

WHO IS THE REAL DAUGHTER: MISS LIN TAKES NO NONSENSE AFTER HER REBIRTH

Chapter 12: Still Not Giving Up

Lin Yin's avoidance made Chu Yun's expression freeze, but fortunately, Lin Yin did not continue to hold on to this. This breakfast was considered peaceful, but the bit of motherly love that had painstakingly appeared in Chu Yun was gone again.

However, Lin Yin didn't care. Just a little bit of her love was enough to disgust her for a long time.

But what Lin Yin didn't care about was what Su Fei cared about the most.

The thought of her parents' hearts returning to Lin Yin and her being chased out of the Su Family or becoming a joke made her feel suffocated.

Lin Yin looked at the expression on Su Fei's face, it changed several times in a short time. She knew what she was thinking.

She still did not give up and still wanted to scheme against her. This was the best. Only then could they have fun!

After breakfast, Su Fei returned to the bedroom.

Looking at the small room and thinking about how Lin Yin had embarrassed her in the past two days, Su Fei couldn't suppress the anger in her chest and threw a tantrum.

Lin Yin had only been in this house for two days, but she was already doing well. As time passes, what place will she have in this house?

Lin Yin had to get out of the Su Family as soon as possible!

After Su Fei vented her anger, she called the servants over to clean up while she changed her clothes and prepared to leave.

With Lin Yin in this house, she couldn't stay any longer. She wanted to go out and catch her breath before thinking about how to deal with Lin Yin!

In front of the huge, bright floor-to-ceiling window, Lin Yin watched calmly as Su Fei's car drove out of the Su Family villa.

She knew that after losing twice, Su Fei was already looking at her squarely. The fight between the two of them would only get worse.

But she was not afraid. She had crawled out of hell to begin with. She had returned to the mortal world for revenge. She would let them taste the pain she had experienced in her previous life!

“Bang, bang...” Aunt Li’s voice came from outside the door. “Miss Lin Yin, Madam asked me to bring you something.”

When she opened the door, Aunt Li was holding a set of diamond jewelry. She smiled at Lin Yin and said, “Madam chose this for you. Where should I put it?”

Lin Yin took a look. She didn’t want to accept it, but Aunt Li had treated her well in her previous life. She didn’t want to embarrass Aunt Li, so she accepted it in the end.

However, the words that came out of her mouth were not that nice. “Help me thank Madam. I don’t want to be framed for stealing someone else’s jewelry just because I don’t have any.”

Aunt Li knew that Chu Yun had done something wrong in the morning, so she advised, “Mrs. Chu also regrets and blames herself for what happened in the morning. She just lacks understanding of you, that’s why she’s like this. You two are mother and daughter. One day, Mrs. Chu will treat you the way she treated Miss Su Fei. She just needs some time.”

Mother and daughter? Chu Yun and Su Fei were the ones that were mother and daughter. It was impossible for it to be her.

Although she was disdainful, out of respect for Aunt Li, she did not say anything nasty. She only replied, “Thank you, Aunt Li. I understand.”

After leaving the Su Family, Lin Yin arrived at the Shenghua Building.

This was the most prosperous economic center. There were the most expensive jewelers in the city here. Lin Yin came here because she wanted to choose some jewelry that suited her.

Lin Yin didn’t have any makeup on and didn’t have any jewelry on her. The salesperson at the entrance couldn’t even be bothered to look at such a customer. She even tried to invite her out. “Miss, are you in the wrong place? The cheapest jewelry here costs 20,000 yuan.”

“Is 20,000 yuan a lot?” Lin Yin asked calmly.

The salesperson’s gaze swept past Lin Yin. Seeing that her outfit did not cost more than 300 yuan, the disdain in her eyes was obvious. “Don’t tell me you’ve never seen 20,000 yuan before? Then don’t come in.”

Lin Yin looked at her steadily, her eyes full of anger, scaring the salesperson into taking two steps back.

“I’m here to shop, not to listen to your jokes.”

“Since you don’t want to sell, I won’t entertain you anymore.” Lin Yin took out a gold card that could buy the entire street and walked out of the shop. She looked back at the dumbfounded salesperson and said, “I don’t know 20,000 yuan. I’ll just go to this shop where everything costs at least 100,000 yuan.”

The salesperson, who had been disdainful just now, instantly regretted letting go of a big client who could earn her a year’s commission!
