

Real Daughter 271

Chapter 271 Another Ten Million

Su Lin, who had thought that a million yuan was a lot, also glanced at Lin Yin jealously and muttered in his heart, What's so great about you? I Su Fei was extremely jealous. That was ten million yuan. It was too unfair for it to become Lin Yin's money. Right at this moment, Lin Yin's phone rang again. It was a bank notification.

Su Fei, who had yet to look away, widened her eyes in surprise and muttered in disbelief, "Another ten million? Mu Xiao gave it to you? Why?" Su Fei really could not figure it out. Mu Xiao was that doctor? When did he become so close to Lin Yin?

Even Su Zhen, who was behind, frowned. Why were these people giving money in the tens of millions? Then wouldn't it be very embarrassing for him, her father, to only give her 10,000 yuan just now?

Mu Xiao called.

"Brother Mu Xiao, Happy New Year!" Lin Yin picked up the call and distanced herself from the Su Family. "Yinyin, Happy New Year to you too!" Mu Xiao said happily. Lin Yin said in embarrassment, "Brother Mu Xiao, that was too much money. Give me your card number and I'll transfer it back to you!" Mu Xiao smiled and said, "How can that do? Isn't it natural for an older brother to give their sister New Year's money? Just keep it in peace. When you go home, your family, including your eldest brother, third brother, parents, and grandparents, will compensate you." Lin Yin listened to Mu Xiao talk about his family, but her gaze landed on the Su Family, who was looking at her curiously. Family? Would it be different from the one in front of her? The Su Family was a little confused by Lin Yin's gaze and looked at each other. Then, they continued to look at Lin Yin and even wondered if anyone else would give Lin Yin New Year's money. Lin Yin couldn't refuse and could only say, "Thank you, Brother Mu Xiao."

'Silly girl, what are you thanking me for? Rest early, Mu Mao said gently.

"Alright! Brother Mu Xiao, rest early too: Lin Yin hung up. Su Zhen could not help but ask, "Yinyin, you..." However, at this moment, Lin Yin's phone vibrated again. Su Zhen immediately shut up. Could it be that someone was giving Lin Yin New Year's money again? Lin Yin looked at the notification on her cell phone and smiled helplessly. One was from Mu Heng and the other was from Mu Ran. The texts from the both of them floated on the notification interface.

Mu Ran texted her 'Happy new year Ymyin! You need to properly take care of your New Year's money to have a peaceful year:

Mu Heng texted her. "Happy new year! Mu Ran gave you New Year's money, as a brother it'll be embarrassing if I didn't give any to you."

Lin Yin could understand why Mu Xiao would give her New Year's money. After all, Mu Xiao was definite that she was his sister. But Lin Yin really couldn't understand why Mu Ran and Mu Heng gave her New Year's money. Lin Yin replied Happy New Year to Mu Ran and Mu Heng one by one, saying that she had accepted the red packet and wanted to return it.

However, they refused to accept it and said that there was no tradition to accept red packets from someone younger.

Lin Yin sighed slightly and walked past the Su Family with the New Year's money in her hand, returning to her room. The Su Family looked at each other. What they could see just now was that I An Yin had received 22 million yuan in a few minutes.

As for how much more she would receive, they had no idea. The few of them returned to their rooms with different thoughts. On the Mu family's side, Mu Ran held his phone happily and said happily in his heart, didn't expect that I could also give red packets to the younger generation. Hahahe Mu Xiao looked at Mu Ran in amusement and teased, 'Are you considered an elder just because you gave a red packet? Don't randomly assume seniority.' Mu Ran retorted indignantly, 'What's wrong? I like doing it!' Mu Xiao shook his head. If Mu Ran found out that Irmyn was his sister, he would not dare to spout nonsense. However, at the thought that Lin Yin was still at someone else's house, Mu Xiao's mood fell. He hoped that time would leave quickly and it would be time for Lin Yin to go to university.

This way, their family could reunite. Mu Heng looked at Mu Xiao and asked, "How's Mom recently?" Mu Xiao still shook his head. "If she was better, Dad wouldn't have come back without Mom today." Mu Xiao's words made the three brothers fall silent.

On the balcony of the Lu Family's living room, Lu Yan looked at Lu Ming indignantly and said loudly, "Uncle, did you secretly give Yinyin a red packet behind my back? I heard some of it just now:

Chapter 272: Meng Wan Brings Dessert

Lu Ming coughed softly. "You're just a child, yet you still want to direct your elders. Don't you follow the rules?"

Lu Yan placed her hands on her hips and said, "Of course I follow rules. Give me a red packet and I'll go out obediently."

Lu Ming said with a slightly cold expression, "You're already so old. Why do you need a red packet?"

Lu Yan snorted angrily. Then, she ran to Lu Jin and Ren Xue and complained,

“Dad, Mom, Uncle gave Yinyin a red packet, but he didn’t give it to me!”

Ren Xue scratched Lu Yan’s nose in amusement. “Isn’t it enough that you have Mom and Dad’s red packets?”

Lu Yan thought about it and felt that it made sense. She had a red packet from her parents.

However, Yinyin might not have so many red packets. Her family was extremely cold-blooded and did not care about Yinyin at all.

At the thought of this, Lu Yan instantly felt that Lu Ming should give Lin Yin a red packet, or even more.

Lu Yan picked up her phone and transferred 200,000 yuan to Lu Ming. Then, she sent a message: “Uncle, I’ll give you money. Give Yinyin more red packets, understand?”

Lu Ming smiled and looked at his stubborn but soft-hearted niece. He replied,

“I know. Take the 200,000 yuan yourself.”

Then, Lu Ming transferred another million yuan to Lu Yan as New Year’s money.

Lu Yan’s happy voice could even be heard from Lu Ming’s balcony.

Just as Lu Ming was about to continue chatting with Lin Yin, Meng Wan came in with a bowl of dessert.

“Brother Lu Ming, I asked the kitchen to make you some desserts that suit your taste. Try them?” Meng Wan walked to Lu Ming’s side and said.

Lu Ming ignored Meng Wan and stood up calmly before walking towards the living room.

Lu Jin and Ren Xue, who were originally sitting in the living room, looked at Lu Ming.

The Lu Family's old residence was divided into different courtyards. This was Lu Ming's courtyard, and Lu Zheng's courtyard was a distance away from Lu Ming's.

It was hard for Meng Wan to personally go to the kitchen to bring the dessert here so late at night.

Meng Wan was a little embarrassed, but she still shamelessly followed Lu Ming to the living room and said gently, "This pear soup is sweet and delicious. It's just right for nourishing your lungs. Brother Lu Ming, try it."

When Lu Yan heard Meng Wan's voice, she had goosebumps.

Lu Yan felt that she would not want to go to Lu Ming's place anymore if such a person became her aunt.

This woman was disgusting. She was not as pleasing to the eye as Yinyin.

After all, this was her brother-in-law's matter. As a junior, it was better for Lu Yan to speak less.

Besides, Ren Xue did not think that Lu Ming would be seduced by Meng Wan.

As expected, the next second, Lu Ming turned around and looked at Meng Wan coldly. He asked in a very rude tone, "Miss Meng, do you not have a home?"

Meng Wan did not understand what Lu Ming meant and asked in confusion,

"Brother Lu Ming, what do you mean?"

Lu Ming's tone was cold. "Miss Meng, it's already so late on New Year's Eve. Isn't it dignified for you to invite yourself to someone else's house? I remember that your parents are still alive. You don't have to go to someone else's house to enjoy the atmosphere of reunion."

Lu Yan almost couldn't hold it in!

Uncle was really too good at talking. That's right. Who would spend the New Year and holidays at someone else's house? Shameless!

Meng Wan hurriedly looked at Lu Jin and Ren Xue beside her and said awkwardly, "Brother Lu Ming, how can you say that? My... my sister married into your Lu Family, so I naturally treat the Lu Family as my family."

Lu Yan's family of three was shocked by Meng Wan's words.

"Miss Meng, it's your sister who married my brother, not you. Also, this is my courtyard. If you come uninvited again, I'll get someone to chase you out. Now, please get lost!" Lu Ming chased her out bluntly.

Meng Wan looked embarrassed, especially in front of Ren Xue.

In her opinion, she was going to marry Lu Ming in the future, so she and Ren Xue would be sisters-in-law, so she was very embarrassed now.

"Brother Lu Ming, Grandpa has already said that he wants me to get along well with you. How can you go against Grandpa's wishes like this?!" Meng Wan wanted to regain some face.

Lu Ming snorted. "I remember I made it clear last time that I have someone I like. I don't want to hear any nonsense from you now. Get lost!"

Meng Wan did not expect Lu Ming's attitude towards her would get more and more impatient. She was certain that it was the little vixen who appeared at Lu Ming's house who caused the damage.

Meng Wan carried the bowl out angrily. When she stood at the door, she wanted that little vixen to get out of Lu Ming's life so that Lu Ming could return to her side..

Chapter 273: Little Rabbit Lantern

Ren Xue watched as Meng Wan left and kindly reminded her, “Meng Wan isn’t a good person. You have to be careful and tell Yinyin to be careful.”

Even if Lu Ming didn’t say who he liked, everyone knew that Lu Ming had been close to the eldest daughter of the Su Family, Lin Yin.

Moreover, according to Lu Yan, Meng Wan had seen Lin Yin before and had even been slapped by her.

Meng Wan had not made a move all this time, so she must be afraid of Lu Ming.

However, if Meng Wan became reckless, Lin Yin would probably be caught off guard.

Lu Ming’s eyes darkened a few degrees before he said in a low voice, “Thank you, Second Sister-in-law. I understand.”

When Lu Yan heard this, she quickly jumped up. “Could it be that she dares to lay her hands on Yinyin?”

Ren Xue pressed down on Lu Yan, who was like a monkey, and said, “Be quiet. Anyway, it’s good to be careful.”

During the Lantern Festival, Lu Yan asked Lin Yin out to watch the lantern show.

In the end, just as Lu Yan grabbed Lin Yin’s hand, she was taken away by Ren Xue and her husband, who Lu Ming had brought with him.

Lu Yan said with a dissatisfied expression, "Am I being used by him again? He asked me to ask Yinyin out, and then he brought the two of you along to bring me away? So that he can create a chance for him to be alone with Yinyin?"

Ren Xue smiled and said in surprise, "Looks like our Xiao Yan has become smarter."

Lu Yan's mood instantly turned bad.

Lu Jin persuaded from the side, "Your uncle isn't young anymore. Help him. When your uncle and Yinyin get married, you'll have a playmate when you return to the old residence for the New Year.'

Lu Yan's eyes instantly lit up. That made sense!

In the past, Lu Yue and Lu Xiao were her only peers in the old residence. The two of them were still from the same family and often bullied her.

If she could bring Yinyin home, it would be amazing in the future.

Yinyin's seniority was higher than Lu Yue and Lu Xiao's. When the time came, she would suppress the two of them and watch the commotion from the side.

Thinking about it, Lu Yan felt wonderful. She wished Lu Ming could marry Lin Yin now and bring her home.

On the other side, Lu Ming was holding Lin Yin's hand. The two of them squeezed into a small corridor filled with riddles.

"Yinyin, I'll get you a bunny lantern," Lu Ming told Lin Yin.

Perhaps she was used to being bored alone, Lin Yin was not too interested in these things that were for entertainment.

Lin Yin waved her hand and wanted to say no, but Lu Ming seemed to be interested and had already started reading the riddle.

Lin Yin followed behind Lu Ming quietly and watched as he revealed the answers one by one. Then, he brought the little rabbit lantern to Lin Yin.

Lin Yin teased, "Uncle actually likes to play this?"

Lu Ming smiled and placed the little rabbit lantern in Lin Yin's hand. He looked at Lin Yin lovingly and said gently, "I didn't like it at first, but I'm happy with you by my side, so I like it."

Lin Yin was a little helpless to be suddenly told such sweet nothings. She lowered her eyes and looked at their shoes that were close to each other.

Lu Ming chuckled and pulled Lin Yin's free hand. The two of them strolled along the brightly lit old street.

After passing through the busy streets, Lu Ming pulled Lin Yin to a bridge.

The bridge was filled with couples holding hands.

Lu Ming did not look at Lin Yin. Instead, he said in his magnetic voice, 'Yinyin, this bridge is the lovers' bridge of this area. There's a temple opposite called the Moon Temple. It's said that when a couple crosses this bridge hand in hand, goes to the temple to pray for a good marriage, and kisses on the bridge, they will be together for a long time and never be separated.'

Lin Yin looked up at the men and women coming and going on the bridge, holding hands. There were also one or two couples who ignored everyone's gazes and kissed each other. She asked curiously, "Do you really believe this?"

Lu Ming pondered for a moment and said with a smile, "As long as we can be together for a long time and never be separated, I'll believe it. I won't believe it if it says that we're not fated or something bad."

Lin Yin was amused by Lu Ming's words. "So, you're choosing to believe in what you want to believe?"

Lu Ming turned to look at Lin Yin. His eyes looked deep and mysterious in the darkness, and there was even a hint of emotion that Lin Yin yearned for. Was it love?

Lin Yin was shocked by her guess and mocked herself. What was she thinking?

Lu Ming might just like her, but she actually thought of love.. Wasn't she being a little delusional?

Chapter 274: Token

Lu Ming didn't know what Lin Yin was thinking. He just looked at Lin Yin and said, "Yinyin, I want to bring you along to see if this legend is true. I know you want to consider this matter after graduation. We can don't complete the final process of kissing like these couples. But can you walk this bridge with me and pray for our relationship?"

While Lin Yin was still hesitating, Lu Ming had already held Lin Yin's hand tightly and said, "It'll take some time to walk over. As long as you want to go back on your word, I won't go forward. I'll bring you back the way we came." Lu Ming's face was filled with smiles and he was unbelievably gentle.

Lin Yin was trapped in Lu Ming's gentleness and followed him step by step onto the bridge.

With every step she took, Lin Yin felt uneasy. She asked herself, should she continue to follow?

Or should she turn around and leave now?

However, her final choice was to continue walking.

When the two of them reached the middle of the bridge, Lu Ming stopped with Lin Yin and admired the noisy atmosphere of the mortal world.

Perhaps because they were standing a little taller, Lin Yin subconsciously shrank her neck when the cold wind blew.

Lu Ming took off the scarf around his neck and wrapped it around Lin Yin's neck dotingly.

The warm scarf clung to Lin Yin's neck like a warm current flowing down her neck, lingering around her with the wooden fragrance of flowers and fruits.

Lu Ming rubbed Lin Yin's nose dotingly. Such an intimate action stunned Lin Yin.

Then, Lu Ming continued to pull Lin Yin forward.

It was not until the two of them walked to the entrance of the Yue Lao Temple that Lin Yin realized that she had no urge to stop all the way down from the highest point of the bridge.

Lin Yin began to realize that she really seemed to have thoughts about being with Lu Ming.

Lu Ming brought Lin Yin to the two futons and knelt on them first. Then, he turned to look at Lin Yin with anticipation in his eyes.

Lin Yin was like a turtle that had been hiding in its shell, so Lu Ming had to take the initiative first.

Otherwise, if he waited for Lin Yin to come, Lu Ming felt that he would never be able to wait for Lin Yin in his life.

Lu Ming also knew that if Lin Yin turned around at this moment, the journey just now would have been in vain, so he was expectant and nervous.

Lin Yin stood beside the futon and looked at it for a long time before looking up at Elder Yue. Then, she continued to look down at the futon quietly beside her knees in a daze. Finally, under Lu Ming's surprised gaze, she knelt on the futon.

At that moment, Lu Ming was indescribably excited. He grabbed Lin Yin's hand and refused to let go.

It was as if Lin Yin could fly away and disappear as soon as he let go.

In a daze, Lin Yin paid her respects to Cupid and drew a lot.

"Aren't you going to get someone to explain the lot?" Lin Yin looked at Lu Ming curiously.

Lu Ming shook his head and said, "There's no need to explain it. It's certain that our fate will last for a long time."

Lin Yin couldn't help but laugh. Lu Ming had really deceived himself.

Seeing Lin Yin smile, Lu Ming realized that he seemed to be a little childish.

It was clearly him who believed in these nonsense superstitions and wanted to walk this lovers' bridge with Lin Yin and worship this Moon Temple. In the end, he was the one who was unwilling to believe the lot and only wanted to believe what he said.

At the thought of this, Lu Ming felt that he was a little funny.

"Okay, let's go back," Lu Ming said. Lin Yin nodded and said, "Okay!"

When she returned, Lin Yin's state of mind had changed a lot. She seemed to be a little lighter.

Lu Ming, on the other hand, was still restless for a while when he passed by Lover's Bridge.

But in the end, he held it in and said that he would wait for Lin Yin's decision, he would be a man of his word.

Lu Ming folded the lot and carefully placed it in Lin Yin's pocket.

He put the remaining one in his pocket and said, "This is a token. In the future,

I'm going to use this token to fulfill my love with you."

Lin Yin was amused by Lu Ming's serious expression. "Then remember to remove it when you take off your clothes when you go home. Otherwise, they'll be paper paste."

Lin Yin's smile was quiet and playful, instantly mesmerizing Lu Ming.

Lu Ming lowered his head slightly and slowly approached Lin Yin.

As if he wanted to test her, Lu Ming stopped. Their faces were very close and their breaths intertwined..

Chapter 276: Chu Ning's End

Chu Ning quickly waved her hand and said, "That's not superstition. There's scientific evidence behind it. You guys..."

Before Chu Ning could finish speaking, she was slapped by a middle-aged woman.

"I asked you to give me scientific evidence. We gave you all our assets to make money, but this is how you fool us. You're a liar. I'll beat you to death. Return my hard-earned money. Return the lives of my entire family!" The middle-aged woman shouted hysterically as she pulled Chu Ning's clothes and hit her.

Many people beside her went forward and punched and kicked Chu Ning, venting their anger and despair at losing money.

The goddess of the stock market which was usually high and mighty had now become a street rat that everyone hated.

Many people even exposed her disheveled appearance online.

Yesterday, she was still the goddess who brought hope to the netizens, but today, she was a heartless liar.

Mu Heng looked at this farce and smiled awkwardly in his heart. Could this be that girl's trap?

In the past, Bai Tong and Lin Yin's accounts had followed Chu Ning's shares, but this time, Lin Yin and Bai Tong did not follow the three shares.

This made Mu Heng suspect that Lin Yin was targeting Chu Ning.

Previously, Lin Yin didn't let him help and let the Su Family fend for themselves.

Now Lin Yin had schemed against Chu Ning. The two of them could be considered cousins. Such strange behavior made Mu Heng wonder if Lin Yin had a grudge against the Su Family.

She even had a feud with her mother, Chu Yun's, family?

Could it be that she was brought home by the wrong person when she was young and lived a miserable life, so she hated the Su Family?

But what did it have to do with Chu Ning? How old was Chu Ning at that time?

Mu Heng was puzzled about this.

At the same time, he was also curious about how Lin Yin would clean things up after setting up such a trap.

That amount was as high as 200 million yuan, including the lives and assets of many people.

Mu Heng's eyes flashed slightly, then he instructed Guan Nan beside him, "Go and check the operations of the company behind these three stocks now.

Guan Nan accepted the order and left.

At this moment, Lin Yin was also paying attention to this matter. When she felt that Chu Ning was almost done for, Lin Yin called the police anonymously to report Chu Ning for illegal private fund-raising.

Chu Ning was beaten up and taken away by the police.

Chu Ning firmly believed that the stocks would rise again, but it was useless. Regardless of whether the stocks rose or not, the 200 million yuan she raised was enough for her to spend the rest of her life in prison.

On the day Chu Ning was sentenced, Lin Yin was also present. She looked at the murderer who had pushed her out to take the blame for killing Dong Dong in her previous life that was sitting at the defendant's table with a haggard expression. Lin Yin had a calm expression.

All her assets were confiscated and the death penalty was suspended for a year. This was the retribution of Chu Ning for committing murder.

That day, just as Chu Ning returned to the cell, she suddenly encountered a crazy cellmate. She directly smashed Chu Ning's hand with a blunt object and burned the badly mangled mass of flesh.

No one knew where this person got the fire from.

When Chu Ning's parents cried to the Su Family and begged Su Zhen to use his connections to save Chu Ning, Lin Yin quietly listened to Chu Ning's miserable state.

How could Su Zhen save her? Not to mention that he could not save her, even if he could, Su Zhen would not save her.

He still held a grudge in his heart. Chu Ning clearly had the ability to help save the Su Family back then, but she still left him in the lurch.

Therefore, Su Zhen only returned the 1 million yuan that Chu Ning had given to her parents and expressed his helplessness.

After watching the joke, Lin Yin brought an audio recording to Dong Dong's tomb and placed it in front of his tomb. "This is Chu Ning's scream. You'll like it. Also, did you receive Chu Ning's finger? I got someone to burn it for you."

A breeze blew past the lonely grave, lifting Lin Yin's long hair.

Lin Yin seemed to see the little child waving goodbye to her.

A faint smile appeared on Lin Yin's face as she said softly, "Dong Dong, when you reincarnate in your next life, open your eyes wider. You have to find a pair of parents who love you, understand?" Dong Dong smiled sweetly at Lin Yin and nodded.

The small figure slowly dissipated into the world.

Lu Ming went forward and draped a shirt over Lin Yin. He said gently, "Let's go back!"

He didn't know what Chu Ning had to do with Dong Dong's death, but no matter what Lin Yin did, he was willing to stand firmly behind her..

Chapter 277: The Nanny's Son

Guan Nan was reporting the results of the investigation. "Boss, those three companies are indeed going through bankruptcy proceedings. They're at the stage of assessing assets. It looks like there's no way to save them."

Mu Heng looked at the information he had obtained and was a little puzzled.

Guan Nan, who was at the side, said, "Boss, if it's as you say, Miss Lin Yin set this up, then this is a little too despicable. I went to see those shareholders. There are more than a hundred families. Some families even borrowed money to take a gamble."

Mu Heng frowned slightly and said, "There's always a risk in investing. Don't you understand this after doing it for so long?"

Guan Nan pursed his lips. He naturally knew this logic, but when he thought about how there were more than 100 families there, he couldn't bear it.

"This information is not detailed enough. Go and check some of the core projects of these three companies, especially some core technology projects," Mu Heng said in a low voice.

Guan Nan was shocked and asked in disbelief, "Boss, are you planning to take over these three companies? For Miss Lin Yin?"

Mu Heng did not answer directly and only said coldly, "Just go if I tell you to."

"Why are you talking so much nonsense?"

Chu Ning had already gone in, and the funds raised were also tied up in the stock market, so these stockholders could only admit their bad luck and hold pile of stocks equivalent to waste paper.

Lin Yin was calculating her assets.

The money earned from the stock market, along with some of her assets, and the money in the company now added up to only 140 million yuan.

This was still 60 million yuan short of the 200 million yuan.

Although the plan was detailed enough, Lin Yin did not expect that Chu Yun's appetite would be so big that she could raise 200 million yuan directly. This was a little unexpected.

Now, she could only buy back a batch of shares.

Lin Yin handed the matter of contacting these shareholders to Sun Biao and asked him to inquire about the willingness of those shareholders to sell their shares.

Then, she received a message from Long Ming: Zhou Wei has a mother. We followed Zhou Wei's lead for a long time before we found information about his mother.

His mother's name was Lin Shuang. She used to be a nanny for an affluent family. Later, for some reason, she jumped into the river with her employer's child and died.

However, from some of Lin Shuang's social connections, her son, Zhou Wei, did not exist at all. If we had not investigated from Zhou Wei's side, perhaps no one would have known that Lin Shuang had a son.

When Lin Yin saw the message from Long Ming, she was instantly shocked.

The nanny had jumped into the river with a child. Wasn't this what Mu Xiao had told her before?

So, Zhou Wei's mother was the nanny from the Mu Family back then?

As for Zhou Wei, he was Zhou Li's subordinate. Zhou Li and her adoptive mother, Chu Yun, might know each other.

Did Zhou Wei hate the Mu family because they killed his mother?

Lin Yin was puzzled. If that was the case, why was she fine when the nanny was dead?

Did Chu Yun know about this long ago, so she brought her back to the Su Family to raise her as a daughter?

Lin Yin felt that it was too exhausting, so she sent a message to Mu Xiao: Brother Mu Xiao, what was the name of the nanny who jumped into the river back then?

Mu Xiao replied quickly: "Lin Shuang. What's wrong? Did you discover something?"

Her name was really Lin Shuang.

Lin Yin: "I got someone to investigate Zhou Wei and found out that he was the son of the nanny who jumped into the river back then."

When Mu Xiao saw Lin Yin's news, he was a little shocked.

After knowing that Zhou Wei was Zhou Li's subordinate, they directly defined the matter as some hatred and entanglement between Zhou Li and their family. They never thought about investigating Zhou Wei.

However, Lin Yin was different. She wanted to find out about Chu Yun and Zhou Li's relationship.

Because Zhou Li was overseas, Lin Yin wanted to investigate through Zhou Wei how Zhou Li interacted with the people in the country.

She did not expect to find out about this unexpected news.

After Mu Xiao instructed Lin Yin to be careful, he started to investigate Zhou Wei.

Back then, when they investigated the nanny, they did not find out that the nanny actually had a son.

This time, with such a breakthrough, he had to get someone to investigate why the nanny jumped into the river back then and why the child was still alive even though the nanny had clearly jumped with the child.

Lin Yin sent a message to Long Ming: Continue investigating and focus on the relationship between Zhou Wei, Zhou Li, and Chu Yun. Also, remember your professional code of conduct.. Don't tell Lu Ming, even if he's your boss!

Chapter 278: Acquiring Stocks

Long Ming touched his nose awkwardly. The incident with that child last time had directly exposed his relationship with Lu Ming.

This also let Lin Yin know that Lu Ming was the big boss behind Long Ming.

Long Ming quickly made his stand clear.

When Sun Biao returned back with the willingness of those shareholders to buy and sell, Lin Yin directly split the funds and used different accounts to quietly buy those shares.

When those investors saw that a fool had come out to take over, they immediately packed up and sold them.

It was better to lose a little than lose everything. Just treat it as buying a lesson.

After Mu Heng received the insider information about the three companies, he quickly asked Guan Nan to look for those shareholders to buy those shares, but he was told that those shares had long been sold.

After further investigation, although the shares in the hands of those investors were bought by people from different accounts, Mu Heng still sensed that Lin Yin was involved.

Mu Heng's lips curled up slightly. It seemed like Lin Yin had played a good game of chess.

Even Guan Nan, who was at the side, was a little dumbfounded. "Could this Miss Lin Yin be some god? How did she know that these three companies would be under the acquisition plan of an established American company?" "That's right. How did she know?" Mu Heng muttered.

It was not that Mu Heng was conceited, but no investment bank in the country knew more about the insider news of the industry than he did.

However, Lin Yin could predict it even more accurately than him. She even seemed to know the core information in the hands of the three companies in advance.

Furthermore, as far as he knew, this acquisition plan had just been mentioned yesterday. It was still under discussion and had not been completely implemented. It was just that there was a high chance.

However, Lin Yin's plan could even be traced back to the year before. That was a few months ago.

This was indeed a little unbelievable.

In the end, Lin Yin used 140 million yuan to buy the stocks that were worth 160 million yuan previously. The rest was intercepted by Mu Heng when Lin Yin was raising funds.

Lin Yin was caught between laughter and tears. Previously, she had intercepted Mu Heng's people. Now that Mu Heng had intercepted her shares, it could be considered a payback.

However, this Mu Heng was indeed a big boss in the industry. She had schemed for so long, but she still let the sharp Mu Heng have a share.

After Mu Xiao received the news about Lin Yin, he went straight to the prison to see Zhou Wei. He went straight to the point and asked, "Are you here to deal with our Mu family because of your mother, Lin Shuang?"

Mu Xiao looked at Zhou Wei through the glass without blinking.

Even though Zhou Wei hid it very well, Mu Xiao still caught the trace of surprise in his eyes.

It seemed that Lin Yin was right. Zhou Wei was indeed related to Lin Shuang.

"Back then, your mother jumped into the river herself. It had nothing to do with our Mu family. However, when your mother jumped into the river, she brought my sister with her. If we're talking about hatred, I think we should hate you and your mother," Mu Xiao said coldly.

Zhou Wei snorted and said, "It has nothing to do with you just because you say so? My mother is a good person. If she hadn't been abused by your Mu Family, why would she jump into the river? It was your Mu Family who forced her to death. "

Mu Xiao's eyes were calm. "So, you're just guessing, right? Did that Zhou Li tell you that your mother was killed by our Mu family?"

Zhou Wei did not say anything. He only lowered his head and said angrily, "It wasn't Mr. Zhou who told me. You don't have to care who told me. Anyway, something happened to my mother in your family. Your Mu family can't escape responsibility, especially your father!"

Since Mu Xiao already knew, Zhou Wei did not want to continue hiding it.

However, he could not affect Mr. Zhou because of his personal matters.

Mu Xiao smiled and said, "Zhou Wei, you're a person who doesn't know how to lie. It's useless for you to deny it. I'm guessing that Zhou Li hated my father for snatching his love, so he asked your mother to come to my house to ruin my parents' relationship and asked your mother to seduce my father. In the end, he realized that she couldn't seduce him, so he hated him and took my sister away to die with her."

Zhou Wei suddenly looked up and looked at Mu Xiao fiercely. "You're talking nonsense. It has nothing to do with Mr. Zhou. My mother is not such a person. You're the ones who don't treat my mother as a human. Your mother bullied my mother, and your father couldn't stand the loneliness and forced my mother. You were the ones who forced my mother to commit suicide."

Mu Xiao looked at Zhou Wei pitifully and said kindly, "You can't be too naive.

You're believing whatever others say.."

Chapter 279: Meng Wan 's Provocation

Now, he was almost certain that the nanny back then worked for Zhou Li.

Unexpectedly, Zhou Li used the nanny to take his sister away back then.

Now, he was using such a lie to deceive Zhou Wei into hurting the Mu family. He was simply detestable.

However, Zhou Li was overseas now and he could not find his exact location, so it was indeed a little difficult for him to deal with.

Mu Xiao shared the news with Lin Yin.

Lin Yin did not expect that it would be because of this melodramatic love triangle.

However, Lin Yin still could not understand what role Chu Yun had played in this matter.

If that was really the case, who fished her out of the water and threw her into the slums back then?

Or perhaps, the nanny did not carry the child at all back then. This would explain why she could not find the child.

It was fine. She would investigate slowly. The truth would come out one day.

In March, Lin Yin sat on a picnic cloth and watched Lu Yan and Yang Xue fly kites.

Lu Ming handed her a plate of fruits. Seeing Lin Yin frown, Lu Ming coaxed her dotingly, "If you don't like apples, I'll change them for you. Don't frown. You'll get wrinkles."

Lin Yin couldn't help but laugh. "Uncle..."

Before Lin Yin could finish speaking, Lu Ming interrupted her. "We agreed to call me Brother Lu Ming."

Lin Yin said helplessly, "Brother Lu Ming, you're so strange. You're like an old lady."

Lu Ming was stunned by Lin Yin's words. He pretended to be angry and said, "Is there an old lady as tall as me that loves you so much?"

Lin Yin instantly shut up and looked in the direction of Lu Yan and Yang Xue in panic.

Ever since the Lantern Festival, Lu Ming had not restrained himself at all when he spoke to Lin Yin.

If he liked her, he liked her. If he loved her, he loved her. If he wanted to say it, he would definitely not hide it.

This still made Lin Yin a little overwhelmed.

“Brother Lu Ming?” A sharp female voice sounded in their ears. Lin Yin subconsciously looked at the owner of the voice.

The woman she had slapped.

Lu Ming looked up calmly. When he saw Meng Wan, his eyes were filled with impatience and disgust.

However, Meng Wan did not care about any of this. She sat down on the picnic cloth and said happily, “Brother Lu Ming, what a coincidence. You’re here too!”

Lu Ming looked at Lin Yin beside him and said, “Meng Wan, you’re not welcome here. Please leave!”

Meng Wan was a little embarrassed, but she still said with a smile, “Brother Lu Ming, you’re still the same as before, you like to joke so much. I know you don’t treat me as an outsider, so you’re a little more casual with your words. But it’s okay. After all, I’ve been with you for so long and know what you really think.

Don’t worry, I won’t be angry.”

Lin Yin pursed her lips and lowered her eyes to laugh.

This Meng Wan was quite interesting. She knew how to give herself a way out. She was also very skilled.

Normal people would not be so thick-skinned.

At this moment, Meng Wan’s gaze turned sharply to Lin Yin and she said sarcastically, “I thought that high school students nowadays should be very focused on their studies. I didn’t expect them to spend time playing with others. It seems that studies are still not as important as their future life in riches.”

Meng Wan's words did not anger Lin Yin. Instead, Lu Ming's expression instantly changed.

Now that he had yet to woo Lin Yin, Meng Wan came out to cause trouble and even said that Lin Yin was clinging to him.

Lu Ming waved at someone not far away and said, "Meng Wan, don't be shameless."

Meng Wan did not expect Lu Ming's words to be so unpleasant. Just as she was about to retort, she was picked up.

Meng Wan exclaimed and questioned loudly, "Brother Lu Ming, what do you mean? I came over to greet you out of kindness, and you're treating me like this? Our families are in-laws. Isn't it inappropriate for you to do this?"

Lu Ming could not be bothered to waste his breath on Meng Wan. Instead, he took out some alcohol and sprayed it ruthlessly on the spot where Meng Wan had just sat. "Dirty things can easily bring germs. It has to be disinfected." Lin Yin laughed.

In the past, she had thought that Lu Ming was the kind of silent and cold President. Now that she had interacted with him, she suddenly realized that Lu Ming was a sharp-tongued President.

Lin Yin's laughter provoked Meng Wan. She looked at Lin Yin angrily and questioned, "You're just a bad student. Are you worthy of laughing at me?" Lu Ming said to Shen Yu, "Someone with a dirty mouth needs to be taught a lesson.. "

Chapter 280: Stocks Soar

Shen Yu nodded in understanding. Then, with a wave of his hand, the bodyguards carried Meng Wan away.

Meng Wan shouted, "Lu Ming! My sister is your sister-in-law! You have to be polite to me! You... Ah!!!"

A few crisp slaps replaced Meng Wan's clamor.

Then, the few of them dragged Meng Wan away.

"She's a girl after all. Can't you be gentler? Aren't you afraid that your sister-in-law will find trouble with you?" Lin Yin smiled as she ate the fruit Lu Ming fed her.

"If I don't be ruthless, I'm afraid she won't have the awareness to not provoke you," Lu Ming said patiently to Lin Yin.

Seeing that Lin Yin had just swallowed the fruit in her mouth, he fed her another piece.

"Why? Are you afraid that I'll attack her?" Lin Yin raised her eyebrows and asked.

Lu Ming smiled and teased, "Why do I smell sourness? Are you jealous?" Lin Yin turned her head away from Lu Ming and said stubbornly, "I'm not!"

Lu Ming looked at the awkward little girl in front of him in amusement and explained, "Yes, I'm afraid that you'll hit her. That will hurt your hand and my heart will ache."

Lu Ming's casual words of love made the corners of Lin Yin's lips curl up uncontrollably.

Seeing the smile on the girl's lips, Lu Ming was in a good mood.

At this moment, Lin Yin received Mu Heng's message: Yinyin, the acquisition of these three companies have been completed. The shares have all soared just now.

Lin Yin looked up at the blue sky and felt even more relaxed.

Then, she turned around and got someone to spread the news to Chu Ning, who was still in prison.

When Chu Ning heard this, she went crazy. She slapped the iron door with her fingerless hand and shouted, "I knew it. These three stocks will definitely rise. Didn't they rise now? Let me out. I'm not lying. The stocks really rose. I'm not lying. I'm not a fraud."

The cellmate beside him said coldly, "Your crime is illegal private fund-raising.

No matter how much the stock price rises, you won't be able to get out!"

Chu Ning turned around and stared fiercely at her cellmates. Her eyes were filled with madness as she roared, "You're talking nonsense! As long as the stock price rises, I'll still be the goddess of the stock market. Those people will save me. I can earn a lot of money."

Seeing his cellmate sneer in disdain, Chu Ning's eyes darkened. She rushed forward to suppress her cellmate and shouted hysterically, "I'm the goddess of the stock market! I have the heavenly secrets given to me by Master Bai Tong!

I'll get out! I'll get out!"

The cellmate did not indulge Chu Ning. She turned around and pressed Chu Ning to the ground. She slapped her a few times fiercely, her sharp nails fiercely gouging the skin on Chu Ning's face. Her mouth was filled with obscenities. "Damn it, you stupid bitch, you dare to hit me. I'll definitely tear your cheap face apart!"

Lin Yin had no idea about this. She only knew that after these shares soared and were sold, the Su Family's good days would come to an end.

When Lu Ming sent Lin Yin home, Su Lin suddenly jumped out and said sarcastically to Lin Yin, "Lin Yin, the land in the old airport has risen, and it's still rising. The rumor you mentioned previously is fake!"

Lin Yin looked up at the living room. The family looked at her with mockery and sarcasm.

Especially Su Fei. She was waiting to see Lin Yin make a fool of herself. Lin Yin said unhurriedly, "Is that so? Then congratulations. You can lose less money."

Su Zhen, who was also sizing up Lin Yin, instantly looked gloomy when he heard Lin Yin's words.

After all, the 1.2 billion yuan had been spent. It was not easy to earn it back.

Su Zhen said to Su Lin in a low voice, "Alright, if you have time, you should think about how to maximize the benefits of this land and earn back the difference of 400 million."

With that, Su Zhen turned around and went upstairs to the study.

Initially, Su Lin wanted to show off in front of Lin Yin, but he did not expect Lin Yin to retort.

Su Lin also felt embarrassed. He snorted at Lin Yin and went upstairs.

Only Lin Yin was left in the huge living room.

Aunt Li hurriedly went forward and asked, "Miss, you haven't eaten dinner, right? I'll make some for you. What do you want to eat?"

Lin Yin shook her head and said, "No need. I ate outside."

As long as she went out with Lu Ming, Lin Yin could forget about skipping dinner. Lu Ming would never let her come back before she finished eating..
