

Night Ranger - Chapter 697 – 700

The Hearts of the People -

Chapter 697: The Hearts of the People

Translator: Shiraishi Editor: TheAlliance

Though they had been shocked by Marvin's strength before, Marvin had received a serious injury from the Twin Snakes!

Feinan's powerhouses really were the finest, among those present.

But it was always hard to fight enemies when they were coming from all directions!

Earlier, when some of them had gone in to help Marvin, Kangen and a few others had gone back outside to dissuade any from trying to take advantage of the fact that Feinan's most powerful Legends were all gathered in one place. In various territories, some troubles had sprung up that needed quelling.

In this situation, the powerhouses from the Astral Sea and other forces would naturally begin to get restless, as their numbers advantage had become more significant.

And the threat of the World Ending Twin Snakes had lifted for now.

Although those with discerning eyes could see that the Truth Scale could only hold back the Twin Snakes temporarily, as long as they had enough time, they would have an opportunity.

And that was the Fate Tablet!

Now was the time when Marvin was at his weakest!

If they managed to snatch away the Fate Tablet, they would be able to claim that wondrous treasure for their God!

And supreme glory and power would follow.

Although the 4th Fate Tablet was part of the game between Lance and the Plane Will, the chess pieces in the games didn't realize this.

In fact, if Marvin told them, they surely wouldn't believe it. And even if they did believe it, so what?

Lance was using an overarching plot.

The Fate Tablet truly had the power to let a mortal, or even a God, be reborn stronger!

In the 3rd Era, countless Gods had already proved that point!

If just fragments were enough for mortals to ascend, then what about a whole tablet?

No one could resist this temptation, apart from old foxes like Yin who lived for practically an eternity and could see the bigger picture. Even if the others learnt that the Fate Tablet needed a key to be unlocked, they would still wouldn't relent.

This was the frightening part of the greed in people's hearts.

"It's rumored that the 4th Fate Tablet is a supreme treasure containing all of Great God Lance's knowledge and his understanding of Laws."

"Since this thing came to Feinan, it should belong to Feinan, and not someone from the Nine Hells!" the Legend from the West Coast said with conviction.

When he saw how Ivan and Jessica seemed speechless after his words, he felt proud of himself.

The image of Marvin in everyone's hearts wasn't as lofty as before.

The fight with the Molten Archdevil had thoroughly confirmed his Infernal Bloodline.

Due to the strength that he had shown before, Feinan's powerhouses hadn't brought it up.

But it was different now.

A Devil Magic Egg was in front of them.

At this time, who could still say that Marvin was unrelated to Hell?

"He clearly is from Hell! Diross' descendant! He is bound to harbor malicious thoughts."

"I hope that someone from Feinan gets the Fate Tablet, not some outsider, and especially not this so-called hero pretending to be part of mankind."

That Legend continued on proudly.

He was normally relatively low-key, but some of the City-States of Pambo Seas' coast were under his control.

But he was acting differently here as the Fate Tablet appeared. He had relied on his small friendship with Copper Dragon Professor to join Feinan's side.

In the previous battles, he hadn't exerted himself much and still was able to smoothly get an Azure Stone.

He also had borne no ill will toward Marvin.

But like any person with a narrow-minded mindset, it was hard for him to handle seeing a member of the younger generation rise up at a frightening rate, and in a span of six months, gain fame that he himself would never attain in his entire life.

And when he saw Marvin turn into a Devil Magic Egg, he found an excuse to justify his reservations.

Marvin definitely wasn't a pure-blooded Human.

So he didn't have the qualifications to hold the Fate Tablet for Feinan.

His logic was quite ridiculous, but he spoke about it with such devotion and righteousness.

The entire Sky Tower fell silent as he concluded his thoughts.

Everyone was staring at the slightly moving Devil Magic Egg.

Chaos Power was surging from all directions and the absorption speed was suffocating.

They could see that Marvin's vitality was recovering at a frightening speed!

'No good! He is recovering!'

Suddenly, everyone realized this!

The scene of Marvin fighting the World Ending Twin Snakes before had very shocking.

They only dared to take advantage of his current state to make a move on him!

If Marvin awakened, even if he only had a portion of his power, would they still have the courage to keep pressing for the Fate Tablet?

Most of them knew the answer was in the negative.

Especially the Divine Servants of the Astral Plane.

They had already obtained an oracle from their Gods.

If Marvin was healthy, they shouldn't touch him. They wouldn't be able to handle him anyways.

A month later, the powerful War God would naturally sort him out.

The current Marvin already reached a level that the Divine Servants could only look up to.

Thus, they had to act quickly!

And the Legend from the West Coast was also aware of this.

He frowned as he spoke up again. "Mister Professor, you know my character. I am respected in the West Coast, and not because of my strength."

"I do not covet the Fate Tablet, but do you think that handing the Fate Tablet to someone from Hell is really suitable?"

All the Divine Servants watched fixedly.

Under the temptation of the Fate Tablet, a few cracks appeared in the solidarity of Feinan's defenders.

Besides those like Professor, Jessica, and the Elven couple, the other Legends who hadn't had as much interaction with Marvin were influenced by his words.

Their meaning was clear.

Marvin couldn't keep the Fate Tablet.

In this situation, they felt that their chances were a lot greater.

If Professor didn't compromise with them, then the forces of Feinan might split in half, and still have to face the Divine Servants!

Defending against an assault from all sides might not be so hard for them normally...

But Marvin was a burden right now.

As long as they focused their attacks on Marvin, those trying to protect him would definitely expose a flaw.

And in a fight between experts, a single flaw could lead to death!

Especially when facing opponents that outnumbered them by countless times.

They had no choice.

That powerhouse from the West Coast had a smirk on his face, thinking the victory was in his hands.

But at that time, a mocking voice echoed, "Connor, who gave you your Azure Stone?"

The one who said that was Ivan, who was brandishing Glorious Wind.

An awkward expression suddenly appeared on the man's face, because he recalled that his own Azure Stone had been obtained by Marvin and given to him.

Without Marvin, he couldn't even have entered the Sky Tower

"Aren't you ashamed?" Ivan sneered while looking at these people, boldly provoking them as he pointed at them. "And even if you don't feel ashamed..."

"Anyone who dares to take a step forward will die."

Chapter 698: Fall Out!

Translator: Shiraishi Editor: TheAlliance

The others hadn't expected Ivan to be so resolute in his support of Marvin!

The Elven Sword in his hand let out a long, cheerful cry.

And the Sea Elven Queen also unhesitantly took out the Artifact-level Sea Emperor's Scepter. Her relationship with Ivan was very strange, but in name at least, Ivan was her man.

Those Ivan who wanted to protect were those who she wanted to protect as well.

The reason was as simple as that.

As for Jessica, she didn't feel like saying anything to that fickle group of people.

The girl who held the Power Ability among the Fate Sorceresses had never been one to yield to others' whims.

She held onto the Devil Magic Egg tightly, calmly using her Fate Power to check on Marvin's condition.

She was glad to discover that Marvin's condition didn't seem as bad as it had been a few moments ago.

When she first caught the Magic Egg, she had almost thought that he had died from the last blow from the Azure Snake!

Because his aura had completely disappeared.

But that vast amount of Chaos Power coming from all around assured her that Marvin was still alive.

And he was a lot better now.

She could the Devil Magic Egg bursting with boundless vitality.

It felt as if it was nurturing a new life.

Through the reaction between their Fate Imprints, she had a feeling that if Marvin could overcome this near-death situation, his strength could even reach a new level.

His strength had already reached the Half-Plane Guardian level. If he went one step further, what would happen?

This Legend who was still a youth, what heights could he reach?

Jessica, who had always been very confident in her own talent and strength, was very much looking forward to this.

Thus, she wouldn't allow Marvin to die here.

She didn't feel like making threats like Ivan had.

She only held Marvin and raised her head.

In an instant, a frightening Fate Power burst out in front of Connor!

"Rumble!"

A thunderous pillar of lightning ripped through the sky and crashed in the hall!

Despite Connor being a knowledgeable and experienced combatant, he was scared by Jessica's fierce and straightforward attack.

And if he hadn't managed to react quickly and dash a few steps back, he might have been burnt by that lightning!

Even if he used his Legend Domain to enhance his sturdy body and try to take it, although he probably wouldn't die, he would still be seriously injured!

Cold sweat trickled down his back.

The other powerhouses from Feinan that had voiced their objections felt a chill run down their spines.

Jessica's decisiveness made a few of them shrink back in fear!

Even the Divine Servants paled.

Attacking without a warning like that... were they not worried that Feinan's internal strife would be taken advantage of by some outsiders?

Unfortunately, they didn't know that phrase "backing down" wasn't in Jessica's vocabulary!

Fate Power gave her the strength to move forward.

She would always use this power to get rid of all unpleasant things.

In fact, she had already been showing some self-control with this pillar of lightning.

If it weren't for the fact that she was afraid that excessive use of Fate power might trigger a resonance in Marvin's body and exacerbate his injuries, she wouldn't have minded killing Connor directly!

Despite this, this attitude of not willing to yield at all shocked everyone.

Elven War Saint, Sea Elven Queen, Fate Sorceress.

And there was also the large and silent Dragon that was also at the Half-Plane Guardian level!

Any Legend that dared to take a step forward might instantly be burnt to death.

Perhaps if they swarmed them, they might have a chance to snatch away the incapacitated Marvin.

But some of them would definitely die!

The more powerful one was, the more afraid of death they were.

It was so for the Divine Servants and also for Feinan's powerhouses.

The scene immediately became awkward.

No one wanted to have to back off, but Marvin's injury was slowly getting better. This was a bad sign to a lot of them.

They felt their hearts ache.

To make a move, or to retreat?

They glanced around at each other, all trying to be cunning as they acted unconcerned, each waiting for someone else to make the first move.

They were all cursing the others as treacherous, scarcely realizing that they were doing the same thing.

Seeing this farce, Jessica showed a derisive smile. "Truly a bunch of cowards."

"Clearly drooling over the Fate Tablet like this, but not daring to come to get it."

Jessica's sneer angered much of the crowd.

But she wasn't wrong.

They truly didn't dare.

The powerhouses of the Astral Sea had finally gotten the chance to flex their muscles at the battle at the Sky Tower.

But they weren't as invincible as they thought they would be.

They were actually taught a lesson by Feinan's defenders!

Especially Marvin.

He slaughtered the small army that was gathered by the Gods despite being all alone, and then killed the Molten Archdevil's avatar....

All that was enough to create a legend.

At least in the hearts of the minor characters, that is.

An ant they thought that they could easily crush revealed itself to be a ruthless, fierce tiger, repeatedly stomping them down, and inspiring terror amongst them.

In order to overcome this fear...

In order to overcome their fear, they let themselves be guided by their faith.

But their faith couldn't directly make them stronger.

They were cowards.

There was nothing wrong with Jessica calling them cowards.

A deathly silence spread through the hall of the Sky Tower, only disturbed by the gentle breathing sounds of all those who had lusted after the Fate Tablet.

Suddenly, a change appeared once again at the entrance of the Ethereal Plane.

The shadows of the raging Twin Snakes could be seen on the other side of the seal.

Those huge bodies made the hearts of the onlookers quicken.

They were making some progress with their attacks on the Ethereal Plane's seal!

Although the Imprint of the Truth Scale had very versatile and pure Divine Power, in the end, it still wasn't the Truth Scale itself!

Who knew how long it could keep holding them back?

If the World Ending Twin Snakes broke through the seal, everyone present would face the consequences.

Some people were already starting to retreat.

As long as they wanted to, they could leave the Sky Tower at any time.

Shadows disappeared one after the other.

Only those still unwilling to leave the Fate Tablet still remained behind.

Connor looked at Marvin's body with great desire, but he clenched his teeth and finally prepared to leave.

But at that time, a small figure appeared in the midst of everyone.

Ivan and Professor displayed grave expressions.

On that girl's back were three Holy Swords.

Her gaze was fixed on Marvin, and her killing intent was conspicuously permeating the area.

"Wuuuu!" The three Holy Swords resonated.

The Valkyrie's inheritance really needed to be treated with caution.

Moreover, she wasn't alone.

Behind her was a man that was acting like an attendant. The latter smiled as he looked toward the group gathered around Marvin. “She said that as long as I help her get rid of Marvin, I will be released. Therefore, my apologies.”

Jessica angrily shouted, “Eve! What are you trying to do?!”

Chapter 699: Valkyrie and Fate Sorceress

Translator: Shiraishi Editor: TheAlliance

No one thought that the one person who would stand up and confront Jessica’s group would be Eve!

This was the heiress to the Valkyrie, supporting the Three Northern Cities. Although she had once had a disagreement with Jessica, they were all still essentially protectors of Feinan.

It was also because of this that even if Jessica disliked Eve, she didn’t go to the North to settle the debt.

Previously, Eve had sent a letter to White River Valley, inviting Marvin to join her in the North in order to cooperate.

Who would have ever thought that when Marvin was at his weakest, she would actually step out... and not to protect him?

She wanted to kill Marvin.

Her expression explained everything.

In an instant, the three Holy Swords began quivering as they slowly rose from her back.

Each Holy Sword had its own story.

These stories could no longer be verified due to the passage of time.

But this didn’t lessen the terror of the Holy Swords by the slightest bit.

Jessica also saw with her own eyes when the purple Holy Swords had pierced Dark Phoenix’s heart, pinning Dark Phoenix in the formation of the Four Totemic Pillars when she tried to flee.

As opposed to Jessica’s angry attitude, Professor seemed a lot calmer.

He was in contact with Feinan’s younger generation of powerhouses. The traces of the Copper Dragon could be seen behind the reconstruction of the Three Northern Cities.

He slowly opened his mouth and asked, "Why?"

Eve raised her head and looked at the Copper Dragon with a tranquil expression. "He is the Destroyer."

"Bullshit!" Jessica couldn't restrain her anger!

"Even if you play dumb, that fact is unchangeable," Eve dismissed.

"In fact, as a Fate Sorceress, you should have known of this news earlier than I did."

"Aren't I right?"

Everyone that was still left was staring with eyes wide open!

They didn't understand what the Valkyrie was saying!

The savior of Feinan, Marvin, was the Destroyer?

What was the meaning behind this?

Many who had been preparing to leave stopped and started watching.

The Valkyrie was also considered an enemy of the Astral Sea. Like the Three Fate Sisters, she received the favor of the Plane Will.

Many people had already guessed that after the departure of the four Plane Guardians, the new generation of Plane Guardians would rise up from Feinan's remaining powerhouses.

The position of South Plane Guardian should be reclaimed by the awakened Witch Queen.

The East Plane Guardian should naturally be the famous Marvin.

The North Plane Guardian should be the Valkyrie Eve.

And the West Plane Guardian should be the strongest of the Three Fate Sisters, Jessica.

But at this time, the expected future North Plane Guardian actually claimed that Marvin was the "Destroyer"?

What did this mean?

The remaining Divine Servants began relaying this new information to their Gods.

...

Eve was very serene.

Compared to Eve's calm attitude, Jessica seemed very agitated.

In fact, when she heard the word, "Destroyer", her whole body shivered slightly.

A hint of indecision flashed in her eyes.

But she ultimately forced herself out of it. "It's unreasonable! The Plane Will already acknowledged him! He was given the aura of a Child of the Plane, he is the same as us, a Plane Guardian of Feinan!"

"A wolf can also disguise itself using sheepskin and pretend to be harmless," Eve coldly countered.

"I don't know what kind of game Diross is playing in the end, I also don't know how the Supreme God who once sought the well-being of all the lifeforms degenerated... But I know one thing, which is that we can't allow the Destroyer to keep growing."

"He originally wasn't someone of this world!"

Eve's words were shocking, but they were indeed true!

Jessica stubbornly held her ground. "So what if he is from another world? Did the Valkyrie leave clear instructions to you?"

Eve remained silent.

She slowly shook her head as she replied, "I only know of the Destroyer's existence. The mission that the Valkyrie assigned me is to find him and annihilate him."

"But I wasn't completely sure who the Destroyer was."

"Until today."

She pointed at the Magic Devil Egg and coldly reminded, "You should be aware of the legend of the Nine Hells?"

"Diross spent so much effort on him. Is it really just to cultivate someone from the younger generation?"

"The plot of the Lord of Hells once divided the Astral Sea. It split from the ancient Astral Sea to the current Nine Hells and the current God Realms."

“They are Angels, and they are most proficient in Order Power. If the Fate Tablet ends up in their hands, what do you think will happen?”

Jessica took a deep breath, before resolutely stating, “Marvin is Marvin, Hell is Hell.”

“You want to know what I think?”

“I’ll tell you, I don’t think much about it.”

“In my eyes, he is just Marvin.”

Eve slowly shook her head.

She then suddenly dashed forward, her three swords thrusting out impressively!

That frightening Sword Aura and killing intent covered the entire top floor of the Sky Tower.

Even the powerhouses at the end of the hall could feel the aura enough to make their hearts skip a beat.

These three Holy Swords were vicious swords that had killed countless people!

There was a legend saying that if the Valkyrie’s swords locked onto a target, they would keep chasing till the end!

Ivan shouted angrily and stepped forward to stop her!

The Sea Elven Queen also followed suit.

But Eve only pointed with her finger and the son of the God of Dawn and Protection smiled uncomfortably.

The next second, a radiant Divine Power that seemed like the light of dawn surged out, suppressing the two powerful Legends!

At this time, many powerhouses came to a realization.

The son of the Dawn and Protection God was the fiercest of them all.

Even the Copper Dragon wouldn’t be able to defeat him.

He was the only son of Anuba Grant!

After he was suppressed, his strength gradually recovered faster and faster!

The only reason he was captured by Eve was the special nature of the three Holy Swords, with the ability specifically designed to suppress those like him.

As long as Eve agreed to let him off, he would likely be the most powerful person here!

The Elven duo acted in accord, but could only stand toe to toe with him!

Seeing this scene, Jessica became even angrier.

“Give him to me,” Eve restated, a serious expression on her face.

The energy emanating from the Holy Swords hadn’t subsided in the slightest.

“I’ll grant him a decent death.”

“Although he is the Destroyer of the prophecy, he was once Feinan’s hero. Dying at the blades of the three Holy Swords shouldn’t be a dishonorable death for him.”

Only two words came out of the Fate Sorceress’ mouth:

“Fuck off!”

Pillars of lightning surged down from the sky, as if the heavens were just as furious as she was!

Facing Eve and the three flying Holy Swords, even Jessica didn’t dare to be overconfident.

She could only entrust Marvin to the Copper Dragon.

She rushed out to get rid of this danger herself!

The future West Plane Guardian and North Plane Guardian clashed in earnest!

The three Holy Swords clashed with the Fate Power, making the entire Sky Tower shake!

Chapter 700: Counter Storm

Translator: Shiraishi Editor: TheAlliance

No one here had expected the situation to reach such a stage!

The originally solid and united group fighting for Feinan suddenly had such intense internal strife.

When Marvin was at its weakest, it was none other than Eve who stood up and aimed her Holy Swords at him.

She claimed he was someone called “the Destroyer”.

Although most people there couldn’t understand what it meant, there was no mistake about it: the Valkyrie and the Fate Sorceress were fighting.

The eyes of the Divine Servants from the Astral Sea shone!

They regained some of their hope.

The son of Anuba Grant was quite incredible. Without Eve restraining him with her Holy Swords, he would be the most powerful contender for the Fate Tablet.

On the top floor of the Sky Tower, everyone watched as he held off Ivan and the Sea Elven Queen, apparently effortlessly.

With his carefree appearance, he was probably not even going all-out!

Then again, he had just agreed to help Eve with one thing and not necessarily do anything too drastic.

Seeing this, most of the Divine Servants drew similar conclusions.

The son of the God of Dawn and Protection was definitely waiting for an opportunity to make a decisive move.

With Marvin crippled, it might be difficult for the Copper Dragon to protect him on his own!

The battle between Jessica and Eve might have just started, but it was already full-blown!

The seven-colored Fate Power was clashing with the Holy Swords as Jessica herself was in a fierce melee with Eve.

The strength of the two of them had reached a very frightening stage.

Eve wanted to press closer to Marvin.

But Jessica wouldn’t allow her to.

Their fight was very rough and simple, almost like a brawl!

Still, many were terrified when they saw the extent of their power!

Whether it was the Valkyrie's Holy Swords or Jessica's fists, if they were the ones receiving those, they wouldn't be able to handle it!

This was the power of the ones chosen by the Plane Will.

Unfortunately, although Jessica gave her utmost, she was still unable to take Eve down.

So while they were occupied, the restless stragglers finally made a move.

Given that there was only one left guarding Marvin, they glanced at each other and tacitly decided to make a move!

In an instant, Professor faced the attacks of more than 40 Legends!

Endless Divine Power fell down from the sky, along with sword shadows and sneak attacks hidden between the cracks.

The goal of these people was very simple: killing Marvin!

The Copper Dragon angrily raised his wings, and a dark red storm was suddenly whipped up in the area around his body!

The storm frantically whirled around him and deflected most of the Divine Spells and offensive attacks!

The entire top floor of the Sky Tower fell into chaos.

A startled shout came out from someone who got struck by his own spell bouncing back!

[Counter Storm]!

A fierce Dragon Spell.

But the consumption of stamina and Magic Power was very high, too.

The dark red storm persisted for about another minute before stopping.

The Copper Dragon, who had just used a lot of energy when he spat out the Lava Breath earlier, seemed a bit smaller now.

His eyes became even less lively.

And there was also a fresh wound at the base of his wing!

Counter Storm couldn't stop everything.

He panted, continuing to shield the Devil Magic Egg under his stomach.

The large Dragon's eyes carefully watched the rest as he roared with a thunderous voice, "Don't even think of killing Marvin today!"

"I might not be able to kill all of you, but I'll definitely not show any mercy to anyone that dares to attack!"

The Copper Dragon was utterly enraged.

Professor had always had a calm and gentle personality. He liked Humans, he liked to interact with them.

And among these Humans, he had always believed that Marvin was worth trusting.

Ever since he took the initiative to train in the Mirror World, and also in the later trip to the Dragon Temple, everything proved that.

This youth had the heart of a hero.

There was no doubt about this.

Professor was at ease knowing the Fate Tablet was in Marvin's hands.

Today's events had been going so well.

Relying on his remarkable abilities, Marvin had successfully grasped the Fate Tablet.

And with Feinan's group being so formidable, forming an alliance to hold off the outsiders wouldn't be an issue.

This all would have set up a good foundation for getting ready to deal with what would happen a month hence.

But the falling out with Eve destroyed everything.

Professor had a good relationship with Eve, and he knew she wasn't greedy.

As the inheritor of the will of the Valkyrie, Eve had very firm willpower, and she also took it upon herself to be one of the heroes that would guard Feinan from any threats.

The only thing that would be able to make her change her mind would be something related to the Valkyrie's will.

A flicker of doubt appeared in the Copper Dragon's angry eyes. The Valkyrie had left for so many years, and despite the matter of the Destroyer being in the minds of these long-lived lifeforms, it had never manifested. Now, Eve concluded that Marvin was the Destroyer, which must have had something to do with what the Valkyrie had known. But even if the Valkyrie was outstandingly powerful, could she really see what would happen after so many years?

Marvin was the one chosen by Lance, after all.

This was something Professor learnt after communicating with the Water Elemental Sovereign. After Butterfly awakened, his strength took a great leap forward, and because of this, he gained access to the world's biggest secret.

The game between Lance and Feinan's Plane Will.

Could it be that Lance really wanted to destroy this world?

And that Marvin was the one he had chosen to do it?

Only this conclusion could explain Eve's actions.

But the Copper Dragon didn't have time to think all this through.

Counter Storm hadn't bought him much time.

The enemies would take this opportunity to swarm around once more.

Although the Divine Spells weren't powerful, there were a lot of them.

At this time, Professor regretted that Kangen had left to settle things outside.

With the strength of the Blade Master, there would be no issue holding off and perhaps slaughtering these Divine Servants.

But it was normal for that old friend to not want to stay in this sacred location for Wizards.

There was still that matter gnawing at his mind, after all.

Professor's gaze became resolute.

Regardless of whether Marvin was the Destroyer, the Fate Tablet couldn't end up in the hands of these people.

Whether it was Feinan's other Legends, or the Divine Servants, or the other forces of the Universe.

If the Fate Tablet landed in their hands, it would lead to another round of terror and destruction.

The owner of the Tablet would turn into a New God, and probably become like them too.

When that time came, the fate of everyone else in Feinan would be decided.

The Era of Gods would be unstoppable then.

Professor didn't like this, so he resolved himself to use a sacrificial taboo spell to stop all this.

But at that time, something under his belly stirred restlessly.

He subconsciously used his wings to brush aside those few scattered Divine Spells that were still falling down.

Everyone was abruptly shocked when they saw the Devil Magic Egg transform.

Four limbs, followed by a head, and ultimately, a complete Human shape appeared.

Marvin raised his head and both reached at his waist, drawing Sodom's Blades, which let out a thick killing intent.

The corner of his mouth was raised in a devilish smile:

"You want to kill me?"