

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 551 Mr. Shi

How could Cheng Song accept this?

If he had been going to marry a woman from an ordinary family, then he could cancel the engagement when the woman developed a disability.

But he married a woman of Chen's Family.

Therefore, if he dared to ruin the engagement, that meant that he disrespected Chen's Family.

Whether he was willing or not, he was destined to marry Irene Chen.

It's no wonder that Cheng hated Finn Chen so much. If it were someone else, he would have wanted to kill Finn.

However, Finn might have a noble identity, because even if he crippled Irene, nothing happened to him.

"You said Wendy Lin is your sister? Do you have any evidence? "

Just when everyone guessed the relationship between Finn and Chen's Family, Cheng asked again.

"No, Wendy is not my sister." Finn was calm. There was no kinship between him and Wendy.

All along, he always took Wendy as his little sister.

"Not a sister?"

"Then why do we give you The True Solution? Who knows if you kidnapped Wendy?" Cheng sneered.

Did Finn kidnap Wendy?

Then, everyone's face suddenly changed--it's possible.

After all, up to now, the kidnapers of Wendy had not revealed the slightest information.

If Finn knew that Wendy was Jordi Qing's daughter, he might have planned it a long time ago, including this gambling fight. In this fight, Finn turned the tide for the City Z's Chamber of Commerce. He might have done that for The True Solution.

At this moment, even Rick's face changed.

Although Cheng's words might be a frame-up, Finn did have great suspicion.

He had both motivations for the crime and the ability to commit crimes.

Seeing that Finn was silent, Cheng suddenly became more proud: "Am I right?"

"It is you who kidnapped Miss Lin?"

"Maybe from the very beginning, you knew the identity of Miss Lin. Even if Brother Chu didn't look for you, you would try your best to get in the gambling fight, because you alone can't get The True Solution at all."

Cheng said confidently--every analysis he made was so well-founded that Finn couldn't refute it at all.

"Brother Chu, do you believe me?" Finn turned his eyes to Rick. It didn't matter what Cheng said. He wanted to know Rick's attitude.

Rick's face changed, and he did not answer immediately.

"Well, I know." Finn sighed--Rick already showed his attitude, which made Finn bitterly disappointed.

"I admit that everything you said is very reasonable, but I didn't kidnap Wendy." Finn gave Cheng a calm look.

"You mean, no? Do you have any evidence?" Cheng raised his eyebrow and asked.

"What evidence do you want?!"

Finn was about to open his mouth when a loud voice rang out from the conference room door.

All the people looked toward the door in order, and when they saw that a tall man with a strong body came in a majestic gait.

The man had an imposing manner.

"Warriors' League, Davin Shi!"

After taking the door, the tall man glanced at all people in the meeting room with a straight face, and then flashed out his identity directly.

Everyone in the hall was suddenly surprised. He turned out to be a person of Warriors' League. When people looked at the medal on Davin, they found that Davin was a Warriors' League leader.

Cheng took the lead in standing out: "Do you come for Miss Lin?"

"Right."

Davin glanced at Cheng coldly and said it casually.

Cheng looked happy: "Did you find out something? If not, I will give you some suggestions."

"Go ahead!"

"Mr. Shi, I suspect that this person is the real murderer behind the kidnapping of Miss Lin." Cheng pointed directly at Finn. Whether Wendy's disappearance was related to Finn or not, Finn was very suspicious, so at the moment, he managed to charge Finn of doing that.

"Do you have any evidence?"

"No, but I think he's a suspect." Cheng first shook his head, and soon, he repeated his conjecture.

He didn't notice that when he said this, Davin's face grew colder and colder.

"Are you finished?"

Davin suppressed his anger and asked.

Cheng was stunned. There's something wrong with Davin's facial expression.

Although stunned, Cheng still said: "It's over."

The next second, Davin shouted: "It's full of nonsense!"

"Who gave you the courage to slander the hero of the chamber of commerce in City Z?!"

"Davin." Cheng was thoroughly dazed, and all the people in City Z's Chamber of Commerce also became a little confused.

Davin glanced at everyone coldly and continued, "A bunch of ungrateful things!"

"If there is no Finn, you can't get a penny, let alone The True Solution!"

"As a result, you suspect Finn for the first time when something goes wrong."

People's faces changed. It seemed that Davin knew Finn.

Being scolded in front of Davin, the audience immediately felt embarrassed. Then, Cheng's face was the worst one. After all, he made that speculation first.

After glancing at Davin, Cheng bravely spoke: "Mr. Shi, we have our reasons for suspecting Finn. If you have evidence, you can take it out."

"The evidence?!" Before Cheng finished speaking, he was rudely interrupted by Davin: "Do you want evidence? I'll give you some evidence! "

With that, Davin slammed a document down on the table.

"Mr. Shi, this is ..."

"This is the video source code just found out by the intelligence department of Warriors' League. The video sent to you was shot in Country J!" Davin coldly replied.

At the moment, everyone all was shocked.

"Country J?"

"How?!"

"So, it was done by QS Chamber of Commerce?!"

Cheng's face changed greatly. If the video was shot in Country J, it probably had little to do with Finn. However, it couldn't be ruled out that Finn did it and wanted to disturb people's attention. However, that possibility was too little.

"Do you have anything to say now?" Davin glanced at Cheng coldly.

Cheng said through gritted teeth, "Mr. Shi, even if what you said is true, and that video was taken in Country J, there is no way to clear Finn's name. Who knows if he has planted a hand in Country J?"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 552 Jordi Lin Is Still Alive

"You are determined to think that Finn did it?!" Davin Shi flew into a rage. He didn't expect that Cheng Song could even say that Finn Chen had planted a hand in Country J.

"Mr. Shi, I didn't mean it like this. It's just that you don't have clear evidence to clear Finn's suspicion." Cheng summoned up courage and answered. He didn't want to offend Davin. After all, Davin represented the Warriors' League at the moment. To offend the Davin was to humiliate the Warriors' League.

However, he had no choice but to stick to his previous statement.

At that moment, the door of the conference room was opened.

A tall woman in a black combat suit came in.

"Davin, here is the latest news."

"Go ahead." Davin restored calm.

"Just now, colleagues from the Warriors' League in Country J sent a secret letter, saying that Miss Lin is located at the headquarters of Country J's RH Group." Tall woman answered thoughtfully.

"RH Group's headquarters?!"

Davin's face turned solemn.

All the people in the court looked at each other--where was the headquarters of RH Group?

"RH Group is an underground force in Country J." The tall woman explained aloud.

"Underground forces?"

They looked at each other, still didn't understand--why Wendy Lin's matter associated with underground forces?

"This is the case. You should be clear that Country J is a country where underground forces are legalized."

"Their underground power can influence the political elections in Country J, just as big business can influence local elections in Country A and Europe."

"The RH Group, which kidnapped Miss Lin, is a great underground force in Country J."

"The status of this force in Country J is not much weaker than that of the SK Group."

After listening to the tall woman's explanation, the audience suddenly understood it.

Simultaneously, some were surprised at RH Group's strength, RH Group turned out to be a super-large underground force.

SK Group was the leader of all underground forces in Country J. Rumor had it that there were more than 100,000 gang members in SK Group alone.

In addition to many people, the SK Group also had close ties with many big chaebols in Country J.

Many super-large chaebols like SJ and SX Companies, with nearly one trillion yuan assets, were the solid backing of SK Group.

It was conceivable that RH Group, which was not much weaker than the SK Group, would be horrible.

Thought of here, everyone couldn't help but look at Cheng.

It's clear that the abduction of Wendy was done by RH Group, and had nothing to do with Finn.

Finn didn't have the power to let the Country J's state-level underground forces help him do that.

"Now, can the suspicion of Finn clear away?" Davin looked at Cheng and said coldly.

Facing the cold eyes of Davin, Cheng only felt that his face was burning with shame.

"I'm sorry. Mr. Shi."

"Don't apologize to me, to Finn!" Davin coldly interrupted.

Cheng hesitated, and he immediately looked at Finn and said: "I'm sorry, Finn, I misunderstood you. I shouldn't have guessed you like that."

"Davin, tell me about the RH Group." Finn didn't pay attention to Cheng. For him, the most important thing was to find out the situation of Wendy as soon as possible. As for Cheng, Finn didn't care about his comments.

"RH Group is mighty in Country J," Davin answered thoughtfully.

"This organization has always only recruited elites. Their gang members may not have as many as the SK Group, but their members are much stronger than those of SK Group."

"What is their relationship with the QS Chamber of Commerce?" Finn asked. He didn't think that an underground gang like RH Group would be interested in a book, like The True Solution, and he felt that there must be the support of Martial Artist behind RH Group.

"There is no clear relationship between them and the QS Chamber of Commerce, only a few economic contacts," Davin answered.

No clear relationship?

Finn frowned. Without a clear relationship, there was no way to ensure that the QS Chamber of Commerce did it.

"Although there is no clear relationship between them, I guess that the QS Chamber of Commerce instructs the kidnapping of Wendy," Davin added.

"Why?"

"Because they don't want the International Wushu Federation to catch them."

"This gambling fight has been supervised by the International Wushu Federation. We won the gambling fight, so The True Solution is ours."

"However, the QS Chamber of Commerce is not willing to give the book to us."

"So, they want to get The True Solution to Country J through RH Group."

Davin calm analysis.

"Davin, what do you mean? QS Chamber of Commerce can't directly intervene in robbing The True Solution, so they must do it through RH Group, right?" Asked Finn.

"Yes, if they openly kidnap Wendy, it is obvious that they don't take the International Wushu Federation seriously. At that time, the International Wushu Federation will inevitably find trouble with them."

"But now can't the IWF see that they did it?" At this moment, Rick Chu suddenly asked.

Davin looked at Rick and said, "Of course, the IWF can see that the QS Chamber of Commerce did this, but they have no direct evidence."

"Without direct evidence, they can't find trouble with the QS Chamber of Commerce."

Finn frowned, and Davin made a good point. The QS Chamber of Commerce had always been good at doing this kind of thing. The last time it sent Hinds Wang to assassinate him on ML Island, the QS Chamber of Commerce arranged it perfectly and prevented people from suspecting it.

The kidnapping of Wendy was the same.

"It is also possible that they are afraid of Grandmaster Lin," Davin added.

Hearing "Grandmaster", everyone couldn't help but prick up their ears. After all, Jordi Lin had disappeared for almost twenty years, and no one knew whether he was dead or alive.

"I think everyone knows that Grandmaster Lin disappeared eighteen years ago."

"We don't dare to talk about the whereabouts of Grandmaster Lin."

"However, we can be sure that Grandmaster Lin should still be alive," Davin said.

Still alive?!

Upon hearing this news, the head of Qin Family and Cheng in the venue changed their faces. Before that, they were opposed to the idea of replacing Wendy with The True Solution.

Because they thought Jordi was dead.

But now, Davin said that Jordi might still be alive.

If Jordi were indeed alive, knowing that their two families were opposed to trading Wendy with a book, he would kill the two families when he came back next time.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 553 Finn Chen Escort

"If Jordi Lin is still alive, the QS Chamber of Commerce is looking for death if they kidnap Miss Lin."

"When Jordi returns one day, he will surely kill everyone in the QS Chamber of Commerce."

"The master must not insult. This is a rule that the martial arts world knows."

"QS Chamber of Commerce is kidnapping his offspring. Even if Jordi wants to exterminate the QS Chamber of Commerce, Country J's masters wouldn't dare to have an opinion."

At this point, Davin Shi sighed, "But, the QS Chamber of Commerce did this very smartly. They didn't leave any evidence behind and instead had the RH Group kidnap Wendy Lin."

"Even if Jordi comes back, he'll have to go after RH Group."

Finn Chen felt that Davin's words made sense.

"Is the only way to exchange Wendy for The True Solution?" Finn asked with a sigh.

"It's the only way at the moment." Davin nodded.

"We can forcibly rescue Wendy as well. But Miss Lin is at RH Group headquarters after all, and we can't guarantee that nothing will happen during the rescue..."

"I understand." Finn knew the safest way to do this was to trade The True Solution for Wendy.

But the price for doing so was that Country J would get The True Solution intact. In a few years, they would indeed have a more martial arts master.

"What do you guys mean?"

Rick Chu looked at the other three principals. The True Solution was the common property of all four, and he couldn't make the decision alone.

"I agree." As soon as Rick finished speaking, Huson Wang, the representative of Wang's Family, opened his mouth.

"I agree, as well."

The head of Qin's Family spoke right after him.

"I agree." Cheng Song raised his hand as well.

Before they disagreed, it was because they thought Jordi might not be alive. But now, Davin was saying that Jordi must be alive.

If Jordi was alive, they didn't need The True Solution to trade for Wendy's life. It wouldn't be easy for them in the future when Jordi returned.

"If everyone agrees, then I'll do it," Rick said.

"No problem."

"Thanks, I owe you all a favor," Finn said quietly. The big four had been so quick to hand over The True Solution to him because they all had concerns about Jordi.

Jordi, who had been gone for almost twenty years!

Rick's phone rang again as the group was just negotiating.

"It's an unknown number."

The only one who could call now was probably the RH Group.

"How's Mr. Chu thinking about it?" A hoarse voice came out of the phone as soon as it connected.

"Who is this?" Rick didn't give the first answer but instead asked the other person back.

A chuckle came from the other end of the phone, "I thought you already knew that?"

"You guys are RH Group? "Rick's face was gloomy. Since the owner of this voice dared to say this, the RH Group's previous address was probably leaked out by them on purpose.

"RH Group? What is Mr. Chu saying? I don't understand it at all."

"I'm calling here just to know how things are being considered? Would you like to trade The True Solution for Miss Lin's life?"

"I want to make sure Wendy's okay now." If Wendy was Jordi's daughter, she was probably nobler than anyone else in the room. And Rick mustn't allow Wendy to be in any danger.

"Mr. Chu, don't worry. After all, Miss Lin is the offspring of a master, we won't do anything to her."

"But, if you're not smart, then we don't mind throwing Miss Lin into the sea to feed the fish."

Rick's face turned cold, "How dare you!"

"Oh, you can try."

"The True Solution can give to you. But you can't hurt Miss Lin." Rick said with strong anger.

"Don't worry, we only want The True Solution. As for Miss Lin...we will release her after she opens The True Solution for us."

"Also, to that, we have a small condition."

"What?" Rick asked.

"Have Finn personally deliver The True Solution to Country J."

"That's impossible!" Rick subconsciously retorted.

Wouldn't sending Finn to Country J at this point send him to his death?

Finn killed two Country J geniuses the day before. Now half of Country J, the martial arts world, hated Finn with a passion.

If Finn dared to go over there, it would be very dangerous!

"Impossible?" The man on the other end of the phone suddenly sneered, "Mr. Chu, I think you're missing the point. It's not a negotiation between us right now, it's what I say and what you're going to do!"

"I'll only give you three days. After three days, if I can't see Finn and The True Solution, you'll be waiting to see Miss Lin's corpse."

After saying this, the phone hung up.

The looks of the crowd in the arena were different.

Cheng was a little gloat. He didn't realize that the QS Chamber of Commerce wanted both The True Solution and Finn's life.

Now it was up to Finn to make his choice.

"Finn! You can't go, it's a trap!"

Davin looked terrible. There was no doubt that the QS Chamber of Commerce was out to get back at Finn.

They already knew about Finn's relationship with Wendy. Maybe their real goal was to kill Finn!

After all, Finn was already in the early stage of the transformed period in twenty-five. And if nothing else, he would become a martial arts master. Although The True Solution could increase the chances of warriors in the transformed period to become a Grandmaster. But it was not 100%.

In comparison, getting rid of Finn was the priority.

"I know it's a trap." Finn laughed bitterly, "But I have no choice."

"No way. When I report this to headquarters, I'll have them pressure Country J's martial arts world to release Wendy back."

Finn shook his head, "There's no way Headquarters will do that. Even if HQ pressured them, they would never let RH Group release Wendy back. Maybe, instead, they will secretly support RH Group."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 554

Global Shock

Davin kept silent. Of course, it was a fact.

Because Wendy's kidnapping incident could determine which Country would have another Grand Master of the Martial Arts. Whether Country C or Country J?

Under such circumstances, the martial arts world in Country J would stand for the RH Group.

Because if they did so, they could have one more Grand Master of the Martial Arts. Meanwhile, they could kill Finn, the future Grand Master of the Martial Arts in Country C.

That meant they could kill two birds with one stone.

"Are you going to save Wendy alone?"

Having been silent for some time, Davin said suddenly.

"Yes!" Finn nodded firmly. Although he had met Wendy not so long, Wendy was important to him.

Because Wendy had voluntarily saved his life with her own life when Finn was faced with the assassination from the disciple of Katana Saint.

"You can stay here, anyway!" Davin sighed. QS Chamber of Commerce just wanted to kill Finn now. People would not despise him even if he refused to do so. They might only condemn him as an ungrateful man.

"I will not be myself if I don't go there!" Finn laughed. Of course, he could refuse to do it. But just like what he had said, would he still be himself if he didn't go there?

Humanity only had one life. One must do some things and refuse to do other things during his life.

Was it meant for a man to only do the beneficial ones and to only focus on himself?

"OK! You can ask me to help whatever you need. And I will help you as much as possible." Davin said.

Finn nodded gently, " Brother Davin, I want you to spread one message for me."

"What message?"

"The RH Group kidnapped Wendy."

"Brother Davin, you must spread this message whether the group admits or not. And you must try your best and pool all your resources to publicize that message. Besides, you must try to let the global martial arts world know that Wendy is the Great Grand Master Jordi daughter." Finn said quickly.

Davin seemed to be reminded, "Through those methods, you want the global martial arts world to put pressure on the martial arts world in Country J.

"You are right!" Finn nodded slightly, "The Grand Master should not be humiliated! That is a principle known to everyone in the martial arts world. No matter how hard the QS Chamber of Commerce had tried to distance itself to this kidnapping, people could still know that the chamber's kidnapping was done.

"Although it was done by the QS Chamber of Commerce, the martial arts world in Country J only stood by and even tends to connive it."

They were breaking the rules of the global martial arts world."

"How could those Grand Masters in the global martial arts world think of it?"

"Now that the QS Chamber of Commerce could kidnap the daughter of Great Grand Master Jordi, will they do it to my daughter?"

Finn sneered for a while. From the beginning, the QS Chamber of Commerce had thought things too simple.

Grand Masters in the Martial Arts world could have a supreme reputation wherever they were.

Since the QS Chamber of Commerce dared to kidnap the Grand Master's daughter, they must get prepared to be the enemy of the global Grand Masters.

"I see. Finn, you want the global martial arts world to put pressure on the martial arts world in Country J. And when you get there, those famous Grand Masters in Country J would not dare to harm you openly." Davin said with excitement. Finn's plan was excellent.

The martial arts world in Country J wanted him to come there with the help of public opinion. While Finn constrained them with the help of the main thoughts of the public.

Finn's saving Wendy in Country J was in line with the main thoughts of the global Grand Masters. Then, if the Grand Masters in the martial arts world in Country J harmed Finn. They would acquiesce in the opinion that the Grand Masters offshoot could be kidnapped at any time.

Renowned Martial Arts Masters in Country J would never do such a stupid thing, let alone the Grand Masters.

Once they did it, they would be the enemies of their global counterparts.

"Right! I only worried that those Grand Masters there would harm me. If they don't do it, I am confident to save Wendy." Finn said calmly. There were six Grand Masters in Country J. They would never harm him there if the message was spread.

If they do that, they would be conniving the QS Chamber of Commerce to kidnap the offshoot of the Grand Master.

And they would be standing against the Grand Masters in the global martial arts world.

Besides, they would be Jordi's enemies. He was still alive.

Although he had disappeared so long, that didn't mean he would never come back.

What would he do if he came back and knew that some Grand Masters had connived the underground forces in Country J to kidnap his daughter?

It would be the least ruthless way for him to massacre the whole martial arts world in Country J.

Meanwhile, a notice ignited the global Martial Arts forum.

This notice was released by the Warriors' League.

"RH Group, a mega underground force in Country J kidnapped the Great Grand Master Jordi offshoot and ordered Finn to save her by taking "The True Solution" to barter."

The notice had simple information, but the global martial arts world was completely ignited.

How could an underground force kidnap the offshoot of the Grand Master?

Was it mad?

Wouldn't it want to be destroyed?

How could the organization from the public world challenge the martial arts world?

Moreover, the martial arts world was struck in complete chaos when hearing the last several words.

That was "The True Solution."

It could make a Grand Master.

What was the RH Group eager for was such a treasure!

Martial Artists from different countries were not fools, and they now understood why the group would do that before.

It was for "The True Solution"!

But it was not the real kidnapper. Behind it, there must be a force from the martial arts world.

The one who was longing for "The True Solution" was that force.

Because "The True Solution" was only useful to Martial Artists.

Then Martial Artists across the world focused on the martial arts world in Country J.

Under such circumstances, the battle between the City Z Chamber of Commerce and the QS Chamber of Commerce was known.

Soon, details in the battle were exposed by someone.

As the main man of the battle, Finn was known to everyone then.

He was a super-strong Martial Artist among the younger generation in Country C.

The public called him that.

Whether he killed the assassin from the Hidden People's Association through one fist or he beheaded the disciple of Katana Saint, both demonstrated his extraordinary abilities.

He was a terrifying genius.

Moreover, even the martial arts world in Country J was afraid of him.

Otherwise, it would not order him to take "The True Solution" to exchange Wendy deliberately.

Obviously, it aimed to take the opportunity to stifle the future formidable enemy in his cradle.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 555 A Live Rescue Operation

"Do you think whether Finn will come to the martial arts world in Country J to save that offspring?"

"I don't think he will. He killed the assassin from the Hidden People's Association and the disciple of Katana Saint. His action annoyed most of the martial arts world in Country J. Now, many Martial Artists wanted to kill him at once. His coming to that place would merely kill himself."

"Right! Finn's coming to the martial arts world is quite dangerous now. The Hidden People's Association and Katana Saint will not allow him to survive even if he had not killed the two genius before."

On the Martial Artist forum, many people had expressed their opinions. Most of them believed that Finn would not come there.

Because if he came there, he would fight against half of the martial arts world in Country J only on his own.

Only a fool would do that!

On the Martial Artist forum, some discussed whether he would go there, while others were condemning what had the martial arts world in Country J done.

"Is it going to be the enemy of the global martial arts world? How did it dare to kidnap the offspring of the Grand Master?"

"Right! If it kidnapped an ordinary person, that was fine. But it should kidnap the offspring of the Grand Master. Did it feel that those Grand Masters were not so strong?"

"I advise it to release the offspring at once, or it will pay the price."

Most of the people who condemned it was the offspring of the Grand Masters in the Martial Artist world.

What it had done panicked them.

In the past, they were standing high above the masses, and nobody dared to offend them.

But now, someone threatened their lives.

If such a dangerous incident was not curbed, there would be some imitators of the martial arts world in Country J.

Then the martial arts world in Country J responded at once.

"We are not clear about the incident that the RH Group had kidnapped the offspring of the Grand Master."

"Right. We have no idea about that affair. It was all created by the martial arts world in Country C."

"Yes! The martial arts world in Country C is coughing up dirt on us."

They had a firm attitude. That was, they would never admit it.

Of course, they could not admit it now.

The war of words continued out of everyone's expectations. At this point, the Warriors' League spread another surprising message again.

"Finn will come to Country J soon. Besides, he will take a live rescue operation throughout the whole process, I hope you will pay more attention to it !"

A live rescue operation?

The forum burst into discussion again when they heard that message.

Fearlessness or flaunt?

Did Finn think that the martial arts world in Country J was not so strong?

"Finn must get mad. Since he decided to save the offspring, why will he take a live rescue operation? He should go there secretly. Does he want the enemy to know his plan?"

"Maybe, he just wants to humiliate the martial arts world in Country J."

"Wow, that makes sense! The martial arts world in Country J will be greatly humiliated if he succeeded in rescuing the offspring amid the witness of the global Martial Artists."

"Nonsense! If the martial arts world in Country J knew that, half of the world will take action. Doesn't it care about its fame?"

"Right! The martial arts world in Country J will not allow Finn to do so. If he dared to do that, the martial arts world in Country J will lay many traps in the Rwouldoup, waiting for his coming."

The message that the Warriors' League had released animated the long-silent forum. Now many Martial Artists were talking about the name Finn.

Later, a professional analyst posted his opinion.

"Finn's live rescue operation is neither to be in the spotlight nor to despise the martial arts world in Country J. Instead, he aims to restrict its actions."

"Now everybody recalls when did he speak out that he would take a live rescue operation? It was after the world denied that they had connived the RH Group to kidnap the offspring."

"What does that mean? That means the world was indeed not clear about the incident. Now that they didn't know it, they can not prevent Finn from rescuing the offspring!"

"If they did that, they would expose their lies. They have known that the Grand Masters should not be humiliated. If they acquiesced the RH Group to do so, they would offend all the global Grand Masters."

Many Martial Artists on the forum were enlightened suddenly.

It turned out that Finn's live rescue operation aimed to restrict its actions!

You could imagine that if the martial arts world in Country J had announced their unawareness of the incident. They would expose their lies if two Martial Artists were appearing during his rescue."

Perfect!

How could one think of such a good plan? In a word, it was perfect!

With the help of the plan, those Martial Artists would never dare to harm Finn.

Besides, some famous strong persons would not appear in the RH Group either unless they wanted to be noticed by the global Martial Artists.

At this moment, Martial Artists in Country J were completely shocked.

How could Finn figure out such a perfect idea?

How could a live rescue operation prevent so many top strong persons in Country J from Finn? Didn't they dare to take any action?

Hearing Finn's rescue operation, many people were gloating in the beginning. They had thought that the martial arts world in Country J would send several strongest persons to protect RH Group. If Finn dared to take a live rescue operation.

If Finn dared to appear, they would arrest him at once and torture him or force him to beg them for mercy amid the witness of the global Martial Artists.

If all happened, the martial arts world in Country C would be greatly humiliated.

But the live rescue operation disorganized all their deployments.

Normally, most of the top strong persons there would not appear nearby the RH Group in the coming days. If they did appear, they would be greatly condemned by the global Martial Artists.

Soon, the Warriors' League in Country C released another notice.

"The Warriors' League in Country C will be with Finn!"

The information on the notice was very simple, and it only contained a short sentence.

But it ignited the global martial arts world again.

There was no question that the Warriors' League was supporting Finn.

As one of the world's most powerful organizations, the Warriors' League had not shown its attitude towards anything for so long.

Such an announcement both demonstrated the importance of Finn and contained some veiled warnings.

It warned the martial arts world in Country J that it could not take some actions to fight against Finn, but it must have a baseline.

This baseline was that it could not dispatch the Grand Masters to harm Finn.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 556 Two "Dead Men"

Half an hour after the Warriors' League had released the notice, the whole martial arts world in Country J fell into silence.

The process of such an affair had been beyond their original imagination.

In addition to the pressure from the martial arts world in Country C, other global Grand Masters all began to pressure the martial arts world in Country J.

In a mansion of the QS Chamber of Commerce in Tokyo, Country J, Hanzo Miyamoto, got a phone call after he had just signed out the forum.

Seeing the Caller ID, he was utterly shocked. It was Wood Saito, the leader of the Killers' Group in the Hidden People's Association.

"Mr.Saito!" Hanzo Miyamoto answered the call at once. But a dissatisfied question came from the phone before he could speak," Miyamoto, what are you fucking doing?"

"How dare you to kidnap the offspring of the Grand Master? Do you know how bad it may be for the martial arts world in Country J?"

"Mr.Saito, I'm sorry! I didn't expect that Finn would spread such incident to the Marital Arts forum." Hanzo Miyamoto replied at once. He didn't have to hide the kidnapping incident before Saito.

"Don't say sorry to me! Our teacher is quite discontented with you. He wants you to defuse the impact of such an incident on the martial arts world in Country J. Besides, you must kill Finn through any strategies."

"The authority of the martial arts world in Country J could not be offended by a little Martial Artist from Country C."

"OK, Mr.Saito! I will kill Finn!" Hanzo Miyamoto promised at once. What had Finn done threatened the whole martial arts world in Country J? Under such circumstances, the Hidden People's Association would not forgive him if he failed to kill Finn.

"Dudu.."

Soon, the phone was hung up.

Hanzo Miyamoto became gloomy, "Fucking bastard! He should have spread such an incident to the forum. Now the global martial arts world all knew that we were longing for "The True Solution"!"

"Daddy, will he come here and rescue that offspring?" Yuichi Miyamoto asked politely. Although Finn had expressed that he would do it on the forum, Yuichi Miyamoto still didn't believe that Finn would do so.

He thought that it was just Finn's trick.

"Since the bastard had announced that he would take a live rescue operation, he must come here!" Hanzo Miyamoto said with a low voice.

"What should we do if he indeed operates that plan?" Yuichi Miyamoto asked at once. He had read the analysis on the forum, so he was clear that his plan would work.

Those Grand Masters and strong persons would never dare to prevent Finn amid the witness of the global Martial Artists.

"I know what you mean. You are worrying that those strong persons in the martial arts world in Country J will not appear, right?"

"Right, daddy! The RH Group may not prevent that bastard from rescuing the offspring if they don't appear." Yuichi Miyamoto replied honestly. Although the RH Group was a mega underground force and had countless excellent members, it was still not easy to prevent a warrior in the Transformed Period like Finn.

"Although it's hard for the RH Group to prevent that bastard, we got another assistant." Hanzo Miyamoto sneered suddenly.

"Daddy, you mean..."

"Mr.Bear is still alive." Hanzo Miyamoto said gently.

"What? Mr.Bear? He is still alive? Didn't he die years ago?" Yuichi Miyamoto was shocked. The full name of the man that his father had mentioned was Bear Matsui.

He was one of the most famous Physical Martial Artists in the martial arts world in Country J.

Still, he was said to be dead from an accident when he was practicing one kind of martial skill.

But today...

"Mr.Bear is still alive."

"That accident only made him greatly harmed, but he survived. Our family had made great efforts to save his life. Now he has recovered completely." Hanzo Miyamoto said complacently.

"Mr.Bear will tear him into pieces if Finn dares to come."

Although Hanzo Miyamoto was very confident, Yuichi Miyamoto still felt that Finn was not easily killed.

"Daddy, Mr.Bear shared the same level as Finn. And they are both at the beginning of the Transformed Period according to the standard of Country C. Can he tear Finn into pieces?"

"Pooh! The level shows nothing! Although Finn is also at the beginning of the Transformed Period, he is new to this period. By contrast, Mr.Bear has been in the period for a dozen years. They are not comparable."

"Besides, one man in this period from the Matsushima's Family will help us." Hanzo Miyamoto said.

"Matsushima's Family?" Yuichi Miyamoto felt excited. The Matsushima's Family was one of the members of the QS Chamber of Commerce. They were as strong as the Miyamoto's Family.

"Right, that man is also a "dead person."" Hanzo Miyamoto sneered for a while. Of course, the "dead person" he had mentioned was not dead at all.

Instead, the man should have been dead, but he finally survived. The two assistants shared the same feature. That was they didn't have a real identity to the public, and they had "dead "many years ago.

Other people would never relate such an affair to them if they killed Finn.

"Perfect! That bastard must die! I don't believe that the two at the beginning of the Transformed Period would not stop him." Yuichi Miyamoto was a little excited. He had been worrying that his father would despise Finn. But out of his expectation, his father focused much more on Finn than himself. Hanzo Miyamoto should have secretly sent two artists at the beginning of the Transformed Period to the RH Group. Such a strong power could kill a man in the middle of the Transformed Period easily.

"Well, did our men harass the offspring again?" Hanzo Miyamoto asked suddenly as if he had realized something.

"Daddy, they didn't." Yuichi Miyamoto politely. He knew what his father was worried about. That offspring was so pretty that his father worried that those men would harass her unbearably.

"OK! You must remind them that they should never do it. If they did it, we will be condemned by the global martial arts world." Hanzo Miya would say with a low voice.

"Yes, daddy!" Yuichi Miyamoto replied at once.

"Besides, you must mobilize your relations as soon as possible to connect with the foreign airports of the whole Country, and inquire all the people of Country C coming to Japan. We must know it once Finn sneaked in our Country." Hanzo Miyamoto said. The RH Group had only given him three days. Therefore he must take a plane to Country J if he wanted to be on time.

"OK, daddy. I will make some arrangements just as you ordered. And I promise you that there will be no mistakes." Yuichi Miyamoto accepted the order again.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 557 Here He Comes

Simultaneously, a passenger plane from Country K landed at City T's International Airport on time. A young man with long hair dressed in hip hop, carrying a bag and pushing a suitcase, walked out of the airport with people's flow.

After leaving the airport, the youth took a taxi, got off one kilometer away from the affluent area of City T. He threw his luggage and disappeared into the night like a ghost.

At the moment, it's just ten hours since someone kidnapped Wendy Lin.

While the Martial Arts World discussed whether Finn would go to Country J, and the Miyamoto Family was comprehensively monitoring the people from Country C coming to Country J, a replaced Country K's youth came to Country J.

The youth was Finn Chen!

After arriving in Country J, Finn did not go to find RH Group immediately but came to a villa area according to the information provided by Davin Shi.

This villa was located in T Bay, which was a famous rich area in City T.

Kaede Matsushima and his family lived here.

Finn didn't intend to save Wendy directly. He intended to ask Kaede about the deployment of the QS Chamber of Commerce.

Unlike the City Z's Chamber of Commerce, there were only two families in the QS Chamber of Commerce.

One was the Miyamoto Family, where Hanzo Miyamoto was located.

Another, naturally, was the Matsushima Family, where Kaede lived.

In Country J, the Matsushima family was a super-family with great prestige, and their industries were almost all over Country J.

Last time, when Kaede came to celebrate the birthday of Chastity Chu, he gave a luxury yacht as a gift.

At that time, the gift from Kaede shocked the Chu Family.

That yacht was worth over 100 million yuan!

Finn only met Kaede one time at that birthday party.

So he didn't remember Kaede very much, but only remembered that Kaede was a short, stout man.

Before coming to Country J this time, Davin told him that if he wanted to go to RH Group and save Wendy, he had better find out something from Kaede.

Because Matsushima Family's warriors of the Transformed Period were practicing these days and didn't go out.

At the moment, the Matsushima Family was dining.

"Kaede, I heard them say you know Finn?"

Marco Matsushima, the father of Kaede, suddenly put down his knife and fork and asked.

"Yes, I do know that, Finn." Kaede nodded his head with a complicated expression.

"Do you think this person will come to Country J?" Marco asked.

Kaede shook his head: "Dad, I don't know much about Finn, so I don't know if Finn will come to Country J."

"However, people in Country C have always attached great importance to love. If Wendy is Finn's woman, then he will come to Country J." Answered Kaede.

"He'd better come. If he doesn't come, our arrangement will be in vain." Marco said.

"Dad, are we sure to kill him?" Kaede couldn't help asking, even now, he couldn't believe that the seemingly gentle young man he saw that day would be such a horrible genius.

"Hum, this time, RH Group sent 30 preliminary ninjas and ten elite vantage ninjas. How could such a force not be sure to kill him?" Marco snorted.

Kaede looked slightly solemn. The preliminary ninja Marco referred was the lowest ninja in Country J. Such a ninja was equivalent to a warrior in the Obvious Period of Country C. Besides, the vantage ninja was equal to the warrior of the Obscure Period of Country C.

Thirty warriors of the Obvious Period and ten warriors of the Obscure Period!

To kill Finn, RH Group sent such power!

"Dad, what about us?" Kaede couldn't help but ask. What Marco just said was the power deployed by RH Group. As the real behind-the-scenes bosses of this attack, Matsushima Family and Miyamoto Family would probably send more elite force!

"We?" Matsushima's mouth raised a sneer. "We only need to dispatch two people."

"Two people?" Kaede was shocked and immediately thought of something. His face changed much.

"Dad, it is very likely that Finn will broadcast live in front of the global warriors when he saves Wendy Lin this time. If we let our higher ninjas go out, I'm afraid ..."

Every higher ninja in a big family like the Matsushima Family was a well-known master in the world. If they openly block Finn, they would be recognized by the powerhouses in the world.

"Don't worry, the higher ninja dispatched by our family died ten years ago ..." Marco calmly interrupted Kaede.

Like Miyamoto's Family, Matsushima's family also had a higher ninja who should have died ten years ago!

"Dead?" Kaede felt surprised. Matsushima's words referred to their identities were dead!

When Kaede and Marco discussed how to deal with Finn, Finn sneaked into the villa area.

And he came to the residential area where Kaede lived.

At noon today, Davin Shi publicized Wendy's kidnapping in the Forum on Martial Arts according to his plan, which caused a great sensation. At the same time, Finn disguised himself and went to Country K under a false identity. Then he used the Chu Family's relationship in Country K to find a Country K's youth with similar appearance, swaggering to City T under the false identity, and then went straight here.

At the moment, Finn lost her wig and changed into black clothes, and seemed to blend into the night.

In the night, he squinted, looked at Kaede's villa, pricked up his ears, and listened carefully to everything.

Like all top Country J-style villas, Kaede's mansion had a yard covering an area of nearly,000 square meters and the main building, in which various precious flowers and trees were planted, and two pavilions, several stone lamps, and a pond.

Besides, the villa was built with a wall as high as two meters. The wall was covered with monitors. Anyone who approached the mansion would be monitored and photographed, displayed in the monitoring picture of the concierge monitoring room, and bodyguards would discover him.

A few seconds later, Finn stopped looking and took a deep breath, and the strength inside his body rushed to the soles of his feet.

Whoosh!

The next moment, Finn moved, and his figure flashed like a phantom. He swept to the wall, jumped, directly crossed the wall as high as two meters, and then quietly fell to the ground without noise.

All these things seemed complicated, but because Finn was fast and finished it instantly, he was not seen clearly on the surveillance screen.

"Was that a human figure just now?"

In the monitoring room, a bodyguard saw the shadow. When he wanted to confirm, he found that the shadow had disappeared. He couldn't help but ask his companion.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 558 Self-exposure

"You mean that dark shadow? I saw it, but how could it be a shadow of one man? How fast does it need to not "be captured by surveillance?" Another bodyguard nodded with a smile.

But--

His smile soon stiffened. He was completely shocked, with inconceivability filled in his eyes.

Because he saw a human's shadow through the glass door of the concierge monitoring room.

Finn appeared at the door of the concierge monitoring room, suddenly like a ghost.

"What's wrong with you?"

Seeing that, the bodyguard asked his first question to Finn.

Crunchiness!

He was answered by the sound of an opening door.

Finn pushed the door and walked in as if he was returning his own house.

Finn from Country C?

As the bodyguards of the Matsushima's Family, they not only knew Finn but also knew that he had killed the assassin of the Hidden People's Association and the disciple of Katana Saint. Moreover, they knew that Finn would come to the RH Group in Country J to rescue the offspring.

Under such circumstances, they were greatly frightened when seeing Finn suddenly.

With their eyes widened, they looked at Finn surprisedly. Besides, their mouth opened as if they were thinking, "How could he come here?"

"Thump!"

"Thump!"

Finn slapped their heads quickly as if he was responding to the two men. He did it to the two at the same time, breaking their heads directly. As a result, they fell down the floor and died without any screams.

After that, Finn walked out here and headed to the main building of the villa.

"Daddy, do you think when will Finn arrive in Country J?" Kaede Matsushima asked.

"Maybe tomorrow. He must make many preparations before he comes here, and he also has to know the RH Group's deployment for defense." Marco Matsushima said causally.

"Tomorrow?" Kaede Matsushima was a little bit worried. Although he had only met Finn once, he felt that Finn was a man-of-action person. Therefore, he didn't think that Finn would come so late.

Marco Matsushima said with a laugh that he knew what Kaede Matsushima was thinking about, "Don't worry! I have connected with the airports. Once he appears, we will know it at once."

As soon as Marco Matsushima finished his words, he heard a bang.

The wooden door broke apart!

Finn appeared when the two men were eager for his coming soon. He kicked open the main building door, and the wooden door was shattered directly by his terrible internal power, and then strode off the hall.

"Eh..."

What happened suddenly terrified the two men a lot.

Under the light, they widened their eyes and stared at Finn stiffly. They looked like two wooden sculptures without any movements.

At this moment, they even wondered whether it was an illusion.

Because the family had connected with all the airports in Country J to get Finn's precise arriving time and make preparations for killing him. They could get the information of all inbound Chinese for the first time. In other words, the family had handled those people's information before they boarded overseas.

Through their surveillance, they had not got any message of his coming here. Therefore, they had hoped that Finn could come here earlier.

Now, Finn indeed came. But he appeared out of their expectation and entered the hall by breaking the door directly.

Therefore, they were completely shocked.

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

Then Finn walked to the two men before they could be calm. The dull footsteps broke the original silence in the hall.

That sound woke them up like a scream from a ghost.

Under the light, they became stiff and frightened, with fearfulness filled in their eyes.

Although they had no idea about how Finn came here, they knew his purpose.

More importantly, they could have dared to discuss their plans to torture him.

Then the two stood up before Finn approached them. But they were so panic that they hit the corner of the table directly. As a result, two bowls fell to the ground and broke into pieces with only a "clang" sound.

"You needn't try to resist or wish to flee. That is impossible."

With only a jump, Finn stood in front of the two at once after he finished his words.

Recalling Finn's words, seeing Finn's tall figure, and thinking of his strong power and terrifying means, the two became completely frightened.

"Hello... hello, Mr.Finn!" Kaede Matsushima greeted tremblingly. After all, he had met Finn before, so he still tried to be calm despite his fearfulness inside.

"We meet again, Kaede Matsushima!" Finn took a glance at him with a smile. He still had some memory of their last meeting. At that time, Kaede Matsushima wanted to give a lesson to him and humiliate him in public.

"Mr. Finn, that kidnapping incident has nothing to do with me!" Kaede Matsushima swallowed and said in a bit of horror.

Finn smiled ironically, "Did I say that you were involved in this affair?"

"I didn't, right?"

"It is a guilty person who conspicuously protests his innocence!"

Kaede Matsushima became pale at once after Finn finished his words. He was so stupid! He should tell Finn the truth.

"You needn't be so pale," Finn smiled, "I know that you are involved in this incident even if you refuse to admit it."

"Mr.Finn, I want to tell you..."

"Snapped!!!"

Finn's answer to Kaede Matsushima was a loud slap.

Kaede Matsushima flew out at once and spat out several bloody teeth before he fell on the ground.

Then Finn said, "What did you want to tell me? You wanted to tell me how did you kidnap her, right?"

"It was a mistake! Mr.Finn, we have no maliciousness!" Seeing what Finn had done to Kaede Matsushima, Marco Matsushima didn't dare to make any complaints.

"Are you Marco Matsushima?" Finn looked at him.

"Yes! I am Marco Matsushima." Marco Matsushima nodded politely.

Finn raised his head, saying, "What are your plans to deal with me?"

"Plan? What Plan? Mr.Finn, I don't understand what are you talking about." Marco Matsushima's head was filled with sweat, and he even could not speak fluently.

"You don't understand?" Finn asked ironically.

Then Finn held his neck at once.

"What...what are you going to do?" Marco Matsushima could not breathe, and he looked like a chick struggling in Finn's hand.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 559

Amusement Park

Finn didn't say any words.

Soon, Finn took Marco Matsushima to the bathroom and pushed his head into the toilet, and then turned on the water pump button.

There was the sound of running water. His face was utterly immersed in the water, so he was unable to breathe. The strong suction made his face distorted painfully. His body was struggling and twisting violently, but his head could not be lifted at all.

One second, two seconds, three seconds! Finn held his head up the toilet after sixty seconds passed.

Marco Matsushima opened his mouth and tried to breathe hard. But Finn pushed his head into the toilet again after he had only taken two breaths.

This time, the process only lasted for fifty seconds.

Then Finn did the same action but allowed him to take a long breath.

"Leave me alone!"

Breathing sharply, Marco Matsushima shouted awfully.

"I will let you go when you understand my words!"

Finn said with no expression and pushed his head into the toilet again.

"Hu...hu...Let me tell you!"

When it came to the sixth time, Marco Matsushima was almost suffocated. He breathed sharply and stared at Finn with a begging face as if he worried that Finn would do it again.

He was frightened!

He was indeed frightened!

When pushed into the toilet, he could not breathe. At the same time, the toilet had been pumping water and going to suck him in. The whole process was quite a misery for him.

"Go ahead! But I advise you that you'd better tell the truth, or I will torture you in another way."

Speaking out those words, Finn let him go. And Marco Matsushima breathed deeply on the ground.

"We plan to..."

Marco Matsushima told Finn the whole plan of the QS Chamber of Commerce without any concealments.

Ten minutes later, Finn ended the man's life. Then he left there and headed to QY County.

QY County was located in the southeast of the Kanto Plain in Country J.

Standing at the east side of the capital circle, QY County was composed of the northern Kanto Plain and the middle-southern Boso Peninsula. It was a narrow peninsula-shaped area about 96 kilometers from east to west and 129 kilometers from north to south.

QY County was a satellite city of Tokyo, the capital of Country J, and an international trade port with the largest domestic cargo output in Country J.

Together with the RH Group, the QS Chamber of Commerce planned to kill Finn in this county more accurately in this county's amusement park.

It was the first amusement park in this county. But it was abandoned because the Tokyo Disney Land was built here.

The land near the amusement park was purchased by the Matsushima's Family, who abandoned the military for business. The land price had increased many times over the years, but it had not been developed. As a result, the surrounding areas of the amusement park looked a little barren. No one came here during the daytime, let alone the night.

At ten o'clock in the evening, the originally deserted amusement park was lit. In addition to the street lights on both sides of the road, the only three-story building in the amusement park was also lit.

In the darkness, hundreds of elites from the RH Group were scattered in every corner of the amusement park. Divided into groups of five and divided into 20 groups, they were responsible for the outermost guard.

Besides, there were only two places where people gathered in the entire playground, one was the Ferris wheel, and the other was the three-story building.

In the darkness, the Ferris wheel had stopped running. And Wendy was tied in the highest room of the Ferris wheel and could not move. Besides, she could not speak out any words because of the towel in her mouth.

There were four killers from the RH Group waiting for the order with sniper rifles in their hands in the rooms beside hers.

Their task was to shoot Finn when he appeared.

While on the bottom of the Ferris wheel, ten ninjas from the RH Group were dressed in black ninja uniforms and held katanas. They all got a cold and murderous expression.

As the members of the RH Group, they helped the group to threaten other ones. They not only had practiced martial arts but also undergone strict and cruel ninja training. Moreover, they had experienced bloody battles more than once. Therefore, they were the true warriors who dared to die for their tasks.

Compared to the abovementioned people, there were only two men in the three-story building. But they were much more dangerous to Finn.

They were both the Martial Arts Masters in the Transformed Period.

Among them, John Saito was the Martial Arts Master in the Transformed Period of the Miyamoto's Family. And he had broken through that period a dozen years ago.

He got the Kundalini psychosis when he was practicing a Physical Martial Art of ancient Country J.

The whole martial arts world in Country J had believed that he died from that practice.

Only the Miyamoto's Family knew that he didn't die. Instead, he became more powerful than a dozen years ago.

Next to John Saito was the Martial Arts Master in the Transformed Period of the Matsushima's Family. His name was Yoshimasa Chiba.

Yoshimasa Chiba was sitting cross-legged on a round mat with his eyes closed. And he was like a wooden sculpture without any movements.

As the best killed of the Matsushima's Family, he practiced the martial arts very young. He inherited the "Joint Sword Skill", one of the top ten sword skills in Country J. Then he joined the Matsushima's Family and became a killer.

Five years ago, ordered by Marco Matsushima, he assassinated the heir of the Matsushima's Family's hostile force. But he failed in the end and suffered from severe harm.

But Marco Matsushima didn't give him up. Instead, he was saved by the precious nutrient solution from Marco Matsushima.

Two months ago, he recovered completely.

And this ambush for killing Finn was led by him.

"Mr.Chiba. Do you still have no message of Finn's coming to Country J?"

John Saito asked impatiently. He had been sitting here for almost the whole day, but he still didn't get any Finn message.

Yoshimasa Chiba shook his head, "Up to now, we have not gotten any messages about Finn's flight to Country J."

"Will he come here?" John Saito frowned.

"Impossible!" Yoshimasa Chiba took a glance at John Saito, "I have read his information carefully. According to his style, he will not allow his woman to die in Country J without any action. He will come sooner or later."

"Now that he will come anyway, I hope that he can be here this evening. Then we can kill him earlier."John Saito said. In his view, Finn was deemed to be killed without any resistance.

Because to him, their preparation tonight was so excellent that even the stronger person in the middle of the Transformed Period would die, let alone Finn.

"Mr.Saito, you should not look down on Finn. Since he could breakthrough the beginning of the Transformed Period so young, he was deemed to be an extraordinary man."

"If we despise him too much, we will be punished in the end."

Yoshimasa Chiba said with a low voice. He thought that John Saito was too arrogant. Since Finn could break through the beginning of the Transformed Period when he was twenty-five, he was indeed a top genius worldwide. Therefore, such a genius should be treated with the most serious attitude.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 560

Lurking in The Amusement Park

Pouting his mouth for a while, John Saito didn't pay attention to what had the Yoshimasa Chiba said. He felt that Yoshimasa Chiba was too cautious. Although Finn was a genius, he was merely at the beginning of the Transformed Period.

By contrast, they had been in this period for a dozen years.

Besides, there were dozens of ninjas from the RH Group and hundreds of elites with guns. Such forces could be enough for a regional war, let alone a Martial Artist.

At this time, Yoshimasa Chiba picked up the military pager next to him and said solemnly, "Tell your men that they must be cautious. And they must report once they find something strange."

"Yes, Master Chiba!"

A respectful voice came from the pager.

Meanwhile, on the top of one mountain near the amusement park, Finn was standing on a big tree. He was holding a nocturnal telescope to check the whole park.

The telescope was rapped from the bodyguard of Marco Matsushima.

Besides, he had rapped two guns.

He knew that they would kill him here from Marco Matsushima. Still, Marco Matsushima had no idea about the precise plan. Because he was not responsible for the spot.

En?

Soon, Finn saw more than one human's shadows in the rooms of the Ferris wheel.

Such a finding shocked Finn. Then he tried his best to seek more details.

Next moment.

He saw those shadows more clearly and noticed that Wendy was tied in the Ferris wheel rooms.

"Whoosh!"

Such a finding relived Finn. Wendy was still safe, so his measures, which relied on the public opinions to force the martial arts world in Country J, worked.

Meanwhile, Finn knew that all men there were snipers except Wendy. That place was the highest point in the whole park.

That detail showed that their plans were quite phenomenal. And it was not easy for Finn to rescue Wendy.

Knowing that his opponent had arranged snipers, Finn realized that he was in great danger now. Therefore, he didn't take his rescue operation at once. Instead, he continued to watch the whole park with the telescope.

At first, he watched the nearby areas of the Ferris wheel.

In his view, since Wendy was tied in the room of the Ferris wheel, the Ferris wheel must be an important place for his enemies to guard.

However, those ten ninjas had experienced very strict training, so they could hide greatly. Hiding in the brushwood, they were sheltered by the trees here. Besides, due to the faint light in the evening, they were integrated into the darkness.

Finn had watched for two minutes but failed to find anyone. But he was sure that some enemies had just hidden too well.

Then Finn didn't continue to watch those areas. Instead, he turned his eyes on the three-story building.

As the only building in the park, it was lit. Therefore, there must be some people.

"The director of this action should be in the building, but it had no men for guarding. Therefore, there must be some masters in this building. And the director may even belong to one of them."

Finn made such a judgment after careful observation. Then he switched his telescope to watch other places in the park.

Soon he found out that the park was filled with his enemies. Wearing black suits and earphones, they all got guns. They were divided into groups of five and patrolled the different areas of the park. More importantly, they covered all the areas.

"According to the enemies' layout, the biggest danger will be the masters in the three-story building and then the snipers on the Ferris wheel. Well, those enemies hiding beside the Ferris wheel will be the least dangerous."

"Since Wendy is on the top of the Ferris wheel, I can hardly rescue her without arousing the masters' attention in the building. They will come to arrest me when I rescue Wendy even if I have killed the snipers and people around the Ferris wheel secretly."

"The most urgent thing is to figure out the specific number of enemies and the masters' strength in the three-story building."

Having watched the whole park's situation, Finn put down the telescope and thought about his next plan carefully.

Without any hesitation, Finn put away the telescope and lurked in the park with the darkness's help.

Although he knew that humanity often got sleepy between 3 am to 4 am. That period was perfect for assassination, he still felt that earlier action was better.

On the one hand, he cheated all the people by entering the country with an identity of Country K.

So no one knew that he had been Country J. As a result, the enemies might relax their vigilance, and he could attack them unexpectedly.

On the other hand, although he had carried their bodies in the main building of the vile after he killed the father and son and several bodyguards, they could still be found.

Once the death of Marco Matsushima spread, his enemies must know that he had already lurked in country J.

Not only would those enemies in the park be more cautious, but they might also add more men.

Then his rescue operation would be much harder.

Whether the four snipers on the Ferris wheel or the three ninjas and those hundreds of elites from the RH Group were all ordered to be more vigilant.

The four snipers in the upper rooms of the Ferris wheel were responsible for observing their directions.

With specific tasks, the four men were responsible for the south, north, west, and east. Therefore all directions were covered without any blind angle.

"Lord Chiba was too cautious, right?"

Soon the sniper responsible for the east in one of the rooms put down his telescope, saying, "Now we have not received any message of Finn's coming. Why should we increase our vigilance?"²⁰

"Right! In my view, we should not have come here for this task. Since Lord Chiba and Lord Saito were here, Finn would be killed easily." The one responsible for the north did the same and agreed.

The one responsible for the east and he were in the same room, while the other two were on the other side. In the middle of their rooms was the one where Wendy was tied.

In addition to them, two snipers on the other side also became listless and slack.

The RH Group's participation in such an action seemed to defend the fame of the underground forces in Country J.

Still, in fact, it just provided some help to further its relations with the Matsushima's Family and the Miyamoto's Family.

Simultaneously, the ten ninjas under the Ferris wheel didn't take any actions at all.

According to the plan, they were ordered to appear after Finn approached the Ferris wheel. Then they needed to prevent Finn from rescuing Wendy so that Yoshimasa Chiba and John Saito could reach in time.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 561 The Raid!

Therefore, they wouldn't act until Finn approached the sky wheel.

"Group 1. Check out!"

"Group 2. Check out!"

"Group 3. Check out!"

Immediately, all the RH Group checked out!

"We haven't received any message about Finn arrival in Country J. Our patrol alert is useless."

"Yeah, we have already prepared a day, but we didn't see Finn at all. Lord Matsui even didn't allow us to take a break."

"If Finn arrives here at the last hour, we have no strength to prevent him."

"Who made such a rubbish plan!"

When the farthest east group finished their report, all the teammates turned off their walkie-talkie and complained about this plan.

"Come on, have a cigarette, and take a rest."

A man in black gave cigarettes from his pocket to four companions.

These five companions put away their guns-- Four of them were armed with pistols, and one another had a submachine gun.

At the same time, Finn crouched in the grass ten meters behind them. Finn heard their conversation clearly. He also saw them put away guns and smoke.

Finn was sure that they turn off their walkie-talkie due to the content of the conversation.

It's a perfect chance for him.

However, Finn was not to act immediately. He took out a telescope and looked at the sky wheel. He found the snipers weren't watching him.

Suddenly, the forces inside of Finn's body burst out. Just like a cheetah, Finn rushed to 5 guys in front of him.

So fast!

Next time, Finn combined his internal power and physical strength together. His speed increased to a peak. In an instant, Finn appeared behind him, and he cut the necks of the last two men with his hands, which like choppers.

With two crunches, the necks of the two men broke in a split second. Then, they fell forward.

"ow..."

The other three men were shocked by what they saw.

One moment they were complaining about Finn didn't reach Country C, but now Finn appeared, and he killed their two companions.

Finn didn't waste any time. He grasped the third man's neck and crumbed Adam's apple of this man.

At that time, the last two men clammed down. Although they were scared, they pulled out their guns instinctively.

Finn drew out the 3rd man's dagger and threw it to the farthest man.

"ugh..."

The speed of the dagger was too fast to react, and it pierced his throat. Even he had not pulled out his pistol.

When the last man pulled out his pistol, Finn appeared to him and grasped his wrist(Let him couldn't shoot). Then, Finn patted his backside of the head--one of the weakest organ.

Finn controlled the power perfectly, so the last man just fell in a faint.

Finn killed four and stunned one in just two seconds!

After that, Finn dragged four bodies into the grass quickly. Then he carried a submachine gun in one hand and dragged the faint man in the hand. And then, he disappeared in the dark, which seemed he never arrived here.

He finished the first step of the rescue!

Finn killed four men quickly and dragged the last man into the bushes. Then he left the amusement park.

After several minutes, Finn stopped at a hillside 500 meters from the amusement park. Then, Finn put out the dagger and stuck it in the man's thigh.

"ow..."

His blood rushed out, and the severe pain made the man's body violent tremor. He wanted to shout, but Finn covered his mouth, which made him couldn't shout.

"yow...yow..."

Afterward, the man recovered. He is so scared, and when he saw Finn, he found Finn is the Death!

He was not only scared, but he couldn't understand anything.

He didn't know how Finn could arrive in Country C, but nobody found it.

"I'll give two choices for you."

When the man was scared, Finn used the language of the Country J and asked him. "First, tell me the distribution and strength of security guard. Second, I'll pierce your aorta, gag you, and tie you to a tree. You'll listen to the sound of your blood and watch your blood flow until you die."

With the end of Finn's words, Finn loosed his hand and let the man speak.

When he watched Finn, his breath became rapid, which may be due to tension, maybe due to fear, or because he couldn't choose.

"I'll give you ten seconds to choose."

Finn gave the man more pressure from his words.

Otherwise, his action also saved time. If others knew the message of this group, the next steps would be intractable.

"If you kill me, you're also dead."

With special training, the man was tougher than ordinary people. He did not yield and stared at Finn angrily.

"You seemed to choose the second way. Okay, I'll satisfy you."

Finn stabbed him in the thigh again, the distance between the wound and the aorta was less than one centimeter. His blood spurted out.

The man's body trembled again. He tried to plug the wound and pretended the flow of blood.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 562

Personnel Distribution

"Sorry, I missed, and I'll do it again."

Finn smiled and wiped the blood on the dagger. His action was slow, which like to wipe an artwork.

However, these actions made the man so scared.

"This time, I'll find the right site of the aorta."

Finn took up the dagger again and brandished it around the man's thigh.

When Finn brandished the dagger, the man was very nervous. When Finn brandished the dagger for the third time, the man collapsed and sat down on the ground.

"NO...NO!"

The man said alarmedly." If I tell you, will you let me go?"

"Of course." Finn nodded.

"Are you sure?" The man cannot believe Finn.

"I aim to save my friend, and you are only a minion, so I don't care about your life."

Finn knew that if he didn't say that, the man wouldn't believe him.

"Not only did RH Group sent one hundred elites men like us, but also they sent thirty ninjas. Twenty of the ninjas are preliminary ninjas, and others are vantage ninjas.

"Otherwise, there are also two higher ninjas from Miyamoto's Family and Matsushima's Family. They are John Saito Lord and Yoshimasa Chiba Lord....."

Because of Finn's words, the man chose to believe Finn. He told all the messages he knew about the safety guard to Finn.

"What about the personnel distribution? Finn asked.

"One hundred elites distribute in four corners, and our tasks are patrol and alert. Thirty ninjas hide near the sky wheel. Four killers are at the top of the sky wheel. All of them have snipers, and their task is snipe."

The man didn't hide anything, and he told all the things. "John Lord and Yoshimasa Lord are on the third floor. Oh, your friend is also at the top of the sky wheel. That's all I know! I'm not cheating you!"

"I know you're not cheating me, and I'll not kill you.

His description was the same as Finn's thought. Finn patted his backside head. The man fell in faint again.

Finn didn't kill the man, but could the man survive or not depending on his internal power.

When Finn knew the enemy's power and distribution, Finn stealthily went back to the amusement park again.

After several minutes, when Finn came to the park's margin, the enemy had not noticed that the 10th team had been wiped out. The snipers were also not on the alert against, and they just sat in the cockpit.

Because of these factors, Finn sneaked into the park easily.

Finn didn't attack other elites, and he even deliberately avoided them.

That was because his next step was killing four snipers so that he won't expose himself.

A moment later, Finn reached a place 100 meters from the sky wheel and hid there.

However, Finn did not stop.

Because the gun he took from the Yamaguchi Group was mp5, accurately, it's mp5a1 from HK company.

The gunshot of mp5a1 was the same as mp5(200 meters). The height of the sky wheel was 100 meters.

So, Finn needed to guarantee the distance between him and the sky wheel was less than 100 meters. Only in this way, the gunshot was less than 200 meters!

Garrett told Finn, "Do not always use the gun because the Martial Artist won't rely on outside strength." But in that case, the gun was the best choice.

Instead of crouch, Finn groveled slowly.

In that state, Finn moved 30 meters again. He found a man in the dark hid in a thicket from around 40 meters to the sky wheel.

Because of the man, Finn stopped to move. He checked the mp5a1 and took off the silencer.

Though silencer could reduce voice, it would also reduce power.

The cockpit in which snipers sat had glasses, which could reduce the bullet's power. Therefore, he took off the silencer to guarantee that he could kill them.

Finn raised his gun and aimed at the highest cockpit.

Finn opened the interphone. Then Finn imitated the man who was patted by him and said, "Someone sneaked in from the east!"

For the unity of action and command, everyone had an interphone tonight.

At the moment, all of the people heard that.

"Finn is coming?"

With Finn's words, ten ninjas who hid near the sky wheel watched to the east.

"Tell me, what's wrong?"

At the same time, John asked. His internal power was shocking but exciting.

"Thud!"

"Thud!"

"Thud!"

"Thud!"

Just four shots were responding to John.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 563

Sharpshooter

"Thud! Thud! Thud! Thud!"

Bullets went through snipers' heads. Their hot blood blended with brains and gushed all over the cockpit.

Afterward, four snipers' bodies fell in the cockpit, and one sniper rifle fell from the window to the ground.

All of the ten ninjas, elites, and even the John Saito and Yoshimasa Chiba didn't react.

At that moment, all of them were shocked.

They seemed unwilling to accept that Finn reached the Country C, found here, and began the rescue.

Not only them but also Wendy was shocked.

Wendy was controlled at the top cockpit. She couldn't say anything because her mouth was covered with a towel, but she could hear the sound outside and see the outside.

She heard the loud sound of gunfire and saw silencers next to her fell down.

"My brother? Finn?"

Wendy believed he was Finn.

That was because nobody would rescue her except Finn.

Wendy was shocked by her thought. She wanted to stand, but she couldn't because the rope controlled her.

She tried to get rid of the rope and pushed the towel out with her tongue, but all she did was useless.

She wanted to remind Finn, but she could only purr.

"My brother, you must be alive!"

Wendy was too worry about holding her tear, but she could only pray to Finn.

Wendy didn't know why she was controlled here, but she knew there were more than 100 killers in the park.

These killers were waiting for Finn.

"Finn...Finn was coming!"

At the same time, ten ninjas around the sky wheel reacted, and one of them reported this message by interphone. His tone implied he was afraid.

As a member of GH Group, he was clear that Miyamoto's Family collaborated with all the airports and supervised all information about people from Country C to Country J. Although they had not heard about Finn arrival in Country J, Finn killed four snipers instantly.

He was so afraid.

"Thud!"

Because of Finn's listening ability, Finn found the site of that ninja, and then he shot the head of the ninja.

Just like four snipers, Finn only used one bullet to kill that ninja.

The other nine ninjas were feared by it. They groveled on the ground and were afraid of making a sound.

"What's... what's wrong!?"

At the moment, John had accepted that Finn was arriving here, and he asked.

Nobody responded to him. Nine ninjas' mouths were much tighter than virgin's legs. They were afraid that Finn would find them.

"John lord, the sound is from sky wheel. We don't know!"

"Lord, we are speeding to the sky wheel."

The elites responded to John and sped to the sky wheel.

Their plan required if Finn appeared, they must be gathered at the sky wheel and attacked Finn with ninja.

When Finn heard the elite's response, he disappeared in the dark immediately.

"Fxxk, Joseph Zev, tell me! What happened!"

John was wrathful and shouted to the interphone.

Joseph Zev was the leader of ten ninjas, and his task was sniping Finn with other ninjas.

"Lord, Finn hides near the sky wheel. He killed four snipers first, and then he killed one ninja!"

When Joseph groveled, he found a tree to hide immediately. Then he reported to Zachary Matsushita.

"Wh...What?"

Yoshimasa asked. "He killed four snipers. Are you sure?"

"Yes, Yoshimasa lord, he only fired four shots, and he just paused in the middle for a second.

Zachary told the truth, but he was worried.

As for a vantage ninja, he also knew how to use guns, but he couldn't imagine how Finn killed four snipers!

Even the preferred to believe the Country J was a pure country, but he was unwilling to accept that!

"Wh...What the Fxxk. It's impossible. Why don't my subordinates eluded."

Not only Joseph but also Yoshitmasa couldn't believe it. He divided four snipers into two cockpits, but Finn only fired four shots. He even couldn't imagine it.

"He imitated our subordinate. All the people focused on the east. At that moment, he fired four shots."

Yoshimasa said, or he just explained to John.

"Fxxk! Is he the sharpshooter?"

John shot.

As for a Martial Arts Master, He knew how difficult to shot four targets in two directions in succession.

However.....

"Thud.Thud.Thud.Thud.Thud....."

There was a volley of shots rang out as for the response to John.

"What about this time?" John asked.

"Jo...John lord, I saw him! He is on the northeast side! He killed five ninjas in the 9th group right now."

An eighth group's elite said, and he crouched down in a northern bush.

"Thud!"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 564 Ghost

"Thud. Thud. Thud....."

At the moment, the other four men in the 8th group heard the sound and saw Finn. They shot Finn, but Finn was so fast that he parried all the bullets.

"Yoshimasa Chiba lord, we are teammates in the 8th group. He is as fast as a ghost, and we couldn't aim at him.

The other four elites in the 8th group were afraid because of Finn's speed. They couldn't hold their fear, so they cried.

"Thud! Thud! Thud! Thud!"

Finn appeared to their back and shot their heads!

"Tell me, What's wrong?"

Yoshimasa was absolutely furious. He shouted.

Nobody responded to him.

It's so quiet.

The quietness made everyone scared!

At the moment, the quietness even made everyone couldn't breathe.

Because everyone knew they were dead, like the 9th group, and Finn killed them.

"Every... everyone gathers at the sky wheel and does not attack him."

Yoshimasa shouted again.

Yoshimasa had researched Finn's background, so he knew Finn was powerful, but Finn was much more powerful than he thought.

"Don't worry, Yoshimasa."

John Saito comforted Yoshimasa. "Just some dogfaces, they are not important. Tonight, Finn will definitely die here."

"....."

Yoshimasa didn't know how to respond.

They were elites in GH Group. He was different from John. He couldn't accept their death.

In other words, if too many people died here, even if Finn was killed finally, Matsushima's Family would not forgive Yoshimasa.

However, Yoshimasa didn't know Finn killed Marco Matsushima and his son for the last hour.

"John, although they are just unimportant dogfaces, we cannot bear a dog from Country C killed them! We have to kill him now!"

"Ok"

John nodded. He didn't care about elites' lives, but he knew, if the public knew Finn killed their elites easily, they would be scorned.

"John and Yoshimasa lord, I'll not go with you. I tend to go to the top and shoot him by my sniper rifle."

The 3rd one in the room said. He was the best killer in the RH Group. His best skill was snipe, and he had killed more than ten Martial Artists in the Obscure Period.

"Ok, Mr.Sakuragi, Trying to kill him by your sniper rifle."

Yoshimasa nodded. "But I need to remind you; it's nearly impossible to kill him by snipe because he is a warrior in Transformed Period so that he can sense danger easily. However, you're also a menace to him.

Then, Yoshimasa didn't say anything. He went downstairs with John.

At the same time, the elites in the other seven groups rushed to the sky wheel.

They were so scared!

Really scared!

Only in several minutes, Finn had killed four killers, two ninjas, and 15 elites!

They couldn't believe what they saw! Finn was a butcher, and they were sheep. They were waiting to die.

They had given up the thought about killing Finn. They just wanted to gather at the sky wheel.

Killing Finn?

Fxxk!

It's the mission for John and Yoshimasa!

Maybe they were right.

But.....

The image was different from the real.

"Thud thud thud thud thud thud....."

Finn killed a group of elites.

The sound feared the other six groups, so they crouched on the ground.

"Don't worry, everyone crouches and moves in the bush. He'll find us if we stand."

Joseph Zev found Finn was far from them, so he told to elites.

"It's useless. He can find us, even if we hide in the bush! He can appear from anywhere!"

"Yes, all of us will be killed by him."

"I think we should go to the sky wheel until John and Yoshimasa come here."

Someone responded Joseph. They were so scared!

"Coward!"

At the same time, Zorn Sakuragi went upstairs with his gun. When he heard their dialogue, he was so angry. "All of you should do what Joseph said! It's an order! If you object doing it, I'll kill you!"

He wanted to use more elites to attract Finn, but he couldn't snipe Finn if all of the elites crouched on the ground.

Zorn didn't care about these elites' behaviors.

As for the underground world of Country C, Rh Group's management system was like a pyramid scheme organization.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 565

Unprepared!

Besides, the RH Group also imitated the army's roles-- The subordinate must comply with the superiors' order. Otherwise, they would be punished seriously.

Although the other elites were afraid, they had to go to the sky wheel.

In the dark, they squatted and ran forward, and they nearly used all the strength.

Although Wendy didn't see Finn in the top cockpit, she could guess the situation from the sound of guns and Joseph Zev's order.

She knew Finn was powerful and killed many enemies, but she still worried him.

That was because there were numerous enemies in her sight.

"Finn, my brother, you must be alive!"

Wendy cried.

At the moment, Finn changed 2 MP5A1 in a bush, but he didn't continue to kill the elites.

He knew John Saito and Yoshimasa Chiba would come here and fight with him.

So, he couldn't still waste time on the elites.

He needed to finish the 3rd step.

Kill the leader of them.

He would face two warriors in the Transformed Period!

Finn groveled in the dark and watched the road from the 3rd floor to the sky wheel.

With the light from the streetlamp, he could see John and Yoshimasa clearly. These two guys were so fast, and, behind them, a man in the dark went back to the top of the 3rd floor.

Finn knew that man was the last killer in RH Group. His aim was snipe.

Then, Finn held the Mp5A1 and readied to shoot. After that, he calculated the distance between himself and that two guys.

Although it's dangerous that John and Yoshimasa close to Finn, Finn must try it. He should shot them until they were 30-50 meters from him.

On the one hand, warriors in the Transformed Period could feel the danger easily. They could parry the bullets in advance.

That was why warriors in the Transformed Period were hard to kill!

On the other hand, they could use their internal power to counteract bullets' majority power and control their muscle. Which making bullets unable to cause fatal injuries.

John and Yoshimasa were not the best masters in the Transformed Period, but they were experienced warriors. It's impossible to kill them with the long distance.

Furthermore, although the bullets of MP5A1 hits them, it's also hard to kill them.

One hundred meters later, 80 meters later, 60 meters later...

Finn put his thumb on the trigger.

Forty meters later, thirty meters later!

Just then...

Finn shot!

"Th...th...thud..."

The bullets flew out, resisted air resistance, and appeared to the area where John and Yoshimasa were. Even the bullets covered a ten-meter range.

In the dark, when John and Yoshimasa heard gunfire sound, they felt the crisis and parried it.

"Ow..."

Although John's reaction was quick enough, he was too close, less than 30 meters from Finn. He increased his speed to the limit, but a bullet still hit him in his thigh. His blood spurted out.

Yoshimasa, by contrast, was quicker than John. He parried the bullets at that second.

Danger!

The next moment.

When Finn readied to shoot injured John, he felt dangerous and hid in another side.

Swish...

At the same time, three darts were thrown to the spot where Finn had been.

Then three darts hit the trees in the rear, piercing them.

Unsurpassed power!

Finn knew if he hadn't given up shooting John and hidden to another side at that moment, three darts would pierce his body and killed him instantly.

That also confirmed Yoshimasa's power. He not only avoided the bullets fired but also used darts to attack Finn so that Finn could not continue to shoot.

"Stupid! Have you ever heard a higher ninja killed by shot?"

Besides, when Yoshimasa threw the weapon, he turned his body like a ghost and swooped at Finn, as fast as lightning.

He didn't want to allow Finn to react. He tried to suppress Finn and killed Finn at the moment!

Finn immediately raised his gun and shot to Yoshimasa.

"Thud thud thud..."

However, as if he had expected it when Finn shot, Yoshimasa suddenly rushed to a tree on his left and dodged the bullet with ease.

Trump!

The tree could not afford Yoshimasa's force. Then, the trunk directly was broken and collapsed.

Yoshimasa swooped to Finn with the force of a rebound, just like a departing arrow.

Bang!

At the same time, Finn's internal power concentrated on his feet, and he suddenly retreated away!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 566

Yoshimasa's death

Finn didn't try to kill Yoshimasa by shots. He just wanted to get the time and break back.

That was because, if Yoshimasa closed, he would no longer have the opportunity to shoot. The only chance for him was to use the body to fight and kill Yoshimasa.

However, it was impossible to kill a warrior in the early stage of the Transformed Period in a short time.

Therefore, he hadn't to let Yoshimasa close to him!

At that moment, Finn combined his internal power with physical strength, which made him extremely fast, but Finn still slower than Yoshimasa.

Swish!

After the retreat, Finn moved sideways, leaving a shadow on the ground.

Shout!

Yoshimasa swooped to Finn and attacked to Finn's shadow, which directly cut an opening in the air with a crisp sound, like a firecracker explosion general.

"Puppy, don't try to escape, tonight is your death, I will use your blood to wipe the shame of Country J's martial arts!"

When he misses, Yoshimasa continued to swoop on Finn. Furthermore, Yoshimasa's words stressed Finn so that Finn couldn't exert all his strength. Therefore he believed he could kill Finn earlier and more easily!

"Thud thud Thud..."

Yoshimasa's response was a cacophony of gunfire. Finn once again shot to him when he swooped to Finn.

However, like the previous two times, Yoshimasa relied on his terrible reaction force and moving speed to parry all the bullets.

Click...

Just then, Finn's MP5A1 submachine gun was empty.

"Are you out of bullets? Go to hell!"

Hearing the voice, Yoshimasa sneered and again swooped Finn.

He believed Finn, who had lost his gun, was no longer a threat, like fish on a chopping board, ready to be slaughtered.

Swish!

Finn pulled back again.

When Finn retreated again, Yoshimasa despised him more.

Finn, however, fetched out a pistol from his coat fell into his left hand but was covered by his palm, so Yoshimasa did not found it.

"It's over."

Soon, Yoshimasa shortened the distance between him and Finn to ten meters. Just as a sharp and unstoppable scabbard.

Swish!

Once again, Finn moved backward to sideways, and at the same time, his expression also changed, revealing 'fear.'

"Dead!"

Immediately, Yoshimasa shouted and slashed his sword at Finn!

Joint sword!

Joint sword! That was Yoshimasa's unique skill.

"Bang, bang, bang, bang..."

Soon, before Yoshimasa's sword reached Finn, Finn shot again.

In a moment of crisis, Finn put his speed to the limit. Six bullets shot toward the Yoshimasa.

Huh?

Yoshimasa's pupil shrank abruptly, and he canceled his unique skill. Then he used his internal power to parried bullets.

Although Yoshimasa tried his best. He was so close to Finn, so he was still shot twice: Once in the shoulder and another in the heart.

But at the moment, he controlled his internal power with his mind, guarding his heart.

"Ouch..."

Blood erupted from the chest, but he changed the bullet's trajectory with internal strength and muscles.

The bullet nearly grazed Yoshimasa's heart, punctured his body but caused no fatal injury. Nevertheless, it also caused internal power to leaked out of his body and disordered.

Just then...Finn turned to attack. He appeared in front of the Yoshimasa and punched.

DSH Skill!

The most powerful that Garrett taught to Finn!

It's also Finn's best unique skill!

Finn hadn't used it even in the last time he was poisoned by Hinds.

However, Finn used it at that time!

He really wanted to kill Yoshimasa!

He faced Finn's best fist, Yoshimasa, who was hit by a bullet. He used his claws to defend it.

Thump!

Though Yoshimasa was a Martial Arts Master in Transformed Period for more than ten years, and his internal power was far higher than Finn. He was struck to fly because the internal power was disorder, so he couldn't exert the real power.

"Bang -"

Just then...

There was another shot.

It's the seventh and final bullet from the pistol.

That time, although Yoshimasa knew it was dangerous, he could not dodge it.

"Ow..."

Blood splashed; the bullet accurately hit Yoshimasa, the middle of the eyebrows, from the back of his head.

Even the master of martial arts couldn't resisted bullets.

Finn's shot killed Yoshimasa.

His body fell heavily to the ground. His expression showed his shock. He could not believe that Finn killed him at the end of life.

Not only the dead Yoshimasa, but John was stunned as well.

A bullet had pierced his thigh. Though it was not fatal, his mobility was greatly reduced, so he did not strike and watched from a distance.

Initially, in his opinion, Yoshimasa could easily kill Finn, but he did not expect Finn could kill Yoshimasa.

"It's impossible? !"

Meanwhile, Zorn Sakuraki was shocked to see Finn's killing Yoshimasa clearly through his sighting telescope on the three-story building.

"Yoshimasa was killed by Finn?!"

What a ghost Finn is?!"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 567 Escape!

"What's the matter?"

Zachary Matsushita asked Zorn Sakuragi when he saw Zorn was shocked.

"He.....He killed Yoshimasa!" Zorn, still in shock, responded almost subconsciously.

"What..... What?"

Zachary was also shocked by Zorn's words, and trembling asked. "This is impossible, ah! Are you wrong?"

"Yoshimasa lord was indeed killed. I could clearly see that he was hit by a bullet through the sighting telescope and never got up after falling!"

Zorn raised the telescope again and added." That Finn is going to kill John Saito!"

"What?"

Zachary was shocked again by Zorn's words.

The most powerful people of their plan to kill Finn were Yoshimasa and John, but Yoshimasa was killed, and Finn would kill John...

That means they're going to lose this kill, and they're probably all going to die!

"Lord Yoshimasa is a respected higher ninja, so how Finn killed him alone? How he did it?"

Zachary shouted. His emotions were completely out of control. He couldn't accept the fact, and he was too scared.

"He intercepted Yoshimasa and John, and John was shot in the thigh. Lord Yoshimasa parried the bullet and went to kill him, but he was killed at last -- they did it too quickly, and I didn't see their actions clearly."

Zorn explained in panic." Master John was shot in the thigh, unable to exert his all power. I must assist him. It's our last chance!"

With that, Zorn took two deep breaths and then focused on Finn's aim through the scope of his sniper rifle.

As Zorn said, after killing Yoshimasa, Finn didn't stop and went straight to the John.

John and Yoshimasa were the biggest threats to Finn. The other things would be much easier if they died.

"Damn it!"

John was shocked by Finn's proficiency in guns.

"How can a Martial Artist become so skilled at guns."

However, at the moment, he had given up thinking about it because Finn had already appeared to him.

If he was not shot in the thigh, even if Finn was the bravest people in the world, Finn would not dare to attack John.

Nevertheless, At that moment, the only way to John was escaping - bouncing on the ground like a kangaroo with his uninjured right foot.

With an injured leg, Finn could kill John in any method.

Besides, in his opinion, it's more likely that Finn will choose not to close him, but to use the gun as before.

John was right.

Finn did not intend to close him.

On the one hand, John was a Martial Artist in the early stages of the Transformed Period, so he was still very dangerous even with an injured leg.

On the other hand, Finn decided to rescue Wendy as soon as possible.

In the darkness of night, Finn combined his internal power and his physical strength to maximize his speed. First, he went to the previously hidden place and picked up an MP5A1 left there.

With his submachine gun, Finn didn't waste any time. He aimed at John quickly and shot him.

""Thud thud thud..."

Suddenly, bullets covered all the places around John.

Although John's speed on one foot was as fast as Martial Artist's average level in the obscure period. And there was nearly 100 meters away from Finn at the moment. But Finn had blocked all his escape routes.

He can't hide.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

Three bullets hit John almost at the same time, making him fell to the ground.

"Bang ..."

Just then, another guy shot.

On the top of the three-story building, Zorn aimed at Finn and shot.

Zorn was a brilliant assassin who took advantage of Finn's stalled to snipe --It's the best chance and the only chance for him!

However, Finn had guessed he would sniper him at that time, so Finn hid to another side immediately.

Simultaneously, the sniper bullet across the shadow left by Finn and hit a big tree behind, piercing the trunk and leaving a circular hole.

"Fxxk!"

When the bullet failed, Zorn scolded, but he didn't give up. Instead, he focused on the area where Finn was hiding, preparing for the second snipe.

Swish!

Finn moved quickly with a submachine gun in one hand.

"Bang!"

The gun fired again, but he still missed Finn.

And then...

He saw Finn rushed toward the third floor, but Finn was too fast to lock and aim him.

'Escape, escape!"

Zorn gave up at the first time to snipe Finn but reminded loudly to Zachary. Then he discarded the sniper gun and rushed to the stairs.

"Er..."

When Zachary heard Zorn's words, he didn't react for the first time and quickly rushed to the stairs.

"Bang!"

About half a minute later, when Zachary rushed out of the three-story building, gunfire sounded again.

He could clearly see Finn 10 meters in front of him, with a gun, aiming at the three-story building's east side.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 568 John's death

And then...

He unconsciously glanced in the direction Finn was aiming for.

He saw Sakuragi Zorn falling to the ground. Zorn was hit in the head with a bullet, leaving blood all over the floor!

Zachary Zachary was feared and shocked by this discovery.

Meanwhile, Finn put down his submachine gun and approached to Zachary.

"Over!"

It's the only word in his mind when he saw Finn coming, and his body was completely frozen in place.

That was because as Finn killed Yoshimasa, John Saito, and other masters in the RH Group, their carefully arranged plan would not threaten to Finn anymore!

In the dark, Zachary couldn't stand stably because of his extreme fear.

Although it was not a cold night, he felt that he was in an ice cave. His forehead was dripping with sweat, his face was as white as paper, and he looked at Finn with nothing but fear in his eyes!

"Come with me to the Ferris wheel."

Finn stopped three meters in front of Zachary and frigidly said.

"O...OK!"

When he listened to Finn, Zachary nodded immediately. He was so scared that Finn would kill him next time.

With those words, Zachary took two deep breaths to calm down. Then he walked to Finn, still trembling.

Without saying anything more, Finn went toward to the Ferris wheel, passing the body of Yoshimasa.

"Hissing."

Although Zachary already knew Finn kills Yoshimasa, he still felt extremely scared when he saw Yoshimasa's body lying on the ground.

After all, Yoshimasa was a Martial Arts Master. His power was nearly the top of the Country J, but Finn just spent a half minute killing him.

Soon after, with the shocked and confused expression of Zachary, Finn lifted up Yoshimasa's body.

"What does he want?"

Zachary was doubtful, but he didn't dare to ask more, just quietly with Finn behind.

Soon, he saw John Saito John.

John was not dead, but almost immobile from being shot in the leg, lung, and spine, so he just laid there.

The next moment, Finn carrying the body of Yoshimasa, walked straight to the front of the John.

"This..... Damn, we all underestimated you!"

John struggled to look up at Finn, and at that moment, he so regretted underestimating Finn.

Although Finn's was only at the beginning of the transformed period, Finn's power to fight with the gun was so outstanding that even combining he and Yoshimasa couldn't defeat Finn.

"Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!"

There were four tramples in response to John. Finn slammed his feet on John's ankles and then on his wrists.

"Click....."

With the crack of bone, John's wrists and ankles were mangled by the terrible internal power.

At that time, John was completely out of action!

After that, Finn lifted John just like he lifted a chicken.

At the same time, two darts fell from John's sleeve to the ground.

"You..... How careful you are..."

With a sad smile, John intended to take advantage of Finn's most relaxed moment and attack him with his darts, but he didn't know Finn was so careful.

Finn didn't respond to him and carried the body of Yoshimasa and completely disabled John. He continued to go to the Ferris wheel with Zachary.

"He... What is he going to do?"

Zachary didn't understand it but still didn't dare to ask, just quietly with Finn behind.

The remaining six groups of 30 ninja elites gathered below the Ferris wheel.

Besides, Nine ninjas still hid in the trees.

"We haven't heard a shot for a long time. Is the battle over?"

Suddenly, one of the elite asked. He was so scared due to Finn.

Even though his companions surrounded him, he still felt dangerous.

"Of course, Master Yoshimasa and Master John can easily kill Finn."

Another elite said. He wasn't worried at all, unlike the first elite.

That was because he was sure that Finn had been killed!

"Is he still alive?"

In the cabin, Wendy could not see anything below because she was tied on the seat. When she heard the elite's words, she was so worried about Finn.

"Yeah, if Master Yoshimasa and Master John killed him for the first time, Finn wouldn't kill our companions easily..."

Almost everyone believed Finn had been killed, but he couldn't say another word when the last man was halfway through the sentence.

In the darkness of night, he was shocked by what he saw!

Soon, other elites and nine ninjas were all looking ahead.

They could not believe what they saw.

They saw Finn carried Yoshimasa and John and walked to the Ferris wheel with Zachary!

Can you believe it?

Next second. Finn acted.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 569 Surrender or Die!

"Whoosh!"

"Whoosh!"

In the darkness, Finn threw Yoshimasa Chiba and John John into the sky. The height they reached was much higher than the top of the Ferris wheel so that Wendy Lin could also see them.

"What..... What's the matter?"

Wendy was shocked by what she saw.

"Bang bang bang..."

Then Wendy heard a rang of loud shots.

Finn shot to the Yoshimasa and John, the bullets through their bodies to the sky.

Their blood fell down, just like the rain.

"Er..."

All the 30 elites, nine ninjas, and even Zachary were shocked and feared by what they saw.

Panic?

Yes!

They just believed that Yoshimasa and John had killed Finn, but Finn appeared carrying their bodies at the next second and killed them again...

It's hard to imagine how they felt about that!

"Bang! Bang!"

Soon the shattered bodies of Yoshimasa and John hit the ground. It's hard to recognize the bodies since they were just two piles of the mixture of blood and meat.

"Lay down your arms and kneel in surrender, or die!"

Meanwhile, Finn held the smoking MP5A1 in one hand and frigidly said.

"Splash!"

At the same time, an elite threw away his gun and went down on his knees. He couldn't control himself because he was so scared.

"Splash!"

"Splash!"

"Splash!"

...

Then the sound of kneeling rang out.

One, two, three...

Half a minute later, whether the remaining 30 elites, nine ninjas, or Zachary, dropped their weapons, knelt, surrendered, and begged for mercy.

Finn stood proudly with a gun. He defeated all of the enemies.

They were terrified.

At that time, all of them were terrified.

Finn sneaked into the park at first, and then he killed four snipers and two Ninjas. Afterward, he slew the elites, which, just like a butcher, slaughtered the sheep.

However, at that time, Yoshimasa and John had not fought him. Although they were scared, they believed that Yoshimasa and John could kill Finn.

As a result, both Yoshimasa and John were killed by Finn. Who even thrown their bodies into the air in public and killed them again!

Finn made them all despair.

They were so terrified that they chose to surrender when Finn let them choose.

After that, Finn felt relaxed.

Although the others could not threaten him, he could not kill them all in an instant.

In such a situation, if he continued to kill them, they might shot Wendy.

To avoid tragedy, he needed to make all of them terrified to successfully rescue Wendy.

At that time, their choice proved that Finn's plan was right!

"It's my brother! Finn!"

Wendy cried In the cockpit.

Although she knew Finn would rescue her, she was still so touched when she heard Finn's voice.

She didn't know why so many people surrendered to Finn.

However, it must be dangerous.

Wendy struggled fiercely again, trying to free herself from the ropes. She really wanted to see Finn.

Meanwhile, Finn appeared to the control room below the Ferris wheel and then clicked the start button.

Wendy felt that the wheel was moving. She stopped struggling and waited for Finn.

When Finn stepped out of the control room, everyone didn't look at him. They were still terrified at that time.

At that time, all of them just wanted Finn to get out of here with Wendy as soon as possible!

It's funny, but it's the truth!

Although they would be punished if Finn saved Wendy, but it's much better than death.

About ten minutes later, Wendy came to the bottom.

Finn stepped forward and opened the hatch.

"Blare....."

When she saw Finn, she tried to say something, but because her mouth was covered with a towel, she couldn't say a word.

"It's all right!"

Seeing the tearful face of Wendy, Finn stepped into the cockpit and then bent down to pick Wendy up.

Whoosh!

Soon, Finn didn't stop. He held Wendy and flashed out of the cockpit like a ghost.

However, he needn't worry at all.

They were still on their knees, and their faces pressed to the ground, not daring to move.

"Er..."

When Wendy saw that, she was shocked.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 567 He is back!

She could not imagine what Finn did to make a group of killers kneeling on the ground.

Although Wendy was still shocked, Finn took her away immediately.

Finn gave up killing Zachary Zachary for a while.

That was because his most important thing was to protect Wendy at that time.

"Whoosh...."

When Zachary noticed that Finn left, he and others felt relaxed, and then they stood up after Finn disappeared utterly.

In the darkness, they became depressed instead of terrified.

Besides, the other 30 elites and nine Ninjas gathered to Zachary for a long time.

"What shall we do, Lord Zachary?" Joseph Zev asked.

"What shall we do? Fxxk! How can I fucking know!"

Zachary was distraught and angry. He was the leader of this plan, but he didn't finish the aim. He would be punished.

With Zachary's words, Joseph shut up immediately. The others also didn't say anything.

At that time, Zachary got a phone call. The ringing sound was so harsh at that time.

Zachary was shocked by the call. The others also focused on him.

When he saw the call was from Hanzo Miyamoto, he was much more upset.

"Lord..."

A few seconds later, Zachary tried to respond to Hanzo, but he didn't know how to report.

"I just received a message that Marco Matsushima's family was killed, and Finn likely did it! He might get our plan from Marco. He will definitely go to the park tonight. You need to ready to fight!" Hanzo said on the other side of the phone.

"Lord, he was here." Although it was hard to say, Zachary responded to Hanzo.

"What what? He has gone?! "

Hanzo surprised, so he asked, "what is the situation now? Have you killed him? "

"No, he killed two masters, Yoshimasa Chiba and John Saito, and rescued the hostages..."

"What?! How could it be? "

Hanzo was shocked when he heard that. He couldn't believe what he heard.

As the Master of the Miyamoto's Family, he knew the strength of Yoshimasa and John. In his mind, it was easy for them to kill Finn.

However, Zachary told him that Finn killed them and rescued Wendy.

At this moment, he even felt that was the most ridiculous words he had ever heard!

Is it possible?

Is it ridiculous?

"Bang bang bang....."

There was a burst of gunshot respond to Hanzo.

One hundred meters away, Finn, armed with a gun and was shooting to them.

He was back!

After hiding Wendy in a relatively safe place, he immediately returned.

"Puff, puff..."

As Finn's shoots, many people fell down.

"Ow....."

"Finn is back!"

"He wants to kill all of us."

"Escape!"

For a moment, the crowd panicked, and those who were not shot seemed to be crazy, just shouting in fear.

"Get down!"

At the same time, Joseph immediately knocked down Zachary, who was utterly sluggish and then reminded people to get down.

That was because running away was useless, and they would be the moving target.

Zachary was terrified by what he saw, almost lost the mobile phone out.

"What's wrong?"

Hanzo heard the gunshot and the wild shouting.

"My Lord, Finn is back again... "

Zachary responded subconsciously, his voice trembled, and his words were not exact.

"Don't fight with him; take people to escape at once!" Hanzo was immediately angry, but he made the instruction decisively.

It's his style.

"Yes, my Lord!"

Zachary returned quickly and hung up.

At the same time, with all the people lying on the ground, the gunfire stopped. Finn stopped shooting and disappeared into the night.

Although the gunfire stopped, they were still afraid.

They all knew Finn didn't leave. He just stopped attacking for a while. Just like the short silence before the storm, death would come at any time!

"Lord Zachary, Finn must be coming this way. You must make a decision and give order immediately, or all of us will die here!"

Joseph was a calm person, so immediately reminded Zachary. "We can not all escape. I suggest letting the elites of Killers' Group shoot and cover, and the RT Hall elites and I will take you away! "

"Well."

Zachary heard his words. He knew that Joseph's suggestion was right.

On the one hand, it was difficult for all of them to leave alive.

On the other hand, although those people in the Killers' Group were also RH Group elites, the RT Hall's ninjas were much better than them. Their lives were much more precious than those in the Killers' Group!

"Fight! We must fight back!"

Zachary ordered." All the elites in the Killers' Group, take up your weapons. As long as Finn appears, shoot him immediately!"

"Yes, my Lord!"

Although the elites of the Killers' Group were terrified, nobody disobeyed the order.

That also confirmed that the management of the RH Group was strict.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 571 A Demon from Hell

"Let's go!"

Tomohisa Matsushita said to Youji Hitarisaki immediately.

"Yes, my lord!"

Youji took the order quickly and informed the rest of the Ninja to retreat through the secret channel of the RT Hall.

For a moment, the elites gathered together, lying in the grass, looking around for Finn Chen.

On the other hand, the nine Ninjas, who were led by Youji, were protecting Tomohisa and quickly escaping under cover of trees and grass.

However——

When Tomohisa and the others fled to the edge of the amusement park, they didn't hear any gunshot, which made nine Ninjas felt weird.

"Lord Matsushita, I felt something is wrong. Since Finn had come back, he obviously wanted to kill all of us. But he hadn't shot for such a long time. Is that possible he has already guessed that we are going to escape?" Youji suddenly stopped and said in a low voice.

"...Someone is ahead! "

Before Tomohisa Matsushita could reply, a Ninja beside him suddenly exclaimed.

Swish! Swish! Swish! Swish!

As the Ninja's voice came out, Tomohisa and the other eight Ninjas looked ahead at the same time. They saw that Finn stood proudly with a gun in one hand as if he was waiting for them on purpose.

This discovery made Tomohisa Matsushita, and the others felt a chill deep inside!

The next moment, before they could recover from the shock, Finn moved.

Whoosh!

In the darkness of the night, his figure flashed like a ghost and quickly rushed to the ten people who had been waiting for him for a long time. His speed was extremely fast. Not to mention Tomohisa, even Youji, the most powerful person, could not see Finn clearly.

"Runaway separately!"

Youji immediately reminded them loudly. Then they grabbed Tomohisa and lifted him up.

"Don't you dream of escaping!"

As soon as Finn finished speaking, he appeared.

It was like that Finn was using magic. He suddenly appeared in front of a Ninja, struck him out.

"Bang!"

With a muffled sound, the Ninja didn't make any response. He was hit on the head by Finn, and his head cracked like a burst watermelon and fell to the ground.

"Bang, bang, bang..."

After a successful move, Finn didn't stop. He flashed like a human-shaped dragon and madly attacked the frightened Ninja. Every time after a muffled sound, a Ninja would fall into their own blood.

Seckilling!

In less than a minute, except for Youji, the other eight Ninjas were all killed.

Damn it!

Youji was running fast with his hand clutching Tomohisa. As he looked back and found out his men were all killed by Finn. He felt hopeless.

Finn was much faster than him. It was impossible for him to leave alive with Tomohisa!

As if to confirm Youji's judgment, when he turned around and was about to continue running with all his strength, he saw Finn standing in front of them and blocking their way.

"Hi!"

Seeing this scene, Youji gave up running. He put down Tomohisa, roared, and took the initiative to pounce on Finn.

Bang——

The next moment, he rushed in front of Finn and punched him. Not only did he not hurt Finn in the slightest, but he's right fist was broken into pieces. His hand was badly mutilated.

Slap!

Then, Finn didn't give him a second chance to attack, just like swatting a fly, and slapped him to death on the ground.

"St... "

Seeing that Finn easily beat Youji to death, Tomohisa gave up running away in vain. Instead, he collapsed to the ground and gasped.

His remaining sense told him that he was doomed today!

In addition, there was a voice in his heart telling him that this might just be the beginning. The whole underground world and the field of martial arts in Country J would pay a heavy price for seriously underestimating Finn Chen!

"Saon Sakuraki once said that when you ambushed Master Chiba and Master Saito, Master Chiba dodged the bullets and launched a counterattack. How could you kill him?"

Then, when Tomohisa saw Finn coming over, he knew that his death day had come. Instead of begging and struggling in vain, he wanted to figure out the biggest doubt he had.

This was also the most crucial part tonight!

If it weren't for Finn who had killed Yoshimasa Chiba, the rest stuff wouldn't have happened!

"Bang!"

A muffled sound was Finn's answer to his question.

Without saying a word, Finn kicked Tomohisa's head and killed him in an instant.

In the darkness of the night, Tomohisa's corpse was lying in the blood. His face, which had begun to deform, was still filled with confusion and unwillingness. He died with regret. He wanted to know the answer until he died!

After killing Tomohisa, Finn rushed towards the Ferris Wheel without hesitation.

In the bushes not far below the Ferris Wheel, the elite warriors were still following the order of Tomohisa, waiting for Finn to appear.

However——

When Finn appeared, they didn't cause any substantial harm to him at all and were all killed.

This was a one-sided slaughter!

The rest of the elites in RH Group were all killed by Finn.

.....

In a bush near the amusement park, Wendy hid there as Finn told her, waiting for Finn to come back.

Although she knew that Finn had passed the biggest danger, Wendy still looked ahead through the gap between the trees, hoping that Finn could come back earlier.

Finally, while she was waiting, Finn appeared.

Under the moonlight, she could clearly see that Finn's body was bloody red. The bloodstain was shocking, and he was just like a demon from hell.

"Finn, are you okay?"

It shocked Wendy. She rushed out of the bushes and rushed to Finn, asking while running.

"I'm fine. These are all the blood of the enemy." Finn knew what Wendy was worried about, so he shook his head.

"Ah ~" Wendy breathed a sigh of relief, "Great!"

"What about you? Did they do anything to you?" Finn asked. Although it seemed that Wendy was not hurt, it was hard to guarantee that the Martial Artists in Country J would not do anything to her.

"I'm fine. They didn't dare to do anything to me." Wendy shook her head. It was not until she woke up that she found herself in Country J. Although those RH Group elites kidnapped her, they did not dare to hurt her, as if someone had warned them.

"By the way, Finn, what's going on? Why did they kidnap me?" Wendy couldn't help but ask. It was obvious that the organization that kidnapped her was not an ordinary one. They even had mass destruction weapons like submachine guns.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 572 Stay

What confused Wendy Lin was why these people kidnapped her anyway? She was worthless to be kidnapped.

"Because of your father." Finn Chen said.

"My father?" Wendy was stunned.

Finn sighed. According to what Wendy looked like, she didn't even know that he had a father at all. Maybe she had never heard of Jordi Lin.

"Yes, your father's name is Jordi Lin..."

Finn didn't conceal the truth. Instead, he told her the whole story. He didn't know what had happened between Jordi and Wendy's mother. However, in Jordi's plan, it was obvious that Wendy was an extremely important part.

After hearing what Finn said, Wendy didn't come to herself for a long time. She didn't expect that her father had such a great background. He was one of the Nine Martial Arts Masters in Country C, and the most powerful man in the world.

"Finn, this is the first time I know my father's name."

With a complicated look on her face, Wendy looked at Finn and said, "I asked my mother before, but she never told me. She only said that my father is a man of indomitable spirit. Sooner or later, he will come back to me."

Finn didn't say a word. He had a similar experience with Wendy. When he was a little boy, every time he asked Shay Su about Henry Chen, she never said a single word about him.

There was a time when he hated Henry Chen to the core. He thought Henry was an irresponsible man who abandoned his wife and children.

But Shay said that Henry was the most indomitable man in the world.

Finn shook his head. He didn't want to recall the past. The top priority was to find a way to ensure Wendy's safety.

"Let's send you back first." Finn said.

"Go back? Where are we going?" Wendy was stunned.

"Country C. Someone will pick you up soon." Finn said. Before he came to Country J, he got in touch with the Warriors' League secretly. Half an hour ago, he had informed them. Soon, someone would come to pick up Wendy and send her to the Office of the Warriors' League.

"What about you? Finn, won't you go back with me?" Wendy asked subconsciously.

Finn shook his head and said, "I can't go back for the time being."

"Why?"

"I still have something to deal with. I can't go back until I finish my work." Finn said. Of course, he couldn't go with Wendy now. After all, he had just killed so many RH Group elites. It was impossible for him to swagger out of Country J.

As for Wendy, she was the descendant of a Grandmaster. In addition, the Warriors' League put pressure on her in Forum on Martial Arts. As long as Wendy was sent to the office of the Warriors' League, Country J would definitely let her go back.

"Finn, I'm afraid it will be very dangerous for you to stay here..." Wendy was a little worried. No matter how naive she was, she knew the saying "a life for a life".

What's more, Finn had killed more than one hundred people, not just one or two!

The field of martial arts and the underground world in Country J would not let him go.

"It's okay. It's not dangerous. Trust me." Finn smiled. It was indeed dangerous for him to stay here. If nothing went wrong, the whole field of martial arts and the underground world would hunt him down.

But there was nothing he could do.

More than ten minutes later, a black car stopped at the roadside.

A man and a woman got out of the car.

Both the man and the woman were dressed in black, almost integrated with the night.

After the two of them got out of the car, they first looked around and made sure that no one was following them. Then they called Finn and whispered, "Sir, we have arrived."

"Yes, I see you."

After saying that, Finn jumped down from the tree.

Suddenly, a figure appeared in front of them, which scared the man and the woman greatly.

They didn't expect that Finn would be above them all the time.

Finn glanced at the two again and made sure that there was no tracking device on the two people. Then, Finn breathed a sigh of relief. Just now, he had been observing the surroundings on the top of the tree. Although the two people were absolutely trustworthy, for the sake of safety, he decided to observe them.

If there was anything wrong between the two, he would never hand over Wendy to the two.

"Sir. When are you going to rescue Miss Lin?"

The two of them were very respectful to Finn. Although Finn was at least four or five years younger than them, in terms of strength, Finn could surpass them easily, like taking a nap.

Finn had been observing them on the tree for five or six minutes, but they didn't find Finn at all. If Finn wanted to kill them at that time, they would have died without knowing how.

"She has been rescued." Finn said lightly. He didn't tell the two of them his plan. He just asked the two to come here, so the two didn't know that he had rescued Wendy.

"Already!?"

Hearing what Finn said, the two of them were incredibly shocked.

You've got to be kidding me!

It had been less than two hours from Finn arrived at Country J.

Less than two hours...and it would take some time on the way here. How could Finn rescue her with breaking through a tight encirclement?!

"Sir...Are you kidding us? "The young man and the young woman braced themselves to speak. He felt that Finn was joking with him. He knew roughly about the power of RH Group. There were at least thirty people who were Primary Ninjas, and besides that, there were dozens of people who were Vantage Ninjas. Even if these people stood there for Finn to kill, it would take a while.

What's more, in addition to these people, the QS Chamber of Commerce must have other plans. It was impossible for Finn to rescue her so soon.

"Do you think I will joke with you about this?"

Finn glanced at the two and said indifferently.

The two shook their heads in a hurry. Although they still didn't believe that Finn could save her in this short time, they didn't dare to question Finn since he had said so.

"Come with me."

Finn didn't say anything more. Instead, he took the two of them to the place where Wendy hid.

When they saw Wendy, the two were shocked with their eyes widened.

She was really here, safe and sound!

Finn was not kidding! How did he make it?!

"Wendy, please follow...By the way, what are you guy's names? "It was not until then that Finn realized that he didn't know the names of the two who had followed him.

"I'm Martin Hu."

"I'm Shirley Zhao."

The two immediately responded respectfully. At this moment, they were completely convinced by Finn.

When they heard from Davin Shi that Finn came to Country J to rescue people alone, they thought that Finn was overconfident. After all, RH Group was one of the best underground forces in Country J. It would be unimaginably difficult to save people from them.

However, in less than two hours, Finn brought her out of RH Group. Although they didn't know the specific process of rescuing her, they could imagine that it must be extremely dangerous.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 573

Evidence!

"Martin, Shirley." Finn nodded slightly and remembered their names.

Meanwhile, he added, "Please take Wendy to the Warriors' league office as soon as possible."

"Don't worry; we will take Miss Wendy back safely." Martin nodded heavily. Wendy was different from the past. In the past, Wendy was just an ordinary college student, but now Wendy was the descendant of master Lin.

Ordinary people couldn't imagine her exalted status.

"What about you, Finn? Are you not going back?" At this time, Shirley asked. She wondered that would Finn go back?

"I can't go back yet. I still have something to deal with." Finn shook his head. At the time, he couldn't go back even if he wanted to go back.

If there was no accident, the field of martial arts and underground organization had already known about the destruction of the Matsushima's Family, and Finn rescued Wendy. The next thing for him was to escape from killers.

In this case, he needed to keep away from Wendy.

"Finn, it will be hazardous for you to stay here alone." Shirley looked worried. Although she didn't know the specific rescue process, she was sure that Finn killed many people.

Therefore, the field of martial arts and underground organization would surely pursue and kill Finn.

"No problem, I can handle it." Finn shook his head. In a moment, he sent Martin and Shirley the video he recorded at Kaede Matsushima's home, and photos were taken in the amusement park.

"When you go back, you need to contact Davin and ask him to send this video and these photos to the Forum on Martial Arts."

"There is evidence in the video that the QS Chamber of Commerce kidnapped Wendy."

Evidence for the kidnapping of Wendy by the QS Chamber of Commerce?

Hearing Finn's words, Martin and Shirley were relaxed. They just lack evidence at that time.

If they had the evidence, the global master would join them in condemning the QS Chamber of Commerce.

They opened the video from Finn.

In the video, moribund Marco Matsushima lay on the ground, explaining the QS Chamber of Commerce plan.

When they heard that there were dozens of Ninja lurking in the GH Group, they were shocked. Dozens of Ninja were able to fight a small-scale war. How could Finn rescue Wendy in this case?

When Martin and Shirley thought that's all, Marco spoke again.

"Besides them, there are two higher ninjas. These two higher ninjas are the biggest killers for you....."

Higher ninjas?!

They were shocked at the same time.

How could that be possible!

"Mr.Finn, those two are higher ninjas....." Martin and Shirley couldn't help speaking. They wanted to know how Finn rescued Wendy from the two higher ninjas. Nevertheless, before they finished asking, he was lightly interrupted by Finn: "dead."

"Dead?"

They took a deep breath.

Finn killed two higher ninjas who were equal to his level!

If this message spread out, The whole world might shake!

"I have sent their photo to you. Go back and ask Davin to check their identity." Finn's words were an understatement. Both John Saito and Yoshimasa Chiba were masters in Country J. It was easy for the Warriors' League to find out their identities.

Once the identities of John and Yoshimasa were found out, it could be proved that the QS Chamber of Commerce was the mastermind of the kidnapping of Wendy.

Martin and Shirley nodded and quickly looked at the photos sent by Finn.

Swoosh!

In an instant, they were stunned by what they saw.

Although they had seen a lot of dead people, they were also scared by these photos!

It's hell!

The bodies of hundreds of elites in the GH Group lay everywhere in the amusement park. They were filled with fear and despair.

Among them, a few bodies were particularly noticeable.

One was Zachary Matsushita, who is the head of Killers' Group in GH Group. Zachary was a famous person in the underground organization of Country J. However, his dead appearance was miserable in the photos.

Besides, there were two bodies, and Finn had taken separate photos for them.

After seeing these two photos, Martin and Shirley knew these two photos were probably the two higher ninjas sent by the QS Chamber of Commerce.

Two higher ninjas were shot into a pile of meat and blood by Finn!

If this news was spread out, the Martial Artists in martial arts would be crazy.

"Mr.Finn, are you really going to stay here?" Shirley's voice was a little shaky because she was really worried about Finn.

When she looked at these photos, she felt that Finn would surely die if he stayed here!

He angered the field of martial arts here!

Then, the field of martial arts will try its best to kill him!

Even to send out Grandmaster!

"Send Wendy back." Finn sighed and did not answer Shirley's question directly.

He knew that he most likely to die if he continued to stay here.

However, he had no choice.

"Brother Finn, you must be alive." Wendy's eyes were a little red. Through Shirley and Martin's words, she knew some things. To save her, Finn killed many vital people in the QS Chamber of Commerce.

Finn would be pursued and killed by the field of martial arts.

"Okay." Finn chuckled. He had already prepared for a lot of danger before he came here.

But he didn't have time to tell Maura about it.

Soon, Martin and Shirley left with Wendy.

Finn was gradually disappeared into the darkness.

When Martin and Shirley returned, they sent the video and photos to Davin.

Davin sent photos and video to the City Y Warriors' League.

There was no doubt that the Warriors' League's conference room fell into silence when they saw the photos and video.

All silent!

Including Potter, he was the host of the meeting.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 574 The Martial Arts World shocked!

Finn killed two higher ninjas!

Although Finn used guns, He killed them!

Two higher ninjas!

In Country C, they were two Martial Arts Masters!

Finn killed them?!

"Elder Potter, the identities of these two ninjas have been found out." Soon, the Warriors' League officers found out the identity of John Satio and Yoshimasa Chiba.

"Are they really higher ninjas?" Potter asked in a hurry. Although Finn's message showed that both were higher ninjas, he still couldn't believe what Finn said.

"Yes."

"These two people, one named John, and the other named Yoshimasa."

"John is a higher ninja. More than ten years ago, he reached the level of higher ninjas. However, Miyamoto's Family declared to the public that John died suddenly. It seems that John bear did not die at all. Miyamoto's Family lied at that time."

"This time when Finn went there, Miyamoto's Family sent John again. They planned to kill Finn with John because John has no apparent identity."

"In the same way, Yoshimasa is also a higher ninja. Five years ago, when he was in the process of a task, he was ambushed and seriously injured."

"At that time, Matsushima's Family declared that Yoshimasa had died, but now it seems that Matsushima's Family also lied."

The officer of the Warriors' League calmly said the information of John and Yoshimoto.

Inside the conference room, many Warriors' League leaders were shocked.

Finn really killed two higher ninjas!

And they had been higher ninjas for more than ten years!

"How did he kill them?" Someone asked, "higher ninjas were not weak."

They are the best!

Generally speaking, thermal weapons such as guns couldn't threaten the higher ninjas. They could feel the danger with their reaction speed so that guns couldn't hurt them at all.

However, John and Yoshimasa were killed by bullets.

"Finn didn't explain how he killed them. He just asked us to post these photos to the Forum on Martial Arts." An officer said.

"Elder Potter, shall we send them? "

"Of course!"

"Why not?" Potter sneered: "they have already done the first; we naturally want to do the next."

"Elder Potter, if this picture is sent out, the field of martial arts will be crazy. If they bother Finn at that time..."

"If we don't send photos, they won't bother Finn?" Potter asked in return. The field of martial arts had a bad relationship with them. When Finn did those things, their hostility could not be alleviated.

"So it is."

"However, the safety of Finn is a question. The field of martial arts will pursue him."

"Shall we give Finn some proper help?" Someone suggested.

At that time, Finn's level was near to Grandmaster.

If he died, it would make unimaginable losses to the field of military arts.

Potter frowned tightly, obviously thinking about the feasibility of the suggestion.

After a while, he shook his head: "No."

"We can't help Finn at present."

"Finn's dilemma can only be solved by Grandmasters."

"But in the early years, there was an agreement between the field of martial arts and them. Without permission, Grandmasters on both sides were not allowed to enter the territory of the other side. If they forcibly step into the territory, it will be regarded as opening the battle of Grandmasters..."

"You should understand what it means to open the battle of Grandmasters." Potter glanced at everyone.

Grandmasters were the most powerful people of all countries. In recent decades, there was almost no war at this level in the world.

The field of military arts in Country C could never start it.

"Send the video and photos to the Forum on Martial Arts first." Potter sighed. The only thing the Martial arts' League could do is to help Finn in public opinion.

At late night, a message completely exploded the Forum on Martial Arts.

"The QS Chamber of Commerce has set an ambush together with the GH Group. There are two higher ninjas, ten vantage ninjas, and 100 elites. Finn has killed all of them. There is no exception."

The message's content was very simple, with only a short line of words, a video, and a few photos. However, this short line had completely exploded the Forum on Martial Arts.

That night, countless warriors around the world were woken up from their dreams.

When they saw the bloody photos on the forum, everyone was shocked.

Finn had gone there to save her?!

What's more, he killed two higher ninjas?!

At this moment, all the Martial Artists were stunned.

No one had expected that Finn would save her so fast.

It was only five hours after the Warriors' League of the Country C showed Finn's live broadcast.

Finn ran from the Country C to there just five hours and killed more than 100 of them.

Among them, there were two higher ninjas!

It was unbelievable!

"Country C, Finn, he is too horrible."

"Haha, previously in Country C, there was someone who said that he was the Obscure Period's top level. It's ridiculous! Finn must at the middle stage of the Transformed Period!"

"Maybe not. There is no direct evidence to prove that Finn killed them only with his own power. They were both killed by hot weapons."

Many Martial Artists discussed Finn's strength, and some Martial Artists began to discuss the life of saving Wendy.

"Didn't the Warriors' League say that Finn would broadcast the Grandmaster's descendant's whole rescue? Why didn't he do it?"

"Live streaming? Saving the descendant? Don't you understand? The Livestream was just an excuse. From beginning to end, Finn did not intend to Livestream at all. The Livestream is just used to attract enemies' attention."

"Haha, those top masters are so stupid that they believe what Finn said."

"In fact, it's because they haven't reacted yet. They didn't expect that Finn would be so fast. If they had enough time to react, they wouldn't have been so miserable. "

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 575 Block the Whole Country!

Expect Marital Artists from Country J, the Martial Artists from all over the world discussed Finn.

Only the Martial Artists from Country J was quiet at the moment.

It was not because they didn't know that Finn had rescued Wendy. They had already known everything half an hour ago when the Warriors' League had shown the photos.

However, at this moment, they didn't know what to say.

There was no doubt that Finn had insulted all warriors of the martial arts world in Country J.

At this moment, all the Martial Artist in Country J felt humiliated.

There were countless masters in Country J, but, in this case, Finn also saved Wendy.

Moreover, he not only saved Wendy but also killed two higher ninjas of the QS Chamber of Commerce and around one hundred elites.

What a humiliation it was!

It was at midnight, but an underground base located in the suburb of Country J was still brightly lit.

At this moment, in the hall of the base, many leaders of Country J had gathered. Hanzo Miyamoto, the leader of Miyamoto's Family, was among them.

"Hanzo? Don't you have anything to say?" After a long silence, an elder in black sitting on the top seat glanced at Hanzo. Since Hanzo entered the base, he was silent.

"It's my fault. I underestimated that bastard," Hanzo took a deep breath and said in a low voice.

"Humph, is it useful to apologize now? Marco's family is dead. "On the left side of the elder in black, a man in a kimono complained. It had been about eight years since the Country J last saw such a big clan being exterminated.

But this time, because of the matter of the QS Chamber of Commerce, Marco's Family was completely killed.

"Master is not satisfied with you, Hanzo!" The elder in black frowned and looked at Hanzo. "He wants you to eliminate the impact on Country J as soon as possible."

"Yes!"

The master was the third leader of the Hidden People's s Association and one of the six Grandmasters in Country J.

At that time, both the 1st leader and the 2nd leaders of the Hidden People's s Association were training; the 3rd leaders were the supreme man in the Hidden People's s Association!

Nobody could disobey his words!

"Hidden People's s Association will cooperate with you this time."

"The third leader has issued an order to stop all the airports and block the whole country for two days. If Finn wants to leave Country J, he has to take the ship."

"In the next two days, all the SZ Group members and RH Group members will search all the place in Country J."

"Remember, you only have two days. Within two days, you must find out Finn and kill him in the Country J!"

"If you can't kill him, you can kill yourself." The elder in black glanced coldly at Hanzo. This matter was caused by Hanzo, so he should solve it.

"Yes, sir!"

With the extreme tension, Hanzo immediately accepted the order respectfully.

It had to be said that he couldn't believe the Hidden People's Association would provide so much support for him.

The whole country had been blocked for two days. And all the members of the SZ Group and the RH Group had been sent out. They used the whole country's power to find Finn.

In this case, if Finn still escaped, he had no choice but suicide.

As the meeting ended, the whole Country J fell into a state of high vigilance.

More than 100 thousand SZ Group members and the RH Group began to search Finn in the whole country.

During this time, the members' main investigation locations were all the ports because the airport of Country J had been blocked. If Finn wanted to leave, he could only take the ship.

The Sz Group and the RH Group searched the whole city, and Hanzo was also not idle. He directly came to the Warriors' League.

When he arrived at the Warriors' League, he didn't enter. Instead, he just waited quietly there.

A few minutes, a black figure appeared to Hanzo. "My Lord, Wendy came here in half an hour, but that bastard was not with her."

"Are you sure?" Hanzo asked sullenly. In his mind, Finn was likely to leave Country J through the Warriors' League.

"I'm sure not. The two people who came here with Wendy at that time were two employees in the Warriors' League. They have been here for five years, and I know them." The black figure said respectfully.

"Did they say where that bastard is?" Hanzo asked unwillingly.

"No." The black figure added, "Lord, someone from Warriors' League come here to take Wendy back. Should we stop her?"

"Let her go!"

Before the black figure could finish his words, Ben interrupted him.

If Finn was together with Wendy, he could stop Wendy. However, Finn was not. If he stopped Wendy at that time, he would declare war to country C's martial arts world.

Besides, if Finn was smart enough, he wouldn't tell Wendy about his track.

Therefore, even if he stopped Wendy, he couldn't get any information from Wendy. On the contrary, the field of martial arts in Country J would be condemned again.

After Hanzo gave the order, many Ninjas, who hid near the Warriors' League, retreated immediately.

Wendy boarded the Warriors' League's helicopter safely.

When Wendy boarded the plane, Martin typed a message and sent it out.

Soon, the news about the blockade of Country J was spread to the Forum on Martial Arts.

The martial arts world was shocked again!

They not only shocked the rapid response of Country J but also shocked its deployment.

The airport was closed, and the whole area was blocked. All the members of the SZ Group and the RH Group were sent out.

It could be called the strength of the whole country to kill Finn!

"Finn is doomed!"

"Yes, you are right. He will surely die!"

The Martial Artist all over the world began to express their opinions about this matter. Nobody thought that Finn could be alive.

If he could be alive, it must be a miracle.

"Guess how Finn will escape the Country J?"

"What else can he do? He must be on a ship. All the airports in Country J have been paused, and the borderline also has been blocked by someone. In this case, if he wants to escape Country J, he can only take the ship. "

"Humph! Is that Finn a fool? He must know what we think. Do you think he doesn't know Martial Artists are waiting for him in the port? "

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 576 Finn's Braveness!

"So what? Once he knows, he still has to go to the harbor, which is his only way to survive. He can't stay in the city to wait for those top skilled men in Country J!"

Just as those warriors discussed how Finn would escape the country, Finn had already quietly arrived at the hinterland of the Miyamoto's family.

Half an hour ago, HULI sent him a message "Hanzo went to the office of the Warriors' League. Hanzo didn't stop Wendy, but let Wendy fly back to the Country C by helicopter."

After reading this information, Finn made the decision to come to Miyamoto's family without hesitation.

Hanzo was the mainstay of his family, and the family without him was too weak.

Miyamoto's family was one of the families with the longest history in Country J, which was well-known for martial artists' training.

With the development of modern technology, the number of Martial Artists in Country J, a country that worshiped the spirit of martial arts, was far less than that in the past glory period of martial arts.

However——

Miyamoto's family was different from many other families. They still followed the path of martial arts, and business was just a subsidiary.

This was also the reason why Hanzo had a high reputation in the field of martial arts.

It was late at night, but Miyamoto's family's ancestral land in QY county was brightly lit.

All this was because of the death of the John. As one of the few Higher Ninjas in Miyamoto's family, he died too miserably.

His death gave a big blow to the Miyamoto's family!

In the dead of night, all the members of the Miyamoto's family rushed back to the ancestral land overnight. The body of John, which had been turned into flesh and blood, was placed in an ice coffin, making all the members see it clearly.

The ancestral land of the Miyamoto's family was filled with a sense of panic. Every member of the family had a look of fear on their faces. Finn had actually killed such a tolerant man as John. How strong Finn was!

Many of the members of the family had even more hatred!

The hatred on their faces was so strong that they wanted to tear Finn into pieces immediately to avenge the dead John.

At three o'clock in the morning, when the people of the Miyamoto's family accepted that John was dead and came to their senses from fear, some core members of the family gathered together and discussed.

"Mr. John died so miserably that he didn't even keep his whole body. Finn, the bastard from Country C, should be chopped to death!"

"The Hidden People's Association's elders have declared that they will try their best to kill that bastard in our country!"

"We should apply to the Hidden People's Association. After that bastard is killed, we will cut off his head to mourn for the heroic soul of Mr. John!"

"Not only that. We should take revenge after Finn dies!"

The man who spoke this was the son of Yuichi Miyamoto. He was a Vantage Ninja. In the world of Martial Arts, he was not a genius, quite famous.

Because he was bloodthirsty. The number of warriors he killed had reached an astonishing number, and he had even killed ordinary people!

"How should we take revenge?"

Yuichi Miyamoto frowned and asked. After Hanzo went to the Warriors' League's office, Yuichi would be in charge of all the matters of the family temporarily.

"We should kill the people around him! Anyone who had a close relationship with him! Only in this way can we really take revenge for John! "

Houwu said with a murderous look on his face.

"I agree with you,"

As soon as Houwu finished speaking, a middle-aged man in a black Samurai robe said, "because even if Hidden People's s Association killed Finn, it can't be regarded as our revenge for John. John died so miserably. We must do something for him! "

He was a good friend of John and also the master of Houwu. He was at the peak of the stage of a Vantage Ninja and was also bloodthirsty. He had gone abroad many times to kill Martial Artists, and his hands were stained with blood.

"I also support revenge!"

"We must take revenge!"

.....

Hearing Houwu's master's words, the other core members of the family felt that the two were right, so they all expressed their support.

"Since you all support revenge, we will hold a family meeting to discuss this matter after Finn is killed. We will make a detailed plan and send people to sneak into Country C and kill all the people closed to Finn!"

Yuichi Miyamoto thought for a while and made a decision. He also agreed to revenge.

"You have no chance. All of you will die tonight!"

As soon as Yuichi Miyamoto finished speaking, a voice suddenly exploded in the sky above Miyamoto's family's ancestral land.

Finn walked out of the darkness and strode towards Yuichi Miyamoto.

In the darkness of the night, he was wearing the clothes stained with blood. The strong smell of blood spread from his body, like a blood devil from hell, full of killing intent.

Swish! Swish! Swish! Swish

Looking at Finn, who was striding towards them, including Yuichi Miyamoto, all the Miyamoto's family members were shocked.

They were shocked because they had never thought that Finn would take the initiative to find them!

In their opinion, after the Hidden People's Association issued the killing order, Finn should hide as soon as possible and then find a way to leave this country!

They were also terrified because Finn had just killed John and Yoshimasa Chiba, and now he was here to kill them!

More importantly, even the two, Yoshimasa Chiba and John were no match for Finn. How could they fight against Finn?

"Don't be panicky!"

Yuichi Miyamoto shouted. He gathered his internal power to his elixir field and roared angrily, "although he killed John, John died of a gun. Now he doesn't have a gun with him! Let's kill him in a group, just in time to avenge John! "

Whoosh!

The response to Yuichi Miyamoto was a loud sound of moving.

Finn suddenly moved. In an instant, he appeared in front of Houwu and slapped him.

"Clap!"

"Poof!"

After a muffled sound, blood splashed everywhere.

Under the watchful eyes of the public, Houwu, who had previously instigated and clamored to kill the people closed to Finn, was slapped by Finn before he could even make a groan.

His head was broken, and he was instantly killed.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 577 Massacre!

"Houwu!"

Houwu 's master roared as he saw Houwu's head was broken.

However——

Finn came straight to him before he could do anything and slapped him on his head, as fast as a flash of thunder.

"Bang!"

With a muffled sound, Houwu 's master's head exploded in an instant.

"Fk!"

At this moment, Yuichi Miyamoto roared and rushed towards Finn with a Katana in his hand.

Whoosh!

As soon as he finished speaking, Yuichi Miyamoto came to Finn, holding the blade in both hands, and chopped down at Finn's head!

Finn stepped forward and turned his body like a spiral. He dodged the sharp blade, making Yuichi Miyamoto's blade cut in the air.

"Swoosh!"

After dodging Yuichi Miyamoto's attack, Finn kicked Yuichi Miyamoto's wrist.

Bang!

With a muffled sound, Yuichi Miyamoto had no time to dodge but was kicked by Finn. His wrist was hit by the terrible force, and blood came out from his wrist, making him unable to grab the blade.

Finn took advantage of the opportunity to hook up the Katana, grabbed it, and slashed at Yuichi Miyamoto's neck.

Yuichi Miyamoto's face changed dramatically. He quickly retreated. The sharp blade swept across his neck under his eyes, and the harsh wind cut off a thin wound on his neck.

Yuichi was so scared. He retreated several meters to run away from Finn.

Finn didn't chase Yuichi Miyamoto. Instead, he held the Katana and slaughtered Miyamoto's family's core members, like a wolf entering a flock of sheep.

Yes, it was a slaughter!

Every time he waved his blade, someone's head would be cut down to the ground.

In front of Finn, the other core members of Miyamoto's family were like weak sheep. They were even unable to dodge. In just a few seconds, several people's heads were cut off!

"Go to hell!"

Seeing this scene, Yuichi Miyamoto was furious to the extreme. He roared, shook his wrist, and shot three shurikens at Finn.

Finn dodged easily.

"Puff!"

"Puff!"

"Puff!"

At the same time, the sound of blood splashing rang out. Three shurikens shot at the three members of the Miyamoto's family beside Finn. The shurikens were instantly piercing through their bodies, making them fall down.

They were killed by Yuichi Miyamoto!

"Ah!"

This result drove Yuichi Miyamoto crazy with hatred. His facial muscles were completely twisted. He roared and rushed to Finn again.

Finn didn't dodge. Instead, he held the blade and took the initiative to fight back.

"Poof!"

After ten moves, Finn slashed down Yuichi Miyamoto's head!

The members of Miyamoto's family were all paralyzed with fear.

"Devil! You devil! "

In the darkness, the members of Miyamoto's family looked at Finn with fear and hatred and cried out.

"When you planned to kill me and my relatives and friends, you must have an awareness of being killed!"

Finn said coldly. He once again held the bloody blade and rushed into the crowd.

Ten minutes later, Finn left, leaving all those dead bodies on the ground.

All the members here were killed!

The ancestral land of Miyamoto's family was located in the suburb of QY county. It was a small farm manor, which was close to mountains and rivers. The environment was elegant and quiet, and few people would disturb it. It was almost regarded as the private territory of Miyamoto's family.

In the morning, when the sun gradually rose from the horizon, no one could be seen practicing on the ancestral land's training ground. The whole training ground was empty, and the huge manor was quiet. The air was filled with a pungent smell of blood.

It had been several hours since Finn massacred Miyamoto's family. However, because the ancestral land was very remote, and outsiders were not allowed to enter, no one found Miyamoto's family's tragedy until nine o'clock in the morning.

At nine o'clock, a commercial vehicle was driving on the road to the ancestral land.

In the car, Hanzo reclined in the seat and closed his eyes for rest, while a woman in white Samurai clothes was constantly making phone calls.

The woman's name was Linda, Hanzo's assistant.

"No one answered the phone?"

Suddenly, Hanzo opened his eyes and frowned.

"Yes, sir." Linda nodded.

"We're almost there. No need to call."

As Hanzo spoke, he frowned even more tightly.

Last night, he had been outside, making an overall plan to investigate Finn's location. Unfortunately, after searching for a whole night, he did not find any traces of Finn. Finn seemed to have disappeared entirely from the country.

Early this morning, his assistant, Linda, suddenly came up with a guess. The most dangerous place was the safest place. Would Finn hide in the family? After all, the amusement park was not far from the family.

Hanzo didn't think Finn would be brave to do so.

Although he thought so, he still felt a little uneasy.

Therefore, he asked his assistant, Linda, to contact Yuichi, but Yuichi's phone was still unable to be connected.

In this case, Hanzo had a bad feeling that something might have happened to his family.

With this uneasiness, Hanzo arrived at the gate of the ancestral land with his assistant. When he found that the gate was locked, he looked around and found that the training ground in the front yard was empty.

The driver honked the horn several times, but there was no response.

"Master, something is wrong."

Looking at the locked door and the empty training ground, the middle-aged man in a black Martial Artist, couldn't help but speak.

He was not only a driver but also a bodyguard and a Vantage Ninja.

"Master, there seems to be a smell of blood in the air!"

Linda said as she sniffed.

"Honk the horn again. If there is no response, open the door and let's go in to have a look."

Hanzo also found something unusual. He felt uneasy.

"Yes, sir!"

The man immediately took the order and then honked the car horn again, but there was still no response.

The man got off the car, walked to the door, and kicked it.

Bang!

With a crisp sound, the gate of the manor opened.

The man returned to the car, started the car, and drove the car into the manor.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 578

Takeno Amterasu

When the man in black drove through the front yard in the manor and came to the backyard, he stepped on the brake in horror.

He was not the only one who was terrified, so was Hanzo and his assistant, Linda!

Because they saw bloodstained heads, headless corpses, and the ground stained by the blood.

They seemed to have come to hell!

"EW..."

Linda vomited up all the breakfast she ate this morning.

"Did Finn do this? "

The man in black asked in horror.

Hanzo didn't say anything. He spat out blood, his face full of shock and anger.

Everything in front of him told him that his family had been massacred, and the murderer was most likely Finn!

Last night, He just asked the Hidden People's Association to kill Finn in this country. However, instead of running away, Finn massacred all the members of Miyamoto's family!

"Master! All the family members have been killed, and almost all their heads have been cut off. There is no living person in the whole manor, and even a few dogs have been slaughtered!"

Ten minutes later, the man in black returned and came to the car. His face turned pale, and his voice trembled as he reported this to Hanzo.

"How about Yuichi? "Hanzo still had hope. Yuichi Miyamoto was his only son, who was powerful enough to escape.

"Yuichi is also dead." The man in black swallowed and glanced at Hanzo. He knew it would be hard for Hanzo to accept the news, but the fact was that Yuichi's head was just placed at the door of the living room.

"Puff!"

Hanzo spat out blood again, and even his hair turned grey in an instant.

"Master! Are you okay? "Linda looked at Banzo worriedly. Even if she was not a Martial Artist, she could feel that Hanzo's internal power was disordered now.

"I'm fine."

"Call Lord Takeno Amaterasu and tell him what happened here."

Hanzo took a deep breath and tried his best to calm himself down, but the beating muscles at the corners of his eyes showed his true feelings.

"Yes, sir." Linda took out her phone and called Takeno.

At the underground base of DJ Bay, dressed in black, Takeno sat in the hall, motionless as an old monk meditating.

He was the leader of the Hidden People's s Association and the person in charge of killing Finn.

"Sir, Mr. Miyamoto is calling. He wants to talk to you." A Martial Artist came up and said respectfully.

There was no answer.

Takeno suddenly opened his eyes, moved his body, and disappeared from the young man's sight instantly.

Soon, Takeno arrived at the hall of the base. He picked up the phone and asked directly, "Hanzo. Have you found out the hiding place of the Martial Artist of Country C?"

"No! "

Holding the phone in her hand, Linda was stunned to hear Takeno's words. She quickly replied, "Master, we haven't found out the hiding place of the that Martial Artist from Country C. But, as soon as we came back, we found that all the Miyamoto family's members were killed... "

"What?"

Takeno's face changed, and his pupils dilated in an instant.

Although he was the eighteenth strongest warrior on the divine list and had a strong will in martial arts, he was still shocked by the news.

"All the members of Miyamoto's family are dead! Even the dogs in the manor were not spared! We're sure that all this was done by the Martial Artist of Country C!" Linda reported honestly, feeling a little scared.

She had heard of murder and even exterminating one's family, but this was the first time she had heard of such a massacre!

"Bastard!"

Takeno was furious!

He didn't expect that Finn would be so bold. Finn didn't escape under the search of the whole country, but sneaked into Miyamoto's family and killed all the members there!

"Linda, listen to me. Ask Hanzo to use all the resources he can use. If necessary, ask the Hidden People's Association to help. Find that bastard out!"

Furious as he was, he ordered in a cold voice, "once you get any news, report it to me immediately. I'll kill him myself!"

"Yes, sir!"

Linda took the order immediately. She didn't put down her phone until Takeno hung up the phone.

"Master, Lord Amaterasu asked us to use all the resources to track down the madman's whereabouts. As long as there is any news about Finn, Lord Amaterasu can personally kill him." Linda reported the situation to Hanzo.

Takeno was the number one warrior under the Super Master level in the Country J, whose stage was at the peak of a Higher Ninja, and he was the eighteenth strongest warrior on the global divine list.

"Master Amaterasu wants to fight personally?" Hanzo was a little surprised to hear the news. After all, Takeno was a peerless warrior on the divine list. Such a mighty warrior was well-known even in the whole world.

Generally speaking, such a skilled master would not fight with Finn, a warrior at the early stage of the Transform Period, because it would be disgraceful if it was spread out.

But now, Takeno had made such a promise, which meant that he was really irritated by Finn.

"Yes, Lord Amaterasu said that he would come in person as long as there was any news about that madman." It was confirmed again.

"I see." Hanzo nodded slightly. With the help of Takeno, the top master of the divine list, Finn would definitely die!

Hokkaido was the only one of the 47 capital cities in Country J and the northernmost first-grade administrative region. It was the largest island in Country J besides Honshu and the twenty-first largest island globally.

The terrain of Hokkaido was high in the middle and low around. There were mountains and highlands in the middle, so the overall landscape fluctuated wildly, and the surrounding was vast flat ground.

The beautiful snow made Hokkaido one of the famous tourist cities in Country J, and the complex and changeable terrain made it the excellent training base of the underground forces in this country.

The headquarter of the well-known RH Group were located in Hokkaido. Their members were trained by taking advantage of the complex and terrible terrain and climate of Hokkaido.

Besides, Hokkaido had always been the first choice for the Martial Artist to stay for meditations.

Even in March, the snow in Hokkaido still didn't melt. The city was relatively better, and some of the snow in the wild was even two or three meters thick.

As the night fell, a farm in Hokkaido was covered by darkness, but the lights there were bright. It was the headquarters of RH Group.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 579 RH Group

The headquarters of the RH Group covered an area of more than 1000 square meters. There were training grounds, shooting ranges, fighting fields, weapon warehouses, offices and meeting rooms. Besides, there were also restaurants, gyms, hot springs, bars and other leisure and entertainment facilities.

In a sense, the headquarters was more like a five-star military hotel.

All this was because this profession was too unusual.

They had received cruel training since childhood and became killers. Then they began to carry out tasks to kill people. If their hands were stained with blood for a long time, it would affect their mentality and personality more or less. They needed to relax and even indulge themselves.

This was also why many killers liked to indulge themselves in alcohol and lust after completing tasks.

In this case, to provide a comfortable environment for the organization's killers, the group had spent a huge amount of money on building its headquarters, which was also the home for all the killers.

The killers spent most of their time in the headquarters, except occasionally indulging or carrying out tasks.

A few days ago, they took over the task entrusted by the QS Chamber of Commerce to kidnap Wendy, so they sent nearly a hundred elites and dozens of Ninjas.

But unfortunately, all of them were lost in the amusement park and killed by Finn alone!

The death of hundreds of elites did great harm to the group.

The group wanted to rebuild, but the Hidden People's Association ordered them to find Finn out.

They had no choice but to send a large number of members out.

However, for selfishness, they still left dozens of top killers and Ninjas at the headquarters.

These killers and Ninjas were the most potent part of the group.

Only with those elites could RH Group be powerful again!

It had been eight hours since Wendy was taken away. Although the photos of the killing scene last night had much shocked many members, this morning, they were still training, relaxing, sleeping as usual, and waiting for the mission.

However, Koji Yamamoto, the leader of RH Group, couldn't be relieved.

Because he heard the news that Miyamoto's Family was massacred.

The news made him feel uneasy. He was worried that Finn would take revenge on RH Group, as Finn did to Miyamoto's Family!

Koji held a meeting and asked the four top elites to attend.

"What's the situation about Finn?"

Koji asked the information director, Hornsey.

"There is still no news about him," Hornsey said. They had sent nearly one hundred thousand members to look for Finn, but up to now, there was still no information about Finn. It seemed that Finn had disappeared entirely.

"Has he fled our country?"

A bald man asked. He was the person in charge of the actions.

"I'm not sure." Hornsey shook his head.

"It's a shame to let him leave our country, but I sincerely hope he can leave."

Koji sighed and did not hide his uneasiness in front of the four core members.

"Sir, are you worried that Finn will revenge on us, so you especially hold this special meeting to make a plan?"

The one who spoke this time was a thin man. He was the person in charge of the training. He was mainly responsible for training killers and replenishing fresh blood.

"Yes."

Koji nodded and said, "according to the information, he is a person who will definitely take revenge. His massacre to Miyamoto's family has also confirmed this point, which also shows that he doesn't take the Lord Amaterasu's death warrant seriously."

"Sir, I don't think so."

Hornesy said. "He took revenge on Miyamoto's family mostly because they are in QY city, and it's convenient for him to take action. And we're in Hokkaido. Even if he can find out the location of our headquarter, it's almost impossible for him to go to Hokkaido under the condition that the members of SZ Group, Hidden People's s Association, and we work together to seek his locations."

"Don't worry. Even if Finn can come here smoothly, it's useless. Although he is powerful, he can't enter our base at all!"

The speaker was a middle-aged man wearing glasses. He was the person in charge of the weapons. In addition to purchasing and refitting all kinds of exquisite armaments for the organization's killers, he was also responsible for the construction of the base of the organization's headquarters and setting up many traps. Outsides were not able to enter the base.

Because the entrance to the underground headquarters was a gate made of metal. It couldn't be broken even with a cannonball, let alone a human. Only the members of the organization could open it after scanning their pupils and confirming their identities.

"He has done too many incredible things. We'd better be careful."

Koji's frowned eyebrows loosened a little, but he was still a little worried. He made an arrangement directly, "inform everyone, before getting Finn's exact location, forbid all members of our organization to go out!"

"Yes, sir!"

The bald man took the order immediately. He was not only responsible for the killer's mission, but also for the daily management of the killers. "But, sir, Seth went out to look for a woman yesterday, and he hasn't come back yet."

"Call him after the meeting and ask him to return to the base immediately!"

Then Koji turned to look at Hornesy, "Hornesy, keep an eye on Finn's information. Once he has any news, report that to me immediately."

"Yes, sir!"

The bald man and Hornesy answered at the same time.

"The meeting is over!"

Koji stood up and left the meeting room.

The four also left. After returning to the room, the bald man immediately called Seth.

"Where are you?"The bald man asked in a low voice.

"Mr. Nakata, I'm on my way back to the base. Do you have any new tasks for me?"

"No mission, but our leader just ordered me to call you and inform you to return to the base immediately!"

"Okay. I'll be at the base soon. Five minutes at most."

"Great."

Nakata hung up the phone.

"Since there is no new mission, why did they ask me to return to the base immediately?"

Seth was confused. Then he put away their mobile phone and quickened his steps to the farm in front of him.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 580 Killing!

A few minutes later, Seth entered the farm and went straight into a wooden house west of the farm. The secret passage to the base was in the wooden house!

After entering the wooden house, Seth stood in front of a particular wall. The wall was shining with red light, scanning his eyes.

With a dull sound, the special walls were slowly separated, and a hidden door appeared.

Seth stepped into a small room, stood still, and was scanned by the red light again.

After confirming her identity, the floor of the room sank slowly, and a bright passage appeared.

Seth was about to enter it.

At this moment, a figure quietly appeared behind him like a ghost.

It was Finn Chen!

Finn seemed to appear out of nowhere. He grabbed Seth's head and twisted it. With a crack, Seth's neck was broken, and then Finn flashed into the passageway.

As Finn entered the passage, the heavy and solid entrance door of the underground path slowly closed.

"Finn Chen is coming! "

Simultaneously, in the monitoring room of the headquarters of RH Group, a killer in charge of monitoring saw Finn's figure on the screen. He was stunned, and then immediately took out the intercom and shouted in horror!

The solid hidden door was used to prevent outsiders from entering the headquarters, and the surveillance was set up to monitor the killers in the organization.

Because the killers were unsociable and bloodthirsty, they were not united as one. They would have conflicts, and they would fight fiercely. There had even been an example that one of them had killed another.

In addition to preventing killers from killing each other, another function of monitoring was to know killers' actions, including going out, training, and so on.

This was the first time that an outsider broke into the headquarters!

Because of this, the killer on duty in the monitoring room was stunned for a few seconds when he saw Finn enter the headquarters. Then he came to his senses from the shock and reported to Nakata in panic.

"What did you say? "

Nakata jumped up from the sofa in shock. He couldn't believe his ears.

"Mr. Nakata, Finn is here! He entered the passage!" In the monitoring room, the killer stared at the screen and reported in a trembling voice.

Nakata's face changed immediately!

"Hurry up! Ring the warning alarm!"

After a short period of trance, Nakata roared and gave instructions in a hurry.

"Yes! Mr. Nakata!"

In the monitoring room, the killer responded subconsciously and then went to sound the alarm.

For the RH Group, the alarm at the headquarters was not set to prevent the enemy from attacking but gather all the killers immediately. As long as the alarm rang, all the killers could hear it first, and then they would wait for the instructions.

Finn had arrived at the hall of the headquarters.

For ordinary people, a base like the headquarters would be very mysterious and even inconceivable, but Finn was not surprised at all.

The hall was empty, and no one could be seen. Finn looked at a building like a warehouse near the hall and saw the words "shooting room" at the entrance.

Finn moved quickly and rushed to the shooting room.

When Finn came to the shooting room door, the piercing alarm rang out loudly, and it resounded through the whole headquarters.

"What happened?"

In the shooting room, several killers had just finished training. They took off their headphones and were stunned when they heard the sudden alarm.

Because in their memory, the alarm of the headquarters had never sounded!

Finn pushed the door open and appeared in front of several killers.

"Uh..."

Although the killers hadn't met Finn before, they had seen the photos. They remembered the appearance of Finn and recognized him at first sight!

Finn's sudden appearance stunned the killers in the shooting room as if they had hit a ghost.

At this moment, they even doubted if they had an illusion. Otherwise, how could Finn come here?

Illusion?

"Da! Da! Da!"

What responded to them was a burst of rapid gunshots.

Finn took the MP5 gun on the shelf beside the shooting room's door, quickly loaded the cartridge, and pulled the trigger. The bullets whizzed out one by one and instantly hit several killers, making them fall with blood.

The sharp pain told them that it was just Finn, not illusion, but there were still shocked and disbelief on their faces until they died.

"Finn is coming! He wants to wash this place with blood. Everyone pick up the weapons and fight with him!"

At this moment, including Koji, the leader, all the other killers clearly heard Nakata's roar.

"Uh..."

Hearing Nakata's roar, everyone, including Koji, was stunned.

"Everyone, follow the order right now! Hurry up!"

Immediately, Koji came to his senses and roared at the same time.

Since he failed to set up a trap to kill Finn, he couldn't sleep or eat well. He even held a meeting just now and made all kinds of arrangements. However, Finn still came!

This made him feel great fear after a short shock.

However——

Although he was scared, he was very clear about the purpose of Finn's coming-- to massacre them all!

Therefore, even though he knew that his killers were no match for Finn, he didn't want to sit still and wait for death.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 581 RH Group's Doom

With the Koji's order, the whole headquarters was in chaos!

Whether it was the killers resting in their own rooms, taking a bath in the hot spring, or drinking in the bar, they immediately picked up the weapons around them and were ready to fight.

At the same time, after killing the killers in the shooting room, Finn took out a submachine gun and left the shooting room, going to the gym.

In the gym, the four killers all stopped exercising. They hid on both sides of the gym entrance, ready to fight after Finn entered.

They had received brutal training and their hands were stained with blood, but now their faces were full of horror and uneasiness, and even some people's bodies were trembling.

All this was because they had already heard a lot about Finn. Especially Finn had killed John and Yoshimasa last night, which shocked the whole underground world and the world of martial arts and completely frightened them!

Bang!

Soon, while the killers were waiting nervously, Finn kicked open the door of the gym.

"Swoosh!" "Swoosh!" "Swoosh!" "Swoosh!"

Almost at the same time, the four killers rushed to Finn.

Finn stepped back, turned around and kicked them, as if he had prepared this.

The spinning kick!

Bang!

The two killers at the front were directly knocked out. Their heads were broken and they were instantly killed.

The other two killers were a little far away, but they were frightened. Finn pulled the trigger and shot them.

After that, Finn walked into the gym. After making sure that there was no one else, he turned around and walked towards the third room.

Under the light, he looked calm. His steps were steady and powerful. The footsteps echoed in the corridor, like the devil sound from hell, impacting everyone's mind, making everyone feel creepy.

"Da! Da! Da!"

Then, every time the footsteps disappeared, there would be gunshots.

Every time there was a gunshot, someone would die.

Just like Finn broke into Miyamoto's family, this was a massacre!

The killers could not pose any threat to Finn, nor could they even resist. They were like a group of lambs, slaughtered by Finn.

Finn passed by one room after another, and the killers died one after another.

Ten minutes later, Finn came to the last room.

In the room, Koji sat on the sofa, as if he was waiting for Finn. There was no fear on his face, but only anger and crazy hatred!

"I've already told Lord Amaterasu that you're here. Lord Amaterasu and Mr. Hanzo will be here soon. You're going to meet your doom!"

"I will give them a surprise, but unfortunately, you can't see it!"

Finn smiled and raised his hand, aiming at Koji.

"What do you..."

Koji realized something, but before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by a gunshot.

Koji's head was pierced by the bullet, and he fell on the sofa.

The blood stained his face, but his face was filled with horror.

After Finn shot Koji's head, there was no one living in the headquarters.

After that, Finn threw away his mp5a1 submachine gun and walked towards the armory.

There was something he needed there.

Meanwhile, in the ancestral land of Miyamoto's family, Hanzo received another call.

It was from Koji, the leader of RH Group. Koji told him that Finn had sneaked into the headquarters of RH Group and was killing their members. The RH Group was unable to stop Finn at all.

Besides, Koji asked Hanzo to get to Hokkaido as soon as possible to catch Finn.

After hanging up the phone, Hanzo didn't get angry. He was surprisingly calm.

He directly called the head of the Ninja Hall, Aoki.

"Mr. Aoki, I just received a call from Koji. He told me that the bastard Finn had arrived in Hokkaido and sneaked into the headquarters of RH Group." As soon as the phone was connected, Hanzo went straight to the point.

The Ninja Hall belonged to RH Group, but it was also independent of the group. It was a special place for training Ninja.

Aoki's face immediately changed!

He had already known that Finn had killed Yoshimasa and John and massacred Miyamoto's family last night. But he didn't receive any message from the headquarter.

All this shocked him.

"Is Mr. Koji...okay?" Aoki took a deep breath. Although he guessed that the situation was very likely to be bad, he still had the last hope. After all, Koji was the highest leader of the RH Group.

Hanzo sighed, "as far as I know about Finn, I'm afraid that Koji has been killed."

"What's your plan, Mr. Miyamoto?"

After the shock, Aoki asked.

"You don't have to go there. "

"You might be the next target of that bastard," Hanzo said in a deep voice.

Finn would definitely kill all the people who kidnapped Wendy.

Now that RH Group was destroyed, Finn would definitely regard Ninja Hall as the next target.

"We?"

Aoki was shocked.

"Yes, it might be you," Hanzo said firmly.

"So, what should we do?" Aoki was a little flustered. Although the members of Ninja Hall were all skilled Ninjas, they were no match for Finn.

If Finn really came to find them, then they would all be killed.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 582

Retreat

"Don't worry. You'd better withdraw with your men right now. Lord Amaterasu and I are coming to Hokkaido!" Hanzo said.

Aoki was shocked again. Hanzo and Amaterasu were both skilled warriors on the divine list. Amaterasu ranked eighteenth, and Hanzo ranked thirty-eighth.

It was a piece of cake for these two peerless masters to kill Finn, a bastard at the same level as a Higher Ninja.

"Yes, sir! I'll lead my men to withdraw." Aoki took the order immediately.

After hanging up the phone, Aoki led the Ninjas in Ninja Hall to leave, while Hanzo called Amaterasu again.

"Lord, I just received a call from Koji, the leader of RH Group. He told me that Finn had arrived at Hokkaido and broke into their headquarters!" Hanzo told the truth.

"Didn't you notice that?" Amaterasu was angry.

What a provocation Finn's action was!

All this made Amaterasu very angry, and he was also dissatisfied with Hanzo's ability.

"Lord, you know that he has the power to kill John and Yoshimasa! It's difficult to find him for, let alone ordinary people, even Ninjas, and the official agents." Hanzo sighed.

Amaterasu was speechless.

Although he was annoyed and dissatisfied, he knew what Hanzo said was true.

Although Finn was only at the early stage of a Higher Ninja, it was difficult for the intelligence officers to know his location.

"Lord, we have the chance to kill him now!" Hanzo suddenly said.

"How?" Amaterasu asked with a frown. He also wanted to cut Finn into pieces at once, but he had to find Finn first.

"He is a person with a strong sense of revenge. He sneaked into Hokkaido to revenge!"

With a sullen face, Hanzo continued, "now that he has massacred the headquarters of RH Group, he will definitely attack the Ninja Hall!"

"Oh?"

Amaterasu agreed with Hanzo's judgment, but at the same time, he was a little worried.

Ninja Hall was the main force of RH Group, so its destruction would make RH Group, the leading forces in the underground world of Country J, become the history.

"Don't worry, Lord. I have informed Aoki to leave there."

Hanzo knew Amaterasu's worries, so he quickly added, "I have also contacted the government. They will send a fighter to send us to Hokkaido. It will only take an hour. After we arrive at Hokkaido, we go to Ninja Hall and wait for that bastard! "

"Good idea!"

Amaterasu agreed with the suggestion.

He knew that this was the best opportunity to kill Finn. Otherwise, it would be tough to find out Finn.

The headquarters of Ninja Hall was rebuilt from an abandoned factory. It was located in the middle of Hokkaido, with a mountain at the back. There were many complex terrains nearby, such as snow, jungle, mountains, and so on. It was very suitable for the training of Ninja.

Compared to the headquarters of RH Group, the center of Ninja Hall was a little shabby. There was only a three-floor building in the headquarters for rest and dining, and the rest was changed to the training ground.

The headquarters was brightly lit in the evening, but there was no one in the vast headquarters. All the Ninjas left.

Aoki was waiting for the arrival of Hanzo and Amaterasu in a hotel five kilometers away from the headquarters.

Aoki also monitored the situation of the headquarters through the network.

In the headquarters, except for the resting room, other places were covered with surveillance cameras. Not to mention a living person, even a rabbit would be found if it entered.

Their purpose was clear, to confirm whether Finn would appear.

Simultaneously, a few hundred meters away from the headquarters, Finn carefully looked at the headquarters with a particular observation device.

The result of his observation was the same as he had expected - the news that he had massacred the members of the headquarters of RH Group was spread out and alarmed the enemy, which scared all the members of Ninja Hall to retreat.

After making sure that there was no one in the headquarters, Finn immediately carried a high-power signal blocker, and then took a heavy box, lurking towards the headquarters.

A moment later, Finn came to a place nearly one hundred meters away from the headquarters. He turned on the high-power signal blocker, and then exerted his speed to the extreme. Like a phantom, he rushed to the headquarters.

In the hotel a few kilometers away, the computer screen in front of four Ninjas, who was in charge of monitoring the headquarters, was blue at the same time, and no scene could be seen.

"Damn it! The signal is disturbed!"

The sudden scene shocked the four Ninjas, and one of them shouted.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 583 The Signal Is Disturbed!

"Is it possible that Finn sneaked into the base and used a high-power signal blocker?" Another Ninja made such a judgment.

"No matter what the reason is, we have to report this to Mr. Aoki first."

Another Ninja said. He was the person in charge of the monitoring team.

He immediately took out his intercom and shouted, "Mr. Aoki, there is an emergency report from the monitoring team."

"What happened?"

Aoki quickly responded. In such a special period, he kept the intercom on and could receive reports from his subordinates at any time.

"The signal is disturbed. It was very likely that Finn sneaked into the base with a high-power signal blocker!" The Ninja in charge of the monitoring team reported in a hurry.

"I'll be right there!"

Aoki's face changed. He immediately walked out of the room and rushed to the monitoring room.

Half a minute later, when Aoki came downstairs to the monitoring room, the four Ninja were surprised to find that the monitoring screen returned to normal.

"Mr. Aoki, the picture has just returned to normal." The Ninja in charge of the monitoring team reported.

"Did you find anything unusual?" Aoki frowned and asked.

"No."

"How long has the monitoring screen been off?" Aoki asked again.

"Less than a minute."

The Ninja in charge of the monitoring team immediately reported and then made his own judgment, "it should be impossible for Finn to sneak into the base."

"Why?"

"The reason why he sneaked into the base is to kill us."

The Ninja in charge of the monitoring team said. "What he needs to do is to find us first. The base is so big that he can't search the whole base in less than a minute. So I think it was an accident, not Finn sneaking into the base. "

"Is it possible that he withdrew after entering the base?" Aoki frowned and felt a little worried. How could the signal be cut off for no reason?

“Mr. Aoki, our monitoring range is one hundred meters around the base. Except for the room where we rest, there is no blind area. Even if he doesn’t search the whole base, it’s impossible to just go from the east to the west, or from the west to the east.” Another Ninja said.

“Mr. Aoki, Lord Amaterasu, and Mr. Miyamoto are here!”

Someone reported.

“Everyone, go downstairs to welcome Lord Amaterasu and Mr. Miyamoto!”

Aoki glanced at the screen again and then left.

He had to show his respect to Amaterasu and Hanzo.

As soon as Murry gave the order, the thirty Ninjas took action. It took them less than a minute to arrive at the downstairs of the hotel.

They stood there straight, motionless, divided into two teams to welcome Amaterasu and Hanzo’s arrivals.

Soon, an armed helicopter came.

Whoosh!

A figure flashed out of the helicopter before the helicopter landed.

It was the Amaterasu, followed by Hanzo!

“Lord Amaterasu, Mr. Miyamoto!”

When they jumped off the plane and steadily landed on the ground, Aoki bowed to them, and the admiration and awe in his eyes were undisguised.

“Did Finn enter your headquarters?”

Amaterasu asked the most crucial question. He was clear that this would determine whether the plan of killing Finn could be carried out smoothly.

“Lord, since we left the base, we have been monitoring the base all the time. We didn’t find Finn sneaked into the base.”

Aoki reported. He had accepted his subordinate’s judgment and did not mention that the monitoring screen had been disturbed for less than a minute.

After all, in Aoki’s opinion, Amaterasu was practicing martial arts, so he didn’t know much about such technology equipment. He only cared about the result, not any analysis or judgment.

“Okay, let’s go to the headquarters right now!”

Amaterasu immediately gave instructions.

Meanwhile, Finn squatted beside a big tree on a hillside behind the headquarters, waiting patiently like a hunter hunting.

Since Amaterasu and his fellows regarded Finn as their prey, Finn would like to respond in kind.

It was late at night. The night wind blew off the snowflakes on the tree. The snowflakes danced with the wind and sprinkled into the forest.

Finn squatted there, staring at the entrance of the headquarters, waiting quietly.

After a long time, several cars appeared and headed for the entrance. The car lights were bright, reflecting the road.

"Finally!" Finn breathed a sigh of relief, knowing that he had made the right judgment.

He knew the news for his massacre would be spread, and Ninja Hall wouldn't wait for his coming in their headquarters, and they would ask for Amaterasu and Hanzo's help.

Since they were bound to come here, Finn could make some traps inside.

Now, everything was going as he expected.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 584 The Power of A Master in Transform Period

Soon, those cars drove into the headquarter one after another and stopped in front of the headquarter.

A Ninja got off the car and walked quickly to open the door for Amaterasu.

In the car, Amaterasu opened his eyes, but didn't get off the car immediately. Instead, he carefully felt everything around him. He didn't get off the car until a few seconds later.

After Amaterasu got off the car, Hanzo followed him.

The appearance of the two people was naturally seen by Finn in the distance with a monitor device.

Finn wasn't surprised that Hanzo would come. After all, he had been massacred Hanzo's family.

What made Finn surprised was Amaterasu, one of the Hidden People's Association leaders, a peerless master ranked eighteen on the divine list.

The arrival of such a peerless master made Finn feel a lot of pressure.

But now the arrow was on the string, so he had to shoot it.

"Take me to the fighting room. Once the Martial Artist from Country C sneaks into the base, report to me immediately." Amaterasu said to Aoki.

Aoki nodded and then said to his subordinates, "follow the plan and get ready. Once the monitoring team finds that Finn has sneaked in, report immediately."

"Yes, sir!"

Those Ninjas took the order.

Aoki walked to the fighting room with Amaterasu and Hanzo. The other Ninja walked into the building.

Finn put down the monitor device in his hand and then calculated the walking speed of the three. He silently figured the time when the three arrived at the fighting room.

"Ten, nine, eight, seven..."

Finn secretly counted. When he read the number one, he picked up the remote control.

At the same time, the three entered the fighting room, just as Finn had expected.

Huh?

When Amaterasu entered the fighting room, he suddenly felt uneasy.

This was a kind of inexplicable uneasiness, and it was also a warning of danger -- when one practiced his martial arts to such a level, he had a sense of crisis beyond ordinary people's imagination!

Hanzo also frowned. Although his warning of danger was not as strong as that of Amaterasu, he still felt uncomfortable.

"Lord Amaterasu, you..."

Noticing Amaterasu's abnormality, Aoki asked in confusion.

Whoosh!

However——

Before Aoki could finish his words, Amaterasu flashed and rushed out of the fighting room decisively.

Hanzo was also shocked and hurried to follow Amaterasu.

On the hillside, Finn decisively pressed the red button of the remote control, detonating the C4 bomb placed in advance in the fighting room and the main building.

The power of the C4 bomb was great, and because of its strong concealment, the military in every country was strictly forbidden to use it in private, even more precisely than the control of drugs.

Even though the soul suppressing organization, the number one killer organization in Country J, didn't store many C4 explosives in the armory, it was enough for Finn.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

As Finn pressed the remote-control trigger, the explosion of C4, which was placed in the fighting room and the main building in advance by Finn, almost exploded at the same time. The sound resounded through the sky. The vast shock wave took the explosion point as the center and rushed around, instantly demolishing the fighting room and the main building.

In the main building, the twenty warriors of Ninja Hall were ruined by the terrible shock wave without any reaction. Their bodies were buried in the ruins.

In the fighting room, so did Aoki.

Before he could finish his words, he saw Amaterasu and Hanzo rushing towards the door. He was confused, but before he could figure out what was going on, he was blown into pieces.

Although Amaterasu and Hanzo felt something was wrong and rushed out of the door, it was too late!

After the explosion, there would be a chemical reaction. The compound would disintegrate and produce many kinds of gases, forming high heat. The gases would expand rapidly under tremendous pressure, faster than sound speed, and thus create a strong shock wave.

Although Amaterasu and Hanzo rushed out of the fighting room and covered their bodies' essential parts by hands, such as their hearts and heads. They were still sent flying by the terrible shock wave. Their limbs instantly exploded, and they fell to the ground with blood and flesh, buried by the pieces of the building.

"A master at the peak of the Transform Period is really terrifying."

On the hillside, Finn saw through the monitor that Amaterasu and Hanzo survive. He couldn't help but sigh. Finn felt lucky that he was careful enough not to stare at the two people all the time. Otherwise, with the two people's great vigilance, they might have found Finn and escaped from such a disaster.

Finn moved quickly towards the headquarters.

Soon, he entered the headquarters.

Finn quickly came to the fighting room. He saw Hanzo and Amaterasu there.

At this time, Hanzo was on the verge of death, falling into a severe coma.

Amaterasu's wound was slighter than Hanzo, but not so much.

"Ah..."

The sharp pain made Amaterasu wake up from a coma. He struggled instinctively and screamed.

Finn walked over and pushed the pieces of building away on Amaterasu's body. What he saw was Amaterasu's head and body without limbs.

Amaterasu wriggled violently like a bloody worm.

Although he dodged with his astonishing vigilance and saved his life, he lost his limbs. If he did not deal with the injury in time, he would die soon.

"It's really out of my expectation that you are still alive." Finn looked down at Amaterasu.

"Bastard..."

Amaterasu looked at Finn with hatred. His face twisted, and his tone was aggressive, but his voice was weak.

At this moment, he didn't even have the energy to speak.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 585 More Terrible than Death

"Are you surprised? You never dreamed that you would die in my hands?"

"Finn smiled faintly. His original goal was to kill Hanzo Miyamoto, a peerless master at the Transformed Period's late stage. In his opinion, he would make a fortune by killing him.

But to his surprise, he caught a bigger fish than the Imperial Palace, the heaven illuminating force field!

He is the leader of the Hidden People's Association.

He was the eighteenth strongest warrior on the global God list!

In Country C, Muno Amaterasu was in charge of the supergiant like Tomei Guan.

But now.

"Ah! Kill me! "

Muno Amaterasu roared angrily. He was not reconciled. He was extremely unwilling!

He is the best one in the field of martial arts in Country J!

He could even be promoted to a master in a few more years and achieve eternal success!

But now, he was humiliated like this by a Martial Artist in the early stage of the Transformed Period. He would rather die!

"Kill you?" Finn Chen said, "killing you is too easy for you with a playful smile at the corners of his mouth."

"What are you doing? "Looking at Finn's playful expression, suddenly became scared.

"I will let you live."

With a slight smile, Finn picked up Transformed Period, who was almost reduced to a mass of flesh and blood, and quickly rushed to the medical room of the headquarters of the hall of tolerance. He found out the medical rescue equipment and began to save the life of Jeff.

"Kill me, you bastard! "

Seeing Finn stop bleeding and deal with his wound, Jeff struggled violently and roared with his internal power, but his voice was still very low.

Finn helped Muno Amaterasu with his wound and said indifferently, "I was going to kill you, but I suddenly changed my mind later."

"For a peerless master like you, I'm afraid it's more painful to live in such a state than to die,"

"After I deal with your injuries, I will take photos and post them on the martial arts forum. I want to show the Martial Artist all over the world that the Divine List's embarrassed eighteenth strongest warrior. That must be a sensation."

At this moment, Finn's tone was surprisingly calm. Indeed, as he said, killing Muno Amaterasu was not the best choice.

Muno Amaterasu had been disabled.

For a peerless master like him, it was better to be killed than to live on.

Moreover, if she posted the picture of Muno Amaterasu's disabled body on the martial arts forum, it would give Hidden People's s Association a big blow.

As expected, in the next few years, the whole Hidden People's Association would never raise its head in front of the global Martial Artist.

"You bastard! You killed me!

Even though he was the eighteenth strongest warrior on the Dive List and had a strong will of martial arts, he still couldn't accept such an outcome.

He couldn't imagine what would happen if his current appearance spread to the outside world!

His mind directly collapsed, and he wished he could immediately tear Finn into pieces.

However, at this moment, he couldn't even commit suicide, let alone kill Finn.

Finn didn't reply to Muno Amaterasu. Instead, he quickly processed his injuries and took pictures of him, as he said before.

"The patrolmen will come soon. They will send you to the hospital as soon as possible and save you completely."

Finn put away his phone and smiled at Jeff.

In the eyes of Jeff, that smile was like a demon's smile!

He suddenly felt that it was a huge mistake to kill Finn in person!

After taking photos for Jeff, Finn also took some photos for the imperial household register.

However, the actual controller of the QS Chamber of Commerce was not as lucky as Muno Amaterasu. Finn killed him directly.

Just as Finn had expected, not long after he left the headquarters of the hall, a dozen patrol cars roared to the hall's headquarters. Also, there was a black Falcon helicopter.

There were two reasons why the patrolmen acted so fast.

First, Muno Amaterasu and Ben took the official plane to Hokkaido. The patrolmen knew the plan of killing Finn in the headquarters of the hall of tolerance.

Second, Finn made too much noise!

The bomb exploded, and the flames soared into the sky, did not only many people in their dreams wake up, but also the patrolmen of Hokkaido!

What happened?

All the patrolmen rushed to the headquarters of the hall of tolerance with doubts.

According to Muno Amaterasu's plan, he and Hanzo Miyamoto would kill Finn in person instead of using modern weapons.

With such doubts, when they entered the headquarters of the hall of tolerance and saw the three-floor building and the fighting room that had been reduced to ruins, they were all stunned.

Everyone was shocked beyond words!

Although they didn't know what had happened, it must be Finn who had done it!

"Everyone, listen to me. Search the base immediately to see if anyone is still alive."

The second in command of the Hokkaido patrol adjusted his mood and gave the order.

"Yes, sir!"

Hearing this, nearly a thousand patrolmen came back to their senses from shock and loudly took the order.

As soon as he finished speaking, they scattered and began to search according to the instructions of the second in command of Hokkaido's patrol.

In light of the base, they could see the undisguised fear on their faces.

They were frightened by Finn's means!

They were more afraid that Finn hadn't left yet. With Finn's strength, killing them was as easy as killing chickens!

"Sir, we found the Lord of the heaven illuminating force in the medical room. His limbs have been lost, but his injury has been simply treated. He is still alive!"

After a while, the patrolman who went to the medical room found the heaven illuminating force and immediately reported it.

Hearing the report, the second in command of the patrolmen from Hokkaido hurried to the medical room.

"Uh."

Although the second in command of Hokkaido's patrolmen had heard from his subordinates that Munō Amaterasu's limbs had been lost, he was still stunned when he saw the appearance of him.

Lying on the medical room's bed, Munō Amaterasu, who was known as the most powerful master of the sun Kingdom, was covered in blood all over his body. The blood and dust clung together. At first glance, he looked like a black mass of flesh and blood.

Although the wounds on his limbs were stopped and bandaged with gauze, the blood did not stop completely. The gauze was dyed red.

He no longer looked like a peerless master. His eyes were glassy as if he was a living dead man.

"Master heaven illuminating soul, what happened here?" After the shock, the second in command of Hokkaido couldn't help but ask.

"Kill me!"

Munō Amaterasu didn't respond to the second in command of the Hokkaido detective. Instead, he turned to look at him and pleaded in a hoarse voice.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 586

Maximum Combat Effectiveness

"Er."

Muno Amaterasu's response made Hokkaido's second leader stun again, and he asked, "Lord Muno Amaterasu, did Finn Cheng blow up the base and hurt you?"

"Kill me!"

Muno Amaterasu was still seeking death, but he is no longer pleading, but full of anger, and his expression was particularly ferocious.

"Report to the section chief; we have found the body of President Muno Amaterasu on the other side. Also, there is no one in the base, and even the body can not be found. We suspect that all the others died in the explosion."

All of a sudden, instructions from the superior came out of the walkie talkie.

"Send Muno Amaterasu to the hospital immediately."

Listening to the report, Hokkaido's second leader waved his heart, he pondered for a moment, direct made instructions.

In his opinion, Muno Amaterasu was bombed to death!

He no longer paid attention to Muno Amaterasu, turned out of the medical room, and then reported to the superior.

A few minutes later, the patrol car roared away from the headquarters.

Meanwhile, in Tokyo, in the ancestral house of the Amaterasu's Family.

As the head of the Amaterasu's ss Family, Arnold Amaterasu had not yet learned what happened in Hokkaido, but his heart is full of anxiety.

Because, in the past hour, he had been trying to contact the headquarters of the tolerance hall, but it had not been successful - the phone is completely blocked!

"Did you fail?"

In addition to uneasiness, a terrible thought emerged in Arnold Amaterasu's mind.

For him and the whole Amaterasu's Family, Muno Amaterasu is the most important inside story and also the only hope of killing Finn. If he had an accident, it would be a nightmare for Amaterasu's Family!

"No way! My brother is stronger, and none could kill him in Country C! "

Soon, Arnold Amaterasu shook his head again. Muno Amaterasu is the most influential person except the grandmaster in Country J. He didn't believe that Finn could kill him!

"Hum."

As Amaterasu's voice fell, the phone vibrated, breaking the silence in the room.

Amaterasu took out his cell phone and found that it was not from the Nindo headquarters.

The owner of the call is Murakami Sato, the leader of the patrol in Country J!

This discovery made Arnold Amaterasu startled at first, and then a heart hung in his throat again, and the anxiety in his heart rose linearly.

"Huh."

Arnold took a deep breath, settled, and then connected the phone, "Hello, Lord Sato."

"Mr. Amaterasu, do you know what happened in Hokkaido?"

Sato Murakami asked, with a complicated tone. He knew Amaterasu Takeno's plan, but he did not expect Finn to come back.

"What happened?" Arnold asked subconsciously, holding his breath so nervously.

"Finn bombed the RT Hall's headquarters. Except for your brother, everyone else died in the explosion. Although your brother was alive, his limbs were blown up, and he was unconscious. He kept letting my people kill him. ." Murakami told Amaterasu about the report he just received.

"what?!"

Arnold was stunned.

Although he couldn't reach the RT Hall's headquarters just now and received a call from Sato Murakami, he was distraught and thought that something might happen in Hokkaido. Still, he was dumbfounded when he heard Sato Murakami's words!

Because this result was worse than he had imagined, it was so fucking absurd!

"Mr. Amaterasu, I deeply sympathize with this."

Sato Murakami sighed. He knew what Amaterasu Takeno meant to the Amaterasu family.

"How could this be?!"

Arnold couldn't accept this fact, he asked subconsciously, not knowing whether he was asking Sato Murakami or himself.

"According to our preliminary judgment, Finn should have obtained explosives from the headquarters of the Ninja Organization after the bloodbath, and then took advantage of the time when your people left the Nindo headquarters, and placed the explosives in the RT Hall's headquarters, and waited until your brother. After taking the people back to the RT Hall's headquarters, the bomb was detonated." Sato Murakami said.

Hearing Sato Murakami's words again, Arnold shook his body and shook his hand, almost throwing the phone out.

Then, he sat on the ground feebly.

Even Sato Murakami knew what Muno Amaterasu meant to the Amaterasu family, let alone himself?

He knew better than anyone what it would be if Amaterasu's Family lost his brother.

"I'm going to kill that crap!"

It took half a minute for Arnold to recover from the considerable blow. He seemed to be crazy and roared with a ferocious expression.

"Mr. Amaterasu, please calm down. Once your brother is dead, only a few leaders can kill him in Japan, but those leaders probably won't take action."

Murakami said that he also hopes to get rid of Finn as soon as possible. Otherwise, he couldn't predict what will happen next.

It would be a disaster for the entire country to let a master of chemistry proficient in modern weapons run rampant in Country J.

Arnold was silent. He knew that Murakami was telling the truth.

"Of course, there is another way to get Killer's Group in Hidden People's Association to dispatch."

Murakami spoke again and suggested, "Although the Finn has terrifying combat power and rich experience in special operations, if the Killer's Group encircles and suppresses him on a large scale, he can still be killed. But doing so will inevitably lead to A lot of Ninja casualties, and it will cause a huge sensation."

The Killer's Group of Hidden People's Association?

Amaterasu's pupils shrank. It was the most powerful organization in Japan. All members in the battle hall are Martial Artists, and they were equipped with modern weapons. On weekdays, these people will never be dispatched.

Generally speaking, these people would be dispatched when Japan encounters an irresistible major disaster.

If the Killer's Group in Hidden People's Association battle hall is dispatched to deal with Finn, the field of martial arts in Country J will inevitably fall into turmoil.

It's just that he can't think about that much now.

Soon, Arnold gritted his teeth and decided: "No matter how much the price is paid, I will kill the crap!"

"Then you find Killer's Group in Hidden People's Association as soon as possible, and I will also greet the people in the Hidden People's Association's battle hall. I think the people in the Hidden People's Association's battle hall don't want it either. That Finn continues to live, as long as you pay a certain price, they will help you kill Finn."

Murakami said: "After all if that Finn leaves Japan alive, it will be Japan's biggest shame in decades!"

"It is good!"

Arnold responded and immediately contacted the people in the battle hall of the Hidden People's Association.

An hour later, an emergency meeting was held in the Hidden People's Association's battle hall.

The meeting lasted only half an hour, and all parties reached an agreement.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 587 Full Pursuit

"Kill Finn Chen at all costs and never let him leave Country J alive."

This was the final decision of the meeting.

The first time killed one person with one country's forces in Country J's history.

After made the decision, the Head of the hidden people's Association immediately ordered the police in Hokkaido to block all major airports and ports, strictly inspect highways and railway stations at all levels to form a tight blockade network and prohibit Finn from fleeing Hokkaido.

Also, to defend the field of military arts / the military arts world and the dignity of the whole country, Arnold Amaterasu took a fighter plane to Hokkaido for the first time.

According to the plan of the hidden people's Association's battle hall, if they could, they decided to kill Finn at the lowest cost. They used the martial artist of the war hall to surround Finn and then Arnold Amaterasu, who was in the later stage of the Transformed Period.

After zero, a chariot roared on Hokkaido's streets and roads, just like a first-class alert posture.

A warehouse in Hokkaido. Finn looked at the cars coming in and out. Through observation, he found that the vehicles for picking up goods mainly went to the airport and the pier, among which the cars carrying heavy goods went to the pier, while the light and small goods went to the airport.

After making this clear, Finn took out his spare mobile phone and found a string of numbers sent by Martin Hu, which, according to Martin, is the phone number of Arnold Amaterasu.

As soon as Muno Amaterasu died, his brother in charge of encircling and suppressing Finn.

After suffering from the destruction of RT Hall and the heavy injury of Muno Amaterasu, Arnold Amaterasu turned his grief into hatred. He asked the hidden people's Association war hall to encircle Finn at a high cost.

After learning that the meeting had made a decision, he did not fall asleep. Instead, he sat in the study of his ancestral home, waiting for Finn's news.

As a result, he waited for a strange call.

"Hello, who is it?"

Looking at the strange call, Arnold Amaterasu was stunned, and then connected the phone.

"Arnold Amaterasu, are you satisfied with my surprise?" Said Finn with a smile.

"Finn?"

Stunned to hear Finn's words, Arnold Amaterasu was stunned again, and then judged the identity of Chen Feng. He stood up from his seat and said, "you don't need to be arrogant, you're dead!"

"Is it?"

Finn laughed scornfully. "Before I came to Country J, you carefully arranged the killing game and thought I was dead. As a result, I killed everyone. After that, Hanzo Miyamoto and Muno Amaterasu claimed to leave my life in Country J. As a result, I bloody washed Miyamoto's Family, the headquarters of the soul enduring organization, and the headquarters of the tolerance hall. I killed Hanzo Miyamoto and seriously injured Muno Amaterasu! This time, you say I'm dead. Do you think it's possible? "

"What? "

Like a sharp dagger, Finn's words pierced's heart, which made him shiver all over with internal power and was short of breath. Arnold Amaterasu didn't reply for a moment.

"Wash your neck and wait. I'll go to Tokyo to kill your dog and kill all the core members of Amaterasu's Family!" Finn cold channel.

"OK, bastard, I'm waiting for you to kill me!" Arnold Amaterasu has a face of hate, and its internal power is startled and angry.

He was very angry at Finn's arrogant attitude, and he wanted to put Finn to the bone and ashes immediately to vent his hatred, but he was also inexplicably frightened by Finn's words.

As Finn said, although the forces of the Hidden people's Association had deployed dense forces, no one could not guarantee the hidden people's If Finn escaped from Hokkaido and sneaks into Tokyo, Amaterasu's Family may face the disaster of extermination after the nightmare comes!

Instead of saying anything, Finn hung up and rushed to the warehouse in front of him this time. He quietly turned off his mobile phone and put it in a truck about to leave after starting.

He had already observed that the truck was loaded with light goods and was heading for the airport.

After all this, Finn, with his terrible speed, dodged to another truck loaded with heavy goods and ready to go to Hokkaido port. Then he hid on the bottom, tied his seat belt to the bottom of the car, and grasped the accessories at the bottom of the car with both hands to ensure that his body kept a certain safety distance from the ground.

Soon, the truck heading for the airport took the lead out of the warehouse yard, followed by the van where Chen Feng was hiding, and the two trucks left in opposite directions.

Although Finn told Arnold Amaterasu that he would go to Tokyo, he didn't want to go to Tokyo to kill Arnold Amaterasu.

Because he had seen more than one chariot before, he knew that the Hidden people's Association, the highest combat power organization in Country J, had been launched.

In such a situation, Arnold Amaterasu must leave Country J immediately or face the encirclement and suppression of the whole war Hall of the hidden people's Association, which is an extremely dangerous thing!

It is no longer feasible for him to leave Country J by plane with a fake identity. The only way is to take a boat.

And he got in touch with Martin Hu and learned that at 3:00 a.m., a freighter would set off from Hokkaido port to Pusan port in Korea.

To avoid a long night's dream, he planned to take the freighter to leave, but he had to take transportation because of the tight time.

Therefore, the purpose of calling Arnold Amaterasu is to confuse the enemy and make the enemy mistakenly think that he will not leave. At the same time, he put his mobile phone on the truck to the airport, deliberately attracting the attention of the hidden people's Association war hall and the patrolmen, thus disturbing the sight again.

Indeed.

Tokyo, in the ancestral home of Amaterasu's Family.

Arnold Amaterasu, who ended the conversation with Finn, called Murakami Sato, the first leader of Patrol house in Country J.

"Mr. Sato, I just received the phone call from that bastard. He threatened to come to Tokyo to kill me!" When the telephone was connected, Arnold Amaterasu was the first to speak and went straight to the theme.

"What? "

Stunned to hear the words of Arnold Amaterasu, Murakami Sato was not surprised, "he is also too arrogant?"

"Yes, he didn't pay any attention to the Hidden people's Association and your patrols!" Said Murakami Sato.

"If he was not so arrogant, we still need some time to find him. Since he voluntarily exposes information, he is not far away from death!"

Murakami Sato said angrily, "Mr. Amaterasu, you send me the phone number and call time. I will locate the phone and contact the Head to encircle him."

"OK, Mr. Sato."

Arnold Amaterasu quickly gave a reply and then stopped talking. He hung up the phone directly and sent the mobile phone number and called time used by Finn to Murakami Sato.

Sato Murakami received the mobile phone number and calling time, immediately let the Information Department of in Country J located and tracked.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 588 The Darkness

"Mr. Sato, we've located the mobile phone. The signal is on its way to the airport, and according to the speed of the signal, it should be in a car."

Just a few minutes later, the Information Department reported to Murakami Sato, "in addition, we determined that the criminal was in the Hokkaido warehouse through positioning when the criminal was talking. If we are right, he should be hiding in a truck secretly to the airport

"I see."

After listening to the report, Murakami did not give any instructions, but called the tactical director of Killers' Group .

"Mr. Sato, the criminal just talked to Mr. Amaterasu and threatened that he would kill him in Tokyo."

The phone was quickly connected, and Murakami opened the door and said, "I have asked people to locate the mobile phone number. It is found that the criminal made a phone call in the warehouse. At the moment, the mobile phone is on a truck going to the airport. I suggest that a large number of troops should be mobilized to encircle the truck.

If the criminal really slaughters the truck, it's up to your battle hall to decide whether to kill the truck directly or to surround him temporarily and wait for Mr. Amaterasu to arrive. "

"Mr. Sato, do you think the criminal will deliberately expose his position for us to arrest?"

At the other end of the phone, Ban Ito, the tactical director of the Killer's Group: "you know, criminals are proficient in special operations and have a strong sense of anti reconnaissance. I'm sure he'll never be in the van going to the airport. "

"What do you mean?"

Murakami raised his eyebrow, he had considered this point, so did not rush to give orders.

"I think he is deliberately confusing us. What he really wants to go to is the port. Taking a boat is the only way for him to leave Country J."

"My suggestion is that we should not disturb our deployment because of the criminals' small means, and proceed according to the original plan. After all, we have enough troops at the airport and port to besiege and kill him

"Good!"

Murakami thought for a moment, agreed with Ito's suggestion, and then added: "however, I suggest that we first search the truck that was taken out of the warehouse at that time to make sure that he is not hidden in the car."

"Yes, this task is in the charge of your patrol!" Ito said.

"All right."

Murakami hesitated for a moment, or agreed to come down, and then directly hung up the phone, calls to give orders to his subordinates.

It had to be said that the speed in Country J's patrol is very fast.

Five minutes later, on the road leading to the port, more than a dozen patrol cars stopped the van where Finn Chen was hiding, which made the truck driver pale.

Dozens of heavily armed patrols, with police dogs, banned a rigorous search of the truck, but found nothing.

They searched carefully, and the whole process took half an hour.

Half an hour later, dozens of police officers left and the truck returned to the road.

A few hundred meters away from the road ahead, Finn hid behind a big tree. When he saw the truck coming, he ran to the top of his speed and caught up with the truck. Then he picked up the truck and got into it again.

He heard the siren of the patrol car before, so he left the truck for the first time to avoid the search of the patrol. Now he returns to the truck again because the patrol has carefully searched the truck.

In such a case, the next on the way to the port would not be stopped, searched, only to the toll station will be checked again.

At that time, it was very close to the port. He could leave the truck and sneak into the harbor on foot, avoiding the interception of the war hall and the police.

Sometimes, the most dangerous places were the safest one.

The so-called black under the light, that is it!

The war hall and the patrolling officers spent the night searching all the cars going to the port, as well as every cargo ship going to sea.

In addition, they also carried out a search on the lorry that went to the airport, and strictly examined the identity of every person entering the airport.

However, they didn't find Finn.

Finn seemed to have evaporated from Hokkaido.

As a result, the battle hall and the patrolmen were disgraced, and Arnold Amaterasu was scared. He was worried that the cruel words put down by Finn would become reality!

In fear, Arnold Amaterasu asked for protection from Kille's Group. Soon, it sent hundreds of Ninja to guard the ancestral house of Amaterasu's Family, waiting for Finn to kill him.

At the same time, the news that Finn killed Miyamoto's Family, the headquarters of RH Group and the headquarters of RT Hall were popular among the the world's martial arts circles.

"God, who can tell me how Finn did all this? It seems that he is at the beginning of the transformation. "

"Hanzo Miyamoto is the late stage of higher ninja, and Muno Amaterasu is the peak of higher ninja, who was the 18th in Dive List. It is reasonable to say that these two peerless strongmen have no reason to escape from Finn. As a result, Finn not only escaped, but also killed Hanzo Miyamoto, seriously injuring Muno Amaterasu. He was strong enough to be in the top ten of Divine List.

"it is impossible for him to do that, Finn is just in the early stage of Transformed Period."

"What about the fact that he killed Hanzo Miyamoto and severely disabled Muno Amaterasu?"

"Because he used explosives and was a sneak attack. He was caught by surprise. Now he absolutely does not have the strength to be in the top 10 of Divine List. He may have it in the future, but only if he can continue to live!"

"I don't think the process matters, the results matter. The result of Country J's kidnapping of the grandmaster's descendants is enough to prove that if Finn was equipped with sophisticated modern weapons, he would not be afraid of the top ten of the Divine List! "

The world's martial arts circles once again have a heated discussion about Finn's rebellious behavior. Many of them have a heated debate on whether Finn can compete with the top ten of the Divine List.

"According to reliable information, the war Hall of the hidden people's Association and the police have joined forces to encircle and suppress Finn, and he is bound to be killed in Country J!"

"The Killer's Group of the Hidden people's Association is the most powerful organization in Country J. Even if we look at the world, they are also the top organizations. I'm afraid that Finn is in danger."

"Yes, most of him will die in Japan. Besides the war Hall of the hidden people's Association, the police have also pursued him."

After the heated discussion and debate on Finn's feat in the global underground world and the martial arts circles, the news that the Killer's Group in Hidden People's Association and the patrolling officers jointly encircle and suppress Finn came out. They again shifted their attention and discussed whether Finn could leave Country J alive or not.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 589 The Wreaking

Even some well-known overseas betting institutions have opened a handicap for this. Among them, the probability of Finn Chen being able to escape from Japan is 1 to 5, and the odds of Finn dying in Japan are 1 to 4.

Judging from the odds, the bookmakers were not optimistic that Finn could leave Country J alive.

Because, in the history of humanity, there had never been a precedent that a person could survive from the joint encirclement of Killer's Group in Hidden People's Association and the patrol.

After all, they could work together to use modern weapons with great lethality, and they could also use human tactics. Even the peerless powerhouse on the Divine List could compete.

Just as the field of martial arts turned upside down because of Finn, a freighter arrived at Busan, Country K on time.

Finn left the freighter quietly and then left the port openly without attracting people's attention.

Half an hour later, he drove to a five-star hotel in Busan, checked in to a room, and then gave the hotel staff a great tip to help him buy clothes.

Finn entered the hotel room, took a hot bath comfortably, and booked a flight ticket back to Country C.

"Ding Dong."

After Finn had done all this, the doorbell rang.

Finn got up and opened the door. It was not the hotel staff who appeared in his sight but a group of heavily armed patrols, and there were many Martial Artists.

Because what Finn did in Country J has attracted global attention, all countries had mentioned his danger level to the SSS level, which was the most dangerous level!

After Finn registered in the hotel, Country K learned the news for the first time.

Seeing the full-armed patrols, Finn didn't show the slightest panic on his face, not even a hint of surprise; he had expected all this long ago.

"Mr. Patrol, I just use this as my transit point back to Country C. I never thought about what to do here, and you don't want me to do anything here, right?" Finn looked at the lead patrol, Said with a smile.

"Can I go in and chat with you?"

Finn's words sounded in his ears, the head of the patrol, stared at Finn for a few seconds and then said.

He was the Busan patrol leader, and the special people came not to capture Finn, but to find out the purpose of Finn's visit to Busan.

"of course."

Finn smiled and nodded, making an invitation gesture.

When the Busan patrol leader heard this, he gestured to the Group of heavily armed special patrols behind him, and those patrols retreated after seeing this.

"Mr. Chen, the first thing that needs to be stated is that you are not welcome for patrols in Busan and even Country K. I also believe that no patrol from any country in the world will welcome you." The Busan patrol leader entered the room and sat on the sofa with a calm face.

"Similarly, you don't want or want to be my enemy." Finn smiled.

"Yes!"

The Busan patrol leader admitted this with an ugly expression, "Because of this, I brought people to find you, not arrest you. We also don't have the ability. I just want to know the purpose of your coming to Busan, and also want to know you. When to leave."

"I just booked a ticket and will go to the airport soon," Finn said.

"Mr. Chen, to ensure that everything you say is true, I will let my subordinates follow you for the next two hours until you leave Busan. Do you think it is okay?" The Busan patrol leader spoke again.

Because, in his opinion, Finn was a God who cannot offend, but must be sent away as soon as possible.

"Yes." Finn agreed quickly.

"Thank you for your cooperation."

The Busan patrol leader stood up to thank him and then couldn't help but sigh, "To be honest, I am shocked that you can successfully escape from Japan. At the same time, I believe that once this news comes out, it will shock the world! Of course! Before you leave, I will not let my people spread the news.

"It's okay; I won't care. After all, this is Country K. Country J's patrols can't come here to encircle me, right?" Finn smiled indifferently.

"Although you are right, our Busan and even patrol in Country K don't want to get involved in any way. Well, Mr. Chen, goodbye, I hope we never meet again."

Hearing Finn's words and looking at Finn's indifferent smile, the Busan patrol leader felt inexplicably scared, he said and quickly left the room.

An hour later, Finn arrived at Busan International Airport in a suit and shoes and recorded a short video posted to the Budo Forum through Martin Hu.

"I am Finn from Country C. I am in Busan, Country K. I am responsible for certain things that happened in Japan in these two days."

"Everyone has a bottom line, and I am no exception-whoever touches my relatives and friends will be liquidated; those who commit my Country C will be punishable even though they are far away!!"

"This is my kind reminder to some people. If someone doesn't take my reminder to heart, imprint it in their mind, and do things with fire in the future, I promise that the tragedy in Country J will be staged in other countries!"

In the video, the young man who sneaked into Country J alone killed the underground world and the martial arts circles. He was surrounded and suppressed from the field of martial arts in Country J and the patrol, and left unscathed, standing on a Country C airline plane. Then he said those words calmly.

On this day, the whole Country J was shaken for the young man.

Finn was flying away from Country J silently!

Before that, he shot such a threatening video.

Humiliation!

This was a naked humiliation to the field of martial arts in Country J!

After the second battle, the field of martial arts in Country J would inevitably be nailed to the pillar of shame forever!

Killers' Group, which represented the highest combat power in Country J, had made joint patrols and hunted down a Martial Artist who was not in the early stage of transformation. Even let this Martial Artist escape from Country J!

It was made the field of martial arts in Country J to be a joke! Even for the martial arts around the world.

On the other hand, Finn had officially entered the sight of global powerhouses!

Although his strength was only in the early stage of the Transformed Period, he had set an extremely impressive record.

John Saito and Yoshimasa Chiba both were in the early stage of the Transformed Period, even Hanzo Miyamoto, who was in the last stage of the Transformed Period, all killed by Finn.

And the last one was ranked 38th on the global Divine List!

There was also another man, Muno Amaterasu, who was less powerful than Grand Master. He was the head of the Hidden People's Association, and he was ranked 18th on the Global Divine List!

Although Muno Amaterasu was not kill by Finn, he had to suffer a lot that was more than death.

He became a complete waste!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 590 Become Famous

The God of death!

He was the real God of death!

Finn Chen was a real God of death!

On the trip to the Country J, Finn killed nearly a hundred Martial Artists and hundreds of soul suppressing elites, in addition to the top masters like Hanzo Miyamoto, Muno Amaterasu, and the others. Because of him, GH Group forces vanished in the country for hundreds of years were destroyed.

From now on, there was no such a super underground force as the unbearable soul in Country J!

Also, the QS Chamber of Commerce, one of the five top Commerce of the Country J, existed in name.

Both Miyamoto's Family and Matsushima's Family, the song Island clan of the core clan of the QS Chamber of Commerce, had been destroyed by Finn!

Extremely dangerous!

And his talent was extraordinary!

The field of martial arts all commented on Finn!

After the battle, no one doubted the level of Finn.

He must be at the early stage of the Transformed Period at the age of twenty-five!

The news that Finn left Country J alive soon spread to all the martial arts clans.

When they saw Finn's performance, many martial arts families fell silent.

At this moment, everyone began to doubt Finn's real ability and his age again.

Was Finn twenty-five years old? Was he only at the early stage of the Transformed Period?

Was he an old monster in human skin?

Perhaps, he had reached the late-stage of the peak of the Transformed Period?

All in all, no matter what, none of these martial arts clans believed in Finn's performance.

It was inconceivable that he had killed two powerful warriors on the Divine List.

"Let them come back. Don't challenge that, Finn."

Soon, the martial arts family leaders called back those who had been sent out to challenge Finn.

For this decision, no one thought it was inappropriate.

Because the fact was that there was no match for Finn at the same level!

No matter how he killed Hanzo Miyamoto and disabled Muno Amaterasu, he had proved himself.

If no one at the same level broke through to the primary stage of the energy gathering realm, it would be a joke to challenge Finn.

At the same time, at Chen's Family in City Y, Bowie Chen and other heads of the rooms gathered together again.

The last time they met, it was because Finn helped turn the tide in ML Island and won the gambling for the City Z chamber of Commerce.

Unexpectedly, they gathered together again only two days later.

The reason why they met this time was for Finn.

They didn't expect that Finn would come out of Country J alive and turn the whole country upside down.

They couldn't figure out what was wrong.

In the past two days, they paid attention to the news on the martial arts forum. No matter what, Finn was facing a situation often lives in the country.

But they didn't expect that Finn would turn the tables.

He not only saved Wendy Lin but also destroyed the super underground force in the country, GH Group.

What was even more inconceivable was that he had also killed the Martial Artist of the QS Chamber of Commerce, as well as the two powerful warriors on the Divine List.

Now, all the Martial Artist in the world knew the name of Finn.

Finn was even more famous than Chen's Family in the world.

"Lord, how could this be? How did that bastard make it? The field of martial arts /the Martial Arts Arts in the Japanese kingdom's martial arts world. Are those good for nothing? Besides, the whole country has sent out patrolmen. Why did they let that bastard escape? Jabari Chen, the head of the seven bedrooms, couldn't help but speak. When he saw the whole country's news hunting down Finn on the martial arts forum yesterday, he was so excited that he didn't sleep all night. In his opinion, Finn would die in this situation!

But he didn't expect to receive the news that Finn left the country alive this morning.

What did he mean by falling from heaven to hell?

This is it.

"You ask me who I should ask? Bowie Chen's tone was unusually irritable.

He didn't expect this to happen either. He was even surprised for a while when he heard the news that Finn had gone to Country J. In his opinion, the QS Chamber of Commerce would eliminate Finn.

But he didn't expect that the one who was finally eliminated was the QS Chamber of Commerce.

"Lord, at this point, I'm afraid the plan of killing that bastard with the help of the descendants of those martial clans won't work," Jabari said in a deep voice. Originally, Bowie)planned to use the hands of the descendants of the martial arts clan to kill Finn, but now, with the performance of Finn, there must be few people who dare to challenge Finn, let alone the descendants of those martial arts clans, let alone kill Finn.

"I just talked to the leader of Jing's Family," Bowie said gloomily.

"What did the leader of the family say?" Jabari asked in a hurry. The Jing's Family was one of the most ancient families in the eight ancient martial clans in Country C. Similarly, their descendants were also the best in Country C.

"He said that the Jing's Family's successor would not give up the challenge," Bowie said.

"You won't give up the challenge?" Jabari was stunned. Finn had already shown such strength, but the successor of Jing's Family still didn't give up the challenge?

How confident was he?

"Brother, is the successor of the Jing's Family confident of killing that bastard?" Jabari couldn't help asking.

Bowie shook his head and said, "the leader of Jing's Family doesn't say it clearly. But since the heir of Jing's Family hasn't given up the challenge, the strength of him and that bastard is very likely to be on the same level, and there is no problem that who will be defeated."

Hearing what Bowie said, Jabari was shocked and took a deep breath.

The successor of Jing's Family naturally caused the shock.

He didn't expect that Finn was so powerful. Bowie even said that the strength of the Jing's Family's success was on par with Finn.

How powerful was the successor of the Jing's Family?

"Humph, that bastard's strength is not as strong as you think. He didn't kill Hanzo Miyamoto and Muno Amaterasu with his strength, but he killed them with explosives."

"His real strength is at most at the middle stage of the strength transforming realm." Bowie calmly analyzed. The reason why he said this was naturally to comfort Jabari and the other leaders.

It had to be said that what Finn had done in the country frightened Jabari and others.

If he didn't comfort these people today, they might retreat in dealing with Finn.

This was what he didn't want to see.

The middle stage of the strength transforming realm?

The corners of Jabari's mouth twitched involuntarily. He was also a genius at the middle stage of the strength transforming realm and the top one.

At least among the younger generation, few people could compete with Finn.

Now, Finn was hoping to become the top warrior in the world.

Someone even suggested on the martial arts forum that Finn should be included in the divine list.

If this suggestion was adopted, then Finn would be completely out of the younger generation's scope.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 591 Get on the List?

Since the Divine Ranking List was established, there had never been a martial artist under seventy years old on it.

Most of the martial artists on the Divine Ranking List were seventy or eighty or even over a hundred years old.

The Divine Ranking List was a global list of powerhouses. The only requirement for a Martial Artist was strength.

It was known that there were nearly a thousand warriors in the Transformed Period in every country around the world, but there were only fifty people who could be ranked on the Divine Ranking List!

These fifty people were all top masters in every country.

Even the one at the bottom of the list had the strength at the late stage of the Transformed Period's strength.

It was conceivable how valuable this list was.

This time, the reason why Finn Chen could cause such a big shock to the whole world was that he had killed and seriously injured one of the two peerless masters on the Divine Ranking List.

Hanzo Miyamoto, who ranked thirty-eighth, was directly blown up to death by Finn.

Takeo Amaterasu, who ranked eighteenth, was directly disabled by Finn in the same way. Although he was not dead, his end was a hundred times more miserable than death.

The reason why the people on the Forum on Martial Arts proposed to let Finn be on the list was because of his extraordinary performance.

Generally speaking, as long as a Martial Artist defeated or killed a strong warrior on the list, he or she would replace the strong warrior on the list.

Now that Finn had made it, he should be on the list.

The reason why there was a dispute was that the way he killed the two powerful warriors on the Divine Ranking List was to use explosives, not martial arts.

.....

At three fifty in the afternoon, an airplane from Country K to City Y was about to land. The stewardess was repeatedly reminding the passengers to fasten the seat belt and put away the small table board.

Finn put away the magazine in the first-class cabin and turned to look out of the window, only to get a fierce gaze.

It was from a young man who was well-dressed and magnificent. Beside him was a young woman with a standard oval face, delicate features, and tall figure.

"Boy, what are you looking at?"

"I know you are amazed by Miss Jin's beauty, but I still want to remind you that there is a saying in the Country C that Miss Jin is not something you can aspire to."

The young man glared at Finn, "Besides, I remind you that it's impolite to look at a beautiful girl like this, although you Country C people have always been rude."

"Don't worry about it. I'm not interested in the plastic face."

Hearing the young man's words and feeling his strong sense of superiority, said lightly, "Besides, I have to remind you that this is Country C. You'd better pay attention to your way of speaking, or something bad may happen."

Whoosh!

What Finn said made the young woman furious. She glared at Finn angrily.

"You...!"

At the same time, the young man turned gloomy. He wanted to say something to bluff, but when he thought of what Finn said and saw Finn as tall and sturdy as a fox, he had to swallow what he wanted to say.

After saying that, Finn looked away, completely ignoring the young couple.

He had just planned to turn his head to look out of the window, but his action of turning his head had become a peep at the tall beauty to this young man.

But the reason why the young man got overreacted was also related to the identity of the tall beauty.

Through the conversation between the two, Finn learned that the tall and beautiful woman named Sheila Kim was a famous female star in Country K. She had been the brand ambassador for the products of a medical group in Country C, but this year, because of the above policy, the medical group in Country C had invited a domestic star as the brand ambassador.

Therefore, the young man who came out of Li's family in Country K planned to come to Country C to seek justice for Sheila Kim.

Ten minutes later, the plane landed at the international airport of City Y on time.

After the plane stopped at the designated parking space, the stewardess ordered the passengers to get off the plane in order. She said goodbye to them at the same time.

Finn got off the plane first. From getting up to leaving the cabin, he didn't look at the young man and woman again, completely taking what happened just as an episode, and treated the two of them as air.

"How rude!"

Then, Li's family's young man from the County K took Sheila Kim and her agent out of the cabin. Looking at Finn's back figure, he couldn't help cursing.

"Country C is not only rude but also hypocritical. He looked at me impolitely and gave me an obscene smile, but said something like that hypocritically -- a person like him is destined to be single!" Sheila Kim said in a low voice, full of anger and sarcasm.

Finn heard what those two people said, but he ignored them and walked out of the airport.

At the airport's exit, Wendy stood in the crowd, looking expectantly and anxiously at the passengers walking out and looking for Finn in the crowd, with an eager look on her face.

At the same time, almost all the men at the exit of the airport had their eyes on Wendy Lin, and more than once.

All this was because Wendy was so charming.

She untied her long hair, put on a delicate makeup, and wore a red V-collar dress.

The dress was designed to show the curves of one's chest, belly, waist, and hip. It was almost tailor-made for Wendy, showing her terrific figure perfectly.

Her chest was well-shaped, her belly was flat, her hip was round and upturned, and her straight legs without any fat could make the man's adrenaline increased instantly.

It was no exaggeration to say that what she looked like today could turn a man into a beast in an instant without legal and moral restraints at any place in any era!

Wendy didn't care about the amazement and desire in their eyes. She just stared ahead, looking for the figure of Finn.

Finally, she saw Finn in the crowd.

At that moment, everything around seemed to have disappeared. Her face was full of excitement, and her eyes were only on Finn. It seemed that the whole world had become full of happiness and beauty.

Thirty meters, twenty meters, ten meters...

She refrained herself from rushing in and waited for Finn to come out.

"Finn!"

Then, the moment Finn walked out of the exit of the airport, she couldn't help but call him.

The voice was loud as if to vent her depressed mood.

This call attracted everyone's attention right away.

The next moment.

Under the eyes of the public, she strode forward, threw herself into the arms of Finn, and hugged him.

The sudden hug surprised Finn.

However, Finn could understand how Wendy felt.

After all, a few days ago, she was just an ordinary female college student.

However, a sudden cross-border kidnapping made her the focus of the whole world.

Top underground force, descendants of the grandmaster... All these things had a great impact on her.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 592 Half-Step Master

Wendy Lin must be hopeless after she was kidnapped by RH Group.

Because she didn't think that someone could save her from the control of RH Group after going through all the difficulties and dangers.

However, Finn Chen appeared.

That night, Finn, who came out of the darkness, was the God of Death for the RH Group elites.

But for Wendy, who was in despair, Finn, who came out of the darkness, was the God of War!

The God of War who rode on a cloud!

Wendy completely ignored the gazes of passers-by. She just held Finn tightly and expressed the importance of Finn to her in this way.

When she was held hostage and taken to Country J, she was ready to die. But she didn't expect that at this critical moment, Finn acted like a God from heaven.

When she was rescued by Finn and safely returned to Country C, she was told that Finn was jointly attacked by the field of martial arts and the underground forces in Country J. At that moment, no one knew how desperate she was.

She had even secretly made up her mind that once Finn died in Country J, she would find a decent way to commit suicide and accompany Finn on the netherworld.

When the two hugged each other tightly, almost all the men showed envy and jealousy on their faces, wishing to replace Finn. The women were also envious of this bold love.

Huh?

At the same time, Li's Family's young man and Sheila Kim also walked out of the airport and clearly saw this scene.

Suddenly, they stopped at the same time and looked incredulously at Finn and Wendy, who were tightly hugging, as if they had seen the most unbelievable thing in the world!

Because, in terms of appearance, figure, and temperament, Sheila Kim was completely defeated by Wendy, and... She had a plastic face!

After hugging, Finn picked up his handbag and left with Wendy.

From beginning to end, he didn't take a look at the young man and Sheila Kim.

Destined to be single?

Looking at the backs of Finn and Wendy, she recalled what she had said before. Both the young man and Sheila Kim felt as if they had been slapped in the face. Their faces were burning with shame.

They had humiliated themselves, right there!

At this moment, they wished they could find a hole on the ground to hide.

.....

After walking out of the airport with Wendy, Finn found two military green jeeps parking outside the airport.

The two jeeps both had a national license plate, which attracted many passers-by's attention.

At the front of the jeep, a middle-aged man in military uniform was standing quietly.

When the middle-aged man saw Finn, a smile immediately appeared on his face.

"Chief Wang, why are you here?"

Finn was a little surprised. The middle-aged man was Fahn Wang, who had sent him the military uniform last time.

As the head of the special force department in City Y, he was called the section chief nominally, but in fact, he was a major general, and also a major general with real power. After all, Blade Special forces group he controlled was the strongest among all the special forces in Country C.

"Master Guan asked me to pick you up."

"Welcome home."

Fahn said with a smile. He did come here under the order of Tomei Guan. After knowing Finn's performance in Country J, Tomei asked him to come to the airport as soon as possible to express that he valued Finn so much.

"Get in the car first. Master Guan and others are waiting for you." Fahn asked again.

Finn nodded slightly and then got on the jeep with Wendy.

Two hours later, the jeep arrived at the west mountain of City Y.

It was the first time for Finn to come to this place. Although it was the headquarters of the special forces, it was not as heavily guarded as they thought. It gave people more feeling that it was ordinary. On the way, Finn also saw some old men who were playing Tai Chi and chess.

If it weren't for the fact that it was the chief of the special forces department who drove, Finn would have thought that he came to the wrong place.

"Is it different from what you think?" As if Fahn had seen through the surprise of Finn, he said with a smile.

"Yes, a little." Finn nodded with a smile. In his imagination, the special forces department should be a heavily guarded place, but in fact, it looked more like a nursing home.

"The Special Forces Department doesn't need to be on guard. No one has ever dared to make trouble here." At the beginning of the establishment of the department, there were indeed some sentries, but later, they were all canceled.

Because the people here didn't need to be protected.

Anyone who could enter the department was at the Lord of the war level.

How could masters like them need security?

They could even protect the security guards.

A few minutes later, the car stopped outside the department.

Before getting off the car, Finn saw several old men playing chess in the courtyard.

One of them was the person in charge of the gambling between the City Z and the QS Chamber of Commerce, Tomei Guan.

After the car stopped, Tomei walked out of the parking lot with his hands behind his back, calmly.

However, the happiness in his eyes revealed his joy at the moment.

"Master Guan."

After getting out of the car, Finn greeted Tomei respectfully. Then he looked at the old man next to Tomei. The old man was also very tall, even half a head taller than Tomei.

At this moment, the tall old man was looking at Finn.

Tomei said with a smile, "Boy, you really did a great job."

"That's right. Takeno Amaterasu is the most powerful one among all the grand preceptors in Country J. Finn maimed him, which would indirectly make Country J lose a grandmaster." The tall old man beside Tomei echoed.

"By the way, my name is Potter Zhou. I'm the deputy leader of Warriors' League."

Before Finn asked, the tall old man revealed his identity.

"Hello, Master Zhou."

Finn replied in a hurry. He was a little surprised. He had heard of the old man's name before.

His position in Country C was not much lower than that of Takeno Amaterasu.

Moreover, he was ranked higher on the Divine Ranking List than Takeno Amaterasu.

Eleventh!

This was his rank on the list.

Moreover, his cultivation base was not Peak of the Transformed Period, but Half-Step Master!

A real peerless master!

"Are you Henry Chen's son?" Potter suddenly asked.

Finn was a little stunned and then nodded slightly. However, he was still a little surprised deep inside. It seemed that Potter knew Henry Chen.

"I know your father." As if knowing what Finn was thinking, Potter said lightly.

However, Finn remained silent and didn't say much. He didn't have any feelings for his father, who he had only met once or twice when he was a child. So even if Potter mentioned him now, he was not very curious. Finn was not interested in it, but Potter was curious. He looked at Finn and said, "Don't you want to ask me about your father?"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 593

Global Martial Arts Competition

"I've got nothing to ask." Finn Chen smiled slightly.

Hearing Finn's answer, Potter Zhou was stunned at first and then smiled bitterly. "It seems that you have a few complaints about your father."

Complain?

Finn didn't say anything. He did blame Henry Chen.

Because, as a father, Henry didn't do what he should do.

He failed to protect Finn's mother and Finn.

"Your father has his own difficulties." Potter sighed, "He disappeared to save Jordi."

Save Jordi?

Finn was stunned. What did he mean? The Jordi that Potter mentioned was Jordi Lin?!

"Yes, I'm talking about is her father, Jordi Lin." Potter turned to look at Wendy Lin.

Wendy was also stunned. According to what Potter said, Finn's father knew her father, but Henry Chen disappeared in order to save her father.

"Do you mean that my father and Master Lin disappeared together eighteen years ago?" Finn said in a deep voice. Before today, he had never connected Henry with Jordi, because Jordi was one of the Nine Martial Arts Masters in Country C.

As for his father, Henry Chen, although he also had a cultivation base, he was probably far inferior to Jordi Lin.

But now, his speculation was completely overturned by what Potter said!

Henry disappeared because he wanted to save Jordi!

This meant that Henry was even stronger than Jordi!

"Yes, Henry and Jordi did disappear together." Linda nodded.

Potter was the same generation as Henry and Jordi. Strictly speaking, he was the senior of Henry and Jordi, but his talent was not as good as that of them.

Henry and Jordi had both become martial arts masters, but he was stuck in the threshold of Half-Step Master.

"My father is one of the Nine Martial Arts Masters?" Although he had secretly assumed it, Finn couldn't help but ask. He couldn't believe that his father, who he had only met a few times, was a Martial Arts Master.

"Yes, Henry is indeed one of them." Potter confirmed Finn's guess.

At this moment, Finn was shocked.

Henry was really a Martial Arts Master!

That was to say, Chen's Family had two grandmasters!

"How did they disappear?" After the shock, Finn asked this question. At this moment, he was more curious about what kind of danger Jordi had encountered in the past. This danger could actually make the two Martial Arts Masters disappear at the same time.

"I can't tell you about it yet."

"This is the top-secret of our Country." Potter shook his head and refused to tell Finn.

Before Finn replied, Potter continued, "But I can tell you that they are still alive."

Still alive?

Hearing this, Finn breathed a sigh of relief. As long as he was still alive, it meant that there was still hope.

"The disappearance of them is not what you should think about at present. What you should think about is how to become stronger quickly, because someone will come to you soon." After thinking for a while, Potter said in a deep voice.

"Are you talking about Country J?" Finn asked.

Potter shook his head and said, "It's not Country J. The people there don't have the guts to hurt you. As long as you stay in Country C, they will never dare to come to you."

"The person I'm talking about is from Country C."

From Country C?

Finn squinted. Was it Chen's Family?

"Do you know about the Global Martial Arts Competition?" Potter suddenly changed the topic.

Finn was first stunned and then shook his head. He didn't know what Global Martial Arts Competition was.

"Global Martial Arts Competition is held by the International Wushu Federation."

"This is also the largest Martial Arts Competition in the world. It is held every five years."

"Every time it is held, almost all the martial arts families, sects, and forces in the world will send their own disciples to participate."

"Country C will participate too. For this year's Global Martial Arts Competition, International Wushu Federation has given us four places."

Speaking of this, Potter paused for a while.

Finn soon understood what he meant. "Master Zhou wanted me to participate in the competition?"

"Yes, you are right." Potter nodded and said, "I want you to attend the competition on behalf of Country C."

"In the previous competitions, Country C's performance is not excellent."

"In the last competition, Country C didn't even get into the top eight."

"We claim ourselves to be the birthplace of martial arts and great power in the world, but in such a global scale event, we can't even get into the top eight. It's very embarrassing."

"I know what you mean, Mr. Zhou. But I'm afraid that there will be some peerless masters appearing in the Global Martial Arts Competition. My current realm is only at the early stage of the transformed period. Among the younger generation, I can still be the first tier, but I'm afraid I'm not a big deal compared with those famous masters." Finn voiced out his thoughts. After all, it was the biggest martial arts competition in the world.

Those who would attend such kind of event must be the top masters from all countries.

Except for the grandmasters who would not join the competition, all the other Martial Artists would probably participate. He was only at the early stage of the transformed period, so he was nothing at all.

"I know what you are thinking."

"But you don't have to worry. There are talent group and genius group in the Global Martial Arts Competition."

"The four places I mentioned are for the talent group. The quota for the talent group has already been reserved." Potter said with a smile.

"I won't say anything more about the talent group. You just need to know that the talent group is specially established for those who have been famous for a long time."

"Next, I will tell you something about the genius group."

"Genius group, as its name suggests, only the genius from different countries are allowed to participate."

"Different from the gambling fight you participated in last time, the age limit for geniuses in the global martial arts competition is wider —— under thirty-five years old."

"Anyone under the age of thirty-five with a high level of cultivation base can be called a Genius Martial Artist. They can participate in the competition."

"So, there will be a lot of Martial Artists in the first stage of the Transformed Period?" Finn asked.

Before him, the youngest Martial Artist in Transformed Period in Country C was Potter Zhou, who was at the early stage of the breakthrough at the age of thirty-two.

However, the age limit of the Global Martial Arts Competition was under thirty-five years old.

In this way, there must be a lot of Martial Artists all over the world to participate in the competition. There might even be a few geniuses who could break through to the middle stage of the Transformed Period before the age of thirty-five.

"Yes, there will indeed be many Martial Artists in Transformed Period." Potter nodded and said, "That's also the reason why our Country C didn't perform well in the previous few years."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 594 The True Solution

"It's well-known that our country's ancient martial arts practice pays great attention to laying a foundation, so before the Transformed Period, the vast majority of Martial Artists practice very slowly. In the previous few years, few Martial Artists who participated in the Global Martial Arts Competition in Country C got into the primary stages of the Transformed Period."

"On the contrary, the ancient martial arts cultivation of other countries don't have the so-called foundation part. They only pursue the speed of cultivation. Some warriors from other countries will take genetic medicine to speed up their cultivation."

"In this way, their cultivation speed can be super fast..." Speaking of this, Potter Zhou couldn't help but take a look at Finn Chen and said, "As far as I know, there are several young geniuses in Country A who have broken through to the primary stage of the Transformed Period at the same age as you."

Finn nodded slightly. He was not surprised about what Potter told him. After all, the world was big and full of wonders. He was a first-class genius in Country C, but it did not mean that he was a first-class genius in the world.

It was different.

"In this way, the speed at which our Martial Artists broke through to the primary stage of the Transformed Period is much slower than that of the Martial Artists in other countries." Potter sighed.

"So, I want to give you a place to represent the Country C in the Global Martial Arts Competition."

"No problem." Finn said honestly. He had no objection, indeed. Since he was in Country C, he had an obligation to do something for the country. Moreover, he was still the instructor of the Blade Special forces group. He should take part in this competition.

"Well, since you have no objection, I will reserve a place for you in the global martial arts competition." Said Potter.

"By the way, Master Zhou, you just said someone was about to make trouble for me..." Finn couldn't help but speak. Just now, Potter said that someone in the Country C would come to make trouble for him, but before Potter told Finn more details, he changed the topic to the Global Martial Arts Competition.

"The successor of Jing's Family."

"The one who wants to make trouble for you is the successor of Jing's Family." Before Finn finished his words, Potter said in a deep voice.

"I got the gossip that the heir of Jing's family will come out soon. His primary goal is to challenge you."

"Let him do it." Finn smiled slightly. After he came back from ML Island, he had expected that someone from a martial arts family would challenge him.

He had thought that his performance in Country J this time would make the descendants of those martial arts families behave themselves.

But he didn't expect that there would be someone who wanted to continue to challenge him.

However, the descendants of these martial families were not idiots.

The reason why they dared to challenge him must be that they were confident in their own strength.

"Although you are very powerful, you can't underestimate the successor of Jing's Family." Linda suddenly said.

"You may not know that Jing's Family is one of the eight most ancient martial arts families in the Country C. They have a history of about two thousand years."

"In the past two thousand years, their family had two Martial Arts Masters."

"The Ying-Yang Boxing created by these two masters can be called the strongest fist skills in the world."

Ying-Yang Boxing?

Hearing this, Finn's suddenly turned serious. He had heard Garrett Xiao mention the Ying-Yang Boxing.

At that time, Garrett, who rarely made compliments, praised Ying-Yang Boxing. He said that the Ying-Yang Boxing had a well-deserved reputation.

"Master Zhou, I understand what you mean. I won't underestimate the enemy, but I will never be afraid of them. No matter who wants to challenge me, as long as they dare to come, I will dare to accept it!" Finn took a deep breath and said loudly.

In Chen's s Family, he had endured for three years and made a breakthrough into the Transformed Period.

In order to hold his head high one day.

If nothing unexpected happened, he would take the road of martial arts in the future.

He wanted to become a Martial Arts Master in the constant battle!

"Well, that's good." Potter nodded. Then he turned to Wendy Lin and asked, "Wendy, what are you going to do with the True Solution left by Jordi?"

"Master Zhou, the True Solution... I'm going to give it to Finn. "Wendy took a look at Potter and said. Last night, Potter told her something about the field of martial arts, so she was very clear about what the True Solution meant to a Martial Artist.

It was no exaggeration to say that if she auctioned the True Solution in public, all the warriors of the field of martial arts in the world would come to Country C.

At that time, the True Solution would be sold at least three hundred billion!

Hearing what Wendy said, Potter sighed with emotion. He didn't expect that Wendy would give such a precious thing away so easily.

"Wendy, you'd better keep the True Solution for yourself." At this time, Finn said with a smile, "I don't need it."

"Finn..." Wendy was a little stunned. Didn't they say that the True Solution was priceless to a Martial Artists? Why didn't Finn accept it?

"Wendy, I know what you are thinking about. The True Solution is indeed very precious. It can increase the chance of a Martial Artist to reach the top level by 30% to 40%. But now I'm only at the primary stage of the Transformed Period. I don't know how long it will take for me to reach the top level."

"Besides, even if I reach the Peak of the Transformed Period, I won't use the True Solution, because I have my own way to go." Finn's tone was very calm. He indeed wouldn't use the True Solution to break through into the Grandmaster.

Because he was confident that he could make a breakthrough and become a Grandmaster by himself.

On the other hand, if he used Jordi Lin's True Solution, would he break through to the Grandmaster way or Jordi's way?

"Hahaha, in that case, you can keep this True Solution by yourself, Wendy." Potter burst into laughter. What Finn said also surprised him. At the same time, he admired Finn's firm belief in martial arts and himself.

Nowadays, few people could resist the temptation of breaking through to be a Grandmaster.

If Wendy's True Solution was released to the outside world, many Martial Arts Masters at the late stage of the Transformed Period would fight for it. For these Martial Arts Masters, it was the only way to break through and become a Grandmaster.

But when it came to Finn, she only got a "I don't need it".

It was unknown if the Martial Arts Master at the late stage of the Transformed Period would be furious when they heard Finn's words.

In the end, Finn still didn't accept the True Solution.

In addition to the fact that he didn't need the True Solution to break through and become a Grandmaster, there was another reason, that was, the True Solution was left to Wendy by Jordi.

Now, Wendy had also embarked on the road of cultivation. Although there was still a long way to go before she reached the late stage, once she broke through to that stage, she would need the True Solution more than Finn.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 595 Young Master Chen

He didn't take Wendy Lin with him, because Wendy took Potter Zhou as her mentor. From now on, she would have to cultivate in the Special Forces Department.

Finn was a little confused after coming down from the west mountain and didn't know where to go.

Although Chen's Family was his home, everyone there wanted him to die.

Therefore, he was very reluctant to go back to Chen's Family.

Just as Finn was thinking about where to go next, a surprised voice sounded behind him, "Finn!"

Finn turned around and saw an Aston Martin parked behind him.

At this moment, in the driver's seat of the Aston Martin, it was Michael Yuwen, who had just been beaten up by him not long ago.

"It's really you!" Michael had a surprised look on his face. Just now, he saw the Finn in the distance. At that time, he was not sure whether it was Finn or not, because if nothing went wrong, Finn should have just returned from Country J.

But he didn't expect that it was really Finn.

"Why are you here?" Finn was also a little surprised at the moment. Why did Michael Yuwen, a young master of City Z, appear in City Y.

"Finn, I'm here for the competition." Michael said and got out of the car excitedly.

"What competition?" Finn asked casually.

"The competition with the disciples of the Racing King of Country K." Michael said.

"Racing King of Country K?"

"Here's the thing. A few years ago, my mentor and I bought a racing track in City Y. After a few years of operation, this racing track had now become the largest underground racing track in Country C. When Country K heard about it, he came here with a group of his disciples, saying that he wanted to compete with us..." Michael said excitedly.

Finn nodded from time to time. He knew what kind of people in Country K was. These people said that they were competing, but in fact, they were probably Deadly Challenger.

"When was the competition between you and them?" Finn asked.

"The competition is the second to last. It should be around 11 o'clock at night," said Michael.

"Then, I'll stay and watch your competition."

Finn was not interested in watching the racing match. He had planned to leave here after talking with Michael Yuwen. But when he heard what Michael said, he changed his mind.

"Okay."

Hearing that Finn was going to watch the competition, Michael was a little excited.

Half an hour later, the two of them arrived at the parking lot in KS scenic spot.

Seeing that many trucks drove into the parking lot, those trucks were carrying with the gorgeous motorcycles or racing vehicles, all with Country K license plates.

"Finn, those are all Country K racers' cars. They were sent here from Country K." Seeing that Finn looked at the truck, Michael explained.

"It seems that the Country K racer has made great efforts this time. Is there a high reward for the competition?" Finn said and then thought of something.

"No, it didn't. But this race is for a gambling fight. In addition to placing bets on the race track, both sides have bets. The bets ranged from one million to one hundred million dollars, and for the final race is one hundred million dollars."

Michael nodded and said, "If that's not the case, they won't try their best to get the car here."

Finn nodded and said no more. He walked towards the third-floor building with Michael.

The first floor was a huge hall, as big as four basketball courts. The hall was filled with sofas and armchairs, like a coffee shop.

Dozens of screens were hung on one wall of the hall, and there was a rectangular platform below the screen.

Generally speaking, before the competition started, the screen would show the odds of the contestants, and then the guests would place their bets with the betting device.

When the competition started, the dozens of screens would show the video that the racer drove through. When a major competition was held, the live broadcast would stand on the platform and use a laser pen to explain, so that the audience could understand the process of the competition more intuitively.

When Finn and Michael entered the hall on the first floor, as the president of the Super Racing Club and Hubery Ji, the Racing King of Country C, was surrounded by a group of racers in racing suits, talking about something.

Huh?

Seeing Finn and Michael enter the hall, Hubery stopped talking with the racers around him and looked at Finn, "Michael, who is this?"

Hubery looked at Finn from head to toe. Normally, Michael seldom brought outsiders to the Super Racing Club, because ordinary people were not qualified to come into the club.

The people who could enter the Super Racing Club must be the young masters of the rich families.

But Finn looked a little unfamiliar, and he gave people the feeling that he was more like an ordinary person than a young master.

"This is my senior bro, Finn." Michael introduced him casually, and his tone sounded full of pride.

Hearing what Michael said, Hubery and others suddenly turned solemnly.

Michael was famous for his arrogance in the Super Racing Club. The person who could be treated so respectfully by him must be not an ordinary person.

Although Finn looked ordinary, he was likely to have a hidden identity.

After figuring it out, Hubery walked out of the crowd with a smile and led the racers to Finn. "Nice to meet you, Young Master Chen."

"Hello." Finn greeted him with a smile. Michael had told him about Hubery's identity before. In addition to the president of the Super Racing Club, he was also the Racing King of Country C. He was famous in the underground racing group all over the world.

"Young Master Chen, they are all racers from all over the world. Many of them like racing like me." Hubery met Finn, stood one meter away from him, and pointed at the racers behind and smiled.

"Young Master Chen!"

Hearing Hubery's introduction, those racers all greeted Finn at the same time. As the backbone of the underground racers in Country C, they all had a very special identity. They were either the privileged man or the elites in a certain field. Otherwise, they couldn't afford a racing vehicle worth more than a million or even tens of millions.

But that "special" was only to compare with the ordinary people.

Compared with Michael and Hubery, who were the heirs of a rich family with hundreds of billions of dollars, they were nothing at all.

Therefore, the people brought by Michael must be treated respectfully as long as Michael took it seriously, regardless of how ordinary they looked.

"Hello, everyone."

Finn greeted them with a smile and then chatted with the racers for a while. Then he walked away with Michael and was led by him to look around.

There was also a hall on the second floor, but the decoration was more luxurious, and the equipment was more advanced.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 596

Racing King of Country K

The third floor was box-type. Every box was equipped with a professional beauty guide to provide more thoughtful services for the guests. The guests on the third floor were usually more distinguished and had a larger amount of bets on, and they were VIP members of the racing track.

After six o'clock in the evening, in addition to the underground racers from all over the world, some guests who were watching the race also came one after another. Among them, there were many famous business leaders in City Y.

Facing all this, Finn dealt with it freely. He did not show the slightest arrogance but treated others with respect.

"Young Master Michael, racers from Country K are coming. One of them hit our showgirl!"

Just when Finn finished dealing with those big shots in business and was about to have tea with Michael Yuwen, a staff member from the racing track entered the box and reported to Michael.

"What happened?"

Hearing this, Michael's face changed. The showgirl was one of the sexy ladies, and she was also a member of the racing track. Every time the race began, they would wear layers of bras and underwear, then took them off layer by layer to create an exciting atmosphere in this sexy way. At the same time, the competition would begin. When they covered their boobs and threw away the last layer of the bra, the competition officially began!

"That racer is a lecher. When he saw that showgirl, he went to accost her and even pat on her butt. The girl was unwilling, then she was slapped two times by him."

The staff reported angrily, "In addition, the racer also clamored that he didn't want to see that girl again and asked her to get out of here immediately. The girl felt wronged and didn't know what to do. She cried and found me."

"I'll handle it."

Michael thought for a while, made a decision, and stood up directly.

"Michael, let me go with you."

Finn also stood up. He wanted to know how Michael Yuwen would deal with this matter.

After the winter solstice, although the day began to grow longer, it was dark after six o'clock. The parking lot in the scenic spot was brightly lit, filled with a variety of racing vehicles and road racing motorcycle. But there was no car with a Country K license plate.

Finn and Michael heard from the staff of the racing track that all the racers from Country K, including the Racing King of Country K, Denver Park, had checked and adjusted their own cars before driving to get familiar with and adapt to the racing track.

For this reason, Finn and Michael, together with the eight security guards of the racing track, arrived at the end of the track and also the starting point.

Although the racer slapped the showgirl in the face, the race preparations were still going on in order.

A stage was built in the open space at the beginning of the track. The staff was adjusting the light and sound, and the stars who participated in the performance of the opening ceremony were doing their make-ups at the backstage, preparing for the stage. Many underground racers and audiences stood not far away, waiting for the beginning of the opening ceremony.

At six forty, accompanied by a roar that pierced the sky, many racing vehicles arrived at the finish line one after another.

The car in the front was also a Bugatti Veyron. It was Denver Park's car.

Following the Bugatti Veyron of Denver was a Koenigsegg, the car belonged to Don Li, Denver's disciple.

Racing vehicles came one after another behind the Bugatti Veyron and Koenigsegg. There were Ferrari, Lamborghini, and Maserati, which almost included all major racing car brands.

Finally, here came the motorcycle. Each motorcycle was worth more than a million.

According to the race schedule, in addition to the sports car race, there was also a motorcycle race tonight—first the motorcycle race, which was an appetizer.

Then, under the gaze of Finn and Michael, Denver took the lead to park the car on the side of the road. More than 30 sports cars and motorbikes lined up, which was very spectacular.

Seeing that Denver and the others stopped the car, Michael immediately walked over with his men. Finn followed Michael. At first glance, he looked like Michael's bodyguard.

At the same time, two bodyguards of Denver also walked towards his Bugatti Veyron.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

All of a sudden, the staff who were preparing for the opening ceremony, as well as the racers and audiences who were waiting for the opening ceremony, all turned to look over there at the same time, wondering what had happened.

Under the gaze of the crowd, Denver got off the car first. He saw Michael walking towards them with an unfriendly look. He raised his eyebrows slightly, and then pretended not to see them and looked away.

"Master, what do you think that guy wants to do by bringing people here?"

After getting out of the car, Don walked to Denver and asked with a frown when he saw Michael coming with a group of people.

"Denver, just now, someone reported to me that your men hit the staff of the racing track. Is that true?"

As if in response to Don, Michael came close with his men and asked straightforwardly.

Before Denver started to say anything, Don spoke first. He stared at Michael and said angrily, "Pay attention to your identity and your tone!"

"Does it have anything to do with you?" Michael frowned and stared at Don.

"I hope you understand how noble my master is. Even if the big potatoes in City Y and even Country C can't be that rude to my master. Not to mention you!"

Don replied coldly, and then continued, "There was a slut who didn't know who she was just now and was slapped by our men. What's wrong? Do you want to stand up for that girl? "

"Who did it?" Michael asked in reply.

"I did. What do you want from me?"

A Country K racer in a racing suit stood out. Last night, he had sex with two young models, but it seemed not enough for him. When he saw the sexy woman with a good figure, he became lustful and went to flirt with her.

"I give you two choices. First, you slap yourself two times and apologize to my staff and compensate for the mental damage. Second, my men give you two slaps, and you are not qualified for tonight's competition. Then get out of here immediately! "Michael said word by word.

When they heard Michael's words, the expressions of Denver, Don, and other racers from Country K turned gloomy in an instant, with different degrees of anger on their faces.

Because, in their eyes, Michael shouldn't stand up for just a showgirl, let alone be so arrogant in front of them!

"Do you know what you are doing?" Don said with a gloomy face.

"Of course, I know." Michael replied coldly, "Besides, I need to remind you that this is the Country C. If you dare to say anything stupid again, I don't mind teaching you a lesson!"

"You...!"

Don was furious and wanted to say something, but was stopped by Denver.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 597 Go Home with Tears

"Are you sure you want to do this?" Denver Park stared at Michael Yuwen and asked in a low voice.

"Yes, I'm sure." Michael said calmly, and then he looked at the racer who slapped the showgirl.

"What is your choice? "

"Do you really want to offend the whole Country K's underground racing circle and me for a slut?" The racer who slapped the showgirl said in an angry and frightened voice.

On the one hand, he didn't expect that Michael would take the risk of breaking up with Country K's underground racing circle for an ordinary showgirl.

On the other hand, if Michael insisted on fighting, even if Denver stood out to protect him, it would be useless. After all, just as Michael said, here was Country C!

"Give him two slaps and ask him to get out!" Michael gave an order decisively.

"Yes, Mr. Baron!" The two hatchet men responded immediately and then quickly walked towards the Korea racer.

"Bastard! I have warned you, you are offending not only the whole Country K's underground racing world, but also me, my family, and even the whole country!" Seeing this scene, Denver spoke again, with a threat in his words.

As the Racing King of Country C, he was the leader of this competition. If Michael sent someone to slap his racer, it was equal to slapping his face, which also meant that Michael did not take his family and Li's Family seriously!

"Michael, you're right. This is Country C. Not to mention that he is just an ordinary racer. Even if President of Country K comes, he can't hit people for no reason!"

Hearing Denver's threat, Finn said. His tone was resolute. "As for Denver Park's threat, don't take it seriously. Let your people do whatever they want. Not only do we want to slap him, but he also breaks one of his legs! They could take revenge as they want, and just let them come to me! "

"Do as Finn said!"

Hearing Finn's words, Michael was excited. He had been worried that if he did so, he would completely break up with Denver and offend Park's Family. But now, with Finn's words, he had no scruples.

To put it bluntly, as long as Finn gave the order, he would even dare to beat Denver Park!

"Yes, Young Master Chen, Young Master Michael!" The two bodyguards took the order immediately and rushed to the racer.

"What are you doing?"

The racer roared angrily.

In response, he was slapped in the face.

As soon as the racer roared, he was slapped for the second time. He was stunned.

At the same time, another strong man raised the bat in his hand and smashed it hard on the shin of the racer.

"Crack——"

The next moment, it came the two sounds.

The racer was knocked to the ground by a baseball bat, and his legs were directly broken and badly mutilated. "Ah --" the racer covered his badly mutilated leg and howled.

Good, very good! "

Seeing what happened, Denver laughed out of anger.

He didn't stop it or ask his men to help the racer. He was not only afraid of not getting any advantage but also afraid of affecting the competition.

In this way, his plan to come to Country C and frame them would be in vain.

"How dare you! I hope you can be as brave as you are now in the competition tonight. Don't be a coward!" Don Li also opened his mouth. He stared at Michael with a murderous look. He wished he could immediately destroy Michael to vent his hatred.

Hearing Don's words and feeling Don's killing intent, Finn couldn't help frowning.

At this moment.

He decided to stay with Michael tonight.

If these racers dared to play tricks, he didn't mind letting them know that the current Country C was no longer the country decades ago. They couldn't act recklessly here!

"Am I afraid of you?"

Just as Finn made a decision in secret, Michael sneered and didn't take Don's provocation seriously at all.

On the one hand, he was confident in his driving skill.

On the other hand, Finn was here to support him, making him fearless.

"Don, stop it."

As soon as Michael finished his words, Denver stretched out his hand again to stop Don from arguing with Michael. Then he said to a bodyguard beside him, "Contact the guy in the City Y and ask him to send a car to pick up the injured to the hospital."

"Yes, Young Master!"

The bodyguard in black immediately took the order, then walked aside and began to contact according to the instructions of Denver.

On the other hand, Denver led the other racers to the third-floor building, except the injured one.

At the same time, Hubery Ji came over with a group of Country C racers. He looked at Finn in astonishment and asked, "Young Master Chen, what's wrong?"

"A racer from Country K did sexual-harassed and slapped a showgirl in the race track. We came here to ask for an explanation. They despised us, and Finn directly broke one of that racer's legs." Michael replied.

"Uh..."

Hearing Michael's words. Everyone was stunned, including Hubery.

Michael meant that Finn Chen directly let someone break that guy's leg. So, it was under the order of Finn?

What was the identity of Finn? Why was he so powerful?

At this moment, Hubery and the others were very curious about Finn.

"Master, brothers, we must work hard tonight. We can't be humiliated by them!"

Just as Hubery and the others looked at Finn in astonishment, Michael couldn't help reminding them when he thought of what Don Li said at last.

"We will definitely win tonight!"

"Yes, let them go home with tears tonight!"

Hearing Michael's words, a group of Country C racers shouted with confidence.

"Michael, don't worry. We will make you proud tonight!"

Hubery also nodded to reassure Michael. At the same time, he indirectly made a promise to Finn.

He could see that Finn was not happy with the racers from Country K. If he defeated Denver in the competition, he would definitely win the favor of Finn and get their relationship closer.

"Young Master Michael, the opening ceremony is ready."

At this time, a staff member of the underground racing track quickly walked over, reported, and asked Michael, "According to the plan, we will start the opening ceremony at seven o'clock, and it will be totally one hour. There are still five minutes left before the opening ceremony, but all the racers from Country K have walked to the VIP hall. What should we do? "

"Ignore them. The opening ceremony is going on as usual." Michael made a decision.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 598 The Game Is On!

Originally, the opening ceremony was to exaggerate the atmosphere and also to enhance the competition level. But now, it was not important whether those Country K racers were here or not.

"Yes, sir!"

The staff took the order right away, then bent down and smiling at Finn Chen and Hubery Ji.

After all this, he turned around and walked quickly to the temporary stage ahead.

"Finn, shall we go too?" Michael Yuwen asked.

"Okay!"

Finn nodded and headed forward with Michael, Hubery, and a group of Country C underground racers.

As the opening ceremony was about to begin, racers and guests from all over the world who came to watch the game rushed to the temporary stage. There were more than a thousand people.

Facing the stage, there was a row of tables and chairs, each with a bottle of water on it.

According to the plan, some important people would sit in their seats to watch the opening ceremony and cut the ribbon to announce the competition's start.

However——

Because Denver Park took Country K racers into the VIP Hall, the ribbon-cutting could only be canceled.

Michael originally wanted to invite Finn to watch the opening ceremony, but it was rejected by Finn. Therefore, neither Michael nor Hubery took the seat. Only a few prominent business tycoons sat there.

Compared with the opening ceremony of some parties, this one was much more passionate.

Four songs, two were performed by young and handsome male stars, one from the popular female star, and were all passionate songs. And the last one was a new song from a good singer of "Hip Hop C". It had a strong sense of rhythm. With gorgeous lights and fireworks, it instantly ignited the atmosphere.

Compared with songs, dance was not inferior at all. There were modern dances by a group of beauties, pole shows by sexy goddesses, and mechanical dance and urban dance.

However——

The most exciting thing for the audiences was the finale.

Four beauties in sexy racing clothes performed their driving skills with Galvais motorcycles and made a series of difficult movements, which were very consistent with tonight's theme.

When the opening ceremony was over, people went to the starting point of the track.

On both sides of the track, there were several bonfires and two huge sound systems. The heavy metal music came from the sound and cut through the night sky.

There was a striking white line at the start of the track, which was clearly illuminated by the dazzling lights on both sides.

At the moment, six motorcyclists, riding their own motorcycles, lined up at the starting point, waiting for the race to start.

Some of them stepped on the accelerator in place. The sound almost suppressed the strong heavy metal music.

At this time, a light swept from the sky to the start of the track, locking a figure.

It was a woman.

A woman with an incredible figure.

She was a highly paid professional model in the underground circuit, where she guest-starred as a showgirl.

She was 1.76 meters tall, with long flowing hair on her shoulders. Her beautiful face was covered with delicate make-up. Her lips were painted bright red. Her chest was quite spectacular. Her waist was slender. Her two snow-white straight legs dazzled people's eyes with a pair of black high heels' as a contrast.

Under the light, she walked in a sexy catwalk with music. Her right hand was raised above her head, and her index finger was stretched out. On top of her was a sexy T-back, turning rhythmically.

"Ow ~"

"Take it off!"

"Take it off!!"

.....

With the appearance of showgirls, the atmosphere exploded completely. Both the racers from all over the world and those who came to watch the game waved their arms and roared.

As if in response to the crowd, the sexy girl walked to the front of the track's starting point, throwing her T-back to the crowd, causing a mad rush.

A few seconds later, a racer from the northwest grabbed the T-back, lifted it excitedly, and waved it.

And the showgirl was to put her right hand behind her back and open the bra button with one hand so that the bra slowly slid down. When it slid to her forearm and revealed the second layer of the bra, she speeded up to take off the bra, then waved the bra, looked around 360 degrees, and threw it out again, which made people compete for getting it.

After all this, she took off her high heels, boarded a platform in front of the start of the track, then bent down to reveal half of her boobs and slowly took off her first pair of underpants.

Next, she did the same thing and took off her bra and underpants three times in a row. It was almost getting the limit of the audience's patience.

"Dear racers, next, I will take off the last layer of the bra, please get ready."

Just then, the showgirl said with a microphone.

"Oh!"

In response to her were the roar of the racers and the howling of the audience.

The sexy girl smiled seductively and handed the microphone to the staff.

Immediately, under the gaze of the public, she covered her breast with one arm and then opened the bra button with one hand behind her.

The bra slipped again.

This time, it was the last layer.

Under the light, her boobs flashed past, and then the showgirl with both hands to cover her boobs.

And bra slid down from the showgirl's body and fell to the ground.

The next moment.

When the bra fell to the ground, with the deafening roar, six motorcycles ran out one after another, rushing across the starting line and heading for the night ahead...

The game...is on!

According to the plan of tonight's competition, there was one motorcycle race and five sports car races. The motorcycle race was just an appetizer. The guests were not interested in betting on it, so they come out to watch the opening ceremony and the start of the race.

When the game officially started, the guests dispersed and returned to the third-floor building.

"Finn, a game takes at least half an hour. Shall we go to the box on the third floor, too?" As the guests dispersed, Michael asked.

"Sure."

Finn nodded and, accompanied by Michael and Hubery, walked to the third floor.

After entering the hall on the first floor of the third-floor building, Finn saw a beautiful woman commentator standing on the steps, explaining the competition with a laser pointer.

"This is our first monitoring point, which is five kilometers away from the starting point. The first racer passing by is racer No. 2 from Country K..."

While the beautiful commentator explained, the latest odds of winning the championship were displayed on a large rectangular screen at the top. Among them, the racer No. 2 from Country K, who was the first to rush through the first monitoring, had the lowest odds and was most likely to win the championship.

The second and third-lowest odds also belonged to Country K racers. They drove their motorcycles and followed the racer No.2 through the first monitoring point.

This result made Michael and Hubery frown.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 599 The Country C Underground Racing League is too Rubbish!

Just at the beginning of the competition, the Country K underground racing league gave Country C underground racing league a lousy start!

Finn was not interested in this. He took the elevator with Michael Yuwen and Hubery to the third floor. Then they enter a reserved box, which was also the most luxurious box in the VIP Hall. It covered an area as large as a small movie hall.

"Mr. Finn! Mr. Michael! Mr. Hubery!"

In the box, a beautiful commentator and two beautiful waiters had been waiting for a long time. Seeing three men entered the box, they bowed to welcome.

"Michael, let them out." Finn smiled at the three and then said to Michael Yuwen.

"Okay!"

Although Micheal didn't know why Finn didn't let them stay here, he waved to the three to leave immediately.

At the same time, a screen showed that three motorcycles of Country K were rush through the monitoring office again.

"If nothing happens, you lose the first game," said Finn. "

We are not as good as the people in Country K in playing motorcycles." Michael Yuwen nodded, and he also knew that the game was going to lose.

"What's the stake in this game?" Asked Finn.

"Not much. A million dollars."

Michael Yuwen replied, "in the next five races, the first four are three million, six million, eight million, and ten million dollars. In the last one, my master and Denver (Racing King of Country K) have a bet of 100 million dollars."

"It seems that the last game is the most important one." Said Finn.

"Yes, Mr.Finn. Whether the stakes or the significance, the last game is crucial".

Hubery nodded and then added: "However, although the stakes in the previous races are not as much as the last one, they also represent the honor of the Country C underground racing league."

"Well."

Finn nodded, then took the red wine from Michael Yuwen and gently shook the glass.

Because of the later competition, neither Michael Yuwen nor Hubery held wine. Instead, they held champagne.

As they judged, Country C lost in the first race.

Three motorcyclists of Country K crossed the finish line, occupying the top three places. The remaining three motorcyclists crossed the finish line after 30 seconds, 52 seconds, and 84 seconds respectively.

"Herman, the second game, we must win!"

With the end of the race, Hubery called to the second game's motorcyclist, a member of the Country C Super Racing Club.

"Don't worry; I will win!"

Soon, a confident voice came from the phone.

Hubery stopped talking and hung up the phone.

Meanwhile, two motorcyclists' messages appeared on the screen.

Country C motorcyclist: Herman, male, 22-year-old, member of the Country C Super Racing Club. He has participated in City X and City F underground racing competitions and got 12 and 16. He was not included in Top Racer List. The winning odds are 9.

Country K motorcyclist: Asano Youji, male, member of Country K Super Racing Club. He had only participated in the underground racing competition in Country K. He was not included in Top Racer List. The winning odds are 9.

"Do you know anything about Country K motorcyclists?" Seeing the information on the screen, Finn asked.

"Not really."

Michael Yuwen said, "Except Denver and his apprentice Don, we don't have any competition video about other motorcyclists."

"Does Country K know about our motorcyclists?" Finn asked again.

"More than we do."

When Michael Yuwen heard the words, he suddenly realized something. He frowned and said, "All the motorcyclists sent by Country K are unknown. However, we don't ask other top ten motorcyclists in Country C to compete, except my master and me. We let the motorcyclists from the Super Racing Club come to participate. And all the participants have participated in the competition outside".

"Michael, we might meet some trouble. As I expected, they were prepared. Although the Country K motorcyclists are not well-known, their strength might much higher than us."

After hearing Michael Yuwen's reply and associating with Denver and other arrogant people, Finn made such a conclusion.

Swoosh!

Michael Yuwen and Hubery were upset and said nothing.

The fact confirmed Finn's conclusion.

Country C motorcyclists also lost in the next two races and much slower than the opponents.

Although the country C motorcyclist was fast in the third race, who was just slower than Michael Yuwen in the whole Super Racing Club, the opponent was faster. In the first half of the race, the motorcyclist of Country C could keep up with him. In the second half of the race, the Country K motorcyclist took advantage of several U-shaped and S-shaped curves to completely left the Country C motorcyclist behind!

Four losses in a row!

This result made Michael Yuwen and Hubery upset.

"Michael! Is the next match yours?" Finn asked.

"Yes."

Michael Yuwen nodded. He never dreamed that the first four games would end in such a way.

"Let's go. Don't worry." Finn comforted Michael Yuwen, but he was worried.

At that time, Michael Yuwen was not suitable for the competition, but Finn also knew that it was unrealistic to stop Michael Yuwen from competing!

"Okay!"

Michael Yuwen nodded and followed Finn downstairs with Hubery.

At the start of the track, the temporary stage had been removed, the campfire was still on, and the music was still ringing, but the audience's passion was completely extinguished. The audience wanted to see Country C motorcyclists defeated the Country K motorcyclists.

With such a goal, they saw that the motorcyclist of Country C lost three consecutive games and was about to lose four consecutive games. How could they have any passion?

While the motorcyclists and audience of Country C were depressed, Denver and other motorcyclists stood on both sides, singing songs to celebrate the victory.

"Buzz~"

Later, before Finn closed, the deafening roar of the motorcycle came closer and closer. A Lamborghini with a license plate of Country K rushed over the end first.

"Yeah!"

"Cool!"

"The Country C underground racing league is too rubbish!"

.....

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 600 Gamble the Life!

The next moment, cheers sounded.

Racers of Country K opened the champagne to celebrate and shouted as much as they could.

Both the racers of Country C and the audience around were in silence.

Up to now, the underground racing league in Country C had been ultimately defeated!

Both racers and audiences heard cheers from Denver and other Korea racers. They all looked terrible as if they had swallowed a fly during dinner!

Not only them but also Michael Yuwen and Hubery looked terrible.

"Hey, I didn't expect you to have the courage to show up! I thought you were hiding in the room and didn't dare to come out! "

The next moment, Don saw the three people and immediately came to them. He looked at Michael with a mocking face, "my master said that we would defeat the underground racing league of Country C. You didn't believe it at the beginning, but how about now?"

"The competition is not over yet! "Looking at Don's complacent face and listening to Don's sarcastic words, Michael angrily said.

"Is there any difference? Do you think you can defeat me, or your master can defeat my master? "Don sneered.

"The truth will tell you the answer! "Michael said coldly.

"Well, since you are so confident, let's bet on something exciting. In addition to the previous bet, if you lose, you need to suicide to apologize. If I lose, I will be at your disposal. How about it?"

Don said viciously.

When Michael didn't show respect to Denver at the airport, Don decided to teach him a lesson. But just now, when Michael ordered someone to break the leg of a driver of Country K, he was furious and wanted to gamble his life with Michael.

"Uh... "

Hearing Don's words, both Country C racer and the audience around were stunned.

They didn't expect that Don would gamble their the with Michael!

Compared with other methods, gambling life was the most exciting and dangerous. No gambler was willing to do so unless there was deep hatred.

Not only them but also Hubery and Michael didn't expect, only Finn looked calm. He had sensed Don wanted to kill someone!

"Are you afraid? Didn't you tell me that you would never be a coward in the competition? Why don't you agree? If you are afraid, just surrender. I can let you go! "The reason why Don provoked Michael was that he wanted to irritate Michael so that Michael would agree to the bet. He wanted to kill Michael.

Therefore, when he saw Michael was shocked without any response, he immediately added some words to irritate Michael again.

"Let's bet!"

As expected, Michael was stimulated by Don. He felt humiliated and accepted the challenge.

However,

Finn interrupted him: "Michael, don't be impulsive."

"Brother Finn, I..." Michael wanted to explain. He thought Don was disgusting, and he was not afraid to die.

"Listen to me."

Finn shook his head gently, his voice was not loud, but there was no doubt about his attitude. He knew that Don just wanted to kill Michael!

In this way, Finn believed that Don was sure to win the next game; otherwise, he would not gamble his life!

What's more, through the first four races, Finn knew that drivers of Country K knew not only their abilities but also their rivals' abilities.

"Hey, I guessed you were a coward, isn't it? All of the people in Country C were cowards! You feared me, so you surrendered directly!" Seeing that Finn stopped Michael Yuwen, Don continued to stimulate Michael Yuwen. "Besides, you can change your decision because of a word from your subordinates. It's really disappointing..."

"What are you fucking saying?"

"Damn, do you dare to repeat it?"

This time, without Michael's reply, the surrounding Country C racers and the audience were angry. They roared and rushed to Don.

Don was a little afraid, but he didn't flinch. Instead, he looked at Michael with a sneer: "can't the underground racing league of Country C afford to lose? Do you want to bully us here? Aren't you afraid that it will be laughed at by racers in other countries? "

"Don't move!"

Don was a cunning man. He immediately found out the weakness of Michael Yuwen. When he finished his words, Michael Yuwen stopped the racers of Country C.

When they heard Michael's words, both the racers and the audience stopped, but they still pointed at Don and swore. If Don dared to speak out again, they would fight him.

"You'd better take care of your mouth, or I'm not sure you'll get out of here alive!" Michael Yuwen, who could feel the anger of the crowd, warn Don.

"Haha."

Don sneered, but did not dare to continue shouting, just staring at Michael Yuwen, "coward, tell me, do you dare to gamble life? If you don't dare to gamble life, we'll bet on one leg! If you lose, I'll break your leg. If you win, break my leg! "

This time, Michael Yuwen didn't answer. He resisted the impulse and looked at Finn. He saw Finn shaking his head again.

"Don, he is a coward. How could he agree?"

"Don, he will be scared. You'd better not scare him! Haha. "

Those racers of Country K all knew Don's intention, and when they heard Don's words, they all sneer at Micheal.

"Yes, he was terrified. He will not dare to accept the gamble." Don said sarcastically, but he understood that the reason why Michael Yuwen did not agree was that Finn stopped him. He was quite upset with Finn. However, he did not lampoon Finn. Instead, he continued to say to Michael Yuwen:

"Well, coward, since you don't dare to gamble on your life and leg, let's play it in a simpler way. If you lose, kneel in front of us, slap your face, and apologize. If you win, I will do the same thing - you won't even dare to bet on this? "

"Okay!"

Michael Yuwen finally agreed because he couldn't endure Don's words anymore. Then, he apologized to Finn: "sorry, brother Finn, I really can't stand him anymore! If I don't dare to promise anything, I'll be a real coward forever.
