

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

- Chapter 646 - 646 Just One More Step -

646 Just One More Step

“But I’m afraid of making too much noise,” Lewis said.

“There are so many houses around. If they’re all lit up, we’ll be in big trouble.”

“Don’t be afraid,” Brandon said.

“After we light it, we’ll keep an eye on the area. When the fire gets bigger, there’ll be time to call the police. I did this when I was in Meiguo. I’m very experienced.”

“Alright, let’s do that.”

After making up their minds, the three of them took their tools and sneakily walked to the entrance of the store.

Destroying the lock on the window, they jumped in one by one and poured gasoline into every corner of the shop.

“Let’s go, it’s done,” Brandon said with satisfaction, as if he could already see Lin Yi’s helpless expression.

After pouring the gasoline, the three of them jumped out of the small shop.

Now, he only needed a small flame to complete his mission.

“Who are you?!”

In the silence of the night, a sudden scream startled all three of them.

He had never thought that someone would suddenly appear here.

Seeing the two people in front of them, the three of them became nervous.

Fortunately, it was just an old woman and a child. Moreover, they were dressed in rags and looked a little like beggars nearby. It should not be difficult to deal with them.

“Get lost. This is none of your business.”

Brandon’s idea was very simple. He wanted to chase these two people away and find an opportunity to light a fire.

However, he didn’t know the relationship between the grandmother and grandson and Lin Yi.

Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan were the only people in the world who treated them well. How could they leave so easily?

“You’re thieves. Don’t even think about leaving!”

Wang Dongdong rushed forward and grabbed Brandon’s clothes.

“Someone, catch the thief!”

“Someone, catch the thief!”

Shouts instantly spread throughout Zhengyang Street.

Brandon and the other two were scared out of their wits. If others found out, they would be finished!

“Damn it, get lost!”

Brandon landed a heavy punch on Wang Dongdong’s head.

Wang Dongdong let out a muffled groan. His vision was blurry, but he still tightly hugged Brandon’s leg.

Seeing that the situation wasn't good, the old lady ran over while trembling. She also grabbed Brandon's clothes and shouted with Wang Dongdong.

"Someone, someone's stealing!"

"We caught a thief!"

As the two of them shouted, the lights in the surrounding residential buildings lit up.

Seeing this scene, the three of them were so frightened that they broke out in cold sweat.

"Damn it, get out of my way!"

Zach kicked Wang Dongdong's body mercilessly.

With a scream, Wang Dongdong was sent flying with the kick.

Lewis, on the other hand, did not just stay idly by. Grabbing the old lady, he gave her a hard tug and threw her aside, forcing her to crash hard on the floor.

"Let's go quickly. If we don't leave now, someone will come down. None of us can leave!" Zach said.

"Damn it!"

Brandon was hesitant. He had prepared for so long, but he did not expect these two beggars to ruin it.

"Let's go, or something bad will happen."

The three of them didn't linger at the entrance of the store and quickly fled the scene.

It was also at this moment that the person who heard the shout ran out of his house with a coat draped over his shoulders, wanting to see what had happened.

“Grandma!”

“Grandma!”

Wang Dongdong got up from the ground and ran to his grandmother’s side. He realized that no matter how he called out, there was no response.

Moreover, there was a smear of blood at the corner of her mouth.

The inexperienced Wang Dongdong was so scared that his face turned pale. He cried as he shouted.

“Someone, please save my grandmother.”

The kind-hearted people who came down from upstairs surrounded him in unison, also anxious.

“Let’s stop just staring at her. The old lady is already like this. We have to think of a way to send her to the hospital!”

“This place is quite close to Huashan Hospital, let’s send them there.” A middle-aged woman said, “Does anyone have a car? Can you help me send them there?”

At this moment, a burly man stood up. “Hurry up and get into my car. Don’t waste time.”

Everyone worked together to carry the old lady to the car and drove towards Huashan Hospital.

At three o’clock in the morning, Zhonghai, a city that never sleeps, had also shed its glamorous coat, revealing its quietest side.

Ring!

Lin Yi, who was sleeping soundly, was woken up by the urgent ringtone.

“F*ck...”

Lin Yi flipped over and cursed, “Who the f*ck is calling at this time?”

Turning over, Lin Yi found his phone. Just as he was about to pick it up and scold her, he was surprised to find that the person who called him was Qiao Xin.

‘Yes?’

Lin Yi muttered in his heart. Why was this girl calling him in the middle of the night?

“What is it?”

“Brother Lin, is your shop at 89 Zhengyang Street? Do you know a child called Wang Dongdong?”

‘Huh?’

Qiao Xin’s consecutive questions confused Lin Yi.

Why would Qiao Xin ask about this?

“I do. Why?”

“Something happened to Wang Dongdong’s grandmother and she was sent to the emergency department. When I asked him who his family was, he said that he knew you, so I called to confirm.”

“Did something happen?”

Lin Yi panicked, no longer sleepy. What happened?

“The preliminary examination showed that she was hit. Chief Physician Li is beside me and is preparing to send her to the ICU.”

“Is it that serious?”

“Well, things don’t look too good.”

“Wait at the hospital. I’ll come over now!”

After hanging up, Lin Yi put on his clothes and rushed out of the room.

Hearing the voice from the other room, Ji Qingyan woke up in a daze. She was surprised to see that Lin Yi had put on his clothes.

“You’re going out? Did something happen at the company?”

“Something happened to Dongdong. He’s in the hospital.”

“At the hospital?”

Hearing this answer, Ji Qingyan was terrified.

“Wait for me. I’ll go with you.”

“Then hurry up. The situation there is not good.”

“Yeah.”

Lin Yi walked out of the villa and prepared the car.

At the same time, Ji Qingyan walked out in a pair of jeans and a Nike t-shirt, then headed to the hospital with Lin Yi.

On the way, Ji Qingyan had a rough understanding of the situation, and her face was filled with worry.

However, the details of what exactly happened were only known by the hospital.

Along the way, Lin Yi ran several red lights.

In less than twenty minutes, they arrived at the hospital and called Qiao Xin.

“Where are you.”

“At the entrance of the ICU. Brother Lin, we are at the sixth unit beside the chest pain center. You’ll see us when you come out.”

“Okay.”

The two of them got into the elevator and went all the way to the fourth floor.

As soon as the elevator door opened, the patient’s family members were immediately visible.

Exhaustion and even despair were written all over their faces.

“Sister!”

Upon seeing Ji Qingyan, Wang Dongdong immediately pounced on her and hugged her tightly as he wailed uncontrollably.

Qiao Xin stood at the side, her eyes filled with heartache.

Ji Qingyan felt uncomfortable in her heart as she gently hugged Wang Dongdong.

“Don’t be afraid. I’m here. Don’t tell me what happened.”

Wang Dongdong wiped his tears and continued to sob.

“Grandma and I were going to take the rest of the scraps back after we sent the first batch back, but when we got back, we saw three people. They were sneaking around and jumping out of your shop. I thought they were thieves, so Grandma and I stopped them from leaving. The men kicked me a few times and threw Grandma to the side. Then they ran.”

“Someone was in our shop?”

Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan were surprised.

In the middle of the night, other than herself and Ji Qingyan, anyone else who entered the shop could be considered to have trespassed.

However, judging from the security level in Zhonghai, these kinds of thefts were rare.

“Do you remember what they looked like?” Lin Yi asked.

“They were wearing masks and glasses. I didn’t see what they looked like.” Wang Dongdong wiped his tears again. “But they were all very tall and spoke awkwardly. They didn’t seem to be Huaxian.”

“Not from Huaxia?”

Lin Yi’s heart skipped a beat. He had already guessed who it was.

Lin Yi gave Ji Qingyan a look. “You two stay here, I’ll go take a look.”

“Go, leave this to me.”

Lin Yi and Qiao Xin stood aside.

“Who sent them here? Did they say what exactly happened?”

“It was a middle-aged man. He said he heard the child’s cry for help and took them to the hospital. He also said he smelled a very strong smell of gasoline in your shop. It didn’t seem like something a typical thief would do.”

Lin Yi nodded. Through these clues, he had already locked onto Brandon and the others.

Lin Yi dialed Liang Ruoxu’s number.

No one picked up the first two calls until he tried a third time.

“What’s the matter?” Liang Ruoxu asked in a daze.

“Something happened on my side. Tell your men to arrest Brandon, Zach, and Lewis. Don’t let them leave Zhonghai.”

“You want to arrest those three?”

Liang Ruoxu was still half-asleep to begin with, so she was even more confused when she heard Lin Yi's words.

"Don't ask anything else for now. Just do as I say."

"Alright, I'll arrange it now."

Liang Ruoxu did not know the whole story, but she could feel that something big had happened.

Otherwise, Lin Yi wouldn't have spoken to her in such a tone at this time.

All she could do was help him deal with this matter.

After hanging up, Lin Yi looked at Qiao Xin.

"How's the old lady? Is it serious?"

Lin Yi's question actually had a second meaning.

Would she survive?

If it were anyone else, Lin Yi wouldn't have asked this.

However, the old lady was old and could not withstand any kind of physical abuse.

Any careless accident could be fatal.

"The situation isn't looking good. Chief Physician Li checked on her. The patient has heart failure. Moreover, it's already at a very dangerous Level 2. Secondly, the collision caused intracranial hemorrhage. We can only pray that her condition can stabilize for the time being before we can consult her and arrange for the subsequent surgery."

Lin Yi was silent for a moment. "Go find me a set of clothes. I'll go in and take a look."

"Brother Lin, come with me. Let's go inside and change."

According to the hospital's rules, no one was allowed to enter unless they were from the ICU.

However, big shots like Lin Yi and Li Chuhan could come and go as they pleased here. No one dared to interfere.

Although it had been a long time since Lin Yi resigned, the camel that died was still bigger than the horse. Although he was not officially part of the hospital, his influence had not waned.

When he was here, anyone who saw them would have to politely call him Director Lin.

The two of them changed into their uniforms to prepare to enter the ICU.

After changing his clothes, he happened to see Li Chuhan and the director of the ICU department walking out.

As they walked, they discussed countermeasures.

“Lin Yi, you're here.”

Seeing Li Chuhan, Lin Yi quickly walked up.

“How's the situation now? Can she be stabilized?”

Li Chuhan frowned slightly. “We've done everything we can. As long as she can survive tonight, there's still a possibility that she will recover. But if she doesn't, it's over.”

“Take me there.”

Lin Yi's clinical level had already reached the master level. Even in the intensive care department, he still had a significant amount of authority.

Just because Li Chuhan couldn't think of a solution didn't mean that he was helpless. He had to hurry over and take a look at the situation. Perhaps there was an additional solution that had not yet been tried.

Moreover, when he was doing the mission previously, the system had rewarded him with a Lucky Card that had a time limit of ten minutes. Perhaps it would have a miraculous effect.

“Let’s go and take a look.”

Under Li Chuhan’s lead, the group returned to the ICU.

There were several nurses and doctors surrounding the innermost bed.

Li Chuhan pointed and said, “It’s that bed.”

“Okay.”

Knowing the exact location, Lin Yi quickened his pace.

Beep!

Just as he was about to walk over, Lin Yi’s body suddenly froze on the spot.

His mind went blank, and even his breathing quickened.

In his mind, there was only a continuous beeping sound.

Hearing this voice, Li Chuhan and Qiao Xin were also stunned.

They were all professional doctors and knew what this voice meant.

The patient could not take it anymore.

The nurses and doctors around him seemed to have collapsed. They turned around and looked at Li Chuhan and the others with helpless expressions, as if telling them that the patient was dying.

Lin Yi rushed over.

The EKG line became a straight line. The old lady’s skin was pale and her eyes were closed. She had left this world.

There seemed to be a thousand pounds under Lin Yi's feet, as if every step was very difficult.

He was a step too late. If he had come a little earlier, would the outcome have changed?

Walking in front of the old lady, Lin Yi touched the back of her neck. It was cold.

She opened her eyes and her pupils were cloudy.

However, there seemed to be a smile on her lips.

At this point, no matter who came, there was nothing they could do.

Lin Yi's spirit seemed to have completely faded at this moment.

The only thing supporting her might have been the faint smile at the corner of her mouth.

The moment she left the mortal world, she might no longer have been in pain.

Lin Yi squatted down and grabbed the cold hands. He said carefully,

“Have you been waiting for this day for a long time...”

“To be honest, the human world is too bitter. I really don't want to come back in my next life...”

647 They Won't Be Able to Escape

“What do we do now?”

Li Chuhan stood beside Lin Yi and asked in a low voice.

Lin Yi was used to the fickleness of human life, and Li Chuhan had seen many deaths over her career.

At this moment, she was even calmer than Lin Yi.

“Let’s follow the normal procedure. I’ll arrange for the cremation later.”

“Do you want the kid to take a look?”

After a moment of silence, Lin Yi nodded. “Let the child take a look.”

“Okay, I’ll get the nurse to wheel the body out.”

Lin Yi gave up the space and took a few deep breaths to calm himself down.

The nurse pushed the old lady’s body out while Lin Yi, Li Chuhan, and the others followed behind.

Seeing Lin Yi come out, Ji Qingyan and Wang Dongdong immediately went up to him.

“How’s the situation? Has everything stabilized?”

No one said anything, waiting for Lin Yi to speak.

Lin Yi patted Wang Dongdong’s shoulder and muttered to himself,

“She’s gone.”

These three simple words were like a bolt from the blue to Ji Qingyan and Wang Dongdong.

“She... she’s gone?”

“It was worse than we thought, so I’m sorry.”

“Grandma!”

Wang Dongdong’s tears were like catkins in spring.

He lay on the bed and lifted the blanket. Tears streamed down his face uncontrollably.

The person closest to him in his life was now motionless. No matter how much he shouted, no one responded.

“Alright, Dongdong, stop crying.” Ji Qingyan pulled Wang Dongdong back.

He was still young. If he continued to cry like this, his body would easily break.

“Push the body to the morgue first. If there are no special relatives to see, arrange for the cremation tomorrow,” Li Chuhan said.

“I’ll arrange the rest. I’ll have to trouble you with the hospital matters.”

“Sure.”

Li Chuhan asked someone to push the body away, but Wang Dongdong was still wailing and unwilling to leave.

“Let’s go. We’ll see each other tomorrow.”

Lin Yi drove Wang Dongdong back to Jiuzhou Pavilion.

However, he continued to hug her and cry.

In the past, when she found out that Lin Yi was an orphan, she did not feel much. She only felt that his background was a little pitiful.

However, looking at Wang Dongdong now, Ji Qingyan realized that this was an extreme loneliness.

A diverse population of 1.4 billion and 9.6 million square kilometres.

Yet, he could no longer find a warm embrace or a place to stand.

He gritted his teeth and clenched his fists, but in the end, he could not even hold back a single tear.

In the end, Wang Dongdong fell asleep in Ji Qingyan’s arms after he was tired of crying.

Lin Yi carried him to his room and returned to the living room.

Ji Qingyan sat on the sofa, exhausted, with tears in her eyes.

“The good days have just begun. How could such a thing happen? The heavens are too unfair.”

“Normally, such a thing wouldn’t happen, but there was an accident.”

“An accident?”

Lin Yi told Ji Qingyan what had happened, and the latter finally understood what had happened.

“They actually did it. These people are too detestable!”

“Don’t worry, they won’t get away. I’ll take care of this.”

“We must deal with them seriously and seek justice for Aunty.”

“I know what to do.” Lin Yi patted her shoulder.

“Go upstairs and rest for a while. Also, check in on Dongdong. I’ll go deal with some other things.”

“Yeah.”

Lin Yi took his phone and went to the courtyard.

At this moment, the sky was already slightly bright. The light of dawn shone on the ground.

Unfortunately, she did not wait for a new day.

Ring!

Lin Yi’s phone rang. It was Liang Ruoxu.

“The three international students are being detained. They’re all in the detention center. When are you coming over?”

“I have some other business to attend to. Tell the detention center to hold them for now. I’ll be there this afternoon.”

“Sure, give me a call when you get here.”

After a few simple words, Lin Yi hung up and began arranging the subsequent cremation.

He even picked a cemetery.

She was displaced when she was alive. Now that she was gone, he had to find a decent home for her.

After sleeping for a while, Wang Dongdong woke up. Sadness filled his face.

Under Lin Yi’s arrangements, the three of them arrived at the funeral home to bid farewell to the body.

Apart from that, after hearing the news, He Yuanyuan and Qi Xianzhao also rushed over to bid farewell to the body.

During this process, Wang Dongdong fainted several times. If it weren’t for Ji Qingyan protecting him, the child’s mental state would have collapsed long ago.

From the farewell of the body to the final cremation, everything ended before twelve in the afternoon.

“Yuanyuan, bring Dongdong back to Jiuzhou Pavilion with your senior sister. Old Qi, you can go back to the company.” After leaving the cemetery, Lin Yi said.

“I’m going to take care of something else, and then I’ll come back for you.”

“Be careful. Call us if you need anything.”

“Yes, I know.”

With that, Lin Yi drove away.

On the way, he called Liang Ruoxu.

“I’m going to the detention center now. Do you have time?”

“Give me a moment. I have a meeting to finish soon. Let’s go together,” Liang Ruoxu whispered over the phone.

“I don’t have time to wait for you. I’ll hang up first.”

“Wait a minute,” Liang Ruoxu said bitterly.

“I won’t be attending the meeting. I’m going now. Let’s meet at the door.”

“Yeah.”

Half an hour later, Lin Yi drove the car to the detention center. Liang Ruoxu was already waiting there.

“They’re all in there.

“They’re locked up.

“Calm down first,” Liang Ruoxu said.

“They just want to take revenge on you, but fortunately, they didn’t succeed. Just deal with it slowly. Why are they so angry?”

“She’s already dead. What’s the point of dealing with them?”

“Huh?”

Liang Ruoxu was stunned. “What did you say? Someone died? What happened?”

“You don’t know anything about this?”

“I knew that when they were wreaking havoc, they were discovered by a pair of scavenging grandmother and grandson. Then, they ran away.”

“Yes, but the old lady suffered hemorrhaging in her skull. After she was sent to the ICU, she died in less than an hour. What do you think we should do?”

Liang Ruoxu frowned.

If it was a simple case of arson, fines and detention would solve the problem.

However, this matter involved manslaughter, so the case became more complicated.

Moreover, they were Meiguon students. There was also a question of whether Huaxia could even handle them.

In short, this matter was very troublesome.

Lin Yi ignored Liang Ruoxu and walked straight in.

Seeing Lin Yi and Liang Ruoxu enter, the guard on duty stood up.

“Mayor Liang, Mr. Lin, everyone is inside.”

Liang Ruoxu nodded. “Is everything alright here?”

“The people from the embassy, the suspect’s guardian, and the lawyer they got are all here. If this matter isn’t dealt with soon, I’m afraid it will become very troublesome.”

648 Death Is Certain

“Alright, I understand.”

After a brief conversation, Lin Yi and Liang Ruoxu walked in.

When they arrived at the interrogation room, they found a room full of people standing inside.

There was the head of the embassy, Brown, and the administrative head, Roland.

Behind them were two bodyguards.

Other than that, there were four strangers that Lin Yi had never seen before.

Unsurprisingly, they should be the families of Brandon and the others. The remaining foreigner in the suit should be the lawyer they had hired.

Other than that, Brandon and the other two were locked on the other side of the glass window.

Although he was wearing a prison uniform and handcuffs, his expression was extremely calm, as if he didn't take Lin Yi seriously at all.

Even Brandon and the others' guardians only glanced at Lin Yi indifferently and didn't take it to heart.

They all believed that no one here had the right to judge them!

"Since you're already here, open the door. It's inconvenient to talk through the door," Lin Yi said faintly.

"Well ..."

The prison guard hesitated because this was against the rules.

However, the current situation was a little special. They did not know what to do.

"Don't listen to him. Let's leave it at that," Liang Ruoxu said.

Liang Ruoxu knew Lin Yi's temper too well.

Once the door was opened, Lin Yi might just kill the three of them.

Liang Ruoxu was expressionless as he stared coldly at Brandon and the other two.

These three people were really courting death. They could have provoked anyone, but they had to provoke Lin Yi.

Did they have to get themselves killed before they were satisfied?

Lin Yi didn't insist on opening the door. Instead, he looked at the three of them.

"The three of you really didn't give up. You actually set fire to my shop."

Brandon shrugged. "Consider yourself lucky. Our operation was thwarted by two beggars. If I'd been given another chance, I might have moved faster."

"You might not know this, but the old lady died yesterday because they couldn't save her in time."

"Dead?"

When they heard the news, apart from Liang Ruoxu, everyone in the interrogation room was stunned. The atmosphere became solemn.

"Are you trying to frame us?" Brandon said fearlessly. "Are you trying to extort our money?"

"Why would I lie to you?"

"Hehe, she's just a beggar. If she dies, so be it. What's the big deal?" Brandon said.

"We can lose money or go through legal procedures. Haha, but you have to remember one thing. We are Meiguons. You have no right to judge us."

Brandon and the other two's father stood at the side and sneered.

This Huaxian was indeed a little naive.

Whoosh!

A loud noise shocked everyone. They realized that Lin Yi had kicked open the door!

The prison guard was dumbfounded.

This was a newly welded stainless steel door. How could it be kicked down just like that?

Wasn't this person a little too strong?

"Lin Yi, don't be rash!" Liang Ruoxu shouted.

"Shut up!"

Seeing that Liang Ruoxu was stunned, Brandon and the other two became nervous.

Not to mention that he was handcuffed and shackled, even if he was free, he might not be his match!

"You, what are you doing!"

Brandon almost peed his pants when he saw Lin Yi walking towards him.

Whoosh!

Lin Yi didn't waste any time. He raised his leg and kicked Brandon!

Ah!

Screams sounded in the interrogation room. Brandon rolled on the floor in pain. He felt as if his bones were about to break.

"How dare you hit my son?!"

The speaker was Brandon's father, glaring and snarling.

Lin Yi turned around and looked at Brandon's father. "If you question me again, I'll beat you up too."

"Dad, come and save me. He's going to kill us!"

Lewis was forced into a corner. All the blood drained from his face.

He knew Lin Yi's strength the best. He couldn't even withstand a single attack from him.

If it kicked him, even his bones would break!

“Stop!”

Lewis's father came in from outside.

Its huge body was as oppressive as a small mountain, enveloping Lin Yi.

Even among professional boxers, his figure was considered outstanding.

“Sir, please follow the law. You have no right to lay a hand on my son.”

Lin Yi raised his eyebrows and glanced at Lewis' father. “Do you have a problem with that?”

“I hope you can back out of the room, or I'll have to make you.”

Lin Yi didn't respond. He grabbed the other party's hair and smashed it against the metal table beside him.

Ah!

Screams sounded again. Other than that, everyone present heard the sound of bones cracking.

Liang Ruoxu was scared out of her wits. No one could stop Lin Yi right now.

Lewis' dad's head was covered in blood. He clutched his head as his screams echoed throughout the interrogation room.

Lin Yi's gaze landed on the others and he said indifferently,

“If any of you dare to cross this door, I promise I'll make you lie down here along with him.”

“Mr. Brown, are we just going to watch?” Roland’s expression was one of both shock and disbelief.

In her opinion, as the head of the embassy, Mr. Brown needed to step in.

Brown hesitated for a moment. “You can go over and reason with him.”

“Um...”

Roland hesitated. “If I go, he’ll beat me to death.”

“And he won’t do the same to me?”

Liang Ruoxu was not in the mood to care about these foreigners who had such twisted thought processes. Instead, she gave the prison guard beside her a look.

He gestured for them to go out and guard the room.

At this point, it was impossible to stop Lin Yi.

Now, all they could do was minimize the impact.

“Please, don’t do it. We know we were wrong. Don’t do it...”

Zach and Lewis both knelt on the ground.

Although his identity could protect him from being sentenced, how he was going to avoid this man in front of him now was a problem.

If no one stopped him, he might just be beaten to death.

“If a f*cking apology works, wouldn’t I have been wasting my time coming here today?”

Lin Yi raised his leg and kicked Zach’s head accurately.

For a moment, Zach felt his head buzz. It was as if it had exploded.

He didn't dare to say anything else, but with this kick, he definitely had a concussion.

Seeing Brandon and Zach's miserable state, Lewis was completely scared out of his wits.

He kept banging his head against the wall and apologizing. He looked even more miserable than the other two.

"A bunch of cowards."

Lin Yi dusted himself off and walked out.

The people standing outside subconsciously retreated.

They were afraid that this Huaxian would attack him.

Lin Yi looked at the lawyer in the suit and said calmly,

"You're their defense attorney."

"I...I'm..."

"Then let me ask you, how do you think this case will be judged?"

The lawyer coughed a few times. "Let me introduce myself first. My name is Owen, and I'm the lawyer in charge of this case. According to the corresponding regulations, this case will be judged according to our local laws and regulations."

Lin Yi didn't say anything and turned to look at Liang Ruoxu. "Can this case stay in Huaxia?"

"I'm not sure about that, but it's theoretically possible. I'll fight for it."

Lin Yi's gaze swept across the few of them and said.

"I'm not too sure when this case will be passed, and I'm not too sure what crimes they'll be convicted of. But there's something I want to tell you. Even if the court doesn't sentence them to death, I'll find someone to kill them. So, choose their gravestones in advance."

649 The Boss is Really an Expert

"What did you say?!"

Brandon's father growled.

"This is intimidation. You're threatening to commit murder!"

Lin Yi nodded without hiding anything.

"You can look at it that way. If they are found guilty in Huaxia, they would definitely be sentenced to death. However, if they returned to Meiguo, the three of them might be able to survive. I'm not too sure about the market in the United States, but a million yuan for a life should be enough. Therefore, you should be mentally prepared."

"If you dare to do this, our justice system will not let you off!"

Lin Yi shrugged. "Sure, as long as you can find evidence, or you're richer than me."

With that, Lin Yi walked out of the interrogation room. Liang Ruoxu whispered a few words in Brown's ear and followed him out.

However, from start to finish, Liang Ruoxu didn't understand why Lin Yi was so angry.

In her mind, other than Ji Qingyan, no one else would make Lin Yi lose his composure like this.

After walking out of the detention center, Liang Ruoxu stood beside Lin Yi.

"Are you sure you want to do this?"

"Hmph, there's no room for negotiation."

“Don’t be rash. I’ll try to keep this case in Huaxia.”

“It doesn’t matter where the matter is dealt with. It just affects whether I need to spend money or not.”

“Calm down.” Liang Ruoxu comforted him. “Your career is on the rise now. It won’t be good if any negative news about you pops up.”

“It’s okay. I know what I’m doing.”

Liang Ruoxu shook her head helplessly. Why did she meet such a stubborn man?

He was really courting death.

“Alright, this matter has come to an end. I’ll head back first.” Liang Ruoxu said, “But you have to promise me that you won’t be rash anymore.”

“Why are you so annoying? Is your period coming? Why do you have so many comments today?”

“You’re the one who’s on your period. I’m doing this for your own good,” Liang Ruoxu said aggrievedly. “You’re really insulting my good intentions!”

“Alright, stop wasting time.” Lin Yi said impatiently, “If you can handle this, then do it. If not, I’ll make my move.”

Lin Yi didn’t waste his breath on Liang Ruoxu. He turned around and got into the car. Then, he stepped on the accelerator and left.

“How dare you say that I’m annoying! How dare you say that I’m wasting your time!”

Liang Ruoxu stomped her feet in anger. “I don’t normally care about other people’s matters!”

After leaving the detention center, Lin Yi drove back to Jiuzhou Pavilion.

“How are things going?” Ji Qingyan asked.

“Don’t worry about it, it’s done,” Lin Yi said. “Where’s Dongdong?”

“He’s sleeping upstairs.”

Ji Qingyan did not ask any more questions. Lin Yi had always been reliable.

Since he said it was done, she would not worry about it.

“Senior Sister, Dongdong is in such a sorry situation. How do you plan to deal with him?” He Yuanyuan asked.

“Given the current situation, we can’t let him pick up scraps anymore,” said Ji Qingyan.

“I’ll help him contact the school first. No matter what, he can still go to school.”

He Yuanyuan nodded noncommittally. “Of course he has to go to school, but you also have to resolve the issue surrounding your daily lives. The two of you are not married yet, and you don’t stay in Jiuzhou Pavilion all day long. Hiring a nanny doesn’t cost much, but it will still affect your lives.”

Although He Yuanyuan’s words were a little cold, it was a very real question.

She also sympathized with Wang Dongdong’s background, but she was more concerned about Lin Yi and Ji Qingyan.

It was not really appropriate for a young couple who had yet to even register their marriage to take care of a child.

Ji Qingyan also knew that this was a problem that she and Lin Yi had to face.

“I’ve thought about it,” Lin Yi said. “He’s alone now. After his grandmother is buried tomorrow, I’ll bring him around Zhonghai for a few days then send him to my mother’s place. There are many children in the orphanage, so he won’t be lonely.”

“That’s a good idea,” He Yuanyuan said.

Ji Qingyan had no objections to this. ‘Mother Wang is a kind person, so it’s reassuring to hand Dongdong over to her.’”

“Alright, this matter has been resolved perfectly.” He Yuanyuan said, “All that’s left is to prepare the child’s mind.”

“But I’m afraid that something might go wrong here.”

“Such a young child hasn’t even matured yet, but he has already experienced such a thing. I’m afraid it will leave a shadow in his heart.”

“Don’t worry, Dongdong is not as fragile as you think,” Lin Yi said.

“His father died, and his mother went missing because of mental problems. Those things didn’t defeat him back then, so I’m confident nothing will go wrong. Let nature take its course. In short, the situation is not as bad as you think.”

He Yuanyuan held Ji Qingyan’s arm and comforted her.

“Senior Sister, you don’t have to overthink. During this period of time, you’ve actually done enough. No one wanted this to happen.”

“I know, but it happened too suddenly. It’s a little hard to accept.” Ji Qingyan sighed.

“Yesterday, he said that he would bring Aunty for a comprehensive check-up today and perform surgery at the same time. The good days have just begun, but such a thing happened.”

“No one wanted this.” He Yuanyuan said.

“No one knows what tomorrow will bring. At the very least, she met you at the last moment of her life. Moreover, her grandson won’t have to be homeless in the future. Old Madam will be relieved in heaven.”

He Yuanyuan’s words reminded Lin Yi of the old lady’s expression before she died. She was smiling.

She probably also felt reassured handing Dongdong over to them.

That night, He Yuanyuan stayed in the same room as Ji Qingyan.

“Boss, I’ll have to trouble you today. I’m going to sleep with Senior Sister,” He Yuanyuan said smugly.

“Nonsense. We usually sleep in separate rooms,” said Ji Qingyan. “We’re not like other people who live together as soon as they establish a relationship.”

“No way.” He Yuanyuan looked at Lin Yi with disdain. “Weren’t you so smooth when you were with me? It’s been so long, and you haven’t even gotten into Senior Sister’s bed. How embarrassing.”

“Can you blame me?”

“Of course. You’re a man. Why are you so cowardly?” He Yuanyuan said disdainfully.

“Don’t you know who your senior sister is? If she doesn’t agree, what can I do?”

He Yuanyuan rolled her eyes and her expression became even more disdainful.

“If my senior sister didn’t agree, why would you just stay here obediently? If you use force, are you afraid that she will sue you? Even if she does, you don’t have to be afraid. Lingyun Group’s size is obvious. It’s much larger than her Chaoyang Group, so she won’t be able to win. Don’t worry and do it boldly! What’s there to be afraid of?”

Lin Yi was speechless.

F*ck, you’re an expert.

“I’m going to kill you!” Ji Qingyan pinched He Yuanyuan’s waist. “If you dare say another word, I’ll strangle you to death.”

“Aiya, I was just joking.”

“But he could really do it.”

He Yuanyuan, “...”

The boss was awesome.

650 Only Food and Love Will Not Disappoint

In order to prevent He Yuanyuan from spouting more nonsense, Ji Qingyan pulled her back into the room.<sup>1</sup>

Lin Yi turned around and walked into the guest room.

After dinner that night, Wang Dongdong hid in his room and did not come out.

Lin Yi could understand this kind of behavior. Losing your only family member was emotionally difficult for anyone to accept. He still needed some time to get used to it.

Thinking of this, Lin Yi felt that he was quite lucky.

His parents passed without him ever knowing them.

When he died, he had to give the King of Hell some advice.

If someone was going to become an orphan in the future, then it was better to take their family away as soon as possible.

“Big Brother...”

When he saw Lin Yi, Wang Dongdong said quietly, “Am I disturbing you guys? I’ll go back tomorrow.”

“I have so many rooms at home. It’s no trouble at all,” Lin Yi said.

“But your sister and I have our own things to take care of. In the future, you can live with my mother.”

“I can’t cause trouble for others. I can live by picking up bottles.”

Lin Yi patted Wang Dongdong's head. "It's not what you think. She's not my biological mother. She's my adoptive mother."

"Adoptive mother?"

"I'm an orphan too." Lin Yi smiled.

"I grew up in an orphanage. In terms of background, I'm a little worse off than you. I don't even know who my parents are or who I am related to by blood. Don't you think it's f*cked up?"

"Big Brother, you are an orphan too? But I think you're very powerful."

"That's the truth. If you want to become a powerful person, you have to become an orphan in advance," Lin Yi said, "Our parents are busy worshipping the heavens, who's powers are boundless."

"R-really?"

"Of course." Lin Yi said.

"Look at online novels. Which male lead is ever healthy? If his parents are alive, they're basically villains."

"I've never read online novels, but I feel like what Big Brother is saying is reasonable."

"Not bad, not bad. Since you can understand this, it means that you have successfully taken the first step."

"Big Brother, if I live with Aunty, will I have a chance to go to school?"

"Of course." Lin Yi said, "I'm the one who provides for the children in the academy. They live a good life and also study. The only drawback is that they'll be beaten if they don't study hard."

"Then I'll study hard."

"Not bad, not bad." Lin Yi patted Wang Dongdong's shoulder. "You already have the innate advantage of having lost your parents. As long as you study hard, you'll definitely be more impressive than me in the future."

"Got it, Big Brother."

"Alright, go to bed early today. We still have work to do tomorrow."

"Uh-huh."

The next morning, He Yuanyuan woke up early and knocked on Lin Yi's door.

"What are you knocking for? What time is it?"

There were only a few people in the house. It was impossible that Ji Qingyan would knock on his door, let alone Wang Dongdong.

Other than He Yuanyuan, there was no one else who would do this.

She was the only one who had the guts.

"Boss, I want to eat your egg fried rice. Get up and make some for me."

"Do you have a f*cking conscience?" Lin Yi scolded.

"You want me to cook for you with my salary?"

"I'm your employee. I created every penny you can spend. What's wrong with me asking you to cook for me?"

Lin Yi was speechless.

"Awesome, you're really a freaking logical genius."

Getting up from the bed, Lin Yi went to the kitchen and made a few simple dishes.

It wasn't specifically for Yuanyuan, but rather that he had other things to do today. It was time to get up anyway.

At the dining table, Ji Qingyan and He Yuanyuan were relieved to see Wang Dongdong gulping down food.

He seemed to be much better.

After dinner, Lin Yi drove the old lady's ashes to the cemetery.

This was the final step to be completed.

He Yuanyuan placed a bouquet of lilies in front of the tombstone to symbolize her sorrow.

Ji Qingyan took a few steps forward. Unexpectedly, she placed the lollipop that Wang Dongdong had given her the first time in front of the tombstone.

After receiving the lollipop, Ji Qingyan felt that it was very memorable, so she could not bear to eat it and instead kept it.

She had wanted to keep it for memories, but she did not expect such a thing to happen.

In the end, she felt that it was more suitable to leave it here.

"Madam, don't worry. We'll take good care of Dongdong for you," Ji Qingyan whispered.

"In the future, he will always be sweet like this lollipop."

Lin Yi smiled at Ji Qingyan. She was always so sentimental and kind.

In the next second, Lin Yi's expression froze.

Because the system notification sounded in his mind.

[Only food and love will not let you down. Special mission completed. Reward: 400,000 proficiency points.]

[Mission Completion: 100%. Reward: Refined Essence (Food).]

‘Have I just received a reward?’

Lin Yi had never thought that the reward would come at this time.

Moreover, it was the ultimate reward of 400,000 proficiency points!

‘What do you mean by refined essence?’ Lin Yi asked, ‘If there’s a piece of bread in front of me, I don’t have to eat it, and I can get the energy inside just by touching it. Is that what you mean?’

[That’s basically it.]

“If that’s the case, isn’t my mouth be pointless?”

[Is the host’s mouth only used for eating?]

“Your answer is f*cking perfect,” Lin Yi said.

“But does this only apply to food?”

[Yes, as long as it’s something edible, this effect will work on it. It can be used on one’s own body or transplanted.]

“Huh? What does that mean? Can I use it to lift a chestnut?”

[If there are two chestnuts in front of you, you can transfer the energy of one chestnut to the other through your ability, so that one of the chestnuts has double the energy.]

‘F*ck!’

Lin Yi exclaimed in his heart, “Isn’t this ability a little too awesome?”

The system was still as quiet as ever, as if there was a timer on its mouth.

Although he had obtained the system reward, Lin Yi was not in a hurry to start a new profession.

After all, it would be the same if he activated it again after dealing with the matter at hand.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have the time to complete the system mission. Thus, there was no point in activating it earlier.

"Dongdong, let's go back." Ji Qingyan held Wang Dongdong's hand and said, "Big Sister will take you out to play today. Big Sister will accompany you wherever you want to go."

"I don't want to play. I want to go to Aunt's."

"Hm? Who is Aunt?" Ji Qingyan asked doubtfully.

"My mom," Lin Yi said, "Last night, I told him everything."

Ji Qingyan finally understood. She was still worried about how to tell him about this matter.

It turned out that Lin Yi had already helped her deal with it.

A smile subconsciously appeared on her face.

Lin Yi was very careful. He helped her settle the things that she couldn't do well without her asking.

"That doesn't make a difference. I'll bring you around Zhonghai for a few days," said Ji Qingyan.

"Brother said that I've already met the requirements to become an innate master. As for the rest, as long as I study hard, I'll be able to become a powerful person. That's why I want to go to school now," Wang Dongdong said.

"Requirements?"

He Yuanyuan looked at Lin Yi. How did the boss trick this child again?

He was already homeless. What requirements could he have?

He had no requirements at all, okay?

“It refers to the fact that both my parents have died.” Wang Dongdong said.

“Big Brother said that he’s an orphan, and I’m an orphan too. As long as I work hard like him, I can become a powerful person like him and find a beautiful wife like Sister.”

He Yuanyuan patted Wang Dongdong’s head. “You’ve misunderstood. Sister is not his wife.”
