

Real Daughter 31

Chapter 31: Call the Doctor

With him participating, it would be even more exciting. After all, the cold and arrogant boy in the back row did not differentiate between men and women when he fought.

However, he only glanced at Lin Yin and continued to sleep. This disappointed the surrounding students.

The wails in the classroom were endless. What a weak young master. If he didn't have the ability to fight, he shouldn't provoke her.

Lin Yin rubbed her ears and regretted hitting him. Her ears were suffering too much.

However, his wailing finally had an effect. Teacher Feng was called over by his howling.

When Teacher Feng arrived, he was shocked by the scene and quickly sent two students to invite the doctor from the infirmary.

"Who hit Student Hong Yi?!" Teacher Feng was scared to death. He could not afford to offend the young master of the Hong Family, and they had hit him so hard. How was he going to explain this to his family?

Lin Yin looked at Teacher Feng and chuckled. No wonder it looked familiar. It turned out that in her previous life, she had also elbowed Teacher Feng the same way when she was harassed by him.

Now that she saw him being frightened by someone else's injuries, Lin Yin felt amused.

"Teacher, it was Lin Yin." A student answered his question.

Teacher Feng heaved a sigh of relief. He was not a good teacher, but he was good at socializing. Although Lin Yin was a new student, he knew her parents' levels very well.

The Su Family was far superior to the Hong Family. Although this incident was caused by Lin Yin, it was also because of Lin Yin that this matter was easy to resolve.

As long as Su Zhen came and suppressed the Hong Family, they would definitely not dare to pursue the matter.

Lin Yin looked at the group of people in front of her. If they hadn't brazenly bullied her, she really didn't want to attack. The doctor wasn't here yet, and Hong Yi was still looking at his blood in panic. He had never been so embarrassed.

Lin Yin stepped over the messy books on the ground, and Hong Yi subconsciously dodged back.

"Were you happy just now?" Lin Yin said coldly.

"Is your way of entertainment to slander others for no reason? I want to try too." Lin Yin smiled. "I'll play your current miserable state in the classroom every day for fun. Are you willing?"

Hong Yi's eyes were filled with fear. She could really do this.

"Don't badmouth others. You won't be let off so easily the next time." Lin Yin stared at him without blinking. "Now, you have to apologize to me."

The surrounding students were in an uproar. He was already injured, yet he had to apologize?

A female classmate who had participated in the slander just now spoke up for Hong Yi. "You've already beaten him up like this, and he still has to apologize? You should be the one apologizing!"

She did not need to turn around to know that the girl who spoke was Jiang Qi. She was not an easy person to deal with in West Axis Academy. If anything happened in class or school, she had to interfere.

"Besides, what we said isn't bad. Is that all you can take?"

Ha, she had already started a rumor that she had gone to sell her body. Wasn't it bad enough? Didn't this group of people think that they were going overboard? Lin Yin didn't say anything and glanced at her. Lin Yin's gaze scared Jiang Qi speechless.

With so many people watching, Jiang Qi did not want to be embarrassed. She calmed herself down and said, "We weren't wrong to begin with. You came from the slums. Women from the slums will come out to sell themselves!"

Lin Yin didn't say anything. She looked at her and smiled. The next second, they heard a loud slap. Lin Yin slapped Jiang Qi's face, stunning them all again.

Teacher Feng wiped his sweat. He had to admire himself for being sensible. If he had not let them go yesterday, he did not know what kind of miserable state he would have been in.

"There's no justice, there's no justice!" Teacher Feng hurriedly dispersed the crowd and pulled Lin Yin and Jiang Qi away. "Call your parents over!"

Just as the classroom was in chaos, the doctor from the infirmary arrived. The crowd automatically parted to make a path for the doctor to bring Hong Yi away.

Jiang Qi touched her burning face and four finger marks appeared on it. Lin Yin was so ruthless. She was indignant, but she didn't dare to offend her again. She stared at Lin Yin with tears in her eyes.

"Is there anything else you want to say?" Lin Yin smiled as she looked at them. "If you miss today, you won't have a chance."

"Lin Yin, don't go overboard." Teacher Feng put on the airs of a teacher and tried to suppress Lin Yin.

"When they were saying those words, why didn't you say that they were going too far? They should have learned their lesson long ago for maliciously talking about others for no reason." Lin Yin was neither fast nor slow as she pointed at the surveillance camera in the corner.

“What they said and did is all here. Investigate more. There might be other surprises.” Lin Yin looked at Teacher Feng with an ambiguous smile.

Chapter 32: Properly Dealt With

Teacher Feng knew who he had harassed this month and it could be told from the surveillance footage. Coupled with the fact that Lin Yin had something on him, he immediately fell silent.

“Stop fooling around! Call your parents!” Lin Yin’s eyes made him feel like he had been seen through. After saying that, he rushed out of the classroom.

Lin Yin watched as he fled. The smile on her lips disappeared. After he disappeared around the corner, Lin Yin returned to her seat and sat down. Someone was already tidying up the classroom. The ground was a mess.

This school was already foul enough. This hypocrite was really a beast. The more she looked at him, the more she disliked him.

The classroom gradually quietened down. Gong Ze, who was sitting in the last row, seemed to have woken up. He stretched and held his head with his right hand as he looked at Lin Yin.

The sunlight shone in and Lin Yin’s side profile was gilded. She seemed to be glowing.

The infirmary was noisy. Hong Yi’s mother had already rushed over after hearing the news. Hong Yi’s injuries were not very serious. After wiping away the blood, his tongue was grazed and his chin was bruised.

Mrs. Hong’s expression was dark, but she still had to act like a rich lady. Although her heart ached, she could not flare up. She tried her best to suppress her anger and her face was red. She ignored the doctor’s words and did not speak.

“Ouch, it hurts too much.” Seeing that his mother was here, Hong Yi seemed to have found someone to rely on and cried out in pain.

“Who was so ruthless?” Seeing Hong Yi in such a miserable state, Mrs. Hong’s anger rose.

“Where’s the form teacher? Call the person who hit him over and apologize to my child!”

When Mrs. Hong saw Teacher Feng in the crowd, she was furious. Teacher Feng could not afford to offend this parent who was still in a fit of anger. He smiled apologetically and said tactfully, “The other party’s parent is already on the way. I informed him immediately. We’ll deal with it properly.”

Of course, Su Zhen would not appear for such a small matter. He hung up the school phone and called Chu Yun.

When Chu Yun heard that it was about Lin Yin, she immediately hung up. She didn’t want to stand up for her at all.

Su Zhen looked unhappy, but when he thought of the unhappiness in the morning, he decided to put it aside for now. It was just a fight, there was no need to mobilize so many people.

After a while, the school called again. The secretary looked at the phone with a troubled expression, not knowing if she should pick up.

Su Zhen waved his hand impatiently and casually flipped open the document that the secretary had just arranged. A business card fell out. It was the business card of the old tycoon. Su Zhen picked it up and looked at it for a moment before suddenly changing his mind. He gestured for the secretary to answer the call and said that he would be there soon.

Ever since Lin Yin came to the Su Family, she had been troubling him. He wanted to see what trouble Lin Yin could cause in school. If she continued to annoy him like this, he would send her to the old tycoon as soon as possible to resolve the company’s financial problem.

Jiang Qi’s parents also came over. Seeing the handprint on his daughter’s face, Supervisor Jiang looked anxious. He was just a small supervisor. His entire family had spent all their money to send his daughter to West Axis Academy. He did not expect his daughter to be so worrisome and cause trouble for him repeatedly.

When he saw Mrs. Hong, he nodded and bowed politely. Before he could figure out what had happened, it was not wrong to apologize first. Unexpectedly, Mrs. Hong raised her hand and slapped him. "Was it you guys that hit my child?!"

Madam Hong was so overbearing that Supervisor Jiang was stunned.

He thought that his daughter did something wrong and continued to bow and apologize. Jiang Qi immediately felt that her father had embarrassed her and made her unable to raise her head in school.

The surrounding students burst into laughter. They did not expect that Jiang Qi, who usually looked like a big sister, would have a much more cowardly parent than her.

Jiang Qi knew very well that this school was filled with people who bullied the weak and feared the strong. Her family background was too ordinary, so she could only use rudeness as a disguise to pretend to be a big sister who was not to be trifled with. However, at this moment, her disguise was shattered.

She was ashamed and angry. She pushed him away in a panic and wanted to run out. Unexpectedly, just as she turned around, she was pushed back by Lin Yin.

"Mrs. Hong, it's not this parent. His child was also beaten up..." Teacher Feng said awkwardly.

Teacher Feng had an uncomfortable fake smile on his face. When he saw Lin Yin enter, he was anxious to be free. He immediately pointed at Lin Yin and said, "This student accidentally hit Student Hong and Student Jiang."

Mrs. Hong didn't apologize to Supervisor Jiang and immediately turned to Lin Yin. When she saw that she was a girl, she was stunned for a moment. How could a girl beat her child up like this?

Chapter 33: It's Not Worth It

"You ill-bred girl, apologize to my child!" Mrs. Hong became arrogant again.

“I have no upbringing when I hit someone, but your son spoke about prostitution and body-selling. Is that your upbringing?” Lin Yin replied coldly. “Didn’t you ask him why I hit him?”

“You! You’re shameless! How could my son say such things?!” Mrs. Hong was furious. She glanced at Hong Yi. Her son was still young. How could he say such things? This must be slander!

“You know how to lie and ruin my son’s reputation at such a young age. I’ll beat you to death!”

Mrs. Hong, who had always been rough, felt a little smug when she met a parent like Supervisor Jiang. She almost forgot which school she was in.

As soon as Mrs. Hong finished speaking, Su Zhen’s deep and powerful voice came from the entrance of the infirmary. “Who are you going to beat to death?”

When everyone saw Su Zhen enter, Supervisor Jiang and Madam Hong were stunned. Mrs. Hong’s words of “I’ll beat you to death” fell into Su Zhen’s ears.

Half of Mrs. Hong’s anger dissipated. She glared at her son, who her heart ached for just now.

Their family had business dealings with the Su Family, but fortunately, Su Zhen did not know her. After all, Hong Yi’s father was the one who went to discuss business and did not bring her along.

Without the support of the Su Family, it would be difficult for the Hong Family’s business to advance. It was fine if they were beaten up by someone, but why did they have to be beaten up by the Su Family’s daughter?

Overwhelmed by shame and anger, Mrs. Hong was speechless and did not know what to do.

Supervisor Jiang was the first to react. He nodded at Su Zhen and even wanted to hand him a cigarette. He touched the cigarette in his pocket and realized that it was not of quality, so he could only continue to bow awkwardly.

Although he had never seen Su Zhen before, Su Zhen was a famous figure with a powerful background and was a frequent guest on various financial programs. Supervisor Jiang immediately treated him warmly and had even thought of an apology in his heart.

“She said she wanted to beat me to death. Beat me to death.” Supervisor Jiang smiled apologetically. Jiang Qi’s expression became even uglier. The surrounding students still wanted to laugh, but they could only hold it in and not dare to make a sound.

Su Zhen frowned slightly. There were so many people in the infirmary and he felt a little uncomfortable. Teacher Feng had already realized that it was inappropriate to have too many students and quickly waved his hand to chase them away. “Go back. Go back to class and study. Stop looking!”

They still wanted to see what else was going to happen, but they could only leave obediently. After walking a few meters away, they couldn’t help but start discussing. “Wow, this is the first time I’ve seen someone call a parent like this. Amazing. Look at Jiang Qi’s expression. Let’s see if she’s still haughty in the future.”

“I thought Hong Yi was someone amazing. He’s just so-so. Let’s see who’s still afraid of him in the future!”

“Amazing! I’ve never seen such a scene!”

Su Zhen greeted Supervisor Jiang and Mrs. Hong before looking at Teacher Feng. Teacher Feng quickly said, “President Su, Miss Lin Yin beat them up today because... because...”

After waiting for a long time, this great Buddha finally arrived. Teacher Feng’s forehead was covered in sweat. He stopped talking halfway. He was also a little confused. He did not understand why they fought.”

“Lin Yin, apologize.” Before he could organize his words, Su Zhen gave Lin Yin an order. In his opinion, this small matter had already seriously occupied his time. If Lin Yin apologized, it would end sooner.

“No need, no need. It’s a small matter. A child’s joke!” Supervisor Jiang quickly apologized. “Jiang Qi, apologize to her quickly!”

Jiang Qi straightened her neck and did not say anything. She knew that she had been utterly embarrassed. Her father might as well not say anything. Making his presence known would only embarrass her even more.

“Apologize? You’re asking me to apologize without asking anything?” Lin Yin didn’t want to give in at all.

“If you don’t want to apologize, don’t hit people in the future.” Su Zhen frowned. He knew that his daughter was stubborn.

“I’ve never hit someone for no reason. They made up rumors about me in front of me. If I didn’t hit them, the Su Family would have been branded as prostitutes. I can’t refute or hit them when they say that. Is this how the Su Family should be?”

“They humiliated and slandered me. Should I hide in the corner and not say a word? I’ve never suffered such grievances in the slums. Now that I’m at the Su Family, I should suffer silently?”

If she wanted him to care, she could only drag the entire Su Family down with her. Su Zhen’s expression became even uglier.

Chapter 34: Surrounded Again

“You really said that?”

Supervisor Jiang’s face turned pale. He immediately slapped his daughter. Jiang Qi was caught off guard and got slapped again. Supervisor Jiang had long been unable to control Jiang Qi. This was the first time he had slapped her.

Because she had offended Su Zhen, Mrs. Hong, who had been silent all this time, also spoke up when she saw her son not daring to look up. “Hong Yi, apologize to Miss Lin Yin!”

A smile appeared on Lin Yin's lips, half mocking and half helpless.

In her previous life, she had endured everything. In the face of their bullying and insults, she rarely resisted. In order to please Chu Yun and make him accept her, she had suffered too much.

It was not worth it for a mother who did not love her at all.

After everyone saw Su Zhen, their anger dissipated.

In terms of hierarchy, they would not be able to reach Su Zhen's level even if they climbed up three or four floors. Even if their child was reasonable, they could only suffer in silence, let alone the fact that they were the ones in the wrong.

After settling this matter, Su Zhen warned Lin Yin with his eyes and left the school.

Lin Yin returned to the classroom without a care. This time, the way her classmates looked at her changed.

It went from mockery and contempt to admiration and envy.

They had thought that although she was the biological daughter of the Su Family, she had lived in the slums for many years and had no feelings for the Su Family, but Su Zhen had personally appeared.

Chu Yun was usually the one asking about Su Fei's matters. They had never seen Su Zhen come before, so the difference was obvious now. Indeed, biological and adopted children would be treated differently.

This matter quickly spread throughout the school from Lin Yin's class.

Standing by the classroom window, Su Fei watched as Su Zhen's car left the school, her heart filled with disappointment. Lin Yin had caused trouble at school, and Su Zhen had rushed over to help her settle it!

This Lin Yin was indeed skilled! She snatched away Daddy's love!

Shi Dai had a lot of resentment towards Su Fei, but when she saw how unhappy Su Fei was, her heart softened. This time, when she heard that Su Zhen came personally, her anger rose to another level.

If this continued, she did not know how much she would be bullied!

She could hear the class starting to talk about her. Su Fei wiped her tears and leaned on the table. When Shi Dai saw her like this, she was even angrier.

"I'm going to teach her a lesson today!" Shi Dai called Ji Yun over. "Wait after school. I'll get someone to surround her. I don't believe that Uncle Su will make two trips to school today because of her!"

To Su Fei, this was indeed a good idea. Lin Yin fought twice a day. How could such a troublesome daughter compare to an obedient child like her? When the time came, her parents would definitely favor her more!

Although Su Fei was thinking this, she acted like she cared for Lin Yin. "Don't cause trouble for Sister Lin Yin. What if she's injured?"

"Can you have some backbone? You've already been bullied by her to this extent, yet you're still speaking up for her!" Ji Yun said indignantly, "You're just too kind. You're thinking for her, but she's not thinking for you. When she takes everything from the Su Family, it'll be too late for you to cry!"

In their hearts, Su Fei was a kind, cute and innocent girl. Without their help, she wouldn't be able to survive.

Su Fei still wanted to argue, but they did not allow her to. They started to contact people they knew and prepared to surround Lin Yin after school. A subtle slyness flashed in Su Fei's eyes.

Soon, it was time for school to end.

Lin Yin realized that a few boys had been following her from a distance. She didn't need to think to know that they were definitely the people that Shi Dai had found. She had used such a method in her previous life and there was nothing new.

Sure enough, not long after they left, Shi Dai appeared. She stood in front of Lin Yin.

"What's the matter?" Lin Yin felt disgusted when she saw her. This gun was rushing over again.

"We haven't settled our scores from last time. You embarrassed me on the Internet. I won't let it go!" Shi Dai was exasperated at the mention of this.

She had already given Shi Dai enough respect by settling the matter that way the last time, but she still didn't know how to restrain herself.

"So?" Lin Yin asked coldly. "What do you want? Hurry up. I'm in a hurry."

Lin Yin's attitude angered Shi Dai. She clapped her hands and the seven to eight boys who had been following Lin Yin immediately surrounded her.

"Just these few people?" Lin Yin's eyes were filled with disdain.

"It's her. Hit her!" Shi Dai was arrogant and gave them orders.

Chapter 35: An Eye for an Eye

Lin Yin didn't say anything. She raised her leg and kicked the leader's chin. She even kicked his stomach. He was caught off guard and fell to the ground, holding his stomach and crying out.

The others felt a little uncertain. Lin Yin did not hold back at all. A boy behind her wanted to launch a sneak attack from behind. Lin Yin turned around and spun, kicking him. The boy covered his leg and took two steps back, beads of sweat dripping down.

Even the two of them did not gain anything. They were a little hesitant and did not dare to attack Lin Yin.

“What are you waiting for? Fight!” Shi Dai was a little anxious. They were a bunch of cowards. They had taken the money and were still dawdling. She wished she could go forward and push them.

However, just as she finished speaking, Lin Yin rushed out of the crowd.

After hearing about Lin Yin’s results today, it would be a lie to say that she was not afraid of her. In her shock, Shi Dai turned around and ran, but Lin Yin grabbed her collar tightly.

“Do you have anything else to say? Do you still want to fight?” Lin Yin didn’t want to argue with them. She just wanted to teach them a lesson.

Unexpectedly, Shi Dai took out a penknife from her pocket and stabbed at Lin Yin without any hesitation. Lin Yin let go in time, but it still left a shallow wound.

She snorted and kicked Shi Dai over.

In front of everyone, Shi Dai fell to the ground. The penknife fell to the ground. Lin Yin picked it up and slowly approached her face.

Shi Dai was shocked and hurriedly crawled out. She did not want a wound on her face.

“I like fairness the most. If you cut me, I should cut you too.” Lin Yin’s cold gaze filled Shi Dai with fear. She knew that Lin Yin could really do it.

Ji Yun and Su Fei, who were hiding in the dark, finally couldn’t hide anymore and hurriedly came out to stop her.

“Sister, what are you doing?” Su Fei was confused and frightened. “What happened between you two is in the past. Let Dai’er go. Dad will be angry if you hurt her!”

“I apologize on behalf of Dai’er. Sister Lin Yin...”

In her previous life, Lin Yin’s face had been cut by someone. Her face had a long trail of blood as she lay in the alley in despair. No one noticed her for the entire afternoon.

In the end, an old man who was scavenging discovered Lin Yin and hurriedly called the police to save her from the dilapidated alley and send her to the hospital.

From the beginning to the end, Chu Yun and Su Zhen didn’t even go to the hospital to visit her. Lin Yin still remembered that Chu Yun had shouted at her on the phone, saying that she didn’t know how to behave herself and that she was like this because she had provoked someone shady. She deserved to be injured. Her attitude was so firm that she didn’t even let Lin Yin speak. Then, she hung up impatiently.

They knew, but they did not care.

It was Su Fei who arrived at the hospital in time. Her heart ached as she wiped her tears. She even said that she had a fight with her parents before she could go out. She also said that she would protect her well in the future and not let anyone hurt her.

Seeing that she was crying sadly, Lin Yin even got up and patted her back, telling her not to worry too much.

As soon as she was discharged from the hospital, Su Fei gave her a scar cream. She said that she had asked someone to bring it back from overseas. It was worth a few hundred dollars. As long as she applied it for a while, the scar on her face would disappear. It was impossible to tell that she had been injured. All the foreign celebrities used it.

Lin Yin had used it for more than half a year, but the scar did not improve at all. It was even severely red and swollen, like an ugly worm crawling on her face.

Su Fei said that a girl could not have a scar on her face and found a doctor to take a look at her. The doctor said that she was weak and needed to be nourished. He prescribed nutritional supplements for her to eat.

It was these “nutrition supplements” that were slowly eating away at her life.

Lin Yin smiled and waved the penknife in her hand. “An apology is useless. You should return what you owe me.”

Ignoring Shi Dai’s scream, Lin Yin grabbed her hand and cut her in the same spot. Shi Dai instantly screamed in pain. Lin Yin threw the knife at her after cutting her. “Are you going to continue?”

Shi Dai screamed and looked at her hand. She had never been hurt like this by anyone. Ji Yun and Su Fei helped her up, but Shi Dai was still crying and threatening to teach Lin Yin a lesson.

Lin Yin wiped the blood with her hand and looked back at them. She said calmly, “Get lost while I don’t want to argue with you.”

“Sister Lin Yin, how can you hurt Dai’er? Mom and Dad will be angry if they find out! Hurry up and apologize to Dai’er. Don’t do this again.”

Su Fei persuaded her with tears in her eyes. At the same time, her gaze landed on the back of Lin Yin’s injured hand. “Does your injury hurt? Don’t be so rash next time...”

Chapter 36: Dirty Thing

“Why are you still talking to this b*tch?! A wild girl from the slums! Lunatic! I won’t let this matter rest!” Ji Yun was furious and hated Lin Yin even more.

“Heh, who’s the b*tch?” Lin Yin pointed at the hooligans who had been called over. “Aren’t you the ones who asked these people to surround me?”

“No matter what tricks you have, just come at me,” Lin Yin said coldly and left them.

They all knew who had caused this.

It was Shi Dai who got someone to surround Lin Yin. Even if she was injured, she didn't dare to tell her parents. Otherwise, what she did at school would be exposed.

Lin Yin returned to the room and treated the wound briefly.

She did not know when she had become so delicate. In the past, such small injuries were common and she had never specially tended to them.

"Is Sister Lin Yin here?" Su Fei's voice sounded from outside the door. "Sister, let me in for a while."

When she opened the door, she saw Su Fei holding an exquisite tray. In the middle was a bowl of stewed bird's nest porridge. It was exquisite and cute. It was obvious that it was a food that girls liked.

When Su Fei saw Lin Yin, she smiled gently and said, "Sister, eat some bird's nest porridge to nourish yourself. My heart aches for the wound on your hand. Does it still hurt?"

"Thank you. You should keep it for yourself." Lin Yin smiled back at her. "You were frightened today too. You need it more than I do."

Su Fei was stunned for a moment before she quickly regained her smile. "I apologize on behalf of Dai'er. Please accept my kindness."

Lin Yin waved her hand and gestured for Su Fei to come in. Su Fei was secretly delighted and quickly entered the room to place the bird's nest porridge on the table.

Lin Yin's eyes were filled with smiles. She picked up the bird's nest porridge and placed it by her mouth. She smelled it and praised in surprise, "It smells so good. I've never drunk such good stuff."

The next second, she grabbed Su Fei's chin and poured it into her mouth.

Lin Yin was a head taller than Su Fei, and Su Fei couldn't dodge in time. The bird's nest porridge was poured into her mouth in the blink of an eye.

Su Fei immediately dug the back of her throat and was about to vomit. She had tears and snot from the digging, but she only vomited out a little.

"Ahem..." Su Fei looked at Lin Yin in shock, she was still retching.

"What's wrong, my good sister?" Lin Yin let go of the empty bowl. It shattered on the floor and the sound made Su Fei jump.

Looking at Su Fei's frightened eyes, Lin Yin's red lips parted slightly. She asked curiously, "Is there anything dirty in this porridge?"

"Ahem..." Su Fei steadied her breathing and replied with difficulty, "I gave this to Sister. How can you treat me like this?"

"I'm sorry. I'm a crude person. I only know that this is good stuff. It's a pity for me to drink it. I just wanted to use it to show my respect to Sister. My method was a little rough. Please forgive me," Lin Yin said casually as she clapped her hands.

"Also, I'm not worthy of eating these supplements. You don't have to worry about me in the future. Otherwise, I'll have to force you to eat them every time. I'm afraid you won't be used to it." Lin Yin's eyes turned cold again, as if they were covered in a layer of ice.

Su Fei held back her tears and stumbled out of the room. She didn't want to stay here for too long. She rushed back and made a call with trembling hands.

"Dr. Yan, are you there? Is there an antidote for the medicine you gave me last time?"

Su Fei asked the doctor for the slow-acting poison. She had put twice a dose in the bowl just now. She wiped her tears and ran to the bathroom to rinse her mouth again, trying to vomit it all out.

After a while, she received a picture instruction manual from the doctor. Only by persisting in consuming it for a long time would it cause fatal damage. It would take more than a year before the medicine could be metabolized if consumed once occasionally, but it was not a big deal.

Su Fei's heart was filled with hatred. This Lin Yin didn't even eat what she had given! She was really defensive like an iron wall, leaving her with nowhere to attack!

She did not believe that she did not have any flaws!

In the room, there was still some leftover porridge in the broken bowl. Lin Yin put it in a small bag.

She asked the servants to clean up the rest. It was sprayed with disinfectant several times and cleaned with the vacuum cleaner for more than half an hour before she felt that it was clean.

Lin Yin felt disgusted at the thought of Su Fei standing there just now, pretending to give her poison.

She couldn't wait to attack? After being reborn, she still couldn't tolerate her. Even her moves were similar to the last time.

Lin Yin sat on the sofa in front of the French window and looked down. It was dark outside.

There were still dirty things hidden in the villa that she had not discovered, but the biggest dirty thing was this family.

The corners of Lin Yin's lips curled up into a mocking smile. This was the love she had once yearned for. It was really dirty.

Chapter 37: Still Trying To Make Things Difficult

Early this morning, Lin Yin did not see Su Fei. Auntie Li came over and said, "Miss has something on at school and needs to leave early. Second Miss, have breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Su."

Before she went downstairs, Lin Yin realized that the atmosphere downstairs was not right. Su Zhen and Chu Yun sat at the dining table and looked at Lin Yin gloomily.

Just half an hour ago, Su Fei had complained to them that Lin Yin had provoked the school bully yesterday and fought with them. Her actions were vulgar. She was afraid of embarrassing the Su family and went forward to persuade her. However, she was scolded by Lin Yin. She was a little worried about Lin Yin, afraid that no one would know if she was bullied in school.

Su Fei's eyes were red and teary, as if she had been horribly scolded by Lin Yin. In order to help Lin Yin cover-up, she just said that she had been scolded. After that, she pulled Chu Yun's sleeve with tears in her eyes. Chu Yun hugged her and comforted her before she left for school.

"Hurry up and get down," Chu Yun said impatiently when she saw Lin Yin.

"You're either asking me to get over here or get lost. I didn't come back to this house to be scolded." Lin Yin looked at her steadily without any panic in her eyes.

No wonder Su Fei left the house early. It seemed like she had removed herself completely after complaining. What a good plan.

In her previous life, Chu Yun had made things difficult for Lin Yin like this many times, and there was a high chance that Su Fei was not present. If she was present, she also tried her best to protect Lin Yin, causing Lin Yin to believe that Su Fei was sincerely protecting her until the end.

"Do you need me to tell you what you've done?" Chu Yun's anger only increased.

Lin Yin walked over slowly and sat at the dining table. She started eating breakfast.

"Father has already gone to deal with it. I don't think there's anything I can tell you."

Su Zhen asked, "What's with the fight with the hooligans after school?"

"I was surrounded and bullied," Lin Yin said calmly.

"If you don't provoke them, why would they bully you?" Chu Yun was so angry that her chest kept rising and falling. She did not expect that this Lin Yin would lie without even blinking.

"Don't bring the bad habits of the slums home. How many times have I told you? This is the Su Family, not your slum!"

It was no wonder. How could a child who grew up in the slums be as gentle and considerate as Su Fei?

She was already unhappy the first time she saw Lin Yin. The expression on Lin Yin's face was too stubborn and not as gentle and sensible as Su Fei's.

She had pampered Su Fei for many years. She did not believe it at all when Su Zhen suddenly said that they had brought back the wrong child back then.

When the child really came to her, she only felt disdain.

"If you don't believe me, don't ask about my matters in the future." Lin Yin looked up, her eyes cold.

"I asked you to go to school to study, not to fight. You're like a hooligan every day. We can't control you anymore!"

Chu Yun pretended to hit Lin Yin. Seeing that she was standing still, she was furious and was about to throw the bowl at her.

It was not like she had never seen such a scene before. Would she still stand there and let her hit and scold her?

Lin Yin dodged slightly and the bowl fell heavily to the ground, shattering.

“How dare you dodge!” With Su Zhen backing her up, Chu Yun would definitely hit her. Seeing that the bowl missed, Chu Yun’s face deformed.

“I didn’t come back to see you guys like this.” Lin Yin picked up the bowl beside her and threw it on the ground. “If you don’t treat me as a daughter, I won’t treat you as a mother.”

There was no emotion in Lin Yin’s eyes. They had been like this for more than a day or two. She had endured it for eight years, but now, she did not feel disappointed at all. She only felt that it was ridiculous. They had clearly ignored her, but now, they only wanted to hit and scold her.

In their hearts, it was already a great honor for her to come to this house and eat and stay with them. She should be as lowly as dust and be at the mercy of others, just like in her previous life.

She was the one who had lost the most and suffered the most, but when she returned to this house, their hearts ached that Su Fei had been robbed of her big room and Su Fei had been to share her parents’ love.

But had they ever given her love?

That big room should not have belonged to Su Fei in the first place. She had enjoyed a life of luxury for more than ten years, but does it mean it’s hers?

They would never be able to see how good she was or feel how much she had suffered. They only had Su Fei in their hearts.

As long as she cried a few times and shed a few tears, they would scold her as if they were facing a formidable enemy.

In her previous life, she had suffered a lot, but now, her heart no longer hurt. Their words and actions only made her feel ridiculous and laughable.

Chapter 38: Mom and Dad’s Favoritism

“Is there anything else you want to say? I’m going to be late.” Lin Yin got up and left. She didn’t care what they thought.

Lin Yin was not worried about offending them at all. Anyway, even if she was timid and listened to them, they would still look down on her. She might as well live for herself.

Lin Yin asked the driver to prepare the car, but the driver said to Lin Yin with a troubled expression, “Second Miss, I don’t know what happened to the car today. It was pierced with a nail and it has been sent to repair. It’s just that today...”

Needless to say, this was Su Fei’s doing again. Su Fei didn’t want her to go to school and make her late and embarrassed. Lin Yin smiled.

“Did anyone come by today?”

“Miss came by and said that she couldn’t find a driver. She asked if I could send her...”

As expected! She did not want her to live comfortably at all.

A Rolls-Royce roared past. When the car stopped at the entrance of the West Axis Academy, Lin Yin and Su Zhen got out.

Noticing them, the surrounding students discussed. One of Lin Yin’s classmates immediately recognized her. “It’s the daughter of the Su Corporation.”

“Daughter? I don’t remember her looking like this...” Some students who had never seen Lin Yin before said in confusion, “She’s not that tall...”

“You don’t know about this, do you? This is the real daughter of the Su Family. Tsk tsk, the treatment they receive is indeed different. This is the first time I’ve seen him personally send his daughter to school.”

“Blood ties are still the most reliable...”

“I’m in the same class as her. Yesterday, she beat up Hong Yi in class. It was President Su who came to support her!”

“That’s right. I just saw Su Fei. She came by herself. The adopted daughter really can’t compare to the biological daughter!”

At the side, Shi Dai gritted her teeth in anger when she saw Lin Yin. The wound on her hand was still hurting slightly. When she went back to bandage it, she still shouted that it hurt. Madam Shi’s heart ached and she asked her how she was injured. Shi Dai could only grit her teeth and say that she had accidentally cut herself.

She had thought that after Lin Yin was reprimanded by her parents early in the morning and her tires were punctured before her driver was transferred away, she would not be able to come to school. She did not expect that her father would personally send her to school. Su Fei was secretly angry. She had never received such treatment!

Su Fei was jealous and angry. She had failed to gain an advantage a few times in a row. She was afraid that Lin Yin would take her place.

Seeing that they were gone, Su Fei started to perform. She lowered her head aggrievedly and her shoulders trembled slightly. This made Ji Yun’s heart ache for her even more.

Tears streamed down Su Fei’s face. Shi Dai and Ji Yun had never seen Su Fei so sad. Shi Dai quickly comforted her. “Feifei, don’t be sad. Uncle Su still cares about you. They will know this b*tch’s true colors sooner or later.”

Su Fei sobbed and said, “Last night, I saw that my sister was injured and brought her some bird’s nest to eat. She even broke it and said that she had never seen what this was. She even asked me if I was hurting her.”

“Oh my god, Feifei, you’re just too kind-hearted to be bullied by her!” Ji Yun could not believe that Lin Yin would do such a thing to Su Fei.

“She’s really stupid and bad. She’s ignorant! She’s too hateful!”

Ji Yun patted Su Fei’s back and said, “Some people just need a beating! You can’t treat her so well next time!”

Ji Yun still wanted to defend Su Fei, so she asked anxiously, “Do your parents know?”

Su Fei was silent for a moment before continuing to sob. “It’s useless. Mom and Dad favor her now. They don’t think it’s a big deal. They even said that Sister was careless. It’s fine. After all, they’re family.”

She was too hateful. She could not let this go. Who knew what she would do after she rode on Su Fei’s head? She would teach her a lesson today!

There were several human models in the laboratory on the second floor, as well as human skeleton models. Although they knew that they were fake, the most terrifying legends in the school came from here. Students who returned late would rather take a detour than pass by here.

Ji Yun exaggerated Lin Yin’s bullying of Su Fei, making Su Fei seem even more pitiful. Su Fei’s suitors finally couldn’t sit still.

“Have you heard? Han Jiang from Class Six is prepared to stand up for Su Fei and teach that Lin Yin a lesson to destroy her prestige.”

Chapter 39: Haunted House Horror

For the entire day, the students who received the news started to whisper, “There’s going to be a show to watch again. This Han Jiang has liked Su Fei for several years. She already has a fiancé, but he still doesn’t restrain himself. He actually wants to help her vent her anger at this time.”

“Miss Su’s suitor? Him? They can’t beat Lin Yin. Don’t get into trouble again.”

“What honorable means could he have? A girl from their class was locked up in a haunted laboratory by him. She was locked up for the night and went crazy from fear the next day. Later, she quit school...”

“Yes, yes, I’ve heard of it too. How disgusting. Don’t tell me they’re going to deal with her like this...”

The entire day was calm. After school, Lin Yin walked along the way to the laboratory on the second floor.

Not far away, a few boys were guarding outside the laboratory. Ji Yun was afraid that they would fail like the people Shi Dai looked for, so she stood nervously nearby.

Before Lin Yin could reach, she noticed them. She smiled coldly and continued walking in their direction. When she reached the laboratory door, Han Jiang and a boy pushed her hard. Lin Yin was pushed into the laboratory without warning and they hurriedly locked the door.

They expected to hear Lin Yin’s terrified cry, but the laboratory was silent. There was no sound at all. The group looked at each other.

Looking through the peephole, it was also dark inside. They could not see anything.

After waiting for another ten minutes, Han Jiang pressed his ear against the door and listened. There was still no movement inside, which puzzled them. Was that person Lin Yin?

Ji Yun was getting impatient. They were so close but they still could not figure it out. These people were too useless.

“Open the door and take a look. She might have fainted from fright.” Ji Yun was about to open the door.

Ji Yun was anxious to see if Lin Yin had fainted from shock. As soon as she opened the door, she was squeezed to the front. Before Ji Yun’s eyes could adapt to the darkness in front of her, she felt a pair of hands grab her leg and she was dragged into the dark laboratory.

Han Jiang and the other male students were shocked. Did the “ghosts” in the laboratory really come out to catch them? Perhaps there really were ghosts in the laboratory. That was how the girl was scared out of her wits last time.

They closed the door and ran out in a panic. They could still hear Ji Yun’s heart-wrenching cries. It was already dark, and the building looked even more sinister.

Han Jiang stood below the laboratory and looked up to see the dark windows of the laboratory. He listened to the commotion in the laboratory and wondered if he should go back to save Ji Yun. Everything that had just happened made their hair stand on end.

Han Jiang closed his eyes and lowered his head, comforting himself that he might have been too nervous just now.

He heard a dripping sound above his head and something dripping into his hair.

He touched it with his hand. The liquid was a little sticky. He carefully opened his hand, and his palm was as red as blood. This time, they let out even more screams and fled without looking back. The matter of saving Ji Yun was also forgotten.

The laboratory was divided into several rooms. Lin Yin had started recording before she was pushed in, and their words were recorded word for word.

When Ji Yun opened the door, Lin Yin’s eyes had already adapted to the darkness of the laboratory.

She was not afraid of the dark. In the slums, there was no electricity for more than half a year. Lin Yin grew up in a dark environment. As for the mannequins in the laboratory, Lin Yin scoffed at the ghost legends.

How could someone who had died once be afraid of ghosts?

Ji Yun closed her eyes and screamed for a while. As soon as she opened her eyes, she saw the model move a few steps towards her through the big window. She was terrified and let out an even more ear-piercing scream.

Ji Yun stood up abruptly and pressed the switch crazily. Not a single light lit up.

In her despair, she remembered that they had already turned off the electric switch. No matter how she knocked on the door, there was no movement outside. Ji Yun was getting more and more afraid.

She did not see the shadow of the skeleton model just now. It was now looking at her through the glass. Ji Yun screamed and ran in another direction.

“Ah-” Ji Yun’s scream echoed on the second floor, and the terror intensified.

Su Fei and Shi Dai were waiting for news of Ji Yun’s victory in class. Unexpectedly, they received Ji Yun’s cry for help. “Help me, there’s a ghost in the laboratory!”

Chapter 40: Chased Out

Han Jiang, who ran back, was also pale. Even if Goddess Su Fei begged them to go back, the boys were unwilling to take the risk. They still had lingering fear from the scene just now.

Su Fei had no choice but to contact her form teacher, Teacher Lu. Teacher Lu and the director of the teaching department rushed to the laboratory on the second floor. When they opened the door, they saw Ji Yun, who was cowering at the door, his voice almost hoarse, and Lin Yin, who was sitting calmly in another classroom.

Ji Yun was still trembling when Su Fei and Shi Dai helped her up.

Seeing Lin Yin, Su Fei understood. The plan had failed again. Ji Yun and Han Jiang had been tricked by Lin Yin.

Su Fei still squeezed out tears and asked in surprise, "Sister Lin Yin? What's going on?"

"I was passing by and was pushed in." Lin Yin's cold gaze swept around. "Ask these people."

Teacher Lu and Director Zhang from the teaching department also looked at them in confusion.

When they saw Han Jiang, they understood.

"Director Zhang, she deliberately harmed us! She was the one who dragged Ji Yun in to threaten us!" Han Jiang tried his best to clear his name.

"Really?" Lin Yin smiled. "What else?"

"It was Lin Yin who dragged me in!" Ji Yun finally caught her breath. She took the opportunity to report her. "She locked me in and even wanted to scare me!"

It seemed like Lin Yin was trying to scare Ji Yun. Teacher Lu was a little puzzled. "Why did you drag her in?!"

"They pushed me in and scared me," Lin Yin said coldly.

Hearing Lin Yin's voice, she did not sound frightened at all. Ji Yun's face flushed red. "You're lying! You just want to kill me!"

"Besides, I don't know them well. I don't know why they're doing this." Lin Yin looked at Han Jiang. Han Jiang was frightened by her cold gaze, but he still didn't want to admit it.

"Who is it? It's not too late for you to confess now. By the time I count to one. Three, two, one—" Lin Yin's gaze stopped on her face. Her eyes were cold, making her shiver. However, Ji Yun still held on. She did not believe that Lin Yin would have evidence.

“I’ve given you guys a chance.” Lin Yin took out her phone and pressed it. The voice on the phone started when Lin Yin was pushed into the laboratory.

[Han Jiang: Won’t she be scared to death? I just want to scare her and not kill her. If Lin Yin is scared to death, it’s none of my business!]

[Ji Yun: Don’t worry, I was the one who asked you for help. The Su Family won’t take this b*tch from the slums seriously. Open the door and take a look.]

[Ji Yun: Leave her here for the night if she fainted. No one will care even if she wakes up.]

Ji Yun and Han Jiang’s expressions turned ugly. They did not expect that when they thought that Lin Yin had fainted from fear, she would actually record them behind the door, exposing their evil actions.

“You were the one who dragged me in!” Ji Yun still wanted to bite Lin Yin.

“Am I waiting for you to lock me up for the night?” Lin Yin said coldly. “This building is haunted. Everyone in school knows about it.”

Director Zhang couldn’t stand it anymore. The evidence was conclusive and she still wanted to deny it. She said, “It’s over. The recording is still there. The school will deal with it well.”

“He wants to scare me this time. The next time, he’ll want to kill someone. I hope the school can deal with him well. It’s not like their family can write off the debt just because they have money.” Lin Yin also knew that Han Jiang had done such a thing before. The Han family had helped him settle it with money. “Even if I’m from the slums, I don’t care about his stinky money.”

Her words made Director Zhang’s face turn red and pale. She had received more than 100,000 yuan from the girl’s scare last time before she tried her best to settle that matter. Lin Yin was simply slapping her face.

Director Zhang smiled apologetically and called their parents. Although she apologized to Chu Yun on the phone and said that Lin Yin had been bullied in school and hung up, Chu Yun was still furious.

“Why is there something happening every day? Feifei has been in school for more than ten years, but this has never happened! What about her? She’s only been in school for a few days!”

“Why did you have to bring her back? Ever since she entered this house, has our house ever been peaceful?!” Chu Yun said fiercely. She felt that it was all because Lin Yin was too good at causing trouble. Even if Lin Yin suffered, her heart wouldn’t ache at all.

Su Zhen’s expression turned even uglier when he heard her words. Ever since Lin Yin came to the Su Family, the house had been in chaos and he had not been at ease once.

Recalling the business card that he had put away, Su Zhen seemed to have made up his mind. He picked up his phone and dialed the number from memory.
