

Real Daughter 171

Chapter171 Rejected

Mu Ran took the small note from Lin Yin's hand and unfolded it. She finally understood what Lin Yin meant. This girl was rejecting his confession, but when had he ever confessed to Lin Yin?

"Where did you get this note?"

Lin Yin noticed that Mu Ran was in a bad mood and realized that there might be a misunderstanding.

"It's in the drawer where you keep the amulet." Lin Yin noticed that Mu Ran's expression suddenly turned ugly.

"It's my second brother..." Mu Ran gritted his teeth in anger. "I already told him to not do anything unnecessary."

Mu Ran sighed and explained to Lin Yin, "My second brother should have written this. I didn't know there was a note in the drawer."

Lin Yin nodded and heaved a sigh of relief.

"Wait." Mu Ran suddenly reacted to Lin Yin's previous actions and asked unhappily, "Little Yin, you thought that I'm confessing to you and you're so anxious to reject me?"

Although Mu Ran had no intention of confessing to Lin Yin, he was still a little unhappy to be rejected so decisively by Lin Yin.

"Isn't this a misunderstanding?" Lin Yin smiled awkwardly and saw Mu Ran lower his head thoughtfully.

“However, you still rejected me directly. Am I that bad?”

Mu Ran had always been the object of everyone’s pursuit. He had always been the one rejecting others. This was the first time he had been rejected so directly.

“No, Brother Mu Ran. I just don’t think we’re compatible. I don’t think you’re bad. You’re really outstanding. You’re almost perfect.”

Lin Yin felt that she had a good relationship with Mu Ran, but the way the two of them interacted was more like family or friends. There was no ambiguous feeling at all.

Hearing Lin Yin’s praise for her, Mu Ran’s mood improved a little. On second thought, he asked Lin Yin, “If Lu Ming confessed to you, would you reject him like this?”

Lin Yin suddenly thought of Lu Ming and her mind was in a mess. Would Lu Ming confess to her too? Lin Yin did not think that Lu Ming would confess to her. Even if it was a confession, he would not use such a childish method as writing a note.

Mu Ran noticed Lin Yin’s hesitation and couldn’t help but raise her voice. “Little Yin, no way? You like that old man Lu Ming too?”

When Lin Yin heard what Mu Ran called Lu Ming, she couldn’t help but laugh. Previously, Lu Ming would be unhappy when she called him Uncle. If he heard Mu Ran call him an old man, wouldn’t he explode with anger?

“Oh no...” Mu Ran’s heart turned cold when he saw Lin Yin suddenly smile foolishly. It seemed that this girl really treated Lu Ming differently.

“Alright, Brother Mu Ran, go and film. The director is looking for you.” Lin Yin pushed the devastated Mu Ran out. Seeing him leave in a daze, the smile on her face widened.

“Fortunately, Brother Mu Ran doesn’t like me. Otherwise, I don’t know how I’ll face him in the future,” Lin Yin muttered softly. She noticed Lan Xin, who had entered the set with Mu Ran, and the corners of her lips curled up.

“The two of them look compatible. If only Brother Mu Ran could notice Sister Lan Xin.”

Lin Yin had nothing to do in the afternoon, so she stayed at the filming location to watch Mu Ran and Lan Xin film. Wen Ying did not have many scenes, but she looked much more honest than before.

The filming went very smoothly. Mu Ran and Lan Xin also had a tacit understanding. Lin Yin was watching with relish when she suddenly felt a hand on her shoulder.

“Uncle?”

“What did you call me?” Lu Ming pinched Lin Yin’s cheek gently and deliberately blamed her. “Didn’t I teach you? Call me Brother.”

Lin Yin looked up and Lu Ming lowered his body. The two of them were a little close. Lin Yin tugged at the corner of her shirt nervously and called out softly, “Brother Lu Ming.”

Lu Ming chuckled and heard the director shout behind him, “Mu Ran, don’t watch the show here.”

Lin Yin looked past Lu Ming and saw Mu Ran staring at her and Lu Ming sadly not far away. She was shocked.

For some reason, she felt like she had been caught in a puppy love relationship by her parents. She hid behind Lu Ming and did not dare to look at Mu Ran.

“What are you afraid of?” Lu Ming turned around and looked at Mu Ran provocatively. If he hadn’t heard Lu Yan mention it, he wouldn’t have known that Mu Ran had tricked Lin Yin to the filming location. Fortunately, he discovered it in time.

Mu Ran saw Lu Ming's gaze and his mood worsened. He said to the director, "I'm sorry, Director. I need to rest."

The director quickly stopped filming. After all, Mu Ran did not have many such requests, so he asked everyone to rest and adjust.

Mu Ran walked quickly to Lu Ming and asked in an unfriendly tone, "Why are you here?"

Chapter172 They Look Compatible

"Why? You don't even know how to call me Brother after not seeing me for a few days?"

Lu Ming looked at the angry Mu Ran, but his mood was exceptionally good.

"Brother Lu, why are you here?"

Mu Ran's attitude was obviously worse. Lu Ming was not angry and said calmly, "I'm visiting you. After all, I have a good relationship with your two brothers."

This was the first time Mu Ran felt that Lu Ming was so annoying.

Noticing the curious gazes of the surrounding people, Mu Ran took a deep breath and adjusted his emotions. He said, "Brother Lu, my relationship with you isn't so close that I need you to visit me, right?"

"You've already called me Brother. Is there anything wrong with me coming?"

"You!" Mu Ran was about to explode when Wei Yuan, who was panting, grabbed him.

“CEO Lu, Little Ran is also happy that you can come to visit.” Wei Yuan looked at Mu Ran, who was clearly about to lose control of his emotions, and hurriedly stood in front of him. He smiled apologetically at Lu Ming and said, “CEO Lu, Little Yin, the director said that we’ll film the indoor scene first. Little Ran and I will go in and prepare first. You guys come in and take a look later.”

With that, Wei Yuan pulled Mu Ran away as quickly as possible. Lin Yin watched as Mu Ran left and heaved a sigh of relief.

“Why are you afraid of Mu Ran when you’re with me?” Lu Ming stared at Lin Yin, wanting to see her emotions.

“I’m not afraid. Brother Mu Ran...” Lin Yin was speechless. She couldn’t say that Mu Ran said that you had ulterior motives for me and asked me to hide from you, right?

“Does he think I like you and have been pestering you?” Lu Ming’s voice was a little low, but his eyes were gentle. Lin Yin was not used to Lu Ming like this.

“Yes, he just misunderstood and thought that you liked me,” Lin Yin explained.

“He didn’t misunderstand. I do like you,” Lu Ming interrupted Lin Yin, his deep eyes following her closely.

Lin Yin was at a loss by Lu Ming’s sudden confession. She stole a glance at Lu Ming and realized that his expression was especially serious. He did not look like he was joking at all.

“I...” Lin Yin didn’t know how to respond to Lu Ming. Facing Mu Ran, Lin Yin could clearly understand her attitude towards him, but Lu Ming puzzled Lin Yin. She didn’t know how she felt about him.

“There’s no hurry to reply to me, and there’s no need to feel burdened.” Lu Ming looked at Lin Yin’s lowered eyes, worried that he would be rejected by the little girl. “We’ll talk about these things after you go to university, okay?”

Lu Ming’s tone was exceptionally gentle. Lin Yin couldn’t refuse him like this and could only nod slightly.

Lu Ming was very happy to see Lin Yin's reaction. He could tell that she did not reject him. Then he would have plenty of time to win her heart in the future.

"Let's go in and watch Mu Ran film." Lu Ming gently held Lin Yin's wrist and led her to the filming location indoors.

Mu Ran and Lan Xin's scene was about the school's anniversary party. The male and female leads they played performed together tacitly. Mu Ran played the piano and Lan Xin sang. The two of them looked like a match made in heaven.

Lin Yin and Lu Ming sat in the back row and quietly enjoyed Mu Ran and Lan Xin's performance.

It was not until the director shouted for them to stop that Lin Yin retracted her gaze from the stage.

"Do you like the piano?" Lu Ming noticed that Lin Yin was staring at Mu Ran on the stage and felt a little uncomfortable. He wanted to tell Lin Yin that he played the piano better than Mu Ran.

"No, I just think Sister Lan Xin and Brother Mu Ran are really compatible. The scene of them standing together is especially eye-catching."

Hearing Lin Yin's words, Lu Ming's brows slowly relaxed. "Yes, we'll find an opportunity to get the two of them to film more advertisements together in the future. They do look very compatible."

Lin Yin noticed that Mu Ran was waving at her on the stage and said to Lu Ming, "Let's go up and take a look. They're done filming anyway."

Lu Ming followed Lin Yin onto the stage and walked to Mu Ran's side. The crew members were tidying up the set. Everyone walked past them busily, preparing for the next scene.

Lin Yin suddenly noticed a gaze staring straight in her and Mu Ran's direction. Lin Yin immediately looked over vigilantly and noticed a young man in a black cap.

“Why haven’t I seen him before?” Lin Yin had been to the production team many times and had some impression of most of the staff, but this was the first time Lin Yin had seen this man.

“What’s wrong?” Lu Ming noticed Lin Yin’s abnormality and hurriedly asked with concern.

“I’m fine.” Lin Yin shook her head. She didn’t know if she was too nervous, but it was normal for an unfamiliar staff member to appear on the production team.

Chapter173 Lin Yin Is Injured

“Brother Lu, I’m begging you. Can you not stare at Little Yin like that in front of me?”

Mu Ran couldn’t do anything about Lu Ming. He couldn’t really fight him. Even if he openly pursued Lin Yin, Mu Ran couldn’t do anything.

Lu Ming’s expression said, “What can you do to me?” Mu Ran gritted his teeth.

“Little Yin, come here. I have something to tell you.”

Mu Ran walked past Lu Ming and pulled Lin Yin over. He deliberately whispered to her, “Little Yin, I’m not scaring you. A man like Lu Ming is extremely possessive. If you’re with him, you won’t have any freedom in the future.”

“Isn’t it a little too much to speak ill of me in front of me?” Lu Ming said faintly from behind Mu Ran.

Mu Ran deliberately exaggerated and said to Lin Yin, “Look, you can’t even say a few words to me. I told you that such a man is very scary.”

Lin Yin looked at the childish duo and found it funny.

“CEO Lu, you’re so busy. Why didn’t you tell me in advance that you were coming? I could have prepared.”

Director Zhang had long heard from his assistant that Lu Ming was on set. After he was done with his work, he hurriedly looked for Lu Ming.

“Director Zhang, everyone can see your results. There’s no need to prepare anything. This movie will definitely become popular.” Lu Ming and Director Zhang exchanged a few pleasantries.

Not far away, Mu Ran whispered in Lin Yin’s ear, “The Lu Corporation also invested in this movie. I heard it from Brother Wei. Lu Ming is really capable. He can even take care of so many fields. He’s even more inhuman than my brother.”

Lin Yin didn’t know if Mu Ran was praising Lu Ming or scolding him again. She was about to say something when a cold glint flashed across her eyes.

“Brother Mu Ran, be careful!”

It happened in an instant. Lin Yin inadvertently saw the man in black behind Mu Ran rushing towards him.

Lin Yin didn’t have time to think and pulled Mu Ran hard to change positions with him. Although she was already mentally prepared, Lin Yin still couldn’t help but panic when she saw the sharp knife in the man’s hand.

The two of them were too close. Lin Yin could only hold the man’s knife tightly to prevent him from hurting her.

“Little Yin!”

Lu Ming and Mu Ran spoke at the same time. Lin Yin felt a sharp pain in her right hand. Lu Ming immediately went forward and kicked the man with the knife away.

“Little Yin, you’re bleeding!” Mu Ran looked at the bright red blood seeping out between Lin Yin’s fair and slender fingers and his heart ached.

Lu Ming kicked the man to the ground and kicked him a few more times. When the man stopped moving, the ruthlessness on Lu Ming’s face lessened.

“Little Yin!” Lu Ming’s eyelids twitched as he blamed himself for looking at Lin Yin’s injured hand.

Lu Ming untied his tie and wrapped it around Lin Yin’s bleeding hand. He thought for a moment and said to Mu Ran, “Contact your second brother. I’ll send Little Yin to the nearest hospital now.”

Mu Ran’s forehead was already covered in sweat. When she heard Lu Ming’s words, she hurriedly called Mu Xiao.

“CEO Lu, I’m really sorry. I’ve already called the police. I’ll definitely give this lady an explanation.”

Director Zhang realized what had just happened and was extremely afraid. From Lu Ming and Mu Ran’s reactions, this young lady’s family background was probably not ordinary. Even if she was from an ordinary family, with Lu Ming and Mu Ran protecting her, he could not underestimate her.

Lu Ming pulled Lin Yin into his arms and glanced at the man who was wailing in pain on the ground. His eyes were terrifyingly cold. “Send him to the police station first. I’ll go back and deal with him after I go to the hospital.”

The medical staff of the production team bandaged Lin Yin’s wound a second time. The bleeding still hadn’t stopped, and Lin Yin’s face was a little pale.

Lan Xin had also witnessed everything that had just happened. She looked at Lin Yin’s bleeding hand and was very anxious.

“CEO Lu, I’ll go to the hospital with you. If you go to the police station later, I’ll take care of Little Yin.”

Lan Xin's assistant knew that Lan Xin appearing at the hospital was definitely a big deal. If she was not careful, she would be photographed by the reporters. However, because the injured person was Lin Yin, the assistant did not stop Lan Xin. After all, Lin Yin was Lan Xin's savior.

"Okay, let's go." Lu Ming picked Lin Yin up, making her feel a little embarrassed. Although she had bled a lot, it was her hand that was injured after all.

"I can walk by myself. Put me down." Lin Yin wanted to get out of Lu Ming's arms, but she saw that Lu Ming looked especially nervous.

"Don't make my heart ache anymore. Little Yin, be good." Lu Ming carried Lin Yin and sounded like he was coaxing a child.

Mu Ran informed Mu Xiao to go to the nearest hospital on set and got into Lu Ming's car with Lan Xin.

Chapter174 Extra Strong

Lu Ming did not bring a driver, so he sat in the driver's seat. Mu Ran sat in the passenger seat, and Lan Xin helped Lin Yin sit in the back.

Lan Xin looked at Lin Yin's bleeding right hand and couldn't help but tear up.

"It must hurt a lot, right? Little Yin, bear with it. We're almost there." Lan Xin's tone was obviously a little choked up. She thought about how Lin Yin was only 17 or 18 years old and how terrible it must be to be frightened like this.

Lin Yin looked at Lan Xin, who was about to cry, and comforted her softly, "It's okay. It doesn't hurt."

Lin Yin was not lying. This pain was much lighter than the injuries she had suffered in her previous life.

In her previous life, she was in so much pain that she couldn't breathe, but no one cared about her life or death. Now, she had only injured one hand, but so many people cared about her. Lin Yin was actually very happy.

“You’re so silly, I’m a man, so what if I get hurt? Why did you pounce on me?”

Mu Ran really couldn’t control his emotions, and his voice already sounded like a cry. “What if he really stabs you?! Little Yin, do you want me to regret it?”

“Brother Mu Ran, I’m really fine. Don’t worry.” Lin Yin looked at Mu Ran’s obviously shaking shoulders and didn’t know how to comfort him.

“Do you have any enemies?” Lu Ming’s thoughts were in a mess. He was driving very fast, but his emotions were getting more and more complicated.

“Who knows? Perhaps it’s a fan, an extreme fan, or an enemy of the Mu family. I can’t be sure who it is.” Mu Ran thought of the man in black just now and wished he could cut him into pieces, but he had indeed never seen him before.

“I actually let Little Yin suffer such a serious injury on my behalf. I’m really f*cking useless.” Mu Ran scratched his head in self-reproach. In the back row, Lan Xin was also very worried about Mu Ran’s condition.

However, Lin Yin, who was beside her, surprised Lan Xin even more. What kind of person was she? She usually looked noble and cold, but during critical moments, she could actually face danger for her friend.

Lan Xin felt that she really could not compare to this seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl in front of her. The quality that she carried made her look even more dazzling. Everyone who knew her would be moved by her uniqueness.

Lu Ming drove very quickly. Soon, they arrived at the hospital closest to the filming location.

Lu Ming carried Lin Yin into the VIP ward. The director of the hospital happened to be one of Mu Xiao’s teachers when he was in the country. Before he came, Mu Xiao had already instructed him in advance. Shen Yu had arrived at the hospital before them and had already completed all the relevant procedures.

“What exactly happened?” Mu Xiao rushed over from home.

On the phone, Mu Ran had said that Lin Yin was injured, but when he saw the long knife wound on Lin Yin’s hand with his own eyes, Mu Xiao couldn’t help but ask, “Didn’t you go to the filming venue? Why is there a knife wound on your hand?”

Mu Xiao gently disinfected Lin Yin. When the two nurses behind him heard from the director that the celebrity-like man in front of them was the legendary Doctor Mu Xiao, they looked at him intently.

“It’s all because of me!” Mu Ran looked at the hideous wound on Lin Yin’s hand and bent down to squat in front of her. “Little Yin, it must hurt a lot, right? I’m sorry...”

The two nurses standing at the door had been looking at Mu Xiao. Only then did they notice the group of people who came in with the injured girl.

Oh my god! Isn’t this Prince Charming Mu Ran and Goddess Lan Xin? The two nurses looked at each other excitedly. They resisted the urge to scream and looked at the tall man who had been standing beside the girl.

His facial features were also as exquisite as a sculpture. What was even more shocking than his cold and handsome appearance was the powerful aura he emitted. He had a dignified aura without being angry, but the way he looked at the injured girl was exceptionally gentle.

Who was this girl? When the two nurses saw the people accompanying the girl, they could not help but become more and more curious about the girl’s identity.

“You guys go out first. I need to stitch up Little Yin’s wound.” Mu Xiao stopped the bleeding for Lin Yin, but her wound was too long and had to be stitched up.

Mu Ran’s expression turned even uglier when he heard Mu Xiao’s words.

“Let’s go. We can’t be of any help here,” Lan Xin couldn’t help but say as she looked at the depressed Mu Ran.

Mu Ran nodded and looked away from Lin Yin reluctantly. He followed Lan Xin out and into the room next door.

“CEO Lu?” Mu Xiao looked at Lu Ming, who was standing rooted to the ground, and reminded him.

“I’ll stay with her.” Lu Ming had no intention of leaving.

Mu Xiao nodded helplessly and began to prepare for the suture.

Mu Xiao usually did not deal with such small injuries, but because the injured person was Lin Yin, Mu Xiao was especially serious.

Chapter175 Blood Type Test

Lin Yin was very strong. She didn’t even frown the entire time. She didn’t think that her small injury was anything, but everyone was too nervous.

Mu Xiao was very surprised by the girl in front of him. When he was cleaning the wound, he had thought that the little girl would not be able to take it. He did not expect Lin Yin to comfort him.

“It’s okay, Brother Mu Xiao. It doesn’t hurt at all.” Lin Yin noticed Mu Xiao’s especially careful movements and couldn’t help but say.

She had already felt that as a world-renowned doctor, it was a waste of his talent to stitch up this small injury. Now that she saw that Mu Xiao was especially attentive, she felt even more embarrassed.

Mu Xiao’s professional ability was too strong. Lin Yin really did not feel any pain. Soon, her wound was stitched and bandaged very well.

“Do another checkup later, in case there are any other problems.”

Mu Xiao heard the meaning in Mu Ran's words just now. Lin Yin was injured because of him. Although he still did not understand what had happened, Mu Xiao still admired Lin Yin's strength and calmness.

"Okay, thank you, Brother Mu Xiao." Lin Yin sat up a little with Lu Ming's help. She was still a little dizzy, but there was really no problem now.

Seeing that Lin Yin was fine, Mu Xiao walked out of the ward and thought of something. He said to the two nurses behind him, "Give Miss Lin Yin a blood type test later and hand her test results to me."

Although the two nurses did not know what Mu Xiao wanted to do, they still nodded vigorously.

Mu Xiao walked to the lounge where Mu Ran and Lan Xin were. As soon as he entered, he saw Mu Ran walking over nervously. "Second Brother, how's Little Yin?"

"The mother and child are safe." Mu Xiao looked at the concerned Mu Ran and couldn't help teasing him.

"Second Brother! You're still joking at a time like this!"

Mu Ran was obviously a little anxious. Mu Xiao smiled and hurriedly explained, "It's fine. The little girl is very strong. You don't have to worry."

Chapter 176: Enemy of the Mu Family

Mu Ran sat on the other side of Lin Yin and did not notice Lu Ming's cold gaze. "It's fine, Brother Mu Ran." Lin Yin saw Mu Ran's concerned expression and warmth surged into her heart.

Seeing that Lin Yin was in a good state, Lan Xin took the initiative to stay and take care of her, so Lu Ming and Mu Ran went to the police station.

Shen Yu had already prepared the car. Mu Ran got into the car with Lu Ming with mixed feelings.

“What did the police say?” Lu Ming asked Shen Yu, who was driving.

“The person who hurt Miss Lin is called Zhou Wei. He’s 35 years old and has no criminal record. He’s an orphan and has been unemployed.”

Shen Yu told Lu Ming the news from the police station. He looked at Mu Ran, who had his head lowered, and asked, “Mr. Mu, do you have any impression of this person called Zhou Wei?”

Mu Ran shook his head. “No, my social circle is very small. The people I know are just people I’ve met at work. He’s unemployed, so he probably doesn’t have much contact with me.”

When Lu Ming heard Mu Ran’s words, he voiced his guess. “That person came for you. It shouldn’t have anything to do with Lin Yin. When I knocked him to the ground, he looked at you from time to time, his eyes filled with hostility.”

Mu Ran really could not understand who wanted to take his life. “Then there are only two possibilities. He should be an extreme fan of mine, or he’s an enemy of the Mu Family. He’s undoubtedly targeting me to take revenge on the Mu Family.”

Lu Ming nodded. He thought so too.

Mu Ran’s father, Mu Cheng, was publicly acknowledged as the most untouchable existence in the eyes of the business world. Back then, Mu Cheng was decisive and was a rare business genius.

The Mu Family’s businesses were getting stronger and stronger under Mu Cheng’s management. Although many people were jealous, no one was willing to openly become enemies with the Mu Family.

Mu Cheng’s three sons were even more outstanding. Mu Heng’s methods were very similar to the young Mu Cheng’s. Most of the Mu family’s businesses were handled by Mu Heng.

Mu Xiao was unwilling to enter the business world, but he was a top talent in the medical field. Many people had exhausted their financial resources and connections to seek Mu Xiao’s consultation.

Mu Ran was the youngest son of the Mu Family. Mu Cheng had always indulged him and did not force him to learn financial knowledge. Although Mu Ran was a celebrity, the influence he brought had a good impact on the Mu Family's business.

It was impossible for the Mu Family not to have enemies, but someone who dared to directly kill Mu Ran was probably not that simple.

Lu Ming and Mu Ran arrived at the police station and met Zhou Wei under the lead of the police.

When Zhou Wei saw that Mu Ran was safe and sound, his eyes seemed to be dyed red. Lu Ming stared at the handcuffed man and felt that his hatred for Mu Ran was deep.

"The criminal said that he's an extreme fan of Mu Ran and wants to kill him because he hates him." The police officer who had just interrogated Zhou Wei, Lu Ming, and Mu Ran said, "The lawyer can intervene in the rest. Zhou Wei's actions can already be considered an attempted murder."

Although Lu Ming felt that this outcome was reasonable, he felt that the way Zhou Wei looked at Mu Ran was not as simple as dislike.

"Brother Lu, Brother Wei and Director Zhang have already started to deal with it. Is there anything else we need to investigate?" Although Mu Ran really wanted to rush in and beat up the bastard who had injured Lin Yin, the matter had already been handled by the police station. He couldn't be so impulsive.

Lu Ming thought about it and still felt that Zhou Wei was not that simple. "Can you let me talk to him?"

The police officer nodded and brought Zhou Wei into the interrogation room.

Lu Ming walked into the interrogation room and closed the door.

"Lu Ming?" Zhou Wei was clearly surprised to see the man who came in.

“You know me?” Lu Ming sat opposite Zhou Wei curiously and carefully observed his microexpression.

“Who doesn’t know the big boss of the Lu Corporation?” Zhou Wei looked indifferent, but Lu Ming clearly noticed that he was a little nervous.

“Do you have a grudge against Mu Ran?” Lu Ming’s voice was low, making him sound much calmer.

“I just can’t stand him, can’t I?” Zhou Wei’s words were sarcastic. He didn’t want to hear Mu Ran’s name.

“What about Mu Xiao and Mu Heng? What do you think of them?” Lu Ming noticed Zhou Wei’s frown and could tell that he was very angry.

“What does it have to do with me? It’s only good if they’re all dead!” Zhou Wei suddenly became agitated and shouted at Lu Ming, “They all deserve to die!”

Lu Ming noticed that Zhou Wei was clearly mentally abnormal. It seemed like he had some mental illness..

Chapter 177: Test Result

“Mu Cheng, do you know him?” Lu Ming had no intention of letting Zhou Wei off and continued to ask.

A vein faintly appeared on Zhou Wei’s forehead, and his body swayed slightly.

“I don’t know him.” Zhou Wei seemed to be suppressing the anger in his heart.

Lu Ming noticed his abnormality and could tell that he was lying.

Lu Ming did not ask anything else. He already knew the answer he wanted.

Walking out of the interrogation room, Mu Ran hurriedly went up to him. "Brother Lu, did you get anything out of him?"

"It should be a grudge formed by your father. Go home and ask. Investigate who Zhou Wei usually interacts with. It might be related to your father."

Lu Ming was not interested in the Mu family's matters. After knowing that Zhou Wei and Lin Yin had nothing to do with each other, he did not want to interfere in this matter anymore.

"Thank you, Brother Lu."

Mu Ran glanced at Lu Ming. He had to admit that Lu Ming was much calmer than him. When Mu Ran saw that Lin Yin was injured, he was completely flustered. If Lu Ming wasn't there to deal with it, he really didn't know what to do.

After Lu Ming and Mu Ran separated, they prepared to return to the hospital to see Lin Yin. Lin Yin had done a series of checks in the hospital and her body was completely fine.

As Lan Xin peeled an apple for Lin Yin, she chatted with her, "Little Yin, don't be so impulsive in the future. We're lucky that nothing big happened this time. You're a girl, what if you hurt your face?"

Lin Yin thought of the scars on her face from her previous life and felt a little upset. That heart-wrenching feeling seemed to have happened yesterday.

"It's fine, Sister Lan Xin. You can go back first. The production team's work isn't done yet, right?" Lin Yin really felt that there was nothing wrong with her body. If Lan Xin and Mu Xiao hadn't stopped her, she would have been discharged.

"You can't stay in the hospital alone. I'll stay with you." Lan Xin was worried about leaving Lin Yin alone in the hospital.

Lin Yin didn't want to affect Lan Xin's work, so she sent a message to Yang Xue and Lu Yan, asking if they had time to come to the hospital to accompany her.

"Sister Lan Xin, don't worry. I called a friend over." Seeing Lan Xin's hesitation,

Lin Yin continued, "You received a few calls just now. Go get busy. I'm fine."

Lan Xin did have a lot of things to do. She left the hospital at Lin Yin's insistence and saw Lu Ming, who had just rushed back, at the entrance of the hospital.

"CEO Lu." Lan Xin glanced at Lu Ming and felt that he was a little different from the rumors in the past. Lu Ming had always been recognized as the coldest person in everyone's hearts. There were many female celebrities around Lan Xin who wanted to get to know Lu Ming, but he rejected them mercilessly.

Therefore, before she met Lu Ming, Lan Xin had always felt that Lu Ming was the kind of person who focused on his work and would not put his mind on useless relationships. However, ever since she came into contact with Lu Ming, she realized that this cold-looking man actually had such a meticulous and gentle side. Lan Xin could tell that Lin Yin was very important to Lu Ming.

"How's Little Yin?" Lu Ming knew that Lin Yin and Lan Xin had a good relationship.

"It's nothing serious. Doctor Mu said that as long as she's careful not to get infected, she'll be fine in a month." Lan Xin kept a distance from Lu Ming. She felt a little oppressed standing face-to-face with Lu Ming.

Lu Ming and Lan Xin separated and walked towards Lin Yin's ward. Mu Xiao, who was next door, was holding Lin Yin's test report with an especially solemn expression.

"It can't be such a coincidence, right?" Mu Xiao looked at the test report with mixed feelings. He had thought that he was too sensitive, but he was still a little surprised to see that Lin Yin and Mu Ran had the same Rh blood type.

Mu Xiao's father, Mu Cheng, had rare Rh-negative blood. Mu Heng had O-type blood like his mother. Mu Xiao had thought that Lin Yin would at most have O-type blood like him, but he did not expect her to have extremely rare Rh-type blood like Mu Ran.

Mu Xiao became more and more suspicious of Lin Yin's identity. She was very likely his sister, who had already been declared dead.

He was not even ten years old when his sister had an accident back then. There were many things that he did not know. Mu Xiao put away the report and decided to go to his aunt's house tonight to ask about what had happened back then.

When he returned to the ward, Mu Xiao saw Lu Ming sitting by Lin Yin's bed the moment he entered. He was also a little angry.

If Lin Yin was really his sister, Lu Ming did look even more annoying.

"Lu Ming, how's the police station?" Mu Xiao gestured for Lu Ming to sit on the chair and sat beside Lin Yin..

Chapter 178: Getting Closer

Lu Ming looked at Mu Xiao and said slowly, "That Zhou Wei looks a little suspicious. He's going for the Mu Family. He should be your enemy."

Mu Xiao nodded. "That makes sense. There should be many people who can't stand our Mu family, but who has the guts?"

Mu Xiao glanced at Lu Ming. "Thank you for this. I'll tell my brother about what happened after that and ask him to investigate."

"Sister Little Yin, you have to rest well. Don't let your hands get wet or use force. You'll be fine soon if you change the dressing on time." Mu Xiao's tone was especially gentle to Lin Yin. Lu Ming felt that the smile on his face was a little dazzling.

“Brother Mu Xiao, can I go home?” Lin Yin felt that her small injury was really nothing.

“Sure, but it’s best if you stay in the hospital. It’s inconvenient for you to move now, it’s good to have someone to take care of you.” Mu Xiao instructed Lin Yin, “I still have something on tonight, so I’ll leave first. If you’re not feeling well, you can contact me through the phone.”

Mu Xiao glanced at Lu Ming, who was sitting at the side. Seeing that he had no intention of leaving, he said, “CEO Lu must be very busy with work, right? Do you want me to send you to the company on the way?”

Lu Ming looked at Mu Xiao, who was smiling like a fox, and said calmly, “I’m the boss. It’s up to me whether I’m busy with work or not. I don’t have to go to the company today.”

The corners of Mu Xiao’s mouth twitched. He did not expect that this former workaholic would take the initiative to give himself a break.

“Brother Mu Xiao, I’m fine. My friend will come over later. You can leave first,” Lin Yin hurriedly explained when she saw that Mu Xiao was worried.

Mu Xiao looked at Lu Ming and shook his head helplessly. He turned around and left the ward.

“Little Yin, do you want to go home?” Lu Ming adjusted the height of the bed for Lin Yin to lie more comfortably.

“Yes, I don’t like staying in the hospital.” Lin Yin really didn’t have any good memories of the hospital.

Lu Ming knew about the relationship between Lin Yin and the Su Family. He thought for a moment and said, “Then come back to Shenglin Bay with me. Your right hand is injured. It’s really inconvenient for you to be alone.”

Lin Yin was about to refuse when the door of the ward was suddenly pulled open.

“Little Yin!” Lu Yan and Yang Xue walked in together. The two of them looked a little nervous and their hair was a little messy. It was obvious that they were in a hurry to rush over.

“Little Uncle?” Lu Yan was a little surprised to see Lu Ming. She did not expect her uncle to come to the hospital to visit Lin Yin.

“How did you hurt yourself? Is it serious?” Yang Xue looked Lin Yin up and down and realized that her right hand was wrapped up like a dumpling.

“It’s fine. It’s just not convenient to move around. I wanted you guys to come accompany me.” Lin Yin felt much more at ease when she saw Lu Yan and Yang

Xue.

“Lin Yin, how did you get hurt?” Lu Yan looked at Lu Ming in confusion. She felt that with him around, Lin Yin shouldn’t be hurt.

“A knife-wielding person came into Brother Mu Ran’s filming location. I was just careless...” Before Lin Yin could finish speaking, Yang Xue and Lu Yan hurriedly came over.

“What? Did you get cut by a knife? It’s so serious! Is Prince Charming alright?” Lu Yan couldn’t believe that someone would hurt someone with a knife.

“Aren’t you here to see Lin Yin? Why are you still thinking about outsiders?” Lu

Ming was a little unhappy when he saw that Lu Yan was worried about Mu Ran.

It was because of Mu Ran and Lin Yin that she was injured. It was already good enough that he did not pursue the matter.

“Didn’t I see that Lin Yin was fine?” Lu Yan pursed her lips and muttered softly, “It’s all because you didn’t protect Lin Yin well. Otherwise, how could she be injured?”

Lu Yan’s words were purely to talk back to Lu Ming. She knew that it was impossible for Lu Ming to be blamed for this, but she did not want Lu Ming to continue complaining.

She was ready to continue being scolded by Lu Ming, but she realized that something was wrong with Lu Ming’s emotions. What happened next was even more unbelievable.

“I was indeed careless. I won’t let anyone hurt you again.”

Lu Ming’s tone was very serious, and he looked at Lin Yin with a heavy gaze. He was really afraid. If anything really happened to Lin Yin, Lu Ming would not be relieved even if he tore that man called Zhou Wei into pieces.

Lu Yan looked at Lu Ming in surprise. Was this still her insufferably arrogant uncle? He actually took the initiative to admit his mistake and blamed himself so much!

“I’m really fine.” Lin Yin was about to call Lu Ming Brother when she saw Lu Yan and Yang Xue beside her. She was too embarrassed to speak.

“You should go busy yourself first. Just let Lu Yan and Yang Xue stay here with me..”

Chapter 179: Special Blood Type

Lin Yin did not notice. She did not know when it started, but her relationship with Lu Ming had become closer and closer.

Lu Ming nodded and stood up to say to them, “Then I’ll go back to the company first. If you want to be discharged later, you can go back to Shenglin Bay to stay together. With Aunt Song around, she can take care of you guys.”

Lin Yin nodded and watched Lu Ming leave. Lu Yan only relaxed when Lu Ming closed the door.

“Lin Yin, what’s going on? Was my uncle here today?”

Lin Yin nodded and explained to them, “I was present. What happened today was a little sudden. The person who stabbed me is already at the police station. Brother Mu Ran has already gone to deal with it.”

“How could such a thing happen?” Yang Xue looked at Lin Yin’s right hand worriedly.

“That person should be targeting Brother Mu Ran. I don’t know why.” Lin Yin did not regret blocking the knife for Mu Ran at all. If she had not stopped him, Mu Ran’s injuries would have been worse than hers.

Lin Yin was about to return to Shenglin Bay with Lu Yan and Yang Xue. Before leaving the hospital, the nurse kept reminding Lin Yin about some things to take note of. Lin Yin didn’t think much of it, but Lu Yan and Yang Xue listened especially seriously.

“Miss Lin Yin, you have to be more careful in the future. Try not to be injured.”

The nurse was very enthusiastic towards Lin Yin. Seeing that Lin Yin and Doctor Mu were very close, she was a little envious. “For a rare blood type like you, the consequences of being injured are very terrifying.”

When Lin Yin heard the nurse’s words, she was suddenly stunned and her mind was in a mess.

“Rare blood type?” Lin Yin repeated the nurse’s words, her eyes filled with suspicion.

“Don’t you know?” The young nurse was a little puzzled. Usually, anyone who had been to the hospital with such a rare blood type would be reminded. “Dr. Mu specially asked me to do a checkup because you don’t know?”

“Brother Mu Xiao?” Lin Yin could not understand. Su Zhen and Chu Yun were both of type AB blood. No matter what, it was impossible for them to give birth to a child with a rare blood type, unless... she was not their biological daughter at all!

Lin Yin felt a little dizzy. Lu Yan and Yang Xue thought that she was not feeling well and hurriedly held Lin Yin.

“Thank you. We’ll go back first.” Lu Yan and Yang Xue looked at Lin Yin’s pale face and thought that she was too tired. They helped her out of the hospital and got into the Lu Family’s car.

“Lin Yin, what’s wrong? Are you very uncomfortable?” Yang Xue was a little worried. Lin Yin had been silent and looked troubled.

“Why don’t we stay in the hospital?” Lu Yan was also a little worried, but she didn’t notice anything wrong with Lin Yin’s conversation with the nurse just now.

“It’s fine. Drive. I’m just a little tired.” Lin Yin’s heart was in a mess. Many things were gradually coming together. She needed to calm down.

“Alright.” Lu Yan glanced at Lin Yin and reminded her, “But the nurse was right just now. People with rare blood types should be careful. Prince Charming Mu has a rare blood type too. You should all be the focus of protection.”

When Lin Yin heard Lu Yan’s words, she asked in disbelief, “Are rare blood types very common?”

“How could that be? I’ve only heard that you and Prince Charming Mu are. Your family should have one too. The probability is still very low.”

Lu Yan didn’t notice Lin Yin’s abnormality. Seeing that she had closed her eyes, she stopped disturbing her and wanted Lin Yin to rest well.

Lin Yin had no intention of sleeping at all. She knew that there was no one with a rare blood type in the Su Family. Her paternity test with Su Zhen clearly said that she had type A blood.

It seemed like someone must have tampered with the paternity test. Lin Yin’s thoughts were a little chaotic. If she was not a child of the Su Family, who were her biological parents?

Why did Mu Xiao want to test her blood type? Did he discover something? Lin Yin suddenly thought of the conversation she had with Mu Xiao at the Mu family. He had said that she looked a little like him. Could it be that Mu Xiao had tested her blood type because of this?

Didn't the Mu family's youngest daughter die in an accident? How could it be her? Could it be that Chu Yun gave birth to her behind Su Zhen's back? Lin Yin was filled with questions. She didn't know who she should trust. There were some things that she could only verify herself.

Lin Yin thought for a moment. Chu Yun and Mu Xiao had to be investigated for this matter. She had to confirm if she and Chu Yun were mother and daughter first and ask Mu Xiao what was going on with his dead sister.

On the way to Shenglin Bay, Mu Xiao had already arrived at his aunt Mu Yao's house..

Chapter 180: The Past

"Little Xiao, don't leave when you return to the country this time. It's better to stay in the country. It's closer to home."

The middle-aged woman on the sofa took good care of herself. Her facial features were a little stern, but she looked at Mu Xiao with love. Mu Xiao was the closest to her among the three children of the Mu family.

"Little Xiao, don't listen to your aunt. You're capable. It's good to go out there.

What's the point of staying at home?"

Wen Rui, who was sitting beside Mu Yao, glanced at his disappointing son beside Mu Xiao and turned to Mu Xiao. "If you go overseas, bring Wen Yu along. Something will happen to him sooner or later if he stays with those scoundrels."

"Dad!" Wen Yu looked at his father indignantly and said to Mu Yao aggrievedly, "I was doing that to broaden my connections and make more friends. It might even help our family's business in the future."

“Forget it. It’s fine if you hang out with Little Ran. Get to know a few more celebrities and provide the company with a few more spokespersons. You, on the other hand, go to those entertainment venues all day long. What can you

Although Wen Rui knew that Wen Yu was not a child who would mess around, he was also worried that if he stayed in that environment for too long, he would be influenced.

“Wen Yu has improved. I heard that his results are not bad and he can go to a good university.” Mu Xiao looked at his little cousin who had the aura of a profligate son and smiled to help him out.

“That’s right. It’s not like my studies are affected.” Wen Yu looked at Mu Yao aggrievedly and cried to her, “Mom, Dad keeps stopping my card. There are a few times when I can’t swipe it when I pay the bill. It’s so embarrassing!”

Wen Rui looked at his wife and hurriedly explained, “I saw that he always went to nightclubs. I was afraid that he would cause trouble, so I made him financially tight. I could also limit his spending.”

“I won’t be with those shady people. Mom, just let Dad restore my card. I really don’t have money.” Wen Yu knew that as long as his mother agreed, no one could do anything to him.

“Old Wen, recover his card. It’s fine if Little Yu likes to play at his age.” Mu Yao’s heart ached for Wen Yu. She had never made him suffer financially.

“What if he learns bad things? You can’t always pamper him.” Wen Rui was still a little worried. He had heard that the youngest son of the Yue Family had offended a big shot because of his lifestyle. Now, he was beaten up so badly that he couldn’t even get out of bed.

“How dare he!” Although Mu Yao’s tone was very gentle, Wen Yu and his father subconsciously sat up straight.

“Little Yu, Mom won’t interfere too much with you, but if you dare to cause trouble for me, Mom will break your legs.” Mu Yao patted Wen Yu’s shoulder gently.

Wen Yu laughed dryly and moved closer to Mu Xiao. He had to admit that the reason why he could keep himself clean was directly related to Mu Yao.

Many of Wen Yu’s friends had many shady hobbies. He was sometimes curious, but he really did not dare to interact with them. If Mu Yao found out, he would definitely be beaten half to death by her and locked up at home.

Mu Xiao looked at Mu Yao’s sharp expression and felt that his aunt was still the same as before. Just like his father, she was bold and direct.

“Aunt, actually, I came here to ask you something.” Mu Xiao thought of Lin Yin and told her the main reason for coming today.

Mu Yao saw Mu Xiao’s suddenly serious expression and said to him, “Do you want to talk in the study?”

Mu Xiao had no intention of hiding it from his uncle and Wen Yu. “Let’s talk here. It’s all in the past. Aunt, do you still remember some details of my sister’s accident?”

Hearing Mu Xiao’s words, Mu Yao frowned slightly. Although this matter had been many years ago, it had always been a thorn in her heart. It still hurt when it was mentioned.

“Why do you suddenly want to ask these questions?” Mu Yao’s expression did not look too good. Once her past memories were mentioned, they surged into her heart like a tidal wave.

“What happened back then might not be that simple.” Mu Xiao’s tone was very serious, and Mu Yao became serious.

“I’m still responsible for your sister’s death now that I think about it.”

Mu Yao's eyes were filled with sadness. Wen Yu, who was beside her, was also a little nervous. This was the first time he had heard his mother mention something that happened more than ten years ago. Previously, whenever he asked curiously, his father would stop him from mentioning his mother's sad matter.

Wen Yu had heard from his father that when he was born, his aunt, Ye Wen, was Mu Xiao's mother. Her child was one month old and had an accident when she came to visit her mother..
