

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

Chapter 678 – 680

Douyu's Internal Meeting

678 Douyu's Internal Meeting

Meng Jinyang's words made the fans in Lin Yi's live stream instantly lose their cool.

They all spat vulgarities and cursed his ancestors.

“Wilderness Plagiarist, don't you have any shame? You're a DNF gaming streamer, yet you want to compete with an outdoor streamer in gaming? Can you be any more shameless?”

“People nowadays are really shameless. They can even try to do such a thing. If I were his father, I would have aborted him back then. How embarrassing.”

Meng Jinyang knew that his words would definitely cause an uproar, but he did not care.

As long as Lin Yi fell for it, it was worth it.

“No problem, let’s do it,” Lin Yi said, “The loser will leave the platform.

What do you say?”

Meng Jinyang was so happy that he almost jumped up.

“Then it’s settled. Let’s meet at eight o’clock tomorrow night. Whoever doesn’t dare will instantly lose.”

“No problem.”

Meng Jinyang exited Lin Yi’s live stream.

At this moment, the comments in the live stream had already reached a dazzling level.

Seeing Lin Yi accept the challenge, the comments flooded the live stream again.

“Brother Mask, are you crazy? I’ve seen his live broadcast. This person seems to have participated in professional competitions and even won the runner-up position. His PK skills are definitely not bad. If you compete with him, you will definitely end up losing.”

“Brother Mask, I think you’re really arrogant. Do you really think you’re omnipotent?”

“I’m a loyal DNF player. I can tell you very clearly that PK-ing is a skill. Even the famous Brother Bao might not win against him. You’re not his match at all.”

“That’s right. Just now, I went to his live-stream room to take a look. This guy strengthened his weapon to +18. The rest of his equipment has reached +15. With this equipment, your health bar will disappear after a single combo.”

“You can’t say that. When I was in university, my roommate liked to play this game too. I played it for a while, and my PK level was still okay,” Lin Yi said.

“Brother Mask, you’re too arrogant. Even if you’re good, you’re still an amateur player. He’s a professional. You’re no match for him. You’ll definitely lose tomorrow’s competition. Your live streaming career is coming to an end.”

“Why are you so pessimistic? The competition hasn’t started yet.” Lin Yi chuckled.

“See you at 8:00 tomorrow night.”

After saying goodbye to the audience in the live stream, Lin Yi exited the live-stream.

At this moment, Ji Qingyan walked over in a hurry.

“I just heard that you want to PK against someone else? Are you fighting in the game?”

“Um... that’s pretty much it.”

“Then we have to work hard. We can’t lose.”

“Of course. When have I ever done anything I’m not confident in?”

“That’s true, you’ve never disappointed me.” Ji Qingyan’s eyes were filled with the color of moonlight as she smiled.

“Yeah.”

She had no idea what PK-ing was, nor did she know how difficult it was.

However, she unconditionally believed that Lin Yi would not lose.

“Alright, it’s getting late. Rest early. Try to win tomorrow.”

“Wait a minute, did you forget something?”

“Huh? I didn’t forget anything?”

Just as Ji Qingyan was confused, Lin Yi picked her up by the waist.

Ji Qingyan subconsciously screamed and habitually wrapped her arms around Lin Yi’s neck, looking at him inquisitively.

“What are you doing?”

“When you got off work, didn’t you say that if I found you within ten minutes, you would let me have fun with you today?”

She blushed. “What time is it now? How could you still remember this?”

“I have such a good memory. Did you think I’d forget?”

“You only have such good memory for these sorts of things.” Ji Qingyan rolled her eyes at Lin Yi. “Put me down, I’m going to put on a face mask.”

“Why are you applying it now? Look at the time. I’ll take you to sleep.”

“Lin Yi, you hooligan.”

“You’re already in my hands. What’s the point of saying all this?”

Ji Qingyan looked at Lin Yi like a punching bag.

“Then we’ll do the same as before. Sleep with your arms around me and don’t do anything else.”

“Hehehe... Are you bargaining with me?”

Not long after, the sound of laughter came from Lin Yi’s room.

As for what he would do next, only the person involved knew.

Douyu headquarters. The office lights were still on.

A middle-aged man was sitting in the office. He was wearing a simple white casual outfit and was looking at the information in his hand in silence.

The man's name was Chen Jiaoyang. He was Douyu's vice president and was mainly in charge of the platform's operations and resource promotion.

On the sofa in the office sat another man and woman.

Compared to Chen Jiaoyang, the two of them were slightly younger.

The man's name was Guo Shibo, and he was Douyu's operations director.

The woman's name was Li Lin, and she was Douyu's marketing director.

Because the company had other projects ongoing, they had been in a meeting until now.

"What's going on? This is just a rookie streamer's proposal, yet you're showing it to me?" Chen Jiaoyang asked.

"Boss, it's like this. We have a disagreement on this matter, so we want you to make a decision," Guo Shibo said.

"He's not a big streamer. Why are the two of you in disagreement?"

“The competition for this event is very intense. Neither of them want to give up, so we came to look for you.”

“Alright, let’s make it short. I’ll see what’s going on.”

Guo Shibo cleared his throat and said,

“On our platform, the traffic in the DNF section is gradually declining, so I wanted to nurture a high-end streamer to lead the DNF segment. However, President Li is optimistic about another outdoor streamer. She and I have different opinions. We discussed it for a long time but couldn’t settle on who to support, so I wanted to ask for Boss’s opinion.”

Chen Jiaoyang leaned back in her chair, her brows tightly furrowed as he thought for a few minutes.

“Our platform doesn’t lack outdoor streamers, right?”

“That’s what I thought. That’s why I kept pushing for my idea.”

“Boss, even though the DNF section lacks top streamers while the outdoor streamer segment is saturated, I think that the streamer called Brother Mask can bring huge traffic to the platform. That's why I insisted on using more resources and promotions on him," Li Lin said.

"In that case, tell me more about him first," said Chen Jiaoyang.

"He just started streaming yesterday and broke through 100,000 popularity points. This is very rare among new streamers."

"A newcomer's live stream had 100,000 viewers?" Chen Jiaoyang was surprised.

"That's right. Moreover, the contents of his live stream was very high-end. He brought his netizens to Jiuzhou Pavilion and showed them a limited edition Bugatti La Voiture Noire worth 126 million. No streamer in Douyu has such ability."

"That's true."

"Moreover, in the live broadcast just now, Brother Mask received more than two million yuan in tips. It's at least ten times more than Wilderness Plagiarists received. In terms of earning money and popularity, he has the absolute advantage. That's why I strongly recommended him."

“But Wilderness Plagiarist is a former professional player. He has a certain popularity and reputation. His potential is limitless.” Guo Shibo said.

“Outdoor streamers usually have a common problem. They can’t live stream for a long time. Moreover, the quality of the live stream in the later stages can’t be compared to gaming streamers, so I recommend going for Wilderness Plagiarist over him.”

Chen Jiaoyang leaned back in his chair, deep in thought.

It was no longer a matter of recommending a streamer.

Guo Shibo and Li Lin were both his proud subordinates. He had to know his limits.

“Both of you were brought up by me, so I can’t be biased toward either of you. Since tomorrow is the last day, let them decide who wins and who loses themselves.”

“Sure,” Li Lin said.

She thought highly of Lin Yi. If nothing went wrong, Lin Yi wouldn’t lose.

The quality of the live broadcast was obvious. Moreover, he had the support of hardcore fans. It would be very difficult for him to lose.

However, Guo Shibo could no longer sit still.

He clearly knew that Meng Jinyang would not survive if they competed like this.

“Boss, if we compete like this, Wilderness Plagiarist will be disadvantaged. It’s best to change the method.”

“Then there’s nothing we can do about it. This matter has to be fair,” said Chen Jiaoyang. “As Heaven watches on, we have to perform to the best of our abilities.”

“But...”

“No buts. It’s settled.”

Clang! Clang! Clang!

“Enter.”

Just as Guo Shibo was in a dilemma, there was a knock on the office door. Guo Shibo's secretary walked in from outside.

“President Chen, Director Guo, Director Li.”

“What's the matter?” Guo Shibo asked.

“I took a look at the situation on the Internet just now. The masked man and Wilderness Plagiarist seem to have agreed to use PK to decide who gets the title of Newcomer king. The loser will leave the platform.”

679 The True Face of the Company

“What did you say? They want to compete via PK?”

The secretary's words made Li Lin unable to remain calm. She even felt that it was a little ridiculous.

An outdoor streamer actually wanted to compete with a former professional DNF player?

Moreover, the loser had to quit the platform?

‘What is he thinking?’

“Just now, they were communicating in the live stream and said something like this. The loser will have to leave the platform.”

Li Lin wasn't the only one who felt that this was ridiculous. Chen Jiaoyang and Guo Shibo were also feeling this way.

The two of them could not understand this deal.

This was equivalent to a three-year-old asking Mike Tyson to box.

“That’s a good idea,” Guo Shibo said with a smile.

“This is the first time I’ve seen someone use such a method to determine the victor on our live stream platform.”

Guo Shibo, who had been a little worried a moment ago, was now completely relaxed.

The result was obvious. The masked man would definitely lose.

“There’s no need to argue now. They already have a solution,” said Chen Jiaoyang.

“Let’s decide the title of the Newcomer King based on the final results of the competition.”

“Boss, there’s definitely something going on here. Isn’t it a little too hasty to use this method to determine the winner?” Li Lin said.

“What you said makes sense, but what can I do? This is something they have decided on their own,” said Chen Jiaoyang.

“Furthermore, this incident showed us something. That person called Brother Mask actually overestimated himself and wanted to compete with former professional players. This means that this person’s brain is not normal. Even if he is strongly supported in the future, there might be some problems. Let’s just leave it at that.”

“But...”

“There are no buts.” Chen Jiaoyang stood up with his coat. “Alright, it’s settled. It’s getting late. Let’s go home after work.”

Chen Jiaoyang got up and left, followed by Guo Shibo.

Li Lin shook her head helplessly and cursed to herself,

“Is there something wrong with this masked man’s brain? Seriously.”

After leaving the company, Chen Jiaoyang and Guo Shibo got into their respective cars.

Seeing that no one was around, Guo Shibo called Ma Weian.

“Little Ma, the matter here is settled. In the future, all the promotional resources will be given to you. Work hard.”

“Thank you, Director Guo. I’ll go over to your place in a few days. We’ll talk in detail when we meet. I won’t have made you worked hard for free.”

“Sure, sure. Let’s talk in detail when we meet.”

In the eyes of Guo Shibo and Ma Weian, this matter was already set in stone.

With Meng Jinyang’s strength, even if he took off his equipment, he could defeat Brother Mask with one hand. Therefore, Ma Weian could now focus on arranging the follow-up matters.

The next morning, Lin Yi woke up to find that Ji Qingyan had already started making breakfast.

After washing up, breakfast was served.

“Are you still going to do a live stream today?” Ji Qingyan asked during dinner.

“Yes, yes. In any case, we can’t lose.” Ji Qingyan continued, “Yuanyuan and I will reward you tonight.”

“That’s enough.” Lin Yi said.

“She’s not spending her own money. I’m afraid that He Yuanyuan will spend all the money in the company’s accounts.”

Ji Qingyan smiled. With Yuanyuan's personality, she was really capable of doing such a thing.

"Alright, I'm done eating." Ji Qingyan put down her bowl and chopsticks.

"I'm going to work. Be good at home. This rich lady will come back tonight after buying you something delicious."

She said this because she had been called a rich lady by the viewers in the live stream room all this while.

After tidying up, she drove off.

Lin Yi turned around and went upstairs. He took his phone and called Shen Shuyi.

"Aunt Shen."

"Something you can't handle?" Shen Shuyi said with a smile.

"Look at what you're saying. You make it sound like I'm very powerful." Lin Yi chuckled.

"It's already autumn. It's getting cold in Yanjing. I thought I'd give you a call. Wear more clothes so you don't catch a cold."

"I've already changed into my autumn clothes," Shen Shuyi said. "If there's nothing else, I'll hang up. I have a meeting later."

"Don't worry," Lin Yi said, "How can a meeting be more important than talking about family matters?"

"Kid, you never call unless you need something." Shen Shuyi said, "Tell me, why are you looking for me?"

Lin Yi chuckled. "I just wanted to ask if Aunt Shen knows anything about this company."

"You heard of something?"

Shen Shuyi was slightly surprised. Lin Yi's sharp insight made her exclaim.

"Huh? Aunt Shen, did you already know about this?"

"I can't say that I know. It can only be considered a premonition," Shen Shuyi said.

"Previously, when you and Zhao Mo were fighting, someone secretly stirred up the situation and posted an article on a financial website, stating all your previous exploits."

"I read that post, but it was quickly deleted. It didn't affect anything."

"I asked someone to delete that post." Shen Shuyi said, "And I also found out that the IP address of that post came from Jaewon, so I guessed that it might have been done by Jaewon Television."

Lin Yi understood now.

No wonder that post was deleted so quickly. It was all Shen Shuyi's doing.

Furthermore, this was well within her capabilities.

"Aunt Shen, you weren't being honest," Lin Yi said.

"Did you change your mind when you said you wouldn't help?"

"You rascal, what does this have to do with you?" Shen Shuyi said.

"It's because there was too little information at that time. There was no way to confirm that it was done by the television station. Coupled with your strength, you were obviously not a match for the television station at the time, so I had to suppress them. How did you discover this?"

"Didn't I want to move into the mobile phone industry recently? I was secretly tricked by someone. After thinking about it, I figured that only that television station would want to target me." Lin Yi said.

“That’s why I wanted to ask Aunt Shen about the situation over there.”

“Because it’s located on Jaewon, its existence is very special. We don’t have much control over it,” Shen Shuyi said.

“When I discovered that article, I called someone from the Public Relations Department. Under the CITIC Group name, I made another related post to ban the person behind the scenes. I thought the other party would behave, but he attacked again. It seems like he doesn’t take me seriously.”

“Is he so awesome that he doesn’t even give my mother-in-law face?”

Shen Shuyi smiled.

“It can’t be helped. Jaewon Electric Company is based in Jaewon. Besides, the nature of his company is complicated. It’s not as simple as you think.”

“That’s why I came to ask Aunt Shen for help,” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“In truth, although Jaewon Television is located in Jaewon, it can be said to be a real Meiguon company in terms of corporate nature,” Shen Shuyi said.

“Their product development system was designed by IBM. The human resources system was developed by the Hays Group. The organizational structure was designed by Mercer Consulting. As for the finances, it was done by PricewaterhouseCoopers of the Big Four. The sales system was designed by Accenture. Not to mention most of the company’s shares consist of foreign capital. Therefore, you can completely treat it as a foreign company when dealing with it.”

Shen Shuyi said, “I don’t think the station’s attack on you this time is necessarily because of your mobile phone business. It might be because of the Chip 2.0.”

“I’ve consulted my subordinates. What you made this time seems to be quite powerful. At the very least, Intel can’t sit still anymore.”

680 Give Me Five Minutes, I Can Make Them All Lie Down

Shen Shuyi's thoughts coincided with Lin Yi's.

Right now, the only thing he could really use was the Chip 2.0 code.

Moreover, they had already held a public press conference. It was normal for Intel to be on guard.

Lin Yi rubbed his chin. It wasn't worth it to expose his target just to take down Cisco.

Fortunately, he was about to finish the Chip 3.0 framework, so this would not hurt.

"Lin Yi? Are you listening to me?"

"I'm listening, Aunt Shen."

"Although Jaewon Electric Company is filled with foreign capital, Zhang Zhongmou is indeed powerful. He's much stronger than Zhao Mo," Shen Shuyi said.

"If you want to fight him, you'd better be prepared."

"I know that."

"I trust you," Shen Shuyi said.

"By the way, you just said that someone has made things difficult for you in the mobile phone business. I know some people in this field. If you need help, I can help you out."

"There's no need to trouble Aunt Shen with such a small matter," Lin Yi said, "I can do it myself."

Shen Shuyi pondered for a moment before saying,

"Alright, I still have a meeting later. If there's anything you can't handle, call me in time."

“Alright, thank you, Aunt Shen.”

After hanging up, Shen Shuyi did not go to the meeting immediately. Instead, she placed her hands on the desk and muttered to herself,

“What’s he so on guard against?”

In Jiuzhou Pavilion, after the call ended, Lin Yi placed his hands behind his head.

Now, he was certain that the person behind this was the television station.

However, figuring out how to take them down was a problem.

Lin Yi wasn’t very worried about the mobile phone.

At most, he would just directly buy the components and spend more money.

This all depended on Qi Xianzhao’s progress.

If he could not settle this matter within three days, Lin Yi could not afford to delay any longer.

Lin Yi shook his head and put these things aside for now.

There was the PK event tonight, so he had to take care of this first.

Thinking of this, Lin Yi called Zhang Song.

“Give me your DNF account. I want to log in and play.”

“My account is trash. I haven’t played much since I reached Level 100.”

“Alright, I’ll send it to you on WeChat later.”

“Okay.”

Soon, Zhang Song sent his QQ number over.

After logging in, Lin Yi realized that Zhang Song’s equipment was not as bad as he had imagined. It was about average and he could make do with it.

Because he hadn’t played for a long time, Lin Yi familiarized himself with the game for a while before understanding the specific controls. Then, he entered the PK arena and started practicing.

Lin Yi knew that he wasn’t Meng Jinyang’s match at his current level.

The reason why Lin Yi agreed was because of the perfect physique and luck card rewarded to him by the system.

With the enhancement of his perfect physique, his reaction speed had increased to another level. Therefore, as long as he practiced enough, his rate of improvement would be tremendous.

However, it was not enough to rely on these factors to make up for the gap between him and Meng Jinyang.

He still had to choose a few good pieces of equipment to strengthen. That way, he would get twice the results with half the effort.

For the entire morning, Lin Yi sat in front of the computer and began his endless PK journey. Soon, he reached the Tara Stone level.

At this point, Lin Yi realized that it was very difficult to increase his rank any further.

Almost everyone at this level was an expert. Occasionally, he would also encounter a few cheaters. This was very frustrating.

Lin Yi knew that at this level, he couldn’t just rely on his own techniques to increase his rank.

The difference in equipment had formed an irreparable gap between him and his opponents. He had to think of a way to get some PK equipment. Otherwise, it would be impossible to defeat Meng Jinyang.

Ring!

Lin Yi's phone rang.

To his surprise, it was a call from Zhao Wen.

"What is it?"

"The research center is now in use, and the relevant researchers have started to devote themselves to their work. Do you want to come over and take a look?"

"It's already in use? I thought there was supposed to be an opening ceremony?"

"I wanted to arrange it to take place in the next few days, but the Huaxian leaders couldn't make it, so the ceremony was postponed. However, this doesn't affect the use of the laboratory. The research and development work has already begun."

"Do you need me to visit?"

"Previously, Pfizer had collaborated with the six major pharmaceutical companies, but these new developments happened halfway through the research, so they have now brought the semi-finished product to this new laboratory," Zhao Wen said.

"No way? The Meiguons are willing to cooperate with communist ideologies? This is something they researched before our partnership. If they bring it here, there won't be able to enjoy any profit in the Huaxian market."

"They didn't want to do this either, but they aren't able to finish it by themselves." Zhao Wen said.

“This project has been going on for more than half a year, but there’s still no progress. This is also the reason why Pfizer and the six major pharmaceutical companies want to partner with you.”

“Alright, I’ll go take a look.”

“126 Zhongjiang Road. Call me in advance before you arrive. I’ll go down and pick you up.”

“Okay.”

After hanging up, Lin Yi changed his clothes and left. He drove for forty minutes before arriving at the newly completed research center.

After the renovation, the research center now looked quite modern.

The main outer wall was made of blue glass. It was simple and grand, and gave off a futuristic vibe.

In summary, it was very impressive.

Lin Yi had just parked the car when he saw Zhao Wen walking towards him.

Zhao Wen’s attire was simple and elegant.

She was wearing a blue floral suit, a yellow tight-fitting long-sleeved shirt, and black lace-up flats. Her hair was also as wavy as ever. When she walked, her hair fluttered in the wind, giving off a strong aura.

“Why are you here? Aren’t you the marketing director of Pfizer? You shouldn’t be in charge of research and development, right?”

“Thanks to you, I was promoted when I got back. I’m now the person in charge of the Terra-Pacific region in Pfizer.” Zhao Wen said.

“Now that the research center has just been established, my focus is on it. I’ll come and take a look from time to time.”

“Then shouldn’t you thank me?”

“Alright, I’ll treat you to a meal sometime, but I don’t think you’ll like it.”

“You know me best. Instead of eating, why don’t you get a room at the Peninsula Hotel and lie down for a chat?”

“To be able to make President Lin say such a thing is an affirmation of my looks and figure.” Zhao Wen smiled and said.

“But now, we’d better go up and take a look. They’re already arguing a lot. I hope you can help them solve the research and development problem.”

“That won’t be easy, but give me five minutes and I’ll have them all lying down. No will dare to make a fuss any longer.”
