Chapter 071: So You Like the Small Ones

"Alright, my dear, don't ask him anymore."

Xu Yan said, "Everything Lin Yi knows is from the Internet, and he hasn't done it himself. There's no basis for what he says. I think the Land Rover is pretty good. It looks so domineering."

"Hehe, you're right. Let's go take a look later. If there's a car available, I'll buy it all."

"Mhmm."

Ji Qingyan shook her head. These people were really something.

Inside the exhibition hall were all kinds of luxury cars.

There were dozens of luxury cars worth tens of millions. This point alone was enough to prove that the rich people of Yangcheng were not inferior.

"Dear, the Land Rover exhibition hall seems to be in area B. Let's go there," said Xu Yan.

"Area B sells domestic cars. Let's not go there."

"Aren't Land Rovers made in China? If we don't go there, where else are we supposed to buy them?"

"In our circle, we don't drive domestic cars, so we have to buy imported ones," said Zhou Ning with a smile.

"But imported land rovers are hundreds of thousands of dollars more expensive than domestic ones. Moreover, the appearance is almost the same. There's no need to spend that money, right?"

Zhou Ning put his arm around Xu Yan's shoulder and said with a smile,

"Although they look the same, the interior is vastly different. If in the future, when your friends see you and drive a Land Rover made in China, won't they laugh at you? As a man, I can't let others laugh at my woman."

"Hehe, my dear, you're so good to me."

Zhou Ning looked at Ji Qingyan, unintentionally or not. A smart woman like her would definitely understand his words.

So many hints had already been given out. If she still didn't know what to choose, then she had to be out of her mind.

"You're my woman. If I'm not good to you, who should I be good to?" Zhou Ning said while looking at Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan.

"Guys, let's go for a walk together."

"Forget it, let's go look at the other cars," Lin Yi said.

“Yo, sorry I forgot,” Zhou Ning said with a smile. “Our goals are different. I think you guys are going to the local area to look at cars.”

Lin Yi shook his head. “Let’s go to Area C.”

“Area C?”

Zhou Ning and Xu Yan looked at the exhibition hall in Area C not far away and smiled.

“Brother Lin, Area C sells trucks and buses. Are you sure you want to go there?”

“Can’t we buy them?”

“Yes, you can.” Zhou Ning smiled. “Those tools are pretty good. If you buy a truck, you can probably earn more than by driving Didi. I have to say, Brother Lin, you have good business sense.”

Lin Yi ignored Zhou Ning and walked toward Area C along with Ji Qingyan.

“It was not a good idea to come out with you,” Lin Yi said.

“What do you mean it was not a good idea to come out with me? I didn’t do anything.”

“These people nowadays want to show off when they see a beauty. They’re dragging me down to their level,” Lin Yi said.

“You can’t blame me for that.” Ji Qingyan said happily. “Think about it. If it were Jack Ma, would other men be jealous if he had a beauty standing beside him?”

“You make it sound like you’re saying that I’m not capable enough.”

“I didn’t say that. You said it yourself.”

“You little brat!”

Lin Yi grabbed onto Ji Qingyan’s waist, giving her a fright.

“What are you doing? There are so many people here.”

“I may need to act a little more pretentious, but even so, I can still hug a beauty like you, but they can’t. Aren’t you angry?”

“Don’t flatter yourself.”

Ji Qingyan snapped, but she didn’t stop him.

“What kind of car do you want to buy? Do you have any ideas?” Ji Qingyan asked when they reached Area C.

“I want to buy two buses. There are more than forty children in the orphanage. If I bring them out to play, two buses should be enough to seat all of them.” Lin Yi said after thinking for a while.

“Then I’ll buy a pickup truck which they’ll use when they buy groceries. I’ll also buy them a scooter, which we’ll have to go to Area A for.”

“Sure, go ahead. I don’t know anything about this.”

Lin Yi looked around and found that Area C was a mixed area.

Both domestic and imported cars were displayed here, and it looked like they were categorized by type.

All trucks, trucks, buses, and other vehicles were displayed here, regardless of whether they were made in China or imported.

Other than the booths of the major brands, there were also the booths of Petrochina and Sinopec.

Naturally, they didn't come here to sell cars, but mainly to sell fuel cards.

This was because the cars on display here had very large tanks, and they would use fuel cards when refuelling.

If they could form a partnership with a company, they would be able to sell a lot of cars.

"Lin Yi, look at that car. The tires are so high, they're almost reaching my waist."

Lin Yi saw the car that she was referring to and realized that it was a BILT 389. It was no wonder that she would make such a fuss over such a huge thing.

"That car was the inspiration for a transformer. It's a gas guzzler. No one in the country would buy such a car."

"Oh, but it looks so cool."

"I'll give you one if you like it." Lin Yi said with a smile.

1

"No."

Ji Qingyan shook her head. "I probably won't be able to climb up one of these. It's too big."

"Isn't it better to be bigger? Don't you like bigger things?"

"I don't. It's more comfortable to be smaller."

"Oh, so you like smaller ones."

After walking around, Lin Yi locked onto a bus. This was the purpose of his trip.

"My God, this Yangcheng Auto Show is too luxurious. It even has a Mercedes-benz S351DT?"

At this time, many people were gathered around a purple-black bus.

Compared to ordinary buses, this S351DT was definitely the most eye-catching behemoth.

The two-story design, coupled with the Mercedes-benz logo, made the S351DT and the BILT 389 the most eye-catching and luxurious vehicles in Area C's exhibition hall.

"The price is 4.9 million. Which company would buy this kind of car?"

"These cars aren't sold to companies. They're usually used by higher-ups. Of course, Dubai's rich are an exception to this rule."

“You’re right. No wonder those salespeople didn’t even look at us. It turns out that they’re not targeting us.”

When he saw the S351DT’s design, Lin Yi felt that it wasn’t bad. This two-story design could accommodate more people. If that was the case, buying one would be enough.

“How much is this car?”

Lin Yi asked as he walked up to a male salesman.

The male salesman raised his head and saw Ji Qingyan standing beside him.

He was shocked. This was too good!

“4.9 million,” the male salesman said.

“I want to ask, what are the specific parameters and functions of this car?”

A bus worth 4.9 million yuan was already considered a sky-high price. If it did not have some special functions, it would not be able to sell for such a price.

The male salesman threw a manual over and said indifferently,

“Read it yourself. I’m busy right now. I don’t have time to talk about this with you.”

Chapter 072: I’ll Take Your Gas Card

“Hm? Look at it myself?”

Lin Yi said, “Isn’t that what you guys do? Isn’t it your job to introduce cars to us?”

“But I’m busy right now, I don’t have time to introduce it to you,” the salesman said. “If you want to buy it, you can look at it yourself.”

“If you want me to look at it myself, why do we need you around?”

“People who want to buy it wouldn’t ask these boring questions, so don’t waste my time, okay?”

“What kind of attitude is that?”

Lin Yi threw away the booklet in his hand and turned around to leave with Ji Qingyan.

“Bro, calm down. These salespeople are just like that. There have been a few waves of people leaving today,” the passerby said.

“That’s normal. No one would buy a car like this. The ones who really need it are the people behind the scenes who reserve it beforehand. There wouldn’t be any random customers buying it.”

“This young man is too much. He obviously wouldn’t buy it, so why did he ask? He’s obviously just looking for trouble.”

“Why are you leaving?”

Ji Qingyan was unhappy. “We’re here to spend money. Why are they still acting so high and mighty?”

"If a dog bites me, can I bite it back? There are so many cars here, so let's just look at the others," Lin Yi said.

"Bro, your realm is still higher."

The person who spoke was next to the Mercedes-Benz exhibition area and was wearing a PetroChina uniform.

"These f*cking people have been fighting for so long."

"What ended up happening?" Lin Yi asked with a smile.

"What else could they do? They started discussing but ended up leaving because they really couldn't afford it. I was just asking for the price"

Lin Yi smiled without saying anything. He took a gas card from the table and asked.

"How much are your gas cards? How much are they worth?"

"There's a total of three types, 10,000, 5,000, and 1,000. There's an event during the auto show, where you get 98% off."

Lin Yi fiddled with the gas cards, feeling that it was necessary to buy some. He would send them all to mother Wang, saving them money on gas.

"How many are there in total?"

"Didn't I tell you already? There are only three types, 10,000, 5,000, and 1,000."

"I mean, how many gas cards have you sold this time?"

"Don't be ridiculous, bro. We brought ten million cards with us, and we still have eight million left."

"Alright then, I'll take them all."

Pfft!

The man from PetroChina almost vomited blood. "What did you say, bro? You want to buy out our remaining eight million cards?"

"Yeah, take it back and try them slowly." Lin Yi took out his bank card. "Make sure they can be swiped."

1

"Yes, yes..."

With a beep, he swiped the card successfully and saw the receipt.

The male salesperson was dumbfounded. He was just bored, yet he sold all the gas card?

"F*ck! He bought more than eight million gas cards in one go!"

The people around the exhibition area were dumbfounded. Where did this rich guy come from!

He bought so many gas cards in one go!

The sales team of the Mercedes-benz exhibition area were all dumbfounded, especially the man who had just insulted Lin Yi. His jaw almost dropped to the ground.

He bought more than eight million fuel cards in one go. It would not have been a problem for him to buy a four million S351DT.

“F*ck, Zhang Detian, look at what you’ve done!”

An older man walked over and scolded the man.

“Do you know how much commission I get from selling an S351DT? You ruined it!”

“Director, I didn’t know he was this rich.”

“F*ck, there are so many rich people in China. How can you tell?” The male director scolded. “Apologize to him now!”

“I know, I know.”

After buying the gas card, Lin Yi left the address of the orphanage, planning to have the staff deliver it there.

Just as the two were about to leave, Zhang Detian and the sales manager of the Mercedes-benz exhibition jogged over.

“Sir, let me introduce myself first. I’m the sales manager of the Mercedes-benz exhibition, Qiang Liu. What happened just now was an oversight on my part. Please forgive me.”

“So? What does that have to do with me?”

Liu Qiang smiled respectfully and asked, “Didn’t you want to buy the S351DT just now? Let me explain the specific details to you.”

“Forget it. There are so many brands for me to choose from. Why should I choose you?”

“Sir, please calm down. I know you are still angry, but don’t worry. I will definitely give you a satisfactory answer.”

Liu Qiang said angrily, “Zhang Tiande, take off your badge. Pack your things and get lost!”

“Manager, no!”

Zhang Tiande was dumbfounded and quickly bowed to apologize to Lin Yi.

“Sir, I know I’m wrong. I was looking down on you. Please don’t do the same thing as me and treat me like a fart.”

“I’m not the one who fired you. There’s no point in begging me,” Lin Yi said lightly.

“Zhang Detian, cut the crap. Even if you didn’t do this, you can’t stay in the company. If you don’t leave now, I’ll call security.”

Zhang Detian took off his badge with a pale face and left under everyone’s watchful eyes.

“You really deserve it. You think you’re so awesome just because you sell Mercedes?”

“Yeah, even people selling supercars aren’t that cool.”

“This is what happens when you look down on people. You have to teach them a lesson.”

“Alright, since you’re so sincere, just use your card. I’ll take this S351DT,” Lin Yi said.

“So cool. You bought a car worth more than four million without even batting an eyelid.”

“He already bought an eight-million-plus gas card, and he also needs a four-million-plus car? What a joke.”

“No wonder he got such a pretty girl. He’s really something.”

After paying, Lin Yi left the address of the orphanage for them to send it over to.

Then, Lin Yi bought another pickup truck, preparing to use it as a shopping cart for the orphanage.

Lin Yi stretched his back. He only had a single Pagani on hand, so he had to get a few spare cars.

He was getting tired of driving it for so many days.

He also wanted to experience what other Supercars were like.

The two of them arrived at Area A, which was also the most popular area of the car exhibition.

There was no lack of second-generation billionaires here. There was also a group of nouveau riche, but most of them were sports car enthusiasts. None of them would miss this annual event without good reason.

“Lin Yi, you guys are here again.”

They had just arrived at Area A when they saw Xu Yan and Zhou Ning walking towards them.

“I’m here to take a look at the cars,” Lin Yi said casually.

“That’s true. The car show only happens once a year. It’d be a waste of an opportunity if we don’t take a look.”

“Yan Yan, let’s go and take a look too. We were too busy buying cars and haven’t gone into Area A yet. Lin Yi and the others just happened to be here, so let’s take a look together. After we’re done shopping, let’s have a meal together and experience the feeling of driving an imported land rover,” Zhou Ning said.

Chapter 073: Take Them All, It’s Not That Expensive

“Yeah, yeah, but can you let me drive first? I’ve never driven such a good car in my entire life,” Xu Yan said.

“Of course, what’s mine is yours. You can drive it if you want to,” Zhou Ning said with a smile.

“And I will only use this car occasionally. To put it bluntly, I bought it for you, so you can drive it as you please.”

Lin Yi narrowed his eyes and smiled. He was really good at acting cool.

His moved fast, and he clearly showed the levels between them. Lin Yi couldn't help but applaud him.

Ji Qingyan had a look of disdain on her face as well, but Zhou Ning did not see it yet.

As expected, people were different.

Before this, Lin Yi did not think much of anything other than his good looks and money.

However, now, compared to other men, he was superior in all aspects..

He was driving a Pagani, but he was not as high-profile as Zhou Ning.

"Darling, you're too good to me." Xu Yan said like a little woman. "But I'm not that good at driving. Aren't you afraid that I'll damage your Land Rover?"

"It's okay. I'm well aware of the danger, so I'm not afraid of it getting damaged."

Muah~

Xu Yan kissed Zhou Ning on the cheek. "My dear, you're so kind."

"Let's go, my stomach's not feeling well," Lin Yi said.

"What's wrong? Do you want to go to the hospital?"

"No, I'm just feeling a little nauseous. I'll just go somewhere else to get some fresh air."

Ji Qingyan covered her mouth and smiled. "Let's go then."

Zhou Ning and Xu Yan followed after Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan.

Seeing Ji Qingyan in front, Zhou Ning smiled. She would know what a rich person was once she got on her Land Rover.

Naturally, she would no longer choose to be with this poor guy after that.

"Darling, look at them. They seem to be going to the Bentley Booth," Xu Yan said as she walked behind.

"So be it. It doesn't cost anything to look at them."

Ji Qingyan's arrival attracted everyone's attention.

They shifted their gazes and cameras onto Ji Qingyan.

There were tall models besides the luxury cars.

However, they paled in comparison to Ji Qingyan.

"I've been shopping at the car show for the whole morning, but this is the first time I've seen such a beautiful woman."

"What's the point of being beautiful? I can only look at her. Women like her are reserved for the second generation of the rich."

"I'm so jealous. What would I do if I win 5 million dollars? The first thing I'd do is find someone as beautiful as her."

The two stood at the Bentley booth, which was next to the Rolls-Royce booth. The number of luxury cars surrounding them was dazzling.

"Which do you think is better, the Rolls-Royce Phantom or the Bentley Continental?" Lin Yi asked casually.

"I don't think they're that good-looking. They're so ugly."

Lin Yi was speechless. Was there such a huge difference in preference between a man and a woman?

These two cars were very good-looking, right?

"Looks are secondary. Focus on other aspects."

"Isn't buying a car based on looks?" Ji Qingyan said matter-of-factly. "With Zhong Hai's regulations, cars can only drive fifty to sixty miles per hour in the city. They might not even be able to outrun a minivan. If they're in the suburbs and the roads aren't good, then they might be even worse than a minivan. So, buying a car is based solely on looks. If it's good-looking, then buy it. You don't have to worry about performance."

Ugh...

Lin Yi finally understood why Ji Qingyan was driving a million-dollar Maserati.

It was because she was pretty!

"How about this, choose between one of these two cars." Lin Yi said.

Ji Qingyan puffed up her cheeks. "I need to think about it."

"Lin Yi, you're too funny." Zhou Ning said with a smile:

"We're just here to look at cars. What's the point of being so serious? Why are you talking like you're buying a car? You're making it sound like it's real. I genuinely feel like you're trying to buy one."

"How do you know I'm not going to buy one?"

"Stop fooling around. Don't you drive for Didi? How can you afford a luxury car like this?" Zhou Ning intentionally raised his voice.

"Take a good look. That latest Rolls-Royce Phantom has a floor price of 9.3 million dollars, and that Bentley Continental has a floor price of 4.8 million dollars. Which one do you think you can afford?"

"F*ck, so it's a Didi driver!" The bystanders said. "I thought he was a rich kid."

"Yeah, he's acting like it's real."

"I think this guy probably fooled this beauty with his mouth. I hope this beauty can see reality sooner than later."

“I’m an executive in a public company, and I’m behaving more humbly than a Didi driver. He’s too incompetent.”

Zhou Ning was secretly pleased with himself when he saw how others were criticizing Lin Yi.

I’m going to make you lose all your dignity!

Look at yourself!

How could a lousy driver like you pick up a woman like this?

“Any idea?” Lin Yi ignored Zhou Ning and asked Ji Qingyan.

“Not yet. It feels the same. I don’t know which looks better.”

“Lin Yi, why don’t you listen to me? We’re all on the same side, there’s no need to pretend anymore,” Zhou Ning said.

“Who said I’m pretending? It’s just a car, what’s there to pretend about?”

Zhou Ning shrugged. “Fine, I’ll take it as if you can afford it, but didn’t you just say that if you have the money, you could buy it all. Why put others in a difficult position?”

“Haha, you said that to others, but why can’t you do it to yourself?”

“You really did remind me of this.” Lin Yi smiled.

“In that case, I’ll take them both. It’s not that much anyway.”

Zhou Ning was stunned.

“What did you say? Take them all?!”

“That’s right. Only children make choices. Adults don’t have to face so much trouble. Just buy them all.”

There was a few seconds of silence around the Bentley Booth.

Then, loud laughter broke out.

“Haha, this is so funny. What’s this kid talking about? The Phantom and the Continental add up to more than 15 million, yet he’s saying he’ll buy them all?”

1

“It’s fine to brag, but if you go over the top, you’ll only hurt yourself.”

“Even if it’s for the sake of your pride, you can’t say things like that, can you? Can you genuinely afford it?”

Lin Yi waved his hand and called the saleswoman over.

“Sir, this is the latest model for this year. It’s priced at 4.8 million.”

The saleswoman looked a little disdainful.

Wasn't he bragging a little too much?

"I know it's the latest model, so you don't have to remind me."

As he spoke, Lin Yi called over another salesman and handed his bank card over.

"I'll take this Bentley Continental. The password is 0000000. Use your sales card."

The male salesman was stunned and his hands were shaking.

Were they going to buy it without asking any questions?

A few minutes later, the male salesman passed his bank card to Lin Yi.

"Sir, I've used my card. I'll prepare the car purchase contract for you now."

Hiss...

Everyone who heard this sucked in a breath of cold air!

He really bought it?

That was a Bentley Continental worth more than four million!

The female saleswoman from before was dumbstruck. It felt like a dream.

Originally, this piece of business should have been hers, but because of a sentence just now.

This business was gone.

The commission of several hundred thousand was also gone!

Chapter 074: Maserati Is Considered a Small Brand?

"Prepare the contract first. I'll go to the Rolls-Royce booth next door to take a look, but I need you to deliver it to Zhong Hai. Is that okay?"

"Of course, we have a branch there."

"Okay."

After leaving the address, Lin Yi brought Ji Qingyan to the Rolls-Royce exhibition.

In comparison, the salespeople at the Rolls-Royce booth were much more enthusiastic.

A saleswoman in a uniform greeted Lin Yi warmly,

"Sir, are you looking at the Phantom? This is the latest model from this year, and there are other value-added services..."

"I'm not looking."

"You're not looking?"

The saleswoman was stunned. "I remember you said that you wanted to buy the Bentley Continental together, why are you..."

"Yeah, I said we were going to buy Phantoms, not see Phantoms, so..." Lin Yi took out his bank card and said, "Swipe your card. The password is 0000000."

Pfft!

The person who heard that vomited blood again!

What the f*ck, 15 million, and he said that without even blinking?!

Did your family print money?

"That's f*cking awesome, buying a car without even blinking. Even Young Master Qin and Principal Wang wouldn't dare to spend money like that, would they?"

"What the hell is going on? Do you make so much money on Didi?"

"No wonder he's able to get such a top-notch girl. He's really capable!"

Lin Yi gave his bank card with the salesgirl.

Zhou Ning's face turned green!

"Yan Yan, what... What's going on? Why is your classmate so rich? Isn't he driving for Didi?"

"He admitted it himself," Xu Yan said nervously.

"And he said it himself. There's no way he's lying."

Zhou Ning was in a bad mood.

Was he just showing off in front of a billionaire?

What a sin!

After signing the sales contract, Lin Yi left with Ji Qingyan. At this time, Zhou Ning came up from behind and complimented.

"Brother Lin, you are really generous. You actually bought the Continental and Phantom in one go. I'm impressed."

"Generous? It's only 10 million. What kind of generosity is that?" Lin Yi said.

His Pagani was already 28 million. Now, he had spent 15 million on two cars. It was not expensive at all.

"F*ck, awesome! I think 15 million is like 1,500 in his eyes."

"When will we be able to reach such heights?"

"No wonder he can conquer the heart of a beautiful woman. I'm jealous."

It was not just others who were jealous. Even Zhou Ning was jealous. He asked,

“Brother Lin, I want to ask, didn’t you say that you drove for Didi? But if I also drove for Didi, how could I make so much money?”

“Maybe it’s because I use my Pagani’s Zonda when I take Didi orders.”

1

Hiss...

“F*ck, you actually use a Pagani to take Didi orders? As far as I know, the Zonda is sold for more than 28 million dollars. These rich kids are too good at playing around.”

The corner of Zhou Ning’s mouth twitched. Not only had he been slashed, but he also received a critical hit.

At this moment, a middle-aged man in a suit walked over.

“Sir, I’m the sales manager of Bugatti. We also have a new model on display at the exhibition. Do you want to take a look?”

At this moment, the eyes of the sales managers at the luxury car stands were turning green.

They could not let such a rich man go easily.

“Bugatti?” Lin Yi muttered. “I remember you guys. The latest model should be the Bugatti Chiron 1, right?”

“Yes, yes, yes. The Chiron 1 is our latest model. It just broke the speed record. Its top speed is 490 miles per hour, making it one of the fastest sports cars in the world.”

1

“I know a lot about the Chiron 1, but what’s the price of this car in this country?”

“The Chiron 1 may be a little expensive. In China, the price is 43 million dollars,” the male manager said shyly,

“If you’re not satisfied with the price of the Chiron 1, we have other supercars, and I’m sure one of them will be able to meet your needs.”

The car was indeed a little expensive, but since it was Lin Yi who asked, he could only answer truthfully.

“Do you guys at Bugatti think he’s a sucker? You dare to promote a car worth that cost more than 40 million?!”

“The rich second generation is rich, but they won’t fall for your tricks. Save it.”

“The Chiron 1 is so expensive, how many people in China can afford it?”

“Alright, everyone quiet down.” Lin Yi’s head hurt from the noise.

“They didn’t say anything, and I brought it up, so why are you attacking them?”

Lin Yi patted the male manager on the shoulder. "This has nothing to do with you, so don't take it to heart."

"It's fine, it's fine." The male manager said.

"To express my apology, go make a contract. I'll buy that Chiron 1."

"F*ck! He really bought it! That's a Chiron 1 worth 43 million!"

How terrifying!

"Okay, okay, okay. I'll go now."

At this moment, the sales manager of Lykan walked over.

"Hello, Sir. I'm the sales director of Lykan Asia Pacific. We've also brought the latest models to this exhibition."

"F*ck, Lykan is even more ruthless. It's said that one of the 7 units was sold for more than 66 million in China, which is much more expensive than the Chiron 1."

"It's so rare to meet such a rich man. These sales are crazy."

Lin Yi Thought for a moment. "Your Lykan should be a limited edition model, right?"

"Yes, there are only seven in the world."

"Alright, let's have one. We can change it when we're bored."

At this time, someone walked over. "Sir, I'm the sales manager of the Koenigsegg."

"I heard that the RS has a new model too?"

"Yes, the new generation of Koenigsegg RS uses a carbon body. It's lighter, faster, and I can guarantee that this generation of RS has the highest sound pressure. If you drive it on the road, I guarantee that it will make you the focus of everyone."

"How much is the price of this car in the country?"

"31 million."

"Alright, go prepare the contract."

The female manager was overjoyed. She had come to try her luck, and the god of luck had really descended upon her.

It was too exciting!

The people around were all dumbfounded.

Bentley Continental 4.9 million!

Rolls-Royce Phantom 9.3 million!

Bugatti Chiron 1.43 million!

1

Lykan 66 million!

Koenigsegg RS 31 million!

These cars added up to a total price of more than 150 million!

To buy so many cars in one go... Where was he going to park?!

Seeing Lin Yi sign the sales contracts one by one, Zhou Ning hurried over.

“Lin Bro, you’re really generous, buying so many cars in one go. I’ve learned a lot.”

“It’s alright, I’ll buy a few more and take turns driving them.”

Seeing Lin Yi’s nonchalant expression, the people around looked at him with envy.

It really changed their worldview.

Xu Yan looked at Lin Yi with a complicated expression.

If she knew that he would become so rich one day in the future, she would have taken the initiative to take him down when she was still in school.

Sigh, how did I miss him?

“Manager Xu, they seem to be leaving. Let’s go over and try. The sales manager of Koenigsegg was just trying her luck, and he really bought it,” a female saleswoman of Maserati said.

“If we go over, we might have a chance.”

“You know that he just bought a Koenigsegg,” the male manager said.

“The most expensive car here only cost around three million dollars, and it’s even considered a modified unit. How could they be interested in anything we have? Small brands like us should just stay put.”

The female saleswoman was stunned. She felt that her worldview had shifted.

Was a Maserati really considered a small brand?

Chapter 075: New Occupation!

“There’s a Porsche over there, and it looks pretty good too. Pick one and I’ll give it to you,” Lin Yi said.

“No,” Ji Qingyan said. “My Maserati is pretty good to drive around. Besides, I can call you whenever I need a car. It’s no use buying so many cars.”

“You’re right, Didi’s driver is always available.”

“But isn’t it a waste for you to buy sso many cars?” Qingyan said in a low voice.

1

“Isn’t that what money is for?” Lin Yi said. “What if someone dies and the money isn’t spent? It’s be such a pity.”

“You’re the one with the twisted logic.” Qingyan said with a smile. “Let’s go and eat something. I’m hungry.”

“Let’s go, I’m hungry too.”

The Bugatti staff had parked the car at the designated drop-off point.

This was due to Lin Yi’s arrangement. Going about Yangcheng without a car was pretty inconvenient, so he picked up the Bugatti first. As for the rest, they were going to be sent back to Zhonghai.

After eating, the two went out for a while.

That afternoon, they saw the car Lin Yi bought for the orphanage.

It gave them quite a shock.

Even without the car, just the eight million dollar gas card was tough enough for them to digest.

1

Later, Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan returned to the hotel.

“Are you busy tomorrow?” Ji Qingyan asked in the room.

“Will you be busy?”

“I’m going to visit the branch in Yangcheng tomorrow. If you’re free, come with me.”

1

Lin Yi knew a little about Chaoyang Group’s Yangcheng branch.

Other than the Zhong Hai branch, there was a lot of real estate in other provinces and cities. It was natural for her to occasionally go over to check on their operations.

“But I don’t think you’ll find anything.” Lin Yi said.

“The people below will definitely do a good job if they know the boss is coming. Why would they wait for you to check?”

“Don’t worry, I didn’t tell any of the executives about this. It’ll be best if there’s no problem, but if there’s something that doesn’t make sense, I won’t let it go.”

Lin Yi smiled but didn’t say anything.

Ji Qingyan still thought that these people were too naive.

If they attacked the company on the first day, the effect would definitely be good.

However, it had already been two days, so there was a high chance that this news would already have been leaked.

It would depend on luck if they could spot anything wrong.

“Then it’s settled. I’ll go with you tomorrow.”

“You have a car, so you can take me there.” Ji Qingyan said. “But, I’m going to take a shower now. Mr. Lin, do you still want to stay here?”

1

“What do you mean? Do you want me to wait for you in the bathroom? Do you need a back rub?”

“What back rub? Go back to your room.”

Lin Yi smiled as he got up. “Let me know if you need a back rub.”

“Hooligan.”

Ji Qingyan spat and chased Lin Yi out of the room.

Lin Yi lay on the bed, unable to fall asleep for a long time.

Tomorrow was Monday, and the system would open a new class.

He did not know what new job would be waiting for him.

At midnight, the system notification rang in Lin Yi’s mind.

[New class unlocked (Yes/No)]

[Experience class: university lecturer.]

[Job completion: 0%]

[Host, please receive a big gift package, 10 million dollars, all-attribute enhancing potion, Sage’s Wisdom.]

What the f*ck!

Lin Yi exclaimed in his heart. The new class was university lecturer?!

This was a little exciting.

Lin Yi fell deep into thought as he looked at the big gift package the system had gifted him.

10 million in cash. There was nothing much to say about that.

He had been given the same amount of money to experience being a Didi driver in the beginning.

According to the system’s settings, this amount of money would be given to every new job in the future. It was a fixed reward, no more, no less.

It was not much, but it didn’t matter how small a mosquito’s leg was, it was still meat. There was no reason to dislike it.

Lin Yi knew what the all-attribute enhancing potion was since it was often detailed in web novels.

However, the Sage's Wisdom stumped Lin Yi.

"System, what is this Sage's Wisdom mean?"

"The Sage's Wisdom contains the wisdom of all the top scholars in the world, helping the host to perfectly adapt to the profession of a university lecturer."

Lin Yi understood the general meaning of the system's explanation.

It was to fill his head with other people's knowledge.

After all, university was a very professional place. If you did not have the ability to teach others, you would be chased out of the institution.

Lin Yi looked at the system page again and found that there was a (Yes/No) option in the new profession column.

It was probably asking if he would like to open it, meaning the choice was still in his hands.

"System, I'm only 85% complete with the Didi driver class right now. If I open a new class, won't I lose the rewards?"

[If the host opens a new class, the old class will automatically enter the cooldown state. The cooldown state is one week. After the cooldown is over, you can reopen it.]

Lin Yi thought for a moment. "Can I activate two classes at the same time?"

[You cannot activate two classes at the same time. If you activate the old class, the new class will automatically enter the cooldown state. After one week, the host can choose to reactivate the new class.]

After hearing the system's full explanation, Lin Yi understood.

However, the Didi Driver class was already 85% complete. The final grand prize was still very tempting.

According to the system's habit of giving out missions, the remaining 15% completion rate could be completed with just one more mission.

That was why he was not in a hurry to open the new class. If it was as simple as before, he would just delay the matter.

If it was more difficult, he could still open the new class in the future.

After settling this matter, Lin Yi stretched and went to sleep.

The next morning, when Lin Yi changed his clothes and went to Ji Qingyan's room, he found that she had already finished washing up.

"Wait for me for a while, I'll go to change and put on some makeup."

"Okay, go ahead."

Lin Yi lay on the sofa in the suite, playing games.

He noticed that 'pleated skirt' had sent him another private message.

He had sent at least twenty messages over the past few days.

This guy was really persistent.

Lin Yi looked at pleated skirt's record and realized that she lost more games than she won. Her win rate was around 20%. If she hadn't met that Super Kerry God, she would have lost even more.

"Does this guy have no brain? How can he fight like this in a low-level game?"

Lin Yi invited her to play a game after seeing how pitiful she was.

"Thank you, God, I've finally won a game."

Invisible chicken wings, "It's too hard to win with you around. You should say goodbye to the game with your IQ."

"Lin Yi." Ji Qingyan's voice was heard.

"What's wrong?"

"Help me unzip this, it seems to be stuck."

Chapter 076: Mash-Up Style

"Can't you wear something that doesn't have a zipper on?"

Lin Yi walked into the bathroom,

He saw that Ji Qingyan was all dressed up. She was wearing a white suit, not a very formal one, but a relatively casual one.

"Isn't it something that men like to do? Why are you complaining?" Ji Qingyan said proudly.

"You're wrong. Men like to take off women's skirts because that means the start of a big battle. On the other hand, if you put on a skirt, it means that it's over."

"What is this? Can't you be more serious?" As adults, Ji Qingyan naturally understood what Lin Yi was talking about.

"Be realistic."

Lin Yi walked to her side and pulled the zipper up. He noticed that it wasn't moving at all. There was indeed something wrong.

"Wait a minute, I'll get the scissors."

"Huh? What for? I only brought one set of clothes. If I cut it, I won't be able to wear it."

"Don't worry, I won't cut your skirt." Lin Yi said. "There's a part of your pants that's out of place. It's caught in the zipper. I'll just cut it off for you."

Ji Qingyan blushed. She didn't expect such an embarrassing thing to happen.

“Impossible. I just bought it a few days ago. How could it be out of place?”

“It’s easy for things with lace to get disturbed. It’s common sense.”

“Alright, stop talking. Go get the scissors.” Ji Qingyan said with a red face.

Lin Yi cut off the thread on her panties and pulled it a few more times before finally tidying up Ji Qingyan’s skirt.

“The style you bought is amazing. Not only did it say hello kitty, but it even has lace on it. This kind of mixed style is really unique.”

“Shut up, stop talking.” Ji Qingyan said shyly. “Let’s go eat, I’m hungry.”

Seeing the shy Ji Qingyan, Lin Yi was delighted.

He did not realize that this cold and aloof female CEO had such a cute side.

After tidying up, the two of them went to the hotel restaurant and had a simple bite.

Then, they drove toward the Yangcheng branch office.

...

Chaoyang Group, Yangcheng branch office.

“Okay, okay, okay. I got it. Thank you, President Zhao.”

In the office, the general manager of the branch office, Ding Guanjie, hung up the phone with a solemn expression.

He casually lit a Zhong Hua cigarette, took a few deep puffs, and then put out the remaining half of the cigarette.

“Secretary Li, call financial director Deng over.”

“Got it, President Ding,” someone replied from outside the door.

Soon, a woman in her thirties arrived at the office.

The woman’s name was Deng Shuang. She had long hair that fell over her shoulders and wore a red one-step skirt. Her butt was almost sticking up into the sky.

“President Ding.”

“Do you know why you are here? I have something important to ask you,” Ding Guanjie said.

“How much money is left in the account now?”

“There’s still more than 10 million. If the head office doesn’t allocate the money, the project will be stopped in another week,” Deng Shuang said truthfully.

“If you want the money, you have to do it quickly. You even promised to buy me a car. When the money arrives, you can’t go back on your word.”

“Don’t mention the car first,” Ding Guanjie said. “How much of the deficit is left in the account?”

Hearing this, Deng Shuang realized that something was wrong. “I have already made more than 30 million fake accounts, but there is still more than 20 million left.”

“What the f*ck!” Ding Guanjie cursed.

“What on Earth happened?” Deng Shuang said, “Don’t worry. Give me another week. I will definitely be able to prepare the accounts. There won’t be any problems.”

“It’s too late. The president already arrived at Yangcheng three days ago. It’s very likely that he will come to our place conduct an inspection. As long as she checks the accounts, she will definitely find the accounting error. At that time, we will all be finished!”

“No way. She came to Yangcheng three days ago?” Deng Shuang said in surprise.

“Why didn’t anyone inform me of this?”

“This time, she came secretly. She may be conducting a surprise inspection,” Ding Guanjie said.

“President Ji is really amazing. She was far away in Zhonghai, but she can actually detect the problems on our side. Her insight is too strong.”

“That can’t be the case. The dignified president actually launched a surprise attack from way over that? Could it be that you got the wrong information?”

“No way. Just now, President Zhao of the head office called me. He said that the company’s finance team received the airline’s invoice. President Zhao went to take a look and found that the president had come to Yangcheng.”

“Then what should we do now? There are still more than 20 million accounts that haven’t been reconciled,” Deng Shuang said anxiously.

“It’s too late to say anything now. Hurry up and pack your things and leave,” Ding Guanjie said. “Let’s leave before she comes.”

“We can’t leave either. Wang Zhengyi knows about the embezzlement of public funds. If the two of us run away, he will expose us.”

“With the president’s ability, she will definitely find out about the accounting problem. Since we can’t run away, it’s meaningless even if she reports us,” Ding Guanjie said.

“Don’t talk so much. Go pack your things and leave now. Oh right, quickly inform your men to transfer the ten million yuan from the account and leave a single cent behind!”

1

“Okay, I’ll go now.”

Ten minutes later, Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang finished packing their things and walked out of the office building. They got into the BMW 7 series parked outside.

Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan arrived at the company building as soon as the two drove away.

“Look, President Ding, President Ji just got out of the sports car. There’s a young man beside her.”

“I understand now. President Ji is probably here for fun with his boyfriend, so he came to the company as well.”

“F*ck!”

Ding Guanjie slammed the steering wheel. “Why did she have to come at this time? If she was even a few days late, things wouldn’t be like this.”

“Alright, let’s not talk about this. Let’s go to the airport first and go abroad to hide.”

“We can’t go abroad yet,” Ding Guanjie said.

“If CEO Ji reports us, we will be caught as soon as we get off the plane. So for now, let’s get out of the city first and then discuss where to go.”

“Alright, I’ll listen to you. Let’s just leave this place first.”

When they reached the ground floor of the office and saw Ji Qingyan coming over, the security guard at the door immediately ran over.

“Nice to meet you, President Ji!”

Ji Qingyan nodded and walked straight into the office building.

Before Ji Qingyan could go upstairs, all the executives who had heard the news came out one after another and walked in front of Ji Qingyan.

The leader was a man in his fifties, whose appearance was anywhere between three to seven points out of ten. He was wearing a suit and looked quite decent.

Lin Yi still had some impression of this person. He seemed to be called Wang Zhengyi, the vice president of the branch in Yangcheng.

“President Ji, why didn’t you inform us that you were here so that we could pick you up?” Wang Zhengyi pretended to be calm.

“There’s no need for that. Inform the executives above the manager level to have a meeting. Tell the finance department to bring this year’s accounts to the meeting room as well. I’m going to take a look at them.”

Chapter 077: “I’ll Go After Them!”

Wang Zhengyi panicked.

CEO Ji had come at just the right time. There was a total deficit of more than 50 million dollars, and the financial department had only made accounts that made up for 30 million dollars. The rest of the money had not been dealt with in time.

With CEO Ji’s ability, she would definitely check everything accurately!

“Got it, CEO Ji. I’ll go make the arrangements now.”

Zhengyi did not dare to disobey Ji Qingyan's orders.

The most important task now was to stabilize the situation before thinking of a solution.

"Let's go now."

After giving out the task, Ji Qingyan brought Lin Yi to the meeting room along with the four executives.

As they left, Zhengyi looked around and realized that something was wrong.

President Ji was here. Where did Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang go?

Normally, they would be here at this time.

When he realized that something was wrong, Wang Zhengyi went to the general manager's office and found that Ding Guanjie was gone.

Sensing that something was wrong, Wang Zhengyi went to the finance office again.

"Where did Director Deng Go?"

After arriving at the finance office, Wang Zhengyi did not see Deng Shuang, so he asked.

"Sister Deng went to the general manager's office. She hasn't come back yet," a staff member of the finance department said.

"Director Wang, do you have anything else to arrange for?"

"Director Ji is here. Pack up the financial documents and send them to the meeting room."

"Got it, Director Wang. I'll get ready now."

Wang Zheng walked out of the financial office anxiously. He had already guessed what was going on.

Ding Guanjie must have known the news in advance and ran away with Deng Shuang.

"Damn it, he actually sold me out!"

Wang Zheng picked up the phone, found a place with no one around, and dialed Ding Guanjie's number.

"Ding Guanjie, you're so f*cking nice. You heard the news in advance and didn't inform me. You actually ran away with your people!"

"Old Wang, listen to me," Ding Guanjie said.

"The matter happened too suddenly. I didn't want it to be like this. Now there's no way to solve it. We can only run away."

"Then what do you think we should do now? President Ji's intention is very clear. She's here to check the accounts. It won't be long before she finds out that we've lost public funds!"

"It's useless to talk about this now. We can only do whatever she wants. So don't talk about anything else now. Hurry up and pack your things, then leave. Otherwise, it'll be too late."

“How can I leave now? CEO Ji has already arrived at the company! I reckon that I won’t even be able to leave the city before I’m stopped!”

“At least we’re working together. I can help you.”

“What kind of help?”

“I know a few people on the street. I can get them to go to the company to cause trouble and help you stall. That way, you’ll have enough time to escape.”

“Then make the arrangements as soon as possible. Don’t waste any more time.”

“Okay!”

After hanging up the phone, Wang Zhengyi did not return to his office. Instead, he hurriedly ran out and left in his car.

It did not take long before all the financial documents were brought into the meeting room.

Lin Yi did not understand financial matters, so he just sat in the room and played games.

Ji Qingyan, on the other hand, was looking at the company’s financial documents and other project reports seriously.

Soon, Ji Qingyan realized that something was wrong.

She looked up at the executives of the branch.

“Ding Guanjie, where did Wang Zhengyi go?”

Ma Changwu, the director of the engineering department, looked around.

“Where did director Wang go? Wasn’t he here just now?”

The other executives looked at each other, not knowing where Wang Zhengyi had gone.

Lin Yi looked up and saw that Wang Zhengyi was indeed gone.

He immediately felt that this was suspicious.

Ji Qingyan was already here, but he, the vice president, had disappeared for no reason. This was completely illogical.

Other than that, the general manager of the branch hadn’t shown up either.

This made it even more suspicious.

“Is the manager of the finance department here?” Lin Yi asked.

Looking at their expressions, Lin Yi felt that his guess must have been correct.

If there was no external reason, then there must be something wrong with the company accounts.

Otherwise, these three important people would not have disappeared at the same time.

“CEO Ji, what exactly happened? I’ll call them now.”

“The company’s accounts have inexplicably lost more than 30 million, and there are also problems with the other accounts. Hurry up and contact these three people!” Ji Qingyan said with a cold face.

The senior executives were speechless. Those who could sit in this room were all smart people.

After hearing Ji Qingyan’s words, they immediately understood what was going on.

These people were too ruthless. They had lost so much money.

“No need to call,” Lin Yi said in a low voice.

Ji Qingyan looked at Lin Yi. “Do you have any good ideas?”

“These three must have run away. Even if you call, it’ll be useless. So now, the most important thing is to find a way to catch up with them.”

“Then I’ll call the police right now.”

Lin Yi nodded. “If we call the police right now, we should still be able to catch Wang Zhengyi, but I don’t know if we’ll be able to catch Ding Guanjie and the other one.”

With their current level of security, catching Ding Guanjie and the others was not a problem.

However, it was hard to say how long it would take to catch them.

Even if they caught him later on, the two of them would have already squandered all the money.

“What should we do now? Should we just let them get away with it?”

“Don’t worry.”

Lin Yi furrowed his brows. He suddenly remembered that when he and Ji Qingyan first arrived, they saw a BMW 7 series leaving.

The price of a BMW 7 Series in China would be at least a million dollars.

In the Yangcheng branch, the only person who could drive this car was probably Ding Guanjie!

“Is Ding Guanjie’s car a BMW 7 Series? License plate number Yue A1XC93.” Lin Yi asked.

“Yes, that is Ding Guanjie’s car.”

Confirming his guess, Lin Yi sent a WeChat message to Tian Yan.

He asked them to send a message through the system, asking all the Didi drivers in Yangcheng to look for this car.

Lin Yi guessed that although the traffic situation in Yangcheng was also better than in Zhong Hai, it was also pretty jammed. Therefore, Ding Guanjie should not have been able to run far.

After giving his orders, Lin Yi said, “Don’t worry, I’ve already sent people to investigate. There’ll be news soon. I’ll definitely be able to help you get your money back.”

Tens of millions in public funds was not a lot. It was not even worth as much as Lin Yi's car.

However, the nature of this matter was different.

If the three of them were allowed to get away with it, Chaoyang Group would become the laughing stock of the industry.

"Call the police now. It'll be more effective if we work together," Lin Yi said.

"Got it."

Bang!

Just as Ji Qingyan was about to call the police with her phone, the door to the meeting room was pushed open.

More than a dozen people came in from outside. They were all dressed like hooligans and did not look like good people.

"Who are you people!" Ji Qingyan shouted.

"We are here to collect the debt from Ding Guanjie. He owes us a million dollars. Hurry up and hand him over to pay the money, or none of you will be able to leave!"

"Collect the debt?!"

Ji Qingyan was surprised, which then turned into anger.

Ding Guanjie not only embezzled public funds, but he also caused so much trouble outside. Now that he had run away, they had to clean up the mess for him!

"Ding Guanjie is not here, and I don't have time to deal with your matters now. Hurry up and leave, or I'll call the police!"

The man in the lead looked at Ji Qingyan with a smile on his face.

"Let me tell you, if you don't give me the money today, I won't let you go. I won't even give you the chance to call the police!"

Ji Qingyan slammed the table and stood up. "Is this really a game in your eyes? How could you do something like this?!"

"We're just doing what we're supposed to. What's wrong with that?"

The man in the lead rubbed his chin. "But then again, you're quite pretty. If you're willing to spend the night with me, I won't demand this one million."

"You!"

"Don't say anymore."

Lin Yi put his hand on her shoulder, signaling for her to calm down.

With Lin Yi behind her, Ji Qingyan felt much more at ease, as if she had someone to rely on.

Lin Yi looked at the leader and said in a low voice,

“If I’m right, Ding Guanjie probably doesn’t owe you any money, right? And you guys are probably the gangsters he hired to buy us time to call the police, so that he can have a chance to run away, right?”

Chapter 078: Why Are You Yelling At Me

Ji Qingyan looked at Lin Yi in a daze. She did not expect him to be so cognitive.

Indeed, this was too much of a coincidence.

They did not come early or late, but instead came right at this time. It was a bit suspicious.

“Kid, your imagination is really rich.” The man in the lead said.

“I’m telling you, I’m just here to collect the debt. In short, if you don’t give me the money today, I won’t leave.”

“I don’t know how much money Ding Guanjie gave you to come here and cause trouble, but I can tell you that Ding Guanjie lost 30 million in public funds.” Lin Yi said.

“And when you came, you should have seen the sports car downstairs. That’s my car. The floor price is 43 million. To put it bluntly, the money he lost isn’t even enough for me to buy a car.

“So, I don’t care about the money at all. It’s a matter of pride.

“You can stay here and cause trouble. Even if I can’t get the money back, I will at most lose some pride. But none of you will be able to escape when that happens.

“If I take out 10 million dollars and look for someone to talk to you about my ideals, what do you think will be the result?

“I don’t think it will be just you. Your wife and children, both old and young, won’t be able to live in peace. I’m not trying to scare you. You can decide what to do on your own.”

“This...”

The dozen or so people who rushed in were all dumbfounded!

They only took Ding Guanjie’s 10,000 dollars before bringing people here to cause trouble.

However, if their families were destroyed because of this small amount of money, they would lose more than they gained.

These second-generation rich people who drove sports cars were all extremely bold. They were definitely not people that they could provoke!

“Brother, we know that we’re wrong. Let’s leave now and pretend we never met. Please give us a chance.”

“Then get lost!”

“Yes, yes, yes, we’ll get lost right now!”

More than a dozen hooligans ran out one by one, and the office calmed down again.

Just then, Lin Yi's phone rang. It was a call from Tian Yan.

"Lin, there's a driver with the surname Liu. He saw the BMW 7 series that you mentioned, and he's currently running out of the city."

"Okay, tell all Didi drivers to keep an eye on that car. Participants will be rewarded with 5,000 cash, and everyone who sees it will get a share!"

"We'll make the arrangements right away!"

Lin Yi did not stay idle after hearing from Ding Guanjie. He grabbed Ji Qingyan's hand and quickly walked out of the office.

"Where are we going now?" Ji Qingyan asked anxiously.

"To buy time for himself, Ding Guanjie might do something extreme. I'm taking you to a safe place now, so you won't be in danger!"

"What about the rest of the company?"

"I don't care, as long as you're okay."

Lin Yi pulled her all the way out of the office.

Ji Qingyan's heart was beating a little fast. With Lin Yi by her side, she seemed to have someone to rely on, and she was not afraid of anything anymore.

The two got into the Bugatti, and Lin Yi stepped on the accelerator and rushed away.

A few minutes later, Lin Yi drove to the entrance of the police station.

"Go call the police and have them seal off the toll station outside the city," Lin Yi said. "Secondly, we can't make a public announcement about this. If it's included in the financial report, the market value of Chaoyang Group will plunge the next day."

"Then what are you going to do?"

"I'm going after them!"

"No, it's too dangerous. I can't let you go!"

"Cut the crap, do whatever I tell you to. Go now."

"Got it, but why are you yelling at me?"

After giving his orders, the gullwing door closed automatically, and Lin Yi stepped on the accelerator and left.

At the same time, Lin Yi sorted out the current situation in his mind.

What he was doing now was the last resort.

If Ding Guanjie had not yet left the city, as long as he blocked the highway, there was a chance of catching him in a short time.

On the other hand, if he had already left the city, it would be very difficult to catch him.

Secondly, in financial fraud, 30 million was too small, and it would also involve many other relevant departments. Chaoyang Group was not large, and their network in Yangcheng was not strong. Therefore, it was hard to say how much resources the police would deploy.

Most importantly, if Ding Guanjie did not take the main road and avoided the toll booths, it would be even harder to catch him.

As for Wang Zhengyi, he did not have to worry about anything.

He had not been on the run for long, so he might still be stuck at a traffic light right now. With the cooperation of Tian Yan and the others, it would not be difficult to catch him.

Thinking of this, Lin Yi stepped on the gas and chased after Ding Guanjie at full speed according to the real-time information that Tian Yan provided him.

“F*ck, isn’t that the Bugatti Chiron 1 from the car show? It’s even got a temporary number plate, so it must have just been bought.”

“A 43-million-dollar sports car is so different. The sound is so good.”

“So what if it’s a 43-million-dollar car? Wouldn’t it still have to stop at a red light?”

Boom! Boom! Boom

The Bugatti Chiron 1 roared like a beast. It didn’t seem like it was slowing down at all as it ran past the red light!

“What the f*ck, who’s the driver? Isn’t he too powerful? He even dared to run the red light. Isn’t he afraid of being caught by the police?”

“He’ll be crippled if he’s caught by the police.”

“The thing is, can the police even catch up to him?”

Thirty minutes later, Lin Yi had driven the car to the outskirts of Yangcheng.

At this time, Tian Yan called again.

“Director Lin, the car you’re looking for went around the toll booth and went out of the city by a small road. It’s on County Road 362, and a Didi driver is following them.”

“Tell that Didi driver to follow closely. You guys stay behind and provide me with real-time information. Don’t let him lose them.”

“Got it, Director Lin!”

Lin Yi’s eyes narrowed as he looked at the road ahead.

Now that he knew where Ding Guanjie was, the next thing he needed to do was to chase after him!

The master level driving skill that the system had given him could finally be put to use!

He stepped on the accelerator and the tachometer was blasted to 5,000 rpm, increasing the speed up to 180!

The Bugatti Chiron 1 was like a ferocious beast as it charged forward!

...

On 362 County Road, Ding Guanjie drove his BMW 7 series and leisurely lit a cigarette.

“Why are you still smoking? Focus on driving,” Deng Shuang urged.

“What’s there to be afraid of? We have already left the city. Moreover, this is the county road. There are no cameras here. No one knows that we are here,” Ding Guanjie said with a smile.

“You mean that we are absolutely safe now?”

“Of course,” Ding Guanjie said. “Let’s find a place to hide for a few days first, then I’ll take you overseas to hide from the limelight, and then change your nationality. Once the incident passes, you’ll come back a hero again. With Ji Qingyan’s ability, she can’t do anything to me.”

“Phew, I’m relieved to hear you say that.” Deng Shuang patted her chest. “Finally, I don’t have to be afraid anymore.”

“Of course.”

Flicking the cigarette butt in his hand, Ding Guanjie untied his belt. “Come, get it out for me. I’m full of anger. Help me relax.”

“We’re in the car,” Deng Shuang said.

“What’s wrong with being in the car? Don’t you often sit in the car?” Ding Guanjie said, “And it was you who took the initiative to say it was so exciting.”

“You’re so bad.”

After spitting, Deng Shuang combed her hair to the side and then lowered her head.

“Right, I just saw a white car following us,” Deng Shuang said vaguely.

“I saw him a long time ago,” Ding Guanjie said indifferently, “Didn’t you see that his car has the words ‘Didi Special Car’ on it? It’s just a Didi car. Don’t be afraid, just focus on your work.”

Boom Boom Boom!

Just as the two were in high spirits, they suddenly heard a burst of ear-piercing sounds coming from behind.

Deng Shuang got up in fright. She looked at the rearview mirror and saw a sports car chasing after them.

“President Ding, look, there’s a sports car behind!”

“You women can’t close your legs when you see a sports car, right?” Ding Guanjie said, “When I’m rich in the future, I’ll buy you a sports car for you to drive .”

Deng Shuang’s hair was disheveled, and she looked a little flustered.

“That’s not what I meant. That sports car seems to be Bugatti, the one that CEO Ji’s boyfriend drives!”

Chapter 079: I’ll Teach You a lesson

“F*ck, how did he catch up to us? !”

Ding Guanjie almost jumped out of his seat when he learned that Lin Yi’s car was behind them.

He had no idea how Lin Yi managed to catch up to them after sending Li Laohei to stop them and buying them so much time!

“Don’t worry about it, just drive!” Deng Shuang urged.

“Don’t be afraid. Even though he drives a sports car, my driving skills are top-notch. A young kid like him won’t be able to perform to the car’s full potential!”

As he said that, Ding Guanjie stepped on the accelerator. The speed of the car then reached 190 mph!

“D*mn, he’s racing with me. I’ve been an experienced driver for 23 years. How could I be afraid of you!”

“Go faster. He’s getting closer and closer to us.”

“F*ck!”

Ding Guanjie cursed, “I’m already driving at 190, how can he be faster than me? He’s already driving at 220!”

Ding Guanjie was so scared that he peed his pants. How old was he, yet his driving skills were better than his?

1

Seeing the Bugatti Chiron 1 and the BMW 7 Series in front racing, the Didi driver following behind was dumbfounded.

“You don’t even dare to shoot a movie like that, do you? It’s so f*cking exciting!”

“Honey, hurry up and drive. I want to record this.”

“Honey, we’re in Carolas that cost just over a hundred thousand dollars. They’ll be gone by the time we reach 170. We’re no match for them!”

Within five minutes, Lin Yi had caught up to Ding Guanjie. He kept honking the horn behind him as he realized that the other party was not stopping the car.

Deng Shuang, who was sitting in the passenger seat, was scared out of her wits. “President Ding, what should we do now? He’s already caught up.”

“Don’t be afraid. There’s a fork in the road ahead, and the road is full of potholes. No matter how strong his Bugatti is, he won’t dare to go down it.”

“Don’t say that. I think that kid is also a ruthless person. What if he catches up?”

“Impossible!”

Ding Guanjie said with certainty, “If I’m not wrong, the car he drives should be the Bugatti Chiron 1. It seems to sell for more than 40 million in this country. If he follows us, he will definitely scrape the chassis. When the car is scrapped, his heart will ache.”

“What you said makes sense.” Deng Shuang was slightly relieved.

A supercar was not like a BMW. The dimensions were so wide that they could only drive on the highway.

When they reached the bumpy dirt road, he would definitely scrape the chassis.

However, the BMW was different. Other than the ride being very bumpy, it would have almost no effect!

They would definitely be able to shake him off!

“Sit tight, I’m going down,” Ding Guanjie said.

“Okay, I’m already sitting tight. Drive quickly.”

Ding Guanjie stepped on the accelerator and rushed down the side road.

Seeing this scene, the Didi driver behind sighed.

“It’s over now. We can’t catch up.”

“That BMW driver is really smart. He actually knows to go down that road to escape. That supercar definitely won’t dare to follow.”

“Exactly. After all, it’s a Bugatti. Who would be willing to drive on the dirt road in that thing?”

“Oh my God, Hubby, look, that Bugatti is going down the same road!”

What the hell!

The couple was dumbfounded.

Bro, you’re driving a Bugatti!

Aren’t you afraid of scratching the chassis?

Inside the Bugatti, Lin Yi narrowed his eyes and muttered to himself:

“Since you guys aren’t stopping, then we’ll have to play a little harder.”

Thinking of this, Lin Yi stepped on the gas again and rushed up again!

Seeing Lin Yi chasing after him, Ding Guanjie’s face turned green.

“Is he crazy? Doesn’t he still want his car? That’s a car worth more than 40 million!”

“Now is not the time to talk about this. He’s already catching up!”

“What’s there to be afraid of? When I came out, I had just filled up the tank with gas and it can still go for a few hundred kilometers. His Bugatti is a gas guzzler. I’ll run out of gas after running for a while. Unless he dares to hit me, I can still run.”

Bang!

Ding Guanjie, who was bragging, suddenly heard a muffled sound. The BMW 7 Series under him started to jolt violently as if it was out of his control.

The steering wheel kept turning. Even when he used all his strength, he was unable to stabilize it.

Ding Guanjie widened his eyes and opened his mouth.

“Is this kid f*cking crazy? How dare he hit me with a sports car worth more than 40 million!”

Dingguanjie gritted his teeth and cursed.

“I only took 30 million from you. Is it worth it for you to hit me with a 40 million dollar sports car?!”

Bang!

Another muffled sound was heard as Lin Yi hit them again.

This time, the impact was even more severe, causing Ding Guanjie’s BMW 7 Series to lose its balance and crash into a tree before stopping.

At the same time, the Didi special car behind also caught up.

They originally thought that the Bugatti and BMW 7 Series in front had already run far away, so it was impossible for them to watch the show.

However, they didn’t expect the two cars to stop not too far in front.

“Hubby, am I seeing things? The owner of the Bugatti car actually took the initiative to crash into that BMW 7 Series!”

“That’s possible. Otherwise, the owner wouldn’t have stopped.”

“These rich kids these days are crazy. How could they do something like this? A sports car worth tens of millions of dollars is ruined just like that.”

Lin Yi unbuckled his seatbelt and got out of the car.

He opened the door of the BMW 7 series in front and looked at Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang who were in a mess from the collision.

“You two have run so far. It’s time for you to get out and rest.”

Ding Guanjie had a gash on his head. His face was covered in blood, but the injury wasn’t serious. He was still conscious.

“You’re f*cking crazy. I only took 30 million from you. Did you have to hit me with a car worth 40 million? Do you think it’s worth it?”

Lin Yi shrugged. “Of course it’s worth it. First of all, you guys didn’t just lose 30 million. It’s just a sports car. I still have a few with me. If this one is damaged, I’ll just drive something else.”

Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang’s faces were ashen.

He had were a few sports cars worth tens of millions?

Where did you come from?

“Our President Ji is known as the cold goddess. The people chasing her can form a line around the block. No wonder you were able to take her down. It seems that you are really capable,” Ding Guanjie said dejectedly.

“I admit defeat today. You can deal with it however you want.”

“This is the attitude of admitting defeat.”

“Although I admit defeat, there is one thing I don’t understand,” said Ding Guanjie.

“If there’s anything you don’t understand, just say it. I’ll let you die with a little clarity.”

“I had escaped so long ago, and there are no cameras here. How did you catch up to me?”

“Isn’t that simple? Did you see the white Didi Special Car Behind You?”

“I saw it long ago. Did they expose my information?” Ding Guanjie asked in disbelief.

“That’s impossible. Why would they listen to your orders?”

“Because I own 20% of Didi’s shares. I should be their second-largest shareholder. As long as I say the word, all the Didi drivers in Yangcheng will listen to me. Now you should understand what’s going on.”

Chapter 080: PDA In Front of the Police Station

“What the f*ck!”

Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang wanted to cry when they found out the truth. They wanted to die.

He was the second-largest shareholder of Didi!

What did I do in my past life to make such a person my enemy?

Lin Yi waved at Didi’s private car not far away. After he saw the signal, the car drove toward Lin Yi.

“Thank you for today.” Lin Yi pointed at his Bugatti.

“My car broke down, so I’ll have to trouble you to send me back. But don’t worry, I’ll pay you for the ride.”

“I can send you back, but what about your car? Should I call a tow truck?”

“No need, it’s already in this state, and it’ll be troublesome to fix it, so I don’t need it.”

1

Hiss...

The owner of the car jumped in shock.

"I see that you're using a temporary license plate. You must have bought it recently, right?"

"I bought it at the Auto Show yesterday. I wanted to drive it back to Zhong Hai, but I didn't expect this to happen today. It's quite a pity." Lin Yi said

The couple's faces darkened when they saw Lin Yi's smiling face.

I didn't see any sadness on your face!

After a short chat, Lin Yi brought Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang into the Didi car.

"Thank you for today. I don't have any cash in my pocket. I'll apply for a bonus for you later."

"There's no need for a bonus. Our family believes in Buddhism, so this is considered doing a good deed," the driver's wife said.

"Alright then. Since you don't want it, then I'll donate the 500,000 dollars to Project Hope."

"Wait, what did you say? The reward is 500,000 dollars?" The driver's wife asked in surprise.

"Yeah, I was planning to apply to give you that much money."

"Handsome, don't make fun of us. We'll be satisfied if you can give us 5,000 dollars. How could you give us that much?"

"Well, I'm actually a shareholder of Didi. I'll decide how much I'll give you later."

Pfft!

The couple almost spat out blood when they found out who Lin Yi was.

"You're a shareholder of Didi? Isn't that my husband's boss?"

"In a way, you could say that." Lin Yi said

"Well, can I take back what I just said?" The driver's wife asked.

"Even if we're Buddhists, we still need to eat properly."

"No problem. I'll let the company know after this and get your bonuses as soon as possible."

"Thank you, then."

Lin Yi saw Ji Qingyan waiting on the bench when he brought Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang back to the police station.

"Lin Yi, you're back. Were you in any danger?"

"What would I not do for you?"

“I’ve already arrested him, leave the rest to the police and the judge.”

“President Ji, I’ve already realized my mistake. I can refund all the money to you. I can give you my house and car too, so please don’t sue me.”

“What’s the point of saying all this now?” Ji Qingyan said.

“The police have already arrested Wang Zhengyi. Just wait for the law to punish you!”

Ding Guanjie and Deng Shuang hung their heads in the shame.

They were both old employees of the Chaoyang Group, so they knew Ji Qingyan’s temper.

There was no room for them to calm down now that things had gotten to this point.

They had no choice but to accept the punishment of the law.

After handing the two over to the police, Lin Yi stayed behind to make a statement before leaving the police station with Ji Qingyan.

“Hm? Where’s your car?”

Ji Qingyan asked after leaving the station.

“It was damaged.”

“Damaged? How could it be damaged?”

Lin Yi shrugged. “When I was chasing after them, Ding Guanjie didn’t stop his car, so I crashed into it. The damage was pretty bad too, so I didn’t bother to call a tow truck and left it at the scene of the accident.”

“How could you be so stupid? The money I lost wasn’t even enough for you to buy a car.”

“It’s not about the money,” Lin Yi said.

“Our President Ji lost so much face. I had to help you get it back,” Lin Yi said. “It’s just a car. It’s nothing.”

1

Tears welled up in Ji Qingyan’s eyes as warmth filled her heart.

Although she had many suitors during all these years, Lin Yi was the first person to treat her like this.

“It’s not about the money. Do you know how dangerous it was to crash into someone else’s car? What if you got hurt?”

“Even if I got hurt, I had to help you bring them back,” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“You’re really...”

“Hey, you two be careful. This is the police station, and Rainbow Primary School is opposite us. Don’t flirt here. It’s not good for the children to see you,” the guard said.

Ugh...

Ji Qingyan's face was burning.

It was too embarrassing.

The two quickly left the police station and returned to the hotel.

"I've finished my matters here. Are you okay? When are you going back to Zhong Hai?"

"Then let's go back immediately," Lin Yi said.

"Okay, I'll book the plane ticket now."

After booking the plane ticket, Ji Qingyan packed her things and took a taxi to the orphanage. After saying goodbye to Wang Cuiping, she rushed to the airport.

"You should know the company's vice-chairman, Zhao Nanping, right?" Lin Yi asked on the plane.

"Other than myself, he holds the highest position in the company. How could I not know him?"

"When we caught Ding Guanjie, I interrogated him in advance. Zhao Nanping was the one who passed the message and said that you were in Yangcheng. Otherwise, all this would never have happened."

"I'm a little curious. How did he know that I was in Yangcheng? Other than you, no one else knew that I was here."

"After you bought the plane ticket, the airline sent the invoice to the company's finance. It happened to be spotted by Zhao Nanping. It's that simple."

"How could I have forgotten about this?"

Ji Qingyan said, "I didn't expect that there would be a mistake in this area."

"It's nothing. The problem has been solved perfectly anyway."

"This Zhao Nanping is really a traitor. If it wasn't for me recommending him to become the vice president of the company a year ago, he wouldn't be where he is today. I'm really blind!"

"It's understandable that she would do such a thing. People are greedy," Lin Yi commented.

"I'll deal with him now. I can't let such a person stay in the company!"

"Don't worry," Lin Yi said.

"He's been a vice president for a long time, so he's definitely not clean. Wouldn't it be more satisfying if you spent some time investigating her dirty work?"

"You have a point."

Ji Qingyan realized that Lin Yi was a lucky star.

He was always able to give her the most effective advice at the most crucial moment.

Why did she not discover his true self back then?

If she did, he would have been promoted to her side.

He would not need to be a Didi driver anymore.

Ji Qingyan got to work on the plane.

She used WeChat to send messages to different people, and was already preparing to investigate Zhao Nanping.

Two hours later, when the two of them got off the plane, it was already past five o'clock in the evening.

“Go to my house tonight. I’ll cook for you,” Ji Qingyan said.
