

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

#Chapter 471 - 480

Chapter 471: How Cruel!

The two of them were affected by Lin Yi's emotions and felt a little sad.

"This is a common problem in poor mountainous areas. Generally speaking, transportation is underdeveloped. Otherwise, they wouldn't be labeled as poor," Qi Xianzhao said.

Lin Yi nodded. "How bad is the road you mentioned just now?"

"It's just a small road measuring about two meters wide. If it doesn't rain, you'll barely be able to walk. On a rainy day, not even an ox cart can pass through. When President Zhao of the fund went to inspect it previously, it just so happened to be raining. Even his Land Cruiser was stuck."

"No way, not even a Land Cruiser could get past? The road conditions are too f*cked up."

"That's right. That's why they can only go out on sunny days." Qi Xianzhao said.

"In addition, there's a river outside the town. It's more than 30 meters wide. The villagers put a swing to cross it, but they will still struggle to leave. I think the people in the city will be afraid when they see it."

"That's a hell of a condition."

"That's the general situation. Otherwise, they wouldn't be so poor."

Lin Yi rubbed his chin and thought for a few minutes. "I'll be a good person and do this properly. When I have time, I'll look for your senior sister and do the project accounting. I'll see how much it costs to build a road and bridge for them."

"No way. Boss, you even want to build them roads and bridges? Although it's only a few kilometers, it will cost tens of millions. It's even more expensive than the Hope School we want to build."

"But if we don't resolve these infrastructure issues, the school will be an empty shell. How much salary will you have to pay to attract teachers to teach there?"

"Still, this is a little extravagant."

“Don’t worry, I won’t provide all the money myself,” Lin Yi said, “Let’s pay a little and get some local funding. In doing so, the matter will be resolved perfectly.”

“Boss, you’re really amazing,” He Yuanyuan said.

Although the boss often acted cool, he still had good foresight and was kind.

“You don’t understand. Leaders have to have foresight. That’s why I’m the boss and you’re the employees.”

“Foresight?” He Yuanyuan was surprised. “Are you planning to invest in that river to rear fish?”

“Naive! Narrow! Shallow!” Lin Yi said.

“Think about it. When the three of us die, my epitaph will say that the famous patriotic businessman, educator, philanthropist, scientist, and musician in Huaxia is extremely handsome. Your tombstones will be empty.”

He Yuanyuan was speechless.

“We don’t care if it’s empty, but what do you mean by ‘so handsome’? Whose epitaph would contain such things!” He Yuanyuan said.

“I think your epitaph should say that you’re the famous King of Huaxia, an honorary member of the Huaxia Lake Association, a scumbag ancestor...”

“No, no, no. I can’t be considered a scumbag ancestor. That would be your Teacher Peng. Compared to him, I’m just a young student.”

“Don’t try to divert the attack.” He Yuanyuan said, “Besides, Teacher Peng is not that kind of person.”

Obviously, He Yuanyuan also knew about Peng Xingguo’s glorious deeds.

“I’m just reminding you to be more polite to me in the future. Otherwise, when I die, I’ll tell my grandson to pee on your tombstone.”

He Yuanyuan was speechless.

Qi Xianzhao was speechless.

How savage!

After dinner, Qi Xianzhao and He Yuanyuan returned to Lingyun Group. Lin Yi drove towards Sugar's house and called her in advance, telling her to go downstairs in twenty minutes so that they could go to school together.

Ring!

Sugar called twenty minutes later.

"I'm downstairs. Where are you?"

"There's a traffic jam. I'll be there soon."

"Come quickly. The wind is strong today. I'm about to be blown away."

"Do you think you can be blown away with your weight?"

"I'm light."

"Are you just filled with ash?"

After hanging up, Lin Yi turned the car into Sugar's neighborhood.

Although they had not seen each other for a while, Sugar's attire was still the same, perfectly suited for a strong woman.

She was wearing a white suit coat and a blue blouse. She looked clean and neat, and she had the familiar wavy hair of a sl*t.

Not to mention, they were both still big and round.

"What have you been busy with recently? Don't tell me you've gone to drive for Didi again?" Su Ge asked after getting into the car.

"I went to the hospital to be a doctor."

"Uh... Really?" Sugar obviously didn't believe him. "Were you a doctor or did you do logistics? Be more specific."

"Of course I was a doctor," Lin Yi said, "I'm the deputy director of the cardiology department of Huashan Hospital. You're welcome to register whenever you want."

"I really admire you. You actually know modern medicine. I remember that you studied marketing for your undergraduate degree, but you didn't seem to study medicine."

"I had no choice. I didn't want to be so well-rounded, but I'm just that outstanding."

“Alright, if I ever feel uncomfortable, I’ll look for you.”

“I think there’s something wrong with you right now. Do you want me to diagnose you?”

“No way, what’s wrong?”

“You have symptoms of excessive fat accumulation and uneven distribution.”

“Huh? Excessive fat accumulation and uneven distribution?” Sugar muttered. “Are you trying to say that I’m busy?”

“That’s already common knowledge. Since there’s no one in the car, I can just show you what I mean.”

“Hmph, you wish.”

The two of them chatted all the way.

After arriving at school, they parked the car and walked towards the teaching building.

“By the way, do you know why Principal Zhao is looking for me?”

“I think it might be related to those entrepreneurial graduates.”

“Entrepreneur?”

There were many college students starting their own businesses in various schools.

However, these were usually small-scale. They would try to start something, but after facing the baptism of reality, more than 99.9% of them would die off.

“I’m not too sure about the details. You have to ask Principal Zhao.” Sugar combed her hair that was messed up by the wind and said,

“But there’s another possibility.”

“Can’t you just finish your sentence?”

“What’s the hurry?” Sugar rolled his eyes at Lin Yi.

“Isn’t school just starting? The school has a welcoming ceremony, but other than the freshmen, a portion of the audience will be fourth-year students who are about to go out for an internship. Perhaps they want you to attend the performance as one of the leaders. After all, you're the vice-principal of the university. You're more than qualified to attend."

"But I'm just a drifter. Principal Zhao knows my situation. This can't be the case," Lin Yi said.

"Besides, isn't it a little too early to hold a welcoming ceremony at this time?"

"In the past, it was always held at the end of the month, but this year, Principal Zhao invited an important guest. In order to accommodate his time, he brought it forward."

"No way, who could be so awesome?"

Sugar shrugged. "I don't know about that. You'll have to ask Principal Zhao about it."

"Alright, I'll go over first."

When they reached Bishop Block, the two of them parted ways. Lin Yi turned around and went to Principal Qi's office.

"Teacher Lin, you're here."

Seeing Lin Yi enter, Zhao Qi stood up and welcomed him to the sofa.

"Sit, sit. I've been waiting for you for a while."

The two of them sat down, drank tea, and chatted. Lin Yi put down his cup and said,

"Principal Zhao, I'm not an outsider. If there's anything, just say it. As long as I can do it, it won't be a problem."

"Teacher Lin, I'll get straight to the point." Zhao Qi poured a cup of tea for Lin Yi and said.

"It's like this. Two graduates have developed an app. I heard that they have already been launched in the Apple and Android stores. They now want to apply for a start-up fund. Right now, I want to write your name in the instructor column."

Chapter 472: Don't Compare Yourself to Lin Yi, He Has a Cheat

"Principal Zhao, you're much more experienced than me, and your connections are better than mine. It's more appropriate to write your name on it."

“Don’t say that. I’m just a little older than you. In terms of networking, I’m definitely not as good as you,” Zhao Qi said.

“You’re the director of Longxin Research Institute, so you must know better people than me. Besides, the things those two students created is all software related. You’ll definitely be more useful than me if you were to be assigned as the supervisor.”

“Alright, it’s not a big deal. When will I need to sign it?”

“Let’s do it now. Those two students are also in school. I’ll call them over.”

“Sure.”

Zhao Qi returned to his desk and called his secretary, Zhou Gengzhe, to explain the matter.

About half an hour later, there was a knock on the office door.

“Come in.”

The door was pushed open and two boys, one tall and one short, walked in.

“Hello, Principal.”

After greeting him, the two of them glanced at Lin Yi, but they were unfamiliar with this person and had no impression of him.

Because they were graduate students of the university, they had left to start a business a year ago. They had only returned to school now, so they did not know that a figure like Lin Yi had appeared in the university.

“Teacher Lin, this is them. The tall one is called Zhang Bo, and the short one is called Mao Jinlong.”

After the introduction, Zhao Qi turned around and looked at Zhang Bo and Mao Jinlong.

“The person in front of you is our school’s vice-principal, Lin Yi.”

“Vice principal?”

Both of them were very surprised to learn of Lin Yi’s identity.

In their impression, anyone who could become a vice principal had to be at least a middle-aged man in his thirties or forties.

They had never thought that such a young person would become the vice principal of the university. How many backdoors did he have to use?

“Hello, Principal Lin.” The two of them nodded in greeting.

“Didn’t you want me to sign the application for the entrepreneurship fund? After thinking about it, I felt that it was more suitable for Principal Lin to sign it, so I asked him to come.”

“Ah?!”

Both of them looked a little reluctant.

They wanted Zhao Qi to sign it not only because he was the principal of the university.

It was because of his connections throughout the education system.

If in the future they found a potential investor and the investor saw that the supervisor was Zhao Qi, the former would likely give Zhao Qi some face and the negotiation would be smoother.

This was their main goal.

However, if the instructor was replaced by the person in front of him, what was the point of all this?

“Alright, don’t just stand there. Bring the application over. I’ll get Principal Lin to stamp it and sign it.”

The two of them hesitated for a while and did not hand over the application.

“What are you two doing? Do you want him to sign or not?” Zhao Qi said with a straight face.

“Principal Zhao, we want you to sign it.”

“Me?”

Zhang Bo nodded. “This entrepreneurship fund is very important to us, so we have to find someone important to sign it. If we can’t get investments in the future, our project will go bankrupt. This matter can’t be taken lightly.”

“You two brats, what are you talking about?!” Zhao Qi slammed the table.

“Do you know how much effort I spent to get Principal Lin to sign it? Do you know how precious Principal Lin’s time is?!”

“Principal Zhao, I know that his time is precious, so there’s no need for him to sign. It’s better for you to do it.”

Zhao Qi’s expression was ugly as he tried to explain to Lin Yi,

“Teacher Lin, don’t be angry. I’ll talk to them properly.”

“There’s no need. Since I’m not qualified, you can do it.”

“You’re the president of Longxin Research Institute. If you’re not qualified, who is?”

“Principal Lin is president of Longxin Research Institute?”

Obviously, Zhang Bo and Mao Jinlong were both aware of Longxin Research Institute and knew how reputable this place was.

“What else? Why else would I ask Principal Lin to come over?”

“Well ...”

The two of them looked very awkward.

If they had known that Lin Yi had such an identity, they would have asked him to sign it back then.

He worked in this circle, so his words would definitely carry more weight.

“Principal Lin, I’m sorry. We’re young and irrational. Please don’t hold it against us.”

“Alright, no need to apologize. I have a good relationship with Principal Zhao, so you don’t have to worry about this,” Lin Yi said.

“How much investment do you want to apply for?”

“500,000...”

“Go to Lingyun Group and find someone called He Yuanyuan. Tell her that I asked you to come and ask for 500,000 yuan from her. This matter will be settled then.”

“Lingyun Group?!” Zhang Bo and Mao Jinlong were stunned.

“That’s the new big company in Zhonghai. It’s said that their two buildings alone are worth 18 billion yuan. In their eyes, the two of us are nothing.”

“Just mention my name. Someone will definitely cater to you.”

“Really?”

“Lingyun Group is my company. Who would dare to reject you?”

“Huh?”

Hearing this news, even Zhao Qi was stunned.

“Teacher Lin, is Lingyun Group really yours?”

“Yeah,” Lin Yi said matter-of-factly, “It’s just that I didn’t publicize this news, so not many people know.”

Zhao Qi wiped the sweat from his forehead.

“Teacher Lin, you’ve really impressed us.”

Seeing Lin Yi’s calm expression, Zhang Bo and Mao Jinlong were shocked.

In terms of age, Principal Lin was about the same age as him.

However, not only was he the president of Longxin Research Institute, but he was also the behind-the-scenes boss of Lingyun Group.

Compared to them, who had only developed a small software, they were worlds apart.

The most infuriating thing was that they had looked down on him just now.

What a f*cking idiot!

“Why aren’t you thanking Principal Lin? What are you standing there for?” Zhao Qi said.

“Thank you, Principal Lin. Thank you, Principal Lin.”

“If you want to thank someone, thank Principal Zhao. I am doing this for him.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Thank you, Principal Zhao.”

“Alright, this matter has been resolved perfectly. You guys can leave first. Principal Lin and I have other things to discuss.”

“Yes, yes, yes, Principal Zhao. We’ll take our leave first.”

The two of them walked out of the office excitedly. Zhao Qi looked at Lin Yi and said, "Teacher Lin, look at this mess. It looks as if I'm the one asking you for money. I really didn't know that Lingyun Group was your company."

"What are you talking about? I'm the vice-principal of the university. It's only natural for me to do something for the university. Besides, 500,000 yuan isn't a lot. I'll earn this amount in the blink of an eye."

Zhao Qi chuckled and revealed an expression that all men understood.

"Teacher Lin, since we're done with this matter, I still have something to tell you."

"Tell me."

"There's a school welcoming ceremony at three in the afternoon. You're an important leader of the school. Since you're here today, let's attend it together."

Chapter 473: The Fierce Liang Ruoxu

"If I'm just supposed to attend a welcoming ceremony, I'll have to pass. I have other things to do at the company."

"Since Teacher Lin has something important to do, I won't waste your time. If the school enacts any good policies, I'll call you immediately."

"Feel free. Call me if you need anything."

With that, Lin Yi stood up to leave, but he suddenly remembered something and sat back down.

"Principal Zhao, I have something to ask you."

"Teacher Lin, go ahead."

"I want to build a Hope School in Beiqiao Town. It will cover nine years of compulsory education from primary school to junior high, but I am facing some difficulties in staffing the teachers," Lin Yi said.

"This is my plan. If a fourth-year graduate is willing to work here, can you arrange an internship for them? Don't worry about the salary and treatment. We won't let our students suffer."

"That's great!" Zhao Qi said excitedly.

“It’s getting harder and harder to find internship opportunities now. It’s fine if the conditions are tougher. It’s their honor that Teacher Lin is willing to provide them with an internship.”

“Alright, this will be our new project. It might take some time to implement it. We’ll talk about the details later.”

“Alright, alright, alright. I’ll listen to your arrangements. As long as I can do it, I’ll definitely help you launch the project.” Zhao Qi said.

“If the Hope School needs to go through procedures with the Education Bureau, I can help you with them. This will be good for the country and its people. I definitely won’t delay it!”

“Alright, it’s settled.”

After talking to Zhao Qi about the Hope School, Lin Yi left the office.

However, he did not leave the school immediately. Instead, he went to the school committee office to see his old colleagues.

Lin Yi pushed the door open and entered. To his surprise, there was no one in the office.

“Where are they?”

Muttering to himself, Lin Yi pushed open the door to Sugar’s office. What greeted his eyes was a patch of white and two towering mountains.

“What the f*ck!”

Seeing Lin Yi enter, Sugar hurriedly held her chest and turned around.

At this moment, Sugar was wearing a light purple evening gown and looked much more dignified.

“You scared the sh*t out of me. Can’t you knock on the door before you come in?” Sugar complained.

“I surprised you.”

“Didn’t you rush in the last time I was changing my clothes? I haven’t even done anything yet. Why are you shocked?”

“Normal Earthlings aren’t as big as you. I thought aliens were invading.”

“Is there an alien as beautiful as me?”

“No, but I also don’t think they’re as big as you.”

“That just means the woman accompanying you right now doesn’t have a good figure.”

“Big Sister, you’re too big, alright? You’re not even proportionate. You can’t be biased.”
Lin Yi sat down on the chair and said.

“Anyhow, why are Song Jia and the others gone? Also, why are you dressed like this?”

“When the school prepares to welcome the new students, they will all become busy with this matter.” Sugar pulled on the transparent bra strap.

“I’m the director of the school’s committee. The school arranged for me to speak at one of the sessions, so Song Jia got me a gown. How is it? I think it looks pretty good on me.”

“Its quite nice, but why does it feel indecent when you wear it?”

“Is it so big that it makes one’s imagination run wild?” Sugar said. “I have to find a way to make them smaller.”

“I can help with that.”

“No, I can do it myself. Don’t try to take advantage of me.”

“Then do it yourself. I’ll leave first.”

“You’re not here for the welcoming ceremony?”

“I won’t be watching. I was just here to catch up with you guys. Since nobody is around, I’ll head back first.”

“By the way, I’ve researched a new way to gank players in the game. The jungler can easily become invincible. Let’s try it tonight.”

“No, call me when you’ve picked up a new role in the game.”

Lin Yi waved his hand and left the office.

When he arrived at the parking lot, Lin Yi saw a woman with her hair tied up. She was wearing a gray uniform and was standing in front of his car, making a call.

“Isn’t that Liang Ruoxu? Why is she here?”

Soon, Lin Yi's phone rang. It was a call from Liang Ruoxu.

Lin Yi didn't pick it up, but he didn't hang up either. He put it back in his pocket and quietly walked over, covering Liang Ruoxu's eyes.

In an instant, Liang Ruoxu's body became like an agile fish. She was so fast that Lin Yi didn't even have time to react before the latter turned around!

At the same time, Liang Ruoxu touched his waist and pushed something against Lin Yi's abdomen.

"Damn!" Lin Yi was stunned!

The thing in Liang Ruoxu's hand was a gun!

"Why are you here?!"

"F*ck, are you f*cking crazy? Take it away quickly. I still have a lot of girls I haven't wooed. I don't want to die so early."

Liang Ruoxu looked around and stopped when he realized that no one else was near her.

"You scared me to death. Why do you carry this with you?"

If Liang Ruoxu only had a knife on her, Lin Yi could accept it, but not everyone could carry a gun.

"Who asked you to launch a sneak attack on me?" Liang Ruoxu said, "I brought this for self-defense."

"Aren't you afraid of being exposed?"

"Since I dared to bring it out, I'm naturally not afraid."

Only now did Lin Yi realize how terrifying Liang Ruoxu was.

When she revealed that move just now, he realized that her reaction was not due to instinct, but continuous practice.

Children of political figures were indeed different.

"Why are you here?" Lin Yi changed the topic. "With your status, you should be going to Fudan University or Jiao University."

"I'm a new local official, so I have to visit every school. In order to accommodate me, Normal University specially brought forward the welcoming party. I am aware that I might work with some of the staff here in the future, so I had to come and take a look." Liang Ruoxu said.

"Other than that, the few high-paying projects at the Normal University are also not bad. It's only right that I come and check things out."

With that, Liang Ruoxu looked at Lin Yi. "What about you? What are you doing here? Have you taken a fancy to a female student from the university?"

"Nonsense." Lin Yi said, "I've already roped in the school belle as my secretary. I don't care about the rest."

"You really never leave empty-handed," Liang Ruoxu said.

"Oh right, do you have time now? I have something to talk to you about," Lin Yi said.

Liang Ruoxu shrugged. "I don't have much time. The party starts at three. I'll have to go before then."

"Then we'll talk another day."

"What do you want to do then? Hey, you have nothing to do tonight, come with me to watch the gala. It's boring for me to attend it alone."

"No, I have other things to do tonight."

"What else could you be doing other than getting a massage at that time?"

Chapter 474: Let's Appreciate Each Other

"Um..."

"What are you talking about? I really haven't been there recently."

"Didn't you have something to tell me? Let's talk while watching the show."

"You're taking advantage of my kindheartedness."

"No matter how you look at it, you're not a good person." Liang Ruoxu took the car keys. "Let's go. Get in the car. We'll head to the auditorium."

"You're driving on this closed road? You're too arrogant," Lin Yi complained.

"I'm not trying to put on airs," Liang Ruoxu said. "It's just part of the school rules. I'm not allowed to wander around outside without the escort of security personnel."

"So that's how it is."

"If I hadn't seen your car, I wouldn't have parked here. Come on, get in."

The two of them got into the car and drove to the auditorium.

At the entrance of the auditorium, the school's higher-ups were all standing in line, waiting for Liang Ruoxu.

"Teacher Lin, you, why are you here?!"

Seeing Lin Yi get out of Liang Ruoxu's car, Zhao Qi and Sugar were stunned.

Lin Yi was actually sitting in the same car as the deputy mayor. This scene was unbelievable.

At the same time, Liang Ruoxu was also confused.

"You're a teacher at Normal University?"

"Uh..." Lin Yi paused, "I used to be, but I'm not anymore. I used to work for the school youth committee."

Liang Ruoxu couldn't understand Lin Yi anymore.

Other than being a tycoon and a doctor, he had actually been a teacher. Was he really trying to experience everything life had to offer?

However, this identity was rather acceptable in comparison.

After all, the members of the school youth committee did not have to possess any technical skills. As long as they had a decent level of education, they could get the job.

"Mayor Liang, let me introduce you. Not only is Teacher Lin a teacher of the school committee, but he's also the vice-principal of our university."

"He's also the vice principal?!"

This time, Liang Ruoxu could no longer remain calm.

The vice principal was not someone ordinary people could become.

If he was really the vice principal, which female student of the university could escape his grasp?

“Have you forgotten who I am?” Lin Yi whispered, “I donated some equipment and became the principal here.”

Liang Ruoxu nodded, feeling that Lin Yi was even more unfathomable.

After a few simple pleasantries, Lin Yi and Liang Ruoxu were welcomed to the hall.

As soon as he entered, he heard deafening cheers.

“Teacher Lin, I love you!”

“Teacher Lin, I love you!”

“Teacher Lin, I love you!”

The people who shouted were all fourth-year students who were about to graduate. They all knew about Lin Yi’s glory in school.

“I just said that you’re a thief who never leaves empty-handed. It looks like that’s not enough to describe you,” Liang Ruoxu said. “You snatch anyone who walks by you. It seems like nobody can escape your grasp.”

“Bullsh*t,” Lin Yi whispered in Liang Ruoxu’s ear, “Look at those boys, they are staring at you too.”

“You and I are two different things.”

“How are they different? Aren’t they both just examples of appreciating beauty?”

“Even if they look at me, they can only admire me, but you’re different.” Liang Ruoxu said, “If these little girls admire you, you will probably find a place to admire them back in full.”

“Hmm... now that you mention it, I think we’re wasting our time.”

“How so?” Liang Ruoxu raised her head proudly.

“We shouldn’t let these immature students enjoy our beauty. Why don’t the two of us just admire each other?”

“Are you wearing a vest?”

“Hehehe... it’s a good day to die.”

“Hmph...”

Under Zhao Qi’s guidance, the two of them sat down. The welcoming ceremony soon kicked off.

However, before that, Principal Zhao Qi and Liang Ruoxu went on stage and said some platitudes before it officially began.

“Didn’t you have something to tell me? Tell me now,” said Liang Ruoxu.

“Don’t be anxious. We have to put on an act and watch the show first. Otherwise, others will think that we’re too arrogant.”

Liang Ruoxu raised her head and looked at the girls on stage. They were wearing shorts, revealing their long legs.

She really couldn’t do anything about him.

A few minutes later, Lin Yi looked away. “Alright, I’m done pretending. Let’s talk business.”

Liang Ruoxu raised his head again. The second program was a martial arts performance by a few boys.

“I think this martial arts performance is pretty good,” Liang Ruoxu said. “Especially the boy in the front row. He’s quite good-looking.”

Lin Yi turned around and said to Zhao Qi, “The boy in front, give him a big demerit after the party.”

Zhao Qi, “...”

Liang Ruoxu was speechless.

“That’s chauvinistic.”

Muttering to himself, Liang Ruoxu looked at Lin Yi and said,

“Alright, let’s get down to business.”

Lin Yi tilted his head toward Liang Ruoxu and whispered,

“Do you know anyone from Yangcheng?”

“What’s wrong? Do you want to help your orphanage with some policies?”

“That’s not it. I can take care of my mother myself.” Lin Yi said.

“Below Yangcheng is a poor town called Beiqiao Town. I want to build a Hope School there, the kind that covers nine years of compulsory education. However, the road to the town is exceptionally bad, so want to build a road for it while I’m at it. Can you contact the relevant people and allocate me some funds?”

“You’re building a school?”

Liang Ruoxu’s beautiful eyes widened. She didn’t expect Lin Yi to do this.

“Donating money all the time isn’t a catch-all solution, and it won’t solve the root issue either,” Lin Yi said, “Knowledge changes one’s fate. I have to help the children learn more so that their life won’t be so difficult when they join society.”

“Hu~”

Liang Ruoxu took a deep breath. Lin Yi’s personality had some sharp contrast, it was so contradictory that it made people feel like there were two extremes to him.

It was as if there were two different souls living in his body.

“I was parachuted into Zhonghai. I used to work in Yanjing. I’m not familiar with the people in Yangcheng,” Liang Ruoxu said.

“I’ll help you contact them first. This won’t be an issue. I’ll hear from them soon.”

“Thanks.”

Liang Ruoxu looked at Lin Yi, “Will you really continue doing philanthropy?”

Lin Yi pondered for a few seconds. “Let’s see how much money you have in your purse. I won’t continue acting tough if I don’t receive any funding.”

“You do realize that what you’re doing can’t change the overall situation, right? Besides, your career is still on the rise. Now is not the time for you to focus on charity.”

Liang Ruoxu completely disregarded her identity as she said this. Instead, she kindly reminded Lin Yi of this as a friend.

Lin Yi smiled at Liang Ruoxu. “Do you know when the best time to plant a tree is?”

Liang Ruoxu shook her head honestly.

“Ten years ago,” Lin Yi said, “Do you know when the next best time to plant a tree was?”

Liang Ruoxu shook her head.

“Now.”

“When it comes to certain things, it can never be the perfect time to do them. However, starting immediately can be the next best time. Therefore, it doesn’t matter the period, as long as you just start.”

Chapter 475: A Bet On Mutual Appreciation

“I understand what you mean.” Liang Ruoxu said.

“I just can’t believe that someone your age would have such thoughts.”

“I grew up in the political compound. All my friends my age only frequent brothels, nightclubs, and racetracks. You’re the only one I see that’s different.”

“Look at what you’re saying, you’re making it sound like I’m not normal.” Lin Yi said, “I had a sports car, I’d go to the nightclub too. I just don’t like the young models in the club, I don’t feel any sense of accomplishment when I get them.”

“Then who do you like?”

Lin Yi looked at Liang Ruoxu with a burning gaze. The latter instantly understood what he meant and subconsciously turned her head away, not wanting Lin Yi to see the blush on her face.

“Don’t look at me. Watch the show.”

Lin Yi looked up and saw that it was Sugar’s turn.

“You perfectly reminded me. I was just waiting for her show.”

“For her?”

Liang Ruoxu raised his head and looked at Sugar, who was sitting beside the piano. She could not help but mutter in her heart.

“Why are they so big?”

Seeing that Sugar was going to play the piano, Lin Yi was a little surprised. With her intelligence, she knew how to play the piano?

What surprised Lin Yi even more was that Sugar's piano skills seemed to be quite good.

The song she played was a difficult Mendelssohn E minor swing song. There were no flaws in her performance at all. Her skills were really good.

"Teacher Lin, play us a song!"

Sugar had just finished playing when she heard the students cheering below.

"What the f*ck?!"

I was just used as bait. Why are you asking him to go up?

"Teacher Lin, go on up. We want to hear you sing!"

"Teacher Lin, we want to hear you play the piano!"

"Teacher Lin, play us a song!"

Seeing the female students shouting crazily, Liang Ruoxu smiled at Lin Yi.

"It's hard to refuse such requests. Do you want to play a song?" Liang Ruoxu smiled and said, "If the performance can satisfy me, I'll help you get the local funding."

"I think you're trying to embarrass me."

"You're the one who said it, not me." Liang Ruoxu gloated as if she had identified Lin Yi's weakness. "You want the local funding, but you don't want to pay anything in return. There's no such thing as a free lunch in this world."

"Do I look like I need money? If push comes to shove, I will just forget the supporting funds." Lin Yi said.

"But if I actually do this, I want the two of us to admire each other later. If you agree, I don't mind going up and showing my face."

"You can't just make random gestures. You have to satisfy me."

"Why should I bother playing since you can just say you weren't satisfied?"

"I'll accept it as long as the students are satisfied," Liang Ruoxu said with a smile.

"Just you wait!"

Lin Yi stood up and said to the students below, "Stop shouting."

Under everyone's gaze, Lin Yi walked onto the stage.

At this moment, the host walked to the side.

"Teacher Lin, what show do you want to perform for the new juniors and seniors who are about to graduate?"

"I'm going to sing," Lin Yi said casually.

This answer was within the host's expectations.

This was because singing was the simplest talent. Everyone knew how to sing. The only difference was whether it was pleasant or unpleasant to the ears.

Liang Ruoxu quietly took out her phone and prepared to record Lin Yi's performance.

In the future, when he was disrespectful to her, she would take the video out and show it to him. She guaranteed that it would extinguish the fire instantly.

At the thought of this, Liang Ruoxu's lips curled into a smile.

Admiring each other?

'In your dreams, hmph!'

"Teacher Lin, what song do you want to sing? I'll get the students backstage to prepare it."

Even though doing this would disrupt the sequence of events, what did it matter?

This shows were mainly meant to entertain to students. As long as they were happy, nothing else mattered.

"There's no need to prepare anything. There's a piano here. I can use this."

"Piano?"

Hearing that Lin Yi was going to play the piano, everyone watching the show was surprised.

Could it be that Teacher Lin knew how to play the piano?

Wasn't he a little too omnipotent?

“Teacher Lin, what song do you plan to sing?” The host was surprised and delighted. Not only was he handsome, but he also knew how to play the piano. He loved it.

“Loving You.”

As he spoke, Lin Yi sat on the piano chair and tested the piano to make sure it was in tune. After confirming that there was no problem, he started playing.

Lin Yi didn't hesitate as he tapped the black and white keys with both hands. A beautiful melody flowed from between his fingers.

“Loving you is easy 'cause you're beautiful,

“It's easy to fall in love with you because you're so beautiful.

“And making love with you is all I wanna do.

“And being with you is the only thing I want.

“Loving you is more than just a dream come true,

“Loving you isn't just a dream come true.

“And everything that I do is out of love for you.

“And all I did was love you.

“No one else can make me feel the colors that you bring.

“No one can make me feel the colors you bring.”

His voice carried perfect harmonics. Coupled with the notes from the piano, the students below the stage were mesmerized!

How was this just singing? It was clearly a display of tragic love.

When the last note was played, Lin Yi stopped. Everyone present was intoxicated.

Liang Ruoxu couldn't believe that Lin Yi had such skills.

She also did not expect him to be able to sing such a beautiful song.

What surprised her the most was that Lin Yi's English was so good.

This was definitely not based on homonyms. He really had a solid base in English. Otherwise, he would not have been able to sing so well.

Lin Yi stood up and looked at the people below.

“What are you waiting for? Clap.”

Only then did they know that not only was Lin Yi handsome, but he also had substance.

Compared to Teacher Lin, other men could hardly be considered men at all!

They were nothing more than male animals!

“Teacher Lin, you sang too well. Sing another song.”

“I can’t take it anymore. I’m going to get pregnant.”

“We want to hear thunder!”

“Teacher Lin, I love you. I want to bear your children!”

“That’s more like it.”

Lin Yi nodded in satisfaction and walked back to his seat.

At this moment, Liang Ruoxu still couldn’t believe that the English song that had played and sang had come from Lin Yi.

“Beauty Liang, from the reaction of the audience, they should be quite satisfied with the song I sang. It’s time for us to admire each other. You haven’t forgotten, right?”

“What’s the use of them being satisfied? Anyway, I didn’t think it was nice.”

“You’re being shameless.”

“You’re the one being shameless. What can you do to me? Hmph.”

Lin Yi couldn’t do anything about Liang Ruoxu, but he didn’t take it to heart.

With her personality, it would be strange if she really bared it all for him.

As the party entered its second half, Liang Ruoxu found a random excuse and left early.

This was within Zhao Qi's expectations. If it wasn't for Lin Yi, she might not have stayed until now.

"Do you want to have dinner together?" Liang Ruoxu asked when they reached the parking lot.

"It's tasteless to eat with someone like you who goes back on their word. It'd be better go back and eat by myself."

"Do you have to act like this?" Liang Ruoxu said bitterly.

"Why not? People aren't morally upright if they don't keep their promises. People like you are only reliable on the surface. Once something happens, you won't step in to lend a helping hand."

"Who are you calling unreliable? I'm not the kind of person you think I am."

"You didn't do what you promised me, and yet you say you're not that kind of person?"

"In that case, let's go to my house. We have to eat dinner first."

Chapter 476: Chip Launch

"Then what are we waiting for? Get in the car. I'm starving."

Liang Ruoxu ran her fingers through her hair. She couldn't do anything to convince Lin Yi, so she decided to get into the car and drive home.

When they reached home, Liang Ruoxu found Lin Yi a pair of slippers before the latter returned to his room. He changed into a set of long-sleeved pajamas and prepared to cook in the kitchen.

"Why did you change your style today? I remember the last time I came, you were wearing silk." Lin Yi lay on the sofa like a boss.

"Why? Do I have to get Mr. Lin's permission to wear whatever I want?"

"Nope. I just don't want them to hide in the darkness. Otherwise, they would have grown for nothing."

"Even if I wore those silk pajamas, I'd only wear it over other clothes." Liang Ruoxu said, "Set aside your bad intentions."

As she spoke, Liang Ruoxu playfully rolled up her trouser legs, revealing her slender legs. "Just admire it for a while."

"There's no beauty to admire."

"Be content. Other women's legs aren't as long as mine."

"No other man is as long as I am either."

"You're the first person to act like a hooligan in front of me."

They were both adults, so Liang Ruoxu naturally understood these dirty jokes.

She had grown up in a political courtyard and had heard of even more disgusting things.

Soon, the sound of cooking could be heard in the kitchen. Half an hour later, the dishes were served. One meat, one vegetable, and one soup dish. In terms of nutrition, it was very balanced.

"How much local funding do you want?" Liang Ruoxu asked while they were eating.

"Do I have the final say in this matter?"

"Of course, it won't be a problem to find someone to talk to about this and to get some funds allocated to the project," Liang Ruoxu said. "However, if the amount of funds required is too high in proportion to the amount you put in, you will be rejected."

"How much do you think is appropriate? Just give me as much as you can. I'm not picky."

"Then 40% it is," Liang Ruoxu said. "It won't cost much to build a road and a bridge for the town. You just need to spend a few million. Besides, you can leave all the work to Chaoyang Group, so the cost will probably be lower. When the time comes, I'll help you. The funding will be yours."

"Thank you, Beauty Liang. Other than devoting myself to you, I can't find any other way to repay you."

Liang Ruoxu picked up a piece of meat and said coquettishly, "Eat your food."

After dinner, Lin Yi and Liang Ruoxu chatted for a while.

She planned to let Lin Yi choose the location of the Hope School in Zhonghai.

This would give him more support.

However, then she remembered that Lin Yi's hometown was in Yangcheng, so she didn't say anything.

After eating with Liang Ruoxu, Lin Yi drove home.

On the way back, he told Li Chuhan that he had something to do tomorrow morning and wouldn't be going to the hospital.

Li Chuhan agreed readily and even reminded Lin Yi that if he didn't have enough time, he could come in the afternoon.

However, Lin Yi didn't agree to this. After all, he had to prepare to perform a surgery in the afternoon.

He had to prioritize the system mission.

After resting for a night, Lin Yi drove to the newly established research institute the next morning.

"President Yi is here."

Shen Tianzhuo chuckled when he saw Lin Yi.

"Director Shen, how's the progress now?"

The two of them sat down and Shen Tianzhuo poured two glasses of water. "We'll be able to break through to create a 17-nanometer chip very soon. However, as you know, the most advanced chips now are all around 4-nanometers in size. We're still far from the industry standard."

"What's the main problem stopping us from getting there?"

"Light source."

Shen Tianzhuo answered bluntly, "Many important parts can be bought all over the world using some of my connections. Only the light source is posing a problem."

Lin Yi rubbed his chin. "If we make it ourselves, how much money and time will it take?"

"Money is irrelevant to this. It will take at least three years." Shen Tianzhuo said.

"However, it's not worth it. Even if you successfully develop a four-nanometer light source, a company like Jaewon Television has already developed a three-nanometer light source. We've at least a generation behind, so the gap cannot be ignored. Therefore, we shouldn't even try catching up to the rest of the world when it comes to this."

Lin Yi completely agreed with Shen Tianzhuo's words.

The situation in the world changed rapidly, and he could not wait that long.

Moreover, forget a person, even the power of an entire country could not produce a photolithography machine. It would be impossible to completely domesticate its production .

Therefore, the problem now was how to deal with the lack of a suitable light source.

"If I remember correctly, Cymer is the world's top optical component manufacturer."

"That's right. ASML's photolithography machine uses Cymer's light source."

Shen Tianzhuo said, "A few days ago, I met with the person-in-charge of Cymer in the Yatai region, but the results of the negotiation were not ideal."

"Is there a ban in place?"

Shen Tianzhuo nodded. "They are very wary of Huaxia. They can sell you the previous generation products, but not the latest ones. As for the four-nanometer light source, we can all but forget about it."

"This is too f*cking difficult."

"You must have expected this, right?" Shen Tianzhuo smiled and said.

"It's not easy to build a photolithography machine, but there's no hurry. This is because the other components haven't reached a suitable level either. Even if we buy it now, we won't need it just yet."

"Alright, I understand," Lin Yi said, "I'll think of something later."

"In short, for now, the other parts are not difficult to develop. The problem will be the light source." Shen Tianzhuo stood up. "Since you're here, I'll show you the other research and development reports and have you sign them."

"Director Shen, I won't bother reading the report. I don't have to worry about you." Lin Yi said.

"Can you call Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu over? I have something to tell them."

"Alright, wait here."

A few minutes later, Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu walked in.

“Boss, were you looking for us?” Lu Ying asked.

“For the next few days, put aside what you’re doing. I have something else to tell you.”

“Go ahead.”

“Prepare a press conference about our Chip 1.0 technology,” Lin Yi said.

“Ah? A press conference?” Lu Ying and Sun Fuyu were shocked. They felt that Lin Yi’s idea was a little unbelievable.

“Cisco has stolen our technology and applied for more than 20 patents. We might just receive a subpoena in the afternoon after the press conference is held,” Lu Ying said.

“We may say that we are using Chip 1.0 technology, but when the time comes, who says I’m actually going to release Chip 1.0 products?”

“Are you planning to release Chip 2.0 technology already?”

Lin Yi smiled faintly. “That’s right, but we have to create a smokescreen in front of us. We can’t let Cisco know too much. Otherwise, it won’t be fun when the mystery is revealed.”

Chapter 477: Do I Look Like A Wicked Person to You

“I understand,” Lu Ying said.

“Should we get a media company to handle this?”

“Hmm...”

Lin Yi pondered for a few seconds. “There’s a media company called Fenglan Culture in Zhonghai. Go get them to do this, but don’t reveal my name.”

“Then do we need to hide our identities? Do you want to create alternate identities for us?”

Obviously, Lu Ying had already adapted to Lin Yi’s tricks and knew about his affinity for character creation.

“That’s not necessary. Just act as the Longxin Research Institute.”

“Got it.”

The two of them nodded. Sun Fuyu asked, “Other than Fenglan Culture, should we contact the other media agencies in the circle?”

“No need.” Lin Yi tilted his head and smiled. “As long as you work with Fenglan Culture, she will help us with the rest.”

“Got it.”

“There’s one more thing,” Lin Yi said, “This has to do with Director Shen’s research report. If there’s anything that needs to be signed, take it to the city and ask Liang Ruoxu to sign it.”

“The new deputy mayor?”

“Yeah.”

“Got it.”

“Alright, go do it now.” Lin Yi stood up, “I have other things to do, so I’ll leave first.”

“Take care, Boss.”

After leaving the research institute, Lin Yi called Qin Han.

“Don’t tell me you’re bringing a girl out to sea for a swimsuit party again. Are you coming to anger me now?”

“Do I really look like a wicked person to you?”

“Damn, you look incredibly wicked. I really want to slap you in the face when I see you.”

“Alright, stop talking nonsense,” Lin Yi said, “I remember that there’s someone called Liu Yinxi under you. Why haven’t I seen him recently?”

“He’s been with me for quite some time. I’ve arranged a proper job for him where he’s going to be the vice president.”

“I have something going on now. Can I borrow him?”

“Sure, where are you? I’ll get him to look for you.”

“No need. Tell me where he is and I’ll pick him up.”

“Go to Sino-Han Capital and look for him. You should have his phone number, right?”

“Yes,” Lin Yi said, “Go do your thing, I’ll hang up first.”

After hanging up, Lin Yi went to Sino-Han Capital and called Liu Yinxi. The other party came down quickly.

“Not bad. You look like a high-ranking white-collar worker in a suit.”

“Mr. Lin, please don’t joke with me.” Liu Yin said happily.

“Young Master Qin took care of me and arranged for me to be a department manager. But to be honest, I’m not the kind of person who works in the office. I’m more comfortable working with Young Master Qin.”

“Hey, calm down. You still have to support your family in the future.”

“That’s true.” Liu Yinxi said.

“If Young Master Qin hadn’t taken care of me, I wouldn’t have been able to stay in a place like Zhonghai.”

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Liu Yinxi looked at Lin Yi and said,

“Mr. Lin, I heard from Young Master Qin that you’re looking for me. Just let me know if you need anything.”

“I have an important mission for you. I don’t trust anyone else, so you have to do it.”

“No problem. Just say it.”

“Don’t worry. Get in the car first. I’ll take you somewhere. We’ll talk on the way.”

“Okay.”

An hour later, Lin Yi drove Liu Yinxi to the factory area.

On the way, Lin Yi told him in detail what he needed Liu Yinxi to do.

“Mr. Lin, do you really want to play these kinds of tricks? It’s a little exciting.”

“Don’t worry, Sci-Tech belongs to me. There will be no repercussions. Just do as I say.”

“Alright, I’ll listen to Mr. Lin’s arrangements.”

After getting out of the car, the two of them parted ways. Lin Yi went to Wang Ran’s office.

Wang Ran was wearing a white tulle ruffled shirt with jeans and high heels. When wearing this traditional outfit, she looked much more sexy and charming.

“Teacher Lin.”

Seeing Lin Yi enter, Wang Ran stood up to welcome him.

“How’s the factory been recently?” Lin Yi sat on the sofa and asked.

“It’s still the same as before.” Wang Ran said, “But I feel that the current Sci-Tech is no longer ours.”

“Why?”

“The workshop and the warehouse are controlled by Cisco’s people. Sometimes, I want to review the level of fire safety, but I’m stopped outside,” Wang Ran said without much interest.

“I feel like a female security guard. I don’t do anything and I’m still earning my salary. Teacher Lin, why don’t you arrange some other jobs for me?”

As she said this, Wang Ran made a cup of coffee for Lin Yi and handed it to him.

“Don’t worry. The business between Sci-Tech and Cisco is about to come to an end. You won’t have to stay here anymore.”

“Teacher Lin, don’t misunderstand. I’m not complaining about my work.” Wang Ran explained.

“I feel bad for not doing any work and getting paid.”

“I didn’t misunderstand,” Lin Yi said, “I transferred you here because I didn’t have enough manpower. I’ll take care of everything in a few days...”

Creak...

Before Lin Yi could finish speaking, the office door was pushed open.

Cao Xiangyu and his secretary hurried in from outside.

“Yo, isn’t this Brother Cao? I haven’t seen you in a long time. How’s business been recently? It should be quite good, right?”

“Brother Lin, why are you making a scene?” Cao Xiangyu said.

“What’s wrong? I’m just here to visit my employees. I didn’t do anything.”

“Nothing?” Cao Xiangyu suppressed his anger and said,

“You sent a tall burly man to guard the toilet door and charge for every entry. No one does this. It’s too unethical.”

“Oh, you meant that?” Lin Yi suddenly understood.

“Brother Cao, you have to understand your brother’s difficulties.”

“What difficulties? Did you start gambling again?”

“Don’t mention that. I lost a few hundred thousand again, and I don’t have any money in my pocket,” Lin Yi said.

“But don’t worry, Brother Cao. I’m a sensible person. I won’t take your money anymore. I’m already an adult. I have to learn to earn my own money. Taking your money all the time isn’t a solution.”

“I understand that you want to earn money, but you can’t use this method,” Cao Xiangyu said.

“How can the factory employees work when you send people to guard the toilet door and charge for its use? People are already complaining to me.”

“Let them complain.” Lin Yi said, “Isn’t money meant to be spent? They can’t lay eggs with it even if they keep it.”

“That’s right, but who would use the money they earned to go to the toilet?”

“Don’t you have a toilet at home?” Lin Yi said.

“Of course I did. Is there a need to ask?”

“That’s exactly it. If you install a toilet in your own house, it’s like a full cash payment. I’m just charging in installments. If they find it expensive, they can use the Provident Fund. It’ll be much cheaper that way,” Lin Yi said.

“We’re both businessmen. We have to find a way to scam others. You can’t complain to me about this.”

Chapter 478: I'll Give You the 200,000!

Cao Xiangyu cursed in his heart.

They are all my f*cking employees. If I charge a fee to go to the toilet, who would still work for me?!

Even so, Cao Xiangyu also knew that Lin Yi was someone who didn't play by the rules.

Otherwise, he would not have tried to level the warehouse to raise fish.

How could a normal person do such a thing?

"Brother Lin, what you said makes sense, but we can't do this," Cao Xiangyu said.

"Does Secretary Wang have to pay to go to the toilet?"

"How is could that be? She's my subordinate, so she naturally doesn't have to pay." Lin Yi said.

"It's the same as when I handed over the assembly line and warehouse to you. Secretary Wang didn't have the right to review the fire safety protocols in this situation, right?"

Hearing this, Cao Xiangyu understood what was going on.

It turned out that he was standing up for his secretary.

"Brother Lin, didn't we make it very clear before? The warehouse is an important part of the factory, and it's filled with Cisco's goods. We were afraid that accidents might occur, so we stopped Secretary Wang from entering," Cao Xiangyu said with a smile.

"Didn't you just want to go to the warehouse to take a look? I'll bring you there to inspect it now so that you can continue to guide us in our work."

"Alright, since I'm already here, I'll go over and take a look. I have nothing else to do anyway."

"Brother Lin, if possible, can you recall your subordinate? He's been guarding the entrance and collecting entrance fees, causing the employees below to be unable to work."

"Alright, I'll call him back first. Let's go take a look."

“Alright, alright, alright. We’re all on the same side. Let’s go over and take a look.”

Lin Yi called Liu Yinxi back and walked toward the warehouse.

“President Cao, this person is a jerk. Why are you still attending to him?” The female secretary said disdainfully.

Since the beginning, she didn’t have a good impression of Lin Yi.

This was because her goal was money, not Lin Yi’s looks.

“You’re wrong.” Director Cao placed his hands behind his back, looking like he was gazing out at the world.

“People like him are actually the easiest to deal with. Can’t you tell why he did this?”

The female secretary shook her head. She really did not understand.

“A few days ago, didn’t his secretary want to go to the warehouse to check the fire safety protocols? In the end, she was stopped by our people. As the saying goes, you have to check with the owner before hitting a dog. He felt embarrassed and thus played this trick. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have done such a insensitive thing.”

The secretary thought for a moment and seemed to understand what was going on.

“Could it be that President Cao did this just to give him face?”

“Of course. I’ve seen a lot of people like him. He’s capable of a lot, but he values his reputation very much. He talks about pomp everywhere and hopes that others will treat him with the highest standards. Therefore, people like him are the easiest to deal with. As long as you give him enough face, everything else can be discussed.”

“President Cao is really the best. You can tell who he is at a glance.”

Cao Xiangyu smiled. “I’ve been around for so many years. If I don’t even have this bit of foresight, wouldn’t I have wasted my time working so hard?”

“Try to get rid of him quickly. I’m annoyed just looking at him.”

Cao Xiangyu nodded. “Hurry up and make arrangements at the warehouse. Get the people guarding there to put on a show and give him some face. This matter will be resolved soon.”

“Got it, President Cao. I’ll go now.”

A few minutes later, they arrived at the warehouse.

At the same time, four people walked out of the warehouse and stood in a row at the door, bowing to Lin Yi.

“Hello, President Lin. Welcome to the examination of the warehouse.”

“Colleagues, you’ve worked hard.”

“All this is to serve President Lin.”

Liu Yinxi stood at the side, completely confused. What kind of trick was this?

President Lin wasn’t normally such an amicable person.

“President Lin, have a stick.” The warehouse manager handed him a cigarette.

“I don’t smoke. I’ll cough after smoking.”

“Boss Lin, drink some water. This is freshly brewed Tie Guanyin.”

“No, I can’t sleep after drinking.”

Everyone was speechless.

The secretary looked at Lin Yi with disdain.

He was clearly nothing, but he was still putting on airs. Compared to President Cao, he was really far inferior.

With his hands behind his back, Lin Yi led Wang Ran and Liu Yinxi around the four warehouses.

“President Cao, Cisco is really something. It hasn’t been long, but these four empty warehouses are already full. If these goods are distributed, won’t we make a lot of money?”

“It’s just a small business. It’s still far from being comparable to what President Lin is capable of.”

“It’s fine. I’ve threaded this path step by step. If there’s anything you don’t understand, you can ask me. With our relationship, I won’t charge you for any tuition fees.”

Cao Xiangyu despised him deep inside his heart, but his expression was very polite.

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll definitely communicate more with Brother Lin regarding this in the future.”

“It’s obvious that Brother Cao is someone who is destined for great things. If you don’t know anything, learn it. You will surely succeed.”

“Hehehe...”

Cao Xiangyu sneered in his heart and didn’t say anything. He was already speechless at Lin Yi’s shamelessness.

About half an hour later, Lin Yi and the other two finished walking around the warehouse. They had a rough idea of the situation.

“Little Liu, the tour is over. Go back and continue working. Don’t bother with this anymore.”

“Got it, President Lin. I’ll go back now.” Liu Yin said happily.

“This trip has taken up almost an hour of my time. I lost out on dozens of dollars in the process.

“When it comes to making money, it’s important to keep things small and steady. Don’t pursue immediate gains and losses. Money can be earned slowly.”

“Got it, President Lin.”

“Hey, hey, hey, wait a minute.”

Seeing that Liu Yinxi was about to leave, Cao Xiangyu stopped him from behind.

“Brother, where are you going?”

“The tour is over. I have to go to the toilet to charge.”

“For a fee?”

Cao Xiangyu’s expression turned ugly.

“Brother Lin, what do you mean? I’ve brought you around the warehouse. Good cigarettes and tea have been prepared for you in process. Why are you still making him guard the toilet?”

“I don’t want to do this either.” Lin Yi sighed.

“He’s a distant relative of mine. His family background isn’t very good. His parents are seriously ill and he doesn’t have any skills. I can only arrange for him to work here. If there were any other options, I wouldn’t behave like this.”

“Isn’t that simple? If I arrange for him to work at the assembly line, won’t he have a source of income in the future?” Cao Xiangyu said.

“The issue is that this relative of mine is all brawn and no brains. He can’t do that kind of high-end work. Moreover, he prefers to work freely. His biggest dream since he was young was to start a business.”

With that, Lin Yi looked at Liu Yinxi. “I remember a few days ago, you told me that you wanted to go out and do business. You took a fancy to a shop. The annual rent is 200,000 yuan, but you can’t afford it, right?”

“That’s right. That boss is too evil. He asked for 200,000 yuan. I had no choice but to stay here and watch the toilet for a while. When I earn 200,000 yuan, I’ll rent that place.”

Lin Yi nodded and said earnestly,

“Your idea is quite novel. Work hard here. President Cao has so many people under him. You will be able to earn 200,000 yuan in a few months.”

“Holy shit!”

Cao Xiangyu cursed in his heart, “You still want to f*cking work here for a few months? You’re going to ruin my business.”

“Brother Liu, you’re Brother Lin’s relative, so you’re basically my relative too. Isn’t it just 200,000 yuan? I support your dream. I’ll invest this money in you.”

Chapter 479: A Dog Needs to Follow the Rules

“Brother Cao, that’s not good. It was not easy for you to earn your money. Let him earn his keep himself,” Lin Yi declined.

“Brother Lin, what are you talking about?” Cao Xiangyu said.

“Although it’s not easy for me to earn money, 200,000 yuan is not a lot. I can still afford it. Besides, looking after the toilet is not a respectable job. I won’t make him do this.”

As he spoke, President Cao wrote a check for 200,000 yuan and handed it to Liu Yinxi.

“Alright then, I won’t stand on ceremony with Brother Cao.” Lin Yi looked at Liu Yinxi.
“Thank you, Director Cao.”

“Thank you, Director Cao. Thank you, Director Cao.”

“Brother Lin, let’s make sure we’re on the same page. After receiving my money, you can’t let your relative guard the toilet anymore,” Cao Xiangyu said.

“Don’t worry, I’ll keep my word. I won’t have any ideas about the toilet again.”

Lin Yi waved his hand. “Let’s go. Come with me to the canteen.”

“Huh?”

Cao Xiangyu was stunned. “Brother Lin, why are you still going to the canteen?”

“I’m the one in charge of the canteen in Sci-Tech’s factory now. I have to think of a way to earn money.”

“I just gave you 200,000.”

“You didn’t give me the 200,000 yuan. I need money urgently, or I’ll run out of food to eat.”

“Brother Lin, it’s not that I want to criticize you, but if you continue gambling like this, no matter how much money you have, it won’t be enough for you to spend.”

“You’re wrong. I don’t touch those things anymore,” Lin Yi said.

“Recently, their dog has given birth to more than ten pups. They want to hold a three-day banquet to celebrate. I’m prepared to give them 20,000 yuan as a gift, but I’m genuinely short of money. I have to think of a way to earn some money.”

Liu Yinxi, ‘We don’t keep dogs!’

“Fuck!”

Cao Xiangyu cursed in his heart. You’re f*cking trying to trick me again!

Which family’s dog could have more than ten pups in one litter!

“Director Cao, what should we do now? If we let this scoundrel go after the canteen, he will definitely cause trouble again,” the female secretary said.

“I know that!”

Cao Xiangyu gritted his teeth and said, "I've already spent large sums of money, so I don't need this 20,000 yuan. If I give it to him, the entire Sci-Tech factory will be in my hands. I won't have to bother with him in the future!

"That's all we can do now."

"Brother, isn't it just 20,000 yuan? Your life is difficult right now. I can't watch you embarrass yourself. I'll pay you 20,000 yuan!"

"That's not good. I didn't mean that."

"With our relationship, just 20,000 yuan is not a big deal."

Cao Xiangyu took out the checkbook again, but just as he was about to write something, Lin Yi stopped him.

"Brother Cao, didn't you just say that my relative is your relative? Their family is going to hold a big event. Aren't you going to support them?"

"As you know, I'm a little busy here. I really can't leave."

"Then we're in the same boat. We can't go, so we can only give him the gift in advance."

Cao Xiangyu's face darkened!

You f*cking tricked me again!

Damn it, I'll endure it!

'Sci-Tech will be mine soon. I will definitely get revenge in the future!'

"It can't be helped. We're all busy people and can't come personally. We can only give you a gift in advance," Director Cao said with a fake smile.

"What a pity. The presence of someone like Brother Cao will definitely shock everyone. My relative's face will probably be filled with pride too," Lin Yi said regretfully.

"I want to go too, but I really have no choice."

"It's okay. Although you can't go, I'll definitely arrange this for you."

With that, Lin Yi looked at Liu Yinxi. "Let me tell you, Brother Cao can't attend, but you have to make sure the attendees know of his 100,000 yuan donation. Otherwise, those country bumpkins won't know how awesome Brother Cao is."

Cao Xiangyu, "???"

“When did I say I’d give you 100,000 yuan?”

“Huh? Did I hear wrongly?” Lin Yi looked at Liu Yinxi and said, “Look at how generous Brother Cao is. He actually wants to give you 200,000 yuan. Let me tell you, you have to repay this favor in the future.”

Blergh!

Cao Xiangyu almost vomited blood.

Who the f*ck said that he would donate 200,000 yuan?!

“Brother Lin, wait a moment. Let me correct you. You didn’t mishear just now. I said 100,000 yuan, not 200,000 yuan.”

“Alright, no matter how small a mosquito’s leg is, it’s still meat. 100,000 yuan it is. We don’t mind.”

Cao Xiangyu didn’t know how to reply to Lin Yi.

He was too damn shameless!

Gritting his teeth, he wrote down a check for 120,000 yuan and handed it to Lin Yi.

“Brother Lin, this matter is over. Now, we’re in charge of the assembly line, warehouse, canteen, and toilet. You can’t get involved anymore.”

“Don’t worry, Brother Cao is really generous, so I won’t screw up. Don’t worry.” Lin Yi smiled.

“I have something on later, so I won’t talk to you anymore. See you later.”

“Okay, see you later.”

After bidding farewell to Cao Xiangyu, Lin Yi left with Wang Ran and Liu Yinxi.

Standing at the entrance of the factory, he looked at Wang Ran and said,

“Feel free to work during these next few days. You just need to understand the general movements inside.”

“Got it. Thank you, Teacher Lin.”

After giving Wang Ran a few instructions, Lin Yi and Liu Yinxi got into the car.

“Mr. Lin, the check for 320,000 yuan is here.”

“No need. Take it for yourself since you came out to do this with me. I can’t have you work for nothing.”

As he spoke, Lin Yi started the car and left. “You walked around the warehouse just now. Did you see the overall layout and the location of the surveillance cameras?”

“I got it all.”

“Alright, contact a few reliable people and listen to my orders. Be prepared to take action at any time.”

“Mr. Lin, don’t worry. I’ve done my best.”

“Get ready. This is important.”

“Got it!”

After leaving the industrial zone, Lin Yi sent Liu Yinxi back to Sino-Han Capital. After eating, he drove to the hospital.

When they arrived at the hospital, Lin Yi got busy.

Because there was a surgery in the afternoon, he needed to check the patient’s medical records. However, Li Chuhan had already prepared everything. She didn’t even need him to read it as she instead carefully explained it to him.

At around five in the afternoon, the surgery ended, and the mission progress became (3/5). There would be surgery on each of the next two days, so this stage of the mission would be completed very quickly.

In Lin Yi’s mind, he was thinking about how to deal with the four-nanometer light source.

Because in a series of plans, this seemed to be the most difficult problem to solve.

Ring!

Lin Yi’s phone rang. It was a call from Ji Qingyan.

“Doctor Lin, are you off work?”

“I just finished my surgery. If there’s nothing else for me to handle, I can pick you up at the office.”

“No need. Yuanyuan and I are shopping at the supermarket. How about we eat some hotpot together tonight?”

“Is she coming over to eat at our place?”

“I have something to talk to her about, so we are going to sit down and discuss it.”

“That’s fine, but don’t spend any money to buy any meat. Let He Yuanyuan buy it.”

Chapter 480: Your Coquettish Act Almost Made My Soul Leave My Body

“Alright, I’ll help you relay the message.”

“After work, you can go straight back to Jiuzhou Pavilion. You don’t have to pick me up.”

“Didn’t you say that you wouldn’t take the initiative to go if you weren’t invited?”

“It doesn’t count this time. Yuanyuan insisted on coming. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have bothered to join.”

“Alright.” Lin Yi said with a smile. Although she was on the other end of the line, he could already imagine Ji Qingyan’s proud expression.

After a simple chat, Lin Yi hung up.

He also guessed why He Yuanyuan wanted to come over for dinner.

This should be about the Hope School and road construction.

Just as Lin Yi was packing up and preparing to leave, he saw Li Chuhan walk in.

“Director, if I remember correctly, your family is in Beiqiao Town, right?”

“Yes.” Li Chuhan nodded in response.

“When are you heading back to visit?”

“Next Wednesday.”

Lin Yi thought about it. There were still five days left. He made an OK gesture. “I’ll arrange the rest.”

“Thank you.”

After greeting the department, Lin Yi drove back to the Jiuzhou Pavilion.

When he got back, he found that the ingredients were already laid out, and they were eating in the courtyard.

“Boss, you’re finally back. Hurry up, I’m hungry,” He Yuanyuan said.

“You’re waiting for me to eat?”

“Senior Sister won’t let me eat until you arrived.”

“It’s impolite,” corrected Ji Qingyan.

“Those are all excuses. Look, the two of you are even wearing matching pants. I’m not so gullible.”

“Alright, Lin Yi is back. Let’s eat.” Ji Qingyan interrupted He Yuanyuan, too embarrassed to let her continue.

“Yes, let’s eat first. After that, I’ll go for a swim in the pool.”

“Your senior sister’s D cups can enjoy themselves for a couple of laps, but you’re a B-. Why are you going down to join in the fun?” Lin Yi said, “Other than me, anyone below D cup going into the water is an insult to my pool.”

“Senior sister…”

“Eh…”

“Why do you look like that?” He Yuanyuan glared at her.

“Your senior sister is acting cute. This is pleasing to the eye. You acting cute makes my soul want to leave my body,” Lin Yi said, “Don’t go into the pool, go swim in the bathtub upstairs.”

“I want to go down and swim! No one can stop me from doing so!”

“Alright, alright. You two eat well.”

Ji Qingyan was puzzled. One was the company’s CEO, and the other was a CFO. The two of them were arguing so much, yet they could still work in the same company.

This showed how abnormal these two people were.

Under Ji Qingyan’s intervention, neither of them said anything else.

After eating and replenishing his energy, he continued.

“Didn’t you want to build a road in Beiqiao Town? The cost breakdown has already been completed,” said Ji Qingyan.

“Already?”

“According to the information Yuanyuan gave me, the road into the town is about 3.2 kilometers away. If the raw materials are bought locally, we can reduce cost. The four-meter-wide cement road measures about 800 meters.”

Lin Yi did some calculations. “That will be about 2.56 million.”

Ji Qingyan nodded. “This is done according to the village’s guidelines. Cement will do. Otherwise, the cost of a tar road will be even higher. However, this pales in comparison to the river which is more than 30 meters wide. If you want to build a bridge across it, it has to be at least 50 meters long. According to the four-meter width, the total construction area will be about 200 square meters, and the cost is about 50,000 yuan per square meter. The total price is about 10 million yuan. If you add in the road that needs to be built, 13 million yuan will do the trick. If you also build the Hope School, the total cost will be at least 15 million yuan.”

He Yuanyuan straightened her expression. “Boss, 15 million is not a small sum. Do you really plan to go through with this?”

“Of course.” Lin Yi said, “Although it’s not a small amount, I can still get about five million yuan in subsidies. I can put in the other ten million myself.”

Ji Qingyan also knew about the government subsidy, so she was not surprised.

“If that’s the case, it’ll be equivalent to a reduction of one-third of the cost. This will make it more feasible.”

Ji Qingyan picked up a piece of vegetable from the hotpot and dipped it into the oil.

“When do you plan to do this?”

“The project in the suburbs is being developed. Can you spare some people to do this?”

“Then make preparations for the near future. We still have to discuss the rest of the details with Beiqiao Town, but it will only take a few days. It won’t be long.”

“Yes, yes. Coincidentally, there are still some preparations to make in the early stages. There’s no hurry.”

Ji Qingyan and He Yuanyuan did not eat much. After eating for half an hour, they put down their chopsticks and returned to their room to change into swimsuits, preparing to take a dip in the swimming pool.

Although He Yuanyuan’s swimsuit was a little bolder, Lin Yi had no interest in her at all when she was next to Ji Qingyan’s voluptuous figure. He did not even look at her the entire time.

In accordance with their previous arrangement, Ji Qingyan would stay here whenever she came to the Jiuzhou Pavilion.

However, with He Yuanyuan around today, she was too embarrassed to do so. The two of them drove away together.

Lin Yi didn’t say anything. There were a lot of things on his plate, and he needed some time to sort them out.

Especially regarding the four-nanometer light source, he had to think of a solution for this as soon as possible.

...

That night, Cisco’s office building was brightly lit.

Wearing a black pair of wide-legged pants, Cao Jingqiu appeared in Cao Jiadong’s office.

“Daughter, are you sure this news is correct?” Cao Jiadong stood up excitedly. “Is Longxin really going to announce the Chip 1.0 technology?”

Nodding her head, Cao Jingqiu replied, “Two of their staff came to our company today, wanting Fenglan Culture to publicize their new product launch. I can guarantee it.”

“That’s great.” Cao Jiadong was so excited that he was incoherent.

“Although we were the first to develop the Chip 1.0 technology, Longxin is still an enemy that can’t be underestimated. However, the moment the press conference starts, we can use our patent to move swiftly and completely crush them!”

“What happens next has nothing to do with me.” Cao Jingqiu walked out of the door with her handbag.

Ever since Cao Jiadong told Cao Jingqiu to stay out of Cisco's matters, she had decided not to care about this matter anymore.

However, today, Longxin's people had sought her out. She still couldn't help it. No matter what, blood was thicker than water.

Some things could not be cut off.

"Have a seat before you leave. I haven't seen you for a long time," Cao Jiadong said.

"It doesn't matter if you have seen me or not. You should focus on the matter at hand."

After saying that, Cao Jingqiu pushed the door open and left.

After doing what she had to do, there was no need for her to strick around.

After Cao Jingqiu left, Cao Jiadong picked up the phone on the table and called his secretary.

"Inform the company's executives that we are going to hold a meeting!"
