knocked on the office door.

"Come in."

The three of them pushed the door open and entered.

"Old Cao, why are the three of you here?"

Zhao Jianwei and Cao Jiawang graduated from the same school, and the latter was his senior. They shared a good relationship in private.

"Director Zhao, do you know anything about our cardiology department?"

"Like what?" Zhao Jianwei asked.

Over the next ten minutes, Cao Jiawang listed Lin Yi's crimes one by one, as if he was going to kill him.

"I know everything that happened in the emergency department. A lot of people called to complain, and I just got it under control these past few days."

Zhao Jianwei's face didn't look too good at the mention of Lin Yi. He still remembered the incident where he had opposed him the other day.

"I'm working on it. I'm going to transfer him to the emergency department and slowly marginalize him," Zhao Jianwei said.

"He thinks he's amazing just because he performed one surgery. He even dares to criticize me in front of everyone. I have to let him know that in front of me, Zhao Jianwei, he's nothing!"

"Director Zhao, I'm relieved to hear your words. Hurry up and transfer him away. I don't want to see him for even another minute."

"Don't worry. I know what to do about this."

After receiving an affirmative reply, the three of them left.

However, at this time, Cao Jiawang's phone rang.

"Director Cao, what's going on? Can our medicines still be sold? I spent millions on the supply."

“Boss Wang, you can’t strongarm me on this.”

The person who called was none other than the boss of Tianze Pharmacy, Wang Guanghong

“We have a new doctor in our department. He turned the department upside down. Now, no one comes to see us anymore.”

“What the hell is going on? You’re the department director. If they don’t ask for you, who are they asking for?”

“They’re all asking for Li Chuhan.”

“F*ck!” Wang Guanghong cursed, “That woman is mentally ill!”

Chapter 422: Handsome and Mysterious

The reason Wang Guanghong was so angry was that the negotiations had gone smoothly when bringing in the drugs. He had quickly settled everything with Cao Jiawang and the other two.

However, he had encountered a problem with Li Chuhan.

Even though he had increased the percentage of commission by 2%, he still could not make Li Chuhan submit.

Moreover, Li Chuhan’s words were still fresh in Wang Guanghong’s mind.

“I would feel ashamed if I even wrote it down!”

“Then what should we do now?” Wang Guanghong said.

“Let me tell you, your comission for this month is still in my hands. If you don’t solve this problem, none of you will get the money,” Wang Guanghong threatened.

Compared to Cao Jiawang and the others, Wang Guanghong was fearless.

They were all doctors in the hospital, and they had reached the rank of director. Thus, what they cared about the most was their reputation.

Wang Guanghong was not afraid that they would expose this matter because he would only end up losing some money. If he changed his name, he could continue working, but their lives on the other hand, would be over.

Cao Jiawang’s expression was serious. Whether or not any patients were willing to see him was completely different from whether or not he could sell Wang Guanghong’s medicine.

One represented whether or not he could occupy a higher position in the hospital, and the other represented whether or not he could earn money.

Both problems had to be resolved.

“There’s only one way we can overcome this now, and that’s to drag him down with us,” Cao Jiawang said.

"I'll give you his number later. You can talk to him. He has a good relationship with Li Chuhan. If you can deal with him, you might even be able to take Li Chuhan down."

"Really?"

Wang Guanghong was elated. This was great news for him.

Although Li Chuhan was the deputy director now, she was more famous than Cao Jiawang in Huashan Hospital.

If he could win her over, his monthly profit would increase by at least 30%!

"Alright, give me that kid's number. I'll talk to him personally."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Liu Yongsheng went up to him.

"Director Cao, why did you give him their contacts? If Wang Guanghong really wins Li Chuhan and Lin Yi over, there wouldn't be any room for us to survive."

"How could I be so nice?" Cao Jiawang said.

"I plan to report this to Director Zhao after they've made the deal. What do you think he'll do then?"

"If that happens, the punishment won't be as simple as being sent to the emergency department. He'll definitely be fired!" Liu Yongsheng said.

"Not just Lin Yi, even Li Chuhan might be affected," Fan Shufang said.

"Haha, that's exactly what I'm hoping for."

...

Outpatient Center, Room 306.

Seeing the long line outside, Lin Yi and Qiao Xin had visions of a supermarket sale.

"There are too many people here."

"That's Director Li for you. Any other doctor would be cursing in their hearts. With so many patients here, Director Li probably doesn't even have time to go to the toilet."

"That honestly seems to be the case."

Pushing open the door of the clinic, the two of them went over to help Li Chuhan.

At this time, Li Chuhan was holding a stethoscope to check the condition of a female patient.

The female patient's eyes lit up when she saw Lin Yi enter.

'This male doctor is too handsome.

'How can there be such a handsome little brother in this world?'

Li Chuhan looked up at Lin Yi. "Lin Yi, go out for a while."

"Director Li, are you going to have her strip for the check-up? I'll help," Qiao Xin said.

Cardiology didn't require an internal checkup, and the only thing a man needed to avoid was a complete chest checkup.

"No," Li Chuhan said:

"The patient's heartbeat was normal at first, but it shot up to 110 after he came in. I can't treat her with him around."

Lin Yi, "..."

What kind of joke was that?

"I'll just put on my mask."

Li Chuhan didn't chase Lin Yi out after seeing him cover half of his face with the mask.

However, something funny happened again.

"He's already wearing a mask, why is your heart rate still at 120?"

"Doctor, don't you think he's even more mysterious after wearing the mask? I've never seen such a handsome and mysterious man before."

"Sorry to disturb you."

Lin Yi then pulled up the screen helplessly, waiting for the female patient to finish her treatment.

"Doctor Li, What's your colleague's name? I'd like to ask for him the next time I see him."

"He's a houseman in our cardiology department. He's not qualified to treat you guys yet."

"Oh, oh, then if I want to see him again, do I have to ask for you?"

"He will occasionally take shifts in the emergency department. If you want to register with him, you will have to go to the emergency department."

"Okay, okay, okay. I got it. Thank you, Doctor Li."

After handling the procedures, the female patient left. Qiao Xin smiled and said,

"Ever since Brother Lin came, many female patients have come to the emergency department, regardless of whether it was really an emergency or not. They were all here to see Brother Lin."

"These people are really too much. Isn't he just a little better looking? Why are they so mesmerized?"

"But Brother Lin is really handsome. I used to think that women were only attracted to doctors because of the uniforms, but now Brother Lin has opened my eyes."

Li Chuhan smiled as well. In reality, Lin Yi wasn't just handsome, there was something special about him.

Lin Yi and Qiao Xin helped out in the clinic for the whole morning, which made her feel much more relaxed.

After lunch break, Li Chuhan stood up and said to the two of them,

“What do you want to eat for lunch? I’ll order for you.”

“I’ll do it,” Lin Yi said.

“You were the one who got the food last time. It’s my turn this time.”

“I’m fine with anything. I’m not picky.”

It was just a meal, and Lin Yi didn’t think too much about it.

Since she had a Civic Type-R, she naturally wasn’t in need of money.

The three of them went back to the 8th inpatient department after ordering.

“The food will be delivered later. I’ll take the two of you to do the ward rounds first.”

This was an honor for housemen because the ward rounds gave them a lot of clinical knowledge, more than what they would have learned in the emergency department.

A white-haired old man lay in the 804 single room. His eyes were closed, and he looked weak as if he was asleep.

There were three people standing in the room, one man and two women.

“We don’t have to stay here anymore. Let’s go home and prepare. Everyone has to go at some point. If we try to start preparing when the time comes, it’ll be too late.”

The woman who spoke was Xie Xiaotong. She was wearing a one-piece dress and heavy makeup. She was sitting on a chair at the side with a mean expression.

However, her figure and face were really good.

“What are you talking about? Dad is in a stable condition now. What do you want to prepare?”

The one who spoke was another woman. She was slightly older and her name was Liu Jingyu. She was Xie Xiaotong’s elder sister-in-law.

“He’s already in this state. Why don’t you want to prepare for the funeral?”

“Stop cursing my dad.” Liu Jingyu said, “I suspect that you just want to split my dad’s fortune!”

“What do you mean by that? I’m just telling the truth!”

“Alright, stop talking. Are you done yet?” Liu Jingwei, Xie Xiaotong’s husband, said.

Compared to Xie Xiaotong, Liu Jingwei looked a little less interesting.

He was not tall, his skin was a little dark, and he wore glasses. He was the kind of person who would easily go missing in a crowd.

Compared to Xie Xiaotong's beautiful facial features, he was totally normal.

"I've said everything I need to say. If one day he is no longer around, don't wait for me to say I told you so."

"You!"

Creak...

Just as the few of them were arguing, Li Chuhan and the other two walked in.

"Ward Round."

Chapter 423: Everlasting Love

Seeing Li Chuhan come in, the Liu family members stopped quarreling and made way for him.

"Director Li," Liu Jingwei greeted him with a smile.

"Let me check the patient's condition first."

"Okay, thank you for your hard work, Director Li."

After giving the patient a simple check-up and looking at the data, Li Chuhan said,

"He's been out of the ICU for half a month. His recovery is not bad, but he still needs to recuperate."

"Doctor Li, with my father's current condition, he should be fine after he's discharged from the hospital, right?" Liu Jingwei asked.

"It shouldn't be a big problem, but you have to pay attention to his diet. Exercise should be centred around walking slowly rather than exercising vigorously. It shouldn't be a problem for him to live healthily for another three to five years," Li Chuhan said.

Hearing this, the members of the Liu family relaxed a lot.

Their father was already over 70 years old. After experiencing such a big ordeal, they considered it lucky if he could live for another three to five years.

"Department Director Li, if he goes through an operation, will he be even better off?"

Although it was considered enough for him to live to such an old age, as his children, they were all greedy for more.

This was human nature, and anyone would understand.

Li Chuhan pondered for a moment. "I've seen your father's case many times, and I've also consulted with the directors of other departments, but we don't recommend surgery."

"Is it because of the cost?" Liu Jingwei said. "That's not a problem. Our family's conditions aren't too bad. We can afford a few hundred thousand yuan for the surgery."

Lin Yi glanced at Liu Jingwei's Rolex watch and Hermes Belt, and it was clear to her that he was not struggling by any means.

Even if the surgery cost millions, it wouldn't be a problem for them. They were indeed rather well off.

"You misunderstood me." Li Chuhan said.

"First of all, the surgery fee isn't as expensive as you think. The reason why I don't recommend the surgery is because your father is too old, which increases the risk. Even if it's a conservative estimate, the success rate will still be less than 10%. It's very likely that he won't even make it off the operating table. Therefore, I think it's good for you to just maintain his current state. The risk is too great. There's no need to gamble. Just use these few years to spend more time with your father. Perhaps a miracle will happen and he'll end up living longer. There are many examples like this in Huaxia."

After listening to Li Chuhan's explanation, the Liu family members all nodded. They also thought that what Li Chuhan said made sense and they decided to give up on the surgery.

"No, I think we still have to do the surgery!" Xie Xiaotong suddenly said.

"Surgery? It's really unnecessary," Li Chuhan said.

"Didn't you just say that there was a 10% chance of success? We want to try."

"What are you talking about? Director Li just said that the surgery is too risky. Didn't you hear her?" Liu Jingyu said.

"Director Li did say that, but how can you guarantee that there won't be any problems in the future?" Xie Xiaotong said.

"What if there's another accident when we get home? Three to five years is just an estimate. There's a possibility that he will live longer or shorter than that, so it's better to just have the surgery."

Lin Yi looked at Xie Xiaotong, unable to understand what she was doing.

If he didn't have the system, and if the person lying on the bed was Mother Wang...

He wouldn't have bet on the 10% possibility.

Was this woman crazy?

"The risk is too high. I don't agree to the surgery," Liu Jingwei said.

"Jingwei! You're still Dad's son! He's suffering from such a serious illness, and you don't want to treat him? I've raised you for so many years in vain!"

"What do you mean won't treat him? I'm just afraid because the risk is too great." Liu Jingwei said, "Just now, Director Li also said that if we go through with the surgery, it's very likely that he won't be able to get off the operating table. I don't want to risk it."

"I think you just can't bear to spend money." Xie Xiaotong pointed at Liu Jingwei's nose and said,

"Let me tell you, if you don't treat your father's illness, you're being unfilial. It's meaningless to live with a person like you. We might as well get divorced!"

“Xie Xiaotong, what nonsense are you spouting?! What right do you have to demand the surgery? !” Liu Jingyu said.

“You were married into the family, and now you’re going around threatening everyone. This is Old Liu’s family’s business. You have no right to speak!”

“How can you talk to my sister like that?!” Liu Jingwei said.

“That’s how I talk.” Xie Xiaotong said, “I’m telling you for Dad’s sake, that he will be able to live a few more years if you do this. If you don’t do this surgery for Dad, we’ll have to get a divorce!”

As she said that, Xie Xiaotong took her LV bag and prepared to leave.

Seeing that the situation was going sour, Liu Jingwei went up and pulled Xie Xiaotong. “Don’t go yet. We can talk about it.”

“What’s there to talk about? Dad is already like this, but you still don’t want to do the surgery. You’re really evil.” Xie Xiaotong raised her voice.

“Anyway, I’ve said it here. If you don’t do the surgery, we’ll be getting a divorce!”

“Brother, just get divorced. With our family’s conditions, you can find someone better!” Liu Jingyu said.

“Liu Jingwei, look at what your sister is saying?! Your family members are bullies. I can’t live like this anymore!”

“Sister, don’t say too much. This is our personal business,” Liu Jingwei said in a low voice.

“You!”

Liu Jingyu was so angry that her chest heaved up and down. She didn’t expect her brother to say such a thing.

“Okay, this is your personal business. I won’t worry about it anymore!”

Liu Jingyu stormed out of the door in anger, giving Qiao Xin a fright.

“Liu Jingwei, tell me quickly. Are you going to pursue the surgery for dad or not? If not, I’ll see you at the Civil Affairs Bureau!”

“Okay, okay, okay. Don’t leave. I’ll approve the surgery, Okay?”

“That’s more like it.” Xie Xiaotong’s expression did a 180. She was a completely different person from before.

“As a child, you must be filial. Otherwise, how can I count on you in this lifetime?”

Liu Jingwei smiled and nodded. Then, he looked at Li Chuhan and said,

“Director Li, is the success rate of the surgery really only 10%?”

Li Chuhan nodded. “10% is just a conservative estimate. Don’t be too optimistic.”

“It doesn’t matter. Even if there’s a 1% chance, we still have to give it a try.”

Li Chuhan was silent for a moment. "I've already told you all that I needed to say. I also understand your eagerness to save your father. I'll give you an hour to think about this properly. This isn't a small matter. You can't be rash."

It was clear that Li Chuhan did not want them to do the surgery.

However, she was only a doctor. She would still have to listen to the patient's family's decision on whether or not to act.

Li Jingwei nodded. "Okay, we'll consider it..."

"There's no need to consider it. We've decided to do the surgery as soon as possible. It's best if we do it now!"

"Are you sure?"

Li Chuhan did not look at Xie Xiaotong. Instead, he looked at Liu Jingwei. He was the son of the patient, so he had the authority to decide on this matter.

"Do it." Liu Jingwei sighed and said helplessly.

"Alright then." Li Chuhan said, "I don't have any objections if you want to do the surgery, but I don't have time today. The surgery has to be scheduled for tomorrow afternoon."

"Alright, alright, alright. As long as the surgery is done as soon as possible."

Li Chuhan nodded. "Let's go."

The three of them walked out of the ward together. Li Chuhan said to Qiao Xin,

"Little Qiao, come over this afternoon and give the patient a preoperative check-up. Then, get the necessary agreements signed."

"Got it, Director Li," Qiao Xin said.

"But this family is strange. You've explained the situation clearly, so why are you still insisting on doing the surgery? If the person lying on the bed were my father, I wouldn't do it."

"Everyone has their own ideas. Let's not make wild guesses and just do our job well."

"Got it, Director Li." Qiao Xin curled her lips and said, "But that man is so cowardly. It's good that he listens to his wife, but he is unable to make his own decisions."

"An adopted dog is loyal forever."

Chapter 424: Small but Full of Sincerity

"Yeah, yeah, but that girl was a little too much." Qiao Xin said.

"You can't just bring up divorce like that."

"Alright, you two stop talking nonsense. Focus on your own matters, don't worry about others."

“Yeah, yeah.”

After checking the wards, the three went back to the lounge to eat.

Ring, ring, ring...

Lin Yi’s phone rang during the meal. It was a call from Liang Ruoxu.

“At two o’clock in the afternoon. We have a meeting at the Zhonghai Drug Administration’s Centre for Disease Control. Don’t be late.”

“Okay.”

After hanging up, Lin Yi realized that it was already one o’clock. He finished his meal and said,

“Director Li, I have something to do in the afternoon, so I won’t be joining.”

“Okay, go.”

Lin Yi parked his car at the entrance of the CDC at 1:50 pm.

Liang Ruoxu was waiting for him there.

“Have you eaten lunch?”

“I came in the middle of it.”

“I’ll treat you tonight. Order whatever you want. I’ll make it up to you.”

“Then can you make it up to me if I say that I came here in the middle of releasing my pent-up frustrations?”

“Make it up to you, my *ss!

“Seriously, this is the CDC.” Liang Ruoxu said.

“What’s wrong? Can’t the CDC approve of our romance? It’s only just starting to bloom.”

“Stop talking nonsense.”

Liang Ruoxu pulled out a skill that every woman knew and pinched Lin Yi’s waist. “Come on, let’s go to the meeting.”

“You’re too violent.”

“Who told you to spout nonsense?”

“Sis!”

As the two walked in, they suddenly heard someone talking.

They turned around and saw a girl in her twenties standing next to a middle-aged man with a smile in her eyes.

The man was dressed normally, with a light blue striped shirt, black suit pants, and black leather shoes. His hair was split into seventy-thirty part, and he looked like a middle-aged cadre.

The young woman was dressed fashionably. She wore a black Louis Vuitton jacket on the outside and a white collared shirt on the inside. Although her assets were not big, her cleavage was showing, and a third of it was exposed.

“Yanyan, why are you here?”

Seeing the young woman, Liang Ruoxu was first surprised, then pleasantly surprised.

“My father asked me to come. He wants me to learn more from Professor Wu and see if I can help you.”

“Professor Wu?” Liang Ruoxu asked suspiciously. It was obvious that he didn’t know this person.

“Let me introduce you,” the young woman said. “This is Director Wu of Yanjing Huaxian Medical Hospital.”

“Professor Wu, this is my sister, Liang Ruoxu. I won’t say too much about her identity, as I’m sure you’re already aware.”

After introducing Liang Ruoxu, the young woman turned to look at Lin Yi. “So this is the mystery man A. I don’t even know his name.”

Lin Yi, “???”

The introductions were all going fine and dandy, so why was he simply referred to as the mystery man.

‘Don’t I deserve a name?’

Liang Ruoxu was also amused by the mystery man nickname.

“If you don’t know his name, can you at least tell me you got to know him as the mystery man A. What does that even mean?” Liang Ruoxu said.

“That’s what Grandpa Liang calls him, so that’s what I call him.”

Lin Yi, “???”

After all this time, the name ended up being given by Liang Ruoxu’s grandpa.

“I’m impressed.” Liang Ruoxu rolled his eyes. “His name is Lin Yi, and he’s my friend. She’s my sister Chen Yan, and her father was my grandpa’s student. We grew up together.”

“So his name is Lin Yi.” Chen Yan said meaningfully. “I have to report this to Grandpa Liang.”

“I think you’re here to spy for the military.”

“Don’t say that.” Chen Yan said. “I’m just curious about who the person who secretly pushed you up is.”

“What are you saying? Seriously, it’s completely different when you phrase it like that.”

After saying that, Liang Ruoxu extended her hand toward Wu Daoliang. “Sorry to trouble you, Director Wu.”

“It’s all my responsibility. Mayor Liang is too polite.”

“Alright, it’s about time. Let’s go in first. Don’t make the others wait for too long.”

After exchanging their respective identities, the group of people walked in.

Because they had to take into account Wu Daoliang’s identity, Chen Yan did not walk with Liang Ruoxu. Instead, she followed beside him.

At the same time, she fastened the buttons on her Louis Vuitton jacket.

“What a pity.”

“What’s so pitiful?”

“The buttons have been fastened.”

“Where are you looking?” Liang Ruoxu rolled his eyes at Lin Yi.

“So fierce.”

Liang Ruoxu, “...”

Couldn’t you be a little more tactful?

“It’s so small, how could it catch your eye?”

“It’s not as big as yours, but you’re blocking it completely. You’re not being friendly at all. Look at her. She’s small, but she’s full of sincerity. This is how we Huaxians should treat our guests.”

“What kind of logic is that? How can she be so brazen? In all of Huaxia, you’re probably the only one who thinks like that,” Liang Ruoxu said.

“But let me tell you in advance. My grandfather told me before that there would be a big shot coming over. He is probably Director Wu. He didn’t mention that this little girl Chen Yan would also be tagging along. She’s the best at nitpicking things.”

“She knows Huaxian medicine?”

“She is a first year doctoral student from Yanjing University’s School of Traditional Huaxian Medicine and Pharmacy.”

“What the f*ck? From the looks of it, she doesn’t seem to be studying traditional Huaxian medicine.”

“What do you think of her now?”

“Ask her to give me cupping therapy when she has the time.”

Liang Ruoxu, “...”

The group of people soon arrived at the CDC conference room.

At this moment, there were more than ten people sitting in the conference room. All of them had white hair. Among them was a familiar face, Zhao Dongmei.

Seeing Liang Ruoxu and Wu Daoliang enter, everyone present stood up and greeted them.

Liang Ruoxu's identity might not be much, but in the field of traditional Huaxian medicine, Wu Daoliang was the person who stood at the top of the pyramid. Even Zhao Dongmei had to address him as Director Wu.

After a simple self-introduction, everyone took their seats. Liang Ruoxu said,

"Today's meeting is mainly to discuss some matters. I hope that everyone can express their opinions and give a few new prescriptions for guidance. We are trying to develop a patented Huaxian medicine that can replace imported drugs as soon as possible."

In reality, today's meeting was to discuss the clinical possibilities of new drugs.

However, Liang Ruoxu was smart enough to change the topic secretly. She didn't need to do much to cover up for Lin Yi.

"Okay, okay, okay..."

Everyone nodded in agreement. They were smart enough to see through Liang Ruoxu's intentions.

This was a formal meeting. The theme was for everyone to put their best foot forward. Thus, there was no need to be so calculative.

The process had to go smoothly, and the ending had to be a happy one too. It was that simple.

The meeting started, and the atmosphere was much better than the previous day's negotiation.

At the same time, a prescription appeared on the big screen. It was the proprietary Huaxian medicine that could replace ibuprofen.

"Mr. Lin, I want to know the origin of this prescription. Can you give me and the other experts a clear and reasonable explanation?"

Chen Yan was the first to ask the question. She wasn't as quirky as before and was very serious.

"The Pharmacopoeia of Internal Medicine."

Chen Yan's serious expression not something Lin Yi expected. It seemed like it would be a little difficult to deal with her.

Liang Ruoxu sat at the side peacefully. If Chen Yan didn't come, today's meeting would just be a formality.

However, since she had come here, Lin Yi had to think of a way to deal with it.

She wasn't as obedient as the other experts.

"But the Pharmacopoeia of Internal Medicine has been long lost, and there's only a small portion of it left. Where did you get it from?"

"It was passed down by my grandfather, and I can't explain it in detail. If you really have any questions about it, I'll get him to talk to you tonight," Lin Yi said.

“Then why don’t you get him to come here now? Since all the experts are here, it’ll be convenient to discuss the matter.”

“It’s not appropriate for him to come here now.”

“Why is it not appropriate? Are you lying? I hope Mr. Lin will be more serious about this matter. This is not a child’s play.”

Chen Yan was very aggressive, clearly separating her work from her personal life.

Liang Ruoxu’s expression was bitter as he cursed in his heart, “Wait until the meeting is over, I’ll teach you a lesson!”

“There’s no need to lie about such a trivial matter. My grandfather has been dead for more than thirty years, so it won’t be appropriate to invite him out in broad daylight,” Lin Yi said.

“Besides, he’ll have to ask for a leave of absence if he comes out at this time. KPI’s are becoming increasingly popular in the underworld now, so let’s wait until he gets off work at night.”

Chapter 425: Four Taels for Ten Thousand Catties

Ugh..

Everyone in the conference room tried their best to hold back their laughter.

The person Mayor Liang brought here was really different from the rest.

It was obvious that Chen Yan had never met such an unconventional person before.

She was at a loss for words.

Liang Ruoxu was pleased with himself. She felt that her earlier worries were a little unnecessary.

Even someone like Zhao Wen became docile and obedient when facing Lin Yi. This little girl was lightyears behind.

“Cough cough cough...”

Chen Yan pretended to be calm as she coughed. “Mr. Lin, I think we should be more serious. Please answer my question.”

“The so-called lost legacy isn’t something that I can conjure out of thin air. You’re basically asking me to produce something out of nothing.” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Moreover, this question isn’t the key to this meeting. There’s no need to focus on it.”

Lin Yi’s answer made Chen Yan even more helpless.

‘Is he teasing me again?’

‘Is my B cup not good enough after you’ve seen Sis Mi Li’s D cup?’

‘Two D’s are needed to form a B, so don’t try to deny my attractiveness!’

Even so, the aura given off by this handsome ruffian was simply irresistible.

Soon, Chen Yan calmed down. She put the lustful thoughts aside for now.

“There’s a total of nine common herbs and 17 precious herbs listed on this prescription. This kind of arrangement has never been seen before in traditional Huaxian medicine,” Chen Yan said.

“Its performance in the lab may be up to expectations, but going from the lab to the clinic is a very important process. Can you ensure that your prescription is really fine?”

Lin Yi shook his head. Liang Ruoxu’s sharp senses detected this small movement.

He was ready to fight back.

“In truth, I think that all research is unnecessary when it’s differentiated from practice,” Lin Yi said.

“You said that this prescription has never appeared in orthodox Huaxian medical treatment, but this isn’t a problem with the prescription, it’s a problem with your way of thinking.”

“What’s do you mean?”

“What’s orthodox? What’s unorthodox? Is what’s written according to the script orthodox? Is personal research very orthodox? I think there’s a problem with this line of argument,” Lin Yi said.

“Everyone says that traditional Huaxian medicine is broad and profound, but in my opinion, the current research of traditional Huaxian medicine is currently very biased. It is totally inseparable from Huaxian conservatism.

“Looking back at the recent development of modern medicine, we can see that is a dark history filled with blood and tears. Without any anesthetics, tooth extraction, punctures, craniotomy, and amputations were all performed. It is not an exaggeration to say that the development of modern medicine is made out of corpses, while our traditional Huaxian medicine has become a kind of healthcare therapy. This is the tragedy of traditional Huaxian medicine

“You doubt the origin of this prescription and its safety. This is a trait that both medical and scientific researchers must have, but the best way to resolve doubts is through practice and experimentation. Formal pursuits are useless in the face of this issue.

“There’s no way out if we stick to the rules. I hope this proprietary Huaxian medicine will enter the clinical stage as soon as possible and prove itself with data. Otherwise, it’ll be useless no matter how much I say.”

Lin Yi stood up with a cold face and walked out of the meeting room.

He had finished bragging and venting.

Seeing Lin Yi leave, Liang Ruoxu followed him out, confused. This meeting was a little strange!

Even though Lin Yi had said so much, she didn’t understand what he was saying.

Even so, everyone in the meeting room, including Chen Yan, was deep in thought.

Lin Yi’s last sentence was undoubtedly a serious warning to them.

There's no way out if they stick to the rules.

Huaxian medicine had been around for so many years. Was it going downhill?

They didn't dare to answer since the answer would be painful.

"Lin Yi, why are you leaving?"

At the stairs, Liang Ruoxu pulled Lin Yi aside.

"I'm done bragging, so of course, I have to leave."

"At least talk a little more. This is a necessary procedure."

"You don't understand, do you? Posturing is also about propriety and skill. It's like stir-frying vegetables. You have to control the heat properly. Otherwise, you'll either get raw or overcooked food," Lin Yi said.

"Just like you, this height and weight is a perfect combination of curves and bones. A little more or a little less wouldn't do."

"Why are you talking about me again? I was talking to you about the meeting."

She said that, but Liang Ruoxu was still very happy after being praised by Lin Yi.

"Actually, that had gone perfectly. If I said any more, that little girl Chen Yan would have overreacted," Lin Yi gestured and said.

"Why don't I just give them four taels of ten thousand catties and make them all confused? That way, I'll seem even more mysterious."

"Four taels of ten thousand catties?"

"Yeah, with Chen Yan's size, she'll only be four taels of flesh at most, while the golden cudgel weighs exactly ten thousand catties."

"Can you be more serious and have some respect for my identity? I'm begging you."

"You don't have to worry about anything else. Just watch the results." Lin Yi chuckled.

"Didn't you notice that I fooled even Wu Daoliang? I'm very satisfied with my performance just now."

It was a formal meeting, so naturally, Liang Ruoxu wouldn't say anything. He just didn't know whether to laugh or cry at Lin Yi's actions.

"Everyone in the meeting room is a big shot in Huaxian medicine. I suspect they weren't used to your way of speaking, but they won't remain silent when they return to their senses."

At that moment, the people in the meeting room came out one after another.

The person in the lead was Dao Liang Wu.

"Mr. Lin, listening to your words is equal to ten years of academic study. Your words just now have pierced through the glass ceiling that has been restricting the development of Huaxian medicine for so many years. Although I'm a few decades older than you, I've learned a lot from you."

Liang Ruoxu, “???”

Lin Yi, “???”

‘I was just bragging. I didn’t do anything. What you said was too much.

‘Even if you are just trying to suck up to Liang Ruoxu, this is too much, isn’t it?

Did you give in just because I was bragging?

What about the scholar’s code?

Why are you giving in so easily?

“Sis, my future brother-in-law is really something.”

Lin Yi was even more confused after hearing Chen Yan’s words.

Wu Daoliang could still be suspected of being a bootlicker, but Chen Yan definitely didn’t need to do the same.

Other than Wu Daoliang and Chen Yan, the other Chinese Medicine masters also expressed their gratitude toward Lin Yi.

Especially Zhao Dongmei, who grabbed Lin Yi’s hand excitedly. “Not bad, young man. Come to my house for dinner when you’re free.”

“Okay, okay...”

Lin Yi was confused.

What part of the speech had moved them?

He was so confused!

After sending off the participants, only Lin Yi and the others were left.

“Director Wu, I’ll be the host today. I’ll bring you guys to try some of Zhonghai’s special dishes to welcome you,” Liang Ruoxu said politely.

“Thank you for your kindness, Mayor Liang, but I have to return to Yanjing tomorrow because of work. I still have a bit of time now, so I have to use it to visit my old teacher. I can only apologize.”

“Since that’s the case, I won’t keep Director Wu here any longer.” Liang Ruoxu looked at Chen Yan.

“Come with me. I’ll take you out for a walk.”

“I have to follow Director Wu to visit Old Mr. Yan too. This is something that my father instructed me to do. I have to go.” Chen Yan chuckled. “But, sister, you have to wait for me. I want to go out to sea on a boat later. You can arrange this for me, right?”

Liang Ruoxu looked at her watch. “It’s three o’clock now. If you come back early, we can still go out and have some fun before dark.”

“No problem, wait for me.”

“Okay, go.”

After sending Chen Yan and Wu Daoliang away, Liang Ruoxu looked at Lin Yi. “Oh right, I forgot to tell you something. My secretary said that the six major pharmaceutical companies have already delivered the goods. It’s said that the first batch of medicine will arrive in Zhonghai tonight.”

“We’ll be fine as long as we proceed according to the plan. I estimate that about 60% of the goods will be delivered within three days. It won’t be good if you try to fabricate an excuse for them, so just tell them that there’s a problem with the goods and hold them all.”

Liang Ruoxu nodded. “Where are you going now?”

“To the hospital to see my lovely patient.”

“Are you free tonight? How about having dinner with Yanyan and I?”

“Sure. You can decide on the timing.”

Ring, ring, ring...

Just as Lin Yi was about to leave, his phone rang in his pocket. It was an unknown number.

“Who is this?” Lin Yi asked

“Doctor Lin, I’m the owner of Tianze Pharmacy at the entrance of Huashan Hospital. My name is Wang Guanghong. I’m wondering if you’re free tonight. I’d like to treat you to dinner.” Wang Guanghong said

“What do you want to have dinner with me for?” Lin Yi asked.

“Nothing much. I just have a business to discuss with you.” Liang Ruoxu said.

“Business to discuss with me? Sure, let’s discuss it then.” Lin Yi said.

“I’ve already booked Room 409 at the banquet hall next to the hospital at 5 pm.”

“Okay, I’ll be there on time.”

“Who called you? What’s happening tonight?” Liang Ruoxu asked after Lin Yi hung up.

Lin Yi smiled. “A boss from a big pharmacy came to talk to me about making a fortune. Don’t you think this is interesting?”

Chapter 426: I’m Glad That You Understand My Good Intentions

“Then, what identity are you going under?”

“I’m going as a cardiology surgeon and Li Chuhan’s assistant.”

Liang Ruoxu’s expression was serious. “A drugstore owner wants to talk to a doctor about making a fortune. This matter needs to be dealt with seriously.”

“Let’s go together tonight. I’m not used to eating alone with men, so you should accompany me.”

“Screw you.” Liang Ruoxu glared at Lin Yi cutely. “What do you mean by ‘accompany’?”

Lin Yi smiled. “If you can’t make it in time, you can invite Chen Yan. We can save a lot of money by freeloading on someone else’s meal.”

“Sure, I’ll ask her.”

After making an appointment, Lin Yi drove back to Huashan Hospital to prepare for the next day’s surgery with Li Chuhan.

Although Qiao Xin wasn’t qualified to be in the operating room, she was still very active. She prepared tools for Lin Yi and Li Chuhan, as well as fruits. She was very considerate.

Lin Yi felt pretty good about this girl who would occasionally take the initiative.

For Li Chuhan, a heart valve surgery wasn’t difficult.

The difficulty lay in the patient’s condition. As such, this surgery was not really dependent on her.

10% of the patient’s fate was in Li Chuhan’s hands, and the other 90% was in the hands of God.

“Lin Bro, why do I feel like the other three directors are looking at you strangely?” Qiao Xin whispered as she prepared the material.

“Are they?”

“Yes, yes.” Qiao Xin said.

“I feel like they looked at you as if you were their enemy in the morning, but now, the look in their eyes has changed. I don’t know why, but I just feel weird.”

“Generally speaking, it’s hard to predict the clinical manifestations of mental illness, so don’t pay attention to them.” Lin Yi held up the banana. “Come, let me feed you a banana.”

“Yes, eat it all.”

“Lin Bro, slow down, this banana is a little big. I Can’t eat it in one bite.”

“Then spit it out a little and take it slowly.”

Li Chuhan looked at the two of them speechlessly. “We’re supposed to be discussing the surgical plan. Both of you, be serious.”

“Eating a banana in public does paint a bad public image. We’ll have to find a place to eat it later.”

After settling the plan at hand, Li Chuhan brought Lin Yi, Qiao Xin, and the doctors from the other departments for a consultation.

As the supervisor, Li Chuhan had to be very conscientious.

Lin Yi received a call from Liang Ruoxu at 4:20 pm.

She told him that she’d picked up Chen Yan and arrived at the entrance of Huashan Hospital.

Lin Yi replied with an ‘OK’ emoji, then put away his phone and said to Li Chuhan,

“Boss, I have something to do tonight, I have to go now.”

“Alright then, leave all your work to Little Qiao. I’ll have her send it to you when the plan is confirmed.”

“Alright.”

Lin Yi took his clothes and left after saying goodbye.

Seeing Lin Yi leave so casually, the corners of Cao Jiawang’s mouth curled into a smile as he cursed in his heart,

‘Lin Yi, your good days are coming to an end!’

Lin Yi saw Liang Ruoxu’s car when they left the hospital. The three of them then met up.

“Future brother-in-law, what you said during the meeting just now was too good.” Chen Yan said.

“Actually, I felt very early on that the development of traditional Huaxian medicine had reached a bottleneck, but your words showed us a glimmer of hope. In reality, we were too conservative. We are now bravely taking the first step and are making bold attempts. I believe that in the near future, we will be able to make a breakthrough.”

“Hehe... I am very grateful that you can understand my good intentions.”

Liang Ruoxu was speechless.

What a crazy person.

A perfect match.

“Let me tell you, you can just say whatever you want here. However, when we return to Yanjing, you can’t just say whatever you want anymore.” Liang Ruoxu said.

“Lin Yi is my good friend. Our relationship isn’t what you think.”

“Sis, you’re trying to cover it up.” Chen Yan said with disdain.

“It’s been so many years, and the number of people in Yanjing that has been chasing after you has more than quadrupled. I’ve never seen you so close to anyone before, so don’t deny it.”

Liang Ruoxu understood Chen Yan’s personality. She probably wouldn’t listen to her no matter how hard she tried to explain it. Therefore, she decided to tolerate it as long as the latter didn’t run back and her grandfather about it.

She was just too gossipy.

“Brother-in-law, I heard that you’re going to meet the boss of a big pharmacy today?”

Lin Yi nodded. “He’s going to talk to me about making a fortune. I have to go over and see what’s going on.”

“Do you even need to think about it? It’s so obvious,” Chen Yan said.

“He’s obviously trying to rope you in, give you a commission, and have you recommend their exclusive medicine. I know all the tricks behind this.”

Chen Yan’s father was the head of the Central Medicine Bureau, and she’d heard about all the tricks used in the industry ever since she was a child.

She understood what was going on when she heard the title ‘pharmacy owner’.

Liang Ruoxu couldn’t help but laugh when she saw Chen Yan flaunting her life experience.

The six biggest pharmaceutical companies in the world were all being toyed with by Lin Yi.

You’re just a little girl, so what are you showing off for?

The three of them arrived at Room 409.

They pushed open the door and entered. There were more than a dozen dishes on the table, all of it good stuff. These dishes didn’t look cheap.

Wang Guanghong was a little chubby. He had short hair, a mole on his face, and a big beer belly. The tattoo on his arm was especially eye-catching.

Wang Guanghong was a little surprised to see Lin Yi bringing two women in.

However, judging from their looks and figures, these girls were absolutely top-notch. This guy was really lucky with women.

“Doctor Lin, who are these two?” Wang Guanghong asked.

“They’re my friends, not from the healthcare industry. We can talk about whatever we have. We don’t have to worry about them.”

Lin Yi’s words reassured Wang Guanghong.

“Alright, alright, alright. Let’s sit down and talk.”

Liang Ruoxu didn’t move. He sat quietly next to Lin Yi, wanting to hear what the two would talk about next, but Chen Yan didn’t care. She picked up her chopsticks and started eating.

“Doctor Lin, I’ve been around for so many years, and I don’t beat around the bush. Everyone in the circle knows how this place works, so I’ll be honest with you.”

“Sure, if you have something to say, just say it.”

Lin Yi picked up a piece of rib and handed it to Liang Ruoxu. “It looks pretty good.”

“It’s too greasy, I’m not eating it.”

Liang Ruoxu didn’t really think it was greasy, but she needed to put on some airs in front of outsiders. She didn’t like to be too casual.

“You’re so picky. More for me, then.”

Lin Yi put the ribs into his mouth and started eating with relish.

“These ribs are really good. The warmth is just right. They’re tender and not rock-hard. They’re almost as good as my stick.”

“Uh...”

Wang Guanghong sat awkwardly on the side, feeling embarrassed.

“Doctor Lin, are you listening to me?”

“Yes, but you didn’t say anything.”

“But you keep eating, how can I speak?”

“I’m eating with my mouth, not my ears. Do you think I can’t hear what you’re saying?”

Chapter 427: How Much Injustice There Is in the World

Liang Ruoxu was used to Lin Yi’s shameless mannerisms.

However, whether or not Wang Guanghong could handle it was up to him.

“Doctor Lin, if you’re not afraid that I’ll ruin your meal, then I’ll just say it.”

“I’m quite afraid.”

“Oh? Of what?”

“I’m afraid that you’ll ruin my meal.”

Wang Guanghong, “...”

“Eat first then. We’ll talk after.”

“Sure.”

Lin Yi didn’t stand on ceremony. He picked up a piece of rib and placed it on Chen Yan’s plate. “Your sister’s not eating since she’s on a diet. Try it. It tastes pretty good.”

“Thank you, Brother-in-Law.”

“The lotus seed soup over there is pretty good too. I’ve eaten their takeout before, and they’re pretty good too.”

“I’ll try it then.”

Liang Ruoxu didn’t know what to say when he saw the two of them enjoying themselves.

The two of them weren’t just here to eat today, were they?

Chen Yan, in particular. You’ve already eaten at the state banquet, but you’re eating with gusto here. She was really speechless when she saw this.

Half an hour later, Lin Yi and Chen Yan were full. The former patted her stomach with satisfaction, a toothpick in her mouth.

“Boss Wang, what did you want to talk to me about? Let’s continue.”

“Well, our Tianze Pharmacy has a batch of exclusive medicine. Dr. Lin, you’re an expert in cardiology. Can you think of a way to help me sell it?”

Wang Guanghong didn’t hide anything and revealed his purpose.

“But don’t worry, I won’t have you work for nothing. I’ll give you 20% of the profits after each sale. What do you think?”

“20%? Isn’t that a bit too little? Do you think I need that bit of money?” Lin Yi said with a smile.

Wang Guanghong frowned and changed his position. “How much do you want then?”

“I can accept 30%.”

“Doctor Lin, don’t joke around. If you take 30%, how am I supposed to eat?”

Wang Guanghong looked like he was being robbed as he said, “20% is already my bottom line, but if you can help me get rope in Li Chuhan as well, I’m willing to increase the cut to 23%. These are my conditions. Whether or not the cooperation will succeed depends on Mr. Lin’s stance.”

“Alright, deal,” Lin Yi said. “But how can I trust you with just empty words?”

“Don’t worry, Doctor Lin. I’ve been in the pharmacy industry for so many years. I’ll definitely be prepared.”

Wang Guanghong took out a handwritten agreement from his briefcase and handed it over to Lin Yi.

At the same time, Wang Guanghong also took out 20,000 yuan.

“Doctor Lin, as long as this agreement is signed, our cooperation will be official. Take this 20,000 yuan, and treat it as if I bought you cigarettes.”

“That’s good.”

Lin Yi put away the 20,000 yuan and signed his name on the agreement.

“There’s no problem now, right?”

“No problem!”

problem handed one of the documents to Lin Yi. “From now on, we’ll be partners. Happy partnership.”

“Now that we’ve signed this agreement, we’ll be protected by the law, right?”

Wang Guanghong’s face darkened.

Was this person really stupid or just pretending to be so?

Which law would dare to protect this?

“Doctor Lin, you’re too funny. The things we’re making are things that can’t be seen by the public eye. They’re illegal, and the law can’t allow them to be distributed.”

“Can’t be seen by the public eye? In that case, I’ll show you the light of the righteous first.”

“The light of the righteous?”

Lin Yi nudged Chen Yan with his elbow. “Stop eating, let’s get to work.”

“Oh, oh.”

Chen Yan wiped her mouth and looked at Wang Guanghong sternly. “Let me introduce myself first, my name is Chen Yan.”

“Young Lady, who you are has nothing to do with me, right?”

“Don’t jump the gun,” Chen Yan said. “You don’t know me, but you definitely know my dad.”

“Your dad? Why should I know your dad?”

“Because my dad is the head of the Drug Administration.”

Ah?!

Wang Guang Hong’s eyeballs almost fell to the ground. “Your dad is the head of the Drug Administration?”

“That’s right, do you know him?” Chen Yan held her chin with one hand and said with a smile.

“Don’t fool around. The head of the Drug Administration is Fu Bingsheng. I know him. Moreover, among the deputy bureau directors, there is no one with the surname Chen. Do you think you can fool me like this?!”

“You really haven’t seen the world.” Chen Yan said with disdain, “They are all local leaders. You need to look even further up.”

“Further up?”

“Yanjing?”

“The head of the Central Medicine Bureau, Chen Shunjie, is my father.”

Plop!

Wang Guang Hong collapsed to the ground. Even a fool knew that something was definitely going to happen to him!

Subconsciously, Wang Guang Hong looked at Liang Ruoxu. “Then who are you?!”

“The new deputy mayor of Zhonghai, Liang Ruoxu.”

Wang Guang Hong was completely dumbfounded. His face was pale and his body was trembling.

“You... you actually played me!”

Wang Guanghong could not understand how a small-time doctor could have relationships with such people.

“Actually, I just wanted to secretly make some money. But when you called me, Mayor Liang was by my side, so I was helpless. I was also very sad that I couldn’t end up making any money.”

“No, no... ...”

Wang Guanghong knelt on the ground and kowtowed. “I know I’m wrong. Please give me another chance. I’m willing to donate all the dirty money I made. Please give me a way out.”

Lin Yi’s expression didn’t change as he picked up a cucumber and chewed on it.

“I want to know how you got my phone number.”

“Your department director, Cao Jiawang, gave it to me,” Wang Guanghong said.

“Among the four directors of your department, apart from Li Chuhan, Cao Jiawang, Liu Yongsheng, and Fan Shufang, all signed an agreement with me. For every box of medicine they sell, I’ll give them a 20% commission. The doctors from the other departments in your hospital all also work with me.”

“What about the others?”

“Mr. Lin, the highest person I can get in touch with is someone at the director level. However, I can assure you that Zhao Jianwei is not clean either. He and Cao Jiawang are the same type of person. They are both greedy for money. You can investigate them later if you don’t believe me.”

Wang Guanghong’s voice was full of tears. He said everything he knew, hoping for leniency.

At the same time, he cursed the eighteen generations of direct and non-direct relatives of the Cao family in his heart.

If it wasn’t for him, he wouldn’t have ended up like this!

Lin Yi raised his head and glanced at Liang Ruoxu. “Take him back. Then, we’ll interrogate him slowly.”

“Okay, I’ll make the call now.”

Liang Ruoxu understood a lot of things when she saw Lin Yi’s gaze.

He would have dragged him to today’s meal even if he really didn’t want to come.

What he said just now revealed his true intentions.

It’s possible that what he wanted wasn’t to develop those so-called anti-import proprietary Huaxian medicine.

What he really wanted was to uncover all these dirty dealings to fix the industry from the inside out.

Chapter 428: An Especially Dazzling Reward

It didn’t take long for Liang Ruoxu to call for the relevant personnel to take Wang Guanghong away.

“Mr. Lin, this will ruin me.”

Lin Yi recalled all the stunts which nearly ended up killing the patients.

“As it should. Get out of here.”

However, just as the police were about to take Wang Guanghong away, Lin Yi said,

“Wait a minute, I just remembered something. He told me that he will pay for the meal when we got here, and he even let us eat our fill before he was taken away. It’s only right that he fulfills his promise.”
Lin Yi said.

Wang Guanghong praised Lin Yi with a smile. He was already in such a sorry state.

‘He’s asking me to pay for this meal?’

‘What twisted and depraved human being!’

Wang Guanghong was then taken away, leaving only Lin Yi, Liang Ruoxu, and Chen Yan in the room.

“They’re all gone, and there’s no one else here. Do you want to eat some?” Lin Yi asked.

“No.” Liang Ruoxu shook her head. “The two of you can finish it. I’m not eating, and I’m not that hungry.”

“What kind of person are you?” Lin Yi asked.

“Sis, since you’re not eating, let’s go out for a walk.”

Liang Ruoxu looked outside. “It’s already dark, and it’s not safe to go out to walk. Don’t go out today, but don’t leave tomorrow. I’ll take you out another day.”

“I’m afraid that won’t do. I still have lab experiments to conduct at school, and they’re waiting for me to go back and do them.”

“Let’s go. I’ll take you somewhere. I promise it’ll be more interesting than going out to sea.” Lin Yi said.

“Really? Where are we going?”

“Just come with me.”

Thirty minutes later...

The three then drove to Huaqing Lake.

Liang Ruoxu’s expression darkened. “The interesting place you’re talking about is a bathing center?”

“Don’t give me that look of disdain,” Lin Yi said.

“You don’t have the right to judge a place unless you’ve actually experienced it.”

Liang Ruoxu wasn’t interested in places like this. With her special status, it wasn’t appropriate for her to go to a place like this.

Chen Yan, on the other hand, was different. She was just an ordinary PhD student, so she didn't have to worry about anything.

"Brother-in-law, the cost of services at this place must not be cheap, right?"

"Don't worry about the money. I'll brought you here today to experience what it means to live in a socialist society."

"Wait, Brother-in-Law, why are there suddenly so many security guards around? They seem to be coming for us."

"They're coming for us."

"Why? Wasmy sister's identity exposed?"

"No, it's because I'm an Imperial member here."

"Welcome, Director Lin!"

Liang Ruoxu, "..."

(Two hours later...)

Liang Ruoxu, who had been waiting in the car, finished all her pending work via her phone.

She looked at her watch and found that more than two hours had passed.

"What's wrong with these two people? Have they not come out yet?"

Holding her phone, Liang Ruoxu dialed Chen Yan's number.

"What are you two doing? What time is it? You're still not done yet?"

"Sister, it's too comfortable here. Brother-in-Law and I just finished soaking in the hot spring. We'll be going for a second round later. We won't be going home tonight. You should go home first."

"Not going home?!"

"Why don't you come in too?" Chen Yan said.

"Sis, you don't know. Brother-in-Law came here with so many cards up his sleeve. They're treating us like we're their ancestors."

"I'm impressed." Liang Ruoxu said. "I'm just telling you to make sure you go home before 12."

"Uh... okay."

Liang Ruoxu was speechless. It was one thing for a man to like these places, but why was Chen Yan in love with it too? Seriously.

Lin Yi and Chen Yan walked out of the Huaqing Lake at around 10:00 pm.

They arrived at Liang Ruoxu's house after stopping for some BBQ. They drank until they were in a daze after grilling the kidney and skewers.

Liang Ruoxu's house was simple and exquisite. He felt like he was about to break down when he saw the two of them reeking of alcohol.

"You two went drinking?"

"Yeah, I was a little hungry after the bath, so I stopped for a drink," Chen Yan said excitedly.

"Sis, you don't know. After soaking in the hot spring, I had a Thai massage. It was so comfortable."

"I really have to hand it to you two."

Liang Ruoxu welcomed them in and said to Lin Yi, "You drank too, so don't leave today. Stay here."

Liang Ruoxu's words were polite, but her voice was quite firm.

She wasn't give Lin Yi the chance to refuse.

"Alright."

After some quick tidying up, Liang Ruoxu and Chen Yan went to the master bedroom, while Lin Yi went to the guest bedroom.

Lin Yi's eyes were glued to the time on his phone.

It wasn't until the hour, minute, and second hand overlapped at 12 o'clock that the anticipation in his eyes finally peaked.

[New Class Opening (Yes/No)]

[Job class: Self-Employed Shopkeeper.]

[Job Completion: 0%.]

[Host, please receive a big gift pack for your job, 10 million yuan, and a fashion tricycle.]

Ugh...

Seeing the next class he was about to experience...

Lin Yi couldn't calm himself down for a long time.

Self-employed shopkeepers weren't a big deal. It was a very normal class.

It wasn't a big deal for him to get a cash reward of 10 million yuan either. It was the system's standard reward.

However, what caught him eye was this fashionable tricycle

It was a tricycle, so how could you claim it was fashionable?!

No matter how fashionable it looked, it was still a tricycle!

...

Because Chen Yan was here, Liang Ruoxu, who rarely woke up early, was the first to get up. She made a western style breakfast. It was simple and easy to make, but was barely edible.

Lin Yi drove to the hospital after the meal, while Liang Ruoxu was in charge of driving Chen Yan to the airport.

“Brother-in-Law, when are you going to Yanjing to play? Let me do my part as a host,” Chen Yan said before she left.

“That’s hard to say, but I’ll go when I have time,” Lin Yi said perfunctorily.

“Alright then, let’s make a deal,” Chen Yan said. “There are many bathing centers around the size of Huaqing Lake in Yanjing. We’ll go together then. I don’t dare to go alone.”

“Okay.”

“You two are more or less the same. You really know how to embarrass yourself, huh? I really have to hand it to the two of you.”

Liang Ruoxu ridiculed them and left with Chen Yan.

...

Huashan Hospital, Deputy Director’s office.

Cao Jiawang lit up a cigarette and sat on the sofa in his office.

“Since you all came to my office to smoke, it must mean you are in a good mood.”

Zhao Jianwei wasn’t as serious as he usually was because there were no outsiders here and they had a close personal relationship.

“I came today to tell you some good news.” Cao Jiawang said with a smile.

“What’s the matter? Why are you so happy?”

“Didn’t you say yesterday that you wanted to transfer Lin Yi to the emergency department and slowly marginalize him?”

“Yeah, I’ve already prepared the documents. I’ll have the personnel send it over after I sign them.”

“No need. I have a way to get Lin Yi out of here, and it’s already done.”

“Huh? How? Tell me quickly,” Zhao Jianwei said.

“Wang Guanghong from Tianze Pharmacy contacted Lin Yi, and he went to meet him.” Cao Jiawang crossed his legs and said.

“I called Wang Guanghong last night. He told me clearly that he took Lin Yi down. They even signed an agreement and he sent the photos to me. Do you think that’s enough to get him kicked out?”

Chapter 429: Law Enforcement by Fishing

Zhao Jianwei's eyes lit up. "You even signed an agreement? What's written on it? Let me take a look."

"I'll send it to you on WeChat later."

Cao Jiawang took out his phone and sent the photo that Wang Guanghong had sent over to Zhao Jianwei.

Looking at the contents of the agreement, Zhao Jianwei couldn't stop smiling.

"Doesn't he know that this kind of thing should never be documented? He actually signed an agreement. Isn't he jumping into the fire pit himself? Forget firing him, if we hit him when he's down, he'll probably even be hit with a criminal sentence."

Cao Jiawang laughed out loud.

"He usually looks quite smart, but I didn't expect him to be an idiot. Now that we have this in our hands, we can directly ask the security department to take him away."

"It would be meaningless to call it the security department over something so interesting." Zhao Jianwei held onto his phone with a cigarette in his mouth.

"I'll call the police now and get the police to come and take him away. I want everyone to know about this. Then, I'll use him as a negative example and publicize it to the entire hospital. I want his reputation to be ruined so that he won't be able to make a comeback for the rest of his life!"

"Brother Zhao, no wonder you could become the vice president. You're indeed better than me."

"Alright, stop flattering me. We are already close enough." Zhao Jianwei said.

"Call Lin Yi over. The police will take him away later."

"No problem."

The two of them split up. Cao Jiawang took out his phone and called the cardiology department. The person who picked up was Liu Yongsheng, who he then asked to inform Lin Yi to come to Zhao Jianwei's office.

Ten minutes later, the office door was pushed open and Lin Yi walked in.

"President Zhao, were you looking for me?"

After entering the office, Lin Yi sat on the sofa and said casually.

Zhao Jianwei looked at Lin Yi with a smile.

"Doctor Lin, don't you want to say anything to me about your actions?"

"Really? You already know?" Lin Yi was surprised.

"That's right. I already learned of what you did yesterday, and I have enough evidence. I hope you won't argue with me. Admit your crimes quickly and fight for leniency."

"I don't think so. Is this related to a crime?"

“Don’t you know what you’ve done?”

“I just went to the bathing house and got a really good massage. This kind of thing shouldn’t be illegal, right?”

“What did you say? You went to a bathing house?”

“That’s right. Huaqing Lake, Technician No. 18. Her technique is very good, but I heard that she’s getting married and is going back to her hometown to start a family in the future. I probably won’t be able to see him in the future. If President Zhao and Director Cao want to experience her technique, hurry up. Don’t say that I didn’t warn you.”

BANG!

Zhao Jianwei slammed the table, “Lin Yi, you’re still trying to act crazy at a time like this? Do you think it’s appropriate?!”

“I’m telling the truth. Why would I be pretending to be crazy?”

Lin Yi touched his pocket. “The receipt is still here. Take a look if you don’t believe me.”

“That’s not what I’m talking about!”

“Then what are you talking about?”

“Yesterday at five o’clock in the afternoon at Huayan Restaurant, you secretly met with the boss of Tianze Pharmacy, Wang Guanghong, and even signed an agreement to sell his medicine. Do you care about the hospital’s rules and regulations? A person like you is not worthy of being a doctor at Huashan Hospital!”

“No way. You all know of this secret? I haven’t even soldbox of medicine.”

“Let me tell you, this is karma. Even the heavens can’t stand what you’ve done, so they asked us to deal with you.”

“Don’t slander me. This move is too despicable.”

“Hehe...”

Zhao Jianwei sneered, “Do you think that I would dare to speak to you without sufficient evidence?”

Zhao Jianwei pushed his phone in front of Lin Yi. On it was the agreement he signed with Wang Guanghong the day before.

Lin Yi was a little suspicious. Where did this photo come from?

They had just signed the agreement yesterday and Wang Guanghong had been arrested. Who had sent them the photos?

Could it be a trap?

Judging from the current situation, it was indeed possible.

“Lin Yi, don’t blame us for being heartless. What you did is taboo in the hospital. I can’t protect you, so just accept your fate,” Cao Jiawang said with a smile.

“That’s a pity. We won’t have the chance to be colleagues in the future.”

“There’s nothing to pity because I don’t want to be colleagues with someone like you at all.”

“What’s the point...”

Crack—

Before Lin Yi could finish, the office door was pushed open and four police officers walked in.

The head policeman looked at Zhao Jianwei and Cao Jiawang.

“You must be Zhao Jianwei, the vice president of the administrative department of Huashan Hospital, and Cao Jiawang, the director of the cardiology department.”

“That’s right, that’s us.”

Zhao Jianwei stood up and walked over from behind his desk. He stood beside the policeman and pointed at Lin Yi.

“Comrade, this person is Lin Yi. He colluded with the boss of the pharmacy outside and recommends certain medicine for a commission. This has breached the rules and regulations of our hospital. Please deal with him strictly and use him as a negative example to warn the other medical staff.”

The head policeman glanced at Zhao Jianwei.

“The alarm bell has been sounded, but the person in the wrong here is not him, but you.”

The head policeman waved his hand. “Arrest the two of them!”

Zhao Jianwei and Cao Jiawang were dumbfounded. Neither of them knew what was going on.

“Comrade, the person who committed the crime is Lin Yi. Why are you arresting us?”

“Don’t you know what you’ve done? Do you want me to list it for you?”

Their hearts were pounding.

They clearly knew that they were not clean.

However, they never let outsiders know about their deals. What evidence did they have to arrest them?

“Officer, I’m the vice president of Huashan Hospital. I hope you can give me an explanation because you have no right to arrest me!”

“I knew you’d say that. That’s why we brought something.”

The lead policeman took out a piece of paper. “This is an arrest warrant personally approved by the mayor. Now, what else do you have to say?”

Looking at the arrest warrant, Zhao Jianwei’s head buzzed. How did this matter even reach the mayor?

“Can you tell me what happened before you arrest us?” Zhao Jianwei calmly asked.

He needed to figure out what was going on before contacting his connections and apologizing.

“It’s simple. The boss of the Tianze Pharmacy, Wang Guanghong, has been arrested. As for your private transaction, you should know it better than me, right?” The male officer looked at Zhao Jianwei.

“Although Wang Guanghong mainly exposed Cao Jiawang, Liu Yongsheng, and Fan Shufang, we also know a lot about your secret dealings, so stop quibbling and come with us quickly.”

“That’s impossible. I was on the phone with Wang Guanghong last night. How could something have happened to him since then?”

“At that time, he was already arrested. I was there when you guys were on the phone. Moreover, I was the one who took the photo and sent you the agreement. You should understand what happened now, right?”

“No, that’s impossible...” Cao Jiawang widened his eyes as if he was dumbfounded.

“We admit that we’re not clean, but the same goes for Lin Yi. He already signed the agreement. Why aren’t you arresting him?”

“When he met with Wang Guanghong yesterday, Mr. Lin cooperated with us to put on a show. Do you still have any further questions?”

Chapter 430: Let’s Go, I’ll Feed You

“It was actually an act!”

Both of their expressions collapsed as they completely understood what was going on.

This was an out-and-out conspiracy!

A plot to get them killed!

“Lin Yi, how could you do such a thing? You’ll die a horrible death!” Zhao Jianwei gritted his teeth.

“Over the years, there have been at least eight hundred people who cursed me. However, I’m still alive and well, aren’t I?” Lin Yi sighed.

“What a pity. I’ve only been here for a week and I’m already saying goodbye to you guys. Tsk, tsk, tsk. I really can’t bear to part with you.”

“You!”

“Alright, cut the crap. Come with us!”

With that, the head police officer looked at Lin Yi politely and said,

“Mr. Lin, thank you for your cooperation.”

“There’s no need to be so polite. This is what I ought to do,” Lin Yi said.

“Hey, shouldn’t you deal with Liu Yongsheng and Fan Shufang too?”

“Yes, we’ll go over now.”

“Then what are we waiting for? Let’s go together.”

“Okay, okay, okay. We’ll go over now!”

...

Inpatient Department Eight, cardiology department.

Because there was a surgery taking place in the afternoon, Li Chuhan and Qiao Xin were both busy the entire morning. Even the time for their toilet breaks had to be cut short.

“Where did Brother Lin go? Why did he disappear so suddenly?” Qiao Xin asked.

Because Lin Yi was supposed to be the assistant surgeon for the surgery in the afternoon, if he didn’t come back soon, they would have to change doctors at the last minute.

“Haha, Director Li, don’t wait for Lin Yi. It’s very likely that he won’t come back,” Liu Yongsheng said with a smile at the other desk, looking like he was gloating.

“Why can’t he come back? What do you mean?”

“Looks like you’ve been kept in the dark, Director Li. Then I have to tell you what happened.”

Sensing that something was amiss, Qiao Xin pricked her ears, wanting to know what had happened.

“Do you remember yesterday afternoon, at around five o’clock, Lin Yi applied for leave from you and left early?”

“I remember.”

“Actually, he went to see the boss of Tianze Pharmacy last night. As for what happened, he probably won’t reveal too much. I reckon that he should have been arrested by now. You should quickly replace him for the surgery in the afternoon. Otherwise, the whole thing will be delayed.”

“That’s impossible.”

Li Chuhan was still writing the medical records, and the pen in her hand did not stop.

“Lin Yi doesn’t lack that bit of money. Your argument doesn’t make sense.”

Li Chuhan knew Lin Yi’s situation very well. Zhonghai International Racetrack was his, and he had a hypercar worth more than 60 million yuan.

People like him came to work in the hospital to satisfy their curiosity.

The commission from the pharmacy was not even enough for him to wipe his *ss.

“Director Li, I know you have a good relationship with Lin Yi, but it’s the truth. Otherwise, there’s no reason why he would not come back after so long. He must have been taken away.”

Qiao Xin was so anxious that she couldn’t sit still. For a moment, she didn’t know who to listen to.

She was not even in the mood to eat the bananas on the table.

“Go on with your work. Don’t listen to them.”

Although she did not know what had happened, Li Chuhan didn’t believe that Lin Yi would pursue that tiny bit of commission.

It was almost laughable.

“Got it, Director Li,” Qiao Xin said. “I also believe that Brother Lin wouldn’t do that.”

“Little Qiao, you’re good at everything, but you’re too innocent.” Zhou Ziqiang said.

“Don’t be fooled by Lin Yi’s actions. Who knows what he’s doing in the dark? You don’t have to wait for him for the surgery in the afternoon. He definitely won’t come back. You might even be implicated by him when he is forced to make a statement.”

“Brother Lin!”

Just as Qiao Xin was feeling down, she was surprised to see Lin Yi walk in.

“Why are you so excited? You’re acting like you just saw a ghost.”

“Lin... Lin Yi, why are you back?”

“What are you talking about? Isn’t this the cardiovascular department? If I don’t come here, where else should I go?”

“Shouldn’t you—”

Just as Liu Yongsheng was at a loss for words, he saw Zhao Jianwei, Cao Jiawang, and a few police officers walking in.

Seeing the police following the two of them, Liu Yongsheng smiled.

“Look, what did I say? The police are here. They must be here to arrest Lin Yi.”

The leading policeman glanced at Liu Yongsheng and Fan Zhufang and said,

“You two must be Liu Yongsheng and Fan Shufang.”

“We are.”

“That’s good.” The leading police officer looked at his colleagues behind him. “Take these two people away.”

“Huh?”

The two of them were stunned. “Officer, we didn’t do anything wrong. Why are you arresting us?”

“Why do you think we’re arresting you?”

“What! President Zhao and Director Cao have been arrested!”

The two of them avoided eye contact and were too ashamed to look at the others in the department.

“That’s right. The two of them have already been arrested. Don’t pretend to be innocent. You know what you’ve done. Come with us.”

The entire department was in an uproar.

A vice president, a department director, and two deputy directors had actually been arrested!

Wasn’t this news a little too explosive?

Didn’t this mean that Director Li was the only one left in the entire cardiology department?

“Officer, there’s another one over there. His name is Zhou Ziqiang, Cao Jiawang’s nephew,” Lin Yi introduced.

“Nephew.” The leading male police officer carefully observed Zhou Ziqiang.

Mr. Lin was implying something!

“Let’s bring him back for investigation.”

Zhou Ziqiang was dumbfounded. This matter had nothing to do with him. Why were they arresting him?!

“Officer, don’t listen to his nonsense. We have nothing to do with each other. I’m not his nephew, and he’s not my uncle. You have to be observant and not listen to his nonsense!”

“I don’t know if it’s nonsense, but you have to know that lying to a public official and withholding information is an additional offense.”

Thump—

Zhou Ziqiang slumped to the ground with lifeless eyes. Even if he had done nothing wrong in this regard, it would be impossible for him to return to Huashan Hospital after he was taken away.

Under the gazes of the physicians and nurses, Zhao Jianwei and the Cao family were brought away.

Some of them might not be held criminally responsible, but with such a criminal record, it would be impossible for them to return to being doctors in the future.

Everyone vaguely guessed that there might be a new move from the higher-ups. Otherwise, things would not have turned out like this.

“Director Miao asked me to go over. The two of you can go back to the department and organize the materials for the surgery in the afternoon.”

“No problem,” Lin Yi said, “Xinxin, let’s go. I’ll feed you some bananas.”

“Uh-uh.”

“Doctor Lin, we want to eat bananas too. You can feed us too,” the young nurse teased.

Lin Yi had some impression of her. Her name was Yuan Siqi.

“If you want to eat bananas, you have to bring them yourself.”

“Do we still need to bring it ourselves? Doctor Lin has one, right?”