

WHO IS THE REAL DAUGHTER: MISS LIN TAKES NO NONSENSE AFTER HER REBIRTH

Chapter 7: Ill-bred Thing

Chu Yun's words were sharp and harsh, making Aunt Li freeze on the spot. However, Lin Yin still had a relaxed smile on her face, as if she didn't hear her.

Seeing that Lin Yin had no intention of moving, Chu Yun was very frustrated. Just as she was about to say something, the source of her annoyance suddenly rushed towards her. Before she could react, Lin Yin grabbed her wrist.

"I was given birth to by Madam. Does Madam mean that such a big germ fell from Madam's body? In that case, why don't you wash yourself? After all, you're much dirtier than me."

Lin Yin chuckled and answered with ease, but her eyes were cold and ruthless. She was so fierce that it made one feel uncomfortable.

She forgot to struggle.

"You ill-bred thing! Let go of me!" Chu Yun shook off Lin Yin's hand.

Lin Yin followed her words and said even more harshly, "Does Madam really despise me so much? Then why did you bring me here?"

Su Fei's eyes widened. She was shocked but also secretly happy. Lin Yin dared to anger her mother the moment she arrived. As long as she behaved well, her mother's heart would definitely be with her.

Lin Yin was indeed forcefully brought over by the Su Family and was prepared to be presented to an old tycoon. Su Zhen had also repeatedly instructed her to be polite to Lin Yin. A child who grew up in the slums could not compare to a pampered child.

Chu Yun knew that she was in the wrong. Her almond-shaped eyes widened as she suppressed her anger.

Seeing this, Nanny Li quickly helped her out. "Miss Lin Yin, Madam doesn't mean anything else. She's doing this for your own good. Madam often nags at Miss Su Fei like this. You just have to get used to it."

Su Fei adjusted her expression and smiled sweetly. She was still so understanding as she said, "How can Sister Lin Yin have bacteria on her body? Mom is joking with you. You don't have to take it seriously."

She turned around and said to Chu Yun coquettishly, "Mom, stop joking with Sister. She's frightened."

Lin Yin sighed in her heart. If this was the first time she met her today, she would definitely be touched.

"Okay, my good daughter has really grown up. I'll listen to you." Chu Yun stroked her hair dotingly. When she turned to face Lin Yin, her tone was still cold and hard. "Follow your sister to see your new room later."

As she spoke, footsteps came from behind Lin Yin, it was steady and strong.

It was a cold and serious middle-aged man. He was the master of the Su Family, Lin Yin's biological father, Su Zhen.

"Lin Yin is here," Su Zhen said. "Listen to your sister more in the future. She's smart and sensible. Change your bad habits."

The moment she saw Su Zhen, Lin Yin hated him to the core again. The scene of the wedding was still vivid in her mind. Lin Yin clenched her fists tightly to stop herself from trembling.

No matter how bad Su Fei was, she was an unrelated stranger to her, and Su Zhen was her biological father. In the end, this couple was extremely gentle to Su Fei, who they were not related to by blood, but cold and heartless to her.

Su Fei looked like an obedient little girl. She held Chu Yun and Su Zhen's arms familiarly and introduced them happily to Lin Yin. "Sister, this is Dad and this is Mom. From now on, our family can live happily together!"

Lin Yin knew in her heart that only the three of them could be considered a family. She was just an outsider.

An outsider that Su Zhen was using to send to get married to a rich businessman. If she could not be used, they would never have brought her back.

Lin Yin knew her true position in this family. She wasn't here to be their family this time.

Revenge was her only goal.

Lin Yin clenched her fists and restrained her surging hatred.

After Su Fei introduced her family to Lin Yin, she said briskly, "Then I'll bring my sister to see the room!" Then, she pulled Lin Yin upstairs.

"Be careful. This child is really happy." Chu Yun smiled.

“When you come to this house, you have to know your place. Take good care of your sister in the future.” Su Zhen’s order came from behind. He had always been like this.

Eighteen years of absence had not only changed family ties, but also her situation. Even if they had the same blood, it could not change her fate of being ostracized.
