

Real Daughter 211

Chapter 211: Defying Rumors

Su Zhen's expression did not change as he said without any panic, "After all, we raised her ourselves and have long treated her as our biological daughter. If it weren't for the fact that the two children liked each other this time, I would have long forgotten about her being a child bride. My Feifei is still the honest one. She said that my son is outstanding and she can't find someone more outstanding than him, so we let them be."

At this point, Su Zhen even looked at Jiang Hui with a smile in his eyes. He smiled and said, "Sigh, Feifei has a good personality. Otherwise, President Jiang wouldn't have acknowledged Feifei as his goddaughter. Young Master

Jiang wouldn't have protected his godsister like this, right?"

Jiang Hui snorted in his heart, but for the sake of the Jiang Family's face, he could only follow Su Zhen's words. "That's right. My wife and I don't have a daughter. We like Feifei very much when we see her, especially my son. He wanted a sister when he was young. Now that his wish has been fulfilled, he's watching her closely, afraid that she'll be bullied."

Su Zhen and Jiang Hui echoed each other and directly led Jiang Nian being angry and Su Lin and Su Fei kissing in a direction acceptable to everyone.

On the surface, Su Zhen and Jiang Hui's problem had been resolved, but it was not so easy for Jiang Nian to vent his anger.

Seeing Jiang Nian's gloomy expression, a few juniors whispered to each other.

"I didn't expect Young Master Jiang to be such a playboy but he treats his godsister quite well."

"Hahaha, you really believe this? Let me tell you, I saw Su Fei sitting on Jiang Nian's lap before."

“You don’t say. I’ve seen it too. Young Master Jiang’s hand touched Su Fei’s body a lot. She’s not a godsister, I think she’s his lover.”

“I have to say that this matter between the Su Family and the Jiang Family was really well solved. At least the reputation of both families was saved.”

“That’s right. According to the previous rumors, Su Fei slept with her brother at the engagement banquet with Young Master Jiang. That would be too exciting.

Not only will the Su Family lose face, but even the Jiang Family will lose face.” “Have you forgotten that there’s still Young Master Jiang? If that’s really the case, the cuckold on his head will be obvious.”

Although Su Zhen was uncomfortable to hear such words, he still heaved a sigh of relief and was even more satisfied with Lin Yin.

Jiang Hui socialized for a while before grabbing Jiang Nian, who had a gloomy expression and was even a little angry. He shouted softly, “Have you forgotten what I told you at home?”

Jiang Nian turned around angrily and said through gritted teeth, “Dad, I can’t take this lying down.”

Jiang Hui naturally understood his son’s feelings. Not to mention Jiang Nian, he was also furious.

“Don’t worry. It’s never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. We’ll find the Su Family one day to take revenge.” Jiang Hui’s sinister eyes swept across Su Zhen.

Su Zhen only smiled disdainfully. He naturally knew that the Jiang Family wanted to find trouble with him. However, when he thought of what Lin Yin had said, he didn’t care anymore. There was no need for him to do anything. The Jiang Family would soon have no time to deal with him.

At the Su Family.

Su Fei, who was lying on the bed recuperating, picked up Shi Dai's call. Before she could greet her, Shi Dai's angry voice came from the phone. "Su Fei, why didn't you tell me that you were the child bride of the Su Family?"

Su Fei was stunned and asked in confusion, "What child bride?"

Shi Dai was furious. "You're still pretending. Previously, you said that you didn't know that you were an adopted daughter. Now, you're pretending that you don't know that you're a child bride? The photo of you kissing Su Lin has already spread everywhere. Do you dare to say that you're not Su Lin's child bride?"

Su Fei was frightened by Shi Dai's question. What child bride? Why didn't she know?

Just then, Chu Yun pushed open Su Fei's door with her injuries and looked at Su Fei worriedly.

Su Fei looked at Chu Yun and blurted out, "Mom? The child bride is..."

Realizing that she was still on the phone with Shi Dai, Su Fei hurriedly stopped talking and said to Shi Dai, "I'll explain it to you."

With that, Su Fei hung up. She had to find out what had happened first.

Chu Yun looked at Su Fei with red eyes. She had never expected her beloved daughter to experience such humiliation.

Seeing that Chu Yun's eyes were red, Su Fei immediately picked up her phone. Since Shi Dai called to hold her accountable, something must have spread.

When she saw the photo of her and Su Lin kissing, when she saw that it clearly said that she was the child bride the Su Family had raised for Su Lin, Su Fei's vision darkened and she could not even hold her cell phone steadily..

Chapter 212: Don't Want to Live

The comments below the post were even harder for Su Fei to accept.

[Oh my god, Su Fei is actually a child bride. Does that mean that Su Fei still went around provoking men when she knew that her brother was her future husband and even snatched the fiancé that originally belonged to Lin Yin?]

[This kind of person is too disgusting. She was brought back to be a child bride, but she relied on being favored to find another husband. Now that she's been abandoned, she went back to look for him.]

[I think everyone has to calm down. Strictly speaking, child brides are not legal.]

[Are child brides those children that got given away in the olden times because their families were too poor to raise them? Oh my god, there's actually such a thing in modern society.]

[In the past, when I saw Su Fei acting all high and mighty, I thought she had some noble bloodline. She's actually a child bride. I'm dying of laughter.] Su Fei was embarrassed.

Looking at Su Fei's expression, Chu Yun naturally knew that Su Fei had already seen the news. She quickly went forward and hugged Su Fei, crying, "My poor daughter, it's Mommy's fault."

Su Fei smiled sadly. She had gone from being a rich young lady to an adopted daughter. Now, she had become a child bride who was even worse than an adopted daughter.

What was a child bride? The poor families of the previous generation could not afford to raise their daughters, so they sent their daughters to someone else's home to be raised as wives.

With the title of a child bride on her head, didn't that mean that she, Su Fei, came from a poor family and was sold to someone else's house by her parents to live under someone else's roof to please her husband?

Even if the report said that the Su Family raised her as their biological daughter, so what? That did not change her lowly background.

“Dad is actually so heartless. He doesn’t want me to live well! Mom, what should I do in the future? How can I still have the face to live in this world?” Su Fei threw herself into Chu Yun’s arms and wailed.

“Don’t be afraid. When your father comes back, Mom will definitely seek justice for you,” Chu Yun said with heartache.

Compared to the scene of Chu Yun and her daughter collapsing, Su Lin’s heart was filled with joy.

He had thought that he and Su Fei would definitely be doomed this time. It was very likely that his father would send Su Fei away. He did not expect that the tables had turned. He had benefited.

At the thought that he could be officially intimate with Su Fei in the future, Su Lin immediately felt that the wounds on his body did not hurt very much.

Su Zhen had just returned from the banquet and was about to wash up when Chu Yun grabbed him.

“Su Zhen, you actually made a statement saying that Feifei is a child bride. Aren’t you trying to kill Feifei? Why are you so ruthless?” Chu Yun pulled Su Zhen and said hatefully.

Su Zhen pushed the unreasonable Chu Yun away and said angrily, “Then what do you want me to say? That Su Fei kissed her brother Brother at her engagement party with Jiang Nian? Do you think this sounds better?”

Chu Yun was instantly speechless. Then, she muttered, “But you can’t say that Feifei is a child bride. How is she going to get married in the future if you say that?”

“Get married? She still has the cheek to want to get married? Go look online. The photos of her and Su Lin kissing are everywhere. Who else does she want to marry?” Su Zhen could not help but flare up when he heard Su Fei’s name.

Chu Yun's original thought of seeking justice was instantly extinguished. That's right. If Su Zhen hadn't said that today, wouldn't Su Fei's reputation have been even worse?

She had already broken off the engagement with the Zheng Family, and now such a thing had happened. No decent family would want Su Fei.

If that was the case, it was actually not bad to be able to marry Su Lin. Su Lin would inherit the Su Family in the future. When the two of them were together, Su Fei would still stay by her side.

Besides, Su Lin had always doted on Su Fei. If the two of them got married, Su Fei would probably live a good life.

At the thought of this, Chu Yun gave up. She changed her shrewishness from before and hurriedly caressed Su Zhen's chest gently. She said gently, "I'm sorry, Hubby. I wronged you."

Su Zhen pushed Chu Yun away angrily. "If you have the time, go and teach your children well. Don't find trouble for me every day."

With that, Su Zhen went straight into the bathroom and slammed the door. Chu Yun, who followed, almost had her nose knocked off.

Chu Yun returned to Su Fei's room in embarrassment. After weighing the pros and cons, she told Su Fei for a long time before Su Fei slowly calmed down.

Su Fei knew very well that the matter was still a foregone conclusion. What made her feel even worse was that it seemed like this was the best way to deal with the matter..

Chapter 213: For Your Good

However, when she saw the adoption certificate that Chu Yun had brought over, Su Fei's heart was torn apart. Then, her eyes turned slightly. Could it be that Lin Yin was behind the matter of the adoption certificate?

The matter between Shi Dai and Lin Yin had caused an uproar. Didn't Lin Yin say once that she wanted her father to officially go through the adoption procedures?

At the thought of this, Su Fei's eyes turned cold. It must be like this. Lin Yin, that b*tch, must have suggested it.

Hence, after Chu Yun left, Su Fei endured the pain in her body and rushed to the door of Lin Yin's room. She bumped into Lin Yin, who had just returned from tutoring Lu Yan from the Lu Family.

"Are you coming out dressed like this to seduce someone? Then you're in the wrong place. You should be going to Su Lin's room. After all, you're his child bride."

As Lin Yin spoke, she sized Su Fei up with a mocking gaze. Then, she pushed Su Fei away and walked into her room.

When Su Fei heard about the child bride, she exploded. She rushed to Lin Yin's room and threw the adoption certificate in her hand in front of Lin Yin. She questioned, "Did you suggest that Dad do this? Was it you who mentioned the method of the child bride to Dad?"

Su Fei had thought that Lin Yin would deny it, but she did not expect that Lin Yin would only narrow her eyes at her calmly and say innocently, "Yes, I was the one who suggested it to Dad. I thought that since you and Su Lin liked each other and encountered such a thing, this method would be just right. Everyone benefited, right?"

Su Fei gritted her teeth. "I knew it was you, b*tch. You clearly have selfish motives. You just want to occupy Mom and Dad's love and the unique title of the eldest daughter of the Su Family. You just want to squeeze me out of the Su Family. You're too sinister."

Lin Yin was not angry and only said lightly, "Then you're wrong about me. I'm doing this for your own good. Think about it. If you can marry Su Lin, you'll be the future mistress of the Su Family. No one can chase you away, right?" "You!" Su Fei could not find any other words to refute.

She had never had any romantic feelings for Su Lin. Even when she realized that she was adopted, she had never had any thoughts about Su Lin.

In her opinion, Su Lin was the backing she could win over without much effort. Therefore, she was disdainful because while she wanted Su Lin to dote on her, there was another powerful man who could protect her.

No one would despise having many escorts, right? Besides, an older brother would last longer than a husband. Her marriage could change, but an older brother could always be an older brother.

However, if she married Su Lin, she could only rely on Su Lin for the rest of her life.

Lin Yin looked at Su Fei, whose expression changed rapidly, calmly and suddenly asked, "Could it be that you don't like Su Lin?"

Su Fei was instantly shocked. Now that things had already happened to this stage, if she did not even have Su Lin's care, she would really have nothing.

"What nonsense are you talking about? I... I naturally have Brother in my heart. I..." Su Fei quickly explained, afraid that Lin Yin would complain.

Su Lin, who had rushed over, was originally afraid that Lin Yin would bully Su Fei. He did not expect to hear such words. Love surged in his heart. He knew that since he was so outstanding, Feifei would definitely be interested in him.

This time, although Lin Yin had gone overboard, she had done a good deed. She had helped him keep Su Fei and even allowed the two of them to appear in public as a couple in the future.

“Since you have Su Lin in your heart, why are you angry now? Without the declaration of a child bride, you can’t be with your Brother Su Lin. In the end, you still have to be grateful to me. I made you sit in the position of the future mistress of the Su Family,” Lin Yin said self-righteously with her arms crossed.

Su Fei was furious, but she couldn’t say anything to refute Lin Yin. She could only pester her. “Then you shouldn’t have asked Dad to go through the adoption procedures. Without these procedures, I can still be with Brother openly.”

Lin Yin took two steps closer to Su Fei and chuckled. “Yes, I did this on purpose. I already said this last time when you schemed against me, but you didn’t agree. Since you don’t agree, I can only do it myself.”

Su Fei’s eyes widened. “Lin Yin, you’re too much..”

Chapter 214: Trust Brother

“Overboard?” Lin Yin muttered. Then, her eyes instantly became sharp. She pinched Su Fei’s cheeks with her right hand and said coldly, “No matter how overboard I am, is it as overboard as you? You’ve asked people to bully me several times and even tried to drug me. Su Fei, in terms of viciousness, I can’t compare to you.”

Su Fei’s face hurt badly. She raised her hand to slap Lin Yin. Lin Yin quickly grabbed Su Fei’s hand and slapped her face with her other hand.

When Su Lin, who was outside the room, heard the slap, he immediately rushed in. His heart ached as he helped Su Fei up from the ground and glared at Lin Yin fiercely. “Lin Yin, you actually dare to hit Su Fei.”

Lin Yin smiled. “Why wouldn’t I dare? I clearly helped the two of you get together, but she still hit me. This is repaying kindness with ingratitude. Those who don’t know might think that she’s dissatisfied with me matchmaking the two of you. Then does this mean that she doesn’t have you in her heart?”

Su Fei quickly covered her face and leaned into Su Lin’s arms. She sobbed and said, “Brother, don’t listen to Lin Yin’s nonsense.”

When Su Lin heard Su Fei's soft voice, he trusted her even more unconditionally. He was so good to Su Fei, so how could Su Fei not have him in her heart?

Su Lin picked Su Fei up and warned Lin Yin, "This time, on account of you clearing our names, I'll let you off. The next time I see you bullying Su Fei, don't blame me for being merciless."

Lin Yin sneered. "Alright, I'll see if you won't show mercy or if I won't."

Su Lin was rendered speechless by Lin Yin and left with Su Fei.

Lin Yin picked up a bottle of perfume and sprayed it where the two of them had been standing just now. The smell of this adulterous couple made her feel disgusted.

Su Lin carried Su Fei back to Su Fei's room and said gently, "You're injured.

Don't run around. If you have anything you want to do in the future, tell Brother. Brother will help you."

Su Lin gently stroked Su Fei's red face, feeling terrible.

Su Fei sneered coldly in her heart. If not for Su Lin not being able to control himself and kissing her back then, would she have been mocked and ridiculed by others like this?

This damn idiot who thought with his bottom half, it's all his fault.

However, Su Fei now knew that the only person she could rely on now was Su Lin, so she did not dare to express her true emotions.

Su Fei rubbed her burning face against Su Lin's palm and said gently, "I'm fine, Brother. My life is like duckweed to begin with. It's only right for me to be despised. As long as Brother doesn't despise me and can protect me, I'll be the happiest in the world."

Su Lin's heart ached when he heard Su Fei's self-deprecating words. "Nonsense. Brother won't let anyone degrade you. Feifei believe me. I will work hard in the future and make you the happiest girl in the world."

An obedient expression appeared on Su Fei's face. She took the initiative to lean into Su Lin's arms and snuggled gently. "Okay, I believe in Brother. I've always believed in Brother."

Su Lin held Su Fei's face up sympathetically and gently kissed the girl he loved.

Su Fei cooperated with Su Lin's actions and occasionally let out a few seductive moans, like she was aroused. However, her eyes never closed. She looked coldly at the man who was kissing her with his eyes closed.

Su Lin's appearance was not too bad. But he was just a trashy man who could not even defeat Lin Yin. What was the use? Just like that crippled Zheng Chao, he was trash.

She, Su Fei, should not be worthy of trash. She should be worthy of better prodigies.

But all of this had been ruined by Lin Yin. Even the man in front of her who coveted her and said that he loved her had become an accomplice in helping Lin Yin harm her.

The two of them kissed for a while before Su Lin let go of Su Fei, who was panting.

Su Fei's face was red as she gently punched Su Lin's chest with her pink fists. She said angrily, "Brother, you're so bad. Feifei almost can't breathe."

Su Lin pinched the shy Su Fei with a satisfied expression. "Then do you like Brother being bad?"

Su Fei turned her head slightly. "I don't like it. Brother is too powerful. Feifei will be afraid."

Su Fei's words were like feathers that always tugged at his heart. Su Lin panted heavily and said, "Brother has something more powerful. However, Feifei, you're still injured. Brother will let you off today.."

Chapter 215: Calling You Sister-in-law

After coaxing Su Fei, Su Lin rushed back to his bedroom. He had no choice. If he continued to stay with Su Fei, he might not be able to control himself.

However, as soon as he entered the room, he saw Su Zhen sitting in the house with a serious expression.

Su Zhen's cold gaze landed on Su Lin's lower body. Su Lin hurriedly covered the obvious bulge awkwardly and forced a smile as he asked, "Dad, why are you here?"

"What did you do just now?" Su Zhen's tone was filled with suppressed anger.

"I... I went to see how Feifei's injuries are," Su Lin said truthfully with his head lowered.

Su Zhen was about to explode from anger. Why did he have such a son who only thought about women? "Didn't I tell you that you're the future head of the Su Family? You can have any woman you want. Why do you have to keep an eye on Su Fei?"

Su Lin said indignantly, "Dad, haven't you already announced my relationship with Feifei? Feifei is my child bride. What's wrong with me being with her?"

Su Zhen was so angry that he grabbed the ashtray at the side and threw it at Su Lin's feet. "I was just expedient. If I didn't say that, you and Su Fei would have been completely infamous. Let me tell you, Su Fei will never be the future mistress of our Su Family. Give up."

“Dad? You’ve already said it. If you go back on your word now, won’t you be a joke?” When Su Lin heard that Su Zhen was going back on his word, he instantly became anxious.

“Su Lin, remember this. The future mistress of the Su Family must be a young lady from a prestigious family. She must be able to bring benefits to the Su Family. Therefore, you can only climb up the ranks and not be so lowly as to marry a b*stard who has nothing.” Su Zhen’s cold eyes stared fixedly at Su Lin.

The Su Family was his everything. He would not allow Su Fei to ruin all his efforts.

“Dad, but I really like Su Fei. I want to be with her,” Su Lin said unwillingly.

Su Zhen felt that the veins on his forehead were bulging from Su Lin’s anger. “If you like her, you can secretly support her. I don’t object. I’m here to make it clear to you today. Be quiet during this period of time. After this matter is over, I’ll send Su Fei away. You can support her wherever you want, but you’re not allowed to go public, understand?”

“Dad, this is too unfair to Su Fei!” Su Lin said indignantly.

“You can ignore me and bring Su Fei out to show off, but let me tell you, if you make me angry, I’ll take Su Fei out to give her away now. What do you think about continuing to give her to Ma De? I’ll do a virginity test on Su Fei. I think Ma De will change his mind. He might even revoke the measures against our Su Family,” Su Zhen threatened.

Su Lin’s eyes trembled violently. Last time, because he couldn’t bear to give Su Fei away, the bodyguards lied that Su Fei was no longer a virgin. However, if they had proof and sent her over, Su Fei would definitely not be able to escape.

Su Lin clenched his fists tightly. In the end, he lowered his head and said, “Dad, I understand. I’ll do as you say.”

Seeing that the stubborn Su Lin finally lowered his head, Su Zhen's anger dissipated by more than half. If it made sense to him, it meant that there was still hope.

Su Zhen stood up and patted Su Lin's shoulder. "A man's attention still has to be on business. With money and power, you won't lack women."

After Su Zhen left, he had other thoughts.

Su Lin was hot-blooded now and there were not many suitable girls around him. It was inevitable that he would not be able to control them. It seemed like as a father, he had to teach Su Lin more about control in this aspect.

The holidays passed quickly. Early in the morning, Lin Yin saw Su Fei with neat makeup and the corners of her lips curled up slightly. She had thought that Su Fei would be too ashamed to go to school after being demoted from an adopted daughter to a child bride. She did not expect Su Fei to be so resistant to pressure.

"Good morning, Sister!" Su Fei greeted Lin Yin as if nothing had happened.

Lin Yin chuckled. "There's something strange about you calling me Sister. After all, you're Brother's child bride. Logically speaking, you should call me Sister. I should call you Sister-in-law."

Lin Yin's words accurately hit Su Fei's psychological defense. Su Fei's expression instantly turned ugly.

Now that there was no one else around her, Su Fei did not want to have a direct conflict with Lin Yin. She could only smile awkwardly and say, "Sister, you must be joking. It's hard to say what will happen in the future. We'll change the way we address each other when we have the chance in the future.."

Chapter 216: Returning to School

"You can't say for sure? Why? Are you planning to abandon Su Lin and cozy up to someone else?" Lin Yin stared at Su Fei in surprise and pretended to be surprised.

Su Fei looked around guiltily. She suddenly remembered that Su Lin had not been around for the past few days, so she was slightly relieved.

“You misinterpreted what I meant,” Su Fei said angrily.

Lin Yin shrugged nonchalantly and ignored Su Fei.

When they returned to school after a month, the others did not change. Instead, Su Fei had changed completely.

The high and mighty eldest daughter of the Su Family had fallen from the clouds and become a child bride. This news was simply too explosive.

As for the suitors who regarded Su Fei as a goddess, they began to distance themselves from her, intentionally or unintentionally.

Only Shi Dai, who had been coaxed by Su Fei for a long time, sighed and sat beside Su Fei. “Feifei, it’s okay. Whether you’re an adopted daughter or a child bride, I’ll be by your side.”

Su Fei looked at Shi Dai with a touched expression and thought to herself that it was not in vain that she had spent so much time to win Shi Dai’s heart back.

However, it had to be said that Shi Dai was brainless. She had only cried a few times and said that she did not know that she was a child bride. It was only because she had regained her status as an adopted daughter that Su Lin expressed his love for her. Then, her parents mentioned this matter.

She really did not know that Su Lin would do that when they kissed that day, so she was stunned on the spot before someone took a photo and uploaded it.

Shi Dai believed her.

Unlike that Ji Yun. She had explained for so long, but Ji Yun still suspected her.

But to be honest, Su Fei felt that she was really wronged about the child bride. Su Fei said weakly, "Thank you, Shi Dai. It's good to have a friend like you."

Lu Yan glanced at Shi Dai with an indescribable gaze. She really did not expect that there was such an innocent person in the world. They were deceived by Su Fei and were still deeply touched by their friendship.

Lin Yin only glanced at Su Fei and went back to her work.

Feng Shui Master Bai Tong was sending a message to Lin Yin excitedly: Brother, which stock are you buying next?

Bai Tong was just a swindling Feng Shui master. Suddenly, one day, a mysterious person found him and asked him to act. They offered him 300,000 yuan. This made Bai Tong, who was starving, extremely excited and he agreed on the spot.

Then, as he pretended to be an enlightened person to send Chu Ning the information of the stock price's rise and fall, he earned a lot of money.

Now, the most exciting thing for Bai Tong every day was to ask the mysterious person which stock could bring about profits.

Lin Yin looked at the message in her hand and the corners of her lips curled up.

In the past few days, Chu Ning had shone in the stock market. Everyone was spreading the legend of the goddess of the stock market. As long as Chu Ning said that it would rise, the stock would quickly rise and if she said it would fall, the stock would quickly fall.

Chu Ning became even more smug.

Lin Yin recalled that in her previous life, Chu Ning had pretended to be kind and brought her along to earn money, but in the end, Chu Ning blamed all the failures of her own prediction on her. In the end, in order to force her to admit it, she smashed Xiao Dongdong's finger. Lin Yin's heart ached so much that she couldn't breathe.

After replying to Bai Tong, Lin Yin picked up another cell phone and bought a few high-quality stocks according to her memories from her previous life.

There was a need for more money in the future. She still had to prepare more.

Just as the bell rang for class, Jia Qing received a call from home.

Jia Qing did not pick up, but the call came again. The vibrating buzz attracted the attention of the teacher and some students beside her.

Jia Qing had no choice but to get up and say that she was going to the toilet before going out to answer the call.

"Qingqing, you finally picked up the phone. Hurry up and come to the hospital. Your father's leg was smashed at the construction site and he's being resuscitated." Jia Qing's mother's usually good voice traveled anxiously from the microphone to Jia Qing's ears.

"What?" Jia Qing immediately panicked. She applied for leave from the form teacher and went to the hospital.

Chang Hao, who was sitting at the side, immediately wailed when he heard anxious footsteps. Jia Rong, who was lying on the bed, immediately closed his eyes.

At the side, Jia Song hurriedly hid in a small corner and covered himself with something to ensure that he would not be discovered.

Hearing her mother's cries, Jia Qing was so shocked that she pushed the door open and entered.. She came to Jia Rong's side and asked, "What happened to Dad? What did the doctor say?"

Chapter 217: Something Happened to the Jia Family

Chang Hao sobbed and wiped his tears as he said, "The doctor said that if your father's leg can't be operated on in time, it has to be amputated in the future. Qingqing, what do you think our family will do if your father's legs are amputated in the future? Although your school waived your tuition fees, your living expenses won't be able to be settled. In the future, we will still need someone to take care of your father, visits to the doctor, and medication.

Everything needs money."

Hearing Chang Hao's words, Jia Qing's heart was in a mess. On one hand, she was worried about her father, and on the other hand, she was worried about her future.

She had racked her brains to squeeze into this school. She could not lose this opportunity to change her fate.

However, if her father's legs were really amputated, not only would she not have any expenses for food, she might even be forced to drop out of school to go home to take care of her paralyzed father or go out to work to earn money.

If that was the case, her life would be ruined.

"Where's Brother? Where is he?" Jia Qing asked.

Her brother, Jia Song, was a year older than Jia Qing, but because Jia Song's studies were not good, he entered society early.

Therefore, Jia Qing felt that her brother should do something for her father.

Chang Hao's expression was slightly off. Then, he said, "Your brother is hiding because he injured someone in a fight. I wonder where he is now? He hasn't appeared for a long time."

Hearing Chang Hao's words, Jia Qing felt her entire body tremble with anger.

Their family was poor to begin with. Their mother was a housewife who occasionally took on odd jobs.

Her father worked at the construction site and earned money. Other than giving her some expenses for food, the rest was either for drinking or gambling.

She even had such a troublesome brother. Such a family made her feel deep despair.

"Mom, can you borrow some from a relative?" Jia Qing asked.

Chang Hao sighed and said, "How can we have any relatives? They all despise our family for being poor. Why would they lend it to us?"

Jia Qing naturally knew in her heart. The relatives around them were all poor to begin with. In addition, her father had often borrowed money in the past few years, so those poor relatives naturally did not like their family.

Just as Jia Qing was at a loss, Chang Hao suddenly pulled Jia Qing back and said, "Didn't Yinyin get brought home by her rich parents? Didn't you say that she's your classmate now? Can you go borrow it from her?"

Jia Qing suddenly frowned. Borrowing money from Lin Yin?

In the past, Jia Qing would have felt that there was no problem at all. In the past, even if Lin Yin didn't have money, she would help them raise money.

But now that Lin Yin had returned to the Su Family, she seemed to have become a different person. She didn't think that this Lin Yin, who despised the poor and loved the rich, would lend her money.

Jia Qing could only say truthfully, "I'm not sure if she'll lend it to me?"

"Why wouldn't she? Didn't she say that she didn't have money the last time we asked her for money? Didn't she come to give us money later? Now that she has money, she won't be so stingy," Chang Hao said.

Jia Qing looked at her father, whose legs were hanging high on the bed. In the end, she gritted her teeth and said, "Okay, I'll go borrow it from here. How much do we need?"

Chang Hao twisted his fingers and said, "The doctor said that a conservative estimate is 200,000 yuan."

"200,000! !" Jia Qing exclaimed.

When Chang Hao saw Jia Qing making a fuss, he immediately began to wipe his tears again and cried, "Two hundred thousand yuan is still too little for two legs. If you want him to return to his previous state, we'll need at least half a million yuan."

Jia Qing felt like her head was about to explode.

"Qingqing, 200,000 yuan is a little too much for us, but to Yinyin's family, it's just a bag and jewelry that's not worth mentioning. Think about it. Just ask her for some jewelry or a bag, and she'll definitely give it to you," Chang Hao persuaded.

In the end, Jia Qing had no choice but to bite the bullet and say, "Then I'll try."

After Jia Qing left, Jia Rong, who was originally lying lifeless on the bed, instantly opened his eyes and smiled. "Looks like this move is still useful against Qingqing. I wonder if Qingqing can bring money."

“Don’t worry, we’ll definitely be able to get it. Won’t our son’s betrothal gift come then?” Chang Hao said happily.

“Then what if Lin Yin wants us to return it?” Jia Song, who came out of the corner, asked.

“What’s there to return? We borrowed so much previously, but Lin Yin didn’t ask for it to be returned, right? Besides, this money was borrowed by that girl, Qingqing. She can just settle it herself. What has it got to do with us? Just wait for that money to be used as a betrothal gift to get married,” Chang Hao said..

Chapter 218: Borrowing Money

Jia Rong, who was at the side, also said, “Your mother is right. This money was borrowed by Qingqing and has nothing to do with our Jia Family. A girl is an outsider and can’t be blamed on us. Your most important task now is to quickly get married and have children to continue our Jia Family’s bloodline.”

Hearing his parents’ words, Jia Song was relieved.

On the other hand, Jia Qing had already rushed back to school. Looking at the students walking to the canteen in twos and threes and Lin Yin, who was protected in the middle, she did not know how to go up and speak to her.

How was she going to stay in school in the future if she borrowed money from Lin Yin in front of so many people?

In the end, Jia Qing could only wait for Lin Yin at the entrance of the Su Family’s house after school. Unexpectedly, she waited until nighttime before she saw Lin Yin return in a luxury car.

Jia Qing knew this car that often came back to school to pick up Lin Yin.

Hence, Jia Qing rushed to the front of the car and stopped the luxury car that was about to drive into a high-end villa. The chauffeur was so frightened that he jolted and stepped on the brakes.

After the chauffeur cursed under his breath, he said to Lin Yin, who was in the backseat, "I'm sorry, Miss. Someone who doesn't care about their life is blocking the car outside."

Without the chauffeur saying anything, Lin Yin saw Jia Qing standing at the front of the car.

When Jia Qing saw that the car had stopped, she quickly ran to the car door and knocked on the window rudely. She said loudly, "Yinyin, come out for a while. I have something to tell you."

Originally, Jia Qing had warned herself to have a better temper, but she had waited at the entrance of the Su Family for several hours today, which made her very unhappy.

When she saw Lin Yin return in a luxury car with boundless glory, her mood worsened.

Not long ago, Lin Yin and she had both lived a life of rolling in mud. On what basis could Lin Yin transform and sit on the high clouds while she could only roll in the mud?

Hence, jealousy and hatred spread throughout her mind, causing her to be unable to help but shout and even be rude the moment she spoke.

The chauffeur looked behind and asked, "Miss, do you know her?"

Lin Yin glanced coldly at Jia Qing, who was still knocking on the car window, and said lightly, "I don't know her. Find an opportunity and drive away."

Jia Qing, who had been knocking on the car window outside, gradually became impatient and embarrassed.

Because the sound of her knocking on the car window was not soft, many busybodies had already started to gather around her, wanting to see what was going on.

The chauffeur looked outside and found the opportunity. He stepped on the accelerator and drove straight towards the Su Family's door.

Caught off guard, Jia Qing was stunned on the spot.

Lin Yin actually dared to treat her like this. She had knocked on the car window outside for so long and endured the mocking gazes of the surrounding people. After paying such a huge price, Lin Yin actually dared to drive away.

Jia Qing, who was furious, hurriedly followed, but she was stopped by the security officers guarding the entrance.

"I'm sorry, this is a private residence. Who are you looking for?" the security officer asked politely.

Actually, the security officers had seen the scene just now. However, as professional security officers, they still had to ask politely first.

Jia Qing immediately pointed at Lin Yin's car and said anxiously, "I'm here to look for the car that just entered. I'm a good friend of that car owner."

"I'm sorry, can I trouble you to call the owner? We have to confirm it." The security officer smiled appropriately and sized up Jia Qing's clothes.

At this moment, Jia Qing saw a hint of mockery in the security officer's expression.

That's right. One was a rich young lady who was sitting in a luxury car and was covered in brands. The other was a poor woman who had waited at the door for a few hours and had less than 200 yuan on her. How could such two people be friends?

However, at the thought of her father, who was still waiting for her money to save his life in the hospital, Jia Qing swallowed the humiliation in her heart. She picked up her cell phone hatefully and dialed Lin Yin's number.

Lin Yin, who had just gotten out of the car, looked at the caller ID and sneered. Then, her fingertips slipped and she rejected it cleanly.

In her previous life, Lin Yin had indeed lent Jia Qing this sum of money. She had secretly sold a set of jewelry that Su Fei did not want and gave her as charity.

But in the end, she was still betrayed by Jia Qing.

The funny thing was that in her previous life, she still remembered that so-called promise. They would be friends for life and help each other for the rest of their lives.

From the looks of it, it was nonsense to talk about friendship with someone like Jia Qing.

In this life, she wanted to see what Jia Qing would do if she stopped lending her money..

Chapter 219: Meeting Mu Heng

When the security officer at the entrance saw the call interface where Jia Qing had been hung up, he could not help but smile mockingly.

Jia Qing was also furious at Lin Yin's rejection. Lin Yin really forgot her friends when it came to benefits. Now that she had money, she didn't care about their past relationship at all.

In the past, she had said so nicely that they would be friends for life and help each other for the rest of their lives. Now that she was in trouble, Lin Yin ignored her.

They were all f*cking lies.

If she lost her beautiful future and a healthy father because Lin Yin didn't lend her money, she would definitely make Lin Yin pay the price for her actions today.

Jia Qing cursed in the direction where Lin Yin had disappeared. Lin Yin, one day, you will suffer retribution.

Jia Qing turned around and left hatefully. In the end, when she passed by a waterhole, she was splashed with water by a luxury car that passed by quickly.

Jia Qing gritted her teeth in anger and her words became rougher. "Damn it, do you not have eyes when you're driving? You drove so fast. Are you in a hurry to meet Hades?"

In the car, Chu Ning looked at the girl who was shouting at her in the rearview mirror and the corners of her lips curled up evilly. Yes, she did it on purpose. She was in a good mood today and too excited, so she wanted to find someone to vent it on.

After the girl disappeared, Chu Ning returned her attention to the front.

The thought of meeting the youngest financial tycoon, Mu Heng, made her extremely excited.

Mu Heng, the outstanding man that could only be seen in financial magazines, a business giant who crossed different industries and even had his own investment bank, actually took the initiative to ask her out. This was really too surprising.

It had to be said that the Feng Shui master Lin Yin introduced was really capable. The predicted market price of the stock market was accurate, so her position as the goddess of the stock market was stabilized.

Come to think of it, Mu Heng must have heard about her achievements and was interested in her, right?

As expected, outstanding men would still like outstanding women like her.

If something good happened between her and Mu Heng one day, she would definitely give Lin Yin a big red packet as thanks.

As she thought about it, Chu Ning had already thought of what her and Mu Heng's future children would be called. In the end, the horn of the car behind woke her up.

Chu Ning cursed, "Why are you rushing me? Are you in a rush to give birth." Then, Chu Ning started the car and set off excitedly in the beautiful direction of the future.

"Boss, that stock goddess is downstairs," Guan Nan said to Mu Heng, who was reading documents.

"Invite her to the conference room and talk to her," Mu Heng said.

"Okay!" Guan Nan replied and left.

Chu Ning, who had been invited to the meeting room, had been taking deep breaths. Then, she warned herself that she had to calm down and act like the two of them were equals.

The moment the meeting room door opened, Chu Ning stood up slowly and looked at the man who came in with an indifferent expression. She did not expect that it was Guan Nan who came in.

Guan Nan, who had entered, quickly caught Chu Ning's slightly disappointed expression and said calmly, "Hello, Miss Chu."

Chu Ning smiled slightly and shook Guan Nan's hand graciously. Then, she said, "Is Mr. Mu not around?"

Guan Nan said with a smile, "Miss Chu, you might have misunderstood. I was the one who invited you here."

Chu Ning was slightly stunned. Guan Nan was Mu Heng's chief assistant. As soon as he invited her, Chu Ning naturally felt that Mu Heng was asking her out. She did not expect there to be a misunderstanding.

"Is that so? Then I've misunderstood." Chu Ning openly admitted that she had misunderstood.

Guan Nan did not mind. He greeted Chu Ning and the two of them got to the point.

Mu Heng, who was next door, listened to Guan Nan and Chu Ning's conversation and became bored after a while. He could now confirm that the so-called goddess of the stock market was nothing much. It seemed that the information he found was indeed correct.

How could a so-called stock goddess who used to use mixed information to confuse people suddenly hit the nail on the head every single time?

Moreover, through the conversation between Guan Nan and Chu Ning just now, this Chu Ning did not know much about stocks. She must have had some fortuitous encounter recently, right? Perhaps she had met an expert?

Mu Heng's gaze landed on the computer. Actually, other than Chu Ning, there were two other very interesting accounts. Most of them were the same as Chu Ning's account, but there were occasional differences..

Chapter 220: No Gifts

Unlike the others who bought from Chu Ning, their two accounts were new accounts. Moreover, they bought from Chu Ning from the beginning. As for the others, they bought from Chu Ning after she became famous.

Since the mastermind could guide Chu Ning to buy it, they could naturally guide others to buy it or buy it themselves. Therefore, if they checked the joint contacts of these three people, there was a high chance that they could find out who the mastermind was.

Guan Nan, who was in the conference hall, received Mu Heng's instructions. He looked up and saw a small secretary walking in with a box.

Guan Nan hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, Miss Chu. I didn't notice when I invited you previously and made you misunderstand. Therefore, I asked my secretary to choose a gift for Miss Chu as an apology."

Chu Ning, who did not see Mu Heng, naturally felt uncomfortable. She had specially gone for a styling today and spent five hours preparing for this meeting.

However, seeing that Guan Nan's attitude was alright, she calmed down a little.

Although she did not think that an assistant like Guan Nan could give her anything good, she still took a look. In the end, she was attracted by the jewelry in the box.

She did not expect that Guan Nan was just a small assistant, but he could give away a million yuan in one go. Moreover, it was someone she had only met once. This made Chu Ning even more certain that as the boss, Mu Heng must be even more generous.

Although Guan Nan was an assistant, he was Mu Heng's number one assistant. If she wanted to interact with Mu Heng in the future, she would definitely not be able to avoid Guan Nan.

Therefore, Chu Ning felt that she could not accept this gift.

It would be terrible if Guan Nan thought that she was a greedy person.

Chu Ning put on a gentle smile and said, "Assistant Guan, you're too polite. It's just that I can't accept this gift. I've chatted with Assistant Guan for so long today. This is already the best outcome. I hope Assistant Guan won't give me these material things and affect our friendship."

Guan Nan smiled, but he was extremely awkward in his heart. The friendship between him and Chu Ning? Appreciation? Was she referring to that incongruous conversation just now?

Guan Nan knew very well that Chu Ning clearly had higher ambitions. She wanted to maintain an image of not caring about worldly things in front of him so that she could interact with his boss in the future.

However, he could not say it out loud.

It did not matter what Chu Ning thought. In short, what Chu Ning did was to show that she was not greedy for worldly things. It was right for him to praise her.

“Miss Chu, you’re right. It’s my fault. I’m worldly. Miss Chu’s character is elegant and admirable. Then I hope I still have a chance to interact with Miss Chu in the future,” Guan Nan said with a smile.

Chu Ning was about to take the opportunity to arrange a time for their next meeting when Guan Nan continued, “Then I’ll get my secretary to send Miss Chu down. Coincidentally, I still have something on. Let’s meet another day.”

Chu Ning watched helplessly as Guan Nan left with the expensive jewelry. She was filled with regret.

When would they meet? If they didn’t agree on a time, wasn’t it equivalent to being far away?

Chu Ning still wanted to chase after her, but she was stopped by the secretary.

The secretary said politely, “Miss Chu, please.”

Chu Ning could only be invited down by the secretary with a smile.

As soon as she arrived downstairs, Chu Ning had a pained expression. She had just rejected a million yuan worth of jewelry! A million yuan! This realization made Chu Ning’s heart ache!

Guan Nan, who was upstairs, returned to Mu Heng’s office with the jewelry that was not accepted.

Mu Heng raised his eyebrows slightly. “She didn’t accept it?”

Although he did not say it explicitly, he was the one who invited her over, so he was still very sincere in giving her a gift, especially someone who he would not meet again.”

Guan Nan looked at Mu Heng with a smile. “Maybe she doesn’t have intentions here.”

Mu Heng lowered his head indifferently and sent the two accounts he had just found to Guan Nan. “Check these two accounts today. I want the results tomorrow.”

Guan Nan looked down at the account information Mu Heng had sent. They were all new accounts that had been created recently.

Jia Qing, who did not get the money, returned to the ward dejectedly.

When Chang Hao saw Jia Qing return, he quickly went forward excitedly and asked, “How is it? Did you get the money? Hurry up and give it to me. I’ll go pay for your father.”

Jia Qing shook her head and said, “Lin Yin is not lending it to me, she won’t even see me.”

At this point, Jia Qing’s eyes filled with hatred. It was all Lin Yin’s fault. If she had lent her money, she wouldn’t have walked home and wouldn’t have been splashed by dirty water on the way..
