

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

Read I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week Chapter 462 – 464

Director Zheng and Director Zheng Online

Chapter 462: Director Zheng and Director Zheng

“Um...”

Lin Yi didn't expect Li Chuhan to ask this question.

It had been so long since then. Did she really care about it so much?

“It was pitch-black underwater. Even if I wanted to look, I wouldn't be able to see anything.”

“Oh, that's fine. Go off now.”

“Then I'm leaving.”

After Lin Yi left, Li Chuhan found a medical thesis that she had stored previously. She wanted to read it to kill time.

After reading one line, her body froze on the chair.

Although it was a little dark underwater, there were lights on the diving equipment!

At the thought of this, Li Chuhan inexplicably became nervous, but she was too embarrassed to ask further.

Pursing her lips, she quietly picked up the osmanthus cake beside her and looked at the medical thesis on the computer.

At one in the morning, when Li Chuhan returned to the lounge, she found Lin Yi sleeping soundly on the top bunk.

She took out a blanket from the cabinet and covered him with it before lying down.

The next morning, when Director Wang arrived at work, he happened to see the two of them walking out of the lounge. The atmosphere was a little awkward.

“Ah, Brother Lin, Director Li, why are you two only getting up now?” Qiao Xin asked.

“I was fooling around until late yesterday. Fortunately, no one disturbed my rest, so I slept until now.”

“Hehe, it’s fine as long as you and Director Li are having fun.”

“Alright, go to work. I’m heading home first.”

“Uh-uh.”

Lin Yi and Li Chuhan changed their clothes and left the hospital.

“Are you going to have breakfast?” Lin Yi asked casually when they got off the elevator.

“Are you going to eat?”

“Qiao Xin said that the Lisi Buns at the entrance are quite delicious. I want to try them.”

“Then let’s go together.”

“Let’s go.”

Ring!

The two of them had just gotten off the elevator when Lin Yi’s phone rang. It was Zhao Qi.

“Principal Zhao, why are you looking for me?”

Lin Yi thought about it. It had been a while since he left school, and he hadn’t called Zhao Qi in a long time.

He was probably calling this time for something.

“It’s nothing serious. I just wanted to ask Teacher Lin what you’ve been busy with recently. Do you have time to drop by the school? I made some good tea. You can bring it back and try it.”

Zhao Qi was a smart person. Even if he had something to say, he would not say it directly. After being in the administrative department for so many years, he was an expert in formalities.

“Alright, I’ll go over whenever you are available.”

Lin Yi guessed that Zhao Qi definitely had something to discuss. He couldn’t disrespect him.

“Tomorrow afternoon, then. Is that convenient for you?”

“Okay, I’ll come to your place after lunch tomorrow.”

“Don’t eat by yourself. I’ll arrange for some food for you here. We can catch up.”

“We’re all family. There’s no need to be so polite. I’ll look for you tomorrow afternoon.”

“Then it’s settled. See you tomorrow.”

After a simple chat, Lin Yi hung up. Li Chuhan asked softly, “Do you have something on tomorrow afternoon?”

Lin Yi nodded. “Someone asked me out for tea in the afternoon. Is everything alright at the hospital?”

“It’s fine. There will only be a surgery the day after tomorrow. If you have something to do, go ahead. I can handle things here.”

“Okay.”

The two of them walked out side by side. Just as they walked out of the door, they heard someone shout,

“Big Girl, Big Girl.”

Lin Yi was fine, but he noticed that Li Chuhan was stunned.

He turned around and saw three plainly dressed people jogging towards him.

Two of them were old, and the other was a young man in his thirties. He had a unique appearance and had a thick accent. He looked like he was from another city.

“Uncle Wei, why are you here?”

Seeing Li Chuhan greet the three of them, Lin Yi understood what was going on.

This could be a relative from her hometown.

"I'm here to see a doctor, so I came to look for you. I didn't expect to see you at the door," the middle-aged man said casually.

The middle-aged man's name was Wei Erzhu. The people standing beside him were his wife, Lu Ronghua, and his son, Wei Daqiang.

"Girl, I heard that you're doing well in the hospital. You should have quite a lot of say in the hospital, right?" Lu Ronghua said.

Li Chuhan combed his hair. "I know the directors in the hospital quite well. What kind of illness do you want to get checked? I'll recommend a good doctor to you."

"No need, no need. We can just get you to do it." Lu Ronghua said.

"Your Uncle Wei said that his heart hasn't been feeling well these past few days, and his blood pressure is a little high. I heard from your father that you are a heart specialist, so I want you to take a look. Oh right, are you the director or the deputy director now?"

"Director," Li Chuhan replied.

"That's good." Wei Erzhu slapped his thigh. "We were worried when we came here. We were afraid that you were just a deputy director. Now, come and treat me."

Lin Yi frowned. What was she talking about?

The deputy director is not qualified to treat you?

Moreover, even if you were Li Chuhan's relatives, you had to go through the relevant procedures to see a doctor. Why did you treat the hospital like your house?

"I worked the night shift yesterday, so I'm taking the day off. I'll recommend the deputy director of our department to you. He's pretty good at what he does, and he's as experienced as I am. I'll give him a call later, and you can ask him to perform the check up."

"Don't be like that. How can an deputy chief physician be as good as a chief physician? It's better if you check me. I don't trust others," Wei Erzhu said.

"You're right. The doctor Director Li wants to arrange for you is Director Zheng," Lin Yi said.

"Director? Didn't the eldest girl say just now that she's the director? Could it be that there are two directors in a department?"

"That's right. My boss is the director, but there's another Director Zheng in our department. He can just treat you."

“Huh?” The Wei family was confused. They might not have studied, but they knew that there was only ever one leader in a place.

If two leaders worked together, wouldn't it cause a mess?

“Alright, Lin Yi.”

Li Chuhan understood what Lin Yi was thinking, but it wasn't good to beat around the bush like this.

“The Director Zheng he's talking about is surnamed Zheng, it's not his official position.”

“So that's what you mean.” Wei Erzhu said, “Little girl, why is your subordinate spouting nonsense? He's confusing me. Go back and talk to him. When did a small soldier get to speak in a meeting between generals?”

Li Chuhan looked at Lin Yi apologetically, hoping that he wouldn't mind.

Lin Yi naturally cared about such a trivial matter.

He just felt that these people were a little retarded. They couldn't recognize tell their own status.

“Uncle Wei, didn't you want to see a doctor? Go now. There will be more people later.” Li Chuhan said.

“Didn't I say just now? We don't want the deputy director to check him.” Wei Erzhu said.

“What's wrong? Are you disowning your poor relatives in the countryside now that you're working in the city? Why are you making excuses when I'm looking for you?”

Chapter 463: Generosity of Others

“I didn't mean that.”

“What did you mean?” Wei Erzhu asked.

“We specifically asked you to do it. Yet, you don't want to treat me. You're afraid that others will laugh at you. Although we're poor, we still have a backbone.”

Lin Yi was speechless. What were these people thinking?

Why did he act as if he was poor yet had integrity?

Who spoiled him like this?

“Do you still remember? When your family was young, you were so poor that you couldn’t even eat. If it weren’t for the potatoes and cabbages I brought to your family, you might not have survived until now,” Lu Ronghua said.

“Also, when your mother passed away, if it wasn’t for our help, you wouldn’t have been able to bury her in time. It’s only been a few years since. How could you have forgotten us after coming to the city?” Wei Erzhu said.

“Alright, that’s enough.” Li Chuhan said, “I’ll just leave later. You guys can come back to the department with me.”

“Okay, okay, okay. That’s right. We’re all from the same hometown. We can’t forget our roots.”

Li Chuhan looked at Lin Yi, “I won’t have breakfast with you. Let’s do it after the next night shift.”

“There’s no need. I don’t have anything to do anyway. I’ll follow you to the department. It won’t take long for me to get treated.”

“Yes, thank you.”

Li Chuhan looked at Wei Erzhu and the other two. “Go to the outpatient window and register with Director Zheng Binjiang. After that, look for me at Outpatient Room 306.”

“What’s going on? Aren’t you the one treating us? Why do we still need to register?”

“I’ll check out your illness, but you have to register. This is the regulated process. We have to record it on the computer.”

“There’s no need to go through so much trouble. Just directly inspect me. It can save us all some time,” Wei Erzhu said.

“It can’t check you if you don’t register.” Li Chuhan’s expression was not very good.

“Don’t tell me you don’t register at other hospitals?”

“We’ll definitely have to register at other hospitals, but aren’t we just visiting you? We’re from the same village. Do you need to spend any money to check a patient?”

“Chief, you’re in the wrong.” Lin Yi chuckled.

“If your relatives and friends are sick. Logically speaking, you should put down your work and go home to treat them personally. It would save them the trouble of coming here. The bus fare is quite a lot.”

“Young man, there’s no need to be so polite. Although we’re all relatives and friends, as long as you treat us well, we will be able to afford the bus tickets.”

Li Chuhan shook his head helplessly. He couldn’t even detect such simple sarcasm. These people were really too much.

“Alright, go register and find me at Room 306.”

With that, Li Chuhan brought Lin Yi to Room 306.

Her stance was very clear. If they wanted to see a doctor, they would have to register. If they didn’t register, she would leave.

The Wei family was helpless. They had no choice but to register.

“The eldest girl has changed. She’s not as obedient as the young man.” Wei Erzhu sighed.

“That’s right. I heard that now, when she goes back to visit her mother’s grave, she doesn’t even drop by her home. She burns paper and leaves. It’s as if she wants to cut off contact with the people in our town,” Lu Ronghua said.

“Isn’t that how it is in the city? They think they’re better than others. Why would they care about poor relatives like us?” Wei Erzhu said.

“Son, luckily the two of you didn’t get together at that time. Someone like her can’t enter our Wei family.”

“Didn’t I follow your wishes? Back then, I didn’t pay much attention to her. Otherwise, it would have really happened,” Wei Daqiang said.

“Alright, let’s go register first. Let’s get your illness checked first. I wonder if the 800 yuan I brought is enough.”

“Definitely enough.” Lu Ronghua said.

“The eldest girl works here. She won’t even need to spend money to check you or buy medicine. We just need to pay the registration fee. 800 yuan is definitely enough.”

“That’s true,” Wei Erzhu said. “Let’s go and register. The girl asked us to register with a doctor who’s name is Zheng Binjiang, right?”

“Yes, that’s him.”

Wei Daqiang took Wei Erzhu’s ID card and queued for more than ten minutes before arriving at the window.

“Director Zheng from the cardiovascular surgery department.”

“84. Cash, WeChat or Alipay?”

“Huh? 84?”

Wei Daqiang was stunned. “Why is your registration so expensive? Our county’s hospital only charges 11 yuan for the registration.”

The cashier looked at Wei Daqiang coldly.

“Then go back to your county. Next.”

“No, no, no. We’ll pay up.”

Seeing the cold-faced female cashier, Wei Daqiang didn’t dare to say anything else and obediently handed over a hundred yuan.

“Why is this Director Zheng’s registration fee so expensive?” Wei Erzhu was unhappy. “I only have a total of 800 yuan, and the registration fee alone is 84 yuan. Isn’t this girl cheating me? She got me such an expensive doctor.”

“Dad, don’t say anymore. She has already changed.” Wei Daqiang said.

“Of the 84 yuan, at least 60 yuan is her commission. Otherwise, how could she earn money?”

“How did this child become like this? She even scammed her close friend’s money. Who will come to her for treatment in the future?”

“Alright, let’s not talk about this now. We’ve already paid for it. We have no choice but to continue.” Lu Ronghua said.

“We’re here to see an acquaintance. Although we could have indirectly saved a lot of money, we have to let them earn some money.”

“You’re right.” Wei Erzhu said.

“However, I have to mention this to her and let her know what’s going on. Don’t treat us as fools.”

“That’s true. We won’t pursue the matter, but we still have to talk about it.”

“Dad, let’s go. Let’s go see a doctor first. Your health is more important.”

“Let’s go. I think it’s Room 306. Let’s go over now.”

In the consultation room, Li Chuhan changed into his white coat. Lin Yi sat at the side with nothing to do, waiting for the Wei family to come in.

“I’m sorry for making a fool of myself,” Li Chuhan said.

“It’s normal. Who would actually want such things?” Lin Yi said, “It’s perfectly normal to have a few weird relatives and friends.”

“We’re just neighbors. We’re not relatives.”

“That’s even better. We’ll leave the moment we’re done. Just do the check up symbolically.” Lin Yi said.

“People like them are good at pushing their luck. The more you accommodate them, the more they push it.”

“Let’s deal with them first.”

It was obvious that Li Chuhan didn’t really like the Wei family.

“This is Director Li’s consultation room. She’s not taking any patients today.”

As the two of them spoke, they heard voices coming from outside.

“I watched her grow up. We know each other. She’s waiting for me inside.”

“So, that’s how it is.”

“Are you here to see a doctor too?” Wei Erzhu looked at the middle-aged woman in the dress and asked.

“My heart is a little uncomfortable. I wanted to register with Director Li, but my illness can’t wait. Director Li isn’t around, so I could only register with someone else.”

“It’s a small matter. Don’t be anxious.” Wei Erzhu said.

“When I go in later, I’ll help you say hello and get her to treat you. I’m still able to do this much.”

Chapter 464: Should I Give You Some Euthanasia to Eat Now?

“Really?” said the middle-aged woman in the dress.

“But is it appropriate since Director Li is not taking patients today?”

“You guys definitely can’t get an appointment, but I watched her grow up. My words carry weight.” Wei Erzhu said, “Wait here. I’ll help you arrange it.”

“Aiyo, thank you so much.”

“There’s no need to be so polite. It’s just a small matter.”

Hearing their conversation, the people standing at the door of the other clinics walked toward Wei Erzhu.

“Master, we also want to see Director Li, but we can’t get a slot today. Can you think of a way to get Director Li to treat us?”

Wei Erzhu straightened his back when he saw that the people in the city were all dressed up and looking at him for help.

“No problem. As long as I go in and say a word, I can get all of you appointments. However, everyone has to queue up. One by one.”

“That’s no problem. Come, come, come. Let’s go line up now. When this master finishes his check up, it’ll be our turn.”

Because of his words, these city people obediently queued up. Wei Erzhu was exceptionally satisfied.

Although he was from the countryside and did not have much money, these people obediently listened to him.

At the thought of this, the Wei family straightened their backs and walked into Li Chuhan’s consultation room.

However, Li Chuhan’s expression was even uglier than before.

She had heard everything that happened outside the door just now.

Them doing this had caused a mess!

Lin Yi was right.

These people were too greedy.

Seeing Li Chuhan, Wei Erzhu’s expression was still very stern, as if he had something to say to Li Chuhan.

“Girl, the registration fee for the doctor you recommended to me is too expensive. He actually asked me for 84 yuan. In the county hospital, the hospital director’s registration fee is only 11 yuan.”

“My cost is 146. Which one do you think is appropriate?”

Wei Erzhu stopped talking and looked a little embarrassed. In that case, 84 yuan was far more suitable.

“Alright, let the doctor check you first. We’ll talk about the rest later,” Lu Ronghua said.

“Yes, yes, yes. Let’s do this first.” Wei Erzhu sat on the chair and stretched out his wrist.

“Girl, please take a look.”

“I’m a western doctor, not a traditional Chinese doctor. There’s no need to take your pulse,” Li Chuhan said.

“Let’s talk about your condition first. Where are you feeling unwell? What’s your reaction?”

“I just feel uncomfortable in my heart. Sometimes, my hand and neck will hurt too. That’ll feel especially uncomfortable.”

Li Chuhan took the consultation card and scanned it on the computer as she said,

“This symptom is a little like acute angina. Let’s go to the fourth floor for an electrocardiogram and cardiac ultrasound first. I’ll see what’s going on and then arrange the next treatment plan.”

After saying that, Li Chuhan pushed the consultation card back and prepared to let them go for a checkup.

“Girl, can I just take this to see a doctor?”

“Go ahead. There aren’t many people around right now, so you’ll get a result soon.”

“Don’t I need to mention your name?”

Li Chuhan frowned slightly. In the end, she still wrote a note. “Bring this over. They will give you a good checkup.”

Li Chuhan agreed because Zheng Binjiang’s name was written on the consultation card.

“Okay, okay, okay. I’ll go over now.”

The three of them pushed open the door and heard Wei Erzhu say,

“Everyone, wait a moment. I’ll be done with my treatment soon. I’ll let you in after I’m done.”

“Alright, alright, there’s no hurry,” the people in the queue said gratefully.

A few minutes later, the Wei family rushed back.

“Girl, what’s going on? We were on our way to do an electrocardiogram. Why is that doctor still asking me for an invoice? Moreover, he said that I didn’t pay and they won’t do it for me.”

Lin Yi and Li Chuhan were stunned.

“If you don’t pay, you naturally won’t be able to do it. Isn’t this obvious?”

How could he even ask such a stupid question?

“If you don’t pay, of course they won’t take the scan for you. The hospital’s equipment isn’t free-to-use either,” Li Chuhan said.

“But aren’t you the director of this hospital? You even specially wrote a note for me. Do I really have to spend money to see a doctor?” Wei Erzhu said matter-of-factly.

“Also, I asked around. It costs more than 500 yuan to do an electrocardiogram and a heart ultrasound. That’s too much.”

“Although I’m the director of this hospital, the hospital doesn’t belong to my family. I have to follow the hospital’s rules and regulations. Spending money is a must,” Li Chuhan said.

“The note I wrote for you just now has already crossed my bottom line. I really can’t do anything else.”

“So you’re saying that I have to spend money to get you to treat me?” Wei Erzhu asked confidently.

“What else? Where do you go to see a doctor without spending money?”

“Then I won’t take an the scan anymore. Take my pulse.” Wei Erzhu stretched out his arm again. “The doctors in the Huaxian Medical Hospital will know what my illness is once they take my pulse. Their processes aren’t as troublesome as yours.”

“I’ve already said that this is Western medicine, not Huaxian medicine. If you want to get your pulse taken, you’re in the wrong place.”

“Aren’t you the department director? Don’t you guys know how to treat patients without using equipment? If not, your doctors too unskilled. If others can understand the radiographic films, won’t they be able to become doctors themselves?”

Li Chuhan took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the impatience in her heart.

However, at this moment, Lin Yi spoke.

“You have a point. An illness like angina is not a serious illness. The worst outcome is a dead person. It’s not a big deal. You can just go back and treat it yourself. It will save you money.”

“You’re just a soldier. Do you have the right to speak?”

Wei Erzhu waved his hand impatiently. “I’m not taking the scans anymore. Get me some medicine from the hospital. I’ll go home and take it.”

“How can I get you some medicine?”

“Doesn’t the hospital have its own pharmacy? You’re a doctor here, so you should get the medicine for free. Just give me some. I’m not making things difficult for you, right?”

“Hospital medicine is sold to the public. You can’t just take it.”

“You can’t even take medicine casually?” Wei Erzhu obviously didn’t believe her. “Are you kidding me? That Liu Er kid in town works in a cigarette factory in the city. He has a rule whereby he can smoke as he pleases.”

“There’s also Fatty Sun’s son. He works in a winery in the county and drinks white wine casually.”

“You’re a doctor. Isn’t it natural for you to take the hospital’s medicine?”

Li Chuhan was already on the verge of breaking down from such a bizarre statement.

Why didn’t these people have any common sense?

However, at this moment, Lin Yi, who had saved her before, appeared once again.

“Didn’t you just say that you can smoke as much as you want in the smoke factory? You can drink as much wine as you want in the wine factory. The medicine in our hospital can also be eaten as you please.”

“Look, your man has told the truth. You were just fooling me just now and didn’t want to give it to me, right?”

“Don’t be anxious. My boss didn’t lie to you. You can take any medicine in our hospital, but you can’t bring it outside hospital grounds. Do you need me to get you some euthanasia? Do you want to take it now?”