

Chapter 513: Lin Yi's Hidden Thoughts

"F*ck, you're still making sarcastic remarks!"

A man stood up and pointed at Lin Yi.

"You knocked over our fish. My father even suffered a heart attack because of you. Hurry up and compensate us!"

"No, no, my heart doesn't feel good..."

As soon as the man finished speaking, the old man beside him clutched his chest and lay on the ground.

"Aiyo, our hearts aren't feeling too good either. It's killing me."

Seeing the old man lying on the ground, the others who were blocking the way also lay down.

"Pay up!"

More than twenty people surrounded Lin Yi and Li Chuhan. "Let me tell you, if you don't compensate us today, none of you will be able to leave!"

"I know this person. He's his eldest daughter's subordinate. When I went to see a doctor, he even extorted 100,000 yuan from me and got my son arrested. We can't let them leave today," Wei Erzhu said.

"Lin Yi..."

Li Chuhan looked at Lin Yi, "What do we do now?"

"Are you afraid?"

"With you by my side, I'm not afraid."

Li Chuhan grabbed Lin Yi's hand, unwilling to let go for a moment.

"Make way, make way."

Just as the atmosphere was tense, voices came from the back of the crowd.

He looked back and saw three young men coming from outside.

“Brother Sun, you’re here.”

Seeing the man coming over, Liu Kai went up to him.

The man Liu Kai called Brother Sun was known as Sun Deliang, the son of Sun Maoqun.

“Liu Kai, I heard that your sister is back. Is that her?” Sun Deliang asked.

“Yes, yes, yes. That’s my sister.”

“She’s really beautiful. She doesn’t bear any resemblance to your Liu family.”

“She looks like my mother, not like my father.”

“Alright, go to the side and stay there. This is none of your business.”

Sun Deliang took a few steps forward. “Why are you making so much noise?”

“Deliang, these two people knocked over my father’s fish stall and scared him to death. We’re trying to reason with him.”

“Did such a thing really happen?”

Sun Deliang looked at the person lying on the ground and said to Lin Yi and Li Chuhan,

“What’s wrong? Did you come here to be unreasonable? Do you know that I have shares in their fish stalls? Aren’t you ruining my business by doing this?”

“It was just a simple roadblock, yet you take a portion of their revenue. Can’t you be more entrepreneurial?”

“Why? Are you looking down on us country bumpkins after driving a Mercedes-Benz back from the city?” Sun Deliang asked.

“Do you still want to leave?”

“Of course I do.”

“Isn’t that settled then?” Sun Deliang said.

“When such a big thing happened, the villagers were so frightened by you that they suffered a heart attack. I won’t make things difficult for you. Give us 200,000 yuan and let her have a drink with me. This matter will be settled after that.”

Piack!

Lin Yi didn't say anything and slapped Sun Deliang's face.

"Hey, wake up. It's not even dark yet. Why are you dreaming?"

He was dumbfounded.

Seeing Lin Yi slap Sun Deliang, everyone was stunned.

Was this person crazy? How dare he hit Sun Deliang?

Did he not want to leave Beiqiao Town?

Li Chuhan frowned and whispered in Lin Yi's ear,

"I can't remember clearly, but this person seems to be the mayor's son."

Lin Yi nodded thoughtfully. "No wonder he's so pretentious."

A few seconds later, Sun Deliang came back to his senses.

"How dare you hit me?!"

"If you don't make way, this matter won't end with just this slap," Lin Yi said.

"Also, isn't your father Sun Maoqun? Even if he was here, he wouldn't dare to stop my car. Who do you think you are?"

"You... you know my father?" Sun Deliang was frightened. He suddenly felt that these two people were not someone he should have provoked.

"Ask your father first if he knows me."

At this moment, a red Shari drove over. Everyone subconsciously made way because they knew who the driver was.

Anyone with a car would know that this was Sun Maoqun's car.

"Aiyo, Mr. Lin, I finally found you."

Sun Maoqun slapped his thigh excitedly as if he had spotted a family member.

"Were you looking for me?"

“That’s right. I heard from Secretary Wu that you bought a red Mercedes-Benz and would be coming to town today. In the morning, someone said that they saw your car. I went to town and didn’t see it. No one picked up when I called you, so I kept wandering the streets looking for you.”

“I can’t afford to offend the people of Beiqiao Town. When I entered the town, they were selling fish and blocking the way. Your son even said that he had shares in their stalls. Now, he’s lying on the ground and saying that he suffered a heart attack. I’m a little afraid of you guys.”

Seeing the person lying on the ground, Sun Maoqun was so angry that his body trembled.

Lin Yi didn’t know if other people really had heart attacks, but Sun Maoqun was about to have one.

Piack!

Sun Maoqun slapped Sun Deliang’s face, almost making him fall.

“Don’t you people have any shame? Mr. Lin came here to build a Hope School and a road, but you are actually pulling such stunts! You’ve completely embarrassed Beiqiao Town!”

“Build a school? A road?” Sun Deliang covered his mouth. “Is he doing charity work?”

“Why else would Mr. Lin be here?!”

Everyone present fell silent. The people lying on the ground also stood up with ashamed expressions.

Liu Dajun and Liu Kai stood rooted to the ground.

They never thought that Li Chuhan would find such a rich man.

“Mr. Lin, I’m really sorry. I didn’t expect such a thing to happen. I’ve embarrassed myself in front of you.”

“I hope you can deal with these people properly. Otherwise, who would dare to come to Beiqiao Town in the future? This place will never develop.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Mr. Lin is right. When I go back, I will definitely educate them well. I guarantee that such a thing will never happen again.”

“Let’s go and get down to business.”

“Alright, alright, alright. Mr. Lin, let’s get in the car and talk slowly.”

“Yeah.”

Then, Sun Maoqun found a chef from the town to cook a table full of food for Lin Yi and Li Chuhan. He was very enthusiastic.

That afternoon, Sun Maoqun brought Lin Yi along and chatted about the situation in Beiqiao Town.

This was because there were more than ten small villages under Beiqiao Town. Their location was key to helping the surrounding areas and spreading the benefit of this piece of charity work.

After driving around for two days, they finally decided on the final location.

What was left was the most important part of signing the contract.

“Mr. Lin, why don’t we set the signing date for tomorrow? I’ll get some reporters to come over. Such a big matter can’t be done without any publicity.”

“No need, let’s just sign it today,” Lin Yi said, “But I have something to tell you, so do as I say.”

“If you have any requests, just tell us. We will definitely cooperate fully.”

“After signing the contract, when you publicize it, don’t say that Lingyun Group invested this money. Just say that it was sponsored by CITIC Group. Don’t mention our names throughout the process.”

Chapter 514: I’m Willing to Bear Your Child

Lin Yi’s request puzzled Sun Maoqun.

“Just do as I say.” Lin Yi nodded. “Although this money was provided by Lingyun Group, it doesn’t have anything to do with us.”

Lin Yi had originally planned to do this with Wen Shu.

However, in the end, she did not even give him a chance to speak and he had to simply let Sun Maoqun do it.

“Alright, I understand. We’ll just say that CITIC Group did this.”

Lin Yi nodded. “I’ll send someone over later to discuss the construction with you. You’ll have to cooperate with them.”

“Don’t worry, Mr. Lin. It will definitely go well.”

After discussing the matter, the two of them did not leave immediately. They still had to move Li Chuhan’s mother’s grave the next day.

He had already informed Tian Yan about this matter. He would arrange for someone to come the next day. In order to carry out the specific operation, he had to stay back for yet another day.

Over the past few days, Sun Maoqun had arranged for Lin Yi to live in a very ‘luxurious’ house in Beiqiao Town. It was a large brick house measuring more than a hundred square meters.

Usually, important guests would be arranged to stay there.

“Where is your underwear?” Li Chuhan asked before she went to bed.

“Huh? Underwear?”

“Yes, I’ll wash it for you.”

“I don’t think that’s necessary. It might not even dry by tomorrow.”

“There’s a hairdryer. I’ll dry it for you,” Li Chuhan said. “Sleep naked tonight. It’s good for your health. I’ll pass it to you after it’s dry.”

“Uh, what about yourself?”

“Me too.”

“All right, then.”

Lin Yi laid down comfortably, and Li Chuhan took his things to the courtyard.

He stole a glance outside. Li Chuhan’s figure was elongated by the dim yellow light, reflecting the gentleness in the depths of her heart.

The so-called virtuousness was all talk.

The next morning, the people Tian Yan had sought out arrived at Beiqiao Town very early.

Ritual, spirit, cremation...

All the procedures were completed step by step. Liu Dajun and Liu Kai stood aside with complicated feelings and did not dare to say a word.

Although it was not a big deal, it took Li Chuhan half a day to complete the matters in Beiqiao Town.

She held her mother's ashes in her hand and looked at the rearview mirror. The shadow of Beiqiao Town was getting further and further away.

Li Chuhan knew that the meaning of this place to her was contained in only two words: Beiqiao Town.

"Don't look, it's already the past." Lin Yi said.

"I may never come back."

"The most precious thing here is already in your hands. There's nothing left to miss."

In Lin Yi's eyes, Li Chuhan was like a lonely gravekeeper.

Beiqiao Town was the lonely grave she guarded in the depths of her heart.

He silently hoped that the clouds of the past would dissipate and shed a ray of light on her heart.

By the time the two of them rushed back to Zhonghai, it was already past four in the afternoon.

According to feng shui, it was best to bury people in the morning, so they decided to bring the ashes back first and do these things the next morning.

"Do you have something to do tonight?" Li Chuhan looked at Lin Yi and asked.

"There are some other things in the company that I have to deal with. You can eat by yourself. I won't accompany you."

"Got it. Don't tire yourself out. Rest more."

"Don't worry, I got it." Lin Yi replied and prepared to leave.

However, the moment Lin Yi turned around, Li Chuhan called out to him from behind.

“Lin Yi...”

“Anything else?”

Li Chuhan’s expression was uneasy. Under the quiet light, her shy face was revealed.

“Didn’t you say that you liked children?”

“Yeah, what’s wrong?” Lin Yi was confused.

“Although I have no intention of getting married, I’m willing to bear a child for you.”

“B-bear a child?”

“Don’t be nervous. There is no pressure on you. If you want it, I can and am willing to do it for you.”

‘Um...’

Were all female doctors’ confessions so unique?

“How about now? If we hurry up, we can still make it. The house should be soundproof, right?”

Li Chuhan’s face turned red like a ripe apple.

Seeing Li Chuhan’s nervous breathing, Lin Yi laughed out loud.

“I’ll remember this. Don’t be anxious. At the very least, I don’t have any plans to have a child yet. Let me have fun for a few more years.”

“Then I’ll wait for you. I’m willing to do anything for you.”

Lin Yi smiled and left. He wasn’t surprised that Li Chuhan would say something like that.

However, she would be filled with a lot of gratitude after what he did in her hometown, so it was better to give her some time to calm down.

After leaving Li Chuhan’s house, Lin Yi drove to Chaoyang Group and met up with Ji Qingyan.

This was because she had already booked a place and invited He Yuanyuan and Qi Xianzhao to welcome him back.

They could also talk about work.

“Boss, how did you feel about going to Beiqiao Town this time?” In the private room, He Yuanyuan asked with a glass of red wine.

“Other places are so poor that they can’t even make a peep,” Lin Yi said.

“Basically, all the children are educated at home. Less than 30% of them are in school, and they can only attend up to elementary school. Therefore, we should hurry up with the matters concerning the school.”

“Don’t worry, I’ve already made the arrangements. The project surrounding Beiqiao Town will be our main focus. We’ll try to finish it within three months.”

“Do your best. Don’t fall behind on your other projects.”

She smiled radiantly. “Don’t worry, I’ll make the necessary arrangements.”

Lin Yi nodded and looked at He Yuanyuan.

“Don’t do this project under Lingyun Group’s name. I’ve told you before. Do it under CITIC Group’s name. We don’t want any credit.”

“Huh? Why is that?” Ji Qingyan was displeased. She couldn’t bear to see Lin Yi suffer.

“Because other than the five million yuan, the rest of the money was provided by CITIC. I don’t want to take advantage of others,” Lin Yi said.

“But we didn’t lose out either. CITIC improved their a reputation while Chaoyang Group earned money, and even did charity work for Beiqiao Town. It’s a three-win situation. I think this is quite good.”

Ji Qingyan pursed her lips. Actually, she did not care about the money she earned.

The most important thing was to help Lingyun Group build their social reputation.

However, since Lin Yi had already said so, there was no room for negotiation.

In fact, there was a deeper reason for Lin Yi’s actions.

Shen Shuyi had given him this sum of money to reveal her identity and warn him.

He might as well return these things back to her. When expressing his stance, he could simultaneously do her a favor. It was killing two birds with one stone.

Although I look like a persimmon, you can't f*cking pinch me.

"By the way, did Cisco say when they'll need us to pay the balance?"

"Now that the goods have been produced, we're finalizing the inventory. We verbally agreed to pay for the shipment the day after tomorrow afternoon."

"Alright, I understand." Lin Yi said, "Let's do it then."

"Then should we prepare the remaining 2.5 billion?"

"Prepare my *ss, that's 2.5 billion. How many pig trotters can you buy with that money?" Lin Yi waved his hand, "Come, continue eating, replenish your collagen."

"What should we do then?"

"Well, Cisco will collapse the afternoon after tomorrow. None of us will need to pay a dime."

Upon hearing this, the trio exchanged glances.

Cisco was now like the sun in the sky. How could it fall just like that?

"Right, how's Cisco's stocks doing now?" Lin Yi asked.

"Since three days ago, Cisco's shares have been rising to the limit. You know the reason for this. There's news outside that the collaboration between Didi and Cisco is about to be completed, causing their shares to soar. This has caused Cao Jiadong's net worth to soar to 50 billion. He's the highest-flyer in China's technology circle."

"This is all my doing, don't make a big deal out of it." Lin Yi looked at Ji Qingyan. "I remember asking you to invest 100 million in Cisco. Do you still remember that?"

"I remember," Ji Qingyan replied. "It's at least doubled now."

"The day after tomorrow, before nine o'clock, throw it all away. Don't leave a single cent behind."

The three of them looked at Lin Yi.

"Boss, are you going to do something big at nine in the morning the day after tomorrow?"

Lin Yi chuckled and kept them in suspense. "You two don't have to go to the company the day after tomorrow, but wear some formal attire and I'll take you to watch the show."

"Got it."

After the meal ended, the four of them split into three groups and returned home.

When Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan returned to Jiuzhou Pavilion, Lu Ying had already installed all the equipment.

All that was left was to roll up his sleeves and get to work.

Their lives were still the same as before. Lin Yi focused on his work, while Ji Qingyan was like a lazy cat as she her casually did her work.

"Lin Yi, where are you going the day after tomorrow?" Ji Qingyan asked.

"Do you want to go too?"

"I didn't say I wanted to go. I was just asking."

"We're not doing anything. In any case, if you're not interested. What's the point of asking so much?"

"Don't I have the right to know?" Ji Qingyan pouted. "You didn't invite me either. How do you know I don't want to go?"

"Then now, I sincerely invite President Ji to join me..."

"Okay, I agree."

Lin Yi was speechless.

"I hadn't finished yet. Why did you agree?"

"I knew what you were going to say, so I just agreed in advance."

"But I wanted to ask you to make a baby with me..."

Chapter 515: The Prologue That Is About to Begin

The next morning, the two of them drove to work separately.

Lin Yi drove to the cemetery and arranged the burial with Li Chuhan. It wasn't until noon that everything was prepared.

Standing in front of the marble tombstone, Li Chuhan placed a bouquet of fresh lilies in front of it. The breeze ruffled her long hair, but for once, a faint smile appeared on her face.

To her, this was the most memorable day of her life.

From now on, she would no longer be alone in this bustling city.

"Let's go, it's about time," Lin Yi said, "We still have surgery in the afternoon."

"Yeah."

The two of them walked out side by side and drove back to Huashan Hospital.

The surgery in the afternoon was carried out at one o'clock, and Lin Yi was the chief surgeon.

Although it was a very difficult surgery, it was very easy for Lin Yi. It was abnormally smooth and the result was very good.

Li Chuhan felt that Lin Yi's abilities seemed to be better than hers, and that he was more suitable for the position of director than her.

However, Lin Yi was extremely disappointed. He was so serious in performing this surgery for the patient. Why didn't the patient just give him a silk banner?

After the surgery, Lin Yi said goodbye to Li Chuhan and drove to the research institute. He called Lu Ying to his office.

"Is everything ready for the press conference?"

"Everything is going well. It will be held at nine o'clock tomorrow morning," Lu Ying said.

"President Cao of Fenglan Culture also said that he wants me to be the host. I'm afraid that I won't be able to handle it well and will ruin the press conference. President Lin, why don't you do it?"

"You're the beauty of our research institute. You have to carry out this mission." Lin Yi said.

"Wear short skirts and stockings. I'll support you silently from below."

“You just want to see me in a short skirt and stockings.”

“Don’t say that. You make it sound like I’m trying to sleep with you.”

“Boss, if the hospital was full of female researchers, would you ask us to wear short skirts and black silk to work?”

“That wouldn’t happen.”

“Is it not your style?”

“It’s mainly due to the situation in Huaxia. There are too few female professors like you. Anyone with the necessary ability is old. Why would I want to look at middle-aged aunties wearing short skirts and black silk? If I was into that, I’d just watch horror movies instead.”

“Hehe, thank you boss for your affirmation of my figure.” Lu Ying smiled and said.

“Do I need to prepare anything tomorrow?”

“Prepare all the technical information on the Chip 2.0 technology. The technological launch of Chip 1.0 is just a cover. We’re using it as bait. Don’t give too many things away until then.”

“Got it.”

“That’s all for now. That’s all I need you to do.”

“Yeah, sure.”

After everything was arranged, Lin Yi drove to Huaqing Lake to relax.

On the way, Lin Yi remembered Longxin and Cisco.

One of the things Cisco did very well was to keep this a secret.

If not for his good friend coming over on a business trip and secretly obtaining the news of them developing the Chip 1.0, it would have been very difficult for him to hear about this internal news.

As for Lu Ying, Sun Fuyu, and the others, they were all deeply involved in scientific research, so it was even more unlikely for them to pick up on this news.

No matter how much he bragged, the person he should thank the most was his good friend, Zhang Song.

It had been a few months, and Lin Yi had been too busy to contact him.

He did not know if he had successfully shed his single status, but when he left, he had given him an Xbox and PS3 set. Presumably, it would now be impossible for him to get into a relationship now.

Lin Yi drove slowly to Huaqing Lake, only to find out that it had been closed off!

“What’s going on? Why is it closed?”

“The mayor ordered us to suspend operations for half a month,” said the lobby manager on duty.

“Damn!”

Lin Yi cursed and turned to leave.

This woman, Liang Ruoxu, was too ruthless. Wasn’t she just trying to earn more money?

“Damn it, I have to have a good chat with her when I have time.”

...

Cisco Limited, CEO’s office.

Cao Jiadong and Cao Xiangyu were both here. Their expressions were very relaxed. They appeared even happier than during the new year.

“Dad, tomorrow is the day of Longxin’s press conference. Should we prepare for it?”

“What do you want to prepare?”

As he spoke, Cao Jiadong passed a cigarette over.

“Dad, I quit smoking.”

Ever since Lin Yi said that smoking would only make him last three seconds, Cao Xiangyu had completely stopped smoking.

Seeing that his father was still smoking, he initially wanted to persuade him, but he thought better of it.

He was already so old that he probably wouldn’t care anymore. A few seconds didn’t matter.

“So be it. It’s not a good habit anyway.” Cao Jiadong said.

“Let’s continue the previous topic. What do you want to prepare?”

“Of course, I’m preparing to bring some reporters over.” Cao Xiangyu placed his feet on the table and said leisurely,

“Although tomorrow is the day Didi pays the balance, which will bring Cisco to the next level, it’s nothing compared to killing Longxin.”

“Don’t worry. I’ve already made the arrangements when I heard the news,” Cao Jiadong said.

“Almost all the tech media outlets will be present. If nothing goes wrong, Longxin’s press conference tomorrow will be very spectacular.”

“Dad, I realized that the older the ginger, the spicier it is. I still have to learn from you.”

“Take your time to learn. You still have a long way to go.” Cao Jiadong flicked away the ashes of his cigarette.

“But then again, Longxin and us have been old rivals for many years. I still can’t bear to kill them tomorrow.”

“It’s mainly because these people are really naive and cute.” Cao Xiangyu laughed loudly.

“It wasn’t easy for them to develop the Chip 1.0 technology, but they held it in for so long, thinking that it was a big move. Little did they know that we had long been secretly moving, preparing to crush them to death.”

“Do you know why it turned out like this?”

“Dad, do tell us.”

“Just because someone works hard, it doesn’t mean they will be successful.” Cao Jiadong pointed at his head.

“When pitted against us merchants, they can’t survive. Wasn’t it easy to play them to death?”

“Haha, Dad, you’re right.” Cao Xiangyu laughed.

“And the stupidest thing about these people is that they actually sought out Jingqiu’s company to hold this press conference. Every time I think about it, I can’t help but want to laugh. This is too interesting.”

“Perhaps this is the arrangement of the Heavens. The heavens also want us to completely crush Longxin.”

“That’s possible.” Cao Xiangyu said.

“Dad, I plan to go over tomorrow to take a look. Why don’t you go too?”

“I don’t think that’s a good idea,” Cao Jiadong said with a smile. “What am I supposed to do? Read a eulogy to Longxin’s people? Haha...”
