

Real Daughter 231

Chapter 231: Splashing Paint

Seeing Mu Xiao walking over from afar, Lin Yin immediately stopped and relaxed her fists. She relaxed her eyebrows and smiled. "Brother Mu Xiao, why are you here?"

"When I came back from overseas this morning, I knew what happened to you. I was afraid that something would happen to you, so I came to see you. I didn't expect something to happen," Mu Xiao said.

Then, Mu Xiao sized up Lin Yin a few times. After confirming that she was not injured, he was relieved.

Lin Yin looked at the bodyguards who had already subdued the people who splashed the paint and said, "Thank you, Brother Mu Xiao. So you were the one who found these people?"

"Half of it is mine, and the other half is not mine," Mu Xiao replied. He looked at the other bodyguards and was suspicious.

Just as Lin Yin was wondering who the other half was, Lu Yan had already run over while panting. She asked worriedly, "Yinyin, are you alright?"

Lin Yin shook her head and said, "I'm fine. These people came at the right time."

Only then did Lu Yan heave a sigh of relief. "So my uncle was right. Sure enough, there will be some people who are muddle-headed and mess around.

Fortunately, I listened to my uncle and brought a few bodyguards over."

Lin Yin was grateful and said, "Then remember to help me thank your Uncle!"

“Sigh, it’s fine. It’s just a small matter.” Lu Yan waved her hand.

When Mu Xiao heard that Lin Yin still called Lu Ming “Uncle” , his mood improved.

When he didn’t suspect that Lin Yin was his sister, he looked at the dispute between Lu Ming, Lin Yin, and Mu Ran as if he was watching a show.

Now that he was basically certain that Lin Yin was his sister, he was not in the mood to watch the commotion.

Now, he finally knew where Mu Ran’s unhappiness came from. It was the uncomfortable feeling of his fair and tender sister being snatched away.

Lu Yan, who was at the side, looked at Mu Xiao with confusion in her eyes.

“This is? He looks a little like Brother Mu Ran!”

“Hello, I’m Mu Ran’s brother, Mu Xiao.” Mu Xiao’s eyes were smiling.

“Oh my god! If you’re Mu Ran’s brother, then you’re my brother. Aiyo, why are you all so handsome?” Lu Yan was infatuated.

After Mu Xiao sent those people to the police station, he left the bodyguards to Lin Yin, just in case.

Although Lin Yin felt that it was about to end and there was no need, she could not dissuade Mu Xiao and could only accept it.

Coupled with Lu Ming’s bodyguards, Lin Yin felt that she looked like the daughter of a big boss of a gang going to school. She was too awe-inspiring.

Mu Heng was a little surprised to learn from Guan Nan that Mu Xiao had actually brought people to protect Lin Yin. He wondered if it was because of Mu Ran.

Because Mu Ran liked Lin Yin, he asked Mu Xiao for help?

In that case, Mu Xiao might have extorted a lot of benefits from Mu Ran.

It seemed that Mu Ran really liked Lin Yin.

However, Mu Heng was a little uncertain. With Mu Ran's character, would he be Lin Yin's type? After all, she was such a smart girl.

However, it was hard to say. Between husband and wife, one was smart and the other was stupid. If they complemented each other like this, they might be able to live well.

Lin Yin, who had returned to the classroom, ignored the gazes of her classmates and returned to her seat.

Shi Dai, who was at the side, questioned indignantly, "Lin Yin, you were the one who caused trouble in your family. In the end, you made Feifei apologize. How dare you come to class?!"

Lin Yin sneered and said, "If your heart aches, go accompany her."

"That's right. Su Fei was stupid. The netizens don't know about Jia Qing's incident at the school gate, but don't we know? It was clearly Jia Qing's family who was in the wrong, but Su Fei tried to be a good person and was photographed. Isn't this directly convicting Lin Yin? In the end, our Yinyin is the victim!" Lu Yan said indignantly.

Ji Yun pulled Shi Dai and asked her to speak less.

This matter was indeed like this. If Su Fei and Su Lin had not come out to confess, the situation would not have fallen to such a state.

As long as they could find the surveillance footage or the unedited original video, it was very easy for the Su Family to get rid of them.

But now, the Su Family was clearly not in the wrong, but they used money to settle it. Su Fei and Su Lin even said a lot of insensible and extreme words about Lin Yin in the video..

Chapter 232: The Truth About the Broken Leg

Therefore, Ji Yun did not sympathize with Su Fei at all.

However, she did not expect that Shi Dai, who was not clear-headed, would still stand up for Su Fei. It really opened her eyes.

Shi Dai was stubborn. "Anyway, if it weren't for Lin Yin, this wouldn't have happened."

"You mean that a dog wanted to bite me, but I didn't let it, so that dog went around saying that I had no conscience. Then, Su Fei took money to apologize to the dog, causing everyone to think that I hurt the dog, so they attacked our family. And in your opinion, the source of all this is because I didn't let the dog bite me obediently, right?" Lin Yin looked at Shi Dai and mocked.

"That's right. If you say that, I'll ask you for a million yuan now. If you don't give it to me obediently, it's your fault. What kind of logic is that?" Lu Yan snorted coldly, her eyes filled with disdain.

The surrounding students laughed softly.

This was how things were supposed to be. Many of them came from rich families, but that money did not come from nowhere.

Could it be that they had to give it to someone who wanted it? Did they deserve it just because they had money? What logic was this?

Shi Dai did not know how to retort and could only sit in her seat angrily.

As evening approached, Su Zhen called Lin Yin, his tone fawning. "Yinyin, I heard from the public relations manager that you still have some information. Will you give it to me today? Can you send it over now? The Corporation's situation isn't good."

Lin Yin snorted. The Su Corporation had angered everyone and only lost a billion yuan.

Lin Yin said indifferently, "It's not the time yet. Dad, don't worry. I know what to do. Nothing will happen this time."

Lin Yin hung up the phone and quickly bought the shares of the Su Corporation before the market closed today. She did not forget to ask Bai Tong and Chu Ning to buy them too.

In the short period of time that this matter had happened, many shareholders had already sold their shares of the Su Corporation. Although it was insignificant, they could take it slow.

The next day, when the news of the eldest daughter of the Su Family being ungrateful had reached its peak, a post was suddenly pushed up and instantly became a hot topic.

The truth of the eldest daughter of the Su Family being ungrateful

Everyone thought that this should be about Lin Yin's past, such as exposing the reason why Lin Yin was so cold-blooded and heartless.

Just as the netizens were about to go in and curse, everyone was stunned by the content of the post.

The Jia Family's father, whom everyone thought was waiting for his life to be saved, actually stood up in the video and molested a nurse who was blurred out.

The time of that video happened to be the day before Jia Qing and Chang Hao knelt at the school gate and begged Lin Yin for money.

Although there was no sound in the video, everyone could see what was happening through the video.

Hence, this post instantly attracted more netizens to come in and discuss. The comments below the post instantly exploded.

[Am I seeing things? The old man who cried online that he would have to amputate his leg if he didn't have money for surgery is this person in the video?]

[So, what's going on now? I'm a little confused. I scolded Lin Yin a lot previously. I'm a little flustered now! If I don't find out what happened, I won't dare to speak.]

[Damn it, have we been deceived? Have we been used? He's so energetic and can still suppress a young lady. How does he look like he broke his leg?]

[So, nothing happened to this old man at all, right? Damn it, I even donated money to perform surgery on him.]

[How could it be like this? So Lin Yin is innocent? This family wanted to cheat money, but Lin Yin didn't agree, so they spread rumors about Lin Yin, right? Is that right?]

[F*ck, a person with broken legs waiting for surgery can actually stand up and molest a nurse. I actually attacked others for such a person previously. I want to end my life now. F*ck! F*ck!]

[They used public opinion to attack people and used the kindness of netizens to gain benefits. How can there be such a shameless person?]

[I don't know anything. I only know that this old man's legs are broken. He shouldn't be so healthy. Does anyone want to form a team to break his legs?!] [I feel so stupid. I'm actually being used by someone. I'm going to kill them!] [That old fart still dares to molest a little girl. I'm going to destroy him.]

At this moment, this blogger exposed another set of videos. The video directly released the conversation between the Jia Family. When this video was released, it directly angered everyone..

Chapter 233: Exposed

“This move is still useful against Qingqing. I wonder if Qingqing can bring money.”

“Don’t worry, we’ll definitely be able to get it. Won’t our son’s betrothal gift come then?”

“Then what if Lin Yin wants us to return the money later?”

“What’s there to return? We borrowed so much previously, but Lin Yin didn’t ask for it to be returned, right? Besides, this money was borrowed by that girl, Qingqing. She can just settle it herself. What has it got to do with us? Just wait for that money to be used as a betrothal gift to get married,” Chang Hao said.

“A girl is an outsider and can’t be blamed on us. Your most important task now is to quickly get married and have children to continue our Jia Family’s bloodline.”

“Lin Yin is not lending it to me, she won’t even see me.”

“Tell her this. If she does nothing to save him, she’ll be the murderer who killed your father and will have a guilty conscience for the rest of her life. When she hears this, she’ll definitely be willing to borrow money,”

“Why is it so difficult to ask for money now? Didn’t she always give us money when we asked in the past?”

“I’m going out to walk. Don’t get up and walk around on your own, lest others discover you.”

The video from here onwards was of Jia Rong molesting the nurse.

“You can be discharged soon. It’s just a small fall. There’s no need for you to be hospitalized. It’s a single ward even. It’s a waste of money,”

“Young lady, don’t shout. I didn’t do it on purpose. I just fell and was careless. Don’t shout and I’ll let go of you. Of course, it’s useless if you shout. Everyone will believe me, the patient.”

Below that was how the Jia Family reacted after getting the money.

“That’s right, Qingqing. You still had a plan to get the netizens to donate. You gathered 300,000 yuan in one go, faster than taking money from Lin Yin. Our Qingqing is so capable.”

“Not now. We don’t know anything about this Internet. When the donation money reaches a million yuan, we’ll let Qingqing go back. At that time, we’ll give 200,000 yuan to Jia Song as a betrothal gift and 500,000 yuan to Jia Song as a down payment for a house. We’ll use some of the remaining 300,000 yuan for the wedding and keep some for us to retire.”

“Alright! I didn’t expect there to be so many benefits from pretending to be sick. All our problems were resolved in an instant. The money came too quickly. When we finish spending our money, it’s my turn to pretend to be sick and extort another sum,”

“The Su Family is really stupid. The matter wasn’t settled in the first place, but as soon as they came to apologize, we really became victims. Not only did we get 500,000 yuan for nothing, but we also attracted more donations.”

“I didn’t expect those two children from the Su Family to be so stupid. We only said that we would consider it, and they gave us money directly. This child from a rich family is so easy to deceive.”

“Brother, it’s not up to you to decide if I’m filial or not. In short, I have a share of the money this time. I can’t stay in school anymore because of this matter, so I’ll use this money to find a good school to continue my studies.”

At the same time, the Su Corporation released evidence, showing clearly the money Lin Yin had spent on the Jia Family all these years and the tuition fees she had paid for Jia Qing.

This included the records of Lin Yin being hospitalized twice to save Jia Song and Chang Hao, as well as the witness interviews of the hooligans who participated and neighbors.

There were also some other bloggers who released the entire process of Jia Qing and Lin Yin arguing at the school gate that day.

With this, everything was obvious. The targets of everyone's scolding turned from Lin Yin to the Jia family of four.

[This family has simply refreshed my worldview. I've never seen such a shameless person!]

[I've finally seen what it means to be born poor!]

[She pretended to be sick and borrowed money from Lin Yin, she couldn't get it and she started rumors online. She used the netizens to attack Lin Yin and instantly accumulated wealth. I'm really upset because I was really deceived and even donated 1,000 yuan. I've never been so stupid in my life!]

[This is what an ungrateful ingrate is, right? Not only is she an ingrate, but she's also a vampire. She couldn't suck enough of Lin Yin, so she targeted the netizens!]

[They actually want to pretend to be sick to earn money the next time after this. Don't they know shame?]

[I never thought that the first time in my life that I donated online would be to donate to someone else's family to get married. Ridiculous!]

[Am I the only one who thinks that Jia Qing is actually quite pitiful? She was tricked by her parents into borrowing money, but in the end, it was just to get a betrothal gift for her brother. They don't even want her to continue school and want to marry her off?]

[She's a pitiful person, but that doesn't mean she isn't hateful. She used the kindness of the netizens to accumulate wealth and provoke the netizens to attack Lin Yin. She's the mastermind..]

Chapter 234: Netizen Apologizes

[He still wants to continue his bloodline? F*ck, does his family have a throne to inherit? Does such a dirty bloodline need to be inherited?]

[Which girl would be so unlucky to marry into such a family?]

[It's too scary. This family must be severely punished. Otherwise, who will believe in this so-called online donation in the future?]

[The nature of this matter is too evil. It's simply challenging the public order of our society and the trust between people.]

[I'm relieved to see that everyone is scolding that family. I'll stand up for Lin Yin for now. Such a kind girl was actually attacked for saving a family of ingrates. My heart aches!]

[This world shouldn't disappoint kind people. Miss Su helped that family so much and was scolded by us in the end. She even implicated her family. I'm honest. I scolded her before, so I apologize!]

[The netizens owe Miss Su an apology. I'll apologize first: I'm sorry, I was blind!]

Below were a group of netizens who wanted to apologize to Lin Yin. In an instant, the topic of "I owe Miss Su an apology" became trending.

In a few minutes, the topic of #1 owe the Su Corporation an apology # became popular.

Hence, a scene that caught people between laughter and tears appeared on the Internet. The netizens went around looking for people to apologize to!

Mu Heng looked at the trend on the Internet and could not help but nod. This young lady was bold and forbearing. She was a talent who could do great things.

Especially the video in the hospital. It looked like it was prepared. This foresight was very interesting.

Moreover, Mu Heng also knew that Lin Yin was actually buying crazily while the Su Corporation's shares were falling. This made him feel that Lin Yin seemed to be doing something he did not know.

At this moment, Jia Qing's eyes were already red and swollen as she looked at the video on her phone. She had never thought that the truth would be like this.

In order to let her brother get a wife to marry, her parents did not hesitate to pretend to be sick and lie to her, making her endure the humiliation and borrow money from Lin Yin!

She even planned to push all the responsibility of borrowing money to her. They would live a carefree life.

Jia Qing's eyes were bloodshot and filled with resentment.

Why?

Was she born to be treated differently just because she was a girl?

It was already very unfortunate for her to be born into such a poor family, but she still had to face such parents. She hated them!

She hated that the heavens were blind to let her be born into such a family.

She hated that she was a woman and could only be bullied.

She hated her bad luck. It was not easy for her to get some money, but she was discovered.

She hated Lin Yin for abandoning their friendship and leaving her with no way out.

At this moment, the Su Corporation had timely released some good news that the Su Corporation had once sponsored poor students and helped farmers.

The post was accompanied by: "The Su Corporation has always been contributing to public welfare and repaying the public's trust and support for the Su Corporation. Like Miss Lin Yin, the Su Corporation has always pursued doing good things without asking for anything in return under the guidance of President Su Zhen. It's just that I didn't expect to encounter such a storm this time. Apart from being surprised, I can only be thick-skinned and demonstrate a few incidents to prove my innocence."

The Su Corporation's humorous tone instantly won the favor of the netizens.

Hence, very quickly, all kinds of good deeds related to the Su Corporation spread like wildfire on the Internet, and the shares of the Su Corporation rose like a straight line.

Su Zhen looked at the computer in his office, the smile on his face never stopping.

The public relations manager beside her was full of praise for Lin Yin. "Missy's move is simply too wonderful! This time, not only did our Corporation not lose anything, but we also increased our reputation and saved 200 million yuan in advertising fees."

The people below flattered Su Zhen, "Missy is indeed the President's biological daughter. She's smart and capable like President Su. She's capable and smart." Su Zhen felt light-headed from the praise and felt his mood improve.

However, when her gaze inadvertently landed on the unhappy and silent Su Lin, he instantly became more frustrated.

However, Lin Yin was a daughter. If only she was a son. Su Lin was just like washing a pig, it was a waste of both water and soap. Other than causing trouble, there was nothing he could do.

Su Lin felt extremely uncomfortable, especially when he heard those praises for Lin Yin. He only felt that they were ear-piercing.

However, in the end, he still convinced himself not to be angry. No matter how powerful and capable Lin Yin was, she was still just a daughter.

Everything in the Su Family would be his in the future. When the time came, he would get rid of all the people who praised Lin Yin today..

Chapter 235: Be a Good Person

Su Fei looked at the comments online and instantly felt upset.

She had thought that she would be able to find some comments that praised her. For example, for Lin Yin, she, a daughter of a rich family, would lower herself to apologize. Even if it turned out to be a trap in the end, it couldn't cover up her kindness to Lin Yin. She was kind-hearted.

However, those netizens seemed to be blind. They only saw the video where the Jia Family said that she was stupid and gullible.

Su Fei was so angry that she threw her phone onto the bed, her eyes red.

It was this Lin Yin. Lin Yin must have returned and snatched her good luck. In the past, such praise had always belonged to her, but now, it was snatched away by Lin Yin.

This matter quickly came to an end, but the punishment for the Jia Family was not small.

The total donation from the Jia Family this time exceeded 1 million yuan. Since Jia Qing was really clueless at that time, other than her, the other three were each sentenced to a year in prison.

As for the 500,000 yuan that the Su Family had given her, Lin Yin directly suggested that they sue them for extortion. At that time, in the extortion video, there were only the three members of the Jia Family and Jia Qing escaped again.

At the same time, Jia Rong was exposed for molesting a nurse and for various previous molestation and attempted rape.

As for Jia Qing, she was expelled from the school.

Lu Yan looked at the happy scene and asked sneakily, "Yinyin, you were so calm and composed before. Did you already have victory in your hands and have been hiding it from me?"

Lin Yin said awkwardly, "That's not the case. We just happened to have some evidence."

In her previous life, Jia Rong had provoked a shrewish woman and was beaten up for his attempted molestation. It was exposed online and many women reported him, including the nurse in the video.

At that time, this girl reported it with her real name, and it spread like wildfire.

For this, Jia Qing even begged her to fork out a lot of money to pull strings.

Now, Jia Rong deserved it.

"Yinyin is still the best," Yang Xue praised sincerely.

Lu Yan also said proudly, "Of course. Yinyin is the best."

At this moment, Jia Qing had returned to her dilapidated house. Of the four people in the house, three had been captured. Now, it was cold and desolate.

Her home was gone. No, she had never had a home. Now, she didn't even have a future and she was penniless.

She had clearly not done anything wrong. She just wanted to live well like a normal person. Why was there nothing in the end?

"Sister Qing, you're back?" Suddenly, a boy's voice came from outside the door. Jia Qing looked back. It was Dong Dong, a child who lived in this slum with her. Jia Qing waved at Dong Dong. "Come here."

Dong Dong came over with a smile on his face. In the past, when he could not find Sister Yinyin, he would come here to look for her.

However, he usually did not dare to come in because Sister Qing's father was very fierce and knew how to hit people like his father.

Therefore, every time he came, he would hide opposite and watch secretly. When Sister Yinyin came out, he would suddenly jump out and scare her.

However, Sister Yinyin had said that Sister Qing's father had once given her half a steamed bun, so in his heart, she should be considered a good person.

"Sister Qing, have you eaten?" Dong Dong blinked and asked.

Jia Qing shook her head and looked at the boy in front of her. This was the boy Lin Yin had taken good care of in the past.

Dong Dong took out a steamed bun from his pocket and said, "Then this is for you. I just bought it."

Then, he looked to the side. Seeing that there was no one, he took out half a roast duck from the pocket of his coat and handed it to Jia Qing with a smile.

"This is for you too."

Jia Qing's gaze landed on the steamed bun and roasted duck. She asked indifferently, "Who bought this for you?"

Dongdong only had a lazy father at home, so it could be said that Dongdong did not have three meals a day.

In the past, Lin Yin would help this little boy. Now that Lin Yin was gone, he was just a child. Where did he get this food?

"I didn't buy it. A kind-hearted person gave it to me." Dong Dong's small face was filled with innocence.

As she spoke, Dong Dong handed the steamed bun in her hand to Jia Qing.

He had heard that Sister Qing's family had been captured. Now, Sister Qing was the only one left in the house. She was so pitiful.

In the past, when he had nothing to eat, Sister Yinyin would always bring him delicious food. Therefore, he had to be a good person like Sister Yinyin..

Chapter 236: Siblings

"Kind-hearted? Hehehe, how can there be kind-hearted people in this world?" Jia Qing held the steamed bun tightly.

Seeing that his steamed bun had been flattened, Dong Dong was a little stunned. Then, he said in a daze, "Sister Yinyin, she's a good person. She'll bring me food. You're also a good person because Sister Yinyin plays with you."

Jia Qing looked up slightly, her eyes cold. "You said that Yinyin is a good person?"

Dong Dong nodded seriously. "Of course she's a good person!"

Jia Qing laughed. That's right, Lin Yin was a good person!

Dong Dong was frightened by Jia Qing's sinister laughter. He hurriedly took two steps back and fled.

Seeing the fleeing Dong Dong, Jia Qing smiled even more coldly and arrogantly.

As soon as Lin Yin returned home, she contacted Long Ming, a detective she trusted.

Lin Yin: "How is it? Has Dong Dong been doing well recently?"

Long: "It's alright. The little guy can eat a lot. I got someone to send him food every day. It's enough for him."

Lin Yin: "That's good. By the way, have you settled the matter regarding Zhou

Wei that I asked you to investigate previously?"

Long: "There's not much information, but I found some woman suspected to be Zhou Wei's mother. I'll check again during this period."

Lin Yin: "Okay, sorry to trouble you."

Putting down her phone, Lin Yin propped her chin up and thought about Zhou Wei.

She was someone who had a grudge against the Mu Family and knew Zhou Li. Furthermore, Zhou Li knew Chu Yun. Perhaps she could find out something from this person, such as why Chu Yun wanted to bring her back to the Su Family.

At this moment, Long Ming sent a photo over. Lin Yin picked it up and saw that it was a photo of Dong Dong. Lin Yin couldn't help but smile.

The first time Lin Yin saw Dong Dong was the day she went to save Jia Qing's mother.

At that time, she asked Chang Hao to leave first and she stayed behind to lure those people away. Unexpectedly, there were too many people. She was beaten half to death and thrown into the smelly ditch.

Later, when she woke up again, she was fed water from the smelly ditch by Dong Dong and woke up. That was how the two of them met.

During that period of time in the hospital, it was such a small person like Dongdong who came over to spend time with her every day. It was to the extent that everyone in the hospital thought that she and Dongdong were siblings who had no parents and relied on each other.

It was laughable that she was hospitalized to save Chang Hao, but Jia Qing's family had never gone to the hospital to see her.

At that time, for some reason, Lin Yin only found out a long time later that the Jia Family was afraid of paying the medical fees, so they didn't dare to contact her.

After she eliminated the source of danger, she would bring Dong Dong over.

Early the next morning, there was a hurried knock on Lin Yin's door.

Lin Yin stood up impatiently and opened the door. She saw Su Zhen looking at Lin Yin with a smile and saying, "Yinyin, I just saw Mu Heng's car parked nearby. Get up quickly and dress up. We'll go out and greet him later."

“It might just be a coincidence. By the time I dress up and go over, he would have left long ago!” Lin Yin said impatiently.

Su Zhen, who was in a good mood, did not care about Lin Yin’s attitude at all. He only said happily, “No, I went forward to greet him just now. President Mu was still asking about you. I asked him to wait for a while and asked you to greet him later. He agreed.”

Lin Yin felt that her mind was in a mess. What was Mu Heng thinking? He actually agreed to such a strange suggestion from Su Zhen?

Lin Yin had no choice but to wash up and prepare to leave.

Su Zhen looked at Lin Yin’s home clothes and said with disapproval, “Yinyin, your clothes are not suitable! Didn’t I buy you a lot of gowns previously? Go wear that, be more formal!”

Lin Yin felt that Su Zhen’s train of thought was a little strange. Who would go out in a gown so early in the morning just to greet a man?

“There’s no need. He’s not an outsider!” Lin Yin only said truthfully.

Although she and the Mu family had yet to officially do a paternity test, she was basically certain that Mu Heng was her biological brother.

It was not suitable for a sister to wear a gown just to meet her older brother.

When Su Zhen, who was standing on the other end, heard Lin Yin’s words, his eyes lit up. He said happily, “Yes, yes, yes. He’s not an outsider. Then go quickly. Don’t make President Mu wait.”

When Lin Yin left, Su Zhen still couldn’t help but feel happy. It seemed that Lin Yin and Mu Heng had achieved something good.

Regardless of whether Lin Yin chose the Mu family or the Lu family, it would be beneficial to their Su Corporation.

Of course, she had many suitors. It was not impossible for there to be a more suitable candidate. After all, this era was so open-minded..

Chapter 237: Morning Exercise

At the side, Su Fei looked at Su Zhen's fawning attitude towards Lin Yin and felt extremely jealous. Wasn't it just because Lin Yin had climbed up the social ladder and was valuable?

In the future, she would marry better than Lin Yin and let Su Zhen see that she was better than Lin Yin after all.

However, before her future came, Su Zhen's scolding came first.

"Why are you wearing a straight face so early in the morning? Who are you showing it to? How unlucky!" Su Zhen said angrily.

Yesterday, he had wanted to send Su Fei out.

Helpless, Chu Yun begged bitterly and Su Lin refused to let go. In the end, he could only let Su Fei stay.

Su Zhen felt a little strange. Didn't Su Fei used to be quite generous and smart?

Why was Su Fei becoming more and more stupid now? She did not look like a child raised by Su Zhen at all.

It seemed like Chu Yun was still not good enough. As the mistress of the family, she had raised the child to be like this.

Therefore, Su Zhen became even more determined. In the future, when Su Lin married, he had to marry a smart and presentable daughter of a wealthy family.

As for Su Fei, it seemed like he had to find a better marriage partner.

“Dad, eat!” Su Fei picked up a bun for Su Zhen with the chopsticks.

Su Zhen replied with a dark expression and said, “In the future, you have to learn more from your sister. Before you do anything, you have to consider the consequences. Don’t do anything useless and implicate the family.”

Su Fei’s face turned red from Su Zhen’s words. She was furious. What did he mean by she did not consider the consequences?

Didn’t Su Zhen agree to apologize and send money on behalf of Lin Yin that day?

Moreover, when Lin Yin returned that day, didn’t he say in front of the entire family that she was considerate and that Lin Yin was petty?

Now, he had fallen out with her just like that and even pushed all the blame to her.

As expected, if they were not biologically related, they would never be related.

However, Su Fei only dared to say these words in her heart. She still said,

“Okay, Dad. I understand. I’ll be careful in the future.”

Su Zhen nodded with a serious expression and continued, “During this period of time, I’ve asked your brother to take over a new project. He won’t be home often either. Don’t look for him recently to do useless things. Let him work hard, understand? A man still has to prioritize his career.”

How could Su Fei not understand what Su Zhen meant? Her expression alternated between green and red. She gritted her teeth silently, but her mouth was still sweet. "I understand, Dad!"

Chu Yun, who was at the side, was dissatisfied. "It's early in the morning. Why are you talking about this? Su Lin has his own opinions. It's not our Feifei's decision to see him or not!"

"Shut up! If you have nothing to do, bring Su Fei to learn what women should learn and learn what a wife should learn. You're already so old. Don't spoil her like a child every day!" Su Zhen interrupted Chu Yun.

Chu Yun glared at Su Zhen indignantly and comforted Su Fei, "Feifei, it's fine."

Su Fei smiled and said, "Mom, don't be angry with Dad. Dad is doing this for my own good. Girls have to get married in the future. I really should learn more."

Chu Yun sighed slightly. Feifei was too sensible.

"Mom, stop sighing. Let's eat quickly. Mom, you can teach me first!" Su Fei held Chu Yun's hand and smiled warmly.

No matter what Su Zhen asked Su Fei to learn, she was willing. It was good as long as she could stay in the Su Family.

Besides, there were only those things that women should learn. There was no harm for her to learn them.

Anyway, she was going to get married in the future. It was better to be prepared.

As for Lin Yin, who had left the Su Family's door, she looked around for a while before she heard the sound of a car horn.

She turned her head and saw Mu Heng's assistant, Guan Nan, sticking his head out to greet her. Mu Heng was standing beside the car.

His outstanding facial features and tall figure attracted many neighbors who woke up early.

This Mu Heng was a strange person. It was fine if he went for a walk outside someone's house in the morning, but he even brought his assistant out for a walk. He was really too free.

"President Mu, you asked your assistant to send you out early in the morning. Is it morning exercise?" Lin Yin came to the car and smiled.

"I wanted to come over for a walk before work, but I happened to meet your father. He said that you really wanted to greet me, so I was waiting for you to come and greet me. After all, we're shareholders of the same company. I still have to give you this face," Mu Heng said as he walked towards Lin Yin..

Chapter 238: Breakfast

"Really? I didn't know I was so enthusiastic. Then, President Mu, do you want to come in for a drink?" Lin Yin mocked herself jokingly.

"Why are you calling me President Mu?" Mu Heng asked with disapproval.

"The two of us have worked together. We're from the same company. It's quite suitable to call you President Mu." Lin Yin's eyes curved.

For some reason, Lin Yin felt that she was in a good mood now. Her conversation with Mu Heng also sounded like a joke, natural and harmonious.

"You should call me Brother Mu Heng. It sounds more intimate," Mu Heng suggested.

Lin Yin did not hesitate and called out openly, "Brother Mu Heng."

Hearing his name come out of Lin Yin's mouth, Mu Heng felt a strange joy.

A smile appeared in the corners of Mu Heng's eyes. Then, he looked around and said, "Why don't we walk?"

Lin Yin pursed her lips slightly. She didn't know what Mu Heng wanted to do, so she could only nod and say, "Okay!"

The villa area where the Su Family lived was quite green and the air was fresh.

Lin Yin followed behind Mu Heng. The two of them walked slowly around the lake in the district and did not speak along the way.

Just as Lin Yin was wondering what Mu Heng wanted to do, Mu Heng said, "Yinyin, I want to invite you to join my investment bank."

Lin Yin paused and asked in confusion, "Me?"

Mu Heng nodded at Lin Yin. "Yes!"

Lin Yin quickly waved her hand and said, "I can't. I'm not good at stocks."

Mu Heng felt a little disappointed. Was Lin Yin hiding it from him? Or was she being humble?

"Yinyin, you were the one who pushed the goddess of the stock market who suddenly became famous recently, right?" Mu Heng looked at Lin Yin and asked.

Lin Yin instantly understood. So that was why Mu Heng came to look for her today.

No wonder. Mu Heng's investment bank dealt with finance. If they found out that she was behind Chu Ning, it was no wonder they came to look for her.

Mu Heng was a capable person, but he was also a very good judge of talent. He would work with all the talents he appreciated.

But this time, Mu Heng might be disappointed.

Lin Yin knew very well that the reason why she could know the rise and fall of the stock price was because she had dealt with it in her previous life, so she remembered some of the stock price trends.

If it was really about analysis, she really wouldn't know.

Therefore, Lin Yin could only lie.

"Brother Mu Heng, I don't know what you're talking about. I've been playing with some stocks recently, but I'm just playing along. I'm just a little lucky. I'm not familiar with that stock goddess at all," Lin Yin denied.

"Yinyin, what are you worried about? Our investment bank's treatment is not low," Mu Heng asked.

Even though Lin Yin tried her best to hide it, Mu Heng could still tell that Lin Yin was not telling the truth.

Lin Yin sighed slightly and said, "Brother Mu Heng, I'm just passing the time with the stocks. There's a high chance that I won't be in this industry in the future, so I appreciate your kind invitation, but I'm sorry."

Mu Heng did not expect Lin Yin to reject him. She had thought that he would be very disappointed, but Lin Yin did not expect Mu Heng to admire her.

She had her own clear goal and would not change her mind because of any external force. Such a person had good self-control.

“Alright then! Then I can only respect your decision. But when you have time, can you go to the company more often? After all, I’m still a little unwilling to lose a talent like you,” Mu Heng joked.

Lin Yin felt very guilty being called a talent by Mu Heng and could only reply perfunctorily, “Sure, sure. I’ll definitely go when I have time.”

Since they were done talking, Lin Yin said directly, “Then I’ll go back first? I haven’t had breakfast.”

Mu Heng was stunned and said awkwardly, “I’m sorry. I didn’t think it through.”

“It’s fine. Have you eaten? Do you want to go in and eat with us?” Lin Yin invited generously.

“No need. I still have something on. I’ll send you back!” Mu Heng looked at Lin Yin apologetically.

After Lin Yin entered the Su Family, Mu Heng got someone to send a luxurious breakfast to the Su Family.

Su Zhen looked at the breakfast on the table and his eyes lit up. Mu Heng was really concerned about Lin Yin.

Su Fei looked at the breakfast and felt extremely jealous. The chefs of this restaurant were all famous top chefs in the world.

Just this meal alone was worth at least 50,000 yuan. Not to mention, some people might not even be able to get it even if they queued up. Lin Yin looked at Su Fei and said, “Shall we eat together?”

Chapter 239: Su Lin’s First Time

Su Fei knew that Lin Yin was deliberately showing off. She gritted her teeth and refused. "I've eaten. Enjoy yourself!"

Seeing Su Fei's obviously unhappy expression, Lin Yin was happy.

She called the nanny and servants at home over to enjoy.

To be honest, this was the first time she had seen such a sumptuous breakfast that was enough for more than ten people.

Su Zhen was not interested in breakfast. She just went out to work happily and planned for a better future.

As soon as Su Fei returned to her room, she threw herself on the bed angrily and turned on her cell phone to complain to Su Lin.

However, Su Lin did not reply even after a long time. Su Fei was puzzled, so she called him.

Logically speaking, Su Lin should have woken up long ago.

At this moment, Su Lin, who was having fun with the hot beauty on the bed, lifted the blanket impatiently and picked up the phone at the side with a dark expression.

When he saw that it was Su Fei, his mind instantly cleared up.

Su Lin hurriedly stopped what he was doing. He gestured at the girl who was still unsatisfied with her desires to keep quiet. Then, he took a deep breath and picked up the phone.

As soon as the call connected, Su Fei's sticky and soft voice came from the other end. "Brother, what are you doing?"

“Brother is at work? What’s wrong? Does Feifei miss Brother?” Su Lin smiled.

When the girl below heard Su Lin’s dotting voice, her gaze instantly changed. Someone actually wanted to snatch the sugar daddy she had painstakingly hooked up with. This was unbearable.

Hence, the girl’s hand gently slid down Su Lin’s chest. Then, she turned around and pressed Su Lin under her.

This unexpected action frightened Su Lin so much that his cell phone fell onto the bed.

Before he could react, the girl sat on his erected p*nis and tried her best to please him.

His hard p*nis was consumed by layers of soft and tender flesh. This made Su Lin shiver with pleasure, and the corners of his mouth emitted an emotional sound.

On the other side, Su Fei heard a strange sound and asked with a puzzled expression, “Brother, what’s wrong? What are you doing?”

Hearing Su Fei’s voice on the phone, Su Lin quickly suppressed his emotions and picked up his phone. He pretended to be calm and said, “Nothing. I accidentally tripped just now.”

Only then did Su Fei feel relieved. “It’s good that you’re fine. You almost scared me to death just now.”

Su Fei’s voice rang in his ears. In front of him was a skilled nightclub girl. This wave of excitement that was like an affair made Su Lin dizzy.

The girl watched in satisfaction as Su Lin indulged in her skills.

He was a rare virgin sugar daddy, especially since he was quite good-looking, had a good figure, and did not have much relationship experience. He was the easiest to control.

If she did not squeeze a sum of money out of Su Lin, she would not let go easily.

Su Lin panted heavily as he listened to Su Fei ramble on the other end of the phone. He watched as the girl in front of him touched her voluptuous breasts and shook them.

Perhaps realizing Su Lin's perfunctoryness, Su Fei asked unhappily, "Brother, are you listening to me seriously?"

Su Lin's expression was dazed as the corners of his lips curled up. "...Of course

I'm listening. Feifei, be good... Ah!... When Brother goes back, um... I'll prepare a luxurious breakfast for you too."

Su Fei was a little puzzled. Su Lin's voice seemed to be a little off. "Brother, are you panting? Are you exercising?"

Su Lin pushed upwards punishingly. Then, he took a deep breath and said, "Yes, I just remembered to exercise. I have to train my figure to be worthy of our Little Feifei."

When the girl heard Su Lin's words, she could not help but sneer in her heart. He was still exercising vigorously with a woman here and coaxing another woman on the other side. Men were all like this!

After finally coaxing Su Fei, Su Lin turned the tables the moment he hung up. He pressed the woman under him and barged around recklessly.

In the past, Su Lin's thoughts were on Su Fei. He was even strict with himself for Su Fei's sake and had never touched a woman.

Last night, his father sent one over. Due to his father's pressure, Su Lin reluctantly accepted her.

Initially, he thought that he would reject her because he didn't like this girl. However, he didn't expect that he didn't reject doing intimate things with other women and even felt very comfortable.

So her father was right. Sex had nothing to do with love.

As long as he knew that the person he loved was Su Fei, there was no need for him to suffer in terms of sexual desire..

Chapter 240: Dong Dong Getting Sold

After Lin Yin sent the message to Bai Tong, there was a smile in her eyes. After setting up for so long, it was time to start setting up traps.

At this moment, Long Ming suddenly called.

Lin Yin frowned. Under normal circumstances, Long Ming would not call.

Lin Yin had an ominous feeling and quickly picked up the phone. She heard Long Ming say anxiously, "Dong Dong is missing."

Lin Yin was stunned on the spot. How could he have disappeared now? Impossible!

"What's going on?" Lin Yin asked in a heavy tone.

"This morning, my people went to deliver food, but they didn't see Dong Dong. They thought he went somewhere to play, but they still didn't see him at noon. So after asking, they found out that Dong Dong had been given away by his father," Long Ming said.

"Who is it? Where did they send him?" Lin Yin's voice was extremely low.

"I'm not sure yet. I don't know where his father sold him to, but I'm about to have news. Wait a little longer." Long Ming spoke quickly with a hint of urgency.

As soon as she hung up, Lin Yin immediately made a few calls to find help in case of emergencies.

Then, Lin Yin immediately called Chu Ning. As soon as the other party picked up, Lin Yin asked coldly, 'Where are you now?'

Chu Ning replied in confusion, "I'm drinking at the bar. Do you want to come along? I'll find you a few of the most handsome male models to accompany you."

"Where's Dong Dong?" Lin Yin's hand that was holding her cell phone was trembling.

However, Chu Ning asked with a puzzled expression, "Dong Dong, what Dong Dong? Cousin, what's wrong with you? Why does your tone sound strange?"

In order not to alert the enemy, Lin Yin could only say, "No, Master Bai Tong said that if I ask you this, the shares will definitely rise tomorrow."

After brushing Chu Ning off, Lin Yin sent Bai Tong to ask Chu Ning as a mysterious person.

Chu Ning now worshipped Bai Tong as a faith and would definitely not lie. He did not expect her to have the same answer. So Dong Dong was really not with Chu Ning?

Then where's Dong Dong?

In her previous life, it was Chu Ning who captured Dong Dong. In order to force her to admit those necessary crimes, she even smashed Dong Dong's finger.

But if it wasn't Chu Ning, who did it?

However, in his previous life, at this time, Chu Ning had indeed not captured Dong Dong.

So was it possible that Dong Dong in her previous life had indeed been sold by his biological father at this time, but he had returned safely?

At the thought of this, Lin Yin's expression relaxed a little. If that was the case, that would be best.

Lin Yin's thoughts had just eased when Long Ming called again. "I found him. He's at an abandoned machinery factory in the suburbs. My people have already gone over."

"Alright, send me your location. I'll be there immediately!" Lin Yin hung up.

On the way, Lin Yin sent Long Ming's location to some bodyguards she had prepared long ago. These people were originally prepared by her to protect Dong Dong, but she did not expect things to happen so suddenly.

In her previous life, Chu Ning had smashed Dong Dong's finger without asking in front of her. She was tied up and had no ability to fight back.

Even though she had already confessed to those crimes according to Chu Ning's words.

However, Chu Ning still did not let Dong Dong off. Instead, she said evilly, "Cut the weeds and eliminate the roots. I won't let such a scourge live in this world.

Take revenge on me in the future."

Later on, Lin Yin went to the police, but Dong Dong's father, who had taken the money, went straight to the police and said that the child had died by accident, letting a vicious woman like Chu Ning get away with it.

Lin Yin's thoughts did not stop along the way, and the worry in her heart grew.

When Lin Yin arrived, Long Ming and the others had already surrounded the machinery factory. Sun Biao and the others rushed over from behind. When they saw Lin Yin, they said, "Boss!"

Lin Yin's eyes were red, and her voice was fierce. "Charge in!"

Hence, the group held the tools in their hands tightly and smashed the door open with a mighty aura.

The moment the door opened, many people rushed out and slashed at Lin Yin and the others.

Lin Yin ignored the danger around her and kicked down a man who was slashing at her with a knife. Then, she pressed the sharp dagger against the man's neck and asked sternly, "Where's that child? Speak!"

The man who was threatened pointed shakily at a small door and said, "In... in inside!"
