

Real Daughter 21

Chapter 21: Won't Be Biased

It was not that they had not seen poor people before. As long as they were fed and they were given money to spend, there was no one of them who would not be at their beck and call. But they were wrong.

They thought that poor people were spineless, but that was not the case. Not all poor people were like this.

Lin Yin was not.

“Lin Yin, you’re our biological daughter. Don’t resent Mom and Dad, okay?” Seeing that the situation was in a deadlock, Chu Yun wiped her tears and started to play the emotional card. “But your sister has lived with us for many years. Now that we’ve adopted her, you can accept her, right?”

Ha, adoption? The word finally returned to the right place.

Lin Yin cleared her throat and said, “You guys adopted Sister. Do you want to go through the formal procedures?”

This woman was getting ahead of herself! Su Fei was shocked. It was as if she could already see Lin Yin inheriting all of the Su Family’s assets while Lin Yin mercilessly mocked her.

Chu Yun was also stunned. She did not expect Lin Yin to say that.

Are you kidding me? Registering a slum girl under my name?

Su Fei and Lin Yin had been swapped at the hospital. Su Fei was registered under the Su Family’s name. If they changed it again, they would have to go through a lot of trouble.

Seeing that Chu Yun was silent, Su Zhen looked at Lin Yin. "There's still a long way to go. We'll treat you well in the future. Even if you can't be registered under our name, you're still our biological daughter. In the future, you'll be on par with your sister and we won't be biased."

On par. It sounded like a great honor.

Lin Yin didn't want anything else. She just wanted to make things difficult for them. She didn't expect him to say such things.

"On par?" Lin Yin laughed angrily. "You flattered me. Should I kowtow to thank you?"

Su Fei's face flushed red and white. She felt guilty and awkward. Who else would Lin Yin need to kowtow to and thank?

Su Fei opened her mouth and exhaled slightly. She did not expect that she, who had always been good at overshadowing others, would not know how to interrupt.

"What else do you want?" Su Zhen suppressed his temper and asked as calmly as possible, but his words were still sharp.

"I want my sister to apologize to me for this incident."

Lin Yin's words were powerful. Su Zhen thought that Lin Yin was fighting for status and assets. He did not expect that she was just waiting for an apology.

Su Zhen felt guilty again.

Su Fei held back her tears and cried out in her heart.

This was not lowering her head and making her admit her mistake. This was destroying her image as an obedient girl and making her admit that she was sowing discord. This was not allowed!

Su Fei pretended to collapse, clutching her chest. She was so weak that she was almost leaning over the servant beside her.

Chu Yun's heart ached as she went upstairs. She pulled Su Fei over and let her lie on her shoulder. She patted her back gently and comforted her.

What a touching scene of a loving mother and a filial daughter.

If it was the Lin Yin in her previous life, she would definitely be jealous and feel inferior at this moment, hoping so much that the person in Chu Yun's arms was her. But now, none of this mattered.

Although Su Zhen's heart ached to see Su Fei so ill, he knew very well that if Su Fei did not apologize, Lin Yin would definitely not let her off.

"Feifei, apologize to your sister."

The dignity in Su Zhen's eyes was unquestionable, scaring Su Fei so much that she trembled. Chu Yun immediately held her hand with heartache.

"Sister Lin Yin, I couldn't stop Shi Dai. I apologize," Su Fei said weakly. With that, she suddenly fainted to the ground, tears falling from the corners of her eyes.

This was the art of language. Even if she apologized, she could still remove herself completely.

"Quick, call the doctor over! How did you look after Feifei?" Chu Yun was flustered and instructed the servants to carry Su Fei back.

Seeing Su Fei's performance, Lin Yin snorted.

Lin Yin continued, "Also, make a statement and announce my identity to the public. It can be considered an ending to the s online."

Lin Yin knew what Su Fei cared about the most. Once the announcement was made, Su Fei would completely lose her title as the daughter of the Su Family and become known as their adopted daughter.

As for registering Lin Yin under the Su Family's name? Pfft! Just thinking about it made her feel disgusted! There was no need.

Hearing this, Su Fei was so angry that she wanted to stand up, but she was pretending to be unconscious and had to close her eyes tightly. The hatred in her heart was about to overflow.

This b*tch! She really had ill intentions! She was here to snatch! She was here to snatch!

Chapter 22: Unscathed

Su Zhen understood that making a statement was the best way to resolve public opinion. All kinds of news were everywhere. Only an official response could stop the public from talking.

Su Zhen picked up his phone and dialed a number. He said to the person on the other end of the line, "Secretary Zhang, write a statement announcing that Miss Lin Yin is the biological daughter of the Su Family. Write it down and show it to Miss Lin Yin. If there's no problem, send it out."

Lin Yin knew that this fight did not mean victory.

Su Zhen did this because he was pressured by public opinion and because he was still busy repairing his relationship with the Shi Family.

The Shi Family was not afraid of the Su Family, so they did not hide the fact that they had exposed them. They even did it openly. Su Zhen's statement could be considered as showing President Shi respect. Everyone could still get along well when they met.

Although the Shi Family didn't like Lin Yin either, they knew that Su Zhen didn't want to admit that Lin Yin, a girl from the slums, was his biological daughter. This was something Su Zhen wanted to hide.

By forcing them to reveal Lin Yin's identity as their biological daughter, the Su Family's drama had already far exceeded the Shi Family as a topic of conversation in upper-class society.

In short, this incident finally came to an end and Lin Yin could be considered to have escaped unscathed.

As she watched Su Fei being carried into the room, an imperceptible smile appeared on Lin Yin's face. She couldn't take it anymore? There was no hurry. Take it slow. As Su Zhen had said, there was still a long way to go. Su Fei would have to suffer a lot more in the future!

Lin Yin was mainly trying to trigger Su Fei. The angrier Su Fei was, the happier Lin Yin felt.

As soon as Su Zhen and Chu Yun's car left the Su family's house, Su Fei didn't wait to break into Lin Yin's room with her spare keys to settle the score with her.

"Are you happy now?!" Su Fei said sternly. It was still hard for Su Fei to accept when she saw the room that used to be hers.

She was the one who barged in, so Lin Yin could not be blamed for being rude to her.

"Isn't this the adopted daughter of the Su Family?" Lin Yin deliberately asked sarcastically. "Is my room a place you can barge into?"

Lin Yin's words of "adopted daughter" hit Su Fei hard.

"What did you call me? Adopted daughter?" Su Fei was exasperated.

Seeing that she was so angry that her face was crooked, Lin Yin raised her eyebrows and deliberately said, "Everyone knows now that I'm the legitimate daughter of the Su Family. You have to be aware of your identity and not go overboard."

"You!" Su Fei almost screamed. "Don't think you can step on me now! Mom said that she doesn't like a pauper like you from the slums! You're not worthy of being the biological daughter of the Su family!"

Lin Yin looked at her steadily, her eyes neither happy nor sad. After a moment, she smiled again.
“Really?”

Lin Yin’s attitude made Su Fei even crazier. This despicable person! The people in the slums were despicable and shameless!

“That’s not what the Su Family said online. Did they miss something?” Lin Yin was neither hurried nor slow. Su Fei’s angry face made her feel comfortable.

“You!”

“Are you behind what happened online?” Seeing how smooth things were for Lin Yin, Su Fei refused to believe that it had nothing to do with her. She still wanted to know the truth.

“Ask the Shi Dai you sent. What can I do?” Lin Yin did not panic at all, nor did she avoid her question.

“You used Shi Dai! You did it on purpose!” as Su Fei spoke, her confidence faded.

Lin Yin probably couldn’t do it. She was just a peasant who had crawled out of the slums!

She should let Chu Yun see that this was the daughter she was proud of, the gentle and virtuous daughter of a rich family, was making a fuss like a shrew at this moment.

“Are you done? If you’re done, return the keys to me.” Lin Yin felt annoyed and casually snatched the keys from Su Fei’s hand. She hooked them onto her pinky and looked at Su Fei tauntingly.

Su Fei looked incredulous. Anger had gone to her head. She could have gotten into Lin Yin’s room while she was away, but now Lin Yin had taken all the keys.

Damn it! This Lin Yin was too hateful!

“If you barge in again, I’m going to call the police,” Lin Yin warned.

Su Fei was now like a wild animal that had been put in a bag. She was panicking and clawing.

She was still too impatient to be forced into such a situation so easily.

Chapter 23: Take Good Care Of

Su Fei felt as if her world had been messed up by Lin Yin. She had just received a call from Shi Dai, who had reprimanded her for lying to her and causing her to be humiliated online. She had been chased and scolded for several days.

Su Fei acted pitiful towards her and cried that she had no idea about Lin Yin’s background. “Dai’er, you’re my good friend. Why would I lie to you? Mom said that she was adopted. I didn’t lie to you. I don’t know myself... Boohoo...”

After pretending to be miserable for a long time, Shi Dai finally sympathized with her and said that she had to calm down for a few days before she decided if she wanted to continue being her friend.

Su Fei had wanted justice, but Lin Yin insulted her, making it even harder for her to bear.

It was all her fault. It was all Lin Yin’s fault! She’s waiting for death!

Su Fei was unhappy pretending to be sick. She felt uncomfortable watching Lin Yin enter and leave this house.

If she couldn’t deal with her at home, she didn’t believe that she could still be at ease in school.

Su Fei also had a few big sisters and school bullies who relied on her. When she reached school, that was where Su Fei could show her strength.

At the dining table, Su Fei said gently to Chu Yun, "Mom, I'm fine now. I can go to school. You don't have to worry about me."

"You've only rested for a few days. What if you fall sick again when you return to school? If you feel unwell, don't force yourself. Tell the teacher in time," Chu Yun said heartachingly.

Chu Yun was afraid that she would be too weak when she returned to school.

Su Zhen seemed to have suddenly realized something. He looked at Lin Yin, who was focused on eating, and said, "Lin Yin, you've completed your enrollment. Go with your sister."

Hearing this, Su Fei immediately nodded obediently. "Dad, don't worry. I'll take good care of my sister."

"Sister Lin Yin, you can ask me if you have anything you don't understand when we get to school. My friends want to get to know you too."

Ha, take care of her? Lin Yin knew that by taking care of her, she meant letting others bully and abuse her.

Lin Yin replied calmly, "Okay."

Seeing her indifferent attitude, Chu Yun felt that she was resisting school.

She came from the slums and it was already good enough that she could attend school. How dare she resist?

Chu Yun said unhappily, "It's for your own good that we let you go to school. Don't make us worry for nothing. If you can get a rank in the school like Feifei, that's the best repayment for us."

Lin Yin knew that Su Fei had done something behind their backs. If she mentioned any of these things, it would change their opinion of this so-called obedient Su Fei.

Su Fei's ranking was obtained by bribing her teacher. Chu Yun and Su Zhen were still in the dark about this.

"Don't worry." Lin Yin looked up into Su Fei's eyes. There was a smile on her face, but the coldness in her eyes frightened Su Fei. "With Sister Su Fei around, my school life must be exciting."

West Axis Academy was the best tertiary school in the city. Most of the people in the school were young ladies and young masters from rich families.

In order to increase their enrollment rate, they would also recruit students from ordinary families with outstanding results. When Lin Yin was in the slums, if she had not been forced to drop out of school because her parents died, it would not have been difficult for her to get into this school.

And now, she had easily stepped into West Axis Academy with the help of the Su Family.

Aunt Li busied herself preparing for Lin Yin's enrollment, as if it was her own child who had gotten into the school they liked.

But when she was about to get into the car, something happened to Lin Yin. She had forgotten to bring two textbooks that the school had given her.

Su Fei was already waiting in the car. Aunt Li was so anxious that there was sweat on the tip of her nose.

In the car, Su Fei was already impatient. Thinking about how she would be taking the same car as Lin Yin to school later, she was distraught and on pins and needles.

"Sister Lin Yin, hurry up, okay? We're going to be late!" Su Fei rolled down the window, she shouted softly as if she was a little anxious and afraid of affecting Lin Yin.

"I won't drag you down. You can leave first," Lin Yin replied. "I'll take the other car."

Lin Yin's answer was exactly what Su Fei wanted. This was the first time she felt that Lin Yin's words were so pleasing to the ear. Su Fei immediately waved at the driver, afraid that Lin Yin would call out to her again.

This time, Lin Yin stood at the entrance of West Axis Academy. A familiar and unfamiliar feeling swept over her.

In her previous life, life at West Axis Academy was like a nightmare. She had nowhere to escape. This seemingly elegant and beautiful academy was actually ugly and smelly.

In this life, she would get back all the debts from her previous life!

Chapter 24: Disgusting Misunderstanding

The surrounding students were very curious about this girl who had just alighted from a luxury car. Was this person a new classmate? They seemed to have never seen her before.

As they walked on the familiar road, Lin Yin was bumped into. Before she could speak, she heard a pleasant but slightly greasy voice. "Are you okay? Let me see."

This person was Su Fei's fiancé, Zheng Chao.

He had long been engaged to Su Fei, but because of Su Fei's background, he still tried to seduce and confuse Lin Yin. He spread rumors that Lin Yin had a crush on him and even swore that she would be with him no matter what. This series of actions made Su Fei hate Lin Yin to the core and she wanted to kill her.

Su Fei even got someone to cut Lin Yin's face, leaving a long scar on her face to make Zheng Chao never like her again.

Alright, enemies are destined to meet, let's settle old and new grudges together.

Lin Yin touched her face. The place where her scar was in her previous life was slightly hot. When she touched it with her fingertips, she felt as if there was still a bumpy feeling.

Zheng Chao did it on purpose!

When he saw her from afar just now, he had thought that Lin Yin was quite good-looking. Now that he could finally see Lin Yin's face clearly, she was indeed very beautiful, much prettier than his fiancée, Su Fei.

Which family's daughter was she? At this moment, Zheng Chao felt that his parents were blind to have made him get engaged to Su Fei.

Su Fei wasn't bad, but she was only considered passable. He wasn't very satisfied with her.

Lin Yin vaguely heard the surrounding students discussing. "It's Zheng Chao!"

"Who's the girl beside him? She's much prettier than Su Fei."

"He's Su Fei's fiancé. He's teased many girls!"

"You have no internet connection at home. Su Fei is a fake daughter. It's all over the Internet. The Su Family even made a statement. Su Fei is now an adopted daughter. If I were him, I would get engaged to the real daughter..."

"Tsk, you dare to want a woman from the slums?"

"Did you guys see the trending search a few days ago? Doesn't this girl look like that Lin Yin?"

"The legitimate daughter of the Su Family? I think so. The one who splashed red wine on Shi Dai's head? Awesome!"

“The first time I’ve seen the video, I feel that she resembles a rich family’s daughter the most. I like that aura too much! It’s a pity that she came from the slums. Otherwise, I would really want to get to know her. Looking at her now, she looks like she’s from the slums...”

The slums seemed to have been branded on her, nailing Lin Yin in her previous life to the pillar of shame. In this school full of dignitaries, she could never raise her head. What awaited her was all kinds of ridicule and slander. Now, no matter who mentioned it again, it would not hurt Lin Yin at all.

Zheng Chao looked at the girl in front of him and was a little confused. Didn’t other girls cling to him when they saw him?

Although Zheng Chao’s face was not ugly, he was not handsome either. With the support of his family’s strength, he had many fangirls in school. This made him have a deep misunderstanding of his looks and he flirted with beautiful girls everywhere in school.

Su Fei saw this and didn’t dare to make things difficult for him. She followed behind him and dealt with the girls he had teased.

Of course, the gentle and kind Miss Su did not appear directly. As long as she cried a few times, Shi Dai and Ji Yun would take care of it for her. What a great plan.

“Can you move aside now?” Lin Yin said coldly.

“Student, are you injured?” Zheng Chao was still so detestable.

Thinking about her previous life, there was no emotion in Lin Yin’s eyes. She still remembered the scene of her face being cut.

This bastard and Su Fei had worked together to hurt her to that extent, yet he still wanted to get close to her?

Disgusting, really disgusting! These two people were really a match made in heaven!

“Get lost, thank you!” Lin Yin didn’t want to look at him and continued walking in the direction of her class. It was really unlucky to meet such a person so early in the morning.

When she looked at him again, Lin Yin felt like her eyes were about to be injured.

The surrounding discussions did not escape her ears, but Lin Yin’s heart was calm.

It was Su Fei who had taken over. She had enjoyed everything that should have been hers, high-quality education and a good family. Instead of saying that she had taken advantage and gotten lucky, they still wanted to shame Lin Yin with the slums?

Chapter 25: Reunion

Zheng Chao looked at Lin Yin’s departing figure and recalled the faint fragrance in the air. A frivolous smile appeared on his lips.

The next moment, Su Fei was behind him, her fists clenched. It took all her strength to control herself.

This Lin Yin dared to seduce her fiancé on the first day she came to school! She had snatched her room and her identity away. Now, she even wanted to snatch her fiancé away!

Hearing the discussion behind him, Zheng Chao realized that Su Fei was standing behind him. He quickly grabbed Su Fei’s hand and smiled. “Feifei, I’ve been waiting for you for a long time.”

Su Fei pouted and asked aggrievedly, “Who was that woman just now?”

“I bumped into her by accident. I don’t know her either. I asked her to apologize, but she refused. She’s unreasonable!” Zheng Chao replied. It was not that he did not hear the discussions around him. That was the real daughter of the Su Family-Lin Yin!

He actually wanted to cover for her! Su Fei’s anger rose another notch.

The closer she got to the classroom, the more the memories of her previous life surged.

In the corridor, there was an inconspicuous pillar. Lin Yin looked back. She had been surrounded here before and asked to kneel down and beg for mercy by a yellow-haired woman.

Naturally, she refused, so she took advantage of the other party's surprise and counterattacked. She strangled the woman's neck and hit her against the pillar three times, scaring the other bullies away.

She protected herself, but when she returned home, she was beaten and scolded by Chu Yun. She blamed her for provoking those shady people and embarrassing the Su Family.

Su Fei deliberately fanned the flames. She said to Chu Yun, "Mom, don't be angry and ruin your health. Sister didn't do it on purpose. She won't dare to do it again."

She then winked at her, wanting to please both sides. She said, "Sister, quickly apologize to Mom. Don't make Mom angry..."

At that time, Chu Yun would always scold her indiscriminately. Even if Su Fei tried to persuade her, it was useless. In Chu Yun's eyes, she could not see love. She could only see disgust, as if she was a person who had done bad things and was evil.

That time, Chu Yun had smashed the teacup on her head, causing her to have a wound on her head. It was only when blood flowed that Su Fei and Aunt Li stood up for her that the one-sided beating ended.

She remembered that Chu Yun's face was full of impatience. She said, "I'm tired. Aunt Li, bandage her. It's not a big problem. There's no need to call the doctor."

At that time, Su Fei wanted to come over to look at her wound, but Chu Yun took her away forcefully.

At that time, she felt that Su Wei and Auntie Li were the ones who treated her well. Her eyes and brain were filled with thoughts of how to make her mother accept her. Now that she thought about it, she was really stupid, funny, and gullible back then.

When Lin Yin sorted out her thoughts, she realized that she had already arrived at the classroom door. It was still the same classroom as before, and the people inside were still the same as she remembered.

There was a large crowd in front of the classroom. Lin Yin heard a wave of ridicule.

“Where did this lowly person come from? She actually wants to be in the same class as us?”

“Look at her clothes. It’s better not to wear such rags out. How unlucky. Don’t sit beside me.”

Looking in their direction, there was an uneasy young girl standing at the door. She had a simple ponytail and tears in her eyes. She was wearing a faded pink shirt and jeans. She held the school bag in her hand and stood at the door, not daring to walk into the classroom.

Her shabby appearance was despised and mocked by everyone.

It was really a coincidence. How could Lin Yin forget that her best friend from her previous life, Jia Qing, was also in this class?

Jia Qing and Lin Yin grew up together. They were top students from ordinary families and were accepted by West Axis Academy because of their outstanding results.

However, her father was an alcoholic. He took away all the scholarship funds given by West Axis Academy and only gave her a school bag. He even sold the school uniform given by the school.

In her previous life, Lin Yin’s heart ached for her. Ever since she arrived at the Su Family, she had never let Jia Qing go poor.

In her panic, Jia Qing suddenly saw a familiar figure in the crowd. It was Lin Yin! Lin Yin had flown up the tree and become a phoenix. With her around, she would definitely help her.

“You...” Jia Qing probed nervously, “Do you still remember me?”

Lin Yin ignored her and continued walking, not even looking at her.

She remembered. How could she not remember?

She did not just remember her. Lin Yin remembered everything her best friend did in her previous life.

Chapter 26: Mistaken Identity

In her previous life, Lin Yin treated her as someone she could trust. On the first night she was sold to the old plutocrat family, she risked her life to escape. She hid at the corner of the street and sent a message to Jia Qing, wanting her to help her escape.

But what greeted her?

It was Su Zhen and that old tycoon's disgusting faces. It was being told that she had sold her information for 500,000 yuan.

She had personally cut off her lifeline, but now, she actually dared to ask for help. How laughable.

The hatred between the two of them could not be resolved!

"Hey, there's a newcomer here too." Following Jia Qing's gaze, a boy noticed Lin Yin.

"Was I mistaken? You know that poor person?" The boy asked curiously.

"She probably got the wrong person. Can you move aside?" Lin Yin said impatiently.

Now, whenever someone connected her to Jia Qing, it would make her feel disgusted.

“You’re so arrogant! Which family are you from? You don’t even dare to admit that you know a poor person?” The male student who said this acted hooligan.

Lin Yin knew him. He came from an ordinary family and his name was Zhao Zhi. After getting close to Zheng Chao, he felt that he was superior.

“Lin Yin!” Seeing Lin Yin’s attitude, Jia Qing was in disbelief, but she still walked forward, wanting Lin Yin’s protection.

Lin Yin looked at her in disgust, making her shiver. Jia Qing stood rooted to the ground, not knowing what to do.

“Lin Yin?”

“Lin Yin? She’s Lin Yin?”

“No wonder she looks familiar. I’ve seen her online many times these past few days.”

Hearing Jia Qing’s name, there was a thin discussion in the crowd.

“I was wondering who it was. You came from a slum and in front of me, you still dare-” Before Zhao Zhi could finish speaking, he felt a wave of pain. Lin Yin had kicked him in the stomach, and the huge force made him take two steps back. He held his stomach, his face pale, and he could not recover for a long time.

“Is there anything else you want to say?” Lin Yin said.

They knew that even the eldest daughter of the Shi Corporation, Shi Dai, could not gain anything from her, let alone this Zhao Zhi, who was just a lackey of the young master.

“Oh, right. I haven’t kicked someone in a long time. I made a mistake just now,” Lin Yin said to Zhao Zhi.

“If I don’t make a mistake, I would’ve kicked lower.”

She could only be even more ruthless when dealing with the ruthless people in the slums.

Lin Yin had trained her fists and feet. Fighting was not a problem. In her previous life, it was only because Chu Yun repeatedly suppressed her and did not let her resist that she ended up in such a state.

In this life, Lin Yin would hit and scold whoever she wanted. She wanted to live happily for herself.

They understood the situation and immediately dispersed.

Lin Yin didn’t even want to look at Jia Qing, but Jia Qing still wanted to curry favor with her.

“Little Yin...” Jia Qing said carefully, “Are you still angry with me for what happened before? I didn’t mean to...”

Jia Qing had often done things that let her down in the past, but those were all small matters. She could ignore them and even help her blindly. She did not expect that all her efforts would end up with an ungrateful dog.

Lin Yin said calmly, “I’m not familiar with you. Please don’t approach me.”

Jia Qing still wanted to say something about their relationship to her, but looking at Lin Yin’s attitude, she didn’t dare to say anything.

Lin Yin didn’t want to be alone with her at all. She walked into class.

In her previous life, when she returned to the Su Family, she did not forget this good friend. She let Jia Qing have no worries about food and clothing and worried over the big and small matters at her home. She lived a miserable life, but she had never mistreated Jia Qing.

The money she spent on Jia Qing was no less than 500,000 yuan.

But in the end, she actually betrayed her for 500,000 yuan without any hesitation or reluctance. Lin Yin felt that looking at such a heartless person was disrespectful to her eyes!

Looking at Lin Yin's back, Jia Qing was anxious and hateful. She had been good friends with Lin Yin for so many years. She had become a phoenix and she wanted to step on her best friend?

She clearly had everything now. Why couldn't she leak some money through her fingers to help her?

At the end of the day, she might not be the real daughter. Perhaps the Su Family had made a mistake! Jia Qing felt that the world was even more unfair to her.

Lin Yin was so hateful! She treated her as a friend. She was blind back then and shouldn't have treated her as a friend!

Chapter 27: Important Person

The more Jia Qing thought about it, the more hatred she felt. She looked at Lin Yin with hatred in her eyes. Lin Yin met her gaze, and Jia Qing immediately lowered her head to avoid her, afraid that she would see through it and it would be difficult for her to cling onto her in the future.

What else did Lin Yin not know? She only retracted her gaze and smiled knowingly. Jia Qing's hatred had already been ignited ever since she entered the Su Family.

"Students, please sit down. There are two new students here today. Let me introduce them to you." The person who spoke was Teacher Feng, the form teacher. He was about 40 years old and had gold-rimmed glasses on his face. He usually looked serious, but he was a complete hypocrite, a monster in human clothing.

Ha, another important person had arrived. Lin Yin stood on the stage and looked at the teacher in front of her.

Teacher Feng had bullied many students from ordinary families in secret, especially beautiful girls. He often “talked” to them in private. The girls with no power did not dare speak up after they were bullied, which made him more and more daring.

Some girls could not stand the humiliation and told their parents, but in this school, the teachers also weren’t ordinary people. Ordinary families could not fight back at all.

Although Lin Yin was the daughter of the Su Family, she had outstanding looks and was bullied in the Su Family. This monster in human clothing naturally wanted to reach out to Lin Yin. Lin Yin still remembered his ugly face, and at this moment, he was introducing himself to the students.

“This student, Lin Yin, will be our new classmate from now on. Everyone, get along well and help each other!” Teacher Feng gave a simple introduction. He looked at the empty seats below and said, “Lin Yin, sit there.”

There was a neat round of applause. No one wanted to offend her on this occasion. It was better to be more enthusiastic and not make a mistake. Only Zhao Zhi’s expression was ugly and he did not even raise his hand.

Of course, her classmates already knew her. The farce just now had already left a deep impression on everyone. Lin Yin was also an existence they could not afford to offend.

Teacher Feng pointed casually, scaring the student beside her. Lin Yin looked at the familiar faces below the stage. She knew every face. Although they were smiling, they all had their own ulterior motives.

“And this student.” Teacher Feng frowned. He knew about Lin Yin. She was the legitimate daughter of the Su Corporation and had been on the trending searches a few days ago. The person in front of him was obviously from a poor family and did not look good. Teacher Feng was not interested in her at all, so he did not even remember her name. What was her name?

Realizing that the situation was a little awkward, Jia Qing stammered, "Hello, everyone. My name is Jia Qing. I was ranked 60th in the city and entered West Axis Academy..."

Jia Qing carefully revealed her proudest achievement, intending to win some of their respect.

However, apart from the sparse applause, there were also mocking voices. "Impressive, impressive!"

"This poor person still wants to use their results to crush us? Tsk, she still has to work for us in the end."

Lin Yin smiled. If she had relied on herself to get in, this would definitely be her line. But now that she had relied on her family's power to get in, she was only greeted with praise and admiration.

The West Axis Academy was a ridiculous and pathetic existence.

In the entire class, the children of rich families accounted for more than half of the students. There were only a few students who really relied on their results. Here, they had no right to speak and were unknown. They could only use their results to jump out of this mixed environment and end their education with the princesses and princes.

After the introduction, Jia Qing sat down in the seat that the teacher had designated for her. She carefully bowed to the surrounding students before slowly sitting down.

The day passed quickly. The last class was Teacher Feng's. Lin Yin noticed a female classmate, Yang Xue. Lin Yin looked down at the date on her watch and looked up to continue paying attention to Yang Xue.

Yang Xue was a little distracted. Perhaps Teacher Feng had told her in advance to go to his office after school. There were still some problems with the previous test paper and she needed one-on-one tutoring.

Yang Xue obviously knew what she was about to face. She was distracted and restless the entire class. She kept looking at the school gate and wanted to leave early. Due to the teacher's dignity, she could only stay until school ended.

Chapter 28: I Want to Learn

When the school bell rang, the students in the class dispersed. No one wanted to stay here for another second.

Lin Yin was not in a hurry. She sat in her original position and did not move. As expected, Yang Xue also stayed in her original position. She watched in panic as the number of people in the class decreased. Finally, she placed her hopes on Lin Yin. She turned around several times to look at Lin Yin.

After a while, Teacher Feng gave her a look and left first. Yang Xue tidied up the things on the table in a panic. Her shoulders were slightly shrugged, as if she was about to cry.

Lin Yin immediately stood up and said loudly, "Teacher Feng, Yang Xue's family has been friends with my family for a long time. There's a banquet tonight. I'm waiting for her to go over with me. Do I have to wait for you to help her finish her papers?"

Lin Yin knew exactly what his shameless excuse was. As soon as she said that, Teacher Feng and Yang Xue were stunned. Teacher Feng did not expect that he would be intercepted by a new student.

"Then... you guys can go back first." Teacher Feng knew that he could not afford to offend the Su Family. Since she had already mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Su, he could only let them go.

"Also, I want to learn. Can you call me along when you talk about the papers?" Lin Yin blinked with a sincere expression. "I really want to improve too. Oh right, my hooligan friends also want to turn over a new leaf. I'll call them along next time..."

"It's a good thing that you want to study," Teacher Feng said with difficulty. It seemed that Lin Yin will Yang Xue more than once. "We'll talk when you have time. I still have something on. I'll get going first."

Teacher Feng left the classroom as if he was escaping. Yang Xue got up from her seat and came to Lin Yin's side. Before she could speak, tears streamed down her face.

“Thank you, Lin Yin. Thank you for saving me. Teacher Feng... I heard that he’s a pervert...” Yang Xue wiped her tears as she cried. She had just felt that she was finished and that her life had come to an end.

Fortunately, she had the help of a new classmate. It was great.

Lin Yin took out a tissue and handed it to her. She comforted her gently, “It’s fine. I’ve heard about him. I won’t let him hurt anyone! Let’s go home together.”

Yang Xue nodded and held the piece of paper tightly, as if she was holding onto new hope.

Lin Yin closed her eyes. The scene just now had left her with a lingering fear. A piece of news from her previous life gradually appeared in front of her.

‘A student from West Axis Academy committed suicide by jumping off a building early this morning.’

The date of the news was tomorrow. The student who committed suicide was her classmate, Yang Xue.

The next morning was another face-to-face time with Su Fei. Breakfast time was already difficult.

However, Lin Yin felt that she had become much more fulfilled after school. At least she didn’t have to face Su Fei’s jealous face every day.

Lin Yin did not care about Zheng Chao at all after what happened yesterday. After all, a bitch and a dog would be together for a long time. She also sincerely wished that Su Fei and Zheng Chao could get married and never harm others.

She had thought that this unpleasant interlude would end here, but Lin Yin had not expected that Su Fei would see her being hit on.

Unfortunately, although she saw it, SU Fei, the judge, was blind. It was clearly Zheng Chao who was pestering Lin Yin, but in Su Fei’s eyes, it was Lin Yin who was seducing Zheng Chao.

The atmosphere at the dining table today was a little subtle. Lin Yin could feel Su Fei's anger rising. She probably had this expression because of her Brother Chao.

Lin Yin had always felt that Su Fei and Zheng Chao were a perfect match. When they were together, Su Fei was a professional scavenger who helped clean up trash from the world.

And when she got jealous of Lin Yin for no reason because of Zheng Chao, Lin Yin felt that she was like a dung beetle trying her best to defend her dung ball. She still treated trash that no one else liked as a treasure, afraid that others would snatch it from her.

As expected, the dung beetle couldn't help but say, "Sister Lin Yin, it's all my fault. I didn't tell you in advance that I'm already engaged to Brother Chao. I'm his fiancée."

Su Fei sounded aggrieved and regretful that she couldn't give Brother Chao to Lin Yin because they got engaged too early.

Chu Yun and Su Zhen's expressions changed instantly. What? It had only been a day since she went to school, but this Lin Yin even wanted to snatch Su Fei's fiancé? How outrageous!

"Lin Yin, tell me what's going on." Su Zhen's face was ashen as he waited for Lin Yin to lower her head and confess.

Lin Yin stopped eating and asked blankly, "Who's Brother Chao?"

Chapter 29: Deliberately Seducing

"I saw you two getting close on the school road yesterday. You were so intimate, but you left as soon as you saw me." Su Fei's grievance was getting worse. Chu Yun was so angry that she wanted to slap her. Lin Yin was so dense!

"I was afraid you'd be angry, so I didn't dare call you..." As Su Fei spoke, her voice slowly lowered, and there were faint sobs in her words.

What kind of person was Zheng Chao? Did she have to be afraid of so many people snatching him? It was not that they did not know, but they were selectively blind. They felt that Lin Yin had crawled out of the slums and when she saw someone like Zheng Chao, she would definitely pounce on him without hesitation.

Lin Yin put down her chopsticks and slammed the dining table. Su Fei and Chu Yun were both shocked by the sudden movement.

“Now that you mention it, I remember. Someone deliberately bumped into me yesterday. It turned out to be your Brother Chao, but I only told him to get lost. There are more than fifty people present. It’s not difficult for you to check if you want to. Maybe someone even recorded a video. I don’t mind being on the trending searches again,” Lin Yin replied calmly.

Speaking of trending searches, Lin Yin was still the focus of the netizens. Su Zhen was already tired enough from dealing with the previous matters. He did not want to do it again.

“Also, I was already kind enough not to call the police yesterday.” Lin Yin’s voice deepened with a warning tone. “I was harassed by him for no reason. I was afraid that Dad and Mom would be worried, so I endured it myself and didn’t mention it. I thought it was someone unimportant, but I didn’t expect someone to care so much.”

Lin Yin looked into Su Fei’s suddenly panicked eyes. “Just nice. Remember to tell him that I’m his fiancée’s sister. Please don’t hit on me in the future. It won’t be good for the Su Family and the Zheng Family.”

Su Fei’s face tried to hold it in and her face turned colorful. She naturally knew what Zheng Chao was like, but she did not expect Lin Yin to expose him so thoroughly.

Su Zhen and Chu Yun did not know Zheng Chao’s true colors. They had decided on this marriage for the sake of their family business.

As for Su Zhen, he would approach whoever was beneficial to him. He would dote on whichever daughter could bring him more benefits.

Lin Yin was going to get sold to an old tycoon, so the profits would be depleted in one go. And Su Fei's marriage could bring him endless profits for decades.

Therefore, even if Zheng Chao's actions were inappropriate, he did not care at all. As long as the marriage was not annulled, everything would not be a problem.

However, if Lin Yin harmed this marriage, he would definitely not forgive her.

"Hit on you? Zheng Chao and Feifei are engaged. Will he still hit on others?" Chu Yun widened her eyes in anger and was anxious to defend Su Fei. "You must have misbehaved and deliberately seduced him!"

"Ha, deliberately seduced?" Lin Yin said indifferently. "I'm not so desperate. I don't like such a smooth-talking young master. I'm only worthy of the poor people in the slums. Are you satisfied?"

Su Fei's face turned red. She had not been able to gain anything here and had been slandered by Lin Yin. Su Fei felt that she was asking for trouble today. Wasn't she saying that her taste was inferior and she could not keep her man in check?

This lowly woman! She went against her everywhere! Su Fei was so angry that she couldn't stop shaking.

"I'm full. I'll get going." Lin Yin stood up and walked out, ignoring the three people at the dining table.

As she passed by Su Fei, Lin Yin said, "Sister, you have to watch over him in the future. Don't disgust me."

Her voice was so low that only Su Gei could hear her. Lin Yin felt like she would clutch her chest again, ready to pretend to faint.

After resolving the trouble that Su Fei had brought, Lin Yin felt much better. Su Fei treated Su Zhen and Chu Yun as a tree to rely on and often deliberately made things difficult for her in front of them.

If it was in her previous life, this move would still work. Su Fei would always deal a heavy blow to Lin Yin. But now, every time Su Fei made things difficult for her, Lin Yin would triple the damage.

This time, when she walked on the campus, Lin Yin specially looked around to make sure that Zheng Chao was not around before she continued walking with relief.

No one would want to step on the same dog shit twice.

Chapter 30: True Friend

When she stepped into the classroom, Lin Yin realized that there was an egg and a box of pure milk on her table. A trace of confusion flashed across Lin Yin's eyes. She didn't know who was so considerate.

Was it Jia Qing? Lin Yin looked at her in disgust.

It seemed like it wasn't. If it were her, she would definitely be looking at her eagerly.

In her previous life, she had been deceived by her gaze and foolishly believed that she was a person worth befriending.

Just as Lin Yin's gaze landed on Yang Xue, she saw her quickly retracting her shy gaze. It seemed like she was thanking her for yesterday.

Lin Yin smiled. Not wanting to let her down, she put the eggs and milk into her bag.

This was the second person in Lin Yin's life, other than Aunt Li, who could make her feel warm. However, when she thought about how no one who approached her in her previous life had a good ending, Lin Yin felt a little down.

Teacher Feng probably wouldn't harass her anymore, so she shouldn't interact with her too much.

However, just as Lin Yin put away her things, there was a commotion in the classroom. Lin Yin didn't listen particularly, but the content of their conversation still entered her ears.

"I knew it. When she sees eggs and milk, she'll definitely put them away and eat them."

"She's from the slums after all. She's ignorant. She wants everything that a poor person gives her."

"What's wrong with that? I heard that the people in the slums even snatch food from wild dogs."

"They're even selling them at night. You've never seen them before. I heard that they're all very dirty..."

"Maybe she sold it before. From the looks of it, her business should be pretty good. Haha, she's still pretending. She acted like she was the boss yesterday. She's still related to the dirty slums!"

"Maybe the next time I go to the brothel, I can choose her!"

"Don't. She might even have some dirty disease..."

Someone was unwilling to listen. "What nonsense are you talking about? I haven't eaten yet. It's disgusting!"

"Shh, be careful of her hearing you. Have you forgotten that she hit Zhao Zhi yesterday?"

"Zhao Zhi? She hit Zhao Zhi? Do I still need to be afraid?" The boy who said this laughed. "Do you understand what it means to make an example out of someone..." He seemed to suddenly feel that what he said was wrong. He stopped in the middle of his sentence and said again, "Zhao Zhi is just a dog. If she hit him, so be it. Would she dare to hit me?"

"That's right. She thought she's amazing just because she beat up a lackey. Who's she scaring?!"

Yang Xue regretted it a little. She only wanted to repay Lin Yin, but she didn't expect to cause her trouble.

Lin Yin saw that Yang Xue had lowered her head and looked slightly uneasy. She stood up and kicked the table of the boy who was talking happily. "What else? What else is there?"

It had only been one night, but they had already forgotten about the intimidation from yesterday and were openly discussing her again. It seemed like she did not have enough deterrence for them!

The boy was embarrassed and immediately retorted, "If you can do it, can't I speak about it?!"

Lin Yin approached him and caught him off guard by elbowing his chin. The boy could not dodge in time and bit his tongue. Instantly, blood flowed. The surrounding students had never seen a young master get beaten up and it was so serious. There was a cry of surprise from the crowd.

The boy had never been injured so badly. He covered his mouth and wailed. Blood flowed from his mouth to his neck. The scene was shocking.

His follower was shocked and immediately stood up. Lin Yin only turned around to look at them before they stopped and did not dare to act rashly.

After all, no one dared to risk their lives with her.

Lin Yin did not drag her feet at all. Her exquisite facial features were too eye-catching, and she would attack when they were distracted. It was impossible to predict where she would start attacking, and it was very difficult to defend against.

"The intimidation from yesterday didn't seem to be enough. Are you satisfied today?" Lin Yin's voice was still calm, as if nothing had happened just now.

A slightly ruffian-like boy in the back row seemed to have been disturbed by this voice. He slowly raised his head from the table and looked at Lin Yin coldly. Although the surrounding people were frightened, they were still looking forward to him getting up and joining the battle to give Lin Yin a heavy blow.
